

My Life 2141

Chapter 2141: The most beautiful thing is reunion after a long separation (24)

Su Lidan: "..."

"I can tell you a piece of good news. Your Prince Charming does have someone he likes, and I'm sure it's Not Ning Lizi."

Yu Liuliu let go of her hand, patted her shoulder, and added.

"It's not me either."

Su Lidan: "..."

What kind of good news was this?

Yu Liuliu picked up her phone and climbed back into bed.

She crawled into bed and continued to read the gossip.

It was indeed a little unfair to eat the melon on her own, but the alumni were still very strong. Many people had already begun to dig up Seven's family background and past experiences..

As a person who had stirred up waves in her life the moment she came to school, Yu Liuliu gave her a great deal of respect.

She carefully read all the posts about seven made by the alumni.

In the end, she found that no one seemed to know where seven came from.

His family background was ominous, and his past experiences were ominous.

She could only guess from the awards he had received, one by one, where he had gone and what major he had studied.

In the end, his imaginative schoolmate had made up a beautiful fairy tale.

He imagined seven as a prince with a rich family background, and he was gifted. Because he could not fit into a normal person's life, he went everywhere to find his own world. In the end, he was tired and rested at University A

Yu Liuliu looked at the "Made-up nonsense" on the internet and occasionally glanced at her chat app.

It had been a few hours since the scandal broke.

Seven had not said a word to her except for the fact that he had probably liked their scandal with his new account on the school intranet.

According to normal people's thinking, if he really had feelings for her, he would at least come and explain to her when he saw this kind of news.

But he did not.

Therefore, Yu Liuliu was almost certain that the new account that liked their scandal was not seven himself!

The onlookers could disperse, and she could sleep peacefully in her beauty sleep.

Before she went to sleep, she could not help but send a message to her brother.

“The number you gave me is empty. Do you have any other ways to contact Qiqi?”

“No, Dad doesn’t want me to contact Qiqi now. If I’m caught, I’ll be locked up for a month. SIS, please let me off for such a high-risk activity. I have to keep an eye on my wife. She’s going on a trip next month. I don’t know if I can get into her suitcase.”

Yu MUYANG replied to her messages very quickly. She was also very secretive about the information that Yu Liuliu had gathered.

Yu Liuliu:” ...”

Her family was such a “Woman over man”. No matter what she did since she was young, her father was always very nervous.

Her younger brother was different.

He was growing like wild grass.

Even when he was chasing his little wife around the world, he was able to say it without blushing or panting. He even had his father’s strong support.

In a fancy way, it was said that a daughter needed to be raised well, and a son needed to be raised free.

In her eyes, it was clearly a double standard!

Since she couldn’t get any news from her brother, Yu Liuliu was too embarrassed to ask her parents. She put down her phone and fell asleep with a lot on her mind.

She went to bed early and got up early.

The next day, Yu Liuliu became the first person in the class to go to the classroom for morning self-study.

Then, she realized that every student who walked into the classroom was looking at her with a strange gaze.

It was nothing to be alone, but she could feel it too.

Yu Liuliu was stunned and reached out to touch her face.

She had washed her face this morning. Why were they all looking at her?

Did something happen again that she didn’t know about?

Chapter 2142: The most beautiful thing is reunion after a long separation (25)

Yu Liuliu was puzzled when a familiar figure appeared at the door of the classroom.

Seven was leaning on a crutch, which did not affect his image.

His appearance attracted everyone's attention.

Including Yu Liuliu.

However, Yu Liuliu only glanced at him and then silently lowered her head.

She pretended to not see him with some guilt.

The seat she was sitting in today was not the last row.

She deliberately sat in the first row.

Rumors about them were already spreading on the school's Internet. At this time, the smarter thing to do was to keep a distance from seven.

When everyone had seen enough of the drama and realized that nothing had happened to them, they naturally dispersed.

However, she had to avoid suspicion and seven had to cooperate.

The first thing, of course, was for the two of them to sit separately first.

Yu Liuliu thought that since he was so afraid of trouble, he definitely did not like people gossiping about him. When he saw her taking the initiative to keep a distance from him, he would definitely cooperate and pretend not to see her. He would then walk to the last row and sit.

In this way, one of them would be at the front and the other at the back. There would be no interaction throughout the entire process, and the rumors would naturally be exposed!

