

My Mate Chapter 31 - Tips

Hope

After Zayn finally agrees to shower alone, he gets dressed and we head downstairs to his office. "I have a lot of things I need to take care of today I don't want you to leave the pack house."

Is he for real..why is he being like this now. "I can't stay here all day ...." He cuts me off "Hope for once don't argue with me!" He is so frustrating sometimes!

"Zayn, tomorrow is Mandy and Carrie's welcome party and the day after that is your birthday, I need to go to the mall."

He sighs, "Ok fine, I'll take you to the mall in a couple of hours." He sits down at his desk and sits me down on his lap.

"I don't mind going alone, you don't have to come" "Why do you want to go alone?" he asks turning my face towards him.

"You said you're busy today and I don't need a babysitter Zayn!"

I try to get off his lap but he pulls me down. "Watch it. If I say I will take you then I will take you."

"Just because you're my mate does not mean you can tell me what to do!" He is making me so mad! "I can and I will!" he sneers getting closer, "You don't have a problem with me telling you what to do in bed." My mouth drops.

There's a knock at the door "Yes", He calls out glaring at me. Luna walks in I try to get off his lap again but he pulls me down again, she smiles "Your father wants to see you in his office."

"Ok I'll be there in a minute." When she walks out, he points his finger at me and tells me to stay put, like I'm some pet, and he leaves his office shutting the door behind him. As soon as he walks out I leave the pack house and walk home. I feel like I haven't been here in so long I miss my room. I quickly get undressed and take a long hot shower. After I get out I put lotion all over my body and get dressed. I wear black leggings torn at the knees and a plain white v neck T-shirt with white sneakers.

I hear footsteps rushing up the stairs so I open my bedroom door and almost bump into Zayn's huge frame. "Why do you insist on pissing me the fvck off!! He screams at me making me jump back. "I told you to fvcking*g stay put!" He storms towards me,

"You cannot keep me locked up in one place." I yell back.

"If you don't start doing what I say I will lock you up."

He's unbelievable, "You're crazy, I can't do this right now." I start to walk away from him, he grabs me and turns me around to face him,

"Don't walk away from me!" He sneers. "Stop trying to control me, I'm not a child!" He runs his hand through his hair, "I'm not trying to control you, I'm trying to protect you dammit!"

"Protect me?.. I'm in our territory, in our pack, in my own home! What are you trying protecting me from?" My voice comes out loud but I can't help it, he's unbelievable.

"Someone is trying to take you away from your family, from ME!" his voice is full of fury as he howls out his last two words.

"What.....what are you talking about who is trying to take me away from you?", I ask confused, is this another side of his possessive nature? I mentally ask myself.

Zayn's phone rings at the same time mine does. "What?" he barks out, I feel sorry for the person on the other line.

I take my phone and walk into my bathroom to get the hairdryer. "Hey dad" I answer calmly "Princess, is Zayn with you?", my father sounds a little bit panicked. "Yes he's here but he was just leaving." Zayn walks in behind me. "Ok. come up here to the Alpha's office as soon as you can." I plug n my hairdryer but don't turn it on yet. Zayn is standing behind me looking at me in the mirror. "Ok I'll be there in a few minutes"

I turn around leaning back on my counter, "What's going on Zayn? What haven't you told me?" I ask him.

"After the attack yesterday one of the rogues we captured admitted that the reason, the mother fvckers, attacked us was to try and take you away."

I feel small all of a sudden, he wraps his arms around me, "Hope you don't have to worry I'll never let anything happen to you but I need you to just listen to me."

I wrap my arms around his waist while my head is against his chest. "Ok. I'm guessing that's why your father wants to see me." He nods and kisses my forehead, I'm so lucky to have him. I dry my hair while Zayn makes a few calls, as we walk up to the pack house I can't help but feel like someone is watching us.

Emily walks over as soon as we enter the house, "Hey big brother" she hugs Zayn, "mom says you're going away again." She sounds sad,

I look up at him my heart sinking, "You're going away?" My voice breaks.

He takes my hand, "Emily let's talk about this later", he kisses her forehead as she nods.

Jason walks in from outside he looks like he's been running. "Hey! where have you been?" I ask him smiling, he walks over bows but keeps his distance. "I feel like I haven't seen you in so long." I miss Jason and all my friends actually.

"I've been here he looks at Emily." He answers me but before I can get another word in before Zayn pulls me away, into his office and shuts the door.

"What the fvck was that?" his voice rumbles through my body and I jump back a little but support myself against his door.

