

MY HIDDEN 241

Chapter 241: Ungrateful People

Hearing what Li Xing'er said, the host smiled mysteriously.

"I believe that your parents do love you deeply and support your acting journey, because... they are here."

Li Xing'er glanced at the direction the host pointed in and sure enough, she found Zhou Meiqin and Li Jiacheng were seated among the audience.

Excited, she rushed off the stage and put on a family gathering show in front of the audience and the camera.

Li Xing'er cried so hard that the tears smudged her makeup, and she did not return to the stage until a long while later.

"Due to the tight schedule, I have been flying across the world and catching up with work after the filming. I have not been home for almost three months."

The host passed her some tissues and consoled her.

"Mr. Li and Mrs. Li miss their daughter a great deal too, so they flew all the way here from the capital city just to see you and support you at the premiere."

Li Xing'er looked at her parents down in the audience with tears in her eyes and said, between sobs, "I am really grateful to my parents. They have been so important for my career."

Then, she said that Wei Ziting had been her childhood friend and told the story of how her parents, who had actually been having an affair when they were still married, loved each other deeply.

Sitting in the audience, Gu Weiwei did not even turn around to look at Li Jiacheng and Zhou Meiqin, when she heard their names.

Standing behind her, Jolin threw a look at Li Jiacheng and Zhou Meiqin whilst patting her shoulders worriedly.

"Weiwei?"

He understood clearly what that family had done to her, fearing that she would say something terrible out of anger.

Gu Weiwei glanced at him and showed him a bright smile.

"Don't worry."

She was not an impulsive girl. It would be stupid of her to reveal such dark secrets with Li Xing'er on the stage.

Jolin felt assured after hearing what she said.

It was not yet time for her to start a battle against Li Xing'er at this moment, but soon he was going to give her the opportunity to reveal the truth, of this ungrateful family.

After the host finished the conversation with Li Xing'er and Fu Shiyi, Yi An and Gu Weiwei were invited onto the stage.

Host: Every movie by Director Yi has received some awards, so are you confident about the Long Wind when it comes to the Gold Phoenix Awards at the end of this year?

Yi An: I am very glad that I have met such excellent actors and I am very confident that we can be at least nominated.

Host: As we all know, most actors who have been with Director Yi would win some awards. Who do you think will be able to get the award this year?

Yi An: Everyone has done a great job.

Host: If you can't say anything now, maybe you can tell us if you expect an actor or an actress to win the award?

Yi An: Personally speaking, I do have hopes for the actresses, because Third Master only stands out because of his looks.

Fu Shiyi: You know me pretty well, Director Yi.

The host looked at Gu Weiwei and Li Xing'er and said, "Since Director Yi says so, I do look forward to seeing one of you standing out at the Gold Phoenix Awards."

Zhou Meiqin smiled confidently. If the director thought so, then Xing'er was definitely going to be the Movie Queen of the Golden Phoenix.

Then her sacrifice would have been worth its while.

Gu Weiwei smiled without uttering a sound.

After finishing the questions with the director, the host turned to Gu Weiwei.

"Weiwei, you are still a freshman at university right? Do your parents support you when you don't go to school but instead turn to acting?"

Gu Weiwei smiled meaningfully and said calmly, "My mother passed away last year and my father remarried, they have never interfered with my studies."

Li Xing'er's face stiffened. She threw a look at her nervously, fearing that she would reveal something unpleasant.

Chapter 242: A Hoax

As well as Li Xing'er, Zhou Meiqin and Li Jiacheng froze in apprehension.

Mu Weiwei had not been in the entertainment industry before, so no one cared about her family or background information but now she was in the industry, her words would cause the paparazzi to dig out her real identity.

Hearing her words, the host looked at her with concern.

“You mean... after your father remarried, you started to live alone?”

Gu Weiwei nodded and smiled lightly. “It took them a long time before they got married again, so I should leave them alone.”

The host sighed and encouraged her.

“Then I hope that you will become more and more popular!”

Which dumb-headed father would give up such a lovely daughter?

“Thanks.” Gu Weiwei smiled and bowed.

Without digging deeper into her background, the host turned to the promotion of the Long Wind.

After the program was finished, Gu Weiwei went to the bathroom and ran into Zhou Meiqin.

“What was your intention when you said those words on the stage? You were trying to embarrass your father and I, right?”

Gu Weiwei washed her hands calmly and snorted at the reflection of Zhou Meiqin in the mirror.

