

MY HIDDEN 391

Chapter 391: Love You 2

It seemed that this sentence truly worked.

Fu Hanzheng smiled. "Truely?"

"More true than real gold." Gu Weiwei chuckled and said.

Fu Hanzheng sounded obviously happier than before. "It is late, sleep well."

"Hey, it doesn't work in this way. I told you I love you but you are saying nothing in return?"

Hearing that he was hanging up, Gu Weiwei spoke angrily.

Fu Hanzheng replied with a low voice and a small smile.

"I love you."

Gu Weiwei laughed in satisfaction and said goodnight to him.

"Goodnight, sleep tight!"

....

At Jinxiu Compound in the capital city.

Fu Shiqin gazed at Fu Hanzheng, who had answered the phone, in astonishment. He was still checking on Mu Weiwei and that man. Yet here he was, already showing off his love in front of him?

Was he not scared that Mu Weiwei had cheated on him?

"Brother, what if Mu Weiwei and that man..."

"She wouldn't." Fu Hanzheng interrupted him.

"..." Fu Shiqin was speechless.

She wouldn't?

She was in a male prostitute bar and she was hugging that pretty boy!

He was expecting the worst, so that he could be fully prepared and not be heavily stricken with shock.

Fu Hanzheng called Lei Meng and asked, when the phone call went through, "Anything new?"

Lei Meng replied helplessly. "We checked Miss. Mu's social network before she came to the Fu Family, we have found nothing!"

He had been working as an informer for the Fu Family for so many years and it was the first time for him to run into such a difficult target.

"Any strange and suspicious contact these past few days?" Fu Hanzheng asked.

That they met in this way, must have been decided ahead of time and they must have talked with each other about it before.

“Nothing. Miss. Mu has made many calls these days on her phone and hotel phone, but none seem suspicious.”

Fu Hanzheng massaged his browbridge. It seemed that they were much more secretive than he had expected.

“We are checking the men who have been to the bar and the people Miss. Mu has been talking to these days but she has way too many fans for us to eliminate them one after another.”

They were busy people but now they were working for their boss to find a pretty boy!

What a hopeless job!

“When will you have the complete information?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

Although he truly wanted to find out who that man was, it seemed that he was not a simple person and it would take some time before that man was found.

Lei Meng thought for a moment. “About two or three days.”

Fu Hanzheng said, “Get back to me as soon as possible.”

Fu Shiqin poured himself a cup of coffee and gathered up enough energy to deal with the overload of work.

“Brother, you do have a way to find out who that pretty boy is too, right?”

Fu Hanzheng did not utter a word and his lips remained closed.

Yes he did but he did not want to use that method, unless it was totally necessary.

Seeing that he was silent, Fu Shiqin continued.

“As long as you leak out some information to Mu Weiwei, she would definitely contact that pretty boy or even ask him to meet her. Then we can definitely find out who that pretty boy is, immediately.”

But that would be a scenario where they were caught red-handed.

It was definitely a method his brother would have thought of but he just did not want to set up a trap for Mu Weiwei.

He was not willing to do that at all.

Chapter 392: One Night in Mu Weiwei's Room (Extra)

The filming of the Eyes of the Eagle came to an end and Gu Weiwei and Fu Hanzheng still kept in touch with each other over the phone, every single night.

She had not the slightest idea that faraway in the capital, she and Yuan Meng's meeting was being intensely investigated.

Since she had other work today after the filming, She and Song Yu had a discussion together with the director, so that they could finish filming her part first, so that her work was finished ahead of time.

That same night, she had dinner with the crew members, packed up her things and flew back to the capital city on an overnight flight.

Jolin snorted seeing her anxiety to return home.

“Having work to do is an excuse, you just want to go home and meet Boss.”

She did have work to do but she could also return on the same day.

She worked overtime, so that she finished ahead of schedule because she needed to meet her boyfriend.

“Oh well, you can be as jealous as you want.” Gu Weiwei laughed proudly.

She had stayed for just a couple of hours on Fu Hanzheng’s birthday.

But when the filming was finished, she had to do other work after a couple of days’ rest and she needed to start the promotional schedule of the movie too.

Unlike the Long Wind where she played a minor role, she was the lead actress of the Eyes of the Eagle and she would have lots of things to do for the promotion.

