

MY HIDDEN 421

Chapter 421: Embarrassment Everywhere

Startled, Gu Weiwei did not respond immediately.

“Mr. Green, I am very grateful for your invitation but... I am not famous enough to be the spokesperson of MG Globe.”

“No, no one suits this job better than you.” Martin Green said with determination.

The works to be launched this time were all completed at the Gu Family and Mu Weiwei showed a very similar kind of elegance that resembled that of Gu Weiwei, who gave him the inspiration.

The two top managers of MG had objected to Martin Green’s decision the day before about wanting her to be the spokesperson but they truly had no excuse to stop him right now.

They even expected that he could really persuade them to let her become the global spokesperson.

After all, if Mu Weiwei truly became the spokesperson for Muse, her amazing looks and temperament plus Kanil’s perfect works would truly sparkle.

In this way, the products to be launched by MG would be greatly affected.

If they did not sign her right now, she would not give up the rare chance offered by Muse anyway.

However, as long as they signed her to become the global spokesperson, she would not be able to become the spokesperson for any other brand.

Seeing Martin Green proposing that Mu Weiwei should be the global spokesperson, Ling Yan was so angry that she turned pale.

She was the spokesperson of the Asian district, but yet an unknown person was going to become the global spokesperson, despite them being far less than she was. What was going on?

In this case, no matter whether Mu Weiwei was going to be the global spokesperson of MG or the spokesperson of Muse, she was not in the same level as her after all.

“Mr. Green, it is not quite suitable to sign two Asian-looking actresses for the spokespersons.”

More importantly, she was only the spokesperson of the Asian district whilst Mu Weiwei would be the global spokesperson... that was a total mistake!

“Miss. Li Yan, we did not sign anything like this in the contract.” Martin Green snapped.

His assistant sighed helplessly. Couldn’t he at least say her name correctly?

“Mr. Green, it is Miss. Ling Yan, not Li Yan!”

Hearing Martin Green calling her name wrong again, Ling Yan’s face turned dark.

Her agent stepped forward and said,

“Mr. Green, if you want to sign Miss. Mu, Miss. Ling Yan’s name would be ruined.”

“Heard that? Now you can move away.” Merlin Kanil said to Martin Green.

Martin Green’s green eyes glanced at the direction where Ling Yan was standing in displeasure.

“You are already unpopular now, Movie Queen, don’t ever consider yourself as someone great.”

He had been very p*ssed off by her stealing Weiwei’s wedding gown and now she was trying to stop him from signing the spokesperson he was satisfied with.

“Unpopular?”

Ling Yan’s agent got so annoyed that she almost stuttered. She turned around and saw that Ling Yan looked even worse.

“Mr. Green, you are insulting our artist, if you don’t apologize for that, we won’t be able to cooperate any more.”

“Then we can end the contract.” Martin Green snapped.

She was not suitable as the spokesperson anyways.

Jolin, who was watching the show, felt totally amused next to them. He almost could not resist his chuckles.

MG, who signed Ling Yan as the spokesperson for Asia the day before, was now fighting over his girl with Muse!

No matter which company his girl chose in the end, Movie Queen Ling would lose out anyways.

Excellent job, Ms. President!

Chapter 422: Spokesperson of MG Globe

“Martin!”

The two top managers of MG called out to Martin Green all of a sudden. They had already brought the news to the public that the contract was signed.

And after one night, the contract was going to be dismissed?

Ling Yan threw a cold look at Gu Weiwei and turned to Martin Green.

“Then, talk with my lawyer.”

Having said those words, she left with her agent and assistant.

Instead of taking another look at her, Martin Green turned to Gu Weiwei and asked her for her cooperation one more time.

“Weiwei, I really hope that you can become the spokesperson of MG, you do look like someone who gave me the inspiration.”

Gu Weiwei smiled and offered her hands.

“If that is the case... happy cooperation, Martin!”

“Hey, hey, hey, what about me?!” Merlin Kanil asked in dissatisfaction.

He flew all the way from Paris through the night, just to see her signing with MG?

Gu Weiwei smiled apologetically. “Sorry Merlin, I hope we have a chance to work together in the future but I would like to sign the contract with MG this time.”

