

MY HIDDEN 841

Chapter 841: Trap 4

When Gu Weiwei first heard the news, Zhou Linna had already started to practise the original version of the song, and she thought that she had taken the bait.

But soon Jolin received the news that Zhou Linna's agent objected to her singing the song, so they gave up.

"Zhou Linna's agent has stopped her from singing this song, what should we do?" Jolin asked Gu Weiwei.

Fu Shiyi interrupted while he was playing a game.

"If she doesn't take the bait and doesn't sing this song to the public, everything will be for naught."

"Her agent An Yang is a very cautious person and he stopped her," Jolin said regretfully.

If she did not fall for it this time, they would not be able to use this trick again.

It was a coincidence that she received the original drafts once or twice, but if there was a third time, Zhou Linna would know that something was wrong.

Gu Weiwei stayed silent for a while and asked, "When is Zhou Linna's concert?"

"It starts at six tomorrow night, and will finish in about two hours," Jolin said.

Gu Weiwei threw a look at Luo Qianqian and said to Fu Shiyi, "Third Master, we should hold the release of your new single at the end of Zhou Linna's concert. If Zhou Linna doesn't fall for that song, we will have to think of something else."

"With An Yang's cautiousness, he will never allow Zhou Linna to use Luo Qianqian's works again. If she doesn't use them, we can't do anything about her," Jolin said helplessly.

Zhou Linna's agent was an experienced person in the industry, so he was very careful.

"We can decide tomorrow night. If she doesn't do it, we can think of another way. It is not the only way." Gu Weiwei chuckled, showing no signs of panic because of the deviation in the plan.

Luo Qianqian thought for a moment and said to Gu Weiwei, "Weiwei, let's forget it if it doesn't work this time."

She had been careless when she lost the book, but she had not expected that it would fall into Zhou Linna's hands.

However, she felt bad that everyone had to work so hard for just a few songs.

Be it Weiwei or Shiyi Culture, they had given her a great deal and helped her to become a successful composer.

“Forget it, how can we just forget about it?” Fu Shiyi mumbled as he played the game. “Shiyi Culture is not going to suffer any losses, I will be so embarrassed if this gets out!”

What was more, Zhou Linna had always helped Li Xing'er to badmouth his sister-in-law, and this time, she had stolen the songs that their company was going to release. All their songs and MVs[1] were completed, but all of them were ruined.

He finished the game and said to Jolin, “Get Xiao Qian to make a statement and tell her to postpone the release of the new album.”

Jolin nodded with a smile. “Okay, I will go now.”

“Third Master, it is not necessary. Because of such a small matter...”

Hearing that, Luo Qianqian felt even more guilty about postponing the release of the album.

“Don't worry, it is just a smokescreen.” Gu Weiwei patted her shoulders and explained. “Xiao Qian and Zhou Linna debuted at the same time and she is an all-rounded singer. Zhou Linna will be very anxious when she hears the news.”

Since Zhou Linna's new album was selling well and she was quite popular. But if she did not have any other works to keep up with her popularity, she would gradually decline.

When Xiao Qian released the new album, she would definitely be more popular than her.

That was why she was in a hurry to release the new single, and the song 'You are My Starlight' that was delivered to her was a very rare piece of work.

Chapter 842: My Starlight

Zhou Linna's concert was held the following afternoon. She not only sang all the songs she had performed since she debuted, but also interacted with the fans.

In the end, she even performed her best piano performance.

It could be said that the ceremony was very successful.

The agent and the organizer's representative watched from below the stage and clapped in satisfaction.

“Linna is so talented, she has a bright future ahead of her.”

“Please take care of me, President Liu.” An Yang smiled politely.

They were just talking with each other when Zhou Linna, who was sitting in front of the piano, did not end the concert as was planned.

She picked up the microphone and said to the fans, “Thank you for coming today, thank you for lighting up the entire venue. In order to thank you, I would like to share the upcoming single, 'You are My Starlight' with everyone.”

The fans thought that it was over, but when they heard that there was a new song that had not been released yet, they screamed excitedly.

Hearing this, An Yang's face changed.

He had warned her not to use this song, yet she was still going to sing it.

But the performance had already started and no matter how angry he was, he could not drag her down from the stage and stop her from singing the song.

— Like sunshine, warm in winter

Like starlight that illuminates my heaven and earth

Like a beautiful dream, so that I am addicted

You, because you

In the middle of the crowd, you shine like the stars.

