

MY HIDDEN 461

Chapter 461: Terror Attack in the F Land

When they arrived in F Land, it was almost noon.

They rested for a couple of hours at the hotel and Gu Weiwei went to visit Mr. Murphy in the afternoon.

Although Murphy had not confirmed his participation yet, after hearing what she had said, he showed interest in visiting Hua Land.

That was almost a success in her eyes.

She left the café where she met Murphy and waved goodbye to him but she unexpectedly ran into Ling Yan and Gu Siting.

Seeing her, Gu Siting did not lose himself as he did like the last time at the MG show.

He bowed politely, looking exactly like an elegant gentleman from a noble family in A Land.

Seeing her, Ling Yan showed a cold smile.

“Miss. Mu, are you here for the film festival too?”

This Mu Weiwei had already become one of the top movie stars from Hua Land, after two movies and she was totally standing out, after getting the spokesperson position of MG Globe.

Whilst she herself was turned down by Muse and failed to get any fashion contracts, so these days, she was just making preparations for Dream of a Long Life 2 in A Land.

Unexpectedly, she had run into this girl again at the film festival.

“The Eyes of the Eagle has been selected, so I am here for that.” Gu Weiwei smiled and answered.

Without much doubt, Gu Siting was here with Ling Yan for the film festival too.

He pretended as if he had missed her... but he was actually protecting Ling Yan after all.

“Then see you again at the film festival.”

Ling Yan smiled and walked into the café taking Gu Siting’s arm.

Gu Weiwei left and returned to the hotel, where she made a call to Fu Hanzheng. The moment she hung up, Jolin called.

“MG has had the gown delivered, come and try it on, so we can do some modifications if something doesn’t fit.”

“Alright, I’m coming down now.” Gu Weiwei grabbed the room card and started to head downstairs to his room.

The moment she walked around the corner, she ran into two waiters.

“Sorry!” She apologized, bent down and picked up her room card.

But the moment she bent down, she found that instead of food, it was guns that were hidden under the cloth on the cart.

There were terror attacks in the north of F Land these days... were these people thinking about attacking once again at the film festival.

Her heart skipped a beat as she picked up the room card and left.

She walked towards the elevator and said to Jolin on the other side of the phone, “Let’s go out to eat, now, let’s meet down in the lobby.”

Jolin was confused. “We just ate.”

“Just do it, now!” Gu Weiwei repeated.

No matter whether these two people were planning a terror attack, this hotel was already not safe, when two people with weapons were strolling around the hotel.

As long as they left the hotel, Fu Hanzheng’s bodyguards could keep them safe.

Confused, Jolin thought that she was very hungry.

“Okay, I will get my things and go downstairs.”

Gu Weiwei was about to hang up and call the local police when a gunshot arose from the corridor.

She jerked up and Jolin was startled as well.

“What was that?”

Gu Weiwei turned around and saw guests coming out of the room hearing the gunshot and then heading downstairs in panic.

But the sound arose constantly in the corridor and the guests’ screams echoed across the entire building.

Giving up on the elevator, she took the staircase and went upstairs.

If these people had already started the terror attack, their partners must already be downstairs.

“Jolin, take Xu and hide. Keep your phone silenced and do not go out or utter a sound.”

“What about you, where are you?”

Hearing the sound of guns, Jolin shivered.

Chapter 462: Mu Weiwei Gone Missing

However, before he received a reply, the phone call ended.

The sound of guns and the screams of the hotel guests echoed over and over again, and the whole hotel became a terrifying hell.

Horrified, Jolin switched off Xu's phone and pushed her down under the bed. Then he took the risk of rushing outside pretending as if they too had left their rooms.

Then he suddenly rushed back in and hid under the bed as well.

They did not dare to make a sound, so he used his shaking fingers to text Fu Shiyi, telling him what was going on.

Mu Weiwei asked them to hide, but where was she?

If anything happened to her, they would be punished to death by Boss.

But no texts had come back no matter how many he sent to her.

He was so anxious that he cried. For the first time in life, he felt desperate and helpless.

