

MY HIDDEN 1501

Chapter 1501: Jealous?

However, Gu Weiwei and Fu Hanzheng were still smiling at each other as if no one was around.

“So boring, I can’t even be jealous.”

Fu Hanzheng raised his eyebrows. “Can’t be jealous?”

In order not to cause any misunderstandings in their relationship, he had always stopped the opposite sex from getting too close to him, yet she was still saying that she didn’t get the opportunity to be jealous?

Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows and teased him.

“I eat too much sweet stuff and sometimes I want to eat something sour too.”

Fu Hanzheng said seriously, “Then you will be disappointed. You will never be jealous in this lifetime.”

“Brother, please.” Fu Shiqin begged him. They were showing off their love everywhere.

Even though he was no longer single, he still felt so thirsty.

“You asked for it. You already have a girlfriend, what are you doing here?” Gu Weiwei glanced at them.

“Dongdong has competitions in these next two days and she is training.” Fu Shiyi sighed and said, “But we just video-chatted before dinner.”

Gu Weiwei looked at Fu Shiqin. “Where is your girlfriend Ling Jiao? I haven’t seen you mentioning her these days. Did you have a fight?”

“She is currently working abroad,” Fu Shiqin said casually.

“Why didn’t you visit her at work or call her? Your girlfriend must be fake.” Fu Shiyi complained instantly.

Fu Shiqin squinted at him guiltily.

“Do you think that I have as much time as you do and so little work to do?”

“I don’t have time to squeeze in work. “Please reading on N?WNOV?L .0?G”Every day that I don’t see Dongdong feels like a year, and also you are not in a hurry with work at all,” Fu Shiyi said.

If Ding Dongdong had not forbidden him from disturbing her training, he would have accompanied her there.

“I am not in a hurry? I am in a hurry!” Fu Shiqin countered.

He had been so busy with work these days that he had forgotten that he had a ‘girlfriend’.

“I just think that you look single even though you are in a relationship,” Fu Shiyi said.

Fu Shiqin gritted his teeth and said nothing more.

He had performed so well with Ling Jiao, why was he still seen as single?

After dinner, Fu Shiqin and Fu Shiyi carried the two children to the spacious living room to practice crawling.

Youyou and Tiantian had been crawling these past two days, but after a few tries, they would sit down or lie down on the cushion.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin were also helping the two children to crawl.

However, when Tiantian saw the two uncles crawling past her, she chuckled and refused to crawl away.

Sitting on the sofa, Gu Weiwei and Fu Hanzheng found it very funny as they looked at the four of them.

Fu Shiqin got tired of crawling, so he sat down on the floor and looked at the two of them.

“Brother, you should be the one teaching the children how to crawl and walk.”

“Aren’t you two having fun?” Gu Weiwei smiled.

Also, she just could not imagine what it would be like for Fu Hanzheng, who was so cold and arrogant, to be teaching children how to crawl on the ground.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin demonstrated several times, but in the end, it was Youyou who helped them.

Seeing her brother leaving, Tiantian followed.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin both screamed when they saw the two chubby twins crawling on the floor.

Gu Weiwei was also very happy. Although she had two children and had been limited to this family space for 24 hours a day, seeing the two babies growing day by day made her proud and satisfied.

Chapter 1502: Early Teaching

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin would lose track of time when they were together with the children.

It was not until Gu Weiwei urged them repeatedly that it was time for the two children to sleep that they said goodnight to their nephew and niece and returned to He Chi’s.

Gu Weiwei and Fu Hanzheng took one each and went to bathe them.

The two little ones were playing with the water in the bathtub, splashing it all over themselves.

“Oh yes, the grandparents said that they are bringing the children to the morning school tomorrow.”

“They’ll be going at such a young age?” Fu Hanzheng frowned.

Gu Weiwei said as she washed the child, “They can attend morning classes after six months. Even if they are with us at home, they still need to interact with other children.”

“You are going too?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

Gu Weiwei nodded. “Don’t worry, I have learnt some disguising skills from Yuan Meng.”

