

MY HIDDEN 291

Chapter 291: Find that Man!

Treasure was one of the most popular reality shows in Hua Land these past few years and it was a contest that required a great deal of ability, talent and physical stamina from the contestants.

Fu Shiyi and Gu Weiwei were the replacement for the couple who could not make it to the show and they were going to accomplish the mission at the capital of music, Vienna.

There were seven couples for the contest, and since the couple they replaced ranked last when they left they had to be punished for this round – they were asked to reach all the mission stations on their own without any transportation help from the program.

The other couples, however, received transportation help from the program.

Gu Weiwei and Fu Shiyi had to find the nearest subway and take other public transportation. Fortunately, they found the right path.

The first level was to learn to make a Sachertorte at the local Sachertorte store and the cake had to be satisfying enough for the customers, before they were allowed to head to the next level.

It was a very easy task for Gu Weiwei who had been interested in making all kinds of desserts.

They received the recipe from the dessert chef and Gu Weiwei took the main responsibilities of making the cake, whilst Fu Shiyi helped alongside her.

They finished the cake before everyone else did and then they delivered the cake to the chef for its examination, before giving it to the guests of the restaurant.

A couple of minutes later, the manager gave them the clue card for the next level.

The second mission was to learn to play an ensemble song and the difficulties of the songs varied.

The more difficult the song was, the more valuable the information cards they received would be.

If they managed to play the song with the highest difficulty, they would get the fast pass card, which could be used to get over a mission that they did not like or want to accomplish.

Gu Weiwei and Fu Shiyi had a talk with each other and chose the song by Mozart with the highest difficulty.

Since Fu Shiyi always made mistakes during the process, it took them five times before the mission was completed but they still managed to be the first one to finish the second mission and got the fast pass card smoothly.

The missions that took place at this capital of music were mostly related to music.

Fu Shiyi, who was a singer and Gu Weiwei, who had learnt music before, were not at all disadvantaged.

They went through all the missions and finished the tasks of the first day, so that they went to the hotel before everyone else did.

As they returned to the hotel, Fu Shiyi asked the agent anxiously, "Did you find out who it was that revealed the schedule?"

The agent brought out his phone and showed it to him.

"It is from the blogger called Gossip Head. He has been revealing many negative things about you during the past few years and it was him who revealed the schedule this time too."

Fu Shiyi went through the posts of Gossip Head and found that all of the news was negative and some of them were terrible pictures of him.

There were some posts that even showcased his pictures that were made into memes.

"Damn, what is wrong with this b*stard? Why is he ruining my reputation?"

The more Fu Shiyi was reading the posts, the angrier he became. He almost smashed Luo Jiaming's phone.

He had heard that there was a gossip blogger who kept revealing bad news about him but he had never cared about it before.

So it had always been this Gossip Head person.

"I am looking into it but I don't think he is part of the staff at our company." Luo Jiaming said.

Fu Shiyi paced back and forth in the room and said with clenched teeth, "If he's not staff from our company... then how does he know so much about me? We must find out who he is!"

"I know that a handsome man like me would never have any negative comments, unless someone is trying to make it happen!"

"When I find this man, I will chop his hands off, so that he will never post anything bad about me again!"

....

Far away in Hua Land, Fu Shiqin, who had been working overtime, violently sneezed.

Chapter 292: Fu Shiqin, the Gossip Head

Fu Shiyi had thought that it would only take a couple of days before the culprit was found.

But after the filming of the second day, Luo Jiaming said that the opponent seemed to have concealed his identity extremely well, so as not to be found out by anyone else.

Annoyed, Fu Shiyi knocked on Gu Weiwei's door.

"Sister-in-law, please help me, could you please ask my brother to find out who that b*stard the Gossip Head is!"

When his company failed to find out who he was, he had to use the family forces to get the job done. However, Lei Meng only obeyed his eldest brother's orders and neither he nor Fu Shiqin were able to get him to do anything.

Gu Weiwei said, "He is your brother, you should go ask him yourself!"

"I did, but he ignored me." Fu Shiyi sounded so helpless.

Also, Lei Meng was the hacker hired by the Fu Family and his job was to find out confidential information for Fu's Enterprise.

So it was highly unlikely that he would find a person who only released gossip.

However, if it had been his sister-in-law who asked his brother for the favor, his brother would definitely do whatever she asked.

"Then you can go to your second brother. Isn't he the best at setting you up?" Gu Weiwei snorted.

