

FATED TO MY ENEMY BY DIANE DOHERTY

Chapter 181

Book Two Chapter Twenty-Eight

Luna Ryley

Saying goodbye to Aspen was hard, but he calls me every day to update me. After a week they still haven't tracked down the girls but they also haven't run into the council, so that's good news. I still don't like him out there without me.

I

know he's eighteen and can handle himself but as a Luna wolf, I can heal him. And that's what's worrying me the most, is not being there if he needs me.

But, today, I have to push my worry aside because, today, Evie and I are watching her big brother play hockey. It was like pulling teeth to get my mate to agree to let me go, but after seeing his daughter in the little jersey I bought to match mine with the Orion name on the back, he couldn't say no.

I was standing in the crowded bleachers with Walter. The second period was about to start and Evie was already asleep in the snuggly strapped around my chest. It was passed her bedtime. Warriors were surrounding us, blending into the crowd, and Channing's team of warriors was also there. I knew we were safe and this was the first game my son openly invited me to and I wasn't going to miss it.

I just finished texting Blake when the teams came out from intermission. The crowd went wild for the home team and my heart swelled with pride. This is something Channing always wanted. We would talk about it after his games when he was younger. He loved the game of hockey.

I caught Channing eyeing the crowd and I waved an arm in the air. I was surprised when he saw me in the crowded arena but he gave me a nod before going to the center for the puck drop.

<

12.48

Book Two Chapter Twenty-Eight

288 Vouchers

I held my sleeping daughter tightly as I bounced her in the busy lobby of the arena. The game was now over with a win for us and I was beaming with pride. I wish Blake had been here to see him. He has been meeting with other alphas with everything going on with the council. He couldn't get away no matter how hard he tried.

"How are you feeling?" Walter asked me again as we waited. The nausea has been worse the last couple of days and it's been hard to keep anything down, even with medication.

"I'm still okay," I told him. Even if I were dying, I would still be here watching my son. But I missed being pregnant with Evie, she was so easy compared to this little bean.

I kissed the top of her head as I bounced her. I was so thankful for the family Blake and I have. As much as this little bean I'm growing is making me sick, I can't wait to meet them.

The lobby went crazy as the home team entered from the locker room. I couldn't see my son through the crowd but I knew he would find me, he always does. I just wanted to hug him before we had to leave. Blake was anxious about having us back at the pack as soon as possible. I understand his worry. I worry every time he has to leave the pack without me.

“Mom, Grandad,” Channing shouted through the crowd of fans. He was taller than most and I was finally able to see him. He wrapped me in his arms before kissing my cheek and Evie's head. “I'm so glad you were both able to come.”

“I wouldn't have missed this,” I smiled at him. I have missed him so much since he left earlier this week. After Aspen left on his mission, Channing and I had been spending more time together.

“Great game, son. So proud of you,” Walter praised him before hugging him.

29.46%

in

[e]

12:48

Book Two Chapter Twenty-Eight

288 Vouchers

“Thanks, Grandad.”

“We have another one tomorrow night if you can both make it,” he shrugged.

“I will try to be there, but your father has been anxious about us leaving the pack.

Maybe tomorrow, we can both be here to cheer you on,” I told him.

“I understand, Mom. I love Evie's new jersey,” he smiled as he wrapped an arm around my shoulders.

“She watched most of the first period, but we have had a busy day,” I said as he lightly brushed his fingers through her hair. "She'll be your second biggest fan soon enough," I smiled. I will always be the first.

"Thanks, Mom," he squeezed me and my heart swelled. It's not easy when your children grow older and you don't realize how hard it is until it happens to you. Some of Channing's teammates were calling him over and I knew it was time to leave, even though I didn't want to. Channing hesitated to pull away from me. "Go, we need to get back to the pack. I'm so proud of you, son," I hugged him the best I could with his sister strapped to my chest.

"Be safe and text me when you're home. Hopefully, I will see you all tomorrow," he mumbled as he returned the hug. He hugged Walter before kissing my cheek and his sister's head again.

"I love you."

"I love you," I heard him say before he got lost in the crowd.

"Come on, baby girl, we need to get back." Walter wrapped an arm around my shoulders before leading me out of the arena. I walked over

61.03%

on

12:48

<

Book Two Chapter Twenty-Eight

288 Vouchers

to the waiting SUV with a few warriors standing around. I would say it was overkill if I didn't know firsthand what the council was capable of.

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

Walter helped me unstrap Evie and I placed her in the car seat. gestaved asleep I I fuckiet Kel 1h - Walter climbed in on the other side and a warrior closed the door behind me.

The content is on Novelxo.org!

Read the latest chapter there!

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

Once we were ready to go, I pulled out my phone to text = Knew one of te wagrions Wd have nbtified him, but I missed him. Stu pid hormones. The content is on

Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

« . . . »

Everything is going to be okay, Walter reassured me. I KOSH Jtwould be, but Lyi feet betel dos we are in the Shfety of the pack and I'm

,

: ,

wrapped in my husband's arms. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

“And the council is dead,” Lily grumbled.

“Yeah, that too.”

#Chapter 182 - Read Chapter 182

Book Two Chapter Twenty—Nine

Future Alpha Aspen

Three months later...

It's been three months and we still haven't found Tessa or Sarah. I felt like my life was coming undone. My mother is close to giving birth. The council is pushing my father more and more each day to attack. And here I was, trying to find someone who clearly didn't want to be found.

Aiden, Eli, and I were staying at a rundown motel while we waited for another possible lead. I was impressed with their hiding skills but also annoyed that we couldn't find them.

"This is not the first time they have run," Bliz chimed in, while I lay on the bed in my room, looking up at the ceiling.

"But why run from me? What were they running from before?" I questioned for what felt like the hundredth time. I realized I didn't know anything about Tessa's past. I was afraid if I pushed her she would walk away from me. But she did anyway. I believed we were on the same page, and that we could fall in love. What did I do wrong?

Banging on the door pulled me from my depressing thoughts. I jumped off the bed to open the door finding Eli on the other side.

"I think we found something," he pushed past me and entered my room. Knots twisted my stomach as I waited for him to continue. "I think we have a lead on Sarah. My contact hasn't seen anyone who looks like Tessa but a hot blonde like Sarah is easy to notice." I growled causing him to chuckle. "Relax, Alpha."
0.00%

[i

[e]

12:48

&

Book Two Chapter Twenty—Nine

288 Vouchers

“What's the lead?” I exhaled. My patience was growing to non-existent since this all began. I have heard it all but nothing seems to lead to anything but a dead end.

“It's a bar in a small town in the middle of nowhere. They did not make it easy to find. With the number of busses and big cities, I'm glad we had some men on the ground,” he breathed out, slumping down into one of the chairs.

“Is he sure it's Sarah?” I asked, tired of chasing my tail. “Tessa would be there if it was Sarah.”

“It's better than nothing, Aspen. We have been sitting in this motel for days waiting on a location.” He was right but we have been running in circles for months.