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and did not object any more. The children were always at home and they should interact with children of the same age.

“Then be careful, call me if anything happens.”

“Yes.”

Gu Weiwei picked up her washed daughter, wiped off the water stains and got dressed.

Fu Hanzheng took care of his son, wiped the boy’s hair and body and put on the pajamas for him.

The two little buns were very punctual. They took a bath and went to bed, and after playing in bed for more than ten minutes, they fell asleep.

Gu Weiwei covered them with the blanket and went back to the master bedroom next door.

The following day, Fu Hanzheng helped the two children eat breakfast and left for the company.

Gu Weiwei had just finished breakfast when Mrs. “Freewebnovel.com .” Fu called and confirmed the time of departure.

Since she was closer to the morning education center, she decided to meet her there.

Before she left the house, she had put on a disguise and darkened her skin color. She had also drawn a few small moles on her face and put on a pair of black-framed glasses. After making sure that she looked unremarkable, she packed up the two children’s things and was about to leave.

Since she was driving, she brought a nurse with her to take care of the children.

Although she had left home later than Mrs. Fu and Fu Shengying, she still brought the children straight to the morning education center because of the distance.

The two little buns, who normally only visited the villa park, were very excited the moment they went out.

The teacher from the morning education center came to see them. Seeing that the two children were interested in the game area, Weiwei said, “Let’s talk when grandma arrives.”

Mrs. Fu had found this place and said that it was opened by someone she knew, so it was better to wait for her.

She and the nurse carried the children to the gaming area. There were many babies around one to three years old in the gaming area, and Youyou and Tiantian were undoubtedly the most eye-catching twins.

The two little fellows were playing excitedly in the game area or staring at the other children curiously.

The nursery teacher turned to Weiwei and said, “Madam, I need to use the bathroom.”

Gu Weiwei nodded. “Go.”

The nursery teacher left the game area and went to find the bathroom.

Gu Weiwei’s phone rang and she answered a call.

“Aunt, we are here.”

“We are here too, we have parked the car and are walking over,” Mrs. Fu said and asked, “Where are Youyou and Tiantian?”

“They like it here and are having fun in the game area.” Gu Weiwei did not know whether to laugh or cry at the sight of her daughter who was trying to crawl away again.

“Okay, I will be right there.” Mrs. Fu hung up in a hurry.

Gu Weiwei had just ended the call and was about to put down the phone when a three-year-old boy ran past her like the wind and tripped Tiantian.

Chapter 1503: The Trouble at the Early School

The girl had never fallen before, so she started to cry.

The boy also fell and cried on the floor.

With Youyou in one arm, Gu Weiwei put Youyou down and carried her daughter, checking if Tiantian was injured.

It was only then that she realized that Tiantian’s left hand was completely red. It was obvious that she had been stepped on. Her face was a bit red and she was also frightened, so she could not stop crying.

Her daughter was crying so hard that Youyou, who was sitting by her feet, started to cry too.

Gu Weiwei could not appease the two of them alone, so she looked around for the nurse.

But the nurse was not back yet.

Tiantian cried so hard that tears kept flowing out of her eyes. Her son was also crying harder and harder, so she could not care about anything else.

Tiantian was just in the middle of crying when the little boy’s grandma and mother came over and picked up their child.

Without saying anything more, the grandma said to Gu Weiwei, who was trying to coax the child, “What are you thinking about, harming my grandson?!”

Gu Weiwei looked up at the woman who was talking. “Your grandson tripped my daughter, didn’t you see that?”

The younger daughter had not been injured since she was born. Her hands were stepped on and her head was kicked. She was crying terribly now.

Seeing this, the teacher came over and helped to carry Youyou, who was crying on the floor.

“Little boy, look at you, you have made such a cute little girl cry. A man should apologize when he has done something wrong. Apologize to this little girl, alright?”

She had seen clearly that the boy had tripped the girl because he was running around in the game area.

Children tended to bump into each other when they were together, but it was necessary to apologize if they had done something wrong. The families here were either wealthy or noble.

