

MY HIDDEN 1161

Chapter 1161: Heartbeat

Gu Weiwei looked at the small instrument in surprise, looking very excited.

“Can you hear the baby’s heartbeat with it?”

Fu Hanzheng nodded. “Yes.”

The baby had moved so many times and she was still very excited every time she felt something.

So he looked for this equipment and thought that she would definitely like it.

“I want to try it,” Gu Weiwei said impatiently.

These two little ones had been in her belly for over four months, but every time she went to Doctor Liu’s place to check and hear their babies’ heartbeats, she still found it amazing and exciting.

However, Fu Hanzheng put down the things.

“I will do it for you after dinner.”

He understood that they could not do it on an empty stomach.

Also, he was worried that she would be too happy to eat.

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and gave up for the time being. But she turned to the servant who was preparing the dinner.

Soon, the servants finished preparing the dinner and before they could call them over, Gu Weiwei had already sat down in the dining room.

After dinner, she went to take a shower and leaned against the pillow, studying the instructions of the heart monitor Fu Hanzheng had bought.

She had not finished reading when Fu Hanzheng came out of the shower and saw her fiddling with something.

“So impatient?”

“I was told not to do it until I ate, but now I am full, alright?” Gu Weiwei mumbled.

“Sure, of course.” Fu Hanzheng sat down by the bedside and took the small instrument from her hands.

“Let me do it.”

Gu Weiwei lifted her pajamas, showing her belly.

Fu Hanzheng took out the gel and carefully rubbed it over her belly. Then he turned on the power switch of the heart monitor and put the head against her belly, seeking for a suitable position.

After three positions, the familiar sound of a baby's heartbeat arose from the small monitor.

"Here, here, listen."

Fu Hanzheng turned up the volume of the instrument so that the two of them could breathe softly. When he heard the clear and powerful baby's heartbeats, he looked very happy as if it finally clicked that he was about to become a father.

"This is their heartbeat?" Fu Hanzheng asked as he looked at her.

When she was checking with Doctor Liu a few days ago, he did not go with her because he was at the company.

This was the first time hearing the baby's heartbeat.

Gu Weiwei nodded with a smile. "Isn't it like the sound of a small train?"

Fu Hanzheng nodded and listened with a smile. Then he frowned.

"I think it is going a bit too fast," he said as he counted in silence.

"More than 100, almost 160."

Gu Weiwei chuckled and reminded him.

"The baby's heartbeat is different from that of an adult. It is normal between 12 and 16. It would be dangerous if it is too low."

Fu Hanzheng felt his forehead and thought of what he had read in the book; he was so nervous that he forgot about it.

"So that is the sound."

Neither of them spoke for a long time as they listened to the sound of the heart monitor and looked at each other with sweet smiles.

"Doctor Liu said a few days ago that both babies are healthy," Gu Weiwei said.

Although during the early stage of pregnancy there were big reactions, it did not happen again after three months.

She followed the nutritionist's recipes strictly and her weight and nutrition figures were level.

Although she had gained some weight, the babies were healthy.

Chapter 1162: Sister-in-law Again

After that, they listened to the babies' heartbeat together every night, and that became the activity they did before they slept.

However, one day, they were just listening to the babies' heartbeat, when Fu Hanzheng's phone rang.

"Sorry." Fu Hanzheng put down the instrument, picked up the phone and saw that it was Fu Shiqin's number. He sounded cold. "What is it?"

Fu Shiqin shrank his neck at the sound of his brother's cold voice. "Um... there is a meeting in Belgium next week that requires your presence."

"No time." Fu Hanzheng turned him down directly.

"But it was decided a few months ago. Even if I replace you, they will only acknowledge you and not me," Fu Shiqin said helplessly.

Of course he knew that he and sister-in-law were living a sweet life together, and he should not be disturbed by this matter... But he had to do it.

Fu Hanzheng threw a look at Gu Weiwei who was still working on the heart monitor. "I will talk with them."

