

MY HIDDEN 521

Chapter 521: Leave It to Me

In the capital city of Hua Land.

Early in the morning, Gu Weiwei was woken up by lingering kisses and she happily snuggled deeper into Fu Hanzheng's arms.

"Going to the company?"

Her sleepy voice sounded lazy and charming, making the man, who was about to get up and go to work, feel his heart skip a beat.

"In a while."

Under the thin blanket, he held the woman in his arms with one hand and touched her sensitive spots with the other.

Sensing the man's intention, Gu Weiwei grabbed his hands angrily.

"Aren't you going to work?"

"No hurry, we still have time." Fu Hanzheng chuckled and kissed her.

What he meant was that he had time to do something else before work...

Gu Weiwei was gradually softened by his kisses and her already naked body made it easier for the man to do whatever he wanted.

They were just in the middle of a passionate moment when Fu Hanzheng's phone rang.

She panted and reminded him. "...Phone call."

Fu Hanzheng's sweaty face was full of passion and love.

"Focus."

As he said this, he became even more aggressive.

The phone was still ringing non-stop but Gu Weiwei was too distracted to care about it.

When the man was finally satisfied, she lay on the bed, flushed and sweating.

He had spent the entire night with her and yet he still did not let her go.

She couldn't even do anything and was barely able to move her waist.

Fu Hanzheng got up, took a shower and got changed. He was dressed in a dark business suit with a matching tie and cufflinks.

He looked sexy and totally different from when he was in bed.

“Going out today?” Fu Hanzheng put on his watch and glanced at the girl in bed.

“Yuan Shuo is having his surgery today, I need to go to the hospital.” Gu Weiwei replied with squinted eyes.

She had not been able to sleep well at night and she had been forced to exert a lot of energy early in the morning because of him.

She thought that she had better get back to work as soon as possible, so that she didn't have to be at home all the time..

Fu Hanzheng nodded. “I may be home late, don't wait for me to have dinner.”

After resting at home for a few days, he would have tons of work to deal with at the company.

“Got it.”

Gu Weiwei just wanted him to work overtime for the entire night, her small body could not stand being put under so much pressure.

After Fu Hanzheng was done, he approached the bed and kissed her on the cheek, before leaving the room in satisfaction.

When he arrived at the company, Fu Shiqin could not help but feel furious when he saw his brother, who was late by almost an hour.

“I told you yesterday that I have an important meeting this morning. Why didn't you answer my call?”

Fu Hanzheng glanced at him. “I was very busy.”

When he called, he was indeed... very busy.

Fu Shiqin was so annoyed. He had been idling at home for days and yet he still had the cheek to say that he was busy.

What was he busy with other than flirting with Mu Weiwei?

Fu Hanzheng walked straight into the meeting room. “We are now having a meeting, let's start.”

Fu Shiqin followed him into the meeting room and asked Xu Qian to start the meeting.

Then he sat down and texted Fu Shiyi and He Chi.

[Don't you think that our brother has been too arrogant recently?]

Fu Shiyi: [You are right! He's way too arrogant, I can't stand it anymore.]

He Chi: [What about... Yuan Bao?]

Fu Shiqin threw a look at his elder brother who was in a very good mood.

He replied in the group chat: [Yes!]

Fu Shiyi: [We'll have the last laugh!]

Chapter 522: No Sex

At Landscape Villa.

After Fu Hanzheng left, Gu Weiwei slept for another two hours before getting up to have breakfast.

Then she drove to He Chi's hospital.

Instead of going to the ward, she visited He Chi and asked him about the chances of recovery and how long it would take.

He Chi was in a hurry to do the ward rounds, so he asked her to wait in his office.

She walked around the office and looked out of the window. Then she saw someone downstairs who looked like Yuan Meng, so she opened the window and took a closer look. It was indeed Yuan Meng.

She was meeting with a foreigner and she kept looking around, as if she was trying to avoid being seen.

If she had not been in He Chi's office, she would not have been able to see them.

She had been waiting in He Chi's office for more than twenty minutes, when He Chi finally came back from his ward rounds.

"Luckily, Yuan Shuo is married and has a wife and a child. Otherwise, what would have happened to him because you care so much about him?"

