

My Mate Chapter 46 - Tips

Hope

I woke up feeling like a whole new person, I felt things that I never could feel before. I moved closer to my mate and k!ssed him on the shoulder. He smelled so good, I k!ssed him again on his c.hest this time and Jenna purred. He tightened his grip on me I felt my need for him build up all the way to l.ust. I pushed him a little bit so he was on his back and straddled him. I k!ssed his neck then his c.hest, this man is delicious. When he opened his eyes and I felt his hard ar0usal beneath me. We were both completely n.aked and ready. He growled when I nipped at his lower l!p and rubbed myself against him.

Zayn

I woke up a while ago but wanted to see what she would do. I let her explore my body any way she wanted. I growled when she s.ucked on my lower l!p and almost lost control and fl!pped her under me but I wanted to see what she would do on her own. She came down to my neck awakening every fvcking*g sensation in me. She m0aned as she made her way down to my c.hest k!ssing and l!cking and driving me insane. Hunter howled out and she giggled. She knew she was driving me fvcking*g mad with her teasing. She was experiencing a new level of desire and that's what pushed her past her limits. I fvcking*g loved this new side of my baby. Like a fvcking*g vixen she rubbed her we.t p.ussy over my d!ck teasing me. Fvck

I lifted her head up to me so her eyes met mine

"If you don't ride my d!ck now I'll get up and fvck that little mouth of yours hard until I c.um down your throat"

She smiled then slid down burying my c0ck in her. I could feel her discomfort when in this position

"Are you ok baby?"

"Yes" she m0aned. I started thrusting up into her slowly at first then faster. She screamed out in a mix of pleasure and pain as her walls stretched to fit my d!ck.

She started to lifting herself up off me then come down again I watched her use me to get herself off and she was something to watch. Holy fvck. She began moving faster up and down me rubbing her cl!t on me. I watched her b.reasts slightly move as she bounced up and down on my d!ck. I lifted myself up and grabbed her ts s.ucking and l!cking her hard n!pples. She started moving faster on me until I couldn't take it anymore. I fl!pped her under me, lifted her legs up over my shoulders and pounded into her hard and fast deeper and deeper claiming every inch of her as mine. Her eyes were open and glued on mine. I love watching her as I fvck her senseless.

"I'm coming" She purred before she ached her back and gripped my sheets tight as her org*asm hit her hard. She made the se.xiest sounds as her org*asm took over her body and soul.

"Yeah baby come for me" A few more hard thrusts and I followed her into fvcking*g ecstasy. I and pulled out to empty all over her stomach.

I fell by her side and brought her into my c.hest "Good morning" she giggled

"Good morning I look forward to waking up like this every day in the future"

"Happy Birthday" I held her chin up and k!ssed her. She hummed in response

"Let's go shower then get ready I have something to show you before we go to the airport"

"What is it?"

I picked her up "It's a surprise, come on"

We took our time in the shower I couldn't peel my eyes away from her

"Zayn what happened to me last night .. is it normal to feel that much pain before your wolf wakes up?"

"I've never heard of anyone feeling pain" I said as I helped wash her back. I didn't want to tell her that it had been bothering me too. Another unusual thing was it took her wolf longer than usual to get in touch with her.

Hope

Jenna was purring like a baby by the time we finally got out of the shower.

“Any chance of letting me have you again before we go down?” Zayn’s husky voice gave me chills and Jenna’s ears perked up. He was laying down on the bed watching me get dressed.

“Not now but It’s a long flight to Paris we’ll see what happens” I said as I pulled up my black lace stay up tights. He growled as he got up off the bed and stomped over to me, he held my hips tight from behind

“You like teasing me little wolf?” His raspy, turned on voice gave me chills

I giggled “Of course not” I turned around and gave him a quick kiss. Jenna purred like a kitten

“I can’t wait to see what my wolf looks like”

“She’s beautiful I’m sure just like you” My wolf panted in my head.

I picked up Jason’s bracelet “You’re not wearing it” He said, I rolled my eyes at him.

He took a deep breath “Wear my bracelet I don’t want you to wear his”

He looked so cute “Of course I’m going to wear the bracelet you got me but it’s at home so I’ll wear this just for now.”

After I made sure Zayn had everything he needed in his bag we went downstairs. Jenna was giving me a headache with her whining

“What’s going on Jenna?” She wouldn’t answer me

Zayn

After we had breakfast I couldn’t wait to get Hope out of the house everyone was fawning over her and no matter how proud I was to have such a loved and respected mate, I just wanted to have her for myself this weekend. I looked down at our entwined fingers and smiled to myself then I looked at her face, she looked pale all the color in her face had disappeared.

