

MY HIDDEN 151

Chapter 151: Mrs. Fu Was Here

Although Fu Hanzheng did not go to the company, he still had many things to work on at home.

Since Gu Weiwei was reading the script in the living room, he also moved his work into the living room.

Sitting on the sofa, he was reading the files and every now and again, he glanced at the girl who was deeply concentrated on reading the script.

Although they were focusing upon their own work, they did not find it awkward at all. It was not a date for a couple, practically speaking.

After going through some lines from the scenes, Gu Weiwei got up and sat down after pouring herself a glass of water. Then she glanced at Fu Hanzheng and their eyes met each other's.

Fu Hanzheng continued to read the files and asked indifferently, "You drank so much the other day because you ran into Wei Ziting?"

Startled for a few seconds, Gu Weiwei took a sip of water from the glass.

"Of course not, I drank too much because I finished school!"

"But neither of them was drunk, only you were." Fu Hanzheng squinted.

"Alright, alright, I was upset because Wei Ziting is getting engaged with Li Xing'er!"

Gu Weiwei understood that if she did not give him a proper explanation, he would keep asking her about it but she could not possibly tell him that she was upset because of the Gu Family, so she had to use Wei Ziting as a shield.

Fu Hanzheng looked cold and said unkindly, "You courted Qin Lv and now you have lingering feelings over your ex fiancé. What have you picked up at such a young age?"

Gu Weiwei glanced at this jealous man and directly countered.

"Then what is so good about you when you force me to marry you when I am still young?!"

He was so rude to say that she was young and picked up bad habits, yet he himself had tried to take her when he was an old uncle!

Fu Hanzheng signed the paper and said, "They don't like you as I do."

Wei Ziting should be glad that he was not courting her but was engaged to someone else.

Otherwise the Wei Family would lose more than one project with Fu's Enterprise.

Gu Weiwei put down the pen and snorted. "Do you know that you are actually taking advantage of a nice girl?"

Fu Hanzheng folded the files and said to her, as he looked her in the eyes, "If I am taking advantage of you, then you would not be talking with me in this way."

Gu Weiwei gave up and said, "Okay, okay, I don't have anything more to say to you!"

One order from him could decide her life and death and what more could she do apart from pleasing him?

Fu Hanzheng checked the time and said, "Get changed, let's go and get some afternoon tea."

"I am not going." Gu Weiwei shook her head resolutely.

His face could draw attention wherever he went, and if she did go and have afternoon tea with him, it would be in the headlines when the filming started.

Fu Hanzheng was about to say something when the doorbell of the apartment rang.

He went to answer the door when Mrs. Fu's voice was heard.

"Hanzheng, Shiqin says that you are at home, so Ruya and I have brought something here for you."

Fu Hanzheng had just opened the door when Gu Weiwei who had been sitting there a minute ago, was gone already.

He only saw her after he followed her into the room.

"What are you doing?"

"I am not meeting your mother. She hates me!" Gu Weiwei said.

Because of what Mu Weiwei had done in the Fu Family, Mrs. Fu did not like her very much.

If she knew that they were living together, then she would be very frightened and startled.

Meeting her would cause them both trouble, so she decided to dodge them.

"You will have to meet her sooner or later."

Fu Hanzheng had just finished speaking, when Mrs. Fu and Meng Ruya walked into the apartment.

Chapter 152: Babe?

"But not now, we will meet when the time comes, get out of here now."

She had been dealing with quite a lot of issues these days, and if Mrs. Fu and Meng Ruya knew about their relationship... MrsFu would try all she could to tear them apart, and Meng Ruya, who had always disliked her, would spare no effort to deal with her too.

She really wished to spend the remaining few days in peace before heading out for the shooting site.

Displeased, Fu Hanzheng closed the bedroom door and went into the living room alone.

Mrs. Fu came into the living room and asked when she heard the voice, “Who are you talking to, Hanzheng?”

Fu Hanzheng’s laid-back expression instantly turned cold and distant.

“I was making a phone call.”

Mrs. Fu brought out the fruits and cakes and put them on the table and asked with a smile.