If the two families got into trouble because of the child, it would not be good for the morning education center.

“Apologize?” The little boy’s grandma stiffened her neck and pointed at Gu Weiwei. “She was the one who did not watch her well, so my grandson fell. She should be the one apologizing.”

Gu Weiwei was too focused on the two children to argue with her. Instead, she asked the teacher of the morning school, “Is there a doctor? The child’s hands are a bit red and her head is injured too.”

The child was still too young. This wound might not be a big deal to adults, but it was a great deal of pain for the child.

Especially Tiantian, who could cry for days after getting a vaccination.

“Yes.” The teacher helped to carry Youyou as she said to the doctor, “Doctor Li, over here.”

“Thank you.” Gu Weiwei looked at the two children who were crying non-stop and her eyes turned red. She carried the children and was about to ask the doctor to check if they were seriously injured.

But the moment the doctor arrived, the little boy’s grandma asked the doctor to check her child first, “Doctor, please take a look at my grandson. He has fallen and his bones are injured.”

“Mrs. He, can you please let the doctor take care of this girl first?” The teacher from the morning teaching center was furious and glared at the unreasonable old lady.

But the other party did not take the words of a teacher from the morning education center seriously and said in a very rude way, “My grandson is the only heir of the third generation. If he is injured, none of you can take responsibility.”

Chapter 1504: The Trouble at the Early School 2 Translations

Gu Weiwei looked down at her daughter’s hands and then at her son who was sobbing in the arms of the teacher; she was not in the mood to argue with anyone.

“Mrs. He, right? If anything happens to my daughter, you won’t be able to take responsibility.”

Mrs. He threw a disdainful look at her and wrote a cheque for 100,000 yuan.

“Here, 100,000 yuan should be enough for a new hand, let alone for your daughter’s hand.

Can you ask the doctor to check my grandson first?”

Without looking at the cheque, Gu Weiwei said, “I think we should save this cheque for your grandson.”

Originally, as long as the child was not seriously injured, she would not be too harsh when the other party sincerely apologized.

But the other party did not apologize and even stopped the doctor from checking Tiantian’s injuries, even throwing a check of 100,000 yuan at her.

“What did you say? Are you cursing my grandson?” Mrs. He was furious.

Instead of arguing with her, Gu Weiwei said to the teacher who was holding Youyou next to her, “Please hold the child there for me.”

The two children had been frightened, and if she continued to argue with this woman, her children would be even more frightened.

Therefore, she decided to wait for Mrs. Fu and Fu Shengying to arrive and check on the children before taking revenge.

“Hang on, don’t leave. If my grandson falls somewhere, you will have to take responsibility.” The Old Lady argued unreasonably.

She had not intended to mention this, but since the other party had cursed her grandson, of course she could not let her off easily.

Youyou had just stopped crying when the old lady bellowed at him.

Gu Weiwei was furious, but she did not argue with her because of the children.

“I am not leaving, I am just waiting for the children’s grandparents to arrive.”

“It is useless for you to leave. As long as the He Family wants to find you, they can find you no matter where you hide in the capital.”

Having said these words, the Old Lady urged the doctor to check her grandson.

The doctor checked and found that the boy’s mouth was bleeding because of the lollipop.

“The candy scratched his mouth, nothing serious.”

“He is bleeding, how can you say that he is fine?” The grandma looked at the blood on the corner of her grandson’s lips and turned to Gu Weiwei who was holding her daughter. “My grandson is injured because of your daughter, what should we do?”

Gu Weiwei took her daughter’s head into her arms and said to the doctor, not wanting her to see such an annoying face, “Please check the child’s hand and chin.”

The doctor checked Tiantian’s five knuckles and chin.

“It seems that she is not seriously injured but we should be careful, we can take the child to do a scan. After all, she is still young and her knuckles and bones have not fully developed.”

Hearing the words, Gu Weiwei got even more anxious. At that moment the nursery teacher returned.

“Carry Youyou, we are going to the hospital.”

