

My Disciples 241

Chapter 241 Who is it not easy to pick Xiao Hei?

Jian Chaomian is only interested in one thing.

That is the sword in your hand.

For him, swordsmanship is everything to him.

Since he can remember, he has been holding a sword in his arms.

Never leave the body.

This is also the reason why Jian Chaomian's kendo state can be improved so quickly.

If it wasn't for Ye Qiubai's birth.

I am afraid that the talent of swordsmanship has long been shining in this continent!

Unfortunately, born at an untimely time...

Jian Chaomian was not depressed by this, nor was he hit.

Looking in front of him, Ye Qiubai is stronger than him by an unknown amount.

There is no fear in the eyes!

Some are just fighting spirit!

And the sword intent soaring into the sky!

Jian Chaomian held the sword in his hand, and slashed through the void.

The sword intent, as if under the command of Jian Chaomian, turned into waves of sword energy and shot towards Ye Qiubai!

Ye Qiubai smiled slightly, watching the sword intent sweeping towards him.

Flipped the wooden sword in his hand.

The sword field is expanded!

The streaks of sword energy attacking him dissipated in mid-air at this moment!

Jian Chaomian was slightly taken aback.

Even the sword intent he released was suppressed by the sword domain!

In the sword field.

Ye Qiubai is the king of swordsmanship in this world.

This is his exclusive domain!

In this field.

Any sword cultivator will be suppressed by Ye Qiubai's kendo.

Jian Chaomian is no exception.

Immediately.

The ubiquitous sword intent in the sword field began to gather at Ye Qiubai's feet.

Slowly lift him up in mid-air.

The long river of sword intent is formed by the convergence of those sword intents!

Ye Qiubai looked down at Jian Chaomian, and said softly: "Before, it was in this way that you understood the meaning of the sword."

"Now, you experience it again and see what you can gain."

Finished speaking.

Ye Qiubai pointed the wooden sword forward in his hand, pointing in the direction of the sword facing the crown.

The long river of sword intent is also rushing towards Jian Chaomian at this moment!

Jian Chaomian looked at the rolling river of sword intent.

Hold swords in both hands.

The sword intent enveloped the sword body and began to tremble.

There was a buzzing sound!

This is the sword technique created by Jian Chaomian himself.

Can make the sword sharper!

Immediately, he slashed towards the river of sword intent!

However, the river of sword intent is so turbulent.

Among them, the sword intent of Jianzong can be said to have crushed Jian Chaomian's sword intent!

When Jian Chaomian's long sword slashed on the river of sword intent, there was no obstacle at all, and he was instantly submerged by the river of sword intent!

Watching this scene.

Everyone shook their heads.

The crowning of the sword is over.

Sure enough, Ye Qiubai's kendo realm is too advanced.

Its strength is even more able to compete with the existence of False God Realm.

Such an opponent, let alone a sword facing the crown.

Even they are not opponents!

In the long river of sword intent, Jian Chaomian's whole body was baptized by Ye Qiubai's sword intent.

The strength of Jianzong's sword intent is also far sharper than he imagined, and it is extremely thick!

Let him have no room to resist!

After a moment.

The long river of sword intent dissipated.

The figure of Jian Chaomian also appeared.

At this moment, he is holding a long sword on the competition platform, so as to prevent himself from falling to the ground.

Just this blow.

already made him unbearable.

This is the result of Ye Qiubai keeping his hand.

If he hadn't kept his hand, I'm afraid Jian Chaomian would be swept away by the river of sword intent and instantly turn into ashes!

The gap is too big...

Jian Chaomian shook his head, his eyes showing determination.

Still need to work harder.

Immediately, Jian Chaomian cupped his fists slightly at Ye Qiubai, and said, "Thank you, Brother Ye."

After finishing speaking, he saluted Yun Jing and the others above again.

Then he stepped back from the competition platform and left this place.

He needs to practice harder!

Only in this way can I touch Ye Qiubai's back!

Lin Rufeng looked at this scene, nodded slightly, and said, "Yun Jing, why don't you let him come to my Yin Jianzong?"

Yun Jing smiled and did not speak.

Dean Yan stared at him, and said, "You bastard, I'm still here, and you want to poach the corner of my Tibetan Academy?"

Lin Rufeng confronted him * for tat, and said: "This kid is a good seed who is born to practice swords, no matter in talent or character."

"It would be a waste to put it in your Tibetan Taoist Academy."

"Why don't you let me bring back the Hidden Sword Sect and let me train it myself!"

"In the future, another strong swordsman will appear on this continent."

Dean Yan rolled his eyes and said, "It seems that there is no swordsman in my Tibetan Taoist Academy."

"But in terms of sword cultivation, your Tibetan Taoist Academy is still not as good as my Hidden Sword School."

Dean Yan did not refute this point.

After all, Yinjianzong is the holy place that sword cultivators all over the world yearn for.

This is an undisputed fact.

Regarding this, Dean Yan had no choice but to say: "Then you can ask yourself when the time comes. If he is willing to join your Hidden Sword Sect, then I will not stop him."

The Tibetan Taoist Academy is, after all, a place to preach and teach.

We will not forcibly stop students from going or staying.

If Jian Chaomian is willing, it doesn't matter.

Besides, it is indeed better for Jian Chaomian to go to Yin Jianzong for his future development.

Lin Rufeng got Dean Yan's consent, and then smiled and said: "Don't worry, let that kid go to my hidden sword sect to experience it, and he may not want to come back."

"it's up to you!"

after.

The two people in the main hospital were left.

One of them chose Shi Sheng.

The other person chose Xiao Hei...

As for why no one chooses Hongying?

This is the ancient empress.

Let's not talk about strength first.

With such identities, how dare they ask a generation of ancient empresses to teach them!

As for Ning Chenxin?

It's just that they think that Ning Chenxin seems to be the weakest of the five.

Challenge Ning Chenxin's words.

It will make everyone think that they only pick soft persimmons.

This is not very good-looking.

But.

When they started to challenge, they regretted it...

The person who confronted Shisheng.

Was crushed to the ground by the Minghuangxuan ax in Shi Sheng's hand!

Didn't even use the power of the stars.

Just relying on the weight of Minghuang Xuan Axe, he crushed his opponent.

It was even worse for those who challenged Xiao Hei.

When he made a full shot.

Xiao Hei punched out.

The battle is over...

The man in the main courtyard was blown out of the competition ring by Xiao Hei's punch, and was seriously injured...

Xiao Hei even scratched his head honestly, and said weakly: "Ah... I have already controlled the strength, but I really didn't expect him to be so weak..."

The man in the general hospital was already seriously injured and half fell to the ground.

Hearing what Xiao Hei said, he was slightly taken aback.

covered his chest and spat out a mouthful of blood.

fainted to the ground...

Murderous heart...

Dean Yan also shook his head helplessly.

This guy is not good at tuning anyone.

I have to pick Xiaohei...

This is the most vicious of the five people in the Caotang.

At the beginning, he was alone, and he tore apart two sawtooth rats in the False God Realm...

Such a ferocious humanoid beast, even Dean Yan, would not dare to provoke it easily...

Chapter 242 Strong winds will rise!

The college exchange is over.

Southern Region Tibetan Taoist Academy, once again won the top spot.

Moreover, this time it won the first place with the participation of the General Academy.

This gold content is much stronger than the previous ones.

Qin Tiannan showed a smile, looking very calm.

But in fact, the heart has long been happy.

All five won.

With a crushing momentum, he defeated other colleges.

Qin Tiannan was naturally respected and wooed by more forces.

Even Dean Yan personally received Qin Tiannan afterwards.

And promised to give more resources to Nanyu Tibetan Taoist Academy.

What he was looking at was not Nanyu Tibetan Taoist Academy.

But optimistic about thatched cottage.

Qin Tiannan is naturally aware of this point.

Before Hongying left.

Li Jia and Danzong expressed that they would support the reconstruction of the Yunhuang Empire.

At the same time, they also agreed to fight the heavenly road together with the Yunhuang Empire!

This time the academy exchange.

Dean Yan invited many forces to watch.

The strength of the five disciples of the Caotang was completely exposed in this continent at this moment.

Many forces that were originally vacillating and unable to make decisions.

Also at this moment, he took a fancy to the future of thatched cottage.

Thus choosing to join the Yunhuang Empire.

Bet on the future of thatched cottage!

Undoubtedly, this made the reconstruction of the Yunhuang Empire unstoppable.

Sect Master Danzong smiled and said: "Your Majesty, please tell your master what you said earlier."

Hongying nodded.

After the alchemy sect master left, Ye Qiubai asked: "Junior Sister, you promised your junior sister, and you still want to talk to Master?"

