

MY HIDDEN 351

Chapter 351: How to Fight

“Don’t worry, I have taken your money, so I will definitely keep mine and my agent’s mouths shut!”

Gu Weiwei smiled, opened the door and walked out.

His threat was totally effective on ordinary people... But for her, it was nothing.

She went downstairs and was greeted by Fu Shiyi and Jolin the moment she came out of the elevator.

“What did he want?”

“He gave me 50 million yuan to stay silent after the results are announced tomorrow.” Gu Weiwei confessed.

“And you are okay with it?” Fu Shiyi asked.

Gu Weiwei nodded and brought out the cheque.

“Of course.”

“You...” Fu Shiyi pointed at her and got annoyed.

Then he turned to Jolin.

“Give us a minute, I need to talk with her about something.”

Jolin knew that the Fu Family and the Gu Family were enemies and Third Master was definitely displeased when his girl accepted the Gu Family’s deal.

So he took a step away but still warned Fu Shiyi.

“You can talk, but don’t you dare do something to her!”

Fu Shiyi drove away Jolin and asked furiously, “Are you so poor? You can turn to my brother if you want money, he can give you everything!”

“Are you trying to piss my brother off by accepting Gu Siting’s money?”

“I will not help you anymore! I will tell my brother later that you not only met Gu Siting but also accepted his money!”

....

Gu Weiwei waited, with her arms crossed, until he finished complaining.

“You dare to do such stupid things?”

“You took Gu Siting’s money and you are stopping me from complaining?” Fu Shiyi said angrily.

She knew pretty well what the Fu Family and the Gu Family were like, so had she ever thought about his brother when she accepted Gu Siting's money?

Gu Weiwei looked around and made sure that no one from Gu Siting's side was tailing her, so she lowered her voice and told him her own plan.

Fu Shiyi looked at her for a few seconds and suddenly understood the whole point.

"Damn, you are more sly than before after getting together with my brother."

No wonder they said that the longer you stayed with good people, the better you would become and the longer you stayed with bad people, the worse you would become. Definitely a true proverb!

After being with his sly brother, she had become cunning too!

Gu Weiwei stuffed the cheque into his suit pocket and said with a smile, "Now, you know what you are going to do, right?"

"Of course, of course." Fu Shiyi nodded obediently and whispered. "I will distract Jolin and you can go on the date with my brother."

Gu Weiwei said happily, "Thanks. Actually, when you don't cause trouble, you are quite lovely."

"No need to thank me, if you really want to thank me, get married and have a child with my brother." Fu Shiyi suggested with a smile.

Their plan to train the demon child had been fully fleshed out but how would they start the plan, if their children were never born?!

"Why not get married first if you want a child so badly." Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said, "Oh yes, I heard from Grandma Fu that..."

Fu Shiyi dashed off at the words. "Jolin, come and join me, we're going to the company, something important has come up!"

"You are not my artist." Jolin watched his own girl leaving without waiting for him, after receiving a phone call.

"She needs to do something at home." Fu Shiyi stopped him.

Jolin found it suspicious – was it related to that mysterious Baby Zheng again?

"What about the dubbing, if she just leaves like this..."

The current situation was that the first voice was receiving terrible comments from Ling Yan's fans and if the second voice became Ling Yan's... Then his girl would be seen as the person behind the first voice, which was just awful!

Fu Shiyi smiled mysteriously and said as he rubbed his hands, "Don't worry, Movie Queen Ling will definitely be slapped so hard across her face."

Chapter 352: Trouble

Since the program was still going on, there was almost no one in the parking lot.

Gu Weiwei soon found Fu Hanzheng's car and went inside.

"I've already asked for leave from the director and I will leave for the set tomorrow. Let's go home."

Instead of letting Xu Qian drive the car, Fu Hanzheng turned to her.

"You met Gu Siting?"

Gu Weiwei helplessly sighed – even if Fu Shiyi said nothing, her bodyguard would still report the news to him.

She nodded honestly. "Yes, he offered me 50 million yuan to buy something from me."

Fu Hanzheng squinted. "And you agreed?"

"Yes." Gu Weiwei took hold of his arms with a smile and leaned herself against him, seeing his displeased face.

