

MY HIDDEN 321

Chapter 321: A Wonderful Show

Mo Jiao was totally stunned by Gu Weiwei's performance and the scriptwriter who was watching from behind the camera, had already become totally dumbfounded.

Three minutes ago, he had thought that Mu Weiwei was going to fail his expectations of Huo Jing but now he had only one notion in mind – no one else could play a better Huo Jing than she did.

This 19-year-old girl, who had never been to one lesson in the Film Academy, was now totally able to put on a performance that could be used as reference by anyone else.

This 19-year-old girl had totally showcased how the 27-year-old chief of the information department of the military bureau should be – lethal and arrogant.

The way she looked when she was shooting and the gesture she made when instructing her men... she was exactly the Huo Jing they had imagined.

Mo Jiao and the scriptwriter were expectantly waiting to see how the scene would turn out.

When Huo Jing caught up with Fang Yan and her people, Huo Jing looked lethal and glanced at two people, then just as she almost caught up with Fang Yan, one of Fang Yan's people was shot and blood splashed to the ground.

She raised the gun and immediately countered when she saw Huo Jing.

However, the moment she met Huo Jing's lethal gaze and expression, her hand that held the gun shook and fired two slow bullets, before she turned to run away with the remaining people.

Mo Jiao pressed the loudspeaker button unhappily. "Cut!"

Gu Weiwei put down the gun and asked as she turned around. "Anything wrong, Director?"

Mo Jiao got up and came over to them.

"Shen Qiu, why is your gun-holding hand shaking? And you ran out of the camera just now, such a stupid mistake! A spy who dares to work undercover in the military bureau is never going to fear the opponent! You did terribly just now!"

....

Because of Fang Yan's mistake of walking beyond the camera range, the wonderful scene was ruined. Mo Jiao lectured Shen Qiu who played the role fiercely.

Chu Chen had been waiting to see Gu Weiwei being lectured and he had even come up with the idea of how to get haters to write mean comments about her online, once she ruined the scene.

Yet the result was that the director, instead of picking on her, went to lecture Shen Qiu when he stopped the filming.

Startled, he looked at Mo Jiao far away from him, wondering if he had heard it wrongly.

Walking out of the camera?

Doing terribly with the role?

How would Shen Qiu ever make such a stupid mistake?

Shen Qiu was totally intimidated by the lethal Huo Jing and she was even more startled when the director lectured her.

When she came back to herself, she felt so embarrassed.

"I am sorry, Director Mo, I was a bit distracted."

Mo Jiao sighed and stressed his point to her.

"Get yourself together and start from the scene where Huo Jing shot your people."

Honestly, he felt very sorry for Shen Qiu.

It was her who proposed to try the scene with Huo Jing, just to get everything to work out properly but he knew pretty well that she was just giving Mu Weiwei a warning because he had been the director of many films.

He had been a bit annoyed with Mu Weiwei because she had not shown up at the beginning, so he approved of the proposal to bring her over so they could shoot the scene.

But what Mu Weiwei had done, totally surprised him and Shen Qiu, who had tried to give her the warning, made terrible mistakes all the time.

She was totally humiliated as a senior actress who had been in the industry for so long.

Song Yu said with a smile, as he saw Jolin passing by, "Agent Jolin, your girl is a very good actress."

She was born for the big screen, be it her face or her talent.

Jolin smiled. "Thank you, this is what my girl would normally do."

Shen Qiu had wanted to give his girl a warning by showing off her own talent, when she proposed to make the scene but she received the opposite effect and was left totally dumbfounded.

Chapter 322: Convincing moves

Chu Chen snorted when he heard the words.

"A newbie dares to speak such arrogant words, she better watch out for her own good!"

All she had done was be the supporting role of the Long Wind and yet they talked as if her acting skills were excellent!

“My girl is indeed a newbie but you, a seemingly experienced man, is still the supporting role in this show anyways.”

Jolin was famous for his silver tongue and that sentence had left Chu Chen totally speechless.

His girl was beautiful, skilled and talented, as well as friendly. She was definitely going to be popular!

“You...”

“If you have the time to find haters to slander my girl, I suggest that you use the time to train your own acting skills instead or you can wait and see how our girl brings you down.” Jolin squinted at Chu Chen and snorted.

His girl was very good at convincing everyone.