The sound of gunshots was still arising constantly and then came the sound of bombing. The whole building was trembling tremendously.

Then came the sound of footsteps in their room.

Xu covered her mouth, with tears dripping down her face; she did not dare utter a sound.

From the bottom of the bed they could see two pairs of boots, yet they did not dare to utter a sound, especially when they did not know who had come in.

Luckily, those people left after a brief check of the room.

A long while later, it felt as long as a few centuries, another sound of footsteps approached their room from outside.

A voice said that they were the police of F Land.

Jolin climbed out of the bed and gripped the police that were there to rescue them, and spoke to them in English.

"We have one person missing, have you found her?"

"This is her picture. She is a very famous movie star from Hua Land and she is here for the film festival."

The two policemen shook their heads, telling him that they could contact the police office, to see if whomever they were looking for, was among those that were rescued.

Jolin pointed at the bottom of the bed, telling them that there was one more person under the bed.

Then he hurried downstairs to see if his girl was among the rescued.

But she was not and the police officers did not find her either.

He was about to return to the hotel to search more, when the hotel was locked down by the police and he was no longer able to enter.

Jolin was looking for any information for his girl whilst calling Fu Shiyi like crazy.

He just hated himself for not saving the Boss's number.

Finally, when Fu Shiyi finished doing his program, he answered the call.

"What is it?! Always bothering me!"

Jolin's tears gushed out when the phone was answered.

"Mu Weiwei is missing, Third Master!"

Fu Shiyi was changing the clothes as he snorted.

"Must I find her for you when your girl is missing..."

"Our hotel was attacked by terrorists. I can't find her, not anywhere..."

Jolin was shaking and his voice was shivering too.

Fu Shiyi was startled for two seconds. "What... what terror attack?"

"Some gunned men entered the hotel and attacked the people there. They set off a bomb and it has caused a fire. We were not on the same floor when it happened, and I can't find her now." Jolin said in tears.

Fu Shiyi was listening, as he saw from the TV on the wall that a terror attack had occurred in the place near the film festival... in F Land.

As he watched the rescued guests from the hotel as well as the smoke-surrounded hotel building, he thought over what Jolin had just said

He suddenly felt that the sky was falling down.

Chapter 463: Mu Weiwei Gone Missing 2

In the meanwhile, a meeting was going on at the Headquarters of Fu's Enterprise.

It was Xu Qian who first noticed the news of the terror attack in F Land and he knocked on the meeting room door without hesitating.

"President Fu, a terror attack happened around the location of the film festival."

Fu Hanzheng looked cold. He grabbed the phone on the table and got up as he kept making the call.

He even forgot about that he was in the meeting.

But the call he made gave no answer, except for the mechanical voice.

"The phone you dialed is powered off."

Two calls in a row and the phone was still off.

On the other side, Fu Shiyi's call to Fu Hanzheng was interrupted by a busy tone, so he had to call Fu Shiqin instead.

Fu Shiqin heard the news from Xu Qian and was still startled.

That was where his sister-in-law was!

He was just thinking this when Fu Shiyi called.

He picked up the phone, as he was rushing out to find his elder brother.

“What is it? Do tell! I am occupied!”

“Can’t get through to our brother. Terror attack around the hotel where our sister-in-law is staying and her agent Jolin still has not found her...” Fu Shiyi said.

Fu Shiqin’s face sunk. “Why?”

She was his brother’s biggest treasure. If she was missing, no one else would be able to survive.

The top managers of Fu’s Enterprise looked at each other. The terror attack in F Land was a piece of important news but why was it related to the company?

President Fu’s face sank and he stopped the meeting immediately, he did not say a word about whether to carry on with the meeting either.

Then the Second Master received a call and his face changed too.

It was as if the whole sky was falling down.

Fu Shiqin was answering Fu Shiyi’s call as he rushed towards the elevator and saw his brother’s troubled face, he was suddenly feeling unwilling to tell him the truth.

But he had to tell him the news.

“Third Brother said that... the hotel sister-in-law stayed in had a terror attack and her agent has not found her yet...”

Fu Hanzheng’s lips pursed and he said, after a long silence, “I will leave the company to you. I need to go there now.”