When she heard his nagging yesterday, she went to check out the posts by Gossip Head and that person did reveal a lot of mean things about Fu Shiyi... but all of them were true!

It must be someone who knew him very well, if that person could reveal so much about him.

If he was not from the company, he must be from the family and his second brother was the person who was the most interested in setting him up.

Fu Shiyi waved his hands and refused to believe that it was Fu Shiqin who did it.

"That person has posted mean comments about me for years, it can't have been my second brother."

"Then you can go and try to find out who he is." Gu Weiwei stopped making comments about this matter and she also refused to turn to Fu Hanzheng about this matter as well.

"I have failed to find out who he is, that is why I came to you for help, my dearest sister-in-law!" Fu Shiyi showed a flattering smile.

Gu Weiwei said, "You can go to your brother yourself, don't turn to me."

"My brother doesn't care about me, and only cares about you! Even if I kneel down and kowtow in front of him, it would not be as effective as only one word spoken by you!" Fu Shiyi complained.

He had sufficiently understood what his brother was like. One word spoken by her was worth hundreds of words spoken by him and Fu Shiqin.

So if he needed something, he should turn to her instead of his brother, so that everything could go much more easily.

Gu Weiwei. "..."

"Sister-in-law, that man is not only aiming at me but at you too!" Fu Shiyi added.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while. "I don't mind, your brother is not going to do anything to me anyways."

“1...”

Fu Shiyi got so annoyed that he almost choked on his blood – why was he always the one getting hurt?

“Anyway, I will help you when I return but I won’t stress if he refuses to do anything about it.” Gu Weiwei said.

Honestly, there was no need to try to find out who it was because it was none other than that dark-hearted, second brother of his, who would have done something like this to him!

After the filming of the second day, they took the night flight back home and when they arrived at the capital, it was early in the morning.

Instead of returning to the apartment, they went directly to the Landscape Villa.

Fu Hanzheng and Fu Shiyi were just eating breakfast and when they came home, they got two more sets of chopsticks and bowls for them.

“That program seems to be very popular. So many fans are revealing the pictures even in the middle of shooting.” Fu Shiqin snorted.

“It is that bastard, Gossip Head’s problem!” Fu Shiyi told his brother who was sitting opposite him, looking sincere.

“Brother, could you please ask Lei Meng to help me find out who that bastard is?”

Fu Shiqin snorted. “Who do you think you are? Our brother is not going to help you even if you tell him to.”

As far as he understood, his brother would never care about what was going on with Fu Shiyi.

Sure enough, Fu Hanzheng was looking at Gu Weiwei and heard nothing of what the two brothers were talking about.

Fu Shiyi gritted his teeth and coughed at Gu Weiwei.

Gu Weiwei yawned lazily and asked Fu Hanzheng.

“Who is that Gossip Head anyways?”

Hearing the words, Fu Hanzheng threw a look at Fu Shiqin who was eating steamed dumplings.

Gu Weiwei followed his gaze and looked at Fu Shiqin too.

Fu Shiqin swallowed down the dumplings with difficulty and smiled anxiously.

“What are you... staring at me for!”

Chapter 293: Between Brothers

Fu Shiyi looked at Gu Weiwei and his own brother and suddenly realized something. He slowly turned to Fu Shiqin.

Being stared at by three people at the same time, Fu Shiqin could not stop the sudden shiver in his hand that held the chopsticks and his eyes were flickering because of the inward guilt he felt.

He had tried to set up Fu Shiyi so that his brother could deal with Fu Shiyi when he saw the news about the rumored couple but what he had not expected, was that his brother cared nothing about his own brother but more about his girlfriend.

Because of what his girlfriend had asked him, he betrayed him without hesitation.

Fu Shiyi's eyes were filled with the look of a killer and he said, with teeth tightly clenched, "You, Second Brother of the Fu Family!"

Fu Shiqin laughed dryly, dropped the chopsticks and dashed away from the table.

Fu Shiyi struck the table and ran after him as he cursed loudly.

"You, you have been so fascinated in setting me up, haven't you?"

"You said that we were helping each other, but now you are stabbing me right in the back!"

Fu Shiqin ran as he explained.

"But you taught me to backstab between brothers! I picked that skill up from you!"

Seeing that he was unable to catch up with him, he removed his slippers and tossed them at him.

"I am so doomed to have been your brother!"

With slippers hitting him, Fu Shiqin rushed out of the apartment and all the way out onto the street.