“Shiqin said that you were not at the company today, so Ruya and I decided to visit you because we happened to be in the neighbourhood.”

Her eldest son who had never missed work, had decided to rest at home instead. That was unexpected.

Shiqin said that he was spending time with his girlfriend, but no one told her whom Fu Hanzheng was dating.

She had asked her servant Aunt Wang numerous times, but the servant did not tell her anything, not surprising, considering that Fu Hanzheng had told her not to spill a word.

That was why she decided to come and check who on earth the girl was.

Meng Ruya was also being very attentive.

She had not got any information about this woman, so she had persuaded Mrs. Fu to come and check it up.

They did hear a woman talking the moment they entered the apartment.

She looked at the door Fu Hanzheng had just closed and understood that the woman must be inside that room.

Mrs. Fu also took a look at the door and said, “Shiqin says that you dropped your work to keep your girlfriend company, where is your girlfriend?”

Fu Hanzheng was about to speak when a text arrived on the phone on the table – Say nothing!

Mrs. Fu and Meng Ruya glanced at the text on the phone, looking surprised.

It was not about the message of the text, but about the messenger’s ID – Fu Hanzheng had made the contact name ‘Babe’.

Mrs. Fu looked at Fu Hanzheng in astonishment. She knew clearly how cold and distant her son could be when facing others.

He had always been distant towards her and his own father too.

But a man like this would make such an incredible label for that contact?

Fu Hanzheng looked at the text and said calmly, “She is not here.”

Immediately, Mrs. Fu was no longer able to accept the special treatment her son gave to that woman.

“You are so busy at the company and yet she still wants you to stay and keep her company at home.”

Fu Hanzheng could tell that his mother showed displeasure towards his girlfriend so he frowned.

“I volunteered to stay at home and keep her company here.”

Maybe she was right about not meeting his mother right now.

His mother did not like her, and if she knew that they were together, then there would be all sorts of trouble arising.

Especially when they were not in a steady relationship and so any trouble might make the things worse.

Hearing this, Meng Ruya gritted her teeth.

Damned woman! What did she do for him to defend her in this way!

“Ruya, didn’t you want to visit the bathroom?” Mrs. Fu looked at the bedroom with its closed door and gestured with a smile.

“Yes.”

Meng Ruya put down her bag and left the living room.

When she passed Gu Weiwei’s bedroom, she pretended that she thought it was a bathroom and pushed the door open.

Chapter 153: Not for the Fu Family

Meng Ruya had thought that as long as she opened the door, she could see the woman hidden inside.

But there was nobody in there.

Inside the room the bed and the blankets were obviously used and judging from the style, by a woman. There were also women’s cosmetics and skin care on the dressing table.

Damn that woman, is she living here?

“What are you doing?”

Fu Hanzheng looked at Meng Ruya coldly, sounding very lethal.

“I thought... it was the bathroom.”

Shivering in fright, Meng Ruya had intended to dig deeper but did not dare to be over the top in front of Fu Hanzheng, so she had to close the door and give up.

Fu Hanzheng was smart enough to tell what his mother and Meng Ruya were up to.

Displeased, he leafed through the files in his hands and said in an icy tone, “If there is nothing else, you should leave. I have tons of things to do.”

Mrs. Fu understood that they had irritated him. He might be her son, but he could become so angry that he did not care if she was his mother.

So she threw a look at Meng Ruya and said with a gentle voice, "Then we should leave now. Be sure to come home for dinner, you haven't been back for almost two months."

"Okay." Fu Hanzheng answered coldly.

Mrs. Fu and Meng Ruya both suspected that the woman was inside the apartment, but with Fu Hanzheng there, they simply couldn't do anything more.

After they walked out of the apartment, Mrs. Fu asked, "I heard a voice coming out of the room, but you didn't see anyone in there?"

Meng Ruya shook her head. "No one was there, but..."

"But what?" Mrs. Fu asked further.

Meng Ruya looked at Mrs. Fu with disappointment. "There are many things inside the room that are for a woman, and... she seems to be living with President Fu in the apartment."

Mrs. Fu's face turned dark when she heard these words.