Feeling angry, Chu Chen walked away and went over to Shen Qiu, who was trying to adjust herself to the change in situation.

“Sister Shen, what happened just now?”

That was a stupid mistake, which shouldn't have been made by an experienced actress like her.

Shen Qiu forced a smile onto her face. “I didn't sleep very well, so I am not in the right mood to do as well.”

“Pick yourself up! You asked Mu Weiwei to join you in this scene of the film and yet she has not failed a take but you did! You are humiliating yourself.” Chu Chen reminded her with a small voice.

Shen Qiu nodded and said impatiently, “I got it, please let me get into the right mood.”

She had expected for Mu Weiwei to not have been able to master the role of Huo Jing.

Especially when she had not even taken a glance at the script while she was here and went straight into acting without the director telling her what to do.

Therefore, she had thought that she did not have to make much effort to put her into the shadows.

However, as a result, when Huo Jing played by Mu Weiwei approached her, she was totally startled by her lethal gaze and aura.

When she was firing at the extras that went to fight her, she understood that it was all an unrealistic show and that the extras did not really die... but she felt as if she had actually killed someone.

When she met Huo Jing's lethal stare, the hand that held the gun shook, so she totally forgot how to move away according to the script.

Mu Weiwei had become Huo Jing and she had been frightened and forgot about her role as Fang Yan.

Although she was not convinced, she had to admit that she had been put into the shadows by a totally green 19-year-old girl!

Because of the scene a moment ago, Mo Jiao had totally erased his prejudice towards Gu Weiwei and he was talking to her in a very friendly tone.

“You are doing well with Huo Jing’s character, remember to keep looking lethal and intimidating.”

No wonder Yi An recommended her to play the lead actress of the Eyes of the Eagle. She was indeed a very rare, talented actress.

He had a feeling that when the Eyes of the Eagle was released, it would be the most well-received film, compared to all the other films he had made.

“Okay.” Gu Weiwei nodded and smiled.

After talking with her, Mo Jiao turned to Shen Qiu.

“You must stay steady when you meet Huo Jing’s eyes and actions, you are supposed to have a plan of retreat, not end up running away like a deserter, okay?”

He had been worried about Mu Weiwei, yet she had presented such a wonderful performance but Shen Qiu, whom he had no worries about, turned out to be currently unstable.

Shen Qiu nodded but inwardly she felt very annoyed.

She had tried to embarrass Mu Weiwei by asking her to act this scene with her but now, she herself had fallen into the trap that she had set up for someone else.

Chapter 323: Baby Zheng Again

After several failed takes, the scene was finally completed.

The director was very satisfied with the scene, so he said, before they finished the day’s work, “I hope that after today, every one of you can be devoted to the show instead of focusing on anything else. An actor stands out because of his or her acting skills, not other inconsequential things.”

That was the warning he gave to the cast, so that they would focus upon their acting rather than laying traps and setting tricks.

Since Shen Qiu had not been able to take advantage of her on the first day, she did not approach her in the following days.

Mo Jiao was also very strict with every actor, and he always made sure that each scene was the best one, no matter how many failed takes there might be.

Therefore, no one had the time or energy to cause anyone else any trouble.

Gu Weiwei was not under huge pressure since she almost never failed a take.

Plus, she was taken great care of by the private butler arranged by Fu Hanzheng, so she was having a much more relaxing time, on the set of the Eyes of the Eagle, than anyone else.

Jolin, together with her assistant, came up to the top suite for breakfast.

Seeing her phone ringing, he gave the phone to her.

“It’s Baby Zheng again.”

Gu Weiwei took the phone, went into the bedroom where she answered the call, and did not return until a few minutes later.

Jolin took a sip of the freshly-squeezed juice and mumbled curiously.

“Your Baby Zheng seems to be such a good friend to you. She calls you several times a day, even a couple would not do something like this.”

Gu Weiwei laughed involuntarily when she heard that Baby Zheng was a female.

“Oh well... we have too great a friendship to be truly separated.”

Jolin did not suspect a thing about the Baby Zheng in her phone but said, “Oh right, are you fighting with Third Master these days?”

“No?” Gu Weiwei said.

Well, he was in a fight with his brother so indirectly speaking, he was in a fight with her.