Whenever he saw someone, he would point at the direction behind him and say, "Look, Shiyi the superstar is over there!"

In this way, Fu Shiyi was blocked by the passers-by and fans, so that Fu Shiqin was able to take a taxi and rush off.

Fearing that Fu Shiyi was going to take revenge at the company, Fu Shiqin made a call to Fu Hanzheng and asked for leave.

"Brother, I need to have a day off."

"No." Fu Hanzheng turned him down immediately.

He had thought about getting off work early so as to spend more time with his girlfriend today.

If he was not at work today, no one would be able to take over the work!

"Fu Shiyi will kill me if I am there, please let me leave from here first!"

Fu Shiqin was hiding around the airport and looking around, fearing that Fu Shiyi would pop up from somewhere.

"If you don't go to work today, maybe he won't be the only one that tries to kill you." Fu Hanzheng warned with a cold voice.

He meant that he might be the other person who tried to kill him too.

“Brother, you betrayed me and now you are sending me to my death. You are so cruel!” Fu Shiqin almost collapsed.

If he went to work, Fu Shiyi would kill him but if he hid himself away somewhere else, his brother would beat him to death.

“I will give you one hour to come to the office. If you fail to do so, what you have bought for Fu Shiyi will be yours.”

Fu Hanzheng did not feel anything because of what he had done to his brother and threatened him instead.

“...”

Fu Shiqin felt so annoyed but what he said to his brother turned out to be something different to his emotions.

“Okay, I will go to the office, but you must guarantee that I will be safe there.”

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and said, “As long as you are at the company, you will be safe.”

Hearing those words, Fu Shiqin gave up on the idea of running abroad and found a car to go back to the office.

He had just stepped into the company when Fu Shiyi followed up behind him but when he reached the 19th floor, Xu Qian stopped him.

“Third Master, it is forbidden to fight in the company, this is what Boss has said .”

Fu Shiyi glared at Fu Hanzheng’s office and cursed with his hands on his hips.

“You Second Brother, come out and fight with me!”

Fu Shiyi hid himself by the elevator and watched what was going on. His eldest brother did keep his promise of stopping Fu Shiyi.

So he walked out and bellowed at Fu Shiyi.

“I am not going out, you can come in if you want to!”

As long as he was at work, he would not be able to take revenge. With his elder brother around him, this man was not going to do anything!

Chapter 294: Fun of Life

Fu Shiqin chose to stay at the company and Fu Shiyi refused to leave the company, so they just found themselves in a frozen confrontation.

Fu Hanzheng only promised that he would be safe when he was at work but he said nothing about him being fine outside of the company.

In this way, Fu Shiqin refused to leave the company because of Fu Shiyi's stalking.

He would rather stay at the company and work overtime than go home.

They spent the entire night staying in such a frozen confrontation, with neither of them willing to leave.

Fu Hanzheng gave Fu Shiqin a pile of work and he left to go home very early in the day, to spend time with his girlfriend.

Gu Weiwei slept from morning until the afternoon and texted Yuan Meng about the time and address of their meeting, with the new phone her assistant had bought for her.

Then she switched off the phone and hid it away.

Fu Hanzheng was hunting the Yuan Family, because he wanted to find her.

So she had to make him believe that Gu Weiwei was dead already and only the Yuan Family were able to make him believe that.

She was just thinking of how to make Fu Hanzheng believe the truth without Gu Siting feeling suspicious, when the door of the apartment opened.

She came back to herself and craned her head out of the study and asked, "You are home already?"

Fu Hanzheng followed the sound of her voice and came over to her. "What are you up to?"

"Reading the script. I need to join the crew in a few days."

Gu Weiwei asked curiously, seeing that he was alone, "Where are your second and third brothers?"

"At the company." Fu Hanzheng replied.

With Fu Shiyi guarding the company, Fu Shiqin should be able to work overtime without any complaints.

"Why don't you try talking them out of fighting? They are brothers!" Gu Weiwei reminded him.

Fu Shiqin did really p*ss off Fu Shiyi this time.

His own brother had opened an alternative account and revealed so many bad things about him online, so that he had gotten so many hate fans.

No wonder Fu Shiyi turned down the job offer today just to hunt for Fu Shiqin.

"That is the fun in their life, no need to talk them out of doing anything." Fu Hanzheng took hold of her and said indifferently.

They had already been fighting with each other for so many years since they were little.

Gu Weiwei. "..."