“I know,” I yelled, as I paced the small room. “I know,” I mumbled. He leaned forward and rested his elbows on his knees.

“I understand this is hard. I've been there myself,” he confessed and I knew he was speaking about Mom. He has been telling me stories about their childhood and how things changed when she met Dorian. It made me wonder if I was doing all of this in vain. If I'm not her fated mate, then she has one out there and I'm Eli in my Mom's story.

“She's a Luna wolf, Aspen. She will be with an alpha.” Bliz sighed. That may be true but I may not be that alpha.

“Get packed, we can go check it out. The town isn’t far from here,” Eli said before leaving my room. I sat on the edge of the bed with my head in my hands. Now, I understand how Dad was feeling that month without Mom. The not/knowing was slowly killing me.

I’ve come to terms with the fact that she may not care about me, and I just want to know if she is okay. Even if she tells me to fuck off after I find her.

2565%

[e]

12:48

r

Book Two Chapter Twenty Nine

288 Vouchers

“Let’s get this over with,” I sighed before getting up from the bed. I found Eli standing by my truck as I left the room with bags in my hands.

“Have you told Aiden?” I asked as I threw my stuff into the back seat.

“He hasn’t answered. It’s only a few hours away if you want to go for a drive?” He suggested. I couldn’t leave without letting Aiden know where we were going.

I walked up to the room beside mine and banged on the door. When he didn’t answer, I opened up the mind link.

“Give me a second,” he said before I got a chance to say anything. He closed the link and I stepped back to stand with Eli.

“He said to give him a second,” I told him. I wonder if he was having a hard time being away from his mate. I know she is human and doesn’t feel the bond the same way but I'm sure she misses him. It's been a long three months. I can tell he has been more on edge lately.

I turned when a door was thrown open with a bang. Aiden marched out of his room with all his stuff.

"We've been called back to the pack," he rushed as he threw his stuff in the back.

"Get in."

I looked at Eli as Aiden climbed into the driver's seat. We rushed around the truck and climbed in with me riding shotgun.

Aiden didn't waste any time as he burned rubber out of the parking lot.

"What's going on?" I questioned.

"I don't know much, Aspen. Luca called and ordered us back. I'm sorry."

55.22%

||

12 48

[e]

<

Book Two Chapter Twenty—Nine

"What the hell does that mean? What aren't you saying?" Eli demanded and Aiden sighed.

1288 (Vouchers

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

« " .

Fuck,” he slapped the steering wheel before gripping it tightly. His knuckles were white by the time he looked over at ME. My stomach sank as I watched him. It was bad and he didn't know how to tell me. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

f P

“Luna is missing, Aspen,” he blurted.

“What?” Eli and I yelled.

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

« p .

I don't know the details. Luca called and your father is BACH here. 5 Years 2.

SERIA the council. I don't

5 ” &

know what happened.” The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

My mind was racing. She was very pregnant with my sister or brother and couldn't shift.

“How? I don't understand. How were they able to get to her?” I demanded.

“I can't answer any of that.”

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

« ” .

Fuck,” I exhaled. I leaned back in my seat and pulled my phone from my FANE my Yather “and when he didn't answer I called Walter.

Someone had to know something.

The content is on Novelxo.org!
Read the latest chapter there!

"Do you think Channing knows?" I asked while the phone rang.

"I don't know, but I wouldn't say anything until we speak to Luca back at the pack."

"Aspen, are you okay, son?" Walter finally answered the phone.

"Where is Mom?"

"I, we," he stammered, "don't know."

"Blake, slow down, we need a plan," Luca grabbed my arm but I ripped it away.

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"I'm going to the council and ripping them apart until someone tells me where she is. I is. I know it was them and this time nothing is going to stop me." I growled as I tore open the door and headed for my truck. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"We need men," Luca called out, but nothing was going to smooth this burning rage inside e didn't need an army to take them down. Nothing they did was going to stop me this time. The content is on

Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

I climbed behind the wheel of my truck and started the engine. I looked to the passenger seat when Aspen ripped open the door and hopped in.

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"I'm not letting you go alone." He clicked his seat belt. I didn't say a word as I sped away from the pack house. What could say? I didn't know what was going to happen. I'm sure this was a trap but I didn't care what happened to me. I needed Ryley and our baby to be okay. Everything else at this moment didn't matter. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

Aspen's phone rang as I kept my attention on the road ahead. In a few hours, she will be back in my arms, I told myself.

"Luca has men ready and they are following. He wants us to stop before the council to go over a plan," Aspen relayed.

"Tell him to catch up. I'm not wasting time stopping. We have no idea what they injected her with and how it may affect the baby. This ends

now:

Chapter 184

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Two

Tessa

It's been three months since I ran away with Sarah, leaving Aspen behind. Every night without him, I lose a little bit more of my soul. I was willing to risk everything to go back to him, even if he sent me back to my betrothed. Anything to make the pain in my chest go away.

I rubbed my tiny bump as I thought about what Aspen would think if he saw me now. Would he be happy I'm carrying his child or would he be furious I ran from him? I tried to tell myself that I had no choice. I had to keep Sarah alive. Without her, I wouldn't have gotten away in the first place. But nothing eased the guilt or the heartache.

"I'm sorry, little one, I don't know what to do," I whispered as I looked out the window of the back garden of the motel. The older couple who owns it loves to garden and the building may be older but they keep it in great shape. The gardens make this place even more beautiful.

I jumped when the door was thrown open and Sarah rushed in. She was panting as she rested her hands on her knees. My stomach clenched as I knew what this would mean. We were going to have to leave this place.

"We leaving, aren't we?" I asked as I watched her catch her breath.

"It's not like that, Tess," she panted. "Alpha Connolly has Luna Orion," she exhaled and my blood ran cold. Why the hell would he have taken her?

Aspen's mother. She's pregnant.

0.00%

12:13

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Two

"Sarah, I don't understand. How do you know this?" I stammered, heart bleeding for Aspen. He must be losing his mind with worry.

288 ;Vouchers

my

I gasped when a tall figure stood in the doorway of our small room. One hand over my mouth and the other over my tiny bump. He was an alpha and nothing I could do would save me from him if he attacked, but I had to try.

"Baby sister," he stepped into the small space and closed the door behind him.

$

"It's not what you think," Sarah rushed as I stepped back until I hit the wall.
Scanning the room, I tried to find another way out.

"Why would you do this? Why would you bring him here?" I shouted and my brother flinched.

"Dad's dead," he said, but that didn't erase everything the pack had put me through. They all just stood there while he handed me over to that monster.

"I want you both to come home," he wrapped an arm around Sarah's waist and pulled her back against his chest. I looked between them, not believing what I was seeing with my own eyes.

"That's how you were able to get us away." I pointed at my brother. "He was helping." Sarah nodded.

"I know this is a lot, Tess, but I need you to trust me."

