

My Disciples 681

Chapter 681 Incarnation of the Divine Phoenix, the bird's final blow!

The place where the Dragon and Phoenix Secret Realm is located is extremely secretive.

Without blood guidance, it would be extremely difficult to find this place.

But.

Sect Master Hu and the other four entered the Dragon and Phoenix Secret Realm by chance.

When they found the bones of the Dragon Emperor and the Divine Phoenix who fell in the battle, they were ecstatic.

You must know that the master of the dragon clan and the master of the phoenix clan, when they reach their level, their strength is considered to have fallen.

The remaining corpses are also priceless treasures!

What's more, there is still blood power left in it!

However, when they discovered that the little bird was refining the blood of the Dragon Emperor and Phoenix Lord between the two huge corpses, they immediately sank their minds, hid their bodies, and the four of them shot with all their strength.

Interrupt the bird that has entered a critical juncture, and directly encounter backlash and be seriously injured!

Although he tried his best to escape and released a distress signal.

However, how far can the severely injured bird escape?

There is now this scene.

"Then don't blame me and the other four for being rude."

Headed by Shenhuizong, Hu Zongzhu sneered: "Although it is a pity that you cannot be captured alive, even if you die, it will be of great help to us."

They are in high positions.

Experience is naturally rich.

According to the ancient books, the Phoenix clan and the Dragon clan are races whose eyes are higher than the sky.

If you are not sincerely surrendering to the other party, even if you die, it is impossible to be captured alive by others.

Extremely proud!

So, Zongzhu Hu and the others will not take great risks to choose to capture a phoenix alive.

Although the other party was sluggish and severely injured.

But after all, it was an ancient race.

Even if it is a god-level power, you must avoid its edge!

Under death counterattack, who knows that no accident will happen?

It is precisely because of this that Hu Zongzhu and others chose to directly attack with all their strength, without giving Xiaoniao any room to fight back!

Immediately.

In the Dragon and Phoenix Secret Realm.

An extremely huge aura turned into a storm of aura!

With four people including Hu Zongzhu as the center, they swept across this broken land!

Space is trembling.

The dilapidated earth began to sag toward the center of the earth!

The sky of the fault is also crumbling at this moment!

Under the full force of the four suzerains, the entire world changed color!

See this scene.

The will to die flashed in Xiaoniao's eyes.

Let her submit to the hands of these four humans?

What a joke!

I am a member of the Phoenix family.

is the owner of the Divine Phoenix bloodline!

In the future, if you don't die, you can step into the highest realm of the Phoenix clan, the existence of the Divine Phoenix Realm!

How can he succumb to the hands of these four villains?

Sudden.

The figure of a man in white robe flashed in Xiaoniao's mind.

Only he has this qualification...

pity...

Say it.

The originally sluggish aura from Xiaoniao's body began to surge out at this moment!

The fire of Nirvana, with the bird's body as the center, a flame vortex is spreading towards the surrounding area!

"The last hit?"

Sect Master Hu sneered: "How much strength can you display in this state?"

However, when he finished saying this sentence.

The expressions of the four of them sank unknowingly.

In the storm of flames that swept away.

There is a black shadow spreading its wings that cover the sky and the sun!

The black shadow is getting bigger and bigger.

A very majestic blood force oppressed the bodies of the four people.

At this moment, the blood seemed to stagnate.

Is this the blood power of the Phoenix family?

This scene did not scare the four of them.

Instead, greed filled their pupils!

If they can obtain this bloodline, then their Sifang sects will have the opportunity to step into the power of the * master!

But.

How do they know.

The power of this bloodline is not pure Phoenix bloodline, nor is it pure Suzaku bloodline.

It is the Divine Phoenix standing at the top of the pyramid of the entire Phoenix clan!

Divine Phoenix bloodline!

Nirvana rebirth.

The moment when the flame storm formed by the fire of Nirvana suddenly dissipated.

A pair of huge wings, burning with monstrous flames, covering the sky and the sun!

Like the whole sky.

Even the dark clouds that flickered with brontosaurus were covered!

The entire sky, against the backdrop of the wings, turned red!

I saw the little bird now.

Bathed in the fire of Nirvana, he raised his head high.

Shout out to the sky!

Beware!

The roar is full of arrogance and unyielding!

See it.

Sect Master Hu frowned slightly.

This phoenix seems to be different from the pattern he saw in the ancient books.

But, so what?

The four of them snorted coldly at the same time.

"Under the situation of being backlashed, can you still make this little bird turn upside down?!"

The voice just fell.

Four people, including Hu Zongzhu, blasted out with one palm at the same time!

Immediately!

The space is shattered inch by inch!

A palm print of aura condensed to the extreme, like an earth-shaking one, moved towards the little bird!

The bird lowered its brows, looked at the palm print, and flapped its wings.

Shoot towards the palm print!

Both claws hit the palm print at the same time.

The moment the two touch each other.

Boom!

A loud noise, like thunder on the ground.

It spread throughout the Dragon and Phoenix Secret Realm!

Just this sound made the entire Dragon and Phoenix Secret Realm tremble!

The aftermath that emanated caused the surrounding earth to crack again.

The space has been shaken into pieces.

Like a mirror, it was smashed and the glass scattered to the ground.

A fight between the strong.

Often one blow can decide the outcome.

I saw the palm print shattered under the claws of the bird!

Sect Master Hu and the others are retreating even more!

This terrified their hearts.

have suffered such serious injuries.

The breath is even more sluggish.

Now, they are still able to smash the full blow of the four of them?

If the opponent is not injured.

Words in their heyday.

Then, how can the four of them have any room to fight back?

I'm afraid I can only flee quickly with my tail between my legs!

But what about the little bird?

Did not take advantage of the victory to pursue.

Instead, they stayed where they were.

On the wings that covered the sky and the sun, the ever-burning fire of Nirvana became dim at this moment.

This blow.

It was the last blow released by her condensed blood power and the remaining aura.

After this blow.

The remaining strength is no longer enough to keep Xiaoniao in the state of Divine Phoenix...

Soon, the bird's body shrank at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Finally, it turned into a bird again.

saw this scene.

The four of them breathed a sigh of relief with lingering fear.

"Fortunately, he was seriously injured before."

"Stop talking, kill him quickly and bring the body back!"

"That's right, so as not to cause complications!"

But when they finished speaking, they looked in the direction of the bird again.

Don't know when.

A figure in white robe appeared in front of the little bird.

Chapter 682 Only ashes can keep a hundred percent secret

Lu Changsheng squatted down halfway, and hugged the little bird whose breath had been exhausted to the extreme.

Soft green light came from Lu Changsheng's arm.

sprinkled on the whole body of the bird.

This stabilized her injury!

The little bird, who had already fallen into a coma, felt this warm breath.

Forced to open his eyes, he looked at the familiar figure in front of him.

He felt relieved.

Now that he has come.

Then there is no problem.

So, he closed his eyes again.

Putting down all vigilance, with the help of Lu Changsheng's principles of life, he began to heal his wounds with all his strength.

Looking down at the little bird, Lu Changsheng shook his head helplessly and said, "None of you can make me worry."

And at this moment, in the sky.

Sect Master Hu and the other four looked at Lu Changsheng solemnly.

This white-robed man unexpectedly appeared beside the phoenix in an instant under the noses of the four of them?

Moreover, during this period.

The four of them, without exception, did not notice any aura.

If he hadn't seen this white-robed man with his naked eyes, he might never have found it!

"Fellow Daoist, where did you come from?"

Sect Master Hu took a step forward and asked with cupped hands.

Looking at Lu Changsheng, his eyes were full of seriousness.

Lu Changsheng smiled and replied: "A place that you don't even know."

A place we don't even know?

The four of them were taken aback at the same time, and then sneered.

"Fellow Daoists underestimated me. I am the suzerain of Shenhui Sect. In this high-latitude realm, there is no place I don't know."

"However, fellow daoist, don't you want to be unreasonable? This phoenix, but we found it first, and we took a lot of effort to take it down."

"Fellow Daoist, I'm afraid that you are going to provoke public anger by doing this?"

Lu Changsheng asked back: "Oh? Public anger? How about I spread this matter to other forces?"

"Presumably they should be interested in the blood of the Phoenix family."