“Are you ok baby?” I asked as we walked to her house.

“I don’t feel good again my head hurts” Her voice made me stop in my tracks. Something was not right I could feel it. I asked Hunter he said he couldn’t feel her wolf. I took out my phone called Alex and barked out orders

“Get me a doctor to my mate’s house now”

“I’ll be ok” She said her voice sounded weak

“I want the doctor to come see you before we leave just for a checkup maybe it’s your head injury”

Contrary to what I said I knew this was something else. Werewolves don’t get sick like this. We don’t get headaches or colds or catch viruses.

Her mom and dad noticed her mark right away. They hugged her a little too tight and even though they’re her parents I didn’t like it. Fvckingd up I know but she wasn’t feeling well.

“She’s not feeling well I’ve already called the doctor to come by” I told them.

I took her up to her room and helped her lay down.

“No honey she can’t just disappear for no reason” Her mother tried to comfort her

I sat down and put her on my lap she melted into me but I could tell she was in pain

“Where the fvck is the doctor?” I didn’t want to raise my voice, I only wanted to ease her pain.

A knock on the door and the doctor walked in.

She checked Hope’s vitals and looked at me with concern. She couldn’t even answer all the doctor’s questions.

Katherine took off the bracelet Hope was wearing so the doctor could check her pulse.

“I feel dizzy” Hope’s voice broke she cuddled into me. My poor little baby

Hunter suddenly howled as he felt Jenna come out of the dark.

“She’s back” Hope smiled and looked around the room “I feel better” She tried to get up

“Wait baby let her finish the checkup”

“Alpha” the doctor looked at me “She’s fine now”

The doctor checked all her vitals again to make sure. But it was true I could also feel it, Hope was better and back to her normal self.

I took the bracelet from her mom and put it in my pocket without anyone noticing.

“Can she travel doctor?” Katherine asked

“I don’t see why not she’s absolutely healthy”

Hope got up and went inside her closet. I mind linked Alex to bring the car and went down to meet with him before we left for the airport. Alex was surprised to see my mate feeling better.

Hope

I felt so much better like I never was sick in the first place. I got the diamond set Zayn bought me and mom helped me put them on then said goodbye to my parents for the weekend before I walked out. Zayn and Alex were outside by the car they looked like they were having a serious conversation.

“Happy birthday Luna” Alex said as he opened the door for me. Zayn slid in beside me. He looked upset and I could feel what he was feeling. He was angry and concerned.

“What is it I asked” through our mind link

“Nothing baby”

He put his arm around me and I nestled into him

“Tell me”

Zayn

I didn't want to spoil her day. I couldn't tell her that her so called friend Jason might be a mother fvcker. I told Alex to watch his every move and I gave her that damn bracelet to Matt to have it checked. I could tell from the start that Jason had strong feelings for her. Hope just couldn't see it. I held her hand trying to calm myself down.

My Mate Chapter 47 - Tips

Zayn

Before going to the airport I told Alex to take a little detour since we were already in the city I wanted to take Hope to my penthouse her eyes lit up as she walked around. She saw portraits of herself hanging all over my walls. Some were painted in black and white and others in brilliant colors. Some were full body paintings and others were of just her face.

I have a French friend who owed me a favor so I had Alex take him some of her pictures and he drew my baby for me. I had them hung up in the penthouse so I could see her every time I was on a business trip. I felt like an a.ss for not bringing her here before it just never happened one of us was always too busy.

I watched her walk around slowly as she looked around at what seemed like a gallery of her beautiful face and figure.

"Zayn, how long have my pictures been hanging on your walls?" She asked her cheeks pinkish

"A few days after I found out you were mine" The more pictures I took of her the more I needed to take of her to feed my obsession over this girl now turned full grown she-wolf. I took pictures of her all the time even when she was asleep. Sounds fvcking*g creepy crazy I know but this woman is my ultimate sin. Since the first day I saw her, my whole life has been consumed by her.

Like always her feminine aura and beauty drew me in I walked over to her and put my arms around her waist

"What can I say baby you have consumed me body and soul" My voice thick. She looked up at me with so much love in her eyes I wanted to push her up against the large picture window and take her from behind. I slid my hands down over her a.ss to the hem of her dress and up her thighs to her luscious a.ss and squeezed. She put her head against my chest and made a soft noise that had me hard as fuck.

"You want me to fuck you baby?"

"Oh my goddess" Her face turned pink she smacked me I grabbed her hand and kissed it. I love that I can still make her blush I hope I always have that effect on her.

