

MY HIDDEN 871

Chapter 871: Fu Hanzheng, I Am Gu Weiwei 2

Even though this sentence had been going through her mind for a long time, the moment she said it to him, her heart still felt like it was being pierced by a knife.

She was afraid that this secret would cause the happiness she wanted to hold onto tightly... to leave her.

Hence, she did not dare to open her mouth. She had been waiting for him to like her a little more... and a little more...

Fu Hanzheng stared at the woman in front of him and subconsciously wiped the tears off her face.

“No, you’re not her. You can’t be her.”

He had checked everything about her. She was born in the Mu Family and was raised by them.

Everything proved that she was Mu Weiwei of the Mu Family.

But now she was telling him that she was not Mu Weiwei, but Gu Weiwei.

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and told him about her background under his disbelieving gaze.

“I am her. Although this body is still Mu Weiwei, the soul that controls this body is me, Gu Weiwei. I would not have believed it if it had not happened to me.”

Fu Hanzheng stared at the woman in front of him, his eyes full of confusion.

All of this was too inconceivable, too difficult for him to believe.

However, his rationality told him that this answer had truly cleared all the doubts he had.

Because she was Gu Weiwei, she had changed a lot after leaving the Fu Family.

Because she was Gu Weiwei, she knew Yuan Shuo and Yuan Meng so well that she had lied to him about their relationship.

Because she was Gu Weiwei, Gu Siting felt that she looked like Gu Weiwei, so he kept pestering her.

Actually, all the answers were only a step away from him.

But it was because she and Gu Weiwei looked completely different.

Therefore, he only thought that she had an unusual relationship with Gu Weiwei.

But he had never expected that she was Gu Weiwei.

The atmosphere in the living room was silent and oppressive.

Gu Weiwei twisted her fingers and stopped talking.

With his intelligence, he understood everything when she revealed who she was.

It was just whether he believed it or not.

She waited in silence for his final verdict on the love between them.

After a long time, Fu Hanzheng asked the first question.

“When did you become her?”

He was mentally prepared for what she wanted to talk to him about, even if she had a deep relationship with Gu Weiwei.

But he had not expected that she was Gu Weiwei.

This answer was far beyond his expectations.

“The night Mu Weiwei drugged you, she hit her head and had an intracranial hemorrhage. Then... I became her.”

Fu Hanzheng nodded slightly and looked away from her. He was still thinking hard.

“So... it was from that time.”

No wonder he had touched her like she had seduced his soul.

It was no wonder that she, who had refused to leave the Fu Family previously, had voluntarily moved out the next day.

No wonder she had avoided him like a venomous snake after that.

That day, when she exposed Meng Ruya for buying a counterfeit, he felt that something was strange. He had suddenly looked at her differently.

After that, he bumped into her at Jinxiu Compound. He couldn't help but feel a rush of excitement when he saw her after the change.

What he did not know was that he was not interested in Mu Weiwei after she changed, but actually Gu Weiwei.

Fate was cruel. The Fu Family had been at odds with the Gu Family for so many years, but in the end, he fell in love with Gu Weiwei.

Chapter 872: Fu Hanzheng, I am Gu Weiwei 3

Gu Weiwei's heart tightened when she saw the man's uninterpretable expression.

Two hours ago, he was still giving her sweet surprises and a proposal, but tonight, she had given him such a heavy and cruel answer.

After a long silence, she spoke, “I'm sorry I lied to you for so long.”

Fu Hanzheng sighed deeply. If he had known that this was the answer, he would have rather that he had never known.

“You never told me before, so why are you telling me now?”

Previously, when he suspected that she was related to the Gu family, he had tested her a few times, thinking that she would tell him the truth.

But she had always avoided his question.

Twisting the ring on her ring finger, Gu Weiwei looked down at the diamond on the ring as if it could give her some mysterious power.

“At first... I didn’t want to tell you. I wanted to keep this secret until my death, but if I don’t tell you today, others will.”

“Someone else?” Fu Hanzheng looked at her and could guess who she was talking about.

Gu Weiwei sighed heavily and confessed to him.