Although the bird is healing.

But she can still hear the conversation between the two parties.

When I heard what Lu Changsheng said.

If he can't move now, he will have to open his mouth and peck him to death!

"Your power, according to what you said before, shouldn't be the strongest?"

"Then I will spread this news to the so-called god-level forces. With your strength, can this phoenix survive?"

When the four of Zongzhu Hu heard this, their expressions were extremely gloomy, extremely ugly! really.

If the people of the god-level power know about this matter.

I'm afraid I really can't keep this phoenix.

You know, a phoenix is something that even god-level powers are jealous of!

Whether it is blood, feathers, or bones, they are all amazing treasures!

Even, it can change the fate of a sect!

"Then according to what Fellow Daoist means, is he trying to threaten us and forcefully take a share of the pie from us?"

Lu Changsheng smiled and shook his head.

The next words made the four of Zongzhu Hu even more furious!

"That's not true, what I mean is, I will take this phoenix away, and then I will help you keep the secret of entering this place."

"Look, isn't this a good deal?"

"You..." Hu Zongzhu said with a gloomy face, "Could it be that you are playing us?"

"That's not true, I'm just stating a fact."

The voice just fell.

Sect Master Hu didn't say anything anymore, and disappeared in the same place in an instant!

In the blink of an eye, Sect Master Hu had already appeared in front of Lu Changsheng!

Immediately afterwards, he slapped Lu Changsheng's Tianling Gai with his palm!

Like the wind and thunder!

"Since you are so greedy, then stay here forever!"

But.

For example, the scene foreseen by Hu Zongzhu and the other three people is not the same.

Lu Changsheng did not directly die or be seriously injured because of Hu Zongzhu's palm.

Instead, it was under Hu Zongzhu's horrified gaze.

Lu Changsheng stretched out two fingers.

Stand with fingers together, turning into sword fingers.

Raise your arms above your head.

Then he withstood Zongzhu Hu's full palm!

"This...how is this possible?"

Lu Changsheng doesn't talk nonsense.

After resisting the palm of Hu Zongzhu.

The sword pointed suddenly with force!

A sword intent was like a thunderbolt, directly piercing through the palm of Hu Zongzhu!

Even, it was so fast that even Hu Zongzhu didn't react for a while!

Next second.

Sect Master Hu covered the * hole in his palm and quickly backed away.

Looking at Lu Changsheng's indifferent figure, his eyes were filled with disbelief!

"You, could it be that you are a big shot at the God Lord level?"

In his thoughts.

Only a high-level figure at the level of a * master can defuse his attack so easily.

And easily hurt him!

At the same time, Zongzhu Hu suddenly lowered his head.

Looking at the blood hole in the palm of his hand.

I saw the sword intent covering it, even if he resisted it with all his strength, he couldn't offset it.

Like tarsal maggots, it was constantly eroding his arm!

No!

This is not the intent of the sword, but the principle of the sword!

And it is the way of the sword that has been practiced to the extreme!

"Who are you!"

A person who has practiced the way of the sword to the extreme has never heard of even a god-level power in the entire high-latitude realm!

Lu Changsheng still had a peaceful smile on his face.

Footsteps paused slightly.

appeared in front of Hu Zongzhu.

The sword pointed directly at the center of Hu Zongzhu's eyebrows.

"Actually, even if I don't talk about conditions, I will keep you here forever."

"After all, I can't let you spread my story..."

Hearing this, Zongzhu Hu just wanted to say something.

The way of the sword has already penetrated the eyebrows of Hu Zongzhu!

The soul dissipated!

The other three people saw this scene with terrified expressions on their faces.

They are in high positions all the year round.

Under the god-level power, few people can pose a threat to them.

Actually at this moment.

The long-lost body trembled!

Lu Changsheng looked at the three of them.

Looking at Lu Changsheng's plain pupils.

The three of them knew that if the other party didn't let them go, with Lu Changsheng's terrifying strength, running away would be useless!

Think here.

said: "Senior! Don't worry, the three of us will never tell anyone what happened today!"

"That's right! We swear by God!"

"As long as seniors let me go, in the future, as long as seniors give orders, we will definitely help!"

Lu Changsheng did not answer.

His face was flat, and his sword pointed across the space.

Suddenly, a deep * * appeared on the chests of the three of them.

The internal organs can be seen deeply.

All were cut in half.

Dantian, soul, is no exception...

"Only the dead can keep a hundred percent secret..."

"Oh, no."

Lu Changsheng waved slightly.

At the corpses of the four, a raging fire burned the corpses to ashes!

"Well, this way we can keep the secret 100%."

Chapter 683 All-round transcendence!

The dead body is also a way to spread the message.

In the eyes of the strong.

Just by looking at the corpse, one can tell how the person died in battle, from which direction and in what manner.

means how.

In this way, the scope of criminals can be narrowed down.

Of course, if you haven't seen the prisoner, or never seen this kind of method, then it's another matter.

However, there is still this possibility.

Since there is a slight possibility.

So with Lu Changsheng's character, how could he let him go?

No matter how small it is.

As long as it exists, Lu Changsheng will naturally kill it in the cradle!

Before making the move, Lu Changsheng had already quietly set up a large array here to isolate any information and perception.

In this way, even if the other party sends a death message before death, it is absolutely impossible to send it out.

At the same time, if the opponent has information items such as soul cards.

Then even if the soul card is shattered after death, there will not be any breath clues left in the shattered soul card.

Then there will be another cremation.

Overall physical and chemical aspects.

Only then did he breathe a sigh of relief.

"Um."

Looking at the scene of the crime, Lu Changsheng nodded in satisfaction, "That's right, give yourself 97 points, so as not to be proud and make mistakes in the future."

At this moment, the little bird in his arms flapped its wings suddenly, and gently patted Lu Changsheng's chest.

Weakly opened his eyes, and looked at Lu Changsheng with rather resentful eyes.

It seems like a resentful woman who has been placed for a long time.

Big brother.

It's fine if you are cautious about exterminating corpses, it's not that you don't know your personality.

But, what are you doing here to watch your "masterpiece"?

Have you forgotten that there is a seriously injured and dying bird in your arms?

Lu Changsheng touched Xiaoniao's dog's head, and said with a smile: "I know you are also very satisfied with my technique, and I will teach you when the time comes."

Little Bird: "..."

Thank you.

It is my blessing to have you...

Really unable to bear this pressure, Xiaoniao raised his voice and said, "I...returned...backlash, why don't you help me first?"

The tone of voice was intermittent, and every time he said a word, it seemed like he was about to stop breathing and burp.

This is the critical moment of absorbing the blood of the dragon and phoenix.

It has reached the last step, but at this important point in time, it suffered a full blow from four strong men.

It is already a miracle to be able to guarantee immortality.

This is also due to Xiaoniao's Divine Phoenix bloodline.

The vitality brought by the fire of Divine Phoenix Nirvana is extraordinary.

Lu Changsheng scratched his head and laughed dryly, "Oh, yes, yes, I would have forgotten it if you didn't mention it."

"However, how can I help?"

He has never encountered such a situation!

The little bird has closed his eyes at this moment.

Although there is a way of life, it is only to mend the flesh.

In the body, the blood of the Dragon Emperor and the blood of the Divine Phoenix are constantly fighting and repelling.

It is like the reappearance of the dragon and phoenix catastrophe.

A Shenlong and a Shenhua are fighting with all their strength.

And the inside of the bird is the battlefield.

The aftermath of the confrontation between the two parties caused the "battlefield" to continue to collapse.

The way of life is constantly repairing.

But even so.

It also caused Xiaoniao's inner alchemy to suffer huge damage continuously!

Seeing that Xiaoniao was already unable to reply.

Lu Changsheng frowned slightly.

I understand that I can't drag it on any longer.

Put away the frivolous smile.

put his hand on the bird's body.

Perceive its body.

It can be found that in the body of the bird, the power of the two bloodlines is extremely violent!

The continuous repulsion of the two also led to the birth of countless destructive breaths.

Then, I want to make the bird's injury heal.

It is necessary to quell the struggle between the two bloodlines.

At the same time, the power of these two bloodlines must be completely integrated into the bloodline of the bird!

As everyone knows, it is.

Even if the bird was not injured and did not encounter a surprise attack.

