

My Mate Chapter 41 - Tips

Zayn

Anger, hatred and vengeance took over me I'm going to snap her fvcking*g neck....my bl00d boiled how dare that we plan to have Hope k!lled.

When everyone leaves the office my father walks over from behind his desk and approaches me carefully

"Son Hope needs you" His words almost break me. I need her.

"I have to take get to the bottom of this" My voice comes out hoarse. I have to get to the bottom of this for her sake and for the sake of my sanity.

"I know" He paused and took a deep breath "the doctor said she's still in the reading room getting a CT scan."

"I need to go over there Katherine and Brian need all the support they can get now"

I nod my head and walk out feeling numb I can hear my father's footsteps behind me.

My hands and clothes have dried rogue bl00d on them. I feel like a piece of sh!t. Like I failed her. I should have been able to keep her safe. Just this morning I had her in my bed.

Dad and I enter my office I walk to my desk and grab the picture of Hope off my desk. She looks so peaceful the same way she looked laying in the hospital bed. I kept staring at her picture it was almost like my body was absorbing her every little feature. She really is exquisite one of a kind. She is an angel and right now I feel like I'm Satan.

The more I stared at her picture the angrier I felt imagining the pain she probably went through. I put the picture down reluctantly when I heard a knock at my door. I started walking towards the door and opened it myself.

"You wanted to see me" Crystal says smiling

I grab her by her hair and push her in. She screams but I couldn't care less. Alex follows and shuts the door closed.

“Why are you doing this?” She cried out

“How dare you plan to k!ll your Luna?” She remained still. “You.. a good for nothing pack slut..try and have your Luna k!lled?” I sneered at her

“I had nothing to do with it ! ” She screams looking like a crazy bh. I mind link Matt to bring the Rogue and the two guards that were on duty to my office.

“Lower your voice when in the presence of your Alpha.. How dare you yell in his face ?!” Dad’s voice echoes off the walls and the bh cowers back.

“I always knew you were a we but to fvck around with two men at the same time for your plan to work...well that just puts you at another level of filth.” She looks at me dumbfounded

“I have no idea what you’re talking about and you never minded fvcking*g me before little miss perfect came along.” If it wasn’t for the situation I would have laughed at her trying to play innocent but she did call Hope perfect and for that I chose not to skin her at the moment.

When Crystal saw Matt walk in with the rogue and two guards her face paled.

I turned to face them “Is this the she-wolf that plotted with you to k!ll my mate?” I ask pointing at the we.

The rogue lifts his head up and takes a quick look at her “Yes, that’s her”

Crystal starts yelling at him but that only fueled my father’s anger “Shut the fvck up! “

I turned towards the two guards “Is this the she- wolf who you abandoned your post to go fvck?” of course they both answered yes.

I was about to snap her neck but my father spoke first. “We are known for being the strongest pack. We can’t have weak men who would jeopardize our safety for se.x. I hope she was worth it because you are both no longer members of this pack.” My father growled out at them. They started begging for forgiveness but dad raised his hand up for them to be quiet.

“Exile is the punishment for what you two failures did....and death is the punishment for plotting to have someone murdered especially an Alpha Luna.”

My father glared at Crystal as he spoke. She screamed and tried to run out but I sighed at her silly attempt to flee and grabbed her.

“Enjoy hell you bh” I said before snapping her neck and biting down into her flesh. Hunter roared out in victory as I threw her body down to the ground and wiped my mouth.

“Matt escort them off our territory in an hour, that’s all the time they have to pack and Alex take the rogue back to his cell.”

My father stepped over the body and patted my shoulder “Come on lets go”

I grabbed some tissue paper and walked out of my office towards my car. Dad drove us to the hospital.

“You should have showered first.”

“I’ll shower later I need to see her first.”

We walked through the reception with everyone’s eyes watching me as I wiped blood off my hands and mouth.

Hope was still not in her room “Where is she?” I asked my mother I was starting to panic again.

“They’re bringing her up now Katherine is with her” My mother assured me. She looked a little startled as she took in my bloody appearance.

