

MY HIDDEN 231

Chapter 231: Bastard

Gu Weiwei's hands that held the knife and fork shook slightly. However, a peaceful smile still hovered over her face.

"It seems that Mr. Gu did not actually invite me to dinner, but instead brought me here to play the piano."

Gu Siting pointed at the classical piano not so far away and said, "Liebestraume by Franz Liszt."

"Can we choose another song, this is one that I don't play very well."

It was a song that she used to play for him when they were together... but now, even though he was with Ling Yan, he was still asking her to play this song for them.

"The music score is on the piano."

Holding his wineglass in his hand, Gu Siting waited for her to start.

Ling Yan glanced at Gu Siting and said, "Brother Siting, that piano..."

That piano was something he had never allowed anyone to touch before and he would always dust it himself.

Gu Siting took a glance at the red wine in his glass and said calmly, "I haven't heard the sound of piano for a very long time, in this house."

Ling Yan's expression changed, as she picked up her glass and took a sip.

Gu Weiwei was the only one who played the piano in the house before.

He had removed everything of hers when she was gone, except for this piano.

Gu Weiwei put down her knife and fork and was about to get up when Fu Shiyi grabbed her arm.

"Don't play anything for him!"

She had not played anything for his brother, so why must she play something for this man?

Damn the Liebestraume, just let him carry on daydreaming!

"We will leave after I finish playing."

Having said this, Gu Weiwei stood up and walked towards the white piano that she was so familiar with.

She opened the music score, tried a little of the melody to warm up and started to play the song.

The first section of Liebestraume was sweet and soft, romantic and full of love whilst the second section had an intensive melody, active and exciting; just like how the maiden felt when confessing to her lover. The third section was full of lingering dreams.

It was a song about how one person confessed his love to the other, and she had played it numerous times to Gu Siting, but this time, she was feeling something different.

Ling Yan watched the girl, who had started to play the piano, sitting there and heard the familiar melody echoing across the room.

She watched and seemed to have caught a glimpse of an outline, of that girl she knew so well, again.

Then the hand that held her glass shook and the wineglass slipped out of her hand and fell to the ground.

Gu Siting glanced sideways and said, "What is it?"

With her hands over her heart, Ling Yan said with a pale face, "My heart aches a little... Maybe it is because I am thinking of Weiwei."

Feeling nervous, Gu Siting helped her up and said, "Butler, call the doctor."

A touch of mockery flashed across Gu Weiwei's eyes as she stopped playing.

She had dug out her heart, so of course she was feeling unwell whilst she watched her play the song she used to play.

"Mr. Gu, it is quite late, can we leave now?"

Gu Siting asked the butler to help Ling Yan upstairs and sized up Gu Weiwei discreetly.

"So Miss. Mu is not thinking about coming to our company?"

"No." Gu Weiwei said coldly.

She was not sure what he wanted from her but he already had Ling Yan. Was he still looking for a substitute for Gu Weiwei?

Gu Siting, you are such a bastard!

Without asking further, Gu Siting said, "If you ever change your mind, contact us anytime you want."

Fu Shiyi rolled his eyes. With his brother present, this man was never going to have his dream realized.

Gu Weiwei smiled and said nothing in return.

"See them off."

Gu Siting then turned away and went upstairs to check on Ling Yan.

Kuroda Shio came and opened the door for them.

"Please, Miss. Mu."

Gu Weiwei stepped out of the Gu Family household and threw a look at the room on the second floor, whilst she was in the car.

The room that used to belong to her was now where Ling Yan resides.

She had a bad habit – she did not like it when someone else touched her things.

Therefore, the man that had been touched by Ling Yan, was not someone she would cherish any more.

Chapter 232: Sleeping

When they went back to the hotel, there was very little time left before their flight took off.

They packed up in their own rooms and joined the crew members before they all headed towards the airport together.

Since Li Xing'er was not allowed to tag along to the Gu Family's mansion, she had not shown a nice expression towards them at all.

When Fu Shiyi was waiting for the boarding call, he whispered to her in a low voice, "How did you meet Gu Siting last time, anyways?"

Whatever Gu Siting did today was not normal at all; she was also not behaving normally today either.

Instead of concealing anything from him, she said straightforwardly, "They were trying to catch someone last night but took me instead. Then I called Jolin and asked him to pick me up from there."

"Oh damn! Why didn't you tell me anything? It was serious!" Fu Shiyi said furiously.

