

MY HIDDEN 1241

Chapter 1241: Better Choice

Fu Hanzheng had always been a man of few words. With Fu Shiqin and Fu Shiyi at the dinner table, he would not be too quiet.

But the two men were not here, so the atmosphere was very quiet when only the three of them were eating at the same table.

Fu Shengying coughed and threw a look at Mrs. Fu, asking her to talk.

Mrs. Fu pursed her lips, picked up some food for Fu Hanzheng and said with a gentle voice, "Hanzheng, how is work?"

"It is fine," Fu Hanzheng answered briefly.

"There was nothing in the fridge just now, what about asking the chef to come over? Your stomach has always been bad, you will get sick if you don't pay attention to your food." Mrs. Fu tried to persuade him.

"No need, I am fine." Fu Hanzheng sounded calm.

As for gastric problems, it seemed that after he was with her, he had been eating regularly in order to take care of her, so that she could eat on time. Even when he was out on business, he rarely drank alcohol, so it had been a long time since he had gastric problems.

"We will be assured if someone is taking care of you here." Mrs. Fu refused to give up.

She had thought that he must have lost a lot of weight since he was alone and had no one to take care of him.

But when she saw him, he did not lose weight but looked better than when he was in the country. Could it be that the land in Dubai was especially nourishing?

"No need." Fu Hanzheng turned down Mrs. Fu's offer resolutely.

If the people they sent revealed something, Weiwei and the children would be exposed ahead of time.

Mrs. Fu threw a helpless look at her husband Fu Shengying, but seeing that Fu Hanzheng had not lost weight, she did not insist any more.

"You can finish the work here in a few months, right?" Fu Shengying asked.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a moment and said, "Not necessarily."

They talked for a while and fell silent.

Fu Hanzheng finished the food in silence, put down the bowl and chopsticks and stood up.

"I am done."

Having said these words, he went straight to the study.

Seeing him leaving, Fu Shengying put down the bowl and chopsticks.

“Tell me, who does he take after?”

None of them were cold-hearted people, so why was their son so distant from them?

“It is all because of what happened back then.” Mrs. Fu sighed.

When the Fu Family was seriously injured, Hanzheng had just become a bit more aware, so after that, he became very quiet but also very independent. He did not let them worry about his studies or life.

After he came back from studying abroad, he did a great job at Fu’s Enterprises too.

This child was excellent in all aspects, but he had some psychological barrier and could not open his heart to anyone. It was not easy for him to meet a girl who had changed him, but he could not be together with her because of his family.

He had no complaints about the divorce, but as a mother, she could tell that he did blame them.

Fu Shengying sighed. “That is why we can’t let that person stay by his side.”

“Look at you, here you go again.” Mrs. Fu threw a look at Fu Shengying and said as she tidied up the table, “Hanzheng has done enough for this family, but in the end, he has to sacrifice his love for your comfort. How can you be a father?”

All these years, he had been carrying the burden of the Fu Family and he had never asked for anything in particular.

He already knew Gu Weiwei’s real identity, but he still chose to marry her, showing that he truly liked her.

If he could choose between divorcing Gu Weiwei and cutting off all ties with her, or being with Gu Weiwei and facing the grudge of the Fu Family... She knew very well which choice he would have chosen.

Chapter 1242: Alone?

Fu Shengying stayed silent. Of course he could not bear to see him like this.

But he had not expected that Hanzheng would fall so deeply into that relationship.

Fu Hanzheng went to the study, locked the door and made a call to Gu Weiwei.

Gu Weiwei did not answer the call until a long while later. “I was bathing the children. Are you there?”

“Yes, I am here,” Fu Hanzheng answered with a gentle voice.

“Did you eat dinner?” Gu Weiwei asked as she helped the children get dressed.

“I just ate, are the children still obedient today?” Fu Hanzheng asked with a gentle smile.

Gu Weiwei sighed helplessly. “They are good, it took Tiantian a long time to burp.”

Burping might not be a big deal for adults, but it was worrying for such a young child.

Also, the two children were eating more and more, and the breast milk was not always available. Luckily, the two babies were still drinking milk powder, so she did not have to struggle with feeding them.

“Don’t sleep with the children when I am not around, otherwise you will be too busy to sleep.” Fu Hanzheng warned.

When he was around, she would occasionally take care of them for one night and he could help her out.