Hongying smiled and said, "Oh, nothing."

"It's just that Danzong joined the Yunhuang Empire. In exchange, let the master go to Danzong and give them advice."

"Of course, in order to prevent the master from blaming me, I will say that it is the condition discussed by the senior brother and Danzong."

After finishing speaking, Hongying set off for the thatched cottage.

Mu Wan'er covered her mouth and snickered, "Brother Qiubai, take care."

After finishing speaking, she followed Hongying, "Sister Hongying, wait for me!"

Only Ye Qiubai with a bewildered expression was left in place.

What the hell?

Why did you sell me again?

Thinking of what kind of punishment Master will give him after learning the news.

Ye Qiubai couldn't help trembling all over.

hurriedly chased after him.

"Junior Sister! Wait a minute, you can't blame Senior Brother on me like this!"

Ning Chenxin, Xiao Hei and Shi Sheng looked at each other, smiled, and followed.

A group of people set off to return to the thatched cottage.

On the other side, the Western Regions.

The top of Foshan.

Among the Buddhist gates.

Today, two of the six old men have been killed in battle.

The remaining four old men stood in front of a hall on the top of the mountain.

"Amitabha, Lord Buddha, the four of us have important matters to discuss."

The voice fell.

Which did not respond.

Stay until a day later.

The four old men are still standing in front of the hall.

As if waiting for a response from the hall.

At this moment, a deep voice came out from the hall.

"What is it?"

One of the old men heard the response and immediately said: "Lord Buddha, Empress Yunhuang has been reincarnated and is now rebuilding the Yunhuang Empire."

"I can't stop it anymore."

The voice of Lord Buddha came out again.

"What countermeasures does the upper bound have?"

"Our connection with the upper realm was suddenly cut off a few days ago, and we couldn't contact the upper realm anyway."

"And the heart of the realm was also obtained by Empress Yunhuang."

"can not be reached?"

Lord Buddha's voice was still flat, and said: "I understand."

"You continue to pay attention to Empress Yunhuang's movements, and at the same time, recruit neutral forces that have not yet joined the Yunhuang Empire."

"I will find a way to contact the Upper Realm and inform them of the information."

"Remember, we must do our best to stop the growing size of the Yunhuang Empire."

"Otherwise, Buddhism's ten-thousand-year plan will come to naught!"

"Also, after the Buddha returns, come to me."

After speaking, Lord Buddha's voice never came out again.

As if it had never appeared before.

After the four Buddhist elders received instructions from the Lord Buddha.

also left one after another.

at this time.

In the main hall, golden light shines everywhere!

A man, wearing a golden cassock, sits cross-legged on a futon.

Under the shining golden light, its face cannot be seen clearly.

This person is the Lord Buddha.

"It seems that the great world has come..."

"Whether Buddhism can succeed depends on this step."

"For the future of Buddhism..."

The man said softly, looking at the golden Buddha in front of him.

One hand stroked to the center of the eyebrows.

Between the eyebrows, there is actually a drop of blood leaking out!

After this drop of blood seeped out.

The man's face became extremely pale!

Even the breath became sluggish.

The Lord Buddha supported his body and stretched out his finger.

Send that drop of golden blood essence to the Golden Buddha.

Essence and blood penetrated into the red dot between the eyebrows of the Golden Light Buddha.

Sudden!

Surrounding the Golden Buddha, the golden light is flourishing!

A beam of golden light formed, with the Golden Buddha as the center, rushed out of the dome!

Climbing towards the sky!

This golden beam of light quickly rushed into the sky.

But, this moment.

The golden beam of light cannot climb again.

In that day's road, the shielding formation established by Lu Changsheng.

Blocked the golden beam of light!

In the main hall, Lord Buddha's eyes were slightly dignified.

"Sure enough, someone set up a formation here, which made it impossible for the news to spread..."

"However, it is related to the future of Buddhism, we must give it a go..."

Gritting his teeth slightly.

Draw out another blood essence from between the eyebrows.

dripping into the Golden Buddha!

The aura of the golden beam of light soared!

Want to break through this shielding formation!

Around the Skyway.

There are a series of building trees to welcome out!

Completely lock that golden beam of light!

Jianmu trapped dragon formation!

Immediately, the golden beam of light continued to be squeezed.

Only a few breaths of time have passed.

This golden beam of light was crushed by Daodao Jianmu!

turned into streaks of golden light, scattered in this world.

At this time, Jianmu took it back.

The shielding formation also withdraws its power.

At this moment, the Lord Buddha in the hall is also spitting out a mouthful of blood at this moment!

Breathless.

Hastily crossed his legs on the futon, frowning tightly, suppressing the backlash in his body!

"Who is this formation?!"

"In this realm, who has the ability to arrange such a high-level formation?"

The Lord Buddha sighed softly, and said quietly: "The news cannot be spread at all. I can only hope that the forces in the upper realm can discover this abnormality earlier..."

...

At this moment, the Heavenly Spirit Realm.

In Tianlingzong.

The Great Elder has brought back the news.

After Kong Jianghan, the suzerain of Tianling Sect, learned about it.

His expression was extremely gloomy.

"It must be the formation laid by that man."

"He arranged this formation, he must have wanted to conceal some things that happened in the lower realm."

"We can't wait any longer, and things will change if we are late."

After finishing speaking, Kong Jianghan looked at the Great Elder and said, "Inform Sect Master Peng immediately and prepare for the expedition!"

The Great Elder also realized the seriousness of the situation.

Nodded, before even recovering from his injuries, he went to inform other sects!

Chapter 243 Senior, I understand!

Sure enough, after returning to the thatched cottage.

Hongying took the lead in telling Lu Changsheng the whole story.

And pointed everything at Ye Qiubai.

That's right...

Ye Qiubai took the blame for his junior sister again and again... once again.

I saw Ye Qiubai being scolded by Lu Changsheng for a whole day by pointing at his nose.

In the whole paragraph, there is no dirty word.

All the words are not repeated.

Let's just talk about how much resentment Lu Changsheng has towards Ye Qiubai.

certainly.

Ye Qiubai naturally couldn't escape the fate of being punished.

some time after.

Ye Qiubai and the five are all practicing in seclusion to consolidate their realm.

At the same time, Ye Qiubai's realm broke through to the middle stage of Qianyuan realm.

The breakthrough of the Sword Sutra of Taichu had already improved his realm.

Breaking through the middle stage of the Qianyuan Realm now is nothing more than a matter of course.

the other side.

Shi Sheng was guided by the power of the stars, and his cultivation speed was extremely fast, and he also reached the half-step False God.

At the same time, after being baptized by the power of the stars, Shi Sheng's talent has also changed from S-level to SS-level.

The cultivation task given by the system.

It is only the last two steps.

Requirements: talent reaches SSS level, aptitude reaches emperor's capital.

Three days have passed.

The Great Elder of Danzong came to the Nanyu Tibetan Taoist Academy in person.

The purpose is to take Lu Changsheng to Danzong to solve their doubts.

People in the alchemy sect have always been proud of themselves in alchemy.

Never consulted an outsider.

Now, come to the thatched cottage and invite Lu Changsheng to Danzong.

This is also the first time ever.

Hu Qing, the master of Danzong, personally brought the Great Elder of Danzong to the thatched cottage.

Then.

Explained the purpose of coming to Lu Changsheng.

Hearing this, Lu Changsheng had a headache.

Ye Qiubai, this little brat...

"Ye Qiubai!"

Elder Danzong and Hu Qing were taken aback when they saw this.

I don't know why Lu Changsheng suddenly became angry.

Seeing Ye Qiubai walking over quickly, seeing Master's expression, he couldn't help shrinking his neck.

Lu Changsheng shouted angrily: "Go to the back mountain for me, suppress your cultivation, and stay under the waterfall for three days."

Hearing this, Ye Qiubai's face froze.

Suppress your cultivation and stay under that waterfall for three days?

Even if you don't die, you have to peel off your skin!

But looking at Lu Changsheng's angry face, Ye Qiubai still felt that he should stop talking...

Otherwise, I'm afraid it will be more than three days...

Ye Qiubai walked towards the back mountain with a wry smile.

When walking past Hongying.

He also heard Hongying say something to him.

"Brother, stand up for justice."

Ye Qiubai gritted his teeth when he saw Hongying's gloating smile.

But there is nothing I can do about her.

Who called Hongying his junior sister?

Alas, I can only bear it.

Lu Changsheng looked at the two with dull faces.

explained: "I made you laugh, my disciple is too capable of causing trouble, and he always makes promises for me outside."

Elder Danzong: "..."

This is talking about our Tan sect...

Lu Changsheng was afraid that the other party might misunderstand, so he quickly waved his hands: "It's not because of you."