"They have known each other for such a short time and now she has moved in with him! She can't be a girl from a proper family."

She just could not figure out why her son would turn down Meng Ruya, who was born into a good family and who was well-educated, and instead be taken in by a girl who was so vulgar.

Meng Ruya sighed sadly, "But, President Fu likes her..."

Mu Weiwei had tried to approach him shamelessly, but now another woman had popped up and she herself, who had spent so many years next to him, hadn't even been spared a glance.

Mrs. Fu angrily got into the car and snapped.

"A girl so vulgar like that will not be allowed to enter the family. He can have a relationship with her, but he will never marry her."

No noble lady would move in with a man after knowing him for a brief period of time.

The Mrs President of Fu's Enterprise was never going to be a woman who had a bad reputation.

Seeing Mrs. Fu being so resolute, Meng Ruya looked slightly less angry.

She had failed to drag that mystical woman out, so she had to come up with another way.

After Fu Hanzheng saw off Mrs. Fu, he opened the door of Gu Weiwei's room.

What he saw was her coming out from under the bed, as she was doing so she banged her head.

He pulled her up and massaged her head for her.

"Why were you hiding under the bed?"

Gu Weiwei adjusted her hair and mumbled, "I did not know someone was going to open the door so suddenly. If I had not been quick enough I would have been seen."

The moment she had heard the sound of footsteps, she had rolled under the bed, causing Meng Ruya to be unable to see her.

But it seemed that Mrs. Fu and Meng Ruya were not here by accident.

They were here to find out who was in a relationship with Fu Hanzheng.

However, what they would never expect was that it was the same Mu Weiwei who had been driven out by Fu Hanzheng before.

Chapter 154: Why Him?

As the two of them returned to the living room, Gu Weiwei had lost the mood to read the script.

Fu Hanzheng also put down the work he had been doing for the time being and looked a little serious.

"It doesn't matter if others like you or not, as long as I like you, that is enough."

Gu Weiwei looked at him. "Your mother belongs to those others?"

Fu Hanzheng did not explain anything more. No one would be able to stop him from marrying who he wanted to.

Gu Weiwei suggested kindheartedly as she showed a flattering smile.

"President Fu, your mother truly likes Meng Ruya. She was born from a very good family and she is a good match for you."

"So?" Fu Hanzheng sounded slightly cold.

"So she is the best candidate for Mrs. Fu, and your parents like her too..." Gu Weiwei said with a smile on her face.

"What about you?" Fu Hanzheng sounded even colder.

"We can be in a relationship for the time being, but not marriage. The Fu Family will never want me to be their daughter-in-law, I have no background..."

Gu Weiwei was telling him the truth.

The Ji Family had become quite dominant in A Land, and Fu Hanzheng would be a very good helper if she was out there dealing with Ling Yan and her family.

But... this man was so dangerous that she could not hold onto him too tightly.

"I don't need to marry people to solidify the future of Fu's Enterprise." Fu Hanzheng snorted coldly.

"..." Gu Weiwei totally lost the words to counteract him.

Yes, he did not need a woman from a strong background to help him in the business field.

Because no one was a match against him.

Fu Hanzheng was the king of Hua Land and no one had a higher position than the Fu Family.

Also, this dominating man was never going to be coerced into doing anything at anyone's orders.

"So, don't think about those things."

"You don't have to think about those things, but I do." Gu Weiwei smiled dryly and mumbled.

Fu Hanzheng stretched out his hands to brush away the hair over her forehead and said with a low tone, "What you need to think about is how you can fall for me as quickly as possible."

He knew pretty well that she was just his girlfriend in name only.

Her heart was not with him.

"..." Gu Weiwei blinked in astonishment.

Seeing the girl's crystal clear eyes, Fu Hanzheng asked, "The other night, you even said that you could not like me..."

"Huh?"

Gu Weiwei felt her head buzzing. What on earth did she say the other night?

Could she have told him everything about the Gu Family?

"Because I am Fu Hanzheng, so you can't like me, why?" Fu Hanzheng prodded further.

He had been thinking over this question for a very long time and still could not figure out a proper reason.

