

MY HIDDEN 181

Chapter 181: Mu Weiwei, My Idol

Gu Weiwei looked at the film site, which was far off in the distance, and looked down at the girl.

“Let’s go back now.”

Flushing bright red, the girl nodded obediently.

Gu Weiwei rode back to the film site with and maintained an expert control over the speed of the horse.

When Ji Cheng and Fu Shiyi’s fans saw them coming towards them, they all burst out into excited screams, after witnessing the whole scene.

Then when they saw Gu Weiwei, who was dressed in the male costume, coming back with Meng Xiaofei on the horse back, Fu Shiyi’s fans became even more excited than Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian.

They brought out their phones and cameras and kept taking pictures and videos of them.

“Oh my gosh, she is so cool!”

“Ahhhhh, it is even more exciting than watching a film! Tang Shaoqi is just so cool!”

“Xiaofei is so happy because she was saved by such a cool Master from the Tang Family!”

“I also want to ride with the Master of the Tang Family!”

Gu Weiwei pulled the reins, dismounted off the horse and helped Meng Xiaofei down.

“Don’t do such a dangerous thing again.”

“Thanks, I get it.”

Meng Xiaofei looked at her and started to flush a vivid red!

“Master Tang, you are so cool!”

“Oh what a wonderful scene! Master of the Tang Family, the sinister person, has traveled into the modern times to save a modern girl!”

“That was so cool of her to have saved the girl!”

....

The fans surrounded her and kept taking pictures of her.

Fu Shiyi had finished his makeup and found that no fans were coming over to him, when he came out of the makeup room.

He looked around and saw that all of them were around Mu Weiwei, instead of coming over to see him.

“My gosh, what is it going on? They must be fake fans, right?”

No one was paying attention to him!

The crew member heard what he said, and replied with a smile, “Third Master, one of your fans was taking pictures on the horse’s back and the horse became startled. It almost caused an accident, but Mu Weiwei reacted quickly and saved the girl!”

Visiting the film site was an arrangement that was overseen by the crew, and if something really happened, the crew would have to take responsibility.

That was why they were all shocked and grateful that the girl was saved.

Surrounded by a group of girls, Gu Weiwei did not get rid of them until the assistant asked her to go inside the makeup room so they could start the filming.

Fu Shiyi looked at his fans who had ignored him and snorted at her as she approached.

“Can you not steal my fans?”

“I am not stealing your fans!” Gu Weiwei rolled her eyes at him.

“Look at what you have done!” Fu Shiyi pointed at the fans in the distance and said, “They are all saying that they want to marry you! Isn’t this not stealing?”

Gu Weiwei was speechless.

Meng Xiaofei saw Gu Weiwei off unwillingly and went up to Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian.

“You know Mu Weiwei right?”

“Where does she go to school?”

“Where does she live?”

“What is her horoscope and what is her blood type?”

....

Ji Cheng was a bit confused.

Who are you meant to be following anyways?

The fans spoke up. “Xiaofei, you are turning against the Third Master!”

“Only the Master of the Tang Family is my idol now!” Meng Xiaofei looked in Gu Weiwei’s direction with an affectionate gaze.

Her heart had swayed in her direction, the moment she had saved her on horseback.

“Hey, aren’t you only a fan of male stars and not female stars?” Her friends asked in astonishment.

With her eyes upon Gu Weiwei, who had just mounted the horse and gotten ready for the filming, Meng Xiaofei felt her heart throbbing.

“My past idols are just bygones, only she is my real idol now.”

Chapter 182: On the Hot Search

On the very same night, Li Xing'er and her agent were reading the Weibo posts.

They were waiting for the news they had just bought to be published. It would be about how Li Xing'er, the female lead role of the Long Wind, still worked despite being sick but unfortunately passed out in the process.

However, before Li Xing'er's news was out, they found that Mu Weiwei's name topped the hot search.

[Mu Weiwei, the Master of the Tang Family] tag had topped the hot search No.4.

They clicked on the tag and found that none of the visiting media mentioned how Li Xing'er worked whilst being sick.

Instead, all of the latest news was about how Tang Shaoqi, of the Long Wind, risked her life to save a fan in danger.