Jolin looked up at her. “The fans of the rumored couple had a good reaction towards your guys’ reality show, so his agent and I decided to ask Third Master to visit you on set but he immediately turned it down and said that he was not coming even if he had to die.”

Gu Weiwei said, trying hard to press down her laughter, “He is very busy and he doesn’t need to come, really.”

Honestly, drop the topic of the rumored couple. Fu Shiyi had been terribly influenced by the punishment he received last time and now, he would probably want to try his best to avoid her in every way possible.

“Let’s try to persuade him, we can drop it if he truly doesn’t want to show up but the fans want to see you in the same frame.” Jolin said.

Gu Weiwei did not reply but smiled softly. Fu Shiyi was probably never going to visit her no matter what.

Jolin ate breakfast and said, “Well, you can work with Third Master or become a rumored couple but never take it seriously.”

The assistant asked curiously, “Why? Third Master and Weiwei look cute together.”

She was one of those fans too.

Jolin pointed at his temple. “That man is not quite right in this part.”

Gu Weiwei chuckled and found that she agreed with what he said, otherwise there was no other explanation for why Fu Shiyi was so interested in causing trouble for himself.

Having eaten breakfast, they headed to the set.

She had done a great deal of work today and completed dozens of takes. It was not until ten at night that the work was then finished.

The moment she entered the room, she saw the light on, as she entered the inner room, she saw that the man who had earlier been on phone with her in the morning, was now seated on the sofa of her room, looking amazingly handsome against the warm light.

“Aren’t you supposed to be in the capital city today?”

He told her this morning that he was returning home.

She had thought that he would go home but instead, he came to her place.

Chapter 324: Gossip (Extra)

Fu Hanzheng got up and swept the girl into his arms and said, after giving her a long and passionate kiss, “I missed you, so I took a transfer flight here.”

Gu Weiwei soon smiled a sweet smile – so he did not even go home before coming to her.

“What about work? You don’t care about that anymore?”

He had been away on business for more than ten days and there were lots of things for him to handle at the company.

“Fu Shiqin is at home now.” Fu Hanzheng said.

Apart from some important things that required his personal decision, his brother was able to deal with the rest.

Gu Weiwei squinted at him. “So, Second Master is your hired laborer?”

Fu Hanzheng said, “Then what do I pay him for?”

Gu Weiwei had no words to counter but showed a second of sympathy for Fu Shiqin, who was working overtime in the capital.

Fu Hanzheng sat down on the sofa and gathered her into his arms, before giving a paper bag to her.

“Your present.”

Gu Weiwei took it and saw that it was an album full of clothes as well as a business card.

When she saw the name on the card, she looked up at him in surprise.

“Merlin?”

Fu Hanzheng nodded. “The style of Muse fits you better and so I bought the latest trends and signed a long-term contract with Merlin. If you need any new outfits, he can design the clothes exclusively for you.”

“You are wasting money, aren’t you?” Gu Weiwei asked with slightly raised eyebrows.

She did like the clothes designed by Merlin and the Gu Family also had the desire to hire him but that man had a weird temper, so he did not become the personal designer of the Gu Family.

That was why they hired Martin Green instead, who was their secondary choice.

Merlin did not agree to do the job no matter how much the Gu Family tried, so how did this man manage to persuade this lord-like man.

Fu Hanzheng asked nothing but one question. "You like it?"

"Yes." Gu Weiwei nodded constantly.

"That is good." Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei put down the present and held onto his neck, then she kissed him right on the lips.

"Thanks!"

But she had better tell him what she actually needed in the future otherwise his future gifts would be way too much!

Fu Hanzheng brushed over her hair and said with a low whisper, "This way of expressing gratitude is too simple."

Gu Weiwei smiled and then kissed him again, just as they were in the middle of a deep kiss, the doorbell rang.

At first, both of them ignored the ringing, but the doorbell kept on buzzing.

"Maybe it is the Jolin or someone from the cast, I will go check it out."

Fu Hanzheng's expression sank and he let go of her so she could open the door.

Gu Weiwei went to the living room of the suite, adjusted her clothes and hair in front of the mirror and did not open the door until she made sure that she looked alright.

But it turned out to be someone other than the cast or Jolin... it was Chu Chen, the supporting actor of the Eyes of the Eagle.

Gu Weiwei asked him, "What is it?"

