

MY HIDDEN 831

Chapter 831: Hang On

Fu Hanzheng chuckled and kissed her forehead.

“Of course.”

Of course he would come home at such an important time.

But he had to go on this business trip.

Gu Weiwei hugged his waist. “Good night, I will go to work with you tomorrow.”

Fu Hanzheng reminded her as he looked down at the hands around his waist.

“Then let go of me, Mrs. Fu.”

Gu Weiwei released him and kissed him on the lips.

“Good night, Mr. Fu.”

Fu Hanzheng returned to his study to deal with the unfinished work.

Gu Weiwei was resting by herself and she had no idea when Fu Hanzheng returned to the room in the middle of the night because she had fallen asleep.

It was not until dawn when Fu Hanzheng woke up early for work did he also wake her up.

Since she had been visiting the headquarters every now and then, the staff were not surprised by her presence.

While Fu Hanzheng was dealing with work, she was thinking about some ideas for the new movie, so that she could talk with the scriptwriter.

After lunch, Xu Qian delivered the contract from Fu’s Enterprise to acquire Longsheng.

“Boss, the contract is ready, do you want to take a look?”

Normally, he would not go through with such a contract but this was the acquisition of Longsheng Enterprise for the lady boss, so he thought that he might want to take a look at it, which was why he brought it over.

Fu Hanzheng took it and leafed through it. “There’s no problem, we will sign the contract tomorrow.”

Xu Qian threw a look at him and then at Gu Weiwei who was sitting in his office.

You two are already here, can’t you just sign the contract so that everyone can save time?

Gu Weiwei laughed dryly and asked Fu Hanzheng, “What about... signing it here?”

They were just signing a contract here, why did they have to pretend that they did not know each other tomorrow?

Fu Hanzheng resolutely said, "We are signing it tomorrow."

Gu Weiwei threw a helpless look at Xu Qian – it was difficult to understand this man's mind.

Xu Qian went out helplessly and informed Longsheng Enterprise that they were going to sign the contract tomorrow.

Although she was here to keep Fu Hanzheng company at work, Gu Weiwei was just sitting in his office and watching him quietly.

When they returned to Landscape Villa after work, Jolin called her.

"There is news about the matter you asked me to investigate. Zhou Linna's song had the original script, but... she has already burned it."

"Burned?" Gu Weiwei thought for a while and asked, "Are you sure?"

"Yes, her assistant burned it for her," Jolin said.

Gu Weiwei smiled at Fu Hanzheng and walked away with the phone.

Hearing her silence, Jolin reminded her.

"You wanted to find the original script and do a handwriting identification, so that the original script would be evidence that it was written by Luo Qianqian, but what now, if there is no original script?"

Zhou Linna had badmouthed his girl so much when she was with Li Xing'er, she deserved everything coming for her.

"Qianqian wrote a song called 'You are My Starlight', you can ask her for the original script and let Zhou Linna secretly know about it," Gu Weiwei said.

Jolin understood what she meant and said with a smile, "I will do it now. There will be a second time when someone steals someone else's work. Just wait for her to take the bait."

"Don't let her find out anything. As long as she dares to use it, she will never be able to turn the situation around," Gu Weiwei said.

She remembered that there were several works in the book Luo Qianqian was missing.

If Zhou Linna did not pay the price, she would take all the work for herself.

"I will call Third Master and Luo Qianqian and do it now."

Having said the words, Jolin hung up the call and went to Luo Qianqian's home to get the original script.

Chapter 832: Pretending Not to Know Each Other

After the call with Jolin, Gu Weiwei called Luo Qianqian and asked her to give the original script to Jolin.

Then she made a call to Fu Shiyi who was on the run and asked him to cooperate.

After everything was arranged, she let out a sigh of relief and returned to the dining room for dinner.

Fu Hanzheng threw a look at her. "Trouble?"

“Qianqian’s works have been plagiarized and stolen, so we have made the necessary arrangements. If everything goes well, the problem will be solved this week,” Gu Weiwei casually said.

