

MY HIDDEN 261

Chapter 261: Uncontrolled

Gu Weiwei slept all the way until it was 11 a.m. and woke up with a terrible headache.

After she rolled over, she realized that she was naked. All of a sudden, she sat up with the blanket over her body, only to find that Fu Hanzheng was no longer next to her.

She pulled away the blanket and found that there were numerous kiss marks over her body. Then she started to remember what had happened the night before.

So she almost... almost slept with Fu Hanzheng?!

If Fu Hanzheng had not discovered her period the night before, so that he stopped halfway, she would have ended up sleeping with him!

She threw herself back onto the bed in pain, wondering if she had been possessed.

She was drunk and had started to lose control of herself.

She stayed in bed for a long time, feeling regret over whatever she had done and failing to see Fu Hanzheng once again.

So she grabbed the phone on the bedside table and started to text Jolin, begging him to get her as much work as possible.

She hoped that she would have so much work to do that she had no time to be at home.

After she texted Jolin and was about to get up, she realized that her own clothes were not in this room.

Her walk-in closet was in another room and she could not possibly run there naked.

As a last resort, she put on Fu Hanzheng's shirt that was lying on the floor.

She decided to eat something and waited for Jolin's call. She must sneak away before Fu Hanzheng returned from work, so she should really start packing now!

However, she had just heated up a cup of milk in the kitchen when the door of the study creaked open.

The man, who she thought was at work, walked out of the study.

The milk in Gu Weiwei's hands trembled and when she saw the kiss marks on Fu Hanzheng's neck, she suddenly felt even worse.

What on earth had she done to him the night before?

Fu Hanzheng walked into the kitchen, poured her a bowl of porridge as well as a bowl of brown-sugar water.

"Still feeling terrible?"

Gu Weiwei shook her head and focused on eating the porridge, almost burying her head into the bowl.

“Your head still aches?” Fu Hanzheng frowned.

Gu Weiwei laughed dryly. “Just a little.”

Fu Hanzheng said, “What about your stomach?”

Gu Weiwei laughed even more dryly. “Just a little.”

She felt her face heating up when she thought of her newly-changed sanitary pad.

Sitting opposite her, Fu Hanzheng watched her, who had turned both embarrassed and shy.

“Last night...”

“I really did not mean last night!” Gu Weiwei explained as she looked up.

Fu Hanzheng reached out for her, seeing how she behaved.

Gu Weiwei leaned backwards and kept leaning backwards until she touched the back of the chair. Then she found that he had only reached out for her, just to wipe off the rice on the corner of her lips.

“I am sorry, I promised you not to get drunk and when I got drunk, I started to do something improper to you...”

She had not even realized that she was at home. She had thought that she was still outside and dreaming.

Fu Hanzheng nodded and said with regret in his voice, “It is okay, I just think that it feels a bit... unfortunate.”

Gu Weiwei looked at him with a helpless expression.

She had been worried that Fu Hanzheng would sleep with her but now she had started to worry that she would sleep with him instead.

Seeing her finishing the food, Fu Hanzheng stretched his arms and said,

“Come here.”

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips, stood up and walked towards him, only to end up in his arms.

Fu Hanzheng brushed away the strands of hair and smiled sexily.

“If you really want to do it, we can continue when your period finishes.”

Gu Weiwei shook her head constantly. “No, I really don’t want to do it!”

“But you wanted it badly last night.” Fu Hanzheng reminded her.

He had stopped himself from forging on ahead but she still did not give up. She almost took off his pants!

“That was drunk me doing stupid stuff, it was not real.” Gu Weiwei felt even more helpless.

She was indeed possessed the night before!

Fu Hanzheng chuckled and gazed deeply into her eyes.

“People always tell the truth when they are drunk and whatever they do and say when they are drunk normally turns out to be exactly what they are thinking, in the deepest parts of their heart.”

Chapter 262: Flirty

Gu Weiwei felt a bit guilty when hearing what he said. She had no words to counter him.

“Fu Hanzheng, I... feel myself feeling bad. I can't give you what you want but I keep using what you give to me.”

He wanted her to fall for him but she could not do it.

He wanted her to marry him and have children with him but she rejected the proposal.

Yet she kept using whatever he had granted to her and remained in the sense of security she obtained from him.

“What I want is your true heart, not an exchange from a deal.”

Fu Hanzheng drew her further into his arms and kissed her softly on the forehead.

If what he wanted was her body, then he had all kinds of methods to get her to obey him but what he preferred was to take care of her and wait for her to change her mind.

Seeing the kiss marks on his neck, Gu Weiwei pointed at it in embarrassment.