"Trust you," I snapped. "You have lied to me this entire time. You have been with my brother. I thought you were my friend." I cried, tears streaming down my cheeks.

23.60%

12:13

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Two

288 (Vouchers

"Sis, I understand, but the fewer people who knew about us the better. Dad would have never let her live if he knew." Titus explained.

"I'm sorry, Tess, I'm so sorry, but I couldn't risk anyone finding out." She cried. My brother spun her and hugged her tightly against his chest. I haven't seen this side of him in so long. Always afraid our father would find out and I would be punished.

I exhaled as I took a seat at the two-person table in the room. My head pounded with the new information.

"Did she tell you everything?" I questioned as he and Sarah sat on the edge of her bed.

"I know you are pregnant, Tessa. I also know the father is a future alpha from the other side. What I don't understand is why you ran?"

"That doesn't matter now, does it?" I scoffed, crossing my arms over my chest.

"I'm sorry, Tess, I didn't know your father had died or I would have told you to tell Aspen everything." Sarah sniffled.

"So, what's the plan now?" I sighed. I wasn't happy about my best friend lying to me about being with my brother but I knew she was trying to keep me safe. Even though she should have told me the truth.

"He knows you are a Luna wolf," my brother stated.

"What are you talking about? I don't even have my wolf yet. How would he know about my wolf when I don't?"

"Luna wolves will start to show their abilities even without their wolves,

45.94%

12:13

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Two

288 (Vouchers

sis," he stood up from the bed and took steps towards me as he cut his hand with a claw.

"What are you doing?" I gasped, blood dripping from his palm.

"Lick it," he pushed his hand towards my face.

"Are you mad? I'm not licking blood," I gaged, my stomach wasn't handling this well.

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"Then spit and I will prove to you

what you are, Tessa," he smirked pushed my lips into a fine before my & pooling saliva in my mouth and I spit it in his hand. The gash closed, leaving nothing but healthy skin. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

"How?" I breathed out.

"I can't answer that, but I know that's why Connolly wanted you and Dad sold you for a high price. And when you ran it fucked with his plan and he went after the only Luna wolf he knew of."

"Luna Orion," I gasped and he nodded.

"I caught word she is pregnant. But you are as well and I won't risk you."

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"I need to get her out of there. If I did it before, I can do it again. Luna Orion is Aspen's mother. Adoptive mother." My brother pinched his brow. "Long story," I waved it off. "But I need to do this. I don't think they even know who has taken her. They have been at war with their council. It's why we had to leave." The content is on Novelxo.org!

Read the latest chapter there!

"Let's get you both back to the pack and we will figure out a plan to get Luna Orion out of there safely, with her child. I still have people on the inside that will keep her safe, for now."

69.03%

12:13

Book Two Chapter Thirty Two

"Okay," I mumbled.

288 Nouchers

"Good, get packed. The jet leaves within the hour," he kissed Sarah before he left our room.

"Tess," I held up my hand to stop her.

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"I understand why you did what you did, but right now we need to focus on getting Aspen's mother back h can not break his heart again." She nodded before going around the room and stuffing things into her bag. I did the same as I thought of a plan to get her away from that monster. I knew what I had to do and this time I wouldn't run. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

Chapter 185

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Three

288 | Vouchers

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Three

Future Alpha Aspen

I cringed as the front of my father's truck met the metal gate of the council building. The sound of metal on metal caused goosebumps to cover my body as I threw my arm out to brace myself on the dash.

ININ

H

"Dad," I shouted as the truck came to a halt in front of the building. Warriors surround the truck. Our warriors used their vehicles as shields as they caged in the truck and almost hit the warriors in the way.

My father jumped out of the truck and it was then I noticed the head of the council standing on the top of the stairs. A black blur flew over one of the SUVs before tackling the councilman.

"Damnnit, Dad," I growled getting out of the truck.

I rushed around the front of the truck and through two SUVs before seeing my father's wolf surrounded by council warriors. He was ripping apart the head of the council without a care in the world that they could open fire any second.

"Well, that was easy," Luca exhaled beside me.

"Yeah, but what if he was the only one who knew where mom was?" I sighed as Gunner sat back and let out a howl.

"Everyone stand down," I commanded as I rushed up the stairs. My father was now the head of the council.

0.00%

12.07

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Three

"He can't just storm in here without an official challenge in place. What he has done is an act of war," a councilman argued coming out of the council building. Gunner growled as the member approached us.

"And taking his mate wasn't an act of war," Luca retorted.

"I admit we made a mistake but does that mean we should all be killed?" He gasped. Gunner got down, ready to pounce on the poor bastard.

"If you tell us where she is, then maybe I will stop him from killing you," I said, crossing my arms over my chest.

"She? What are you talking about?" He questioned.

"Search the building. I want everyone who is inside to be brought 'out here for questioning," I told Connor who was standing on the other side of me.

"Yes, sir," he replied before barking orders to the men.

"Luna Orion was taken from our pack earlier today and we want her back," I demanded. The councilman looked nervous as he looked between me and my father's massive black wolf.

"I'm sorry that happened," he stammered, "but it wasn't the council." Gunner let out a murderous growl and he paled before stepping back.

My father shifted back, covered in blood.

"You will give me back my mate, now," he screamed as he pointed at him. Even I took a step back. I've seen him crazy before but he had reached a new level.

18.68%

12:07

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Three

☐☐ 288 | Vouchers

"Alpha Orion, Luna Orion is not here," he stuttered. "She hasn't been here since you claimed her as your second chance." I stepped in front of my father before he could attack.

"We may need him."

My father stormed down the stairs, back to the vehicles, hopefully, to find pants as I ordered our men to take everyone down the the parking area. I didn't need anyone falling down the stairs before, we got a chance to interrogate them.

My father stepped up beside me after our warriors had cleared out the building and their warriors were disarmed. Everyone made up two lines.

"We are looking for information on the whereabouts of Luna Orion," I called out. My father let out a murderous growl with the mention of his mate. I knew this was going to be difficult for him but we needed information first before we could kill anyone. Everyone I could see took a step back away from us, but the commotion down the line caught my attention.

I marched over there and was surprised when a young girl pushed through and wrapped her arms around my waist. A furious older man followed her.

"Please, help me," she begged.

"I'm sorry, Alpha," the man spoke and reached for the girl with the death grip on me.

"Step back," I ordered the man.

"She is a child, Alpha, she didn't mean any disrespect," he pleaded.

38.67%

A

12:07

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Three

288 Vouchers

"Don't let him take me," the girl cried as she held on to me tighter. I looked at my father before looking down at the girl. I brushed some hair from her face to see bruises. She winced when I unwrapped her arms and kneeled to see her more clearly. I pulled up the sleeves of her shirt to see track marks.

"Please," she mumbled and I looked up into her big brown eyes, filled with tears.