I walked inside the bathroom and washed my hands and face clean from the blood. Just as I was finished I heard the doctors bringing Hope in. I held my breath and walked out, they were about to move her from the stretcher to the bed.

“I’ll move her” I said and they quickly moved away from her.

Euphoric electric waves ran through my body as my skin touched hers. I picked Hope up very carefully making sure her head was stabilized and placed her down slowly on the hospital bed. I couldn’t for the life of me look away from her. I placed my hand over the bandage on her neck. It’s on her marking spot. I hadn’t noticed before. It’s on the spot where I’m supposed to mark her.

I hadn't noticed that before because of the rage I was in. Did that mother fvcker try to actually mark her?

"What's the result of the CT scan? Brian asked the doctors snapping me out of my thoughts. He held his mates hand as he waited for one of the doctors to speak. I felt so bad for them Hope is everything to them. She's everything to me.

The door opens and Emily walks in. Her eyes are swollen from all the crying. She walks over and takes Hope's other hand.

"Thankfully no sever damage has been done to the brain although I am very surprised the blow to her head was sever. She does have a concussion though. That means she's going to need a lot of rest physically and mentally when she wakes up." The female doctor spoke

"When will she wake up" I asked looking down at Hope.

"I cannot say nobody can..she might wake up right now or in a few hours maybe even days, time will tell." She's going to make it. She has to.

Everyone stays quiet. "What about the bite on her neck" I had to ask

"We cleaned out the bite on her neck" The doctor continues "It wasn't deep she must have put up a good fight."

I run my hand through her hair.

"Thank you doctor we appreciate everything" Katherine says.

"If you need anything just call me or any other doctor. Also the nurses will be available all night if you need anything at all." She looks at my father

"You can leave for now thank you" My father says as he pats Brian on the shoulder, they bow and walk out.

"Katherine she will wake up soon and everything will be just fine." My mother says "We have to stay strong"

I keep Hope's hand in mine. "Where was she attacked?" I look at her parents

"In the living room." Katherine says "She was home alone I went up to wish you a happy birthday but your mom said you were in your room and Brian was with your father." Her voice breaks.

"Emily and some of her other friends heard her screaming for help" Katherine said looking at Emily.

"She called and asked me to come over to help her get ready for her dinner date. Derek, Cara, Jason and I were walking over when we heard her scream." I looked up at her at the mention of Jason's name.

"Then what?" My father asked

"We ran in and Hope was on the floor there was so much blood." She's full on crying now. "I think he was trying to take her clothes off" She chokes out. I fist my hands and put my head down trying to keep myself calm. "Jason and Derek got him off her, Jason killed him and dragged him outside. Her neck was bleeding I tried waking her up but she wouldn't."

My mother hugs Emily "Honey you and your friends saved her " They did save her.

I sat down beside her and held her hand. I wanted to be alone with her but I couldn't ask her parents to leave.

"Brian let me know if you need anything" My father says taking my mother's hand "It's getting late Maria let's go"

"Let us know as soon as she wakes up come on Emily let's go home." Mom says she hugged Katherine again and took Emily's hand as they walked out.

I heard my father talking to the pack members outside her room "Thank you all for coming It means a lot to us all that you would show your support and love for us and for your Luna like this. Please go home it's been a long day"

Just then Matt and his mate walk in followed by Kyle and his mate. Hope is loved by everyone in our pack I knew she'd have a lot of visitors.

"Everything you and dad asked for has been taken care of" Matt says

I nod "Thank you" Matt and Kyle and their mates stand with Brian and Katherine for a few minutes then Kyle walks over. I know how much he cares for Hope. He loves her the same way he does Emily.

"She will be fine. She's strong " He pats my shoulder. They don't stay too long before they leave. Brian and Katherine walk out the room with them. I'm finally alone with her.

"Baby, please wake up..for me please wake up" I wiped my tears and held on to her.

I k!ssed her hand and put my arm around her wa!st. I can't remember ever crying before but Hope is everything to me.

I hear her parents walk in "Zayn we're going to leave I've asked the nurses to bring in a bed for you please try to rest." Her mother said. I just nodded.