She truly had no words to counter him in this case because those two brothers were really having fun, by setting each other up.

...

At the headquarters of Fu's Enterprise at the present moment.

Everyone was off work except for Fu Shiqin, who was working overtime on his post.

Fu Shiyi was at the company too and the moment he stepped out of the company, he would have trouble.

So he refused to get off work and started to devote himself to the tasks. Every now and then, he would say provocative things to the man outside.

Fu Shiyi was very p*ssed off but he did not dare to disobey his brother by starting a fight at the company.

However, Fu Shiqin knew his thoughts well, so he did not leave the company and gave him no opportunity to take revenge.

Soon, someone had desserts and cakes delivered to the place and all of them were the kinds that Fu Shiqin liked.

Fu Shiqin had been very hungry and when he saw the food he liked so much, he started to drool but Fu Shiyi placed them out on the table that was standing a few meters away from him.

Then he started to stuff the food into his mouth and made his brother watch.

Fu Shiqin could not stand it anymore. He tapped the table, feeling rather annoyed that he could not reach any of them.

"Third Brother, you have set me up so many times, I am just repaying you! What is the point of taking it so seriously?!"

"I set you up to your face, but you stabbed me behind my back!" Fu Shiyi bellowed.

He had even refused to believe that the Gossip Head was his own brother, when his sister-in-law reminded him about it... but the truth was the total opposite!

Chapter 295: Brothers

Fu Shiqin spent the entire night working overtime at the company whilst Fu Shiyi spent the entire night guarding the company.

Neither of them refused to leave, yet neither of them dared to start a fight at company.

Over one night, Fu Shiqin not only finished the tasks Fu Hanzheng gave to him, but also killed the time by finishing even more work.

After Fu Hanzheng came to the company, he praised his achievements.

Then he gave him even more work to do, so that he didn't have to come to the company in the afternoon but instead spend more time with his girlfriend at home.

After working overtime for three days in a row, Fu Shiqin finally went to his brother and begged him tearfully.

“Brother, I need to go home.”

“Okay.” Fu Hanzheng answered coldly.

Fu Shiqin had very heavy black rings below his eyes, which were also bloodshots, as he said to him pitifully, “But Fu Shiyi is waiting for me outside the company, please, help me!”

He had stayed at the company for three days and he had not had a good time eating or sleeping. He also had to watch out for Fu Shiyi who might rush in to pull him out of the company and punch him like a plaything, when he was asleep. It had not been a very pleasant time for him.

“Why should I help you?” Fu Hanzheng looked up, showing no sympathy at all.

Fu Shiqin said, “If I am beaten to death or even get injured because of him, I may not be able to work here anymore and you will have very little time left for your dates due to the heavy work-load, right?”

Fu Hanzheng thought for a moment and said, “Okay, I will make sure he doesn’t disturb you at work.

If he was not at work, he would definitely be influenced.

“I...” Fu Shiqin felt so annoyed.

So what he meant was that he was not going to help him but he was going to ask Fu Shiyi not to disturb him at work.

Oh my gosh, why did he have brothers like this?!

When he could not find any help from his brother, he had to sneak into the bathroom and made a call to his brother’s girlfriend instead.

“Sister-in-law, I need your help...”

Gu Weiwei was just about to shoot a commercial as the ambassador for a brand, when she heard Fu Shiqin’s voice and cruelly snorted.

“Why didn’t you think about it when you were causing the trouble?”

“I...” Fu Shiqin felt upset.

Actually, if his brother had not had a hand in his own matters, Fu Shiyi would never find out that Gossip Head was him.

That was why he dared to reveal so much negative information about this man without concern for so many years.

However, what he had not expected was that when his eldest brother was in love, he became different.

He might not say a thing when someone else asked about it but when his girlfriend asked him about it, he totally betrayed him, so that he ended up spending three days at the company, not even daring to go home.

“I spent three days at the company and Fu Shiyi is downstairs and still not leaving. If you don’t help me, I will be dead because of overworking!”

And his ruthless brother had not shown a single pitiful feeling towards him, even though he was having a hard time.

Instead of helping him, he gave him even more work and left to go home to his girlfriend.

"I am not helping you, I am going to work now." Gu Weiwei hung up.

Since the two had fun in setting each other up, then she had better not ruin their fun.

With no other way out, Fu Shiqin went downstairs and started a fight with Fu Shiyi.