"Aww don't blush now you were a fucking*g vixen this morning you almost rode on my dick while I was sleeping."

"Zayn!" She smacked me again and I laughed

"Come show me around" She pulled my hand and walked in front of me.

"You're a bossy little thing" I smacked her a.ss and she squealed

"This place is gorgeous I love the view of the skyline." She stopped to look out the window

"You're going to love this then" I walked her into my library / study and her jaw dropped. On the wall I have a huge mural of her in all in black and white except for her eyes painted beautifully in emerald green. When I came here on business trips I would sit behind my desk and stare at her eyes for hours. Not very productive for business but looking at her would help fill the void of her not being with me. The room has a modern fireplace and couches all around it. On my last trip here I slept in this room looking into her eyes until I fell asleep.

She looked at her painting in awe "I can't believe you had a wall painted of my picture on it"

"Believe it" I cupped her face and kissed her slowly and passionately

"I love this this place I can't wait for us to come spend a few days here"

"I'm glad you like it baby it's ours. Everything I own is yours too" I wrapped her in my arms again

"And just say the word and we can come here"

"I love you and need you" She said in a low seductive voice

"Show me " I demanded, "Show me how much you need me" she didn't hesitate as she wrapped her arms around my neck bring me down to her. She slid her tongue into my fvcking*g mouth making me hard as a rock. Our k!ss was filthy and e.rotic. She rubbed my d!ck through my pants and I lost all focus all I could feel was how turned on my woman was. fvck. I had to have her now.

Hope

Seeing all the paintings he had of me made me want him. I couldn't help it my body craved his touch. I m0aned into his mouth as our tongues slid against each other.

"Bend over on that couch" he instructed as he l!cked his l!ps seductively and I did what I was told

He lifted my dress up my a.ss and moved my panties to the side as he rubbed my already soaking we.t p.ussy. He came down on his knees and ate me out from behind. He used his hands to open my core apart and ate me like I was his last meal. I couldn't help all the sounds that passed my l!ps, only to make him lose control. I heard him undo his belt and jeans calmly taking his time while his mouth was latched on to me. I was going to explode! I heard him open a condom and roll it on before he stood up.

"I love you" He said before slamming into me I don't know what is was but I felt shivers all over my body. The next thing I knew He gripped my h!ps and pounded into so hard and fast I was seeing stars....again.

He captured my body in his carrying me over to the couch to straddle him. He lifted my dress up and above my head. His gaze turned dark as his eyes landed on my b.reasts then on my l!ps. He brought his mouth down and bit my n!pple through my black lace b.ra. I moved my hands behind my back and unclasped it giving him full access. I adjusted myself on him and started moving up and down slowly, our eyes met his eyes were so dark and so full of passion.

He pulled me down and brought his mouth to mine as he pinched my n!pple lightly I gasped, he took the opportunity to slide his tongue into my mouth. I started to unb.utton his shirt and growled when I couldn't do it fast enough

“Shhh baby I’ll do it” He said with a se.xy smirk as he took off his shirt. I k!ssed his neck then s.ucked and l!cked on my mark

“fvck baby you’re fvcking*g great” he said through gritted teeth. His hands moved from my wa!st to my b.reasts again massaging them both using his thumbs to tease my n!pples as he rubbed circles around them. He leaned in and k!ssed each n!pple then cupped both again as he squeezed them and s.ucked and l!cked my hardened n!pples again and again driving me crazy I needed release.

I got off him, he grabbed my arm “Where are you going baby?”

“I want to bend over again” he smiled

“As you wish bend over for me” he demanded then he thrust into me from behind I think I found my favorite position. It’s so deep this way.

He kept pounding me mercilessly over and over until I was screaming out his name

“c.um for me baby” He grunted out I could tell he was so close. I let out a cry as I came hard

A couple of more hard thrusts and he growled out “fvck” and spilled into the condom.

My Mate Chapter 48 - Tips

Hope

Today was our last day in Paris. We were supposed to be here until Sunday but ended up staying a few extra days. I was definitely going to miss our hotel suit right across the street from the Eiffel Tower. We had been to every shop, every restaurant, every event and today all that would end. I have been caught by the raw but r0mantic vibe that Paris has to offer I couldn’t focus on anything but my mate and the magical city we were in.

During the day we went out sightseeing, shopping or just took long walks enjoying the crisp weather. We visited every tourist attraction known. We dined and danced at some of the most exquisite restaurants and bars. The Parisian is unlike any other restaurant in the world it had the best gourmet food. I wore a different dress every night the red backless dress that Zayn bought me was his favorite. The se.xy lingerie under it wasn't so bad either. At night we enjoyed each other. Zayn and I made love every night multiple times. I guess we were captivated by the r0mantic scenery or maybe it was just us.