"If I hadn't agreed, he would not have released me. I was in a hurry to meet you."

Fu Hanzheng's heart softened but he was a bit worried too.

"He gave you trouble?"

Gu Weiwei nodded and threw a pitiful look at him.

"He threatened that if I didn't obey him, he would make me disappear from Hua Land."

A flash of coldness moved over Fu Hanzheng's eyes. "Maybe it is him who should disappear from Hua Land."

How dare he threaten his woman in his territory!

If not for the Dorrans Family, he would have thrown him down to hell.

Gu Weiwei complained instantly when she heard what he said.

"Let's just go home alright? I am so hungry and sleepy, I want to sleep."

When Fu Hanzheng heard the words, he decided to not dwell on Gu Siting anymore but instead asked Xu Qian to drive on.

"To Landscape Villa."

Leaning against him, Gu Weiwei mumbled with her eyes closed, "I may cause some trouble tomorrow, a big one."

"It is okay, I can help you clean it up."

Instead of asking her anything more, Fu Hanzheng stayed silent. He already guessed what she was up to, judging from what her bodyguard and Fu Shiyi told him through the texts.

She could make any trouble she wanted because he would always clean it up for her.

Gu Weiwei did not say a word but showed a very sweet smile on the face.

Since the event's location was very close to Landscape Villa, they went back to the villa instead.

The previous night's work and the early flight that morning had made Gu Weiwei so tired that she ate some food and went to sleep.

Fu Hanzheng did not leave home for work until she fell asleep and did not come home from the company until the evening.

The moment he entered the villa, he saw the girl dressed in his shirt and walking around barefoot.

She looked so pure and beautiful just like an elf and when she smiled, she looked so charming.

Seeing him looking her up and down, Gu Weiwei looked down at the baggy shirt she had on.

"My clothes and shoes are not here."

She had never moved in again after she had moved out, so of course there were none of her things here.

So she had to wear his clothes instead.

Fu Hanzheng reached out for her long hair and smiled.

"I will have them delivered tomorrow."

Actually, on the way home he had already brought some of her clothes with him in the car but he did not mind her being dressed like this.

"Is there anything you need to do now?" Gu Weiwei looked up and asked.

"No." Fu Hanzheng's cold eyes looked so gentle.

Gu Weiwei smiled. "Great, let's talk about something serious."

"Okay." Having agreed, Fu Hanzheng picked her up.

Gu Weiwei was startled and she threw her arms around his neck. "What are you doing? I said that I need to talk to you about something serious."

Fu Hanzheng kissed her on the lips and said with a low voice, "Let's go back to the room and talk about it in bed."

When she was dressed like this and walking around in front of him, he truly had no thought for anything else apart from passion and love.

Chapter 353: Show Starts

The donation that lasted for 24 hours soon came to the end.

Tens of millions of netizens and Ling Yan's fans were waiting to see who on earth dubbed which section.

However, everyone by default thought that the second voice was done by Ling Yan.

After all, Dream of a Long Life was created with her as the original model and no one should have known Dream of a Long Life better than her.

What was more, her opponent was none other than a newbie called Mu Weiwei who had only played a supporting role in a movie.

It was totally natural that people would think that Ling Yan had done the second voice, which exceeded the original soundtrack.

An anonymous donor made a 50-million donation at the last minute before the donation ended.

As the donation ended, the official website of the program revealed the two mysterious dubbing actresses, and confirmed the netizens expectations of Dream of a Long Life.

[The program of this year has received an unprecedented success and thank you very much for joining us Movie Queen Ling Yan, who made the second dubbing, and thank you very much Mu Weiwei for performing the first dub]

The announcement hit the headlines of all the major entertainment news platforms.

The tag 'Dream of a Long Life Ling Yan', had occupied the top search and Ling Yan's fans as well as all the audience of Dream of a Long Life, all spoke highly of the result.

Although for everyone, it was an obvious result. Even so, when the result was announced, they were still quite proud of their Movie Queen.

Years had passed since Dream of a Long Life was released, yet she was still able to repeat the classic section so perfectly – she was indeed a legendary Movie Queen!

Li Xing'er instantly reposted the result after it was announced.

[Sister Yan is indeed a legend!]