Fu Shiqin nodded. “I will do it. Fu Shiyi is on the way here. He will go there with you.”

Instead of saying a word, Fu Hanzheng rushed into the car the moment the elevator door opened. Xu Qian was getting into the car as he called the crew members of the jet.

They should be ready for take off to F Land as soon as they arrive at the airport.

Standing by the parking lot, Fu Shiqin sighed deeply as he saw Fu Hanzheng’s car leaving.

Although he had wished that Mu Weiwei could be at home as little as possible, so that he could work a little less... he had never hoped that something like this would happen to her.

His brother said that they were getting married and he was in the process of selecting the best place for their wedding. He had even gotten Merlin to design her wedding gown.

If Mu Weiwei did not make it, what was his brother going to do for the rest of his life?

He took a deep breath, walked into the elevator and made a call to Fu Shiyi.

“Our brother is heading to the airport now. Follow him and keep your eyes open for him.”

He had never seen his brother adore someone so much and he hoped that God would not deprive his brother of the love of his life.

He would even stop eating desserts for the rest of his life and he could work overtime so the couple could have fun together, as long as his sister-in-law returned.

As long as she was here.

His brother had never desired anything more than he did Mu Weiwei, who was his first and only love.

Chapter 464: Mu Weiwei Gone Missing 3

Fu Shiyi rushed all the way to the airport in his sports car as if he were driving a jet and then he boarded with Fu Hanzheng.

Seeing his brother’s dark face, he consoled him with a forced smile.

“Brother, sister-in-law has always been very lucky. Nothing will happen to her!”

“It must be her dumb agent who can’t find her for the time being.”

....

However, despite whatever he said, Fu Hanzheng’s cold face gave no reaction. All he did was ask the crew members to take off as soon as possible.

It took three hours to fly from the capital to F Land.

That was the longest three hours of Fu Hanzheng’s life. He prayed to God that the moment he got off the plane, she would be waiting for him safe and sound, telling him that nothing happened.

Yet three hours later... the plane landed in F Land and nothing that followed was what he had expected to happen.

The two of them had just gotten off the plane, when Fu Shiyi received the call from Jolin.

Fu Shiyi asked. “Found her?”

Jolin was sobbing. He sounded as if he was unable to say a thing.

Fu Hanzheng grabbed Fu Shiyi’s phone and asked, “Where is she?”

Startled for one second, Jolin spoke softly.

“She is at Saint Martin’s Hospital.”

Lips pursed, Fu Hanzheng did not ask for the results after being silent for a moment.

“Got it, we will be there soon.”

He had intended to ask him but he was also afraid that the result was beyond what he could bear.

So he ended the call and asked the driver to head to the hospital.

Being in the same car, Fu Shiyi could sense that something wrong was going on, judging from what Jolin had said on the phone.

But he did not dare to make a call when facing his brother, so he texted him on the sly.

[What is it? Tell me so I can be prepared]

Soon Jolin replied.

[We found her and her... remains]

The last word made Fu Shiyi shiver. He dropped the phone.

He looked at his cold-faced brother sideways, not knowing what to do so that he did not have to face that horrible result.

But no matter what he could do, his brother was going to face the music anyways.

He had just met her the day before and now she was... gone.

Fu Shiyi picked up the phone and looked out of the window, hoping that the road to the hospital could last forever, so that no end came to them.

So that his brother did not have to face that terrible scene.

However, within an hour, they arrived at the hospital.

In the corridor of the hospital, Jolin was crying hard. When he saw Fu Hanzheng and the people following him, he stopped himself from shedding any more tears.

“Boss, Third Master...”

“Where is she?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

Pursing his lips, Jolin pointed at the room next to them.

Xu Qian directly went to talk with the doctor and the police, so two minutes later, the door was opened and they were let in.

The moment the door was opened, an air of coldness greeted their face. Fu Shiyi shivered.

But it was not Mu Weiwei who was lying on the sickbed but a cold corpse bag.

Police officers led them in, explaining what had happened at the hotel and said, “I am sorry that the woman you are looking for lost her life in this terror attack.”