“Then should I have said that Li Jiacheng had an affair with you and that your love child was actually sharing the same stage with me?”

Zhou Meiqin was so annoyed that she shook with suppressed anger and warned with clenched teeth.

“Mu Weiwei, if you don’t want to come back to our family, then we don’t have to interfere with each other in any way! But if you dare to ruin Xing’er’s future, then I will never forgive you!”

“You must have forgotten what you have left with me?” Gu Weiwei reminded her with a chuckle.

“You...”

Gu Weiwei gazed at Zhou Meiqin who was angry, grabbed the paper towel to dry her hands and left.

Fu Shiyi asked her, when he saw her getting into the car, “Did your stepmother mistreat you again?”

“I mistreated her.” Gu Weiwei snorted.

With Zhou Meiqin’s pictures in her possession, she was now more obedient than before and she did not come to cause her trouble again.

Fu Shiyi squinted at her and said, “Honestly, if you just make a call to my brother and act cutely towards him, I guarantee you that you will never see the Li Family exist again, from that day forward. Why must you tolerate them? Don’t you find them disgusting?”

“I don’t want to depend on your brother.” Gu Weiwei snorted.

Fu Shiyi said, “That is cruel of you. I don’t even have the chance to depend on him and yet you, who has such an opportunity, refuses to depend on him. I find it very annoying.”

Honestly, with his brother's help, she was able to dominate Hua Land. Why must she force herself to do everything with her own abilities?

Gu Weiwei squinted at him and did not have any interest in explaining anything to him.

"Honestly, if you don't want my brother to help you deal with the enemies or your career, then you have slept with my brother so many times in vain. What an unfair deal!" Fu Shiyi just could not understand why she refused to turn to his brother for help.

Gu Weiwei squinted at him. "Who told you your brother slept with me?"

Fu Shiyi said, "Then you slept with him?"

Gu Weiwei said, "We only share the same bed, not really sleeping with each other, okay?"

Could he have thought that she and Fu Hanzheng only met for s*x?

Fu Shiyi was startled and mumbled in disbelief, "That is impossible! My brother promised my mother that she will have a grandchild soon."

So they just share the bed instead of sleeping with each other.

Gu Weiwei. "..."

What was that promise?

Since when did she promise that they would have a child together?

So the reason why he had been so gentle to her these past days, was because he was trying to get her to be the mother of his children...

Chapter 243: Pure Relationship

Fu Shiyi looked meaningfully at Gu Weiwei, who seemed very anxious; he assumed that his efficient brother must have slept with her numerous times.

"Could it be because my brother has some sort of problem... just like what Second Brother said?"

"He is totally fine!" Gu Weiwei glared at him.

"That doesn't sound right, why not sleep with him if he doesn't have a problem?" Fu Shiyi found the situation incredible.

Oh, so his brother was in a very pure and loving relationship... So every time they met each other, they were just holding hands and kissing?

"Don't think that everyone is as much as a player as you, alright?!" Gu Weiwei countered.

What was so wrong with them not having s*x with each other? Why was that a problem?

Fu Shiyi pursed his lips and stopped arguing with her.

It seemed that his cold-blooded brother loved her more than he had imagined, otherwise he would not take such great care of her.

After the program ended, the whole crew rushed towards the premiere site.

Apart from some media and film critics, some of Yi An's friends in the film industry, as well as Li Xing'er's and Fu Shiyi's oldest fans, appeared at the site.

Apart from those who had gotten permission to enter the site, most of the fans were waiting outside the site instead.

The director and the producer made a briefly introduced the movie, and just before the scheduled showing time, the media interviewed the main cast members. However, just as it had always been, Li Xing'er and Fu Shiyi were the ones who answered most of the questions.

Gu Weiwei was interviewed too, but the only questions directed at her were about the previous rescue incident of the girl on the horse and how and when she had learnt to ride the horse.

After the ceremony, the film was shown and Gu Weiwei, together with the main cast, took their seats and watched the movie.

The movie started with Gu Changfeng betraying the master and being hunted by his fellow disciples.

Fu Shiyi performed the scene well. He was sharp and straightforward in his martial arts and he looked very much like a hero.

Then came the encounter with Tang Shaoqi, who was dressed as a male, at Zuiyue Pavilion in Ningcheng.

Gu Weiwei looked great as a male and it was difficult to tell if she was a woman or a man.

The scene in which she was performing the martial arts with the fan, turned out to look smooth and sharp.