"real!"

Hu Qing on the side covered his face.

Isn't there no silver three hundred taels here?

"Ahem."

Elder Danzong cleared his throat and said, "I don't know, when will senior have time?"

Lu Changsheng just wanted to say that there is no time for this time.

Unexpectedly, the Great Elder of Danzong blocked Lu Changsheng's retreat with a single sentence.

"It's okay, senior, if you have something to do, I can wait for you here."

Lu Changsheng: "..."

Do evil!

However, the other party has already talked about this, so he can't be allowed to stay in the thatched cottage, right?

Then how can I fish...

Thinking of this, Lu Changsheng had no choice but to nod: "Let's go now."

Danzong is a giant force in the Central Region.

The holy land of alchemists in the world.

In the four domains, there is also the distribution of Danzong's influence.

Used to examine the alchemist level.

Lu Changsheng went to Danzong, but did not disturb the disciples of Danzong.

Instead, he came directly to the Danzong Hall.

At this moment, Geng Chun, the suzerain of Danzong, is already waiting outside.

Seeing Lu Changsheng coming, he greeted him with a smile, cupped his fists and saluted, and said, "Welcome senior to my Danzong."

Lu Changsheng waved his hand and said, "If there is anything you don't understand, bring it up as soon as possible."

See Lu Changsheng like this.

Geng Chun was not surprised either.

The other party is an existence that can refine heaven-level pills in a short time.

Alchemy strength has left him a few streets away.

Is it normal to be a little arrogant?

Seeing Lu Changsheng didn't want to waste time.

Then he waved his hand and asked the elder to withdraw from the banquet and get straight to the point.

"I also invite the seniors to follow me into the palace."

Lu Changsheng nodded, followed Geng Chun into the hall.

In the hall, there were only the two of them.

Geng Chun knew that Lu Changsheng didn't want to waste time, so he asked directly.

"Senior, along the way of alchemy, I have always been unclear about one thing."

Lu Changsheng raised his chin, motioning for him to continue.

"Although my success rate of alchemy is already very high, of course, it does not include heaven-level pills."

"However, I have been thinking about how to make my own prescription."

"Below the ground level, I can still create independently, but on the ground level, I can't succeed no matter what."

With Geng Chun's current strength in alchemy, it can be said that he has already stood at the pinnacle of this continent.

He thinks that he has been unable to climb again.

So, all we can do is try our best to create high-level pills.

Only in this way can it be left in the annals of history.

And Lu Changsheng, when he participated in the alchemy conference.

showed amazing alchemy skills.

All the pills are self-created!

Even the last heaven-ranked elixir is the same.

That's why Geng Chun wanted to ask Lu Changsheng for advice.

"I don't know what solution the seniors have."

After speaking, Geng Chun looked at Lu Changsheng expectantly.

It's like looking at a lover who has just returned after a long absence.

Looking at it, Lu Changsheng shivered.

"Well...how should I put it?"

"Actually, there is no skill in this."

Lu Changsheng thought about his alchemy method and experience.

He said: "However, I have always believed that in alchemy, one cannot blindly rely on the method of alchemy."

"You have to have your own understanding, and be able to improve on the basis of the original prescription. Whether it is wrong or right, you have to try it."

"You must break away from the restrictions that Dan Fang brought to you."

After listening to Lu Changsheng's words, Geng Chun fell into deep thought.

Muttering to himself: "Get out of Danfang's restrictions?"

Lu Changsheng continued: "For you, relying on Dan Fang all the year round has formed dependence."

"In my opinion, this prescription is like a cage that traps your thoughts."

"Only by jumping out of this cage, can you create your own pill..."

Speaking of last.

Lu Changsheng is not very sure.

However, he himself came here in this way, even if he were asked to talk about other methods, he couldn't tell!

As for whether Geng Chun can succeed?

None of his business.

At this time, Geng Chun kept thinking about what Lu Changsheng said.

Although the words are simple, the truth is extremely profound.

Simply put, it is to jump out of the comfort zone.

Cultivating the Tao, isn't it the same?

Gradually, Geng Chun's eyes revealed a gleam of light!

"Senior, I understand!"

Lu Changsheng: Meow meow? ? ?

Chapter 244 Xiaohei is abnormal, weird village!

Good guy.

Do you understand again? ? ?

Looking at Geng Chun's excited expression and bright eyes.

Lu Changsheng was dumbfounded.

This is just a few casual words.

Got it?

Is that okay too? ?

Geng Chun took Lu Changsheng's hands, shook them up and down, and said with a smile: "Hahaha, senior's alchemy realm is really unfathomable!"

"Just a few words woke me up."

The brow of Lu Changsheng's right eye kept twitching, as well as the corner of his mouth on the right.

"Uh... heh... hehehe, then... that's good..."

Geng Chun said again: "The former alchemy realm, why don't you come to our alchemy sect and condescend to be a glorious elder?"

"What's that?"

"Glory to the elders can be said to be offering, but the status is much higher than offering."

"Facing some things, even I can't force you to do them."

"However, once senior asks for something, I, Danzong, will definitely do my best to satisfy it!"

oh.

The treatment is so good.

Livingly like the big pie that those black-hearted companies drew for him in the previous life.

Lu Changsheng is no longer used to seeing it.

Although this is indeed tempting.

However, once something happened to Danzong, how could he not take action?

If you nod in agreement.

Then, Lu Changsheng and Danzong became a community of destiny.

In the future, there will be less time for fishing!

Lu Changsheng would not accept this kind of loss-making business.

"You don't have to."

Geng Chun was not surprised either.

How could such a character be so easy to win over.

However, although they cannot win over, at least they must have a sense of presence in front of Lu Changsheng.

Thinking of this, Geng Chun smiled and said: "Okay, since the senior has helped me so much, why don't you visit our Danzong?"

"Of course, the Pill Tower can also be viewed by seniors. If you want anything, just take it."

Dan Lou.

It is the method of Danzong to store Danfang, the method of soul cultivation.

and pills.

It can be said that it is the important place of Danzong.

And Geng Chun did this to get acquainted with Lu Changsheng.

Do you use this to test the cadres?

Lu Changsheng naturally understood what Geng Chun meant.

joke.

Then I took your things.

When you ask me to do something, don't I have to agree?

Lu Changsheng immediately refused: "No, my disciple is still waiting for me after cooking. Since there is nothing else to do, I will go first."

"Forehead..."

Geng Chun's expression froze.

He never expected that Lu Changsheng would be so cautious!

It's clear that I just don't want to get involved with other people!

But there is no way.

The stronger the person, the more important the causal relationship is.

Cause and effect together.

The most elusive since ancient times.

Lu Changsheng will reject him, so there is nothing to say.

Geng Chun nodded, smiled bitterly and said, "Then I'll send someone to see you off."

"Stay here."

After finishing speaking, Lu Changsheng ran away in a hurry.

If you don't leave, then send a few more women, and even give him the sect.

This cadre can't handle it...

On the way back, Lu Changsheng hurriedly shouted: "Amitabha, Amitabha, the six desires are all empty, the six desires are all empty..."

...

When Lu Changsheng returned to the thatched cottage.

Xiao Hei's strength improved again.

With his current physical strength, he may not be his opponent even in the middle stage of False God Realm!

Nothing more.

At this moment, Xiao Hei had an abnormality.

I saw him covering his head in pain at the moment, fell to the ground, and kept rolling.

And in his pupils.

Has been covered by monstrous magic energy!

If it wasn't for the willow tree suppressing him by the side.

I'm afraid I have fallen into madness.

Ye Qiubai, Hongying, Ning Chenxin, and Mu Wan'er are all on the side.

"How is this going?"

Ye Qiubai said solemnly: "Xiao Hei, what happened! Just hold on, Master will be back soon!"

Mu Wan'er anxiously said: "What should I do? Sister Hongying, is there anything you can do?"

Hongying also showed distress, and shook her head.

Based on her experience, she still doesn't know what happened to Xiao Hei.

Ning Chenxin took out the Taoism.

Recite the mantra of pure heart.

Stripes of white shimmering light scattered on Xiao Hei's body.

It's just that, all of this has very little effect.

Can't suppress the demonic energy in little black eyes at all!

The little bird looked at the willow tree aside.

"Is this because the seal in the body is loose?"

The willow branch danced lightly and responded: "As his strength grows day by day, the seal in the sea of consciousness has also begun to loosen."

"Then can you seal it again?"

"Yes, but sealing it again will only hurt his sea of consciousness. If so, it will affect his future development."

The little bird nodded slightly and stopped talking.

Everything can only be solved after Lu Changsheng returns.

Lu Changsheng came back alone, extremely fast.