"Can't you just cut the crap and get straight to the point?" Gu Weiwei urged.

"Can't I be curious?" He Chi mumbled as he leafed through Yuan Shuo's medical reports. "She came to see him behind Fu Hanzheng's back again and is so concerned about the operation too. I can't believe that she has never mentioned this to anyone before."

"What is there to talk about?" Gu Weiwei squinted at him.

He Chi, Fu Shiqin and Fu Shiyi treated her well because of Fu Hanzheng.

There were many things that she could not mention to Fu Hanzheng, let alone them.

After reading the report, He Chi said, "The operation will start soon, and the chances of recovery are quite high. Not to mention I, the surgeon, am a miracle doctor."

"Can he recover fully with treatment?" Gu Weiwei asked.

Yuan Shuo was a martial arts practitioner and if his ability to function was reduced, it would greatly affect him.

"Of course! If he can't recover, I will chop off my legs and reattach them, alright?" He Chi said confidently.

Hearing his words, Gu Weiwei felt somewhat relieved.

"Then I will go and take a look."

He Chi saw her off and went to prepare for the operation.

When Gu Weiwei arrived at the ward, she bumped into Yuan Meng, who seemed to have something on her mind.

“Where are you going?”

Yuan Meng pointed upstairs. “To the rooftop to smoke.”

Gu Weiwei followed her up. “Trouble?”

She had always been indecent and so it was rare to see her looking so serious.

Then she thought of the man she had met with downstairs and guessed that he must have run into some trouble.

“Nothing, just that Yuan Shuo has been hospitalized recently. Yuan Bao might need your help.”

“Don’t worry about it, the Fu Family likes him.” Gu Weiwei said.

Mrs. Fu and the others were addicted to playing as grandparents, so they were very happy to have Yuan Bao with them.

With Yuan Bao around, they would no longer urge her and Fu Hanzheng to have children.

Yuan Meng nodded but she still looked worried.

Gu Weiwei said, “If you have any troubles, just tell me. If I can’t help you, I can ask Fu Hanzheng.”

Whenever she was in trouble, Yuan Meng and Master would always help her without hesitation.

She also hoped that she could help them when they needed help.

Yuan Meng blew out the smoke and smiled.

“I will not be able to have a s*x life for a long time, after Master’s surgery. Why would I ask your Uncle Fu for help?”

Chapter 523: Fu Hanzheng’s Enemy

Gu Weiwei gritted her teeth. Why did she bother asking her?

This female hooligan! There was no way she could possibly have a pleasant conversation with her.

Yuan Meng finished the cigarette and put her arm over her shoulders out of habit.

“Let’s go, Master’s surgery is going to start soon.”

Gu Weiwei was still worried, so she asked again, “Are you really not in trouble?”

“All I have is a problem with my s*x life. Are you going to lend me your man?” Yuan Meng was still carrying on without any moral principles.

Gu Weiwei shook off her arm. “Forget it.”

They returned to Yuan Shuo's ward and He Chi came with his team and pushed him into the operation room.

The surgery lasted for two hours and was completed without complications.

She stayed at the hospital until the afternoon and said goodbye to Yuan Shuo and Yuan Meng.

She had just gotten into the car when a call from the Fu Family's mansion arrived.

"Weiwei, Yuan Bao wants to see you, can you look after him for a day or two?"

Hearing Mrs. Fu's voice, Gu Weiwei remembered that Yuan Shuo had just finished having an operation and it was not convenient for them to take care of the child.

"Okay, I will pick him up now."

Weren't they still happy at playing grandparents?

She had agreed to take Yuan Bao back but then she thought of Fu Hanzheng and she started to worry.

She left the hospital and went straight to the old mansion. The moment she parked the car, Mrs. Fu came out with Yuan Bao.

"This child kept asking for you."

Yuan Bao came over and hugged her legs.

"Wife, Yuan Bao misses you."

At first, everyone corrected him, but gradually they got used to it and did not bother to correct him anymore.

Gu Weiwei picked up Yuan Bao who had gained some weight at the Fu Family's mansion and said to Mrs. Fu, "Then I will take care of him for two days. I will bring him back the day after tomorrow."