“What about... getting something to conceal them. It is not so proper for the staff to see it, right?”

They would think that she had done something to their President.

“They already saw it in the morning meeting, no need to go through all the trouble.” Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei said, “You don't think that it is embarrassing?”

“Nope, and I don't mind if you do something more about it.” Fu Hanzheng chuckled joyfully.

Sitting in his arms, Gu Weiwei felt restrained.

“I have a present for you, want to take a look at it?”

Fu Hanzheng put her down and followed her to the walk-in closet to open her luggage.

Gu Weiwei opened the luggage and brought out a gift box. She opened the box and gave it to him.

Fu Hanzheng looked at it and found that it was a sapphire colored tie with low-profile stripes, it gave off a very professional businessman vibe.

Gu Weiwei said, as she took it out, "There was a store that sold hand-made clothes next to a hotel I stayed at. I noticed that they made great ties, so I made one myself after I finished filming. I learned it from the owner."

She truly had no idea what she could get him but she did remember that he had a lot of business suits and ties for daily life.

Hearing that it was made by her, Fu Hanzheng smiled brightly.

"Thanks, I like it a lot."

Gu Weiwei took it out and said, "Let me put it on for you."

Fu Hanzheng nodded and removed the tie around his neck.

Gu Weiwei tried to loop it around his neck but failed. She was just thinking of how she should deal with the problem, when he took her off his lap and pulled her in-between his legs, where she stood up straight.

She straightened his collar and put the tie around his neck. Then she pressed down the upright collar, adjusted the tie properly and sighed.

"Very handsome."

Fu Hanzheng picked her up and kissed her right on her waist.

After a long while, he released her and reminded her with a low voice, "Still in my shirt. Trying to flirt with me?"

She was dressed in his shirt right in front of him, which reminded him of what happened last night in bed. If she stayed this way, he would probably need to take another cold shower.

Gu Weiwei turned around and grabbed her clothes, before she ran back to the room and changed into a fitting set of pajamas.

She then noticed what Jolin had texted back.

[There is an audition for a lead actress in a contemporary history piece, in four days. I will send you some famous pieces by the director, so do some homework on them. Try your best to get this role]

Gu Weiwei texted him back and saw the patch of blood on the bed sheets. Then she got a new one to replace it.

The moment she flipped the blanket, she saw the piles of things lying in the blanket.

0.01mm super-thin style condoms?

Lubricant?

Fu Hanzheng answered a phone call and was about to offer her some help when he noticed her holding the things, looking angry.

"What does this mean?"

Fu Hanzheng glanced at the items and replied calmly, "Just in case."

Chapter 263: You on Me (Extra)

He was a busy man and it was not proper for him to get involved with the entertainment industry, so he needed Fu Shiyi to keep an eye out for her.

Therefore, he must not betray him in this hour.

"You..."

Annoyed, Gu Weiwei tossed the things into the dustbin, realizing that it was not her who had intended to do something to him but actually it was him that had intended to do something to her!

Damn, she must leave and start on her new work now. It was too dangerous to stay here.

"So... if I were not on my period, you would have done it with me last night, right?"

Fu Hanzheng burst into laughter. "It was you who said that you wanted to eat me, a piece of candy!"

He had no idea that in her mind he appeared as a piece of candy!

"I..."

Seeing her flushing shyly, Fu Hanzheng continued teasing her.

"I stopped myself, but you still tried to pull off my belt and wanted to continue..."

Feeling extremely ashamed, Gu Weiwei turned around and continued to make the bed.

"Stop blaming me, when you are the flirty one!"

Fu Hanzheng approached her and swept her into his arms, whispering by her ear, "You know that I always do whatever you ask me to. If you really wish to do it with me, I am 100% willing to do it with you too."

Gu Weiwei bit her lips, cursing inwardly. That was not what she was thinking at all!

"Why... are you not at work? Are you really so free?"

Fu Hanzheng held her in his arms tightly, trying to gain some consolation from her because she had been away from home for more than a month.

"I already finished relegating the tasks in the morning meeting and I will have a video meeting soon, so I can stay at home with you."

He had not thought that this apartment was empty, until she went away. That was when he found this place to be so vacant.

"Director Mo Chi has a film audition in a couple of days and if I am selected, I will need to be with the crew again."

Gu Weiwei did not conceal her plan from him any longer, after thinking about it for a while.

The joy in Fu Hanzheng's eyes turned faint. He asked confusedly.

"You want to make movies but only because you like doing it, right?"

When the Long Wind received such a great box office review, he did not sense any joy from her who was supposed to have realized a dream.

