

My Disciples 261

Chapter 261 Void behemoth!

This inhuman roar is earth-shattering!

From the black hole in that space, the roar turned into sound waves, spreading throughout the entire barbaric realm!

Everyone looked up in the direction of the sound.

Look horrified!

What is this?

Hongying and the others also frowned slightly, their bodies boiling with aura.

Always be ready for battle.

Deal with this unknown thing.

Kong Jianghan, whose breath was sluggish, was also solemn between his brows, staring at the black hole of space.

Is it impossible...

Is that monster?

However, how could this kind of monster appear in the low-latitude boundary space?

Lu Changsheng also set his sights on the black hole in space.

Eyes deep.

seems to want to see what is in this black hole.

With Lu Changsheng's current strength, it can be seen.

In the black hole, there is an extremely huge beast, stepping on the turbulent flow of space.

The huge body is coming here at an extremely fast speed!

And above the head of the giant beast.

There was a figure in black standing on it.

who is it?

What is this giant beast?

Lu Changsheng frowned slightly, could it be that this is the opponent's backhand?

However, look at Kong Jianghan's horrified expression.

Probably not.

Lu Changsheng thought for a while, and a phantom appeared in his body.

Run towards the thatched cottage!

In case of emergency.

Lu Changsheng intends to move the Jiuyou Huangquan formation here...

The damage range of the space black hole is getting bigger and bigger.

Cracks are constantly extending towards the surrounding area!

If you follow this speed.

I'm afraid the sky in the barren realm, this space will be completely destroyed!

At that time, space turbulence will form a space storm, sweeping the continent.

The consequences will be unimaginable!

The National Teacher also discovered this problem, and immediately teamed up with the people of the Nine Heavens Department to stabilize the space with their own strength!

Unfortunately, with little success.

The speed of crack damage has not slowed down!

The national teacher was also horrified.

Even the strength of his half-emperor realm can't stop the space from breaking?

other side.

Could it be an existence above the Emperor Realm?

If so.

I'm afraid today's events will get out of control...

At this time.

The whistling sound coming from the black hole in space is getting closer and closer to the wild realm.

Everyone can see it too.

In that black hole.

There is an incomparably huge monster faintly, its limbs are trampling in the space!

looming!

Kong Jianghan's pupils shrank suddenly.

This behemoth.

I have seen it in ancient books.

Live in space!

However, the space in the low-latitude boundary is absolutely unable to conditionally generate such a giant beast!

"Void Behemoth..."

Kong Jianghan looked terrified and made a trembling voice!

And when the voice fell.

Boom!

With a loud bang.

In the black hole of that space.

There is one limb stepping out!

The limbs are so thick, it can be said that it is much bigger than the capital of Yunhuang Empire, Yunhuang City!

Just one limb.

so huge?

And when the body steps into heaven.

Heavenly Road, can no longer bear it.

At this moment, it suddenly burst!

The sealing formation originally existed in the heavenly road.

also dissipated at this moment!

Vulnerable!

Immediately afterwards, the second limb also stepped out!

Space fragmentation!

The air waves keep hitting the surroundings!

The clouds were scattered by this continuous air wave.

At this moment, the entire sky in the barbaric realm made a loud noise.

Trembling!

It seems that the sky is falling.

What the * is this thing?

Everyone looked at this scene with horrified faces.

Finally, in the black hole.

The head of the giant beast poked out!

The entire head is black and purple in color.

In the huge mouth, two fangs grew out.

There are countless black scales on the surface of the skin!

Those scales seemed to be able to breathe by themselves, constantly agitating.

At the same time, between the two round eyes.

Has a sharp horn like Optimus Prime!

Around that sharp corner, there is a space storm surrounding it!

The breath is extremely terrifying!

I saw this giant beast opened its mouth.

A breath full of thunder power spewed out.

exudes wisps of blue electric light...

There was a loud roar!

The roar spread throughout the wild world!

The space began to vibrate and shatter!

This is just a head and two legs sticking out.

already seems to occupy half of the sky.

Block out the sun!

It was as if night fell.

Everyone watched this scene in horror.

I was thinking in my heart.

If this unknown behemoth sticks out its entire body.

So.

Will this boundary be able to withstand it?

Kong Jianghan was also pale.

It's a Void Behemoth!

This kind of behemoth was born in the space of middle and high latitudes.

Using space storm as the basis of practice.

Feed on the heart of the realm!

Destruction of every realm.

Basically, they all have the shadow of Void Behemoths!

A juvenile giant void beast can kill a strong man in the imperial realm with a single slap.

Even Kong Jianghan doesn't know the exact strength of the adult Void Behemoth.

Just know.

Even in the middle latitudes, or even in the high latitudes, they are very afraid of Void Behemoths!

But.

This horror exists.

Why does it appear in low-latitude space?

When Kong Jianghan raised his head slightly.

Pupils shrank suddenly!

On top of the head of the giant beast.

There was actually a figure standing silently on it!

Void behemoth, will be tamed by a human?

How can this be? !

Lu Changsheng also stared closely at the man on the giant beast.

because.

He found that the man was also looking at him.

The two of them looked at each other.

However, no one did anything.

The Void Behemoth stopped moving.

The black figure on the huge head also said: "You... are very good."

very nice?

Everyone followed the gaze of the black figure and slowly looked at Lu Changsheng.

This person.

Is it for Lu Changsheng?

"You shouldn't be in this low-level realm, are you interested in joining us?"

"to join you guys?"

Lu Changsheng refused immediately without even thinking about it.

"Forget it, I just want to stay in this three-acre land and live a leisurely life."

"Besides, I'm actually quite weak..."

Everyone in thatched cottage: "..."

Kong Jianghan: "..."

Spirit Realm: "..."

Allied Army: "..."

Dude, what are you talking about?

Alone, fighting against the eight strong men in the imperial realm.

Killed four and seriously injured four.

This is also called weak?

You are no longer modest.

Pretending to be aggressive is not enough to describe your behavior!

Ye Qiubai rolled his eyes and said, "Master is here again."

Lu Changsheng smiled and said, "So, it's better not to invite me."

The black figure was a little surprised.

"You, you don't even know who I am and what kind of power I belong to, so you rejected me, you really don't regret it?"

Lu Changsheng shook his head hastily.

"Don't tell me who you are, I'm not interested."

joke!

If you know the name and power of the other party.

Then wouldn't the karma end?

Looking at this, he doesn't look like a good person, don't drag him into the whirlpool later.

Will there still be a quiet life by then?

Chapter 262 Dark Field!

causation.

Mysterious and mysterious.

Lu Changsheng has been avoiding.

If you can't go out, don't go out.

Contact others as little as possible.

Once the cause and effect are established, the subsequent chain events are unknown.

But.

All of this began to change after accepting disciples...

Think here.

Lu Changsheng wanted to say something right now...

Blame Ye Qiubai, that bastard!

Lu Changsheng's words.

It surprised the black figure.

"You are a little different from the people I've met..."

"However, do you know what the consequences will be for those who reject us?"

Lu Changsheng smiled.

Laughter is full of calmness.

In the eyes, after hearing the words of the figure in black, a cold light also passed by!

"I can understand that this is threatening me?"

The figure in black nodded.

"You can also understand it as a kind warning."

Ah.

Lu Changsheng chuckled.

He is afraid of cause and effect.

Also afraid of trouble.

But at the same time.

Lu Changsheng is also a master who eats soft things but not tough ones.

It's just like usual, although Ye Qiubai's group of brats always make trouble for him.

Bored him.

However, when the other party bullies too much.

Lu Changsheng would also be angry.

will also protect the shortcomings.

"That's possible. I won't accept your kind warning."

The figure in black nodded.

Didn't say anything more.

The palm waved out.

The space was immediately filled with black dagger phantoms!

On the phantom of the dagger, there was a cold iron glow.

The cold lights, like killing intent, locked onto Lu Changsheng instantly!

The breath is extremely terrifying!

Hongying saw this scene with a solemn expression.

This kind of dagger, I am afraid that even in her peak period, she might not be able to catch it.

The breath is too scary!

When the hand of the figure in black was put down.

The phantom dagger shot towards Lu Changsheng at this moment!

Overwhelming!

Every phantom of the dagger seems to have penetrated the space.

In the blink of an eye, he was already in front of Lu Changsheng!

Lu Changsheng frowned slightly.

This young man doesn't talk about Wude!

Do it without saying a word.

Well...it's about the same as me.

Everyone set their eyes on Lu Changsheng.

I wonder how he will resist this extremely sharp dagger!

Using arrays?

Or... rely on your own strength?

Soon, Lu Changsheng gave the answer.

I saw him raise his hand seemingly casually.