"Would you like me to bring you a change of clothes so you can shower?"

"I asked mom to send me a few things with Alex thank you" She breaks a small smile then they each k!ssed Hope's forehead before they walked out.

I look up at my baby's face "Hope you can't give up on me. I'm sorry I wasn't there. I'm sorry about that bh Crystal. I'm sorry you have to go through this because of me." I cupped her beautiful face. "Please baby come back to me" I held on to her "I'm nothing without you. Please wake up, don't t0rture me any longer."

The nurses brought in a folding bed but there's no fvcking*g way I'm leaving her side to sleep on it. I kept my arm around her wa!st and laid my head down on the side of the bed I kept my gaze on her face for I don't know how long. I felt worn out and eventually my eyes closed.

I nearly jumped up when I heard screaming...

Hope was awake and screaming for help "Help me, Help me! Zayn help me" Over and over again! It was like she was reliving her attack.

Her arms thrashed out in front of her as if she was fighting someone off her. I was so happy to see her eyes open but my heart broke a thousand times every time she screamed for help.

I grabbed on to her “Hope baby you’re safe you’re okay” I put her head carefully on my chest. She gripped my shirt tight. “You’re safe I love you you’re safe baby” I kept trying to soothe her.

She finally stopped screaming. I moved her head away from my chest carefully and looked into her eyes. The eyes that have haunted me day and night since I found out she’s mine. I cupped her face but couldn’t find the words, I was trapped in her emerald eyes looking back at me.

“Zayn he bit me” She was crying.

“I know baby it’s okay. You’re okay. I’m here now.” I kissed her head “Please don’t cry I love you you’re okay”

“Luna it’s so good to see you awake” The nurse had heard her scream and went to get a doctor.

I tried to move away so the doctor could do what she needed to but Hope grabbed my hand in fear.

“I’m right here I’m not leaving you, this is your doctor” I reassured her

“Luna I’m going to check your vitals real quick okay...Do you feel any pain?” The doctor asked

My Mate Chapter 43 - Tips

Hope

I am really sick of Zayn’s behavior he keeps treating me like a child. I’m almost eighteen. This ends today I don’t need another parent!

I’m about to walk out my room and go for a walk alone when Zayn yanks my door open and blocks my way

“What the fvck is your problem?” He asked insidiously taking me by the shoulder and pushing me back into the room. Anxiety infiltrated my thoughts and I didn’t know what to say for a second.

“My problem...What is your problem?”

“My problem is you NEVER LISTEN TO ME” His voice sounds like thunder as he glares at me

“Never listen to you...do you hear yourself.. YOU'RE MY MATE NOT MY FATHER!” His eyes darkened, he took a deep breath then ran his hand through his hair.

“Lower your fvcking*g voice Hope or I swear”

“You swear what...you'll k!!! me like you k!!!ed Crystal?” I regretted the words as soon as they left my mouth.

“I k!!!ed the bh because she tried to have you k!!!ed and I'll fvcking*g do it again don't question my authority.” His voice is calm but sends shivers down my spine. I cannot believe him

“I'm sick of this” As soon as I said those words he takes a step towards me and I take one back.

“You're sick of what exactly Hope?” He asks calmly. Too calm

“Of you treating me like a child. I can't go anywhere outside our pack territory because you told the guards not to let me out, I can't see my friends, you're always telling me what to do.”

“I'm trying to keep you safe let me remind you Hope that the attack on us was to try and take you away from me! and I'll be damned if I let that happen. There's a fvcking*g alpha's son that wants you for his mate.” He roars out a possessive growl

“Where is hewhere is this guy huh? His eyes darkened

He storms over I stiffen as he wraps his right hand around the base of my neck and slams the other against the wall

“Why the fvck do you care where he is?” his voice is deep

“I don't I just meant ..”

“Good” He cut me off quickly

He moves his hand to the nape of my neck and brings his mouth to mine. His k!ss is rough as if he's punishing me. Oh no I don't care how bad I want this

I'm not giving in to this bully. I don't k!ss him back instead I push hard at his c.hest to break away from him. He gets frustrated

"K!ss me back" He demands but I don't budge I keep trying to get out of his grip this only agitates him even more

"STOP" He says holding me in place. "Please just stop" I felt his need for me through those three words.