Zhou Linna had thought that if the original script was ruined, they would not be able to do anything about it and could only swallow their anger in silence.

But there were a hundred ways to make her pay, even without the original script.

Fu Shiqin sighed and glanced at his brother.

“Sister-in-law, can’t you ask my brother for help or something?”

His brother was a boyfriend and yet she never relied on him when she was in trouble.

“You think too little of me by requesting me to ask your brother to do such a small thing.” Gu Weiwei glared at him.

Fu Hanzheng was used to her being independent, so he did not object to what she was doing.

Because he had asked her this question before, and she had told him that she loved him not because of his power and wealth, but because he was the one who loved her and so she loved him too.

Therefore, when she thought that she could solve the problem on her own, he would respect her opinion and not interfere with her choice.

“But...” Fu Shiqin threw a look at the two people sitting opposite him and asked with a smile, “Are you really going to pretend that you don’t know each other and sign the contract tomorrow?”

Gu Weiwei asked with a smile, “What do you think?”

“Well, as long as you are happy.” Fu Shiqin shook his head.

After dinner, Gu Weiwei was in the master bedroom picking out the dress she was going to wear the following day, when Fu Hanzheng came over he saw her holding a dress in one hand and looking at her reflection.

The moment she saw him, she asked for his opinion with a smile, “Uncle Fu, tomorrow is the first time we are going to be in the same news headlines together, which one do you want me to wear?”

Fu Hanzheng looked around and pointed at the beige dress.

“This one it is then.” Gu Weiwei left the beige one out and hung up the rest of the clothes in the walk-in closet.

Fu Hanzheng was busy with work as usual, so he said goodnight to her and went back to the study to discuss work with Fu Shiqin.

When they woke up early in the morning, she put on the dress Fu Hanzheng had chosen and put on some light makeup.

They ate breakfast and went out together.

Since she had to pretend not to know him in front of the shareholders of Longsheng Enterprise, she drove to Longsheng Enterprise herself.

Fu Hanzheng had a morning meeting scheduled at Fu's Enterprise before the contract signing at Longsheng Enterprise.

When the shareholders of the company heard that Fu Hanzheng was coming to sign the contract, they all came to the company to welcome him and Gu Weiwei was also asked to welcome him at the front gate of the company.

The familiar Rolls-Royce stopped and Xu Qian got out of the car to open the door.

Gu Weiwei approached him with a serious and professional demeanor. "Hello, President Fu, thank you for taking the time to sign the contract."

Fu Hanzheng calmly shook hands with her. "Hello."

After they shook hands, Fu Shiqin stepped out of the car and stood with Fu Hanzheng.

Seeing them pretending not to know each other, Fu Shiqin tried hard to hold back his laughter.

"Hello, President Mu."

Gu Weiwei glared at him, but she still shook hands with him in front of the shareholders.

"Second Master Fu, it's nice to meet you."

Fu Shiqin tried hard not to laugh. "Of course, of course."

Chapter 833: Mu Weiwei

After Gu Weiwei had shaken hands with them and greeted them, the other shareholders greeted them too.

"President Fu, it is our honor that you are here to sign the contract."

"President Fu, thank you for giving Longsheng such a generous offer..."

...

Both Fu Hanzheng and Second Master were present at Longsheng Enterprise.

President Mu was indeed not a simple person.

However, Fu Hanzheng walked past the shareholders who were waiting to shake hands with him, totally ignoring their presence.

Fu Shiqin approached them with a dry smile. His brother was offering such a good deal for his sister-in-law, not for these people.

Gu Weiwei led Fu Hanzheng and his men into the signing room, where several personnel from media companies were already waiting.

The moment they came in, they heard the camera clicking.

Some media outlets even made some inquiries.

“President Fu, I heard that Fu’s Enterprise offered a very generous offer for Longsheng, is it because of Mu Weiwei and Third Master?”

“Mu Weiwei, are you dating Third Master?”

“Mu Weiwei, is it because of you and Third Master?”

...

Fu Shiqin threw a look at his brother’s face and said, “Everyone, our friends in the media, we are signing the contract today, don’t ask for such gossip.”