No sound.

But feel carefully.

However, he could feel that there were wisps of white light on Lu Changsheng's not-so-thin arms.

The white light is full of different powers!

Kong Jianghan also widened his eyes.

Watching this scene.

He could feel the existence of Dao Yun in the faint white light!

The figure in black also frowned slightly.

Tao rhyme?

Dao rhyme is the power of Dao.

Although, in his cognition, although few people have learned the power of Taoism, it is not without it.

It's not surprising, but it can make the figure in black a little surprised.

However, those who can appear on the dark list.

Having Tao is not surprising.

To the surprise of the figure in black, the principles in it are too complicated!

He couldn't guess what kind of way it was.

It's a ghost if you can guess it.

Lu Changsheng possessed extremely many principles.

I don't know how to use it.

However, just use all your brains!

At this time, Lu Changsheng pointed out gently with his finger.

The white halo covering his arm gathered at Lu Changsheng's fingertips.

With one finger point out.

In an instant, the white halo turned into white spots of thousands of stars!

Headed towards the phantom dagger!

The attacks from both sides are overwhelming!

Space collapses at this moment!

Countless space turbulence, gathered into a space storm, sweeping the world!

When everyone's face is dignified, release the state, and want to resist the space storm.

The void behemoth in the black hole of space opened its mouth like an abyss.

Inhale that space storm into your mouth...

Under everyone's astonished eyes, the Void Behemoth even hiccupped...

"Hic..."

Still earth-shattering.

At this time.

The white dots of thousands of stars, containing many Tao rhymes, collided with the phantom dagger that penetrated space!

The result was surprising.

That ten thousand star white spot, smash that phantom dagger into pieces!

Immediately, they shot towards the figure in black again!

The complexion of the figure in black did not change.

Instead, he took a step back immediately and opened his hands.

Behind him, the shadow spread!

shrouded this piece of heaven and earth.

Following that, the entire battlefield was shrouded in it.

The outside sun cannot shine in.

I can't see my fingers.

The figure in black said: "I know that this level of domain cannot shield your five senses."

"However, it can increase my strength. I wonder if you can resist it?"

Increase?

Domain?

That's not okay.

Lu Changsheng nodded seriously, and said, "Just break it open."

Break open?

The figure in black laughed and said, "You can try it."

This field, if it is not for the strength to completely crush him, it cannot be forcibly broken through.

Lu Changsheng listened.

"Understood, then I will work harder."

After finishing speaking, Lu Changsheng's whole body was surrounded by white halos filled with mixed Dao rhymes!

Immediately, Lu Changsheng took a step forward.

The white halo all over his body also exploded at this moment!

Like the first ray of sunshine in the dark night.

Break through the darkness.

Immediately, thousands of rays of sunshine bloomed in this dark field!

Under the astonished eyes of the figure in black.

The domain is broken.

The figure in black is also at this moment, retreating crazily!

A streak of bright red blood appeared on the black robe.

Kong Jianghan looked at this scene and couldn't help feeling emotional.

This man's strength is simply unfathomable.

Whether it is formation or cultivation!

The figure in black also had a solemn expression.

This man said at the time: Just break it open.

He said it.

It did it.

The figure in black pondered in his heart.

It seems that the ranking in the dark list is wrong.

His ranking should be included in the top ten.

And the famous people in the dark list.

are all worthy of being wooed by the dark field.

And reached the top ten in the dark list.

Then, the value of this person will rise sharply!

This kind of person is no longer something he can win over.

The black-clothed figure withdrew his breath and said, "Let's stop here."

Lu Changsheng also smiled: "Stop fighting?"

The figure in black nodded slightly, and said seriously: "I can't beat you."

"However, I still hope that you can join the Dark Realm."

"Then I still say the same thing, I just want to live a leisurely life."

The figure in black was not surprised either.

nodded and said: "Afterwards, there will be higher-ups to win you over. I hope that you will still be able to maintain your original intention by then."

Lu Changsheng's expression changed.

Gan!

Still being targeted.

The figure in black once again stepped onto the head of the Void Behemoth.

patted the sharp corner.

The Void Behemoth roared and began to retreat.

The figure in black looked down at Lu Changsheng, and said, "Remember, our force is called the Dark Realm..."

After finishing speaking, the void behemoth retreated back to the black hole of space.

Chapter 263 ends

The Void Behemoth disappeared.

This space has returned to calm.

The figure in black.

Dark Field.

It gave Lu Changsheng a headache.

Why did you get targeted?

I just want to live a life of fishing, why is it so difficult?

In the alliance army, there was earth-shattering cheers!

Looking at each other, Kong Jianghan and the others were sluggish.

They understand.

This domain battle is over.

They won!

This also means that their future will be bright.

At the same time, I am also grateful for my decision.

Dean Yan and Lin Rufeng also looked at each other and smiled.

At the beginning, all bets were placed on the future of thatched cottage.

that's right.

As the first supporters of Caotang, Tibetan Dao Academy and Hidden Sword Sect.

Undoubtedly, it is a success!

They can also get more benefits.

The national teacher sighed beside Hongying.

"Thousands of years ago, we integrated all the forces on the mainland, but we still failed miserably."

"Now, relying solely on His Majesty's master, he has defeated the opponent with his own strength."

Hongying smiled and nodded.

Her confidence comes from Lu Changsheng.

Without Lu Changsheng, Hongying probably wouldn't be so radical.

Before the strength has been restored, the Yunhuang Empire will not be rebuilt in such a high-profile manner.

The other party.

The army in the Heavenly Spirit Realm is also pale

Now, their peak power.

Eight powerhouses in the imperial realm headed by Kong Jianghan, the suzerain of Tianlingzong.

Four people fell, and four people were seriously injured.

Obviously, the bargaining chip for victory has been lost.

We lost badly!

Kong Jianghan smiled wryly.

He didn't expect that things would happen to this point.

However, how could this come to mind?

The opponent turned the tide of the battle by himself!

Moreover, Lu Changsheng crushed them the whole time.

Looking at this, I haven't used my full strength yet!

What are you using to fight?

at the same time.

Lu Changsheng's complexion was as uncomfortable as if he had eaten shit.

I'm afraid, he is also the only one who doesn't care about winning the battle.

After all, he was targeted by a seemingly awesome force.

Maybe there will be some troubles in the future!

At this time.

Hongying took a step forward and said, "Next, it's time to finish."

Everyone turned their attention to Kong Jianghan, who was out of breath.

Seeing this, Kong Jianghan smiled wryly, supported his seriously injured body, stood up, and said, "We have lost this battle."

"A loser must have the attitude of a loser. Whatever you want, put forward the conditions."

No one in the alliance army spoke, just looked at Hongying.

Hongying, as the commander of this campaign, is the empress of the Yunhuang Empire.

This condition is naturally up to her.

Hongying looked at Lu Changsheng and asked, "Master, what do you say..."

However, Hongying didn't finish her words.

Lu Changsheng interrupted annoyedly: "I don't want to say, you decide for yourself."

Annoying to death!

See it.

Hongying nodded helplessly.

Taking a step forward, said: "First of all, repair the space channel in the wilderness realm in the realm of heaven and spirit."

The space channel in the wild realm.

is the road to heaven.

If the road is damaged today, if the strength is not enough, it is impossible to go to other realms!

Kong Jianghan nodded.

This point is not too difficult.

Hongying continued: "Connect the Wilderness Realm and the Heavenly Spirit Realm. After that, I will send people from this realm to the Heavenly Spirit Realm."

Kong Jianghan nodded again.

This point also made the faces of the people in the wild realm excited.

The aura in the barren realm is extremely thin.

If you can go to the Heavenly Spirit Realm, it will be a great thing for cultivation!

"Third, leave the heart of the realm of the heavenly spirit realm to me."

As soon as the words came out.

The bearded man suddenly objected loudly: "No!"

"The heart of the realm is the heart of the realm! If I gave it to you, wouldn't it be able to destroy my heavenly realm at any time?!"

Hongying looked over indifferently, but didn't speak.

Kong Jianghan waved his hand, signaling for the bearded man to shut up.

"I also agree to this condition..."

"Sect Master Kong!"

"We are the losers, we have no other choice."

The bearded man was taken aback for a moment, and then he could only shut his mouth.

Now, the fate of the Heavenly Spirit Realm is in the hands of the opponent.

The heart of the realm is naturally not that important.

"Tell me, what are the other conditions?"

Hongying nodded, and saw her glance over Kong Jianghan and the others indifferently.

The red lips parted slightly, and said lightly: "I need the four of you, kill yourself."

Suicide!

That is to say, self-termination!

Except for Kong Jianghan, the faces of the other three changed drastically!