"What Jason?", my voice squeaks this time. "Yes, mother fvcker Jason!" he sneers. "Not this again ...he's my friend and he will always be my friend. we've talked about this before."

"You miss the fvcker?" He just looks at me intently like he's having an inner battle with Hunter.

"Oh my Goddess! I'm not doing this, I have other things to worry about."

I turn to open the door, he pushes me against the door and moves my hair to the side “Watch your tone, this isn’t over, I don’t care that he’s your fvcking*g friend you’re not supposed to miss anyone but me.” He opens the door and walks out in front of me. I wish I could punch him sometimes! but to be honest having him standing behind me like that made my insides quiver and melt.

When we walk in Alpha greets me like he always does and so does everyone else. Dad, Luna and mom are in there too along with Alex, Matt and Kyle. I walk in the spacious room and sit next to my father, this bothers Zayn but I don’t care I miss my dad.

“Hope, you’re a strong and very bright young lady I won’t beat around the bush.” Alpha starts. “Zayn already told you what the prisoner said, this is a big concern for us all. We have to do everything to keep you safe this means that some things in your life are going to change.”

My Mate Chapter 32 - Tips

Hope

“Did the rogue say why they want me?” I ask looking at the Alpha then at Zayn.

“He said he doesn’t know ” Zayn answers looking at me, he taps the spot next to him. I turn around and kiss dad then get up and sit where Zayn wants me. I could tell he was bothered and needed me. As soon as I sit down he wraps his arm around me pulling me closer to him.

“Apparently the rogues are doing the dirty work for an unknown Alpha.” Zayn’s dad says. “Hope do you know anyone who would want to hurt you..at school maybe?” Dad asks me this time Zayn puts his head down and runs his hand through his hair.

“No I can’t think of anyone.” I say and the room goes quiet. “But this doesn’t have to be about me... maybe someone has something against Zayn and is looking to hurt him.” Zayn looks at me with a serious expression. I wish I knew what he was thinking.

“Yes, of course that too is an obvious possibility.” Alpha Says. “Hurting you, Hope, or taking you away would hurt the whole pack. You’re the future Luna. So, yes this could also be an attempt to hurt us.

"When I turn 18 won't my wolf sense if I'm in any kind of danger." I ask looking at dad then at Zayn.

"Your wolf will be able to communicate with you and also with your mate's wolf but they don't always sense other peoples intentions. But when you do turn 18 and become in touch with your wolf, you will become a lot stronger and a lot more capable of defending yourself, regardless of how strong you are now you will gain a lot more strength being a Beta's daughter.

I take a deep breath before looking at Zayn, "I'd like to speak to the rogue"

"Absolutely not!" Zayn says as I expected. I don't argue with him for now but glare at him.

Alex excuses himself because he has to go meet with the principal at my school and Matt and Kyle leave also for training I guess.

"Hope I'm sure your mate will be more than willing to fill you in on all the security measures we have decided upon at school and while you're out with friends or by yourself. I don't want you to be afraid but I do want you to be very cautious of your surroundings and your friends."

He looks down for a few seconds then back at me "The rogue has information that he probably got from your school which means it isn't the safest place to be right now. However, I know you won't want to miss classes therefore, I am sending more security guards over to be situated inside and outside the school grounds during school hours. We have also asked for camera's to be installed in all the hallways and in the classrooms.

"What kind of information" I asked feeling like I'm going to be sick.

"The piece of sh!t knows that you haven't been marked or mated." Zayn says. My cheeks flared up in all kinds of red I'm sure. Zayn smiles like this is the most natural and normal thing and pulled me into him as I buried my face in his chest.

Dad clears his throat in an attempt to get past this awkward moment "Princess I would feel so much better if you didn't leave the pack territory without your mate and when you're out with your friends I want a couple of warriors with you." My dad says. I nod my head ok. Mom remains quiet the whole time, I can tell she's panicked and on the verge of tears, it broke my heart to see her like that.

Luna notices mom's sad face and she tries to make her feel better "Katherine come lets go make sure lunch is ready and we still have to finish up the final details for tomorrows welcome party for the twins." Luna says "Tomorrow's party is very much needed for this pack." Luna and mom walk out but not before they both give me a quick k!ss on the head.

Dad and Zayn stand up at the same time, I quickly take Zayn's hand, "Zayn I know how you must be feeling right now but Hope is my whole world and I trust her safety will not be compromised."

"You don't have to worry, I'd give my life for her. I'm going to leave tonight to hunt down the leader of the rogue clan and wring his neck until he tells me who this fvcking*g Alpha is."