"No need, we will pick him up the day after tomorrow." Mrs. Fu was very friendly. Seeing that she was about to carry the child into the car, she said quickly, "Wait a minute, get someone to put the safety seat in and then let the child sit in the car."

Having said these words, she asked a servant to bring over the safety seat and put it in the car.

Only then did Gu Weiwei put Yuan Bao into the car and Mrs. Fu put his teddy bear backpack and the luggage next to him.

"Call me if you need anything."

Shiyi was right. They should get to know what it was like to have children as soon as possible, so that they could have their own children sooner.

"Okay." Gu Weiwei said goodbye to Mrs. Fu and went back with Yuan Bao.

She had been thinking about how to tell Fu Hanzheng about it.

Recently, he had been especially against children, especially Yuan Bao who had been living with the Fu Family.

They returned to the villa and ate dinner together.

She spent an hour watching cartoons with Yuan Bao before taking him upstairs to wash his face, brush his teeth and take a shower according to Mrs. Fu's instructions.

The little boy was very obedient when he was with her and she did not have to worry about him.

Fu Hanzheng did not return until nine p.m., when he heard a sound coming from the bedroom.

"Don't move, dry your hair."

"Stop playing around, we are getting dressed."

...

Hearing her voice, Fu Hanzheng cautiously walked in.

It sounded like she was taking a shower and talking to someone.

"Weiwei?"

He had just called out when the bathroom door opened and Gu Weiwei came out with Yuan Bao, who had just taken a shower and was wrapped in a towel.

Fu Hanzheng threw a look at her and then at Yuan Bao in her arms and felt as if he had met his natural enemy. His face sank.

"Why is he here again?"

Chapter 524: Fu Hanzheng's Enemy 2

"..."

Startled for two seconds, Gu Weiwei put Yuan Bao onto the bed and helped him put on his pajamas.

The little boy had a round belly, which made the bear on his pajamas look very round and cute.

"Yuan Shuo had an operation today and Yuan Bao can't be looked after by them for now, so I will take care of him for two days."

"There are so many people taking care of him at the old mansion, isn't that enough?"

Fu Hanzheng looked displeased as he stared at Yuan Bao, who was standing on the bed.

"Aunt asked me to bring him here." Gu Weiwei had finished dressing Yuan Bao and was now wiping his wet hair with a towel.

Fu Hanzheng lifted his phone and made a call to Fu Shiyi. "Come here and take the child home."

"Our mother has not been feeling well these days, so you and sister-in-law can take care of the child." Fu Shiyi said.

What a joke! He had spent so much energy and time in convincing his mother to send the child to them.

He had done it so that Yuan Bao could deal with his arrogant older brother and had made sure that he would not be able to send the child away.

Surely enough, his brother could not stand seeing Yuan Bao, after coming home from work.

Hearing the unhappy tone of his voice, he could only imagine how terrible his brother must be feeling.

But he would not pity him.

“Then you can take care of him.” Fu Hanzheng said straightforwardly.

“No way! Because sister-in-law is having a break, I need to go to work and do the preparations for the movie. I am very busy.” Fu Shiyi resolutely turned down his brother’s request.

Seeing that the call to Fu Shiyi was unfruitful, Fu Hanzheng made a call to Fu Shiqin instead.

But Fu Shiqin, who was working overtime at the company, turned down his request too.

He hung up and saw that Gu Weiwei had finished drying the child’s hair and was telling Yuan Bao a bedtime story.

“He is sleeping here tonight?”

Gu Weiwei threw a look at him. “He is too young to sleep by himself.”

Hearing their conversation, Yuan Bao angrily said to Fu Hanzheng, “Yuan Bao wants to sleep with his wife!”

Hearing his words, Fu Hanzheng’s face sank.

“Send him to stay with the servants, they will take care of him.”

He could not tolerate the fact that there was one more person in their bed, even though he was just a three-year-old child.

“You are an adult, why do you keep picking on a three-year-old?”

Gu Weiwei glanced at him – Yuan Bao was only going to stay here for two days.

If he was so against children, what would happen when they had their own children?

“He’s ruined our relationship.” Fu Hanzheng said.

What could go on between them if this little annoyance was here?