“You must be wrong, what if it is not her!” Fu Shiyi said.

His brother had arranged for three men to keep her safe, how would she possibly die in this hour long terror attack?

Police officers looked at them and sighed with a pitiful tone.

“According to what Mr. Jolin had given to us, what we have found must be Miss. Mu.”

Standing by the corpse bag, Fu Hanzheng said with a deep voice, "Open it!"

Chapter 465: Mu Weiwei Gone Missing 4

The police officer and the doctor exchanged a look and the doctor said seriously, "Since she was found in the place where the bombing took place, she may look..."

Fu Hanzheng repeated with a cold voice. "Open it now."

Hearing the doctor's words, Fu Shiyi had expected that she must look horrible now.

"Please don't, Brother..."

Even he did not dare to take a look at the corpse, let alone his brother whose heart would be broken.

Fu Hanzheng still insisted. "Open it now!"

The doctor sighed, approached the bed and zipped open the bag, exposing the victim's body.

Then he took a step backwards.

Fu Shiyi threw a look at it and turned away, as tears started to gush out.

It was not the lovely Mu Weiwei who was joking with them yesterday. Due to the burning, she had lost her facial features and half of her body.

But judging from the height and the body-shape, she did resemble Mu Weiwei.

"Are you sure that it is her?"

The police officer looked at Fu Hanzheng and then at Fu Shiyi.

"We found something of hers, and Mr. Jolin confirmed that it belonged to her."

"Also, according to what Mr. Jolin had provided, we did the DNA test. She was... Miss. Mu Weiwei."

....

Fu Shiyi threw a look at his brother who had been silent all this time. He was still staring at the heavily-burned victim.

He was not furious or grieving.

But his eyes had no life in them at all, as if his soul had dissipated with only the empty torso facing him.

Before he met Mu Weiwei, he was also cold to everyone but not as dead-looking as he was now.

He tugged his jacket and said between sobs, "... Brother..."

After a few moments of silence, Fu Hanzheng said, "Get He Chi to come here, and he will do the DNA test."

He just could not believe that the girl he saw off at the airport, would have become like this now.

Fu Shiyi sighed. He still did not want to believe that it was Mu Weiwei.

Instead of giving him any more suggestions, he fell into silence too.

So he made a call to He Chi and asked him to do the DNA test here.

Honestly, he had wished that He Chi could come and tell everyone that this corpse was not Mu Weiwei at all.

In this way, they at least had a chance of finding the living girl.

Fu Shiyi had just finished the call with He Chi when Xu Qian came in from outside.

“President Fu, Lei Meng just called and said that the three men who were in charge of protecting Miss. Mu are missing.”

Fu Hanzheng frowned and looked cold.

“One hour, and I am going to meet the chief responsible for this incident.”

“I will talk with them now.” Xu Qian said.

It was their Mrs. President-to-be who was involved, so Boss would not be so easily convinced.

Hearing the words, Fu Shiyi followed Xu Qian and asked, “What does that mean?”

Xu Qian sighed and said, “If the group are attacking because of the film festival, they would not have chosen today to attack or even this hotel because tomorrow is the film festival and more chaos would arise if they chose tomorrow.”

Fu Shiyi looked serious. He was no longer as overcome with emotion.

“So the three men my brother arranged to keep her safe are now missing... do you mean that the terror attack was intended for her?”

Xu Qian nodded. “That is just a conjecture. We will need more information after speaking with the chief of F Land.”

Chapter 466: Brother's Girlfriend

Leaving the hospital, Xu Qian went to speak with the security department of F Land which was responsible for allowing the terror attack.

Fu Shiyi stood by Fu Hanzheng. His brother looked very calm.

Yet every time he saw the pair of eyes that had lost their life and color, he could not help but feel his heart tighten.

It was not until nighttime when Fu Shiqin finished all of the tasks, did he make a call to Fu Shiyi.

“What is going on? Did you find the girl?”

“What is He Chi going there for?”