They found a place where they could have a huge fight, they fought to the point where Fu Shiqin was heavily punched and Fu Shiyi badly injured.

After the fight, they went to He Chi to deal with their wounds.

He Chi looked at the two brothers and sighed. He found that the Bringing Fu Hanzheng Down Team was not going to be promising anymore.

"We rebuilt the team just to bring down your eldest brother but you two have had a fight, before we've even dealt with your brother."

Fu Shiqin looked at Fu Shiyi and became speechless.

Fu Shiyi threw a look at Fu Shiqin too.

Oh that sounded right. Why did they have an internal fight before they even did anything to their eldest brother?

Chapter 296: Intelligence

Seeing the dumb expressions on the brothers' faces, He Chi truly regretted teaming up with them.

They established the Bringing Fu Hanzheng Down Team but after so many years, they had achieved nothing.

Instead, they had been mistreated by Fu Hanzheng numerous times.

"I think I had better quit the team."

He finally realized that the reason why they were never able to bring down Fu Hanzheng, was because the twins were not smart enough.

Their original goal might be bringing down their eldest brother but when Fu Hanzheng did some antagonizing between them, they started fighting against each other instead, totally oblivious of what they were supposed to be doing.

"Damn you Chi, you made a vow when you joined the team! Once you are in the team, we are in the same boat and anyone who wants to quit will go through the death penalty!"

"If I continue to be with you guys in the team, my intelligence will be reduced." He Chi snorted as he was bandaging them up.

During the past few years, they had never succeeded in accomplishing any of their missions but were brought down by Fu Hanzheng instead.

However he was different. Although he had been mistreated before, most of the time, he succeeded in accomplishing his mission.

“What do you mean He Chi? Are you looking down on us?” Fu Shiqin asked furiously.

He Chi snorted. “You are... not worth my attention.”

Unconvinced, they struck the table so as to counter him, only to scream in pain because their hands were injured.

He Chi said disdainfully, as he finished the bandaging, “Your eldest brother is fooling us all the time! Our team is better off disbanded as soon as possible, especially if it carries on like this.”

“Ha, you have been fooled before, right?”

Fu Shiqin was not pleased, so he tried to remind He Chi of his terrible experiences.

Fu Shiyi continued with a snort. “You were so mistreated by my brother that you called him Grandpa! Should I replay the video for you?”

He Chi was annoyed. He tightened his grip on the bandaging around Shiyi’s wounded hand, making him groan in pain.

After the three of them finished arguing amongst themselves, they started to analyze their past failures and the lessons they had learnt, deciding to rouse up their fighting spirit to continue on with their mission.

On the other side, Gu Weiwei had been asked to repeat the shoot three times by the contact representative of the product, when she was doing the commercial shooting as the ambassador.

After the third time, the commercial director received a call and said apologetically, “Miss. Mu, I am sorry, the contact representative is still not satisfied with what you have done, we may need to repeat the shoot.”

Although he personally thought that her three shoots had already presented the content of the commercials vividly.

Gu Weiwei frowned in silence. However her agent Jolin, could not help but to protest angrily.

“What is wrong with the shoot anyways? Tell us clearly! Our time is very precious too, if you keep asking us to redo if you won’t tell us clearly!”

They could have finished the work within an hour but they had already spent four, nearly five hours here.

The contact representative was obviously picking on his girl!

“Director, what about us talking with the contact representative before doing another shoot?” Gu Weiwei suggested.

If they went on like this, they would waste even more time.

The director thought for a while, made a call and brought the two of them away from the studio and towards the meeting room.

Jolin came in first and he was quite startled when he caught sight of the young-looking contact representative, seated in the meeting room.

“You are... the contact representative of the new product?”

The man looked like he was in his 20s, and he just could not believe that such a young man would be able to take over such an important project, showcasing the new product.

“Hey, I am Qin Lv, the contact representative of this project”

Chapter 297: You and Fu Hanzheng

Gu Weiwei looked at Qin Lv dressed in a suit. The last time she saw him, he was hired as the tutor by Fu Hanzheng before the college entrance examination.

But because him and Mu Weiwei used to have a special relationship, Fu Shiqin drove Qin Lv away and she had not seen him since then.

She had thought that he must have gone abroad for further studies but unexpectedly, he had joined the family business.

Jolin said that the contact representative contact said that she had to be the ambassador of the product but when she was actually doing the shoot, her takes kept on being rejected and it seemed that he had been the one behind it

Qin Lv greeted the other people around her and said to Jolin and the director, “I need to talk with the artist alone regarding the shoot, can you two leave us alone?”