When I heard him say he was going to leave I felt heartbroken "No! please don't leave tonight tomorrow is your birthday." I felt like I was going to cry but I couldn't help myself.

"Baby I have to end this whole situation fast before I lose my mind."

"Zayn we have the strongest, most well trained warriors any pack has ever seen. You could send the warriors to find Kain and bring him here. Once he's here, you take care of finding out what we need to know." Alpha intervenes.

"The rogue clan will surely weaken without a leader, they will most probably surrender as soon as he is apprehended. That will be the end of the foul rogue clan for a while at least." Dad says. Zayn doesn't answer them right away. "I'll get the best trackers and warriors we have and let Alex know what he has to do." he looks at me then back at them "Excuse us it's time for lunch."

Zayn

We usually stop serving lunch at three o'clock so the omega's have time to clean up and start dinner preparations. Breakfast runs from seven to eleven and dinner from 6 all the way to 10 pm. There are always all kinds of snacks and desserts available at any time. Before Hope I hardly ever went in the kitchen I would eat alone either in the private living room or in my office. My family almost always has dinner together in our private dinning room but I was rarely ever here to join them so I'm trying to make up for that now by staying for dinners.

Right now it's almost three and I know Hope hasn't eaten anything. We slept in pretty late or at least I did until I reached for her and she wasn't there. I take her hand and lead her into the kitchen and it's still too crowded for my liking and most of her friends are here I'd rather have her full attention.

The table is full of all kinds of food "I'm so hungry" Hope says mostly to herself as we walk in. One of the girls squeals as she rushes over to her. "She needs to eat" I warn her and take out Hope's seat and start filling her plate with everything she likes then fill my plate.

"I can fill my own plate" Hope says eyeing me. feisty little thing.

"I know you can fill your plate I wanted to fill it for you so eat. I want to take you to the mall then come back and go pay our prisoner a visit."

"I want to go with you" She says while cutting her chicken

"I already said no " She glares at me, she's been doing that a lot lately.

After lunch I took Hope to the mall she tried on dress after dress while I sat down enjoying the show. She looked great in each and every dress she tried on. My favorite one was a red dress. I wanted to take her in the dressing room and fvck her, up against the mirror.

I bought every dress she tried on for her without her knowing. Every time she tried one on and took it off to try another I would pay for it so I ended up buying them all for her, I wanted to surprise her once we left.

On our way back home I kept my hand in hers. She felt so warm but she was quiet. "Are you ok baby?"

"I'm fine. I just don't want to go home and not be with you." Her whining voice made me as hard as a rock. I looked at her a bit shocked then stopped the car on the side of the road and pulled her over to my lap.

"I love hearing you say that" I told her before claiming her l!ps. fvck. this girl is going to drive me mad.

My kiss was hungry and possessive as I went down to her neck and sucked on her sweet spot, the spot I need to mark as soon as possible. I roughly put my hands under her shirt and grabbed her breasts through her bra. Her nipples were hard as I rubbed each of them with my thumbs. She cried out the sweetest moan making me so fucking*g hard. She cupped my cock through my jeans. fvck. If I didn't stop Hope's virginity would be taken in my car.

My Mate Chapter 33 - Tips

Zayn

I moved my car seat back to give us more room and turned her around so she was straddling my lap. I cupped her face and sucked on her bottom lip before sliding my tongue into her mouth her delicious warm tongue runs along mine as she starts grinding down on me. She rubs her hands up and down my chest then moves them slowly around my neck and through my hair. fvck. I wish she could feel everything I can. The explosion of tingles everywhere she touched me. She was letting go of all her fears. She was feisty and in control grinding against me pushing herself past her limits.

"I want you" she whispered her breathing erotic. She was ready for me. I wish we were in my bed. I moved back, cupped her face to look at her beautiful face when her eyes shot up over my head and suddenly she freezes.

"Zayn there's someone behind the car watching us!" Her voice comes out full of fear She jumps off my lap and into her seat.

I opened the door and immediately picked up a strange filthy scent. I got out and took a look around, whatever or whoever was here had disappeared, but one thing was for sure though our passionate make out was being watched and that drove me insane. I don't want anyone but me to ever see her turned on. I wanted to shift right there and hunt down whoever it was down but I couldn't leave Hope so I got back in the car and drove off.

"Baby What did you see exactly?" I asked her calmly trying not to alarm her.

"When I was on your lap I looked up for a second and there was someone there looking right at me. He didn't move until I got off your lap."