Jenna was relaxed and enjoyed being with her mate but she wanted to get out and I hadn't made my first shift. Zayn said that as soon as we got back he would help me through my first shift and we could let Hunter and Jenna out together.

We had just finished breakfast when Zayn got a call from Alex. He k!ssed me on the forehead and got up. I started packing our things. We each had one small suitcase when we came but we're leaving this enticing city with four.

So there I was getting our things ready to go back home Zayn was still in the next room taking some calls I had finished packing all our belongings when I heard him let out an angry growl followed by a loud sound of a thump. My heart dropped I rushed inside where he was on his phone the wooden table in the middle of the room had been broken into two and there were pieces of broken glass shattered on the floor around him from the crystal vase that sat elegantly on the table.

When he turned to face me I saw pure fury in his eyes. I put my arm on his shoulder trying to calm him down a bit

"Hope wait in the other room please" His voice stern.

He ordered me like a little child. He didn't want me to know what was happening. What was he trying to hide from me? I wanted to glare at him and stay anyway but I also knew when to test him and when not to and right now was not the time to pick a fight with him. I turned around and left the room closing the door behind me a little too loud. As soon as I shut the door I heard him speak

"We're leaving for the airport now I want the mother fvcker in locked away in the dungeon until I get back then I'll deal with him" His voice raging with anger.

I felt a shiver go down my spine. Who was he talking about? I wanted to calm him down and bring him back to me but he told me to leave. Just as I finished packing and made sure we had all our things he came out I glanced at him and turned back to what I was doing.

"Is everything ok" I asked in a low voice

He didn't answer right away he just kept a steady gaze on me like he hadn't even heard me speak at all.

I straightened up coming a little closer to him "Zayn is everything ok" I repeated I couldn't help but notice how agitated Hunter was which in turn upset Jenna.

"Yes, everything's fine are you ready to leave?"

"Yes" I said in a low voice

I picked up my small hand bag and walked out He carried up our bags and followed me. One security guard dealt with the mess Zayn made in our room and the other took our bags and escorted me to the car. I slid in all the way to get as far away from him as possible and just stared out the window. He brought me here for my birthday and it was amazing only to be tainted on our way home. Zayn got in the back next to me and immediately took me by the waist put me on his lap. I melted into him putting my head in the crook of his neck. He didn't say anything he just held me tight.

I knew that whatever he was keeping from me at the moment had something to do with me so I asked again

"What happened what did Alex say to make you so angry?"

He takes a deep breath and runs his hand through his hair "It's about Jason"

"My friend Jason" I questioned as I lifted my head

"Yes your mother fvcker so called friend tried to hurt you maybe even k!ll you"

"He would never do that" I sounded defensive and he didn't like it.

"And you know him so well huh?"

"Yes I do I've known him all my life so has Emily ask her he isn't capable of hurting me"

“Hope the bracelet that Jason gave you was enchanted. Alex had it checked. Jason had a witch put a spell on it that’s why you got sick when you wore it” He raised his voice a little too loud for my liking.

I thought about it Zayn was right but I was still convinced that there was something more. I remembered the night of the bonfire when Jason said he would always take care of me. He wouldn’t try to hurt me deliberately I’m sure.

“Please don’t tell me you had him thrown in the dungeon?” I ask feeling a lump in my throat

“Don’t question me right now Hope”

“Oh my goddess I can’t believe you!” I climb off his lap and continue “He would never..” He cuts me off

“Enough”

“Don’t yell at me like some child” I glared at him. He matched my glare but his alpha aura forced me to back down. I have to help Jason and find out what’s going on.

The rest of the car ride to the airport is quiet. When we board his jet he keeps himself busy with the pilot for a while. I was looking through my phone debating whether to call Jason or not. Zayn would flip. Maybe I could call Eric and ask about him. I’m busy in my own head when Zayn walks over calmly

“You are not to talk to anyone about this” I keep forgetting about our mind link. I’ll have to remember to shut him out when I’m thinking to myself.

“Zayn I’m trying to help you figure this out and to help my a friend”

“I don’t need help I just need to keep you safe” He yells out

“Jason is not dangerous” I yell back

We both stood in silence for a few seconds looking at each other he attempted to come closer but I sidestepped past him before he could touch me. He grabs hold of my hand and sighs

“Lose the attitude please”

“Attitude” I repeat sarcastically and pull back as far as he would let me. Sometime I wish I could punch him.