Many actors of the film industry also spoke highly of the second voice by Ling Yan after the result was announced.

Across the entire internet, words that spoke highly of Ling Yan could be seen everywhere and Mu Weiwei's Weibo was full of the opposite comments.

[The voice dubbed by you is violating my ears!]

[You are not an actress, how could you do such a terrible dubbing job, for the classic Dream of a Long Life?]

[Learn from Ling Yan, you are not qualified for the film industry with such abilities!]

[She is a legend but you are just nobody, apart from a pretty face.]

[She donated 10 million yuan, how much did you donate?]

Although some fans were defending her, most of the haters left mean comments on her Weibo.

Of course, some of them were haters bought by Li Xing'er who tried to humiliate her through Ling Yan.

After all, she was so jealous when Mu Weiwei gained such a great resource as the Eyes of Eagle, after already starring in the Long Wind.

She might have better resources than her at the moment but compared to Ling Yan, Mu Weiwei was nothing.

Mu Weiwei was just a minor role in front of Ling Yan.

Gu Weiwei did not say anything on Weibo or in front of the media at all.

At three o'clock in the afternoon, two hours had passed since the result was announced and Movie Queen Long was spoken highly of all the time.

But the official Weibo account of Shiyi Culture and Fu Shiyi published a post at the same time, which contained only one sentence.

[So this second voice is worth only 50 million?]

Chapter 354: The Real Second Voice

A video was attached to the post, showing the scene in which Gu Weiwei was dubbing for Dream of a Long Life in the room, just one night before.

In the video, the girl was reading the script whilst adjusting how to breathe and behave properly.

Then she decided to do the recording but was stopped by Fu Shiyi. Fu Shiyi thought that she was in too much a hurry, so he found a section for her to watch.

Then he stressed that she should make better preparations and start again when she was ready.

After a few minutes of preparation, the girl started the three-minute recording of Dream of a Long Life.

All the netizens who clicked on the video were dumbfounded when they saw the girl reading the first line.

It was not the first voice announced by the program but the second!

The girl was performing the section of Dream of a Long Life with the perfect voice and expression.

At the beginning, it was only Fu Shiyi's fans who saw the video but then all the artists of Shiyi Culture reposted the post by Fu Shiyi.

Then, when everyone was speaking highly of this legendary Movie Queen Ling, the video that showed the total opposite of the truth, exploded online.

The content of the video, plus what Fu Shiyi had written, basically told everyone the truth.

Ling Yan did not do the dubbing of the second voice but the newbie Mu Weiwei did.

However, when the voice was published without the name mentioned, the public and Ling Yan's fans thought that it was Ling Yan who did the second voice.

At that time, Ling Yan cooperated with the host and made them tell the public that it was her who did the second voice, just to keep her reputation and position.

Then, she offered 50 million yuan to gag Mu Weiwei as the payment for the second voice.

When the truth was concealed, Mu Weiwei's fans and the fans of the rumored couple thought that it was their idol who did the first voice.

After all, her opponent was a legendary movie queen and it was natural if their idol was worse than her.

In order not to draw more haters, they had to tolerate any provocative comments but when they realized that it was their idol who did the second voice... they became so fierce after seeing the truth revealed by Fu Shiyi.

[Damn you legendary Movie Queen, damn you program!]

[No wonder the legendary Movie Queen had donated so much! That is a gagging fee!]

[You must have bought the trophy when you performed the dubbing of your own film so terribly!]

[@EchoingProgram, we want an explanation!]

[Movie Queen Ling was exceeded by our idol, so she had to keep her own reputation by buying out the second voice]

[Please, Movie Queen, how much is the trophy? I would like to buy two to play with too...]

[@LingYan @EchoingProgram, you are liars in front of everyone!]

....

Fu Shiyi had many fans and when all the artists of Shiyi Culture reposted the post, the truth exploded.

When the founder and the representative received the news, the situation was totally irrevocable.

"Didn't Mr. Gu and Mu Weiwei come to an agreement already? Why was it revealed?"

What the non-profit organization feared the most, was the scandal that showed they lied to the public and the one who revealed it had a video and the truth.

"He did come to an agreement with Mu Weiwei but it was Third Master who revealed the truth. He lacks neither money nor fame, who can gag him?"