“Why are you leaving? My grandson’s mouth is bleeding because of your daughter, and you want to leave without apologizing or compensating. Which family are you from? You don’t know the rules?” Mrs. He felt sorry for her grandson, who was a sole heir of three generations and did not care about anyone else’s injured daughter.

Gu Weiwei felt sorry for the two crying children and was not in the mood to argue with her.

But the other party did not relent and asked her to apologize.

“What is going on? Tiantian?”

The moment Mrs. Fu and Fu Shengying came out of the elevator, they heard the sound of a child crying. It sounded like the sound of their precious granddaughter, and they almost ran all the way over.

“Mrs. Fu?!” Some parents recognized Mrs. Fu who came over in a hurry.

Chapter 1505: Granddaughter of the Fu Family Translations

She first recognized Mrs. Fu and then saw Fu Shengying who came with Mrs. Fu.

“Mr. Fu?!”

Mrs. Fu had no time to care about anything else. She rushed over and tossed the expensive Hermes Platinum Package onto the ground before taking Youyou from the nursery teacher’s arms.

“What is it? Weren’t you fine on the phone?”

“What is wrong with Tiantian? Why is she crying so hard?” Fu Shengying came over and looked at his granddaughter who was crying in Gu Weiwei’s arms.

Seeing them coming, Gu Weiwei let out a sigh of relief.

“Tiantian’s hand was stepped on, I don’t know if her bones are injured. I will take her to the hospital for a scan.”

“So serious?” Mrs. Fu was so frightened that her face changed.

Hearing the words, Fu Shengying made a call.

“We are not far from He Chi, so let’s go there now, I will call him.”

Gu Weiwei nodded and walked towards the elevator with her daughter in arms. She said to Fu Shengying after a few steps, “Mrs. He said that Tiantian tripped and injured her grandson, so she wants us to apologize and compensate her. You can deal with this first.”

She was not in the mood to argue with this annoying child’s grandma, but she believed that the child’s grandfather would definitely deal with it well.

Fu Shengying could guess what had happened, so he glanced at Mrs. He and the crying boy.

“Go to the hospital first, I will apologize to her.”

His granddaughter had her hand injured by someone and the other party said that Tiantian had tripped her grandson.

Tiantian was only seven months old, how could she trip someone? It was just a stupid child running around and stepping on Tiantian’s hand that caused him to fall. His grandma was also making a fuss here, scaring the two children.

With her daughter in her arms, and Youyou in Mrs. Fu's arms, the nursery teacher ran ahead with the baby bag and Mrs. Fu's bag to press the elevator.

The three of them went downstairs and Gu Weiwei placed the child in the safety seat, left Mrs. Fu and the nurse to take care of the twins and started the car.

As they were rushing to the hospital, Fu Shengying, who was at the morning education center, had already shocked everyone.

"Let me take a look at the CCTV here."

The responsible contact of the morning training center came over with the tablet and played the video.

Seeing Gu Weiwei hanging up the phone, Fu Shengying saw the little boy running towards them. He stepped on Tiantian who was playing and kicked her chin, causing him to fall too.

Then it was Mrs. He who stopped the doctor from checking Tiantian's injuries and made a fuss that made Youyou cry.

Gu Weiwei looked at the two crying children and found that they were getting more and more frustrated.

The two children had always been spoiled by the entire family and Tiantian was the only princess of the Fu Family. She had never been wronged like this.

He saw Gu Weiwei leaving with the child and how she was stopped by the other party. If they had not arrived when they did, they would not have been able to see the children crying.

"You want compensation, right? How much do you want to pay for your grandson's leg?"

"Your granddaughter is not injured or bleeding, and my grandson is bleeding from his mouth. Why are you threatening me instead of apologizing?" Mrs. He had just come to the capital from another city and she obviously did not know Fu's Enterprise.

When she heard that the other party wanted her grandson's leg, she did not show any mercy.

"One finger of my granddaughter is more precious than your grandson's, and he stepped on one of her hands." Fu Shengying looked cold and intimidating.

"That girl was blind enough to get in the way, why should you blame my grandson?" Mrs. He countered.

The other parents looked at the unreasonable old lady speechlessly.