It was true that signing with Muse would make Ling Yan even more embarrassed, but Martin would undoubtedly be affected too.

Apart from Master’s family, he was probably the only person who cared about her right now.

“Why?” Merlin asked in an unconvinced tone.

His works were much better than those from Martin, so why did she decide to work with MG instead of with him?

Gu Weiwei smiled. “I will definitely work with you in the future, if there is a chance.”

Why? Just look at what you have designed this year!

Merlin had invited her to try out his works in Paris and even sent her the pictures.

But this year’s work looked mysteriously sexy.

The dresses were either exposing the back or had side splits that would expose the legs.

These kinds of dresses would totally annoy Fu Hanzheng, especially if she wore them during public occasions.

Therefore, she turned him down ages ago and when she asked him to come here, she only wanted to use him to get the cooperation with MG.

She knew that as long as he was here inviting her to become the spokesperson of Muse, MG would definitely feel threatened.

After all, Merlin was publicly recognized as one of the best master designers, except that he had not yet found a satisfying spokesperson.

If Merlin had the intention of working with her, MG would be scared that the products Muse launched would steal their space in the market.

Therefore, in order to stop Merlin from signing her, they would definitely sign her on instead.

So no matter which company she was going to work with, Ling Yan would always be put into her shadow and currently, she must be extremely annoyed.

Fearing that she would regret it and be stolen away by Merlin, Martin Green asked his staff to get the contract ready right there and then, for her to sign.

When the two top managers of MG and the other directors of high ranking knew about the situation, no one objected to the idea anymore but started to encourage Martin to sign her on instead.

Seeing that they signed the contract with his own eyes, Kanil left pitifully.

“Next time, you must work with me.”

Gu Weiwei saw him off and said gratefully, “Thank you very much for coming here.”

Merlin waved his hands and left in the car.

Seeing Merlin leaving, Jolin asked in confusion, with the contract in arms, “Muse is an obviously better choice, why did you choose MG?”

“I prefer MG’s works.” Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

Firstly, it was because Martin was her old friend. Secondly, she just could not wear the current works by Merlin and thirdly, he was going to launch a perfume called Lust.

She had read the commercial plan he had sent to her. She would have to shoot a very lustful commercial with a male model and if she accepted the offer...

She was worried that Fu Hanzheng would become so jealous that he would close down Muse without a second thought.

Chapter 423: A Kick Away

Since MG soon was going to carry out the release conference of the new products, it was required that they start shooting the commercials the following day.

Gu Weiwei did not have any other work tasks at the moment, so she agreed to stay in Italy and prepared herself for the shooting of next month’s commercial.

Back in the hotel, Xu had just finished packing for them, assuming that they were going back home but when they returned, Jolin joyfully announced the change of plans with the contract in his arms.

“Weiwei is going to stay in Italy and is shooting the commercial to be released next month.”

Xu scratched her head. “Hasn’t MG signed Ling Yan already?”

“Ling Yan is nothing, we have already signed to be the global spokesperson.” Jolin showed Xu the contract in excitement and said, “Book the restaurant, we are celebrating tonight!”

Xu glanced at the contract and found that what he said was true.

“Oh my, it feels like I am in a dream!”

“You are not the only one that feels that way.” Jolin said.

They missed the position of spokesperson Asia yesterday but today, MG was begging them to sign as their global spokesperson!

He felt that it was not him, who was guiding his girl but his girl who was helping them to fly high into the sky.

She was the easiest artist he had worked with, after he started his career as an agent.

Gu Weiwei did not seem as excited as Xu was but instead said to Jolin, "If we are shooting the commercial here, I may not make it to the Golden Phoenix Awards."

The ceremony of the Golden Phoenix Awards was going to take place the day after tomorrow and she was one of the nominees.

In principle, she should have been there but if the commercial shooting was starting, she would not make it.

"Never mind, we can tell Third Master to get the trophy for you in case you win." Jolin said in displeasure.

If it were someone else who had won the nomination of the first movie, he would have advised her or him to attend the ceremony because when the Eyes of the Eagle came to cinemas, his girl would have numerous opportunities.

But being the spokesperson for MG was a very important matter and of course it was much more important than the Award Ceremony.

"Li Xing'er's team kept posting news articles about her these days. She must be pretty ready for the Golden Phoenix Awards."

