

MY HIDDEN 571

Chapter 571: Viewing No Man's Land

While Fu Shiyi was busy trying to prove himself to his blind date, Gu Weiwei finished up her work in Europe.

Then she went to meet with the filmmakers in Australia, to confirm the location of the movie.

They had found a few suitable places to film the scenes in the uninhabited area of the Northern Territory.

Since Jolin had a cold, she did not bring him and Assistant Xu with her.

She and Lei Ning, as well as a foreign member of the film crew and a local guide, drove through the no man's land.

Although it was a long journey and the car ride was very bumpy, the scenery was quite suitable for the movie.

After seeing it for herself, she had already come up with the mental image for the scene in her head.

It was just that the phone signal kept disappearing, so she and Fu Hanzheng were not constantly in contact with one another.

However, whenever there was a signal, she would send him a short message to tell him that she was safe.

After three days of traveling, Lei Ning suddenly became very alert. She followed her everywhere she went, even when she went to relieve herself.

"I am not a three-year-old child, I won't get lost, why are you always following me?"

Lei Ning said, as she chewed some chewing gum, "There are two Hummers behind us and every now and then they keep showing up."

Since she knew about what happened when Weiwei was at the film festival, she had to be extra vigilant in order to prevent old incidents from happening again... because those that were her bodyguards at the time, were either injured... or dead.

Gu Weiwei washed her hands by the stream and said, after listening to Lei Ning,

"Maybe they are just traveling on the same road."

Although there were very few people in the no man's land, there were many tourists who liked to drive through the no man's land.

"It can be a coincidence if it happens once or twice, but you took the scenic route today, not the road. They should have gone ahead of us by now."

Lei Ning said as she sized up the surroundings.

Hearing what she said, Gu Weiwei looked serious.

“Are you sure they are not one of us?”

Didn't Fu Hanzheng have bodyguards following her? If they kept following them, wouldn't it be their car?

“I don't think so. If it were them, they would have at least told me something.” Lei Ning said and urged her to return to the car.

Gu Weiwei returned to the car and said, “There is one last scene-scape, we can leave no man's land after viewing it.”

Although she did not believe it would happen, they would be at a disadvantage if the other party really attacked them in this no man's land.

However, after another day, the two Hummers that Lei Ning mentioned never appeared again.

Gu Weiwei and her group arrived at the last site when it was already dark.

They went back to the car and met up with the guide, ready to leave the no man's land and go to the city, so that they could meet Jolin on the plane.

However, after driving for a few hours, the engine suddenly stopped.

The guide got out of the car and tried to fix it for a long time but to no avail.

They wanted to call for help, but they were in a place where there was no signal.

“It will take at least two to three days before our men arrive, but the food and water in the car can only last us for one day.”

Lei Ning checked the supplies in the car and looked serious.

If Boss could not reach them, he would definitely send someone to find them.

But it would take two to three days to find them in this deserted area.

She had just finished speaking, when the two suspicious-looking Hummers approached them from behind.

Seeing that their car was parked, they stopped by the roadside too.

Chapter 572: Gu Siting

“Get down!”

Lei Ning pressed down Gu Weiwei's head, pulled out the gun and loaded it, as she stared at the two Hummers parked in front of her.

The driver of the first car came down and approached them.

“What happened to your car, do you need help?”

“The car has broken down. If possible, you can help us by contacting the rescue team.” The guide said.

The driver returned to his own car, talked with his friends and said, "This road is not safe, we have empty seats in the cars, why don't you take our car and leave with us?"

With the gun in one hand and Gu Weiwei's head pushed down in the other, Lei Ning said to the man outside the car, "No need, we are waiting for our help to come."

The guide turned to her and said, "Our food and water won't last the wait until the rescue comes."

"You can leave if you want to, we are not leaving." Lei Ning said resolutely.

Those two cars had been showing up around them from time to time, which was very suspicious.

God knew what would happen once they got into their car.

"Lei Ning, if they really want to do something, where can we run to if they surround our car?" Gu Weiwei was forced to lie down in the back seat, unable to raise her head.

"But we still can't get into their car." Lei Ning said.

Gu Weiwei felt her neck aching. "I am not talking about getting into their car, can I sit up?"

Lei Ning looked at the two cars in front of her and released the hand that was holding her head down.

"They will be here within two days."

With Boss's temper, he would not wait three days.