I feel all the anger leave my body and melt into him.

"Tell me you love me" He demands looking me in the eyes as if he needs the a.ssurance

"I love you" I say as my voice breaks I wrap my arms around his shoulders and he smashes his l!ps on mine. Our k!sses are needy and urgent within seconds my dress is tossed on the floor and we are both completely n.aked.

He picks me up and I wrap my legs around him as he walks us to my bed I wrapped myself around him never wanting to let go. My c.hest pressed against his and my lower half ground against him. I thought he would go rough on me but he was gentle ...at first.

He laid me down growled when he saw the bite on my neck. Even though it was mostly healed I knew it would anger him again. I wanted to bring him back to me so I lifted his face to mine

"Please" I begged

"Tell me what it is you want?" As he asked lowered his hand between my th!ghs and rubbed his finger through my we.t folds, my body reacted naturally and I lifted my bottom up. He lightly pinched my cl!t and I had to hold my breath a second, before unintelligible words of l.ust fell off my l!ps. He growled and bit down on my l!p before claiming me in an e.rotic k!ss.

I needed more "More" m0aned out lost in a sea of s*I desire.

He sank his fingers inside me and pushed in and out while watching me. I closed my eyes as I was about to explode but he wasn't having it

“Open your eyes I want to watch you c.um with your eyes open”

I opened my eyes his hungry gaze on me making me shudder. He kept pushing in and out and rubbing until I came hard all over his fingers. He continued pushing in and out prolonging my org*asm

“I’m going to fvck your little p.ussy baby and make you c.um again” He moved down to my b.reasts and s.ucked on my n!pples

“Would you like that baby. Would you like me to fvck you hard?”

“Yes, I want you inside me” I blushed

“As you wish” He pulled his fingers out and s.ucked at them his eyes still driving me crazy.

He pinned me under him his body crushing mine in need and frustration. He slid his hand to the base of my neck to hold me in place.

Oh my! This was far from over

Zayn

She screamed my name as I pushed inside her with one hard thrust. She wasn’t going anywhere I had her pinned under me where she belongs.

“fvck” She feels even better than last time. My desire and love for her keeps growing stronger. What a sweet, little, c0ck tease to fvck and all fvcking*g mine.

She was m0aning and whimpering under me as I pressed inside her over and over again.

I kept my eyes on hers as I was drowning in her until I had to taste more of her, I k!ssed her wanting to feel her tongue on mine. This girl is everything to me. I could feel her surrender to me as she withered below me.

“fvck” I gr0aned out loud as I pounded faster and harder into her. I growled louder as I felt Hunter surface. I scarped my teeth on her neck as I blinded her with my hard rough thrusts. Her fvcking*g exquisite body started to convulse as she clenched around me and screamed out my name. I moved faster and faster until I pulled out and spilled all over her stomach.

I dropped myself on her bed before reaching over and getting some tissue paper to clean her off.

She cuddled into me sighing with contentment. I wrapped my arms around her then lifted her chin up and devoured her lips again. Hunter was very satisfied even though he wanted to come out and take her, I couldn't let it happen it was too soon.

"Baby I needed that" I admitted "I need to leave some condoms here for times like these." I said and she giggled. I didn't want to get up I didn't want to go anything but lay here and hold her.

She ran her finger over the watch she got me for my birthday, the Paul Newman Rolex Daytona watch "I'm glad you're wearing it" She said

"I'll never take it off it's from the woman I love but I don't like you spending this much on me I want to spoil you not the other way around"

"Would you like that...me spoiling you baby? I asked hugging her tight

"I just want to be with you"

"Well good because you'll only ever be with me." I looked at her dead serious

"When can we take the trip Emily got you for your birthday?" She asked lifting her leg over mine and kissing my chest. fuck.