Our flight back home went by pretty fast I spent most of the time sleeping or just thinking. Zayn was in his own world but when I was asleep I felt him lay down next to me.

It's late when we finally make it back to our pack. Zayn had the driver stop for me to get out at my house. He walked inside with me carrying my bags. Mom and dad were in their room sleeping but woke up when they heard us come in. They don't stay downstairs too long dad carried my bags up to my room before he went back to bed and mom followed him.

“Start packing your things tomorrow I'll send a few omegas to help you” He wanted me to pack for the move into our wing in the pack house. The air between us was tense I couldn't believe this was the same person I was with in Paris. The same person who swooped me off my feet every night and made love to me for hours. Right now he was very dominant and tough with me.

“Today is Thursday I have school tomorrow and I'd rather wait a few days before I start packing.”

“Baby please don't act like this, you need to rest tomorrow I think you should go to school” I kept quiet

He sighs and brings his hand up to touch my face but I move my head. He growls turns my face towards him and kisses me. I want to push him away. I want to demand that he listens to me. But I don't..I part my lips for him allowing him entrance. I know this is what he needs right now.

Zayn

Since Alex called me about the bracelet I've been on edge until now. I reluctantly let her go before heading to the dungeon. I mind linked Alex to meet me there.

“Please don't hurt him” She says through our mind link as I enter the cold dungeon

Mother fvcker I'm going to wring his neck. The mother fvcker barely flinched when he saw me walk in. I walked straight to his cell he bowed but didn't cower like most do.

“Are you trying to hurt her mother fvcker?”

“No”

I grab him out of the pathetic cell he was locked up in and throw him on the ground

“Tell me everything or I will k!!! you” I snarled at him

“Zayn” I hear Hope call my name

What the fvck is she doing here?

My Mate Chapter 49 - Tips

Hope

I couldn't just sit back knowing that Zayn was about to “interrogate” Jason. He k!!!ed Crystal for planning to have me k!!!ed so I knew that's what Jason's fate would be.

As future Luna the guards had no choice but to let me through to the dungeon a subterranean part of our territory and pack only for the condemned. I had never been down here the stairs were fatally deep and the walls dreary red brick. As I walked through the horrid and most loathsome place I had ever been I picked up Zayn's scent almost immediately like always it relaxed me. I saw Zayn throw Jason on the floor

“Hope go back home now” Zayn shrilled out at me when I called out his name

“Hope it's what they think I know that's what it looks like but it's not I swear”

Alex knelt down by Jason “Who said you could talk”

Zayn walked rushed over to me “I told you to leave go back home”

“I'm not leaving I am the future Luna of this pack and you're going to listen to me” I walked over to Alex and turned my back to Jason “Let me talk to him please” I asked looking at Zayn. He is the Alpha and I will always give him the respect he deserves especially in front of pack members. Zayn nodded

“Jason get up” I ordered. Zayn stood next to me

I looked him straight in the eyes “We’ve known each other all our lives, you’re my best friend So I want you to be tell me what’s going on because you haven’t been yourself lately”

Jason put his head down then spoke “After the bonfire I hooked up with someone I regret it now she’s in love with the Alpha” I knew who he meant but kept my eyes locked on Jason’s as he hesitated

“Go on” I said

“She wants to be his Luna” Zayn takes my hand and when he feels me stiffen as Jenna growls

“She wanted him to mark her as his mate and not you so she had a witch put a spell on a bracelet and convinced me to give it to you for your birthday.” My heart sank but I kept my composure as Jason continued “The bracelet would block your wolf and your mates pull and eventually you would leave him but I could tell how much you loved him even before you turned. You didn’t need the mate pull I knew you wouldn’t leave him. And that he wouldn’t let you leave him anyway”

“So you conspired with a witch to separate me from my mate” Zayn has devious glint in his eyes.

“No I never saw any witch”

“Who is this woman?” I hadn’t noticed Zayn’s dad come down here and stand behind us. he took a step forward

“Stephanie the Alpha’s daughter of the Blue Moon Pack”

“I’m not surprised” Alpha says “I think it’s time we pay Alpha Edward a visit he says looking at Zayn we have put off confronting him long enough.

“The only reason I let her talk me into giving her the bracelet was she said that you and her are still seeing each other in secret” Jason looked at Zayn. I only saw truth in his eyes

“She said every time you went on a business trip you would go see her. I saw how much Hope missed you when you went away and I hated you for doing that to her so I agreed”

Zayn folds his arms across his chest “That’s not the only reason you agreed”
Zayn stares Jason down

“I’ve had feelings for her ever since we were kids” His voice was low “She’s everything I ever wanted but out of respect for you, your family, the pack and myself I would never ever cross that line. I only see her as a Luna now”

I wasn’t surprised by what Jason said I always knew how he felt but I only ever saw him as a friend.