The driver brought over a bag of water and food and said in a friendly tone, "We are resting in front, if you need anything, you can come over anytime."

However, for the sake of safety, Lei Ning turned down the water and food offered by the other party.

Although it was not a threat to their safety, they were not allowed to eat what they offered.

Gu Weiwei slept for a few hours in the car and woke up in the middle of the night, when the night sky was filled with stars.

She leaned against the window and watched it for a while. Then she took out her camera and climbed onto the roof of the car to take a few pictures of the stars.

Then she took out her phone and checked it. There was still no signal.

The desert area was very quiet at night.

She sat on the roof of the car for a few hours and watched as the sun gradually rose.

At seeing the sunrise, she stood up and took a few pictures of it and saw a stream in the distance.

The food might not be enough for two days but they could fetch water on foot.

Then Fu Hanzheng's men should be able to help her.

She was about to get out of the car and ask someone to fetch the water, when the door of the Hummer opened and a man got out of the passenger's seat.

Although it was not yet dawn, the light was enough for her to see who was coming out.

It was Kuroda Shio who worked for the Gu Family.

Seeing Kuroda Shio, she could already tell who was in the car.

Sure enough, Kuroda Shio opened the door and Gu Siting got out of the car, dressed in a gray suit.

Then they walked for a while and stopped in front of the car, looking up at the girl standing on the top of the car with her hair flying in the wind.

“Mu Weiwei, what will make you leave?”

When Lei Ning heard the sound of the car opening in front of her, she did not immediately get out of the car with a gun.

However, after seeing that it was Gu Siting and Kuroda Shio, she had already reached for her gun.

Standing on the roof of the car, Gu Weiwei looked at Gu Siting, who had been following them all this time.

“What, you want me to go with you to the Gu Family again?”

Chapter 573: Gu Siting 2

Gu Siting said, “If I was here for that, I would have taken you long ago.”

It was just that he was in the vicinity of Australia, so when he heard that she was here, he followed her.

Although she had run away from the Gu Family last time, he still found it incredible, when he thought about what she had done.

If it was just an act, she would not have been able to be so much like Weiwei.

So he followed her to Australia with this question in his heart.

Gu Weiwei sneered. “It seems that the Gu Family is not in enough trouble these days and so you still have time to follow me here.”

Both the Fu Family and the Dorrans Family had caused a lot of trouble for the Gu Family.

Yet he actually had the time to follow her through no man’s land. He was indeed too free.

Ignoring her sarcasm, Gu Siting said, “Your food and water won’t last. Our car can take you to a safe place.”

“I will not rely on you, Gu Siting, to survive in this deserted area.” Gu Weiwei said resolutely.

No matter if he was sincerely helping her or if he had other intentions, she was not going to accept it.

They were no longer on friendly terms.

Watching the girl who had turned him down, Gu Siting said patiently, “If it is because of what happened last time, I apologize to you.”

“It is your business to apologize, but I am not going to accept your apology. Please leave.” Gu Weiwei said coldly.

Gu Siting stayed silent for a while, turned around and got into the car. He asked his men to leave one car behind and left with the others.

The guide looked at the empty car and said, “The car keys are in the car and there is water and food. Let’s drive this car out of here.”

Gu Weiwei got off the car roof. “We are not leaving.”

Maybe waiting for help would not be easy but she would not accept anything from Gu Siting either.

Firstly it was because she did not want to accept it, and secondly, she did not want Fu Hanzheng to be displeased.

“But there are wild animals around this area and we have no water or food, so if we stay here...”

The guide could not understand why they refused to leave, when there was a car and food available for them to use.

Gu Weiwei stressed with a cold voice. “No one is allowed to touch anything from that car unless we are leaving.”

At her insistence, the guide gave up on the idea of driving the car and went with them to fetch some water from the stream.

Gu Siting’s car pulled over not too far away.

However, after a few hours, the car they had left behind still did not pass by.

“Mr. Gu, they did not use our car or take anything from it.”

Kuroda Shio came back and told him what he had seen.

Gu Siting looked serious and did not give the order for them to leave.

Kuroda Shio checked the time and reminded him.

“Mr. Gu, you have an important meeting tomorrow, we can’t delay it any longer.”

He had so much work waiting for him, yet he followed Mu Weiwei into this deserted area.

“Just wait.” Gu Siting said with a low voice.

He had no idea why he had followed her here.