Perfect!

"Take a seat inside." A magnetic voice rang in Yu Liuliu's ears.

She snapped out of her thoughts and raised her head in confusion.

When she saw that the person standing in front of her was seven, she was so shocked that she almost jumped up from her seat.

Didn't he like to sit in the back?

"This is the first row! Did you see it clearly?" Yu Liuliu turned to look at the people around him and reminded him with a volume that only two people could hear.

Putting everything else aside, with his height, was it appropriate for him to sit in the first row?

"Weren't you the one who sat here first?" Seven looked at her innocently.

It was as if he was asking, "We are deskmates. If you sit here first, where else can I sit?"

Yu Liuliu choked.

He took a deep breath and spoke again tactfully.

“Well, student seven, actually you don’t have to sit with me. There are still many empty seats in the classroom. Moreover, I feel that today’s lesson is a little simple. You probably don’t need to listen to it to understand, so it’s okay if you don’t sit in the first row. You can sit wherever you like!”

Yu Liuliu almost didn’t say it directly. A monster like him was suitable to sit in the corner of the last row where no one could see.

After thinking about it for a while, she didn’t say it out of kindness.

Who knew that she was kind-hearted, but seven didn’t feel it at all.

When he heard her words, he furrowed his brows, and his eyes revealed a look of being abandoned like an orphan.

“Yu Liuliu, didn’t we agree to be deskmates?”

“That was yesterday,” Yu Liuliu replied without hesitation.

Seven acted as if he didn’t hear her. He reached out and grabbed her collar, pulling her to a seat beside him. Then, under everyone’s watchful eyes, he calmly sat down beside her.

When he met her stunned gaze, his devilish peach blossom eyes blinked at her again.

“I’m a single-minded person. I like to be faithful to one person.”

Yu Liuliu:” ...”

F * ck his faithful to one person. Was this how faithful to one person was used?

Yu Liuliu could not help but ask directly.

Seven’s brows furrowed as he looked at her in disagreement.

Just as Yu Liuliu thought that he would be angry, he reached out and scratched her nose.

“Girls, don’t swear.”

Yu Liuliu was instantly like a deflated rubber ball, unable to respond for a long time.

So, on the first day that she decided that she should keep her distance, they became deskmates again.

If this was just the beginning of her misfortune, then what followed was her unfortunate continuation..

Chapter 2143: The most beautiful thing is reunion after a long separation (26)

Yu Liuliu was so angry that she spent the whole morning in a daze in class.

She kept thinking of ways to get rid of seven, the brown candy.

However, when the brown candy saw her lying on the table listlessly and was worried about her low blood sugar, it kept holding a piece of chocolate and asking her if she wanted to eat it..

Yu Liuliu glared at him without hesitation!

Did he really not see the gossip posts on the school's Internet?

Everyone was using the photo of him handing her chocolate as an excuse, and he actually handed her chocolate today.

Yu Liuliu almost fainted..

"Yu Liuliu, get up and answer this question,"the teacher on the podium suddenly called out.

"..."

Yu Liuliu, who was suddenly called out, stood up with a dumbfounded expression.

Glancing at the blackboard on the wall, she realized that there were no questions on it. Thus, she was even more dumbfounded.

She had only been thinking of ways to deal with seven and hadn't listened to the lecture at all. Even though she had prepared beforehand and knew the content, she didn't know which question the teacher was asking. Thus, she couldn't answer it at all.

After being stunned for a few seconds, she could only turn to seven for help.

He seemed to be very serious in class. He should know what the teacher was asking.

However, when Yu Liuliu looked at him, seven, who had glanced at her from time to time just now, refused to look at her now.

Was he deliberately leaving her in the lurch? !

Yu Liuliu stretched out her leg and kicked him under the table. Seven slowly raised his eyes to look at her.

There was a teasing look in his eyes as he opened his mouth silently.

"A favor."

Yu Liuliu understood the simple words.

This guy was taking advantage of the situation.

He was blackmailing her!

"Yu Liuliu, have you thought about it?"The teacher saw that she did not speak for a long time and his face darkened.

If she did not speak, she would be found out that she was absent-minded in class.

Yu Liuliu gritted her teeth and agreed to his conditions. The next second, he wrote an answer in the notebook.