Jolin was not assured that his girl was going to be left alone with this man, so he threw a look at Gu Weiwei and wondered what she thought. Gu Weiwei nodded at him and he left with the director.

Gu Weiwei sat down and asked nonchalantly, “Master Qin, what on earth do you want from me, that you have spent so much effort setting up a meeting with me?”

Qin Lv sat down calmly, looking like an elite in the industry.

“What I want to tell you is that I can also offer you whatever Fu Hanzheng can offer you.”

She was with Fu Hanzheng, only because she needed the Fu Family’s forces to take revenge upon the Zhou Family and the Li Family but as long as he joined the family business, he was able to keep control of the entire enterprise and achieve her goal as well.

Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows indifferently. “I am sorry, I have no interest in your offer.”

Mu Weiwei might have had a crush on him when she was younger and she might have courted him back then but times had changed and the Mu Weiwei he was looking for no longer existed.

“Mu Weiwei, you are not a match against that old fox! Don’t stay by his side and suffer!” Qin Lv tried to persuade her with a meaningful tone.

Fu Hanzheng was the head of the most top-notch military enterprise in Hua Land, and every other allied country had to cooperate with him, which meant that he had an unshakable position in the country.

She might lose her life staying next to him.

Old fox? Gu Weiwei frowned with displeasure when she heard the phrase.

“Master Qin, if we are not here talking about work, then we truly have nothing to talk about.”

The fact that she and Qin Lv had stayed in the office alone would soon come to Fu Hanzheng’s knowledge and he would get very jealous when that happened.

“Mu Weiwei, I can give you whatever he can offer you!” Qin Lv got a bit annoyed seeing that she was so stubborn.

Gu Weiwei truly had no intention of talking with him anymore, so she stood up and said, “No, you can’t give me anything that he can offer to me.”

He gave her his truest heart, but instead of restraining her, he gave her the freedom to do whatever she would like to do.

He wanted to have her but he never forced her to do anything.

He was such a precious man that he did not need to do anything to make a girl like him.

Having said these words, she pulled open the door of the office and then said as she turned around, “That is all I can do with the commercial, if you are not satisfied with it, you can terminate the contract and I can pay the compensation.”

He was just trying to meet her through work so that he could try to persuade her to leave Fu Hanzheng.

The moment she stepped out of the meeting room, Qin Lv ran after her and caught hold of her hand.

“Mu Weiwei!”

Gu Weiwei was just trying to get rid of him, when she saw a group of people coming to her direction whilst talking to someone about the area.

“President Fu, this is the commercial shooting site of our new product.”

Fu Hanzheng took a glance at the area, only to see Qin Lv gripping her hand. He squinted at the sight and he looked very, very displeased.

Chapter 298: A Love Filled Day

Xu Qian, who arrived with Fu Hanzheng, was startled too when he caught sight of Qin Lv, who had taken hold of Gu Weiwei’s hands.

Fu's Enterprise and the Qin Family had always had business collaborations with each other and today, they were here for the meeting.

Their boss knew that she was shooting the commercial here, so he mentioned visiting this place. Then, the chief showed them the way.

He had intended to take advantage of visiting his girlfriend at work but what he witnessed was his girlfriend being tangled with her ex-boyfriend.

They had also walked out of the office where they had stayed alone together. What were they doing inside the room that they had stayed there for so long?

Xu Qian glanced at his boss' sunken face, feeling that it would be a very troublesome day.

Gu Weiwei was also startled at the sight of Fu Hanzheng. She had been worried that he would get very jealous when he heard the news but it turned out that he had spotted the whole process with his own eyes.

Fu Hanzheng approached them calmly and gripped hold of Qin Lv's wrist, as he said with a very cold voice, "I heard that you are the contact representative for this project, so I am here to observe your achievements."

The staff from Qin's Enterprise did not suspect anything, when they heard those words. They thought that it was Fu Hanzheng, the senior who was showing concern to this young junior chief.

However, Fu Hanzheng had such a tight grip upon Qin Lv's wrist that he removed his hand off Gu Weiwei's arm.

Then he said, with a very low voice that could only reach the three of them, "I have told you to stay away from her."

With pain attacking his wrist, Qin Lv did not step back when confronting Fu Hanzheng.

"Uncle Fu, she is not yours."

Fu Hanzheng released his wrist and snorted.