Xu took out the things she had just packed away, whilst talking about what she had read online.

"Let her do whatever she wants to do, it would be a total embarrassment if she fails to get any trophies." Jolin snorted.

Li Xing'er had just got an award as the Best Actress in a TV-series. If she got a Movie Queen award at the Golden Phoenix Awards, she would become extremely arrogant.

But there were many excellent actresses in competition this year, Li Xing'er might not necessarily be able to get the award anyways.

They took a small break at the hotel, found a nice restaurant nearby and celebrated together.

Then they went back to the hotel to rest and get ready for the shoot the following day.

Early in the morning, Jolin drove her to the studio where the shooting was going to take place on time and Martin Green brought an Asian model with him.

"Weiwei, this is Julia, this is the new spokesperson of MG Asia."

Gu Weiwei wondered why they had changed to a new person within such a short time frame.

"Didn't you sign Ling Yan?"

Martin Green smiled helplessly. "She is ending the contract with us."

"Because you signed me?" Gu Weiwei asked in a questioning tone.

"I think it is all worth the while." Martin Green said with a smile and guided the model over to the makeup artist.

Seeing Martin leaving from where they were standing, Jolin whispered, "I had been looking forward to seeing the comparison of the commercials between you and Movie Queen Ling but she has ended the contract?!"

Gu Weiwei smiled. "Do you think she would be convinced to remain under me, if she continues with the contract?"

Chapter 424: Contract Dismissed

"She signed yesterday and ended the contract today, that was fast." Jolin said with a sneer.

Most importantly, it was because they had acted a bit too quickly and too fiercely.

"She will end the contract, no matter if we sign with MG or Muse." Gu Weiwei said.

She had become the spokesperson of MG Globe whilst a legendary movie queen like her was only the spokesperson of MG Asia... of course she would be unconvinced by the results.

Since the commercial had not yet been made, she could simply end the contract privately and make up an excuse to explain why she could not work with MG anymore, to the public.

But if the commercials were ready for both the Asian District and the Globe, the position of her as a movie queen would be put into the shadows.

"She is unconvinced by your gain, I think she will try signing with other brands too, right?" Jolin asked.

Gu Weiwei replied. "Of course, she will."

She would be put into the shadows as the spokesperson of MG Asia.

So when she ended the contract with MG, she would definitely go to another fashion brand which was much more luxurious and better than MG, so that she could keep the position as Movie Queen Ling.

Jolin frowned and thought for a while. In the fashion industry, it seemed that only Muse could be considered as better than MG.

"She will go to Merlin?"

Gu Weiwei nodded. "Only Muse is able to exceed MG."

Yesterday at Martin's studio, Ling Yan had tried to approach Merlin.

Unfortunately, Merlin had totally ignored her.

"But Merlin wouldn't sign her, would he?" Jolin questioned worriedly.

They turned down Muse but if Ling Yan signed with them, they would have lost big.

"If he wants to sign her, Muse would have found a spokesperson ages ago." Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

Merlin was an extreme perfectionist, who was very particular about his spokespersons, so there is no way he would be satisfied with Ling Yan as the spokesperson.

Worried, Jolin said, "What if her fiancé Gu Siting helps her?"

The Gu Family was, after all, influential.

"Merlin would not agree to it." Gu Weiwei said with certainty.

Merlin Kanil was an extremely arrogant person. He was not going to be satisfied with Ling Yan as the spokesperson. More importantly, he had privately signed a contract with the Fu Family.

He knew pretty well the relationship between the Fu Family and the Gu Family. So even if Gu Siting stepped forward and tried to help Ling Yan, Merlin would definitely not sign her at all.

Jolin sighed helplessly. He had expected to see Movie Queen Ling being put into the shadows, when the commercial was aired but she ended the contract and quit the game first.

After a while, Martin Green came over to them and confirmed her makeup.

"We are going to shoot some still pictures today and tomorrow, then we will go for the shooting of the commercial."

Gu Weiwei nodded and followed him to the studio. She started the shooting after a brief communication with the photographer.

Martin Green had been worried that she would be restrained, when facing the photographer.

Unexpectedly, however, she was almost as good as the professional models! And she spoke fluent Italian so the shooting went amazingly.