“Soon, Gu Siting will know who I am and where I am. Even if I don’t tell you, he will tell you. I don’t want... you to find out everything from him.”

She knew that he and Gu Siting had always been enemies. But because of her, they would have even more conflict.

If she did not tell him everything now, it would hurt him even more if he found out from Gu Siting.

Fu Hanzheng looked at the girl with a serious expression.

“You don’t want to go back to the Gu family?”

As far as he knew, she had always been the apple of the Gu family’s eye, when she was in the Gu family.

Logically speaking, even if she had become Mu Weiwei, she should have gone back to the Gu Family. But she had never thought that way.

Gu Weiwei looked into his eyes with tears welling up in her own.

“Do you want me to go back to the Gu family?”

Was it because her surname was Gu, so she could no longer stay here with him?

“No,” Fu Hanzheng blurted out.

Gu Weiwei looked away with pursed lips, took a sip of the tea and looked down at the floating tea leaves.

“I’ve already died in the Gu family once. Even now, my body is still in the Gu family’s basement. That place... can I still go back?”

Fu Hanzheng felt a pain in his heart. No wonder she had been trying to find out how Gu Weiwei had died. She had been trying to figure out how she had died.

While she was doing all this, he did not know anything.

“You found out how you were killed, didn’t you?”

“You want to know how I died, right?” Gu Weiwei asked with a bitter smile.

Fu Hanzheng patted her head out of habit to comfort her.

When he realized what he was doing, he was stunned.

Gu Weiwei looked at him sideways. She had not expected that he would do something so comforting at this moment in time.

After a while, she turned her head away and held back the tears that were about to fall from her eyes. She casually recounted her death.

“The people who wanted to target Cayman attacked me. After I woke up from the coma, I was injected with drugs and died. Gu Siting transplanted my heart into his fiancée Ling Yan.”

Fu Hanzheng felt a suffocating pain in his heart. So... that was how she came to him after she died.

That was why she often had nightmares when she was asleep, where she cried and cried for help...

Chapter 873: Fu Hanzheng, I am Gu Weiwei 4

Gu Weiwei did not say anything more after she finished her story.

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent and did not ask her any more questions.

After a long while, when she was calmer, Fu Hanzheng patted her back and said gently, “It’s late, go rest.”

“What about you?” Gu Weiwei asked.

She had said so much, but he still did not say how to handle their relationship.

“I want to sit alone for a while more, go to sleep, good night.” Fu Hanzheng sounded as gentle as he had before.

Gu Weiwei did not want to rest. She even wanted to ask him if he wanted to break up with her.

In the end, she swallowed her doubts and went upstairs alone.

Everything she said was far from the answer he had expected, so he needed to think about a lot of things alone. At this time... he should not be disturbed.

She went upstairs but did not return to the master bedroom immediately. Instead, she stood behind the pillar in the corridor and silently looked at the person sitting in the living room downstairs.

Fu Hanzheng sat downstairs for more than ten minutes, before he took the coat and car keys, and went out.

Fu Hanzheng had already left when she came downstairs.

She stared at the empty living room, alone. She had no idea where he would go, and she had no idea... that he would never return.

Fu Hanzheng drove out of Landscape Villa alone. He drove around the city in the middle of the night and finally arrived at Jinxiu Compound where he had not lived for a long time.

The moment he opened the door, he suddenly recalled the time when he came here and accidentally bumped into her.

At that time, Fu Shiqin was shocked by her appearance and kept talking about her in front of him.

At that time, no one knew how much his heart was pounding.

He turned on the lights and sat down on the sofa in the living room. She was not here, but her shadow was everywhere.

After sitting for a while, he picked up his phone and made a call.

“Jinxu Compound, come over. Let’s talk.”

After hanging up, he leaned against the sofa and waited.

Half an hour later, the doorbell rang.

Fu Hanzheng opened his eyes, got up and opened the door. It was Yuan Shuo.

Upon seeing him, Yuan Shuo was slightly shaken. Upon entering, he discovered that he was alone, so he asked this question, “You already know.”