“Second Master, did you offer Longsheng such a good deal because of Third Master and Mu Weiwei?” One reporter asked, unwilling to give up on juicy gossip.

Although the rumor between Third Master and Mu Weiwei was not true, Third Master had signed Mu Weiwei to Shiyi Culture and supported her. He had even allowed Mu Weiwei to direct two movies.

If they were not in a relationship, Mu Weiwei would not have been so popular.

“It is not because of him, it has nothing to do with him. It is just a business deal.” Fu Shiqin explained.

Oh please, it had nothing to do with Third Brother. It was all because of her relationship with his elder brother.

“But the conditions of the Longsheng Enterprise acquisition are way too abnormal.” The reporter still did not give up and asked Mu Weiwei instead when he could not get any information from Fu Shiqin.

“Mu Weiwei, are you in a relationship with Third Master?”

Gu Weiwei threw a look at Fu Hanzheng who looked cold. This was why she had told him that they could sign the contract at home.

He had insisted on signing the contract at Longsheng, and now he was unhappy.

She leafed through the contract briefly and signed her name.

On the other side, Fu Hanzheng had also finished signing.

Xu Qian stood between them and exchanged the two contracts, and then they signed the other contract.

Then he stood up and they shook hands.

“President Fu, please guide me in the future.”

Fu Hanzheng smiled. “I will.”

Fu Shiqin was worried that if the journalists asked about Fu Shiyi and Mu Weiwei’s gossip again, his brother would become livid.

Seeing that they had signed the contract, he reminded them.

“We have a meeting, let’s go home now.”

Gu Weiwei saw Fu Hanzheng off with the shareholders and watched him drive away.

The signing ceremony was completed within half an hour.

She did not understand why he had to come here in person.

She had just returned to the office and asked Yang to talk with the managers arranged by Fu’s Enterprise, when Fu Hanzheng texted her.

[Will you come to the company later?]

Chapter 834: Yuan Shuo

Gu Weiwei finished talking with Yang and was about to reply, when Yuan Shuo called.

“Weiwei, Cayman Dorrans asked me to meet him.”

Gu Weiwei stayed silent for a moment.

“Same place as before, let’s meet.”

“Okay,” Yuan Shuo replied.

Gu Weiwei hung up and when she saw Fu Hanzheng’s text, she sent him a message.

[I have something to deal with, can I see you at home tonight?]

A few seconds later, Fu Hanzheng replied.

[Okay.]

Gu Weiwei finished the work at the company, drove to Yuan Bao’s kindergarten and parked the car.

Seeing her car, Yuan Shuo opened the door and got in.

“Cayman Dorrans sent Watson and asked me to meet him. It must be because of what happened with Will Dorrans.”

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and said, “Fu Hanzheng sent Will’s men to Cayman Dorrans, so he must suspect something.”

“He suspects that I have figured out Will’s secret that he doesn’t want anyone to know about.” Yuan Shuo looked at her and said, “If I go, I am not sure that your secret can be hidden from Cayman.”

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and asked, “Must you go?”

“Watson is here in person, I am afraid that I have to go,” Yuan Shuo said helplessly.

He was still in Hua Land and if he did not go with him to meet Cayman, he might be forced to go with him.

But he was worried that if he told Cayman Dorrans everything, Cayman would be in a hurry to bring her back.

But the other members of the Fu Family would not be able to accept her real identity.

So he had to come and talk with her, just to make sure that what he could tell Cayman would be okay.

Gu Weiwei took a deep breath and sighed deeply.

“Finally... I have to face it.”

“But Fu Hanzheng and the Fu Family...” Yuan Shuo was worried.

They were getting married next month, and he was afraid that if they were exposed now, it would ruin their marriage.

She had died once and the love she has might be lost because of her past.

“Go and meet Cayman Dorrans, just tell him that I am here. I will meet him after I deal with Fu Hanzheng.” Gu Weiwei made up her mind to meet Cayman after she talked with Fu Hanzheng.