"Because... because you are President Fu, and you are not suited to be with an ordinary person like me." Gu Weiwei explained dryly.

Damn, she was never going to get drunk ever again.

Fu Hanzheng raised his eyebrows. "I'm allowing you to make me yours."

As Gu Weiwei was in the middle of trying to come up with a response, her phone beeped. She read the message immediately.

Master Shiyi: [When is your flight, let's go together?]

Gu Weiwei glanced at the message and replied: [I will be torn apart by your fans if I go with you.]

Fu Shiyi's fans were so crazy, and she was pretty aware of it.

Master Shiyi: [My brother can take good care of you.]

Gu Weiwei texted on the sly when Fu Hanzheng was reading the files.

[Your brother asks me to think about how I can fall for him. Is that because you never show him any love?]

That might be why he asked her to fall for him and care about him.

Two minutes later, Master Shiyi replied.

[Are you sure my brother is asking you to learn to fall for him, not to fall on top of him?]

Chapter 155: You Can Continue

Annoyed, Gu Weiwei typed one line back

[Master Three, what if I tell your brother that he is not my type but you are, how does that sound?]

Frightened, Fu Shiyi replied instantly.

[...Please don't]

[I won't go with you, and I will stop talking about how you can fall... on top of my brother.]

If she really told his brother that, he would be killed in the worst way.

Feeling slightly relieved, Gu Weiwei put down the phone and continued reading the script.

However with Fu Hanzheng hanging around her, she found that the day dragged on and on.

Luckily, Fu's Enterprise only allowed him to be at home for a day and the next day he had no choice but to go to the company.

What troubled her was that no matter what she said, he would always come in and share her bed with her. Every single night.

As a result, she had not had a good night's sleep for days in a row and could only make up for the lack of sleep when he was at work.

Finally, the day when she was leaving the capital, for the film site, arrived.

Although she had not slept well for the entire night because of Fu Hanzheng's presence, she still got up when the alarm rang in the morning.

But Fu Hanzheng did not seem that happy.

He gripped her waist and did not allow her to get up so quickly.

"Are you so happy that you are leaving today?"

He had been quite displeased these past two days as she was leaving so soon but she seemed to be very happy that she was leaving.

Gu Weiwei withdrew her joy and said with a sunken face, "Of course not, I am not willing to leave either."

If he ever became displeased and cancelled her trip, then all would be ruined.

"Then you don't have to go." Fu Hanzheng said directly.

“...” Gu Weiwei felt her lips twitching and said patiently, “But I already signed the contract and I like this film a lot.”

She truly suspected that this man was mentally disturbed.

When he was giving work to Fu Shiqin and his men, he was not like this, but was instead strict and lethal.

However, when he was facing her, he was totally different.

Silent for a moment, Fu Hanzheng suddenly flipped Gu Weiwei so that she fell underneath him.

“Since you are going to be away for so long, how about I... get something good from my girlfriend ahead of time?”

“Aha?” Gu Weiwei’s eyebrows raised.

Fu Hanzheng lowered his head to kiss the rosy pink lips of the girl. The kiss that had been soft and small gradually went deeper as he twisted his tongue with hers.

Gu Weiwei stiffened. But thinking that she was going to be away from him for months without restriction, she did not think that this kiss mattered that much.

But as he kissed even deeper, she slightly pushed the man away from her in fear.

“Fu... oh...”

He had kissed her many times before, but he always stopped at the right moment.

But today, Fu Hanzheng did not stop even though she was pushing him away but continued to kiss her more passionately... Until Fu Shiqin called out to him several times outside the room and heard no response... and pushed open the door.

“You...”

Then he saw his brother with the girl underneath him, kissing passionately.

Startled for two seconds, he said, “You can... continue.”

Having said that, he slammed the door and dashed off.

How annoying he must seem to them. His brother shared a bed with her and of course they were not just sleeping on the bed.

He was going to be punished because he had interrupted his brother when he was in the middle of experiencing something good.

Chapter 156: The Long Wind Started

It was a moment of silent awkwardness.

Fu Hanzheng got up calmly, went back to his own room to get changed, looking very pleased.

