

MY HIDDEN 81

Chapter 81: Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian were Kidnapped

Qin Lv stopped her from going further, looking serious.

“Mu Weiwei, who do you think I am? You teased me when you were happy and you kicked me away when you were displeased.”

Gu Weiwei frowned and said, “Yes, I did write those things but that was years ago! Now you come and tell me that you are my boyfriend, are you mental or what?”

“I have my own reasons and I don’t want to break up.” Qin Lv said.

He made a promise to his family – no relationships before college, otherwise he would have to accept whatever his family arranged for him.

He had thought that she would be waiting for him but after the accident, she disappeared from his world completely.

It took a long time before he found her again, but she told him that she had fallen for someone else.

“Oh my god, you annoying child. Why can’t you understand me!” Gu Weiwei was a bit annoyed.

“Who is that man?” Qin Lv asked further.

After she had left the Li Family and stayed absent from school, she must have been staying with that man!

Gu Weiwei looked around and said, “Let’s talk somewhere else.”

After saying this, she took Qin Lv into the small copse of trees.

“Can we talk now? Who is the man?” Qin Lv asked further.

“Hang on.” Gu Weiwei said brightly, and took hold of the tie from around his neck. “I need this for a moment.”

Qin Lv did not expect that she would stay so close to him. He could smell the scent of her maiden hair wafting into his nose.

His heart could not help but beat heavily when he saw this girl’s long eyelashes.

When he came back to himself, his two hands had already been tied up.

“Mu Weiwei, what are you doing?”

Gu Weiwei clapped her hands and said with a smile, “I really have nothing to talk about with you. If you want to talk, talk to this tree.”

“Mu Weiwei, who is he?” Qin Lv could not resist his curiosity.

Gu Weiwei took two more steps and gave him a warning as she turned around. "Also, say one more boyfriend thing and I will hit you in the face."

She raised her fists, showing a threatening stance.

After this problem was solved, she called Ji Cheng but she did not answer.

Then she called Luo Qianqian but she didn't answer the call either.

Fearing that Qin Lv would pester her again, she went to school to find Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian, but they had already left the campus.

No answers to her calls and no one at school, she had to return to the apartment.

The moment she entered the apartment, Ji Cheng's call buzzed through.

However, it was the rough voice of a man that echoed through the speaker.

"Mu Weiwei right, bring the pictures of President Wang, or... your sisters will have to suffer."

Gu Weiwei's heart sank. It seemed that because Wang Weidong and Zhou Meiqin's men had failed to catch her, they had now turned to Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian.

She closed her eyes and took a deep breath as she said with a low voice, "I need to hear them first."

In the phone, Ji Cheng's and Luo Qianqian's voices arose.

"Weiwei, call the police!"

"Weiwei, call my cousin!"

They had just spoken a sentence when the man moved the phone away.

"You must come alone. Bring the police or a helper and your sisters will be our food."

Gu Weiwei said with teeth clenched. "Address."

"Wenhua Road in the West Outskirts, the abandoned Zhengxing steel factory. Someone will lead you here, no tricks." The man directly ended the call after saying the words.

Chapter 82: Fun

She had expected that Zhou Meiqin and Wang Weidong would come to her for trouble, but she had not expected that Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian would be taken hostage.

She was analyzing the situation as she opened Fu Hanzheng's study and found the key for the back-up car.

As she came into the underground garage, she took a sports car and dashed towards the west outskirts.

At the dinner with politicians in the capital city.

Fu Hanzheng was just talking, with wine in hand, when Xu Qian called him on the private phone.

"Boss, Lei Meng is calling you."

Fu Hanzheng frowned at the guests and came to pick up the phone.

“What is it?”

Lei Meng was the chief of security of the Fu Family, and something must have happened at home if he was calling.

“Miss. Mu drove out of the apartment half an hour ago. She was driving way too fast for the security detail to catch up with her.”

Fu Hanzheng’s face sank as he walked towards the room’s exit and asked, “Did you find her?”

“Her phone shows that she is heading west. I am going there now with my men.” Lei Meng said.

Seeing him leaving, Fu Shiqin caught up with him.