After Ye Qiubai's voice transmission.

also learned what happened to Xiao Hei.

directly tore apart the space and returned to the thatched cottage.

After that, he frowned and walked up to Xiao Hei.

I noticed the problem at a glance.

"The seal is loose."

"However, there is no corresponding memory fragment. Xiao Hei's loosely sealed memory plate is now missing."

"It will lead to the current situation."

Lu Changsheng already knew before that that Xiao Hei would not be too far away from the loosening of the seal.

However, how could he know that Xiao Hei's strength has improved too quickly after going out for training these few times.

Causes the seal to loosen prematurely!

But, where should the memory fragments be found?

"Xiao Hei, can you sense something?"

"You have to know the situation yourself before I can help you."

Although Lu Changsheng's voice was not loud, it was effectively transmitted into Xiao Hei's sea of consciousness.

He heard this familiar and trustworthy voice.

Dang even nodded in pain, and did as he did.

After a stick of incense.

The pain on Xiao Hei's face became more intense.

The black devilish energy in the eyes also began to leak out!

If it is not resolved, the consequences will be disastrous!

At this time.

Xiao Hei's lips trembled, and he said inarticulately: "Stone... Stone..."

Stone?

Lu Changsheng was slightly taken aback.

What stone?

Recalling the scenes of meeting Xiao Hei.

From the time he met him and took him as a disciple.

jumped out of a black stone that fell from the sky.

Thinking of this, Lu Changsheng was slightly taken aback.

Stone?

Black Stone?

Is it impossible...

Lu Changsheng beckoned and held up the little black void.

Immediately, with a light wave of the other hand, the space in front of him was torn apart!

Take Xiao Hei and step into it.

disappeared in the thatched cottage...

The place where the Black Stone landed.

is located in the middle domain.

is a mountain range between the General Institute of Tibetan Taoism Academy and Hidden Sword Sect.

Lu Changsheng can still remember the location.

When he got there.

But found that the black stone had disappeared.

However, this place is still filled with demon energy.

Nothing shall grow!

became a place of death!

Lu Changsheng frowned slightly, feeling the breath of black stone flowing in the air.

Take Xiao Hei and rush in the direction of Heishi's breath.

At the end, I came to a village.

However, in this village, there are strange...

Chapter 245 Memory fragments

This village is located behind the mountains.

The towering mountains cover the sky and block out the sun.

Only when the sun is about to set, will there be sunshine shining down.

The name of the village is taken from the afterglow of the setting sun.

Afterglow Village.

This is just a mortal village, no one will care...

Lu Changsheng took Xiao Hei into the village.

At this moment, when the sun is setting.

The afterglow of the setting sun falls on this village.

However, in this village, it is extremely quiet.

The sound of the wind blowing the leaves,

rustling.

This is the only sound in most villages.

It's a bit scary to be quiet.

Lu Changsheng looked around.

No trace of anyone was found.

And vaguely, one can even feel a sense of magic!

Floating slowly in the air.

"Is there no one?"

Lu Changsheng frowned slightly.

Air jets swept across the village.

Found something.

A house in the front.

This house is different from other cottages made of wood.

Cast from stone.

Up to two floors.

Or room duplex...

It seems that the person who used to live here is the head of Yuhui Village.

In this stone house, Lu Changsheng could feel a breath much stronger than that of ordinary people.

Even more interesting.

The breath of the black stone finally disappeared in this stone house.

Now, after Xiao Hei enters Yuhui Village.

The dark devilish energy around the body seemed to border on the black energy in the air at this moment.

When Lu Changsheng brought Xiao Hei, he quickly approached the stone house.

The closer he got, the darker the devilish energy on Xiao Hei's body trembled!

At the same time, Xiao Hei's pain was intensifying!

On his chest, the willow leaf given to him by the willow tree.

is emitting a soft green light.

Suppressing the magic in Xiao Hei's body.

It won't make him fall into madness.

After entering the stone house.

The locked wooden door exploded at this moment!

A black figure stretched out his hands.

On the hands, the nails are like sharp claws, piercing out from the fingers!

Formed two pairs of black sharp claws, and grabbed Lu Changsheng viciously!

Lu Changsheng's expression was flat, as if he had already noticed it.

Stand on the spot, stretch out with one hand.

resisted the head of the black figure.

This person was covered in black breath, and it was hard to tell whether he was a human or a ghost.

However, with Lu Changsheng's strength, it can be seen.

He was possessed by magic.

Just like Xiao Hei.

I fell into a state of madness and became a killing machine that can only kill people!

It should be caused by the black stone...

Lu Changsheng exuded a sense of endless life from his hands.

shrouded in the whole body of the black figure.

Constantly purifying the black figure.

The black mist, under the purification of the meaning of endless life, began to make a "吡呵" sound.

It is like the sound of boiling oil splashing down.

In the black mist, there was also the sound of howling in pain.

The * sharp claws kept grabbing at Lu Changsheng.

But they couldn't break through the siege of endless life.

The time to count interest has passed.

The black mist that enveloped the figure has been completely purified.

The one revealed was an old man.

The old man's eyes were sunken.

There are only a few thin white hairs on the head.

Hunchbacked body.

The two pairs of sharp claws also began to slowly withdraw into their fingers.

Immediately afterwards, he glanced at Lu Changsheng, his eyes were filled with bewilderment.

What followed were teardrops as big as beans.

One by one, it dripped from the sunken eye sockets of the old man.

"It's gone... It's gone..."

As if unable to hold on anymore, the old man passed out.

That's right, how can a mortal stay awake after being insane?

It's not bad if you don't die from exhaustion immediately.

Lu Changsheng quickly helped the old man up.

Take out an elixir, grind it into powder, and sprinkle it on the old man's body.

Instantly.

There were streaks of white light appearing on the chest of the old man.

is repairing and improving the body of the elderly.

At the same time, Lu Changsheng shot out a wave of endless life, which entered the old man's eyebrows.

Repairing the damaged Sea of Consciousness...

After doing all this.

Lu Changsheng brought Xiao Hei to the stone house.

In the center of the stone house.

The black stone was placed on the altar.

Surrounded by tributes.

Just those tributes...

Bai Sensen's bones.

Blood red, even pieces of meat that have begun to rot and turn black...

and a heart that stopped beating.

Head with wide-eyed eyes...

It's like some kind of ritual held by demons.

Extremely * and brutal...

And the Black Stone was surrounded by these so-called tributes.

At the same time, it exudes wisps of magic.

Maybe, the reason why the old man fell into madness was because he was infected by this demonic nature...

With a light sigh, he took the black stone.

placed in front of Xiao Hei.

seems to be related.

In an instant, the black stone turned into a stream of black light, piercing into the center of Xiao Hei's eyebrows!

this moment.

The whole body of Xiao Hei is full of black light!

The seal was loose, and the blank memory emerged.

At this moment, it is filled with black stones.

The dusty memories were opened like a box.

Emerge!

"Brother, you are not strong enough, so don't come to me."

"Hehe, Lord Demon God, we have been planning this for millions of years, and now, it has finally succeeded."

"In the future, I will replace you in controlling the Demon Realm..."

elder brother?

Master Demon God?

Demon Realm?

Still have plans?

Xiao Hei looked at the memory fragments that kept flashing in the sea of consciousness.

He knew that this memory was still incomplete.

Only relying on a few broken pictures, I still don't know what happened before.

And remember the last.

is a canyon full of gray atmosphere.

In the canyon, there are countless bones.

In that depth, there are countless monsters!

At the entrance of the canyon, Xiao Hei could see a stone tablet.

On the stone tablet, two words can be vaguely seen.

Moyuan...

this?

Could it be where the next memory fragment is located?

Or, those people are in this demon abyss?

Xiao Hei opened his eyes.

Look at the roof.

"No matter what, I need to go to this Demon Abyss."

Moyuan?

Lu Changsheng couldn't help being slightly taken aback when he heard Xiao Hei's words.

What is this place?

Xiao Hei has come to the wild realm these days, and he also knows that the Moyuan may not be the place of this realm.

Lu Changsheng patted Xiao Hei on the shoulder, and said, "Since you're awake, let's deal with the matter here, after all, you are the cause of this matter."

Xiao Hei nodded.

sunset.

The next day rose as usual.

But because Yuhui Village is behind the mountains.

Even if the sun rises, it cannot receive direct sunlight at this moment.

Still a bit dark.

The old man also slowly woke up at this time.

After waking up, he looked around, with a glimmer of hope in his eyes.

He hoped that what happened before was just a dream.

However, when I saw the empty village, there was only the man in white robe who appeared last in my memory.

The look of despair appeared in his eyes again.

"It's gone... It's gone..."

"It's all because of that black stone..."