Landscape Villa in the capital

After Fu Hanzheng and Fu Shiqin finished the work, Lei Meng came over to report the latest development on the investigation with his men.

“We have checked through all the suspicious men Miss. Mu has talked to these past few days and we found that this man was among the extras, a couple of days before their meeting. So... they must have met when they were on set.”

Fu Hanzheng turned cold and his eyes were lethal.

Two days ago when he was on set, he did not even notice anything.

The day before yesterday, it was discovered that the man had a three-year-old daughter in the nursery close to the bar.

If he had not been certain that she had s*x for the first time with him, when they first did it, he would have suspected that something was going on with this child too.

Fu Shiqin glanced at his brother’s expression. He had been in a terrible mood these past few days and he was not doing well either.

One week had passed and the only thing they had found out was that Mu Weiwei and that pretty boy had picked up a little girl called Yuan Bao together.

And it was not until today that they discovered that the man had been among the extras and met Mu Weiwei once.

However, they still had no idea where the pretty boy was.

Lei Meng glanced at Fu Hanzheng's face and said unwillingly, "Actually... there is something more."

Fu Hanzheng's face froze. "Speak."

Lei Meng had two recorded films of the CCTV in the hotel played and said, "When we were checking the CCTV of the hotel, we found that there was a one-minute section deleted by someone at around 9 p.m. on this night and one the following morning."

He paused and took a look at Fu Hanzheng and said against his will, "That means that someone was in Miss. Mu's room during this period. Either that person went there twice or..."

Or... that person stayed in Mu Weiwei's room overnight and that person did not leave until the following morning.

Fu Shiqin just did not dare to look at his brother's face. Compared to the picture that showed them hugging in the bar, this piece of information was way too... fatal.

Seeing the date and the time on the video, Fu Hanzheng remembered that she had gasped, when he was on the phone with her.

Worried, he even asked the butler to check on the situation.

It seemed that when he was calling her, that man was right there... in her room.

Chapter 393: Durian?

For one long moment, dead silence dominated the entire study.

Fu Shiqin and Lei Meng exchanged a complicated look and glanced at Fu Hanzheng's cold face. Neither of them dared to utter a word.

If that man did meet Mu Weiwei in the hotel room and they spent the entire night together... and hugged in the bar, then...

"Brother, what about asking Mu Weiwei yourself, these things are way too indirect!"

That picture was already an explosive bomb but this video was simply an atomic bomb. How scary!

Normally, if she spent a few minutes with any man, his brother would get extremely jealous.

But right now, she had spent the entire night with that man behind his brother's back and that was a serious thing, a very serious thing.

In his brother's opinion, Mu Weiwei could do whatever she wanted with anything else but any potential love interests should be dead.

After a long silence, Fu Hanzheng asked, "That is all you have?"

Lei Meng nodded. "That is all we have."

It seemed that if this mysterious man was not found, the boss would fire them all.

Fu Hanzheng pursed his lips and said, "You can go home now, let's talk when something new comes up."

Lei Meng did not want to stay another minute in this stressful place. He packed away the evidence with his men and left.

The study was dominated by cold silence, once again. Sitting next to the computer, Fu Shiqin devoted himself to the work, whilst glancing at his brother's face every now and then.

Suddenly, Fu Hanzheng's phone rang, breaking the stressful environment.

He glanced at the caller, withdrew the coldness in his voice and picked it up. The girl's voice rose from the phone.

"Fu Hanzheng, are you in the apartment or the villa?"

Fu Hanzheng replied. "In the villa."

Gu Weiwei sounded joyful, showing how glad she was.

"I am in the capital now!"

"I will pick you up now." Fu Hanzheng said.

"No thanks, I am on my way home already, see you later."

Gu Weiwei hung up and told Jolin where to drive her to.

Within one hour, she arrived at the Landscape Villa.

Jolin parked the car and helped her carry the luggage all the way into the house, before leaving.

Seeing Fu Hanzheng coming downstairs, Gu Weiwei frowned curiously.

"What is it? You look so displeased to see that I'm back."

"I am not." Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and thought for a while as she looked into the man's profound eyes.

"Can it be that you have found someone else when I am not here."

Fu Shiqin, who was standing behind Fu Hanzheng, almost burst into a flurry of words when he heard what she said.