Yuan Shuo worriedly looked at her. “Weiwei, have you really decided to tell Fu Hanzheng?”

“If I don’t tell him, he will find out from someone else one day.” Gu Weiwei helplessly smiled.

Although she also wanted to keep this a secret from him forever, it just couldn’t be that way.

“Let’s talk with Fu Hanzheng alone, as for his family... let’s think about it,” Yuan Shuo said.

Gu Weiwei looked at him. “Where will Yuan Bao be if you meet Cayman?”

“I will bring them with me,” Yuan Shuo said.

He would not be able to return for a couple of days and she and Fu Hanzheng had something to deal with, so it was not convenient for them to take care of him.

“Are you really going to be safe with him?” Gu Weiwei was not assured.

Yuan Shuo chuckled. “Don’t worry, Cayman will not make things difficult for a child. Also, he will not do anything to me after I tell him the news.”

Gu Weiwei did not force him any more. She had her own problems to deal with and she had no time to take care of Yuan Bao.

“When are you leaving?”

Yuan Shuo said helplessly, “Well Yuan Bao prepared a present for you and is insisting on giving you the birthday present in person so...”

Chapter 835: Scandal

Gu Weiwei chuckled and nodded.

“Alright, if you can stay for a few more days that’s good. I’m looking forward to his present too.”

Yuan Shuo checked the time and said, “There is a parent-child event at Yuan Bao’s kindergarten today, I have to go.”

“Go ahead,” Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

Yuan Shuo left the car and Gu Weiwei stayed in the car by herself for almost two hours, before driving back to Landscape Villa.

At this time, the news of Fu’s Enterprise signing with Longsheng Enterprise was published.

Fu Shiqin knew that something exciting was going to happen, so he kept searching through the news.

When he found it, he spat out a mouthful of coffee onto the phone’s screen.

“Damn.”

He wiped the phone with a napkin and ran to his brother’s office.

“Brother, the news about you and sister-in-law is out.”

Fu Hanzheng looked up at him and discerned something from his odd expression.

“Is there a problem?”

Fu Shiqin placed the phone in front of him and said sympathetically, “See for yourself.”

It had been a signing between Fu’s Enterprise and Longsheng Enterprise, but the media were all guessing the relationship status between Mu Weiwei and Fu Shiyi.

Also, the accompanying picture was very annoying. On one side was the picture of Mu Weiwei and his brother shaking hands, and on the other side was the picture of Mu Weiwei and Fu Shiyi together during the promotional event.

Headline: Fu’s Enterprise acquires Longsheng Enterprise under unprecedented conditions and Mu Weiwei, the Movie Queen worth ten billion yuan, seems to be in a relationship with Third Master.

Also, although the picture of Mu Weiwei and her brother shaking hands was small, the picture of her and Fu Shiyi was enlarged.

Fu Hanzheng checked his phone for a few seconds and clicked on another one.

Although the words were different, they still sounded the same. They were all trying to guess her relationship with Fu Shiyi.

“Brother, what about... Fu Shiyi clarifying the matter?”

“No need.” Fu Hanzheng tossed his phone away and said, “Get someone to repost the news. Make it official.”

Rumors tended to get worse and worse, and if Fu Shiyi were to try and explain it, it would make them suspect their relationship even more.

Hearing the words, Fu Shiqin kindly suggested, “Brother, if you are not feeling well, I can call Fu Shiyi back and you can teach him a lesson!”

When the news came out, he also checked Weibo.

Fu Shiyi and Mu Weiwei's fans exploded in uproar too. They had guessed that they were in a relationship, but now they were sure that they were in a relationship.

At the same time, Fu Shiyi, who was hiding in his villa, heard the news from his agent and was reading the news.

What Movie Queen Mu Weiwei who had been in a relationship with Master Three for so long?! what Movie Queen Mu Weiwei who was about to marry into a wealthy family...?!

Fu Shiyi felt helpless as he read the reports about his relationship with Mu Weiwei as the only rumored couple.

What did this have to do with him?

It was his brother who was dating her, his brother who was signing the contract with her, and his brother who was getting married to her, yet these people kept spreading rumors about him and his sister-in-law.

