

MY HIDDEN 31

Chapter 31: The Scary Desire of Occupation

Lei Meng became startled from the other side of the phone. He asked, "Which Li?"

Was there a Li in the capital city that was big enough for his boss to care about?

"Longsheng Enterprise." Fu Hanzheng repeated.

Lei Meng found it unexpected. What made an enterprise like Fu's Enterprise start to care about a minor enterprise like Longsheng Enterprise?

"I will do that now. I will report it to you tomorrow."

Fu Hanzheng hung up the phone and glanced at the girl who was fast asleep in the sickbed. He let out a sigh of regret when he thought of what had happened a minute ago in the parking lot.

What was going on with him today? How could a kiss from a drifting minded girl make him distracted?

He had found her annoying before. But after she helped them to discover the forgery and complete the collaboration with the Wilson's in silence, he started to wonder what kind of person she really was.

And when he ran into her yesterday in the apartment he somehow felt a bit delighted.

It was three in the morning and Gu Weiwei started to have a fever. Fu Hanzheng called He Chi again.

A while later, He Chi passed him the thermometer and said, "We must test the body temperature first."

Fu Hanzheng said, "You are the doctor, do what you are supposed to do."

"Alright then, I will do that."

He Chi came to bedside, lifted the blanket and started to unbutton Gu Weiwei's gown. Before he was able to touch the button, he was stopped.

"What are you doing?" Fu Hanzheng looked chill.

He Chi showed an expression of innocence. "I am trying to test her body temperature! How am I supposed to do that without being able to put in the thermometer?"

"Get the nurse."

"All the nurses are men today."

He Chi said and was about to unbutton the gown so as to put in the thermometer. "Don't worry, we are doctors and we do not care whether the patient is a man or a woman."

Fu Hanzheng approached him and grabbed the thermometer from out of his hand.

“Move away.”

He Chi moved away obediently and sat down on the sofa next to them as he mumbled annoyedly, “Fu Shiqin broke his leg before and was hospitalized, but you never visited him. Now this girl is just suffering from a very small fever and you have come to take care of her in person! You fake brother! Have you ever considered how your brother feels?”

Fu Hanzheng checked the time, took out the thermometer and covered Gu Weiwei up again with the blanket.

He Chi checked the thermometer and said, “Yes, she is suffering from fever. I will get some antipyretic paste and medicine whilst you can feed her more water to help to drive away the fever.”

A while later, the nurse on duty delivered the antipyretic paste and medicine, saying that He Chi was stuck in an emergency case.

Fu Hanzheng unbuttoned his sleeves and rolled them up before pouring a cup of water. Then he lifted the girl in deep slumber and made her lean against himself.

Then he fed her the antipyretic medicine, and a cup of water before putting her down.

In the several hours following, he lifted her up to feed her water every half an hour.

When the dawn came, Gu Weiwei opened her eyes drowsily and saw a cup of water coming towards her mouth.

Since she was indeed feeling thirsty, she took a sip and then looked at the person who was feeding her water. Then she was so shocked that she almost got choked on the water.

Fu Hanzheng put down the cup and smoothed her back.

Gu Weiwei found that she was leaning in his arms, so she instantly sat up straight.

Be it because of choking on the water or because of embarrassment, she was deeply flushed.

Seeing that she was awake, Fu Hanzheng passed the cup of water to her.

“Drink it up.”

Gu Weiwei held the cup in panic and was suddenly reminded of the past few hours when she drank some water in dizziness.

Could it have been him who fed her?

By putting her in his arms?

And something more happened to the water drinking. He took her out of the bathtub last night in the apartment, he got her changed and she kissed him too in the car on the hospital’s parking lot and she was even on the verge of sleeping with him.

Oh man, that didn’t seem so nice.

Chapter 32: The Scary Desire of Occupation2

Fu Hanzheng was too busy making a call to notice the changes in her expression.

Gu Weiwei watched the back of Fu Hanzheng with a twisted expression. How could she ever possibly do something so beastly to him?

If He Chi had not showed up in time, she would definitely have slept with Fu Hanzheng the night before.

After making the call, Fu Hanzheng turned around and saw her frowning deeply.

“Still feeling unwell?”

Gu Weiwei shook her head and stumbled with her words.

“I did not mean it... last night.”

“What do you mean?” Fu Hanzheng raised his eyebrows.

“That I forced myself on you. I didn’t mean it! I was feeling dizzy, and I would have done that to any man...” Gu Weiwei tried very hard to explain what she had regrettably done.

However, what she had not discovered was that the more she tried to explain, the worse Fu Hanzheng looked.