Chapter 246 In the name of Xiaohei, he is in charge of Jiuyou!

The old man's eyes were dull.

Scanning around, muttering to himself: "Everything is gone..."

Lu Changsheng bent down, and waved a white soft light from his hand, covering the old man's eyebrows and eyes.

calmed him down.

"Old man, tell me slowly what happened."

The old man looked at Lu Changsheng, with tears in his eyes, and said bitterly: "It all starts with that black stone."

After the old man's description.

Both Lu Changsheng and Xiao Hei understood the beginning of the incident.

In Yuhui Village, apart from farming.

Also go out to hunt wild animals.

When he was out hunting, he met Heishi and thought it was quite extraordinary, so he transported Heishi back to the village.

Then, the misfortunes began.

The demonic nature exuded from the black stone cannot be resisted even by ordinary ascetics.

How can mortals resist this demonic nature?

The demon nature invaded the souls of all the people in the village.

Make them start killing each other.

In the end, all died, leaving only the village chief, who was not killed.

Because, he beheaded all the others under those sharp claws...

The village head cried: "If I knew this, I should have been firmer and throw this black stone out!"

Lu Changsheng looked at Xiao Hei and said, "How do you deal with it?"

Xiao Hei lowered his head.

He understood that if this matter was really to be pursued, it was because of him.

After all, if it wasn't for him, the Black Stone wouldn't have landed in this mountain range.

Again, this kind of thing doesn't happen.

If it is other ascetics.

They don't care.

What does the life and death of mortals have to do with them?

Because they don't value cause and effect.

The stronger the person, the more important they are to cause and effect.

Why some ascetics.

Or those top powerhouses.

Do not care about worldly affairs, cut off emotions and desires, and try not to contact others?

Because once something is involved, the power of cause and effect will be involved.

This kind of power is unclear.

However, it has to be paid attention to.

Lu Changsheng looked at Xiao Hei, and gave him the right to choose.

First, this incident started with Xiao Hei, and it should end with him.

Secondly, this determines his future path, whether to be ruthless or to live with flesh and blood.

Xiao Hei didn't think too much, and said with a serious expression: "Master, is there any way to save them?"

Lu Changsheng smiled.

Sure enough, apart from being too strong in causing trouble, these disciples have no other shortcomings...

"Naturally."

After speaking, Lu Changsheng stood up, tearing apart the space with Xiao Hei, and disappeared in place.

The village head looked at the place where Lu Changsheng left, kowtowed and said, "I beg the immortal master, save them!"

Even if Lu Changsheng and the two left.

The village head is still kowtowing.

However, the forehead that would have been smashed and bled was still not damaged at all.

This is also because Lu Changsheng's elixir improved the village chief's physical body...

After a person dies.

Ordinary souls will enter reincarnation.

And this place of reincarnation is located in the Nine Netherworld.

Among the nine secluded places.

There are countless souls, one after another passed the bridge of Naihe.

And under the Naihe Bridge is the spring water of the Yellow River.

In the beginning, Lu Changsheng came here and "borrowed" the spirit of the Yellow Spring River.

In this way, the Jiuyou Huangquan array was arranged!

Xiao Hei looked around and asked, "Master, can the villagers of Yuhui Village be saved here?"

Lu Changsheng spread his hands and said, "As long as you haven't entered the cycle of reincarnation, it's theoretically possible."

Among the Nine Nethers, someone seemed to have sensed that a creature had entered this place.

There were three figures in black robes, and they appeared in front of Lu Changsheng in an instant.

"Your Excellency is here again."

"Are you planning to sit in Jiuyou this time?"

Before, Lu Changsheng borrowed the spirit of the Yellow Spring River, and the other party's condition was that.

After that, I will come to sit in Jiuyou.

Become the Lord of Nine Netherworlds!

The Jiuyou Difu in the Wilderness Realm currently has no master.

Lu Changsheng smiled and said: "I have this plan, but it's not me."

Three figures in black robes looked at each other.

Obviously did not know what Lu Changsheng meant.

Therefore, Lu Changsheng pointed to Xiao Hei beside him, and said with a smile: "Let my disciples come to sit in Jiuyou."

"Your Excellency's disciple?"

One of the figures in black robe looked at Xiao Hei suspiciously.

"Your disciple, do you have the ability to sit in Jiuyou?"

You must know that Lu Changsheng has the existence of Dao.

Only such strong people are qualified to sit in this Nine Nether Land.

"He's absolutely right."

Lu Changsheng looked at Xiao Hei and said, "Release your power."

Xiao Hei nodded.

Streams of monstrous devilish energy rushed out of Xiao Hei's body at this moment!

After Heishi filled in part of Xiao Hei's memory gap.

The seal in the body is also loose.

Now Xiao Hei can already use part of the magic power without falling into a state of madness!

It can be said that this has greatly improved Xiao Hei's strength.

And those three figures in black robes felt the magic on Xiao Hei.

His complexion changed.

Although there is a difference between magic and the Qi of Jiuyou in Jiuyou.

However, they are very similar.

This overbearing magic is used to suppress Jiuyou.

It is also more suitable than Lu Changsheng's Dao of the Sword.

Looking at strength alone, Lu Changsheng is more suitable.

However, Lu Changsheng obviously didn't want to sit in Jiuyou...

A black-robed figure headed by nodded and said: "It is possible, but his current strength may not be enough to suppress Jiuyou Hades."

Lu Changsheng shook his head: "It will be a matter of time before your strength improves. You are not in such a hurry now, are you?"

"Yes, but we need to discuss it."

Lu Changsheng nodded.

Three black-clothed figures disappeared here at this moment.

Stay until they come back.

also brought the answer.

"Can."

"Until he has the strength to compete with the half-step emperor, he will be able to take charge of the Jiuyou Hades."

Lu Changsheng nodded: "Naturally, but it will be soon."

Now, Xiao Hei has been able to crush the middle stage of the False God Realm.

Half step to Emperor Realm is only a matter of time.

"However, I have one more condition here."

"Oh? Let's talk about it."

Lu Changsheng looked at Xiao Hei.

motioned for him to speak for himself.

Xiao Hei nodded, stepped forward, and said, "I want to take away some mortals who are about to enter reincarnation."

"no!"

The three figures in black robes immediately objected.

"If a dead person wants to take his soul out of Jiuyou, it will destroy the order of Jiuyou!"

Xiao Hei shook his head, and said: "At that time, I will become the Lord of the Nine Netherworlds, why should I care about such things?"

"What's more, the deaths of these people are related to me, and they are just ordinary people."

"this..."

The three figures in black robes looked at each other.

And just when the three of them hesitated.

A man appeared between the two parties.

When Lu Changsheng saw this person, he immediately recognized him.

This person is the man who handed over the spirit of the Yellow Spring River to him.

The man smiled and said: "In this case, let's use it as a meeting gift for the future Lord of the Netherworld."

Chapter 247 Whether it is good or evil, it all comes from the heart

"Messenger!"

The man waved his hand, interrupting the words of the figure in black robe.

"I don't know whose souls you want to take away?"

"Sunset Village."

The man nodded, and glanced at the black-robed figure behind him.

Seeing this, the black-robed figure could only sigh, and went to work.

Soon, all 69 souls from Yuhui Village were brought over.

Xiao Hei nodded and said, "Thank you very much."

"Need not."

The man's smile was inexplicable, and he said: "Remember to wait until you have enough strength to take over Jiuyou Hades."

After things are done.

Lu Changsheng took Xiao Hei and left here.

The black-robed figure stepped forward and asked anxiously: "Mingshi, why did you agree to this matter, this may destroy the order of Jiuyou!"

The man shook his head with a smile and said, "This is a deal."

"However, the object of the transaction is not me and Xiao Hei."

"What's the meaning?"

Hearing this, the figures in black robes were all taken aback.

"I did this just to sell that man again."

"He brought his apprentice here and let him take charge of the Jiuyou Hades, which successfully repaid the favor he had borrowed from the spirit of the Yellow River spring."

"However, for his sake, I agreed to Xiao Hei's request."

"Let him owe another favor again, this business is sure to make a profit!"

...

the other side.

Lu Changsheng, who returned to Yuhui Village, looked depressed.

loss.

What a loss!

At first I thought about paying back the favor, but now I owe a favor inexplicably.

However, this favor has to be owed!

This thing that kills thousands of knives is really good at playing routines!

Thinking of the envoy's inexplicable smile, Lu Changsheng became annoyed.

The head of Yuhui Village saw Lu Changsheng and the two returning.

Kneeling on the ground, his knees kept moving forward, and came to Lu Changsheng's feet.

Two hands hugged Lu Changsheng's calf tightly, as if he was hugging his last hope.

