

MY HIDDEN 821

Chapter 821: Longsheng Shareholders' Meeting 3

Hearing her words, Zhou Hong and Zheng Ming's expressions changed.

However, one shareholder who was close to them said, "President Mu, even if they were brought into the company by President Li and Zhou Meiqin, they still work hard for the company. Why do you need to question their background?"

Although Manager Zhou and Director Zheng joined the company because of the Li Family, they had reached an agreement with Far East Enterprise.

That was better than Mu Weiwei, who knew nothing at all.

"True, a hero doesn't need to be asked about his background." Gu Weiwei reached her hand out to Yang, who was standing behind her, took a file and said, "But how much money did they use for the two projects last year? Am I not qualified enough to ask about that before I get outvoted?"

The shareholders looked at each other.

Zhou Hong and Zheng Ming exchanged a look and refused to admit the truth.

"President Mu, I knew that you would be displeased by the proposal made at the shareholders' meeting today, but this is for the future of the company. You don't have to frame us."

"I am not against anyone here, I am just concerned about the company's business proceedings these past few years." Gu Weiwei asked Yang to distribute the information and the report to the shareholders and said, "This is the company's financial report for the past few years, and the profits are dropping year after year. None of the projects are making any profits."

The shareholders could not stay calm as they flipped through the files and reports.

Gu Weiwei threw a cold look at everyone present. "Manager Zhou and Director Zheng, the two projects you are leading, have used a shell company to get rid of the funds. I have asked my men to check and the project from last year has not even started yet. Where is the money?"

"There is a problem with the project, so it is normal that we couldn't push it forward." Zhou Hong argued.

"Longsheng is not going to suffer because we now have such a big project with Far East Enterprise."

Zheng Ming was reminding everyone that if they were to pursue the matter, Longsheng would lose the opportunity to cooperate with Far East Enterprise.

The shareholders were confused. They wanted to find out where the funds of the two projects went, but they did not want to lose the collaboration with Far East Enterprise.

Zheng Ming saw everyone's hesitation and said, "As for the two projects last year, we will explain to the shareholders later. The most important thing now is to decide on the collaboration with Far East Enterprise. If we lose this opportunity, we will never have it again."

The shareholders discussed and hesitated.

"We need at least 300 million yuan to invest in this project, does Longsheng have the money right now?" Gu Weiwei asked again.

Seeing that she was still holding on, Zheng Ming countered by saying, "We can figure out a way to solve the funding problem later, don't tell me you have better projects to work with, President Mu."

Gu Weiwei checked the text message and said to Yang, "Go and pick him up."

Yang nodded and left the meeting room to greet Xu Qian.

Leaning against the chair, Gu Weiwei texted Fu Hanzheng.

[Everything is going well]

Through the remote monitoring equipment, Fu Hanzheng was listening to the meeting as he worked.

She had grabbed hold of the funding problem of Zhou Hong and Zheng Ming's embezzlement, which made the shareholders waver.

If Xu Qian went to talk about the acquisition at this time, everything would be solved without even needing his guidance.

Chapter 822: Longsheng Shareholders' Meeting 4

"You are changing the board of directors for today's shareholder meeting, but I have something to announce," Gu Weiwei said.

Zhou Hong and Zheng Ming uneasily looked at the calm young girl, they had thought that she did not know anything about the company and would be at a loss of what to do at the shareholders' meeting.

In the end, they were the ones who were being defeated.

But no matter what plan she came up with, there was no better project for Longsheng Enterprise than the Far East Enterprise collaboration.

Therefore, the shareholders would still side with them and kick Mu Weiwei out of the company.

She had just finished speaking, when Yang entered the meeting room with Xu Qian.

Xu Qian came in and introduced himself.

"Hello everyone, I am Xu Qian, the executive assistant of Fu's Enterprise."

"Fu's Enterprise?" One shareholder was startled and asked, "Are you Fu Hanzheng's assistant?"

"It is him. I once saw him with President Fu at an event," Another shareholder said.

Gu Weiwei glanced at the astonished crowd and said, "When Grandpa was still alive, he had talked with Fu's Enterprise about the acquisition. After Grandpa passed away, Li Jiacheng raised harsh conditions for the company and the acquisition was not achieved."