Then the secret method used by Xiaoniao is also unable to integrate the blood power of the two emperors into one body.

It is bound to be seriously injured and retired.

However, after the sneak attack.

makes this situation even worse!

Feel the situation in the bird's body.

Lu Changsheng frowned, his brain was running crazily.

How to integrate these two bloods into the bird's body while recovering from the bird's injury?

After a while.

also came to a conclusion.

Want to recover all of Bird's injuries.

There are only two possibilities.

First, the two kinds of blood power in the bird's body are completely discharged from the bird's body by means of external force.

But this situation is naturally what the bird doesn't want to see.

Then, we can only try the second possibility, which is to integrate the two kinds of blood into the bird's body, and then restore it with the way of life.

And want to perfectly integrate the two bloodlines.

The first step is to solve the repulsion of the two!

But this first step is as difficult as climbing the sky!

Dragon Clan and Phoenix Clan.

Both are existences whose eyes are higher than the sky, and the two are hostile to each other.

Even though the Dragon Emperor and Divine Phoenix are already dead.

But its concept has already been deeply imprinted in the blood.

With this concept.

The already arrogant repulsion of the two parties is bound to become stronger!

In this regard, how to do it?

Lu Changsheng thought of something.

The enemy of your enemy is your friend.

Then, as long as the power of a bloodline is released again, the bloodline of the Dragon Emperor and the bloodline of the Divine Phoenix will hate the power of this bloodline.

Is it possible to make the repulsive force a bit less?

Then at this time, use the beginning to forcibly fuse the blood of the two parties?

After all, when the practice of the beginning of time was created.

Lu Changsheng also thought of the power of blood.

Ether has the characteristics of accommodating all things at the beginning, and merges the power of the two bloodlines, and then let the bird absorb and integrate into its own bloodline.

This method may sound ridiculous.

However, at present, only this method is feasible.

What's more, in terms of Bird's injury.

There is not much time for Lu Changsheng to think.

can only bet on one.

Say it and do it.

Lu Changsheng's face was extremely serious.

It was able to make Lu Changsheng's face serious, not a few times from the beginning to the end!

Waved his right hand.

An extremely complex formation, full of rich principles of life, surrounded a person and a beast.

Among the formation, the dilapidated land.

It started to recover!

Green dots are scattered, and green seedlings rush out of the ground!

The reason for arranging this formation.

It is also for the moment when Lu Changsheng's own blood enters the bird's body.

Use this to resist the impact brought by the power of the three bloodlines!

Why do you say this way is risky?

One of the reasons.

There are three different blood powers, how harmful will it be to the little bird?

The extent is bound to far exceed the present!

Looking at the little bird, Lu Changsheng said seriously, "You must hold on..."

The little bird nodded slightly.

At this moment, Lu Changsheng bit his finger and pointed it on the bird's body!

Chapter 684 The reason for the enmity between the Dragon and Phoenix clans

Following Lu Changsheng's * finger pointing on the bird's body.

Blood injection!

And with the injection of Lu Changsheng's blood.

Immediately, it attracted the attention of the Dragon and Phoenix bloodlines and the Divine Phoenix bloodlines!

In a short period of time, the two bloodlines stopped fighting.

Little Bird's body also stopped trembling for a while, and his brows stretched.

Seeing this, Lu Changsheng was also happy.

In this case, to a certain extent, I can prove that my idea is correct!

But.

next moment.

The power of the Dragon Emperor's bloodline and the power of the Divine Phoenix's bloodline seemed to ignore the power of Lu Changsheng's bloodline and continued to fight.

The body of the little bird began to tremble again.

The relaxed brow continued to frown.

ignore me?

Lu Changsheng frowned.

Controlling the power of this bloodline, they headed towards the center of the battlefield of the two bloodlines.

Immediately, the power of the bloodline split into two, attacking respectively towards the power of the bloodline of the Dragon Phoenix and the power of the bloodline of the Divine Phoenix!

Boom!

With this attack.

In the body of the little bird, there was a roaring sound!

At the same time, the little bird suddenly coughed up a streak of blood!

Sprayed on Lu Changsheng's white robe.

But, how could Lu Changsheng manage so much?

With a solemn face, he immediately waved his hand to strengthen the formation, and the way of life continued to pour into the formation!

The surrounding grass and saplings are also growing crazily!

Soon, Cao Tuan surpassed Lu Changsheng's height.

The sapling also turned into an ancient tree in the sky, soaring into the sky!

The branches and leaves are extremely dense.

covered the thunderclouds above the sky!

Lu Changsheng shouted: "Hold on!"

As soon as the words fell, Lu Changsheng did not stop the offensive against the bloodlines of the two parties, but had a tendency to strengthen the offensive!

I want to make the Dragon Emperor's bloodline and the Divine Phoenix's bloodline share the same hatred.

Then you must completely attract the hatred of the two parties!

Whether it is the blood of the Dragon Emperor or the blood of the Divine Phoenix.

are extremely proud existences.

Then, it is bound to block any blood power and fuse them!

So, Lu Changsheng's so-called offensive is to mobilize his own bloodline, to fuse the bloodline of the Dragon Emperor and the bloodline of the Divine Phoenix!

Obviously.

This statement is established.

When Lu Changsheng's bloodline power revealed this thought.

The blood of the Dragon Emperor and the blood of the Divine Phoenix rioted instantly!

seems to be talking.

A mere mortal, dare to fuse our blood?

In an instant, the bloodlines of the two parties erupted with endless destructive power!

In the body of the little bird, thunder and lightning roared for a moment, and the fire of Nirvana boiled!

This also caused the bird's injury, which is constantly expanding!

If it weren't for Lu Changsheng's formation, he would have died long ago.

When the blood of the Dragon Emperor and the blood of the Divine Phoenix attacked Lu Changsheng at the same time.

Lu Changsheng also stepped up his offensive.

Three parties touch at the same time!

Clash together!

It's just that...something happened that made Lu Changsheng dumbfounded.

I saw the moment when the blood of the Dragon Emperor and the blood of the Divine Phoenix clashed with Lu Changsheng's blood at the same moment.

The bloodlines of the two emperors, who were originally furious, stopped their offensive at this moment!

seems to be stunned.

Seeing this scene, Lu Changsheng was stunned.

What do you mean?

do not fight?

Did he trigger some kind of hidden plot?

Or is it that these two old bloods are holding back some big moves?

But, when Lu Changsheng was in a daze.

The Dragon Emperor's bloodline and the Divine Phoenix's bloodline retreated at the same time to avoid confrontation with Lu Changsheng's bloodline.

As if seeing something terrible.

Just when Lu Changsheng was puzzled.

Two forces, following Lu Changsheng's blood, entered his sea of consciousness.

It turned out to be a huge dragon that seemed to be as wide and tall as the sky and the earth!

The body of the giant dragon is extremely huge.

The whole body is covered with golden scales.

Different from traditional dragons.

This golden dragon has five claws.

Five-clawed golden dragon!

The king of dragons!

On the other side, there is a huge Divine Phoenix.

The wings of the Divine Phoenix are burning with the fire of Nirvana, covering the sky and the sun!

Although the five-clawed golden dragon and the divine phoenix appeared in his sea of consciousness, they could still only stay on the periphery of the sea of consciousness.

After all, with Lu Changsheng's character.

How could it be possible not to set up heavy defenses against one's own sea of consciousness?

To prevent myself from being attacked by others without noticing.

You know, there is a saying in the world of cultivating immortals.

For the strong, it doesn't matter if the body dies, and they can still be reborn.

Once the soul is destroyed, there is no way to recover.

Even reincarnation can't enter!

That was what Lu Changsheng thought at the time.

If you are killed.

Then you must at least protect your soul from being wiped out!

At that time, after reincarnation and rebirth, he will be a hero again!

Then there will be another rebirth, becoming a child of the plane.

It is equivalent to reopening and getting a new script.

That's great.

Lu Changsheng's figure also appeared in his sea of consciousness.

Looking at the two huge figures, Lu Changsheng was a little puzzled, and asked, "Eh... you two aren't fighting, why did you come to me, what's the matter?"

Whether it is the five-clawed golden dragon or the divine phoenix, the eyes that look at Lu Changsheng are without exception full of reverence and awe!