Instead, she behaved as if she were forging ahead towards a single goal.

"Of course it is only because I like doing it." Gu Weiwei turned her head around and smiled.

But that was not the truth. She had a goal... and it was to crush Ling Yan's dreams.

Fu Hanzheng checked the time. "I am going to have a meeting in the study, come in with me."

Gu Weiwei should have known that as long as she was here, back at home, she would be chained to his side. Therefore, she made two cups of black tea and followed him into the study.

Sitting in front of the computer, Fu Hanzheng was talking with the partner on the other side of the line fluently, in a foreign language.

Sitting opposite him, Gu Weiwei was deeply fascinated in a foreign masterpiece of literature.

She understood from their conversation that the meeting was about the weapon business of the military enterprise that was subordinate to Fu's Enterprise.

The Fu Family's initial business was in the military and they were in charge of the development and production process of high class weapons in Hua Land. It was also the biggest reason why the Fu Family enjoyed the highest rank, throughout the entire country.

Hua Land and its allied lands tended to buy their national defense weapons from Fu's Enterprise, which allowed the Fu Family to remain in their unshakeable position in the country.

Fu Hanzheng talked with the partner for over two hours and finally came to an agreement. The partner from the other side of the line said, "According to our latest information, Gu's Enterprise of A Land seems to have a problem with their alliances and they may not currently be able to give you any more trouble."

Excitement suddenly crept into Gu Weiwei's eyes, which were on the book as her brain drifted somewhere else.

Fu Hanzheng looked a bit startled, so he asked for more information.

The partner thought for a moment and replied, "Our information is quite limited but what we can be sure of is that the reason of their collaboration is because the Gu Family adopted the daughter of the head of the organization and that Ms. Gu has been missing for several months! If you, Mr. Fu can find her, then the Gu Family are going to lose this alliance forever."

Chapter 264: The Value of Gu Weiwei

Gu Weiwei's hand shivered, spilling the cup of black tea over the book and herself.

Hearing the noise, Fu Hanzheng leaned forward and checked on her.

“I... er... need to get changed.”

Trying hard to stay calm, she dashed out of the study and went into the walk-in closet, where she changed into a new outfit.

She breathed hard as she leaned against the door after she walked into the walk-in closet.

She had thought that she should be very grateful to the Gu Family, when they adopted her and gave her the most luxurious life but the Gu Family, who had always focused on their interests, would never do anything without gaining anything in return.

So it turned out that her adoption was a secret deal.

Because of her mysterious father who never showed up, the Gu Family gave her the most luxurious life and kept her safe in every single way, concealing her real identity.

In those years, she tried her best to find her missing father by reading the diary her mother had left to her.

She even risked her life by running into the battlefields, when she failed to get any clues from it.

But she failed every time.

Gu Siting told her that her father was long gone.

Yet he knew exactly who he was, where he was and he had even... met him before but he kept lying to her and refused to tell her anything.

Was she nothing more than a bargaining chip for the interest exchange for Gu Siting and the Gu Family?

Seeing that she had been inside the walk-in closet for a long time, Fu Hanzheng finished the video call and knocked at the door.

“Weiwei?”

Gu Weiwei came back to herself, finished changing herself and adjusted her expression, before walking out.

Fu Hanzheng noticed that she looked pale, so he asked, “Feeling unwell?”

“It is my stomach.”

Gu Weiwei came up with an excuse, perfectly concealing her untold past.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a moment and said, “Maybe it is because of the wine from last night, we can visit the hospital if it gets too serious.”

Gu Weiwei nodded and nestled herself on the sofa obediently.

Fu Hanzheng poured her a cup of brown-sugar water and called Lei Meng for something serious.

“Any suspicious news from the Gu Family these days?”

Lei Meng thought for a while and said, "Nothing special, we have not found the person Gu Siting is looking for and he has not found that person either."

Fu Hanzheng frowned.

"What about Gu Weiwei who was adopted by the Gu Family?"

What he had heard from the military department of the alliance, was that Gu Weiwei had been missing for several months.

"She has not shown up for months, need me to check it out?" Lei Meng asked.

Gu Weiwei might be the lady of the Gu Family, yet she was never involved with the Gu Family's business.

She was a talented person in the arts, so she was never included in the investigation.

Fu Hanzheng's face turned cold. "Yes, check it out and you'd best find her."

Startled, Lei Meng asked, "The person Gu Siting is looking for..."

Fu Hanzheng said, "Look for that person too. They may know something about Gu Weiwei, that is why the Gu Family is looking for him."

"Got it, Boss." Lei Meng hung up after hearing the words.

