

Chapter 25

The moment the phone rang, Howard and Thomas' hearts tightened at the same time, and they almost forgot to breathe.

Then, they looked at Dorothy, their eyes filled with anger and uneasiness!

Dorothy just looked at them with a faint smile, then raised her hand and motioned for them to answer the call.

When Howard and Thomas saw how calm Dorothy was, they felt their scalps tingle, and the uneasiness in their hearts was magnified.

Thomas took a deep breath and finally answered the phone.

"Boss, bad news!"

"Just now, more than a dozen people came and rushed into the headquarters of the Sherratt Gang. We've suffered heavy casualties. We..."

"I'm afraid we can't hold on for long!"

Thomas staggered a step back, his hand gripping the phone tightly. The veins on his hand bulged. If one looked closely, they would find that he was also trembling slightly.

He tried his best to control his emotions and asked calmly, "Are there only a dozen people on the other side?"

"Yes! They are all warriors. We don't even have a chance to fight back!"

"How long can you hold on for?" Thomas asked, trying his best to remain calm.

"We can't..."

"Ah!!!"

Before the other party could finish speaking, they let out a scream.

After a while, the phone was picked up again, and a clear and pleasant voice came from the other side. "Please tell my boss that the task is completed. The whole Sherratt Gang has been destroyed!"

Bang!

Thomas instantly felt that the world had collapsed at that moment! His mind went blank.

It was over!

It was all over!

Sherratt Group was gone! The Sherratt Gang was destroyed!

The foundation of Sherratt Group had just been ruined in a few minutes!

What would the Sherratt family do in the future?

Thomas' eyes were filled with sadness and despair.

Sitting in the wheelchair, Howard heard the conversation on Thomas' phone clearly.

He was using all his strength to grab the armrest of the wheelchair tightly and he looked at Dorothy with disbelief in his eyes!

Was she really human?

She was simply a devil!

Presently, Thomas did not understand why that young girl, who had just come out of prison, was so terrifying.

Therefore, he could not let such a person continue to live!

Howard turned his head and looked at Thomas firmly with unprecedented determination in his eyes. He shouted, "Uncle Thomas, she must die!"

"Otherwise, the Sherratt family will never be able to live in peace!"

At that moment, Thomas came to his senses. He slowly looked at Dorothy, and the killing intent in his eyes was like a huge wave of murder.

"Do you think that you can defeat us by attacking the headquarters of our Sherratt Gang while I'm in the process of transferring all the experts of the Sherratt Gang away?"

"You pulled just a small trick!"

"Now, I'll show you what real strength is!"

After that, he raised his hand and gave an order to the people behind him without hesitation, "Everyone! Go!"

"Yes!"

Everyone responded in unison, their voices resounding throughout the mountain.

Lydia was shocked by their aura, and at the current situation!

The strength of the Sherratt family could not be underestimated. If she wanted to deal with that little b*tch, why should she do it herself?

Moreover, she had to quickly declare her position!

She stepped forward without hesitation, announcing, "Master Sherratt, I'm Lydia from the Crawford family in Imperial City."

Thomas looked at her with doubt. "You're from the Crawford family in Imperial City?"

Lydia nodded immediately and said, "Yes, I am the granddaughter of the head of the Crawford family, a first-class family in Imperial City. The Senior General, Edmund Crawford, is my third uncle."

Senior General?

When Thomas heard those words, there was a flash of light in his eyes.

However, he had doubts about Lydia, who had suddenly appeared out of nowhere. He did not know whose side she was on, so he asked, "Are you with her?"

Lydia immediately shook her head. "No, no, how could I be with her? She killed my grandfather and broke my hands. I want her to die!"

"In that case, stand aside and we won't hurt you."

Lydia breathed a sigh of relief.

However, she was worried that Thomas would kill Dorothy, so she was still in a dilemma.

After all, that would be too easy of an outcome for Dorothy.

Lydia wanted to torture Dorothy and make her kneel on the ground to beg for mercy.

Seeing that the forces brought by Thomas were about to take action, Lydia hesitated about how to voice her thoughts.

Right then, Colin, who had been silent, spoke up, "Master Sherratt, I am the eldest grandson of the Master of the Rogers family in Imperial City. I will be the next in charge. Can you spare Dorothy's life for the sake of the Rogers family?"

Spare Dorothy's life?!

Thomas frowned. He knew of the Rogers family in Imperial City.

If the Sherratt Group and the Sherratt Gang were not destroyed, there was no need for him to care about anyone or show anyone any respect.

However, he clearly knew that he had no capital to fight against the Rogers family in Imperial City.

Thus, he hesitated.

Lydia carefully observed Thomas's expression. Seeing his hesitation, she knew that there was still room for discussion. She could not help but sigh.

As expected, the heavens were helping her!

"Master Sherratt, don't listen to him. It won't be so easy for him to become the patriarch of the Rogers family. Even if his grandfather is dead, there's still his father."

"However, Master Sherratt, if you are worried about the trouble that the Rogers family may bring, I can help you. I can even help you ascend to the top of Northon City, or even the top of Imperial City!"

Although she did not know the details of Thomas' two calls, she could discern the situation from his reactions.

Although she had no idea how that little b*tch, Dorothy, possessed such abilities, Northon City was a small place.

In such a place, destroying a family was easy.

Hearing that, Thomas' eyes darkened slightly. He stared at Lydia and asked, "What do you have in mind?"

Raising her head proudly, Lydia looked down at Thomas as if she was sure she was going to win.

"You have to get engaged to me!"