She hurriedly read out the answer.

Only then did the teacher let her sit down in satisfaction. At the same time, he reminded everyone to pay attention in class..

Yu Liuliu sat down, sweating profusely.

It was not a big deal if she could not answer a single question. If the teacher's criticism reached her father's ears, her father would definitely fly to a university to see her because he was worried.

Now that the danger had been averted, the anger of being schemed against Rose.

Yu Liuliu took out a notebook from the drawer and wrote two words in the largest font. She gave it to him.

"Despicable!"

Seven's eyes flashed and the corners of his mouth curled up. He took the notebook in front of her, wrote a few words calmly, and handed it to her.

Yu Liuliu glanced at it and nearly vomited blood.

She stared at the words "Thank you for the compliment" on it, and almost suspected that there was something wrong with her eyes.

How could he tell that she was complimenting him?

No, no, she couldn't let him lead her by the nose anymore.

If this continued, she might really be angered to death..

As the saying goes, know yourself and know your enemy, and you will never lose a battle.

Yu Liuliu glanced at the person beside her, and the investigation about seven on the school's Internet flashed through her mind.

A mysterious genius youth.

An unexpected transfer of schools.

Mysterious... these two words did not exist in the Yu family.

Yu Liuliu puffed up her cheeks and secretly took out her phone from under the table to send a message to her younger brother.

"Xiao Yang, help me investigate a boy."

"Who? Your Secret Crush? sis, don't look for me for this kind of thing. If dad finds out that I helped you get into a puppy love, he will really break my legs! !!" A strong desire to live came from a certain Yang.

Yu Liuliu: "..."

"Yu Muyang, little friend, do you need me to remind you who is in a puppy love?"

Chapter 2144: The most beautiful thing is reunion after a long separation (27)

A brat who could pick up girls before he could even speak, and now he was accusing her of puppy love?

Yu Liuliu wished that he could crawl over to his cell phone signal and pull his ears to ask if his conscience hurt?

“We’re different. My childhood sweetheart and childhood sweetheart are a perfect match. Most importantly, the parents agreed.” Yu MUYANG began to show off.

She had completely forgotten that the day before, she had been worried that she would be able to sneak into her daughter-in-law’s suitcase.

“Hehe.”

Yu Liuliu typed out a sarcastic message on her phone and added slowly.

“Do you dare to repeat this sentence in front of Uncle Qi?”

Yu MUYANG: “...”

Yu MUYANG: “Even if I don’t mention Uncle Qi, you’re still my biological sister.”

Yu Liuliu: “Are you going to help me investigate or not?” I suddenly remembered that I hadn’t called Uncle Qi for a very long time. He must have missed me. If I were to accidentally reveal the fact that a certain someone wanted to drill into his daughter’s luggage later...”

“SIS, eat something to calm yourself down! You’re my biological sister. If you really do this, you’ll see your biological brother’s corpse lying in front of you tomorrow!”

Yu MUYANG began to panic.

Without a word, he changed his tone.

“Seventeen years of brotherly love. Am I the kind of person who won’t help you because of Daddy’s objection?”

Yu Liuliu: “...” you are.

“Tell me who you want to investigate. As long as you say the word, I’ll definitely find out for you even if I have to go through Hell and back!”

That was more like it.

Yu Liuliu looked at the message on her phone with satisfaction.

Then, she turned around to make sure that Seven could not see her and quickly typed in his name.

She clicked send.

Although her brother usually looked unreliable, no one knew better than her about this guy’s ability and his degree of black-bellied ability.

Yu Liuliu did not doubt at all that if this guy was not busy chasing his wife and did not have the heart to participate in any competitions, his reputation would probably not be smaller than Seven’s.

Adding that face..

TSK TSK, he’s also a monster!

Yu Liuliu couldn't help but start to compare whether her younger brother was more handsome or seven was more handsome..

If she wanted to compare, she had to look more. Then, she couldn't help but take a few more glances at the person beside her.

Before she could compare who would win or lose, seven had already looked at her from the side, his thin lips slightly parted.

"Liuliu, if you continue to look, I might not have the heart to listen to the lecture."

Yu Liuliu: "O..."

She waited for her to come back to her senses.

Liuliu?

Who was her Liuliu? They were still not familiar with each other!