Chu Chen showed the script in his hands and said with a friendly face, "We are going to perform an important scene tomorrow, so I need to talk about this with you."

"I am not in the mood right now, please leave." Gu Weiwei said and was about to shut the door.

It was so strange that an actor offered to talk about the script in an actress's room so late at night.

Chu Chen stretched out his hand and stopped her from closing the door.

"Weiwei, the director said that we need to talk about the script when we have time."

But he was not here to read the script with her.

She had become a popular star because of the Long Wind and her image as the rumored couple with Fu Shiyi had become increasingly prevalent too, so when the Eyes of the Eagle was released, she would become even more popular and it was very necessary for him to be close to her.

If they could create some gossip together, then it would be very beneficial for him...

But for some reason, the moment he finished speaking, he felt a lethal air blowing across his face from in the room.

Chapter 325: Gossip 2

Gu Weiwei threw a look at the hand holding the door and warned coldly.

“If you still want to be an actor, get out of here now.”

She could already feel the lethal air coming out of the room.

Chu Chen did not get annoyed but laughed when he heard her asking him to get out.

“Weiwei, I don’t mean any harm but I feel very regretful that I wasn’t able to work with you in the Long Wind and now we are in the same cast, so we should cherish our destiny.”

Since he was in the same company as Shen Qiu, he stood on Shen Qiu’s side at the audition of the Long Wind but he then ended up losing the role himself.

However, Mu Weiwei was popular now and a signed star of Shiyi Culture; with the Long Wind and the Eyes of the Eagle on her resume, she was far better than him and Shen Qiu in every single way.

Since they were not a match against each other, they could simply be friends.

Also, Mu Weiwei was indeed pretty and had a noble air that was lacking in the other girls that were part of the entertainment industry.

And plus, every man liked pretty girls. He was no exception.

Although she had created gossip with Shiyi, Fu Shiyi was just playing with her like a toy and would never marry her because he was from the huge Fu Family.

So, he still had the opportunity.

“We are not good friends, so don’t call me by that name.” Gu Weiwei said with a cold voice.

“We have been working on the same set for so long, how can we be strangers?” Chu Chen asked with a smile.

Gu Weiwei had really lost the patience to continue the conversation with him. “I am sorry but I need to sleep now, please go back to your room.”

If she did not go to Fu Hanzheng now, he would burst in jealousy.

If he did not release the door, she would definitely kick him out.

“Just two scenes for tomorrow noon, it wouldn’t take too much time.” Chu Chen looked as if he were not giving up.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said, “Wait for three minutes.”

Chu Chen nodded with a smile. “Okay, I will wait for you.”

Normally, a girl would always pack up her things and put on some makeup before letting someone else enter the room.

Since she had already agreed to let him wait for a few minutes, it seemed that he would be able to enter her room tonight.

Maybe she would be a bit shy tonight but after a couple of times, he would definitely get her when they were doing the film.

He might not be as good-looking as Shiyi, but he was already quite handsome.

He was also indeed more experienced than this 19-year-old young girl, who simply had no experience.

Gu Weiwei shut the door and made a call to Jolin and told him what had happened.

Hearing the words, Jolin immediately ran upstairs.

“Don’t open the door for me. I will be there soon.”

“Okay.”

Gu Weiwei hung up and saw Fu Hanzheng’s face sinking deeply. He looked very lethal.

She approached him and held onto his waist.

“Wait for a few more minutes. It will be over soon.”

Fu Hanzheng looked rather cold. “You can let him in. I can handle the problem.”

“No need for you to deal with such a small matter. Jolin can do that.” Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

If he dealt with this matter, someone would die.

After all, he was a man who would even give his own brothers serious punishments.

“How many times has he been here?” Fu Hanzheng asked as he looked down at her.

She had run into him today but what about when he was not around?

“The first time ever.” Gu Weiwei saw the text from Jolin and worried that he would be frightened by this man when he came into the room later, so she pushed him into the bathroom.

“You can take a shower now. I will be back soon.”

Chapter 326: No Way!

Chu Chen adjusted his hair style and smiled at his assistant at the end of the corridor, suggesting that he should film the whole process.

A long while later, the door was still closed, so he kept pressing the doorbell to urge the girl inside.

Gu Weiwei went to open the door, after she urged Fu Hanzheng to take a shower first.

But she did not let him in.