Alongside the constant words of praise, there was a video attached too.

In the video, Mu Weiwei, who was dressed in the black male costume, dashed forward and saved the frightened fan on horseback, successfully.

Apart from the reports of the visiting media, Fu Shiyi's fans were actively promoting and praising the rescue incident.

Some even attached music to the video.

In the video there was a handsome looking guy in costume, who swiftly mounted the horse and brought a modern girl out of danger.

This was a scene full of a time travelling fantasy and it was reposted by numerous people, which helped her gain a great deal of popularity.

Yet, the news she bought, did not cause a single sensation on Weibo at all.

Li Xing'er read through everything and asked her agent.

“What is going on? Why is she in the news?”

Even if she, as the female lead role, was not in the news... the Third Master, as the leading male role, should be on the cover story, instead of Mu Weiwei the supporting role.

The agent said, “Let me make a call and ask.”

Normally speaking, the crew should focus on promoting the two leading roles, but the supporting role was now in the news instead of the two leading roles.

“I told you to keep an eye out for Mu Weiwei so that she would not stand out. What did you do?” Li Xing'er asked angrily.

"I stayed at the hospital the whole time and worked on the news release with the company the entire afternoon, of course I had no time for the crew!" The agent felt wronged.

If she had not pretended to pass out and come to the hospital because of failed takes, the crew would have done the work on the external scenes, and Mu Weiwei's rescue would have never happened.

After all, it was she herself who had helped Mu Weiwei reach the top of the hot search list.

Yet now, she was blaming her agent for being useless.

"Forget it, we can let her be for the time being." Li Xing'er waved her hands and gritted her teeth.

It was no use asking the crew what had happened when the topic had become so popular.

Seeing her unconvinced facial expression, the agent suggested,

"Didn't you say that you have some negative news about her? What about spilling it to the media?"

She knew what had happened between the Li Family and the Mu Family, and how much she hated Mu Weiwei.

Since Mu Weiwei was doing so well with more than just a pretty face and being signed to Shiyi Culture, she was going to become really popular when the movie was released.

If they did not do anything, Li Xing'er would be put into the shadows.

"That is an important piece of news that should be used at a critical moment. Now, we can't do anything about her." Li Xing'er's kind and gentle face suddenly turned sinister.

The Long Wind was her first movie and she must not release the rumors of Mu Weiwei sleeping with Wang Weidong, just because she did not like her.

This is because the rumor would affect the box office and the evaluation of the Gold Phoenix Award; this would be such a great loss to herself.

Chapter 183: Fu Hanzheng Visits

Li Xing'er and her agent were so angry that they failed to go to sleep for the entire night. Elsewhere, Jolin who was far away in the capital, was so excited that he failed to sleep the entire night.

As dawn broke, he called Gu Weiwei.

"Great job! The news of you saving the girl, has reached the hot search top 2!"

Startled for two seconds, Gu Weiwei finally realized what he was talking about.

"Oh... that was just an accident, really."

Originally, she had planned to slap Li Xing'er across the face so that she wouldn't dare to create mean comments about her, but unexpectedly, she had failed and Li Xing'er went to the hospital instead.

As a result, the crew moved to the external site to shoot the film, which was where she ran into Fu Shiyi's fans and the accident happened; she just took the opportunity to save her.

“This is a very positive promotion for you. You have almost gained one million fans on Weibo overnight.” Jolin just could not help feeling glad.

Compared to Li Xing'er's low-level manufactured stories, where she made mistakes and asked for compassion, Weiwei's story of saving people was even more worthy of promotion.

Especially when she managed to save Third Master's fan, and receive positive comments from Third Master's group of fans, so that now she had obtained many of his fans too.

Gu Weiwei smiled calmly, “Thanks for your efforts.”

She had been focused on saving the girl at that time, but now she had a big piece of news instead.

“Oh yeah, it is your birthday today, but I can't make it. Do celebrate with the crew.”

“Okay.” Gu Weiwei checked the time and hung up.

Then she washed and went to eat breakfast, did her makeup and got ready for the shoot.

Since Li Xing'er was still at the hospital and yet to return, she was once again arranged to do the filming with Fu Shiyi.