Only Kong Jianghan himself had a flat face.

There is no surprise in the eyes looking at Hongying.

It seems that he has already guessed this point.

And there is a reason for Hongying to do this.

First, the two sides have different positions. Since the domain war has started, it is natural that they cannot spare the other party.

Second, and most important.

Hongying is the empress of Yunhuang.

The Yunhuang Empire is bound to become the ruler of the barbaric realm.

At the same time, it will also take over the Heavenly Spirit Realm.

At that time.

If Kong Jianghan and others are not controlled, it will be a great obstacle for Hongying to take over and control the Tianling Realm!

but...

"You don't have to judge yourself."

Hongying chuckled lightly and said, "However, it must be under my control."

Kong Jianghan nodded.

"Okay, we accept."

The bearded man looked ugly and said, "Sect Master Kong, how can you agree to this request?!"

However, when he finished speaking.

A white awn pierced through his eyebrows in an instant!

A strong man in the imperial realm.

That's it!

It was Lu Changsheng who made the move.

Everyone looked over.

I saw Lu Changsheng said impatiently: "Your lives are ours, if you don't even agree to this request, then get lost and die."

Hongying chuckled lightly.

She knew that Lu Changsheng was trying to build momentum for her.

With Lu Changsheng's strong means.

The other party will obviously be much more honest.

as expected.

Kong Jianghan looked serious, nodded again and said: "We agree to this request."

"Well."

Hongying smiled and said: "I can't blindly believe that you will be controlled by me, so let's release your soul."

Kong Jianghan immediately followed suit.

The soul drilled out from between the eyebrows.

A tyrannical divine spirit emanated out!

Emperor realm powerhouse.

Divine Soul is naturally not too weak.

Hongying didn't hesitate either.

With a wave of the palm.

Suddenly, a part of Kong Jianghan's soul was directly cut off, and was held in Hongying's hand!

in this way.

As long as Hongying thinks.

You can crush this strand of soul in your hand at any time.

Then, Kong Jianghan's main spirit will also disappear in smoke!

Do it all.

Kong Jianghan's face also became paler.

Seeing this, the other three had no choice but to release their souls.

Let Hongying take away a soul split.

In this way, Kong Jianghan and the others could no longer resist Hongying's will.

Rear, people in the Heavenly Spirit Realm saw this scene.

They all shook their heads bitterly.

From now on, the Heavenly Spirit Realm exists in name only!

Chapter 264 Liquidation

The event ends.

The Heavenly Spirit Realm officially became a vassal of the Yunhuang Empire.

After repairing the Tianlu.

Then you can send the forces from the wild realm to the heavenly realm to practice.

And this message.

It was also like a plague, in just half a day.

spread throughout the continent.

The forces that participated in this domain battle were extremely pleasantly surprised.

because.

They can get huge benefits from it!

certainly.

The forces that did not participate in this domain battle, and even did not support the decision of the Yunhuang Empire to fight, showed a look of defeat.

They don't just have nothing.

Even.

May suffer catastrophe!

"Hey, why didn't you choose to join the Yunhuang Empire?"

"Anyway, the failure of the domain battle and the destruction of the domain are also a dead end."

"It's better to join the Yunhuang Empire and take a gamble."

Who knows what this group of people was thinking?

A frog in a well.

Although I regret it.

But there is nothing to do.

Things have happened, it's over.

Then there is no room for regret.

at the same time.

There are still some forces that are even more panicked.

These forces have publicly stated that they do not support the Yunhuang Empire.

Even opposed the reconstruction of the Yunhuang Empire!

Or, there is friction and hatred with the Caotang, Yunhuang Empire and other forces.

Today, these forces.

Someone took a heavy treasure and went to Yunhuang City, wanting to take the blame.

Hope that the Yunhuang Empire will be lenient.

also has power.

Terrified, but afraid to take action.

Even, some sects disbanded directly to save their own lives.

And these forces have hatred with the Yunhuang Empire.

Bear the brunt of it.

is Buddhism.

All forces.

All set their sights on Buddhism in the Western Regions.

I want to see how the Yunhuang Empire will deal with the fate of this super power.

soon.

Yunhuang Empire gave the answer.

Leaded by the National Division.

The Nine Heavens Department, as well as the forces under it, lead troops to the Western Regions.

Goal, Buddhism!

Buddhism seems to have a hunch.

Around Foshan, there is a golden barrier rising!

This is the Buddhist mountain guard array!

Within that big formation.

Four big Buddhas, with many bodhisattvas and novice monks, are waiting in full force!

Everyone has a different expression on their face.

Either calm or restless.

Or panic, or fear!

When the army of the Yunhuang Empire approached the foot of Foshan.

The national teacher held the scepter and shouted loudly: "Where is the Lord Buddha?"

On the top of Foshan Mountain, a golden light flashed away.

In the blink of an eye, Lord Buddha appeared in front of the national teacher.

Put your hands together, and said: "Amitabha, it seems that I would like to congratulate the Yunhuang Empire, which won the final victory in the domain battle and saved the barren realm."

"On behalf of Buddhism, on behalf of the mortals on this continent, thank you for your dedication."

The national teacher sneered: "Lord Buddha, there is no need to say more hypocritical words."

"You should also know the purpose of our coming here?"

Heard the words.

The Lord Buddha's face was not unexpectedly panicked.

Instead, there is only calm.

Only listening to the Lord Buddha said lightly: "Of course I know, but I still have to fight hard."

"After all, Buddhism has been developed for tens of thousands of years."

"The foundation of tens of thousands of years cannot be said to disappear."

Finished speaking.

The breath of the realm of the Buddha Lord and Half Emperor exploded suddenly!

Buddha light flashes!

Soaring into the sky!

Seeing this, the national teacher held a scepter and followed the Lord Buddha and rose into the air.

Soon.

Then came the aftermath of the collision!

The battle between two Half Emperor powerhouses.

also became the fuse of this war.

Nine Heavens Department, Tibetan Taoist Academy, Yinjianzong, Mu Family, Li Family and other forces lead their respective people towards Foshan!

Today.

There are only four False God Realm powerhouses in Buddhism.

But.

On the side of the Yunhuang Empire.

But there are Nine Heavens Department, Dean Yan of Tibetan Taoist Academy, Hidden Sword Sect Master Lin Rufeng, Mu Family Mu Heze, and Li Family Patriarch and other False God Realm powerhouses!

Below this lineup gap.

The defeat of Buddhism is already obvious.

at the same time.

This war did not last too long.

Soon, the entire Foshan was bleeding like a river!

Four Buddhas were seriously injured, surrounded by many False God Realm powerhouses.

Looking at the people in the Buddhist sect who were unilaterally slaughtered in Foshan, I couldn't help but feel bitter.

At the beginning, it was the decision of Buddhism.

Really correct?

However, these are not important anymore.

They also couldn't prevent the people of the Yunhuang Empire from massacring the Buddhists.

After all, the positions are different.

Buddhism is a loser.

The loser will have to bear the corresponding punishment!

but.

It is at this moment.

An old man suddenly appeared on Foshan.

The old man sighed softly: "Alas... benefactors, please stop."

The sound is slight.

However, it reached everyone's ears!

Everyone can't help but look up.

I saw that a tyrannical aura was slowly rising from the old man's body.

This breath.

It surprised everyone.

Half Emperor!

This old man.

is also a half-emperor!

On the side of the Yunhuang Empire.

Ning Chenxin also looked up.

Can't help being slightly taken aback.

This old man.

It was the abbot of Qingxin Temple who wanted to accept him as a disciple at the beginning!

The national teacher and the Lord Buddha also stopped fighting and came around the abbot of Qingxin Temple.

Abbot smiled wryly, clasped his hands together and said, "Amitabha, all benefactors, don't do any more evil."

"Fomen, he has already paid the price he should have paid."

The leader of the Nine Heavens Department, Yun Zhan sneered, and said, "The price? Is this price enough?"

"Thousands of years ago, it was also because of Buddhism's revelation that the Continental Alliance collapsed in a short period of time!"

"It also led to the failure of the domain war, and many sect forces perished!"

"The Yunhuang Empire was also destroyed!"

"Among them, how many people died? Buddhism has not yet perished, how is this price enough?"

Abbot of Qingxin Temple smiled wryly upon hearing this.

What the other party said is the truth.

He couldn't argue.

I had to say: "When is the time for revenge..."

However, this sentence is also particularly weak.

After all, Buddhism is the loser.

The national division turned around and looked at Hong Ying who was sitting in the center of the army.

Obviously.

It is for Hongying to make the decision.

Hongying glanced at the abbot of Qingxin Temple and the Buddhist gate that was bleeding like a river.