“You would have done that to any man?”

Gu Weiwei nodded. “So I really didn’t have any desire towards you, President Fu.”

Fu Hanzheng’s face sank even deeper.

“Anyway, Thank you... for last night.” Gu Weiwei said gratefully. If she could she would have climbed off the bed and kowtowed to him.

Although, she felt that she was not in desperate need of help, to be honest she could have made the drug go away if she stayed in the bathtub for a few more hours.

Yet he decided to carry her out so that she almost attacked him like a beast.

But Fu Hanzheng had been behaving very weirdly during the past two days.

He put on the bandage for her yesterday morning and in the evening, he drove her to the hospital and stayed by her side for the entire night.

Could it have been because she had... oh, well, Mu Weiwei had slept with him?”

She was just trying to rack her brain to figure out what Fu Hanzheng had done when He Chi came with breakfast.

“Sister-in-law must have woken up. I bought some breakfast from the canteen, do you want some?”

Sister-in-law

What in the world was Sister-in-law in this case?

Gu Weiwei turned to Fu Hanzheng out of confusion. She had been sleeping for a few hours and now she had become a Sister-in-law?

She was expecting that Fu Hanzheng would have corrected He Chi for his nonsense when he turned out to be deaf to this title.

Seeing He Chi here, Fu Hanzheng grabbed his suit jacket and came over to the bedside.

"I have an important morning meeting at the company. Fu Shiqin will be here later, tell him if you need anything."

Gu Weiwei craned her head out of the blanket and stayed silent whilst trying to figure out the title He Chi had addressed her with. She was frowning.

Fu Hanzheng saw her twisted expression and thought that she wanted to say something. "Anything wrong?"

Gu Weiwei saw that he was checking the time, so she shook her head.

"No, thanks."

After seeing Fu Hanzheng off, He Chi carried the breakfast to her bedside.

"Sister-in-law, you can't have eaten anything last night. The porridge at our hospital is definitely delicious..."

"Doctor He, could you please change the way you address me?"

Gu Weiwei reminded him, feeling displeased. He talked as if she really had been in a relationship with Fu Hanzheng.

"Well, that is just a matter of time before you are addressed by this title. You will get used to it." He Chi said as he sat down on the sofa and started to eat the wontons.

Gu Weiwei had lost her appetite after being called Sister-in-law.

"Doctor He, President Fu and I are really not in a relationship."

"Fu Hanzheng is a cold-blooded robot. He only cares about work. Do you think that there is any other woman who has ever been so well taken care of by him ever?" He Chi ate and mumbled, and then he threw a look at the girl in the sickbed.

"As far as I know, you are the first girl, so what else should I call you apart from Sister-in-law?"

"That's because Grandma Fu wants them to take care of me." Gu Weiwei stressed.

He Chi snorted. "If I had not appeared in the parking lot last night, you would have done it in the car, judging from how deeply you were kissing."

Gu Weiwei. "..."

Chapter 33: Long-Lasting?

An hour later, Fu Shiqin arrived. He stared at her for ten minutes by the bedside.

Then he asked, "How come you flirted with my brother again?"

Yesterday morning when she cut her hand, he helped her to stop the bleeding by bandaging and wrapping it.

At night, he went to Jinxiu Compound to carry her to the hospital.

Even he, as the brother, had never experienced such excellent treatment.

Mu Weiwei threw an 'are you an idiot look' at him. "I have no interest in your brother."

"No interest in my brother? Then why did you force yourself onto him when he was drunk from the banquet?" Fu Shiqin snorted.

It was impossible to believe her words when she said that she had no interest in his brother, when she had been trying so hard to seduce him before.

Hearing that someone was in the ward, He Chi woke up drowsily.

Hearing what Fu Shiqin said, He Chi suddenly became incredibly awake.

"You really slept with him?"

Mu Weiwei truly had no interest in talking with these two people any more. She had the blanket over her head and tried to fall asleep.

But He Chi was already interested by the topic of gossip and so He asked Fu Shiqin further, "I had thought that Fu Hanzheng is up to something because she is pretty. But it seems that it was Sister-in-law who had been up to something to begin with. Are you sure you slept with him? Fu Hanzheng is well and fine in bed?"

"Hey, what do you mean well and fine? You are the incapable one, okay?" Fu Shiqin started to defend his brother out of habit.

He Chi said, "Your brother has been single since birth. He doesn't date or marry anyone. He is a robot who does not even have any adult videos on his computer. When she gave him such a passionate kiss last night, he ended up giving her up! What other issues can it be apart from being incapable in that area?"