"Whenever you want as long as your head and neck are fine"

"I told you I'm fine the first hundred times you asked" Her voice came out a little cold

"Watch it baby you know I can punish that mouth of yours" I said sternly

"I don't like you treating me like a child" Feisty little thing

"I'm just trying to protect you and make sure you're healthy." She stayed quiet

"I have a trip planned for your birthday" I ran my fingers through her hair

"Where to?" her eyes lit up

"It's a surprise"

“Come on please tell me I’ll do anything” Hunter growled in anticipation

“Anything” I pulled her on top of me and k!ssed her she tasted like the sweetest wine. I k!ssed her slowly and passionately my tongue exploring her mouth. From there things escalated quickly I lifted her up and slid her down my e.rection. She threw her head back and m0aned

“Are you ok?” I asked her trying hard not to slam up into her

“Yes it just feels different like this bigger and deeper” I let out an animalistic grunt.

“fvck” I took her perfect ts in my hands and rubbed her beautiful n!pples with my thumbs

She whined and m0aned as she started moving slowly up and down on me. I clenched my jaw as her walls began to expand and I couldn’t help myself as I started to thrust up into her deeper and deeper. I leaned up and she clawed at my shoulders and back as I s.ucked on her n!pples. I muffled her screams with my hand and pushed into her harder and deeper making her beg me for more. I was close too close, with one hand I rubbed her cl!t with my fingers and grabbed her h!p with my other hand. Just as I was about to explode, her muscles tightened around me and she came onto my c0ck.

“fvck” I emptied inside her filling her to the brim my grip tightened around her h!ps as I came harder than I ever have.

She dropped on top of me I moved her hair off her face and k!ssed her forehead.

“I’m taking you to Paris baby”

I had to tell her that fvck deserved a reward.

My Mate Chapter 44 - Tips

Hope

Tomorrow is my eighteenth birthday it has been a stressful 2 days since Zayn and I slept together because he didn’t use protection the second time and I’ve been going insane.

Zayn said that my wolf will be able to tell as soon as she gets in touch with me which I'm hoping is at midnight tonight.

He's been away since yesterday on a business trip I think if he were here I would be a lot calmer. Before he left he took me to see the doctor and she was pleased at how fast my head and neck had healed.

He made me promise not to leave the pack territory until he got back, which was already almost impossible since the security guards have orders not to let me out alone. That is something that has to end as soon as Zayn returns tonight. I can't wait to see him. I miss him so much he asked me to come with him but I wanted to spend time with my parents since I won't be with them on my birthday.

I still hate being in the house alone it brings back memories of the day I was attacked and unless Zayn is with me I have been having nightmares at night. Last night after he finished his meetings I video called him and we kept talking until I fell asleep. The doctor said the nightmares will go away as soon as I get in touch with my wolf.

The good thing is I will be back in school on Monday even though Zayn doesn't like it but it's my choice and I threatened not to have se.x with him until I go back to school. Yeah I know that was a little dramatic but there's no way I'm going to be home schooled for my last couple semesters.

My grandparents all left yesterday after I came back from seeing the doctor. I promised them that Zayn and I would visit each of them soon.

Emily, April, Amy and Cara are all I'm in my room hanging out while I pack for my weekend in Paris with Zayn. They also gave me my birthday gifts a day early because I won't be here tomorrow. They over did it with birthday gifts from se.xy lingerie, to jewelry, designer bags and clothes. We were all getting along great with Cara too it felt like she was born in this pack like the rest of us. Soon Derek and Eric come over and mom brought up all kinds of snacks for us before she and dad left.

"Are you guys going out tonight? I ask

"Yes we need to get Jason laid he's been so annoying lately" Derek laughs and fist bumps Eric.

"He's never had a problem with getting girls" I say

"Yeah except the one girl he wants and can never have." I pray they don't mean me

"What about me and Emily we want some?" Amy says

"Great you guys should hook with Jason" They all laugh

"Goddess no! I have my mind on someone tonight" Emily says

"Where are you guys going anyway?" I ask looking at Derek

"There's another party" I miss going out with them.

"You guys prom is coming up" Emily says

"Don't remind me I have to convince Zayn to go with me because obviously I can't go with anyone else and there's no way I'm missing prom."