Then came the scene when Lin Qingxue lied to the Mongolian army, so that she managed to stop an attack from happening.

Then she led her men to look for the Treasure Map.

Then came the scene when Gu Changfeng and Tang Shaoqi were keeping each other company on the road, when they encountered different enemies, until they finally had to wave goodbye after a drink.

Gu Changfeng looked drunk as he gazed at Tang Shaoqi who was so close to him.

"Brother Tang, you look so pretty."

Tang Shaoqi narrowed her eyes and showed a smile, looking just like a gentle lady.

The scene where they were so close to each other, was displayed with classical music as the background.

It was a flirty scene that gripped people's hearts deeply.

The film critic who was sitting next to Yi An could not help but asked the director a few questions regarding the actress playing Tang Shaoqi and then he took a look at Gu Weiwei, showing a look of admiration.

The movie lasted for two hours and the last scene showed Gu Changfeng and Lin Qingxue heading towards the border, to defend themselves against the Jin Army.

As they passed by Shili Pavilion, they took a rest and some of their fellow swordsmen talked about the genius Tang Shaoqi, of the Tang Family.

One older swordsman said, "The Master of the Tang Family was a girl, what a pity! Otherwise..."

Gu Changfeng suddenly realized something and looked at the ruined Pavilion that was far off in the distance.

"Senior Brother!" Lin Qingxue mounted the horse and urged Gu Changfeng who stood staring into the distance, motionlessly.

Gu Changfeng mounted the horse and threw a look back into the direction of the Pavilion, looking distant and complicated.

Then he rode away and disappeared into the distance.

Then came the scene of Shili Pavilion that stood against the glow of the setting sun, as the clouds spread over the sky.

A woman in a fiery red dress was standing in the Pavilion and turned around as the sun set and the moon rose. She was amazingly beautiful.

It was Tang Shaoqi in the female costume, and the only scene in the movie where she was dressed as a woman.

Chapter 244: A Stupid Move

As the movie came to the end, an enormous cacophony of applause arose in the cinema.

Fu Shiyi's and Li Xing'er's fans all rushed over to their sides, praising their idols for being good at acting.

Only Gu Weiwei was so alone, that only her agent and her assistant were by her side but the film critic next to Yi An, came over to her of his own accord.

"Mu Weiwei, you played Tang Shaoqi very well."

Although she was just a supporting role, Tang Shaoqi left the deepest impression upon him throughout the entire movie and he was able to remember every single scene that had her in it.

He was a professional film critic and he had been invited to watch numerous movies but among all the young actors, she was the only person that had left such a deep impression on him.

He just could not believe that she was only 19 years old!

Gu Weiwei bowed and smiled. "Thank you."

Jolin had once mentioned this film critic to her and she understood that he was very sharp and critical about actors' skills.

Since she did not have any fans, Jolin, Xu and Gu Weiwei went back to the hotel for food.

The food had just been served onto the table when the assistant screamed after viewing her phone.

“Li Xing’er’s boyfriend has already bought out ten cinemas for the first day of release in the capital, so all of Li Xing’er’s fans are invited to watch the movie for free.”

Jolin opened Weibo and found that Wei Ziting’s post was being crazily reposted by Li Xing’er’s fans and it had reached the No.13 spot in the top search list.

“I just heard that Third Master’s fans have bought out all the cinemas across the entire country just for the movie.” Xu whispered.

“Third Master’s fans are always so crazy for all of his movies.” Jolin snorted disdainfully.

Third Master’s fans went to watch every one of his movies, no matter how terribly he acted in them.

Xu looked at Jolin. “Don’t we need to do anything? Weiwei acts so well.”

She also watched the movie just now and her girl acted so much better than Li Xing’er.

Li Xing’er’s fans always sneered at her for being a supporting role, but after the movie, she found that Lin Qingxue was the supporting role who did not leave an impression.

“What are we going to do? Spending money to buy out all the cinemas for the movie?” Jolin laughed.

His girl had not yet had any formal work, so of course her fans were not that loyal.

Which meant that no one was going to spend that much money on her.

“But let’s do something, otherwise we will look so unpopular.” Xu was worried.

Her girl had always been in the supporting role, either at the promotional event or at the premier where no fans showed up.

She even heard Li Xing’er’s fans mocking her girl for showing up at the promotional event, saying that she had only attended just to get popular; although she had no fans.

Jolin poured water for Gu Weiwei and said, “No need to hurry, right?”