Maybe she looked too much like Weiwei when she was at the Gu Family.

He could not help but come to her, wanting to see her shadow again.

Chapter 574: Rejecting Gu Siting’s Help

Gu Weiwei did not leave with the car Gu Siting left behind. Gu Siting’s car was parked further along in front of them and they did not leave either.

It started to rain heavily in the afternoon.

Gu Weiwei and the four men in the car had to remain in the car to avoid the rain and they had run out of food.

The Hummer parked a few hundred meters ahead of them had the food they needed but because of her strong attitude, no one dared to take the food.

The rain became heavier and the guide could not wait any longer.

“If we can’t contact the outside world, will a rescue car even arrive?”

If they could not reach the outside world, no one would know that they were trapped here.

“Just shut up and wait.” Lei Ning said.

She believed that Boss had already arranged for someone to pick them up.

After all, he would not allow for his darling to lose contact with him for two days straight.

Gu Weiwei tightened her coat and leaned against the back of the chair, listening to the sound of the rain outside.

It was still raining heavily, when Kuroda Shio came over with an umbrella and knocked on their window.

“Miss. Mu, Mr. Gu has no ill intentions. You want to leave this place as soon as possible, right?”

“No bad intentions?” Gu Weiwei sneered and looked at Kuroda Shio. “Have you forgotten that not long ago, your Mr. Gu was trying to stop me from going home, so that I could stay and die in A Land?”

If Yuan Meng and Yuan Shuo had not shown up in time to help her, she would have been dead or barely alive.

Kuroda Shio stayed silent for a while and said, “But you can’t just keep waiting. It is not going to be easy for the rescue team to find this place.”

“Don’t worry about it.” Gu Weiwei closed the window and continued to rest.

Kuroda Shio knocked on the window a few more times but failed to elicit a response, so he gave up and returned to Gu Siting’s car.

“Mr. Gu, she is still not leaving.”

But if Mu Weiwei did not leave, was he really going to stay here?

That was Fu Hanzheng’s girlfriend, what was he doing here?

Gu Siting’s face sank as he looked at the pouring rain outside the window.

“Keep waiting.”

She was waiting for Fu Hanzheng’s men to pick her up and he was waiting for her to leave.

Kuroda Shio got into the car and urged anxiously.

“The Dorrans Family has stopped the collaboration. There are too many things waiting for you, Mr. Gu.”

They were going to suffer a great loss but the Dorrans Family still insisted on stopping the collaboration. They had been very busy these past few days.

But when he found out that Mu Weiwei was in Australia, he followed her all the way to this deserted area.

Even if they were not facing each other but just passing by their car, he was not willing to leave.

Gu Siting sighed and did not respond to Kuroda Shio’s words.

“Still no news about the owner of the Heavenly Jewel?”

He wanted him to wait for half a year, but the waiting time... was too long.

“No, Cayman Dorrans is also looking for them and there seems to be no news either.” Kuroda Shio said.

They were both rational and intelligent people, but now they were waiting for such ridiculous news.

How could someone who had passed away remain in this world, just because of a string of pearls?

Miss Weiwei had been dead for a year and yet this man still refused to believe that she was fully gone. He had tried all kinds of methods to convince himself that she was still alive.

Chapter 575: Ling Yan

The rain did not stop until the following morning.

And when the rain stopped and the sun rose, Gu Weiwei and the others, who had been in the car the entire night, could not wait to get out of the car.

Due to the lack of food, everyone started to feel hungry.

Although the guide and the photographer were craving for the food in the car in front of them, they had to bear with the hunger because of their firm objection.

Gu Weiwei looked out across the wilderness after the rain and saw Gu Siting’s car parked in front on the road.

Lei Ning saw it too and mumbled, “What is wrong with this man? Why is he pestering you?”

He had kidnapped her to the Gu Family and now he was stalking her.

Was he blind?

Didn’t he know that she was their Boss’ woman?

Gu Siting’s men did not come over to them again but they were not leaving either.

Gu Weiwei knew that they were still here, but she ignored them.

She had thought that she would have to wait until the third day before Fu Hanzheng’s rescue team arrived.

However, in the evening, when Lei Ning was drinking water outside the car, she saw a helicopter flying low in the distance.

She knocked on the window and asked Gu Weiwei to get out of the car.

“Look over there, they must be here.”

Apart from the people arranged by Boss, no one else would be able to fly a helicopter around the no man’s land.