After thinking about it.

said, "We can stop."

As soon as the words came out.

Lord Buddha was also a little surprised.

Hongying continued: "However, the Buddha of Buddhism, as well as the Buddha Lord, must die."

"This is the emperor's condition."

heard the decision.

Yun Zhan stopped talking.

After all, the Empress must support 100% of her words.

At the same time, Hongying also had her own ideas.

After all, Buddhism has many believers.

If you rashly destroy Buddhism.

Then, the Yunhuang Empire is bound to be dissatisfied by many Buddhist believers.

This is somewhat disadvantageous for the Yunhuang Empire to completely control the barren realm.

Therefore, this decision was made.

The Lord Buddha looked at Hongying, smiled and said: "Amitabha, Your Majesty the Empress is magnanimous, then, please keep your Majesty's promise."

Hongying nodded.

See this, Lord Buddha and the four great Buddhas.

At this moment, they all sat down cross-legged.

Hands together.

At the same time, a blue light lit up between the five people's eyebrows!

Soul, disappear at this moment!

That's it.

The Buddha Lord of Buddhism, as well as the Great Buddha, all died.

Buddhism exists in name only...

Chapter 265 Lu Changsheng: Shi Sheng, you won't cause trouble, will you?

The six Buddhas of Buddhism.

and the Buddha Lord who was in the realm of the half emperor all fell.

The abbot of Qingxin Temple took over the Buddhist gate.

At the same time, clean it up and change the way Buddhism used to cultivate believers in the mainland!

This battle has officially come to an end.

Eryin Sword Sect, Zang Dao Academy, Mu Family, Li Family, and many sect forces.

They all chose to become subordinate forces of the Yunhuang Empire!

Since then, the Yunhuang Empire has justifiably become the ruling force in the barren realm.

but.

Those in the know know that the Yunhuang Empire is only the strongest power in the mainland on the surface.

Actually.

The strongest one is Caotang.

The eldest disciple Ye Qiubai developed the Qingyun Sword Sect in the Southern Region.

Second disciple Hongying, the ruler of Yunhuang Empire.

The third disciple, Ning Chenxin, restarted Confucianism and Taoism in the Western Regions and established a study.

Although the fourth disciple Xiao Hei and the fifth disciple Shi Sheng did not create forces.

But the strength is not weaker than others!

More importantly, Lu Changsheng.

Recognized as the first person in the mainland.

Turn the world around with your own power and win the battle!

Although there are only six people in the cottage.

However, no one dared to provoke him.

Because the thatched cottage has Lu Changsheng.

Closer to home.

The screen changed, and we came to the extreme north of the Northern Territory.

At this time, most of the glaciers in the extreme north have melted.

The reason for this is also because Lu Changsheng was on the road to heaven and used the Chiyang Wind Killing Formation.

And at this moment.

Deep in the Arctic ice sheet.

has been covered in blood.

The ground is full of remnants of monsters.

Every monster here is in the False God Realm!

At this moment, Xiao Hei stood on top of these remnants.

Stepping on the ice that has been covered with blood.

In his flesh.

Has been completely covered by the three stripes!

The first line is a pattern full of flame power.

The second path is filled with the power of ice.

And this third way.

is blood red.

Among them, there are appalling killing intents!

So far.

Xiao Hei's third layer of Eternal Demon Physique has also been cultivated to great success.

Physical strength skyrocketed again!

I am afraid.

Today's Xiao Hei already has the power to compete with the powerhouses of the Half-Emperor Realm.

Flesh alone.

People who have cultivated to this level.

In the wild world, unprecedented!

Now Xiao Hei will not fall into a state of madness at every turn.

Can stay awake while killing.

That kind of crazy state, Xiao Hei can also open it at any time.

Increase your physical strength.

But still able to clear the Lingtai.

Xiao Hei took a long breath, and threw away the magic beast that had lost its breath.

Wipe the blood off his body casually.

There is the Southern Region.

There is a cottage there.

Xiao Hei's face was covered with blood, but he showed a simple and honest smile, put away the sound transmission jade pendant in his hand, and said, "It's been so long since I've been out, I should go back."

For Xiao Hei.

Although a small part of memory has been awakened.

But nowadays.

The thatched cottage is still his home.

The only home...

Say it.

Xiao Hei stepped lightly on the ground.

Click!

The ice layer shattered instantly!

The glaciers are starting to crumble!

And Xiao Hei has also disappeared in place.

Relying entirely on the power of the body, flying in mid-air, in this space, there were bursts of sonic booms!

At a speed that is hard to see with the naked eye, he dashed back in the direction of thatched cottage.

At the moment.

In the thatched cottage.

Hongying, Ye Qiubai, and Ning Chenxin have returned.

Forced by Lu Changsheng's lust.

The three of them are busy in the kitchen...

Mu Wan'er giggled when she saw this scene.

"If someone else finds out, Brother Qiubai, who is the master of Qingyun Sword Sect."

"The empress of the Yunhuang Empire who rules this continent, Sister Hongying."

"There is also Confucianism orthodox brother Chen Xin, who cooks in the kitchen, shouldn't scare a group of people to death?"

Lie down on the recliner.

Lu Changsheng, with his hands resting on the back of his head, closed his eyes and said, "How awesome is it? You're not my apprentice yet."

"Aren't apprentices just for commanding?"

Mu Wan'er: "..."

That makes sense.

I can't even refute it!

Ye Qiubai and the three came out carrying the food.

Hearing these words, he couldn't help shaking his head helplessly.

But there is no way.

They're used to it.

"Okay, let's have dinner when the fourth child comes back."

"The little black brother is coming back too?"

Ye Qiubai nodded, bent down to place the food on the stone table, and said with a smile, "I've already contacted him just now."

Lu Changsheng walked over slowly and sat down like a middle-aged old man who had just finished 996 and had no energy.

Picking up the chopsticks, he curled his lips and said, "What are you doing when you come back? Another pair of bowls and chopsticks will be added. This guy cultivates his body and eats a lot."

But, so to speak.

Lu Changsheng was just playing with the chopsticks in his hand, and didn't take the lead.

Ye Qiubai and the others also smiled when they saw this.

they know.

Master just likes to say hello.

My heart is still very tight to these disciples.

Wait until Xiao Hei comes back.

Everyone is ready for dinner.

When eating.

Hongying said: "After that, what are your plans?"

Today.

The domain war is over.

The Heavenly Spirit Realm has also officially become a vassal realm of the Yunhuang Empire.

Now, everyone can go to the Heavenly Spirit Realm to practice.

The aura in the wild realm is too barren after all.

Ye Qiubai smiled and said, "After sorting out the matter of Qingyun Sword Sect, I will go to a place called Borderless Domain."

"Borderless domain?"

Ye Qiubai nodded, and said: "First, I just want to experience it."

"There is a second point, Zi Qing, it seems to be in the borderless domain."

Everyone was stunned.

"However, I don't know the exact location of the Borderless Domain yet. Let me ask when I go to the Heavenly Spirit Realm."

Lu Changsheng curled his lips and said, "Don't run too far."

Ye Qiubai was immediately moved, and said with a smile: "Don't worry, Master, I will often go home and have a look."

Lu Changsheng was taken aback.

"What? Are you coming back??"

"I mean, you ran too far, and when I get into trouble and need me to go out, I have to run so far?"

Ye Qiubai: "..."

Damn it, Bai was moved...

Hongying laughed and said, "What about Chenxin?"

Ning Chen thought for a while and said, "I won't go for now."

"First here, do a good job in the inheritance of Confucianism and Taoism, and then go to the Tianling Realm to spread my thoughts there. It will probably take a long time."

Hongying nodded, "This place should be fine, after all, you already have a reputation, and, besides, you still have the title of Master."

Lu Changsheng rolled his eyes.

But he didn't speak.

After this war.

He knew that he was much stronger than those in the Emperor Realm.

In the barbaric realm and the heavenly realm, there will be no opponents for him.

At this moment, Xiao Hei took the initiative to say, "I'll go with Elder Brother."

"I want to go out and look for memory fragments."

Ye Qiubai nodded.

Immediately, everyone looked at Shi Sheng.

Shi Sheng scratched his head and said, "Then, I will go with Eldest Brother too."

"I also want to go out and practice, so that I can improve my strength quickly."

Immediately, he looked at Lu Changsheng and asked, "Master?"

Lu Changsheng smiled and said: "No problem, I understand your temper, and you will definitely not cause trouble like the other brats."

Chapter 266

Repair of the way of heaven.

It is being carried out with the help of the Heavenly Spirit Realm.

According to this time.

After seven days, the repair can be completed.

And these seven days.