“Brother, the banquet has just started, where are you going?”

“Weiwei is missing.” Fu Hanzheng said as he entered the elevator.

She normally didn’t go out at night, and now she was out driving! Something must have happened.

Fu Shiqin followed him into the elevator. “Someone is following her, right?”

Fu Hanzheng was silent, so Xu Qian answered instead. “Miss. Mu’s car left the apartment half an hour ago, the bodyguards lost her.”

Fu Shiqin’s face sank, when he and Fu Shiyi left home before, he never got nervous.

Now Mu Weiwei was just gone for half an hour and he was searching for her in person! It was such a huge difference in treatment.

On Wenhua Road in the West Outskirts.

Gu Weiwei stopped the car, walked a few hundred meters and came to the gate of the Zhengxing Steel Factory.

A tattooed man sized her up, looked around and made sure that she was alone before turning to open the gate.

“Follow me in.”

As she walked she observed her surroundings. Then she heard people talking after she entered the factory.

There were thirteen people inside and some were playing poker and drinking and some were smoking. A bald man was sitting on a worn out sofa, looking like the boss of the group.

Then she saw Luo Qianqian and Ji Cheng who were tied up in the corner, covered in dust and mud, looking messy.

“Qianqian, are you alright?”

“We are fine.” Luo Qianqian became very worried as she saw Mu Weiwei coming in alone.

Gu Weiwei looked at them and found that they were not injured, she took a long breath and glanced at the bald man.

“Now I am here, release them.”

The two indecent-looking drunk men staggered over to Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian.

“Brother Kun, they are so pretty, s’would be a pity to release them.”

They slurred as two of them started to touch Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian. They both were frightened by the two’s pawing, screaming out in fear with pale faces.

Gu Weiwei’s fists cracked. She warned them. “Remove your paws!”

The two drunken men heard her words and left Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian alone as they glanced at the girl who was talking to them.

The angry girl looked very attractive against the light.

“Sure, we will leave them alone, you have fun with us first...”

Gu Weiwei smiled brightly as a coldness appeared in her eyes.

“Sure, let’s finish our talk and then I can have fun with you!”

Chapter 83: Fun Part 2

Bald Kun squinted at his indecent men.

“Why are you in a hurry, when we finish the task, she will be yours!”

Gu Weiwei coldly said in a calm voice, “Before we get to it, I suggest that you release them too. After all, it would be very difficult for us to continue, if the girls from the Ming Family are hurt here.”

“Girls from the Ming Family?” Bald Kun’s face changed when he heard those words.

“Didn’t you background check them before you kidnapped them?” Gu Weiwei laughed with a sneering sound. “You are indeed very brave to have kidnapped the niece of Chief Ming and Director Ming.”

Bald Kun glanced at Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian – that girl did say that Director Ming was her uncle, and that her father was some leader from the special forces or something.

“If you don’t believe it, then turn on her phone and check her photos.” Gu Weiwei reminded them.

The most important thing right now was to get Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian out of danger, and Ji Cheng’s background could prevent them from hurting her.

Bald Kun picked up Ji Cheng’s phone and leafed through the photos inside. He found the Ming Family’s pictures.

If they were really the girls from the Ming Family, then they must not irritate her. Their goal was not them anyway.

“Release them.”

Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian's ropes were loosened. They ran to Gu Weiwei, grabbed her arms and said, "Weiwei, let's go!"

"You can go, but she... must stay." Two men stopped them and pointed at Gu Weiwei as they said this.

Gu Weiwei patted off the dust and mud on her and said, "You girls wait for me outside."

"No, we must go together." Luo Qianqian gripped her tightly and spoke with determination.

She came to rescue them alone and they must not leave her here by herself just so they could run away.

"We aren't leaving, if you are not coming with us." Ji Cheng said as she shielded My Weiwei by standing in front of her and said to Bald Kun, "She is my cousin's fiancé, my uncle's daughter-in-law to be! You must not touch her!"

"..." Gu Weiwei did not know whether she should laugh or cry, but she must admit that she was very moved.