It was not until the afternoon when Li Xing'er finally came back to the site; she brought everyone coffee and hot drinks.

Also, she apologized to the directors and the cameramen, admitting that she had slowed them down.

After three more failed takes, Li Xing'er finally finished the bloodbath scene in the Xuanyuan Clan with them.

Director checked the time and said through the loudspeaker.

“It is Tang Shaoqi's birthday so we will not do the night filming. Let's go and celebrate at the restaurant we have booked.”

The crew cheered happily when they heard that they could skip the night shift and participate in the gathering.

Li Xing'er was displeased, but she still showed a false smile and said to Gu Weiwei and the director, “Weiwei, Director Yi, I am not feeling that well, so I can't attend the celebration tonight. I want to rest at the hotel now, in case I slow you guys down again.”

She had been annoyed because of Mu Weiwei the night before and had failed to get any sleep, and now she was not in the mood to celebrate with Mu Weiwei!

Director Yi did not force her either but stressed.

“Then go back and take a rest, contact Director Lee in case of anything.”

Gu Weiwei did not say anything more, and she called Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian who insisted on remaining for her birthday, after Xing'er left.

Without Li Xing'er around, the crew members, together with Gu Weiwei whom they liked, had a very happy birthday.

Yi An paid for the meal and Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian made the birthday cake, whilst the makeup group and martial arts group prepared special birthday presents for her.

Fu Shiyi gave her a huge red packet on Wechat and they did not return to the hotel until almost eleven o'clock at night.

They were waiting for the elevator when someone called out to Fu Shiyi in the lobby.

"Third Master!"

Fu Shiyi and the group followed the sound and saw a cold-looking and handsome man, walking into the lobby, brightening up the entire hotel instantly.

This was... Fu Hanzheng?

Chapter 184: Fu Hanzheng's Birthday Song

Although everyone in the crew knew that Fu Shiyi's brother was President Fu Hanzheng of Fu's Enterprise, not one of them believed that Fu Hanzheng would suddenly appear at such a lousy three-star hotel, in a filming city.

It was not until Fu Hanzheng drew closer to them, when everyone finally came back to themselves.

Yi An smiled and greeted Fu Hanzheng.

"President Fu, you are a busy man but still manage to spare time for Third Master?"

Fu Shiyi looked helpless. He was not visiting him! He was here for his girlfriend.

He had been alive for too long to understand that even if he was hospitalized, his brother would never visit him, let alone when he was filming!

He was here for his girlfriend's birthday, and he was here to go for a date!

"Yes." Fu Hanzheng glanced at Gu Weiwei among the crowd and answered calmly.

Seeing Fu Hanzheng standing right in front of him, the executive director asked passionately, "Have you eaten dinner President Fu? Do you want something from our hotel?"

They must flatter a wealthy man like him, because if they managed to do so, they would never have to worry about investments in the future.

"No thanks, President Fu and Third Master need to discuss something important." Xu Qian turned down Director Lee politely.

Seeing Fu Hanzheng's cold and distant face, the executive director found it a bit pitiful that he had to let him go, but he could still do something to gain merit.

"Then President Fu, take this elevator and we will take the next one."

Having agreed with him, Fu Hanzheng entered the elevator.

Fu Shiyi followed up behind him and glanced at Gu Weiwei who was still standing outside the elevator.

“Mu Weiwei, are you coming or not?”

Under the sight of everyone else, Gu Weiwei forced herself into the elevator.

After they had walked out of the elevator, the three men went to her room.

Xu Qian cleared the small desk and put the birthday cake onto the table. He placed the candle in the cake and turned off the light after lighting it.

“Sing a song alright? You are not here just to let her blow out the candle, are you?” Fu Shiyi smiled sinisterly.

He had never seen his brother singing before and he was very curious as to what it was like.

“Third Master, let’s leave them alone.” Xu Qian reminded Fu Shiyi with a smile.

“Why? We must celebrate her birthday together.” Fu Shiyi did not want to leave.

Xu Qian pulled him out. He was going to be a third wheel if he continued to stay here.

The candles on the cake were lit and the room was full of warm light.