If it had been Mu Weiwei who revealed the truth, the situation would not have spread so fast considering that she was a minor star; then they might have had time for public relations.

But it was Fu Shiyi who revealed the truth, and they simply could not do anything about it!

Chapter 355: My Turn

However, it was not Fu Shiyi who revealed the news.

It was Gu Weiwei who borrowed Fu Shiyi's account and posted the news.

The moment she uploaded the video, Fu Shiyi informed every artist in the company to repost the post and those who did not would be stopped from doing all kinds of work.

Therefore, within half an hour, the post exploded online.

“Third Master, we have to head to the promotional event for the new album.”

Fu Shiyi put on his sunglasses and left the company in satisfaction – he made his way to go to the promotional site.

It was an event decided the night before and only some familiar media friends were informed but the purpose was not to promote the new album but to continue countering Ling Yan.

He got into the car and called Gu Weiwei who was residing in the Landscape Villa.

“Sister-in-law, so you had planned to slap that Movie Queen Ling’s face from yesterday when you were doing the dubbing, right?”

Because at the time she had suggested that Jolin should film the scene in which she was dubbing.

She had known that her dubbing would exceed Ling Yan’s and that Ling Yan would spend money to buy the second voice.

She went to accept the 50 million cheque from Gu Siting because she wanted them to assume that a minor actress like her, would not dare to utter a word after she received the money and was threatened.

But they were wrong. This girl had become increasingly sneaky after being influenced by his brother.

She had accepted the money so that they would not feel alarmed and then she announced the results, when Movie Queen Ling was being highly spoken of, across the whole internet.

In this way, they slapped the Movie Queen’s face hard, out of nowhere.

Gu Weiwei was leaning against Fu Hanzheng who was reading some files in the villa.

“Well, that was a rare opportunity. She has shown me her face and it is totally worth slapping!”

At first, she did not expect to start a war with Ling Yan but when she insinuated that the Dream of a Long Life sequel would be made as a tribute to her, it disgusted her thoroughly.

“I did what you told me to last night and you are becoming really cunning, just like my brother.” Fu Shiyi said.

She said that she needed his account to reveal the news because he had many followers.

The Fu Family and the Gu Family were each other’s worst enemy and it was totally natural if he tried to ruin Gu Siting’s woman.

Also, she turned down his suggestion of asking some important figures to do the reposting but instead asked the artists of the company to repost it instead.

Because in this way, Gu Siting and Ling Yan would not sense something was on the way.

When Ling Yan was spoken highly of by the netizens and fans and extolled high into the sky.

She slapped her right across her face, so that she fell from the sky like a comet.

In this way she had made Ling Yan the bad person.

Gu Weiwei, instead, now became an actress who was bullied and who received a lot of comforting words and cries for justice from fans.

Having heard the words, Gu Weiwei glanced at the man next to her.

“Your brother says that we are cunning.”

Fu Shiyi shivered – what was his brother doing at home?

Then he heard his brother’s terrifying voice.

“He can come and say that right to my face.”

“Sister-in-law, I mean it positively! Honestly!” Fu Shiyi explained quickly.

Feeling too lazy to explain anything more, Gu Weiwei asked, “How much longer before the press conference starts?”

Fu Shiyi said excitedly, “I am on the way there. Watch and see how I perform.”

On the other side, Gu Siting and Ling Yan were on their way to the airport to leave the country, when the news came out.

Ling Yan was so furious that she almost spit out blood, when Kuroda Shio’s news arrived.

“Brother Siting, what should we do?”

Chapter 356: Scandal (Extra)

Gu Siting was in charge of a huge family business and he had witnessed numerous incidents. He certainly would not panic because of such a tiny matter.

“Is there any method to press it down?”

Kuroda Shio shook his head seriously. “I’m afraid not, the social media platforms have exploded in Hua Land!

Ling Yan was so furious that she was thoroughly shaking. Her face was turning pale.

“Mu Weiwei got the money, why didn’t she keep her word?”

“It was not Mu Weiwei but Fu Shiyi, from the Fu Family, who revealed the news.” Kuroda Shio said as he opened the Weibo page of Fu Shiyi and showed it to Gu Siting and Ling Yan.