You know, these two races are extremely arrogant.

Supercilious.

As if no one is his opponent.

It is more difficult to get them to have this kind of emotion.

After Lu Changsheng asked this sentence.

The five-clawed golden dragon and the divine phoenix lowered their heads at the same time.

At the same time, he said: "See senior."

Senior?

Lu Changsheng stretched out his fingers, and pinched them to count.

It hasn't been more than thirty years since I came to this world, right?

Do I look this old?

Without waiting for Lu Changsheng to refute.

The five-clawed golden dragon said: "Could it be possible that senior wants the power of my blood?"

Shenhuang also looked at Lu Changsheng, obviously wanting to ask this question too.

Forehead...

The king of the dragon family and the king of the phoenix family.

The blood power of these two guys should be very powerful, right?

So Lu Changsheng nodded in a strange way.

Shenhuang smiled bitterly and said: "Senior, with your strength and your bloodline, why do you need the power of our bloodline?"

"On the contrary, if you integrate the power of our blood, it may drag you down."

Lu Changsheng: "???"

Um? ? ?

Is the power of my blood so powerful?

Could it be the reason for the physique sent by the system?

"After all, why are people so afraid of their own blood fusion?"

The five-clawed golden dragon took the words and explained: "The reason is that if a powerful bloodline of one side is integrated with the power of other lower-level bloodlines, it may dilute its already strong bloodline."

Shenhuang nodded: "This is also the reason why I don't like the dragon blood."

The five-clawed golden dragon turned its head instantly, and purple thunder spewed out from its huge nostrils.

"Old man, you want to fight again?"

Shenhuang sneered, and also turned around: "Why don't you let me tell the truth?"

Looking at this scene, Lu Changsheng finally understood.

The reason why these two races hate each other so much.

too! young! immature! up!

Chapter 685 Fusion of blood!

Watching the two keep arguing.

Almost got into a fight in Lu Changsheng's sea of consciousness.

This caused Lu Changsheng to cover his forehead with a headache, and said helplessly: "Stop, stop, stop fighting here."

"What should I do if I accidentally break the sea consciousness protection I arranged quietly?"

Even if it can't be broken, it will consume every penny!

In Lu Changsheng's eyes.

Even this slight difference can sometimes save his life or kill him.

The moment he heard Lu Changsheng's words.

The five-clawed golden dragon and the divine phoenix immediately stopped fighting.

Standing well in front of Lu Changsheng.

Who can think of it.

Dragon clan and Phoenix clan with eyes higher than the sky.

And also the master of the dragon clan, the five-clawed golden dragon.

The lord of the Phoenix clan, Shenhuang.

Actually, in front of Lu Changsheng, they seemed like two giant cute babies, saying one thing and not two.

I noticed that the body of the bird in my arms stopped shaking.

However, the breath is still sluggish.

Only under the protection of the array laid down by Lu Changsheng, can we barely guarantee that the vitality will not pass away.

Seeing this, Lu Changsheng looked at the two parties and said, "I said, you two, do you want to listen to my suggestion?"

Five-clawed Golden Dragon and Shenhuang looked at each other, then nodded.

"Senior, please speak."

How humble! How humble!

How humble, how humble!

It made Lu Changsheng a little skeptical. The dragon and phoenix clans he saw in those novels were fake!

"The two of you are dead now, but surely you don't want your respective races to disappear completely in this world?"

Hearing Lu Changsheng's words.

Five-clawed Golden Dragon and Shenhuang both nodded without hesitation.

That's natural!

Who would want their own race to perish?

Even in ancient books, it will be recorded that they existed before, with some traces.

But these traces of past existence will also slowly disappear from the long river of history and be washed away by the rolling waves over time!

"Senior, is there any way?"

Shenhuang's crimson eyes also showed hope.

After all, if someone with senior's strength makes the move.

I'm afraid there is such a possibility!

Lu Changsheng smiled and said: "The method is very simple, as long as the blood of the two of you parasitizes in the body of another living body, won't you be able to survive in this world in another way?"

The five-clawed golden dragon was silent.

But Shenhuang was thoughtful.

Lu Changsheng's words are very simple.

The two kings naturally understood.

The meaning is simple and clear, let their blood flow into the body of this junior of the Phoenix family.

Shenhuang is naturally willing.

There is no other reason.

Little Bird was originally a member of their Phoenix family.

What's more, it also inspired the blood of the Divine Phoenix!

If it weren't for this old dragon fighting with him, the Divine Phoenix would have already taken the initiative to merge into the little bird's blood.

But what about the five-clawed golden dragon?

He is the lord of the Dragon Clan, let him integrate into the body of a little girl from the Phoenix Clan?

How can this be!

Thinking of this, the five-clawed golden dragon said with a troubled face: "Senior...senior, it's not that I don't want to, even if you don't mention how difficult it is for me and this miscellaneous bird to integrate into the next bloodline."

"After integrating into it, it has also become a nutrient for the Phoenix Clan! Then our Dragon Clan will disappear completely?"

Lu Changsheng smiled and said: "Don't worry, I will help you solve this."

"I will leave behind a ray of your bloodline power. At that time, a five-clawed golden dragon will be bred. At that time, won't it help you continue the dragon bloodline?"

Although what to do, Lu Changsheng still has no idea.

But now...

Everything depends on Xiaoniao's dog's life!

First try to fool you.

Let's make this five-clawed golden dragon lame!

"What's more, you really don't have any good choices now."

"Or, according to my statement, I will help your dragon blood not dissipate in this world."

"Or, with the passage of time, disappear completely."

"Which would you choose?"

The right to choose was handed over to the five-clawed golden dragon.

After hearing these words, the five-clawed golden dragon fell silent.

Lu Changsheng didn't remind him.

If you are in a hurry at this time, all previous efforts may be wasted.

Until after half a stick of incense.

The five-clawed golden dragon let out a long breath.

His eyes gradually became firmer, he looked at Lu Changsheng, and said heavily: "I understand, I trust senior."

"Just do it your way."

Lu Changsheng smiled slightly: "A wise choice, without delay, let's start."

Integrate the blood power of the dragon master and the phoenix master, and then merge into the blood of the bird.

This is undoubtedly an extremely difficult, even impossible approach!

However, the current situation does not allow to think of other ways.

The first step of the goal has been achieved.

The next step is to perfectly integrate the blood of the five-clawed golden dragon and the blood of the divine phoenix!

the other side.

Five-clawed Golden Dragon and Shenhuang trusted Lu Changsheng 100%.

Since a person with such blood power proposed this method, he naturally has his own method!

Looking at the two, Lu Changsheng spread his hands.

Suddenly, an invisible breath unfolded!

There is no attribute in this breath, nor is there any aggressiveness!

The five-clawed golden dragon and Shenhuang looked at each other, both slightly puzzled.

This kind of breath, even for them, has never been heard or seen.

However, although there is no attribute or aggressiveness in this breath.

But it is full of tolerance.

It seems to be able to accommodate hundreds of rivers and integrate all things.

At this time, Lu Changsheng shouted in a deep voice: "Let's start!"

The voice just landed.

The bodies of the five-clawed golden dragon and the divine phoenix began to disappear slowly.

turned into a drop of extremely rich blood.

The blood of the five-clawed golden dragon is golden.

Around the blood, there is a golden thunder, exuding the power of destroying the world and constantly wandering!

The drop of blood from the Divine Phoenix was crimson.

The fire of Divine Phoenix Nirvana is burning everything around it all the time.

This made Lu Changsheng feel distressed.

How much energy would be consumed by Sea Consciousness Protection!

When I go back, I have to supplement and strengthen it...

After this thought flashed by.

Lu Changsheng did not stop because of this, but immediately controlled the aura of primordial beginning, and surrounded the blood of the two.

And there is a bag cage of the breath of the beginning.

Two drops of blood began to move closer to each other.

Finally, start merging!

Of course, in the process of fusion, the explosion of energy repulsion cannot be avoided.

Although a temporary reconciliation has been reached between the five-clawed golden dragon and Shenhuang.

But after all, they are two different blood powers.

What's more, the levels of these two bloodline powers are extremely high!

It is even more difficult to integrate!

Then, with the help of the beginning.

After a stick of incense, the fusion of...