"I won't let them hurt you again," I spoke softly to not scare her, even though I have never felt a fury like this before. "But I need you to stand with that man," I pointed to Luca who stepped forward. I couldn't trust my father with this since I didn't want the poor girl to see everyone getting ripped apart.

"No, please," she pleaded.

"My name is Aspen and he is Luca. I trust him. No one is ever going to hurt you again." I assured her. "I just don't want you to see this." She hesitated before nodding.

"That fucker is dead," Bliz growled in my head

"It's okay, Sweetie," Luca held out his hand and I nudged her towards him.

When she was out of sight I grabbed the fucker by the throat. His eyes bulged out as his face turned red.

"Now, someone is going to tell me what you have been doing to that poor girl," I commanded.

"Alpha, Hailey is a Luna wolf. She had wandered into a pack and was

58.82%

12:07

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Three

00

288 iVouchers

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

brought her," a staff member stepped forward. The man in my grip gargled as I crushed his throat before ripping it out. His limp body fell to the ground with a thump. Everything took a step back and my skin rippled with the need to shift. Luna wolf or not, how the hell do you justify testing a child? The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

"Separate the staff and warriors from the members," I ordered.

"If they would do this to a child, they would take your mother again," my father grumbled stepping up beside me.

"This council needs to be cleaned up and even if Mom isn't here, this was long overdue," I glared at the remaining members.

"Luna Orion isn't here," a man shouted.

She may not be but I know what she would do if she was here and saw that poor girl. We had men at the pack tracking the SUV she was put into so we had time to deal with this shitshow.

"Dad, Mom would never allow this. We can't just leave," I told him.

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"I'm going to sniff around inside to see if I can pick up her scent." He gripped my shoulder. "Hrust you." He took off towards the front doors of the building, leaving me to deal with this corrupt council. Little did they know, I was just as brutal as my father. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"Who knew about the girl?" I demanded. When no one stepped forward, Bliz forced the shift. He shook out his white coat before bearing his teeth. Everyone here was guilty and the punishment was death. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

Chapter 186

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Four

Luna Ryley

I jumped when the door opened with a bang. I must have fallen asleep. I stood up and readied myself when someone walked into the room.

"Luna, you're awake. Good. How are you feeling? I brought you I some breakfast," the young maid smiled.

"I'm sorry, who are you?" I questioned as I held my belly.

"Lily, keep them in there," I pleaded as I watched the maid put down the tray. I took in a breath and pushed it out as my belly tightened. I can not go into labor in this place.

"I'm Shea and Alpha Connolly has assigned me to your care, Luna Orion. Anything you need, please ask. He wants you to be as comfortable as possible."

"Well, I'm still here, so not too comfortable," I retorted. She smiled awkwardly as she clasped her hands together in front of her.

"I understand this must be difficult for you, Luna Orion, but everything will be okay," she smiled and winked. Her face fell when I gripped my belly. "Drink some water and rest. I'll be back soon."

0.00%

11:40

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Four

I let out a groan as soon as the door clipped closed.

"Lily," I took harsh breaths as I leaned against the bed.

288 Vouchers

"Drink some water and rest. I'm doing everything I can," she whined. As soon as the tightness subsided, I picked up the tray and sat on the bed. I sipped the water and placed my feet up.

"Baby, Momma needs you to stay in there a little longer," I mumbled as I rubbed over my bump. I felt a few kicks and I smiled.

"Blake, I really need you right now," I whispered.

It didn't take long for me to fall back asleep. Being in a constant state of fear and panic is exhausting. When I woke, I reached for the bottle of water and found a sealed one and a new tray of food. Shea must have been in earlier.

"I didn't want to wake you. She came in and switched out the trays. I didn't feel any danger," Lily yawned.

"I don't know if we can trust anyone here. And I'm not going to risk our baby being born here. He will take them away as soon as they are out." I sighed.

"But then we can shift and I can rip him apart. Right now, there is nothing I can do to help," she said.

I was on the verge of tears with frustration. Both plans are such a risk. He could kill my baby before I could get a chance to shift. But how can I fight back without the baby getting hurt inside me?

18.07%

A

11:40

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Four

1288 Vouchers

I yelled when the door was thrown open. Alpha Connolly marched in with Shea following behind him, keeping her head down while carrying a garment bag. I looked at the alpha and he wore a smirk on his stupid face. I've never wanted to punch someone so badly before.

I stood up from the bed and clenched my fists to my side as I sized up the alpha. If I wasn't pregnant, I would rip his throat out.

"What can I do for you, Alpha?" I grumbled.

"Do I need to remind you of your place, Luna Orion?" I glared at him as he took a step towards me and I stepped back. He smiled at the action, knowing I was scared and there was no hiding it. I had to protect my child.

"Now, with that settled, you will join me for dinner. Shea will help you get ready with a dress I've chosen." He forced Shea to step forward with a tight grip on her arm.

"I don't know what you think this is, Alpha Connolly, but I'm in no condition to join you for anything, nor do I want to." This time when he took a step towards me, I didn't step back. The chuckle that left him had a shiver running down my spine.

I gasped when he gripped my cheeks with his fingers.

"As much as I'm going to enjoy that fighting spirit of yours, I'm also going to enjoy breaking it. No one is coming for you, Luna, so you better get used to me." He leaned in and sniffed my neck. as he dragged his nose along my skin. "Fuck, you smell good, even with that bastard's scent coming from you."

41.25%

11:40-

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Four

1288 Vouchers

I gasped when he spun me around and shoved me against the wall. I throw my palms out to stop my belly from hitting the wall. The alpha gripped my hips before rubbing himself against me. I screamed when he sunk his teeth into my shoulder. I was left gasping as he removed his mouth.

"You can scream, baby, but no one is going to help you unless I allow it. Now, get cleaned up. You have one hour, unless," he growled and thankful didn't get to finish his threat. I'm sure it was the ridged thing pushed against my ass.

"Alpha, sorry to interrupt," a man cleared his throat.

"One hour, Ryley," he grumbled before taking a step back.

"Shea, get her ready," he commanded. I jumped when the door slammed shut.

"Luna," Shea called out. When her hand touched me, I jumped away.

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

My body was trembling and my knees buckled. Shea caught me and helped me to sit on the bed. My lungs Metas constricted, and breathing became difficult. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"Luna, I need you to take big deep breaths for me. You have having a panic attack and it's not good for the baby. Breathe," I looked at her feeling evenmate panica as I thought about going into labor here. "It's okay, I know you are scared but I'm going to help you, I promise," she assured me. I don't know if she meant she was going to help me get out of here or with the panic attack. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

67.32%

11:40

Book Two Chapter Thirty Four

1288 Vouchers

"Let's get you into the shower. We can't leave the alpha waiting."

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

She left me m

She helped me to stand and led me into the bathroom. She left leaning against the counter as she started the shower before getting me a cold bottle of water. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

"Drink, please, you and your baby need it. We don't need you going into labor before we can get you out of here."

"He will kill you," I choked as I looked at the young woman who smiled at me.