At the Fu family mansion, he had just proposed, if there was no special reason why had he called him over?

He should have returned to Landscape Villa with her and he should be resting at this time.

However, he was here alone in the wee[1] hours of the morning and had even called him over. Hence, it was not hard to guess that she had already confessed her true identity to him after she returned.

Fu Hanzheng sat down and looked serious.

“I know.”

“In that case, what else do you want to know by calling me here?” asked Yuan Shuo.

Fu Hanzheng looked cold. “Everything about her.”

He had always thought that he knew her well, but in the end, he only knew Mu Weiwei, not the real her.

Although he knew that she was in the Gu family in the past, he had never paid attention to any news about Gu Weiwei because she had never participated in the Gu family’s business.

The real reason he’d started paying attention was that he’d found out about her relationship with Cayman Dorrans after she’d died.

“Fu Hanzheng, because she was raised by the Gu Family and her surname is Gu. Are you going to break up with her now?” Yuan Shuo asked straightforwardly.

He did not know how the couple would talk about these things when Fu Hanzheng returned.

What did she say to him before he left? Now he wanted to know how Fu Hanzheng felt about her and what his plans are.

[1] Wee in this context means little or small. It's a Scottish word and is used throughout the English language too. A wee lass is a little girl but it sounds more affectionate and softer than using little/small girl.

Chapter 874: Gu Weiwei's Past

Fu Hanzheng said after a moment of silence, "I don't know."

To be precise, he had not thought about this.

Even though he understood everything she had said, he had not considered this problem.

He just wanted to figure out what he did not know, before Gu Siting got involved.

Yuan Shuo stood up and poured himself a glass of water.

"She was in the Gu family. Her surname is Gu. This is something she can't choose. Cayman had too many enemies and didn't want her to live in danger, so he sent her to the Gu family where they raised her."

...

"So, that's why Cayman Dorrans provided an opportunity for the Gu Family in the European market?" Fu Hanzheng asked.

The Gu Family and the Dorrans Family had been very secretive about this deal, and the Fu Family had not discovered it for more than twenty years.

If not for the fact that Gu Weiwei died, they probably still wouldn't have found out.

"She may have been looking for her biological father, but... she didn't know about her relationship with Cayman until she was with you," said Yuan Shuo.

In the past twenty years, she had been sunny and kind. Although she had led a luxurious life in the Gu family, she never had the arrogance of a noble lady.

She used her connections to set up many charitable funds. She was trying to find her biological father in a country that was embroiled in war and used the Gu family's resources to save many orphans who lost their parents in the war...

But because of her father's identity, she was murdered by Ling Yan, whom she had saved before, and abandoned by Gu Siting, whom she trusted the most. In the end, her heart was dug out and she died.

The heavens had given her a chance to live again. She had obtained everything she had dreamed of, but now, because of this past, her life had once again been thrown into turmoil.

Fu Hanzheng was surprised. Gu Weiwei had heard him say Cayman was her father, when he asked someone to investigate the matter.

But he hadn't expected her to have not found out that Cayman Dorrans was her biological father until then.

"She said that her heart was given to Ling Yan by Gu Siting. What happened?"

She said it so sadly that he could not bear to ask her in detail.

Yuan Shuo looked at him and said, "Someone found out that she was Cayman's daughter and attacked her. Although Yuan Meng and I tried our best to save her, we were both seriously injured and she was brought back to the Gu Family by Gu Siting."

"After that, we lost contact with her. And when I woke up, Gu Siting was looking for us, so Yuan Meng and I escaped to China with our child. When Weiwei went to Shengxi Town for the Film Festival, she went to the Yuan Family and household and was caught by Gu Siting's men. But Gu Siting did not recognize her."

Fu Hanzheng pursed his lips. Gu Siting had probably seen Gu Weiwei's shadow on her at that time.

Hence, he used the crew members to threaten her to visit the Gu family.

Yuan Shuo swirled the cup in his hand and continued.

"At that time, she didn't know that we had already left Country A. Later on, Yuan Meng found the information she left on the Dark Network that we had contacted her on previously, and contacted her.