Let me believe in miracles

Witnessing the beauty of dreams —

When the fans heard the song lyrics that thanked them, they were moved.

After Zhou Linna finished the performance, the fans kept calling her name.

“Linna!”

“Linna!”

The moment she returned backstage, the agent rushed into the makeup room and asked the assistant and the makeup artist to leave.

“I warned you not to use this song, why did you sing it?”

“I have sung the song and the fans liked it too. We can prepare a new song as soon as possible,” Zhou Linna said with a smile.

But the agent, An Yang, was not happy at all. With his hands on his hips, he paced back and forth in the makeup room.

“I told you not to sing this song, why didn't you listen? Why not?!”

She was not the one who wrote the song, so why did she have to go and sing the song before finding out the truth?

“Xiao Qian from Shiyi Culture is going to release a new album soon. If I don't get the new song ready soon, she will be able to beat me when her new album is released.” Zhou Linna revealed her real purpose.

Xiao Qian was a talented singer who had a similar voice to her and she had always been her competitor.

She had to have a new song to maintain her current popularity, so that she would not lose to Xiao Qian.

"I have already found the composer to write the new single, what are you in a hurry for?" An Yang replied.

Her agent, An Yang, was very displeased that she was acting so willfully without discussing anything with him.

"I can't wait any longer. Also, will you give me something better than this song?" Zhou Linna countered. Since the song was already out and the new single was revealed on stage, they had to release the single. "Forget it, let's talk about it when we get home."

Agent An Yang sighed. There were so many people here, it was not a good place to discuss this matter.

The moment he opened the door, the assistant came over to him with a phone in her hand.

"Brother An Yang, Sister Linna, look."

Chapter 843: My Starlight 2

There was a live-stream playing of Fu Shiyi's fifth anniversary on the phone and the theme was 'You are My Starlight'.

Zhou Linna's face changed when she saw the words on the live-stream.

"It is just a coincidence that the theme of the memorial is the same."

But An Yang was not as optimistic as she was. "It better be a coincidence, otherwise... you are finished."

Fu Shiyi was a very popular star in Hua Land. If this song was his, they would be totally ruined by Fu Shiyi's fans.

The preparations for Fu Shiyi's fifth anniversary celebration were very mysterious. The anniversary celebration that started in the afternoon was postponed until eight in the evening.

But the fans still waited patiently.

At the backstage of the event, Fu Shiyi had already put on makeup and gotten changed as he said proudly, "I am so smart, Zhou is finally hooked!"

A few minutes ago, they had just received news that at the end of the concert, Zhou Linna sang the song 'You are My Starlight' to thank the fans and announced the release of the single.

When she started to sing, they put down the prepared poster, 'You are my Starlight'.

"It is up to you now," Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

If Zhou Linna did not sing the song, they would have to think of something else.

But after using Xiao Qian's news to provoke Zhou Linna, she could not wait to bring out her song.

Also, she announced to the public that it was her own work but when Fu Shiyi sang the song, he would also immediately release the single.

When the time came, Zhou Linna would not be able to explain herself to Fu Shiyi's fans.

Fu Shiyi brushed his hair and sneered.

The assistant came in and reminded him, “Third Master, the host is on the stage, you have three minutes left.”

Fu Shiyi looked up and said to the makeup artist, “Add some powder to my neck, it is too dark compared to my face.”

He had been too tanned before, so he had to cover himself up.

“You are a man, is it appropriate for you to wear so much powder?”

Jolin complained at the sight of the young man who had put on foundation because he now painted a sinister look.

“None of your business, don’t be jealous of my beauty.” Fu Shiyi looked up and asked the makeup artist to add some more powder to his neck.

Gu Weiwei and Luo Qianqian exchanged a look. They were too lazy to comment on Fu Shiyi’s narcissism.

Fu Shiyi’s agent came in to urge him to hurry up and suggested to Gu Weiwei, “Weiwei, it is Third Master’s fifth anniversary, do you want to help him?”

“Damn you, you are trying to kill me again!” Fu Shiyi glared at his agent.

Because of the Fu’s Enterprise’s acquisition of Longsheng, there were all kinds of rumors about them online. If she went on the stage with him now, she would definitely make the headlines tomorrow.

If his brother saw him tomorrow, he would kill him.

“I... what did I say wrong? Your fans have become a lot more powerful these days, and there will be a good response if you share the same stage...” the agent said innocently.