"So you can tell your brother too?" Gu Weiwei squinted at him.

Fu Shiyi touched his nose guiltily and asked, "How do you plan to tell my brother about it?"

Gu Weiwei said, "I'll tell him the truth."

Lying to Fu Hanzheng was not going to work – he was going to find out about it by himself, anyways.

So telling the truth from the start was the best solution.

Fu Shiyi reminded her. "You said that you will deal with my brother if he gets angry."

Gu Weiwei nodded nonchalantly and said, "I know, you can tell him now."

"Then I will..."

Gu Weiwei glanced at Fu Shiyi and pleaded with him, "Can you leave me alone for a second?"

Fu Shiyi pursed his lips, picked up his phone and called his brother to tell him about what had happened.

Gu Weiwei put on her sunglasses, leaned against the chair and felt very troubled.

That was a place she had lived in for more than twenty years and of course the return had stirred something up inside her.

She no longer owned a space in that house.

She might not hate Gu Siting, but she did feel saddened.

They waited for more than an hour before boarding the plane, to go back home.

She had been feeling very nervous after meeting Gu Siting and Ling Yan at the Shengxi Town film festival but she did not feel relaxed for a moment, even after returning and joining the crew members.

When they came to the hotel, Fu Shiyi was still staying next to her.

Before they reached their respective doors, he reminded her again.

“You said that you will deal with him, don’t drag me down.”

His brother did not sound very pleased when they were exchanging words at the airport.

The moment Gu Weiwei entered the room, she locked the door and felt so relieved that she no longer had to be on edge.

She did not come back to herself until she had sat on the sofa for a long time.

She had thought that Fu Hanzheng would call her and lecture her after he learnt the news but no call had come even past midnight.

So he was really pissed then?

She could not fall asleep and instead picked up the phone, wondering if she should make a phone call to him and explain.

After all, if she had taken his advice and left at lunchtime, the incident that happened later on that night would not have happened.

What was more, they did not tell him a single thing until they had left.

After a long time of contemplation, she still made the phone call.

The call had just gone through when the doorbell rang.

“Fu Hanzheng, wait a moment, someone is at the door.”

She said with a quiet voice, she rolled off the bed and headed towards the door.

When she opened the door, the person on the other side turned out to be the noble-looking man she was talking to on the phone; he was holding his phone by his ear.

Gu Weiwei blinked in astonishment. “What... are you doing here?”

Fu Hanzheng ended the call and entered the room.

“I came to keep you company in bed.”

Chapter 233: Sleep Together

Gu Weiwei shut the door and threw an anxious look at him.

No wonder he was not calling her... he showed up at the door in person!

Fu Shiyi must have told him before he boarded the plane and then he must have flown directly here after receiving Fu Shiyi's call.

Fu Hanzheng glanced at her. "You told me yesterday that you miss me, but now you are so displeased to see me?"

Gu Weiwei stepped forward, looking like a child who was ready to get lectured.

"Just scold me in whichever way you want, and I will listen carefully."

Fu Hanzheng swept the girl into his arms and kissed the top of her head softly.

"Who told you that I am here to lecture you?"

Gu Weiwei looked up at him. "Then what are you doing here?"

"I am here to keep you company in bed." Fu Hanzheng said and gave her another kiss on the forehead.

When he heard the news, he couldn't help but to be worried, so he decided to come and visit her overnight.

Gu Weiwei wrapped her arms around his waist as she leaned her face against his chest.

"Then let me hold you for a while first."

She had been very nervous during the past two days and Fu Hanzheng's hug had completely healed her.

Fu Hanzheng lowered his head and looked at her in astonishment, looking happy.

This girl had never offered to hug him before, but today, she was being very voluntary.

Gu Weiwei did not release him until a few minutes had passed.

"What will happen to your work tomorrow, if you are here now?"

She heard from Fu Shiyi that they had been very busy these days.

Especially when Fu Shiqin had been dispatched to Africa which meant that he had to deal with many things in person.

"I'm not very busy tomorrow lunchtime."

Fu Hanzheng removed his suit, tossed himself onto the sofa and summoned her.

"Come, I have got something to ask you."

"You are not here to lecture me, are you?"

"Just come here." Fu Hanzheng repeated.

Gu Weiwei sighed and walked towards him. He was here to interrogate her anyways.

However, he suddenly took a hold of her so that she ended up sitting down on his thighs.

"How did you get to know Gu Siting?"