What? It was her who found a pretty boy, not his brother!

"Was it Meng Ruya or another pretty woman who flirted with you, when I was not around?" Gu Weiwei pulled Fu Hanzheng's tie and asked with a smile. "So that's why you don't look happy when I am home... I am ruining your event, right?"

Instead of answering, Fu Hanzheng still looked cold when he looked at the girl's bright smiling face.

"Weiwei, did you meet anyone behind my back these past days?"

Gu Weiwei laughed after hearing his question.

“A pretty boy behind your back?”

Fu Hanzheng stretched out his hand to Fu Shiqin and Fu Shiqin gave the picture to him.

He took it and placed it in front of Gu Weiwei.

“Maybe this one?”

“Ahhh!!!”

Gu Weiwei blinked in astonishment. She really wanted to kill Yuan Meng right now! Must she always set her up whenever she was with her?

She glanced at Fu Hanzheng’s face discreetly and laughed dryly.

“How about I kneel on the durian as a punishment?”

Chapter 394: Not Blind

Standing one floor up, Fu Shiqin almost fell down the staircase.

This was not a problem that could be solved by kneeling on a durian!

And he would have to go and buy one for her to kneel on too.

Gu Weiwei released Fu Hanzheng’s tie and looked at the pictures with a frown.

She and Yuan Meng were meeting in a very private place and Yuan Meng even removed the video from the bar after she had left.

How on earth did he get hold of this picture?

And how much of her and Yuan Meng did he know about already?

But if he thought that Yuan Meng was a man, it meant that the real identity of Yuan Meng was not yet discovered.

He might not have found Yuan Meng either.

Fu Hanzheng looked increasingly cold as he saw her flickering gaze.

“You did meet him?”

Gu Weiwei felt her forehead. Damn Yuan Meng! Why must she dress herself up as a man to meet her?

And if she intended to dress up as a man, she could make herself look a bit more like an effeminate gay man, rather than a straight man, so that she could put things right here.

“I did... but it is not what you think.”

“What is it then? Are you to say that you’re in a common relationship with him, when he hugs you like this?”

Seeing that his brother was asking in a very slow way, Fu Shiqin snapped and asked the question straightforwardly.

Gu Weiwei frowned miserably. Damn Yuan Meng. She hugged everybody!

“Why not?”

Fu Shiqin said, “You met this guy in such a disguise behind my brother’s back in a prostitute bar like this and you are telling me that you are in a common relationship?”

Gu Weiwei glared back at Fu Shiqin. “You have also met me behind your brother’s back, so has Fu Shiya and you both have hugged me too!”

“Stop distracting us!” Fu Shiqin sounded guilty.

They had met her at their headquarters for the team and they had patted her on the shoulders, when they were trying to get her to join them. They were not hugging her at all.

Fu Hanzheng squinted at Fu Shiqin and said, “You can leave now.”

Hearing those words, Fu Shiqin felt so relieved that he immediately turned and ran away.

When no one was around, Fu Hanzheng continued.

“If it is not what I think it is, what on earth is it?”

“I am so tired, can’t we sit down and talk.” Gu Weiwei blinked at him pitifully.

Fu Hanzheng took a few steps and sat down on the sofa of the living room. He patted the position next to him and suggested that she should sit down.

Gu Weiwei approached him and threw herself into his arms instead.

“Do you really think that I will give you up and find a man like that? I am not blind, alright?”

Instead of being distracted, Fu Hanzheng said, “Focus.”

Gu Weiwei said, “Since you have this picture, you must have found out what we were doing in the bar, right?”

She truly did not expect that he could have found out.

He must have been looking into this matter, when she called him that day and sensed something weird in his voice.

But as long as he had not found out who Yuan Meng really was, that would be fine.

And she hoped to hide her past and her story with the Gu Family from Fu Hanzheng, so that she could just be the Mu Weiwei in front of him.

Fu Hanzheng looked down at her, realizing that she did not want to tell him who that man was. He felt a bit disappointed.

“We can find out what was going on in the bar, then what about that night in your hotel room?”

Gu Weiwei looked up in astonishment and turned to Fu Hanzheng.

“What hotel room?”