All of them were trying to kill him. His brother must be thinking about killing him now.

He was just thinking of what to do, when Fu Shiqin called, "Third Brother, our brother told you not to clarify the gossip."

"What do you mean don't clarify? What are you doing to me are you trying to sabotage me?" Fu Shiyi got so annoyed that he said, "I did nothing! Don't accuse me!"

"Alright, it will be over in a few days, don't disturb us any more." Fu Shiqin clearly thought too highly of his own family's status.

It was also because his brother and sister-in-law were in a very secretive relationship, so the public did not think that they would interact with one another. It was easier for them to assume that she and Fu Shiyi were a couple.

Chapter 836: Talk With You

When night fell, it was already nine o'clock when Fu Hanzheng finished work at the company and returned to Landscape Villa. He also had to catch the plane and leave the country.

Seeing that Gu Weiwei was not downstairs, he asked the servant, "Where is Madam? She is not home yet?"

"Madam came home in the afternoon, but we haven't had dinner yet," the servant said.

Hearing the words, Fu Hanzheng hurried upstairs to the master bedroom and found that the light was not on.

He turned on the light and glanced around the room. He found her on the sofa, staring at the engagement ring she usually wore.

The moment the light turned on, Gu Weiwei was startled and dropped the ring onto the sofa.

"You... you are back," she said as she put the ring back on her finger.

Fu Hanzheng approached her and sized her up.

“The servant said that you are not feeling well and haven’t had dinner yet?”

Gu Weiwei shook her head. “It’s only because I ate out this afternoon and so I have no appetite.”

Due to the meeting with Yuan Shuo in the afternoon, she had been thinking a lot when she came home and the sky had turned dark without her noticing.

“Then what is it? Trouble?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

Gu Weiwei stayed silent for a while and said, “Fu Hanzheng, I need to talk with you about something.”

No matter how difficult it was to tell him everything, she had to tell him everything.

Fu Hanzheng checked the time and asked, “Is it urgent?”

“Not really, but we must talk about it.” Gu Weiwei looked serious.

Fu Hanzheng took hold of her shoulders and whispered, “Can we talk about it when I am back?”

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and said nothing.

“I have a flight to catch right now and I am in a hurry to attend an important meeting. If it is not urgent, I will talk with you in two days, alright?” Fu Hanzheng asked with a gentle voice.

He was supposed to immediately leave after picking up his luggage, but he had been delayed for a while.

“Okay.”

Gu Weiwei nodded. She had forgotten that he was going abroad for business today.

Fu Hanzheng kissed her forehead, got up and went to get his luggage. Then he asked the servant to bring the luggage into the car.

Gu Weiwei went downstairs with him hand in hand, but she did not say anything because of her worries.

She mustered up the courage and made up her mind to wait for his return.

She had no idea how hard she would have to work again, before she had the courage and determination to speak.

Fu Hanzheng took her to the door and brushed her messy hair behind her ears.

“I will finish the work soon and you can talk about anything you want.”

“Okay.” Gu Weiwei nodded.

Fu Hanzheng lowered his head and kissed her lips as he reminded her gently, “It is getting late, rest early.”

“Take a rest on the way and text me when you arrive.” Gu Weiwei hugged the man in front of her, unwilling to let go.

Fu Hanzheng kissed her forehead again. “Good night.”

Gu Weiwei released her hands and watched him get into the car. She stood still for a long time after the car drove away.

When she did not come back inside, Fu Shiqin found her and said, "Sister-in-law, my brother will only be gone for two days. It is not as if he is never coming home. Why are you so reluctant to let him go?"

She had been outside for a few minutes already, how much longer was she going to stay here?

Gu Weiwei came back to herself and glanced at the man who was complaining.

"What does a single man like you know?"

"I..." Fu Shiqin felt wronged. What had he done to deserve being single?

Fu Shiyi always attacked him with this matter, and so did she.

If he was not single, who would work overtime for his brother?

If he did not work overtime for his brother, his brother would not have time to go on dates with her.