As long as he was here, she would only care about that little annoyance.

Seeing them talking with one another, Yuan Bao protested at being excluded.

“Wife, story!”

Gu Weiwei said to Fu Hanzheng, “Go to the study, I will talk with you after I put him to sleep.”

“...” Fu Hanzheng gritted his teeth and threw a look at Yuan Bao who had occupied their bed.

In the end, he decided to focus on his work in the study.

On the other side of things, Fu Shiqin, Fu Shiyi and He Chi were in a heated conversation.

Fu Shiyi: [Should we have a drink to celebrate Yuan Bao’s success?]

Fu Shiqin: [Of course, I am on my way, I’ll bring a good bottle of wine.]

He Chi: [Captain, you are so smart!]

Fu Shiyi: [Since when am I not smart?]

The three of them could already imagine how devastated Fu Hanzheng must have been, when he saw Yuan Bao at home.

After fighting with him for so many years, they had finally found his natural enemy.

Chapter 525: Boyfriend

Finally, Gu Weiwei finished the bedtime story for Yuan Bao and he fell asleep.

The thought of having to deal with the boyfriend waiting for her in the study, made her sigh from tiredness.

She covered Yuan Bao with the blanket and quietly left the bedroom. She went downstairs to get a bowl of porridge and brought it to the study.

“You probably didn’t eat much for dinner, so I saved some for you.”

Fu Hanzheng glanced at her and continued on with his work.

He was too angry to eat.

“Angry?”

“No.”

Fu Hanzheng leafed through the files and even though he said that he was not angry, he looked rather annoyed.

Gu Weiwei felt both annoyed and amused. A man who was almost 30 years old was getting jealous of a three-year-old.

She went around behind his chair, wrapped her arms around his neck and rubbed her face against his cheek.

“Really?”

Fu Hanzheng glanced at her sideways. “Mother asked you to bring him here?”

He frowned. Before they were even married, his mother was urging them to have a child.

Gu Weiwei rested her chin on his shoulder and gloomily said, "You don't want us to experience what it is like to be parents in advance. You don't like Yuan Bao, which makes me think that you don't want to see us have children either..."

"Don't worry about what my family thinks, we can get married and then think about having children." Fu Hanzheng said.

He did not want them to have a child just because his family was urging them to.

He had not expected it but the more he thought about it, the more he felt that the child was affecting their relationship.

He hoped that she would only have eyes for him.

If she had another little person, who knew if she would care more about the child or him?

"Uncle Fu, you are my favorite child, alright?"

These words made Fu Hanzheng, who had been feeling depressed for more than an hour, feel better.

"He can stay here today but he must be sent back tomorrow."

"But auntie asked me to take care of him for two days?" Gu Weiwei gave him an ingratiating smile and asked, "Can't he stay for one more day?"

"No."

Fu Hanzheng resolutely objected. One night was already the limit of his tolerance.

"But auntie said that she hasn't been feeling well these past few days, so who is going to look after him if I don't?" Gu Weiwei asked.

Fu Hanzheng said, "Fu Shiyi."

Recently, that guy kept visiting the old mansion and had bought many things for that little annoyance.

Maybe he was the one who had asked his mother to send the child over to them.

Last time when he had sent the child he had also been gloating. Maybe the three of them, Shiyi, Shiqin and He Chi, were gloating right now.

Gu Weiwei said, "But Fu Shiyi is going to the company tomorrow to prepare for the movie."

Fu Hanzheng frowned. "You really want to spend time with him?"

"If you don't like seeing him, I can take him to the apartment and come back the day after tomorrow." Gu Weiwei suggested helplessly.

Fu Hanzheng took a deep breath. "Two days. Only two days."

Hearing him concede, Gu Weiwei kissed his face with a smile.

"Then... can I make a small request?"

Fu Hanzheng asked, "What is it?"

Gu Weiwei smiled brightly. "Can you not be so fierce to him for these next two days?"

Fu Hanzheng said, "I have that expression on my face for everyone, except you."

Letting him stay here for two days was already the biggest compromise he could make, yet she still wanted him to treat the boy nicely?

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and agreed.

Forget it, he was not going to make things difficult for him. He just needed Yuan Bao to not appear in front of him.