However, he did become a little distracted when he watched the young girl, who was changing her poses under the guidance of the photographer, and adjusting her expressions.

He had thought that every individual had a very unique temperament but now he was a little confused – how could there be two individuals in the world who resembled each other so much?

They were just two girls who had different personalities, ages and family backgrounds.

But the look expressed in her eyes created an incredibly familiar feeling to him that he just could not be convinced at all.

After shooting one outfit, Gu Weiwei took a glance at Martin Green and asked, as she approached him, "What is it? Anything wrong with the shooting?"

"No, no, everything was perfect, except that you look way too much like a friend I know." Martin Green smiled and said.

Gu Weiwei showed a heartfelt smile. "Is that so?"

Martin Green looked worried as he sighed.

"I haven't been able to reach her, I'm not sure if anything bad has happened to her."

Gu Weiwei's heart was gripped by his statement. She wanted so much to spill the truth to him but when she thought of her own situation, she stopped herself.

Since she had decided to conceal her past, she ought not to speak of anything, just in case people became involved because of her.

Chapter 425: Too Arrogant

Just as Gu Weiwei had expected, after ending the contract with MG as the spokesperson of the Asian district, Ling Yan went to the headquarters of Muse in Paris and was accompanied by Kuroda Shio.

After receiving the notification, Merlin Kanil did not invite the visitors into his office.

Instead, he stayed in the office until he had finished his work and packed up his things, ready to go home.

"Merlin, Mr. Kuroda is still waiting for you."

Hearing the words, Merlin checked the time and said, "Let him in."

Two minutes later, Kuroda Shio and Ling Yan were guided into the meeting room by the secretary.

"Hi, Merlin Kanil, my name is Kuroda Shio."

Kuroda Shio said his own name and gave the business card to him with both hands.

Merlin glanced at the business card and said straightforwardly, "Just say what you want to say, I am on my way out to have dinner."

"I heard that Muse is looking for a spokesperson. We hope that Ms. Ling Yan can be the one." Kuroda Shio said.

"Ling Yan?" Kanil frowned and asked, "Who is that?"

Ling Yan, who came in with Kuroda Shio, looked embarrassed but still showed a smile.

"Mr. Kanil, we met in Milan a few days ago."

Merlin Kanil looked at Ling Yan and thought for a while. He did remember seeing this woman at Martin's studio.

"Ms. Ling Yan is the lead actress of Dream of a Long Life and has won dozens of international film awards, she is the most suitable spokesperson for Muse."

Merlin glanced at the beautifully-dressed woman and snorted.

"Sorry, I don't need this kind of spokesperson."

"Mr. Kanil, Gu's Enterprise expects to cooperate with you." Kuroda Shio said with a serious face.

He might not have put it forward plainly, but he was actually saying that Gu Siting also wanted him to use Ling Yan as the spokesperson.

Merlin Kanil sneered. "It seems that hideous women are confident enough to be the spokesperson of Muse?"

Hideous women?!

Hearing that someone was referring to her in this way, Ling Yan turned pale.

Kuroda Shio said, "Mr. Kanil, watch your words!"

"You are here begging me, in my place, and still asking me to watch my words?" Merlin sneered.

"Mr. Kanil, we are very sincere in cooperating with you." Kuroda Shio said and placed a pile of files onto the table from the briefcase.

Merlin glanced at the files and had no interest in picking them up.

"I think I am very clear about what I am saying – you are not qualified to be the spokesperson of Muse!"

All these years, there had been numerous people who had tried to become the spokesperson in exchange for something.

But he did not lack money and what he needed was a spokesperson, who could perfectly express his works.

He could be short of a spokesperson for one year... Or even five years.

But what he could not stand was randomly finding someone to represent his work.

Ling Yan gritted her teeth. So she was not qualified? But yet he had run all the way to Milan just to meet Mu Weiwei, a newbie who couldn't possibly be qualified, was that so?

She glanced at Kuroda Shio. If they ever failed to get this job, she would have to watch Mu Weiwei becoming the spokesperson of MG Globe.

"Mr. Kanil, don't be so absolute, or trouble may come your way." Kuroda Shio warned with a serious tone.

With one hand against his forehead, Merlin sneered.