When the class bell rang, Yu Liuliu immediately opened her phone to look at the school intranet anxiously.

After making sure that no new information had been uploaded, she suddenly heaved a sigh of relief.

Without waiting for the others to react, she packed her things and ran.

Seven sat in his seat and was not in a hurry to get up. When he saw her back view as she left in a panic, the information he had just seen on her phone flashed through his mind.

What was she looking for Yu MUYANG to help investigate?

Was she investigating him?

Did she see something?

Seven narrowed his eyes and took out his phone. He found the number that he had long memorized and edited a message.

He sent it out.

Yu Liuliu had just run out of the school building and left Seven's death trap. She had just walked to the flower bed to catch her breath when her phone rang.

It was a text message.

She opened it and saw that there was only a simple sentence on it.

[ until my leg recovers, I'll have to trouble you for dinner. ]

Yu Liuliu stared at this sentence. One second, she was stunned, and the next second, she was overwhelmed with anger.

She cursed seven from head to toe in her heart.

In the end, when she thought of the favor she owed him, she could only bring him food with tears in her eyes..

Chapter 2145: The most beautiful thing is reunion after a long separation (28)

The school Belle had become a small follower. She delivered meals to people on time every day, and once she delivered, she did it for half a month.

No one would believe her if she told them, but she really did it.

Fortunately, after half a month, Seven's leg, which had not fully recovered, was much better, and he did not need to rely on crutches anymore.

Yu Liuliu seized the opportunity and immediately pushed back the delivery of meals.

At first, he was worried that seven would take the opportunity to bring up some new conditions, but in the end, he did not have any reaction. He just nodded.

He even mentioned it in passing.

"I'll be very busy in the next half a month."

Very busy?

Busy with what?

A trace of doubt flashed through Yu Liuliu's heart. Then, she realized that whether or not he was busy had nothing to do with her, and she was relieved again.

Every day, she went to class step by step. At the same time, she was on guard against seven's so-called "Very busy". was he trying to come up with some kind of trick to trick her.

In the end, he left after class every day for three consecutive days.

He was even more punctual than when she brought him his meals, as if he was really very busy.

Could it be that he also took on the task of delivering meals to others?

Yu Liuliu thought that what he did had nothing to do with her, but at least he had the affection of delivering meals for the previous half a month. Seven would also chat with him every time they ate, so she was not completely ignorant of his matters now

Seeing that he had suddenly become strange, she could not help but be a little more curious.

In addition, she had paid attention to him a few times and found that the direction he had left after class seemed to be the direction he had left the school, so she became even more curious.

It was not appropriate to ask such things directly.

"Liuliu, the time for the orientation party has been fixed. As an outstanding senior, I have decided to dress up beautifully and appear in front of my juniors that day!"Sudan held his cell phone, while giving Yu Liuliu the party notification, he rummaged through his wardrobe.

Then, he screamed.

Yu Liuliu was so scared that she sat up from the bed. She stared at her blankly with her eyes that were immersed in the manga.

"I suddenly realized that the dress I carefully selected doesn't have a suitable pair of shoes!"

"..."that's it? She thought that the earth was going to be destroyed.

Yu Liuliu put on a speechless expression. Just as she was about to lie down again, Su Lidan immediately grabbed her arm.

"My Liuliu, since I have time today, can you accompany me to buy a pair of shoes?"

"No, I'm very busy." Yu Liuliu ignored her pitiful expression. Just as she lay down on the bed, she was pulled up by Su Lidan the next second.

Even the comic book in her hand was snatched away.

"Busy my ass! As the number one beauty on campus, if you don't dress up properly and go out more to let everyone feast their eyes on you, instead, you stay in the dormitory and indulge in comics every day. Are you worthy of your supporters? Are you worthy of those classmates who helped you choose the campus Belle one vote at a time?"

"... It's just reading a comic. It's not good to be so uptight, right?"

Yu Liuliu wanted to struggle a little more, but Su Lidan was already winking at him. He was trying his best to put on a pitiful look to gain sympathy.

"Liuliu, look, there are only the two of us in the dormitory. If you don't accompany me, how pitiful will I be..."

"..."

Yu Liuliu took a look at the empty dormitory and resigned himself to fate. He got out of bed and changed his clothes.

He set off for the mall to help Su Lidan buy shoes, but in the end, he met an unexpected person near the mall

Seven!