“We got to know each other after the film festival. They seem to be looking for someone and I happened to be in the neighbourhood, so they took me as the suspect but then released me, after they realized their mistake.”

Gu Weiwei told the story in a seemingly authentic way and also did not mention that she was caught in the Yuan Family’s house.

Fu Hanzheng’s lips pursed in thought – he did understand that Gu Siting was looking for someone from the Yuan Family.

“Then why did he invite you to his house?”

Gu Siting had been an arrogant person who never invited anyone to his home.

Gu Weiwei smiled innocently and said straightforwardly, “I am not sure either, but I believe that he has fallen for my beauty. You know, the gown you gave to me at the ceremony, made me too amazing.”

Fu Hanzheng sank his face. “Fallen for your beauty?”

“Yes, I think so. He asked me twice if I wanted to join him at Yaoshi Media. He must be thinking about bringing me there to sleep with me.” Gu Weiwei kept telling the ridiculous stories with her eyes open wide.

Gu Siting invited her over to the house, because he had looked her up or maybe it was because he had seen the video where she was playing the piano song by Franz Liszt, which she herself had always been skilled at.

However, he would never imagine that she had been reborn into Mu Weiwei after she had passed away.

Fu Hanzheng lowered his eyes and looked serious and cold.

“You have gained quite a lot of courage to ask Fu Shiyi and our men to conceal it from me.”

Her words sounded reasonable but he believed that there was something else he was not certain about.

Gu Weiwei just could not explain it anymore and instead yawned sleepily.

“I am tired, let’s sleep.”

Chapter 234: Sleep with You

Fu Hanzheng deepened his voice. “Finish the conversation!”

Gu Weiwei frowned too and complained.

“Are you here to keep me company in bed or not?”

Seeing her tired expression, Fu Hanzheng did not ask anything more.

He picked her up and placed her into bed, as he removed his tie by the bedside and asked, “So, what do you want me to do?”

Gu Weiwei snuck straight into the blanket and laughed dryly.

“I just want to stay in bed and sleep, not really with you...”

Fu Hanzheng lifted the blanket and threw himself into the bed and pulled her into his arms, smiling.

“But I want to sleep with you, not just lying in bed.”

Gu Weiwei moved her gaze with difficulty, away from his close-up handsome face.

“I had better... just sleep.”

He looked way too attractive.

Fu Hanzheng gave her a kiss on the forehead and sighed.

“Sleep.”

She did have good feelings towards him, but she had not fallen for him yet.

But he cherished her so much that he did not want to cause her any harm.

Gu Weiwei rubbed herself against his arms and suddenly a horrible idea popped into her mind.

What if... she was not Gu Weiwei.

But that was just a momentary idea which was soon taken over by the tiredness.

She had thought that she would again be met with constant nightmares, after meeting Gu Siting and Ling Yan, and her visit to the Gu Family’s mansion.

But with Fu Hanzheng around her, she slept very deeply.

Before the agent arrived to wake her up, Fu Shiyi had already visited them.

“It is me, open the door.”

Soon, the door opened.

It was not Gu Weiwei who opened the door, but Fu Hanzheng who had just taken a shower and had a towel around his waist.

Fu Shiyi glanced at his brother who had an even more perfect body than himself, wondering when he got the time to train himself into such a muscular man?

Fu Hanzheng looked at the man at the doorstep. “What is it?”

Fu Shiyi soon grabbed out the things he had prepared and said, with a flattering smile, “Here is the breakfast I bought for you two.”

It seemed that she must have kept his brother very happy.

Fu Hanzheng took it and slammed the door shut in Fu Shiyi’s face.

Then he came into the room and found that she was still sleeping, so he rubbed her nose.

“Weiwei?”

Drowsy, Gu Weiwei spotted a large peck and thought that she was dreaming.

“You look much better without clothes.”

Fu Hanzheng raised his eyebrows. “Is that so?”

Hearing the voice, Gu Weiwei suddenly came back to herself and turned around.

“You... put on clothes!”

“Didn’t you say that I look much better without clothes.”

“I did not mean you.”

Fu Hanzheng lowered his voice. “Then who did you mean?”

“Okay, okay, it is you, put on the clothes.” Gu Weiwei felt helpless.

“Get up now and grab something to eat.” Fu Hanzheng said and went to put on the clothes.

Gu Weiwei got up, washed herself and saw breakfast on the table.