Fu Shiyi sighed and said, "We found her but... she died in the bombing. Our brother doesn't believe that it was Mu Weiwei, nor does he trust the DNA test results, so he asked He Chi to come here to do the test for us."

"Died?" Fu Shiqin pulled the car over by the roadside and asked, "Didn't brother get three people to keep her safe? How could she have died?"

"The three bodyguards are missing! We are looking for them too." Fu Shiyi said unhappily.

Silent for a moment, Fu Shiqin asked, "How is our brother?"

That must have been a piece of news that broke them and his brother, who had been treating Mu Weiwei as his treasure, must be extremely sorrowful too.

Fu Shiyi threw a look at Fu Hanzheng and said, "He has lost his soul, of course he is doing terribly. What do you think will happen to our brother, if He Chi also confirms that the dead person is Mu Weiwei!?"

Fu Shiqin fell into silence too. How would he ever know what to do.

If Mu Weiwei was really gone, they would not be able to find another replacement for his brother at all.

Although they kept fighting with their brother all the time, it was no more than a joke. They had never expected to see him suffer from losing the love of his life.

"I will deal with whatever is happening with the company and you, keep an eye on our brother."

"Got it." Fu Shiyi replied.

Back in the capital city.

Fu Shiqin was seated in the car and watching the light twinkling out in the darkness. He was not feeling gleeful at all.

Although his brother kept showing off their love in front of him and leaving him all kinds of work to do, so that he himself could stay with his girlfriend... he had never wished that his brother and Mu Weiwei would be separated.

He had actually expected that they would get married soon and have children.

If something really happened to Mu Weiwei, he could not imagine how heart-broken his brother would be.

He checked the time and was about to leave to go home, when the phone rang again.

"Shiqin, come home to us now, please."

It was Fu Shengying who had been staying at home these years. He sounded very serious.

"Okay, I'm on it." Fu Shiqin ended the call and turned around, heading back to the Fu Family's mansion.

The moment he entered the mansion, he found that his parents were home from abroad and even grandma was here.

“The Qin Family just called and said that your brother is investigating the terror attack in F Land. What is it going on?”

The Fu Family was the most wealthy family in Hua Land and dealt with some business with the government but they never got involved with anything related to the country or the government at all.

Now that he was investigating the terror attack, he was getting himself involved with international politics.

“Dad, brother has his own reasons, don’t ask him these days.” Fu Shiqin said.

Some people from the Qin Family were working at the Foreign Affairs Office and they must have known about brother’s movements in F Land.

His brother was so anxious about Mu Weiwei.

They were not offering any help now but they should also not cause him any more trouble.

“When he took over the company, me and your grandma both proclaimed that the Fu Family only dealt with business, not with governmental affairs.”

Fu Shengying looked serious. The Fu Family just could not get involved with the sinister governmental affairs.

They made some calls to Fu Hanzheng but he had switched his phone off.

“Shiqin, if your brother gets involved with the terror attack and irritates the outlaws...”

Fu Shiqin sighed out of exhaustion. “Dad, mom and grandma, our brother truly has to be involved this time, just leave him alone, alright?”

“We are not trying to disturb him but it is a serious matter, the Fu Family must not get involved.” Fu Shengying said.

Fu Shiqin sighed deeply and said straightforwardly, “Something happened to his girlfriend in this terror attack. Do you think that you should stop him from investigating in this affair?”

Chapter 467: Mu Weiwei, the Girlfriend

“His girlfriend?” Mrs. Fu and Fu Shengying exchanged a look, looking startled.

When the Old Lady heard that, she shook and turned to Fu Shiqin.

“What happened?”

Her son and his wife did not know whom her eldest grandson was dating, yet she did.

So when Fu Shiqin said that something happened to Fu Hanzheng’s girlfriend, she knew that it was Mu Weiwei.

She had heard about the terror attack and she had been worried that the girl was also at the film festival.

Her calls hadn’t gone through, and now...

“Your brother’s girlfriend?”

Mrs. Fu was nervous. When she asked what was going on, he had mentioned that he would bring her home for wedding discussions. So that was the girl?

Fu Shiqin turned to the Old Lady and realized that it was not necessary to keep the secret any more.