Gu Weiwei got up and let out a helpless sigh. Then she picked up her phone that was ringing.

“Weiwei, the assistant and I are already here, don’t miss the plane, we will pick you up at the airport.”

“Okay, I will leave in half an hour.”

Gu Weiwei ended the call, freshened up and instead of dwelling further on what had just happened.

At the breakfast table, she had no words to say to Fu Hanzheng.

Due to the important meeting in the morning, Fu Hanzheng only saw her off at the underground parking lot instead of at the airport.

“Call when you arrive, or if you run into trouble.”

“I know.”

Wasn't he the most troublesome person of all?

Fu Hanzheng closed the door and did not return back inside the apartment until the car disappeared from out of the parking lot.

Without eating breakfast, he asked Fu Shiqin to go with him to work.

At the beginning, Fu Shiqin was feeling happy because when Gu Weiwei was gone, his brother would not give him so much work to do just to keep her company.

But one day passed and he found that he was wrong because when she was gone, his brother once again became the cold-blooded workaholic machine.

He not only worked overtime but also ordered his men to work overtime.

So Gu Weiwei, who had just arrived at the film site, received a call from Fu Shiqin who called her and begged her to return home.

When she was here, his brother might give him tons of work every now and then, but at least he was not this lethal when he made a tiny mistake.

Hearing his babbling for a long time, Gu Weiwei ruthlessly turned his request down.

“Second Master, I have my own matters to deal with, good luck to you.”

According to what he said, his brother was like the King of Hell.

Actually, she was also surprised that Fu Hanzheng, who had been so distant to everyone around... could be so exceptionally kind to her.

She had just hung up when Jolin and a young girl arrived in front of her to pick her up from the airport.

“Weiwei, from today on, you will have an assistant called Xu Yin.”

“Hello, Sister Wei.” The girl bowed to her politely.

“Just call me Weiwei.” Gu Weiwei corrected her.

Although the assistants tended to call their bosses Sister something, she herself could not stand it when a girl who was older than her called her Sister.

“Okay, Weiwei.” Xu Yin said with a smile.

“Alright, move the luggage into the car.” Jolin urged with his sunglasses on.

Xu Yin failed to move the luggage.

Gu Weiwei threw a look at Jolin who said.

“Don’t look at me, I am not out here to do laborious work.”

Gu Weiwei had no choice but to move the luggage herself when he would do nothing about it..

The three of them had just got into the car and were ready to go to the film site when hundreds of fan girls screamed and blocked their way.

Seeing the boards and the posters those girls were holding, Gu Weiwei saw that it was covered with Fu Shiyi’s name and photos.

“So Third Master is arriving here today too?”

“Yes, he is doing a commercial somewhere else and will fly here directly afterwards.” Jolin was not surprised by this scene, so he waited patiently for the fans to leave.

Sure enough, not long after, Fu Shiyi’s car left and the parking lot suddenly fell into silence.

Chapter 157: Wrong about Face?

Since they were just new-comers, Gu Weiwei and the other two went to the hotel arranged by the film crew.

Xu Yin and Gu Weiwei were unpacking whilst Jolin was telling them about the schedule.

“There is a dinner tonight for the crew, so we can get to know the major crew members.”

“There is an opening ceremony at nine tomorrow morning before the filming finally starts.”

“I will stay here for a little longer than twenty days and then I will leave to go home when the promotion starts.”

....

Gu Weiwei listened as she responded to him every now and then.

She didn’t know until recently that Jolin, who looked very unreliable, was actually one of the top agents of Shiyi Culture who worked only for two or three top artists.

He looked quite weak, but he was actually very capable.

“Most importantly, Third Master is also part of the crew, but you better not go up to him or walk with him.”

Assistant Xu was a bit confused. “Why?”

Third Master was an artist from Shiyi Culture and they were in the same crew, what was wrong with them taking care of each other.

Gu Weiwei nodded. "I get it, I will be careful."

"Also, most of the supporting roles are experienced and prestigious actors, so you better not offend any of them. It would be best if you can leave a good impression on those senior actors, this can be a good chance for you." Jolin stressed seriously.