“I...”

Fu Shiyi got so annoyed that he wanted to punch something. This agent did not know that she was his sister-in-law and kept trying to make them a couple.

“Third Master it is your turn.” The assistant checked the time and reminded him.

Fu Shiyi adjusted his clothes and strode out of the dressing room, ready to go on stage. He felt so intimidating that he wished he could also walk on air.

Chapter 844: A Tornado

Fu Shiyi’s fans were calling out for him from the front of the stage and Gu Weiwei said to Jolin, “It is getting late, Qianqian and I are leaving now, you can make the arrangements.”

Zhou Linna was doomed to fail.

“Don’t worry, everything is much easier now that she has taken the bait,” Jolin said with a smile.

Gu Weiwei grabbed her bag and said to Luo Qianqian, "You and your father may need to cooperate with the company to sue Zhou Linna, and the lawyers will guide you."

"Got it."

Having said these words, Luo Qianqian thanked Jolin and left with her.

Because Fu Shiyi's anniversary service had started, everyone's attention was focused on him, so they did not notice them leaving.

Gu Weiwei got into the car, removed her mask and said as she drove, "Are you and Ji Cheng free tomorrow?"

"How can we not have time for your birthday?" Luo Qianqian asked with a smile.

She and Ji Cheng had prepared the present for Weiwei half a month ago, and they were just waiting for her birthday to come around.

"Then come to the Fu Family's mansion tomorrow. Mrs. Fu has prepared a small birthday banquet," Gu Weiwei said.

They had informed everyone from Fu Hanzheng's close circle these past two days. If any of her friends were coming, she should inform them too.

After much thought, she realized that only the two of them knew about their relationship.

Luo Qianqian sighed.

"It seems that you will do well after marriage."

They had felt sorry for her when she told them about her family but now Fu Hanzheng was ready to give her a new home. Since the Fu Family loved her so much, she thought that Weiwei would be very happy after getting married.

Gu Weiwei smiled and drove without saying a word.

After they left, Fu Shiyi's fifth anniversary was very lively.

First, Fu Shiyi sang the song that made him famous, and then he interacted with the fans and started the lucky draw.

Then he sang a song with one of his fans.

At the end, he told them some unforgettable memories about him and his fans. The big screen started to play the movies and TV shows he had been in since he debuted as well as the albums he released, and some award-winning scenes. The fans were so moved that they almost burst into tears.

Fu Shiyi adjusted his ear-mic and said loudly in the center of the stage, "Today is a special day, and on this anniversary, I have a special single for you."

"You Are My Starlight." Fu Shiyi looked around at the endless lights of support from the fans around the stage, he felt as if he were standing in the middle of a galaxy. "You all are my starlight, and it is because of you that I am who I am today. You are my starlight that has been with me for five years."

As the prelude of the song started, the band cooperated with each other and Fu Shiyi's unique voice made the fans very excited.

—Like sunshine, warm in winter

Like starlight that illuminates my heaven and earth

Like a beautiful dream, so that I am addicted

You, because you

In the middle of the crowd, you shine like the stars.

Let me believe in miracles

Witnessing the beauty of dreams—

On the other side, Zhou Linna, who had just finished the concert, felt that she was losing all of her life energy when she saw Fu Shiyi singing the song in the live-stream.

She had thought that this was a new song and that the singer had not seen the original script, so she was in a hurry to announce the lyrics as her new single.

But it had only been half an hour and Fu Shiyi had sung the exact same song, and the single was also released.

So even if she sang the song first, she would still be deemed as stealing Fu Shiyi's song.

Chapter 845: Public Relations

Zhou Linna's agent An Yang watched as Fu Shiyi sang the exact same song, 'You Are My Starlight' and walked away with a dark face.

The two songs were exactly the same and Fu Shiyi had even released the single and the band had clearly rehearsed it carefully.

When Zhou Linna sang the song at the last minute, she played the piano and sang by herself. Also, because she had not practiced the song well, she could not sing as well as Fu Shiyi.

He did not dare to imagine what would happen online tonight.

After a long time, Zhou Linna looked at her agent, An Yang.

"What should we do now?"

She regretted that she had not listened to him and had sung that song.

But when she knew that Xiao Qian was about to release the new album, she could not help but sing the song on stage and announce the release of the new single.

This song was not anyone else's, but Fu Shiyi's song from Hua Land and it was a commemorative song that he had given to his fans on the fifth anniversary of his debut.