“When I delivered the present to you, he was already in the room when I called you right?” Fu Hanzheng gazed directly into her eyes and asked with a clear voice. “He did not leave until the next day, right?”

“...”

Gu Weiwei’s heart sank. Damn, it was worse than she thought.

Chapter 395: Breakup?

Fu Hanzheng looked at her in silence, waiting for her explanation.

Gu Weiwei just could not think of any way to avoid revealing Yuan Meng’s identity but she had no other way to explain this matter.

Yet Fu Hanzheng thought that Yuan Meng was a man.

And she had met him secretly and spent one night with this man. He must be thinking that she was cheating on him!

“We did meet and that person was in my room but that was not a man...”

Having heard the words, Fu Hanzheng asked with a deep look, “You mean, that’s a woman?”

Gu Weiwei nodded. “She meets me in male costume because she wants to avoid some trouble.”

“How can you prove that?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

“You want my explanation and I have given you one, now you want proof?” Gu Weiwei countered with a frown.

“Unless that person stands right in front of me and shows me that she is a woman, I find your words incredible.”

Fu Hanzheng was not speaking in a gentle voice any more.

The fact that she had met a man behind his back and spent the night with him in the hotel room, had already reached his bottom line in a relationship.

“Then how can you prove that it is a man who went to my room and who I cheated with?” Gu Weiwei countered.

If Yuan Meng was here, the misunderstanding could totally be explained.

But what followed that would be the revealed identity of Yuan Meng.

And then she would be asked why she knew about the Yuan Family?

If she did not make the explanation satisfying, he would keep digging until all of her secrets were discovered.

Then she would start to balance who was more important in her heart – the man whom she had known for barely a year and the Gu Family who had raised her for more than twenty years.

Would she help the Gu Family in the fight between the Fu Family and the Gu Family after all?

The misunderstanding was just a lump in the heart but when the lump was dug up, it would become a deep scar.

Fu Hanzheng looked calm on the surface, but his eyes reflected the deepest coldness.

“So you are not going to reveal that person to prove anything?”

“Didn’t you say that you like me unconditionally?” Gu Weiwei could not help but feel like crying as she said slowly, “Then don’t make me prove it okay, it is going to be a very difficult thing for me to do.”

If she had to prove this uncertain thing...

How would she prove her past with Gu Siting, when he discovered that part?

Fu Hanzheng reached out for her hands and placed them on his heart.

“My heart has been aching for days.”

Gu Weiwei sniffed and her tears burst out, dropping onto Fu Hanzheng’s hands.

“Are you breaking up with me?!”

She did not want to cause any misunderstandings with him but she was also afraid that if he ever knew about her past with the Gu Family, he would no longer like her.

Fu Hanzheng wiped away the tears at the corner of her eyes and said with a very deep voice, “You are never going to break up with me.”

“Then what do you want me to do? Do you want me to kneel on durians, nail boards or glass? You pick one that can make you less angry.” Gu Weiwei asked.

“You...” Fu Hanzheng truly had no idea how to get angry.

Was she trying to make him less angry or more worried?

“You are defending that person so badly?”

“If you want to meet her, her husband would not be happy either.” Gu Weiwei snorted.

Damn Yuan Meng, she would remember all the trouble she had caused her. When she met Master later, she was definitely going to report every single thing about her to Master, so that she would understand what it was like to be misunderstood, by her beloved man.

Fu Hanzheng looked down at her, knowing that she was determined not to make that person prove her words.

But they were going to be meeting again.

If she wasn’t telling him, he could find out the answer himself.

And when he did find out the answer, he would understand what situation he had put her in, by interrogating her tonight.

Chapter 396: In Bed

Compared to the appearance of that man, her tears gripped his heart tighter and made him sadder.

She was not explaining properly and she was trying to cover up something but... he did not see even a tinge of guilt in her eyes.

Instead, she looked wronged by his interrogation.

Gu Weiwei took hold of Fu Hanzheng's arms and placed her tiny face against his chest as she mumbled.

"Don't be sad alright? I only like you."

I really want to put down my past, when I did not have you and I really hope to embrace you and the future where you are involved.

That is why I am scared that you will find out about my past...

Fu Hanzheng lowered his head and kissed the soft hair on the top of her head.

"How much?"