Fu Hanzheng unfolded the paper birthday paper hat and placed it over her head.

Then he picked up the small cake and smiled.

“Happy Birthday to You, Happy Birthday to You...”

The man’s low and attractive voice echoed through the room as he sang the birthday song.

“...”

Gu Weiwei stared at the man who was singing and found that he looked extremely gentle and attractive.

Her heart was fluttering.

“Happy birthday, Weiwei.” Fu Hanzheng said with a low voice.

Gu Weiwei felt like crying. Fu Hanzheng, could you please make me hate you, so that I can defend against my own heart?

Fu Hanzheng waited for a while and reminded her with a low voice, “The candles are almost out.”

Gu Weiwei quickly blew out the candles before they went out themselves.

She was about to say thank you to him, when the man’s red lips met hers, caressing her lips.

Then he pampered her senses with his low voice and said, with his lips against hers, “Open your mouth.”

Damn!

She knew that he wasn’t here to actually celebrate her birthday with her.

He was turned on and wanted to sleep with her!

Chapter 185: Marrying First

In the darkness, the couple were entangled with each other.

Gu Weiwei clenched her teeth. She had been slightly moved by Fu Hanzheng coming all the way to the hotel to celebrate her birthday, but his kiss had made that emotion disappear.

Instead of waiting for her to cooperate, Fu Hanzheng groped under her T-shirt, making her gasp.

His kiss was dominating and passionate and she could do nothing but be at his mercy.

She held one of his hands that was over her waist tightly, in case he felt somewhere lower down on her body.

But that man's gentle tongue and lips were just like refined liquor, making her drunk completely.

After a long time, Fu Hanzheng finally released her lips and swept her into his arms, kissing her forehead and hair.

For over one month, what they had been doing was a brief call every night, but in this moment, he could finally hold her in his arms and he had no intention of releasing her again.

Buried in his arms, Gu Weiwei said, after being held by him for a long time, "Thank you for coming here for my birthday."

Although it was not her real birthday, he came straight over, after work, and he had been in a hurry for over four, five, hours just to wish her a happy birthday before midnight.

It would be untrue if she said she wasn't moved.

"You are not at home, so I must come here."

Fu Hanzheng released her, turned on the light in the room and gave her a very exquisitely wrapped gift.

Gu Weiwei took the gift and asked guiltily, "Have you eaten anything, should I buy you something to eat?"

"I ate on the plane."

Having spoken, Fu Hanzheng removed his suit, put it over the back of the chair and went straight into the bathroom.

A long time later, he came out with a towel around his waist.

His strong-looking muscles were glistening under the water droplets, showing his sexy pecs and muscular lines. She found he was too attractive to look at.

Gu Weiwei took a look at the wall and gave him the bathrobe in embarrassment.

"I don't have any clothes of your size, only this. Maybe I can go to Third Master and borrow his clothes for you?"

"I don't want to wear his clothes." Fu Hanzheng took the robe and put it on, and then answered a call when the phone rang.

During this interval, Gu Weiwei washed herself and got changed into pajamas.

When she came out of the bathroom, he was already resting in bed with his eyes closed.

She tiptoed over and snuck under the blanket, before laying in bed with her back facing him.

The moment she laid down, the low voice of the man rose from behind her.

"Come here."

Gu Weiwei sighed and rolled herself over into his arms.

"How long will you be staying here?"

"Five hours." Fu Hanzheng answered with squinted eyes.

Gu Weiwei nodded, feeling a bit guilty.

He was a busy man, but he still spent ten hours travelling back and forth just for her birthday. It was not an easy thing to do.

She suddenly thought of what Fu Shiyi did not finish last time, so she asked, "You said that when we meet, you will tell me why you like me. Can you tell me now?"

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a moment. "There is no reason for how I feel."

"No way." Gu Weiwei did not believe his words. She did not think that any emotion arose because of nothing.

"Why do you want to know about it so badly?" Fu Hanzheng opened his eyes and looked at this curious girl and said straightforwardly, "You want to know why I like you, so you can think of a countermeasure to break up with me?"

"I..."

Gu Weiwei had no words to counter him. That was, after all, exactly what she was thinking.

"If you dare to mention breaking up again..."

Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows. "Then what?"

"Then we will get married and have children first."

Chapter 186: Interested

"..."

Gu Weiwei laughed dryly. He always wanted to get married and have children.

"I am just... curious."

"Only curious?" Fu Hanzheng showed a vague smile.

Gu Weiwei nodded constantly. "I am really curious. I never thought about breaking up with you."

As long as she was still at the Hua Land, she would be under his control and she was never able to break up with him.

"What are you curious about?" Fu Hanzheng asked.

Gu Weiwei rolled herself over and faced him on her side.

"I just don't think that people would suddenly experience emotions for no reason. A person likes another either for their money or their body."

"But you are much wealthier than me, so it should not be for my money. But as for my body... you are sharing the same bed with me but you are not showing any sexual interest in me. So, of course I have all the reason to ask, why do you like me?"

Fu Hanzheng listened to her speech curiously and laughed meaningfully.

"So you are displeased that I am not offering you any sexual pleasure?"

"No, no!"

Gu Weiwei denied it totally. He was distorting the key points.

"Then how do you know that I am not sexually interested in you?" He asked as he gripped hold of her hands and placed it over his manhood.

Gu Weiwei gasped. Her eyes opened wide.

She could still feel the stiffness and heat even through the robe.

Fu Hanzheng lowered his head and whispered by her ears with a low and sexy voice that was a little hoarse, "So now... you know how sexually interested I am in you, right?"

Gu Weiwei was so embarrassed and she wanted to withdraw her hands, but her wrists were in his hands and they remained over that stiffened place, unable to move.

"...Leave me alone!"

Why did she want to start a topic like this with him? It was a risky thing to do!

Fu Hanzheng kissed the tip of her nose and then placed his lips over hers as he moved her hand into his robe.

"You caused it and so you must answer for it."

Gu Weiwei was forced to feel the man's organ, so she turned away to avoid his kiss and said, between gasps, "No, no, Fu Hanzheng..."

Fu Hanzheng could feel that she was so scared and afraid that she had curled up into a ball. He asked in a low voice, with his lips against hers, "Then how should I solve this problem?"

"...You can do it yourself." Gu Weiwei was so regretful that she almost burst into tears as she felt her hand still on his body.

"I don't know how, you do it." Fu Hanzheng kissed her tender neck and said with a hoarse voice.

"..."

She didn't know how to either!

Fu Hanzheng ignored her rejection, and forcefully guided her through every step until all his desire was vented.

....

When he was done, Gu Weiwei felt that her hands had become so tired that they almost felt broken.

Fu Hanzheng wiped her hands and kissed her cheeks in satisfaction.

Gu Weiwei turned away and placed her back to him. Actually, if Fu Hanzheng really wanted to do something further to her, she would not be able to reject him.

But he had never done anything to her; although she was forced to become his girlfriend, he did not do anything to make her upset when they were in the relationship.

After filming in the daytime and the celebration party at night, she gradually fell asleep despite the fact that he was still beside her.

At five in the morning, before dawn broke, Fu Hanzheng woke up, put on his robe and tied the belt. He took a shower in the bathroom, got changed and left to catch the early plane back to the capital.

After he had tidied himself up, he kissed the girl who was still asleep.

"I am leaving now."

"...Okay."

Gu Weiwei, who was woken up by the kiss, answered faintly and fell asleep again.

Chapter 187: Emptied

At seven o'clock in the morning.

Gu Weiwei was woken up by the alarm clock and realized that Fu Hanzheng was long gone.

She washed herself and saw the remaining cake and present box, when she was combing her hair, so she opened the box and took a look inside.

It was a pair of diamond earrings that looked exquisitely beautiful, it was obviously designed by a famous designer.

She grew up in the Gu Family which was extremely wealthy, so she had developed the ability of recognizing the value of luxurious goods.

She put down the present, ate part of the cake and put the remaining leftovers in the fridge of the room.

After all, she should not toss it away when it had been brought here from so far away in the capital.

She removed all traces of Fu Hanzheng before she left, and was about to leave when she saw the towel on the bed.

She felt her forehead and sighed; she took the towel into the bathroom to wash it up in case the cleaning lady noticed that a man had been here.