"Prime Minister Franks has just hired me to design his anniversary present for his wife and Mr. Fu has just hired me to design for the future Mrs. Fu... I think that my clients would be very anxious, if I ever get into trouble."

Who did this woman, who had not yet married into the Gu Family, think she was? How dare she try to get herself a position here, in his own territory?

Chapter 426: Always Mu Weiwei

After a deep and long silence, Kuroda Shio put away the files he had just brought out, stood up and said, "I'm sorry for the disturbance."

Seeing him ready to leave, Ling Yan looked at him unconvinced.

"Let's just leave, Miss. Ling Yan." Kuroda Shio said.

Ling Yan gritted her teeth and left the office with Kuroda Shio.

When she got into the car, she could not help but say, "Kuroda, this job is important to me!"

"He doesn't want you and we can't do anything about it." Kuroda Shio said.

Ling Yan said, "But Brother Siting has promised that you would help me with it!"

Mu Weiwei had already signed the contract as the spokesperson of MG Globe and she had also just ended the contract with MG.

If she could not sign a better and more luxurious brand than MG, she would be highly affected.

She had already been put into the shadows in the voice program by Mu Weiwei and now she had lost to her in the fashion industry too, she was not at all convinced.

"Yes, my job is to be here to help you but it is not necessarily going to be successful." Kuroda Shio said.

"Can't we think of anything else?" Ling Yan still felt very unconvinced.

Instead of saying anything more, Kuroda Shio called Gu Siting and told him about the situation.

After the conversation, he said, "Miss. Ling, Mr. Gu has asked us to go home first."

Ling Yan's face turned pale when she heard the words.

"So we are not fighting for that position anymore."

"You also know what Merlin Kanil is like, it would not work no matter how much we try." Kuroda Shio said straightforwardly.

That guy had no intention of cooperating, meaning that there was no need to press for it anymore.

"Can't we go any other way about it? It is really important to me." Ling Yan stressed repeatedly.

Kuroda Shio shook his head and said, "Merlin Kanil is the top master designer of the fashion industry, who designs the clothes for the First Lady of France, and the Prime Minister's wife likes his designs too, also... he is working with Fu Hanzheng too."

"If he doesn't want to use you, forceful methods would only bring trouble for the Gu Family, especially during this time of the year."

Ling Yan burst out into a bitter smile and said, "When Weiwei was alive, she could get anything she wanted but that doesn't seem to work for me."

Kuroda Shio glanced at this woman with a complicated look and said, "Miss. Ling, it is not the proper time for the Gu Family to start any conflicts with the Fu Family and please do not try to start any fights with Mu Weiwei."

When Weiwei needed something in the past she got it but that was because the Gu Family had to give it to her.

And even if the Gu Family could not achieve whatever she needed, the Dorrans Family would do their best to get those things for her too.

But when Weiwei had passed away, the relationship between the Gu Family and the Dorrans Family had turned subtle.

“I am not fighting with her, she is picking on me!” Ling Yan said.

She felt that every time she ran into Mu Weiwei, she seemed to dislike her tremendously.

Every time they met, she would always have a method to humiliate her.

Instead of saying anything more, Kuroda Shio said, “Mr. Gu has asked us to go home first.”

Despite being unconvinced, Ling Yan had no way out when Gu Siting gave up on helping her.

Kuroda Shio threw a look at the angry Ling Yan and sighed inwardly, as he asked the driver to head home.

Weiwei might have been arrogant and conceited before but she would always do her best to get whatever she needed and even if she failed in the task, she never complained in this way.

Chapter 427: Martin’s Intention

Ling Yan failed to get the spokesperson position with Muse, yet Gu Weiwei was doing very well, over at MG.

The photography shoot went very well with MG and Fu Shiyi sent a congratulatory video when the Golden Phoenix Awards came to an end.

“Look at my trophy! And look at me, the Movie King!”

“Congratulations.” Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

He did not look like a Movie King at all, he looked like a dumb-headed person!

“Aren’t you famous for your face, what did you become a Movie King for?”

Jolin asked Fu Shiyi through the video as he stood behind her.

“If anyone says that I lack acting skills, I will use this trophy to slap him right across the face.” Fu Shiyi touched the trophy in a very pleased way.