Seeing that she still had no intention of letting him in, Chu Chen said, "It is not very convenient for us to talk outside the door, is it?"

Gu Weiwei leaned against the door with her arms crossed. "I don't think there is a better place to talk than here."

She had just said the words when the elevator opened and Jolin angrily rushed out.

He dragged Chu Chen's assistant, who was sneaking around, out of the corner of the corridor and then he pulled him all the way over to their direction and swore loudly.

"Chu Chen, you better see if you are worthy of my girl's attention!"

He had been in the industry for a long time and so he understood pretty well what this actor was up to.

He had knocked at Mu Weiwei's door late at night, claiming that he was going to check over the script with her but he placed his assistant nearby, so that he could film the moment when they entered the room together.

Then when the film was released, he would leak the video when the girl was receiving the peak of her popularity, so that he could be in the same rumors as her.

At that time, he would receive even more attention because of the popularity of Mu Weiwei.

Gossip was always an uncertain thing and it would only get worse if the people involved tried to explain something.

Seeing Jolin approaching him with his assistant, Chu Chen was a bit surprised but he still said with a smile, "I am just here talking with Weiwei about the two scenes we are going to film tomorrow, you are too worried, agent Jolin."

Although he did have his own little plan, he would never admit his real intention in front of them.

Annoyed, Jolin kicked Chu Chen's assistant to his side and shielded Gu Weiwei.

"My girl is not your good friend. You are not qualified enough to call her by her name!"

He protected his girl so carefully that he didn't even allow Third Master to approach her, let alone someone so minor like Chu Chen.

Chu Chen was very frightened by Jolin's response. "We are just talking about the script, why are you making such terrible conjectures?"

"It is 11 at night and you want to talk about the script with an actress?" Jolin got so angry that his saliva flew out. "You are shameless! Don't bring my girl down!"

Gu Weiwei looked at her agent who was so fierce at this moment in time, thinking that she might not need to do anything anymore.

"Mu Weiwei, we are in the same cast, we can talk about script right? What is your problem?" Chu Chen got quite irritated.

“If we were not in the same cast and if it were not because of Director Mo, I would not have been so polite right now.” Gu Weiwei snorted with a cold voice.

The reason why she did not want Fu Hanzheng to get involved is because she did not want to cause trouble for the whole cast.

After all, the filming had started and the cast had already been announced. If a role was replaced, the whole team would be affected.

“Song Yu and my girl are the lead actors and actresses but they talk about the script only in the daytime, not now. You know pretty well what you are up to!”

After responding to Chu Chen, Jolin turned to Gu Weiwei and said to her in a very sweet tone.

“It is very late now, leave this to me. Go back to sleep, we have many scenes to shoot tomorrow.”

“Thank you.”

Gu Weiwei turned around, walked back into the room and closed the door.

The moment she turned around, she bumped into Fu Hanzheng who was already waiting for her behind the door.

Chapter 327: Time Saver

However, after looking at him, it seemed that he had not obeyed her suggestion that he should take a shower.

Hearing that Jolin and Chu Chen were leaving outside the door, Gu Weiwei let out a sigh of relief and took a look at this man who was still properly dressed.

“What are you doing here?”

“So that’s it?!” Fu Hanzheng looked displeased.

Gu Weiwei locked the door and explained as she took hold of his arms.

“Just leave it to Jolin, he won’t just let it go in this way.”

Jolin might be her agent but he was actually a very defensive man.

Whenever there was a male star approaching her, he would come their way and leave no chance for them to create gossip with her.

So when Chu Chen was trying to cook up a story in this way, Jolin would not just leave him be after one moment of lecturing.

“Then what do you plan to do about it?” Fu Hanzheng was still very angry.

Gu Weiwei got him to sit down, kicked off her shoes and leaned against him.

“He will suffer anyways, don’t dwell upon such a small matter, you are a busy man!”

“This is not a minor matter.” Fu Hanzheng stressed.

Gu Weiwei explained helplessly.

“But the cast has been announced. If you want to change the supporting male role, it would be very troublesome and the whole filming process will be slowed down.

What was more, all Chu Chen had done was knock at the door and he had not even stepped over the threshold.

If Fu Hanzheng were to be involved, he would only be satisfied when he gave a prohibition order to Chu Chen, to never show up in the industry again.