Chapter 686 Fusion Success

It seems...not...not difficult?

Although the process of integration seems difficult.

However, only a stick of incense time has passed...

Lu Changsheng looked at a drop of blood in front of him, golden and crimson harmoniously.

The fire of Divine Phoenix Nirvana scorched around the blood.

Although the scope is extremely small.

But looking around, it seemed as if he could see a monstrous sea of flames!

Burn forever!

However, the color of the fire of Divine Phoenix's Nirvana has changed drastically compared to before.

From the previous crimson color, it turned into gold.

The flames are filled with golden thunder!

The two complement each other.

Compared to before, the breath is even thicker and more terrifying!

At this point, it can be regarded as half the battle.

The next step is to completely integrate this drop of blood into the blood of the bird.

Thoroughly integrate the power of the blood of the three, so that the real success can be achieved.

Say it and do it.

Little bird's breath of life, although it didn't dissipate excessively, has reached the limit after all.

Time does not allow Lu Changsheng to delay any longer.

Lu Changsheng opened his eyes, and that golden-red blood pierced out from between his eyebrows.

Looking at the little bird in his arms with lowered eyebrows, he said in a concentrated voice: "You must hold on, as long as you make it through, you will be fine, and your strength will also increase significantly!"

The sound was not loud, but Lu Changsheng used his cultivation to clearly transmit it into Xiaoniao's consciousness.

Prevent the bird from fainting and being unable to hear.

The little bird nodded slightly.

Seeing this, Lu Changsheng grabbed the terrifying blood essence that seemed to be able to crush the world with his fingers, and tapped it on the heart of Xiaoniao.

The heart is the overall power center that promotes blood circulation.

Integrate into the blood, naturally start from the heart.

As long as the position of the heart is determined, the rest of the blood vessels will be completely fused with the circulation of blood.

And at the moment when the essence and blood merged into the little bird's heart.

The body of the little bird bowed immediately!

The eyes also opened suddenly!

There was a shrill cry!

Seeing this scene, Lu Changsheng's face was solemn, not only relying on the way of life of the formation, but also using the hand holding the little bird in his arms, continuously introducing the way of life into the little bird's body.

Lu Changsheng at this moment.

Didn't think about the consequences.

I didn't think about how much I consumed, whether it would cause me any sequelae, etc.

The way of life, and the breath of primordial beginning, poured into the body of the little bird continuously as if money was not required.

Keep the bird alive.

Protect her internal organs.

Ethereal breath guides the fusion between blood vessels.

If the power of the two previous bloodlines is fused, it will be as difficult as heaven (false).

Then it is really difficult to merge the power of the three bloodlines today!

Now the current situation.

Golden red blood that had no repulsion.

After encountering the power of the bird's blood.

also began to emit monstrous power!

The three are constantly resisting!

This is not caused by subjective consciousness.

is the subconscious in the blood.

Everyone's bloodline will subconsciously try to reject other bloodlines from integrating into their body.

Just like the human body, blood transfusions cannot be performed if the blood type is different.

Otherwise the consequences will be unimaginable.

The three bloodlines continuously burst out with destructive power in Xiaoniao's body.

Use the bird's body as the battlefield.

This situation is a hundred times worse than before!

If this situation lasts for another incense stick.

I'm afraid even with the protection of the Tao of Life.

The little bird will also be unable to withstand this huge backlash.

How to do?

How to do it?

Lu Changsheng was a little anxious.

The brain is working like crazy!

Temporarily withdraw the blood?

No way, part of the blood has been fused, and if it is forcibly stripped out, it will inevitably have an irreversible impact on the bird!

Regardless of the three seven twenty-one, directly force the fusion?

Less likely!

This will only speed up the death of the bird!

Bloodshots gradually appeared in Lu Changsheng's eyes!

Perceiving the physical condition of the bird.

Finally, a flash of inspiration passed by.

The three are constantly rioting.

Then, use more powerful bloodline power to suppress all three bloodlines directly.

makes it impossible for them to repel and then fuse.

Is this feasible?

When Lu Changsheng thought of this.

The little bird screamed again.

There are countless blood oozing from all over the body.

Obviously there is no wound.

But the amount of bleeding is more than that!

No time to think about the consequences.

Lu Changsheng bit his finger again.

Squeeze out a piece of blood essence and inject it into the little bird's body.

And when Lu Changsheng's blood essence appeared beside the golden red blood and the blood power of the little bird itself.

The battle suddenly stopped.

Whether it was the golden red blood or the power of the little bird's own blood, at this moment, they all exuded a little trembling.

noticed this scene.

Lu Changsheng's face brightened.

Immediately, the operation of Taichu began to integrate the blood of the three parties in conjunction with its own blood essence.

And Lu Changsheng's blood essence, as an intermediate blender, naturally also blended in.

The trembling of the little bird gradually stopped, and the arched body was lying in Lu Changsheng's arms relaxedly at this moment.

Blood stopped flowing.

Although Lu Changsheng's white robe has been dyed into a red robe...

Lu Changsheng didn't care about this either.

It's a big deal to celebrate it!

Time passed slowly.

The bloodlines began to fuse.

In the process.

Lu Changsheng did not remove the formation, nor did he stop pouring in the Dao of Life and the Qi of Absolute Beginning into Xiaoniao's body.

in case.

Otherwise, if something unexpected happens, it can be dealt with in time.

...

In the blink of an eye, seven days passed.

During these seven days.

The fusion process of Xiaoniao's blood power went very smoothly.

Breath is also constantly rising!

Although Lu Changsheng doesn't know what this realm should be called.

Anyway, it must be much more powerful than before!

And at this very moment.

Little Bird's eyes suddenly opened!

Waving his wings, he rushed directly into the sky!

At this moment, the dark clouds among the clouds, along with the two scarlet wings covering the sky and the sun, all dispersed!

An extremely powerful sense of oppression descends!

Lu Changsheng looked up.

smiled slightly.

I saw above those wings.

Has the power of golden thunder.

Has the crimson fire of the Divine Phoenix Nirvana.

Among them, there is Lu Changsheng's own breath.

Obviously.

The blood fusion was extremely successful.

The realm of the little bird has also broken through. I don't know how much.

is after going back.

Must make up more.

It needs to replenish blood.

Donated two blood essences!

Chapter 687 The horror of the beginning

What a joke.

You must know that from the beginning to the present, Lu Changsheng has bled very little.

All were spent on the disciples.

At that time, only one drop was used.

But this time, I forced out two drops.

When I first started, I didn't care about these.

When it was over, I looked at the little bird that soared into the sky, transformed into a phoenix, with a huge change in shape and breath compared to before.

Lu Changsheng's back molars were crushed.

I didn't get any benefits, but used two drops of blood instead!

Damn you!

These five words, in Lu Changsheng's heart, he gritted his teeth and roared out...

Immediately, Lu Changsheng looked at the bird in the sky.

Now, the bird's body has undergone earth-shaking changes.

The most obvious is the pair of wings that cover the sky and the sun.

The original wings were covered with fiery red red feathers burning with the fire of Nirvana.

And now.

The crimson red has disappeared.

On those wings, there were actually golden dragon scales!

Dragon scales cover the wings.

It seems that every golden dragon scale has life, rising and falling with the rhythm of the bird's breathing...

And on top of the golden scales.

The power of thunder in the dark clouds seemed to be attracted by the golden scales.

Covering the golden scales of the Divine Phoenix's Nirvana Fire, there is even a surge of golden thunder in it!

The fusion of Jinlei and Nirvana's fire.

The fusion of the five-clawed golden dragon bloodline and the divine phoenix bloodline.

Bird's strength has increased significantly!

But, besides that.

Lu Changsheng could still feel it.

Among the aura exuded by the little bird, there was no aggressiveness forward, as if no force could get close to it.

Instead, there is an aura that embraces everything!

You can swallow mountains and seas!

You can borrow all the essence of heaven and earth between heaven and earth!

This was brought about by that drop of blood from Lu Changsheng.

At least, in Lu Changsheng's eyes, he could see this.

And the bird itself.

But I felt that just relying on this drop of blood from Lu Changsheng raised her talent limit to an unimaginable level!

At the same time, although Lu Changsheng's drop of blood seemed to have no lethality, he didn't bother to fight with the blood of the five-clawed golden dragon and the blood of the divine phoenix in his body.