Ye Qiubai handed over the matter of Qingyun Jianzong to Liang Feng.

Jian Chaomian will go to the Heavenly Spirit Realm to practice.

Liang Feng originally wanted to go too.

However, Qingyun Jianzong really has no one else to trust, so he can only assume the responsibility of acting suzerain.

Study.

Ning Chenxin has received many Confucian and Taoist practitioners who have the same ideals.

Among them, Zhong Wu from the Southern Region Tibetan Taoist Academy and the Confucian Academy was included!

Because Zhong Wu.

The dean of the Confucian Academy did not hesitate to protest with Lu Changsheng.

After all, Zhong Wu is the successor of the Confucian Academy in the future.

Was Ning Chenxin poached like this?

As the dean of the Confucian Academy, he can also be regarded as Ning Chenxin's elder.

It's not good to talk to Ning Chenxin directly.

Then I can only find Lu Changsheng.

to this end.

Lu Changsheng hid himself.

So as not to be annoyed...

At this time, the Yunhuang Empire, Yunhuang City.

is the most lively place.

after all.

Want to go to the Heavenly Spirit Realm.

Needed Hongying's approval.

If the people in the barbaric realm, all go to the heavenly realm.

Then, the monastic civilization in the barren realm will gradually wither.

This is what Hongying doesn't want to see.

after all.

The root of the Yunhuang Empire lies in the barren realm.

Countless forces and casual cultivators went to Yunhuang City.

Wants to meet Empress Hongying.

At the moment.

In the imperial palace.

Hongying looked at Dean Yan and Lin Rufeng, and said with a smile, "You two really don't want to think about it anymore? After all, only by going to the Heavenly Spirit Realm will you have a chance to make another breakthrough."

Dean Yan waved his hand with a smile, and said: "Your Majesty, there is no need to persuade you anymore. Now, the Tibetan Taoist Academy still needs to be under the jurisdiction. I will not leave until I find an heir."

"What's more, in today's barren realm, there is a lot of waste waiting to be rebuilt. The Tibetan Taoist Academy must continue to fulfill its mission of preaching."

Lin Rufeng also nodded, "My thoughts are the same as the old saying. After I have a suitable heir, I will gradually delegate power."

"At that time, I will leave here and go out for a break."

Hearing this, Hongying nodded.

At this time, outside the imperial palace.

There are five forces coming together.

But was stopped by the imperial guards outside.

However, the suzerain of that power was not angry, but smiled flatteringly.

"We want to see Her Majesty the Empress, may I let you know?"

The imperial guards didn't answer, but blocked the gate of the imperial palace with the spear in their hands.

Seeing this, the suzerain secretly hated him, but it didn't show on his face, he still had a smile on his face.

In his hand, he took out some heavy treasures and handed them over.

"Can you accommodate me?"

The guard still didn't answer.

At this time.

There is a man who fell from the sky!

This person is wearing general armor.

The realm is in the False God Realm!

It was Yun Ming from the Nine Heavens Division!

The five suzerains immediately cupped their fists respectfully and said, "Senior!"

After Yunming arrived, the guard explained the situation to him.

Yun Ming nodded, looked at the five suzerains, sneered, and said, "You guys have thick skins."

The five of them all looked embarrassed.

"When the empress rebuilt the empire, you didn't respond."

"After launching the domain war, they ignored it and didn't have any support."

"Now, do you still have the face to ask His Majesty?"

At the beginning.

The reconstruction of the Yunhuang Empire.

Some people refuse, while others remain neutral.

When launching a campaign.

These forces did not respond at all!

Yunhuang Empire will not force them to participate.

After all, this is a matter of life and death for the sect.

It is normal not to participate.

However, the victory in the domain battle.

When sharing the results of the battle.

These forces want to get a piece of the pie.

How can there be such a good thing?

Such forces have already come several times.

However, they were all beaten back by Yunming.

After being said like this, the faces of the five people were all ugly.

However, I dare not do it.

After all, in terms of the strength of Yun Ming in front of him, he is higher than them!

Not to mention Hongying...

"Okay, don't embarrass yourself here, leave quickly!"

The five suzerains all sighed, turned and left.

When they turned around.

The head of the Mu family in Zhongyu, Mu Heze came here.

Yun Ming smiled and cupped his fists: "Patriarch Mu."

Mu Heze also responded politely.

"Senior, I'm here to see His Majesty."

Yun Ming didn't stop him this time, and nodded with a smile, letting the guards let him go.

When the five suzerains saw this, they were all envious.

will not feel unfair.

After all, the Mu family supported the Yunhuang Empire when it was being rebuilt.

And stand at the forefront during the domain battle!

Ki Heze was able to go in, which couldn't be more reasonable.

...

Seven days.

For ascetics, it is just a matter of sitting in meditation.

passed by in a flash.

The repair of Tianlu has also been officially completed.

The forces in the barbaric realm, after passing the permission of the Yunhuang Empire.

Then you will be able to enter the heavenly road and go to the heavenly realm.

At the moment.

Beyond the sky.

Many people are standing here.

Among them, monks from Tibetan Taoist Academy, Hidden Sword Sect, Mu Family, Li Family and other forces are included.

Hongying is also here.

By her side, everyone in the thatched cottage is there.

Except for Lu Changsheng...

today.

The first batch of people going to the Heavenly Spirit Realm is about to set off.

Ye Qiubai looked at Ning Chenxin and said with a smile: "Third brother, take care, I don't know when I'll be back after I go, Master respects him as an old man, and I will leave it to you to take care of him."

Ning Chen smiled and nodded.

"Master doesn't need me to take care of you."

Ye Qiubai joked: "You must cook for him."

Everyone looked at each other and laughed.

Those who went to the Heavenly Spirit Realm this time.

Ye Qiubai, Hongying, Xiao Hei, and Shi Sheng.

Ning Chenxin and Mu Wan'er will stay here.

Mu Wan'er's current strength is not enough.

However, his alchemy realm has reached the alchemy master!

A few days ago.

Already able to refine the earth-level peak elixir!

As for Hongying.

It is to take a group of people from the Yunhuang Empire to the Heavenly Spirit Realm to establish the residence of the Yunhuang Empire.

In this way, you can better control the Heavenly Spirit Realm!

Mu Wan'er stepped forward and hugged Ye Qiubai, with tears on her face.

"Brother Qiubai, I will miss you."

Ye Qiubai touched Mu Wan'er's head with a smile, and said: "Although the master didn't accept you as an apprentice, your talent is not weak. Keep practicing, and we will meet again in the future."

Xiao Hei also smiled honestly: "We will wait for you in the borderless area."

Mu Wan'er nodded heavily!

Time is up.

The way to heaven is opened.

Led by the Caotang disciples, everyone set foot on the space ship.

Let's go to the Heavenly Spirit Realm!

This is how it starts!

At the moment.

In the high-latitude boundaries.

In a certain hall.

A black-clothed figure knelt on one knee and reported the affairs of the barren realm.

Sitting on a top chair, a man in black nodded and said: "There are very few mistakes in the dark list, but every time the people who make mistakes are all those who are at the peak."

"How about this, send a five-star deacon to win him over personally."

The figure in black looked shocked!

Five-star deacon?

Those are all the existences that win over the top five in the dark list!

Chapter 267 Killing chickens and monkeys is the closest boundary to the barren realm.

Spirit Realm.

But the distance is still not close.

Even relying on the space ship, it took a full four days.

before reaching the destination.

When the spaceship breaks through the space and enters the realm of the heavenly spirit.

Everyone could feel that an aura that was dozens of times stronger than that of the barbaric realm rushed towards their faces!

Everyone, the aura of the meridians in the body is also running rapidly.

No wonder.

Why there are eight emperor realm powerhouses in the Tianling Realm.

Under this huge aura.

As long as you have the opportunity and talent, you don't have to worry about the reserve of aura.

At this time.

In front of the space ship.

Kong Jianghan's figure appeared.

I saw him respectfully say to Hongying: "Your Majesty, the Yunhuang Emperor Palace has been completed."

Now, the fate of Kong Jianghan is in Hongying's hands.

It can be said.

Hongying's thought.

Then you can take your life!

Therefore, there is no need to worry about Kong Jianghan secretly thinking about something wrong.

Hongying nodded and said, "Take us there."

Hearing the words, Kong Jianghan pointed the way ahead.

In the Tianling Realm, the Yunhuang Emperor Palace is at the center.

The city in the center has now been renamed Yunhuang City.

Adjacent to Tianlingzong.

The space ship stopped in an open space.

The Nine Heavens Department and the National Teacher took their hands and began to familiarize themselves with the surrounding environment.