Xu Qian glanced at her and continued speaking, "We have checked the business situation of Longsheng Enterprise and we are willing to acquire Longsheng Enterprise and invest in Longsheng Enterprise's current projects, so that they can be successfully completed."

He passed a file to the shareholders while he spoke.

The shareholders happily nodded.

Longsheng was losing money at the moment, and Fu's Enterprise had given them a very generous offer. They would also invest in the projects that Longsheng was losing money from.

Everyone in the business world of Hua Land wanted to establish a relationship with the Fu Family and make a fortune with Fu's Enterprise.

Compared to that, the collaboration with Far East Enterprise was nothing.

As long as they reached a deal with Fu's Enterprise, the company would be able to participate in any projects under Fu's Enterprise.

After the shareholders read the conditions, they whispered, "When Elder Mu was around, he did mention accepting the acquisition of Fu's Enterprise. If that happened, Longsheng Enterprise would be much bigger than it is now."

"Although Far East Enterprise looks alright, it is far worse than Fu's Enterprise."

"The point is, President Mu has also created such a high box office movie for Shiyi Culture this year. I can tell that she has a special relationship with Third Master, so she will definitely be able to help the company gain some benefits."

"Of course, we also have conditions for Longsheng," Xu Qian said.

"What conditions?" One shareholder asked.

"The management of the company will be appointed by Fu's Enterprise. If there are no problems, this is the letter of intent," Xu Qian said as he took out the letter of intent and presented it to Gu Weiwei.

The shareholders discussed with each other and someone said,

"President Mu, Elder Mu has always intended for Longsheng to be acquired by the Fu's Enterprise when he was alive. Now that he has fulfilled his last wish, we must not miss out on such an opportunity."

The management of the company was in a mess and it would be better for the company if Fu's Enterprise managed it directly. Maybe the company will be able to make a comeback this year.

Gu Weiwei took the letter and glanced at it. "If no one has any objections, I will sign it."

"Sign it." The shareholders expressed their agreement at the same time.

With such good conditions, Fu's Enterprise still had to invest in the projects that the company had stopped, due to insufficient funds.

Coupled with President Mu and Third Master Fu's relationship, Longsheng would not be at a disadvantage in the future, and Fu's Enterprise would not be able to do anything about it.

Chapter 823: Longsheng Shareholders' Meeting 5

"President Mu, you..."

Seeing the situation, Zhou Hong and Zheng Ming were both furious and helpless.

Although the Far East Enterprise's project was good, the collaboration with Far East Enterprise was nothing compared to Fu's Enterprise's generous offer.

The shareholders knew that they had made connections with Far East Enterprise, so they all expressed their support for them managing the company and kicking Mu Weiwei off the board of directors.

But when they saw that Mu Weiwei was able to gain Fu's Enterprise's support, they instantly sided with her.

But was Fu's Enterprise crazy or was Fu Hanzheng insane enough to offer such a generous offer to buy Longsheng?

Gu Weiwei read the letter of intent but did not immediately sign it.

"Before signing, I also have a condition."

One shareholder became very anxious when he saw her hesitating in the face of such a good offer.

"President Mu, this is a rare opportunity, stop hesitating."

It was because of Grandpa Mu's death that Longsheng Enterprise did not get involved with the Fu's Enterprise and had been going downhill all these years.

If they missed this opportunity again, Longsheng Enterprise would be finished.

Gu Weiwei looked at Zheng Ming and Zhou Hong and said calmly, "Before signing the contract, I would like to fire Manager Zhou and Director Zheng. Any objections?"

Zhou Meiqin and Li Jiacheng had already been sent to jail by her, so what were they still dreaming about?

The shareholders looked at each other and nodded in agreement.

"No problem."

"No problem, sign it."

"President Mu, you decide."

...

The shareholders who had agreed to be on Zhou Hong and Zheng Ming's side, all turned to support her firing them.

"Also, the embezzlement of the funds, from the two projects they were in charge of, will be filed by the lawyer."

Having said these words, Gu Weiwei signed the document.

Hearing her words, Zhou Hong and Zheng Ming realized that instead of kicking Mu Weiwei out of the board of directors, they had lost their jobs and had to go to court.

