

My Disciples 40

Chapter 40 First round of communication

Above this world, there are four figures standing in the void.

looked down.

The atmosphere in that world was turbid, and in mid-air, there were countless collapsing powers of rules!

This is the collapsed way of heaven!

One of the men said: "You mean, there is an unfathomable strong man in this barren land, who has cultivated the power of Taoism?"

"Yes." A blue-faced man nodded and said: "But I guess, it should come from a world with higher latitudes."

If Lu Changsheng was here, he would definitely be able to recognize it.

This person was the one who confronted him at the top of the blood prison secret realm!

"It can only be people who come from a higher latitude world. After all, the way of heaven collapsed in this barren land, and the power of rules turned into fragments. It is impossible to realize the rules of the way!"

"Just among them, there are still two doubts."

A female voice came out, "Oh? What doubts."

The blue-faced man looked over and said solemnly: "First, why do people from higher latitudes take a fancy to this wild land? It is impossible for the secrets of this world to be spread. Outgoing."

"The second point is how they got into it. Now this world is sealed, and they can't get in or get out. Even we can only project into this world at a high price."

One of the men shook his head and said, "I don't know, but I think the four of us should be able to solve that person by projection."

The woman also nodded, "This is a factor of instability, we cannot let him destroy our plan."

"good."

The black-clothed figure who had not spoken the whole time nodded and said, "Then get ready, set off immediately, and get rid of that person."

Say it.

The four of them disappeared in place, as if they had never appeared before.

...

The day passed.

The four-domain academy exchange has also officially started.

Ye Qiubai and others also went to the exchange venue.

Huangyuan kept reminding on the road, and said solemnly: "At that time, you must avoid being eliminated, and I will block the opponent's leader."

Immediately, he looked at Ye Qiubai again, and said casually: "Ye Qiubai, your task is to hide yourself as much as possible and get more points in the dark.

Now that your strength is exposed, the opponent will definitely compete against you to formulate tactics. "

Huang Yuan is a disciple of the dean, so he naturally knows the flow of the exchange competition.

The first exchange of martial arts is the points system.

All participants will be sent to Qingyan Mountain.

You can get points by defeating monsters.

Of course, if you encounter an enemy and are defeated by the enemy, you will lose all points and be eliminated.

Xin Hongyi stood beside Ye Qiubai, jokingly said: "It seems that you have been looked down upon?"

Ye Qiubai did not refute, but shrugged.

Arrived at the exchange venue.

People from the Four Regions Academy also gathered here.

Beiyu Tibetan Taoist Academy is led by Jian Chaomian.

Liao Meisheng stood behind him with a gloomy expression, seeing Ye Qiubai coming, he couldn't help but look murderous.

Ye Qiubai ignored it.

"The leader of the Eastern Territory is Shi Sheng. His physical strength is extremely terrifying, but he is born with divine power."

"The Western Region is Zhang He, who cultivates the Buddhist Vajra Body, and no one can break it, and his palms are even more domineering."

Zhong Wu explained from the side.

He will not participate in the martial arts exchange, he is the candidate for the Confucianism and Taoism exchange.

"As for the Northern Territory, it's the Sword Dynasty Crown."

At this time, in the sky, four figures came together.

Among them, Qin Tiannan is among them.

The other three are, of course, the principals of other Three Domain Academy.

When everyone saw this, they all saluted to that side.

Among them, one of the four stepped out.

He is the dean of the Beiyu Tibetan Taoist Academy, Wood.

Similarly, he is also ranked 12th in the Four Domains Martial Arts Ranking!

Compared with Qin Tiannan, he is 14 places higher.

It is also enough to prove that Wood is much stronger than Qin Tiannan.

Wood waved his hand, and suddenly a void force lifted everyone present.

"Today is the time for our Tibetan Taoist Academy in the Four Regions to hold an exchange competition. Today, the talents of various academies are gathered here, which is also a great event for my Tibetan Taoist Academy."

"Today is the martial arts exchange first. Everyone should understand the rules of the first round. I and the other three deans will send you to the Qingyan Mountain Range."

After finishing speaking, the four deans took a step forward. Below them, a teleportation array rose slowly.

With the injection of aura by the four people, the space around the teleportation array began to distort.

At this time, Wood said: "Okay, the students participating in the martial arts exchange should enter the teleportation array."

After speaking, the students from the four domains began to step in one after another.

And when Ye Qiubai took a step forward, a voice came over.

"I'm counting on you."

is Qin Tiannan's voice.

Ye Qiubai looked over and found that Qin Tiannan was looking at him.

Seeing this, Ye Qiubai nodded.

Even if it's not for Tibetan Taoist Academy, it's not for Qin Tiannan.

For the sake of the master and the thatched cottage, Qin Tiannan should also be allowed to be the dean of the hospital.

After all, if there is a new dean, can the thatched cottage still be as detached as before?

Ye Qiubai does not allow this kind of accident to happen.

Thinking of this, Ye Qiubai stepped forward and stepped into the teleportation array!

There was a whirlwind.

What comes into view is a lush green shade.

Countless towering ancient trees reach into the sky.

However, Ye Qiubai could detect it sensitively.

This place has a vaguely demonic aura!

Suddenly, the Dark Demon Sword began to shake.

Ye Qiubai could feel the excitement of the Dark Demon.

Obviously, the magic energy here is extremely pure.

I'm afraid that here, Ye Qiubai's Demonic Nine Swords will also be more powerful.

At this moment, a stone appeared in Ye Qiubai's hands.

There is a number printed on the surface of the stone.

But the number at the moment is 0.

This should be the points...

To gain points, either kill monsters, or... plunder other people!

At this time, Ye Qiubai turned around, and not far away, there was a roar coming towards him!

A huge cloud of dust!

In the dust, there is a faint four-legged monster rushing!

Roar!

A roar, the sound wave actually carried a sonic boom!

It is estimated that people in the Golden Core Realm will not be able to resist the sound of the sonic boom, and will be directly shattered!

Ye Qiu was holding the white wooden sword in his hand, and slowly swung it forward!

Sword energy is everywhere.

Offset that sonic boom.

At the same time, countless sword qi circled around Ye Qiubai's body!

It turned into huge air swords, and slashed towards the running four-legged monster!

The four-legged monster seemed to have a bit of wisdom. Seeing the sword qi coming, it felt the crisis, and did not choose to face it head-on!

Instead, he slammed into the ground with all four feet, stopping his forward figure.

Immediately, he jumped to the side again, avoiding the oncoming destructive sword energy!

However, in the next instant, Ye Qiubai's figure had disappeared in place!

In the blink of an eye, he came in front of the four-legged monster.

Slash with a sword!

The head fell to the ground without even making a sound!

Ye Qiubai took out the scoring stone to have a look.

The above 0 has risen to 10.