If he went there, a round trip would take two or three days. She was pregnant and he could not bring her with him.

But he was worried about leaving her here alone.

"If you can go, I will do anything for you." Fu Shiqin showed his loyalty instantly.

Instead of answering his loyalty, Fu Hanzheng asked, "Everything going well at the company?"

"It'sd going well, don't worry, I will take care of it. Look at who I am," Fu Shiqin said confidently.

Although he had helped his brother to take over the company at the last minute, he had never had to last so long.

Therefore, it was not going well, but he did not need his brother's help.

Now that sister-in-law was pregnant, he was very smart. Unless it was a last resort, he would not dare to come to his brother for help.

"What about at home?" Fu Hanzheng asked.

"Don't worry, our father and grandma do not know that you brought sister-in-law to Dubai," Fu Shiqin said.

Not only did they not notice, they had been looking for someone to read his brother's fortune.

His brother's marriage was to his sister-in-law, so what was the big deal?

"Okay," Fu Hanzheng answered briefly and was about to hang up.

"Oh yes, Qin Man seems to have taken the wrong medicine these days. She keeps asking me and Third Brother about Sister-in-law," Fu Shiqin said.

Qin Man and Qin Lv had thought that his sister-in-law was busy with the promotional event, so they did not suspect anything when she was not in the capital.

But the promotion of the movie, Life Reboot, had ended, but they had not found any clues about his sister-in-law returning to the capital.

If he had not been worried about his father and grandma, he would have snapped at them. His sister-in-law was pregnant and they were still trying to steal her away. Did they think that his brother did not exist?

Fu Hanzheng frowned. "She's only asked you?"

"Yes, she has asked her twice. I am afraid that she and Qin Lv will run to Dubai because of some weird hunch. That would be very dangerous," Fu Shiqin mumbled.

Luckily, his sister-in-law and his brother had already gone to Dubai. If she had stayed in the capital, she would have been in trouble.

That was because not only did Qin Man want to help her nephew steal his sister-in-law away, but she even united the elders of Qin Lv's family.

Now Qin Lv's parents and grandfather had all agreed for Qin Lv to chase his sister-in-law. The whole family was crazy, and it was because of his brother's woman too!

Chapter 1163: Love

Hearing his words, Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a while and said, "Got it."

"How is sister-in-law?" Fu Shiqin asked.

They had gone to Dubai and now he was not calling them. They were not used to being free from their love.

"Yes," Fu Hanzheng answered calmly.

"..."

Fu Shiqin was speechless. What did he mean?

Would saying a few more words kill him?

"I am hanging up now," Fu Hanzheng said and rang off.

But when he thought of what Fu Shiqin said, he looked displeased.

He had not expected that Qin Man would be so serious. Not only did she help Qin Lv lust after his woman, but she also persuaded the entire family to support Qin Lv.

It was a good thing that she had come with him, otherwise she would have been disturbed by the Qin Family if she was still in the capital.

But Qin Man had convinced the elders of the Qin Family, so she would not give up until she found Gu Weiwei.

He thought for a while and said to Gu Weiwei who was sitting in bed, "I need to make a call to work, in the study."

Gu Weiwei nodded and fiddled with the monitor without uttering a sound.

Fu Hanzheng took the phone upstairs to the study, thought for a few minutes and called Yuan Meng.

Yuan Meng answered directly.

“What is it, President Fu?”

If it was not because of trouble, she did not think that Fu Hanzheng would have wanted to call them.

“Someone is looking for Weiwei, make it look like she is somewhere else, don’t let anyone find her in Dubai,” Fu Hanzheng said his request.

“Looking for her?” Yuan Meng thought for a while and asked, “Gu Siting?”

“No, it is the Qin Family,” Fu Hanzheng said.

Yuan Meng sighed. It seemed that the young master of the Qin Family found that she was not in the capital these days and was seeking for her with his aunt who supported him.