Lei Ning grabbed Gu Weiwei’s shawl, climbed onto the roof of the car and waved at the helicopter.

Soon, the helicopter flew towards them, hovered in the air for a while and landed after finding a level spot.

The moment the helicopter landed, Jolin jumped out of the cabin and let out a sigh of relief.

“I finally found you.”

Since he could not reach them, Boss arranged for two helicopters to search for and rescue him and the other two bodyguards.

The heavy rain last night made the search and rescue even more difficult.

Gu Weiwei grabbed her backpack from the car. “You are finally here.”

Jolin looked at her and Lei Ning, took their things and said, “Get on the helicopter with me first, Boss will be here soon.”

Since she had not been able to reach him, he had rushed here from home.

Hearing that Fu Hanzheng was here, Gu Weiwei followed him into the helicopter.

As the helicopter rose into the air, she looked down from the window and saw Gu Siting’s car.

He got out of the car and watched her leave.

On the way back, the pilot contacted another rescue helicopter and reported the location of the guide and the cameraman, asking them to pick up the remaining people.

The helicopter flew over the no man’s land and disappeared into the distant sky.

Seeing the helicopter flying away, Gu Siting got into the car and asked the driver to drive away from the deserted area.

Why was she Fu Hanzheng’s girlfriend?

After driving for a while, Ling Yan called him.

“Brother Siting, where are you?”

Gu Siting answered tiredly, “Australia.”

“When are you coming back? I don’t know what is wrong with the Dorrans Family, but they have been interrogating us and the people in the hospital, as if they were interrogating criminals!” Ling Yan said and started to cry.

Gu Siting frowned impatiently. “They are just checking for information on Weiwei, let them do it.”

Cayman Dorrans did not believe that Weiwei had died because of the assassination, so the Gu Family and the Ling Family Hospital would definitely be put through a thorough investigation.

Ling Yan sobbed. “But... but they seem to suspect that we murdered her!”

Chapter 576: Ling Yan 2

The woman’s sobs annoyed Gu Siting.

“As long as you don’t do anything, they won’t do anything to you.”

Ling Yan had transplanted her heart but she did not look like her at all.

Instead, it was a girl from Hua Land who looked like her.

“Brother Siting, when are you coming home? I am so scared...”

Ling Yan heard the impatience in his voice and stopped crying.

“I am very busy, I am not sure.” Gu Siting said coldly.

Cayman Dorrans did not trust anyone right now, so he had sent someone to investigate the matter. He did not even spare the Gu Family, let alone the Ling Family who had Weiwei’s heart.

Now that his collaboration with Cayman Dorrans was terminated, he had a lot of work to deal with in Europe and he had no time to deal with the Dorrans Family and the Ling Family.

Also, he could not do anything about it.

Whether it was Yuan Shuo and his men or anyone else who was involved, he would not let any of them off.

“But I am really afraid of the Dorrans Family...” Ling Yan said weakly.

“As long as you have a clear conscience, what are you afraid of?” Gu Siting said indifferently. Apparently, he had no intention of going back to deal with the matter.

Ling Yan stayed silent and did not ask for anything more.

“Then... get back to work, I will be waiting for you.”

The moment she finished speaking, Gu Siting hung up.

Kuroda Shio saw him hanging up and could guess what was going on from overhearing his conversation.

“Although Cayman Dorrans is also investigating Yuan Shuo and the others, he seems to be focusing more on the Gu Family and the Ling Family.”

Gu Siting leaned against the back of the chair with his eyes closed. "Weiwei went to the Gu Family, of course he would suspect us."

If they stopped him from investigating, Cayman Dorrans might think that they were guilty.

"But if the collaboration with the Dorrans Family is stopped, the Gu Family will be in a very difficult position." Kuroda Shio sighed.

The Dorrans Family had stopped the collaboration and Fu Hanzheng had been causing them trouble, so the Gu's Enterprise had suffered a great loss.

If this situation was not stopped soon, he would suffer immeasurable losses.

Gu Siting said nothing. Without Weiwei around, Cayman Dorrans would definitely stop the collaboration.

Luckily, they had expected this to happen the day Weiwei passed away, so they had made preparations.

Therefore, it was not the worst time yet.

"What I think Mr. Gu meant, is that we should try our best to ease our relationship with Cayman Dorrans. If he insists on taking Miss Weiwei away, please don't stop him. Even if we can't work together anymore, at least we can't be enemies." Kuroda Shio told him what Mr. Gu had always meant.