Zheng Ming blacked out and slumped into the chair.

They had underestimated this girl. She was indeed not an easy person to deal with; she was able to bring Zhou Meiqin and Li Jiacheng into the picture.

Unfortunately, it was too late for them to understand how she had done it.

Seeing Gu Weiwei signing the letter and handing it to Fu Hanzheng's assistant, Xu Qian, the shareholders let out a sigh of relief.

This time, the company was saved.

Xu Qian accepted the letter and said, "President Mu, according to these conditions, Fu's Enterprise will draft the contract."

"Thank you, and thank President Fu for me too." Gu Weiwei shook his hand in a friendly way.

"..."

Xu Qian smiled. They were living under the same roof, and he did not need to thank Fu Hanzheng on her behalf.

After Gu Weiwei saw Xu Qian off, the shareholders surrounded her.

"President Mu, the company will have to depend on you in the future."

"If it were not for Li Jiacheng and Zhou Meiqin, President Mu would have taken over the company sooner."

"That's right, it is all because of these two people, they are so annoying."

...

They all tried to flatter her by cursing Li Jiacheng and Zhou Meiqin, who had already been imprisoned.

Gu Weiwei chuckled and said, "After Fu's Enterprise injects capital into the company, all the projects will be completed and everyone's previous investments will not go to waste."

But after these projects, these people should be kicked out of the company.

They had supported Li Jiacheng and Zhou Meiqin when they were running the company, and if she had not brought in the Fu's Enterprise, they would have supported Zhou Hong and Zheng Ming in running the company.

They would support whichever side was favourable to them.

So when they got what they deserved, they would never be able to make a fortune with Fu's Enterprise.

Chapter 824: As Long as You Are Happy

At Fu's Enterprise.

Hearing that the shareholder meeting was over, Fu Hanzheng switched off the monitoring equipment and continued with his work.

Fu Shiqin came in with the files and complained as he sat down on the sofa, "Brother, although you are buying Longsheng for sister-in-law, everyone thinks that you are crazy to have given them such a good deal."

After all, when they previously acquired other companies, their conditions were always very stringent.

"Longsheng's mistakes are mainly made by the management. As long as we manage it well, we can still save the company," Fu Hanzheng said without looking up.

In recent years, because Li Jiacheng and Zhou Meiqin were in charge of the company, they only focused on themselves. They were a family that wanted to take the company's money. So of course, the company was getting worse year after year.

But Weiwei was not interested in managing the company, so he had to take it over.

Fu Shiqin checked a text message and said with a sinister smile, "Brother, do you know what Longsheng shareholders are speculating?"

"What?" Seeing his weird smile, Fu Hanzheng looked up.

Fu Shiqin laughed and said, "Yang said that the shareholders of Longsheng are speculating that Mu Weiwei might be in a relationship with Third Brother and that she might become the third wife of the Fu Family. That is why they were given such a great offer, hahahaha..."

No one knew that Mu Weiwei was with his elder brother and Mu Weiwei was just working at Shiyi Culture.

Therefore, on the surface, it seemed that she and Third Brother were in a relationship, which was why Fu's Enterprise offered such a good deal to acquire Longsheng.

When he finished speaking, he saw his brother's dark face.

"If you are so free, why don't you work overtime today?"

"No, I am busy, very busy..." Fu Shiqin grabbed the signed document and ran away when he heard his brother's malicious tone.

Soon after he'd left, Xu Qian returned.

"Boss, this is the letter of intent signed by Mu Weiwei. When the contract is ready, we can sign it here."

Fu Hanzheng glanced at the signature on the letter. "Sign it at Longsheng."

“What?” Xu Qian was startled and did not understand what he meant.

“The official takeover contract will be signed at Longsheng.” Fu Hanzheng stressed his point.

“...” Xu Qian laughed dryly.

When it came to the acquisition of such a small enterprise, he was always the one who signed the letter of intent and the contract with the other party.

Did he mean that he was going to sign the contract with Longsheng in person?

Come on, you have been living under the same roof for ages and you even signed the letter of intent when you two were at home. Why must you pretend that you don't know each other and go to the company for a signing ceremony?