If they could not find her, they would suspect Fu Hanzheng and they might even fly to Dubai to see what was going on.

“Got it, I will make the arrangements.”

Fu Hanzheng let out a sigh of relief inwardly.

He was not afraid that the Qin Family would find her here, nor was he afraid of Qin Lv and Qin Man pestering her. He just did not want anyone to find out that she was waiting to give birth in Dubai.

If the news reached the Fu Family’s mansion and the Old Lady and the rest were involved, he did not want her to face some unpleasant things because she was pregnant.

After the conversation with Yuan Meng, he made a call to Belgium and asked his cousin to attend the meeting on his behalf.

However, the other party said that he could not accept his proposal and asked him to attend no matter what.

If it had been any other time, he would have participated without hesitation.

But she was pregnant and there was no one else around her. If he went on a business trip for another two or three days, he would not be able to bear it.

In the end, they talked on the phone for almost half an hour and the Fu’s Enterprise offered generous conditions for the collaboration in Belgium before the other party reluctantly accepted his proposal of letting Fu Shiqin attend on his behalf.

After the matter was settled, he made a call to Fu Shiqin.

“You can go to the meeting next week, it is settled.”

“You really want me to go?” Fu Shiqin was a bit unwilling.

Although he understood that his brother did not want to leave his sister-in-law in Dubai and go on a business trip when she was pregnant... But he had been so busy with the company that he did not have the energy to make the trip.

Chapter 1164: Loving You

“You want me to go?” Fu Hanzheng countered with a cold voice.

“I will go, I will go, you better stay and take care of sister-in-law.” Fu Shiqin instantly changed his words.

He had to go even if he did not want to. No matter how brave he was, he would not allow his brother to abandon his pregnant sister-in-law for a business trip.

“Stay in touch on the day of the meeting, I will remind you if anything happens.” Fu Hanzheng stressed.

At this time, his work wasn’t more important than her and the child.

“Got it,” Fu Shiqin answered weakly.

What was wrong? He was the one who had been mistreated and his twin brother was the one who had been mistreated.

Fu Hanzheng ended the call and returned to the room downstairs, where Gu Weiwei was still working on the heart monitor.

“Still not done?”

Gu Weiwei nodded with a smile. “Although I was very happy when I found out that I was pregnant, as they grew and started to move and I started to hear their heartbeats, I felt that being a mother is a very happy thing.”

Fu Hanzheng put away the instrument, grabbed a towel and wiped off the gel on her belly.

“We will play tomorrow.”

It had been a week since he bought the present and she was still having such a great time.

“Who called you just now?” Gu Weiwei asked curiously, he looked displeased when he picked up the phone.

Fu Hanzheng packed up his things and laid down by her bedside.

“Fu Shiqin.”

“Is it about the company or... your family?” Gu Weiwei asked.

Fu Shiqin had not called him for so long and now he had made calls upstairs for a long time. Apart from these two things, she could not think of anything else that required them to talk for so long.

After all, he was not someone who would gossip with his brother.

“Work.” Fu Hanzheng took hold of her hands and looked at his wife. “Don’t worry about anything else.”

As for the Qin Family, he did not mention a single word to her.

Lying on her side, Gu Weiwei looked at the man's gentle eyes and asked for the first time, "Fu Hanzheng, have you ever thought about what we are going to do if Grandma Fu doesn't even accept the children because of me?"

"That is not possible," Fu Hanzheng said with a smile.

They had tried all kinds of methods to get him married and have children. Also, they had not been so hostile to her recently, so when they knew that they had children, they could not be so cruel.

She had been looking forward to seeing her grandchildren so she would not care about this for her grandchildren's sake.

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and said nothing. She was not very optimistic about her conflict with the Fu Family.

Fu Hanzheng kissed her forehead. "If that happens, we won't go home."

"Not going home?" Gu Weiwei was surprised.