“You are not here, do I have to sleep alone?” Gu Weiwei mumbled.

Since she was pregnant, he had spent too much time with her, so she felt very disappointed when he was away for a few days.

If she had not had two children to take care of, she would have missed him terribly.

“I will come home as soon as possible,” Fu Hanzheng said.

However, his parents had just arrived and he was not sure when they would leave, so he could not urge them to return home.

“When is the earliest?” Gu Weiwei asked gloomily. When he did not answer for a long time, she whispered, “I miss you.”

Fu Hanzheng sighed and wanted to go home instantly. But when he thought of his father and mother outside, he had to suppress the thought.

“I will go home after work.”

“No need to be in such a hurry. I will take good care of myself and the children, just focus on your work.”

Gu Weiwei could tell that he sounded guilty, so she changed her words.

It was true that she missed him, but she did not want him to ignore work because of her.

Otherwise, in order to rush home as soon as possible, he would work tirelessly and make her worried about his health.

“It is getting late, rest early. Give the children to the nursery teachers, don’t force yourself.”

Fu Hanzheng said a few words to her and ended the call with her.

He finished some work in the study and went out to meet Fu Shengying and Mrs. Fu in the living room.

“When are you going home?”

“We have just arrived and you are urging us to go home?” Fu Shengying was displeased.

“I am very busy, I don’t have time,” Fu Hanzheng said.

If they did not leave, he would not be able to take care of her and the two children.

“We will stay for a week and then go home. You can do whatever you want, we will not affect your work.” Mrs. Fu tried to persuade him with a gentle voice.

He had been gone for half a year and barely returned home. That was why they wanted to visit him in the first month.

They had only been here for less than a day and he was already asking them when they were going home. He truly did not want to see his parents.

“You already have,” Fu Hanzheng said.

Their arrival had affected his life. His life had not been smooth because of their arrival and he had not been in a good mood at work, which had indirectly affected his work.

Chapter 1243: Turn a Blind Eye

Fu Shengying and Mrs. Fu exchanged a look. So they were not welcomed here?

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while. “Three days at most.”

One week was too long for him to wait that long.

Fu Shengying was displeased by Fu Hanzheng’s attitude.

“We are here, you can work and you can come home for dinner at most. Why is it affecting your work?”

Fu Hanzheng looked at him calmly. “Only three days.”

“You...” Fu Shengying pointed at his unreasonable son and said, “Honestly, you don’t want to see us because of the divorce.”

“I told you that I have already done what you want, so don’t ask too much of me,” Fu Hanzheng said with a low voice.

He was the one who had asked for the divorce, but now he was upset because he wasn’t doing what he wanted after the divorce.

Weiwei was so happy on the day of her marriage and so disappointed on the day of the divorce. But because she didn’t want him to worry, she hid her emotions well.

She had even given birth to their two children before they officially remarried.

Fu Shengying was about to speak when Mrs. Fu stopped him.

“Alright, we are just worried about you being here alone. Since everything is fine with you here, we will stay here for two or three days before returning.”

But why was he in such a hurry to let them go? Did he not want to see them or was he hiding something?

But what he was trying to conceal was most likely related to Gu Weiwei.

Although Mrs. Fu was suspicious, she did not mention it.

Even if Gu Weiwei was really in Dubai, she would not be surprised. She had expected that they would not have a clean break.

This was not the first time she had such doubts and instincts, but she just closed one eye and pretended not to know anything.

Hearing Mrs. Fu's answer, Fu Hanzheng nodded.

"Okay, just three days, rest early, good night."

Having said these words, he got up and returned to his own room.

Seeing the closed door, Fu Shengying got very annoyed.

"Why are we here? Why are you in such a hurry to drive us home?"

"I don't want to hear you urging him to get married. He is doing well here, so we should be relieved." Mrs. Fu was in a good mood.

Fu Shengying was very angry, but he had never been able to do anything about his son, so he could only sulk.

He had urged him to get married before, but he was not here for this matter. He did not like the girls he had shown him that much.

"Is he divorced or abandoning his parents?"

"If he really abandoned us, he would have left everything of the Fu Family and left with Gu Weiwei," Mrs. Fu said and returned to the room to pack the luggage she had brought with her.

Hanzheng was a responsible eldest son, so even though he could not bear to do it, he still divorced Gu Weiwei according to the elders' wishes.