His schedule was so tight these days, how could he be so free?

“Is there a problem?” Fu Hanzheng threw a look at Xu Qian who had an odd expression on his face.

Xu Qian shook his head. “No, there's no problem.”

Boss, as long as you are happy.

“Write up the contract within three days and confirm the time with Longsheng,” Fu Hanzheng said.

Xu Qian immediately went to the legal team and drafted up the contract.

Then he made a call to Gu Weiwei.

“Madam, Boss has decided to sign the contract with you at Longsheng Enterprise?”

“Huh?”

Gu Weiwei, who was on her way to Shiyi Culture, was a little confused when she heard what he said. Couldn't he just bring the contract home so she could just sign it there?

Apart from the collaborations with international corporations, Fu Hanzheng was not required to attend any major project acquisitions.

Also, she could have signed the contract when he brought it home.

Why did he have to go to Longsheng to pretend that he did not know her and sign the contract in front of everyone? What was wrong with him?

Xu Qian said helplessly, “Boss insists on going.”

“Then... make the arrangements.” Gu Weiwei felt helpless.

Chapter 825: Unreasonable

At Shiyi Culture in the capital city.

When Gu Weiwei arrived, Luo Qianqian and Ji Cheng were already there. Jolin arranged for them to meet in his office.

“You are both here.”

She had thought that it was just going to be Luo Qianqian, but Ji Cheng, who was supposed to be in school, was here too.

“Qianqian said that you have something to discuss with us, and we also have something to discuss with you, so I asked for leave and came here.” Ji Cheng looked very playful with her ponytail.

Gu Weiwei sat down and drank some water to moisten her throat.

“What is it? You sounded serious when you called me last night.”

“When I was in middle school, I wrote a few songs out of inspiration, but I lost the album I recorded. However, I remember the melody, so I was going to use it on the album for the company’s artists, but...” Luo Qianqian bit her lips.

“But what?” Gu Weiwei frowned and asked, “What’s wrong, have you not started yet?”

“No, we have started to record this song, but we found that the song that Zhou Linna released recently is the song I wrote,” Luo Qianqian said as she played the music video of Zhou Linna’s new album.

Gu Weiwei finished listening to the song without saying a word and took Luo Qianqian’s music score. Although she had made some modifications to it, the two songs were still very similar.

Ji Cheng said, “When this song was written, you were still teaching us and you played it once.”

Gu Weiwei nodded. “Yes, I remember this song.”

Like her father, Luo Qianqian was very gifted in composing and writing, so she wrote some songs.

Some of the works had been sold to singers.

“The singer has finished the recording, but the album has not been released yet. Zhou Linna has already released the album, if we release it, we will be accused of plagiarism,” Luo Qianqian said helplessly.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and asked, “Is there no original script or recording file?”

Luo Qianqian shook her head. “I may have lost the original script at school and so it fell into Zhou Linna’s hands. We played it a few times but we did not record it.”

“Now Zhou Linna is using this song because she wants to create the impression that she is a talented girl.” Ji Cheng was very annoyed.

“Although we know that this song was written by Qianqian, without any evidence it will be very difficult to win even if we sue her.” Gu Weiwei calmly analyzed the situation.

Zhou Linna was a famous singer and Luo Qianqian was just a composer behind the scenes. Without absolute evidence, the public would think that she was trying to set her up.

Ji Cheng said, “Then what should we do? We can’t just watch her use the song worth thousands of yuan and say that she wrote it herself.”

She had never been on good terms with Zhou Linna in school.

After college, they did not meet each other anymore, so they did not see each other.

She had never expected that she would steal Luo Qianqian's album and say that she wrote it herself.

"Qianqian, what about yourself? What are your plans?" Gu Weiwei asked.

Luo Qianqian sighed helplessly and said, "This song is definitely not going to work now, so I am writing a new song for the singer to sing."

Luckily, they had not released it yet, otherwise the matter would have blown up.

Even if she wrote the song herself, the public would still think that she was copying Zhou Linna's work because she had no evidence.

Then she would not be able to explain herself.

Chapter 826: Life

"There is no evidence that Zhou Linna stole your work, so we can't do anything for now," Gu Weiwei said.