But still being praised by the stars, pushed to the power center of human blood, the heart!

The bloodline of the five-clawed golden dragon and the bloodline of the divine phoenix lived in a corner.

Enshrine this drop of blood of Lu Changsheng.

At this moment, Lu Changsheng asked, "How do you feel?"

The little bird lowered its head, with colorful feathers scattered behind its head.

On the feathers, there are flames of nirvana and golden thunder flashing.

When those extremely majestic eyes fell on Lu Changsheng.

Immediately softened.

"Thank you."

"This time, the realm has improved a lot, and it has reached the peak of the God Master Realm."

Lu Changsheng asked doubtfully, "God Master Realm?"

Looking at Lu Changsheng's "wisdom" eyes.

The little bird was a little speechless.

It is clear that Lu Changsheng's strength is above these realms.

But I don't know anything about the realm...

"Above the Heavenly Immortal Realm are the Divine Soldiers Realm, the Divine General Realm, the Divine King Realm, the Divine Emperor Realm, the Divine Master Realm, and the Divine Emperor Realm."

(The Immortal Emperor Realm above the Celestial Immortals, only the Five Realms other than the Mortal Realm have such a saying, such as the Immortal Realm)

Lu Changsheng nodded.

What is the state of Mr. Mortal Village?

And what about the dark master of the dark domain and old man Dong Yi?

Is it stronger or weaker than the bird?

never mind.

Lu Changsheng stopped thinking about it.

These people, Lu Changsheng has already decided, if he can kill them without touching them, he will not touch them!

If you can be less involved in cause and effect, then you will be less involved!

"Can't you go and understand the realm..."

Little Bird shook his head helplessly.

Hearing this, Lu Changsheng's complexion suddenly changed.

Looking at the little bird, he gritted his teeth and asked, "Are you teaching me how to do things?"

Little Bird: "..."

"Don't forget, for you, I squeezed out two drops of blood!"

"And I have been giving you spiritual energy and the principles of life. Of course, I won't talk about these."

Lu Changsheng clutched his forehead, pretending to be on the verge of falling, and said with grief: "It's because of those two drops of blood essence that I feel physically weak now. I'm weak, and I need to make up for it! Do you understand?"

Little Bird: "..."

Hearing what Lu Changsheng said, Xiaoniao couldn't laugh or cry.

At your level, what can a drop or two of blood essence do?

Even if it is ten drops and a hundred drops.

I just practiced for a few days and came back!

Little Bird smiled helplessly: "Okay, don't be silly, I will make it up to you."

"How to compensate?"

Lu Changsheng's eyes lit up.

Hey, just waiting for your kid's words!

"I didn't think about it, I'll see when the time comes." Xiaoniao looked slightly worried, looked at Lu Changsheng and said: "The important thing now is to check your blood first. According to what you did before, I am afraid that it has also integrated into the five-clawed golden dragon. And part of the blood of the Divine Phoenix."

"It is no exaggeration to say that even if these two bloodlines are fused together, they are not as good as your bloodline."

"And if you merge into these two bloods, I'm afraid it will dilute your own blood and hold you back..."

That's right.

This is where the bird is worried.

Why don't some bloodline families find people who have no bloodlines, or people with inferior bloodlines to marry and become Taoist couples?

For example, Mu Ziqing and Ye Qiubai at that time.

Isn't the Mu family trying to stop them in every possible way.

It is because once the excellent blood power and the poor blood power are married.

After the fusion, future children will be dragged down by the poor blood power.

As a result, the talent is reduced.

Lu Changsheng is the same way.

Hear here.

Lu Changsheng waved his hand and said, "Don't worry, I have considered this issue when I created the Absolute Beginning Technique."

Immediately, he stretched out his hand, and on the palm of his hand, there was a burst of strong blood power!

The power of this bloodline can accommodate hundreds of rivers.

Among them, there is an ancient atmosphere!

And when the heaven and the earth first opened...the aura of majesty...

There are various other principles.

Of course, there are so many of these, even if one gets one, it can make a strong person become a peak existence.

are all owned by Lu Changsheng.

He incorporated these into the beginning.

The little bird looked horrified.

She also saw the aura of golden thunder and fire of nirvana in it.

However, they did not drag down Lu Changsheng's blood.

Instead, it is used as an auxiliary, allowing Lu Changsheng to have the ability of these bloodlines!

How is this done?

Is it all because of this exercise created by Lu Changsheng?

In this short period of time, what did Lu Changsheng do to create such a terrifying exercise!

"I said, don't change the subject."

Lu Changsheng put away the power of blood, looked at the little bird and said, "Remember, you owe me a favor!"

The little bird became smaller helplessly, and then landed on Lu Changsheng's shoulder.

"All right, all right, let's go back to the thatched cottage."

In the heart of the bird.

She has already regarded the thatched cottage as her home...

Chapter 688 Bird Transformation, Huang Qian

Because Lu Changsheng kept yelling that he lost two drops of blood.

Heartache is also frail and needs recovery.

so.

On the way back to the world of longevity.

It was Xiaoniao who carried Lu Changsheng helplessly on his back, but he didn't mean to refuse at all.

You must know that Shenhuang and the five-clawed golden dragon were once only Ren Zu who could make them willingly serve as mounts.

Ren Zu's mount is so proud.

How can he submit to ordinary people?

Today's little bird not only inherits the blood of the Divine Phoenix, but also incorporates the blood of the five-clawed golden dragon, including a drop of Lu Changsheng's blood essence.

So, in her cognition, only Lu Changsheng can ride on her body.

Along the way, the monstrous divine power emanating from it made the leaders of the god-level forces in the high-latitude realm raise their heads one after another.

His brows were serious.

Yin Frost Sword Village.

"In this world, has another great master of the God Master Realm been born?"

"It's interesting."

A white-haired old man wiped the sword in his hand, smiled and shook his head.

...

Glass Temple.

"Huh? This breath..."

"Master Uncle, what did you find?"

I saw the old man's face was dignified, and said: "I am a little familiar, I have a few candidates in my mind, but those are all characters from the ancient times..."

Master's uncle also survived in the ancient times, but even so, after reaching the realm of God Lord, his lifespan is still coming to an end.

"I have a hunch that something big will happen in the near future. I can't hesitate any longer. I'm going to retreat immediately!"

The middle-aged man was taken aback when he heard the words, and then he clasped his fists towards his uncle with a heavy expression.

"Master Uncle, the Glazed Temple has been handed over to me."

Master Uncle nodded in satisfaction.

He left here without any worries.

For him, this is not a curse.

Going forward, Master Uncle has always had the idea of closing himself to death, but he has been shelving it because he is worried about the Glass Temple.

Now, the man's words made him feel relieved.

Closed to death, state of mind is very important.

Unbalanced mood, the longer the retreat time, there will be no progress at all, and you may even become obsessed.

...

Guan Qing Danzong.

"Oh? Great powers have been born one after another, it seems that something big is about to happen."

reached their realm.

Just by smelling the surrounding air, feeling the breath of the earth, and lightly touching the shaking of the branches, you can feel that something will happen between the heaven and the earth.

"It seems that this pill is about to be put into the process."

"As long as you succeed, you will be able to step into that realm... At that time, I, Guan Qing Danzong, will also be able to stand at the peak of this high-latitude realm!"

...

After returning to the world of longevity.

Liu Ziruo looked at the little bird with a horrified face, and said with a horrified face: "This aura...has stepped into the realm of the gods?"

Little Bird ignored Liu Ziruo.

Liu Shu said unprecedentedly: "You will bring the Shenhuang family to a new height."

Obviously, she felt the change in the blood power in the bird's body.

If it was just the fusion of the five-clawed golden dragon and the blood of the divine phoenix, it wouldn't be worth Liu Shu's words.

However, among these two bloodlines, there is also a drop of Lu Changsheng's blood.

This drop of blood essence greatly increased the upper limit of the bird's talent.

Little Bird nodded, "I think so too."

After saying these words, the bird's body was enveloped in the fire of Nirvana.

The fire of Nirvana shone over the entire longevity world.

However, this group of flames is getting smaller and smaller.

Soon, it seemed to be human-sized.