At that time, they had just come to know the truth and their attitude was inevitably a bit too forceful.

"True," Fu Shengying mumbled.

"Without her around, the grudge between the Fu Family and the Gu Family can't be changed. Why be so stubborn?" Mrs. Fu said as she was packing.

Hearing these words, Fu Shengying stared at his wife's back for a long time.

"Why are you always defending Gu Weiwei?"

This was not the first time. She kept speaking up for Gu Weiwei, as if asking Hanzheng to get a divorce was a huge mistake.

"I am defending my son," Mrs. Fu said.

As a mother, she only hoped that her son could live a happy life.

Chapter 1244: Assist?

What Gu Weiwei did not know was that Fu Hanzheng had not left Dubai for his business trip.

She woke up early in the morning and was startled by the empty pillow next to her.

It was not until Tiantian woke up and started to cry did she come back to herself and take care of the child.

She got changed and carried the younger daughter out after she was fed. The nursery teacher also picked up the elder son and fed him milk powder.

She was about to eat breakfast when her phone rang.

She had thought that it was from Fu Hanzheng, but when she picked it up, it was from Fu Shiyi.

“What is it?”

“Sister-in-law, are you alright? Do you need me and Second Brother to help you?” Fu Shiyi asked worriedly.

“Help?” Gu Weiwei was confused.

Also, what could possibly happen to her that required their help?

“Didn’t our parents go to Dubai?” Fu Shiyi asked.

Startled, Gu Weiwei stayed silent for a long time.

At this moment, she finally understood that what Fu Hanzheng meant by going on a business trip was not a real business trip, but to deal with his parents who were in Dubai.

According to what he had discussed with her before, now was not the best time for the elders of the Fu Family to know about her and the two children.

But if he did not stop them, Mrs. Fu and the others would definitely come here.

Fu Shiyi mumbled on the other side of the phone, “Our parents got so hot-headed during the New Year that they wanted to visit my brother in Dubai. I thought that my brother would object, but he did not object at all. What is he going to do? Is our father angry at you again?”

“No, everything went well. They did not come home,” Gu Weiwei answered calmly.

“Not at home?” Fu Shiyi was startled.

“Your brother has arranged a place for them to stay and he is hosting them there. They did not show up here.”

Gu Weiwei told him the truth, in case this man thought that they had revealed the truth to the elders of the Fu Family and revealed it at home.

Startled for a few seconds, Fu Shiyi replied, “That is all?”

He had thought that his brother was in deep trouble today, but his brother had tricked his father again.

“What else can I do?” Gu Weiwei countered.

Hearing his words, she understood what Fu Hanzheng was doing.

He must have found a house far away from here and lived there with Mrs. Fu and the others, pretending that he had been living there too.

Then he would send them home a few days later. As for her and the children, they were well hidden.

He did not mention a word to her, probably because he did not want her to know that he was in a bad mood.

But she had never expected that Fu Shiyi would call her and tell her that Mrs. Fu and the others were in Dubai.

"If we can still hide it from our father, we will follow the original plan," Fu Shiyi said.

"Okay," Gu Weiwei answered calmly.

Having said these words, Fu Shiyi begged her with a smile.

"Sister-in-law, can I see my nephew and niece in a video call?"

Gu Weiwei switched to the video call with him and showed him the two babies who were awake in the nursery.

Fu Shiyi screamed in surprise.

"Oh, so much has changed."

"Youyou, Tiantian, do you remember your Third Uncle?"

...

Gu Weiwei could not stand it when he was on the phone, talking to two one-month old children and rang off after a few minutes.

The moment she rang off, Fu Hanzheng called.

He asked her about her and the children and said that he would be back in three days.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and did not mention to him that she already knew about Mrs. Fu and the others coming to Dubai.

Chapter 1245: Happiness

During the three days, Fu Shengying and Mrs. Fu did not discover Gu Weiwei and the two children in Dubai at all.

Fu Hanzheng worked as usual every day, but he could not return to the seaside villa where Gu Weiwei lived at night, so he went back to have dinner with Fu Shengying and his mom.

Then he worked for two hours in the study, said goodnight to them and went to bed.

Three days later, he drove Fu Shengying and his mom to the airport.

After they boarded the plane, he did not pack his things up from the fake home or even go straight to the company. Instead, he impatiently drove back to his shared accommodation with Weiwei.