Hearing his words, Fu Shiqin threw a weird look at Gu Weiwei in the sickbed.

This girl had been badgering his brother before, but after the night, she somehow lost her passion.

Could it have really been the fact that his brother was incapable in that area, so she gave up courting him?

So, he poked her blanket and asked.

“Well... you said that you have no interest in my brother, could it have been because of this issue?”

He Chi kept asking curiously standing on the other side of the bed.

“What is his size? How long could he last?”

Gu Weiwei couldn't stand the questions. She lifted the blanket and sat up. “Why not ask him yourselves if you guys are so curious?”

“He won't tell us.” Fu Shiqin looked serious. He kept on asking.

“You know the best apart from my brother himself. You have seen it and used it...”

Gu Weiwei was speechless and returned with a casual reply. “Alright, alright, you are all correct. Okay?”

Fu Shiqin collapsed. When God gave him a perfect appearance and an intelligent brain, he also deprived him of an even more important thing.

He Chi let out a sigh of regret and said. “There is an experienced Chinese doctor at the hospital who is quite professional in this aspect. What about... asking your brother to check in with him and see if his problem can be solved?”

Gu Weiwei covered her ears, refusing to hear any more words from these two people.

At seven in the afternoon, Fu Hanzheng left work. He then went to Jinxiu Compound to get some of her clothes and drove to the hospital.

After he entered the room, he found the room filled with an air of strangeness. He placed the bag of clothes on the bed and said, “Get changed, you are going home.”

Hearing that she was discharged, Gu Weiwei picked up the clothes and changed in the bathroom.

Fu Hanzheng threw a look at Fu Shiqin and He Chi who had a weird expression of sympathy on their faces, and thought that something was wrong with Gu Weiwei.

“Didn't you say that she has recovered?”

“Brother, He Chi says that there is a very skillful Chinese doctor at the hospital, what about... having a checkup yourself?” Fu Shiqin inquired with a serious expression on his face.

Chapter 34: Fu Hanzheng Never Had a Girlfriend

Fu Hanzheng frowned slightly. What made them make this pitiful face? It seemed that they were doing that for him, not for her.

“Spill it.”

Fu Shiqin and He Chi exchanged a glance, both looking embarrassed.

No man would want anyone else to know about this kind of unmentionable disease.

But since he already had the disease, he must have it cured.

“He Chi, you are the doctor, you can tell him the truth.”

He Chi said, “You are brothers, I am not family, so you speak.”

If he irritated Fu Hanzheng, he would be in big trouble.

Fu Shiqin was his brother, and his punishment would not be that big anyway.

“Brother, I mean... well...” Fu Shiqin stuttered for a long time, not having any idea of how to put it.

Fu Hanzheng already looked very impatient. “What is it?”

“Well...” Fu Shiqin scratched his head, finding it very difficult to speak out.

Gu Weiwei, at this moment, had just gotten changed and walked out of the bathroom. She helped the two of them finish their sentence.

“They wonder whether you have some problems in bed, because you have never had a girlfriend, and you are unmarried, and you never have s*x with anyone or even have any adult videos on your computer...”

“...” Fu Shiqin and He Chi both became petrified.

That was the truth, but could she just slow down a bit?

Fu Hanzheng’s face sunk and fixed his eyes upon her.

Gu Weiwei felt a bit uncomfortable from his stare and pointed at the two people behind them.

“...That was what they said!”

Fu Hanzheng turned his head sideways and gave them a killing look, making the two of them shiver.

“Who told you all of this?”

Fu Shiqin and He Chi exchanged a look and pointed at Gu Weiwei.

“She did!”

Gu Weiwei. “...”

Seeing the killer look on Fu Hanzheng’s face, He Chi instantly made Gu Weiwei take the blame.

“She said that she has no interest in you because you have a problem in bed.”

Fu Shiqin added when he realized what it was going on. “Yes, she told us about it! That is why we are wondering if you need a doctor.”

“...” Gu Weiwei’s lips twitched.

It had been these two dumb-headed persons who had been gossiping the entire afternoon and now they made her take the blame, when they found the situation was turning disadvantageous for them.

Fu Hanzheng stared at her for two more seconds. Instead of spending any more time on explaining anything to Fu Hanzheng and He Chi, he asked Gu Weiwei to leave with him before he went out of the ward himself first.

With a heavy heart, Gu Weiwei stepped into the car. She had thought that he would leave after he drove her to Jinxiu Compound.

However, after he parked the car, he followed her back into the apartment upstairs.

The moment they entered the apartment, she heard her phone ringing. She put down her things and went to answer the phone in the bedroom.