The Gu Family and the Dorrans Family had been in contact with each other for years and they knew very well how ruthless this man was.

What was more, the Gu Family had a long-standing enemy, the Fu Family of Hua Land.

Therefore, he must not become enemies with Cayman Dorrans.

Gu Siting did not utter a word for a long time, as if he had heard what he said, but also as if he had not.

Kuroda Shio glanced at the man who was resting in the back seat and did not disturb him.

But now there was a signal he started to get back to work.

Kuroda Ship had just made a call, when a text from Ling Yan popped up.

[Kuroda, is Brother Siting really busy with work?]

Kuroda Shio replied.

[Yes.]

Although he had not been very busy these past few days, he was indeed very busy now.

Ling Yan was a weak and pitiful girlfriend. She was indeed very lovable when he was free, but when he was busy, she was very annoying.

Chapter 577: Cayman Dorrans Will Kill Her

In the Ling Family home of A Land.

Due to the Dorrans Family's investigation of the staff at St. Paul's Hospital and the Ling Family, Ling Yan, who was supposed to be on set, rushed home instead of filming.

She had called Gu Siting, hoping that he could stop the Dorrans Family from investigating the matter.

But Gu Siting ignored her request.

Ji Fang asked nervously, when she saw her hanging up the phone, "What did Gu Siting say? Can he make these people leave?"

Ji Fang, who was in the car, felt guilty when she saw the foreigners checking on the servants.

"He has work to do and can't come home for the time being." Ling Yan said.

Ji Fang looked at her daughter curiously.

"What is wrong with you two these days? He doesn't want you to stay in the Gu Family home anymore and he doesn't care if you are in trouble now."

He was not like this before.

As long as her daughter asked him to, he would always do whatever she asked.

"The Gu Family has stopped cooperating with the Dorrans Family. He has too many things to deal with." Ling Yan explained.

She knew that something had happened between her and Gu Siting recently.

It seemed that everything started when Mu Weiwei appeared.

Gu Siting turned to Mu Weiwei and started to care for her less and less.

"Even if there are too many things to deal with, he can't leave you here alone." Ji Fang sighed.

Although she did feel bad after Gu Weiwei died.

But as time passed and her daughter remained safe and sound, the guilt gradually disappeared.

But seeing the Dorrans Family investigating her death, she started to feel guilty again.

Luckily, only the mother and the daughter knew that Gu Weiwei wasn't actually brain dead.

Therefore, even if they searched the entire Ling Family and St. Paul Hospital, they would not find anything.

Ling Yan looked out of the window and saw the Dorrans Family interrogating the servants.

"Mom, do you think that... in Gu Siting's eyes, I am still me or a machine that supports Gu Weiwei's heart?"

Ji Fang stayed silent for a while and consoled her daughter.

"Of course it is you, why are you arguing over someone who is no longer here?"

Although Gu Siting used to take care of the Ling Family, he was just being polite. Even when her daughter aborted the child for him, his attitude did not improve.

The real care came after her daughter received the heart transplant surgery.

Of course she knew that it was because of Gu Weiwei.

But Gu Weiwei was not here anymore, what was more important was that she was alive.

Ling Yan came back to herself. That was right, why was she arguing over a dead person?

Gu Siting might not be able to let go of Gu Weiwei for the time being, but she would always be by his side.

“Mom, no matter what Cayman Dorrans does, you and I must keep that matter to ourselves.”

Last time, Cayman Dorrans had almost dug out her heart and killed her.

If he had known that Gu Weiwei was brain dead not because of an injury but because of the drugs she had given her, he would have killed her.

Ji Fang looked out of the car window and took a deep breath.

“If they know about it, we won’t be able to survive!”

She had not expected that after a whole year had passed by, Gu Weiwei’s father would suddenly want to find out the cause of her death; now everyone in the family was worried.

But the more that was the case, the more they could not reveal the truth.

Chapter 578: The Lie Detector

Ling Yan and Ji Fang sat in the car for a long time, before they then calmly got out.

The servants of the Ling Family were being interrogated by the Dorrans Family and the leader was another trusted aide of Cayman Dorrans, Watson. He was tall and strong and had dark tattoos on his arms and neck.

“Mrs. Ling, Miss. Ling, you are finally home.”