Seeing the girl in the video as well as her expression and gaze, Ling Yan shivered.

What a gaze and expression...

It was exactly the same way that Gu Weiwei demonstrated to her repeatedly, when the scene was filmed. It was exactly the same gaze and expression that she had told her to perform with.

And the voice sounded so similar too.

She was startled when she saw Mu Weiwei, who seemed to have taken the soul of Gu Weiwei.

Gu Siting's eyes looked profound when he saw the girl in the video.

Kuroda Shio turned on the TV in the room when he heard his men passing over the report.

On TV Fu Shiyi was promoting his new album and he was now in the middle of a press conference.

Due to the amazing news that just popped up online, the journalists kept asking questions about the second voice.

Journalist asked, "Third Master, the 50 million you mentioned in the post... does it mean that someone offered 50 million yuan to buy out the dubbing by Mu Weiwei from your company?"

"Gu Siting and Movie Queen Ling did offer 50 million yuan but I donated the money already." Fu Shiyi looked indifferent.

He never implied anything.

Fu Shiyi always pointed out the truth instead of saving anyone's face.

The journalist asked, "What about Miss. Mu Weiwei? Will she have any reaction to this matter?"

"They offered her money and threatened her, saying that if she dared to utter a word, they would make her disappear from Hua Land! The girl is too scared to go out now." Fu Shiyi snorted and said provocatively.

"It was me who revealed the news... do you dare to make me disappear?"

Gu Siting coldly said, as he watched the interview on TV, "He prepared for it."

Kuroda Shio shook his head helplessly. "I have been watching out for the media from all sides but none of the important figures had been informed that they would reveal the truth."

"Fu Shiyi spread the news through his artists and the press conference is actually a promotional event for his new album. It seems that... he had made some preparations."

It had only been an hour since the news exploded and now a press conference had arrived.

It was a pre-planned thing! They had intended to attack them so suddenly, so that they had barely any time to counter the problem.

Ling Yan felt her heart aching as she looked at Gu Siting who looked rather deep.

"Brother Siting, what are we going to do? What are we going to do now?"

Before this, she was an unshakeable legendary Movie Queen but now, this scandal, if not well dealt with, would tremendously affect her position in the film industry.

A newbie of the film industry had unexpectedly exceeded her in dubbing the film she had acted in.

That was a slap on her face as the lead actress.

Also, the first voice that she herself had dubbed, had been fiercely demeaned by her own fans and the comments were too mean to be heard properly.

She had thought that the whole thing was under control, when the second voice was published as hers, she received so many beautiful comments.

But now Fu Shiyi had revealed the truth.

She not only did a worse job than Mu Weiwei but also threatened her and tried to buy her out, so that she could be the second voice.

Everyone online who knew the truth was protesting, hoping to get Mu Weiwei justice and cursing her instead.

It was just a section of dubbing but she was the main actress of Dream of a Long Life and the legendary Movie Queen!

Chapter 357: Covering Scandal

Although Ling Yan hated Mu Weiwei to the bone, she knew pretty well that if she demeaned a woman in front of a man, she would look like an evil woman.

So instead of commenting on anything about Mu Weiwei, she put on a very sad and helpless expression, so that Gu Siting would definitely help her solve the problem.

After hearing what Kuroda Shio told him, Gu Siting looked at Ling Yan and said, "It is impossible to cover up the scandal now, so we have to remove the focus from you, so you aren't impacted too much."

Ling Yan nodded with pursed lips. "I am sorry Brother Siting, it is my fault that I have brought you so much trouble."

Gu Siting looked at Kuroda Shio. "Call the ambulance and tell the media that Ling Yan can't be affected during her rehabilitation period, so now she has been hospitalized."

"Okay." Kuroda Shio directly called the best hospital in the capital city.

"And find something else to cover up this matter, some news that can move the focus away." Gu Siting said.

It was such a sudden thing, that they had lost the best moment to deal with the matter.

If it had been Mu Weiwei who had revealed the news, they could have dealt with it but they could hardly do anything to make the Fu Family change their stance.

The matter had already been spread and the more they tried to explain something, the worse it would get.

Therefore, only by removing the public's attention, so they could focus on something else, would this matter be solved.