“Goddess, you missed class today. I have been calling you the entire day.” Ji Cheng called.

“I am so sorry, I was suffering from a fever and I have just come back from the hospital. That is why I missed class.”

Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian exchanged a few words on the other side of the phone and said, “Goddess, where do you live? Me and Qianqian can visit you now.”

“It is okay. I will meet you tomorrow when I get better.”

Gu Weiwei threw a look at this luxuriously decorated apartment. She found it very difficult to explain to them why she was able to afford this apartment alone, if they were here.

Having hung up the phone, she went through the missed calls. Apart from the calls from Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian, Zhou Meiqin had called her numerous times too.

Only now did she realize that one day had passed since she left the hotel the night before.

When Zhou Meiqin failed to set her up, she was somehow punished. Right now, she must be seeking every way to take revenge on her.

Chapter 35: Fierceness?

Meanwhile, Fu Hanzheng had also received the report from Lei Meng in the study.

“Boss, I have checked what you have asked me to. Longsheng Enterprise is aiming at a large project with Tiansheng, and the contract was signed yesterday.”

Fu Hanzheng closed the study. “Anything else?”

What made Lei Meng confused was why his boss started to care about Longsheng Enterprise. So he called Xu Qian this morning and asked about it. Xu Qian said that Lei Meng should pay more attention to the information related to Mu Weiwei.

“They signed the contract with Wang Weidong from Tiansheng.” Lei Meng paused for a moment and continued. “They had planned to give Miss. Mu to Wang Weidong as a present, but Miss. Mu ran away from the hotel yesterday and Li Jiacheng’s wife Zhou Meiqin and Wang Weidong ended up being in the same room until noon.”

“Also... Wang Weidong had already sent out people to keep track of Miss. Mu this afternoon.”

Having heard this , Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a moment before dispatching an order.

“From tomorrow onwards, get someone to follow her to make sure she is safe.”

He did not want anything similar to happen again.

It made him feel uncomfortable when the woman he had touched was being coveted by someone else.

Although Lei Meng was curious as to why his own boss suddenly started to care about Mu Weiwei, he did not dare to ask him directly.

“Okay, I am on it now.”

Having hung up the phone, Fu Hanzheng came out of the study and ran into Gu Weiwei who had just come out of her room. She was on her way to make preparations for dinner when she found him still there in surprise.

“President Fu, aren’t you... going home?”

“I am out on business tomorrow morning after the meeting.”

Although Gu Weiwei found it uncomfortable to share the same roof with him, this man had spent the entire night taking care of her.

And she was living in his place, so she couldn’t possibly drive him away when Fu Hanzheng refused to leave.

So she opened the fridge, took a look inside and said.

“I didn’t buy any food today, so you don’t mind eating noodles for dinner, do you?”

“Very good.” Fu Hanzheng didn’t return to the study after saying those words.

Instead, he stood on the spot and watched the back of the person who was busy making the food as if he were waiting for something.

Gu Weiwei felt a bit awkward at being stared at like this. She threw a look at him.

Could he have gotten so hungry that he couldn’t wait for dinner?

“If you are too hungry, what about eating the bread in the fridge?”

Fu Hanzheng waited for a long while and asked directly, after he realized that she was not planning to tell him anything. “Weiwei, is there anything you want to tell me regarding what happened yesterday?”

Gu Weiwei thought for a moment. Although it had been she who refused to visit hospital the day before, this man had been showing a great deal of kindness towards her anyways.

He not only drove her to the hospital and demeaned himself by taking care of her the entire night. So it was totally reasonable for her to show some gratitude.

She wiped her hands instantly and came to his side, bowing.

“President Fu, thank you for helping me at the hospital.”

However, her gratitude did not please Fu Hanzheng, but actually displeased him instead.

“That is not... what I meant.”

Gu Weiwei was confused. Did he mean that she was not sincere enough in showing her gratitude?

“Don’t you have anything to tell me about being drugged?” Fu Hanzheng reminded her.

On the way home from hospital, he had expected her to tell him something. Yet she had kept her mouth sealed throughout the entire time.

Gu Weiwei threw a look at this man who seemed a bit furious and said confusedly, “I ran into some trouble. I can fix it myself.”

They were not in a relationship where she told him what displeased her and what made her miserable.

Fu Hanzheng pursed his lips, turned around and headed towards the study. Had he been too fierce when he was driving her out of Landscape Villa?

That was why she was scared of him and tried to keep a distance from him purposefully?

Chapter 36: The Unexpected Kiss

Twenty minutes later, Gu Weiwei had the noodles served in a bowl and went to knock on the door of the study.