” Hope, I’m sorry I would never hurt you. I thought he was going behind your back and you don’t deserve that. I hope you can forgive me and we can still be friends.” I looked at him with no emotion at all. I honestly did not know what to say at this point.

Zayn

“As Alpha I have to protect my Luna and my pack. Our Luna makes our pack stronger. If I sense any kind of danger to her or to the pack I will abolish it immediately.”

I took a deep breath trying to calm myself from tearing his eyes out the mother fvcker tensed “You didn’t handle things well. You should have been smart enough to come to me with this or to my father but I understand why you didn’t”

I want you to remain inside the pack house you are not to leave the mansion until I tell you If I find out you left for any reason at all I’ll consider it a direct threat and you will be eliminated meaning you cannot walk outside by the pool or the drive way for that matter. You are confined to the pack house until further notice do you understand?”

“Yes Alpha” he said

“Your parents are pride to this pack your mother is one of the best trackers and your father was and still is one of the best warriors. I have a lot of respect for them both and that’s the only reason I’m not kicking your a.ss out this pack.” Hope intertwined her fingers in mine

“Alpha there’s something else you should know”

“What”

“When you were followed from the mall by rogues”

“Yeah” Hope puts her hand on my shoulder but stays quiet

“Stephanie saw you both out at the mall. She had Kain follow you on your way back home.”

“How do you know this” My father interjects

“The night of your birthday party I went to see her that’s when she told me you were still seeing her that’s when she gave me the bracelet. When I agreed to give Hope the bracelet she told me about Kain. He’s the rogue clan leader who does the dirty work for her and her father.”

I’m going to k!ll her Hope growls through our mind link. She’s so adorable but I don’t doubt for a second that she could.

When the time comes I’ll make sure you do baby

“Do you know anything about her brothers?” I asked

“All I know is that she has two brothers but I’ve never met them.” I never went to her pack. I hooked up with her the night she came here with Mandy and Carrie after the bonfire. She would call me to meet her at hotel. The last time I saw her was when she gave me the bracelet.

I let him go as long as he stays in the pack house for now. I trust what he’s said is true but I can’t take any risks at this point. Before Alex went up to the pack house he told Hope that she is going to make a great Luna and that I’m lucky to have her. I felt so proud of my baby she followed her instincts today.

I took Hope’s hand and lead her out the dungeon as we walk by the rogue that I still have alive he watched her a little too long

“What are you looking at filth?” He cowers back like a pathetic fvck

“Zayn come lets go have a drink in the family room, his time will come” My father says.

“Hope come join us Maria is there she was already on her second glass of wine when I left.” I take my baby’s hand and walk up the stairs and out the dungeon.

“We’ll be right there” I called out to my father as he walked ahead into the family room I took Hope into my office. Being alone with her helped me calm down. I took her hands in mine

“Baby I’m sorry you had to go through this because of that bh and I’m sorry I should have trusted your instinct about Jason. I will never doubt you again. I acted like an it. I love you and the thought of someone scheming to take you away from me drives me mad.” I look at her beautiful face waiting for a sign that she’s not angry with me anymore.

“You had me at baby” she wraps her arms around my neck I cupped her face and k!ssed her. Her warm mouth tasted sinfully good.

We followed my father into the family room I know Hope likes that room a lot which is why I’m having a replica of it made in our private wing.

She sat down next to my mother while I poured her a glass of wine and myself whiskey. I filled in my father about a plan to take down the Blue Moon Pack whether fvcking*g Edward wanted Hope for his son or not we were still going to war with him because of the attack on us and because he is dabbling with witches and rogues.

I watched Hope talk to my mother about our trip. I watched her mouth move as she spoke and how her legs were crossed so elegantly. I remembered how she defended her friend and never backed down for a minute. She showed all the qualities of a Luna tonight.

I felt so calm but I had a feeling it wouldn’t last long.

My Mate Chapter 50 - Tips

Zayn

As soon as the sun rose I woke up I took a shower in Hope’s room then went up to the pack house and straight to my office. Every step I took away from her house had Hunter growling at me. I hated leaving her bedside she’s my mate I am never complete without her but I had to get today over and done with.

Alex was already waiting for me outside my office. Today Brian and I are going to the Blue Moon Pack to confront Alpha Edward. I put together a group of elite warriors the best of the best lead by Matt to come with us as back up but they would stay hidden outside his territory just in case we needed them. I didn't want to alert the son of a bh. Nevertheless He might try and start something we had to be ready.