But she had just announced at her concert that it was her new song and that it was going to be released soon.

Within a couple of hours, when Fu Shiyi's fans realized what was going on, it would definitely cause a huge sensation.

Fu Shiyi's fans would say that she had stolen their idol's works, and Shiyi Culture would also sue her. Her career that she had worked so hard to achieve was going to fall into the gutter because of this song.

"I warned you, but you insisted on taking advantage of the song. What can we do now?" An Yang looked at her and he truly expected better from her.

He had thought that she would be smarter than Li Xing'er, but she turned out to be just as useless.

"If we don't find a way to deal with the public, it will be too late." Zhou Linna felt her scalp going numb, just thinking about what was going to happen.

No one in Hua Land had more fans than Fu Shiyi!

"Public relations? How?" Seeing Zhou Linna getting anxious, An Yang sneered. "Can you use money to deal with Fu Shiyi or fame to make him let you go?"

She could have provoked anyone, but she had provoked the most difficult person in the industry.

Fu Shiyi was not short on money or fame, so it was almost impossible for him to be dealt with using the public relations department.

Also, when the original script of 'You Are My Starlight' was sung by her, he had objected to her using it because he felt that something was wrong.

But she did not even say a word to him and had sang it on stage, claiming that it was her own song.

But now, Fu Shiyi has released the song.

"Nothing?"

Zhou Linna was already pale and regretful, but she could not change what had happened.

"Anything do now is useless." An Yang sighed and said straightforwardly, "You are not in the right in this matter, no matter how much PR you do, you will not be able to clear your name. Also... the other party came prepared."

"Prepared?" Zhou Linna was startled for a few seconds and said, "Are you saying that the original draft of 'You are My Starlight' was delivered to me on purpose?"

"You used someone else's song, 'Alluring Times', and they did not react at all. Also, you happened to pick up the original draft of a new song." An Yang threw a look at Zhou Linna and said, "What a coincidence! You just announced the song and Fu Shiyi just released the same song."

This was a trap for her, and the original draft of 'You Are My Starlight' was just bait.

And she was hooked once again.

Chapter 846: Public Relations 2

Zhou Linna suddenly realized what he meant.

“Luo Qianqian has set me up.”

Half an hour after she left the stage, Fu Shiyi announced that his new single was ‘You Are My Starlight’.

The agent, An Yang, sighed with a heavy heart. “This doesn’t look like something Luo Qianqian did, but more like someone else’s work.”

Zhou Linna frowned. “Who?”

“Who’s trap did your cousin Li Xing’er fall into?” An Yang asked.

Zhou Linna gritted her teeth. “It is Mu Weiwei. She and Luo Qianqian were in cahoots when they were in school. Luo Qianqian and her father were also involved in the music and theme song of the movie she directed.”

But what did it have to do with her? Mu Weiwei was just being nosy.

“Rumor has it that Mu Weiwei and Fu Shiyi are in a relationship and she is going to marry into a wealthy family and become the wife of Third Master. Who else could have made Fu Shiyi so cooperative?” An Yang said.

She had only used one song, ‘Alluring Times’, and her album had already become very popular.

But she was just too greedy and wanted to use this song that was delivered right to her doorstep, ‘You are My Starlight’, so she fell right into their trap.

Now everything had developed to the point that he did not want to see, but she had fallen into the trap that the other party had planned.

“I knew it! She got to where she is today because she sucked up to a man!” Zhou Linna said with jealousy.

Hearing her sour tone, An Yang said, “That is because she is capable. If you could suck up to such an important person, it would save me a lot of trouble.”

Zhou Linna bit her lips and urged her agent by saying, “So, are you prepared to let them ruin my career?”

If this matter started to spread online, she would definitely be at a disadvantage. If she did not do any PR, her career would be ruined.

An Yang massaged his eyebrows and said, “I am going to spend some money and bribe a songwriter from Shiyi Culture, so that he can be the scapegoat. Then you can blame yourself for being ignorant.”

Zhou Linna nodded, but she was still worried.

“Will they stop at this?”

“You had better pray, because no one can save you if they refuse to let you go,” An Yang said.

Before the concert, he had warned her repeatedly not to be greedy.

But she refused to listen to him. Not only had she been slapped in the face, but she had also caused a lot of trouble.

The other party had set her up on purpose and so he had to arrange for someone to take the blame. If Shiyi Culture was willing to let her go, then this matter would slowly come to an end.