Luo Qianqian nodded and said, "I know."

"So we are just going to watch her steal Qianqian's work and say that it is hers?" Ji Cheng was confused.

She had written the song with her own hand, but Zhou Linna had stolen it away.

"We don't have the original script or any audio proof, and it would be bad for Qianqian if we sue or reveal the truth," Gu Weiwei said. She then said to Luo Qianqian, "I will ask Fu Shiyi if he can find out if Zhou Linna has the original script. Then we can move on."

She had just fought against Zhou Linna's father at the company, and now she was going to have to fight against Zhou Linna again.

After she had graduated from high school, Zhou Linna entered the singing industry and she was in the film industry, so they barely interacted with each other. They barely met or had any conflicts of interest.

If it had not been for the theft of the song, she wouldn't have remembered her.

"I am relieved that we're not just sitting still," Ji Cheng let out a sigh of relief.

Luo Qianqian smiled gratefully. "I will finish the song for the new album first, we can talk about it later."

"Don't worry, we can figure it out together. It will work." Gu Weiwei patted her shoulder.

Ji Cheng got up and squeezed herself onto the sofa beside her.

"Well, now that Qianqian is done explaining, what do you want from us, Weiwei?"

Gu Weiwei chuckled and said, "I just hope that you can take two days off to go to Slovakia next month."

"Slovakia?" Ji Cheng frowned and asked, "What are you doing there, filming your new movie?"

Gu Weiwei had one arm over each of their shoulders and said with a sweet smile, "Please be my bridesmaids."

“Ah!” Ji Cheng covered her mouth in surprise, fearing that she might attract attention if she screamed too loudly.

It took her a long time to calm down.

“Weiwei, you are getting married?!”

“You are getting married to Fu Hanzheng?!”

...

Although they had been wondering if they would attend their wedding, after they found out that she and Fu Hanzheng were together, they had not expected that this day would arrive so soon.

Luo Qianqian glanced at her and said, “You are not even 20 years old yet, right? You haven’t reached the legal age yet.”

“I will next week,” Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

Luo Qianqian did not know whether to laugh or cry. “You are getting married next week, when you turn 20 next week! How crazy are you?”

“I knew it, I knew it! You and Fu Hanzheng are going to get married!” Ji Cheng was even more excited than she was about getting married. She took hold of her arm and said, “Weiwei, why do I feel that life has given you only cheat cards since you graduated from high school?”

Every movie became more and more popular and she became the top Movie Queen in Chinese history.

Also... she had a very handsome and rich boyfriend who absolutely adored her.

Gu Weiwei smiled without saying a word. She had lived longer than them, so it was normal that she could do this.

“And she has become even prettier and more elegant,” Ji Cheng said excitedly.

“You are prettier too,” Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

Ji Cheng smiled with her hands over her cheeks. “Really?”

“Really.” Gu Weiwei nodded and said, “After next week, I will send the bridesmaid’s gown to your homes, and you can try it on to see if it fits.”

“The bridesmaid gown is even provided, your Uncle Fu is so considerate,” Ji Cheng said.

Gu Weiwei chuckled and explained.

“He is not doing the preparations, Mrs. Fu is.”

Chapter 827: Mu Weiwei

Ji Cheng asked her in a serious tone, “Mu Weiwei, you are winning in life, how did you manage to have a successful career, a wonderful relationship and a wonderful mother-in-law?”

Gu Weiwei chuckled and poked her forehead.

“Did you study music or gossip in college?”

“But why have the wedding in Slovakia?” Luo Qianqian was confused.

There were so many beautiful island hotels in the world, why did they choose to hold the wedding in Slovakia?

“Because...” Gu Weiwei thought of the Chenis Castle and smiled sweetly. “Because it is romantic.”

“What?” Ji Cheng was confused.

“Because the castle, where we will be hosting the wedding, was built by a noble a long time ago so he could marry a girl, who was also his childhood friend. They had a wedding in the castle and they never separated for the rest of their lives, so we decided to hold the wedding there too.” Gu Weiwei explained briefly to them about the site for the wedding.

“Oh my, I have only ever been disappointed by other people’s boyfriends but our Uncle Fu is so romantic.” Ji Cheng sighed.