"There is more than your alpha coming, Luna. We just have to be patient."

Chapter 186

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Four

Luna Ryley

I jumped when the door opened with a bang. I must have fallen asleep. I stood up and readied myself when someone walked into the room.

"Luna, you're awake. Good. How are you feeling? I brought you I some breakfast," the young maid smiled.

"I'm sorry, who are you?" I questioned as I held my belly.

"Lily, keep them in there," I pleaded as I watched the maid put down the tray. I took in a breath and pushed it out as my belly tightened. I can not go into labor in this place.

"I'm Shea and Alpha Connolly has assigned me to your care, Luna Orion.

Anything you need, please ask. He wants you to be as comfortable as possible."

"Well, I'm still here, so not too comfortable," I retorted. She smiled awkwardly as she clasped her hands together in front of her.

"I understand this must be difficult for you, Luna Orion, but everything will be okay," she smiled and winked. Her face fell when I gripped my belly. "Drink some water and rest. I'll be back soon."

0.00%

11:40

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Four

I let out a groan as soon as the door clipped closed.

"Lily," I took harsh breaths as I leaned against the bed.

288 Vouchers

"Drink some water and rest. I'm doing everything I can," she whined. As soon as the tightness subsided, I picked up the tray and sat on the bed. I sipped the water and placed my feet up.

"Baby, Momma needs you to stay in there a little longer," I mumbled as I rubbed over my bump. I felt a few kicks and I smiled.

"Blake, I really need you right now," I whispered.

It didn't take long for me to fall back asleep. Being in a constant state of fear and panic is exhausting. When I woke, I reached for the bottle of water and found a sealed one and a new tray of food. Shea must have been in earlier.

"I didn't want to wake you. She came in and switched out the trays. I didn't feel any danger," Lily yawned.

"I don't know if we can trust anyone here. And I'm not going to risk our baby being born here. He will take them away as soon as they are out." I sighed.

"But then we can shift and I can rip him apart. Right now, there is nothing I can do to help," she said.

I was on the verge of tears with frustration. Both plans are such a risk. He could kill my baby before I could get a chance to shift. But how can I fight back without the baby getting hurt inside me?

18.07%

A

11:40

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Four

1288 Vouchers

I yelled when the door was thrown open. Alpha Connolly marched in with Shea following behind him, keeping her head down while carrying a garment bag. I looked at the alpha and he wore a smirk on his stupid face. I've never wanted to punch someone so badly before.

I stood up from the bed and clenched my fists to my side as I sized up the alpha. If I wasn't pregnant, I would rip his throat out.

"What can I do for you, Alpha?" I grumbled.

"Do I need to remind you of your place, Luna Orion?" I glared at him as he took a step towards me and I stepped back. He smiled at the action, knowing I was scared and there was no hiding it. I had to protect my child.

"Now, with that settled, you will join me for dinner. Shea will help you get ready with a dress I've chosen." He forced Shea to step forward with a tight grip on her arm.

"I don't know what you think this is, Alpha Connolly, but I'm in no condition to join you for anything, nor do I want to." This time when he took a step towards me, I didn't step back. The chuckle that left him had a shiver running down my spine.

I gasped when he gripped my cheeks with his fingers.

"As much as I'm going to enjoy that fighting spirit of yours, I'm also going to enjoy breaking it. No one is coming for you, Luna, so you better get used to me." He leaned in and sniffed my neck. as he dragged his nose along my skin. "Fuck, you smell good, even with that bastard's scent coming from you."

41.25%

11:40-

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Four

1288 Vouchers

I gasped when he spun me around and shoved me against the wall. I throw my palms out to stop my belly from hitting the wall. The alpha gripped my hips before rubbing himself against me. I screamed when he sunk his teeth into my shoulder. I was left gasping as he removed his mouth.

"You can scream, baby, but no one is going to help you unless I allow it. Now, get cleaned up. You have one hour, unless," he growled and thankful didn't get to finish his threat. I'm sure it was the ridged thing pushed against my ass.

"Alpha, sorry to interrupt," a man cleared his throat.

"One hour, Ryley," he grumbled before taking a step back.

"Shea, get her ready," he commanded. I jumped when the door slammed shut.

"Luna," Shea called out. When her hand touched me, I jumped away.

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

My body was trembling and my knees buckled. Shea caught me and helped me to sit on the bed. My lungs Metas constricted, and breathing became difficult. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"Luna, I need you to take big deep breaths for me. You have having a panic attack and it's not good for the baby. Breathe," I looked at her feeling evenmate panica as I thought about going into labor here. "It's okay, I know you are scared but I'm going to help you, I promise," she assured me. I don't know if she meant she was going to help me get out of here or with the panic attack. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

67.32%

11:40

Book Two Chapter Thirty Four

1288 Vouchers

"Let's get you into the shower. We can't leave the alpha waiting."

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

She left me m

She helped me to stand and led me into the bathroom. She left leaning against the counter as she started the shower before getting me a cold bottle of water. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

"Drink, please, you and your baby need it. We don't need you going into labor before we can get you out of here."

"He will kill you," I choked as I looked at the young woman who smiled at me.

"There is more than your alpha coming, Luna. We just have to be patient."

Chapter 187

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Five

Tessa

The entire flight home, I was sick. Even after my stomach was empty, it would keep coming up. By the time the plane had landed, I felt worse. My head was pounding and my body ached.

I was also worried about Aspen and my heart twisted painfully for him. I missed him so much.

"Sis, you okay?" My brother held out his hand as I struggled to descend the plane's stairs.

"Yeah, just tired," I mumbled. I took his hand and he caught me when my knees buckled.

"We need to get you to the hospital, Tess," Sarah said as my brother scooped me into his arms.

"I need to go to his pack. We have to get Luna Orion out of there. I don't know how much time she has left in her pregnancy," I protested.

"And how do you think she will feel if you risk her grandchild," she retorted.

"I can heal her. I need to be there. I can rest in the car on the way to the pack. We need to get her out of there now," I argued.

0.00%

11:40

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Five

288 Vouchers

"First, hospital," my brother ordered. "Then I will call Alpha Orion."

"No," I shouted.

"Tess, we are going to need his help," Sarah said as my brother sat me down in the back of one of the SUVs waiting for us.

"He can't know yet. He will never let me help if he knows. And I'm the only one that can heal her." I pleaded with my friend. "Your both know what kind of a monster he is. What if he hurt the baby? I can heal him. We need to go now. I will try to eat anything and drink whatever on the drive there. Please, I can't let him lose.

another mother," I cried.

"Quick trip to the pack and then we will leave. You need something to help keep the food down." My brother said as he buckled me in.

"Thank you," I breathed out.

"Don't thank me yet, sis. We still need to get her and her baby out of there," he kissed my forehead before closing the door. Sarah climbed in beside me and my brother took the front passenger seat.