“What do you think our family is, a bunch of criminals?” Ling Yan asked.

Watson shrugged.

“It can’t be helped, the Ling Family is also involved in the death of Miss Vivian, we must investigate it thoroughly.”

“You came to our home from the hospital and interrogated us like we are criminals. Is this your meaning of an investigation?” Ling Yan asked coldly.

For the past few days, she had not been able to concentrate on filming because she had to rush home to check on the situation.

“Isn’t Miss Ling a good friend of Miss Weiwei? Don’t you want us to find the murderer?” Watson asked.

"I... of course I want you to find out but I can't just watch you investigating my home like this." Ling Yan tried hard to stay calm.

Yes, if she objected too much, the other party would think that she was guilty.

"In that case, please cooperate." Watson said.

The mother and the daughter were home, but they had spent so much time in the car before entering the house. He was curious and concerned about what they had discussed in the car.

Ji Fang looked at everyone and said, "If we cooperate, will the hospital and the family no longer be interrogated by you?"

They had been asking questions for two days and it was time to finish the investigation.

She had not slept at all during the past two days.

These men were always at her workplace and at her home, and she had noticed that none of them were armed.

Watson smiled and said, "Of course, thank you for your cooperation, we will finish the investigation as soon as possible."

"Then how long until you finish?" Ji Fang asked.

Watson looked at Ling Yan and her mother and said, "That will depend on whether you and Mrs Ling will cooperate with our investigation."

"Me... us?" Ling Yan was startled and asked, "Even we are being interrogated?"

Watson said, "Of course, compared to the medical staff and the servants of the Ling Family, you are the ones who are the most deeply involved with Miss Weiwei."

During the past two days of checking on the hospital and the Ling Family, he had only gained some information.

The real investigation started with them.

"We..."

Ji Fang panicked a little. She had thought that they were just checking the hospital and the servants at home, but they were not letting them off either.

Ling Yan took her arm and said to Watson, "Then what do you want to ask?"

Watson said, "There are still some things that have not been arranged. I will ask you when I am done."

"Arrange things?" Ling Yan frowned. She had a feeling that something was not going to be beneficial to them.

They were just asking questions about Gu Weiwei and so they could easily answer them.

What was he up to now?

“Yes.” Watson nodded and said, “We are having two high-end lie detectors delivered to us. We will ask Mrs Ling, Miss Ling and Mr Ling to answer our questions.”

“A lie detector?” Ji Fang asked in astonishment.

Watson said, “Matthew said that we are easily misled by lies, so he gave us the instrument.”

Ji Fang was so nervous that her palms were sweating. She looked at Ling Yan.

If they were just interrogating her, they would not find anything.

But if they used the lie detector...

Chapter 579: Love Show

Ling Yan gritted her teeth. She did not expect that they would be so unscrupulous in their investigation.

“Even the lie detector has been brought in, you are even more strict than the police.”

With the lie detector, any changes in the data might become the focus of their suspicion.

“We all hope that we can find the culprit as soon as possible.” Watson said.

Was Ling Yan really Miss Weiwei’s friend?

Why did he feel that she did not want them to find out who the murderer was?

“Of course.” Ling Yan forced a smile.

One of Watson’s men came over and said, “We are done.”

“Mrs Ling, Miss Ling, when the machine is ready in a few days, we will invite you over.”

Having said those words, Watson left the Ling Family along with his men.

Seeing them leaving, Ji Fang was helped upstairs by Ling Yan.

The moment she sat down in the bedroom, she could not help but say, “The lie detector has been brought too, they are...”

Before she finished speaking, Ling Yan covered her mouth.

Then she typed a line on her phone: [Be careful, they might have placed a wire.]

Ji Fang thought of this possibility and stopped talking.

The mother and daughter searched the room for a long time and found the hidden wiretap.

She typed on her phone: [I need to think of a way to get past the lie detector test.]

If it was just a normal interrogation, they could deny it.

But with the lie detector, they would become suspicious even if they denied it.

Ling Yan also typed a line: [Yes, we will talk about it tomorrow.]

They must have installed a wire at home and the hospital office too.

If they talked about Gu Weiwei, they would be heard.

So they had to find a safe place to discuss the next step.

...

When the Ling Family was busy with the Dorrans Family's investigation, Gu Weiwei, who was far away in Australia, lost contact with Hanzheng for almost two days.