“President Fu, dinner is ready.”

Fu Hanzheng opened the door and came out of the study, he was greeted by the appealing smell of warm noodles in the living room. He felt hungry.

He sat down and took a few bites. The tomatoes were boiled so that they tasted both sweet and sour, and the egg felt soft and tender; the noodles blended with the open and smooth texture of the soup.

Although the noodles were not as exquisitely made as the ones made by his home chef, the bowl of noodles tasted like home.

The light of the dining room cast a mild gleam upon the girl sitting opposite him, making her look so beautiful. That was something he had never noticed before.

Seeing that he stopped eating after a few bites, Gu Weiwei looked up in surprise. “Not tasty?”

“It is very tasty.”

Fu Hanzheng continued to eat the noodles and he even drank up the remainder of the soup.

After the dinner, he did not return to the study to deal with the piles of documents but continued to observe the girl opposite him whilst sitting in the chair.

Gu Weiwei felt his gaze on her, and she found it difficult to continue eating.

“You do not need to be so scared of me in the future.” Fu Hanzheng said.

“...” Gu Weiwei looked with curiosity at this man who was speaking.

Had Fu Hanzheng gotten possessed by something since yesterday on?

He started to talk to her in a weird way and looked at her in a weird way too.

No one spoke for a minute. Then Fu Hanzheng stood up to get a cup of coffee from the coffee machine.

“The noodles were very tasty.”

Gu Weiwei smiled, tidied up the tableware and washed them in the kitchen. Mu Weiwei’s mother loved cooking, and she picked up some skills from her.

She had been living in the Gu Family and did not have to cook for herself. But there was one time when Gu Siting was suffering from a stomach issue, and that was what had made her learn to make some simple home dishes with the chefs.

After washing the dishes, she thought of the deadline for the Film Academy application, so she said to Fu Hanzheng, “I would like to check something on the internet. Can I... use the computer?”

“Sure, go ahead.” Fu Hanzheng agreed without hesitation. He then headed into the bathroom to take a shower.

Gu Weiwei took out the identification card that she had taken from her things from Zhou Linna, went into the study and opened the official website of Film Academy. She glanced through the requirements for the application, registered an account and started to fill in the application form.

Since the photos and identification card were needed, she had to turn on the scanner and spent almost a whole hour trying to finish the application.

“Why Film Academy?”

Fu Hanzheng had appeared behind her somehow.

As far as he remembered, she had always been a piano learner and the rumours said that she was gifted.

The entertainment zone was too complicated for a girl to be in it.

“A dream maybe.” Gu Weiwei closed the page, stood up and said, “I am done now, thank you.”

This man was so intimidating that his appearance made the entire study fill with an inexplicable kind of pressure. So she decided to leave after expressing her gratitude.

“Hang on.” Fu Hanzheng said, and took hold of her slender waist and placed her on the desk.

“I have one thing I would like to confirm, please cooperate with me.”

Gu Weiwei leaned backwards, trying to pull herself away from him.

The man leaned forward and placed his hands on the table on either side so that she could not even get off the table.

“What is it? Can’t we get another...”

Before she finished the words, the man took hold of her chin and forced her to look up at him.

Then, his lips that were full of lust, were pressed upon hers without any warning and started to invade her lips and tongue.

Chapter 37: A Beast Unsealed

Gu Weiwei was totally dumbfounded by the kiss. Before she realized what was going on, the man’s burning tongue had already reached her soft and tender tongue; so that her lips and tongue were full of the special scent of that man.

She leaned herself backwards, trying hard to get rid of him. Yet the man leaned forward with her until she finally lost her balance and fell onto the table.

The moment she was about to fall, a hand held the back of her head so that he placed her head gently onto the table in case her head hit on the hard surface.

However, the man’s invasion did not cease.

Gu Weiwei tried hard to push the man away who had his chest lowered towards her, yet instead of getting him off her, she ended up releasing his bath robe so that her hand felt the man’s sturdy chest.

Annoyed, she took a heavy bite on the man’s lips, and the sweet taste of blood soon spread over their lips and tongue.

Startled by the pain, Fu Hanzheng left her lips, stretched out his hands to wipe off the blood on his lips, looking gleeful.

Then he pulled her up so she could sit up straight. Yet he still refused to let her go.

Furious, Gu Weiwei glared at him, panting heavily. “What do you want to confirm anyway?”

A patch of redness painted the man’s thin lips, and he smiled, exactly like an unbearably enchanting monster.

“I want to confirm if I am interested in you.”

And she did taste much better than he had expected.