Chapter 837: My Brother

She had been mentally prepared for the entire afternoon, waiting for Fu Hanzheng to come home and to talk with him face to face.

But she had forgotten that Fu Hanzheng was going abroad to attend a meeting tonight.

After Gu Weiwei saw him off, she struggled to fall asleep in the master bedroom.

Lying in bed alone, before she realized it was already dawn.

Jolin texted her to discuss something at the company.

She washed up, got changed and went downstairs. Fu Shiqin was eating breakfast, when he noticed the obvious dark circles under her eyes.

"Sister-in-law, if you really can't bear to be separated from my brother, you should go to him instead."

"What?" Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows.

"My brother just left and you already have dark circles under your eyes." Fu Shiqin pointed at his eyes.

Gu Weiwei rubbed her eyes and took a spoonful of the porridge.

"Second Master, if there was a very loving couple, but the woman had many secrets, what would happen if one day the man found out that the woman turned out to be someone he hated deeply, do you think... that man would continue to like her or hate her and break up with her?"

Fu Shiqin blinked and asked, "New movie idea?"

"Just answer me," Gu Weiwei said.

"That is so ridiculous! This is not like you, to ask such a thing, sister-in-law." Fu Shiqin complained and said after thinking for a while, "I think he will continue to like her."

Gu Weiwei stayed silent for a moment and asked, "If I become the person your brother used to hate, will your brother break up with me?"

Fu Shiqin finished his breakfast, wiped his mouth and checked the time. He then got up and said as he was about to leave, "Sister-in-law, my brother doesn't need to answer this question. Even if you become a man, my brother will just become gay, let alone if you became someone he hated before."

His brother's indulgence towards her had reached an infuriating level.

He might not be able to answer this question this way for anyone else but his brother.

In his brother's eyes, was there any other woman apart from Mu Weiwei?

Gu Weiwei did not know whether to laugh or cry at his words. She had been thinking about it for a whole night and she had been trying to figure out his attitude, and here Fu Shiqin had given her such a terrible answer.

"Alright, sister-in-law, if you miss my brother, just call Xu Qian and ask him to let you talk to him."

Having said these words, Fu Shiqin rushed to work with his briefcase in his hand.

Sitting alone in the dining room, Gu Weiwei faced the table full of food.

The servant was tidying up upstairs and ran downstairs with her phone.

"Madam, Master is calling you."

Gu Weiwei took the phone and answered the call.

"You've arrived?"

"Yes I just got off the plane. What are you up to now?" Fu Hanzheng asked.

"I am eating breakfast, have you eaten yet?"

"I ate on the plane." Fu Hanzheng could tell that she sounded a bit weird, so he asked, "Did you want to talk about something important with me last night?"

"No hurry, we can talk when you are back," Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

It was not something they could talk about over the phone.

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a while. "Okay, I will finish the work as quickly as possible."

He knew that Cayman Dorrans had sent someone to Hua Land to find Yuan Shuo and he hadn't returned, as if he wanted Yuan Shuo to meet him.

So he guessed that the reason why she was so serious and wanted to talk with him was because of this.

And also, about her real relationship with Gu Weiwei.

But he could not miss the meeting today, so he had to promise her that they would talk about it when he was home.

Chapter 838: Trap

They finished their call at breakfast and after breakfast, Gu Weiwei went to Shiyi Culture to meet Jolin.

Luo Qianqian happened to be at the company discussing with the singer about the modification of the new work, so they were waiting for her in the office.

Gu Weiwei sat down and asked straightforwardly, "What did Zhou Linna say about 'You Are My Starlight'?"

"I have left it behind in her reach, so it will probably be used soon," Jolin said confidently.

After all, it was a stolen work, so she was afraid that they would release it first. Of course she would definitely release it in a hurry, claiming that it was her own work.

It was the original script, so she was sure that even if they found out about it, they would not be able to do anything about it.

Luo Qianqian could not figure out what they were up to and worriedly asked, "That song was composed by my father and I, and Fu Shiyi is going to release the single. Will it affect Third Master's song release if Zhou Linna gets a hold of it?"