"Master Immortal! Master Immortal! You must save them!"

"I heard that the immortal master has the flesh and bones of the living dead, and can bring the dead back to life."

"As long as you help me, old man, I will be an ox and horse for the immortal master in this life and the next life!"

The little underworld on the side said: "Don't worry, Master will definitely save you."

But Lu Changsheng on the side corrected: "You saved them."

After finishing speaking, he said to the village chief: "Stop hugging, how do you ask us to rescue you?"

Listen.

The village chief let go of his hand immediately, and cried, "Thank you, Master Immortal, thank you Master Immortal!"

Lu Changsheng's words.

Undoubtedly, it rekindled hope in the heart of the village head.

Lu Changsheng walked into the stone house.

Look at the bones, flesh, heart, and head.

Stick out with one hand.

The meaning of endless life enveloped these wreckages!

Instantly.

Those wreckages are growing at a speed visible to the naked eye!

Around the bones, white flesh began to grow.

The heart resumed beating.

Living dead flesh and bones.

Now, Lu Changsheng means endless life.

Has reached the level of Taoism.

It can be called the way of life!

soon.

Every body will be restored.

A total of 69 pieces.

Immediately, Xiao Hei at the side released those souls.

Those souls found their respective bodies, and got into the center of their eyebrows!

After doing all this.

The physical bodies began to come alive.

The 69 villagers of Yuhui Village are all resurrected at this moment!

"Huh? What happened?"

"Am I not dead?"

The village chief wept with joy when he saw this miraculous scene!

After telling the villagers about the matter.

Everyone looked in Xiao Hei's direction.

bowed down to him!

"Thank you Immortal Master! Thank you Immortal Master!"

Xiao Hei looked at the simple smiling faces and the pure gratitude.

Can't help showing a simple and honest smile.

"Actually, I didn't play much role, it's me..."

However, when he looked to the side.

But found that Lu Changsheng had long since disappeared.

There was only one voice, which reached Xiao Hei's mind.

"Silly boy, I'll wait for you outside the village."

"Also, you did this thing, and it was your will that brought them back to life, do you understand?"

Xiao Hei was slightly taken aback.

There is a touch of gratitude in my heart.

After dealing with these villagers.

Xiao Hei left Yuhui Village with the support of all the villagers.

Lu Changsheng was lying under a tree with a grass in his mouth.

Seeing Xiao Hei coming out, he curled his lips and said, "Why are you so grumpy, okay, let's go."

Xiao Hei smiled and nodded.

The two set off to return to the thatched cottage.

However, on the way, Lu Changsheng said something that made Xiao Hei a little confused.

"You have to remember."

"Although you are a devil, it doesn't mean that a devil is evil."

"He also represents a kind of mind, doing whatever he wants and not being bound by secular rules."

"Whether it is right or wrong, it all depends on your heart."

...

At the moment.

In the thatched cottage.

Ning Chenxin was watching the sunset on the cliff.

Hongying walked to his side and stood side by side with Ning Chenxin.

"Do you feel like you have nothing to do?"

Hearing this, Ning Chen was slightly taken aback.

then nodded.

Now he finds that it is too difficult to change the world by himself.

Although it does not mean giving up.

However, the current Ning Chenxin doesn't know what to do.

Hongying thought for a while, looked at Ning Chenxin, and said seriously: "If you want peace and war in the world, you can't do it relying on what you did before."

"You need to preach."

Mission?

"I used to be a missionary."

Hongying shook her head: "That's too inefficient."

"You need to form a faction."

right.

Just like Buddhism!

How did they let Buddhism go deep into the hearts of the people?

And let most people start to believe in the Buddha?

one of the reasons.

That is, Buddhism is a big sect!

is Buddhist orthodoxy!

Ning Chenxin's previous actions can be said to be a drop in the bucket.

Effect is almost negligible.

"For example, you can teach Confucianism, just like Confucianism."

Ning Chen thought for a while, and said, "But, I don't have any background."

Now, Ning Chen has something about Confucianism and Taoism in his heart, which is this Taoist scripture.

And this scripture is impossible to pass on to others.

How does this create Confucianism?

Even if established, no one will join.

Hongying shook her head and said with a smile, "You can go to the ruins of Confucianism. There should be some things left there."

"Inherited the foundation of Confucianism, and then, there are me and your brother and brother."

"What's more, if it doesn't work, there is still a master. With so many resources, it should be more than enough for you to establish Confucianism, my junior."

Ning Chen nodded, this is indeed feasible.

After the establishment of Confucianism, and then preaching, the efficiency will undoubtedly be much faster.

However, there is still a point of fear in his heart.

That is what Senior Confucian Emperor said before.

He said that since the establishment of Confucianism, many things are out of control.

Gradually in this, I forgot my original heart.

No...

Ning Chen shook his head and said with a smile, "All you need to do is follow your heart."

What's more, Ning Chenxin has an advantage.

That is an unfathomable master standing behind him!

Chapter 248 Qingyun Sword Sect Study Room Yunhuang Empire

After Lu Changsheng came back with Xiao Hei.

Ning Chenxin has already gone down the mountain, according to the address given by Hongying.

Go to the ruins of Confucianism.

Ye Qiubai first offered a toast to Lu Changsheng at the dinner table, and then said: "The third junior brother wants to rebuild the orthodoxy of Confucianism."

"Fourth Junior Brother will also be in charge of Jiuyou Hades soon."

"At the same time, Junior Sister is going to rebuild the Yunhuang Empire."

"As a big brother, I have nothing to do, isn't it a bit wrong?"

Lu Changsheng rolled his eyes and said, "Don't mention it, I'll thank you if you don't cause trouble."

Ye Qiubai: "..."

Mu Wan'er also smiled and said: "Brother Qiubai, I'm afraid I will also be in charge of the Mu family in the future."

"Father has made me his heir."

Ye Qiubai smiled and said: "Congratulations to you too."

After drinking three cups, Hongying's face was also a little flushed, like a red rose.

It's really delicate and charming!

Hongying phoenix eyes glanced lightly, looked at Ye Qiubai with a smile, and said: "Senior brother, so you are lonely after we leave?"

Ye Qiubai waved his hands with a smile, and said: "That's natural, but juniors and younger sisters all have their own futures, so I can't let you go for my own selfish desire?"

"What's more, isn't the younger brother accompanying me?"

"Oh, and Master."

So Lu Changsheng wanted Ye Qiubai to sweep the mountain again...

This brat said it.

What's wrong with me like an accessory?

However, after getting along for so long, Lu Changsheng already understood Ye Qiubai's character.

Look at the lonely look in his eyes.

After pondering for a while, Lu Changsheng put down his wine glass and asked, "Do you also want to go out for a break?"

Now, Ye Qiubai's strength has reached the late stage of Qianyuan Realm after practicing these days.

Ordinary False God Realm powerhouses are probably no longer his opponents.

Going out to practice?

There is no place to practice in this realm.

"If you want to do it, then go for it."

Hongying smiled and said: "If not possible, brother, you can also help me."

Ye Qiubai thought for a while, but shook his head with a smile.

"You have all established your own forces. As a big brother, I naturally have to do it myself."

Lu Changsheng took a sip and curled his lips.

Tsk, this * tsundere...

Ye Qiubai smiled and said: "Just do what you say. Tomorrow, I will also go out to make a breakthrough and build a force."

Shi Sheng scratched his head and said, "I'd better stay with Master."

For Shi Sheng, this is his second home.

He is not interested in those things that form forces.

Lu Changsheng was also moved.

Finally, I have an apprentice who doesn't cause trouble.

It's not easy!

Ye Qiubai raised his glass and stood up.

Hongying, Shi Sheng and Mu Wan'er also stood up with a smile and raised their wine glasses.

"From now on, the four of us brothers and sisters will each establish a controlling force."

"At that time, the forces of the four of us will all become the giants of this continent!"

"At that time, Master will be at ease, and no one will dare to provoke us."

Lu Changsheng rolled his eyes.

I believe you ghost!

After finishing speaking, the wine glasses of Ye Qiubai and the five collided together.

Several years later.

The barbaric realm, and even the forces of the upper realm.

All will respect the Zongmen Empire built by the four disciples of Caotang!

Lu Changsheng watched this scene.

...

The next day, both Ye Qiubai and Hongying went down the mountain.

The address where Hongying rebuilt the Yunhuang Empire is located in the former site of Yunhuang.

Located in the middle domain!

Ye Qiubai chose to form a force in the southern region.

In seven days.

A piece of news that shocked the whole continent appeared.

Southern Region, Qingyun Sword Sect was established!

The first disciple of the Caotang, Ye Qiubai, is the suzerain!

In the Central Region, the Yunhuang Empire has been rebuilt.