"He?" I questioned as I clenched my jaw, my blood was beginning to boil at the thought of some disgusting maniac watching her but I didn't want to scare her anymore than she already was.

“Yes, it was a man.” She kept turning back looking out the back window every once in a while “I have a feeling we’re being followed.”

I glanced at the rear view mirror I was in a state of hyper-vigilance “Don’t worry baby I won’t let anyone hurt you ever.” I took her small hand and held it tight as I rubbed my thumb up and down ever so lightly to calm her down. I dare any mother fvcker to follow me. If Hope wasn’t with me I would have hunted the filthy scent down.

We were about thirty minutes away from our territory Hunter was on full alert the whole time. As I turned off the main road on to a dirt road a small group of wolves came out of the woods and run at both sides of the car.

Hope jumped in her seat and gripped my hand tight. “Who is that?”

“Rogues” I answered and stepped on the gas. One big brown rogue on Hope’s side sneered at her baring his teeth. I could have easily stopped the car and shifted but I didn’t want to put her in harms way. I took my phone out and called Alex and the at same time I mind linked Matt and told him to send out our best scouts to patrol the outskirts of our territory and to be ready for attack.

“Alex meet me at the gates now I’m almost there.”

“What are you going to do?” She asked me leaning into me. “I’m going to make sure you get home safe then go have a look around, don’t worry.” I k!ssed her hand front and back as I closed my eyes and breathed in her mouthwatering scent.

“Do me a favor and don’t wonder off anywhere just stay inside your house or the pack house until I get back.” She answered with a nod of her head five minutes before we reached our territory the rogues turned around the opposite way and left. fvcking*g cowards. If they think they’ve gotten away they have something else coming to them. I’m going to catch them and force them to tell me what the fvck they want exactly. If I don’t find out what’s going on I’ll definitely lose what’s left of my sanity.

As soon as we entered our territory I spotted Alex I stopped the car and shifted as soon as my feet touched the ground. I mind linked Alex to drive Hope home and make sure she was safe.

I ran as fast as I could down the road after those filthy mother fvckers. Soon I caught up quickly to both my brothers and what seemed like a huge wave of warrior wolves and trackers.

“What’s going on?” Kyle says to me through our mind link.

“They followed Hope and I.”

“Fvckers have a death wish” Kyle says speeding up.

“I want some of them left alive” I growled out in rage through the mind link as I charged as fast as I could, the warriors howled back in response. I could feel their fury and excitement as the adrenaline rolled off each and every one of them.

Hope

Alex walked me inside my house my heart beating so fast

“I wish I could shift so I could go help him” I said to Alex,

He chuckles a little “He doesn’t need help, he’ll be fine. You’re safe now all our borders are heavily guarded just don’t go anywhere or Zayn will skin me alive.”

“What’s going on Alex?” Mom asked while taking me into her arms.

“Zayn and Luna were followed by rogues but our warriors and trackers are already on their trail. They will hunt them down and bring them back here. Excuse me ladies I have to go”

“Hope” I turn around and see Mandy and her sister walking over. “What happened are you ok?” Carrie asks

“We were followed by rogues but yeah I’m fine.” Carrie hugs me then Mandy does the same.

"I'm sorry you have to go through all this Hope" Mandy says. In a few short minutes all my friends were at my house. They were here to support me and I loved them for it but all I could think about was Zayn.

Zayn

We had been following the rogues for less than an hour and the trackers were still hot on their trail. At last I could see them "We have them watch your backs from here on" I growled through the mind link . We quickly had them surrounded. They were a small group not more than thirty five standing together as the warriors formed a circle around them. I searched through them one by one growling, Hunter is a huge wolf, being an Alpha, and his pitch black color sent fear through their bones as I approached them slowly. I could smell their fear as I searched for the one that sneered at my baby, the big brown rogue.

When I spotted him he quickly crouched into attack position and leaped at me bearing his teeth and as if on cue all the rogues attacked all at once and our warriors charged. I dodge him and whipped around biting into his side like a savage I could hear his bones breaking as I sunk my teeth deeper into him. Tasting his foul blood sent me into a rogue killing frenzy I tore out his throat and tossed him aside like road kill. I tore through the rogues taking down two or three at a time.

I looked around for Kyle and Matt and was pleased to see we had the upper hand. As I was surveying our surroundings one filthy rogue attacked me from behind, he was bigger than the rest indicating some kind of leadership. He gripped and clawed at my neck but I got out of his grip and went for the kill he managed to get away from me but only for a moment I was too fast and too strong for him. I tackled him to the ground and fiercely bit at his neck just enough to cripple him without killing him, his death would only end his suffering. I want him alive. By the time Alex arrived we had six alive but brutally injured rogues left and the rest were dead.