My phone rings and April hands me it "It's Jason"

"Hey stranger" I answer as I walk out my room and head downstairs

"Hey Hope can I see you? I heard you're leaving tomorrow"

"Well just for the weekend yea, where have you been I haven't seen you since I got attacked?"

"I've been here you haven't been to school that's why but I wanted to see you before you leave tomorrow and since the Alpha isn't here I thought we could hang out"

"Yea of course we're at my house come by and you know even if he were here you're my friend we can hang out." I started looking through the fridge for nothing in particular

"I'd rather not come up there and I want to see you alone" I stopped what I was doing

"Is everything ok Jason?"

"Yeah why wouldn't it be?"

"I have to finish packing then go out to pick up a few things but I'll be back in school on Monday."

He stays quiet then says "I'm outside your house"

"OK I'll come down for a few minutes" I put my phone down and walk out without saying anything to the rest.

As soon as I open the door I'm shocked by Jason's appearance he looks huge. He cracks a smile at me

"Hey" I came closer and hugged him Jason and I have been friends for as long as I can remember I care a lot for him.

"I never got a chance to thank you, Emily said you saved me" He's looking down

"You don't have to thank me" He looked up at me reluctantly "You know you're one of my best friends " I smiled at him

"How are you feeling?"

"Great"

"So you'll be back on Monday?" he asked looking everywhere but not at me.

"Yes I can finally go back to school" he just nods

"I got you something for your birthday" He said as he handed me a box

"Thanks I'm surprised you remembered since you didn't bother come to visit me in the hospital or call me."

"I wanted to come see you but I was busy... and there's no way I'd forget your birthday. The whole pack house is buzzing about your birthday it's not every day our Luna turns eighteen."

"Open it"

I opened the box "It's so pretty thank you" I hugged him again real quick

“Let me help you put it on” It’s a bracelet with three charms on it one is a female wolf the other is a male wolf and the third charm is full moon. It’s beautiful.

“Luna” I heard Alex call me as he walked over

“I guess I’ll see you later Hope” Jason said and walked away

“Hi Alex” He’s stared at Jason walk away “You ok?”

“Yeah I wanted to ask if you needed me to take you anywhere for your trip tomorrow?”

“No I’m good thank you Alex”

I went back in and everyone was getting ready to leave. I finished packing and made sure I had everything I would need for my trip then got dressed and went up to the pack house. It was already getting dark and just like every other time I walked alone I felt like someone was watching me.

I still haven’t told anyone about the note in my locker I have it in my dresser. If I tell anyone about it I will be home schooled for sure.

I walk into the private living room where my parents, Zayn’s parents and brothers are all seated. The sound of the burning fireplace gave my favorite room an even cozier ambiance.

We are all sitting around the dining table but I wasn’t feeling too hungry. I felt alone without Emily and Zayn. Everyone was talking about one thing or another when I heard the sexiest voice

“Sorry I’m late” I got up off the table and jumped into his arms I couldn’t care less that my parents and all his family were watching. He wrapped his arms around me and spun me around then kissed me softly.

“Jeez you guys have been apart for one day” Kyle teases

We have dinner with both our families Zayn fills my plate with everything I love and I finally start eating “Looks like someone got their appetite back suddenly” Matt laughs

My Mate Chapter 45 - Tips

Hope

After dinner we all sat around the native stone fireplace that occupied most of the wall. It is one of my favorite features in this private room. I sat on the cozy rocker next to it admiring the flames. Zayn was filling in his father and mine about his business trip. Matt and his mate were indulged in conversation with mom and Luna and Kyle and Carrie were just wrapped in each other's arms enjoying the tranquil of the evening.

I wonder what my wolf will be like I thought to myself, in less than an hour I'll know.

"Baby" I looked over at Zayn he had a glass of scotch in one hand and with the other he pointed to his lap. He looked so gorgeous with his tight dress shirt enhancing his bulging muscles the sleeves rolled up to his elbows. Zayn looks great in anything but when he wore a suit I couldn't take my eyes off him.

I walked over and sat beside him on the couch rather than on his lap where he wanted me, I still wasn't very comfortable with public displays of affection and we were certainly not alone with all eyes on us now. He raised his eyebrow at me but I decide to ignore it.