Jolin said, “If you had not worked in the same movie with your sister-in-law, you would not have gotten the trophy!”

For all these years when he was famous, he was truly only famous for his face.

But when he performed in the same movie as his girl, he finally used some of his talents and gained the first Movie King trophy in his life.

“Hey, sister-in-law, why don’t you ask me if you have received a trophy or not?” Fu Shiyi asked mysteriously.

Jolin said, “If even you can get a trophy as the Movie King, we of course will get an award too!”

Fu Shiyi brought out another trophy and showed it in front of the camera. “I will give your trophy to my brother, okay?”

“Okay.” Gu Weiwei answered.

Jolin thought of Li Xing’er, who had news splashed about her across the internet and asked.

“What about Li Xing’er, did she get an award?”

“The judges would have turned blind if she had gotten an award.” Fu Shiyi snorted.

Li Xing’er had thought that she would get an award, so she was dressed in a dazzling dress. Yet the Movie Queen award went to someone else.

Since he was sitting very close to her, he saw that she had gotten so annoyed that her veins on her forehead had popped out.

Seeing the trophy, Gu Weiwei said straightforwardly, “I am working now, bye.”

“Hang on.” Fu Shiyi stopped her and said, “Li Xing’er is hiring paparazzi these days, just to gather some unsavoury news about you, she probably she wants to have a fight with you.”

“She is jealous.” Jolin snorted.

His girl had gotten the Best Supporting Role at the Golden Phoenix Awards and Third Master had become the Movie King, but she, as a lead actress, had won nothing.

Also, the Eyes of the Eagle was going to be aired soon and his girl would definitely become popular again.

Feeling unconvinced, Li Xing’er must be thinking about doing something, if she really wanted to bring herself some trouble, she should continue.

His girl was very capable and he, as the agent, had become quite bored too.

Instead of being excited, Gu Weiwei said, “I know.”

Then she ended the video chat and continued on with her work.

A new product was to be launched by MG after many years, so a lot of effort was put into the filming of the commercial.

The perfume commercial that lasted for only a couple of minutes, had a famous director from Hollywood, so the film looked really amazing.

At the beginning, it was a bit difficult to balance the required commercial acting and the requested movie acting.

But after a few takes, Gu Weiwei completed the shoot, just like everyone else had expected her to.

Martin Green came over to her after seeing the completed movie from the director.

“Weiwei, you did well in the shooting, far better than I had expected.”

Gu Weiwei was removing her makeup and said with a smile, “This is my job.”

Martin Green thought for a few seconds and suggested something.

“You have been working very hard these days. There is a rather nice restaurant around this area, may I ask you out for dinner?”

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and nodded.

“Of course.”

“Then I will pick you up at the hotel after you finish work.” Martin Green said joyfully.

Seeing Martin Green walking away, Jolin mumbled as he suddenly thought of something.

“Why do I get a feeling that Martin is courting you?”

Chapter 428: Lovely

Hearing Jolin’s words, Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows.

“What do you mean?”

Jolin said, “I noticed with my own eyes!”

During the past two days, Martin had been showing love to his girl more and more often.

They had known each other for just a couple of days and it was not proper for him to show so much love.

“You have over-thought this.”

Gu Weiwei removed her makeup, and got dressed into her own clothes in the fitting room.

Martin paid special attention to her, only because she resembled Gu Weiwei in some way.

She might not know what anyone else was thinking but Martin was one of the few people in this world who had thought about her and she had known him for years, so she did not stay away from him on purpose.

After she came out of the fitting room, Jolin reminded her with a small voice.

“It is okay for me if I over think, as long as the Boss doesn’t, then it would be fine.”

Gu Weiwei. “...”

With a jealous man at home, she might not be able to have a very smooth day.

Seeing her falling into silence, Jolin said.

“Third Master said that his brother is a very narrow-minded person and has asked me to keep you away from other men.”

He had, after all, fully accepted that his idol belonged to someone else.

“He is my working partner, why should I stay away from him?” Gu Weiwei snorted.

Jolin said, “But you are having dinner with Martin!”

“It is just dinner! We always have dinners with directors back at home.”

Gu Weiwei countered – so that was an idol he had had a crush on for years? Why was he giving him up so easily?