She went downstairs for breakfast before hurrying into the makeup room, where Fu Shiyi was already seated.

The stylist put on the foundation for her and smiled as she saw her extremely tender and rosy lips.

“Weiwei, what happened to your lips, they look so swollen?”

Embarrassed, Gu Weiwei let out a dry laugh.

“I ate too much spicy food last night.”

Fu Shiyi squinted at her and then his shoulders shook with the effort of trying to suppress his laughter that was on the verge of bursting out.

Apparently, his brother had made them swollen by kissing her intensely. However, they had made such little noise that he and Xu Qian heard nothing when they were standing outside.

When they were done with the makeup, they headed to the site together.

However, Gu Weiwei, who normally passed in one take, failed three takes today unexpectedly.

Yi An was a bit irritated and criticized her through the loudspeaker without hesitation.

“Tang Shaoqi, did you eat breakfast or not? Why are you so feeble when waving the sword? Where is your strength?”

Gu Weiwei felt helpless. It was that man’s fault!

Her hands were still quite tired at the moment so she could not put any strength into the movement.

Fu Shiyi said with a meaningful tone, as he played with his sword, “You should have been aware that we are supposed to film the martial arts scenes today, before you guys went and did endless exercise last night. Look at you, you are lifeless...”

His brother had been starving for over a month and she was lucky that she was able to get out of the bed.

“Damn you! Can you stop thinking about such filthy things?” Gu Weiwei countered.

“Don’t tell me that you only ate the birthday cake throughout the entire night?” Fu Shiyi snorted.

Gu Weiwei ignored him, took a small break and remade the failed takes. Finally, it was done.

After her, it was Fu Shiyi’s turn. It was a very important scene with a serious feel to it and took place after the Xuanyuan Group experienced the bloodbath.

However, he had just gathered his emotions when he heard Gu Weiwei’s assistant calling out to her, “Weiwei, Baby Zheng is calling.”

Fu Shiyi suddenly burst into laughter and slumped down onto the floor, laughing until he was unable to get up.

The crew members were all confused, unable to understand what he was laughing at.

Gu Weiwei glanced at him speechlessly, and answered the phone when she was far away.

It was kind of noisy on the other side of the phone. He must be at the airport.

“You are at the capital now?”

“Yes, I just got off the plane.” Fu Hanzheng replied.

“The present is pretty, thanks.”

Fu Hanzheng could not sense her happiness, so he asked, “In a bad mood?”

“What do you think?” Gu Weiwei massaged her tired hand.

Fu Hanzheng chuckled. “Because of what happened last night?”

Gu Weiwei ended the call immediately. She had no intention of talking to him any more.

Chapter 188: Li Xing'er's Mischief

It was morning when Li Xing'er heard that Fu Hanzheng, the President of Fu's Enterprise, came to visit the crew the night before.

She regretted it greatly. She turned down the dinner because she had no intention of celebrating Mu Weiwei's. But unexpectedly, she missed the opportunity to meet Fu Hanzheng.

So when Fu Shiyi was taking a break, she came over with a drink.

“Third Masterq, I heard that President Fu was here last night?”

“Yes, he was, why?” Fu Shiyi smiled casually.

“Is he still here?” Li Xing'er smiled gently and said, “The Wei Family had a collaboration with Fu's Enterprise last time, my boyfriend has always wanted to meet President Fu.”

She simply could not say that it was she who wanted to meet Fu Hanzheng, so she had to use Wei Ziting as a shield.

“My brother is too busy to meet everyone.” Fu Shiyi said nonchalantly as he kept his eyes on his phone.

But if it wasn't his girlfriend's birthday, he would not have shown up here.

Li Xing'er smiled embarrassedly, losing any courage to ask further.

After she came to the crew, she had tried her best to establish a good relationship with Fu Shiyi but this playful master never took her efforts seriously and went to Mu Weiwei instead. But Mu Weiwei had done nothing for him at all.

“Third Master, actually... Mu Weiwei and I are almost sisters. My mother and her father got married.”

“So?” Fu Shiyi nodded without interest.