We make our way back to our pack dragging the rogues to our gates where they were picked up and taken to the dungeon. I ran all the way to Hope's house my heart thundering wildly and shifted by my car, I put on a pair of shorts stacked away in my trunk as she opens the door and comes flying into my arms, I lift her up, she wraps her legs around my waist and locks herself down on mine. She kisses me with so much need I lose my ability to master my emotions. This girl drives me insane with just a kiss.

I break our k!ss “Baby if this is how you plan on welcoming me back from every fight then I’ll fight for you everyday” She smiles shyly at me making my c0ck twitch.

“Come on baby don’t be shy now, I was about to throw you into my car and give you what you want.” She giggles. That’s my favorite sound.

Zayn

I left Hope at her house and went straight to the dungeon. “So now we have seven of you.” I crossed over and grabbed one by the neck “are you going to talk?” He was already bleeding “Tell me where I can find Kain” I growled before throwing him across the cell then stomped over and picked up another one.

“Are you going to talk?”

“yes” he says sounding petrified.

I pushed him down into a chair and grabbed his head ready to smash it into the table. “Go ahead” I said as My father and Hope’s father come down the stairs and stood beside me.

“Kain has moved the rogue clan by now. He is never in one place” the fvck says whimpering

“Why were you following my son and his mate?”

“Kain wants her, he said she belongs to another Alpha” he answered my father

“What Alpha is that?” I asked slowly “Give me his name” I let out a low menacing growl

“I don’t know his name I just know he is the Alpha of the Blue Moon Pack and he wants her for his son” I let out a loud punishing growl as I smashed my fists into the table breaking it in two.

My Mate Chapter 34 - Tips

Zayn

Hunter was furious. He wanted to come out and tear the rogues and this whole place down. My father was in shock, Hope's father was livid but kept control of himself. How could one of our own allies betray us like this? This meant war.

We walked out of the dungeon and to my father's office where Alex was already waiting for us. "Tomorrow is the welcome party for your brothers' mates. I don't want to alarm anyone or ruin this for your mother and brothers." I stood with my arms folded across my chest.

"After that we put together a plan and take him down." My father said

"Yeah the plan is I'm going to take some warriors go over there kill him and his fucking son." I said through gritted teeth. My mother walked in she could sense dad's stress level going crazy so she walked over to him and put her hand on his shoulder, he relaxed immediately.

"Honey You didn't have dinner I'm sure you're hungry." Mom said to me I don't answer.

"I heard what happened" mom said "Zayn honey everything will be ok. Now we know who is after her and why. It's a step in the right direction."

"Isn't Alpha Edward's son too young for a mate? I don't remember seeing him in years." My father asked mom and Brian.

"I don't care. She's mine and I'll kill anyone who tries to take her away from me." I look at their faces "Alpha Edward is a fucking dead man."

"Alex, I want a detailed report about the fuck Edward, his mate, their children, everything." I said sternly

"Absolutely" He answers me then puts his hand on my shoulder.

I stormed out of my father's office and up to my room, took a shower got dressed and went down to my car, her shopping bags were still there so I took them and headed for her house. I needed to see her.

Her mom opened the door she looked a bit pale, I assumed Brian had already told her the news. My breath hitched as soon as I walked in the living room, my beautiful baby was fast asleep on the couch she looked so warm. I walked over to her side and very gently brushed my hand over her heavenly face.

She's so soft and silky. I love it. She had a book next to her, she must have fallen asleep while reading. I love how intellectual she is. Most teenagers aren't interested in reading but not my baby she is so smart.

"Hey Zayn, what've you got there?" Her dad greets me. I look down at the bags "These are Hope's dresses."

"Have you had dinner?" Katherine asks me

"No I haven't" I answer still looking at my precious baby.

"I made her favorite meal but she fell asleep without dinner." Her mom says looking at her daughter.

"I'll take care of that" I say. I won't be able to sleep knowing she hasn't eaten.

"Ok, I'll heat everything up" She says as she walks out and into the kitchen

I crouched down beside my baby and ran my fingers through her hair then down her neck. I smiled when little goosebumps appeared on her skin. This was her reaction to my touch and my touch alone. My body started to relax and Hunter's need to be by her side finally simmered down. This girl is everything to me.