Also, he had now become the second informer after Fu Shiyi!

“But you are alone!” Jolin said.

Martin had been wandering about in their territory these past few days and he kept giving her presents too. People without any other intentions would not come here.

“Anyway, just stop worrying about me!” Gu Weiwei walked into the car and said.

“I won’t be able to get rid of Fu Hanzheng. Nor am I willing to either.”

It was just that she had run into an old friend and there would be very little chance for them to meet again after work. She was just trying to communicate with him as an old friend.

It was just a normal meeting, nothing weird.

What about hanging out with Yuan Meng when she was much younger? She would have been considered to be a hooligan!

She rested for a couple of hours back at the hotel when Martin Green came to pick her up.

Compared to the casual clothes he normally wore, he looked very formal today and his blonde hair was well combed too.

Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows in astonishment. “Are we going to a very formal restaurant?”

In foreign countries, the dress code was very important for those who were going to a fancy restaurant.

“Your clothes are fine, let’s leave now, it is time.” Martin Green said.

Gu Weiwei nodded. “Let’s go.”

Martin Green raised his arm, suggesting that she could leave with her arm linked through his.

Gu Weiwei laughed and waved it off.

“No thanks, Martin.”

It was a very ordinary custom in the west but she was certain that her jealous boyfriend would not be able to stand it.

Instead of saying anything more, Martin stepped into the elevator and pressed the down button.

The restaurant was a Michelin star restaurant, famous and tranquil. The food was delicious too.

Since the shooting of the commercial was coming to an end the following day, Martin told her a little bit about attending the new product release the following month, as well as the dress she had to wear on important occasions, during the cooperation time with MG.

After dinner, Martin drove her to the hotel and said before leaving the car, "You will turn me down now, if I am asking you for a drink, right?"

Gu Weiwei laughed and nodded. "Yes... but you are not flirting with me right?"

Martin Green smiled. "You are too lovely for me to not want to flirt with you."

Gu Weiwei. "..."

Chapter 429: Jealousy Faraway

"But it seems that you already have a boyfriend." Martin Green stretched out his hand and said, "Then let's stay as good friends."

He had run into her talking with someone on the phone twice, with a sweet expression on her face, when she was taking a break.

And when she had turned him down so determinedly, he guessed that she already had a boyfriend.

Gu Weiwei smiled and shook his hand.

"Thanks."

Thank you so much for regarding me as a friend and standing by my side.

Martin Green let go of her hand. "Have a good rest, see you tomorrow."

Gu Weiwei turned around and walked into the hotel, when Fu Hanzheng's call arrived.

"Are you having fun on the date?"

"I can smell your jealousy 6000 kilometers away." Gu Weiwei laughed.

She knew that the bodyguards had told him about her dinner with Martin but it was not a real kind of jealousy.

If he was really jealous, he would have sounded even colder, just like how he did, when he interrogated her about Yuan Meng.

"Are you coming home tomorrow?" Fu Hanzheng asked.

It was New Year's Eve the following day, but it seemed that she was not coming home at all.

Gu Weiwei opened the room door with the card and said, as she removed her shoes, "It would be too late to go home when the shooting finishes tomorrow. I won't make it home."

Silent for a moment, Fu Hanzheng asked, "When are you coming home anyways?"

It was the first year for him to have a girlfriend, who did not come home to spend the New Year with him.

Gu Weiwei said, "Not sure, after the shoot tomorrow, we are heading to Venice for the outdoor photographs."

She teased him when she was at home last time, so the consequences would be very serious, if she did return this time; she better stayed away from him instead.

After all, her period was not going to keep her safe now.

Fu Hanzheng sighed and said, "Don't have dinner with him alone, again."

"It is just a work partner! You have had dinner with women too for work, right?" Gu Weiwei laughed.

Martin wanted to be more than friends but he stopped, when he found out that she had a boyfriend.

After so many years as friends, she knew him well.

Fu Hanzheng said, "I never share a car alone with women or eat dinner alone with anyone."

He could not see her but some guy was eating dinner with her! Of course he felt bad.

Gu Weiwei threw herself onto the sofa and smiled sweetly.

"You miss me?"

"Yes." Fu Hanzheng burst out.