"If you are really worried, then we will live abroad and not go home," Fu Hanzheng said resolutely.

Even without him in the Fu Family, Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin would be there too.

But she could not live without him and their children could not live without a father, and he himself... could not bear to leave them.

He had compromised with the Fu Family once and he would not compromise a second time.

Also, he had been prepared for this.

He would try his best to make them accept her and the child, but if they still did not accept it, they could just leave the Fu Family and live abroad with her.

"Hopefully, nothing like this will happen." Gu Weiwei sighed.

"No." Fu Hanzheng took up her hands and kissed them.

Gu Weiwei chuckled and looked very gentle.

"Fu Hanzheng, I am so lucky to have fallen for you."

Chapter 1165: Stop Flirting

Fu Hanzheng looked calm as he stared at the smiling girl.

"Don't flirt with me."

If she looked at him like this, he would want nothing more than to kiss her lips and squeeze out all of her happiness.

But when he looked down at her belly, he had to suppress this thought.

Gu Weiwei blushed and mumbled, "If you really want it, it should not be that dangerous now."

He slept in the same bed every day and did not make any intimate requests because she was pregnant.

At first, he would hold her in his arms and sleep, but in the end, he did not dare to hold her in his arms, so she was disappointed for days.

Fu Hanzheng, who had just calmed down, felt his body heating up after hearing what she said.

Then he sighed deeply, lifted the blanket and got off the bed.

"I am going to take a shower."

"Didn't you just shower?" Gu Weiwei reminded him.

Without turning around, Fu Hanzheng went into the bathroom and took another cold shower before lying down.

"Are you okay?" Gu Weiwei asked with a small voice.

"Sleep now." Fu Hanzheng urged.

Although the first three months of pregnancy should not affect her sexual life, the doctor had repeatedly warned her to be careful.

He did not want to hurt her and the children because of his indulgence.

Gu Weiwei stayed silent with pursed lips but kept glancing sideways.

She had told him to sleep in separate rooms for the time being, but he himself had refused and insisted on staying here.

Gu Weiwei had a very good sleep these days, probably because she had been studying yoga, so she slept all the way until dawn.

But when she got up, she found that her back was aching.

Fu Hanzheng had just got changed and saw her rubbing the back every now and then.

"Not feeling well?"

"My waist hurts."

Fu Hanzheng did not even bother to tie his tie, so he came to her side and said, "Let's go and find Doctor Liu."

"I can do it myself, go to work after breakfast." Gu Weiwei waved her hands, not wanting to delay his work.

Although he had not mentioned much about work these days, judging from his working state, he was very busy.

"How can I go to work without visiting her with you?" Fu Hanzheng said as he helped her out and went to Doctor Liu.

But it was a false alarm.

Doctor Liu threw a look at the nervous Fu Hanzheng and said calmly, "Due to the development of the fetus, the woman's lumbar spine has changed. It is normal for Madam to feel this way when she is pregnant with twins."

She had been with so many pregnant women, but no father had ever made such a fuss.

Seeing Gu Weiwei still rubbing her back, Fu Hanzheng asked, "Is there any way to help?"

"Hot compress and massage will make you feel better, so you can take more walks and do exercises," Doctor Liu said.

She was really worried that the father-to-be would not be able to handle such a small problem.

After all, it was not easy to give birth to twins, and she would have to suffer more than the average pregnant woman.

"Okay." Fu Hanzheng agreed and was about to help her back to the room.

"Mrs. Fu, can we talk alone?" Doctor Liu asked with a smile.

Startled, Gu Weiwei threw a look at Fu Hanzheng.

"Wait for me outside?"

"Is there anything I can't know?" Fu Hanzheng asked.

Since she was going to tell her, it must be about their children. Why did he have to tell her alone and not let him know?

Chapter 1166: Overly Nervous Father-to-be

Doctor Liu smiled awkwardly. "What about... forget it, it is not something important."