After seeing the movie today, he became even more confident that after the movie was released to the public, his girl would become increasingly popular.

In the movie, she played her role extremely well and Third Master also acted well too.

But Li Xing’er presented such a terrible performance that she left almost no impression.

Her fans could not tell the difference, but a normal audience would.

Those film critics who showed up today, for example, spoke quite highly of his own artist, as far as he had noticed.

Gu Weiwei was very calm. “Let’s just focus on our job. It is a stupid move to spend money on buying out all the cinemas, just for the movie. Best not to do anything like that.”

However, a few days later, her “stupid” boyfriend did such a crazy thing.

Chapter 245: Wait and See

On the night of the premiere, Wei Ziting wrote a post on Weibo.

[Repost this Weibo and you will be invited to watch my girlfriend @Li Xing'er, in ten cinemas across the capital on October 1st in her new movie, The Long Wind]

Soon large numbers of reposts travelled around over the website and Li Xing'er reposted instantly too.

Li Xing'er's fans started reposting as well, followed by a number of important figures in the industry.

Within a few hours, Li Xing'er and Wei Ziting topped the hot search list, drawing much jealousy and congratulating words.

[Master Wei spoils his girlfriend so much!]

[My idol's boyfriend is so cool!]

[My dinner is nothing compared to this love that fills my heart!]

[I am going to watch your girlfriend!]

[I am going to watch your girlfriend too!]

....

Because of Wei Ziting's post, Li Xing'er's fans started to buy out cinemas for the movie in some other major cities.

Soon, Li Xing'er and the new movie the Long Wind had gained much popularity and attention.

Some film critics who attended the premiere of the Long Wind also drew some attention.

Cheng Yibai, a very prestigious film critic wrote the review: I was honored to attend the premiere of the Long Wind and I have been deeply moved by one actress' performance. I now understand what a real actress should be like. I will make a detailed review when the movie is released.

Cheng Yibai was a very critical film critic when it came to acting, and there were many young actresses and actors who had been criticized by him for their acting skills.

Therefore, the actress must have been extremely impressive, considering that he made such comments.

Another author and film critic, namely Sun Xiaobei, also wrote a Weibo post after the premiere.

[The leading actress, as a TV-show actress, has made great progress in the movie and Shiyi has put on an incredibly amazing show too. It is a film worth watching]

After reading the post, Li Xing'er reposted the post immediately and thanked Sun Xiaobei for his nice words.

Her fans also kept reposting [Xing'er is so pretty, and talented]

After Sun Xiaobei's post, Cheng Yibai's post was reposted as well.

[Even Cheng Yibai approves of her performance, our Xing'er must have been truly amazing!]

Several important figures from the industry also reposted the posts and spoke highly of Li Xing'er's performance.

In the meanwhile, some people made mocking comments upon Gu Weiwei's Weibo.

[Hey, internet star, where are your fans?]

[You are so unpopular and untalented, shame on you for having walked across the red carpet!]

....

Most of the time, Jolin was administrating Gu Weiwei's Weibo and he was just reading her Weibo to see the reaction of the fans late at night, only to see Li Xing'er's fans kept making a fuss on her page.

Before he was able to get angry, he spotted several of Gu Weiwei's fans who started a fight with them.

Cute Orange: Well, someone else failed so many takes that she had to be taken to the hospital!

Master's Wife: Everyone understands clearly who has left their shameful footsteps on the red carpet!

Qianqian Cute: Let's wait and see the movie.

Obviously, one of them was Ji Cheng and one was Luo Qianqian.

Master's Wife was Meng Xiaofei, who was saved from the panicking horse by Gu Weiwei at the film site and who had become Gu Weiwei's fan instead of remaining as Fu Shiyi's.

Jolin snorted as he read through the comments made by Li Xing'er's fans.

So Li Xing'er was trying to establish a talented persona? She must have not learnt anything from the last lesson...

Cheng Yibai's post was obviously talking about Mu Weiwei. After the premiere, Cheng Yibai even stepped forward and talked with her of his own accord.

Li Xing'er's fans thought too highly of their idol.

Chapter 246: Function of the Leading Actor

[Go and watch my girlfriend] had topped the hot search list and Wei Ziting and Li Xing'er showed off their loving relationship on Weibo.

Li Xing'er's friends from the industry also reposted the post and showed support for the new movie.

The official account of the Long Wind also reposted her post and wrote some words of praise.