And he was standing by the side of the road, waving a small flag rhythmically.

If she wasn't mistaken, he was... directing traffic?

Chapter 2146: The most beautiful thing is reunion after a long separation (29)

If someone had told her that seven was directing traffic on the road near the shopping mall, she would have scolded that person for being blind without hesitation.

But now she saw it for herself..

The eye-catching red armband and the small flag in his hand.

These were the distinctive signs of people who were usually seen on the road helping the traffic police and uncles to maintain traffic order.

Now, they all appeared on seven.

No, she must have mistaken them.

Yu Liuliu pretended that she didn't see anything and quickly entered the mall with her roommate.

With her as the "Military advisor," Su Lidan solved the shoe problem in less than half an hour.

He also bought a bunch of snacks.

Su Lidan was happily discussing with her what they would eat later when dinner time was almost up.

Yu Liuliu was thinking about the figure she saw near the shopping mall, so she replied absent-mindedly.

In the end, she couldn't resist her strong curiosity and turned around to give the snack bag to Su Lidan.

"Dandan, I suddenly remembered that I have something to do. I Won't be going back to school for now. You can help me take my things back."

"Why did something suddenly happen? Where are you going..."

Before Su Lidan could finish his sentence, she had already run away.

She ran to the place where she saw seven in one breath.

It was the rush hour after work. The road was full of cars and pedestrians.

Yu Liuliu did not see him at first glance. She thought that her eyes were playing tricks on her.

She stopped by the roadside and was stunned for more than ten seconds. In the end, she walked back to the intersection where she saw him just now.

He squeezed into the crowd, and soon, he saw seven standing by the side of the road, cooperating with the traffic police to maintain traffic order.

The temperature had dropped today.

The weather was a little cold.

He wore a thin windbreaker, a hat on his head, and the small flag in his hand commanded very neatly.

Each of his movements was the same as his, exuding heroic spirit and the courage to guide the country.

However, his foot injury was not completely healed, and there was still a hint of awkwardness in the way he walked.

It really was him..

Yu Liuliu was indescribably surprised.

Looking at the people flowing around him, it seemed that they did not expect such a handsome man to be directing the traffic. Many people took out their phones and wanted to take photos of him.

Seven very quietly reached out and pressed his hat, signaling for everyone to follow the traffic order.

Therefore, those who wanted to take photos could only put away their phones in embarrassment and crowded across the road.

Yu Liuliu had been standing by the roadside the whole time, neither approaching nor leaving.

She just kept staring at his figure, as if she could not recover from the shock of seeing him directing the traffic for a long time.

It was not until seven noticed that there seemed to be a familiar gaze staring at him that he turned his head to look at where she was standing.

When he saw Yu Liuliu standing by the roadside, his pupils suddenly constricted.

Then, the corners of his mouth curled up into an evil smile.

From head to toe, it was a look that she was familiar with.

It had nothing to do with her blurred vision. It was really him!

Yu Liuliu was caught in the act of peeping, so it wasn't easy for her to leave.

She might as well greet him when there were fewer people and satisfy her desire to gossip.

"There's a supervisor over there. It's not convenient for me to explain to you now. The mission for today will be over in ten minutes. Go over to the chair over there and wait for me."

Seven cautiously glanced at the traffic police in the middle of the road and said to Yu Liuliu in a low voice.

Yu Liuliu looked in the direction he was talking about and indeed saw a few benches by the roadside. He immediately nodded and obediently walked over to the chair and sat down to wait for him.

Chapter 2147: The most beautiful thing is reunion after a long separation (30)

After a few seconds, she thought of something and stood up again.

They were not familiar with each other, so why did she listen to him so much?

He told her to wait, so she waited. He told her to sit, so she sat... Yu Liuliu reached out and covered her face.

What was the difference between her and an obedient pet? She had lost all her face.

She couldn't let her emotions get the better of her and leave just like that..

Yu Liuliu was caught in a dilemma.

While she was struggling, seven had finished his work and walked to her.

"The weather is so cold, why don't you wear more clothes?"

He calmly took off his coat and put it on her.

“...”

Yu Liuliu hadn't recovered from the shock of his appearance. Her body was heavy, and her surroundings were filled with his aura.