Under the surprised eyes of everyone.

A slender jade leg stepped out of the flames.

Yuzu stepped lightly on the ground, and the flames dissipated!

Waterfall-like long hair hangs behind her back, and a long skirt woven from fiery red red feathers.

The deepest impression is that there is an astonishing beauty beyond her age between her eyebrows. The faint willow eyebrows seem to have been carefully groomed, and the long eyelashes flicker like two small brushes, making people feel dazzling. A pair of beautiful big eyes that palpitate, unusually smart and energetic.

I saw the woman push her hair behind her ears, looked at the surprised crowd, and asked in confusion, "Why are you all stunned?"

Lu Changsheng said in surprise: "So you can transform into a human form!"

Little Bird tilted his head: "I have always been able to transform into a human form... It's just that it didn't feel necessary before."

"What about now?"

"A good mood."

Lu Changsheng: "..."

good!

This is the reason.

Sincere enough, convincing enough!

Immediately, he seemed to think of something.

Lu Changsheng waved his hand, and said impatiently: "All right, all right, let's change back."

The little bird asked: "Why?"

"At that time, you will be spotted by other people, won't this trouble come to you?"

Here.

Whether it was the little bird, Liu Zirui, or the willow tree, all of them showed speechless expressions.

Reinforced straight man!

Where in the world can the * be able to soften this steel bar.

At this time, at some point, the little stone penetrated the space and came to the little bird's legs, and hugged the little bird's thighs with his small hands.

Blinking eyes, he raised his head to look at Xiaoniao, and asked, "Sister Bird, what is your real name?"

The little bird didn't kick the little stone away, but touched the little stone's head, and said with a smile, "Huangqian."

"Oh, sister Huangqian!"

After finishing speaking, he buried his head in Huangqian's lap.

Watching this scene.

Lu Changsheng frowned continuously.

This brat.

If you don't strictly discipline her, I'm afraid that when she grows up, she will become a devil in chaos!

At that time, he will be able to cause more trouble than that brat Ye Qiubai.

ah?

You ask why you compare Ye Qiubai?

In terms of causing trouble.

Lu Changsheng has subconsciously used Ye Qiubai as a unit of measurement...

Immediately, he picked up the little stone with a face full of reluctance, and threw it out.

"You boy, give me peace of mind."

Huangqian said: "He is still a child, please be gentle."

Liu Ziru also nodded: "It's just a bit feminine, but I can understand..."

Lu Changsheng: "..."

Gentle hammer!

Understand what a fart!

If this was put in the past, it would be a typical example of a loving mother and a loser!

If a small stone turns bad in the future.

Neither Huang Qian nor Liu Ziru can escape!

"I can't go on like this..."

Lu Changsheng touched his chin and said, "Little Shitou, haven't you delayed your cultivation recently?"

Little Shitou didn't dare to speak out about sneaking to the South Region, so he quickly said: "Of course Master, I worked very hard!"

Lu Changsheng sneered and said: "There is a romantic thief in the southern region, is it you?"

Little Shitou was slightly taken aback.

Immediately, his face turned slightly red, and he said: "You have discovered all of this, but this reputation should not ruin your reputation, Master, right?"

Lu Changsheng covered his face and said, "When you go out in the future, remember one thing."

"What?"

"Don't say your master is me."

Chapter 689 Changes in the Savage Realm

If there are no accidents, there will be accidents.

Lu Changsheng just gave Xiao Shitou a foot restraint order.

Let him practice hard.

And I began to think about it, and I wanted to give Xiao Shitou a * devil-style training plan.

He was so tired that he didn't even want to move!

In this way, there is no chance to go out and cause trouble.

The shameful title of The Merry Thief should gradually fade with time, right?

But, on the second day.

Huang Qian proposed to go out and buy some clothes.

The reason is that the fire-feather skirt robe that he incarnates is too flamboyant.

For the sake of Lu Changsheng's prudence.

Huang Qian still thinks it is better to buy some more ordinary clothes.

Although she has been in the thatched cottage for more than ten years, she is really not familiar with the wild world.

Therefore, we can only find a familiar person to lead the way.

The preferred target is Lu Changsheng.

After Huang Qian explained her intentions.

Lu Changsheng immediately disgusted and refused.

"No time."

Are you kidding, this Huangqian's appearance can be said to be the person Lu Changsheng has seen, only Hongying can match it.

Even, the current Hongying's temperament is still slightly behind compared to Huang Qian's.

Take such a charming little girl to buy clothes?

It must be a show!

Billions of years of iron essence are not as hard as you!

Huang Qian gritted her teeth and turned around, angrily preparing to go out by herself.

And at this time.

Little Shitou rushed over suddenly and said loudly, "I'll go with Sister Huangqian!"

"you?"

Lu Changsheng doubted: "You won't want to take the opportunity to go out and do bad things again, kid?"

Little Shitou said with a very serious expression: "I have always followed your teachings, Master!"

"It's definitely not going out to do bad things, but simply helping sister Huangqian lead the way."

"What's more, Master doesn't have time. Sister Huangqian is not familiar with the place of life."

"Is it possible that you are mature?"

Lu Changsheng stared.

He was born and reincarnated into this world, and he has been in the wild world!

Suddenly, Liu Ziru covered his face and said with a suppressed smile, "Your disciple may be more familiar than you, after all, he is already familiar with the road."

Lu Changsheng was taken aback.

Immediately reacted.

His face turned black.

Fuck, yes!

This kid has become a thief.

Then it is reasonable to be more familiar with yourself.

After all, you don't even understand the map, how dare you be called a thief by others?

Little Shitou raised his chin proudly.

Lu Changsheng's angry voice immediately suppressed: "You're quite proud?!"

Little Shitou immediately looked a little frightened, and shuttled behind Huangqian, grabbed her red feather skirt, and hid half of her face behind Huangqian's thigh.

See it.

Huangqian couldn't bear it either, touched Xiao Shishi's head, looked at Lu Changsheng and said, "He's still a child, why are you so fierce?"

Then he bent down and took Xiao Shitou's hand, and said with a smile: "Let's ignore him, let's go, you take my sister to go shopping."

After finishing speaking, he did not wait for Lu Changsheng to say anything else.

Huangqian took the small stone and left the Longevity Realm.

Lu Changsheng's face was dark.

I hope this kid won't cause trouble again.

But with that girl Huangqian around, there shouldn't be any major problems.

After all, what the other party is really dealing with is a divine master.

In the low-latitude boundary area, no one is its opponent.

unless...

Here came a big boss who had nothing to do and came here to practice hermitage.

Coincidentally, Huang Qian and Xiao Shitou bumped into him.

It just so happened that there was a conflict!

Liu Shu looked at Lu Changsheng with a troubled face, and thought helplessly.

"I think this guy's personality has changed, but this nature is still difficult to subvert..."

...

Today's barren realm.

Its prosperity has long surpassed that before.

Not only the heavenly way of this world has recovered, but the aura has begun to become abundant.

Because of the reputation of the thatched cottage, many ascetics from other realms came here admiringly.

Therefore, the most prosperous place is also the Southern Region, which was called the wild land at the beginning.

Today's Southern Region is brightly lit.

Especially at night, it is even more colorful.

Among them, the most lively one is the Nanyu Tibetan Taoist Academy.

At this moment, the Nanyu Tibetan Taoist Academy has surpassed the General Academy in terms of momentum.

Of course, the General Hospital seemed to be happy to see this matter come true, so they continued to add fuel to the flames in secret.

There are heavenly favored sons from all walks of life wanting to join Tibetan Taoist Academy.

However, how could Qin Tiannan not know their thoughts?

All came for thatched cottage.

It's no wonder that brat Lu Changsheng moved to the Longevity Realm early...

I have already guessed this scene a long time ago!

Qin Tiannan naturally knew about the existence of the Longevity Realm.

After all, they are Lu Changsheng's few elders, or...relatives.

However, at that time, Qin Tiannan said that the thatched cottage does not recruit disciples, and the hall master will only personally select them when he goes out to practice.

When the words are spoken.

Qin Tiannan thought that this group of arrogant sons of heaven would turn away disappointed.

But unexpectedly, at least half of the people stayed!

They are not short of resources, they just want to try their luck here.