Those senior actors were all prestigious stars in the film industry who had had a very high reputation when they were younger, in turn this meant that they had a very wide network.

She had just entered the industry and it was going to be quite difficult for her, if she could leave a good impression on them – they could probably recommend her to other directors.

"Okay." Gu Weiwei was becoming more and more satisfied with this agent.

Jolin nodded in satisfaction. "Then rest for now, I can pick you up for dinner later."

Gu Weiwei saw him off and continued to unpack on her own.

Assistant Xu was helping as she was asking, "Weiwei, why does Jolin stop you from getting close to Third Master?"

Almost all the female stars tried to become the rumored girlfriend of Third Master, but he even stopped her from getting close to him.

Gu Weiwei smiled and explained.

"Third Master has so many rumored girlfriends and they are fighting against each other all the time. Also, I only became popular online because of Master Three, so it is not going to look good if I continue to stay close to him."

If the rumors kept circulating, she would lose popularity. After all, she had just entered the industry.

Xu nodded as if she understood something, as she asked hesitantly.

"But... can I get an autograph from Third Master?"

"Of course."

The two had just finished unpacking when Jolin came knocking at the door and reminded her to put on some makeup for dinner.

She had thought that it was a simple dinner and did not realize how luxurious the dinner was until they came to the banquet hall.

They had just sat down when Fu Shiyi, dressed in a patterned suit, came in.

He came to Gu Weiwei's side and sat down next to her as he glanced at the food on the table.

"Damn, Director Yi is known for being a stingy man, but now, he is spending so much money on the food."

Jolin frowned as he saw the man next to Gu Weiwei. "Third Master can you move over?"

"What is wrong with me sitting here? We are all friends." Fu Shiyi removed his sunglasses.

“Do you want to make Mu Weiwei your rumored girlfriend too? You are not of the same kind, don’t ruin her future!” Jolin said.

“How come we are not of the same kind?” Fu Shiyi glared at Jolin.

“My artist is different from you. She became popular because of her ability, not her face.” Jolin warned seriously.

Fu Shiyi crossed his legs and said straightforwardly, “Getting popular because of your face is also an ability! Do you know how much hard work I do just to be this handsome?”

Chapter 158: Improper Video

Gu Weiwei. “...”

Jolin stood up speechlessly, “Weiwei, exchange seats with me.”

At the beginning, he had not intended to truly bring this artist up, because he knew that he had signed her for some other reason and he did not care much about it.

But now, he truly planned to make her into a star and he was not going to allow this womanizer to do her any harm.

Gu Weiwei obeyed his words and exchanged her seat with Jolin.

Fu Shiyi glanced at Jolin disdainfully.

“Stay away from me, I don’t want anyone to think that we are in some kind of relationship.”

“I will never be in a relationship with you, even if you are the last man in the world.” Jolin sounded even more disdainful.

Helpless, Gu Weiwei held her forehead and wondered if it was really proper for them to talk about such a topic in public.

Fu Shiyi got up and was ready to sit next to Gu Weiwei again when Jolin stopped him.

“Jolin, if you ever dare to stop me again, I will fire you!”

“If you badger my artist again, I will publicize those terrible videos of you!” Jolin gritted his teeth.

Xu was Fu Shiyi’s fan and she could only look on at them in disbelief after hearing what Jolin said.

“Terrible videos?”

Could they have been in a relationship before, was it for real?

Not only did Xu think so, even Gu Weiwei looked at them with curiosity.

“What are you two staring at? Those are just pictures of me being dressed in a skirt after losing a bet.” Fu Shiyi explained instantly when he found that the two girls were suspecting the two of them previously being in a relationship.

He was a totally straight man who only liked big-breasted and long-legged women, not men!

Gu Weiwei sized up Fu Shiyi and had an idea of the strange images she could create of Fu Shiyi in a skirt.

But Fu Shiyi had always been considered to be a very good-looking, womanizing, man... and if such a picture or video appeared in public, he would lose his image.

Seeing Fu Shiyi withdrawing, Jolin instantly warned him, "We are here for work, don't pester my artist. Or I will publicize the videos of you in dresses! Be warned!"