Lips tightly closed, Fu Hanzheng said, after a moment of thinking, “Okay, I won’t interfere right now.”

But after the film was released, what happened to that man would have nothing to do with her or the whole cast.

Gu Weiwei nodded in satisfaction, got up and walked into the bathroom with clean clothes.

She was just about to shut the door when she found him following her in too.

“I am showering, what are you doing?”

Fu Hanzheng said, “Let’s do it together.”

“No way, get out now.” Gu Weiwei flushed.

Seeing her shy expression, Fu Hanzheng chuckled.

“It is very late, let’s save some time.”

“Get out of here now.” Gu Weiwei pushed the man out and locked the door.

Although they had had s*x throughout the entire night the other day, but she just couldn’t share a shower with him anymore.

Seeing her objection, Fu Hanzheng did not insist anymore but went to answer a call when the phone rang.

It was very late, so Gu Weiwei just took a simple shower, got changed and went out.

Then she gave him the robe from the hotel.

“I am done, it’s your turn.”

Fu Hanzheng took it and walked into the bathroom.

Gu Weiwei had been working for the whole day, so she fell asleep the moment she went into bed feeling completely exhausted.

When she was sleeping, she suddenly felt that she was not breathing smoothly and the moment she opened her eyes, she found Fu Hanzheng right in front of her, waking her up with his kisses.

She said pitifully, as she stopped the hands that groped under her pajamas, “I have lots of work to do tomorrow and you are tired too, let’s just sleep.”

During the past few days, she had been constantly shooting the film and now it was finally the time to relax her tense mind.

She knew that there would be no end to their s*x, the moment she agreed to do it with him.

“I won’t tire you.”

Having said those words, Fu Hanzheng lowered his head and kissed the cherry lips he had been missing for a long time. It was full of passion and love.

Gu Weiwei just could not sleep now after he kept on stimulating her but she was suddenly reminded of one important thing and she turned her face away.

“No... no, there is no condom here.”

Fu Hanzheng rested his forehead against hers and chuckled.

“I have them with me.”

“....”

Missing her? Really? Then why did he have condoms with him when he was visiting her?!

Chapter 328: Your Intention

A long time later, Gu Weiwei nestled herself in his arms. Her face was still flushed and her eyes looked lazy and charming.

“You did not miss me, you missed having s*x with me!”

Fu Hanzheng chuckled and kissed her forehead.

“These two are not separate but I do miss you more.”

He missed her, that was why he wanted to get close to her.

When it came to his s*x life, he had not wanted to do it so much before but once he had tasted it, he must admit that he could easily become very addicted.

Gu Weiwei squinted at him and then looked at him sweetly.

“Are you going home tomorrow?”

Fu Hanzheng’s eyebrows raised. “You want me to stay?”

“No.” Gu Weiwei replied.

She already had to go through a very demanding schedule, during the daytime at work and when he spent the night with her here, she had to work overtime.

“I can leave after breakfast.” Fu Hanzheng pulled up the blanket and whispered, “Sleep now.”

Although the feelings were still there, she did have a hard time filming, so one night would be enough.

After all, they were going to live together for a very long time, so they did not have to do everything now.

“Good night.”

Gu Weiwei closed her eyes and fell asleep quickly.

Fu Hanzheng heard his phone vibrating, so he put on the hotel robe, grabbed the phone and answered it when he went into the living room.

“What is it?”

It was Fu Shiqin who was working overtime in the capital and he felt that he must have interrupted something, when he heard his brother’s displeased voice.

“Well... L said that the woman from the Yuan Family and Gu Weiwei are totally gone now, after they slipped away the other day.”

Fu Hanzheng’s face sank and he said, after a moment of thinking, “They are trained people from the Dorrans Family, so they are definitely cautious. Watch out for them, both in the capital city and throughout the entire country.”

That woman had been gone for dozens of days after a single moment of appearance, the whole thing was very suspicious.

“And...” Fu Shiqin sighed.

“And what?”

“And it seems that Cayman Dorrans also noticed that we are looking into Gu Weiwei, so he also sent someone to look for the Yuan Family.” Fu Shiqin said.

Gu Siting’s men would not be able to interfere in the matters in Hua Land, so the Dorrans Family dispatched their own men instead.

“Watch out for them.” Fu Hanzheng said with a low voice.