"Hope I'm going to start planning your Luna ceremony we can have it soon after you get back" Luna says smiling

"They have to mate and mark each other as soon as possible then" Kyle smirks at me and Zayn picks me up and put me down on his lap. I immediately buried my face into his neck. He chuckled at my embarrassment. I tried to get up but he held me down firmly with a low growl. I knew he wasn't letting me go anywhere so I rested my head on his broad shoulder and sighed as I started to relax.

He ran his fingers along my bracelet from Jason "This is new"

"Yeah it was a birthday present" Let it go...Let it go

"From who?"

"From Jason" his eyes darkened

"Zayn please he's just a friend, I love you" I said trying to defuse his jealousy. He didn't say anything and that always meant something.

"Your private wing will also be ready for you both when you get back just make sure to email me the furniture and linens you want." Zayn's mother continued in contentment.

Alpha stood up and faced us "Son I am looking forward to you taking over as Alpha of this pack. You have been doing most of the work whether business wise for our companies or pack wise since you turned eighteen. I know I put a lot of weight on your shoulders early on but you have proved time and time to be worthy of your title. Now that your Luna is eighteen I will be stepping down as Alpha."

"Thank you" Zayn said he finally let me get off his lap so he could stand up and shake hands with his dad then my dad and his brothers. The air in the room was thick with power as Zayn and his father shook hands.

"We will make the announcement to the pack when you return before the Luna celebration" His dad said I could feel the pride emit from his Alpha aura.

We all knew that the Alpha had been ready to step down as soon as Zayn found his mate but since I wasn't eighteen he had to wait. It was almost midnight and I would officially be eighteen.

"Hope I guess this is a good time as any" My father walked over to me and handed me car keys

"Happy birthday princess your new Tesla car is in the garage."

I hugged both mom and dad "I've wanted one of these for a while thank you!"

"Hope your mom and I would have loved to throw you a party for your eighteenth but Zayn insisted on taking you to Paris."

"I think I would choose Paris too" I looked at Zayn and my breath hitched at the way he was staring at me.

"Whatever my baby wants my baby gets" He said looking at me dead straight in the eyes.

I was showered with gifts again from everyone books, jewelry, designer boots and clothes. When I was about to open Mandy and Carrie's gifts Mandy she said "I think you should open these two later" She winked at me I quickly put those boxes aside.

"Thank you all so much" I said feeling so loved. Zayn watched me the whole time I was opening gifts. His stare was making my heart beat fast.

"I want to see my new car" I jumped up and down, my parents laughed

"Okay we'll walk with you to the garage on our way home." My mother said. Zayn carried my gift bags home even though I would be packing soon after I came back from our trip.

We walked down to my house with my parents to check out my new car and I instantly fell in love with it! It was black, very advanced and my favorite quality, it was a "green energy" car.

"I can't wait to drive it" I squealed sounding like a little girl I'm sure because my parents laughed. After taking my car for a quick first drive, we said goodnight to mom and dad and they went inside.

"Where are we staying tonight your room or mine" I asked Zayn he wrapped his hands around my waist

"My room, it's sound proof" He lifted me up and walked back up to the pack house with me giggling

"You know I am perfectly able to walk on my own." Goddess I hope we don't run into anyone. But of course we ran into Alpha, Luna, Matt, Kyle and their mates making their way to their rooms.

It was a few minutes until midnight Zayn was getting our bath ready while I quickly looked through the furniture catalog Luna sent me. I could smell my favorite bubble bath as he poured it into the tub. He emerged out of the bathroom wearing only black boxer briefs.

"Do you want to help me pick out the furniture for our house?" I asked him. Looking at his abs did sinful things to my body.

"Get whatever you want" He said his voice sounding so sexy as he pulled me up from the bed.

"It's seven rooms don't you want to choose the desk for your private office?" He was busy unbuttoning my shirt

I glanced at the time on my phone and it was 12 am exactly.

"It's midnight" I said then I felt a throbbing headache suddenly take over me

"What is it baby?"