The two ate breakfast leisurely, after which, Fu Hanzheng started to deal with work over the phone whilst she got herself changed.

She put on her makeup and was ready to leave but before she left, she went to give Fu Hanzheng a hug.

Then she stood on her tiptoes and wanted to sneak a kiss from him, yet failed, due to the huge height difference.

The agent was urging him on the phone, so she gave up.

Just as she was about to leave through the door, Fu Hanzheng’s voice rose.

“Hang on!”

Then he silenced the phone.

“Come back now!”

Gu Weiwei turned around. “What is it?”

Fu Hanzheng approached her and cornered her against the door.

“You didn’t manage to kiss me, so now you are going to finish it.”

Chapter 235: Are You Sure?

Gu Weiwei laughed dryly. “I did not mean... to kiss you.”

With one hand leaning against the door, Fu Hanzheng chuckled.

“Then you can leave when you finish the kiss!”

Gu Weiwei’s phone rang again – her agent was urging her to leave the room as soon as possible.

So she said, as she stared at this amazingly-attractive man, “You are far too tall for me to kiss you!”

Fu Hanzheng smiled as he lowered his head, looking very expectant.

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips, stood up on her tiptoes and lightly kissed his lips.

She was about to leave when the man took hold of her waist and deepened the kiss.

Her phone kept ringing and she was kissed by Fu Hanzheng for over two minutes, before she was released and allowed to open the door.

She had just walked out of the door when she ran into Jolin who had come upstairs, looking for her.

“Hurry up, everyone is waiting for you!”

“Sorry, I was in the bathroom.”

Jolin pressed the button on the elevator and squinted at her.

“What is wrong with your face?”

Gu Weiwei flushed even deeper at his question.

“The radiator indoors is too hot, you know?”

She almost lost her breath because of the kiss and she felt lightheaded, almost as if she was floating in the air.

Since Li Xing'er did not like her, she ended up sharing the same car with Fu Shiyi.

The moment she got into the car, Fu Shiyi pulled down the partition that separated them from the driver.

“Honestly, have you kept my brother happy?”

“I... think so.” Gu Weiwei said.

After all, they had kissed, hugged and shared the same bed.

“Then why did he sell all of my sportcars?” Fu Shiyi glared at her furiously.

Gu Weiwei shrugged. “How would I know?”

Fu Shiyi gritted his teeth. “He is a fake brother! He prefers a girl to me! He forgets his brother when he has a girl! I will take revenge on him as soon as I have the opportunity!”

He had been creating the plans for him so that he could have Mu Weiwei over these last few days but he had then turned cold towards him just because he did not keep a constant eye on her in A Land.

“Are you sure you want to get yourself killed?” Gu Weiwei asked with a smile.

He and Fu Shiqin had never been able to win a battle against Fu Hanzheng.

Fu Shiyi snorted proudly. “Just wait and see, I always have a plan.”

Gu Weiwei said, "You want to end up in Africa like your brother?"

"I am much better than he is."

Fu Shiyi gritted his teeth, looking sinister and calculative.

Gu Weiwei glanced out the window, thinking that her master and his family must have left A Land if they were not in Shengxi Town.

Then they must have hidden themselves in Hua Land instead.

A Land was the Gu Family 's territory and Fu Hanzheng's forces would not be able to have a hold over there.

The same thing went for Hua Land, which was Fu Hanzheng's territory, so if they wanted to hide away from Gu Siting, they would choose to stay in Hua Land.

However, Fu Hanzheng was looking for them too.

She must think of a way to contact them before Fu Hanzheng and Gu Siting finds them.

She would not be able to return to the Gu Family, but she might not truly find a home with Fu Hanzheng either.

He cherished her deeply but that was only because she was living in Mu Weiwei's shell, whilst she was actually Gu Weiwei.

Would he love her as much when he found out who she really was?

She was just thinking this when her phone vibrated.

She swiped open the screen and found that Fu Hanzheng had just sent her a text.

[I am going home]

She stayed silent for a minute and replied.

[Have a safe trip]

Fu Shiyi squinted at her. "My brother has just left and yet you look so unwilling to let him go."

She had looked quite happy a minute ago, just before she received the message. Now she looked so sad.

Gu Weiwei rolled her eyes at him, not wanting to explain anything.

Fu Shiyi squinted at her and asked curiously, "I am very curious – my brother is very willing to marry you, so why do you work so hard when you can just become the lady of the Fu Family?"