Sarah gripped my hand as the SUV sped down the road from the airport to our pack. I still haven't been able to ask her about how she got together with my brother. I thought she didn't have her wolf yet. Did his wolf claim her? I know she came from a family of ranked wolves but she doesn't like to talk about how she ended up in our pack.

15.25%

11:40

o

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Five

288 Vouchers

I sighed as I rested my head against the window. I closed my eyes and my thoughts went to Aspen. My heart twisted painfully at my memories of us. I've missed him, more and more over these last three months.

I was anxious about seeing him again. Would he reject me for running and taking his child with me? Would he believe I didn't know when I left? Or that I didn't want to leave. I was protecting his pack against Connolly and my father. I didn't know he was my mate. But even if he wasn't, I wouldn't have been able to live with myself if anything happened to him because of me.

I quickly wiped away the tears as the SUV came to a stop. Sarah squeezed my hand and I looked over at her.

"It's going to be okay," she assured me. I forced a smile. I never thought I would see Aspen again so I never told her my fears. He probably hates me and has moved on with someone else. I choked back a sob at the thought.

"Breath, babe, breath," she wrapped her arms around me.

"I fucked up, Sarah. He could be with someone else," I sobbed as she held me tight.

"A man who looks at a woman like that, would never just move on, Tess. I know Aspen loves you. And I know you love him. It's why you couldn't stay away from him. Your souls were pulling you two together."

"Is that how it is with my brother?" I asked, looking up at her. She bit her lip as her eyes drifted to the front seat.

35,90%

11:41

0

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Five

288 Vouchers

"I love Titus. Since arriving at the pack, I have always felt something. Something I couldn't ignore no matter how hard I tried. Our relationship didn't happen overnight, Tess. But after your father sold you and was pressuring him to take on a mate from another pack, he knew we couldn't stay. I couldn't watch him be with another and I couldn't let my best friend be forced to be with that monster." She forced a smile. I know leaving my brother must have been hard and knowing he was being forced to be with another must have been unbearable.

"I was never with anyone else," my brother stated. "No matter how hard my father pushed me to be like him, I couldn't." He reached back and took her hand.

I was happy for my brother and best friend, but then I was sad for myself. Would Aspen feel the same way? I was his first and he was mine. This child I'm carrying proves he is my fated mate. But I ran. I hurt him. Would he be able to forgive me?

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"The doctor is here to check on you and after the warriors are. packed we will be heading to the meet-up point. I want you to rest while we drive. You are going to need it if you are going to meet Luna Orion at the wall," Titas said before getting out of the vehicle. The wall. The same place I ran to when I escaped with Sarah. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

My door was opened and a doctor I had known my entire life. stepped forward.

"Miss Tessa," his eyes went wide when he noticed my small bump, but he cleared his throat.

58.37%

A

11:41

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Five

1288 Vouchers

"The alpha has said you are experiencing morning sickness. How far along are you?"

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"Fourteen human weeks," I told him.

Wolves are pregnant for thirty weeks, so I'm almost halfway there. He nodded. "Can you please lift your shirt? Let's find the heartbeat and En: then I will give you something for the nausea and the dehydration." I did what he asked and he pulled out a little machine. Sarah had bought one. so we could listen to the heartbeat.

We couldn't risk me going to the hospital in a human town. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

I smiled when the thumping became loud through the speaker.

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"Baby's heart is beating strong. When you return, we should do an ultrasound, but for now these will help with the nausea." He wiped off the gel before reaching into his bag. He handed me a pill bottle and some drink packets. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there! "Take these three times a day, and mix this with a water bottle. It will also help. You should be feeling better in no time." He assured me. I thanked him and Sarah replaced him at the open door. "Let's get cleaned up and then we should be leaving." I climbed out of the vehicle and followed her into my childhood home.

81.90%

Chapter 188

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Six

Future Alpha Aspen

The only ones left of the council were the staff and most of their warriors. All the active council members were dead and now, it was time for the cleanup. But we had more important things to do. I was standing with my father as he barked orders to his men while we got ready to head back home. Mom wasn't here and we needed more information before heading out again.

Luca was with the girl that found me and I had great pleasure ripping the fucker who hurt her apart. All I saw was my sister. I would rip everyone apart who would dare hurt her like that girl.

"Luca, where is she?" I asked when he came to stand beside me.

"She's sleeping in the back seat of the truck. Poor girl has been through hell before this. She thought she was escaping but wound up in this hell," he growled.

A few SUVs pulled up in front of the building and that must have been the backup Luca called in. We only needed help with the cleanup. Everything else had been handled.

"Alpha Phil, Beta Chris," I greeted as they stepped out.

"What a mess," Alpha Phil exhaled.

0.00%

11:41

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Six

"Ryley?" Beta Chris rushed out.

288 Vouchers.

"She isn't here. We did find an orphan that they were testing on. She's a Luna wolf." I told them.

"Fucking monsters," Beta Chris growled.

"You don't have to worry about them. They are all dead." My father stated. He shook the alpha's hand and then his beta's.

"So, then why are we here?" the alpha questioned.

"Cleanup. Ryley isn't here and we don't have time to waste. If you need anything just ask the men I'm leaving here. We need to get back to the pack so we can track her down," my father said.

"I'll stay here with a few of our men to get this place cleaned up. Alpha Phil, you should head back to the pack and get more warriors ready, just in case."

Beta Chris told his alpha.

"I can't answer any of your questions, Alpha Phil. And we also don't have a plan. None of your men are in danger and I would be grateful for your help here," my father told him.

"We will have men ready if you need us. Also, we will help clean up with mess. Go find your Luna and bring her home," he nodded to my father. He yelled out to one of the staying warriors while I gave the alpha and beta a nod before rushing to my father's truck.

I was feeling anxious about getting out of there and finding my mother and sibling.

17.51%

11:41

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Six

1288 Vouchers

I looked in the back seat after I climbed into the passenger seat of the truck. The girl was lying down with a blanket covering her. I wouldn't have been able to guess her age. Maybe ten years old.

A phone rang, pulling my attention from the girl to the console where my father left his phone. Looking at the screen, an unknown number flashed.

"Hello?" I answered it. This could be a ransom for Mom and I wasn't about to let it go to voicemail.

"Alpha Blake?" A male voice asked.

"Yes," I lied.

"I'm glad I reached you, Alpha. I'm Beta Rory. My alpha asked me to reach out and relay a message to you," he said.

"And who is your alpha?" I demanded.

"My apologies, alpha. Alpha Titus Morrison." I didn't hear anything after Morrison.

That's Tessa's last name..

"Alpha, did you hear me? We know where Luna Orion is."

"Wait, what?" I yelled.

"Alpha Connolly has her, alpha. We are doing everything we can to get her out safely," he said calmly.

"And why the hell would you help us? We don't know each other."

"I'm just following orders, alpha. Alpha Titas has only given me so 37.39%

11:41

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Six

288 Vouchers

much information to share. He would speak to you himself but he is on his way there now. The plan is to get her out, quickly and quietly. After she is safe, then we will go to war with you."