After Yuan Meng was exposed, you found out many things.

As for how she got into trouble in the Gu family, we only found out after meeting her."

...

"From the Gu Family's perspective, Gu Siting should not have done anything to her," Fu Hanzheng said.

Otherwise, he would not have searched for her shadow after her death.

Yuan Shuo laughed mockingly and spoke coldly.

"It was Ling Yan who colluded with someone. But without Gu Siting's permission, who would dare to dig out her heart and transplant it into Ling Yan?"

Chapter 875: Gu Weiwei's Past 2

Fu Hanzheng was reminded of the times when she had nightmares, and his heart ached.

Her dreams were already so painful. How painful would it be when someone dug out her heart?

Yuan Shuo saw his expression and remained silent for a while before continuing.

"Ling Yan had congenital heart disease and was saved by Weiwei when she wanted to commit suicide. She knew that she liked movies and had always wanted to be a movie actress, so Weiwei put in all her effort to create Dream of a Long Life for her, so that she could fulfill her dream of becoming a famous movie queen.

At that time, Ling Yan did not have many years left to live, and Weiwei happened to have the same rare blood type as her. When someone came to her for information, she betrayed Weiwei and injected her with lethal drugs after Weiwei woke up from her serious injuries. She also persuaded Gu Siting to give her Weiwei's heart to transplant.

Gu Siting did not mean to kill her, but her death... he must be involved."

...

It seemed that she had only told him that she was Gu Weiwei.

As for other things, she did not tell him in detail.

"How did Gu Siting know that she is with me?" Fu Hanzheng asked.

Gu Siting had never known that she was Gu Weiwei even when she was in front of him.

Now, why should he know?

"We are not sure about the details. We only heard that Gu Siting acquired an ancient object called the Nine-Eyed Pearl, and the person who lent it to him said that he would tell him where she is now." Yuan Shuo sighed and said, "If she had not already ended up in another person's body, we might not have believed it, but... it might be true."

He even wondered if she was reborn because of the Nine-Eyed Pearl.

Fu Hanzheng frowned and said, "When he knows and will bring her back, right?"

"If Gu Siting finds out that she is with you, he will do anything to get her back." Yuan Shuo looked at Fu Hanzheng who was deep in thought and said worriedly, "And your family... will not tolerate her."

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent, but his mood became heavier.

If the Old Lady and his father knew about it, he could not imagine the situation...

"She would never tell you unless she had no other choice." Yuan Shuo looked at Fu Hanzheng who was silent and said sincerely, "She lied to you again and again about the Gu Family. She lied to you again and again because she was afraid that you would not like her anymore. I tried to persuade her to tell you about this earlier, but she said that she wanted to wait for you to like her a little more... and then a little more. That way, you might not break up with her if you knew about it."

Fu Hanzheng lowered his eyes and looked at the watch on his left wrist, which had a red string underneath it.

She said that this was the string of fate, the symbol of their fate.

Recently, she had been believing in wishes that would last for a long time. But it turned out that causing him to know everything would make him separate from her.

Yuan Shuo looked at the time and said, "Is there anything else you want to ask? I'm going back soon. I have to catch a flight early in the morning."

He agreed to meet Cayman Dorrans at the Dorrans Family with Watson today.

“What is her relationship with Gu Siting?” Fu Hanzheng asked the last question.

She was adopted by the Gu Family and was Gu Siting’s sister.

But looking at Gu Siting’s behavior, he did not seem like an elder brother who cared for his sister. Instead, he seemed more like a man... obsessed with the woman he loved.

Chapter 876: Will He Break Up With Me?

Yuan Shuo smiled knowingly. He knew he would ask this question.

“Do you want to hear the truth?”

“If it is not the truth, then I don’t need the answer,” Fu Hanzheng said.

Yuan Shuo looked at him and said calmly, “She grew up in the Gu Family, and they are not biological siblings. As the public knew, Gu Siting loved her very much. If Gu Siting did not know that his father died because he brought Weiwei into the Gu Family, maybe... they would be together.”