Ye Qiubai came to Kong Jianghan's side and asked, "Sect Master Kong, I wonder if you have heard of the place called Borderless Domain."

"Borderless domain?"

Kong Jianghan was taken aback for a moment, and asked in doubt: "What do you ask about Borderless Domain?"

Ye Qiubai said: "Naturally, I want to venture out."

It can't be said that it is to find a woman, right?

"This should be enough for you to practice now, right?"

Kong Jianghan frowned, and said: "Let me remind you, the borderless domain is the strongest domain in this low-latitude domain! No one."

"The people in it are naturally many times stronger than the barbaric realm and the heavenly realm."

"It can be said that other realms in the low latitudes need to act according to the face of the borderless realm."

"You didn't know it at the beginning, and it was only because the Borderless Domain had no intentions, and there was no need to come to govern you."

Ye Qiubai asked: "Are all the people there strong?"

Kong Jianghan nodded and said: "Very strong, here, maybe you can be called the evildoer among the evildoers!"

after all.

Now Ye Qiubai has reached the realm of Jianzong!

This kind of cultivation has reached this state.

Among the sword cultivators, they are naturally at the monstrous level.

Even in the realm of the heavenly spirit, it is the same.

"However, in that borderless domain, you can only be considered okay."

Kong Jianghan seemed to recall something, and said with emotion: "Even in my current state, if I go to the Borderless Realm, I have to walk with my tail between my legs, do you understand?"

"Even so, do you want to go?"

Ye Qiubai smiled and nodded, "Of course."

Sword repair.

Facing the difficulties.

You can't just see a difficult thing and just be afraid, afraid of your hands and feet.

In this way, the sword in your hand will be less determined!

Kong Jianghan looked seriously at the expression on Ye Qiubai's face.

"It's not a coincidence that you can cultivate swordsmanship to such an extent."

"At that time, you and I will go to Tianlingzong, where there is the only space road leading to the borderless realm."

"Then I would like to thank Sect Master Kong."

Kong Jianghan waved his hand.

after.

Hongying led everyone in the Yunhuang Empire to understand all the current situation in the spiritual world.

Immediately afterwards, four powerful men from the imperial realm headed by Kong Jianghan were recruited.

After discussing some things about managing the Heavenly Spirit Realm in the future.

Learned.

When some forces learned that the Heavenly Spirit Realm would be ruled by the Yunhuang Empire in the future.

There was a voice of protest.

decided to set out to suppress these forces forcefully.

After all, I am new here.

The new official takes office three fires.

It is necessary to find some sect forces to kill chickens and monkeys.

Otherwise, how can they suppress these natives of the Heavenly Spirit Realm who claim to be superior to others?

As the empress, Hongying naturally wouldn't do it herself.

Then Ye Qiubai, Ning Chenxin, Xiao Hei, and Shi Sheng led the members of the Nine Heavens Department.

Go to those who resist.

Forcibly suppress!

The first station.

is a second-rate sect belonging to the Tianling Realm.

Thick Soil Gate.

And its suzerain is a strong man in the late stage of False God Realm!

This is also the gap between the Heavenly Spirit Realm and the Savage Realm.

Just a second-rate force.

Its suzerain is a strong man in the late stage of False God Realm!

When Ye Qiubai and others came here.

The master of Houtu Sect had already brought his disciples and waited at the gate of the mountain.

Someone has a dignified face.

Some people also showed contempt.

I think, no matter how strong a power in a barbaric realm can be, how strong can it be?

However, those who have this idea are only those low-level disciples.

My brain is not working well.

However, the owner of the Houtu Sect is very clear.

Since the other party has become the ruler of the Heavenly Spirit Realm.

That also means that their strength is stronger than that of Tianlingzong!

And why would he disagree with the Yunhuang Empire being in charge of the Heavenly Spirit Realm?

And take the initiative to jump out?

It was also because of Kong Jianghan's strategy.

is not aimed at the Yunhuang Empire.

But those forces that are not very quiet in the dark.

Take the initiative to let some forces jump out to oppose.

Then, let the Yunhuang Empire send people to suppress it!

In this way, the effect of killing chickens and monkeys is achieved.

If Kong Jianghan doesn't do this.

Then, in a short period of time, no one will take the initiative to jump out to be this early bird.

When Ye Qiubai and his party came here.

The head of the Houtu Sect took the initiative to say: "It is very simple for us to admit the Yunhuang Empire, as long as one of you can defeat me."

Ye Qiubai smiled and said, "Who will go?"

Xiao Hei stood up.

Scratching his head, he said with a smile, "I'll do it."

Just right, Xiao Hei still wants to try.

After the third level of the Eternal Demon Physique was completed, how much has it been improved?

Upon seeing this, the head of the Houtu Sect found a khaki-yellow aura around his body, which began to flow slowly.

Those air currents carry a little bit of gravel.

Immediately, the master of the Houtu Sect pushed out with one palm!

That bit of gravel turned into a gigantic sandstorm, sweeping across the world!

The strength of the strong in the late stage of the False God Realm will naturally not be weak!

Seeing this, Xiao Hei grinned.

In His flesh.

There are three lines appearing at the same time!

A monstrous killing intent soared into the sky at this moment!

All the clouds in the sky were scattered for it!

The master of Houtumen was slightly taken aback.

This killing intent is too strong!

Ordinary people cannot cultivate this killing intent!

And the Houtumen disciple behind him.

His face was even more horrified!

Some people with unstable mood.

even half-kneeled on the ground!

A ascetic who came out of the wild realm.

How can there be such strength?

this problem.

Haunting in the hearts of Houtumen disciples...

Chapter 268 Departure

The third layer of the eternal magic body.

It is dominated by killing intent, forming lines of killing intent on Xiao Hei's body!

Among the lines.

Contains a monstrous killing intent!

When the strength of the physical body erupts, it will also erupt with endless killing intent.

Under one punch.

Not only will it affect the opponent's state of mind, but the power of the fist covered by killing intent will also increase exponentially!

Facing the attack of the master of Houtumen.

The sandstorm sweeping the sky and the earth hit Xiao Hei!

Xiao Hei didn't retreat at all.

Instead, there was excitement in his eyes!

For Xiao Hei.

Except thatched cottage, except that memory fragment.

The only thing that can make him interested is fighting!

Kill in battle.

The carefree feeling is what Xiao Hei pursues in his heart!

At this time, Xiao Hei, instead of retreating, advances!

Footsteps suddenly stepped in the void!

Space trembles!

If it is in the wild realm.

With Xiao Hei's kick, the space will be shattered!

However, in the realm of the heavenly spirit, the space is much more stable than in the realm of the wild.

Xiao Hei stepped forward.

The body is like a cannonball, rushing towards the sandstorm!

Under the horrified eyes of the disciples of the Houtu Sect.

Xiao Hei's fist covered with killing intent.

Blast out with a punch!

The monstrous murderous intent gathered on Xiao Hei's fist at this moment!

Like a * Shura!

Violently shook with that sandstorm!

Boom!

Xiao Hei's current physical strength.

It can be said that it has been able to ignore the attacks of the strong late False God Realm to a certain extent!

Under the sweeping sandstorm.

It was just white marks drawn on Xiao Hei's body.

That's all!

And under this punch!

This sandstorm sweeping across the world, at this moment, burst from the inside!

The sandstorm also fell apart at this moment!

Countless gravel fell everywhere in this world!

The master of the Houtu Gate looked slightly startled.

he knows.

The Yunhuang Empire was able to defeat the Heavenly Spirit Sect, and control the Heavenly Spirit Realm under the eyes of a powerful emperor like Kong Jianghan!

There must be corresponding strength.

However, what the master of Houtumen did not expect.

This one is unknown.

It doesn't look like the main force of the Yunhuang Empire.

But can burst out such a powerful physical strength?

Isn't the barbaric realm an extremely backward realm of monastic civilization?

How could there be such a powerful person?

but.

Now the master of the Houtu Sect has no time to think about it.

Xiao Hei's figure has passed through the sandstorm and punched him!

The physical strength on that fist.

Speak bluntly.

The master of Houtumen himself is not sure that he can resist this blow head-on!

I saw the master of Houtumen fall to the ground.

Hands suddenly hit the ground!

A series of earthen walls.

Rising from the ground to the sky!

blocked in front of Xiao Hei!

Xiao Hei didn't hesitate at all.

Facing the huge and thick earth wall in front of you.

Punch after punch!

Every punch falls.

will break a wall of earth!

so.

It just affected Xiao Hei's speed.

But.

This is exactly the purpose of the master of Houtumen.

He never thought about it.

Just relying on these few earthen walls, it can stop Xiao Hei's attack!

It's just to buy this moment of time!

The battle between the strong.