"Zayn, dinner is on the table, it's been a long day so I'll see you tomorrow I'm going to take these up to her room on my way up...goodnight." Her mom says softly as she picks up the bags. Hope is an exact copy of her mother. I don't know why I just noticed that.

"Ok good night Katherine"

She takes Hope's bags and leaves the room I can still sense her worry. Brian is in the kitchen he picked up a bunch of files and paper work that he had in front of him then walks over to me.

"Zayn I was just going through the files that Alex picked up from school. There are three other packs that go to the same school, the majority of the students are from the Blue Moon Pack. I'm preparing a list with the names of the students' who are seniors and another with the names who she shares classes with." He speaks in a low voice.

"Thank you Brian you should have asked Alex to take care of that or someone from the administration."

"I wanted to do it myself" He said before he walked away I can sense how worried he is for his daughter. I can't blame him she's his everything. I took a deep breath when my heart started beating fast. I have to remind myself that he's her father.

"Baby wake up" I kissed her lips. Her eyes slowly opened and she smiled at me "Hi" I said and as she peeked at me making me smile and. I picked her up bridal style sat down on the couch and put her on my lap she cuddled into my neck.

"When did you get here?" she asked her eyes beamed with love for me.

"A few minutes ago, come on lets go eat you're mom made your favorite meal." I said as I stood up still carrying her and walked to the kitchen.

"I can walk on my own" she said as she wrapped her arms around my neck and kissed me sending sparks throughout my body.

"I like carrying you around" I put her down at the table and started filling her plate with ribs, pasta salad, and corn on the cob. She stood up, my eyes following her every move, got a bottle of wine and poured each of us a glass. The food was delicious I hadn't noticed how hungry I was until I started eating. Hope ate slowly. I knew what she was thinking, she wanted to know what happened tonight.

We ate in comfortable silence I kept stealing glances at her, Hunter was relaxed and calm in her presence. When we finished I helped her clear the table and load the dishwasher.

"What happened Zayn...did you find out what's going on?" She asked me. My jaw clenched as I remembered what the rogue said.

"Yes I did but I don't want to talk about it right now." She furrowed her eyes and glared at me like the cute little feisty thing she is. "Please tell me I deserve to know...did he tell you where Kain is or the name of the Alpha?"

I took a deep breath, lead her over to the living room I sat down and put her on my lap.

"The rogue doesn't know the name of the fvcking*g alpha." I paused as I looked into her eyes.

"What did he say then?"

"He said he doesn't know the name of the alpha but his pack is the Blue Moon Pack" She looked like she was in a state of shock at first then she collected herself.

"So this is payback because you didn't choose Stephanie for your mate.?" She tensed in my lap and tried to get up. I tighten my grip around her not allowing her to move away.

"I don't know if Stephanie is a part of this but the rogue said fvcking*g Edward wants you as a mate for his son."

"You don't know if Stephanie is a part of this?" she repeated my words and growled at me.

"I meant the rogue didn't mention her, baby please I'm having a fvcking*g hard time as it is."

"Who is his son? what's his name?" she asked, Hunter perked his ears up growling in my head.

I squeezed her thigh "I don't care who the fvck he is and neither do you."

She smiles at me "hmmmm I don't know maybe I should meet him first" she whines teasingly.

I grab her chin "You wouldn't dare!" I snap at her. She giggled then turned around straddled my lap and started k!ssing me. I pushed her back and wrapped my hand around her throat "Say you're mine forever" I sneered at her.

"I'm yours and only yours forever" she drew the words out slowly.

"You better fvcking*g believe it" I growled at her, pushed my hand behind the nape of her neck and brought her mouth to mine. I k!ssed her urgently and possessively slipping my tongue past her l!ps and into her fvcking*g warm mouth making her m0an. She starts grinding down against my hard c0ck

"Say my name" I yanked her head back and s.uuck on her sweet sp0t

“Zayn.... let’s go to my room”

“I thought you’d never ask” I stood up with her still wrapped around me, I squeeze her a.ss as I walked up the stairs to her room locking the door.

“I hope you can keep quiet and not wake up your parents” I said as I threw her down on the bed and started taking off my clothes. She tried to crawl away giggling but I grabbed her by her ankles and slid her over to the edge of the bed. I slipped her T. shirt off for her, she took off her b.ra while her eyes drank in my body. I loved how she gawked at what’s already hers. I yanked her shorts and panties off at the same time “Open your legs for me baby” she does what shes told like a good girl and I go down between what’s already mine.