If not for everything that had happened, she would have continued living in the Gu family.

“Gu Siting loves her?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

“Perhaps. However, who knows how much of this affection there is,” Yuan Shuo said.

Gu Siting’s love was too centered around himself and he never gave her the happiness she truly wanted.

Fu Hanzheng hesitated for a moment and asked again, “What about her?”

Had she ever loved Gu Siting before him?

Yuan Shuo chuckled lightly and spoke calmly about what he knew. “She lived in the Gu Family for many years and had a good relationship with Gu Siting before the accident. She had confused the relationship she had with Gu Siting, but she did not truly fall in love with him. But towards you, even though she knew that you might stop loving her because her surname is Gu, she never thought of leaving.”

Fu Hanzheng did not ask any further, but neither did he speak.

He sat there with a heavy expression, thinking about something.

“I have told you everything I know. Believe it or not, it is up to you.” Yuan Shuo got up and left but after taking a few steps, he stopped and looked at Fu Hanzheng. “Fu Hanzheng, you can decide your own relationship, but if you break up with her, we will take her away.”

With that, he left the apartment.

The apartment fell into dead silence once again. Sitting alone on the sofa, Fu Hanzheng was thinking about the questions one after another.

Landscape Villa

Gu Weiwei was also sitting alone in the living room, waiting for the person who would come back.

It was two in the morning when the doorbell rang.

Her eyes lit up and she quickly opened the door.

But it was not Fu Hanzheng who she thought would be waiting outside the door, but Yuan Meng who had just returned home today.

Yuan Meng looked at her disappointed face. "What, not Fu Hanzheng, so disappointed?"

As she spoke, she walked into the room.

Gu Weiwei closed the door and sat down in the living room.

"Why are you here?"

"Fu Hanzheng asked my man to go and talk to him, so he had to leave me, so I came to find you." Yuan Meng found an ashtray and asked as she sat down beside her, "Did you confess to Fu Hanzheng?"

"He called Master?" Gu Weiwei was surprised.

Yuan Meng shook her lighter and said, "Of course, he wanted to ask him some questions. For example, how many boyfriends have you had before? Is Gu Siting your ex-boyfriend or something..."

Gu Weiwei asked, with the pillow in her arms, "Do you think he'll break up with me?"

Yuan Meng finally lit her cigarette and took a puff.

"Be more open-minded. If he wants to leave, so be it. There are plenty of men. You're not lacking."

Gu Weiwei threw a look at her and did not want to talk to her anymore.

Yuan Meng looked at her tearful face, she looked as if she was about to cry.

Hence, she gently patted her shoulder.

"If you really want to cry, I'll let you cry."

Gu Weiwei squinted at her, totally uninterested. She could not cry at all.

Seeing that she refused to use her shoulder to cry on, Yuan Meng patted her chest and smiled evilly.

"Is my chest nice enough to let you cry on?"

Chapter 877: Will He Break Up with Me 2

Gu Weiwei changed sofas, with the pillow still in her arms. She wanted to stay far away from this old man.

"I don't want to enjoy your breasts, thank you very much."

Her mood was originally heavy, but now, she did not know whether to laugh or cry.

"Forget it."

Yuan Meng went into the kitchen and found some fruits to eat.

She peeled an apple and handed it to her. "Want some?"

Gu Weiwei shook her head. "Eat it yourself."

Yuan Meng took a big bite and asked, "What did Fu Hanzheng say before he left you?"

Gu Weiwei thought for a moment and said, "He told me to rest early."

Yuan Meng blinked. "That's all?"

"Yes." Gu Weiwei nodded.

"He did not yell 'you are Gu Weiwei', and he did not want to strangle you to death, nor did he flip the roof?" Yuan Meng asked curiously.

Gu Weiwei looked at Yuan Meng who was eating an apple speechlessly. "He is not like you, who wants to kill people."

In reality, she couldn't tell if he was angry or not.

That was because, from the beginning to the end, apart from his serious expression, even his tone was as gentle as before.

But the more it was like this, the more uneasy she felt after seeing him leave.