Gu Weiwei mumbled. "What I am telling you is just the tip of the iceberg, of how much I adore you deep within my heart."

I like you so much that I am afraid that one day, you will no longer like me.

Fu Hanzheng's lips finally arched. He was showing a smile.

Gu Weiwei looked tired and said, "I really want to sleep now."

In order to come home ahead of schedule, she hurried to finish all of the work ahead of time. When she arrived home, she was intensively interrogated the moment she crossed the threshold.

Now when she was relaxed, she was so tired that she almost could not open her eyes.

Fu Hanzheng carried her upstairs and asked, "Are you free tomorrow?"

"Yes." Gu Weiwei answered automatically.

However, she soon regretted giving that answer.

The moment she was in the room, she was woken up by the man's passionate kiss.

"I mean really sleeping, not this kind of sleeping!"

"I miss you." Fu Hanzheng had his head against her head and whispered.

Gu Weiwei's heart skipped a beat. She knew that because of what happened between her and Yuan Meng, he was still feeling uncomfortable. So she mumbled, "Only once, alright?"

However, it happened again and again.

Every time she almost fell asleep, she was woken up by his movements.

“That is enough, it is too much!”

“It is never enough.”

Fu Hanzheng took hold of her protesting lips and tongue and increasingly invaded her.

Gu Weiwei was gagged by the kisses. This man was still angry but he could not hit her or lecture her, so he was bullying her in bed.

Damn, where did he pick up this new position?

The fact told her that men were never concerned about women in bed.

No matter how much she begged with tears, nothing worked at all.

She could not remember how many times they did it but what she did faintly remember, was that Fu Hanzheng carried her to the shower and then placed her back in bed. He then started to get dressed.

She mumbled, “Where are you going?”

“I’m going to have a meeting at the company, I will return early this afternoon.”

Fu Hanzheng kissed her face gently and went downstairs, feeling refreshed.

Fu Shiqin was worried that the couple would have quarrelled dreadfully the night before or even thought about breaking up with each other, so before he went to work, he dropped by to see what was going on, by way of telling his brother that an important meeting was happening today.

However, the moment he stepped into the house, what greeted his eyes was his brother happily eating breakfast in the dining room, whilst Mu Weiwei was nowhere to be seen.

Standing dumbfoundedly in the living room, he realized that they could not have broken up judging from his brother’s expression.

“Where is Mu Weiwei?”

“She is sleeping.”

Fu Shiqin asked, “How was your conversation?”

Fu Hanzheng took a sip of coffee and said, “Pretty good.”

Fu Shiqin sat down opposite him and asked, “She told you who that man is?”

Fu Hanzheng said, “Nope.”

“Then what do you mean by pretty good? Are you saying it is fine when the truth has not been told?” Fu Shiqin just could not believe that his brother could be so easily convinced.

Fu Hanzheng said indifferently, as he ate the breakfast elegantly, “Not worth quarrelling over an outsider.”

Fu Shiqin gritted his teeth. “Brother, can you be a little bit stronger?”

He looked satisfied, so apparently, they had a very s*xual night.

Chapter 397: Better than You (Extra)

He looked as if he were on the edge of exploding the night before.

And a few hours later, all was peaceful.

He remembered that his brother had had difficulty in finding a suitable girlfriend after so many years but he should not have given up his principles just because of her looks!

Mu Weiwei came home and quarrelled with him and then they had s*x in bed, so all had become well?

So he had been teasing them by asking them to work overtime and to look into the matter?

Fu Hanzheng lifted his eyes and asked, "What did you say?"

"I..." Fu Shiqin squeezed out a smile and said with a flattering tone, "Don't you find it is a bit too suspicious, when she doesn't confess?"

"Just let her go if she doesn't want to talk." Fu Hanzheng said peacefully.

Or was he using a penalty to force her to talk?

"Let her go?!"

Fu Shiqin was angry, but he did not dare to counter but if he didn't argue back, he would feel terrible.

"There is nothing going on between her and that person, don't ask her again." Fu Hanzheng warned.

Fu Shiqin asked, "She said that?"

"Yes." Fu Hanzheng answered.

"I..." Fu Shiqin pointed at his brother helplessly and shivered out of anger. "Aren't you afraid that she is cheating on you with that pretty boy?"