He had been very busy with work these days, so when he came back from the company, Yuan Bao should almost be asleep.

Chapter 526: Termination

Yuan Bao was asleep and Fu Hanzheng was working in the study, so she stayed with him and edited the script.

She had just urged Fu Hanzheng to finish the porridge, when Lei Meng made a call and said he would arrive at the villa within half an hour.

"I just received news that Cayman Dorrans and the Gu Family have terminated all cooperation with one another."

Gu Weiwei, who was editing the script, suddenly stopped writing.

After they had returned from A land, they had taken two days off at home and spent every single day with each other. The last few days were so sweet that she had almost forgotten what she had experienced at the Gu Family.

Fu Hanzheng was not surprised to hear the news. He said to Lei Meng, as he leafed through the files, "It seems that what Yuan Shuo said is true."

Cayman Dorrans terminated the cooperation with the Gu Family, which was expected.

But this news... was not going to help him.

Lei Meng said, "According to the informant in A Land, Cayman Dorrans is investigating Gu Weiwei's death and he seems to be looking for Yuan Shuo. Should we interfere?"

Yuan Shuo was staying at the Fu Family and if Cayman Dorrans' people came to find him, he needed to know if Fu Hanzheng would release him or not.

Fu Hanzheng looked up and threw a look at the girl sitting on the sofa opposite him.

"We must keep them safe."

Actually, it was not wise to antagonize the Dorrans Family for Yuan Shuo's sake but if he left her alone to deal with it, she would definitely do something about it.

So even though he knew that it was a troublesome matter, he still took it upon himself.

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips. Could it be that because Yuan Shuo failed to protect her, Cayman Dorrans now saw him as responsible for her death?

But Yuan Shuo had tried his best to save her and had almost lost his life.

However, if the Dorrans Family insisted on finding Yuan Shuo, then Fu Hanzheng would have to protect them.

Lei Meng said, "But..."

They did save Miss. Mu but it was not easy for the Fu Family to put up a front against the Dorrans Family, just because of them.

Without saying a word, Fu Hanzheng threw a look at him, indicating that he should not say anything more.

Lei Meng sighed and said, "One more thing, after Gu Weiwei died, she was hidden in the Gu Family and I heard that her heart was given to Ling Yan, Gu Siting's fiancée."

Fu Hanzheng frowned. "Heart transplant?"

Lei Meng nodded and explained.

"Ling Yan has always had a heart disease and she has a very rare Bombay blood type. There was never a heart available that could be transplanted and Gu Weiwei also happened to have a Bombay blood type. So after she died, she gave her heart to Ling Yan."

Fu Hanzheng pursed his lips and said, after thinking for a while, "What a coincidence!"

Ling Yan needed a Bombay blood type heart and Gu Weiwei's death gave her the Bombay blood type heart.

Lei Meng said, "It must have been a coincidence. Gu Siting would not have killed Cayman Dorrans's daughter, just to save Ling Yan and then cause so much trouble for the Gu Family. Also, Gu Weiwei once signed the organ donation letter..."

Gu Weiwei's hand trembled as she held the pen. She had signed the donation letter but Ling Yan did not transplant her heart after she died but when she was still alive.

She must have been looking forward to her death, ever since she signed the letter.

Chapter 527: Yuan Shuo and Yuan Meng

Fu Hanzheng was talking with Lei Meng and did not notice the subtle change in her expression.

Cayman Dorrans had terminated his cooperation with the Gu Family, so it was time to deal with the Gu Family.

But if Cayman Dorrans wanted to find Yuan Shuo, they had to deal with this problem first.

"Could Yuan Shuo have been involved in Gu Weiwei's death?"

Yuan Shuo was supposed to be Cayman Dorrans's trusted aide but he did not report to Cayman Dorrans about Gu Weiwei's death.

Instead, he had snuck into Hua Land, which was very suspicious.

Lei Meng said, "More accurately... it is Yuan Meng."

Startled, Gu Weiwei turned to Lei Meng. "You mean... Yuan Meng?"

Lei Meng turned around and looked at her. He knew that Fu Hanzheng never withheld anything from her, so he said straightforwardly, "Yuan Meng is not from the Yuan Family. Her real name is Jiang Se and she is from the Anderson Family, which is the enemy of the Dorrans Family."