"How do you know he has my Luna?" I questioned.

"The alpha has informates inside the pack. The alpha was sold his sister and after the death of their father, our pack is no longer an ally. His sister ran away and we have a way into the pack. We are hoping this act will align our packs and we can take down a mutual enemy." The beta stated.

"And how do we know this isn't a trap?" This sounded too good to be true and I refuse to give my father false hope.

"Tell your son, his mate is here, helping. This isn't the only thing bringing our packs together. I will text you the airport location and I will be there to pick up you and your men. See you soon, Alpha Blake." The call ended but I couldn't remove the phone from my ear. Mate? My mate? Does he mean Tessa? Is this Alpha her brother?

Titus

My mind was racing with questions as my father opened the door and climbed in behind the wheel.

"Son?" His phone chimed against my ear. "What happened?"

"I just got a call from a beta claiming to know where mom is," I replied.

"Tell me on the way and call Luca. He needs to hear this," my father ordered as

he started the truck and sped away from the

54.56%

11:41

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Six

council building.

1200 (ouchers

I called Luca and once he was on speaker I told them everything, including the bit about me and him saying my mate was there.

"So, Tessa and this Alpha Titus share the same last name?" Luca asked me.

"They do. And the only way he would know about me and Tessa is from her or Sarah."

"Their father was the alpha when I lived there," the girl yawned from the back seat. I whipped around to see her sitting up.

"Is that why you left?" I questioned.

"I escaped when he sold me to another alpha. Luna wolves are worth a lot of money. His daughter was also sold."

"Tessa?" she nodded.

"Do you know who she was sold to?" she shook her head.

"Let's just get back to the pack. We can come up with a plan and leave from there," Luca said.

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"We need to worry about getting Ryley back. If they want my help to take down this alpha, my help to will do anything, once I know my wife and child are safe," my father growled. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"I'll call and get the plane ready to leave, Blake. Send me the information the beta sent," he ended the call and I quickly sent The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

76.01%

11:41

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Six

him a text with the information.

288 Vouchers

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

By the time we pulled up in front of

was!

there

the packhouse, my anxiety had hit a new high. Tessa was was there and she s'about to put herself in danger to help my mother. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

I had so many scenarios in my mind, I couldn't think straight. Could her brother keep her safe? Mate? The beta said she was my mate.

"Let's go, son. We don't have time to waste."

We exited the truck with a new location, and hopefully, time was on our side.

92.76%

Chapter 189

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Seven

Luna Ryley

I kept my chin held high as I walked down the stairs in this high-waisted white flowy gown. I would have found it beautiful if I wasn't walking to my captor. The dress was sleeveless with a v-neckline and my swollen breasts were ready to pop out of the thin fabric. I refused to wear the heels that came with the dress. I didn't need to fall.

There were people all around and Alpha Connolly met me at the bottom of the stairs with his hand held out to me. I took his hand, hating myself for allowing him to touch me.

"Beautiful," he mumbled, kissing my cheek. I forced a smile, loathing the bastard for putting his lips against my skin.

I bit my lip when my stomach tightened. I didn't need him. knowing and I refuse to give birth here, without my mate.

"Come, you must be starving," with a hand on the small of my back, he led me out of this room and into a dining room. It was intimate settling with just the head of the table on the left of it set. I looked around but didn't see any of the people from earlier. Were they staff?

He pulled out the chair and I took a seat before his at the head of the table.

Once he was sitting, he took my hand in his.

0.00%

11:41

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Seven

288 Vouchers

"I know this isn't ideal, Ryley. But I was promised a Luna wolf and I won't settle for anything less when it comes to my mate." He looked at me with his piercing blue eyes.

"If you can't promise me my baby will be safe, I would rather kill myself," I told him.

I quickly covered my belly with my hands when a murderous growl rumbled from his chest. He ripped my hand back and pulled me towards him. My bump dug painfully into the oak table. I whimpered as his claws ripped into my hand.

"I'm not a monster," he growled.

"I'm sorry," I cried, fighting his grip.

Fear took hold when he stood up from his seat and forced me to stand. With one arm he swept the table and dishes and glasses went crashing to the floor.

I slammed my eyes closed and my body trembled when he lifted me and sat me on the table. Tears streamed down my cheeks as he pushed the skirt up and he wrapped my legs around his waist.

"Please," I begged as he wrapped his fingers around my throat.

"This isn't a negotiation, Luna. You give me what I want and I will keep that bastard alive. You will remember your place." I gasped when he ran his hand up my bare thigh and slipped it under my panties. He groaned his satisfaction. I felt like I could breathe again when he removed his fingers from my core. He sniffed them and smiled.

21.78%

11:41-

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Seven

288 Vouchers

"Shouldn't be long now." I clenched my jaw as my belly tightened again.

"Lily, do something," I yelled at my wolf.

"Let's get you to the hospital." He pulled down my dress before he scooped me into his arms.

"I'm trying, but you are too emotional, Ryley. I can't stop it," she whimpered.

"No. this can't be happening. I need Blake." I cried to her.

"I'm giving you a week to heal and spend with the child. Then the child is being sent back to its father and you will be mine. Do you understand?" I cried out when he dug his claws into my thighs.

"I understand," I whispered.

"Good girl."

The alpha walked into what looked like a hospital.

One week. I had one week to get the hell out of here with my newborn.

"He'll be ripped apart by then," Lily growled.

"This way, Alpha," a nurse came rushing over to us. He followed behind her and into a room with a bed.

"She's in labor. Give her anything she requires. Make sure she is comfortable." He commanded as he laid me down on the bed.

45.41%

11:41

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Seven

288 Vouchers

"I'll be back in one week, Luna," he kissed my forehead before he left, leaving me with the nurse.

"Get me Shea," I demanded. I groaned when another contraction hit. "And a fucking doctor," I yelled. She scurried from the room and I laid back, taking in harsh breaths.

A sob escaped as I held my bump.

"Blake, I need you," I cried as my heart twisted painfully.

"Luna," Shea rushed to my side.

"I need to get out of here, now," I growled as I struggled to sit up.

"Luna, you are in no condition," she whispered, but I shook my head.

"I'm not giving birth here. Get me something to slow down the labor, anything. And then get me out of here," I begged, gripping onto her.

"Luna, I hear you are having a baby," a woman walked into the room.

"I'm not. I think I just needed some rest. I still have three more weeks." I rushed out.

"I'll be right back," Shea mumbled in my ear. She removed my hands and hurried from the room.

"I'm Dr. Nics. Will you allow me to check to make sure?" she

63.32%

11:410

Book Two Chapter Thirty Seven

11 288 (Vouchers

smiled. But I knew better. She answers to the alpha and wouldn't help me. No matter how much I beg.

"This isn't my first baby. I know my body. I'm just going to rest and it will help."

I

told her.