Even if it is a minute and a second.

Huge changes will happen!

After Xiao Hei smashed all the earthen walls blocking him.

The figure of the master of Houtumen also appeared in his eyes!

I saw the master of the Houtu Sect making a formula with both hands at this moment.

A strong sense of earth.

At this moment, crazy condensed!

And the meaning of the crazily condensed soil.

It turned into a huge mountain!

Following the hands of the master of Houtumen, it fell.

The huge mountain peak, also at this moment, moved towards Xiao Hei to suppress it!

Block out the sun!

When the mountain falls.

The surrounding space feels squeezed!

The airflow in the space forms convection with the mountain peak!

Xiao Hei raised his head slightly.

There was no change in his complexion.

Make a fist with five fingers.

Both fists blasted towards the suppressing mountain above their heads!

The killing intent rushed out from the fists!

Crash towards the mountain that fell from the sky!

The master of Houtumen stared at this scene.

This attack.

It can be said to be his strongest blow.

If this is still nothing to do with Xiao Hei.

So.

I will not be Xiao Hei's opponent.

Under the eyes of everyone.

The two blood-red saber-toothed tigers crashed into the mountain with their blood-red bodies!

Boom!

Between heaven and earth.

There was a huge earthquake!

An invisible air wave.

Centered on the intersection of the two attacks, spread towards the surrounding!

People with low strength are under the influence of this wave of anger.

The station can't even stand firm!

at the same time.

In the next instant.

The pupils of the master of Houtumen suddenly shrank!

The huge mountain that contains all his strength.

at this moment.

There are actually countless cracks.

From bottom to top, keep extending!

Immediately.

Under everyone's horrified eyes.

This huge mountain shattered directly!

Countless boulders are falling slowly in the air!

The master of Houtumen smiled wryly upon seeing this.

Completely defeated.

Xiao Hei's physical strength is overwhelming.

Break through all his attacks!

I could only sigh, and said in a low voice, "I lost."

Listen.

Xiao Hei then stopped and returned to Ye Qiubai's side.

The people in Houtumen also had expressions everywhere.

However, the same thing is the horror that cannot be concealed in those eyes!

The sect masters all lost?

Is a person so strong who comes out of the barbaric realm?

The head of Houtumen said: "Afterwards, Houtumen will fully support the Yunhuang Empire in controlling the Heavenly Spirit Realm."

See it.

Ye Qiubai and others nodded.

Turn around and leave.

There are several other forces.

is waiting for them to deal with.

And these.

It didn't take much time either.

In one day, all the opposing forces were silenced.

That's it.

Yunhuang Empire.

Also gained a firm foothold in the Heavenly Spirit Realm.

...

Stayed here for a few more days.

The strength of Caotang and other disciples has been further improved.

The rich aura of the heavenly realm.

Let their realms break through.

Ye Qiubai successfully reached the late stage of the Qianyuan Realm.

Shi Sheng also broke through to the False God Realm!

Hongying also reached the middle stage of False God Realm!

this day.

Ye Qiubai, Xiao Hei, and Shi Sheng are also planning to set off.

A group of people came to Tianlingzong.

At the back mountain of Tianlingzong.

There is a crack in space suppressed by the formation.

Kong Jianghan said: "At that time, I will release the formation, and you will take the space ship and go to the borderless domain here."

Ye Qiubai nodded, then looked at Hongying, and said with a smile: "Junior Sister, let me bid farewell."

Hongying smiled and nodded.

"After I finish handling these things, I will come to you."

"I hope that at that time, brother, you will already be able to dominate the borderless domain."

"Don't be at the bottom when I come here."

Ye Qiubai laughed, "That's natural."

Kong Jianghan felt helpless.

Borderless domain, how can it be as simple as you think?

Then.

Kong Jianghan untied the formation.

Ye Qiubai and the others, let's start here!

Chapter 269 Mu Fusheng

The distance from the Heavenly Spirit Realm to the Borderless Realm.

Extremely far away.

Take a space ship and want to reach the borderless domain.

It will take at least seven days.

Moreover, it is still under the condition that there is no space turbulence and space storm.

Long time space shuttle.

The possibility of encountering a space storm is extremely high!

And at this time.

Ye Qiubai and the others have been on the spaceship for three days.

The three of them took turns controlling the space ship.

There are no surprises for the time being.

But.

It's the fourth day.

A large number of turbulent space flows towards the three of them!

The other two have stopped practicing.

came to the bow.

However, there was no panic.

Ye Qiubai smiled and said: "This is the first time I have encountered this turbulent flow in space, and I don't know how powerful it is."

Shi Sheng scratched his head, and said: "It is said that the turbulent flow in space is terrifying, and it should be quite powerful."

Xiao Hei showed excitement in his eyes.

"This space is turbulent, I'll try it."

The fourth layer of texture of the Eternal Demon Body is the space texture!

And tempering the body in this turbulent space will undoubtedly increase the progress of the fourth floor at the fastest speed.

Follow Xiao Hei's idea.

It would be best if the body could be tempered directly in the space storm.

If Kong Jianghan and the others know what Xiao Hei thinks.

I'm afraid I'm speechless...

A space storm that even the strongest in the imperial realm cannot forcibly resist.

Ye Qiubai and Shi Sheng did not stop them.

Since Xiao Hei said so, he naturally has his confidence and reason.

I saw Xiao Hei jumping out.

broke away from the space ship's protective formation.

Facing the turbulent flow of space!

When facing the turbulent flow of this space.

Xiao Hei will naturally not take it lightly.

The three-layer pattern of the eternal magic body exploded at this moment!

Three lines of lines shone all over Xiao Hei's body.

The pattern of fire, the pattern of ice, and the pattern of killing intent.

Three lines are blessed at the same time.

Made Xiao Hei's physical strength reach an extremely terrifying level!

but.

Rao is so.

When the spatial turbulence hit Xiao Hei's body.

All made Xiao Hei's body tremble!

It's like a sharp knife that can penetrate.

Constantly piercing Xiao Hei's body!

but.

It is precisely because of this.

Only then can the body be tempered.

The most direct way to improve the physical body.

It is to face the endless pain with the physical body.

And after adapting and merging those pains.

Physical strength will also start to improve.

The road to physical training.

This is a road full of hardships.

Since ancient times, among ten thousand people, not necessarily one person has embarked on the road of physical training.

This makes sense.

Among them, not only extremely huge resources are required.

It is even more necessary to endure the unbearable pain of ordinary people.
certainly.

Once successful.

Physical training can explode with power against the sky!

In the turbulent flow of space.

Xiao Hei's body kept shaking.

Obviously, in great pain!

However, he still clenched his teeth and did not make any sound.

On the body, there is gradually a fourth line beginning to loom!

Among the huge risks.

Accompanied by chance.

Ye Qiubai was in the space ship, watching this scene with a solemn expression.

Although I know that Xiao Hei has his own confidence.

However, in the space, there are dangers everywhere.

No one knows what dangers there will be.

Something is wrong.

Ye Qiubai will take action to bring Xiao Hei back.

At this time.

In the space on the side, there is also a space ship sailing out!

Ye Qiubai and Shi Sheng were both attracted.

This space ship is the same size as them.

But the formation in it.

and how strong it is.

It is not comparable to the space ship under Ye Qiubai's feet.

The dragon head of that spaceship.

There are two men.

The leading man was dressed in a white robe with a faint smile on his lips.

"Oh? Physical cultivation, being able to temper the body in the turbulent flow of space, I have to say, this courage alone is already very admirable."

When the man said these words.

It sounds hypocritical, but there is sincerity in his eyes.

Obviously.

The man did not ridicule, but admired from the bottom of his heart!

The guard who was one step behind him nodded in agreement.

The man looked at Ye Qiubai and Shisheng on the space ship, and asked politely: "Your Excellency, which realm are you from?"

Ye Qiubai saw that the other party was not malicious, and replied with a smile: "The Wilderness Territory."

"Wild frontier?"

The man was slightly taken aback, then looked at the guard behind him, and asked, "Xiao Si, do you know him?"

The guard known as Xiaosi thought for a while before saying, "It seems to be a realm with an extremely backward cultivation of Taoism."

"Oh? That's interesting."

"Then where do you want to go?"

There is no need to hide the fact that you are going to the borderless realm.

Ye Qiubai also truthfully said: "Borderless Domain."

"Oh? It seems that our destination is the same, should we go together?"

Xiao Si immediately stretched out his hand to persuade: "Your Highness..."

The man immediately waved his hand and said, "It's okay."

Seeing this, Xiao Si had no choice but to shake his head.

Seeing this, Ye Qiubai glanced at Shi Sheng.

Shi Sheng said with a smile: "Brother decides."