Gu Weiwei took a deep breath, forced herself to calm down and said seriously, “President Fu, I did do something stupid and offended you numerous times before. I apologize to you now, here. But I truly have no interest in you, none at all!”

Fu Hanzheng stretched out his fingertips and brushed away the girl's loosened strands of hair behind her ears and showed a touch of delight. "If it is because I did not show much gentleness the other night, please give me one more chance, and I am sure you will be satisfied."

Honestly, it was definitely not a gentleman's behavior to have taken away a girl's virginity in such a rude way.

Gu Weiwei became so furious that she shivered slightly. She was already trying very hard to stay away from this dangerous man, yet something had triggered him so that he suddenly started to flirt with her.

"President Fu, I approached you because I wanted to make use of you to help me with my revenge."

"Now, you can continue to make use of me." Fu Hanzheng said with an unprecedentedly patient and mild voice as he stared at this girl's sparkingly bright eyes. "I can help you to take revenge and get everything that belongs to the Mu Family, but you must... become my woman first."

"No need. Look at Li Jiacheng, any wealthy man is just unreliable. So I will get everything back with my own strength." Gu Weiwei tried hard to press down her anger. If she had not been aware of her own strength and status that made it impossible for her to beat him, she would have hit him hard at the moment.

"Now, move away from me."

"With your own strength?" Fu Hanzheng burst into a small laughter. "I can make sure that you can't move an inch in this country."

"Ha, so what a President of Fu's Enterprise can do is to deal with a teenage girl like me in such a mean way?" Gu Weiwei said between clenched teeth.

"Businessmen are always tricky and they always do whatever it takes to get whatever they desire." Fu Hanzheng showed a faint laugh.

Gu Weiwei stared right into this man's profound dark eyes coldly. "Then you can just let me die. I have already lost so much and I do not care if it costs one more life."

Fu Hanzheng carried her off the desk, stretched out his hands and touched her head as a way of consolation.

"Just go and sleep. Good Night."

Gu Weiwei went straight to her room, locked the door and blocked the door with all the tables and wardrobes.

Mu Weiwei had put her into such a horrible position to have stimulated Fu Hanzheng.

After Fu Hanzheng had forcefully slept with her, he was like an unsealed beast that went into his damned heat.

Chapter 38: Slept with My Brother Again?!

Early in the morning, Gu Weiwei did not dare to open the door and walk out of her room. She leaned herself against the door, trying to hear if there was any movement outside the room. She planned not to leave the bedroom until Fu Hanzheng was gone.

Fu Hanzheng got up early as usual. He was waiting for his clothes and the briefcase that Xu Qian had delivered to him.

With eyes upon this elegantly seated man who was drinking coffee, Xu Qian asked, "Should we ask Miss. Mu to join us?"

Fu Hanzheng threw a look at the tightly closed door. "No need, she does not want to see me right now."

Xu Qian was not very sure about the way his own boss treated women. When Miss. Mu ran after him all the time before, he found her annoying.

Now when Mu Weiwei had stopped bothering him, it became his own turn to badger her. What a... perverted idea!

After breakfast, Fu Hanzheng got himself ready for the company. He engaged himself in reading the material for the morning meeting whilst exchanging some words with Xu Qian. Then he suddenly noticed a flower store on the roadside that was just opening.

"Pull over."

Xu Qian instantly pulled over the car, turned around and asked, "What is it, Boss?"

Fu Hanzheng looked at the flower store on the roadside and said, "What is the most proper flower to express the feeling of regret?"

Xu Qian threw a weird look at him and answered based on how he apologized to his own girlfriend. "Yellow roses or lillies."

"Go buy the yellow roses." Fu Hanzheng said. He must have startled her the night before.

Xu Qian got out of the car, went into the flower store and bought a bunch of yellow roses. When he came back to the car, Fu Hanzheng was already in the driver's seat.

He grabbed the card from the bunch of flowers and scribbled some lines before stuffing it back into the flowers.

"You do not need to go to the company. Just deliver the flowers to the apartment."

As Xu Qian watched the black Rolls-Royce Phantom joining the flow of cars, he lowered his gaze to the yellow flowers and then followed the orders by taking a taxi back to Jinxiu Compound.

Right, it was the first time for his boss to send a bunch of flowers to a girl, and it was an important mission that was not to be messed up.

Jinxiu Compound.

Hearing that Fu Hanzheng had left, Gu Weiwei pulled away the tables and wardrobes behind the door and went out to freshen up. She was getting herself ready to meet Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian.

She had just gotten changed and opened the door when she ran into Xu Qian who was about to knock on the door with a bunch of flowers in his arms.