With the cup in her hands, Gu Weiwei asked in a trying tone, when he finished the call right in front of her, "Do the Gu Family and the Fu Family really not get on well with each other?"

Fu Hanzheng sat down by her side and put his arm around her shoulders.

"The two families had fierce fights in my grandpa's generation, my Second Grandpa, my uncle and my aunt died because of them. The Gu Family paid dearly too."

He looked sinister when he spoke of the Gu Family.

"More than twenty years ago, the Fu Family almost crushed the Gu Family but suddenly, an underground force appeared and helped the Gu Family, so that they recovered and even established tight relationships with the royal family of A Land."

Gu Weiwei took a sip of the warm brown-sugar water and asked in a seemingly casual tone, "Then why do you need Gu Weiwei?"

Fu Hanzheng had meant to tell her about the grudges between the two families, so that she could stay away from the Gu Family in future, thus concealed nothing from her.

"She is the daughter of the head of the underground organization and the underground forces kept having fights and internal conflicts, so the head of the organisation concealed his daughter and gave her to the Gu Family. She is the biggest bargain chip between the Gu Family and his alliances, and as long as the Fu Family finds her, the Gu Family will be doomed."

In the past few years, it was due to the prevention of the underground forces that the Gu Family kept growing stronger.

Gu Weiwei finally understood what happened. "Can she still be found?"

She was dead and she was sitting right in front of him, living underneath his nose.

"Gu Weiwei seemed to have disappeared with the Yuan Family and the Yuan Family are the bodyguards sent by the underground organization to keep her safe. So if we find the Yuan Family, we will be able to find her." Fu Hanzheng said.

Chapter 265: For Your Fondness Only

Gu Weiwei looked down at the warm brown-sugar water, feeling upset and complicated.

She hadn't understood what was going on with her and her family in the last twenty years that she had lived but just a few months after her death, she finally understood the whole truth... in another girl's body.

The Yuan Family was her biological father's men, which was not something she had expected.

She had thought that Gu Siting was behind the arrangement.

"What... are you going to do with Gu Weiwei, if you ever find her?"

"We are going to use her to crush the Gu Family and the alliance between her father and them. I am only aiming at the Gu Family." Fu Hanzheng said calmly.

The Fu Family had lost too many people due to the bloody battle years ago – his Second Grandpa had died and his wife followed soon afterwards.

His uncle and aunt were missing, so his uncle's wife had had a breakdown and remained in the hospital even until today.

When his aunt died, she was just about to get married, it was a huge scar in the heart of every member of the Fu Family. Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin had been too young to understand anything but he had witnessed and understood it all.

Gu Weiwei asked, "She was brought up by the Gu Family, will you kill her too?"

Fu Hanzheng looked at her curiously and smiled.

"Why did are you so concerned about the Gu Family all of a sudden?"

"Just curious." Gu Weiwei smiled, concealing her emotions.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and said, "I don't need to do anything to her and we should not do anything to her either."

Her biological father was not someone they should cross and the Fu Family did not need to bring themselves any trouble by irritating him for no reason.

Gu Weiwei looked at him sideways and said, with a small chuckle, "Fu Hanzheng, you are a very weird man, you know?"

“Oh?” Fu Hanzheng’s eyebrows were raised. “How so?”

Gu Weiwei took a sip from the cup and said, “I mean... you actually seem quite likeable.”

She had hated Fu Hanzheng a great deal when she was with the Gu Family before – she kept on hearing negative comments about him.

There was one time when Gu Siting did not come home to celebrate her birthday because of business conflicts with the Fu Family, so she asked someone to print out Fu Hanzheng’s picture and used it as a target for darts.

Yet when she became Mu Weiwei, she suddenly realized that he and Gu Siting were completely different people.

Gu Siting always considered his family business as the most important thing, thus lying to her about her father.

He claimed that he liked her but he still told the public that they were just brother and sister.

As a result, no one had ever known that they were a couple, apart from herself.

But Fu Hanzheng always considered her as the most important priority and everything else could just come second.

Whatever she had wanted to get from Gu Siting, had fallen out of her hands.

But after she died and was reborn, she ended up getting everything from Fu Hanzheng instead.

Having heard her words, Fu Hanzheng leaned forward and kissed her right on top of her head.

“I only want to be likeable for you.”

With the cup in her hands, Gu Weiwei could not help but smile brightly.

They had just been in a heated conversation when Fu Hanzheng’s phone rang.

He frowned and answered Fu Shiqin’s call.

“Brother, your girlfriend has gossip!”

Fu Hanzheng took a look at the girl in his arms. “What gossip?”