“You’ve met her too. It is Mu Weiwei who used to live at our place.”

“Mu Weiwei?!” Mrs. Fu exclaimed.

So Mu Weiwei had always been the one her son had been dating all this time... But she had been driven out by him before!

“You’ve never liked her, so our brother never allowed us to tell you.” Fu Shiqin said.

Mrs. Fu could not believe it and so she mumbled, “How did your brother end up being with her? Why her?!”

She could accept it when he was in a relationship with anyone else, even if it was not Meng Ruya whom she liked. But why Mu Weiwei?

Fu Shiqin snorted at his mother.

“So now you don’t like her. You have been showing off to other people that your daughter-in-law brought presents for you before!”

“But I did not know they were from her!” Mrs. Fu said.

Although she seemed to have changed tremendously recently, if her son’s girlfriend was really her... she was still not that happy about it.

Old Lady interrupted their argument and asked, “What is going on now, has Weiwei been found?”

Fu Shiqin sighed deeply when he thought of the news.

“I talked with Third Brother on the way here. He said that she was killed in the attack but our brother doesn’t believe the DNA results, so he asked He Chi to go over there to do a new test.”

Fu Shengying’s face sank when he heard the words.

His eldest son was intelligent and mature. He did not seem to desire anything throughout his entire life, so he had been looking forward to meeting the girlfriend, whom he had intention of marrying.

He could tell that he had been quite happy to tell them the news.

All these years, she seemed to be the first person that had made him so joyful.

But if she was killed, what would happen to him?

After a long silence, Mrs. Fu asked, “How is your brother?”

“He is doing as well as he can, except that he is not his usual self. He was going to marry her but now she is gone!” Fu Shiqin said.

Old Lady felt her chest and could not catch her breath.

“This girl is having a very bad life!”

Her original family treated her terribly and when she was at the Fu Family, she was not treated well either and now, when she was finally with her eldest grandson, she was most likely dead.

“Mom!”

Mrs. Fu went to help the Old Lady up and asked the servant to bring her the medicine.

It was Old Lady who truly cared about Mu Weiwei in this family.

The Old Lady had been treating her as her own granddaughter, no matter whether she was the annoying girl back then or the pleasant mature one now.

Chapter 468: Mu Weiwei, the Girlfriend 2

The Old Lady was driven to the hospital, because she had heard about Mu Weiwei’s death in the terror attack.

Fu Shiqin and his parents went to the hospital. Luckily, she was not in a serious situation. After the intensive treatment, she was transferred to the ward.

Fu Shengying did not mention asking Fu Hanzheng to return. He turned to Fu Shiqin and asked, “Are you able to handle the company affairs alone?”

“Almost, although my brother has been supporting the company, I am not paid to do nothing either, right?” Fu Shiqin said.

Fu Shengying nodded and thought of what happened in F Land.

“Your brother...”

“Third Brother is keeping an eye out for him. He will tell me if anything happens. What you need to do is not ask our brother about anything! Just take care of grandma!” Fu Shiqin said straightforwardly.

Mrs. Fu sighed and said, as she checked the time, “Alright, it is very late. We can take care of grandma here, take a rest at home. You still have lots of affairs to deal with at the company.”

She had not been satisfied with Mu Weiwei as her son’s girlfriend, yet at this point she truly wished that she was still alive.

She did not know that her son’s girlfriend was her but she could tell that her son deeply liked this girl.

He was talking about marrying her, so apparently, they were greatly in love with each other.

If she was gone, she was worried that her son would not be able to bear the setback.

Actually, she thought about what happened in the recent days and realized that she was not that bad. It was just that she had not been a very understanding girl when she first came to the Fu Family.

She had seen her grow up to be a very mature person, as an actress in the film industry.

She had asked Fu Hanzheng to bring some gowns for her and grandma, which actually turned out to be quite caring and thoughtful.

Even if the terror attack had not happened and Hanzheng insisted on marrying her, she might feel a little bit uncomfortable but she would not stop them either.

The couple saw Fu Shiqin off the hospital and Mrs. Fu asked her husband, "Should we call Hanzheng?"