"I am not living just for the sake of being the lady of the Fu Family." Gu Weiwei said.

When God had given her another chance, she was not going to live for just Fu Hanzheng.

Chapter 236: For the Hot Search List

When they returned from A Land, Li Xing'er sent a Weibo post online.

[West Capital Airport, an encounter with Ling Yan. She is so gentle and beautiful]

Then she attached a picture that was taken for her and Ling Yan, at the airport.

Ling Yan was the Movie Queen that had obtained numerous international film awards and showed up at the film festival because of the heart transplant operation.

That was the time when she had gained the most headlines and she barely took pictures with anyone, so Li Xing'er's Weibo post had put herself up into the hot search list with the help of Ling Yan's popularity.

Jolin snorted speechlessly.

"She really knows how to make herself popular."

Xu threw a look at Gu Weiwei carefully. "Our Weiwei has been to the Gu Family, so if she reveals it as well, Li Xing'er will be totally put into the shadows."

Jolin looked at her and asked, "Movie Queen Ling asked you to take a picture with her, why did you turn her down?"

"I am really not her fan." Gu Weiwei said with a soft smile.

Without her help, Ling Yan would never have been able to make that movie.

At that time, she had felt sorry for her short life, so she tried to help her realize her dream.

She was really fascinated with acting but due to her identity, she was not allowed to become an actress.

That was why when she ran into Ling Yan, who hoped to become an actress, she decided to take great care of her.

She had a part in the script selection, filming and producing and the movie just happened to tell the story of a sick person who was fighting to live, so Ling Yan's performance had moved numerous people.

She helped her to become the Movie Queen and realize her dreams of being an actress... Yet she had murdered her when she was dying and dug out her heart so that she herself could live on.

Ling Yan would have died without her, let alone become the Movie Queen.

"Anyways, if you really were her fan, Third Master would not be happy." Jolin said.

The Fu Family and the Gu Family had never liked each other and Ling Yan was Gu Siting's woman, so Third Master would have been extremely annoyed if she became Ling Yan's fan.

Therefore, he himself did not ask her for a picture or an autograph, for the sake of keeping his job.

Xu was displeased. However, she was extremely annoyed with Li Xing'er because of what happened with the gown last time.

"Li Xing'er and Third Master are always at the centre of attention at the promotional events these days and Li Xing'er's team are good at cooking up stories. Now everyone is looking forward to seeing her movie."

"She is the lead role, it is normal that she is the center of attention." Gu Weiwei smiled calmly.

“But we should do something, right? Everytime when we do the promotion, we are put into the shadows and Brother Jolin does not pay for any media stories either.” Xu was a bit annoyed.

Her own girl was much more beautiful than Li Xing'er and definitely more skilled in acting too.

However, Jolin was very calm. He said, as he checked over the schedule, “Why are you so anxious? The movie won't be released until two days' time.”

It was just some pre-show promotion and Li Xing'er was of course the key promoting figure as the lead role... But when the movie was released, the situation might be different.

“We will have missed the opportunity when the movie is released.” Xu complained.

Jolin folded the note and glared at the assistant.

“Whether an actress is qualified depends on her work. Don't you trust Weiwei's skills to show who the real star is, when the movie is released?”

He was not as short-sighted as Li Xing'er's team who only cared about what happened right now.

He had made a promotional plan that was going to be used after the movie was released. He truly believed that with his girl's looks and acting skills, she would definitely become the biggest and brightest star of the year.

Previously, he was able to make those unskilled actresses and actors become popular, so Weiwei was definitely not going to be a difficult problem at all.

Chapter 237: Jealousy on the Way

The last promotional event before the release of the film was at a university campus and took place after the university's anniversary celebration event.

The plan was for Li Xing'er and the girls from the dance club to put on a show together, before then introducing herself and the rest of the crew members.

Then she would sing the theme song of the Long Wind with Fu Shiyi and interact with the students for the box office.

Since Li Xing'er had once starred in two teen dramas, she had obtained numerous fans.

However, Li Xing'er twisted her ankle on the day and did not tell the crew until she arrived at the campus.

“I am sorry, I thought that I could do it despite the injury, but now I really cannot.”

“Then what are we supposed to do? We promised the school.” The crew members were feeling helpless.

It was definitely not going to work out well if the fans were disappointed, at the promotional event.

The majority of the students in the dance club were actually Li Xing'er's fans.