The two girls themselves were already very scared but they did not want to leave without her and instead stayed with her to face the trouble.

"Girls, we want her, not you two. Don't try to cause trouble for yourselves." Bald Kun warned them impatiently.

President Wang had paid a great deal of money to them this time, and they were not going to give up on the deal just because someone from the Ming Family was in the way.

"Qianqian, wait for me outside." Gu Weiwei pulled out her arms outside of Luo Qianqian's tight grip and helplessly tried to persuade her with a gentle voice.

"No, we are leaving together." Ji Cheng still stood in front of her despite her own voice trembling.

If she stayed here, these men would not touch her because of her identity. But if she and Qianqian left without Weiwei, she would be in danger.

Gu Weiwei glanced around and saw the iron staircase leading to the second floor. She said with a low voice.

"Then we will run away together. I will count to three and we can head to the staircase together on the second floor."

Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian nodded. When she counted to three, they both ran towards the staircase and up to the second floor without taking a breath.

"Weiwei, hurry, hurry up..."

Luo Qianqian went up to the second floor and turned around, only to find Gu Weiwei was missing.

Downstairs on the first floor, there came a sound of fighting and the two girls looked down in fright.

"Weiwei!"

Chapter 84: Fu Hanzheng is Here

However, when they saw what was happening down below them, Luo Qianqian and Ji Cheng were both astonished.

The slender girl had, within one second, thrown two strong and tall men down onto the floor, and she picked up a rusty piece of scrap steel and pierced through the hand of one of the men.

Then, she kicked the other man's groin, causing such tremendous pain that he could not even utter a single sound.

Gu Weiwei threw a look at the two girls up on the second floor. "Stay where you are."

Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian nodded. They noticed that the two drunk men who were seriously injured, were the ones who had touched them before.

Gu Weiwei pulled out the bloody, stained steel and looked at the remaining eleven men, looking lethal.

"Now, let's have some fun."

The gang did not expect that the feeble-looking girl would suddenly act as if she were possessed by a ghost, looking lethal and acting with cruelty.

Bald Kun's face sank and he threw a look at four strong men beside him.

"Get her."

The four men with muscular builds, and besieged Gu Weiwei, but the agile girl dodged their fists and quickly hit one of the men's temples.

That man was so dizzy from the blow that he staggered backwards. Then the girl kicked off against one of the factory's supporting columns, and propelled forward, landing a blow on one of the men's necks. The man's neck let out a cracking sound and failed to rise again.

The remaining three men were wary. This was a girl who was agile, quick and always hit home on her targets.

Seeing his four best men collapsing, one after the other, Bald Kun became so furious that he stood up and fiercely asked, "Who on earth are you?"

Gu Weiwei kicked a man away and flipped backwards on the rebound. As she landed steadily, she said, "I am your boss."

The Gu Family had hired many martial arts masters and she had studied Maga Fighting, swordsmanship and fencing from those masters for years. She might not be very skillful, yet her skills were already enough to incapacitate these people.

Guns were forbidden in the Hua Land, so they did not have any deadly weapons. That was why she dared to come alone.

These men were just strong and big, and they had either been drinking or taking drugs. As long as Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian were not taken hostage, she would not be taken advantage of.

Seeing his men retreating one after another, Bald Kun picked up a knife from the table and said, "Get the weapons!"

The remaining men picked up steel scraps, sticks, and knives, surrounding Gu Weiwei gradually.

Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian were both so nervous that they held onto each other's arms. They would very much like to help, but they were afraid of distracting her.

As the seven men came all together, Gu Weiwei had only taken a few steps back, when the well-trained Bald Kun suddenly attacked her. She felt a punch to her back and Bald Kun almost stabbed her in the chest.

Fortunately, she was quick enough to dodge, only her arm getting scratched by the blade. She was not seriously injured.

They fought for half an hour and finally, when Gu Weiwei had the blood stained Bald Kun under her feet she smiled at Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian upstairs.

"Come down now, we can leave."

The two girls rushed downstairs and Ji Cheng said excitedly, "Goddess, do you know what I want to say right at this moment?"

Gu Weiwei wrapped her wounded arm using the coat Luo Qianqian gave to her and asked. "What?"