Was she crazy? Did she know whose granddaughter her grandson had stepped on? The granddaughter of the Fu Family, the richest family in Hua Land. How precious must she be?

Chapter 1506: Spoiled

Fu Shengying looked at the arrogant old woman and asked coldly, "Which He Family?"

Mrs. He raised her chin and said, "The Wei Family of Far East Enterprise are my close relatives."

The Far East Enterprise had been doing very well these past few years and the Wei Family was a very popular family in the capital city. The He Family and the Wei Family were close relatives and they had also turned the situation around.

But Mrs. He was away from home all the time and she did not stay in the capital for long.

Therefore, even though she had heard someone calling out Mrs. Fu and Mr. Fu, she still did not recognize who it was.

Anyway, only the grandson of the third generation was important to her.

The parents of the other children, who were watching the show, smiled happily. The Wei Family of Far East Enterprise was not even enough to keep check on the Fu Family, and a close relative of the Wei Family was still challenging the Fu Family.

If this old lady continued to cause trouble, not only the He Family, but also the Wei Family of Far East Enterprise would suffer.

After all, judging from the nervous expressions of Mr. Fu and Mrs. Fu, they loved their twin grandchildren deeply.

But where did this grandson and granddaughter come from? Did any of the three masters of the Fu Family get married?

Mrs. He's daughter-in-law could tell that something was wrong, so she tugged at her mother-in-law.

"Mom, forget it."

"What is it? Your son is injured so badly, don't you feel sorry for him?" Mrs. He felt that if she let it go now, she would be embarrassed.

"Mom, they are from the Fu Family!" The daughter-in-law reminded her with a small voice.

"So what if he is from the Fu Family? Our child is the only one from among the three generations. He can't be hurt!" Mrs. He said confidently.

"Mom, we can't afford to offend the Fu Family," the daughter-in-law said with a low voice.

She had heard people talking about how they had provoked the Fu's Enterprise, and she wondered if they were stupid or brave.

Fu Shengying laughed out of anger. So what if he was the only heir?

The Fu Family had been looking forward to a girl for decades, but his three sons had no daughter. It was not easy for them to get a granddaughter, who had been spoiled rotten but ended up being bullied outside.

He was the one who set up going to the morning teaching center today, and if Hanzheng knew about it, he would blame his grandfather.

"Since you don't agree to the compensation, then let your family make the decision. Or call the Wei Family."

Seeing that the other party was determined to fight them to the death, Mrs. He called her son and the Wei Family, saying that her grandson was bullied here.

Within one hour, Mrs. Wei and her nephew arrived.

“How is the child? How badly is he injured?”

Mrs. Wei was Wei Ziting’s mother and her brother had been left with only one nephew. Now that his nephew had such a son, he was truly the only son of the He Family.

Therefore, both the child’s grandma and his uncle loved this child very much.

The staff of the morning education center could not explain to the unreasonable Mrs. He, so they said straightforwardly in front of Mrs. Wei and her nephew, “Mrs. Wei, Mrs. Fu brought the twins here to play in the game area and the child of the He Family was running around when he bumped into the girl. This is the child’s grandfather.”

After hearing what the responsible contact said, Mrs. Wei turned to Fu Shengying who was standing next to her, looking livid.

“President Fu?”

Damn, they had not hurt the Fu Family’s child, had they?

Chapter 1507: Grandson

Although Mrs. Wei did not have much contact with the Fu Family, she had lived in the capital for so many years and she more or less recognized these wealthy families.

Although Fu Shengying had retired from the Fu’s Enterprise for many years and barely showed his face, she could tell that he was someone who used to run the Fu’s Enterprise.

Fu Shengying did not stand on ceremony with him and said arrogantly, “Your in-law ran around here with her grandson and injured my granddaughter. The child is only seven months old and he stepped on her. If anything happens to her, you will die.”

They had waited for so many years before becoming grandparents.

His granddaughter was lively and lovable. He had thought that since the child was a bit older, he should let them interact with children of the same age, so he invited them to this morning school.