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said with a gentle voice, "Wait for me outside."

Since Doctor Liu mentioned it, although it was not a very important matter, it was still about her and the children.

Fu Hanzheng threw a look at Doctor Liu, released Gu Weiwei's hands and left the medical room.

Maybe he had hired the wrong doctor.

Seeing the door closed, Gu Weiwei asked Doctor Liu, "Doctor Liu, what do you want to say?"

Doctor Liu pursed her lips and found it difficult to speak. She hesitated for a long while before saying.

"Actually... I want to talk about President Fu."

"About him?"

Gu Weiwei was surprised. She had been doing pregnancy tests for her, so why was she talking about Fu Hanzheng?

Doctor Liu smiled embarrassedly and said, "President Fu is too nervous about you and the children. This makes me very nervous. Also, if he is in this state, I am a bit worried about when the children will be born."

Now she had to clarify everything about her and the child. As the month went on, her body would experience all kinds of discomfort due to her pregnancy. She had to explain everything.

"..." Gu Weiwei laughed dryly. She was worried too, alright?

"Especially when you are pregnant with twins. It is very dangerous to have a natural birth. If necessary, we may have to do a cesarean section. If President Fu is in such a state, I am afraid that my hands will tremble when I hold the blade," Doctor Liu said helplessly.

Although the job was very relaxing and she was paid several times the salary at the hospital, yet Fu Hanzheng already put her under a great deal of pressure when he hired her.

But he was still very worried about the mother and child, which made her even more nervous.

"I will try my best to make him feel better." Gu Weiwei felt helpless.

He was a father-to-be and he made her even more nervous than she was.

"That would be best. Compared to many pregnant mothers, Mrs. Fu and the child have always been in a very good state." Hearing that she understood her worries better, Doctor Liu let out a sigh of relief.

"If there is nothing else, I am leaving now." Gu Weiwei stood up with a smile and went out to meet Fu Hanzheng.

Fu Hanzheng helped her back and massaged her waist area, then asked the servant to prepare a hot towel for her.

"What did Doctor Liu say?"

"Nothing, she was just saying that you are too nervous. People who are pregnant will have all kinds of reactions." Gu Weiwei looked at him sideways and said, "If you are so nervous about these small matters, what will happen on the day of the childbirth?"

"..." Fu Hanzheng stayed silent.

What should he do?

He did not know what to do, but he was sure that it would be the most nervous day of his life.

"Relax, I am the one who is going to have children and I am not that nervous. You are making me worried about you." Gu Weiwei teased.

Fu Hanzheng said helplessly, "I will try my best to adjust."

"You must adjust your mindset." Gu Weiwei said seriously.

She knew that he was worried about her and the children in her belly, but it was not good for either of them.

“Okay.” Fu Hanzheng agreed and asked after he warmed her up, “Feeling better?”

“Much better.” Gu Weiwei nodded.

“You still want to attend the lesson?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

“Go, you are getting more and more unmanageable.” Gu Weiwei checked the time and urged. “Eat something and go to work.”

“If you are not feeling well, call Doctor Liu and call me.”

Fu Hanzheng stressed repeatedly, put on the coat and hurried out.

Chapter 1167: Impossible Mission

In the capital city of Hua Land.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin returned to the old mansion for dinner and Fu Shengying reminded them at the dinner table.

“It is your grandma’s birthday next weekend, stay here.”

“Next week...” Fu Shiqin scratched his head, feeling a bit embarrassed.

“You are in the capital, and you will only be home for one or two hours. Don’t you want to come home?”

Seeing his unwilling expression, Fu Shengying’s face sank.

“There is an important meeting in Belgium next month and I need to attend it on behalf of our brother, so I may not be able to make it...” Fu Shiqin explained.

“On his behalf?” Fu Shengying asked.

Although he was not asking about the company, he understood that Hanzheng always attended the meeting in Belgium, so why did he send Shiqin instead?