"Me too." Gu Weiwei chuckled.

Fu Hanzheng said, "Then come home."

"I have to work!" Gu Weiwei said peacefully as she held the pillow in her arms. "I don't want people to consider me as Fu Hanzheng's girl. I want people to consider you as Mu Weiwei's man!"

She did not want to be his accessory. She wanted to be as excellent as he was.

Fu Hanzheng chuckled joyfully. "I do look forward to that day."

Mrs. Fu had to be someone who was capable.

Gu Weiwei chuckled and asked.

"Then... Mu Weiwei's man, Mr. Fu Hanzheng, may I have a rest now?"

"Good night, I will visit you when I have time." Fu Hanzheng said.

"Oh, alright." Gu Weiwei replied.

Fu Hanzheng said with a low tone. "You don't seem so pleased to receive me?"

"I don't want you to be disturbed from work, same goes for me." Gu Weiwei replied with a dry smile.

Whenever he said that he was visiting her, he was always there to sleep with her.

She had not been able to get rid of the dark memories from that time, when she had become so tired of sleeping with him, because of what happened with Yuan Meng.

Chapter 430: Fu Hanzheng in Venice

Whilst the majority of Hua Land was celebrating the New Year, Gu Weiwei finished the last shooting commercial in Milan for MG.

On New Year's Eve, she flew to Venice for the photography that was going to take place the following day.

She happened to run into the Venice Carnival, so the streets were crowded with folk and the shoot was seriously affected.

The work that could have been finished within two hours, did not finish until four hours later due to the passers-by.

After the shoot, the team went back to the hotel to get some rest, before they were then invited by Martin and the MG staff for the celebration at Venice Carnival.

Special and colorful dresses and exquisite masks were delivered to their door too.

Since they failed to return home for the New Year, Jolin and Xu were very excited about it. They got dressed and put on the masks, ready to go out to have some fun.

Gu Weiwei got dressed into an azure classical dress and put on a golden mask.

Then they went out together in the Gondolier of Venice and traveled across the river-paths in the city.

The whole city was immersed in the carnival and everyone was dressed in classic clothes that shone and dazzled. They were all in the exaggerated masks, and no one could see each other's true face.

Xu was so amazed by the passers-by that she kept pointing at some exaggeratedly dressed people and asked her friends to check them out.

The group went into the Piazza San Marco and saw the orchestra playing the music in neat uniforms.

On the square, there were numerous masked people dressed in exquisite clothes, dancing happily.

"Let's go and celebrate!"

Martin Green said to them and joined the crowd, dancing with the music.

Gu Weiwei was pulled into the crowd by Xu and together with the excited crowd, she danced and sang happily.

The crowd had so much fun together that they almost went all over the whole Venice city and only found a Gondolier when evening fell, who took them back to the hotel.

The hotel was built next to the water and they arrived at the lobby by just taking a few steps.

The group said goodnight to one another in the hotel and went back to their own rooms.

Gu Weiwei went back to the room and failed to find her key. She scratched her head in displeasure.

She could not have lost her key in the carnival, could she?

She went through her purse again but still failed to find the card. So she sighed and decided to go downstairs to the front desk and ask for one more card.

She had just turned around, when she found the door opening by itself.

She turned around and saw a tall man dressed in a navy, custom-made suit standing by the door.

Did she get dizzy because of all the dancing at the carnival?

Why did she see Fu Hanzheng standing in her room? Wasn't he in the capital celebrating the New Year?

Fu Hanzheng sized up the girl wearing the mask and azure costume.

“You don't have time to go home for the New Year but you have time for the local carnival?”

Gu Weiwei approached him and took hold of his arm as she asked, with her head raised, “What are you doing here?”

Why was he not at home for the New Year but here in Venice?

Fu Hanzheng removed the mask that blocked their faces and kissed her soft lips, he did not release them until a long time had passed

“I miss you.”

Gu Weiwei kicked the door closed, raised her head and kissed him of her own accord.

They kissed passionately from the living room all the way to the bedroom, sharing their longing towards each other.

Fu Hanzheng paused the kiss with the only remaining rational thought he had, as he whispered, “I don't have a condom with me.”

Flushing, Gu Weiwei whispered with pursed lips, “I am in the safe period.”