My father was going to start calling all our other allies to meet as soon as possible. He needs to get them all on our side and agree to cut all ties with The Blue Moon Pack if they fail to follow through what my father suggests then they would no longer get any kind of support from us. We have been the strongest pack for decades now we support all our allies in any way possible even financially.

"Should we take Jason with us?" Alex asked me.

"Yeah I want him to come" I mind linked Jason to meet me in the garage at 9 am sharp.

"Alex I want you stay here I can't leave Hope or our territory unguarded. You will go with her to school and back Kyle and my father will also be staying behind."

At around 7:00 am Brian came in along with Matt and Kyle I could feel Brian's agony after hearing about Stephanie and the bracelet. He wanted Stephanie and her father to suffer for hurting his daughter. We were all in my father's office discussing the strategic plan at hand when I was hit with my baby's scent stronger than ever. I shot up and went straight for the door, she looked like a fvcking*g goddess her long beautiful hair down she was wearing tight black jeans torn at the knees with a white T-shirt and denim jacket and black sneakers. I looked at her from her shoes all the way up to her face. She was talking and smiling with Jason. Mother fvcker.

I walked over to her and put my arm around her waist Jason bowed

"Alpha you wanted to see me?"

"Yes wait outside by my Hummer" He walked out but not before cracking a smile at Hope.

"Bye" She said softly watching him leave then turned immediately to me. I love how I can see her love for me through her eyes

"You look beautiful baby" I said as I k!ssed her.

"Thank you what's going on?" I hadn't told her where I was going today. I hadn't had the time actually. I didn't want to worry her and honestly I decided this late last night so I didn't have much time to tell her when we went to bed she was tired from the flight here and all the wine her and my mother had.

"You're father and I are going over to the Blue Moon Pack today" I saw her face pale.

"I want to go with you"

"Absolutely not!"

"I want to go with you I won't be able to focus all day" She pouted

"OK so stay home but you can't come with me it's too risky" She didn't answer me

"Baby don't you have faith in me?" I asked still carrying her

"Of course I do I know how strong you are" She squeezes my biceps I love this playful side of hers. I lifted her up she wrapped her legs around my waist I brought my hand to the back of her neck and k!ssed her

"Goddess get a room" I hear Kyle say and she tries to jump out of my embrace but I grab on to her tighter

"Hope you look ravishing" He says, looking at my baby I move one hand off her and smack him in the head.

"Go sweet talk your own mate leave mine the fvck alone"

"Aww we can all be nice and share" Kyle said doing a good job at pissing me off this morning

"I swear I'm gonna k!!l him one of these days" I sigh and bring my head into the crook of her neck.

"I'd feel better if I was by your side I want to go"

"You don't know how I love hearing you say that but the answer is no" She glares and growls at me so adorable.

"Don't glare or growl at me little wolf" I pinched her a.ss

"I wish you would agree to just stay home and get home schooled till the end of the year"

"Zayn we talked about this plus I'm not listening to you if you don't listen to me"

"Watch it" I spanked her a.ss.

"I love you I'll see you after school" I said she melted into me and ran her fingers through my hair, if she keeps this up I'll have to go back into the meeting with a hard on.

"Good Morning Princess" I let her go when her father and my father came out of the office.

"Good morning dad" She k!ssed her father

"Alpha" She greeted my father

"Good Morning Hope" He gave her a quick h.ug before Emily came rushing down the stairs

"I overslept again" Emily said groggily her eyes bleary as she walked towards us

"Good morning sunshine" I said and h.ugged her

"Both of you go get breakfast before school" I ordered and Hope rolled her eyes at me while shaking her head. I walked with her to the kitchen her other friends were having breakfast already they bowed their heads when we entered Mandy and Carrie were also in there. They all said good morning as I took out a chair for my baby and filled her plate.

"I can't wait to find my mate" Emily says "Then he can fill my plate for me"

"I have a mate Em and he doesn't do things like that that's just your brother"

"Mine doesn't either" Carrie said

“We’re going in my car today” Hope said enthusiastically she looked up at me and k!ssed my cheek. I wanted to buy her the newest model Jeep but her dad had his heart set on getting her a car. I k!ssed her on the head while she ate. She started making a sandwich

“Are you taking that with you baby?”

“No, I’m full it’s for you”

“Ladies take care of your men” Hope said looking down at the sandwich she’s making me while putting lettuce over the bacon. Mandy and Carrie paused for a second then started making sandwiches for their mates.

I took her hand and k!ssed it. After they finished breakfast I made sure she was all set “Come home right after school” I told her before she drove off Alex and another warrior were right behind her. I alerted the security guards at the gates to let her out.