What did he mean by showing off their love in front of him?

"Are you saying that I am worse than that person?" Fu Hanzheng glanced at him.

"I mean what if... what if Mu Weiwei thinks that person is better because she is in love?"

Fu Shiqin was so scared by his brother's gaze that he did not utter another word.

"She has a better sense of beauty than you."

Fu Hanzheng took a sip of coffee, got up and was about to go to work.

Fu Shiqin struck his chest and consoled himself.

He is not my brother, I must have been adopted!

....

When Fu Hanzheng was at work, Gu Weiwei had a very long sleep at home.

It was not until the afternoon when she lazily got up but she was still so tired that she did not want to get out of bed.

She put on some clothes and was thinking about how to go downstairs when the servant knocked at the door.

“Miss. Mu, are you awake?”

Gu Weiwei said, “Come in please.”

The servant entered and asked, “Is there anything you need?”

Gu Weiwei felt that she needed some crutches!

“Any food?”

“Master told us to get food ready for you, would you like it up here?”

Gu Weiwei nodded constantly. She went over to the balcony that was close to the bedroom and enjoyed the sunshine, on the sofa.

Actually, she had not expected that Fu Hanzheng would stop interrogating her the night before.

After all, judging from his temper, he would not cease so easily, when he discovered something like that.

Even if she did not talk, he would continue with the investigation.

It seemed that she had to be more careful the next time she met Yuan Meng and Master.

She ate the food and relaxed for over an hour and then asked the servant to deliver the luggage upstairs, when she was feeling better.

As she was unpacking, she saw the ring box inside and reached out for it.

Then she sat down on the carpet and brought it out. The ring looked exquisite and beautiful.

She looked at it for a while and tried it on, appreciating the ring on her finger for a while.

Fu Hanzheng once said that if she wanted to get married one day, she could put on the ring and become his wife.

“Mrs. Fu?” Gu Weiwei chuckled and spoke to herself. “Sounds nice.”

Fu Hanzheng just returned and heard the words, so he asked as he entered the room, “What sounds nice?”

Gu Weiwei put her hands behind her back and tried to slip the ring off of her finger.

But the more anxious she was, the tighter it gripped her finger...

Chapter 398: Husband

Seeing her strange actions and her face that was wearing an expression of regret and frustration, Fu Hanzheng asked with a smile, “What are you hiding from me?”

Gu Weiwei shook her head and laughed dryly. "Nothing."

Damn, was this ring designed based on her size after all?

Kneeling on the carpet on one knee, Fu Hanzheng stretched out his hand with a smile.

"Show me your hand."

Lips pursed, Gu Weiwei showed the other hand with nothing on it.

"Told you it is nothing."

Fu Hanzheng said, "The other one."

Gu Weiwei felt helpless. "Truly nothing!"

Fu Hanzheng chuckled. "Show me."

Embarrassed and shy, Gu Weiwei showed the hand that had the ring on it.

"I was just trying it on and it is stuck! You can't have bought it based on my size!"

Fu Hanzheng could not help but smile happily as he whispered, "If it is stuck, let it be stuck there."

"It is not fitting! I am not wearing it, the size is wrong and the diamond is so small."

Gu Weiwei knew what he was talking about, so she tried to distract him by saying that something was wrong with the ring.

The diamond was certainly not at all small!

Holding her ring hand tightly, Fu Hanzheng asked with a smile.

"You said that as long as you put it on, you will be Mrs. Fu, are you trying to break the promise?"

"Stop setting me up!" Gu Weiwei said.

She was just trying it on but luck was not in her favour, so the ring was stuck and he happened to stumble across the scene.

"Are you only trying it on? Not because you want to be Mrs. Fu?" Fu Hanzheng asked with raised eyebrows.

Gu Weiwei blushed guiltily and whispered, "I am just... considering it."

Before, it had been Fu Hanzheng who forced her to be in a relationship with him and it was Fu Hanzheng who dominated.

At first, she had planned to stick to her initial intentions, so that she could leave Hua Land and stay away from him in the future.

But now she had fallen deeply for him and she couldn't leave even if she wanted to.

Therefore, she started to imagine the future of their relationship.

Fu Hanzheng did not want to release her hand but asked her, "What is the result of your consideration?"