Gu Weiwei's hand that was holding the pen shook. She thought of how Yuan Meng had met the foreigner at the hospital and how she had kept silent, when she asked her if she was in trouble.

But how could it be her?

They had known each other for years and they had been through life and death situations together. How could she harm her?

Fu Hanzheng looked at her. "Weiwei?"

Gu Weiwei came back to herself, restrained her emotions and said, "I... I just didn't expect..."

Seeing that she was fine, Fu Hanzheng continued to talk with Lei Meng.

"Gu Weiwei was assassinated by the Anderson Family, so... maybe Yuan Meng approached Yuan Shuo and found out about Gu Weiwei's real identity, so she gave the Anderson Family the information?"

Lei Meng said, "According to the current information, that is indeed the case. Also, even if Yuan Shuo is not involved, he might know something..."

Otherwise he would not have run away to Hua Land with Yuan Meng after Gu Weiwei was stabbed.

"Impossible!" Gu Weiwei interrupted Lei Meng and turned pale.

Master and Yuan Meng would never harm her. If they did, they would have had numerous opportunities before the assassination.

Seeing that she was not in a good mindset, Fu Hanzheng said to Lei Meng,

"You can go back first, let me know if there are any other developments."

Lei Meng nodded and left the study.

Fu Hanzheng put down his work, got up and approached her, putting his arms around her shoulders.

"Weiwei, you may know them, but you may not know them that well."

He had thought that she knew about these things and that was why she had met them in secret and refused to reveal anything about them.

So the truth was that she had no idea.

Gu Weiwei was totally confused by the shocking news. The voice in her heart told her to trust them but what she knew now, told her that they were really involved.

Seeing her expression changing, Fu Hanzheng caressed her head, feeling sorry for her.

“Forget it, don’t think about it. What they did in the past has nothing to do with you.”

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips – it had nothing to do with her?! It had everything to do with her!

Fu Hanzheng took her into his arms and said with a gentle voice, “Now, if Cayman Dorrans is going to track them down, are you going to protect them or just leave them alone? Think about it and tell me.”

It was all because of her that he asked them to stay at the Fu Family and continued to protect them.

He understood her personality too well. If she stopped caring about them, he would do the same because he did not want her to become involved in these dangerous matters.

Chapter 528: Thank You for Liking Me

Yuan Shuo and Yuan Meng were involved in the assassination, which made Gu Weiwei feel totally confused.

During the years when Gu Siting distanced himself from her, they were the ones who had kept her company, did fun things with her and did many incredible things with her.

But now he was telling her that they were involved in the assassination that had almost cost her, her life...

Seeing her expression, Fu Hanzheng said, “If it is not convenient for you, leave it to me...”

If they were really involved, then they should stay at the Fu Family and be with her.

But if Cayman Dorrans insisted on finding them and pursuing the matter, she would be in danger too.

Gu Weiwei came back to herself and shook her head.

“Now... currently everything is just hearsay and speculation. It is not fair to make a conclusion based on these things.”

She might not have been able to see through people before but now she could tell who was truly nice to her.

If they really wanted to hurt her, Yuan Shuo would not have accompanied her out of worry for her safety.

She could not suspect them and jump to conclusions, just because of bits and pieces of information.

She should at least ask them what had happened.

Fu Hanzheng looked at her for a moment. “So... you are still going to help them?”

The existence of these two people would undoubtedly bring great danger.

Gu Weiwei said, "If it is not convenient for them to stay at the Fu Family, I can think up something with them..."

This was a matter between her and Yuan Shuo and she did not want to bring trouble to him and the Fu Family because of them.

Fu Hanzheng looked cold and said, "I am just asking you, are you going to help them or not, so that the Fu Family can continue to protect them? If you don't want to do anything about it, then we won't either."

It would be very troublesome to protect them from Cayman Dorrans but if she wanted to help them, he would not turn her request down.

Gu Weiwei looked at him with pursed lips and chuckled.

"Aren't you afraid that I am actually in the wrong by wanting to help them?"

Fu Hanzheng said, "You can do whatever you want, I don't care about right or wrong."