But if the other party was trying to make her life difficult, he would not be able to save her no matter how much PR he did.

Zhou Linna asked, "Is there no other way?"

It had not been easy for her popularity to rise, but just because of one song, her future was ruined. It was too much.

"Only if you can make Luo Qianqian stop pursuing you. After all, these two songs are her work." An Yang reminded her.

If he had known, he would have insisted on changing the song or asked Luo Qianqian for the rights.

Then there would not be so many things happening today.

But Zhou Linna was not willing to do that. She was not willing to lower her head and beg Luo Qianqian, so she took someone else's work for herself without asking for their permission.

Unexpectedly, she got herself into even more trouble.

Chapter 847: Shameless

Zhou Linna instantly objected. "You want me to beg Luo Qianqian?"

They had been in the same music class in high school and Luo Qianqian and Ji Cheng had always been at odds with her. Later on, they even partnered with Mu Weiwei.

She was the one who entered the entertainment industry first, but Mu Weiwei became an A-lister before her and Luo Qianqian also became a popular composer.

Seeing that she still did not want to lower her head, the agent said speechlessly, "If Fu Shiyi keeps pestering you, only two people can save you and one is Luo Qianqian."

If Luo Qianqian agreed not to pursue the matter any further, this matter might be solved.

But at this point, he did not think that the other party would give up so easily.

"Then who is the other person?" Zhou Linna asked. If there was someone else who could help her, she would not ask Luo Qianqian to let her go.

An Yang said, "Fu Shiyi's brother, Fu Hanzheng, can control him, but can you entice him?"

The other party had set her up, but if she had not been so greedy, she would not have fallen into the trap.

Now that something had happened, she wanted to keep her career but she did not want to bow down.

Zhou Linna bit her lips. "I will go to ask her tomorrow."

"Go now, tonight." An Yang sighed and said, "There will be paparazzi watching this matter tomorrow, and you still only want to find him tomorrow? Don't you think that this matter is big enough already?"

Zhou Linna nodded unwillingly. "I am going to the Luo Family now."

"Be careful when you are there, don't leave any evidence behind."

An Yang, the agent, said a few words and left backstage as he made a call to the company.

Zhou Linna removed her makeup and got changed. Then, she looked up the address of Luo Qianqian's home on her phone. She left the concert hall and went straight to the Luo Family.

Luo Qianqian was not surprised to see her when she opened the door.

"What is a superstar doing at my home so late at night?"

On the way home, Weiwei said that Zhou Linna might come to her.

Sure enough, she did find her.

She must have realized that the song that she sang at the concert was the same song as the one released by Fu Shiyi at the five-year anniversary celebration.

"I am here to apologize to you. Recently, the lyricist and composer gave me a new song called 'You are My Starlight'. We had planned to make it a new single, but today we found out that the song was from Shiyi Culture. The lyricist brought it over and we were unaware that it was Fu Shiyi's new single. We have misunderstood, so I am here to apologize to you."

Standing at the door, Luo Qianqian showed no intention of letting anyone in.

"Since the lyricist stole my work, why are you apologizing to me?"

At this stage, she was still trying to find someone to take the blame. How shameless could she be?

"It's because I am also responsible for this matter." Zhou Linna looked at Luo Qianqian and said, "I sincerely apologize to you, so... can you and Third Master clarify the misunderstanding? Otherwise, it will affect my career."

"Now you know that it will have a great impact on your career. Why didn't you think of that when you made the decision to sing the song with 'Alluring Times'? Why didn't you think of that when you announced at the concert that 'You Are My Starlight' was created by you?" Luo Qianqian countered with a laugh.

Zhou Linna gritted her teeth, humbled herself and asked, "I am really here to apologize. If you need compensation, I will do my best to compensate you, but please don't ruin my career because of one song."

Chapter 848: Shameless 2

“It is your business whether you apologize or not, and it is my business whether I forgive you or not.” Luo Qianqian looked at the woman standing outside the door and said with a smile, “Do you think that if you apologize to me, I will forgive you out of gratitude?”

If it was not because the song ‘You are My Starlight’ had caused a big problem and affected her career and future, she would not have apologized to her.

“What do you want?” Zhou Linna asked.

Luo Qianqian smiled deeply and asked, “You are here to apologize, so... are you admitting that you stole my song?”

“It’s is your work?” Zhou Linna pretended to be surprised.