“After Weiwei’s mother passed away, she left home and spent time with elderly men.” Li Xing’er sighed out of concern as she saw Gu Weiwei who was answering the phone far away.

“Okay.” Fu Shiyi nodded.

For Mu Weiwei who was 19 years old, his brother was indeed considered an older man.

Li Xing’er sighed meaningfully and said, “We kept telling her not to but she never listened. Third Master you are her boss, if you have the chance, please tell her not to hang out with those older men and please tell her to come home as soon as possible.”

She was of course not expecting Fu Shiyi to do anything.

Instead, she was trying to tell Fu Shiyi that Mu Weiwei was in a relationship with older men, in case he became interested in her for her foxy-looking face.

If that b*tch established some sort of relationship with the Fu Family, then the Li Family and the Zhou Family would suffer.

“Oh well, I can’t do that, truly.” Fu Shiyi laughed.

He would never have the courage to ask her to break up with his brother.

Seeing his sad smile, Li Xing’er thought that he had understood what she meant, so inwardly, she felt quite proud.

Mu Weiwei would never be able to establish a relationship with the Fu Family. She was not a match for them at all.

After answering the phone call, Gu Weiwei ran into Li Xing’er on the way to the makeup room.

“Mu Weiwei, don’t ever think that just because you have been signed into Shiyi Culture, you will have something to do with the Fu Family.”

“Well, I think that it is you who wants to have something to do with the Fu Family.” Gu Weiwei said coldly.

She had asked around about Fu Hanzheng’s visit since this morning and she had regretted it terribly that she had missed her chance of meeting Fu Hanzheng.

Li Xing’er glanced at her disdainfully and said coldly, “Don’t ever forget that you slept with Wang Weidong and we all know about it. If you ever want to be with the Fu Family, you will have to get rid of that scandal!”

“You know all about it?” Gu Weiwei smiled meaningfully. “I don’t think you do.”

She had kept Zhou Meiqin’s pictures carefully in her phone.

Chapter 189: Kiss with Fu Shiyi

As the end of filming the Long Wind approached, the film sites were moved from place to place.

However, when it came to the scene where Tang Shaoqi and Gu Changfeng met and became friends, before finally bidding farewell to one another, Yi An was not satisfied with what they had done and thought that something was lacking.

Therefore, the two were asked to film the scene multiple times.

As the scriptwriter watched the scene from behind the camera, he suggested something after doing some thinking.

“I was thinking that probably there should be a kiss between Tang Shaoqi and Gu Changfeng?”

The director immediately nodded.

“Yes, yes that’s right! No wonder I feel that something is missing. That is exactly it.”

Tang Shaoqi had feelings towards Gu Changfeng, but it seemed that the result was not that ideal after all.

If a kiss was added, then everything would become much brighter.

Also, Tang Shaoqi was a very clear-minded person.

So a kiss must be added to prove that she had feelings towards Gu Changfeng.

Once the inspiration was cemented, Yi An said through the loudspeaker,

“Get ready everyone, a new take will be made. Tang Shaoqi and Gu Changfeng should kiss, so you two, get ready for it.”

“...” Gu Weiwei’s water dropped to the ground.

What the hell?

She was supposed to kiss Fu Shiyi?

Fu Shiyi was taking a rest on the floor and he almost collapsed after hearing what Yi An had said, just as he was getting ready for the filming.

“Director Yi, what... did you just say?”

“Tang Shaoqi and Gu Changfeng should kiss, to prove what Tang Shaoqi is like.” The director stressed.

Fu Shiyi turned himself around slowly and his lips twitched at the sight of Gu Weiwei who was doing her makeup.

“Director, it is a martial arts film, let’s not do a kissing scene, okay?”

“Director Yi, I agree, let’s just keep it implicit.” Gu Weiwei followed.

She truly could not kiss Fu Shiyi.

Yi An looked at these two people who had turned down the idea. “What is wrong with you two? It is just a kiss, what is the big deal?”

“I don’t like kisses.” Fu Shiyi refused resolutely.

Director Yi rolled his eyes at him and snorted. “You have kissed almost all the female stars in the film industry and yet you say that you don’t like kisses?”