She lowered her head to look at the man's jacket on her. Just as she was about to say that she was not cold, seven was already holding her hand and walking forward with familiarity. It looked like he was going to take her somewhere.

However, didn't he think that he should ask her about it?

Yu Liuliu took out the small flag that he had inserted into the pocket of his jacket. She looked at it seriously and asked, "What's the matter?"

"You said that you'll be very busy in the next half a month. Is that the reason?"

“...”

Seven stopped in his tracks and turned to look at her.

Seeing the little flag that she was playing with in her hand, he pursed his thin lips and nodded.

"You even got into a car accident while driving without a license. Although you were the one who was injured, according to the relevant laws and regulations, in addition to a fine, you'll also be detained. Because your injuries aren't light, you'll have to be hospitalized for treatment, so the detention has been changed to community service after you recover."

This was also the first time that he had done something out of the ordinary since he grew up.

And it was during his coming of age ceremony..

"I plan to seriously take the driver's license test after the community service ends," seven added.

Previously, it was because he was not old enough to take the test.

Now, he was already an adult.

Seven thought of something and suddenly reached out to press Yu Liuliu's head.

With a straight face, he lowered his voice.

"Breaking the laws and regulations will not end well. I am a living example. You must not copy me!"

"I have been an adult for several years. I have a driver's license. We Are Different."

Yu Liuliu unceremoniously pushed his hand away.

While the two of them were talking, they had already walked to the downstairs of an apartment building.

Yu Liuliu happened to ask.

"Don't you know how to drive? Why did you get into a car accident?"

“Come up with me and you’ll know.” Seven’s eyes flashed as he reached out to press the elevator button.

He pretended to be mysterious, causing Yu Liuliu to raise his eyebrows.

He was pretending.

It was nothing more than a rookie on the road who accidentally overturned his car.

He even made it seem like he had a reason for the accident.

The two of them quickly stopped in front of a door. Seven reached out to press the password lock a few times, and the door opened with a beep.

Yu Liuliu was about to ask him if he had rented a house outside the school, but when the door opened, a black shadow suddenly rushed out from the dim hallway!

Her nerves tensed up, and just as she was about to run, the Black Shadow had already ignored her and pounced directly on seven, who was beside her!

In that soul-stirring moment, she also saw clearly that what pounced out was not a monster, but a dog.

“Okay, okay, stop licking.”

Seven’s leg injury had just healed. After being pounced on by a dog, he could only squat down to comfort it.

Who knew that the dog’s head would be touched a few times, and it would be even happier to stick out its tongue to lick his face.

Even the four little puppies in the house, who had just been born about a month ago, also staggered out and surrounded him, begging for attention and petting..

Seven comforted them one by one and looked up at Yu Liuliu, who was stunned.

“I sacrificed one leg in exchange for five lives. is that reasonable?”

Chapter 2148: The most beautiful thing is reunion after a long separation (31)

“...”

Yu Liuliu looked at the mother dog and the four furry puppies surrounding him and could not come back to his senses for a long time.

In the end, he was dragged into the house by seven.

It was a small apartment with two bedrooms and a living room.

In the living room, other than the simple furniture, the most eye-catching thing was a kennel and a dog basin placed next to the kennel.

After the dog mother greeted seven affectionately, she stared at Yu Liuliu warily for a while. After confirming that she was not a bad person, she began to wag her tail at her.

“What happened to your car accident? Is this where you live? Then the school dormitory...”

Yu Liuliu was filled with questions and did not know which one to ask.

Seven poured some dog food into the dog bowl and added water into the water dispenser.

He stroked the dog’s head and opened his mouth faintly.

“I was in a bad mood on the day I returned to China. I learned from others to race, but it suddenly rushed out from the roadside. I didn’t have time to step on the brakes, so I turned the steering wheel in a hurry and crashed into the guardrail by the roadside.”

Seven’s gaze became profound, as if time had gone back to the day of the accident.

That day was the darkest day of his life.

The 18-year-old Bar Mitzvah was a big day for everyone.

He was filled with anticipation and wanted to sneak back to give her a surprise.

He confessed to her.

But in the end, he saw..

Seven’s eyes darkened, and he did not continue thinking.

He calmed down and continued.

“When the ambulance arrived, I was already awake, but my injuries were not light. When I was carried into the ambulance, I could vaguely see it still wandering by the roadside...”