"Then what do you care about?" Gu Weiwei asked with raised eyebrows.

Fu Hanzheng brushed her hair behind her ears and looked down at the girl's shining eyes.

"All I care about is whether you are happy or not."

Oh yes, as long as she was happy.

If she was wrong, he could handle it.

Hearing the words, Gu Weiwei smiled sweetly.

"Anything?"

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while. "No cheating."

Gu Weiwei chuckled and threw herself into his arms.

"Fu Hanzheng, what if I am not worthy of your love?"

Fu Hanzheng kissed her forehead. "Do you need to consider whether it is worth it or not, when you like someone?"

"But most people care about the gains and losses and also weigh them up in their relationships." Gu Weiwei whispered.

Most people would do whatever it takes for someone they liked because they knew that they could get something in return.

But Fu Hanzheng, the smartest businessman in Hua Land, always forgot about such things when it came to love.

Fu Hanzheng smiled as he held the petite girl in his arms.

"When you truly like someone, you don't care about anything else, apart from liking them."

Gu Weiwei wrapped her arms around this man who was so gentle to her. "Fu Hanzheng, thank you for liking me so much."

She had been stabbed and ended up staying in the hospital for months and when she woke up, her heart was then dug out and she was thrown into a dark and cold abyss.

Although Mu Weiwei was reborn, she had no other thoughts apart from hatred.

But the appearance of this man had truly illuminated her world.

He pulled her up from the dark and cold abyss, taking care of her and treating her gently...

Chapter 529: Kiss

In the study, there was a gentle silence.

Suddenly, the sound of a child crying arose from the master bedroom and Gu Weiwei released her hold on Fu Hanzheng.

"Yuan Bao is awake."

Fu Hanzheng pursed his lips and saw Yuan Bao running into the study barefooted.

"Wife, you weren't there, I was scared..."

Gu Weiwei picked up Yuan Bao who was crying and patted his back, as she looked at the man who was looking very displeased.

"How about... I take him to bed first?"

Fu Hanzheng felt very annoyed, when he saw his girlfriend turning around and hugging the little annoyance.

"Go."

Gu Weiwei left the study with Yuan Bao who was sobbing on her shoulders and put him down in the bedroom.

But when she thought of what she had heard from Lei Meng and Fu Hanzheng, she lost all desire to sleep.

After finishing his work, Fu Hanzheng returned to the bedroom and found that she was still awake.

Thinking that she might still be worried about Yuan Shuo, he asked, "Are you going to the hospital tomorrow?"

He had no idea why she was so sure that those two people were not involved but he knew she would definitely ask them about it.

"Instead of coming up with so many ideas as to what happened, why not ask them about it instead?" Gu Weiwei said.

Fu Hanzheng went to take a shower and changed into his pajamas. Then he laid down and reached out for her, to hold her in his arms out of habit, only to find Yuan Bao between them.

“Can’t we go somewhere else?”

“He will fall off the bed if we do.” Gu Weiwei said.

Fu Hanzheng looked at her over Yuan Bao’s head. “Then how am I supposed to sleep?”

“You can sleep however you like, just as you did before.” Gu Weiwei said with amusement.

Ha! Could he not fall asleep without her as a human pillow?

So if she was not at home, he did not sleep?

Fu Hanzheng sighed deeply. It was a good thing that Yuan Bao was not his son because then he could send him away in a couple of days.

Gu Weiwei had not slept well the entire night because she had been thinking about Yuan Shuo and Yuan Meng.

Fu Hanzheng did not sleep well because of Yuan Bao who was in the middle. That little annoyance kept spinning around in bed, like a spinning top, and had even kicked his chin.

He had tried his best to be patient by not throwing him off the bed but after tolerating him for one night, Yuan Bao challenged his patience again.

“Wife, Yuan Bao wants eggs.”

“Wife, Yuan Bao wants some buns.”

...

Whatever he wanted, Gu Weiwei would feed him and serve him well.

Fu Hanzheng, who was sitting opposite them, looked very displeased.

Gu Weiwei picked up a steamed dumpling and put it on his plate. “Eat up, you are late for work.”

After breakfast, Fu Hanzheng asked the driver to drive her to the hospital.