However, Fu Shiyi, the leading actor of the Long Wind, did not care a single whit about Li Xing'er and even though Li Xing'er was following him, he was not a follower of Li Xing'er's Weibo.

Li Xing'er's fans had noticed that Fu Shiyi did not follow Li Xing'er but followed Mu Weiwei instead, so those fans started to find justice for their idol.

They all rushed onto Fu Shiyi's Weibo and reminded him about following Li Xing'er and reposting her Weibo.

[Third Master, Xing'er has followed you.]

[Third Master, aren't you going to help your partner repost the post?]

[Third Master, you have befriended Tang Shaoqi, why not Qingxue?]

....

They did not dare to put forward the request in too obvious a way, so they were requesting him to repost the post by using the characters in the movie.

But they were soon countered by Fu Shiyi's fans.

[You need to have good looks!]

[You need to have good looks! Plus One]

[You need to have good looks! Plus two]

....

They basically meant that your idol was not pretty enough for us to pay attention to her, let alone Third Master.

Mu Weiwei was the artist hired by Third Master's company, so there was nothing wrong with him following her. Most importantly, she was really pretty.

After the incident of the horse-back rescue, Fu Shiyi's fans had a great impression of her.

When Li Xing'er's boyfriend and fans bought out cinemas for the movie, it became popular online.

Fu Shiyi's fans did not yield either. They bought out dozens of cinemas for the movie across the entire country just to support their idol.

On the first two days when the movie was released, it was Fu Shiyi's and Li Xing'er's fans who visited the cinemas as well as a small portion of the fans of the original novel.

Li Xing'er's fans kept speaking highly of Lin Qingxue played by Li Xing'er thinking that the two film critics agreed with them.

So Li Xing'er's agency took the opportunity and started to cook up stories, so that she stayed at the top of the hot search list for two days in a row, after the movie was released.

Fu Shiyi, however, always took up the first top search.

Fu Shiyi had an enormous number of fans and he also put on a great performance as Gu Changfeng, moving all the hearts of his fans.

[Has Third Master practised so hard overnight?]

[Third Master is so cool when he acts seriously!]

[Gu Changfeng played by Third Master is so cool! But the Master of the Tang Family is great too]

[It is such a wonderful scene to watch Third Master and the Master of the Tang Family showing up together]

....

Apart from the fans' opinions, there were some comments left by the fans of the original novel.

[I had meant to watch Gu Changfeng and Lin Qingxue, but the Master of the Tang Family amazed me instead.]

[Tang Shaoqi is the villainous woman in the movie but after the movie, I feel so concerned about her.]

[Tang Shaoqi dressed in red truly caters to the description of the book.]

....

However, the opinions of the fans of the original novel were drowned out by Li Xing'er's and Fu Shiyi's crazy fans.

When the movie was on, Gu Weiwei and the entire cast started to do promotional events at different cinemas.

They often worked from early afternoon, all the way to midnight, before flying to the next city.

For the first two or three days, Li Xing'er's and Fu Shiyi's fans were mostly those who were present, who passionately gave them flowers and cakes.

On the fourth day, however, an urgent notice arrived when the cast came off the plane.

"Tang Shaoqi will take over today at the promotional event, be prepared!"

Fu Shiyi was displeased. "Then what is my function when she takes over?"

The movie was called the Long Wind, not the Master of the Tang Family, alright?

Li Xing'er who played Lin Qingxue was the most annoyed out of everyone.

Chapter 247: Showing off Love

The promotion staff smiled awkwardly and explained, "It is a special day today, we hope you can understand."

Li Xing'er's agent protested in displeasure. "What is so special about today? They are still the lead actor and actress!"

"Well...."

The staff was about to speak, when Fu Shiyi's fans came running after them from a distance away.

The cast had to quickly hurry into the car and leave the airport for the cinema, where the promotional event was going to take place.

When they arrived at the cinema, the movie had just finished.

They touched up their makeup and were guided into the cinema, where they met the audience to do a few interactive interviews.

Fu Shiyi and Li Xing'er quickly slipped into the habit of standing in the center, where they greeted the audience passionately.

"Hello, I am Shiyi who plays Gu Changfeng, thank you very much for watching our movie."

"Hello everyone, I am Li Xing'er who plays Lin Qingxue, thank you very much for watching our movie."

Gu Weiwei made a brief greeting and then the host asked the audience, "Is the movie great?"

"Yes!"

Everyone started to answer simultaneously.