"You... she got in because of me, okay!" Fu Shiyi got annoyed.

He was just coming over to flatter his future sister-in-law, what was this agent doing here?!

"Yes she did but now, she is my artist." Jolin warned very seriously, not looking like how he normally did.

"You will not have her if I didn't support her before!" Fu Shiyi was not convinced.

Jolin looked around as he gripped hold of this unreasonable man.

"Please, Third Master, don't mess around here. You have the Fu Family backing you up no matter how many mistakes you make here. But Mu Weiwei is different from you. She has to be discreet at every step, so please, leave us alone."

It seemed that he was not worried about his artist experiencing rumors, but was worried about this womanizer annoying his artist.

"I... she..." Fu Shiyi pointed at himself and then at Gu Weiwei.

Of course they were different. She had his brother behind her back, and he did not!

Sitting next to them, Gu Weiwei looked at the two of them countering each other.

"We are indeed different."

"..." Fu Shiyi had no words to counter this time.

Seeing Fu Shiyi lost for words, Jolin let out a sigh of relief.

"I have the videos here, so don't start a rumor of being a couple with her!"

"Me, a rumored couple with her?!" Fu Shiyi was so annoyed that he almost burst into tears.

She was his brother's woman! He would never dare to start circulating rumors of being with her!

He would be flayed alive if he ever started such a rumor with her.

Chapter 159: Prevention

Due to Jolin's prevention, Fu Shiyi failed to exchange a single word with Gu Weiwei.

So he brought out his cell phone and texted her.

[Sister-in-law, I lack money so please loan me money.]

Gu Weiwei glanced at the man who was blinking at her.

Instead of answering him out loud in front of Jolin, she replied on the phone.

[Sorry, I am poor too.]

What was wrong with him? How could he want money from her, when he could get a commercial endorsement for tens of millions of yuan?

[My brother has money, please ask him to loan me 500 million yuan.] Fu Shiyi was asking a great deal from his brother.

Recently, he settled a contract with someone else regarding an international collaboration project and needed an investment.

But he had just compensated a great deal of money to the film with Hollywood because he had taken on Long Wind instead. Therefore, he had very little money left now.

Gu Weiwei squinted at him speechless – he could loan money from his own brother, why is he asking her to do that?

[You can turn to him yourself. He is your brother]

Fu Shiyi looked at Gu Weiwei with a wronged look and replied.

[I did, but he turned me down]

In the eyes of the inhuman brother, only she was close enough to him, whilst he and Fu Shiqin were both outsiders.

Gu Weiwei replied impatiently [Then there is nothing I can do].

Seeing that he could not persuade her, Fu Shiyi suddenly said, “Mu Weiwei, please look at my eyes.”

Gu Weiwei looked up at the attractive pair of eyes.

Then that guy squeezed out two drops of tears and his lips twitched.

One minute later, Fu Shiyi sent another text.

[There is! You can call my brother and say that you need 500 million yuan for shopping, then you can loan it to me after he gives it to you.]

Having read the text, Gu Weiwei switched off her phone in front of his face.

“You...”

Fu Shiyi was about to speak to her when Jolin glared back at him, making him swallow down whatever he was about to say.

He was just thinking about how he could flatter her so that she would ask for money from his brother for his sake, when Yi An and the executive director arrived.

Together with them came Li Xing'er and Wei Ziting who drove her here, as well as President Cheng who was part of the delegation of investors for Tiansheng Enterprise.

The executive director took a seat and glanced at the luxurious dishes on the table. "We have so much delicious food because of President Wei."

"No, no, Xing'er is in a movie for the first time and she is not very experienced, she has a lot to learn from Director Yi and Director Lee." Wei Ziting said with a smile.

"Oh, so it is President Wei who treats us to dinner tonight? No wonder every dish stinks." Fu Shiyi snorted, when he failed to flatter his sister-in-law.

Every dish stinks?

The executive director glanced at the man who was speaking and thought that the Fu Family stinked the most of all in the whole of Hua Land!

What did it mean when this boy from the richest Fu Family said that the food stinks?