Luo Qianqian teased her.

“What will your cousin think if you say that?”

“He won’t hear it anyway.” Ji Cheng smiled naughtily.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and suggested, “If your cousin is free, you can bring him with you next month.”

Ji Cheng rolled her eyes and asked with a smile, “Is Uncle Fu okay with that? After all... Grandpa and I asked you to go and visit my cousin.”

“We are getting married, what else will he have to say?” Gu Weiwei chuckled.

Ji Cheng said, “Then I will bring him with me.”

“It seems that you have a good relationship with your cousin.” Gu Weiwei smiled.

She thought of how this woman had made her go on a blind date with her cousin, and she no longer had any idea of what to say.

“He is not bad, but...” Ji Cheng threw a distressed look at her and leaned against her. “Weiwei, if only I were as smart and pretty as you are, even if I am half as smart and pretty as you are, that would be okay.”

Luo Qianqian asked in amusement, “What, does your cousin think that you are stupid?”

“No, it is just that... sometimes I don’t understand anything he says. He doesn’t think that I am stupid, but I think that I am stupid.” Ji Cheng sighed.

She was adopted by the Ji Family and she had always regarded Ming Ye as her brother.

Although she had not been able to accept the change in their relationship when he had confessed his feelings to her, after spending some time with him, she realized that she still liked him.

But Ming Ye was a top student who came back from studying abroad and he was so excellent that she could only look up to him.

She was not ambitious, she was not good at studying and she was not exceptionally good-looking either. She felt that she was not good enough for him.

Weiwei became the famous Movie Queen worth billions of yuan in Hua Land and Qianqian became a talented composer. She was the only one who was still in college and not doing very well.

“It is not the first time that he has met you, so he should know what your IQ is,” Luo Qianqian said straightforwardly. She glanced at her and said, “IQ is a natural thing, it is useless to envy others.”

“Luo Qianqian, if you continue to attack me, I will break off our friendship!” Ji Cheng bellowed furiously.

Luo Qianqian said indifferently, “Whatever.”

Gu Weiwei checked the time, stood up and said, “It is getting late, let’s go to the restaurant downstairs for dinner.”

After all, after they had graduated from high school, they went to university and she was busy making movies in the entertainment industry.

Apart from Luo Qianqian, who had been involved in the music arrangement of the movie, they rarely had time to hang out together.

Ji Cheng pointed at her and said with a smile, “It’s your treat, Mrs. Fu.”

Chapter 828: Outstanding People

It was rare for the three of them to be together, so they ate at the restaurant below Shiyi Culture.

Having eaten her fill, Ji Cheng looked at her two friends who were sitting in front of her and sighed.

“You two are so excellent, how am I supposed to live?”

Mu Weiwei had long, elegant hair and Luo Qianqian was a talented girl. That made her, who was neither pretty nor outstanding, very stressed.

“Here we go again.” Luo Qianqian sighed.

“Weiwei is about to reach the apex of her life, and Qianqian, you are going to be a famous composer too. I can only graduate from university and become a music teacher at a primary school.” Ji Cheng sighed helplessly.

“Just do what you like, don’t give yourself too much pressure.” Gu Weiwei poured her some water and consoled her.

“But what I like to do is to eat good food and have fun,” Ji Cheng said.

Luo Qianqian felt her forehead and asked straightforwardly, “What is there to complain about when you have little ambition?”

“Just don’t let me envy you.” Ji Cheng pursed her lips.

Luo Qianqian looked out of the window and said, when she saw a man stepping out of a car, “Your super handsome cousin is here to pick you up.”

Ji Cheng sat down, brushed her hair and waved at the man who walked in.

“Cousin, I am here.”

Dressed in beige casual clothes, Ming Ye approached them and greeted them.

“Miss. Mu, Miss. Luo, long time no see.”

Ji Cheng approached him and whispered, “You must call her Mrs. Fu.”

Ming Ye said with a smile, “Congratulations.”

“Thanks.” Gu Weiwei checked the time and said, “Alright, we are done here, you can take your girlfriend away now.”

Luo Qianqian reminded Ji Cheng, “Remember to lose weight, or don’t stand next to me next month.”