"Better not, let him handle the matter." Fu Shengying said.

Although he had no intention of letting the Fu Family get involved with politics, yet if he tried to stop him from looking into this matter, Hanzheng would not give up either.

Their son was suffering terribly right now. They better not cause him any more trouble. They decided to leave everything as it was until it was all solved.

In F Land.

Within two hours' time, Xu Qian managed to contact the Ambassador of Hua Land in F Land and met the security department that was responsible for investigating the terror attack.

He quickly brought over the Ambassador and the Deputy-Chief of the security department to the hospital, where they told Fu Hanzheng about the investigation results.

"Half of the gang have been killed and some are missing at large. We are certain that they belong to the same organization that started the same terror attack in the north many months ago."

Fu Hanzheng looked profound. "No one alive has been caught?"

"Most of them resisted capture and got killed and those who had no way out also killed themselves."

Fu Hanzheng said, "I hope that my men can be involved in the investigation, so that the people on the run can be caught as soon as possible."

"Sorry, Mr. Fu, we from the security department are responsible for this incident, which is related to our confidential information. You are not really allowed to get involved." The Deputy-Chief said.

Fu Hanzheng looked lethal as he said to the man, "My fiancée died in this attack. I must find out who on earth is involved."

"Mr. Fu, we are very sorry about your fiancée, but..."

Fu Hanzheng interrupted them. "If my men can't be involved, all cooperations between our company and F Land will be terminated now."

The Deputy-Chief exchanged a look with the Ambassador, who shook his head helplessly.

Fu's Enterprise was founded as a military enterprise and F Land was an allied land with Hua Land, which had just received two military development techniques from Fu's Enterprise. If the cooperation was terminated, not only the development of weapons but also other industries would be affected.

"Mr. Fu, your men are only allowed to investigate this incident."

Chapter 469: Ling Yan was Wounded

Seeing that they approved of their investigation, Xu Qian called Lei Meng and his men who had just come to F Land.

After telling them what Fu Hanzheng expected, the Deputy Chief came up to him.

“President Fu, the three bodyguards were found. Two were killed, one seriously injured and is yet to wake up in the hospital.”

Fu Hanzheng’s face turned dark. “What else?”

“One was killed at the back-door of the hotel, one was attacked in the car and is the one who is badly injured in the hospital, the last one was on the same floor with Miss. Mu Weiwei. They might have tried to get her away but failed.” Xu Qian reported to him the information he had just received.

Fu Shiyi was startled. Now he finally understood why an assistant like Xu Qian was getting the same salary as Fu Shiqin, the Deputy President.

He used only two hours to deal with the security department and the Embassy, whilst getting the investigation report. Those were not the tasks that were likely to be done so rapidly, by very many people.

“How much longer before He Chi arrives?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

Fu Shiyi checked the time. “One more hour before he lands.”

Although the deceased was thoroughly bombed and the face was ruined, her body-shape resembled Mu Weiwei and she was holding her things too. Even the DNA test showed that it was her.

His brother still could not believe that it was Mu Weiwei.

What if He Chi’s test showed that Mu Weiwei was the deceased after all, what was he going to do?

Having heard the words, Fu Hanzheng turned to Xu Qian.

“Any cluey with the CCTV around the hotel?”

“All are ruined, impossible to be repaired.” Xu Qian said.

Fu Hanzheng asked. “Same situation for the terror attack in the North?”

Xu Qian said, “Nope.”

Fu Hanzheng’s face sank as he said, “The attackers did not pick the film festival day but one day before and they chose to attack the hotel and destroy the CCTV cameras in the neighbourhood... is that a real terror attack or something else?”

Although the gangs were the same, yet the situations looked very illogical.

Also, the three bodyguards he arranged for her were very experienced retired soldiers.

They could not have been killed in one go, if it had been a pure accident.

Unless their enemies were more skilled or better prepared, so that they attacked them on purpose..

“We are checking the cameras along the streets of the hotel but we still need time.” Xu Qian said.

