

My Fabulous Girl Boss by Evergreen

Chapter 872 Damon constantly apologized until he noticed Christine. Then, his expression appeared rather unnatural.

“M—Ms. Locke...”

He panicked even more at the sight of Christine. He knew about the most beautiful woman in Greenspring, whose reputation was well known.

He knew that Christine had a place in Greenspring because of the Friths' reputation and influence.

However, she had not been given all that for nothing.

The third heir of the Friths, Eric, had his eyes set on Christine. Eric did not force Christine to do anything all this time because he wanted to marry her.

Unfortunately, Christine did not have the intention to marry Eric.

Afterward, she did not utilize the Friths' influence anymore after learning about Eric's intention.

On the other hand, Eric realized that as well, and that was why he visited Greenspring in person—he was planning on taking her by force.

However, it was unfortunate for Eric because he encountered Kayson. Not only did he not acquire the beauty, but he also lost his life.

Two out of the top three decision makers of the Friths were dead, and the other one was crippled. In addition, there was their skilled fighter, Master Severin's death. The Friths lost their power and influence almost completely in a night.

Quite a number of people had already implied that they would leave the Friths to set up their own families!

The rest of the Friths were busy putting out fires in the meantime.

Yet, Eric did commit quite a number of crimes regardless. Damon was afraid that Christine would seek Kayson's help to avenge her because she was displeased with the Friths.

If that were the case, he would be in deep trouble!

Christine could see the fear, panic, pleading, and begging in Damon's gaze. All at once, she was overwhelmed with emotions.

Who would have thought that the Friths she was incapable of going against would behave like this in her presence?

After the momentary overwhelming emotions, she regained her calmness.

She had already regarded the Friths as her past.

She was not a magnanimous person, but nor was she a narrow-minded sucker who had no regard for right and wrong. She couldn't care less about the Friths' opinion of her having a foothold in Greenspring. No one did anything inappropriate to her, at the very least.

She would not go against all the Friths just because of Eric alone. Hence, she shifted her gaze after looking into Damon's eyes briefly. Damon felt relieved instantly upon noticing the situation. His eyes were filled with gratitude, and he understood Christine's intention!

Kayson said nonchalantly, "How are the Friths now?" Damon hastily explained the Friths' situation while Christine and Eira listened attentively.

Christine and Eira were no ordinary people, so they were capable of noticing many things based on Damon's description.

Soon, they stared at Kayson closely without looking away.

They realized that the Friths were almost brought to ruins by Kayson!

Could the powerful Friths become a thing of the past soon?'

Upon hearing that, Kayson did not mind much, but he said, "I don't care how much of a mess the Friths' assets are in. "However, I will visit the Friths and kill Clifford at once if the Friths don't transfer 70% of your assets to Jason Queen."

Damon was scared out of his wits. "I... I promise to relay your message to the family!"