“Try and keep it down” I murmured before diving my tongue into her soaking we.t p.ussy. I Kept s.ucking and l!cking her as she tried to muffle her sounds by covering her mouth with her own hand. I dipped my finger in her and she cried out a muffled sound making my c0ck throb. I s.ucked at her sensitive nub and she lifted her h!ps up for more friction against my tongue and finger, I loved when she did that.

“You like that baby?” I growled as I fought Hunter for control he wanted to come out and claim her himself. Her voice broke out in a se.xy as hell “yes” she hissed and mumbled incoherently as I thrust my fingers in and out of her roughly until she tightened around my finger.

“c.um for me” I ordered her as she threw her head back and used both her hands to muffle the sounds of her earth shattering org*asm. I kept my in and out assault going until her body fell completely limp. She blushed as she sat up at the edge of her bed, she took me into her small hand almost making me c.um right away. I moved her long hair off her full b.reasts so I could get a good look at her beautiful body.

I felt fvcking*g lightheaded when she said “It’s so big” I grabbed her face by the jaw and pushed myself into her mouth. In and out again and again until I pulled out one last time, pushed her back lightly and unloaded all over her stomach. I came hard and fast “You’re all mine and soon I’m going to mark the inside and outside of your body.” I grunted out she smiled up at me sleepily. fvck. I picked her up and took her inside her bathroom. She stepped in the shower first then I followed. We cleaned each other up taking our sweet time.

After our shower we laid in bed I had her wrapped in my arms “I have a surprise for you.” I said

“What is it?” She asked. I got out of bed and brought the bags over from her walk in closet. She jumped up and down when she saw all the dresses I had purchased for her.

“You bought all ten dresses?”

“Yeah I did I loved them all on you. Which one are you wearing to the party tomorrow?” I asked her

My Mate Chapter 35 - Tips

Hope

I gr0aned when I heard my alarm go off I didn’t want to get out of bed today. Zayn feels so warm and his muscular arms wrapped around me are my haven. We were up late last night but thank Goddess today is Friday. The twins welcome party is today and tomorrow is Zayn’s birthday. I reached over to grab my phone from the night stand but Zayn pulled me closer to his c.hest. I tried again but he only held me tighter. If this keeps going on I’ll be late for school.

I turned to face him, he looked so handsome I blushed to myself remembering last night. I still can’t believe how comfortable I am with him. My need for him is growing day by day I’m sure it’s the mate bond getting stronger since I turn eighteen in less than two weeks but I fell in love with him before feeling our bond. Now I can’t imagine my life without him. Yes, he can be a little over protective and possessive but I love him and wouldn’t change a thing about him. I can’t wait to mark him and let all the women know he’s mine. I feel ready for us to mate, I don’t know how he will fit in me being so big but it is something I’m ready for. There’s no written law that prohibits us from mating right now so why hasn’t he tried for more?

I didn’t want to wake him up he looked so peaceful I lifted my hand slowly and ran my fingers over his eyebrows then his jawline. Just looking at his muscular c.hest and his tattoos made me we.t my panties I want him. I wish I had more time but I don’t I have to get up and get ready. I k!ssed his l!ps softly before I turned around to get out of bed but he opened his eyes and pulled me on top of him.

“Where do you think you’re going baby?” his voice raspy and husky, I could feel his e.rection against my leg.

“I have to get ready for school” I said as I tried to get up again.

“Oh no you don’t, you have to finish what you started.” he takes my hand and places it over his e.rection. Oh my goddess.

“I have no idea what you’re talking about” I giggled as I tried to wiggle off him.

“You know exactly what I’m talking about, first I could smell your fvcking*g sweet ar0usal in my sleep making me hard as fvck, then you k!ssed me. That’s no way to treat your Alpha is it?” He growled at me and grabbed my a.ss.

” My Alpha huh? well I’m your Luna and if I want to k!ss you I can”

” Yes you can” He said with so much love in his eyes I almost wanted to give myself to him right then.

“I will” I brought my head down a little and k!ssed him.

Our k!ss was feverish and full of love. I could feel his love through our k!ss. He fl!pped me over so now I was under him while he hovered over me. He k!ssed my neck whispering his dirtiest desires in my ear. Oh my goddess.

He lifted my shirt and started kneading my already swollen n!pples “Baby is there anything I can do to convince you to skip school today?” He looked at me so seductively. I m0aned out in pleasure but I really needed to stop and get ready. I lifted his head up to me.

“Zayn I can’t miss anymore school...but I’ll make it up to you very soon.” My statement came out more of a question.