"I just want to say that... I want to marry you!" Ji Cheng said.

She came here alone and brought down more than a dozen men. She was indeed an outstanding protector.

The three girls walked out of the factory just as a Rolls-Royce Phantom and two Hummer cars pulled over in front of her.

Fu Hanzheng, who was dressed in a nice suit, came out of the Rolls-Royce Phantom and walked towards them. His eyes were piercing and his aura was lethal, tinted with arrogance and determination.

"Why did you come here alone?"

Chapter 85: Fu Hanzheng and Weiwei

"..."

Gu Weiwei stared at this man who had suddenly popped up out of nowhere, in astonishment – didn't he go to attend a banquet?

"Is it so difficult to give me a call?" Fu Hanzheng looked cold, trying hard to suppress his anger.

He had told her repeatedly that if she ran into any trouble, she could call him and let him deal with it.

Gu Weiwei frowned and looked at the man who had become annoyed for no reason.

"I can... solve it by myself."

Compared to Mu Weiwei, Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian next to them were even more astonished as they stared at this handsome man in front of them.

This man had well-trimmed eyebrows and his nose bridge was tall and refined. His face was so perfect that it had become flawless. He looked even better than the male stars in the entertainment industry.

What was even more, was that he had an air of nobility, and it was something none of the male stars in the entertainment industry could compare to.

Fu Hanzheng lowered his gaze and saw the hand she had wrapped under the coat. He lifted the blood-stained hand and frowned.

“That is what you call solving it yourself?”

“Just a small wound,” Gu Weiwei said. The men inside were even more seriously injured than her.

Fu Shiqin had just come out from inside and looked at Gu Weiwei in astonishment. He said, as he pointed into the factory, “Brother, you must go and have a look.”

There were dozens of men inside who had been deeply wounded by her.

It was not something an 18-year-old high schooler was capable of. Was she really a woman or was she a mutant?

Fu Hanzheng did not care about what Fu Shiqin said and instead he took her into his arms, and pulled her into her arms.

“Let’s get in the car.”

With hands over the wound, Gu Weiwei followed him into the Rolls-Royce.

A few steps away, she thought of Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian and said to Fu Shiqin as she turned her head, “Second Master, please make sure they arrive at their homes safely.”

After saying this, she was stuffed into the car by Fu Hanzheng.

“Xu Qian, let’s go.”

Xu Qian turned the car around and took the two of them to the hospital.

Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian looked at the diamond, black Rolls-Royce disappearing into the darkness, finding it hard to come back to their senses.

“Qianqian, did I see it wrongly or not? I just saw Fu Hanzheng! The best-looking and the richest Fu Hanzheng!”

“Me too! He has taken away Weiwei.”

Fu Shiqin looked at the two girls as he moved his hands in front of them. “It is time to leave, get into my car.”

Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian had just come back to themselves when they saw Fu Shiqin’s face and became overjoyed.

“Shi... Shiyi?”

“My name is Fu Shiqin, Fu Shiyi’s second brother.” Fu Shiqin explained helplessly.

The twins looked very similar to each other so they were always mistaken for one another.

After Fu Shiyi had joined the entertainment industry, more and more people started to mistake his brother for him.

Hearing that he was not their idol Shiyi, Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian sighed and followed him into the car.

“So, Shiyi does have a twin brother.”

“It is not my intention to be his brother.” Fu Shiqin complained.

Seated in the backseat, Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian thought of Mu Weiwei, who was taken away by Fu Hanzheng, and asked curiously, “Master Two, what is the relationship between Weiwei and... Fu Hanzheng?”

Fu Shiqin smiled mysteriously, “Well, you can guess.”

Ji Cheng patted her face and mumbled. “Qianqian, I think I have been frightened enough for today.”

“Me too.” Luo Qianqian added.

Everything that happened today was so incredible, just like a dream.

Chapter 86: Fu Hanzheng Panicked

The air in the car had turned a bit distressful.

Fu Hanzheng had his hands over the wound on her clothes and turned towards the girl who was silent.

“Still hurting?”