She had been staring at her phone for a long time. She scrolled through his contact information and WeChat again and again.

In the past, she would have asked him without thinking.

But today, she did not know how to ask him, nor did she dare to ask him.

"Let me tell you, the more someone holds their anger in, the more terrifying it is when they explode," said Yuan Meng.

Hearing her words, Gu Weiwei's face changed.

"...Will it?"

"Think about it. Your surname is Gu, and you've lied to him for so long. If this were to happen to you, wouldn't you be angry?" Yuan Meng analyzed it seriously.

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and said nothing. If it was her, she would have been... angry.

But Fu Hanzheng was not an impulsive person.

Yuan Meng analyzed and then concluded.

"In my opinion, when he gets really angry, he'll either beat you up or break up with you..."

"Are you here to comfort me or to threaten me?" Gu Weiwei interrupted her guess angrily.

She was already in this situation, yet she was still saying such scary things.

Yuan Meng touched her nose guiltily and lit another cigarette.

“To be honest, it’s such a big deal. It’s impossible for him to figure it out so quickly. So you should pack up and come with me.”

“Follow you?” Gu Weiwei frowned.

Yuan Meng tapped her cigarette and said, “You have to give him some time to think about it. If you keep appearing in front of him, how is he going to think about it? Didn’t you say that there are scenes that need to be examined in the new movie? Go out and walk around. When he’s done thinking about it, you two can talk about whether you want to break up or not.”

If Fu Hanzheng did not come back, she would be waiting here like a prisoner, waiting to be sentenced to death.

The longer she waited, the more her mental health would crumble.

She should go out for a walk to relax herself, so that Fu Hanzheng would have time to think about their relationship, because then they could talk peacefully.

Gu Weiwei stayed silent for a moment and suddenly felt that what she said made sense.

Fu Hanzheng had left by himself because she was here. He must have wanted a place to think in peace.

Besides, if he didn’t come back and she was here alone, the rest of the Fu family would find it strange and it would only make him more annoyed.

“Fine. We’ll go out for a few days.”

Chapter 878: Rush to Get Married

It was a long night for Fu Hanzheng.

He sat alone in Jinxiu Compound until Fu Shiqin called and asked him to come to the company for a meeting.

He snapped out of his complicated thoughts, washed his face, and hurried to the office.

The moment he stepped into the office, Fu Shiqin delivered the documents for the meeting.

He looked at the obvious dark circles under his brother’s eyes and his slightly haggard expression and said with concern, “Brother, although it’s understandable that this is a new marriage, it’s better to control yourself, so you don’t hurt your health...”

Before he finished speaking, Fu Hanzheng threw a cold look at him.

“One more word and I’ll seal your mouth with duct tape today.”

Fu Shiqin covered his mouth and said nothing more.

But what did he say that was wrong? His face clearly said: I’m weak.

He had kindly reminded him, yet he did not appreciate it.

Fu Hanzheng browsed through the content of the meeting and Xu Qian walked over to him to inform them.

“Boss, Second Master, the other directors are here. The meeting can begin now.”

“Got it.” Fu Hanzheng closed the files and went straight to the meeting room.

Xu Qian could tell that he did not look well, so he asked Fu Shiqin as he walked behind him, “Second Master, is Boss feeling unwell? Why does he look so pale?”

Fu Shiqin glanced at the person walking in front and said in a low voice, “It’s probably kidney deficiency.”

Yes, later on he would remind his sister-in-law to make some kidney nourishment soup for his brother’s dinner.

“...” Xu Qian was stunned, then he nodded in understanding.

That made sense, he had gone on a business trip for a few days and had only returned yesterday.

Fu Hanzheng entered the meeting room with a cold expression and glanced at his phone occasionally, wondering if he should call her.

After all, he had left just like that last night. It was inevitable that she would feel sad and disappointed.

Although he just wanted a place to think and clear his understanding.

Finally, the two-hour project meeting ended.

He returned to the office and called Gu Weiwei.

However, her phone was switched off.

He then called the landline at home. It rang for a while before the maid picked up.

“Is Madam awake?”