Ji Cheng glared at Luo Qianqian.

“Just you wait, I will lose so much weight next month.”

Gu Weiwei saw Ji Cheng and Ming Ye off and said to Luo Qianqian, after they left in the car, “This silly girl already has everything that makes people envious.”

Although Ji Cheng had lost her father at a very young age, the Ji Family who adopted her regarded her as their own.

Then she met Ming Ye, who had been waiting for her to grow up so he could take good care of her.

Luo Qianqian looked at her curiously. “You are going to be Mrs. Fu, do you need to envy anyone else?”

Gu Weiwei smiled and said, “Get in the car, it is still early so I will drive you home.”

Ji Cheng always said that she was jealous of her and Fu Hanzheng’s relationship.

But no one knew how hard it had been for her to have everything and how hard it had been for her to meet Fu Hanzheng.

Luo Qianqian got into the car and fastened the seat belt.

“Oh yes, how are you going to celebrate your birthday next week?”

“Mrs. Fu said that she is throwing a birthday party at the old mansion for me,” Gu Weiwei said.

Luo Qianqian looked at the driver. “Your mother-in-law spoils you too much.”

She was holding a birthday party for her and arranging her wedding.

“Don’t worry about Zhou Linna’s copyright infringement. If we can confirm that she still has the original script, everything will be fine,” Gu Weiwei said.

Luo Qianqian nodded and said, "If she did not keep the original script, would she just pretend that nothing happened?"

Gu Weiwei smiled mysteriously. "Don't worry, even without the original script, I can deal with her."

Chapter 829: Rumor

After seeing Luo Qianqian off, she returned to Landscape Villa and went straight over to Fu Shiyi, who was playing games.

"Third Master, I need to discuss something with you."

Fu Shiyi finished the game, put down the controller and took a sip of his drink.

"Sister-in-law, if you have something to discuss with our brother, what is the point of asking me? I am not the head of the household."

"Your brother is busy, and it is a matter within our circle, so you will have a better idea of what to do," Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

Fu Shiyi curiously asked, "What is it?"

"Did you know about Zhou Linna's infringement of Luo Qianqian's song?" Gu Weiwei asked.

Fu Shiyi nodded and said, "The director told me about it, but the other party has already published it. If there is no evidence, we can't do anything about it."

"But this song was indeed written by Luo Qianqian, so I was wondering if you could get someone to spy on Zhou Linna and see if she still has the original script," Gu Weiwei said.

Hearing her words, Fu Shiyi made a call.

"Jolin, can you find out if Zhou Linna still has the original song?"

Jolin said, "I am busy."

"My sister-in-law asked me to ask you," Fu Shiyi said and gave her the phone.

Gu Weiwei was confused but she still took it. "Jolin, do you have a way to find out about it?"

"I do and I will send you the news the day after tomorrow," Jolin replied.

Gu Weiwei hung up and said to Fu Shiyi, "I came here for your help, and you asked Jolin. You are so lazy."

"He was too nice when he was looking after you and he did not show you what he is capable of. He is the biggest backstabber in this industry, and no one in the company does it as well as him," Fu Shiyi said and started another game.

Gu Weiwei's lips twitched. "Is that a good thing?"

"You don't have to be the best as a manager, but you do have to be the best at playing dirty, so that you don't have to worry about other people ruining your artists," Fu Shiyi said proudly.

Having said these words, his phone rang again.

He turned on the speaker and heard He Chi's voice.

"Third Brother, congratulations, you are in a scandal again."

"I haven't been out these days, what is the rumor even about?!"

Fu Shiyi snorted as he played the game.

He Chi said, "The rumor is between you and your sister-in-law, and it says that Fu's Enterprise is buying Longsheng Enterprise with very generous conditions because of you two. It seems that Mu Weiwei and Third Master are already talking about marriage and she is about to marry into a wealthy family..."

Fu Shiyi looked at Gu Weiwei who was sitting next to him. "What do you mean?"

He had been staying at home because of his face allergy ever since he came back from Slovakia, so why was he having a scandal with her again?

She was supposed to marry his brother, so why was there a rumor?