"She is mine, and she will always be mine."

He had thought about visiting her as she was doing the commercial but what he had witnessed was the scene in which she was tangled with Qin Lv.

Having said these words, he glanced at Gu Weiwei who looked dumb-founded.

Gu Weiwei instantly asked the staff. "Where is the restroom? I need to wash my hands!"

She got the location and went into the bathroom to wash her hands, three times in total!

She told Jolin that she had somewhere else to go, so she did not leave with him but went down to the parking lot, waiting for Fu Hanzheng to come downstairs.

Jolin had just left when Xu Qian came around. He opened the door and said, "Miss. Mu, Boss asks you to wait for him in the car first."

Gu Weiwei went into the car and waited for him. She felt her heart skipping a beat as she thought of his expression a minute ago.

A quarter of an hour later, Fu Hanzheng came downstairs after finishing the work. He looked very displeased as he seated himself into the car.

Gu Weiwei rolled up her sleeves and showed him her arm.

“Look, I washed it three times!”

Fu Hanzheng did not look at her. “Drive.”

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips, feeling that the car was filled with jealousy.

“My agent signed the contract. I did not know that the chief was him!”

“Why did you enter the office room with him?” Fu Hanzheng asked with a cold voice.

“He kept asking me to do the shoot repeatedly! I did the shoots the entire afternoon, so I needed to ask him what was going on! But that boy said that you are an old fox, so I got very annoyed...” Gu Weiwei explained.

Fu Hanzheng glanced over and took a look at the angry girl. However, he refused to say a word.

Gu Weiwei approached him and whispered, “If you don’t talk with me, I will....”

Fu Hanzheng looked sideways. “What will you do?”

Gu Weiwei smiled sinisterly and kissed him softly on his lips.

“Feeling better?”

“A little better.” Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei approached and kissed him again. “What about now?”

“Much better.”

Another kiss.

“Much, much better.”

....

Xu Qian, who was seated in the driver’s seat, felt very helpless. He had got it wrong.

It was not going to be a troublesome day. It was a love filled day instead.

Chapter 299: Proposal (Extra)

When they returned to the apartment, they saw the wounded Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin, seated lazily on the sofa in the living room, watching TV with a pile of snacks in their arms.

Gu Weiwei looked at them with disbelief. They had been each other's worst enemy just the day before but now they sat together, watching TV like two good brothers.

"Did you two have a fight?"

"Two actually." Fu Shiqin glanced at her sideways and said, "He punched me and I punched him."

Fu Shiyi said, "Then, we punched He Chi together."

Gu Weiwei. "..."

It's good that you had fun!

She had just changed her clothes when dozens of WeChat messages poured into the WeChat Group with Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian.

She scrolled down the messages and saw that it was about a Weibo link that Ji Cheng sent.

She clicked the link and the page showed Ling Yan's Weibo.

[I received the dream present on my birthday this year]

Attached was a picture that showed an extremely luxurious and beautiful wedding dress, covered with jewels and gems.

It was a post sent one hour ago and there were more than 100,000 comments below.

[Happy birthday Movie Queen, looking forward to seeing you on screen soon!]

[Oh my gosh, President Gu must have proposed to Movie Queen Ling right? He must have proposed to her...]

[Ahhhhh, the wedding gown is just too beautiful!]

[President Gu is definitely generous to his girlfriend!]

....

Gu Weiwei suddenly realized that it was Ling Yan's birthday today but she sneered at the sight of the wedding gown in the post.

That was the wedding gown that she had asked Martin Green to design secretly, so that she herself could be dressed in that gown one day.

But now... Gu Siting had given the wedding gown to Ling Yan as well.

She had thought that she would feel heartbroken whenever she heard the news about Gu Siting and Ling Yan but now, she had no such feelings anymore.

What she wanted was to destroy Ling Yan as devastatingly as possible.

Fu Hanzheng waited for a long time and still failed to see her come out for dinner, so he came knocking at the door.

"Weiwei?"

Gu Weiwei logged out of Weibo, took a deep breath and opened the door. Then she threw herself into his arms.

Fu Hanzheng lowered his gaze and asked, "What is it?"

What made her so sad, when she had been so happy a minute ago?

"I need a hug." Gu Weiwei said in distress.

She needed to improve her mood.

Fu Hanzheng took hold of her. "Upset about the shoot today?"

Gu Weiwei shook her head and looked up as she stayed in his arms.

"Can you give me a kiss?"