He kissed her on the lips out of habit.

He was about to leave when Yuan Bao pouted.

“Wife, Yuan Bao wants a kiss too.”

Fu Hanzheng glared at the little boy who was asking his girlfriend for a kiss. “Ask for a kiss again and I will send you away.”

Yuan Bao pursed his lips, feeling wronged. “She is my wife...”

Seeing this, Gu Weiwei saw Fu Hanzheng off.

“Is it not an important meeting? Go.”

Fu Hanzheng warned her seriously. “Don’t kiss him.”

Gu Weiwei nodded. "Okay, I will take him to the hospital to visit his parents."

But by the time she arrived at the hospital with Yuan Bao, Yuan Meng had already left.

Chapter 530: You Should Be Scared

In the ward, only Yuan Shuo was lying on the sickbed, looking a little depressed.

Gu Weiwei came in with Yuan Bao and the boy ran to the bedside.

"Papa, Yuan Bao has been very obedient every day."

"Yuan Bao ate the carrots too."

"Yuan Bao brought you something delicious."

...

The little boy said as he struggled to take off his bear backpack to get out the food he had brought for his father.

Yuan Shuo looked at the obedient and cute boy and reached out to stroke his soft hair.

"Yes, Yuan Bao is very obedient."

Yuan Bao removed his backpack and poured his snacks onto the bed, picking them up one by one.

"This one is for Yuan Bao, this one is for Mama, this one is for my wife and this one is for Papa."

Seeing Yuan Shuo's worried expression, Gu Weiwei asked, "Where is Senior Sister?"

Yuan Shuo stayed silent for a while and said, "Somewhere."

Seeing the look on his face, Gu Weiwei understood that he would not talk in front of Yuan Bao.

She waited with Yuan Bao for a while and then texted He Chi, asking him to come over.

He Chi came over and passionately lifted Yuan Bao into the air.

"Yuan Bao, is your wife's house fun?"

Fu Shiqin had just said in the group chat that his brother was currently working with dark circles under his eyes and that he looked very displeased.

It was obvious that Yuan Bao was very mischievous yesterday.

Yuan Bao nodded. "Yes, I am."

Hearing his response, He Chi burst into laughter.

This bad uncle was obviously laughing at Fu Hanzheng's plight.

"He Chi, take Yuan Bao out to play." Gu Weiwei said.

He Chi left the ward with Yuan Bao in his arms and lectured the boy.

“Yuan Bao needs to keep an eye on your wife, otherwise that bad uncle will steal her away, got it?”

“No, my wife is mine.” Yuan Bao said.

He Chi said, “I know she is yours, but that bad uncle wants to steal your wife away.”

“No, my wife.” Yuan Bao said resolutely.

He Chi said, “So when you go home, keep an eye on your wife and don’t let him take her away.”

Yuan Bao, the ultimate weapon! Fu Hanzheng you should be scared.

...

In the ward, Gu Weiwei dragged a chair over and sat down in front of the sickbed.

“Why did Yuan Meng leave?”

Yuan Shuo looked at her calmly. “You should know by now that she is from the Anderson Family.”

When Fu Hanzheng told Cayman Dorrans about her death, Cayman would definitely find out about Yuan Meng’s real identity.

Gu Siting had also found out about this and that was why he was so willing to hunt him and his family down.

Now, if everything had continued on its course, Fu Hanzheng would know about it too.

If Fu Hanzheng knew about it, it meant that she also knew about it.

“I know.” Gu Weiwei said.

Yuan Shuo sighed. “So, you are curious as to whether we are involved in the assassination, right?”

Under normal circumstances, she would be suspicious.

After she had died, they had left Hua Land and hid themselves.

Anyone would find such behavior suspicious.

Gu Weiwei said, “No, I just want to know what happened.”

Indeed, when faced with such news, she should have suspected them but they had known each other for so many years and she was not going to ruin their friendship over a piece of news.

If she had truly suspected him, she would not have come here to ask him about it. Instead, she would have handed them over to the Dorrans Family.

Yuan Shuo looked at her and stayed silent for a long time before speaking.

“She is indeed from the Anderson Family and she came to the Yuan Family... because she wanted to know more about you.”