He could understand why Mu Weiwei, a young girl, would not accept it but Fu Shiyi, an experienced man in the entertainment industry, was saying that he did not like kisses?

“Director, we really can’t do this kissing scene.” Fu Shiyi said with a sad face.

His brother would kill him if he ever touched his sister-in-law-to-be.

Also, even if they did kiss, his brother would not allow the movie to be released either.

“It has to be done.” The director said resolutely.

“I am fine, but she is only 19 and maybe it is her first kiss! She will be very sad about losing it in this way, right?” Fu Shiyi pointed at Gu Weiwei.

Gu Weiwei cooperatively put on a sad face.

Yi An sighed and checked the time.

“Anyway, we are done with filming today. Weiwei you better get ready for the scene, we are shooting it tomorrow.”

Gu Weiwei sighed helplessly – it seemed that they had to do the kiss no matter what.

The moment they finished work, Fu Shiyi texted his brother, reporting the emergency.

[Brother, the director wants to add a kissing scene between Mu Weiwei and I]

A minute later, Fu Hanzheng texted back.

[How would you like to die?]

Chapter 190: A Deadly Kiss?

Fu Shiyi shivered at the sight of the text.

Then he quickly called him.

“Brother, I did try to turn down the idea, but the Director insisted on it, what can I do?”

Fu Hanzheng was busy with work on the other side of the phone and answered nonchalantly.

“So?”

Fu Shiyi continued. “I turned him down several times but he insisted on making the scene to show Tang Shaoqi’s characteristics! Also, it should be her kissing me instead of the other way around...”

“So?” Fu Hanzheng said coldly.

Fu Shiyi took a deep breath and tried to persuade him.

“Brother, it is very normal to do such scenes as an actor.”

“She might need to do it with someone else in the future, probably more than just a kissing scene, but also a s*x scene too...”

Before he finished speaking, a cold voice arose from the phone.

“Do you still want to come back alive?”

“I do.”

He answered the question directly.

“Then think of a way out yourself.” Fu Hanzheng said.

Feeling wronged, Fu Shiyi thought that he should have trapped that girl indoors.

“I don’t want to do a kissing scene, but what if she agrees to do it...”

Fu Hanzheng sounded even colder.

“Then just try it!”

Fu Hanzheng was busy dealing with work and had the speaker on, at the same time Fu Shiqin was laughing wildly next to him.

“The tomb I gave you is still vacant, what about moving in this year?”

Since he had always tried to set him up every year, he had already bought him a tomb.

“Fu Shiqin, just wait and see!” Fu Shiyi rang off helplessly.

No matter whether it would be him kissing her or the other way around, as long as a kissing scene happened, he would be dead.

Compared to Fu Shiyi, Gu Weiwei was relatively calmer.

After she washed up, she was just thinking about the kissing scene when Fu Hanzheng called.

“No kissing scenes!”

“...”

Gu Weiwei clearly understood that it was Fu Shiyi who had passed on the message.

“As a professional actress, I must...”

“Think of your promise before you left.” Fu Hanzheng interrupted.

He had allowed her to make the film only because she had promised him that there were no kissing scenes.

“It is spontaneous alright? And also I was thinking...”

“Still want the movie to be released?” Fu Hanzheng asked her coldly.

He did not want to hear about professionalism. He was not open-minded enough to allow his girlfriend to do a kissing scene with other people.

Also, the film was going to be aired domestically!

Gu Weiwei felt her forehead. She understood that he was capable of removing the film from the cinema.

“I will talk with the director.”

Fu Hanzheng stopped speaking about the kissing scene and said,

“How long before you finish filming?”

She should be home very soon.

“In a week or so, I need to go back for the start of the semester.” Gu Weiwei said.

“Okay, have a good rest.” Fu Hanzheng hung up and continued with his work.

Gu Weiwei thought about how to complete the scene well overnight.

Fu Shiyi was also not having a good time throughout the night, and early in the morning, they went to find the director and scriptwriter together.

However, no matter what they said, Yi An and the scriptwriter still insisted on doing the scene.

“You have made kissing and s*x scenes with so many people before, what is wrong with Mu Weiwei kissing you anyways?”

Fu Shiyi answered, “I will be dead!”