Gu Weiwei was just changing the diapers for the children when she was suddenly hugged from behind.

She glanced sideways. "You are back so soon, how was your work?"

"It went well," Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei finished changing the diapers for the children, stood up and said, "Lunch should be ready soon. Want to eat before heading to the company?"

Fu Hanzheng checked the time. "Okay, whatever you say."

In fact, there was a meeting he had to attend in two hours.

However, they had been in the same city for the past three days, but he could not return to her and the children. So when he saw her off, he wanted to come home to see her and the two children first.

Gu Weiwei followed him into the living room with the children in her arms. Seeing that his luggage was not here, she could tell how anxious he was.

Fu Hanzheng took over the baby girl and asked, "Did Tiantian sleep well these past few days?"

"Not really," Gu Weiwei said.

A few days ago, Tiantian would always wake up for a few hours at night. It was very strange for a one month old baby.

During infancy, the child's brain required large amounts of sleep before they could develop fully and the child's body could grow normally.

Therefore, she had been making Tiantian sleep less during the daytime, so she stopped making a fuss at night. As long as she was full, she would sleep obediently and no longer make a fuss like before.

The two of them sat in the living room with the children for a while and did not hand the children over to the nursery teachers until the servant had prepared lunch.

Gu Weiwei threw a look at the man opposite her and said calmly, "Fu Shiyi called me the day before yesterday."

"Okay," Fu Hanzheng answered. They must have made the call because he wanted to watch the two children.

Gu Weiwei took the soup and said, "He said that Uncle Fu and Aunt Fu are here."

Startled, Fu Hanzheng looked up at her.

"You know everything."

When Fu Shiyi told her about it, she could guess that he had not left Dubai these past few days.

"Sorry for making you lie to your family," Gu Weiwei said with a guilty tone.

"It is you who have been wronged because of my family." Fu Hanzheng sighed.

Gu Weiwei put down the bowl and chopsticks and said seriously, "I have not been wronged. I am very happy to have you and the children by my side."

Whether or not she had the marriage certificate, she was sure that he would always be by her side.

The two children were obedient and cute, and he took great care of the three of them, so how could she feel wronged?

The conflicts between the elders of the Fu Family had hindered their relationship, but she did not want him to choose between her and the Fu Family.

She did not want him to give up his family for her sake, but she did not want to leave him either.

Therefore, they had to think of a way to make the elders of the Fu Family accept her and the two children, so that they could have the best of both worlds.

Chapter 1246: Hubby

Fu Shengying and Mrs. Fu stayed in Dubai for three days and were sent home by Fu Hanzheng.

But they did not discover the secret of Gu Weiwei and the two children in Dubai.

Everything returned to calmness.

Fu Hanzheng was still busy expanding the business map of Fu's Enterprise and competing with the Gu Family in business.

But Gu Weiwei had never asked anything about it and she was not interested either because the two children had taken up most of her thoughts.

In the blink of an eye, the children were already more than two months old. They slept less and they looked very different from when they were born.

They would stare at her and cry out from time to time. Their soft and cute voices melted everyone's hearts.

Gu Weiwei was talking with the two children in this way. Although she did not understand what they were saying, neither did they.

But as long as she made a sound, the two babies would make a sound and even laugh.

At night, Gu Weiwei had just bathed them and was talking with the two children as she helped them get dressed.

"Come here, little hands, go in here too."

Tiantian, who was getting dressed in her arms, was so happy that she kept kicking her feet and babbling.

Fu Hanzheng came home from work and saw this interesting scene.

"Want some help?"

Gu Weiwei put on the clothes for her younger daughter and gave her to Fu Hanzheng.

Fu Hanzheng took his daughter into his arms and the girl looked at him with bright eyes, showing a cute smile.

Gu Weiwei went to bathe her son and got him dressed.

“I did a physical examination for them today.”

“Yes, are there any problems?” Fu Hanzheng asked with a gentle voice as he held his soft daughter who smelled like milk.

“No problems, just that Tiantian... is even fatter than her brother,” Gu Weiwei said helplessly.

A girl could eat so much, and as her mother, she was really worried about her future.

Fu Hanzheng chuckled. At the beginning, the two children were not that different, but as they grew older, they started to look different.

Youyou was a little more obedient, his younger daughter was a little naughty and her appetite was bigger than her brother's.