“Well... our brother has just arrived in Dubai and he is too busy to leave.” Fu Shiqin explained for his brother.

What he could not leave was not work, but his pregnant sister-in-law.

“Even if I call him, he won’t be able to return. All of you...” Fu Shengying was a bit annoyed and said, “No matter how busy you are, is it more important than your grandma’s birthday?”

“Well... I will try my best to come home, but you can tell my brother about it yourself.”

Fu Shiqin decided to come home tiredly, otherwise he would be lectured by his father for a long time.

But it was impossible to get his brother back now.

“You two, persuade your brother to come home as soon as possible,” Mrs. Fu said with a gentle voice.

The Old Lady was already over 70 years old and her birthday was always of great importance to the Fu Family.

Especially when she was not feeling well this year, the birthday celebration was even more necessary.

“He won’t be able to come home even if I persuade him.” Fu Shiyi snorted.

His sister-in-law was waiting to give birth, how could he possibly come home alone?

“Why not? He will be delayed for two days at most,” Mrs. Fu asked.

“The collaboration has just been reached and our brother has been keeping an eye on many things. He is too busy to come home.”

Fu Shiqin glanced at Fu Shiyi who was talking too much and tried to defend his brother.

“If you can’t call him back, Fu Shiyi, bring your brother home yourself.” Fu Shengying ordered as he stared at Fu Shiyi.

Fu Shiyi lost his appetite when he heard the words.

“Dad, you are asking me to die.”

If his brother did not want to come home, he and Fu Shiqin would not be able to bring his brother home, let alone him.

Especially when his sister-in-law was pregnant. How could his brother come home?

“If you can’t bring him home, don’t come home either.” Fu Shengying threatened.

“Then I better not come home.”

Fu Shiyi felt wronged. It was an impossible mission.

Mrs. Fu threw a look at the serious Fu Shengying and said to Fu Shiyi, “Go there yourself and try your best to bring your brother home. Grandma is already so old, it is not right for him to not come home at such an important time.”

Fu Shengying said as he placed a picture on the table, “Take this picture and see how your brother reacts.”

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin took the picture and found that it was a young girl who looked very much like their sister-in-law.

“Dad, I don’t understand what you are doing.”

Chapter 1168: Brother’s Child

Fu Shengying glanced at them and said seriously, “Doesn’t your brother like that woman who is young and pretty? She looks like her.”

Fu Shiqin blinked and showed the picture to his father.

“So you are planning to find an imitation for our brother?”

“Let your brother take a look and look at his reaction first, otherwise we can pay for her plastic surgery. That should work,” Fu Shengying said.

If he liked someone like that woman, they would find the same one for him.

Fu Shiqin and Fu Shiqin exchanged a look and sighed helplessly.

“Dad, is it really necessary?”

Was their father misunderstanding something about their brother or love?

His brother liked his sister-in-law, not her appearance.

Otherwise Mu Weiwei would not have been hated by his brother.

But now, his father was trying to create an imitation just to make his brother change his mind. That was way too ridiculous.

“Since he can’t accept marrying someone else and having children, isn’t it enough to find him one?” Fu Shengying asked.

Unconvinced, Fu Shiyi threw a look at Mrs. Fu and the Old Lady.

“So... you agree?”

“There is no harm in trying,” Old Lady said.

He was not with Gu Weiwei now, what if he tried to marry someone else?

“No, you are not picky enough to find someone like this for my brother.” Fu Shiqin could not help but complain as he looked at the picture. “Even if this person has the same eyebrows and eyes, her temperament is way too different.”

Fu Shengying said, “It doesn’t matter what kind of person she is. As long as your brother is willing to accept her, it is enough to marry someone and have a child.”

“So what is important is not who, but having a child with my brother?” Fu Shiqin asked.

“Yes,” Fu Shengying said.

Fu Shiyi tossed the picture aside and snorted.