Li Xing'er apologized to the director and the distributor and then glanced at Gu Weiwei.

“What about letting Weiwei do the performance? It would be a great opportunity for her to show up a little, especially after Third Master and I have been taking over these days.”

Li Xing'er's agent added. “If Xing'er gets injured even more when dancing, then the upcoming promotional event will not work either. Mu Weiwei is also part of the crew, so she can do the promotion too.

Jolin rolled his eyes speechlessly – did they really think that it would be a great opportunity for Weiwei to present herself in this way?

She twisted her ankle this afternoon but did not tell them about it until now. Weiwei simply had no time to practise.

They were not offering the opportunity to her, they were simply trying to embarrass her on the stage.

The distributor glanced at Gu Weiwei. “Weiwei, do you think that you can go up there?”

She also knew that it was going to be difficult for her to learn the dance and perform on stage at such a short notice.

“Sure, let's leave now.” Gu Weiwei said cooperatively.

The chief guided her to the location and Jolin followed behind her.

“She is trying to embarrass you, what are you thinking?!”

“We are all doing this for the movie, right?” Gu Weiwei said.

Jolin sighed and gave up trying to persuade her.

“Go with the distributor, the assistant and I will follow up.”

Gu Weiwei followed the distributor to the dance club and when the girls saw that Li Xing'er was not here, they were all disappointed.

They kept asking about Li Xing'er's injury instead of starting the practise with Gu Weiwei.

When the distributor did not know what to do, Jolin came with Fu Shiyi who was wearing a mask.

The moment Fu Shiyi removed his mask, all the girls screamed in excitement instead of caring about Li Xing'er anymore.

“I am sorry, Li Xing'er has hurt her ankle, so Mu Weiwei and we are practising with you girls now.” Fu Shiyi said as he asked the assistant and Jolin to put down the two bags they were carrying .

“Let's do the practise and then when we finish we'll have time to drink something together.”

When the girls heard the plan and thought of the possibility of drinking with Fu Shiyi, they all spared no effort to help Gu Weiwei.

They were very devoted and Gu Weiwei could learn things quickly, so within half an hour, they had finished the rehearsal.

Jolin watched them practising in satisfaction. Most of the girls were Li Xing'er's fans, so when they knew that Li Xing'er was injured, they might not be able to focus and help Weiwei learn the routine.

But someone was always more attractive.

When Shiyi was here, they would never even think of Li Xing'er at all.

Seeing Gu Weiwei vibrantly dancing with the group of students in a mini-skirt, Fu Shiyi whispered something to his assistant.

The assistant left and did something else.

After the talk with the assistant, he said to Jolin, "Take a video of her dancing later on and send it to me."

"Why?" Jolin glared at him cautiously.

"I need it for something else."

Fu Shiyi smiled sinisterly – he was going to make his brother jealous.

Chapter 238: Constant Jealousy

Soon Gu Weiwei finished practising with the students of the dance club and they all took a picture with Fu Shiyi together.

Then they drank the milk tea and chatted for a while.

Fu Shiyi was asked to do an interview, so Gu Weiwei stayed with the students and made preparations for the performance.

Since they were of the same age and because she learnt so quickly, they were able to speak with Fu Shiyi. Because of this the girls had a wonderful impression of her.

Some of them had watched the fouetté of 32 turns online that she had performed and because they were dancers they could not help but be curious.

"How did you do it? I won't be able to finish them after doing just a couple of turns."

Gu Weiwei smiled and said straightforwardly, "It is mostly because I have good control of my leg muscles but after that time I could not walk for days."

The girls chuckled and started to complain about the joys and the hardships they had gone through as dance students.

They suddenly felt that compared to their idol, who they could only see online, the girl who was able to chat with them turned out to be more lovely.

Before the performance started, Jolin asked the makeup artist to do all of their makeup and make them beautiful.

The host had announced the performance they were about to perform and

Gu Weiwei gave her dancers each a high five before they walked onto the stage from both sides.

As the music started, Gu Weiwei and her dancers started to dance to the beat.

The mini-skirt showed her long legs and her current style made her look sweet and cute, yet also youthful and dynamic.

Soon, the students in the audience were attracted to her.

Some of her fans told their friends excitedly, "Look, that is my idol Mu Weiwei, really, she is my idol!"

"Wow, she looks so pretty!"

....

Gu Weiwei and her dancers were performing a lovely but also sexy show, so that both the girls and boys in the audience were attracted to her.