Matt had already gathered all the warriors coming with us outside. I briefed them on what was going on

“You follow Matt’s orders if for any reason they become hostile I will mind link you. The most important thing is you all stay incognito until if and when I tell you.”

Brian sat in the passenger seat with me mother fvcker Jason was in the back. I had the bracelet in my pocket.

“We should have come by helicopter half the way” Brian said

“On the way back we can stop by my hotel in the city I have a hel!pad on the roof. There’s a helicopter we can take back home. I have a pilot there on standby.”

“Don’t forget to get someone to drive your Hummer back”

“I have a driver there also on standby”

The rest of the drive was in comfortable silence until we arrived to where the warriors would hide. I parked to the side of the road and got out for just a minute

“Matt stay alert” I said

“If we attack I want you to fvcking*g shred them all to pieces” I growled out and they all bowed at my command.

It took me about thirty minutes to arrive to the Blue Moon Pack. At their entrance the security guard recognized me straight away.

“Alpha” and opened the gates. See there’s their first weakness he shouldn’t have let me in without screening the car and he should have announced we were here.

“It seems their borders aren’t we’ll guarded” Brian says

“We keep maps of all our allied territory and this one is the weakest. I’ve had to constantly help them with rogue problems in the past but now he’s teaming up with them mother fvcker.”

I parked in front of the pack house and practically walk in without anyone stopping us. Once we are inside young lady approaches us “Hello how can I help you gentlemen?”

“I’m Alpha Zayn Black this is Beta Brian Ward of The Golden Moon Pack and he is my driver. We are here to see Alpha Edward on urgent business.”

“It’s great to have you visit us Alpha with your Beta this way please” she leads us right to the fs office without notifying him first. She knocks on the door and opens it

“Alpha I’m sorry to bother you but Alpha Zayn and his Beta are here to see you” She says

I walk sidestep around her and enter Brian and Jason come in behind me.

“Alpha Zayn it’s so good to see you again” He puts out his hand I shake it reluctantly

“Beta Brian so good to see you.” He looks at me then at Jason

“He’s a pack member” I said plainly.

“To what do I owe this honor alpha you should have told me you were coming I would have prepared myself but no worries I will have Stephanie make sure the omega’s prepare you a fantastic meal for lunch”

“Alpha we do not plan on staying for lunch we won’t take up much of your time but it has come to our attention that you have become allies with a new rogue leader by who goes by the name of Kain.” I spoke calmly even though I wanted to k!ll him right there in his seat.

His demeanor changed “Alpha I am shocked I have no idea what you are talking about”

“Call Stephanie in here” I demanded he looked like he was going to faint.

“I assure you my daughter does not know anything about this Kain”

“Call her now I’d like to speak to her” My voice was very calm and low. As soon as I said those words the bh steps in

“Dad is that Alpha Zayn’s Hummer?” She says as she walks in and stops when she sees me

“Hi Alpha what a surprise” She stuttered. Brian was glaring at her he wanted to rip her head off.

When she saw Jason her face turned ashen. She froze in place.

“Alpha Edward your daughter Stephanie manipulated this young man here Jason into giving my daughter Hope a bracelet on her eighteenth birthday with a spell on it” Brian’s voice was deep and the way he presented himself always demanded attention.

Alpha fvcker looks at his bh of a daughter “My daughter would never do such a thing”

“Your daughter has been conspiring with witches and rogues to hurt my mate” I raised my voice just a little. “That breaches our trust” I stood up “And you know what that means” I glared at him.

I took the bracelet out of my pocket and tossed it hard on his desk.

“Dad I have no idea what he’s talking about. He’s jealous that I went out with Jason a couple of times but that’s all it was. right Jason?”

"You told me you wanted to be Luna of our pack. You told me you had a witch put some kind of enchantment so Hope wouldn't turn or feel her mates pull.. You told me that you and Alpha Zayn were still seeing each other. You also told me that you saw them shopping at the mall and you had Kain the leader of the rogues follow them" Jason spilled

"You son of a bh! he's lying!" She cried out

I came closer to her "If you ever attempt to hurt my Luna I will k!ll you"

"Alpha Zayn you cannot come here and threaten my daughter like that"

"I can and I did" I grabbed Alpha fvcker by the collar "Consider our alliance terminated. All treaties between us ended. The Golden Moon Pack does not consider you an ally any longer.

"Alpha Zayn you are making a big mistake!" He roared I kept walking right out. I heard him slam his hands down on his desk and break something but we walked right out and left his pathetic pack house.