Boss did not believe that Mu Weiwei was the victim but even if the whole matter was strange, it still could not exclude the possibility that Mu Weiwei might be the victim.

Maybe the attackers were out for her, so they just ruined the cameras so they would not be found.

That was what he was thinking, something he could not possibly say, so as to make him feel any better.

He had been his assistant for years and he knew him well. It would not work to comfort him, no matter what he said now.

What he was supposed to do was to find out whatever he needed and to tell him the results as fast as he could.

It depended totally on the Boss if he could accept the results or not. They could not possibly control his mind.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and asked, “Anyone from the Gu Family here?”

Xu Qian said, “Gu Siting and Ling Yan are here for the festival too but they were attacked in the hotel too. Ling Yan was injured too but not terribly wounded. Gu Siting’s most trustworthy man, Kuroda Shio, also raised the proposal that the terrorists should be caught.”

Fu Hanzheng asked. “Where is Gu Siting?”

Xu Qian thought for a while and said, “He has gone home with Ling Yan.”

Chapter 470: Not Mu Weiwei

He Chi arrived at the hospital at three in the morning.

He received Fu Shiyi’s call and knew that something had happened to Mu Weiwei and he was expected to bring the DNA test kit to this place. He had no idea what was going on.

The moment he arrived at the hospital, he saw Fu Hanzheng and Fu Shiyi, as well as the Ambassador of Hua Land, in F Land.

“Why such a hurry, what should I check?”

Fu Hanzheng looked at the dead body in the corpse bag and said, “I want you to check if she is... Weiwei.”

He Chi, who was putting on the gloves, stiffened and slowly turned to look at the man who spoke.

He was telling him to check if this ruined body was... Mu Weiwei?!

He had wanted to ask for more information, when Xu Qian came over to Fu Hanzheng and reported the latest development.

He Chi put on some gloves and a mask, looked at the deceased and then at Fu Shiyi.

“What is going on? It feels like I am dreaming?!”

Fu Shiyi said, “A terror attack happened at the hotel where Mu Weiwei stayed for the film festival and the police and the hospital said that this body is her but my brother doesn’t believe it, so he got you to come here.”

No one wished for the deceased to be Mu Weiwei but judging from the things of this person, it was Mu Weiwei.

He Chi felt a bit sad too when he heard the words. He looked in Fu Hanzheng’s direction.

“What result should I give to him... should this be her, or not?”

Fu Hanzheng would go mental if he told him that it was Mu Weiwei.

But if he denied her identity, where would he find the girl?

“The authentic result.” Fu Shiyi said.

“What if it is really her, your brother will turn mental.” He Chi whispered.

They had both witnessed how dearly Fu Hanzheng adored this girl.

Fu Shiyi looked at his own brother and said, “Are you able to lie to him? How long do you think the lie can stand?”

Without a living Mu Weiwei at his side, his brother would never believe whatever they said.

He Chi looked at the deceased and sighed deeply.

“Hopefully, your brother’s instinct is right and this is not her.”

Fu Shiyi was silent. No one wished that it was her.

He Chi opened his own box and started to work.

“I need a lab where I can do the test.”

Fu Shiyi said, “Everything is ready. You can join Jolin after you get the sample. He will take you there.”

He Chi got the sample and put it away carefully, feeling extremely heavy hearted.

“The results will come in three hours.”

Hopefully, it was not the result they had all feared.

Seeing off He Chi, Fu Shiyi brought over some water and food.

“Brother, drink some water and eat something. You have to take good care of yourself when awaiting the result.”

Fu Hanzheng took the water but did not drink it. Instead, he was staring at the cold corpse bag with a pair of dead eyes.

He kept telling himself inwardly that it was not her and that it could not be her but he just couldn't help but feel horror spreading in the deepest corner of his heart.

If the terror attack had not been an accident, then she must have been the target.

Then it would have been him who caused her death because being with him must have been the original reason.

Standing by his side, Fu Shiyi was trying hard to think of something to say to make his brother feel better.

But he realized that no matter what he said, it would not work.

Because apart from Mu Weiwei, nothing seemed to be able to brighten him up.

And Mu Weiwei was not here.