“It has hit the headlines of the entertainment magazines and it is on the news too. Turn on the TV and check it out!”

Fu Shiqin sounded mysterious, yet also excited and gleeful.

Fu Hanzheng turned on the TV and switched to the entertainment channel, the gossip was broadcasted right in front of his face.

[Mu Weiwei, the supporting actress of the Long Wind, has gained enormous reputation due to her acting and she received a mysterious fan, who shocked the whole country, by buying out cinemas for the movie. Everyone wondered who this mysterious fan could be. Last night, Mu Weiwei and Fu Shiyi had dinner together and left in the same car afterwards. So far, they have not shown up in public and it is very likely, according to the viewers, that the mysterious, rich fan is nobody other than Shiyi, the Third Master of Fu's Enterprise!"

At the same time, the pictures of them getting into the same car were shown on the screen too.

Gu Weiwei looked sideways and glanced at Fu Hanzheng.

What would he be thinking now... when he saw that his girlfriend was in a rumored relationship with his brother.

Chapter 266: Rumor with Fu Shiyi

Fu Hanzheng turned back to the phone call with Fu Shiqin and his gaze looked lethal.

Fu Shiqin understood that they had finished watching the report, judging from what he could hear through the phone.

"Now your girlfriend and Third Brother are hitting the headlines too! It is taking over the news all over the internet."

"Many people support this couple, do you know what that means? That means Wei and Yi look cute together, pretty annoying huh?"

Fu Hanzheng sounded cold. "Finished?"

Fu Shiqin instantly stopped stimulating his brother. "I know where he is, want to punch him?"

He finally got the chance to set up his brother.

Sitting closely to him, Gu Weiwei could clearly hear Fu Shiqin's voice coming through Fu Hanzheng's phone.

These two brothers were again trying to frame each other.

Fu Shiqin waited for a few seconds and added even more information, when Fu Hanzheng did not reply.

"Last night, he said that he had delivered the meat right into your mouth and that if you don't eat it... you're a monster!"

Gu Weiwei frowned and suddenly thought of the things in the paper bag in the room.

She seemed to have spotted these things in Fu Shiyi's car the night before.

And then she thought of what Fu Shiqin said... so those things were not prepared by Fu Hanzheng but by Fu Shiyi!

Also, it was him who had kept asking her to make toasts and get drunk, so that when she went home she was almost unconscious.

Coldness hovered over Fu Hanzheng's face and he ended the call.

He had tried to ask Shiyi about what had happened but seeing that what he had done last night had caused someone to like him more, he had decided to ignore it... but it seemed that he was getting out of hand now.

In the meantime Fu Shiyi had just finished making a commercial when he saw the headlines. He almost collapsed.

Damn those people!

Did he look like he was courting her?

He was helping his brother protect his girlfriend! He was being very loyal!

His agent Luo Jiaming did not take the gossip seriously. Besides, the majority of the comments were positive which made him feel even less concerned.

“Well, the gossip is out, what about creating a story between you two? It would be cute!”

“Damn you, I am going to die soon!”

With his phone in hand, Fu Shiqin ran outside in a hurry.

He drove away from the commercial site, wondering if he should go home to beg for forgiveness or simply run away to a foreign country instead.

He could even imagine the horrible expression in his brother’s eyes when he saw the news.

It must like an icy blade that kept on stabbing him to death.

After spending a long time panicking, he decided to make a call to his sister-in-law-to-be instead.

After all, she was the only person who could calm his brother down.

Seeing the incoming call, Gu Weiwei snorted. He was delivering himself up as a sacrifice, even before she went to find him.

“Sister-in-law, I was driving you home last night and some journalists snapped pictures of us and if my brother knows about it...”

“He already knows about it.”

Gu Weiwei sounded annoyed. She had thought of more than a hundred ways to punish him.

Hearing these words, Fu Shiyi was so frightened that he almost burst into tears. He said with a pleading tone, “You understand pretty well that I was just driving you home, right? You will explain that to my brother, right? I have already contacted the PR team and soon the news will be suppressed.”

His brother and her were in a secretive relationship, so what would his brother think if the whole world thought that his sister-in-law and him were a couple?

Gu Weiwei drank some water calmly and asked with a cold voice, “I don’t care about the gossip but what about the superthin 0.01mm packet?”

He had purposefully asked the cast to get her drunk, so that he could send her to his brother's bed afterwards.

Chapter 267: Headlines with Fu Shiyi

Fu Shiyi was frozen for a few seconds and countered in a pretentiously innocent tone.

"What 0.01mm?"

Oh man!

He had just helped his brother get her and now he was selling him out already?!