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"I'll get you some water and I'll be just outside, okay? And if it becomes too much, let me know. She bowed her head before leaving the room. I don't think she believed anything I was saying but I didn't care. I was not giving birth in this place. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

head

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

The doctor came back in with a few bottles of water before leaving me alone again, quickly grabbed a bottle and took small sips as I slowed down my breathing. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter

there!

My heart was racing and I was scared. I missed my baby girl and boys. I missed my husband.

I gasped when a strong contraction hit.

"Please, baby, I need you to stay in there a little longer" I pleaded.

Shea came into the room and closed the door behind her. She put her finger to her lips.

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"Put these on, Luna." She handed me a pair of sweatpants,

pants,

"have

away

out, but we need to leave now. They will be waiting for you." The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

81.25%

Chapter 190

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Eight

Tessa

I was feeling anxious as I suited up at the back of the SUV. This was an all-black mission. I also was wearing a bulletproof vest. It will at least buy me some time if a wolf comes after me.

Everything else I was wearing was a special fabric to protect against wolf bites.

I was less worried about myself and more worried about Luna Orion. My brother had received word that she had gone into labor. but was desperate to get out of there. There was no setting up at plan now. Sarah and I were getting ready to head out to get her under the cover of darkness.

"Ready?" I asked my best friend as I threw a backpack over my shoulders.

"Let's do this," she nodded.

"You're going to need this," Titus came around the SUV and handed me a handgun. "Also, my Beta has spoken to Alpha Orion. He is on his way here now."

I exhaled before biting my bottom lip. My stomach twisted with the thought of seeing Aspen again. The medicine the pack doctor gave me helped and I was able to keep down a meal. But it wanted to come back up with the thought of my baby's father.

0.00%

11:41 D

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Eight

288 Vouchers

"Thanks," I mumbled as I placed the gun in the thigh holster.

"I know you are anxious about seeing him again, sis, but from everything Sarah has told me, you have nothing to worry about. He'll be mad, but he will quickly get over it." He kissed my temple before moving on to Sarah. He kissed her hard and I walked away.

I needed a moment to clear my head. I was heading back into the place I escaped from. And this time, there was more at stake. My hand quickly went to my bump.

I was doing this for Aspen. I repeated to myself as I took deep breaths.

"Come on, we need to get going," Sarah gripped my shoulder.

"Be safe, sis."

"You too." I told him before Sarah and I took off towards the treeline.

There was a forest off the back of the packhouse. My brother had the area cleared out so we could get to the back gate and get Luna Orion out safely. I was just praying her baby would stay put until we could get her out and to a hospital.

Sarah and I jogged in silence as we entered the forest. We quickly found the path that led to the back of the packhouse. It was dark and we were running by the light of the moon. We didn't have much time, but we were constantly stopping and listening. This was hell as we had to take this slow, knowing someone was

16.94%

A

11:411

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Eight

desperately waiting for us.

288 Vouchers

I smirked to myself when I was able to see the castle through the trees. He was so cocky, he didn't realize my brother could pay off his warriors. Asshat. Relief filled me as I touched the stone wall. Now to find the gate.

"I think its this way," Sarah whispered and pointed to the left. We slowly walked in that direction. We couldn't split up, so hopefully this was the way to go.

"Luna, I know you are in pain, but I need you to wait for the others. It's not safe out there," I heard a woman mumbling.

"We are hear," Sarah quietly called out. "Open the gate."

I cringed when the gate creaked as it was opened.

"Shea, you need to come with me. He will kill you," someone groaned.
"I'll be safe. Go. It's not much longer now."

I looked inside the gate to see Luna Orion clutching her bump and her breathing was forced as she gripped the wall with her other hand.

"We got her," I said. "Sarah take the other side."

"You must hurry. Good luck," Shea said behind us as Sarah and I helped the Luna. The gate groaned behind us and Luna Orion let

36.44%

11:41

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Eight

out a breath.

"Thank you," she cried.

"You can thank us once you are safe," Sarah told her.

288 Vouchers

It was slow going as Luna Orion was in full labor and could only take a few steps before she needed to stop.

"I know this can't be easy, but we need to get further into the forest and away from the castle." I brushed some hair from her face. She was drenched in sweat as she groaned through another contraction.

"I can't. Baby is coming and I can't do this without Blake," she cried.

"Okay, I know this is going to be hard, but I need you to be quiet. Sarah, let's lay out a blanket." I slid the backpack off.

"Tessa, we can't do this here." I looked at the Luna, and her pants were soaked in blood.

"We don't have a choice. This baby needs to come out now."

As Sarah laid out a blanket, I helped Luna out of her sweatpants. Sarah and I helped her to sit down. I moved to between her legs. and lifted the skirt of the dress she was wearing. I gagged when I saw the head crowning.

"I should be doing this," Sarah commented.

53.04%

11:41

Book Two Chapter Thirty Eight

¶ 258 Fouchers

"Just get another blanket," I snapped. "Luna Orion, with the next contraction, I need you to push."

"You must be the Luna wolf my son is in love with," she chuckled before she groaned.

"Push. Push. That's it." I praised her.

"Get the scissors and the clamp," I told Sarah when she passed me the blanket.

"Fuck, this hurts," the luna exhaled.

"Almost there. Just one more big push," I encouraged.

Panic filled me when howls of angry wolves filled the silence.

"It's okay, Luna. Let's just focus on bringing your baby into the world. Now push."

She bore down with everything she had left and I was quick with the blanket to pull the tiny infant from their mother.

"It's a boy," I looked up at the luna.

"A boy," she panted. Sarah quickly placed the clamp and cut the cord. I handed the baby to his mother before he could start crying.

"Hi, baby boy," she cried.

The wolves howled again, but this time closer. They could probably smell the blood.

68.80%

11:41

O

Book Two Chapter Thirty-Eight

288 Vouchers

"Sarah I need you to get back to my brother. We need help," I told her. She hesitated but I pushed her to leave us. "Hurry."

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"Tessa," the luna mumbled, getting my attention. "I need you to take him. Find his father. She looked up at me with tears in her The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

E

eyes.

"I'm not leaving you," I exclaimed.

"I'm the only one of us that can take on an alpha wolf. Take him and run. I'll slow down the wolves."

"I can't leave you. Aspen needs you," I cried. She caressed my cheek with her free hand.

"He has you and your unborn child. He'll be okay." A sob escaped me before she placed the bundle in my arms.

She stood up and blood gushed from her before she pulled out the afterbirth.

"I love you," she kissed her boy's head before looking at me.

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

"Go." She shifted into the most beautiful wolf I had ever seen The wolf licked her pup before rush off ЕП toward the sound of the howls. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

Visit Novelxo.org to read full content.

I held the baby to my chest and rushed in the direction of Sarahm hoping, she had made it to my brother by now. Luna Orion needed help. The content is on Novelxo.org! Read the latest chapter there!

My blood ran cold when I heard a heartbreaking howl.