Of course, Qingyun Sword Sect, Yunhuang Empire, and Study have all been patronized by other people...

It can be said that, as long as you have a relationship with thatched cottage.

All have become the pinnacle existence of this world.

...

At this time.

A voice came from behind Qin Tiannan.

Qin Tiannan is still mourning the spring and autumn, how can he find out who is behind him.

Amidst the drastic change in his face, there was a palm behind him!

In the end, Xiaoshi blocked it with a finger.

"Grandpa Qin, why are you so nervous?"

Qin Tiannan heaved a sigh of relief when he saw this, and immediately said with a vigilant expression: "What are you doing out here, you devil king?"

"I won't wipe your * this time!"

Immediately, he turned his eyebrows and saw Huang Qian.

Immediately, his face trembled, and he pointed at Huangqian with trembling fingers, looked at Xiao Shitou and said, "You...Your boy, if you don't steal your bellyband, you are finally on your way to no return?"

"Aren't you afraid that your master will slap you to death?"

Hearing this, Huang Qian frowned.

If she hadn't known that Qin Tiannan had a special meaning to Lu Changsheng, and he was also a good person.

I'm afraid he would have slapped him to death long ago.

Little Shitou felt a slight killing intent around him, and immediately explained: "Grandpa Qin, sister Huangqian was the bird in that cottage at that time."

Qin Tiannan looked at Huang Qian in horror.

At that time, he faintly felt that this little bird was unusual.

It turns out that it has turned into a human form?

You must know that the monsters that can transform into humans are all people who have reached the legendary realm.

That realm is something they will never be able to touch in the low-latitude realm.

Think here.

Qin Tiannan smiled wryly, and secretly said: "I don't know where Changsheng got it from."

"However, with these great powers, this brat's safety doesn't have to worry..."

its not right!

Qin Tiannan woke up suddenly: "With that brat's personality, is there any need to worry about safety?"

"I'm afraid there is only one human left in this world! That human is Lu Changsheng!"

Chapter 690 Qin Tiannan: I'm overthinking

"However, why are you here? Is Changsheng that stinky boy explaining something clear?"

Little Shitou shook his head and said: "Master didn't explain anything, but Sister Huangqian wants to buy some suitable clothes."

Qin Tiannan asked doubtfully, "Then what are you doing here?"

Did you miss me?

Of course, in the latter sentence, Qin Tiannan is the head of a hospital.

It is impossible to say it out, just think about it in your heart.

Little Shitou scratched his head and smiled: "No, I forgot to ask Master for some money when I came out..."

Qin Tiannan: "..."

OK, it seems that I think too much.

Immediately, he handed a ring to Xiao Shitou angrily, and said, "You little guy also knows how to save face for your master."

"That brat Changsheng has no money in the first place, so he can just sell one or two pills."

"It turned out that selling pills and formations didn't let others know some of his details?"

Speaking of this, Qin Tiannan couldn't help shaking his head and laughing helplessly.

"Okay, you go, but if you want to repay me, then help teach the students..."

The words are not finished yet.

Little Shitou and Huang Qian had disappeared in place.

As if it had never appeared before.

Qin Tiannan: "...Do you want to run so fast?"

...

The streets of Nanyu.

Earth-shaking changes have taken place long ago.

On both sides of Qingshi Road, countless vendors from all walks of life came here to start business.

Advanced elixir, talisman, weapon pavilion, and kung fu pavilion.

Everything.

This is a sight that has never been seen before.

After all, the former Southern Region could not afford these luxuries.

After wandering around the city for a while.

Little Shitou led Huang Qian into an extremely luxurious attic.

Here is the most exquisite place to make clothes in the entire barren realm, um, in other words, it is the most expensive place.

But expensive is of course expensive for a reason.

While designing clothes.

To maintain the good-looking of the clothes, defensive attributes are added to them.

Has the same effect as other armors.

The price will naturally rise.

Deeply loved by young ladies from aristocratic families.

When the maid saw Huang Qian's temperament, she was startled, and subconsciously thought that the power behind this person was absolutely extraordinary.

Someone immediately came over and said with a smile, "You two guests, what kind of clothes do you want to buy?"

The smile is neither flattering nor flattering.

It looks very refreshing, making people feel that it is not so cheap.

Little Shitou waved his small hand and said, "Take us to see the best clothes here! Cheap clothes don't match my sister Huangqian!"

Huangqian smiled faintly.

The maid nodded after hearing this, made a gesture of invitation, and said, "You two guests, follow me upstairs."

Walk up the stairs.

The maid explained: "Our place is divided into four floors. The first floor is for ordinary products, the second floor is for fine products, the third floor is for extreme products, and the fourth floor is for fairy products."

"As the name suggests, but Nengfanpin is just ordinary clothing. After reaching the high-quality goods, it has additional capabilities. The higher the level, the better the material, additional capabilities, and detailed design."

"Since the guests want the best, it is naturally a fairy product."

When I came to the top floor, there was a fairy character at the door, and the maid smiled and said, "Two guests, we are here."

After pushing open the door.

Entry pointed out that there are wardrobes made of transparent crystals.

In each wardrobe, there are pieces of clothing.

Various.

Each piece has its own characteristics.

It can be described as dazzling.

Xiaoshitou and Huangqian watched the selection in front.

The maid followed step by step, and only when Huang Qian and Xiao Shitou stopped in front of a piece of clothing, would they explain it to them in a timely manner.

At this time.

Huang Qian suddenly stopped in front of a piece of clothing.

This dress is flaming red all over.

There is a phoenix tattooed on it, spreading its wings and soaring nine days.

As for the ability, it doesn't work for people of Huangqian's level.

Just look good.

The maid was just about to say something.

A brocade robed man walked slowly with a folding fan in his hand, and said with a smile on his face, "The brocade fire phoenix robe is most suitable for ascetics who have comprehended the artistic conception of fire. Harmony can further strengthen the power of the artistic conception of fire."

"However, these are not important. The important thing is that this robe is too suitable for you, miss."

See it.

The maid bowed slightly towards the man: "Young Master Jin."

Jin Dan nodded.

Little Shitou looked at Jin Dan with an unkind expression on his face.

Someone wants to make love to Miss Huangqian?

Huang Qian ignored the so-called Mr. Jin, but looked at the maid and asked, "How much is this dress?"

"500,000 yuan crystal."

500,000 crystals.

For most people in the wild world, it is an unattainable number!

Huang Qian slightly frowned upon hearing this.

The Yuan Jing given by Dean Qin is only 200,000 yuan in total.

However, how could Qin Tiannan have thought that Huang Qian and the others would go directly to see such expensive clothes?

Seems to have seen Huang Qian's thoughts.

Jin Dan raised his mouth and said, "Miss, a good horse is equipped with a saddle, and only you can wear this dress, otherwise it will be buried in this closet."

"If you don't mind, let me give it to you, miss?"

"Of course, just follow me to the restaurant for a drink."

obviously.

Jin Dan has already confirmed in this series of expressions that this fairy-like woman is definitely not as powerful as him.

After all, if the power is strong enough, it is impossible to not even have half a million yuan in crystals.

Then, as long as you show the corresponding strength, you can easily win.

For Jindan, it is the most sensible and correct choice for the weak to cling to the strong.

Without waiting for Huang Qian to speak.

The little stone jumped out, stood in front of Huangqian, raised his head, raised his little hand, pointed at Jin Dan's nose and cursed: "What are you? You want my sister Huangqian to accompany you?"

"I don't even pee and take care of myself. I don't have any self-knowledge."

Seeing this, the maid on the side turned pale with fright, and quickly pulled the little stone, saying: "Little friend, stop talking."

The Jin family behind this Mr. Jin came from other more powerful realms.

In today's wild world, it can be regarded as one of the top forces.

As for gold orders, arrogance and domineering have long been the norm on weekdays.

as expected.

Seeing a child standing in front of him, pointing at his nose and yelling.

The smile on Jin Dan's face immediately disappeared.

With a gloomy look on his face, he said, "Whose children are running wild everywhere without discipline?"

Xiao Shitou hugged his chest and sneered: "It's none of your business."

"Such a big man, is it possible that he still thinks about making a report? I feel ashamed for you."

Jin Dan laughed back angrily: "Since your family doesn't care about it, then I will replace it!"