“If the Dorrans Family find them first, are we going to do something about it?” Fu Shiqin asked discreetly.

If the Dorrans Family found Gu Weiwei first so she was brought back to the Gu Family, then the relationship between the Dorrans Family and the Gu Family would be as steadfast as ever.

As long as the Dorrans Family were the shield of the Gu Family, they would hardly be able to touch the Gu Family.

Fu Hanzheng did not reply for a long time.

He had to admit that it was a wise choice of the Gu Family to have adopted Gu Weiwei.

Fu Shiqin sighed deeply. “Now I wish that Gu Weiwei were dead rather than missing.”

Otherwise, as long as she was still in the hands of the Gu Family, Gu Siting would always hold the best bargaining chip.

And in that case, the Fu Family would hardly be able to bring down the Gu Family.

“I will talk about it when I come home.”

“You are willing to come home?” Fu Shiqin asked.

He went straight to his girlfriend’s set the moment he landed.

While he went to have so much fun he drove his brother back into the office where he worked like a slave day and night.

He would have totally ended their relationship if not for the fact that he greatly feared his brother.

Instead of answering him, Fu Hanzheng hung up and went back into the room to sleep.

Of course he was not willing to go home but after being away on business for such a long time, he was confronted with a hundred things he had to deal with in person.

Especially now, when Cayman Dorrans had dispatched his men into his territory, he had to go home to handle the situation.

Chapter 329: Long-distance Relationship (Extra)

Early in the morning, Gu Weiwei was woken up by the ringing of the phone.

Fully-dressed, Fu Hanzheng was watching her from the sofa not far away and approached her as she got up.

“The breakfast has been delivered, do you want to wash your face and brush your teeth?”

Gu Weiwei nodded with a pair of drowsy eyes and dragged herself out of bed.

Fu Hanzheng carried her and went into the bathroom.

“Want my help?”

“No thanks, I am not unable to care for myself!” Gu Weiwei quickly started to brush her teeth .

Fu Hanzheng chuckled as he stood next to her.

“Do your legs or waist hurt?”

Gu Weiwei glared at him and busied herself with brushing her teeth.

Fu Hanzheng brushed away some strands of hair and said, “I need to deal with some matters back home so I won’t be here for a while.”

Gu Weiwei casually asked, after she finished brushing her teeth, “Still about the Yuan Family?”

He had been gone for so long and she had wondered how the search was going on but it seemed that Yuan Meng was safe and sound.

“The Dorrans Family have sent some men here to Hua Land and they are looking for them too. It’s not good for the Fu Family.” Fu Hanzheng looked a little serious.

Gu Weiwei nodded, looking contemplative. “Wait for me outside and I need some coffee.”

Fu Hanzheng went out, made a phone call and asked the private butler to deliver a pot of coffee to the room.

Closing the bathroom door, Gu Weiwei washed her face and looked at herself in the mirror. It was a strange face, one that baffled her a little.

Cayman Dorrans was her real father, someone whom she had no idea of until she was dead.

There had once been a moment when she had the intention of telling him what had happened but as she thought back on it, she realized that no one was going to believe that she was his real daughter even if she went there.

What was more, she had no idea what Cayman Dorrans was like.

The Dorrans Family had too many enemies and her other-self was killed because of his opponents; she was afraid that her stabbing was because of him too.

That was how Ling Yan gained the chance to take her heart out of her body and to have it for herself.

Fu Hanzheng went to knock on the door because she had been inside for a little too long.

“Weiwei?”

Gu Weiwei came back to herself, dried her face with the towel, opened the door and walked out.

“I am going to get changed.”

She went back to the bedroom, got changed and sat down by the table. She took a sip of coffee to get some energy back into herself.

“I need to work after breakfast, so I can’t see you off.”

“Okay, I will come here when I have the time.” Fu Hanzheng said.

“You don’t have to, actually.” Gu Weiwei expressed her own feelings.

It was already great when they lived out a long-distance relationship. He truly did not have to come and visit her.

She already had a very long work day and when he was with her, she couldn’t even get a good night’s sleep. How painful it would be if he came all the time!

Fu Hanzheng said, “I don’t like long-distance relationships.”

But her work made her run about everywhere and she had to be away from home for months.

Gu Weiwei did not reply but smiled instead. She enjoyed this long-distance relationship... Especially when she thought of the condoms that filled the drawer, she wished that she would be too busy to go home for the foreseeable future.