She was only here for ‘You Are My Starlight’ and they had no evidence to prove that she had stolen the song.

“Stop pretending, my name was clearly written in the book and you used it, so why are you pretending not to know?” Luo Qianqian sneered.

This woman said that she was here to apologize, yet she did not want to admit that ‘Alluring Times’ was stolen and even blamed the usage of ‘You Are My Starlight’ on a songwriter.

If she had come to sincerely apologize and admitted that she had stolen two of her works, perhaps she would have softened her heart.

But she really could not accept her apology.

“I really had no idea that ‘Alluring Times’ was your work and that the lyricist stole it.” Zhou Linna pretended to explain herself innocently and blamed everything on the lyricist.

Luo Qianqian sneered speechlessly. “But you have always claimed that you wrote ‘Alluring Times’, and now you are pushing the blame onto the lyricist.”

“It is normal to find someone in this industry to write songs for the sake of popularity and promotion, but I really had no idea that the song the lyricist gave me was your song too.” Zhou Linna denied that she had stolen two songs and blamed it on the lyricist.

Seeing her attitude, Luo Qianqian lost the mood to continue the conversation.

“In that case, we have nothing to talk about. You and your lyricist should wait for the lawyer’s letter.”

She was here to apologize because she wanted her to help her deal with Fu Shiyi.

But she had never sincerely apologized for stealing her works.

“Luo Qianqian, we are classmates, is there a need to be so cruel?” Zhou Linna asked.

She had already lowered herself and apologized. What more did she want?

“So what if we are classmates? Am I very close to you?” Luo Qianqian asked with a cold smile.

“It is just two songs, name your price.”

Seeing that an apology was not going to work, Zhou Linna decided to talk about money. At most, she could buy two songs.

Luo Qianqian did not want to say anything more and said straightforwardly, "Unless you apologize publicly and admit that you stole 'Alluring Times' and 'You Are My Starlight', this matter will not end."

Having said these words, she closed the door.

Zhou Linna had lowered her head and apologized, only to be turned down. So she went back to the car and called her agent.

"I went to Luo Qianqian but she refused to accept the apology."

"She didn't accept it?" An Yang asked, "What did she say?"

"She said that unless I publicly admit that I stole her works and apologize to her, this matter will not end."

Hearing this, An Yang was almost certain that Zhou Linna's career was going to hit rock bottom.

"We've already made the arrangements for the songwriter, but I don't know if we can shift the blame to him."

After all, if Shiyi Culture insisted on pursuing the matter, the Fu Family would definitely make the songwriter tell the truth.

Chapter 849: Good Face

When Fu Shiyi's five-year anniversary celebration ended, he was already in the top ten search rankings on the internet.

Fu Shiyi's fans attended the anniversary of their idol and happily went home after they bought the music record.

However, the moment they logged into Weibo, they found that there was another song called 'You Are My Starlight', which was played by Zhou Linna at the end of the concert. She had said that it was a new single that she was going to release.

The melody and lyrics were exactly the same.

Fu Shiyi's fans were very annoyed when someone said that the anniversary song, that was a gift for them from their idol, was going to be released by her.

They had already bought the single 'You Are My Starlight', but Zhou Linna had shamelessly announced that it was her new song.

Therefore, Fu Shiyi's fans started to cuss Zhou Linna on Weibo.

[I was going to become a fan because of Alluring Times, but now I had better become an anti-fan.]

[You Are My Starlight was prepared for Third Master's fans, but the fifth anniversary song is written by you?]

[Face[1] is a good thing to have, but you don't have it.]

[Please apologize for stealing You Are My Starlight.]

[What is the difference between this and a thief?]

...

Soon, Fu Shiyi made a post.

[You are addicted to stealing after taking Alluring Times and now you want to steal You Are My Starlight?]

At the same time, Shiyi Culture published a statement.

[Ms. Zhou Linna, the lead singer of the album Alluring Times has said she will release a new single, You are My Starlight. Both songs are composed by Luo Qianqian, the songwriter and composer of our company. They have been stolen without authorization and our company and Ms. Luo Qianqian will use legal means to protect the legal rights.]

The two posts made Fu Shiyi's fans furious.

[Damn it, even Alluring Times was stolen! Are you serious?]

[Miss Zhou is too shameless! How dare she tell the fans that she wrote it herself!]

[She is so talented at singing and stealing!]