As seven spoke, he rubbed the dog’s mother’s head hard.

It was said that dogs were the most understanding of human nature.

It seemed to know that he had gotten into a car accident in order not to crash into it. It was worried about his safety and did not leave immediately.

After he woke up in the hospital, the first thing he did was to get someone to help him look for the stray dog around the scene of the accident.

If he remembered correctly, the reason the dog did not avoid his car was because it was injured and was in a hurry to escape. That was why it jumped onto the road.

As seven said this, his gaze fell on the back leg of the dog’s mother. There was still a very obvious scar there.

In this world, not everyone would respond with sympathy and gentleness from a stray dog.

When the weather was cold, it was difficult for a stray dog to find a place to settle down and find some food. If they met someone who hurt them maliciously, it was almost certain that they would die.

When seven found the mother of the dog, her left hind leg had been bruised and splashed with paint.

The infection was very serious.

If he had been slower to find her, he would have had to amputate her leg.

To Seven's surprise, he thought that he had adopted a poor stray dog just like him. He did not expect to hear from the veterinarian that she was pregnant very soon.

On the day he was discharged from the hospital, the mother of the dog gave birth to four cute puppies.

The school could not have a dog, so seven could only rent an apartment near the school.

In addition, his father's health was not very good. He had taken over the family's work a long time ago and needed an independent office, so this apartment became a new home for one person and five dogs.

"Actually, you're quite a nice person."

Yu Liuliu listened to the story of the dog's mother and knew that its previous experience was so tragic. She gave seven extremely high praise for his rescue and adoption behavior.

She was originally still brooding over the matter of him cheating her to deliver food.

Now that she knew the reason for his accident and injury, she suddenly had a feeling that taking care of him was the same as taking care of the dog's mother and puppy.

It wasn't so hard to accept.

Chapter 2149: The most beautiful thing is reunion after a long separation (32)

Yu Liuliu did not have any pets at home. This was the first time she had seen such a small puppy.

After making sure that the mother dog would not be angry, she reached out and hugged one.

Stroking the Little Thing's head, she saw that it was very obediently snuggling in her arms and licking her palm. Her heart almost melted.

"I don't know much about dogs. What kind of breed are they?"

"The Chinese pastoral dog is what we often call a mutt," seven said with a smile.

The Chinese pastoral dog was actually a big name. It had a wide range and included a lot of breeds.

But in general, they were all original dogs in China.

The mother of the dog seven adopted was a white Chinese pastoral dog. After washing it, it had silver white fur and looked particularly beautiful.

It had a bigger tail than an ordinary dog and looked somewhat like a fox.

On the other hand, although most of its four puppies were white, two of them were mixed with other colors.

One of them had a small tuft of red fur on its forehead.

The other one had a yellowish to reddish fur on both sides of its hind legs.

The family of five were all very good-looking.

“Have you given them names?”

Yu Liuliu put down the white puppy in her hand and switched to another one.

The last four puppies all snuggled up to her as if they were competing for her favor, but she was overjoyed.

After hugging one puppy, she couldn't hold the other anymore.

In the end, she simply sat cross-legged on the ground and hugged the four cute puppies in her arms, smiling with her eyes curved.

“No.” Seven's thin lips parted slightly.

He did not tell her that he deliberately did not name the dogs because he was waiting for her to come one day..

Seven narrowed his eyes and hid the light in his eyes. He walked to her side and squatted down, reaching out to touch the little dogs in her arms.

“I don't know how to name them. Why Don't you name them?”

“Me?”

Yu Liuliu was stunned. She had never named the little dogs before.

However, she really liked these furry little animals.

After thinking for a moment, she asked.

“Do you like names that are a little taller or more down-to-earth?”

“It's fine. I'll like whatever you like,” seven answered calmly.

After saying that, seeing that she was stunned, he quickly realized that he was too direct and would scare her, so he added.

“What I mean is that you girls should be better at naming small animals. If you can't even name them, I'm afraid I won't be able to find anything I like.”

Yu Liuliu didn't think too much about it. She stroked the puppy in her arms and pursed her lips as she seriously thought about it.

“The mother is called Little Eight, right? Then the four babies are little nine, Little Ten, Little Eleven, and Little Twelve!”

“...”