Therefore, it was not unexpected that she was slightly fatter than her brother.

Gu Weiwei helped her son to get dressed and allowed him to play with her hands in bed. Then she reached out for the child's hands.

“Son, is my hand so fun?”

She stretched out her hand and the little boy grabbed one of her fingers tightly.

Fu Hanzheng was going to put down his daughter, so he could spend time with his wife, but the moment he put her down, the girl started to cry and Gu Weiwei could not even comfort her.

Helpless, she gave her daughter back to Fu Hanzheng.

What was amazing was that when Fu Hanzheng took her, the girl stopped crying and smiled.

Gu Weiwei snorted helplessly. “Stealing my husband at such a young age!”

With his daughter in arms, Fu Hanzheng leaned forward and kissed his jealous wife on the face.

“I am yours, no one can take me away.”

He had not expected that his youngest daughter would cling to him every now and then.

Gu Weiwei smiled and picked up her son who was kicking his feet happily in bed.

“Let's go, dinner should be ready.”

Each of them carried a child to the dining room and they learnt how to hold a child with one hand and eat with the other.

Chapter 1247: Going Home Early

They ate dinner and put the two children to sleep, so they had some time to take a walk.

Gu Weiwei changed into a pair of flat shoes, a simple top and jeans and followed him out.

In order to take care of the two children, she had tied her hair into a bun and looked youthful and pretty. It was impossible to tell that she was a mother.

“When the children are older next month, can we take them out for a walk?”

“Okay.” Fu Hanzheng instantly agreed. He looked at his wife who was holding his arm. “Martin is in Dubai these two days, he is asking if you are free tomorrow or the day after tomorrow.”

“I will call him back later,” Gu Weiwei replied.

Fu Hanzheng stressed.

“Don’t bring the children out. You two have not met for a long time, just leave the children at home for the nurse to take care of them.”

“Got it, I don’t have the courage to take them out,” Gu Weiwei said helplessly.

Even at home, she was very busy taking care of them, let alone taking them out.

Fu Hanzheng chuckled. As long as she knew what she was capable of.

Although the two children were young, just taking care of their food, bathing and sleeping times was very tiring work.

They walked along the beach for a while and the wind was getting cold, so Fu Hanzheng removed his coat and put it over her.

“The wind is a bit cold, let’s go home.”

“No, I want to sit for a while,” Gu Weiwei said as she released him and sat down on the beach.

Helpless, Fu Hanzheng sat down next to her.

“Weiwei, we may have to return home in a few months.”

Gu Siting and Will Dorrans and the Anderson Family had been in frequent contact these days, so they were probably trying to attack Cayman Dorrans.

However, they had been wary of Cayman’s forces, so he did not take any rash actions but kept testing and setting up traps.

This was a good time for the Fu Family to attack the Gu Family, but if he was in Dubai, many things would be inconvenient.

He had expected that in three months or so, they would make a big move.

“So soon?” Gu Weiwei was surprised.

“Yes, if it is not convenient for you to go home, you can stay here for the time being. I will come back after I finish my business,” Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while. "Forget it, we are going home sooner or later, let's just go home."

If she and the children stayed here, he would not be able to visit them from such a distance.

Also, she would not be used to such a long distance separation.

"Okay, I will make the arrangements as soon as possible," Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei looked at him and thought that maybe it was because Gu Siting was going to do something, so he decided to return home ahead of time.

Otherwise, he would have waited until the children were one years old.

"What about your family?"

If she brought the children back to the capital of Hua Land, she would not be able to hide it from the elders of the Fu Family for too long.

It was fine when they met in private, but they could not hide the two little ones.

"Although it is a bit ahead of schedule, it should not affect us too much." Fu Hanzheng chuckled.

Hia father and grandma's attitude towards their divorce had changed. If they knew about the existence of the two children, they would not be too opposed to their remarriage, given their eager hearts.

That was what he had observed from their attitude when they came to Dubai.

Chapter 1248: Rewards?

Hearing his words, Gu Weiwei asked, "Then what do I need to do?"

Fu Hanzheng kissed her forehead. "Shiqin and I will make the arrangements, but my family may ask you for custody of the children, just turn them down."

Gu Weiwei nodded thoughtfully. "Alright, you can make the arrangements."

"With you looking after the two children, what about your work?" Fu Hanzheng asked.