Among the old sites, imperial buildings rose up one after another!

The second disciple of Caotang, Empress Yunhuang Hongying is the lord of the empire!

As for the Western Regions, there is only one giant power here.

That is Buddhism.

And this moment.

A force named Study appeared.

Take spreading Confucianism as our mission!

At the same time, the suzerain of his study is the third disciple of thatched cottage, Ning Chenxin!

The three people in the thatched cottage have now all descended to form their own forces!

At Qingyun Jianzong's founding ceremony.

There are countless forces coming to congratulate!

Among them, it includes Tibetan Taoist Academy, Hidden Sword Sect, Mu Family, Li Family... and forces of all sizes.

These forces all want to establish a relationship with thatched cottage.

However, Lu Changsheng never saw the tail but didn't see the head.

Can't see him at all!

He could only put his mind on his disciples.

Even Lu Changsheng entrusted Qin Tiannan with a congratulatory gift.

As for the gift, it is a picture.

Ye Qiubai opened it and couldn't help but wryly smiled.

Right couplet: Go live and develop.

Hengpi: Don't cause trouble!

Good guy.

Really have your master!

However, in these three couplets, there is a Yunling Array!

The aura in Qingyun Sword Sect's territory became extremely dense!

This is also a good solution to the shortcoming of the thin aura in the Southern Territory.

After the founding ceremony.

Qingyun Sword Sect also began to recruit disciples from the Four Regions.

Of course, the requirements are extremely strict.

There are restrictions on talent and age.

At the same time, it must be a sword cultivator!

The most important thing is xinxing.

Looking at the requirements for recruiting disciples, many forces couldn't help shaking their heads.

Too strict.

However, the final result was beyond the expectations of these forces.

There are countless sword masters, and I want to join Qingyun Sword Sect!

Come from the four domains and the middle domain!

Among them, Jian Chaomian and Liang Feng are included!

Ye Qiubai was not surprised by Jian Chaomian.

But what about Liang Feng?

Looking at Ye Qiubai and Jian Chaomian staring at him with big eyes and small eyes.

Liang Feng spread his hands and said: "Of course I discussed this matter with Master in advance."

"Then got a board and went down the mountain."

"Of course, the master-student relationship has not been broken, but the hidden sword sect has been separated."

certainly.

This is also the case where Lin Rufeng agreed.

After all, Liang Feng was able to befriend Ye Qiubai deeply.

He is still happy to see this happen.

At the end.

Ye Qiubai was one of those geniuses.

Only four people were selected.

As the first batch of disciples of Qingyun Sword Sect.

Since then, Qing Yun Jianzong's first step has also been taken.

On the other side, the Yunhuang Empire already has many vassals.

The only place where things changed.

It is in the Western Regions, the study!

On the first day the study was established.

Ning Chenxin received a letter of challenge from Buddhism.

After seven days.

Discuss the Tao in the study!

And the challenger.

It is the arrogance of heaven in Buddhism.

Buddha son!

Other forces, no one has really seen a Buddha.

Just heard.

This person is an evildoer who is not born in Buddhism!

As for the Buddha, he wanted to discuss the Tao with Ning Chen.

What it means, don't think too much about it.

Buddhism does not want to see the establishment of the study!

As for Ning Chenxin?

Of course I chose to accept it.

This is the first step in building a reputation for Confucianism and Taoism.

As for losing?

Ning Chenxin really didn't think about it.

Chapter 249 Confucianism and Buddhism discuss Taoism!

Buddhism issued a letter of war.

Seven days later.

In the Western Regions, study.

That is the force created by Ning Chenxin.

Buddhist disciples from the Buddhist sect will fight to discuss the Tao with Ning Chen!

Among them, the bet is not included.

However, once Ning Chenxin loses.

Well, this will undoubtedly deal a serious blow to the newly established den!

If Ning Chenxin wins.

Then, it will cause a great blow to the reputation of Buddhism.

At the same time, the establishment of the study will become extremely smooth.

However, once refused.

The reputation of the study will also be affected.

A newly established force cannot withstand such a blow to its reputation.

This challenge letter.

Ning Chenxin had to accept it.

There is no need to refuse!

Immediately.

A reply letter was sent back to Buddhism under the eyes of everyone.

where the content is...

Study Ning Chenxin.

Accept the discussion!

Although this result has already been guessed.

But still amazing!

The dispute between Buddhism and Confucianism has not reappeared for ten thousand years.

After all, after the battle in ancient times.

Confucianism and Taoism orthodoxy suffered a devastating blow.

Nowadays, only the Tibetan Taoist Academy has a Confucian Academy.

It's a pity that the background is not enough.

Has been tepid.

There is only Buddhism, which has continued from ancient times to the present.

There are countless believers.

All over the wild world!

Western Regions.

The study is located on Heming Mountain.

Here is the place where Confucianism and Taoism are carried forward.

At the same time, it is also the former site of Confucianism.

Now, Ning Chenxin is sitting cross-legged on the top of Heming Mountain, with a low table in front of him.

On the low table, there is a pot of boiling hot tea, with wisps of tea fragrance flowing out from the spout.

Green willow trees flutter in the wind.

The sound of willow branches colliding with each other.

rustling.

The gentle sunlight fell on Ning Chenxin's body through the slender and narrow willow leaves.

Form one after another golden spots.

At this time, Ning Chenxin was holding an incomplete book page in his hand, muttering silently, flipping his fingers from time to time.

Next to , there are books one after another.

These are books left over from Confucianism.

Although it has been eroded for tens of thousands of years, it has been damaged.

But under Ning Chenxin's restoration, it can barely be seen.

During the seven days.

With countless forces, they came to Heming Mountain.

I want to witness this battle between Buddhism and Confucianism.

One side is the Buddhist religion with countless believers.

The other side is Confucianism and Taoism, which have long since declined.

However, Ning Chenxin has another identity.

That is, thatched cottage disciple.

He is Lu Changsheng's disciple.

Now, the most eye-catching thing in this continent is the thatched cottage.

Therefore, Buddhism wants to challenge Ning Chenxin of the study.

It seems that they are just fighting for Buddhism and Confucianism.

Actually.

It was Buddhism who started to challenge the thatched cottage!

They wanted to see how Ning Chenxin would respond.

I also want to see what is the difference between Ning Chenxin and the unborn peerless evildoer of Buddhism, the disciple of Buddha.

Many forces have established temporary bases at the foot of Heming Mountain.

Some powerful forces want to go up the mountain.

But Ning Chenxin refused.

"Everything, let's go up the mountain after the war begins."

Everyone was not angry.

They all nodded.

Wait quietly for the next discussion.

...

Seven days are like white clouds passing through the gap.

It passed by in the blink of an eye.

All forces looked up at the top of Heming Mountain.

There, Ning Chenxin was still the same as before, cross-legged in front of the low table.

The tea is still boiling, and the book is still in hand.

Only, the number of pages is different.

It seems that there is no sense of tension before the war.

His face looked calm.

Have a chance of winning?

It is approaching noon.

At this time, it is the time when the sun is at its peak.

In the west, there was a smear of golden light, which actually covered the glaring sunlight, and struck in the direction of Heming Mountain.

Among them, the breath of Buddhism and Taoism is overwhelming.

There is an Asura phantom guarding him.

There is Jinguang Bodhisattva chanting Buddhist scriptures in it.

There is also a Maitreya Buddha, holding Buddhist beads, showing a harmless smile to humans and animals.

Three Buddhist visions come out together!

This also represents the three supreme Buddhist teachings of Buddhism.

And under these three visions.

Originally, those sects thought that people from the Buddhist sect came out in full force.

However, when they saw that under the three visions, there was only a thin figure.

Can't help being slightly taken aback.

Only one person?

And one person can trigger three Buddhist visions?

Is this the current Buddhist sect, the Buddha son who is called the peerless evildoer who is not born...

When those sect forces looked at Ning Chenxin again.

I feel a little uncertain in my heart.

Even if Ning Chenxin is a disciple of thatched cottage.

The realm of Confucianism and Taoism is quite advanced.

But in the face of such a peerless evildoer, can he really win?

I'm afraid...it's hard.

At this moment, Ning Chenxin also put down the book in his hand, raised his eyebrows, and calmly watched the man in the golden light approaching.

I saw the man pinching the Buddha seal with one hand, when he stepped into the sky above Heming Mountain.

He opened his mouth and said directly: "What is Tao?"

There is no opening of any bells and whistles.

There is no foreshadowing of any statement.

Buddha chose to start discussing the Tao directly!

What is Tao?

Simple three words.

is the hardest to answer.

Everyone looked at Ning Chenxin at the low table.

Want to hear how he will answer.