Gu Weiwei snorted. "Does it make any difference if we are married or not right now, apart from the certificate?"

"We are illegally co-living and our relationship will only be legal when we are married." Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei rolled her eyes. "You forced yourself into my residence!"

Fu Hanzheng rubbed the ring on her finger and asked.

"You are sure you want to remove it?"

He knew pretty well that she put it on, not because she wanted to get married but he still hoped that she did not remove it after putting it on.

"I am considering, there's no hurry!" Gu Weiwei answered.

Couples normally were in a relationship for years before getting married but they had been together for less than a year.

They had done everything apart from getting the certificate. What was he dissatisfied for?

Also, she was not yet legally old enough for marriage.

Instead of releasing her hands, Fu Hanzheng held her ring hand and said miserably, "Then what are we supposed to do? We made a promise that when the ring is put on, you will be Mrs. Fu and if you remove it, you are breaching the promise."

"You made the promise, not me!" Gu Weiwei snapped.

This man was trying to set her up! She hadn't been pregnant but he had still tried to get her into a relationship with him.

Now he was trying to set her up so they could get married.

"But you have really upset me now, making me happy for nothing."

Fu Hanzheng sighed and looked hurt.

Gu Weiwei leaned forward and kissed him gently on his lips.

"Better now? Remove it for me."

Fu Hanzheng smiled sinisterly and cunningly said, "Call me husband, then I will help you remove it."

Chapter 399: Husband 2

"Fu Hanzheng, that is enough!" Gu Weiwei glared at this man who kept asking for more.

Fu Hanzheng checked the time and said,

"Well, the Civil Affairs Office is still open, what about..."

Showing a sad face, Gu Weiwei burst out.

“...Honey, husband!”

If she did not call him that, he was going to carry her off to the Civil Affairs Office and force her to marry him like he did last time.

Fu Hanzheng frowned bitterly but still showed a proud smile.

“That was too weak for me to hear.”

Gu Weiwei gritted her teeth and called him once again.

“Honey, husband!”

Why did she finish her filming early, so as to spend time with this man, who kept on asking for more.

The world outside of home was so wonderful and free!

Seeing her getting annoyed, Fu Hanzheng stopped teasing her and helped her up.

Then he took her to wash her hands and helped her remove the ring with soap.

Having washed her hands, Gu Weiwei wiped them and showed him her hands again.

“Give it back to me.”

Fu Hanzheng placed the ring in the middle of her hand and said, “One more time and then it won’t be just trying it out.”

She had automatically started to consider getting married and it was a discovery that greatly pleased him.

He had thought that he would have to wait a long time for this moment but it actually seemed that it would not take a long time.

“Are you trying to force me to get married to you again?” Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a moment. “I have wanted to do that for a long time.”

He had done it before, so he was experienced enough to do it again.

Gu Weiwei walked out with the ring, placed it into the box and carefully put it away.

“You said that you are busy these days, what are you doing home, so early?”

“The important matters have already been done at the company and so the rest can be done at home.”

Fu Hanzheng said as he swept her into his arms.

She had finished work ahead of time, just for him, so he would not leave her alone at home, just for the sake of his work.

They were just flirting in the master bedroom, when Xu Qian gave a slight cough outside the door.

“President Fu, the video meeting with the foreign company is about to start.”

Fu Hanzheng sighed and kissed her on the cheek.

“Coming with me?”

“Why should I be there when you are at work.” Gu Weiwei snorted.

Fu Hanzheng said, “For me to look at.”

Gu Weiwei chuckled. She had thought that he was a cold, serious and sinister man but the longer they spent time together, the sweeter and more childish this man turned out to be. She liked him increasingly more and more.

“I will do some unpacking and talk with Jolin first, then I will come to you.” Gu Weiwei said.

Fu Hanzheng released her and went back into the study for work.

Gu Weiwei did some unpacking and made some tea in the living room downstairs, she then made a call to Jolin and talked about the upcoming schedule.

She was about to enter the study when Fu Shiqin came over to her and had a very serious expression on his slightly-chubby face.

“Mu Weiwei, don’t ever think that you can do whatever you want just because my brother spoils you!”

His brother did not force her to say anything about that man because he adored her but she was not going to get away with it so easily.

Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows. “Well, what can you do to me, if I am into doing whatever I want?”