But now, something like this had happened.

Seeing the two children crying so heartbrokenly, his heart was still aching.

“President Fu, there must be some misunderstanding. That child is only three years old, he can’t have done it on purpose.” Mrs. Wei explained with a smile.

Although she did not know where this grandson and granddaughter came from, since no one in the Fu Family was married, now that the Fu Family was blaming them, they had to take responsibility.

Mrs. He had wanted to ask Mrs. Wei and her son to back her up, but before she could care about her grandchild’s injuries, she had already lowered her voice to the old man.

The Wei Family was a famous family in the capital city and even they had to obey this man. Were the twins really that bad to deal with?

"I don't know if the child did it on purpose, but is it intentional for an adult to stop the doctor from checking my granddaughter?" Fu Shengying asked coldly.

Mrs. Wei bit her lips and glared at her sister-in-law, Mrs. He, who was not far away. She was so regretful that she had brought her to the capital, as she had embarrassed herself.

Since her brother left early, only her nephew was left, so she arranged for him to work at the Wei Family's Far East Enterprise. Luckily, he had been doing well these past few years.

Now that they were married and had a child, she asked him to bring his wife to the capital.

It was just that the child was spoiled by them, so she made an appointment with the teacher here, hoping that she could take the opportunity to raise the child well.

But they had offended the Fu Family the moment they arrived.

"President Fu, how is your granddaughter?"

Fu Shengying threw a cold look at Mrs. Wei. "She has been sent to the hospital, just wait."

The child was seriously injured, so he decided how he was going to deal with this family.

Mrs. Wei pursed her lips and prayed that she was not injured badly. Otherwise, not only would the He Family suffer, but the Wei Family would also be implicated.

Her sister-in-law had waited so many years for such a grandson, so she had spoiled him rotten. But no matter how precious her grandson was, he wasn't more precious than the Fu Family's child.

It turned out that it was inevitable that children would bump into each other. If something happened, the adults would apologize sincerely and ask the child to be checked in time, so that the problem could be solved.

But this ignorant woman, who only cared about her own grandson and did not care about the other child's life, had caused this mess.

Mrs. He approached Mrs. Wei and whispered, "Sister, it is just two children stumbling, why are they so stubborn?"

Mrs. Wei was so angry that she almost crushed her teeth from gritting them so hard. "Now you are saying that he doesn't want to let you go? If you had not been so persistent when the accident happened, this would not have happened."

She had thought that she was a pushover, so she had kept asking them for compensation.

Seeing that the other party was not a simple person, she said that he was making a big fuss out of nothing and that he was making a mountain out of a molehill.

It had not been easy for this sister-in-law to bring up her son all these years, but she was indeed a very narrow-minded person.

Chapter 1508: The Fu Family's Home

At the hospital, He Chi received Fu Shengying's call. Hearing that Tiantian was injured, he did not even finish the meeting and went to pick her up.

After all, those two little buns were the apples of everyone's eyes. If they were not treated in time, the entire Fu Family would have to fight him.

Luckily, the morning school was not far from the hospital, so Gu Weiwei's car arrived soon after he went downstairs.

Youyou was no longer crying, and Tiantian was still sobbing with tears on her chubby face.

Gu Weiwei parked the car, carried the Tiantian and went upstairs.

After a simple examination, He Chi heard that someone had stepped on her hand, so he brought the child for another scan.

Seeing the film coming out, Mrs. Fu asked nervously, "He Chi, how is Tiantian?"

"Luckily, the bones and joints are not injured," He Chi said.

"Is her chin okay too?" Gu Weiwei asked.

"It is okay, the child is just frightened." He Chi sized up Tiantian, who was holding Gu Weiwei's clothes tightly.

Gu Weiwei sat down with the child in her arms and kissed the child's forehead.

After being stepped on, and Mrs. He's continuous yelling, the two children were frightened.

"It's good that she is fine."

Mrs. Fu gave Youyou to the nurse and said apologetically, "We were too careless to not have arranged everything properly."