Did he want to or not want to keep this girl in his arms? Why was he trying to kill his guide?

Hearing his tone, Gu Weiwei said with an indifferent tone,

"What about explaining that to your brother yourself?"

"I don't want to be killed." Fu Shiyi said straightforwardly.

For him, home was like the Halls of Hell.

His brother would not hit him or curse him, when he tried to punish him or his second brother but he would always find out what they feared most of all to torment them, so that they would be deeply traumatized.

"I am here for you too." Gu Weiwei said and decided to lure him into a false sense of security, before taking revenge.

Fu Shiyi said, "You... you will explain everything to my brother, right?"

He tried to cozy up to her but the headlines had appeared. Damn it!

Gu Weiwei took a look at Fu Hanzheng who was answering a call for work and said with a friendly tone, "Just come home first."

Fu Shiyi thought for a while and decided to take a risk and go home.

"When I come home later, you must console my brother first and I will only enter through the door when you give me the signal."

Gu Weiwei grinned and showed her teeth. "Okay, you wait for my signal."

Fu Shiyi had just hung up when a call from the old house rang through.

Mrs. Fu was calling him and snapped angrily at him.

"What is wrong with you and Mu Weiwei?"

Fu Shiyi said, "Mom, I am busy, let's talk later."

“What do you mean later? She pestered your brother and now she is with you! Is she trying to ruin our family or not?”

After Mrs. Fu read the reports in the magazine and found out that her youngest son was in the headlines with Mu Weiwei, she just could not stand it any more.

“Mom, no, we are not doing anything.” Fu Shiyi was driving as he was explaining.

She was not pestering his brother, but his brother who was pestering her, okay? He was trying all he could just to marry her so that she could have his baby.

Having heard these words, Mrs. Fu sounded even fiercer.

“What do you mean nothing?! You must tell me the truth, were you with her last night or not?”

Fu Shiyi just could not anymore. “No, we were not!”

She was in his brother’s bed. How could she have been with him?

Hearing him being untruthful, Mrs. Fu’s anger bubbled over.

“Tell me the truth, did you sleep together?”

Fu Shiyi said, “I...”

He would never dare to sleep with her. A rumor like that would kill him!

“I don’t care if you do anything with those superstars or models but don’t mess around with Mu Weiwei! Tell your second brother to stay away from her too. She is aiming at you two because she can’t have your big brother...” Mrs. Fu warned Fu Shiyi in a serious tone.

Actually, when Mu Weiwei first moved into the Fu Family, she didn’t dislike her.

There was no daughter in the Fu Family, and she would have liked her to be one, if she had been obedient but she had kept pestering Fu Hanzheng and making a big fuss in the family.

What a terrible girl! The Fu Family took her in because of what her grandfather had done but she was never going to marry any of her sons!

Hearing her nagging, Fu Shiyi felt his head aching.

It was his brother who kept pestering her, not the other way around.

What was his mother doing, when she had urged her son to give her a grandson as soon as possible, without knowing who the girlfriend was?

“Alright, mom, I have very important affairs to handle right now!”

Chapter 268: Fu Hanzheng and His Brother

An hour later, Fu Shiyi arrived at Jinxiu Compound.

However, instead of getting out of the car immediately, he stayed inside and texted Mu Weiwei first.

[Sister-in-law Weiwei, how is my brother doing right now?]

Due to the hangover, Gu Weiwei was having her massaged by Fu Hanzheng, so she replied.

[He is good and he has arranged his men to remove all of the gossip reports and the hot search headlines]

Seeing this, Fu Shiyi seemed to feel that he was no longer in danger.

So he replied.

[Then, please ask my brother, can I go up now?]

Gu Weiwei asked after receiving the message.

“Third Master asks if he can come up now?”

Fu Hanzheng stopped the hands that were massaging her head. “Do you want to take revenge?”

“Of course, he has set me up so many times!”

Whenever she thought about what happened the night before, she felt extremely annoyed.

Fu Hanzheng patted her back and said, “Go and get changed, then we can go out.”

Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows. “Where are we going?”

“Somewhere we can take revenge on him.” Fu Hanzheng said.

Hearing that she was going to be able to take revenge, she instantly got changed and went downstairs with him.

The two had just come downstairs when they saw Lei Meng and two of his men.

Fu Shiyi suddenly realized that something was wrong when he caught sight of Lei Meng, so he instantly turned around and tried to run away.

However, before he was able to open the door his car keys were taken.

Fu Hanzheng squinted at him coldly and said, “Take him to that place.”

“No, please, don’t!”

Fu Shiyi wanted to run away but Lei Meng instantly took hold of him.