“Look at you guys, if you had not forced my brother to get a divorce, you would have had a grandson by now. Why are you making such a fuss?”

“As long as it is not with Gu Weiwei, he can have a child with anyone,” Fu Shengying said.

“If my sister-in-law really has our brother’s child, you don’t want it either?” Fu Shiyi asked.

Fu Shengying and the Old Lady exchanged a look and asked him, “What do you mean?”

Mrs. Fu frowned – was Gu Weiwei really pregnant with Hanzheng’s child?

Fu Shiqin gritted his teeth and glared at Fu Shiyi. This man dared to reveal sister-in-law’s pregnancy, did he want to die?

Fu Shiyi smiled and explained calmly.

"I am just saying what if. After all, compared to finding these women for my brother, he would be very willing to have children with sister-in-law. He would even be willing to have a bunch of children, let alone one for you."

Fu Shengying and the Old Lady stayed silent. Of course they knew that, but they just could not get over it.

"Dad, let's make a bet. No matter how much this woman resembles her, my brother will not be interested. I will bet on your limited edition sports car," Fu Shiyi said.

That was a 100% win.

"What are you gambling for? Arrange for me to meet your brother as soon as possible. If you can't bring him back, I will deal with you."

Fu Shengying turned down the bet with him. He knew that it was a bet that he had almost no chance of winning.

Fu Shiyi sighed. He had thought that if his father agreed, he would be able to earn a sports car.

He himself thought that it was impossible, but he still wanted him to test his brother. What was he thinking?

Chapter 1169: Grandson

"Dad, you are asking too much. My brother has legs, but he refuses to come home. Do you want me to tie him up?" Fu Shiyi asked speechlessly.

He was just going there as a formality, and he knew that his brother would not come home with him.

"You can bring him back if you want to," Fu Shengying said.

"I am not capable." Fu Shiyi admitted defeat.

When his sister-in-law was pregnant, he would only kidnap his brother if he was tired of living.

"You good-for-nothing." Fu Shengying looked very annoyed.

As they were talking, Fu Shiqin silently filled his stomach, wiped his mouth and joined the fight against his father.

"Even if you want to find another woman, it is impossible for my brother to get married and have children."

"If you really want a grandson, then drop your prejudice and let our ex sister-in-law and our brother have one."

...

"Hey, what have you two got to do with that Gu girl? Why are you defending her?"

Fu Shengying could tell that they were trying to get Hanzheng and Gu Weiwei to remarry, so he got a bit annoyed.

"I have not seen her for months, what benefits would I be getting?" Fu Shiqin snorted.

He was afraid that if they kept objecting, his brother would give up everything and elope with her.

Then he would have to take over Fu's Enterprise, which was a very heavy responsibility.

"You are the ones who want a grandson, not us." Fu Shiyi added. "Think about it, is the knot in your heart more important or the grandson?"

"Can't eat anything more?" Fu Shengying glared at him.

Fu Shiyi pursed his lips. "You are the ones who want a grandson, I am just making a suggestion out of goodwill. Forget it if you don't want to hear it."

Old Lady put down her bowl and chopsticks and stayed silent for a long time.

She was the one who forced them to get a divorce, and now she would have to go and find her just to get a great-grandson. She just could not bring herself to do that.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin ate dinner and drove back to Landscape Villa, where his brother lived.

Fu Shiqin mumbled as he drove, "If our father and grandma still have such an attitude, will the little buns succeed?"

"Why not? Just wait and see." Fu Shiyi snorted.

Actually, his father and grandma's attitude had changed one step after another. When the two babies were born, they would be dragged in front of them and they would surrender.

"What if our brother doesn't come home for grandma's birthday?" Fu Shiqin asked.

"Don't think about it, our brother is not coming home anyways." Fu Shiyi was in a good mood.

Grandma's birthday was indeed important, but his sister-in-law's pregnancy was even more important.