Since she had been here recently, this problem did not exist.

But after she returned home, it would be very difficult to make a movie with these two children.

It was just that in the industry of actors, they had to maintain a high popularity. If they did not show up for a period of time and did not have any works to show, they would soon be forgotten by the public.

Also, acting was her favorite career.

"Let's stop for now, I will still be young in a few years time," Gu Weiwei said proudly.

The children were still young and when she accompanied them to kindergarten in the future, she would at most be 24 or 25 years old. As long as she was capable, she could make a comeback anytime.

"Okay." Fu Hanzheng sighed.

Because of the two children, she had to put down the career she loved.

Gu Weiwei smiled brightly. "I like work, but you and the children are my favorite."

Acting and directing movies would definitely bring her great joy and a sense of achievement, but she liked the happiness of being with him and the children more than the sense of achievement at work.

"I don't think you can have multiple favourites." Fu Hanzheng reminded her.

Gu Weiwei chuckled, took hold of his arms and leaned against his shoulders.

"Yes, Mr. Fu, you are my favorite person, they are my favorite children and work is my favorite job. Is that correct?"

"Yes," Fu Hanzheng said with satisfaction.

That unique position of favorite person could only be him, no one else, not even their children.

"Any rewards?" Gu Weiwei asked with a smile.

Fu Hanzheng took hold of her chin and kissed the girl's soft lips.

The gentle kiss gradually turned into a passionate kiss.

After a long while, he released her lips unwillingly and said with a low and hoarse voice, "It is getting late, let's go home."

Gu Weiwei nodded with pursed lips and walked back with her arms crossed. She went back to the room to take a shower and Fu Hanzheng went back to answer the two missed calls.

Fu Hanzheng took a shower, got changed and went to bed. Out of habit, he took her into his arms.

"Mmm."

Gu Weiwei looked at him with pursed lips and whispered, "Are you alright?"

"What do you mean?" Fu Hanzheng raised his eyebrows.

Gu Weiwei bit her lips and said shyly, "Actually... if you really want it, there should be a way to solve it."

They had just kissed on the beach and he had already had a reaction. Now that he was lying on the bed, he must have taken a cold shower.

Fu Hanzheng, who had just suppressed his desire, was aroused by her words.

"Oh, what is it?" Fu Hanzheng chuckled.

Gu Weiwei shrank back. Why was she asking him? Life was so wonderful when they did not have to sleep together.

"It is getting late, I am sleepy."

She closed her eyes and pretended to sleep.

However, the man who was already aroused would not let go of such an opportunity easily.

Gu Weiwei finally understood what it meant to suffer.

She just felt that after she got pregnant, he had been abstinent and her heart softened when he looked a bit frustrated.

However, she had been kissed all over that night and the next day, she was so tired that she almost could not hold her chopsticks.

Chapter 1249: Happiness

The following afternoon, she arrived at the place where she had arranged to meet Martin Green.

Martin Green came over after finishing his work and saw the girl sitting by the window.

It had been more than a year since the incident at the Chenis Castle.

She used to be an amazingly beautiful girl from Hua Land, but now she looks more gentle and graceful than before. She had attracted the attention of many people just by sitting there.

He approached and sat down opposite her.

“Long time no see.”

Gu Weiwei came back to herself from looking outside the window and said with a smile, “Long time no see, Martin.”

“I heard from Mr. Fu that you have two children. Congratulations on becoming a mother,” Martin Green said as he placed the present on the table. “This is a present for the two babies.”

Gu Weiwei accepted it without hesitation.

“Thanks.”

Martin Green was stirring his coffee as he sized up the girl sitting in front of him, as if he were looking through her or searching for something else from her.

“Martin, what do you want to ask?” Gu Weiwei could tell that he looked suspicious, so she asked straightforwardly.

She thought that Gu Siting’s appearance at the wedding and the canceling of her wedding were enough to make Martin suspect her relationship with the Gu Family.

So if he wanted to ask something, it was understandable.

She had planned to let go of the past, so she had not told him the truth.

After the wedding, they did not have the chance to meet, so they only met after a year.

Martin Green sipped his coffee and shook his head after a long silence.

“I don’t want to ask, I just want to know if you have been doing well this past year, after everything that happened at the wedding.”

Gu Siting's appearance at the wedding did make him suspect that this person whom he seemed to have known before was related to Weiwei.