The servant recognized his voice and looked upstairs.

“I woke up in the morning and saw her sitting in the living room with Miss Yuan Meng. She seemed to have not slept for the whole night and just went upstairs.”

Fu Hanzheng frowned and asked, “Is she resting now?”

“No, I just went up to ask them to have breakfast. They seem to be packing their things. I think they’re going on a long trip,” the servant said.

“I see.” Fu Hanzheng hung up the phone and dialed the internal line. “Xu Qian, leave your work and come out with me.”

Fu Shiqin came in just then and asked immediately after hearing what he said, “You have a meeting with the overseas development department in half an hour. It was decided last week. Where are you going?”

Fu Hanzheng got up, picked up his phone and car keys and said, “To do something important, postpone the meeting. You can make the other arrangements.”

He left the office. Xu Qian also told a few assistants about the matters that needed to be dealt with and hurriedly followed him into the elevator.

“Boss, is it something urgent?”

The overseas Development Department’s meeting had always been a serious one. For him to postpone it just like that, something big must have happened.

“Yes,” Fu Hanzheng answered with a heavy expression.

She was actually packing her things and leaving. Was she trying to leave after saying her piece?

Chapter 879: Fu Hanzheng, What Are You Trying to Do?

Sky Water Villa.

Under Yuan Meng’s persuasion, Gu Weiwei decided to go away for a few days so that Fu Hanzheng could think about things in peace and come back when he had made up his mind.

Early in the morning, she went upstairs to pack the luggage she was going to bring. Seeing Fu Hanzheng’s suit in the cloakroom, she couldn’t help but think deeply.

He had only been out for a few hours. She felt that he had been gone for a long time, so long that it was as if he would never return.

“Alright, stop looking. Pack your things up quickly,” urged Yuan Meng.

Gu Weiwei came back to herself and continued to pack her clothes.

“Have Master and the others left?”

“He got on the plane at dawn.” Yuan Meng looked at her and asked, “How about we go to Italy to meet your father?”

“I’m not in the mood to see him right now.”

Gu Weiwei packed the final few things and closed the suitcase.

The two of them had just finished packing when the servant came upstairs and said, “Madam, breakfast is ready. Have some.”

“No need.” Gu Weiwei had no appetite and rejected her directly.

“Why not? Eat before you leave.”

Yuan Meng dragged her downstairs.

Gu Weiwei had only one bowl of porridge, but Yuan Meng ate the breakfast as if it was also lunch. She ate the porridge, some wontons and some barley biscuits.

She only put down her chopsticks after she was full.

The servant looked at her luggage in the living room and asked, “Madam, are you going out?”

“I’ve got some work to do. I’m going away for a few days.”

Having said these words, Gu Weiwei dragged the luggage out and put it into the trunk of her car.

The two of them had just driven out of the garage, when they were forced to stop by a car outside.

She recognized it as Fu Hanzheng's car, but she did not understand why he would come back at this time.

Fu Hanzheng got out of the car, walked over to her car and opened the door.

"Where are you going?"

Gu Weiwei held the steering wheel tightly and tried to stay calm.

"I have some work to do. I need to leave for a few days."

"Get out of the car." Fu Hanzheng grabbed her hands that were holding the steering wheel.

Gu Weiwei threw a look at him and followed him out of the car.

Yuan Meng got out from the other side of the car and went around the car to block them.

"Fu Hanzheng, what are you doing?"

"It is none of your business, go away." Fu Hanzheng pulled Weiwei and was about to walk around Yuan Meng who was standing in front of him, when Yuan Meng grabbed Weiwei's hand.

"Why is it none of my business? What if I have to kidnap her for my special experiments?"

After all, it was hard to find another person like her who had died and been reborn.

Gu Weiwei did not know whether to laugh or cry as she said softly, "Yuan Meng, wait for me."

"Let's go together." Yuan Meng insisted.

Fu Hanzheng threw a cold look at her. "Let go!"

"What, you want to fight? Can you beat me?" Yuan Meng raised her eyebrows provocatively. You want to take her away without saying anything clearly?