“Third Master, don’t struggle. You are going there either on your feet or with the rope I will tie around you.”

Gu Weiwei followed Fu Hanzheng and entered the car, only to hear Fu Shiyi screaming in pain and getting pushed into the car behind them.

The two cars left the apartment and drove in a northwards direction.

Gu Weiwei could hear Fu Shiyi’s groans from the car behind them...

Where were they going? What made this proud Third Master so scared?

Thirty minutes later, the cars pulled over at the symbolic tower of the capital city, the place for bungee jumping.

Fu Shiyi looked up at the tower and almost collapsed.

“Please, help me sister-in-law, I am dying!”

This place was the shade of his life and whenever he caught sight of it, he would have a living nightmare.

Gu Weiwei turned around and tried to check on him, when Fu Hanzheng took hold of her shoulders and walked in first with her.

Lei Meng and another bodyguard of the Fu Family took hold of Fu Shiyi and went up in another elevator.

The elevator rose all the way to the top, where the bungee jumpers were supposed to take the leap off of the building.

Fu Shiyi almost burst into tears when he was taken out of the elevator by Lei Meng.

“Are you my brother or not? I help you but you betray me!”

“If I wasn’t your brother, I would have tossed you down myself.”

Fu Hanzheng stood aside with Gu Weiwei and watched Lei Meng put on the bungee jumping equipment for Fu Shiyi.

“If you can’t control your own words, we will visit this place every month.”

Fu Shiyi suddenly thought of how he had commented on his brother the night before. Damn, his second brother had sold him out again!

As he was cursing Fu Shiqin inwardly, Lei Meng and the men had already helped (forced) him into the equipment.

Then they pushed him over to the board.

Fu Shiyi groaned fiercely as he grasped Lei Meng tightly.

“I am not doing it, I am not doing it, I will die! I just said one word about you and now you are using this method on me again!”

Heights were the thing he feared above everything else.

When he deserted the company, just to become a superstar, his brother made him jump from here three times... he had been thoroughly traumatized but today, just because of one mean word...

Fu Hanzheng ordered coldly. “Send him down.”

It was not the first time for him to make mean comments like last night and today was a punishment for all of his crimes put together.

Plus, his girlfriend wasn’t happy either.

Chapter 269: Showing off their love

Obedying the order, Lei Meng ripped Fu Shiyi off himself and pushed him off the capital tower that was 388 meters tall.

“Ahhhhhhh!!!!”

The horrible scream echoed across the capital tower.

With his head down and feet up, Fu Shiyi plummeted like a comet.

He was so frightened that he forgot to close his eyes, so he watched himself approach the ground and for a moment, he suspected that his brain was falling out.

But in the next instant, the rope around his feet tightened and he was pulled back halfway.

“Ahhhhhhh!!!!”

He fell and was pulled up.

“Ahhhhhhh!!!!”

He fell and was pulled up again.

....

Standing on top of the tower, Gu Weiwei could hear the tearful scream down below.

Then she threw a look at Fu Hanzheng who still had an expressionless face.

“Isn’t this a bit... too lethal?”

Apparently, Fu Shiyi was afraid of heights but he was still forced to do bungee jumping. How cruel!

She had no idea why Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin had been so scared of Fu Hanzheng before but now she had witnessed first hand the way he mistreated his own brother.

He did not beat or curse you, but instead picked the thing you are most scared of and made you understand what suffering is.

Fu Hanzheng brushed away the hair that fell over her face, feeling nothing towards Fu Shiyi who was still screaming dreadfully.

“He needs to get some blood into his brain, so he knows how not to be stupid.”

After a few minutes, the rope around Fu Shiyi’s feet did not pull or drop him any more. He was helped to land safely onto the ground.

He looked pale and distracted.

Although the whole process only lasted a few minutes, he felt as if he had died hundreds of times.

At the top of the tower, Fu Hanzheng glanced at her when he knew that he had landed.

“Want to let him do it again?”

Gu Weiwei shook her head quickly. She could not be so cruel as to drop him again, after hearing his screaming.

Seeing the wind blowing hard, Fu Hanzheng took hold of her and said, "Then let's go home."

Gu Weiwei pointed at the jumping board. "I want to have a go."

Fu Hanzheng frowned. "It is a very dangerous sport."

"..." Gu Weiwei's lips twitched.

So he did not think that it was dangerous for his own brother?

"Don't worry, I am much braver than he is!"

"That doesn't work either." Fu Hanzheng countered.

"Just once, alright? I have always wanted to try it!"

Gu Weiwei showed one of her fingers, begging him.