Kuroda Shio said, "I have already gotten someone searching for a proper replacement, it should be ready in two hours."

"Do it as soon as possible." Gu Siting nodded and said after a while, "And... find Mu Weiwei, I need to meet her."

Ling Yan got slightly startled. "Why are you meeting her?"

Could it be because her voice was so similar to Gu Weiwei's?

Instead of answering her, Gu Siting said,

"Get yourself prepared... we are heading to the hospital."

Back in the bedroom, Ling Yan felt very uncomfortable when she thought about what Gu Siting said about Mu Weiwei.

It took them ages before they were finally together. She would not allow anyone to ruin their present life.

Gu Weiwei, who had been living in the Gu Family for more than twenty years, had been defeated by her and Mu Weiwei was just an imposter, who knew something about Gu Weiwei. She was someone that would be easy to deal with.

Kuroda Shio reminded him with a small whisper in the living room, as he saw Ling Yan entering the bedroom.

"Mr. Gu, Mu Weiwei and Fu Shiyi seem to have a very close relationship, it might be a bit difficult to do something about her."

Although it was Fu Shiyi who revealed the truth, Mu Weiwei was very much related.

They might not be able to do something about Fu Shiyi but someone else had to answer for this situation but Mu Weiwei seemed to be closely related to Fu Shiyi somehow.

"I never said that I am going to do something about her." Gu Siting countered.

"Then... what do you mean?" Kuroda Shio could not figure out what he was thinking about.

Gu Siting got up and walked over to the floor to ceiling windows and said, as he looked out of the window, "She looks so much like Weiwei when she plays the piano and she did so well in the dubbing too... What if she can look a bit more like... her?"

Startled for a few seconds, Kuroda Shio asked with a questioning tone, "Are you going to bring her back to A Land?"

"Find her first, then we will see when we meet." Gu Siting said with a low voice.

After Mu Weiwei appeared, he seemed to think more and more about Weiwei.

Kuroda Shio replied with a lowered head. "I will have her found as soon as possible."

Chapter 358: Covering Scandal 2

When Mu Weiwei's fans, as well as the other netizens, were furiously asking for an explanation from Ling Yan and the program, some media companies suddenly revealed that Ling Yan was sent to the hospital because of too much stimulation and that she was still in the recovery period.

So when Ling Yan's fans heard the news, they started to counter as well.

[It is just a section of dubbing, Ling Yan is still the lead actress of Dream of a Long Life]

[Ling Yan is still in her recovery period and she did not put her best efforts into dubbing – must someone make a big fuss out of it to guilt her to death?]

[President Gu bought the dubbing for his girlfriend and is totally a role model boyfriend!]

[What a troublesome newbie!]

....

Gu Weiwei switched off the TV after finishing watching Fu Shiyi's press conference and she did not check her phone that often either.

Therefore, she did not receive the news that Ling Yan was hospitalized.

But later on, when Fu Shiyi finished the press conference, he came back to show off his support for her.

"Sister-in-law, did you see how excellently I performed in front of the journalists?"

"I did." Gu Weiwei nodded with a smile – he was a fierce talker indeed!

The journalists did not ask him for their real names but he straightforwardly exposed them.

"You should have become a CrossTalk actor instead."

Fu Shiqin snorted but it felt so great to have seen the Gu man being countered.

"I just heard that Movie Queen Ling got so furious that she was hospitalized." Fu Shiyi threw himself onto the sofa and snorted. "They claim that she can't be stimulated, because she is still recovering, something like that. I am not her father, why should I care if she is stimulated."

"I know pretty well what they are going to do – they will first send Ling Yan to the hospital and then her fans will be so heart-broken that they will start countering you, by saying that you are making a big fuss." Fu Shiqin said.

Fu Shiyi took a cookie from Fu Shiqin's plate and continued on from his brother.

"Also, they are trying to find someone else's negative situation to use as news to distract everyone. It is the most common PR method to use another scandal to cover this one."

It was good that they had been fast and secretive about the whole thing, so that Gu Siting lost the opportunity to react but when he did realize that something was going on, it was already too late.

So even if there was PR work being done for Ling Yan, it was still going to be a non-removable scandal on her resume.