[She stole a song and got a taste of the sweetness, and now she wants to steal You Are My Starlight? If you don't know how to write songs, why are you pretending to be talented?]

[Please leave the music industry, Miss Zhou, and stop ruining things.]

...

Fu Shiyi's fans were not the only ones who were shocked.

No one had expected that Zhou Linna was not the one who wrote 'Alluring Times', but someone else.

If it had been someone else's song or another song, Fu Shiyi's fans would not have been so furious.

But 'You Are My Starlight' was Fu Shiyi's memorial song for his fans, which he released on his fifth anniversary debut. Someone had stolen the song and almost released the single.

This made Fu Shiyi's fans furious.

Zhou Linna, who had not been on the hot search list for a long time, was now one of the top five hot searches on Weibo.

After Fu Shiyi's and Shiyi Culture's official Weibo made a post, a composer named Lin Zhou made a post.

[First of all, I apologize to Mr. Fu Shiyi and his fans, as well as Miss Zhou Linna and her fans. When I was working at Shiyi Culture, I took away some of Miss Luo Qianqian's manuscripts and sold them to Zhou

Linna's Hua Shang Entertainment at a high price because I was not able to make a living. This has caused great harm to Mr. Fu Shiyi and Miss Zhou Linna. Please allow me to apologize again.]

Hua Shang Entertainment reposted the post and claimed that the culprit of the theft had nothing to do with Miss Zhou Linna and that legal measures would be taken.

[1] Self awareness and respect.

Chapter 850: The Scapegoat

Zhou Linna's agent An Yang had contacted the PR team and found Lin Zhou, the lyricist and composer, to take all the blame.

But he had not expected that Fu Shiyi and Shiyi Culture would make a move so soon, which made their PR look like a feeble excuse.

They had accused Zhou Linna of stealing the songs, and in response they had said that the songwriter had stolen someone else's works and sold them to them.

No one would believe that.

But it was the only thing they could do now.

Zhou Linna was so annoyed by Luo Qianqian that she went back to the company to wait for the arrangements.

After the company arranged for the songwriter to take the blame, she asked her agent, when she saw that the argument was still going on online, "Should I repost the post or make a statement?"

"Don't say anything, don't do anything," An Yang said, he already had a terrible headache.

If she had not disobeyed, he would not have to deal with this.

Since Luo Qianqian did not accept her apology, Shiyi Culture would not be convinced if they only let the songwriter take the blame.

If they did anything more, he would not be able to save her.

They were well-prepared and did not give them any time to catch their breath.

Sure enough, Fu Shiyi's fans did not believe what they said.

They reposted Lin Zhou's apology statement and made all kinds of comments.

[Hello, scapegoat]

[How much is the payment for you?]

[You are not professional enough.]

[Miss Zhou is so good at pushing the blame.]

[She released the album saying that she created Alluring Times and now she says that the songwriter stole it and sold it to her. Who would believe that? I don't believe it anyways.]

...

On the official Weibo of Hua Shang Culture, Fu Shiyi's fans kept asking questions.

[Didn't Zhou Linna say that she wrote these two songs?]

[What happened to being a talented singer?]

[You found the scapegoat so soon, so fast!]

[I don't believe a single word or dot.]

[She even dares to steal Third Master's song, she is amazing!]

...

The announcement was also made and the songwriter was said to be the one responsible for the theft.

But such PR was totally useless against Fu Shiyi's fans.

After reading Fu Shiyi's and Shiyi Culture's statement, they had concluded that Zhou Linna had stolen Luo Qianqian's works.

After Lin Zhou and Hua Shang Culture published the statement, Luo Qianqian also made a statement within one hour.

[Alluring Times and You Are My Starlight were written by me and Alluring Times was composed last year. At that time, Miss Zhou Linna and I were still in the same school, and this song and other songs were lost in school.

I participated in the music accompaniment and theme song with my father because of the movie Sleepless, so I signed with Shiyi Culture's singers to compose some songs. Not long ago, Mr. Fu Shiyi asked me to compose the fifth anniversary song of his debut, You Are My Starlight. It seemed that Mr. Lin Zhou had been away from Shiyi Culture for more than a month already.

How did Mr. Lin Zhou obtain the original draft of Alluring Times from my school that I hadn't been to for more than a year? And how did he sneak into Shiyi Culture and get the original draft of You Are My Starlight when he had already left over a month ago?

This statement made Lin Zhou and Hua Shang Culture's PR even more flawed.