When she was at the Gu Family, she was forbidden to try any extreme sports because they were dangerous.

Fu Hanzheng looked down, removed his suit jacket and gave it to Lei Meng.

"Then let's do it together!"

They put on the helmets and equipment.

Fu Hanzheng ordered repeated examinations of the gear and led her over to the board. She looked both excited and scared.

"You really want to try it?"

"Yes." Gu Weiwei nodded excitedly.

Fu Hanzheng took a deep breath, took hold of her waist and jumped off with her from the tower.

She closed her eyes nervously in his arms, but opened her eyes when she was pulled up.

She could not help but utter a loud scream because of the excitement.

The moment she jumped off the board, she had been so scared but with Fu Hanzheng surrounding her, she did not feel any fear after a few seconds.

Lying on the ground below them, Fu Shiyi watched the two of them coming down, holding each other tightly.

After a few falls and pulls, the two of them ceased halfway, as the rope helped them to land.

Then he saw them kissing...

Fu Shiyi turned around and looked into the sky, feeling helpless.

He had just been tormented and now they were showing off their love in front of him. What a difficult life!

Chapter 270: What to Do?

After Gu Weiwei and Fu Hanzheng finished the jump, they went over to Fu Shiyi who was lying on the floor, pretending to be dead.

“Third Master, it’s time to leave now.”

Fu Shiyi said, “I am not leaving. I want to die here.”

He had agreed to let him be his love guide but now when he had succeeded, he instantly broke the promise.

Fu Hanzheng warned him as he looked at Fu Shiyi who was lying on the floor.

“Any more nonsense and we will never jump from here again.”

Fu Shiyi looked scared. “What more do you want?”

“Next time, you can jump from a plane.” Fu Hanzheng said.

Hearing that, Fu Shiyi jumped up and said, “Honestly, Fu Shiqin and He Chi have also badmouthed you behind your back, why don’t you turn on them instead?”

“Of course they are involved too and all of you are too much.”

Hearing that neither of them would be able to get away, Fu Shiyi suddenly felt glad.

Fu Shiqin must be laughing at him in the office right now... but he was never going to be able to run away because he was only the first one to be tormented.

They were born together, so they should also die together.

Hearing their conversation, Gu Weiwei simply could not understand what on earth these three brothers were doing to each other.

“You are afraid of heights but what about Fu Shiqin?”

Fu Shiyi gritted his teeth and smiled.

“Heights are the only thing I am afraid of, but he fears many things, like not having desserts, business trips and snakes...”

There was one time when he pissed off Fu Hanzheng and was forced to have a friendly talk with some serpents. He still shivered when he thought of this matter.

Gu Weiwei glanced at Fu Hanzheng who was answering a call as he was walking, and asked with a small voice, “Don’t you know how to fight back, when you are tormented to such a degree?”

Fu Shiyi sounded helpless. “Of course we have thought about it but we have never been able to win a battle against him since we were little!”

Gu Weiwei patted his shoulder sympathetically – poor kids, how did they manage to grow so big?

Fu Shiyi gazed at her for a few seconds and then glanced at his own brother, and whispered, “My brother is actually planning to make you agree to marry him and give birth to his child. He has even promised to the family that he will have several children with you.”

Gu Weiwei frowned. “So?”

“You don’t want to fight back?” Fu Shiyi looked glistening.

Gu Weiwei squinted. “Will that ever work?”

Fu Shiyi glanced at his brother who almost finished the call and said with a small voice, “In a couple of days, I will bring you somewhere and you will know if it will work.”

Gu Weiwei looked at him and wondered if he was going to fight back because he had suffered too much today?

Having finished the phone call, Fu Hanzheng took her hands and went into the car.

“I am going to handle something at work, are you following or going home?”

“Home.”

Gu Weiwei expressed straightforwardly that she was not interested in going to work with him.

Fu Hanzheng understood that she was not feeling well today, so he did not force her to follow him.

He drove her back to the apartment and then hurried to the company for work.

Back at the apartment, Gu Weiwei found some classical films to watch, as well as the films that had been directed by the director Mo Jiao, making preparations for the audition.

Actually, when it came to acting skills, classical and costume period movies had even higher demands than modern movies because they were produced in a special setting and not just the characteristics but also the time period could affect the characters too.

However, Mo Jiao did bring several classical characters to the screen.

She spent the entire afternoon and evening watching movies and documentaries but Fu Hanzheng did not return until the day turned dark.

“Where is the Second Master?”

“He won’t be coming home these days.” Fu Hanzheng said.

So he was driving everyone away, so that they could have the whole place to themselves?