But since she had not said anything, there was no need for him to ask.

Whether she was Gu Weiwei or Mu Weiwei, he truly hoped that she could live a happy life.

In fact, she was living a very happy life.

"Martin, you are a very good friend," Gu Weiwei said enthusiastically.

She had thought that Martin Green was here to ask her about her relationship with the Gu Family and why Gu Siting was at the wedding.

However, he stopped himself from asking.

Martin Green raised his coffee cup. "Thank you for your compliment."

"I am doing well, thank you for your concern," Gu Weiwei said.

"I can tell that you are very happy, but it is a pity that I did not see your children today."

Martin Green chuckled. This happiness could be easily felt from her eyes and smile.

"There will be many opportunities in the future. They are too young to bring out," Gu Weiwei said helplessly.

Martin Green looked at this gentle-looking new mother and sighed.

"There is a big show at MG next month and you should show up as the global spokesperson, but it seems that you are not able to."

"Sorry, I can't make it."

Gu Weiwei felt helpless. The two children were too young for her to leave them for work.

"It's okay, I will make other arrangements." Martin Green did not force her to participate but agreed to arrange someone else.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said, "If you have time, I would like to invite you to my home."

"I would like to, but I need to catch the plane in three hours. I have important work to do." Martin Green smiled helplessly and said, "Next time, I will definitely meet your two babies.."

Chapter 1250: Baby's First Turn

Gu Weiwei had thought that Martin Green would ask her many questions when he met her.

However, the other party did not ask anything and only talked with her about the future of having children before leaving to rush to the airport.

Before Martin Green got into the car, he turned around and asked, "Weiwei, we will always be friends, right?"

Gu Weiwei nodded sincerely. "Of course."

“Good luck. I am here whenever you need my help,” Martin Green said and waved goodbye to her as he got into the car.

Seeing Martin Green’s car leaving, Gu Weiwei stood still for a long time before getting into the car and getting ready to go home.

When she returned home, the two children had just woken up.

She and the nurse fed them and put them on the bed, letting them play with their hands and toys.

She was sitting on the bed, playing with them, and Youyou was playing with the nurse’s hands.

Hearing her voice, he looked at her for a while and turned over in bed.

“Wow!” Gu Weiwei was surprised and asked the nursery teacher, “When did he learn to do that?”

“This is the first time. Children who are around three months old will learn how to turn over. If they were any older, they would have rolled all over the bed.” The nurse reminded her.

Gu Weiwei happily picked up her son who had completed the first turn of his life and kissed his soft face.

“Baby Youyou, why are you so amazing?”

Logically speaking, it should have been three months before he learned how to turn over. He was still a few days away from being three months old.

She was not only happy, but also took a picture of Youyou and told Fu Hanzheng the good news.

[Youyou has turned himself over and is very skilled. He succeeded in one take.]

A few minutes later, Fu Hanzheng replied, [Very good.]

After reading the message, Gu Weiwei continued to play with the two children and when they got tired, she took a nap with them.

When Fu Hanzheng returned, he asked the servant, when he didn’t see her and the children in the living room and heard nothing.

“They slept together?”

“Yes, the two children played for a long time in the afternoon and Madam took a nap with them.”

Fu Hanzheng put down the car keys and briefcase and pushed open the door of the master bedroom. The moment he entered the room, he saw the mother and the children sleeping in bed.

The two children were sleeping and they looked as cute as an angel, while his wife looked gentle and beautiful.

Gu Weiwei was in a daze because she heard him come in. She opened her eyes and found him standing by the bedside. She rubbed her eyes and said, “You are back.”

Fu Hanzheng sat down next to her and touched his son’s head.

“What a pity that I did not see it at such an important time.”

“He turned over too suddenly and I was not prepared, otherwise I would have filmed it for you.” Gu Weiwei sighed.

When she saw the child turning over with little difficulty, she was very proud as a mother.

“It is okay, he will do it again.” Fu Hanzheng chuckled.

He had been so against the arrival of their children before, but ever since they were born and he watched them grow up, he felt that being a father was a very happy and proud thing.

Especially when such a small and tender boy was in his arms, any unhappiness could be solved instantly.

Gu Weiwei sat up, took hold of the man’s waist and asked with a smile, “Do you think that being a father is a wonderful thing?”

“Yes.” Fu Hanzheng nodded with a smile.