Fu Shiqin took a deep breath and said straightforwardly, “Mu Weiwei, honestly, for us, anyone can be our sister-in-law as long as my brother likes her and as long as she is not related to the Gu Family. But don’t ever think about doing anything over the top because my brother likes you! If you have any conscience left, confess!”

Instead of thinking about his words, Gu Weiwei laughed.

“If I don’t confess, are you thinking about changing your sister-in-law?”

Chapter 400: Sister-in-law

“You...”

Annoyed, Fu Shiqin thought that his brother would rather throw him away, than get rid of his girlfriend.

“Well, you always complain about how your brother punishes you all the time and now, you seem to be defending him.” Gu Weiwei chuckled at Fu Shiqin, who seemed to be standing on his brother’s side this time.

Fu Shiqin threw himself to the sofa and warned seriously.

“If you dare betray my brother, I will not let you go even if my brother wants to kill me.”

His brother was a smart guy but he was not experienced in relationships. What if he was cheated on?

His brother was always punishing him and his twin but he also always stood by their side on important occasions.

Third Brother was disdained by his eldest brother but when he was shot abroad some years ago, his brother not only went to pick him up in person in the intense situation but also dealt with the attackers thoroughly.

“Alright, do you really take your brother as a fool in love?” Gu Weiwei glared back at him and snorted. “If I did cheat on him, I would not be standing here talking with you!”

“What did you talk about with my brother last night anyways?” Fu Shiqin inquired.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said, “I told him I like him.”

“That’s all?” Fu Shiqin could not believe it.

So she said this kind of thing and his brother stopped asking her any more questions?

Gu Weiwei nodded, turned around and was about to go upstairs to the study when Fu Shiqin stopped her.

“Hang on!” Fu Shiqin stood up and came over to her, warning her. “Mu Weiwei, if you...”

“If you dare to threaten me again, I will tell your brother everything!” Gu Weiwei turned around and warned him instead.

“You...” Fu Shiqin got so annoyed that he wanted to lecture her but did not dare.

Seeing his embarrassed look, Gu Weiwei laughed sinisterly.

“Call me sister-in-law, and I will keep my mouth sealed.”

“You are not married! Why should I call you sister-in-law?!” Fu Shiqin turned around and snorted.

“Then I will tell your brother that you want to get a new sister-in-law!” Gu Weiwei suddenly felt like teasing him.

Seeing her going upstairs, Fu Shiqin showed a very distressed face and said unwillingly, “sister-in-law!”

“Good boy!”

Pleased, Gu Weiwei walked upstairs and sneaked into the study.

Fu Hanzheng was still in the middle of the video meeting with partners. She entered the study, grabbed a book from the shelf and started to read on the sofa opposite his desk, behaving exactly like a still object for him to watch.

But inwardly, she thought of what Fu Shiqin said.

Sure enough, everyone from the Fu Family thought that anyone related to the Gu Family should not be touched.

So she did the right thing by concealing her real identity and her past with the Gu Family.

She was not confident enough to predict if Fu Hanzheng would not mind after knowing the truth.

Even if Fu Hanzheng loved her and did not mind the truth, what about his family?

Finishing the meeting, Fu Hanzheng looked up and saw her looking distressed.

So he asked Xu Qian to finish the remaining matters, stood up and went over to her side.

“What are you thinking? You look so serious.”

Gu Weiwei came back to herself and noticed Fu Shiqin who was coming in to do work. She raised her arm and pointed at him.

“Your brother says that he wants a new sister-in-law!”

“Ahhh!!!”

Dumbfounded, Fu Shiqin looked at the two people on the sofa. Didn't she say that she was not going to tell?!

Fu Hanzheng squinted at him and asked, “Are you very, very free right now?”

He knew that he had gone to her because he could not stand the pretty boy matter.

Fu Shiqin shook his head constantly. “No, no, I am very, very busy...”

Fu Hanzheng turned to Gu Weiwei and suddenly gentleness dominated his look instead. He was so mild just like the blooming flowers in spring.

“His opinions don't matter.”

Seeing his own brother's fickle expressions between him and his girlfriend, Fu Shiqin sighed helplessly.

Damn, his brother was totally stuck with Mu Weiwei for the rest of his life.