He stopped his assault and looked at me with a devilish glint in his eyes. “Ok deal” I had a feeling he would make me “make it up to him” very soon.

Both of us got dressed, I wore a denim skirt with a black body suit and black and white sneakers. Zayn complained and threw a fit that the skirt was too short even though it wasn't, so he would calm down I changed into another denim skirt with buttons down the front this one was a bit longer. He still tried to get me to wear jeans but I wasn't going to let him boss me around and I was already late. I didn't bother with too much make up this morning only winged eyeliner and mascara. Of course Zayn also complained that I don't need to wear makeup to school. urrrgh sometimes I wish I could punch him out.

Zayn drove me and Emily to school, he made sure to walk me inside. I noticed some of our warriors outside and inside the school.

"Is this necessary? I asked Zayn feeling a bit annoyed

"It's very necessary I can't risk anything happening to you." He said taking my hand in his.

"You two are so cute it's sickening" Emily said before she walked away to her first class.

"I have to go too" I said as I leaned up and kissed him real quick.

"I'll be here when you get out" he said and watched me walk away to my first class.

Thank Goddess classes flew by pretty fast and soon it was lunch time. I walked out of class with Emily, Jason and Derek and into the cafeteria. Derek was acting weird he kept looking around like he was waiting for someone

"What's with you today?" Amy asked him

"I don't know I have a headache my wolf is giving me a headache!" He complained

"Your wolf?" A very familiar yet annoying voice said. I turned around and there was Gavin.

"Did you say your wolf is giving you a headache man?" He asked. How nosy!

Derek glared at him "Mind your own business."

Gavin ignored his remark and looked at me "Hey Hope"

“Hey” I cringed.

“Let’s hang out some time guys” He said speaking to all of us. “There’s a party at Cliff’s tomorrow you all should come” He looks at me.

“Thank you.” I say

“Let me know if you need a ride” he bends down to my ear and whispers “I think I know where you live.”

I looked at him a bit shocked.

“You a.ssh0le” Jason shouts and grabs Gavin punching him across the jaw Gavin practically flew across the cafeteria but he didn’t stop he got up and attacked Jason.

Derek and Eric pulled Jason off Gavin before he killed him. They were both sent to see the principal. I knew Jason would be fine. But what had me worried was what Gavin said.

After last period I walked out with April and Eric and head to my locker.

“What happened to to Jason?”

“He’s off the hook one of our warriors took mercy on him and explained everything to the principal.

“I think it helps having a werewolf as our principal or his a.ss would be suspended.” April laughed out

“Hey guys” Amy comes running over “Derek found his mate!” she shrieks out

“Oh wow that’s great who is she and where are they” I ask looking around I open my locker and find a small envelope that wasn’t there this morning. I opened it and my blood frozen for a minute, the note read        You will be mine soon.....Luna

I quickly put the note away when I saw Derek rushing over “Cara this Hope she’s one of my best friends and future Luna of our pack.” She bowed a little “Nice to meet you Luna.” Cara said. She’s so pretty and I can tell she is someone I would get along with well.

“Please just Hope, call me Hope” I said. I knew Zayn would be outside so I hurried out. I decided not to tell anyone about the letter at least not tonight. I didn’t want to dampen the mood on our welcome party.

I walked outside and saw some senior girls mostly cheerleaders gawking at Zayn. He wasn’t paying them any attention. I saw his eyes light up when he saw me and I ran up to him as he took me in his arms. My Haven.

Derek walked over and introduced his mate to Zayn.

“What pack are you from” Zayn asked Cara.

“I’m from the Red Moon Blood Pack Alpha”

“Ok Cara come to our pack tonight we have a party you are welcome to attend then tomorrow we will make all the necessary arrangements with your pack. Just make sure to let your parents know”

On our way back home I was quiet. Too quiet.

“What’s wrong?” Zayn asked as he took my hand and kissed it.

“Nothing I’m just tired that’s all we didn’t sleep much last night and I need to pick something up from the mall.”

“Well tonight I’ll make sure you sleep early and I’ll take you to the mall.”

“No I want to go alone it’s a surprise for you, for your birthday tomorrow.”

“Baby all I want is right here” he said as he pointed to me and my heart did flips.

Oh I think you’ll like this surprise I said to myself.

After training I finally convinced Zayn to let me go to the mall alone... well alone with 3 female warriors and Alex. My trip was quick I went in the lingerie store and thirty minutes later I was out. Of course I didn’t let them come in with me and I didn’t let them what store I was going to.

When I got back I called the girls to come over so we could get ready for the party together.