Fu Hanzheng took out the cell-phone and pressed it, the bodyguards of the Fu Family quickly came over.

"Boss!"

Yuan Meng threw a look at the people around her and let go of Gu Weiwei's hands, laughing dryly.

"I'll wait for you at home then. Come back soon."

Fu Hanzheng took her over to his car, got into the car and turned the car around, leaving the Landscape Villa behind.

Gu Weiwei carefully glanced at the driver.

"Where... are we going?"

Instead of answering, Fu Hanzheng drove with a dark expression.

When the car stopped forty minutes later, Fu Hanzheng parked the car, got out and opened the door. Gu Weiwei was pulled out of the car and was startled when she saw the sign of the Civil Affairs Office.
“...Fu Hanzheng.”

Chapter 880: Are You Marrying Me?

Fu Hanzheng looked at the woman who refused to go in and asked, “What is it?”

Gu Weiwei looked at the sign of the Civil Affairs Office and asked him, “Are you... marrying me?”

After he found out about her secret last night, he even brought her to the Civil Affairs Bureau to get married.

Had he really thought it through?

Fu Hanzheng frowned slightly. “Are you going back on your promise?”

Gu Weiwei reminded him with red eyes, “Are you sure? I am not Mu Weiwei, I am Gu Weiwei, I am...”

He had proposed to her last night and she had agreed to it.

But she had also told him last night that she was Gu Weiwei, not Mu Weiwei.

“I know!” Fu Hanzheng interrupted her.

“So you... still want to marry me?” Gu Weiwei asked in a choked voice.

Fu Hanzheng stared at her. “Do I have a choice now?”

If she had told him at the start, he might have been able to stop himself from falling in love with her.

But now, she was telling him that she loved him so much that he couldn't stop himself from telling her that he had no other choice but to continue loving her.

Gu Weiwei's eyes glistened with tears. “I am sorry.”

She had been lying to him. She wanted to wait until he liked her a little more... and then a little more before telling him.

Then he wouldn't break up with her.

However, when her wish came true, she did not know if what she had done was right or wrong.

“You have agreed to the proposal and the wedding date is set. You can't go back on your words now,” Fu Hanzheng said and took her into the Civil Affairs Office.

When Xu Qian saw the two of them enter, he hurried over.

“Boss, all the necessary documents are ready. We've agreed to stay here for half an hour. You just need to take a photo and fill in the form.”

Because their identities were easily noticed by others, they did not plan to announce their marriage to the public. Hence, he came over to inform them that the marriage registration office had reported a system failure to the public, leaving them half an hour to complete everything.

“Which way?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

“This way.” Xu Qian quickly led the way.

Although the staff knew from Xu Qian that it was a big shot coming over to register their marriage, they did not expect it to be them.

Because it was Xu Qian who came to greet them, everyone had guessed that it would be Fu Hanzheng of the Fu’s Enterprise, but... no one had expected that the woman he was going to marry was Mu Weiwei, who was having a scandal with his brother Fu Shiyi.

Xu Qian reminded them with a smile, “Hi. Can we take the photos now? We’re in a hurry.”

After postponing such an important meeting, he thought that something big had happened. It turned out that they were getting married.

However, couldn’t they get a marriage certificate whenever they wanted? Yet they suddenly wanted to get married.

Fu Hanzheng took Gu Weiwei over to the backdrop and sat down. The photographer picked up the camera and reminded her awkwardly, “Miss, don’t cry. There’s no way we can take a photo if you are.”

Hearing the words, Xu Qian looked at Gu Weiwei in surprise and realized that tears were rolling down from her eyes.

Didn’t they already agree on getting married?

Second Master also said in the morning that his boss had proposed last night.

Why were they here to register their marriage if the lady boss was crying so hard.

Although it was a little sudden for them to register their marriage today, but... there was no need to cry like this.

He felt that the atmosphere around him was a little strange. He looked at the staff from the Marriage Registry.

These people were obviously suspecting that his boss was trying to snatch a woman by force and had dragged her here to force her into a marriage. This was a huge misunderstanding.