After the brief introductory greeting, the host started to pick some audience representatives to raise questions to the cast.

One girl with glasses raised her hand high up in the air and grabbed the microphone... But the person she asked the question to was not Fu Shiyi or Li Xing'er.

"Mu Weiwei, you have portrayed the Master of the Tang Family in such a vivid way. Tang Shaoqi in the original book is not a very nice character but I don't hate you at all. Instead, I feel concerned and like you a lot. What is your secret?"

Li Xing'er's face stiffened, moved away in embarrassment and gave the microphone to Gu Weiwei.

"Tang Shaoqi is not a nice character but that's only because she has a lot of enemies and kills many people, so what I did was to focus more upon her emotions."

"Mu Weiwei..."

"Mu Weiwei..."

There were only a few minutes for the cast at a promotional event and the audience were only allowed to ask four or five questions.

But all of them were for Mu Weiwei.

Li Xing'er and Fu Shiyi felt so embarrassed standing next to her.

They had thought that it was just an accident, yet in the promotional events that followed, Gu Weiwei was really the only person who got asked questions.

Fu Shiyi got two or three, and Li Xing'er got none.

What was more, there were counters selling T-shirts and posters with Tang Shaoqi's image on it at each cinema.

And there were so many roses and gift boxes from fans at each promotional event that the agent and the assistant were not able to take them all in their arms.

After the third promotional event, Jolin came to the waiting room after making a few calls, looking very happy.

“Weiwei, it turns out that you have got such a wealthy Boyfriend Fan, who has bought out the cinemas for just this movie. Do you know how many cinemas he has bought out?”

“Boyfriend Fan? Bought out the cinemas for the movie?”

Startled, Gu Weiwei just could not think of a single fan of hers that could be so wealthy.

Also, what did Boyfriend Fan mean, for hell’s sake?

Li Xing’er’s agent snorted, feeling that it was unfair.

“What a boring trick, Master Wei and Xing’er’s fans have already bought out the cinemas and they are the priority.”

Jolin rolled his eyes at Li Xing’er and snorted.

“Just go and check out Weibo to see how many cinemas Weiwei’s Boyfriend Fan has bought out for this movie?”

Fu Shiyi’s agent swiped the phone curiously and gasped.

“Oh my god, 500 cinemas, the equivalent to a full box office day! Is this fan mental?”

The cost could contribute to one day’s box office of the Long Wind and no one without tens of millions of yuan would be able to afford that!

What Li Xing’er’s and Master Three’s fans did was nothing compared to this.

Fu Shiyi’s lips twitched. No, that fan was not mental, but his brother was.

No one except for his brother in this whole country would be so crazy.

Apart from the cinemas, he had arranged roses and gift boxes, showing off their love to the domestic audience.

It was very typical of his eldest brother.

Chapter 248: Irrational, Jealous Man

When Fu Shiyi’s agent Luo Jiaming read out the number of cinemas, Li Xing’er and her agent fell silent and glared at Gu Weiwei.

There were always wealthy fans who showed support for their idol by buying out the cinemas for a movie, in the entertainment industry but that fan was the only one in history who had done the buyout of cinemas in this way.

Mu Weiwei had such a foxy-looking face and she knew exactly how to seduce men.

As Fu Shiyi thought of Fu Hanzheng, so did Gu Weiwei... but honestly, was he so childish that he did such a stupid thing?

As she was working with the cast for the promotional events, the top Boyfriend Fan named Mr. Right, who bought out the cinemas for the movie, and her name, reached the top search list together.

[Just marry him, your Boyfriend Fan is great!]

[Marry him plus one]

[Just marry him!]

....

In the meantime, her Weibo followers also suddenly increased by more than one million.

Gu Weiwei, who was in the middle of the promotional work, had no idea about it.

When they finished the day's promotional event, she went back to the hotel in the same car as Fu Shiyi and she took a look at him; he looked so tired.

"Your brother can't be so... stupid, right?"

"He is a jealous man without any rationality, don't you get it?" Fu Shiyi squinted at her.

"Jealous?" Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows.

All she had been doing was promotional work and apart from Fu Shiyi and Jolin, who was gay, she hadn't interacted with any other men. What was he getting jealous for?

Fu Shiyi brought out his phone and showed her some of the latest Weibo posts, as he handed it to her.

"Just check it out."

Gu Weiwei took it and found that some of the fans from the original novel expressed their willingness to be her Boyfriend Fan, after they watched the movie.