Someone learnt that it was a promotional event for the Long Wind, and understood that she was Mu Weiwei who played Tang Shaoqi.

Some boys screamed loudly, "Who is the prettiest girl in the Long Wind? Mu Weiwei is the Goddess!"

"Mu Weiwei, I want to be your boyfriend!"

After the performance, she and her dancers bowed and she accepted the host's microphone.

"Hello everyone, my name is Mu Weiwei. It should have been your goddess Li Xing'er standing right here today, but she has hurt her ankle so I had to take her place today. I apologise for my mediocre performance."

The host took over the topic of conversation. "Weiwei looks to be almost the same age as the students, no?"

"I just celebrated my 19th birthday last month." Gu Weiwei smiled.

Fu Shiyi, who was waiting for his turn on the back stage, was urging Jolin to send him the video.

[Did you finish the video? Send it to me, now!]

Jolin sent the video to Fu Shiyi speechlessly.

Fu Shiyi clicked it open and spoke highly of Jolin's filming skill.

He had not only filmed Mu Weiwei on stage but also the boys who confessed their love to her in the audience.

On the stage, Mu Weiwei and the host had finished introducing the song Li Xing'er and Fu Shiyi were going to sing together.

Before Fu Shiyi went onto the stage, he sent the video to Fu Hanzheng who was far away in the capital.

[Brother, see how lovely your girlfriend looks today.]

With this line, he attached the video he had received from Jolin.

Of course, he did not mean to tell his brother how lovely his girlfriend really was but he wanted to show to his brother how much those boys were in love with his girlfriend.

As far as he knew, his brother would definitely be very jealous after seeing the video.

Well, he deserved the jealousy, because he had sold everything in his garage and all his sports cars.

He might not have been able to defeat him before, but now with Mu Weiwei around him, he was able to make his brother jealous all the time.

Chapter 239: Full of Jealousy

The promotional event that took place at the campus turned out to be successful.

Fu Shiyi's and Li Xing'er's fans were mostly young students and Gu Weiwei, who performed well and looked very pretty, had obtained a great many fans among the students too.

Gu Weiwei received Fu Hanzheng's call on the way back.

"Where have you been today?"

Gu Weiwei could tell that he sounded slightly angry.

"At the university campus, didn't I tell you about that yesterday?"

"You did not tell me that you were going to dance for those people." Fu Hanzheng said with a low voice.

The moment he came home, he received the video that Fu Shiyi had sent to him.

In the video, she was dancing and posing on the stage, wearing a mini-skirt; she looked sweet and cute but suddenly, he saw a group of young male students screaming and confessing to her.

"That was a last minute decision. Did you see it?" Gu Weiwei asked with a small chuckle.

Fu Hanzheng gritted his teeth. "Yes, I did."

Gu Weiwei frowned. "So you are... not happy?"

It was not his normal tone, what was the problem now?

Fu Shiyi, who was sitting next to her, felt his ears tingle as he caught their conversation and started to chuckle.

Hahaha, that man had gotten so jealous!

He was not as stupid as his second brother, to counter his eldest brother, right in his face when it came to revenge.

The best method was to strike him hard before he realized anything had happened.

He showed off his success to Fu Shiqin and Fu Shiqin soon texted him back.

[I have to tell you that if you make our brother jealous, you will end up being the person that suffers.]

[I fee so sorry for you!]

....

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a moment and countered.

“No.”

It would be very immature of him to get mad at her, just because of some youngsters who confessed to her but he did feel very jealous inwardly.

Gu Weiwei said, “You are unhappy!”

She did not displease him today, did she? So what was he doing talking with her in this way?

Fu Hanzheng took a deep breath and asked, “Is Fu Shiyi with you?”

Gu Weiwei glanced at Fu Shiyi. “Yes, he is.”

“Is he laughing?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

“Yes, he looks very delighted.” Gu Weiwei said truthfully.

Fu Hanzheng snorted. “Give him the phone, I need to tell him something.”

Gu Weiwei frowned curiously but still gave the phone to Fu Shiyi, who was humming gladly, next to her.

“Your brother wants to talk with you.”

Fu Shiyi’s humming ceased and he shivered as he took the phone from her.

“Hi, Brother, what can I do for you?”

Fu Hanzheng asked coldly, “What were your intentions in sending me the video?”

Fu Shiyi laughed dryly. “I am just showing you how my Sister-in-law is doing, okay?”