So.

The man and the guard boarded Ye Qiubai's spaceship.

Ye Qiubai also learned the man's name.

Mu Fusheng.

Mu Fusheng looked at Xiao Hei in the turbulent space, and asked with a smile, "Brother Ye, why do you want to go to the Borderless Realm?"

"The monastic civilization there may be somewhat different from yours."

Mu Fusheng's words are very euphemistic.

meaning is.

You may be the ultimate geniuses in the wild realm.

However, if you go to the borderless domain, it may be the other way around.

However, Mu Fusheng said it euphemistically to take care of Ye Qiubai and the others.

Ye Qiubai was not angry either, and said with a light smile: "Naturally, I have to experience some experience, and then be brave after knowing the shame. Similarly, only when I know the gap can I work harder."

Hearing this, Mu Fusheng laughed loudly.

"Not bad! That's the reason!"

"In my opinion, it is more commendable for you to climb to this point in the realm of low moral cultivation and civilization than those who are born with genius!"

"I would also prefer to make friends with Brother Ye!"

Ye Qiubai smiled back and took Mu Fusheng's hand, saying: "If your real face is like this, then I am also very happy."

"Brother Ye, you can rest assured, I don't like to pretend to be myself, how tiring it is."

The two held hands.

Mu Fusheng smiled and said: "In the future, if you need any help in the borderless domain, you can come to me."

"However, presumably a sword repairer like you, Brother Ye, will come to me only because he has nothing to do."

"Then come to me when you have a drink!"

Ye Qiubai was not surprised that Mu Fusheng discovered that he was a sword cultivator.

Hearing what he said, he couldn't help but smile.

This person is a bit strange, but he is very straightforward.

It is worth making friends.

Chapter 270 Boundless Empire

The spatial turbulence lasted for a full day.

This day.

The fourth layer of lines is already looming on Xiao Hei's right hand.

period.

Xiao Hei also met Mu Fusheng.

Along the way, Mu Fusheng also informed Ye Qiubai and others about the basic situation of the Borderless Domain.

Today's borderless domain.

It is undoubtedly the strongest place in the low-latitude boundary.

Talents from all walks of life gather here.

but.

These talented geniuses from other realms are still unable to challenge the status of the natives of the Borderless Realm.

at the same time.

The division of forces in the borderless domain.

One country.

is the boundless empire.

is the absolute ruler of the borderless domain!

However, although the Boundless Empire governs things in the Boundless Territory.

But for the following forces, and not too much attention.

Therefore, under the boundless empire, many forces are blooming!

in.

The most famous are the four great families.

They are the Huo family, the Leng family, the Li family, and the Mu family!

And under these four great families.

Zongmen spread throughout the borderless domain.

No ranking breakdown.

There are only first-rate forces, second-rate forces, and third-rate forces.

And outsiders.

The forces created basically only reached the second-rate forces and then ended.

However, there is one exception.

This man is from Outland.

However, with amazing talent strength.

Leading a group of people, established Tianjue Sect.

When it comes to the suzerain of Tianjue Sect.

Mu Fusheng showed a look of admiration, and said with a smile: "The suzerain of Tianjue Sect made a great reputation in the Borderless Realm with one shot at a time."

"Even my father tried to win over Aotian Sovereign at a great price, but he failed."

Ye Qiubai smiled and said, "Then Brother Mu's father is the emperor of the Boundless Empire, right?"

Mu Fusheng didn't want to hide it, he nodded with a smile, and joked: "Why, is it possible that after Brother Ye knows my identity, he's going to give birth to me?"

"That's not going to happen."

Ye Qiubai also winked and said: "I just don't know, whether the wine of the Imperial Kingdom is good or not, is it enough for me to drink?"

Hearing this, the way Mu Fusheng looked at Ye Qiubai also changed.

Before gentle and gentle, now it is like a rough wine Mongolian.

hugged Ye Qiubai's shoulder and laughed.

"Enough! Enough! As for whether it is good or not, I have a collection of fine wines in each domain!"

Fine wines from various domains?

Ye Qiubai smiled.

I'm afraid there is no liquor brewed by Master.

While they were talking.

Mu Fusheng's expression suddenly changed.

The guard on the side, Xiao Si, also held a spear, and said solemnly: "Your Highness."

Mu Fusheng nodded and looked forward.

There, there is a huge storm, which is attacking them!

"It's a space storm..."

"It seems that our luck is not very good."

Ye Qiubai and the others also looked over.

The space storm looks extremely terrifying.

It is formed by countless spatial turbulence!

On the way, Space Storm encounters a boulder.

Those boulders, before being drawn in, will be smashed into powder by the leaked power of space!

Ye Qiubai pulled out the Dark Demon Sword and asked, "What do you usually do when encountering space storms?"

Mu Fusheng touched his chin, with a serious face, and said: "You ask me how to deal with it?"

Ye Qiubai, Shi Sheng, and Xiao Hei all looked at Mu Fusheng full of curiosity.

Mu Fusheng smiled evilly and said, "Of course it's running!"

Ye Qiubai: "..."

Shi Sheng: "..."

Xiao Hei: "..."

What should I do, this person needs to be beaten!

Waiting online, very urgent!

Mu Fusheng immediately directed the guard Xiao Si to control the space ship.

At the same time, a jade seal was thrown out.

This jade seal enveloped the entire space ship!

There is a defensive formation in it!

Moreover, his body was covered with spells.

These spells.

are obviously extremely advanced defensive spells.

Each spell also contains a small formation.

Looking at Mu Fusheng who was wrapped like a rice dumpling.

Ye Qiubai was dumbfounded, and said, "You...what are you doing?"

But Mu Fusheng still had an innocent face and said, "What are you doing? Of course it's armor-piercing!"

"Or wait to be torn to pieces by the space storm?"

While talking.

Mu Fusheng still looked at Ye Qiubai with the eyes of a fool.

Ye Qiubai's brows twitched.

He suddenly felt.

The person in front of me seems so familiar...

Where have you seen this character before?

However, the guard's face was calm, as if he had already seen the strange thing.

A space storm is approaching.

The entire space ship began to tremble violently!

Under the jade seal, the array released also has waves of ripples!

It seems to be broken at any time.

Suddenly, the guard controls the spaceship to change direction!

The direction is exactly opposite to the wind direction of the space storm.

Squeak...

Under the sweeping space storm.

The spaceship drove in the opposite direction, making a sound of being overwhelmed.

Mu Fusheng complained: "Your spaceship is really weak!"

So, Ye Qiubai had the urge to throw this guy out of the spaceship...

At this time.

The guard Xiao Si reminded: "Pay attention to protecting the space ship, and don't let those space turbulence hit the space ship's keel."

The voice just fell.

Then there was a spatial turbulence like a sharp sword, shooting towards them!

Yuxi's protective formation is only to prevent the space ship from being directly smashed into powder by the space storm.

It's not that they will defend against these fish that slipped through the net.

Ye Qiubai drew his sword and stood up!

A ray of sword intent soared into the sky!

The Eighth Sword of the Heavenly Demon Nine Swords!

Jian Zong's sword intent, combined with the Heavenly Demon Nine Swords, exudes endless power!

Mu Fusheng below watched Ye Qiubai break up the turbulent flow in the space, and couldn't help nodding slightly.

"At the late stage of the Qianyuan Realm, you have reached the realm of Jianzong, which is considered pretty good among the sword cultivators in the Borderless Realm."

However, Ye Qiubai was born in a realm where the cultivation of Taoism was extremely backward.

This surprised Mu Fusheng.

In that kind of backward realm, it is still possible to cultivate to such a degree.

Once you reach the borderless domain, you will be soaring into the sky!

However, there are many such people in the borderless domain.

In the end, ninety-nine out of ten people are left without a name...

after all.

The borderless domain is the strongest existence in this low-latitude domain.

Monster?

This is the least valuable thing about borderless domains.

Only the genius monster who survives to the end can have the last laugh.

Also because of this idea.

It is only then that Mu Fusheng's character can be developed.

But.

The power of space storm is not just that simple.

Even if everyone tries their best to resist its power.

Still getting involved!

Like in the endless sea, the storm is sweeping and the waves are rolling.

The one leaf boat!

The guard Xiaosi said solemnly: "This space ship is too low-level, I'm afraid it won't last."

Shi Sheng asked: "Then can I change it now?"

Mu Fusheng shook his head and said: "I'm afraid it won't work. If you change, you will definitely be out of the protection of this space ship. At that time, during the transfer process, you will be involved in the space storm!"

Hear here.

Ye Qiubai squeezed the jade pendant in his hand, and was about to make a move.

Suddenly, a phantom descended on this space ship!