“Miss. Mu, Boss asked me to deliver these to you.”

Gu Weiwei glanced at the delicate yellow roses which were meant for an apology and realized that maybe he was apologizing to her about forcing himself on her the night before?

After a long time, Xu Qian put the flowers on the table after noticing that she did not plan to take them.

“Miss. Mu, it is the first time Boss gives flowers to a girl, I hope you will like it.”

Gu Weiwei did not embarrass Xu Qian. But when she thought of Fu Hanzheng’s words about going out on business, she still asked with a worried heart. “Assistant Xu, your boss is going out on business today?”

“Yes, the plane takes off at eleven.” Xu Qian answered with honesty.

“How many days will he be gone?”

“Three.”

Gu Weiwei nodded. “Okay, you can leave now.”

If he was going to be away for three days, then she would be safe for three days. But she still needed to find a place to live so that she could move out of this wolf’s den.

The moment Xu Qian left she took the flowers, went downstairs and tossed them down into the dustbin.

In the meantime at the office of the Fu’s Enterprise, Fu Shiqin and all the top managers were staring at Fu Hanzheng’s wound on his lips, totally transfixed.

Fu Shiqin remembered that when he drove Mu Weiwei back to the Jinxiu Compound, he did not show up at Landscape Villa later. And this wound happened to be on his lips, so there was no doubt that the wound was generated because of Mu Weiwei.

Then he, with a gossiping mindset, sent a text – “Mu Weiwei, did you sleep with my brother again last night?!”

Chapter 39: Mrs President

A minute later, Gu Weiwei sent a text back – “Your brother is in his heat period, get a girl to help him vent his anger.”

Fu Shiqin threw a sneaky look at his own brother who was in the middle of a speech and replied instantly, “You are here, aren’t you?”

Could it have been because of his and He Chi's stimulating talks that he went to Mu Weiwei for some pleasure the night before?

Gu Weiwei replied, "Goodbye, you are no longer in my contacts list."

It was not until the meeting was over when Xu Qian came to the company in a hurry. "Xu, you are not a guy who is late, what made you arrive so late today?"

"I delivered flowers for Boss." Xu Qian said with a smile.

After he said those words, all the top managers from different departments who were about to leave the meeting leaned forward and asked.

"Second Master, is President in a relationship now?"

"The wound on his lips must be from a girl, right?"

"Assistant Xu, is the girl pretty? Which family is she from?"

....

"Of course, my brother has an extremely great taste for girls." Fu Shiqin said proudly, showing an expression of pride as if he himself had gotten a girlfriend too.

"Second Master, can you tell us which family is the girlfriend from?" The Director of Human Resources Department smiled and asked in a flattering way.

This was their president's first girlfriend and she might become the future Mrs President.

"No comment." Fu Shiqin said in a mysterious way.

It took only one afternoon before the love affairs of Fu Hanzheng, the President of the Fu's Enterprise were spread over the entire company. When it reached the Public Relations Department, the female staff became crazy with jealousy.

Meng Ruya did not attend the morning meeting and she did not arrive at the company until the afternoon. So she had no idea what had happened. She told her subordinates about the work briefly and said, "I have something to do in the afternoon, you guys are on your own."

"You are going to meet Mrs. Fu right, judging from what you said on the phone." One female employee said enviously.

Meng Ruya smiled elegantly. "Mrs. Fu said that she has a friend who was opening a club last night, and she wanted me to join the banquet with her."

"Did you spend the night at the Fu Family?" Another female employee asked out of surprise.

Meng Ruya nodded and replied with a smile, "There was a family banquet and it was getting very late, so I spent the night there."

She tried every means to showcase her close relationship with the Fu Family.

“Manager Meng, the flowers from this morning must be given to you, right?” When one female employee heard that she spent the night at the Fu Family, she automatically associated the gossip she heard this morning to her.

Meng Ruya smiled. She did not admit anything, nor did she deny anything.

“Manager Meng, just tell us! The entire company knows that the President is in a relationship now and he even asked Assistant Xu to deliver the flowers this morning, and you have brought flowers with you to the company too.”

“And you spent the night at the Fu Family and Mrs. Fu even asked you to join her this afternoon. Is there going to be a piece of joyous breaking news being announced soon?”

“Manager Meng, are you going to be our Mrs President soon?”

....

Meng Ruya’s elegant smile somehow stiffened. “Who told you that this bunch of flowers is from the President?”

“Assistant Xu was late for work today and when the Second Master asked him for the reason, he said that he went to deliver the flowers to the President’s girlfriend.”