She almost cried out, in tears, when the broken plate pieces pierced into her fingers, but today, she was quiet.

“A little.” Gu Weiwei said calmly.

She had been dead once, and this was just a little wound for her, it wasn’t that painful

After hearing her words, Xu Qian sped up without waiting to hear the request.

Fu Hanzheng took a look outside the window and said, “Hold on a little while longer, we will arrive soon.”

Gu Weiwei turned to the man who was dressed in an expensive hand-made suit. Obviously, he had come to her in a hurry from an important occasion.

Normally, the banquet would not be finished at this hour.

Fu Hanzheng looked up and ran into her searching gaze.

“What is it?”

“The banquet... has not finished, right?” Gu Weiwei asked.

“Just a dinner, nothing important.” Fu Hanzheng said calmly.

Xu Qian who was driving, almost burst into tears – of course he could say that it was just a dinner, but the consequences were that they would be so busy the following day, just because he had abandoned so many presidents from different companies just to come and save his woman!

The car pulled over at the hospital. Xu Qian opened the door as he made a call to He Chi, explaining how Gu Weiwei was injured.

The three of them were just about to go upstairs when He Chi appeared in front of them to receive them at the entrance of the elevator.

“A tear on her finger and wounds on her feet, now her arm is injured too. Fu Hanzheng, are you beating your wife?”

“...” Gu Weiwei was speechless. What did he mean by hitting the wife?

Fu Hanzheng squinted at He Chi who instantly shut up, and supported her into the office. He cut off her sleeve and checked the wound.

“Luckily, the artery was not cut. But some stitches are required.”

Having said that, he picked up the local anaesthetic for the part of her arm, and the nurse prepared the tools, ready for the stitches.

Fu Hanzheng had her head in his arms, not wanting her to see the process.

But seeing He Chi’s needle and thread going into her flesh, he frowned. His heart felt that it had been gripped by something and squeezed.

“Be gentle.”

He Chi replied to him, “The anaesthetic is already working.”

Fu Hanzheng was still not assured. “Then be careful.”

He Chi stopped and snorted.

“Then do you want to do it yourself?”

The patient was not complaining, what was he complaining for?

Xu Qian quickly cut in seeing that the atmosphere did not seem right.

“Doctor He, my boss is just very concerned, please, continue with your work.”

Boss was very furious but he could not vent his anger on Miss. Mu, so he had to do it to Doctor He.

Leaning in Fu Hanzheng’s arms, Gu Weiwei could feel how the man’s scent occupied her nose. She could not help but feel her heart beat faster.

He Chi was still stitching as he started to complain.

“Now you know how to care for your girl, what did you do so that she is so badly injured?”

“It is not his business, Doctor He, I hurt myself.” Gu Weiwei explained.

He Chi finished the stitching, dabbed the medicine and continued to complain.

“Ha, I just complained about him with two sentences and now you are concerned.”

Gu Weiwei. “...”

She was just trying to explain so no misunderstandings could be caused. She was not concerned!

After wrapping up the wound, He Chi removed his gloves and mask, and put his hands into his pockets.

“Go and fetch some medicine from the nurse, don’t let any water get on the wound. Be careful and avoid spicy and heavy foods. Make sure to come and get the bandages changed in three days.”

Gu Weiwei turned around in Fu Hanzheng’s arms and saw the well bandaged arm. “Will there be a scar?”

He Chi squinted at Fu Hanzheng and snorted.

“If there is a scar on you, he will leave a scar on me.”

Gu Weiwei looked at this gentle looking man next to her – was he so lethal?

Fu Hanzheng removed his coat and put it over her shoulders and placed one arm over her shoulders.

“Let’s go.”

Chapter 87: Door Opened

It was already ten pm when they returned to the apartment from the hospital.

She changed into baggy pyjamas and headed into the bathroom after noticing the blood stains on her hand.

The moment she entered the bathroom, Fu Hanzheng followed her inside.

“What are you doing?”

“... Just washing my hands.”

Fu Hanzheng lifted her up to the sink so she could sit on the side. Then he rolled up her sleeves, took down the hand towel and wet it before wringing it out.