Wei Ziting's smile stiffened. He remembered that there should have been a very important project between the Wei Family and Fu's Enterprise happening these days.

Everything had gone smoothly when the Fu Family suddenly changed their mind and signed the contract with their opponent instead.

President Cheng of Tiansheng smiled and said, "We are all common businessmen, not as prestigious as the Fu Family. It is such an honor that you can be the lead male role for this movie."

Everyone in Hua Land wished to establish a close relationship with the Fu Family in some way, but Fu Hanzheng always maintained a cold face.

And they were not qualified enough to have a meeting with him either, so they had to establish a friendship with Third Master instead, enhancing their opportunities of meeting the big man.

However, Fu Shiyi totally ignored them. He was busy thinking about how he could make Gu Weiwei call his brother and ask him for the money he needed.

Chapter 160: Sister-in-law's Hands!

Although it was a dinner for the film crew, yet Wei Ziting hired the best catering team in the Imperial Banquet for everyone.

For one thing, he wanted to show off his ability, so that the directors could treat his girlfriend Li Xing'er well.

Secondly, he would very much like to pry directly from Fu Shiyi's mouth what had made Fu's Enterprise change their mind regarding the collaboration, because they just could not figure out what they had done to offend Fu's Enterprise, so that they signed the contract with their opponent without giving them a reason.

Executive director and President Cheng made a toast and Wei Ziting said in a casual tone, "Third Master, we had a collaboration with Fu's Enterprise, but Fu's Enterprise suddenly changed their mind and signed it with Hongyuan instead, I was wondering what was the reason...?"

Fu Shiyi was just gnawing on some chicken drumsticks when he replied, "Because... my brother was very displeased, so he signed it with Hongyuan instead."

You were Mu Weiwei's fiancé and because you ran into her she tried to get drunk and break up with his brother!

When his sister-in-law was not happy, his brother would not be happy either. When his brother was not happy, he would of course not allow them to be happy either.

"...Displeased?" Wei Ziting frowned and said in an amused tone, "President Fu can't be such an impulsive man."

"Well, his girlfriend tried to break up with him that day, so he was displeased and decided not to sign with you guys." Fu Shiyi said and squinted at Gu Weiwei.

Gu Weiwei almost choked when she heard him – why was she involved?

"His girlfriend wanted to break up with him?" Wei Ziting was startled and said with a smile, "That woman is so... dumb to break up with President Fu."

"True." Fu Shiyi nodded. "My brother proposed but she still turned him down. So dumb!"

Gu Weiwei's lips twitched. She had thought that without Fu Hanzheng around her, she could at least have a relaxing time here with the film crew.

But Fu Shiyi was around her and he was the most loyal servant of Fu Hanzheng.

Hearing these words, Li Xing'er asked curiously.

"Who is the lady then?"

Every girl in Hua Land dreamt about marrying Fu Hanzheng who was from the highest noble family, but none of them ever got to see Fu Hanzheng.

And now there was a woman who even wanted to break up with Fu Hanzheng!

Gu Weiwei glared at him and warned him with her eyes that if he ever continued, she would kill him.

Fu Shiyi smiled mysteriously. "That is a secret."

President Dong of Tiansheng had some drinks and kept glancing at Gu Weiwei. Seeing that Xu was gone, he moved seats and sat down next to Gu Weiwei.

"Miss. Mu, it is so promising that you can star in Director Yi's movie at such a young age." He said as he took out a business card and gave it to her.

"If Tiansheng is going to invest in some more movies, Miss. Mu is very welcome to be part of it."

Of course, she would have to pay something back to them to be in their movie.

“No thanks.” Gu Weiwei said and turned him down.

Seeing that she was not accepting the card, President Cheng was about to grip her hand and stuff it into her hand.

Seeing the scene, Jolin stood in front of Gu Weiwei and took it from her.

“President Cheng, thanks for your kindness, if the script is good, Weiwei will surely try the audition.”

Fu Shiyi was so furious that he almost broke his chopsticks. This damned old fool dared to touch his sister-in-law’s hands, when no one else, including himself did not dare to do that at all!