It was her and the child's grandfather who had suggested going to the morning education center, but they had not expected that the child would encounter such a thing.

"As long as the child is fine." Gu Weiwei forced a smile.

Mrs. Fu looked at her and asked, "Weiwei, are you alright?"

When they arrived, they found the twins crying and wondered what had happened for them to be wailing so loudly.

At that time, she was so focused on the two children that she did not ask her if she had suffered.

Gu Weiwei shook her head and sized up the frightened daughter in her arms.

"Tiantian is probably going to sleep soon, I will carry her home later."

"Okay." Mrs. Fu nodded and said, "Watch over the child, I will call the child's grandfather. We must not let that b*tch off."

Gu Weiwei took hold of her daughter's hands and kissed them, feeling very guilty.

If she had not let her roam around and play, this would not have happened.

Mrs. Fu went out and called Fu Shengying. "The child has been checked, nothing serious. She was just frightened."

"Okay, got it." Fu Shengying let out a long sigh of relief.

Mrs. Fu said that she was safe and then immediately followed up by saying, "You can deal with that family yourself."

"Okay, you can go home with Weiwei and the children," Fu Shengying said and then looked at Mrs. Wei and Mrs. He's family. "Now, let's talk about the compensation."

"President Fu, we are sorry about this matter. I will bring them to apologize to Mrs. Fu and the two children tomorrow. As for the compensation, we will do as you say." Mrs. Wei sounded very sincere.

Fu Shengying looked serious and cold. "There is no need to apologize or compensate. You will dirty the Fu Family's home and the eyes of the two children if you come to apologize."

"What does President Fu mean?" Mrs. Wei asked.

If they did not apologize or compensate, it would not be so easy.

"I want their family to leave the capital with this child forever," Fu Shengying said coldly.

"Leaving the capital?" Mrs. He was not convinced and said, "It was just two children who had a bump and your granddaughter was not injured. Is there a need to ostracize so many people?"

Her son had just gained a foothold in the capital and the company was prospering. If they left the capital now, everything would be ruined.

Chapter 1509: Please Don't Do It

Fu Shengying glanced at her coldly when he heard that she still had something to say.

"You don't want to leave?"

"President Fu, I will arrange for them to leave the capital as soon as possible."

Instead of defending them, Mrs. Wei agreed to his request.

They were in the wrong. Luckily, the child was not injured, otherwise they would not have been able to leave the capital so easily.

It was possible that the He Family's child would lose one leg.

"Sister, this is too much! We have just come to the capital and He Xu's company has just gotten on track. If we leave the capital, we will have nothing left." Mrs. He approached and protested to Mrs. Wei agitatedly.

Her son had worked so hard to get everything, how could it be ruined just because of one word from someone else?

Mrs. Wei gritted her teeth, tugged at her sleeves and snapped.

“Just leave, don’t bargain.”

Fu Shengying was just pursuing the He Family, and if this went on, the Wei Family would be included too.

It was definitely possible for Fu’s Enterprise to make a company lose its position in Hua Land.

Although she felt sorry for her brother and his family, she still had to think about the Wei Family.

She did not want to ruin Far East Enterprise because of her.

“Sister, He Xu is the only man of the He Family, you can’t watch someone ruin his career because of such a small matter.” Mrs. He grabbed Mrs. Wei’s arm and begged with tears in her eyes.

Mrs. Wei flung away her hands and said to her pale nephew, “Still not leaving with your mother?”

Mrs. He was not going to leave just like that. She struggled free from her son’s hands and kneeled down by Fu Shengying’s feet.

“President Fu, it is my. It has not been easy for my son and I to be an orphan and a widow, please let us go this time.

My grandson hurt your granddaughter, so I apologize. I can be your servant, but please don’t make things difficult for my son.” Mrs. He begged.

...

Fu Shengying frowned and said straightforwardly, “If you don’t want to leave, I will ask you to leave tomorrow.”

Having said these words, he left without hesitation.

Seeing Fu Shengying leaving, Mrs. Wei said to her nephew and niece-in-law, “Be smart, take your mother home now, pack up and leave the capital.”