Ning Chenxin's mouth slightly curved.

What is Tao?

Ning Chenxin stood up and said softly: "There are things that are mixed, born from the heavens and the earth, and it is for the Tao."

As soon as he said a word, a wave of Taoism circled around Ning Chenxin's body!

Form a rivalry with that monstrous Buddha light!

"To the great depth of the Tao, the mixture is boundless; the body is empty, and the reason is extremely mysterious."

"One flower and one grass is the way."

Ning Chen leaned over, squeezed out a handful of soil, and said softly: "A piece of wood and a piece of soil are also Tao."

"Everything in the world is Tao."

Fozi nodded slightly, he naturally would not think that his first question could defeat Ning Chenxin.

I saw him take another step forward.

The monstrous Buddha's light sprinkled on the Taoist will.

It seems to be eroding and occupying!

"Then, since everything is Tao, what is the difference between Buddhism and Confucianism?"

"Why do you want to build a study to spread Confucianism and Taoism?"

"Why don't you join me in Buddhism to develop Buddhism together?"

yes.

Everything is Tao.

What is the difference between Confucianism and Buddhism?

Ning Chen didn't pause.

Words follow the law.

"First of all, everything is Tao, but there is an essential difference between Tao and Tao."

"For example, water and fire, life and death are two opposite paths."

"Buddhism and Confucianism are naturally different."

Buddha asked back: "What's the difference?"

Ning Chen said in his heart: "The way is to pay, and those who pay, the accumulated virtues will shade the descendants, otherwise, the descendants will be condemned."

"If we say that the Buddha regards the present world as a sea of suffering, he advocates breaking away from the world."

"Then, the Tao is to make life a joy for human beings, the great virtue of heaven and earth, and take this world as a happy land."

"My fate is up to me, I am not in heaven, and I will become a fairy by practicing Taoism."

"What about the Buddha? If you follow the way of heaven, you can become a great Buddha. If you go against the sky, you will be sent to the eighteenth level of hell!"

"Secondly, among Buddhism, do you think there are really people who satisfy their own desires through Buddhism and Taoism?"

Chapter 250 Slapstick? How could the third junior brother lose

"Secondly, among Buddhism, do you think there are really people who satisfy their own desires through Buddhism and Taoism?"

When Ning Chenxin said these words.

The morality around him became stronger and stronger!

With a dazzling white light, it is no longer resisting the monstrous Buddha light.

Instead, take the initiative to attack.

For a while, it overwhelmed the Buddha's light!

The phantom of Asura next to Buddha took out the mace in his hand to resist the dazzling light!

Ning Chenxin fought back!

After perfectly answering Buddha's question.

He countered with sharp words.

Fozi's complexion didn't change, he just pinched the Buddha seal with one hand.

"Amitabha, good and good."

"It seems that Benefactor Ning also has a deep understanding of my Buddhism."

"Since ancient times, following the way of heaven will give you a better chance to reach the peak."

"And run counter to the way of heaven, how many can survive?"

The Buddha's light on Buddha's body became more and more dazzling.

And what he said.

was also recognized by many people present.

yes.

Only by following the way of heaven can we achieve the pinnacle.

Going against the sky is nothing but self-destruction!

Of course, these people don't know.

The way of heaven in this realm has long since collapsed completely.

"Of course, I don't deny the scum in Buddhism you mentioned."

Buddha said seriously: "However, there will be scum in every force. This is the law of nature. Similarly, this is also the way of heaven."

"I heard that the purpose of your preaching is to want the world to be peaceful without conflict."

Speaking of this, Buddha smiled and said: "The idea is beautiful, but the reality is cruel."

"However, Master Ning has such an idea, which is worthy of my respect."

Hear the words of the Buddha.

Ning Chen's heart did not waver in the slightest.

Under the enlightenment of Master and Emperor Confucianism.

How could it be possible to be broken by this sentence?

"There is a difference between wanting and not wanting, doing and not doing."

"In Buddhism, there is also a saying to avoid killing?"

"However, you all think that there are conflicts, which are normal and unresolvable. Doesn't this violate Buddhism and Taoism?"

Fozi frowned for the first time!

The Buddha's light on his body was overwhelmed by Ning Chenxin again.

The phantom of Asura, at this moment, was actually shattered!

Obviously.

The Buddha could not refute this sentence.

Because it is true.

Unable to refute, it also caused the Buddha's heart to shake.

Once shaken, the Buddha has already lost 30% of the discussion!

Ning Chenxin, now has the advantage!

Ning Chenxin continued: "You have an attic for nothing, with a magnificent appearance."

"However, there is no construction inside, and there is no entity."

"Why do you want to believe in such a castle in the air?"

Ning Chenxin's words.

Like that sharp sword, it continuously pierces through the monstrous Buddha light!

At the same time, it is also piercing the heart of the Buddha!

There is nothing wrong with what Ning Chenxin said.

Because, this is indeed the status quo of Buddhism.

Even the forces below showed a look of contemplation.

My heart was shaken.

Ning Chenxin's words were as sharp as a sharp sword, not only attacking the hearts of Buddha disciples, but also shaking their minds!

Buddha found an opportunity to speak, "So what, most of them still believe in Buddhism, and regard Buddhism as orthodox!"

"Nowadays, Confucianism and Taoism are withered, and they have long lost their glory in the past. How should Ning benefactor break the situation?"

"In this era where the weak are preying on the strong for profit and longevity, how can we achieve peace in the world?"

Ning Chenxin's expression didn't change at all, it remained calm.

"It's a bit difficult."

"But people have to do it."

"Just stick to your heart and have a clear conscience."

The last few words of Ning Chenxin are undoubtedly a complete negation of Buddha!

Buddha son.

In the past, he also wanted peace in the world, so that there would be no killing in the world.

Because, this is the thought in the Buddhist avenue.

However, now he has seen all kinds of people.

also saw the scum among Buddhism.

Similarly, after understanding the attitude of the Lord Buddha and the great Buddhas among the Buddhist gates.

The thinking of the Buddha is also subtly changing.

From wanting to change, and putting it into action.

I only have this idea, but I can't put it into action.

And now, have long since forgotten this idea.

It is like conforming to the way of heaven, conforming to the ethos in Buddhism...

At this time.

The Buddha's light on Fozi's body began to dim.

The ghost image of Maitreya Buddha on the right also shattered!

Now, only the phantom of the Bodhisattva is left, struggling to hold on!

Even people from the various forces below showed respect when they looked at Ning Chenxin.

This idea, although ridiculous.

Unrealistic.

However, Ning Chenxin, who has this idea and regards it as his Dao heart, is very admirable...

Ning Chenxin showed a soft smile, and said: "There are clouds in the Tao, my fate is my destiny."

"Isn't this kind of thing going against the law of heaven?"

"I've been thinking about it, and I've been putting it into action."

The next sentence seems to have seen through the heart of the Buddha.

"But you have long since given up, and at the same time, you have also been assimilated..."

Puff!

Fozi suddenly spit out a mouthful of blood!

This sentence points directly to the heart!

That's right, the former him was so imposing, he wanted to change the rules of this world.

However, the current him has unknowingly lost this idea.

give up.

This has always been a demon deep in his heart.

Now, Ning Chenxin gave it to the point.

Let his Dao Heart begin to collapse...

The Bodhisattva on the head of the Buddha also began to disintegrate at this moment...

Buddha light, dissipated in this world.

Here comes the moment.

Buddha couldn't help sighing, feeling lonely.

"Ning benefactor, you have won."

Ning Chen thought: "It's not that I won, it was you who defeated yourself."

Hearing this, Fozi was taken aback, thought for a few seconds, understood what Ning Chen was thinking, and nodded with a wry smile.

"yes..."

The loser either dies or exits.

Today's Buddha, how beautiful it is when he arrives.

When I left, I was so embarrassed...

Many forces looked at this scene and looked at each other in blank dismay.

Study's status in the Western Regions, and even in this continent, has been settled.

In the future, the footsteps of the study will stride forward and cannot be stopped!

Southern Region, Qingyun Sword Sect.

Jian Chaomian is playing chess with Ye Qiubai.

"Sovereign, don't you go to help the younger brother?"

Now, Ye Qiubai has become the suzerain of Qingyun Sword Sect, so the title will naturally change.

Ye Qiubai smiled and said, "It's not necessary."

"Why?"

"because..."

at this time.

Liang Feng broke in and said with a smile: "Good news! The discussion between Ning Chenxin and the Buddha was defeated by the Buddha!"

Ye Qiubai smiled and dropped the last ball.

"Because, how could the third junior brother lose in such a job as talking about it?"

"General..."

Jian Chaomian lost the game.

So far, he has lost ten battles...