"I don't know my head!" I cried out. Zayn sat down on the bed with me on his lap. He kept running his hand up and down my back trying to soothe my headache. Werewolves don't get simple headaches why was this happening to me

Twenty minutes later and I was still in a lot of pain and what made it worse was my wolf didn't come out. I was full on crying because of the pain.

"Here let me help you he started to take off my shoes while I took off Jason's bracelet and put it on the night stand then he took my jeans off. All of a sudden my headache was gone and I heard the sweetest voice in my head I closed my eyes

"Hello beautiful" I was a bit startled at first. "Don't worry you and I are one. I'm Jenna your wolf, your other half. And no love you aren't carrying any pups." I couldn't help the huge smile on my face

Zayn

When Hunter howled out like he never had before, I knew right away that Hope's wolf had woken up. My baby had her wolf now, she was a full grown she – wolf.

She opened her eyes I cupped her beautiful face as she said the one word I've been waiting for

"Mate" she whispered

"I Alpha Zayn Black of the Golden Moon pack accept you Hope Ward as my mate and Luna"

"I Hope Ward daughter of Beta Brian Ward of the Golden Moon Pack accept you Alpha Zayn Black as my mate"

“Mine” I heard her adorable little growl and my d!ck twitched

“Yes, I’m yours and you’re all mine” I slid my hand slowly behind her back and unclasped her b.ra.

“Mine to touch” I grabbed her b.reasts and brought my mouth down and l!cked her hardened n!pple.

“Mine to k!ss” I cupped her face and k!ssed her

“Mine to fvck as much and as long as I want” I slid her thong slowly down her legs

I saw her eyes turn dark for the first time and Hunter was fvcking*g raging he wanted to claim his mate and I wanted to fvck her until she couldn’t walk straight.

I picked her up and walked into my bathroom. She had her golden se.xy as hell legs wrapped around my wa!st and her fvckable mouth was latched onto my neck as she k!ssed and l!cked sending electric waves throughout my body. fvck.

I turned the hot water on and pushed her up against the shower wall, I got down on my knees and grabbed her th!ghs up onto my shoulders resting her back against the wall. The bathroom was filled with steam and she looked delicious with the hot water coming down all over her body. I looked up at her

“Brace yourself baby” I said before I rammed my tongue into her core. She grabbed on to me as I l!cked and s.ucked her p.ussy. She m0aned and whined driving me fvcking*g crazy. I plunged my tongue into her opening as far as I could and continued to eat and t0rture her sweet little p.ussy over and over again until she was screaming

“Please don’t stop” I bit down on her cl!t and s.ucked on it as I thrust two fingers inside her in and out at a fast pace. Her body j.erked as she arched her back and came all over my tongue with a scream of my name. I lifted my head up to watch her but kept pushing in and out of her to prolong her pleasure. She is fvcking*g beautiful and se.xy and now everyone will know she’s mine forever.

I brought her legs down and carried her into the tub my eyes hungrily took in her body “Mine” I growled

"Yours" She said "I'm all yours" She said again

Hope

As soon as I said those words I felt his sharp fangs break into my skin. I felt a sudden shock of pain, pleasure and love before electricity run through my entire body. I felt my body and his body become one....

My heart began to pound hard in my chest when he withdrew his fangs

"I love you" I heard him mind link me as I bit into his neck marking him as mine forever. I felt so many emotions I thought my body would combust

"I love you too" I said through our mind link as I retracted my fangs out.

"I can feel your heartbeat" I said before he kissed me.

He kissed me so passionately then picked me up to the edge of the tub and slammed into me over and over again until I was seeing stars. This time he managed to put on a condom.

Zayn

She moaned as I thrust into her again and again I knew she could feel my love, my lust, my need for her as I fucked her. She had her arms on the edge of the tub supporting her while I devoured her nipples and fucked into her. I laid her all the way back and held on to her calves as I fucked her hard and deep as I grunted out all the fucking*g dirty things I planned on doing to her to her.

"Come with me baby" I grunted

She arched her back and came hard all over me as I spilled into the condom in what seemed like never ending ropes and ropes of cum.