After all, it was a firm truth that they were hardly able to find an excuse for.

Gu Weiwei glanced at the two brothers on the sofa. They were almost like two CrossTalk actors.

“It is just a small stain, it wouldn’t really ruin Ling Yan.”

“Unfortunately, they did not send her to He Chi’s hospital, otherwise He Chi could kill her right on the operating table.”

Fu Shiyi gritted his teeth and sighed pitifully.

Fu Shiqin glanced at Gu Weiwei. “But you are the victim, why are you doing nothing?”

If Fu Shiyi got involved, she would not have to do anything.

Gu Weiwei smiled sinisterly, just like a cunning fox.

“Well, Third Master is better for this job.”

If she went to counter Ling Yan at this moment as a newbie, she would draw herself haters.

She would also offend many people in the film industry.

Maybe Gu Siting would even give her trouble and then she would have to reveal her relationship with Fu Hanzheng to keep herself safe.

But if Fu Shiyi did the work, no one would dare to do anything to him, the Third Master of the Fu Family!

She, on the other hand, had successfully created an image of herself as a frightened, minor actress and Gu Siting would only think that it was because of the grudge between the Fu Family and the Gu Family, that Fu Shiyi made this fuss against Ling Yan.

Fu Shiqin saw the door of the study on the second floor open, so he went through the phone and read aloud.

“But if he does this, your rumored couple fans would say that Third Master is such a perfect role model, as a boyfriend who defends his girlfriend.”

“Third Master is definitely true to Weiwei!”

“Weiwei, just get together with Third Master, he is your true love.”

....

Fu Shiyi glanced at the stairs where his own brother was watching with a glowering expression, he threw himself onto Fu Shiqin, trying to strangle him.

“Damn you, go to hell!”

Chapter 359: Meeting with Gu Siting

On the sofa the twin brothers were in a fierce fight against each other.

Fu Shiyi had his hands around Fu Shiqin's neck, whilst Fu Shiqin was pulling Fu Shiyi's hair and ears.

"You! You are murdering your brother!"

"You are not my brother, you cunning man!"

"Spill out all the snacks you sneaked in last time!"

"You pretended to be me and flirted with girls, so that I had a scandal! I want to take revenge!"

....

Gu Weiwei frowned and watched the two brothers who wrestled with each other, from the sofa to the floor.

They must have been the enemies in their previous lives.

Fu Hanzheng came downstairs to her side and looked unbothered as he saw the two brothers wrestling with each other.

"Let's go."

The two brothers stopped their wrestling and glanced about. "Where are you two going?"

"Leaving the place for you guys. We are going back to the apartment." Gu Weiwei smiled happily.

Fu Hanzheng glanced at Fu Shiqin whose neck was under Fu Shiyi's hands. "Finish the remaining work in the study! You will attend the meeting for me tomorrow morning."

"I have been working overtime for days! Now you are tossing me all the work?" Fu Shiqin protested in displeasure.

Whenever his girlfriend was at home, he would toss everything to him, so that he could have a proper date with his girlfriend.

Staring at the displeased brother, Fu Hanzheng said, "What is the point of having you, if you can't even complete such a tiny matter?"

"..."

Fu Shiqin bit his lips and did not dare to utter a word.

Fu Shiyi laughed at the sight of his bitter face but he soon stopped when his brother snapped at him.

"And the funds you borrowed from me last time, will be paid back with double the interest."

Having said these words, he left the villa with Gu Weiwei in his arms, heading towards Jinxiu Compound.

"Brother, please, brother! You can't do this, even the usury isn't as cruel as you..."

But the couple left without saying a word.

Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin lost interest in wrestling. Instead, they sat down on the carpet and started to complain to each other.

“See, if I am not your brother, who is?”

“Haven’t you been used to the fact that we are probably adopted?”

“When will they have children, honestly?”

“If you want them to get married and have babies soon, you better share some of our brother’s workload, so he can have time for dating! Then they will have babies very soon.”

“Will our plan still work? It sounds increasingly dangerous now.”

“Then what should we do? If we fight we get bad results! However, if we get his son to join us, then everything will work out!”

....

Gu Weiwei got into the car and threw a glance at the two brothers who were left alone in the house.