Also, those people then watched the movie everyday ever since it was released in the cinemas.

They left comments and Jolin reposted and replied to them with her account.

[Thanks so much for your sweet boys' support and love, you can be my Boyfriend Fan, but you can't be my boyfriend]

Gu Weiwei was so confused as she read through the posts.

"Your brother can't be this... childish, right?"

Just because those Boyfriend Fans claimed to support her by visiting the cinema, he decided to do the buyout and become the top Boyfriend Fan?

Also, what did those comments that urged her to get married mean?

"It must be him, or the man who did this would have disappeared by now!"

Fu Shiyi took back his phone and looked helpless.

Ever since they were small, his brother had never bought anything for them, not even a candy for him and Second Master but now that he was in a relationship, he bought everything for his girlfriend.

Please come back now, Second Brother, I have been presented with too much love to eat it all alone.

Gu Weiwei pulled out her phone that she had not touched for the entire day and called Fu Hanzheng.

“Did you do the buyout thing today?”

“Yes.” Fu Hanzheng sounded cold.

“President Fu, could we be just a little bit more rational?” Gu Weiwei asked.

Fu Hanzheng replied, “So many people want to be your boyfriend, so I am just trying to tell them that I am your real boyfriend.”

Because then those small, young children who claimed to be her boyfriend, would understand that they were totally disqualified.

“Uncle Fu, it is just a kind of fan group, Fu Shiyi also has a lot of Girlfriend Fans, don’t take it too seriously...”

Gu Weiwei explained patiently, fearing that he would do something else in the future.

Fu Hanzheng replied, “So you call others sweet boys, and me Uncle?”

Gu Weiwei explained helplessly. “Jolin takes care of my account on Weibo, not me!”

It was true, just as Fu Shiyi had said. Jealous men had no rationality.

Chapter 249: Boyfriend to Husband (Extra Chapter)

However, Fu Hanzheng replied with a tone that was full of doubt, “Is that true?”

If he had known that there would be so many men drooling over her once she entered the entertainment industry, he would not have allowed her to get involved.

“I will not comment on what you did today but please do not conduct any buyouts or send me any flowers or gift boxes...”

He was showing her his support but this behavior would easily make outsiders think that she had some mysterious rich sugar daddy backing her.

“But you did not eat anything yesterday.” Fu Hanzheng reminded her with a mild voice.

Due to the tight schedule the day before, she had failed to eat anything at lunch or dinner. It was not until midnight that she managed to grab some food on the plane.

The reason why he had asked someone to deliver her gift boxes was because he hoped that she did not have to starve.

Gu Weiwei’s heart softened and retreated a step backwards.

“Then just give me the flowers and food, nothing more!”

“Okay.” Fu Hanzheng did not want to give her any more trouble, so he agreed instantly.

“When are you coming home? I miss you.”

Gu Weiwei took a look at the flowers in the car and said, “Still a fortnight to go.”

Fu Hanzheng asked, “Don’t you miss me?”

Gu Weiwei said quickly, after hearing the words, “I do, I do miss you...”

Fu Shiyi, who had been resting with his eyes closed, turned around and looked at her.

“Watch your words, I am a single man!”

Having said that he then rolled his eyes at the flowers in her arms.

He had delivered so many bouquets to her and each bunch contained 101 flowers, which symbolised that she was his one and only. It was a lie that his brother didn’t know how to be romantic.

Fu Hanzheng smiled in satisfaction on the other side of the phone.

“Then, can you think over one thing before you return?”

“What thing?” Gu Weiwei yawned.

“Making your boyfriend become your husband instead.” Fu Hanzheng said.

He had to raise this question about marriage, just in case something incidental would happen between them.

“...” Gu Weiwei was silent.

“Weiwei?” Fu Hanzheng called her name.

“I think we are doing very well... in this way.” Gu Weiwei laughed dryly.

Fu Hanzheng lowered his voice. “Don’t you think that we should aim at getting married?”

He had thought that she would start to consider getting married, when their relationship became closer after a while.

“I...”

She had been forced to become his girlfriend to start with.

Just because she was in a relationship with him, did not mean that she was going to marry him. She had not been able to break up with him so far.

Staying silent for a while, Fu Hanzheng sounded a bit disappointed.

“So, you only want a relationship, not a marriage?”

“I don’t think that I need marriage right now...” Gu Weiwei said discreetly.

Fu Shiyi sighed helplessly, when he heard the word ‘marriage’.