"Can't you be more careful with your words? If the family knows that sister-in-law is pregnant, do you want our brother to kill you?" Fu Shiqin snapped. What he had just said made him nervous.

"I just want them to be mentally prepared," Fu Shiyi said.

"You are basically telling them that we have been lying to them." Fu Shiqin snorted.

What he did not know now was that when his sister-in-law had a child in the future, they would understand.

"So be it, they won't kill me!" Fu Shiyi snorted.

Apart from his brother, he was not afraid of anyone else.

"Although you can't bring our brother home, when you are there we can take this opportunity to ask him what plans he has for the remarriage, so we can be prepared and cooperate," Fu Shiqin said.

The key to the remarriage plan was the little buns, but he could not put the little buns in front of his father and expect them to agree.

Strategy was needed for this matter.

Chapter 1170: Wrong?

After Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin left, Fu Shengying and his wife were sitting in the living room with the Old Lady. They were all silent.

For some reason, what Fu Shiyi said annoyed Mrs. Fu.

When she visited the set last time, Gu Weiwei was not feeling well, so she did not think much about it.

Now, she could not help but think too much.

Before she and Hanzheng got a divorce, they had been preparing for a pregnancy and it was not impossible for them to get pregnant.

But if she was pregnant, she would have done something.

Sigh, if that situation had not happened, she would have been pregnant.

Old Lady glanced at her and saw that she was in a daze.

“What are you thinking?”

“Nothing.” Mrs. Fu came back to herself and sighed. “I am just worried that Hanzheng might not accept the girl we are finding for him.”

“He was interested in a man who looked like her before, but now he doesn’t accept a girl.” Fu Shengying snorted.

“What if he really doesn’t accept it and doesn’t plan to marry anyone other than Gu Weiwei and have children?” Mrs. Fu asked the question that the three elders had been worried about.

This result was almost inevitable.

“I don’t believe that he only wants her.” Fu Shengying snorted.

It had only been a few months and as time passed, he would eventually let it go.

Mrs. Fu looked at her husband and sized up the Old Lady’s expression and sighed.

“If it had not been for what happened, we would not have had so many troubles.”

If they had not gotten a divorce, they would not have been so worried about his marriage.

Maybe they would have already had children and they could enjoy having grandchildren.

“It has already happened, what is the point of saying these things?” Fu Shengying leafed through the newspaper in his hands without looking up. “It is impossible to turn back after getting divorced.”

The Old Lady said nothing but thought about what Fu Shiyi had said.

When she first found out that she was Gu Weiwei, she was very angry and found it hard to accept.

But after a few months, she started to wonder if she had been too aggressive.

After all, apart from the fact that her surname used to be Gu, she was the perfect candidate for the eldest daughter-in-law for both Hanzheng and the Fu Family.

But she turned out to be Gu Weiwei who grew up in the Gu Family.

“Isn’t it too much to ask them to get a divorce?”

“Her surname is Gu and she isn’t related to Gu Siting, but she is not allowed to marry into the Fu Family.” Fu Shengying was still firm.

“But it has nothing to do with her. Do you really want Hanzheng to stay single forever just to make us happy?” Old Lady sighed.

As elders, they only wanted their children to have a happy life.

But now, Hanzheng refused to come home because he did not want to face them.

She was afraid that if they forced him to accept someone else, he would stop contacting them.

Therefore, she had been thinking if she had made the right decision to force them to divorce.

They were worried that she would be involved with Gu Siting again, but they had not seen her interacting with Gu Siting again after such a long time. Maybe they were just being paranoid.

“Mom, what are you...”

Mrs. Fu looked at the Old Lady in disbelief. She had not expected that she would say such a thing.

“I just occasionally think that if nothing had happened to the wedding, the Fu Family might have been so happy.” Old Lady sighed.

Unlike Shiyi and Shiqin, it was not easy for him to meet a girl he liked.

As elders, they had no right to deprive him of his happiness.