Then he helped her to wipe off the remaining blood stains on her hands.

After he had wiped her hands, he washed the towel and wiped off the mud and dust on her face.

“... Thanks.” Gu Weiwei suddenly felt that he was treating her as if she was his daughter.

Fu Hanzheng put down the towel and looked at the girl sitting on the sink countertop. His eyes looked profound and gentle.

“Weiwei, I won’t allow a second time of what happened today.”

On the way there, he had experienced unprecedented nervousness and fear.

Gu Weiwei stayed silent for a while and then chuckled. “It is just an accident, it is a small wound...”

“Do you want me to have my men’s eyes upon you all the time?” Fu Hanzheng interrupted her coldly.

Gu Weiwei’s smile froze and she looked cold. “Fu Hanzheng, I am not your possession! Please do not interfere in my life.”

He liked her now, because he had not known that she was Gu Weiwei.

When he came to know who she was, he would hate her thoroughly.

Fu Hanzheng’s profound eyes turned misty, then he lowered his head and approached her. “So, you will only be obedient when you become my possession?”

Gu Weiwei frowned and leaned backwards, creating distance between them, but her head touched the mirror suddenly and she became very annoyed.

Damn, just like the table again?!

They did it on the table in the study and now again on the sink countertop!

Fu Hanzheng approached and then placed his thin lips upon her tender ones, presenting a strong sense of maleness, occupying her breath.

She wanted to turn away to dodge the scorching kiss of this man, but the moment she parted her mouth a little, the man’s tongue reached hers and his hand had already reached into her baggy pyjamas and travelled up her back.

She tried hard to dodge him, but only fell into his arms. The man’s hands were moving over her back and then came to a stop upon feeling the clasp of her bra.

Gu Weiwei’s eyes widened and she was about to stop him when her bra was unclasped.

“... Ahh.”

She took a hold of his hands, trying to prevent him from continuing when the other hand of his started to remove the bra.

Just when she thought that she would lose her innocence tonight, Fu Shiqin, who had just come home from outside, stuck his head in and then rushed away with his hands over his eyes.

“Brother, why do you keep the door open?”

Fu Hanzheng released her lips and had his forehead against hers, saying with a low voice.

“Do you know what you have done wrong?”

Gu Weiwei nodded constantly. Had it not been because of Fu Shiqin, she would have been eaten up.

Mu Weiwei might have slept with him, but she had no intention of doing so herself.

Fu Hanzheng took a deep breath and calmed himself down.

Then he reached out for the unclasped bra and re-clasped it before lifting her down from the sink countertop.

Gu Weiwei dashed into her bedroom and locked the door, making Fu Shiqin in the living room, surprised and confused.

Chapter 88: Brother Full of Ideas

It took a long time before Fu Hanzheng came out of the bathroom.

At the sight of him, Fu Shiqin raised his two hands, surrendering.

“I promise that I saw nothing. You were in the way, and I saw nothing.”

How would he have known that they were kissing in the bathroom with the door open.

And they were doing it on the sink countertop! So his own brother who was as boring as a robot could be so full of ideas in his s*x life...

Fu Hanzheng ignored him and drank a mouthful of water to drive away the thirst.

Fu Shiqin ran off to the dining room and placed the dishes for dinner on the table one after another, trying to receive approval from his own brother.

“Look, I know you both haven’t eaten dinner yet. So I bought some food back.”

Fu Hanzheng received a call and knocked at Gu Weiwei’s door.

“Weiwei, time to eat.”

“I am not hungry. No food.”

The girl sounded muffled. Obviously, she was still angry about what had happened.

She herself had almost been eaten up, what would she eat the food for?

Fu Hanzheng knocked two more times and reminded her, “You can only take the medicine after food.”

Gu Weiwei took a look at the wound, sighed helplessly and then opened the door and walked towards the dining room.

The moment she sat down, Fu Shiqin gave a rib to her and said with a flattering tone, “If you are about to do something, please send a signal to me and I promise that I will stay far away from you...”

Gu Weiwei threw a cold look at him – no one wanted to do anything!