Gu Weiwei smiled meaningfully and took a sip of water.

"It will definitely be affected, but it won't be a bad thing."

Luo Qianqian looked at her and then at Jolin.

"I want to know what you are up to, otherwise I will not be able to rest easily."

Weiwei had called last night and asked her to give the original script to Jolin.

She could not think of what they were going to do, and she was so worried that she could not sleep well the entire night.

Gu Weiwei and Jolin exchanged a glance but before they could explain anything, Fu Shiyi came in and sat down.

"To put it simply, I am giving the original script to Zhou Linna. If she takes a fancy to that song, she will definitely record and release it, and claim that it is her new song. Then I will sing and release it, and say that it is my new song."

Jolin smiled and also spoke, "We have already finished the recording and are just waiting for the release. When the time comes, the songs that have such a high degree of similarity will definitely be torn apart by the fans of the two families. When we release the recording time, Zhou Linna will be torn apart by Third Master's fans."

"When the time comes, we can say that her song was stolen from our company too. Even if we don't have any evidence, we can do whatever we want with the help of public opinion. Zhou Linna will never be able to clear her name."

Fu Shiyi crossed his legs and explained their plan.

Without the original script and evidence, it was impossible to sue Zhou Linna for stealing Luo Qianqian's works.

But it was easy for them to prove that she was guilty.

As long as she stole 'You Are My Starlight' this time, they would be the ones to decide whether or not she stole the previous song.

Gu Weiwei said to Luo Qianqian, after they finished talking, "When the crime is done, even if Zhou Linna still has your works, she will not dare to use them again. Also... she may not have a chance to use them."

Luo Qianqian stayed silent for a while and asked, "If that is the case, will her career as a star be ruined too?"

"She ruined her own future, we are not to blame." Jolin looked at Luo Qianqian and said, "She was prepared. If you sued them, they would turn against you but if you did nothing, they would not do anything either."

That was what he had asked his men to find out these past two days. The other party was waiting for Luo Qianqian to sue them, so that they could use this opportunity to gain popularity.

"That book that fell into her hands has at least ten songs written in it by you. If she doesn't do anything now, she will definitely use them all for herself later on, saying that they are her works." Gu Weiwei patted her shoulders and said, "If she is capable enough, she can get up after the spotlight passes. If she is not capable enough, then she is asking for it."

Chapter 839: Trap 2

At the same time, Zhou Linna was practicing the new song at Hua Shang Culture.

An Yang, the agent, came over and found that she was not practicing the song in the album, so she interrupted the practice and asked, "What song is this? Is this the song from your album?"

"New song, I'm getting ready for the concert the day after tomorrow," Zhou Linna said.

Hearing this, An Yang said, "Then we can save it until after the concert, when the new single is released. It is not appropriate to sing it in such a hurry."

"This is a song to thank the fans. It shouldn't be a big deal to release the single after the song." Zhou Linna insisted on singing it at the concert.

This was Luo Qianqian's new draft. If she did not publish it as soon as possible, the song would be useless to her if a singer from Shiyi Culture used it.

Also, the melody and lyrics of this song were very catchy and she had a feeling that it would be a very popular new song.

"Brother An Yang, this song is very good, it will definitely be very popular," the voice recorder said.

This song was not at all inferior to the main song of the new album, or maybe it was even better.

The agent glanced at the recorder and said to Zhou Linna, "Come out with me."

Zhou Linna took the throat-soothing tea with her and left the recording studio, walking with her agent to his office.

“What is it? I am already practicing hard. I can release the single after the concert.”

“Tell me honestly, where did this song come from?” An Yang asked straightforwardly.

Zhou Linna sat down, took a sip of the throat-soothing tea and said calmly, “I told you that it is my new work.”

“You did not write this song. This song has the same style as your album, and it was written by the same composer, right?” An Yang asked.

He had been in this industry for years, so he was able to see things clearly.

They had tried asking Zhou Linna to compose the songs herself, but none of the songs she composed had any style.