Seven's body suddenly trembled as he looked at her with some surprise.

His throat seemed to be choked up by something.

After a long while, he finally calmed down and asked.

“Why do we have to use numbers as names?”

If it wasn't for the fact that he was certain that Yu Liuliu still didn't know who he was, he would almost think that she had given their dog such a name because their group was six, six, seven, and seven.

"This..."

Yu Liuliu had just casually said that.

She felt that the numbers were easy to remember and easy to distinguish.

As for why she had to start from "Eight", it was because in her subconscious mind, six, six, seven, and seven already had people.

Even if that person was not by her side, she could not let a dog take his place.

However, now that seven had asked, she choked.

Then she thought of something and blurted it out.

"I'm Liuliu, and you're seven. Aren't you seven?"

This was really a good excuse.

Yu Liuliu secretly rejoiced at her cleverness in the first second. The next second, she reacted and covered her face in despair!

Chapter 2150: The most beautiful thing is reunion after a long separation (33)

She had no relationship with seven at all, and she might not even be considered a friend right now. By saying this, she was treating herself and him as the owners of the dog and forcefully forming a couple with him.

"I just don't want the dog and human names to collide. I didn't mean to..."

"Numbers are good as names. It's easy to remember and differentiate. I think it's not bad."

Seven interrupted her clarification. He reached out and picked up the smallest puppy from her arms. His thin lips parted slightly.

"Little Thing, you'll have a name in the future. It's twelve. Are You Happy?"

The snow-white puppy did not understand his words, but it liked to be hugged by someone who kept licking his hand.

It pounced forward forcefully and almost fell from his hand.

It whimpered twice.

Seven pretended that it understood and agreed and put it down.

"It said that it liked this name."

Yu Liuliu:"? ? ?"

Could he understand what the dog was saying?

Yu Liuliu muttered in her heart, but then she thought that she had never owned a dog before. After all, seven was the one who had seen this litter of puppies when they were born. Perhaps he could really read the dogs' feelings from their reactions.

Hearing him say that the puppies liked the name that she had given them, her mood brightened up as well.

She hugged the other three puppies in her arms even more happily.

"The white one is the eldest, the one with red fur on his forehead is the second, and the one with color on his feet is the third. Although the fourth looks almost exactly like the eldest, it was born the latest. It should also be the one who suffered the most in its mother's womb. Its size is obviously one circle smaller than the eldest, so it's very easy to tell."

Seeing her smile, Seven's eyes became more dotting as he pointed at the few puppies in her arms.

Yu Liuliu followed him and memorized them, then accurately called out their names to each little puppy.

Finally, she looked at the mother dog who was eating dog food.

"You will be called little eight from now on, okay?"

The mother dog raised its head and looked at seven.

Seven gestured at it, and the mother dog immediately barked twice.

Seven closed its eyes in satisfaction and turned to tell Yu Liuliu.

"It agreed."

"That's Great!" Yu Liuliu smiled with excitement.

She did not realize that this was a trick played by someone.

This was the first time Yu Liuliu had come into contact with such a small puppy, and the Mother Dog's personality was especially gentle. Time passed very quickly as she hugged the puppy and looked at the puppy..

Outside the window, the sky gradually darkened.

She had just realized that it was getting late and wanted to leave when seven suddenly spoke.

"Have you had dinner?"

"... No." She hesitated for a second and answered honestly.

After shopping with her roommate, she ran to the roadside to look for him.

Later, she went to his apartment to play with the puppy. She did not expect to play so late.

If he hadn't asked, she would have almost forgotten that she hadn't eaten dinner.

This was something that had never happened before..

“It’s almost eight o’clock. There might not be anything to eat when we go back to the school cafeteria. There are ingredients in my fridge, and I haven’t eaten either. Why don’t we stay and eat together?”

“But I don’t know how to cook. Do you know how to Cook?” Yu Liuliu asked tentatively.

She had only known how to eat since she was young.

Although she had tried to learn how to cook, she had perfectly inherited her mother’s idiotic talent in the kitchen. Other than being able to barely cook a bowl of noodles, she didn’t know anything else.

If he was counting on her to cook, they would probably be hungry today.

“Okay.”

Seven seemed to have known that she didn’t know how to cook. He responded softly and turned around to walk to the kitchen.