Fu Hanzheng said instead, “Don’t always drop by.”

Fu Shiqin nodded constantly. "I totally get it! I will also give the same warning to Third Brother."

This was going to be the apartment for two of them and it was improper for anyone to drop by.

Gu Weiwei became helpless – she found that her days to come were going to be very tough.

Fu Shiqin was reminded of what happened at the factory and asked curiously, "Mu Weiwei, how did you manage to bring down those thirteen strong men?"

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said nonchalantly, "Grandfather once hired a martial arts master to teach me. I took advantage of their terrible state."

"How come you were driven out by the Li Family, if you are so capable? That is not scientific." Fu Shiqin asked further.

Mu Weiwei had been very weird these days, as if she had become someone else totally.

At the beginning, they had also suspected that after Mu Weiwei left the Landscape Villa, it was another Mu Weiwei they had run into again.

But after some investigations, the fingerprint and DNA had suggested that they were exactly the same person.

Gu Weiwei smiled coldly and suggested, "Maybe, you can see why it is scientific if I punch you."

"No thanks, no thanks." Fu Shiqin quickly turned her down.

Fu Hanzheng was eating calmly, totally unattracted by their topic of conversation. Then his phone rang and he picked up his cell phone as he walked into the study.

Lei Meng on the other side of the phone reported what he had found.

"Boss, these men were hired by Wang Weidong, maybe because of what happened last time to Miss. Mu."

Standing in front of the large ceiling-to-floor window and looking at the luxurious night scenery outside, he spoke in a lethal way, "Give him a lesson."

"I get it. Boss." Lei Meng answered with a low voice.

"And leave none of these men behind." Fu Hanzheng said and then ended the call.

Chapter 89: Setup

At the Li Family of Yijing Pavilion.

Zhou Meiqin had just taken a shower and took out her phone, she was feeling a bit anxious when she saw there were no missed calls.

Li Jiacheng, who was reading next to her, threw her a look and said, "You always have your phone with you, are you really so busy?"

He had never seen her behaving in this way before, such that she had her phone with her wherever she went.

Zhou Meiqin wore a stiff smile and said, "The Planning Department is doing an important proposal, which can not be delayed."

If all had gone well, President Wang's men should have already finished the job, yet none of them had given her a call.

After the incident at the hotel, she had been so worried that he had not slept well for one night.

She was just thinking if she should call President Wang and ask what was going on when the phone vibrated. She picked it up and her face turned pale.

"I... will answer a call in the study." Zhou Meiqin said as she hurried out of the bedroom. She went into the study and clicked on the message after she locked the door.

It was a text from Mu Weiwei.

She had just seen the picture when Mu Weiwei's call arrived.

"Mrs. Li, have you seen the picture?"

"Mu Weiwei, what do you want?" Zhou Meiqin was so furious that she was trembling.

Shouldn't they have dealt with her by now, but what was she doing alive and well, sending her threatening pictures?

"Nothing." Gu Weiwei laughed indifferently and her voice suddenly turned cold.

"If you dare to hire anyone to trouble me, I will post those pictures online. Honestly, with such a picture, you can become more popular than your daughter."

"How dare you, Mu Weiwei!"

"You can try?" Gu Weiwei snorted.

Zhou Meiqin took a deep breath, calmed herself down and said, "How much money do you need, to return these pictures to me?"

"As long as you don't cause me any trouble, then I will take good care of these pictures, otherwise..." Gu Weiwei uttered a cold laugh and ended the call.

Zhou Meiqin was so furious that she almost crushed the phone.

She was about to call Wang Weidong and ask what was going on when Wang Weidong made the call first and barked down the phone.

"Zhou Meiqin, you are ruining me!"

"Wang Weidong, I was just asking you what is Mu Weiwei still doing out there? Why is she still threatening me with photos?" Zhou Meiqin asked furiously.

“Shame on you! The two little girls you wanted kidnapped are from the Chief Ming household! If you want to die, die alone!” Wang Weidong had just gotten to know that he had ordered a kidnapping of the girls from the Ming Family and his men had now vanished completely.