Fu Hanzheng was startled but he still lowered his lips and met hers. The kiss felt very soft and gentle...

Gu Weiwei's bad mood was soon gone.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin, who were waiting for dinner to start, came searching for them, seeing that they were not yet at the table.

"Brother..."

The moment they came around the corner, they saw the two of them tangled with each other in front of the walk-in closet.

Then they turned around simultaneously and showed their backs to them.

"Can't you two just close the door when kissing?"

"Consider us okay? We are single men who can't stand your love attack."

....

Gu Weiwei ignored them and took Fu Hanzheng's hand as they came to the dinner table together.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin lost their appetites when they saw the sweet couple in love.

Also, their brother did not allow them to touch the dishes that his girlfriend liked.

Honestly, they liked the dishes too but all they could do was watch her having everything to herself.

Chapter 300: What to Do

The post published on Ling Yan's birthday, was on the top search list for three days in a row, occupying the headlines of all the major entertainment media pages.

They all said that she was the winner of life and God's darling.

She had a heart disease with a rare blood type but she got a new heart that gave her a new life, when she had just so little time left.

She was the Movie Queen in the entertainment industry and a young woman, she was admired and was also asked to be the bride of Gu Siting, who was the top-notch aristocratic man of A Land.

Her life was simply a legend.

Instead of paying more attention to her, Gu Weiwei devoted herself to work every day and made preparations for the filming of the Eyes of the Eagle.

However, after Yuan Meng got the news, she wanted to have an urgent phone call with her.

After finishing the shoot of the first release photography, she made a call to Yuan Meng at the time they had agreed upon.

This time, Yuan Meng seemed to have believed what she had said in their last conversation.

“So Gu Siting truly proposed to Ling Yan?”

Due to the delayed communication, she did not get to know of Ling Yan’s news until a couple of days later but the wedding gown she showed off, as far as she could see, belonged to Gu Weiwei who once presented the sketch to them.

She even said that she was going to get married in that wedding gown but what she had seen was the wedding gown, which was exquisitely designed by her and Martin Green, became the present that Gu Siting gave to Ling Yan.

She had not shown up after she was stabbed and brought back to Gu Siting and Ling Yan, who had the rare blood type, survived because of a new, matched heart soon afterwards.

Therefore, although she did not quite think that her death was reasonable, she still started to believe what she was talking about.

Gu Weiwei brushed away her unkempt hair and said with a cold voice, as she looked into distance, “I have nothing to do with the Gu Family any more.”

Yuan Meng stayed silent for a moment and said fiercely, “How about I kill her for you?”

“I will finish the blood feud I have with her, don’t get involved.” Gu Weiwei turned down Yuan Meng’s proposal.

Killing her was way too simple a way for her to end her life.

She was going to make her lose everything until she had nothing left.

Gu Siting seemed to be quite protective at the moment and if Yuan Meng made a move, she was going to get herself into a lot of trouble.

“Also, you told me that Fu Hanzheng is looking for me, why is that? You hung up before I could understand anything!” Yuan Meng asked when she thought of what she had told her last time.

Although they were hidden in Hua Land and understood that the Fu Family was taking over the territory so that Gu Siting and his men could do nothing about them, they did not understand why Fu Hanzheng was involved anyways?

Gu Weiwei looked around. "It is very difficult to put it in a brief way, you must watch out for your surroundings and don't get followed. As for everything else, I will tell you when we meet."

Yuan Meng joined the Yuan Family because she fancied Yuan Shuo. So she had no idea that Yuan Shuo was sent by the Dorrans Family to keep her safe.

If her master did not tell his wife, she should also be cautious about what she tells her.

Without asking her anything more, Yuan Meng said, "Stick to the rule – stay punctual, and no delays!"

They always met punctually, because if one of them did not show up on time, then it might mean that she or he fell into trouble and the other should retreat immediately.

"Okay."

She hung up, switched off the phone and received a call from Fu Hanzheng with the other one.

"Finished working?"

"Just finished, I am on my way home."

"I am close by, I will pick you up in ten minutes." Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei went downstairs, packed away her things and came to the parking lot. Ten minutes later, Fu Hanzheng's car arrived on time.

She got into the car and saw Fu Hanzheng on the phone but out of habit, he still took hold of her hand.

Fu Shiqin was driving and then asked him, when he saw his brother hanging up, "Our father asked yesterday what you are going to do with Gu Weiwei, if you ever find her."