“Is it really so proper of you to punish your brothers like this?”

Brothers of other families were always in harmony with each other but only they were so special.

The twin brothers mistreated each other and they combined forces to fight against the eldest brother, so they could both be punished by him together.

“They are already used to that.” Fu Hanzheng said.

“I have a video meeting later, so I will drive you to the set after dinner.” Fu Hanzheng said.

“Okay.”

Gu Weiwei nodded. If he was driving her there, she needed to tell Jolin about it.

She was just about to call Jolin when his text arrived, saying that there was new work for her as a spokeswoman.

She thought for a while and sent the address of a cafe in the neighbourhood.

“Jolin and I are going to have a brief meeting in the cafe in the neighbourhood. You can go and have the video meeting first.”

After checking the time, Fu Hanzheng drove her to the cafe without protesting.

However, it was not until Gu Weiwei came into the cafe that she saw Gu Siting, rather than Jolin, waiting for her there.

Chapter 360: Her Matter and Mine

At first, she had thought that if Fu Shiyi stepped forward to deal with Ling Yan, Gu Siting would consider that it was a grudge held between the Fu Family and the Gu Family and that she was not going to be considered at all.

Also, she had promised to stay silent and she truly didn’t utter any words to anyone among the public.

Plus, Ling Yan was hospitalized, wasn’t she?

What was he doing here pretending to be her agent instead of being in the hospital with her?

“Mr. Gu, I did not say a thing about Ms. Ling Yan and, I could not stop Third Master from doing anything.”

Instead of asking anything more about Ling Yan, Gu Siting pointed at the seat opposite him.

“Sit down, please.”

Gu Weiwei looked calm and took the seat.

“Where is my agent?”

“He is safe...” Gu Siting offered her a cup of coffee. “If Miss. Mu can answer my question honestly.”

Gu Weiwei smiled. “What do you want?”

“Where did you learn to do the dubbing?” Gu Siting asked her as he gazed at her, observing every change in her expression.

“I learned it from the original soundtrack, and all I did was imitate the original voice. Is there anything wrong?” Gu Weiwei asked with a smile.

So he came to her because he heard the dubbing that sounded like her?

But he already had Ling Yan, why did he care about this?

“It sounds very much like someone’s voice.” Gu Siting said.

Gu Weiwei pretended to be surprised. “Movie Queen Ling’s voice?”

Of course she knew that he was referring to her own voice.

But few people knew that it was her who dubbed the original movie.

“Not her.”

Gu Siting gazed deep into her eyes, trying hard to find something he desired but this 19-year-old girl seemed to be far away from what he was looking for.

Gu Weiwei smiled but did not ask anything more.

“If you don’t have any other questions, please release my agent.”

“Are you Fu Shiyi’s girlfriend?” Gu Siting asked.

Many people had already said that what Fu Shiyi did to Ling Yan was for her sake.

“That is a private question.” Gu Weiwei dodged the question and checked the time on the phone. “Mr. Gu, please, release my agent.”

If she stayed any longer, Fu Hanzheng would know that she was meeting him here.

Also, he would probably be here within ten minutes.

Those two had been each other's worst enemies and it would be a terrible scenario if they did meet.

"Please answer my question." Gu Siting's handsome face looked cold.

"I have a boyfriend but it is not him." Gu Weiwei sounded impatient.

Gu Siting took a sip of coffee after getting the answer.

"I would like to invite Miss. Mu to live in A Land."

"I am sorry, I like Hua Land and I am not leaving here." Gu Weiwei turned him down straightforwardly.

For whatever reason it was, she would never want to leave to go to A Land.

Gu Siting stood up and was about to leave.

"I don't accept your rejection."

When the words were spoken, the door of the cafe was opened and Fu Hanzheng, who was dressed in a navy colored business suit arrived, looking lethally cold.

"You can talk with me about anything you want to talk about with her."

Gu Siting ceased his steps and looked cold.

"President Fu, it has nothing to do with you."

Although the Fu Family was dominating Hua Land, Fu Hanzheng did not have to come over to him personally.

Fu Hanzheng checked Gu Weiwei and found her well, then he turned to Gu Siting in a very cold manner.

"Her matter is mine too."