They had just finished their breakfast when Jolin came knocking at the door, urging her to leave.

"I am leaving now."

Fu Hanzheng saw her off behind the door and kissed her for a long time before letting her leave.

Gu Weiwei walked out with a flushed face and joined Jolin outside the door before they both headed towards the set together.

Jolin frowned at the girl who was glowing, and flushed in the face. "Weiwei, are you... in a relationship?"

"What?" Gu Weiwei shook her head with a smile. "Didn't you say that I am too young to be in a relationship?"

"Really?" Jolin gazed at her suspiciously.

The way she looked and her shining eyes were very charming, this was apparently a result caused by love.

But he knew everything about her whereabouts so how would a man manage to infiltrate?

Chapter 330: Maybe You

"Of course not." Gu Weiwei denied.

Fu Hanzheng was still in her room, so she sounded quite guilty when she was denying the question.

Jolin pressed the elevator and said angrily,

"Better not, none of these ordinary men are worth your attention."

Gu Weiwei asked, as she entered the elevator, "How is it going with Chu Chen?"

"That man?" Jolin snorted and said with his arms crossed, "I told all the artists in Shiyi Culture that I want all the roles Chu Chen is auditioning for in the future."

The assistant heard and said, "But when the Eyes of the Eagle is released, he will be very popular and it will be hard to steal his resources in the future."

It was a blockbuster directed by Mo Jiao, and even a supporting actor would be able to gain some popularity.

Especially because the character Chu Chen played was quite lovely.

"Don't worry, I will use all of my tricks to bring him down." Jolin snorted coldly.

He had been in the entertainment industry since he was twenty and he had been the agent for many artists and used all kinds of methods and tricks on however many different occasions.

But his current artist was both beautiful and capable, so he did not intend to use such dirty tricks to cause people to hate her.

However, if someone intended to mess with them, he would not be soft-hearted.

"Thank you for your effort." Gu Weiwei did not stop him.

If what Jolin did to that man was unsatisfying to Fu Hanzheng, he would step forward and make Chu Chen suffer more seriously than necessary.

Due to today's heavy workload, she quickly went to get dressed and prepare for the filming.

Jolin took a step further and made a call to Luo Jiaming, the agent of Fu Shiyi.

"Where is Third Master, I need to ask him something."

Luo Jiaming glanced at his ward who was having his makeup done and flirting with the young model not too far away.

"He seems a bit occupied right now."

"Get him on the phone, I need to ask him something important." Jolin stressed.

Luo Jiaming thought for a while and decided to give the phone to Fu Shiyi after all.

Although Jolin was the agent for Mu Weiwei only, he was still one of the oldest employees of Shiyi Culture, and he did deserve some respect.

Fu Shiyi took the phone and started to talk in an isolated corner.

"Don't try to talk me into cooking up the rumored couple thing, I am not doing it!"

He was completely traumatized, so he would never do any rumored couple thing with her.

"I am just wondering... have you been flirting with my girl these days?"

Jolin took a glance at his girl who was doing her makeup not too far away, feeling that she was in a secretive relationship but no one around her was suspicious, except for Fu Shiyi.

When they were in the capital city, she went straight home with Fu Shiyi... after almost every event they went together.

"I..." Fu Shiyi felt so wronged that he snapped. "What do you mean have I been flirting with her? I will not flirt with her even if it means I have to flirt with a man!"

"So it is not you?" Jolin asked.

Startled for a few seconds, Fu Shiyi asked, "So your girl has got a man?"

"It's just a suspicion." Jolin said.

A person could lie verbally but how a person looked and expressed themselves externally could never be concealed.

Fu Shiyi thought of how Fu Shiqin had called him the other night to complain about his brother throwing a lot of work to him, whilst heading to his girlfriend's set for a visit.

It seemed that their date had made Jolin suspect something.

"It is not me." Fu Shiyi said.

"That is good, you don't deserve her." Jolin said disdainfully and openly.

Fu Shiyi gritted his teeth. "Is it proper for you as an agent to speak to your boss in this way?"

"I am just telling you the truth! No one except the top man would be worthy of her attention." Jolin snorted.

"..."

How much he wished to tell this defensive agent that his girl had already slept with that top man of his!