Maybe the Ming Family was going to turn against him instead, and it was all because of Zhou Meiqin! He truly wanted to kill her at this very moment.

Having lectured her, Wang Weidong furiously ended the call.

Zhou Meiqin deleted the pictures and could not fall asleep the entire night.

The following morning, she decided to meet Wang Weidong to discuss what they should do later.

But she could not get through to Wang Weidong’s phone, so she could only call Wang Weidong’s company, where his secretary answered the call.

“Deputy President Zhou, President Wang had a car accident last night and he is in the middle of an operation. He can’t talk with you right now.”

Zhou Meiqin ended the call in fright... could it have been because of what happened last night?

Chapter 90: Uncle Fu

At the Jinxiu Compound.

Due to the wounded arm, Gu Weiwei had to ask for two more days off and continued to rest at home.

After Fu Hanzheng and his men went off to the company, Aunt Wang from Landscape Villa came with food, had a chitchat with her for a moment and then started to prepare breakfast for her.

She got up early to review the lessons, although she was off from school.

At around 6 p.m, Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian called after school and requested a meeting with her.

They had met Fu Hanzheng anyway, so she told them the address without hesitation.

Within half an hour, the two girls arrived with many bags of food.

“Are you alright?” Luo Qianqian thought of how much she had bled the night before and asked worriedly.

“I am fine, just a few stitches. It will be healed in a couple of weeks.” Gu Weiwei asked her friends to sit down in the living room.

Ji Cheng could not wait and said, “After we returned home last night, Uncle called and asked about something and then he told me that the culprit who ordered the kidnapping had a car accident this morning, and now he is in ICU...”

“Your uncle and his men are so cruel?” Luo Qianqian was astonished.

“No, it is not them. When they went out to do the investigation, the man was already in the hospital.” Ji Cheng explained.

Gu Weiwei frowned – it must have been Fu Hanzheng who had done it, if the Ming Family had not had the time to do it.

He was the owner of the biggest finance group in Hua Land, and he was more than a businessman.

Seeing Gu Weiwei's face, Luo Qianqian asked seriously, "Weiwei, why were those men looking for you?"

Gu Weiwei took two sips of water from the cup and said, "It is a long story, are you sure you want to hear it?"

"We have been through so much, you must tell us the truth." Ji Cheng snorted.

Although she and Qianqian regarded Mu Weiwei as their friend, they thought that she was still hiding something from them – she never told them about her family and never told them where she was living.

Gu Weiwei let out a sigh and told them everything about Mu Weiwei and her grudge towards the Zhou Family and the Li Family. She recounted everything in a very calm way, but Ji Cheng, on the other hand, became so furious that she was ready to flip the table!

"Damn, these people are so shameless."

"People's hearts are always unpredictable. It's not very strange to run into such ungrateful people." Gu Weiwei drank her water calmly.

"You should have told us earlier." Luo Qianqian said to her in concern.

She was transferred here last term and took a long leave of absence because of the car accident.

Few people from school knew her well, but they had turned themselves against her because of Zhou Linna.

Gu Weiwei chuckled. "It is not too late, I am telling you now."

Ji Cheng thought of Fu Hanzheng who had taken her away last night and gossiped.

"Weiwei, are you living with Fu Hanzheng now?"

Gu Weiwei frowned and thought for a while. "Yes..."

Ji Cheng was so excited that she burst out in exclamation, "Oh my gosh, you are living with the most handsome man in Hua Land, I am so jealous!"

He was the dream of all the women in Hua Land, and she had lived the dream before anyone else could.

Gu Weiwei explained quickly as she saw the two girls' looks. "We're not really living together, you two have thought too deeply."

Luo Qianqian asked with raised eyebrows, "So, are you in a relationship now or what?"

"Of course not!" Gu Weiwei took a sip of water and explained after a few moments' of contemplation.

"Our age difference is so huge! I call him Uncle Fu! I regard him just as I would my father..."

Fu Hanzheng's face sank as he entered the room.

Fu Shiqin spoke up, "Mu Weiwei, your father is here."

Mu Weiwei, you are being so ridiculous!

You have slept with my brother and now you say that you regard him as your father....