...It was not revenge or trying to make you jealous.

“On purpose?” Fu Hanzheng snorted.

“What on purpose?” Fu Shiyi played dumb.

Without asking anything more, Fu Hanzheng said straightforwardly,

“I just accidentally found out that you have a large shelf, holding lots of things, to still throw away.”

“Ahhhhhh....”

Fu Shiyi groaned painfully when he heard the words.

He did that on purpose!

Those garage kits were all limited editions and it had taken him ages before he managed to collect them all. Each of them were his cherished treasure.

Hearing his groaning sound, Fu Hanzheng felt much better.

“Now, give the phone back to her.”

Fu Shiyi gave the phone back to her helplessly and became more and more annoyed sitting in the car.

His treasure was going to be ruined by his brother again!

Gu Weiwei hung up and looked at Fu Shiyi who seemed to have become crazy.

What did his brother say to him that caused him to become so furious?

Chapter 240: Li Xing'er's Move

When they went back to the hotel, Fu Shiyi was so furious that he finished three portions of food.

His agent could not stand to watch it anymore and said to him, “You have one more commercial to shoot next month and you need to stay fit! Don't eat so much.”

With food stuffed in his mouth, he said, “My heart is broken, and you are still stopping me from eating anything?”

His agent Luo Jiaming complained speechlessly.

“To hell with your broken heart, you looked so happy this afternoon.”

Gu Weiwei felt her forehead. After he finished the conversation with his brother, he had become unwell.

What did Fu Hanzheng say to him so that his own younger brother, had turned crazy?

Sometimes, she even suspected that Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin were not his real brothers.

Instead of watching Fu Shiyi wolfing down the food, Jolin finished his meal and accompanied Gu Weiwei back to the room.

“You do not need to get up early tomorrow morning. There will be an interview in the afternoon and the premiere will take place in the evening.”

“Okay, see you tomorrow then.”

Gu Weiwei nodded, went back to her room, washed herself up and went to bed.

After lunch, the main cast of the crew rushed to the local TV station, where they were getting ready for the interview.

She threw a look at the script and realized that she only needed to answer a couple of questions. After all, the two main leading roles and the director were the focus of the interview.

Fu Shiyi and Li Xing'er were the first ones on the stage. They introduced themselves and talked a little bit about the movie that would be released soon and then sat down onto the sofa, ready for the interview.

Gu Weiwei and Yi An were watching and waiting for them in the audience as they did the interview.

Host: I heard that Shiyi turned down the supporting role in a Hollywood blockbuster, just to play Gu Changfeng. What made you do that?

Fu Shiyi: I like this role a great deal.

Yi An showed a speechless smile.

He came to steal the role just because he had got an impromptu idea, yet now he talked about it as if he did it for a proper reason.

The host continued by asking him, "Do you feel sorry to have lost such a great opportunity with Hollywood?"

Fu Shiyi: Nope, Gu Changfeng has always been a role I would like to play.

Although he did it only because he wanted to suck up to his sister-in-law. However, he was not allowed to tell the truth.

After a few more questions with Fu Shiyi, the host turned to Li Xing'er instead.

Host: So Xing'er has always been involved in TV-series, so what is the difference between being in a movie and being in a TV-series?"

Li Xing'er: I feel that I have picked up many things I did not know about before and I need to put in more effort when acting.

Host: The two TV-series with Xing'er have received high audience ratings and I believe that you are a skilled actress, so I look forward to seeing you in the movie.

Li Xing'er: I also hope that my fans can see a different side of me in the Long Wind.

After a few more questions about the movie, the host started to ask her about her private affairs, which was a way to attract the audiences to the interview program.

Host: I heard that Xing'er has already got a boyfriend.

Li Xing'er smiled bashfully. "Yes, I have got one."

Host: How did you get to know each other?

Li Xing'er smiled sweetly. "We have known each other for years, we are childhood friends."

Host: So Xing'er's mother remarried right, how is your current father treating you now?"

Li Xing'er: He treats me like his own daughter. Mom and dad used to be a couple but due to some private reasons, they started different families individually. But years later, my mother was divorced and dad's wife passed away too, so they realized that they still loved each other and got together again.

Gu Weiwei sneered.

In order to cover up her own identity as the love child of Li Jiacheng and Zhou Meiqin, she even dared to claim that she was not Li Jiacheng's real daughter to the public.

Li Xing'er was trying very hard to establish a great image for herself.