It was not until some time ago when she finally brought out a good song called ‘Alluring Times’.

They had placed this song as the main song for her album and it was very popular on the internet.

He did not think that it was a song composed by Zhou Linna, so he kept asking her about the origin of the song before she finally confessed to him.

‘Alluring Times’ was a song written by a high school classmate.

This song was very outstanding, so they took the risk of using it in her new album. They ruined the original draft and made a new copy for the copyright registration, so that the remaining works could be used in her next album.

But he had also read through the stolen book and it did not contain the song she was practicing today.

However, this song was very similar to the style of ‘Alluring Times’, so he was almost sure that the song was written by the composer.

“Yes, she wrote it and it fell into my hands.” Zhou Linna honestly admitted.

“Coincidentally?” An Yang, the agent, countered. “It was a coincidence that you got the original script, how can it be a coincidence this time?”

When they first found the original script, he had thought of suggesting they buy it from the composer.

But Zhou Linna said that she had something against her, so she would not sell it to her.

That was why they ruined the original script and went to do the copyright registration. They made some modifications to ‘Alluring Times’ so that it could become the main song for her new album.

Chapter 840: Trap 3

Zhou Linna thought for a while. When her assistant showed it to her, she said that it was a file from a staff member from Shiyi Culture and that two words were written on it.

So they opened it and found that it was the original script of the song.

Then the staff who had lost the original script came back in a hurry, so they hid it away and brought it back with them.

She could tell that this song would definitely become popular, so she was eager to sing it.

“It was really a coincidence.”

An Yang objected.

“One time is a coincidence, but two times?”

They had also thought that after their album was released, the song composer of ‘Alluring Times’ would come to them and even sue them.

But it had been so many days and there was no movement from the other side, as if they had no idea about it.

But Zhou Linna happened to get the original draft of the song, which was way too much of a coincidence.

“I have the original script, what else is there?” Zhou Linna did not believe his speculation.

“Be careful, you are not allowed to use or sing this song.”

Her agent, An Yang, warned her. The agent’s instincts told him that the original script of ‘You Are My Starlight’ came from a strange place.

“This song is going to be very popular, it would be such a waste to miss it.”

Zhou Linna did not want to give up. The new album had made her popular, and this song would definitely make her even more popular.

“It is just a matter of luck that you succeed in one attempt because you are greedy for money. Something bad will happen sooner or later.” Agent An Yang looked at the woman in front of him and said, “Didn’t your cousin Li Xing’er teach you a lesson about shooting herself in the foot?”

“That is because... she was unlucky enough to have a fight with Mu Weiwei,” Zhou Linna said.

Because she had helped Li Xing’er when she was involved with Mu Weiwei, she had been scolded by Mu Weiwei’s fans these past few months.

As a result, her career was also affected. Now that the storm had passed and she was gaining back her popularity with the new album, she should take this opportunity to maintain her popularity and uphold her image as a talented girl.

Mu Weiwei was at the same level as her and she was already an A-lister and a Movie Queen.

But she was just a famous singer who was not on the same level.

“I am afraid that you will ruin your own path with this song,” An Yang said.

“The original script is with me, what else can they do? They can’t use it, so they will soon rewrite it and someone else will use it,” Zhou Linna said.

She loved the song, 'You Are My Starlight' so much that she was not willing to leave it to anyone else.

Seeing her unwillingness to give up, An Yang tried to persuade her with a serious face.

"Linna, you did not write the main song for the album, so you should stop while you can. You will run into a ghost if you walk too much in the dark. What a coincidence that someone else's original draft is in your hands again!"

It was not easy for him to bring her up, and he did not want her to be like her stupid cousin who had shot herself in the foot and ruined her own future.

Zhou Linna sighed impatiently. "Okay, okay, I won't sing it."

"It is not easy for you to regain your popularity, but if you take one wrong step, you will never be able to make a comeback." Seeing that she had agreed, An Yang patiently tried to persuade her. "Let's not use this song, I will get someone to prepare a better single for you."

"Got it, I am going to practice now." Zhou Linna got up unhappily and went back to practicing.