"It is a misunderstanding, just ignore it." Gu Weiwei laughed dryly.

They had not been on any work assignments these days, so the entertainment journalists did not have much news to write about. Longsheng had just held a meeting at noon and the news was already out.

No wonder Xu Qian called her today and asked Fu Hanzheng to sign the contract with her at the company, so that they could share the news.

Fu Shiyi ended the call with He Chi, got up and was getting ready to pack up and run away.

"I better go out and lie low, lest my brother tries to torture me again."

It was his brother who bought over the company and it was his brother who wanted to marry her, but he was the one who was rumored to be the mysterious boyfriend.

"... Gu Weiwei did not try to persuade him otherwise, nor did she care to.

Fu Shiyi dashed upstairs to his room, packed up his things and ran away.

Chapter 830: The News

Fu Shiyi had just left when Fu Hanzheng returned from work.

Fu Shiqin asked curiously as he entered the room, "Didn't Third Brother say that he would rather die than leave the house? What was he doing driving out in a hurry?"

"Something must have happened," Gu Weiwei said helplessly.

Fu Shiqin leaned against the sofa and understood what Gu Weiwei was talking about.

"I think he ran away because he knew that he was in another scandal with you, sister-in-law."

Gu Weiwei smiled without saying a word, turned to Fu Hanzheng and asked, "Do you still want to sign a contract with me at Longsheng?"

“Yes,” Fu Hanzheng answered.

“My brother wants to be in the news with you,” Fu Shiqin said.

She had been in the news with other male stars and had been in some gossip with Fu Shiyi, but she had never been in the news with his brother.

Hearing the reason, Gu Weiwei looked at the man next to her and did not know what to say.

She was in front of him every single day, what was the point of appearing in the news together?

Was it fun to pretend that they did not know each other in front of the shareholders and perform the signing ceremony?

The servant came over to greet them to announce that the dinner was ready.

“Madam, Master, Second Master, dinner is ready.”

The three of them sat down in the dining room and Fu Shiqin asked Gu Weiwei, “I heard that Longsheng was supposed to work with Far East Enterprise, right?”

“If they had not received such a generous offer, they would have wanted to work with Far East Enterprise,” Gu Weiwei said.

However, she had realised that the project with Far East Enterprise was not suitable for Longsheng to participate in at the moment. It required investing a large amount of money and the project would not be able to start making profits until a few years had passed.

Longsheng was in a shortage of funds, and such a project would only make things worse for the company.

“Speaking of Far East Enterprise, Wei Ziting is so devoted. Li Xing’er’s family is in such a mess but he still married Li Xing’er despite the family’s objection.” Fu Shiqin started to gossip as he ate.

“If it had not been for that suicide attempt, they would not have gotten married.” Gu Weiwei sneered.

Jolin had told her that someone had found Li Xing’er with her wrist cut open and she had ended up in hospital after attempting to kill herself.

Then Wei Ziting and Li Xing’er got married.

If Wei Ziting still had feelings for her, he would definitely marry her without her having to attempt suicide.

Zhou Hong and Zheng Ming must have convinced Wei Ziting by using Li Xing’er to persuade him.

“Suicide?” Fu Shiqin could not believe what he had just heard. How could a marriage come about in this way?

Fu Hanzheng threw a cold look at Fu Shiqin who was gossiping. “If you are not going to eat, check over the reports now.”

Fu Shiqin stopped talking and focused on eating.

Although Wei Ziting had proposed to his sister-in-law when they were young, now that they were married, he could not bring up the topic.

His brother was so narrow-minded.

The three of them ate dinner and Fu Hanzheng led her back to the master bedroom.

“Shiqin and I still have some work to discuss, you should rest early.”

“Are you going to have a late night?” Gu Weiwei asked.

Normally, if it was not a lot of work, he would ask her to keep him company and if it was very late, he would ask her to rest early.

Instead of answering her, Fu Hanzheng asked, “Do you have anything on tomorrow?”

“No.”

“Then come with me to the company tomorrow, we are going on a business trip the day after tomorrow,” Fu Hanzheng said as he held her.

Hearing his words, Gu Weiwei looked up and asked, “It is my birthday this weekend, are you not coming home?”