So when his brother did not have him as his strategist, he was getting off track.

He had not even been able to sleep with her, what was the point of raising the question of marriage? He needed to be patient!

After a long moment of silence, Fu Hanzheng said, "You should start to think about it."

He did not want to be her boyfriend for too long. He wanted to be her real husband.

Gu Weiwei said, "We can talk about it when I get back."

Without asking anything more, Fu Hanzheng just said, "Take a good rest, alright?"

"Okay." Gu Weiwei replied and hung up.

Then, she scratched her hair anxiously – can this man stop thinking about getting married and having children all the time?

With the phone in his hand, Fu Shiyi started to text his brother on the sly.

[Do you want your girlfriend to fall deeply in love with you?]

[Do you want to have fun with your girlfriend in bed?]

[Do you want our mother to have a grandson as soon as possible?]

[I am the guide to the road of your dreams!]

Chapter 250: Helping My Brother

Five minutes later, Fu Hanzheng sent a brief text.

[Name your condition]

He had to admit that Fu Shiyi was better at dealing with girls than he was.

Fu Shiyi laughed proudly, and started to name his conditions.

[Give me back my game company. One Koenigsegg]

After a long time, Fu Hanzheng replied.

[If your methods do not work, then you are going to move into the place Fu Shiqin has prepared for you]

That meant the tomb that Fu Shiqin had bought for him.

Fu Shiyi threw a look at Gu Weiwei who was resting with her eyes closed and replied confidently.

[Sure, I can gamble with my life]

As the car pulled over outside the hotel, Gu Weiwei noticed Fu Shiyi's sinister gaze towards her and she frowned.

"Third Master, what are you planning to do?"

"No way, I will be killed by my brother if I have any plans towards you."

Fu Shiyi smiled guiltily – was it that obvious?

However, just one moment earlier, he had sent his brother a text.

[I will tell you how you can sleep with her. Honestly, making the move in bed is the best way for couples talk]

Gu Weiwei looked at him for a few seconds. “You did not come up with the stupid idea of buying out the cinemas for the movie, for your brother, right?”

Fu Shiyi felt wronged. “If I was asked to think of a method, that stupid move would not have appeared!”

Gu Weiwei thought that he was right, but still warned him.

“It is your own choice if you want to be your brother’s servant, but don’t get involved between him and me.”

“No, never!” Fu Shiyi smiled.

If he was not involved, his brother would not be able to have her anytime near in the future.

For his brother’s happiness and his garage kit and sport cars, he had to do something behind her back.

With flowers in her arms, Gu Weiwei got out of the car and returned to the hotel.

Fu Shiyi followed behind her and they walked into the elevator one after the other.

“Honestly, who else are you going to marry apart from my brother, why are you struggling?”

Normally, when a woman heard his brother’s name, she would be begging to marry him.

However, she had turned down his brother’s proposal numerous times.

Gu Weiwei squinted at him and did not want to explain anything more.

Fu Hanzheng was not aware that she was the girl he must not marry.

But she clearly knew that he was the man she must not marry.

Fu Shiyi said, “You must give me a very convincing reason as to why you refuse to marry my brother.”

She had feelings for his brother, but whenever marriage was mentioned, she looked like she was in a lot of pain.

Was she planning to just be in a relationship with his brother for an entire lifetime?

“I said that I did not want a marriage without love.”

Having said this, Gu Weiwei stepped out of the elevator with her flowers and returned to her own room.

The moment she entered the room, she sighed deeply as she leaned against the door.

She was not going to return to Gu Siting but she could not stay for long next to Fu Hanzheng either.

Fu Hanzheng might like her and want to marry her now but was he going to feel the same way, after he knew who she really was?

No matter if Fu Hanzheng liked her for real or not, she should not take the following step ahead at all.

Her heart from the previous life had been dug out and given to Ling Yan and when she was given one more chance of life, she must not allow herself to become lost in Fu Hanzheng's arms.

Seeing her entering the room, Fu Shiyi snorted.

"I don't believe that there is no love between you and my brother!"

There were some things that could be used as a lie to others on the surface but whenever she talked with his brother, authentic emotion reflected in her eyes and that was real joy.

After he entered the room, he made a phone call to his agent.

"I need to take a rest after the promotional events."

Luo Jiaming replied, "Your work has been arranged until the year after next year, no rest for you!"

Fu Shiyi threw himself onto the bed and lay spread out on it. "I am going to teach my brother how to court a girl!"