“Aunt, can we only leave?” He Xu was still confused.

“You can leave of your own accord, because it is better than the Fu Family asking you to leave.” Mrs. Wei glanced at Mrs. He and snorted. “If you want to blame someone, blame your useless mother. I have told you repeatedly that the families here are either wealthy or noble and that you must not offend anyone. If it is beneficial for you to establish a good relationship with someone, she is...”

“If you don’t want to help me, so be it. Stop making fun of me.” Mrs. He got up from the ground and said with teeth clenched, “I don’t believe that they can cover the entire capital with one hand.”

Mrs. Wei sighed speechlessly. “You can do whatever you want. I am going home.”

Mrs. He was about to call the police when He Xu stopped her.

“Mom, please, don’t do anything more. Are you trying to kill us?”

He had been working in the capital for so many years and he knew better than anyone else how wealthy Fu's Enterprise was. They had hurt their precious granddaughter and it was already very kind of them to let them leave the capital.

If the Old Lady continued to make a fuss, they would be in trouble.

Chapter 1510: Frightened

Fu Shengying left the morning education center and rushed to the hospital.

When he arrived at the hospital, Fu Hanzheng and Fu Shiqin heard about the situation from Mrs. Fu and rushed to the hospital.

"How is she? How is Tiantian?"

"I told you that she was just frightened," He Chi could not stand his noise and said.

"Where is he? Is she still at the hospital?" Fu Shiqin asked anxiously.

Mrs. Fu said with a sunken expression, "The two children have just fallen asleep inside, and you want to wake them up?"

Fu Shiqin instantly shut up.

He was about to follow his brother into the ward when Mrs. Fu stopped him.

Fu Hanzheng entered the ward alone and closed the door.

The two children were already asleep. Youyou was placed in bed and Tiantian was in Gu Weiwei's arms.

Due to the surprise, the girl was still holding her clothes tightly even when she was asleep, as if that was the only way to feel safe.

Fu Hanzheng approached and whispered, "Let me carry her."

Seeing him, Gu Weiwei sighed and said, "It is my fault for not taking good care of her."

Fu Hanzheng removed her clothes from his daughter's hands and took the child into his arms.

"That is not a place you want to let them go to. You can't just look after them at home."

On the way to the hospital, he had watched the CCTV and his heart ached terribly when he saw her taking care of the two frightened children and being teased by that old woman. She looked angry but helpless.

She had not retaliated at the morning school because she had tried her best to take care of the two children.

With her personality, if she had not been taking care of the children, she would have returned the favor.

"But Tiantian is still frightened." Gu Weiwei brushed away her daughter's soft hair.

Ever since the two children were born, even if they cried at home, they were mostly not feeling well because of food or diapers. Most of the time they were happy and happy under everyone's care. This was the first time they went out with curiosity, but they were frightened by such a situation.

When the other party was aggressive, she could not ignore the two children and go against them.

With one arm around his sleeping daughter, Fu Hanzheng took hold of Gu Weiwei who was sitting next to him and asked with a gentle voice, "You must have been frightened too, right?"

Gu Weiwei nodded. It was the first time for her to want to cry so hard in front of the two children and the nursery teacher was not even there either. She had been so worried that she almost cried.

As a mother, she always felt that no matter how tired and wronged she was, she could not bear to let her children suffer a little.

"They usually cry, but they are always just fussing like spoiled children. This is the first time they have cried so fiercely."

Fu Hanzheng took hold of her head and kissed her forehead.

"I should have gone with you."

Since his mother and father said that they were going with her, he thought that it should not be a problem for the four of them to take care of the two children and also there was the teacher of the morning school.

But within a few hours, the children encountered such a situation.

"Remember the children are okay, just frightened. Don't blame the child's grandparents." Gu Weiwei reminded him with a low voice.

This morning education center was decided by the children's grandparents and they had also suggested bringing the children there to interact with children of the same age. Also, because they were late, they encountered such a situation.

But the two elders truly cared about their grandchildren. If he blamed them for this matter, they would be sad too.