“Also, Director Lin says that the President’s lips were bitten and apparently it was from a kiss. And Manager Meng, who else could it have been when you spent the night at the Fu Family?”

“Alright, alright, just get back to work. I am going to pick up Aunt now.” Meng Ruya took up the flowers and left the office, drawing a great deal of attention and envy.

The moment she opened the car door, she tossed the flowers into the car.

This bunch of flowers was bought by her as a present for the opening of the store. It was not at all from Fu Hanzheng and Fu Hanzheng did not show up at the villa last night either.

She had just driven away the annoying Mu Weiwei, who else was standing in her way now?

Chapter 40: A Blind Date

Gu Weiwei tossed away the flowers and received a call from Ji Cheng, who asked her to come over to her house with Luo Qianqian.

She and Luo Qianqian met first and then they took a taxi and headed towards Ji Cheng’s home.

On the way there, her phone rang again. She answered the call and found that it was the firm voice of Mr. Ming Zongyuan.

“Girl, are you at school?”

“I have asked for leave. I am outside.” Gu Weiwei replied.

Ming Zongyuan smiled mysteriously, “Where are you now? I will ask my driver to pick you up. There is someone important I would like you to meet.”

“Mr. Ming, I have an appointment this afternoon, and I can’t be there.” Gu Weiwei turned down the invitation.

“I told you about my grandson Ye right, he has just returned from abroad and I would like you guys to meet up. I have shown him your picture...”

“Where did you get my picture?” Gu Weiwei frowned.

“I snapped a shot when you were here last time.” Ming Zongyuan said unashamedly and continued to speak highly of his own grandson. “Ye is a very handsome guy and his personality is great too. He is an architect and he has won many prizes overseas...”

Gu Weiwei put her phone away from herself and shouted, “Mr. Ming, I am sorry, Mr. Ming, the reception here is very bad, what did you say? What....”

She hung up the phone and switched it off entirely.

This old man was being serious when he said that he wanted her to be his grand daughter-in-law. She had turned him down and now he was pushing her.

She was still a student who was yet to graduate from high school, and now he wanted her to go on a blind date.

Luo Qianqian watched her switching the phone with a weird look. “Who was it? You look scared to death.”

“A weird old dude. He wants me to go on a blind date with his grandson. I am still young, okay?” Gu Weiwei frowned, feeling troubled.

She had to find a place to live so that she could move out before Fu Hanzheng returned.

If she couldn’t find any accommodation, she would have to end up being in the school dormitory.

But living with Zhou Linna and Zhu Xiaoqin sounded disgusting.

“That is not weird. Ji Cheng claims that she wants to marry you every day.” Luo Qianqian stressed.

Ji Cheng had been fascinated by her idol Fu Shiyi, yet after knowing her, Fu Shiyi was now second in rank.

She had become Mu Weiwei’s most loyal fan, who was totally delighted to see her at anytime.

Gu Weiwei thought for a moment and realized that Ji Cheng was really that kind of girl.

Ji Cheng was a lovely girl who had average scores and no big dreams.

Luo Qianqian, on the other hand, was a rational and calm school student who had always had very high grades. She wondered what brought these two girls together as friends.

They two kept chatting and came to the military courtyard where Ji Cheng’s home was located.

The moment she entered the room, Ji Cheng pushed Gu Weiwei into her own bathroom.

“Goddess, I have got clothes and a towel ready, take a shower and wash your hair first.”

Gu Weiwei said, “I washed it yesterday.”

What was this strange way of greeting when the host forced the guest to take a shower as soon as the guest stepped into the door?

“Then wash it again.” Ji Cheng pleaded with her two palms clenched together.

Gu Weiwei could not resist her, so she took a shower, washed her hair and got herself dressed into the night gown on her request.

Ji Cheng was in the middle of showing Luo Qianqian the presents she had received. “Look at this bracelet, and this doll and all these brooches, aren’t they pretty?”

Gu Weiwei threw a look at the bed that was covered by various kinds of small ornaments. They were apparently bought from different foreign countries.

Luo Qianqian threw a look at them and said, “So these are all presents brought back home by your extremely handsome cousin?”

Ji Cheng nodded and said as she brought out the necklace around her neck.

“And this necklace too, look there are carved letters on it.”

Luo Qianqian threw a look at them and found that those were in Greek.

“What does this mean?”

“Excellent grades for all examinations.” Ji Cheng said.

Gu Weiwei took it and threw a look at it, then she returned it to her, frowning.

To hell with ‘excellent grades for all examinations’, the carved letters meant ‘my little angel’.

Silly girl, she was not even aware that she was being flirted with.