Finally, Jolin brought her back to the city. The helicopter was still in the air when she saw Fu Hanzheng waiting at the parking lot.

The helicopter landed slowly and before the door was opened, Fu Hanzheng had already walked over.

When the cabin door opened, Gu Weiwei took hold of the man waiting outside and said with a smile, "I knew you would find me."

Therefore, she was not scared at all, even though the wait was long.

Because she knew that she would wait for him.

With her in his arms, Fu Hanzheng finally felt relieved.

But when they were hugging each other, Jolin and Lei Ning could not get down.

Jolin asked, "Boss, can you... carry her somewhere else?"

He did not want to watch them showing off their love.

Fu Hanzheng threw a look at the two others in the helicopter, picked them up and left.

Gu Weiwei realized what was going on and looked up at the group.

"Put me down, people are watching."

"Let them watch." Fu Hanzheng carried her across the tarmac and put on the seat belt for her.

Then he got into the car from the other side.

"Should we go home or take a day off?"

Gu Weiwei leaned against him weakly. "Dinner first, I am so hungry."

They had run out of food and had to drink the water from the stream.

Now, she did not want to go anywhere, nor did she want anything else. She just wanted to have a big meal.

"Okay." Fu Hanzheng took hold of her hand and made a call with the other to have the food delivered to their room in advance.

Chapter 580: Kiss

Leaning against him lazily, Gu Weiwei asked.

“When did you arrive?”

“I just arrived.” Fu Hanzheng turned around and kissed her forehead. “Have you been waiting for a long time?”

He also wanted to come here as soon as possible, but even if he came as fast as he could, the plane would still take more than ten hours to arrive.

Luckily, the moment the plane landed, he had received the news that she had been found.

He had just arrived when he saw her stepping off the plane.

“No, I thought that I would not be home until tomorrow.” Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

According to their estimation, even if the search was quick, they would have only been found tomorrow.

His men had found her today, which was already beyond their expectations.

Fu Hanzheng said, “Why would I keep you waiting?”

Especially when he found out that Gu Siting had also come to Australia.

Gu Weiwei looked up at him and said with a smile, “I have been thinking about you and waiting for you at the same time. I did not wait that long.”

Fu Hanzheng smiled and tightened his arms around her.

After failing to contact her, he received the news that Gu Siting was also there. God knew how worried he had been.

Although it seemed that Gu Siting would never take her away again, he was still worried that something bad would happen to her.

Fortunately, she was back, safe and sound.

They were in the car for less than ten minutes before it then stopped at the hotel.

The driver opened the door. “Mr. Fu, we have arrived at the hotel.”

When they returned to the suite, the room was already full of food.

She washed her hands and was about to eat when Fu Hanzheng gave her a bowl of porridge. It was warm and tasty.

“Have some porridge first, then something else.”

Gu Weiwei took the porridge from him as she looked at the table full of fish and drumsticks.

She took two bites and realized that he also must not have eaten anything on the way here.

So she put down the bowl and gave him one too.

“Don’t watch me eat, can’t you eat too?”

Fu Hanzheng took it but he was not in a hurry to eat it. Instead, he looked at her as she busily filled her stomach.

His phone buzzed and he put down the bowl to check the text. It was a report from Lei Ning.

He pursed his lips and looked at the girl who was busy eating, put down the phone and did not ask her anything.

After a long time, Gu Weiwei was finally full. She looked up and saw that the man opposite her had not eaten any porridge.

“Still not eating, are you waiting for me to feed you?”

Gu Weiwei wiped her mouth and looked at her boyfriend, who she had not seen for more than ten days.

Fu Hanzheng glanced at her, picked up the bowl and asked, “Anything else you want to eat?”

Gu Weiwei thought for a while, dragged the chair over to him and gave him a peck on the lips.

“Can I have you for dessert?”

Fu Hanzheng put down the bowl, lifted her chin and kissed her.

He pulled her into his arms and kissed her deeply.

When they were reunited, she could not help but to passionately respond to his kiss and then she let him carry her back to the bedroom.

When she fell onto the bed and her coat was removed, she suddenly thought of something.

Then she rolled over to the other side of the bed and said, panting, “Hang on!”

Fu Hanzheng frowned. “What is it?”

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips. “I did not shower.”

She had been in the uninhabited area of the Northern Region for the past few days and there was nowhere for her to take a shower. She felt she was growing mouldy from not bathing for so long.

And yet he was still able to kiss her.
