

My Mate Chapter 51 - Tips

Zayn

I came to the Blue Moon Pack knowing that one way or another there would be a battle. Alpha Edward has no backbone or else he wouldn't need rogues to do his dirty work while he remains in the shadows like a pitiful fvck.

I walked to my car slowly giving the mother fvcker a chance to attack so I could tear his throat out. I've seen his warriors fight they wouldn't stand a chance against us. Brian is one of the strongest warriors I've ever met and the last time we were in battle Jason fought full throttle. I was sure he had rogues stationed inside his territory hidden in the woods. I wasn't the least bit worried about battling them in fact I had purposely provoked him. Hopefully he is stupid enough to order an attack on us on our way back home it would definitely weaken the rogues and hopefully give me a chance to k!ll Kain. I have no idea what he looks like but he's their leader and we will be able to sp0t the leader easily.

I was livid inside but I restrained myself I didn't want to attack him first I had already threatened his daughter and broken all ties with him and his pack. As we approached security at the entrance I was sure they would stop us but they did no such thing. My only concern was Hope and the rest of the pack members getting home safely.

While in my own thoughts I heard the sweetest voice in my head

Zayn my baby mind linked me. Hearing her voice put a smile on my face and calmed me down.

Yes, baby are you in school?

Yeah, where else would I be? Are you okay? I miss you

I miss you too baby I'm fine we're leaving the Blue Moon territory now.

OK please be careful on your way back home I smile to myself at she's so adorable

Always I love you

I love you too she replied with a sign

As I drove towards the spot where Matt and the rest of the warriors were positioned I spotted something peering at us from between the trees lurking in the forest, I huffed in repulsion. I was right the mother fvcker does have rogues living on his grounds.

“Zayn step on it the closer we are to the warriors the better” Brian warned as he looked outside his window he had caught sight of them too. I hit the gas pedal

I tried to mind link Alex but couldn’t get through to him. What the fvck. I was just mind linking Hope.

“Someone is fvcking*g with my mind link I can’t get through to Alex”

“Same here I can’t get through to Hope” Her dad said

“I just linked her a few minutes ago but I can’t now”

“The bastard is using witch craft to stop us from mind linking it’s old magic this proves he is dabbling with witches and sorcery.”

I took out my phone and speed dialed Alex he answered right away

“Is everything okay?” I barked out

“Yes they should be coming out any minute now I’m waiting for her right outside”

“We won’t be able to mind link you guys at all keep an eye out Alex! Make sure all our pack members stay close together on the way home. Get her home safe get them all home safe”

“Don’t worry I’ll have them home soon you stay focused she’ll be fine” Alex assured me. I could feel my adrenaline rush

I called Matt “Matt be prepared for battle I’m almost there.”

“Zayn the Red Blood Moon Pack sent over their warriors to battle by our side”

So our allies must have agreed to cut all ties with the Blue Moon Pack. The Red Moon Pack is closest to this area and Alpha Axel is one of my personal friends.

“He must be an it to try and surge and attack on us right now” Jason said

“He is an it I wouldn’t put it past him” Brian answered as he started taking off his jacket getting ready to shift.

I quickly swerved off to the side of the road where Matt and our warriors were stationed waiting. As soon as I parked I quickly took off the watch Hope got me for my birthday and put it in the glove compartment I didn’t want it breaking when I shifted. We jumped out and ran for the woods. As I ran through the unfamiliar woods I quickly picked up the scent filthy rogue I was coming for bl00d. I saw Matt standing by Axel and they both approached me

“Alpha Zayn my men have been ordered to follow your command” Axel extends his hand and I shake it. Jason joined the warriors

“They are close” Brian said

“Yes Indeed they are” Axel looks around “Their scent is hard to miss”

I walked over to face the warriors “I have faith in every one of you I want every one of those rogue fvckers dead” I yelled out to the warriors.

“Fight hard and we will eliminate the threat. I want their leader Kain alive.” As soon as I bellowed those words all the warrior werewolves growled out loud. They were showing their respect and thirst for bl00d.

I heard howls and Hunter growled in anticipation as I shifted when a huge pack of rogue wolves came running towards us. I suspected that Edward was counting on k!lling me by outnumbering us that made me smirk. Happy hunting I thought to myself as I opened my jaw and bit down into my first k!ll.

Hope

I couldn’t focus in all my classes today I wanted to get home and

Alex was waiting outside as usual but he seemed a little bit on edge. He mind linked all our pack members to meet by my car.

"We stay close together until we enter our borders Alpha's orders. Be on the lookout for any threat once we get home do not leave pack grounds until the Alpha and warriors return."

"What's going on?" Emily asked

"Nothing to worry about just taking precautions"

"I'll drive in front, Luna you, Emily, April and a warrior in your car right behind me and Eric rides with you also, then in Derek's car, Amy and 2 warriors right behind Luna. And behind Derek our warriors. Split up like I asked please"

I got in my car with a warrior in the passenger seat while Emily, April and Eric got in the back.

"Luna my name is Aaron would you like me to drive?"

"No Aaron thank you though"

As soon as Alex pulled out I pulled out after him then Derek and the warriors were last. I tried mind linking Zayn but I couldn't reach him.

"Alex why can't I reach him?"

"He's fine I promise he'll be home soon"

Aaron and Eric kept their windows open I knew what was happening but I wasn't scared I felt the need to protect everyone even though they were trying to protect me.

Jenna try to reach out to Hunter

I can feel his connection but can't reach out to him. She sounded so sad

Jenna I'm so happy I have you now we have to be strong

Zayn

My heart was beating erratically as I raced through the rogues like a killing machine. I wanted their leader Kain. We had killed so many wolves and we were still going strong. Their number had been reduced and now the warrior werewolves formed a tight circle around the filthy rogues that were left. I entered the circle and walked slowly up to the tallest and biggest one he immediately put his down. Kain wasn't here. Axel entered the circle and we took out the remaining pitiful rogues. I took a quick look around at the aftermath of our gruesome battle the ground around us looked like a fvcking*g bl00dbath.

Axel and I looked around for casualties only to find several severely injured. All our warriors both from the Red Blood Moon Pack and my pack fought gallantly I stood proud looking around me. Everyone howled in victory.

Most of us shifted where we took off our clothes and started moving towards our vehicles.

Brian patted my back "Too bad we didn't get Kain"

"I will get him one way or another, what a coward he must be to send his wolves out to battle alone. They were doomed from the start" Brain started making his way to the car I am still blown away by his strength most werewolves his age lose some of their stamina but he's a k!ller.

I said goodbye to Axel after I thanked him for his support and invited him to our pack to discuss our next move over dinner tomorrow night. He insisted on us going to his pack to get cleaned up but I had to go home to her. I missed her like crazy. He agreed to come for dinner the next day and we were all on our way.

I had Matt drive to my hotel an hour away and take the helicopter back home. Brain and some warriors went with him. I wanted nothing more than to hurry home to her but I couldn't do that to Matt and the warriors who went with him were injured badly. I drove all the way back home It wasn't too bad I just missed my baby so much.

Hope

When I heard the helicopter I thought for sure it was Zayn I ran over like my life depended on it but it wasn't him. I hugged my father and Matt

"Don't worry he'll be here soon" Matt told me.

He had some injuries nothing too serious I was happy my father wasn't injured too much. Mom tried to make him go home right away so she could take care of him but he insisted on seeing the Alpha first and waiting for Zayn to get back safely. I made sure everyone was okay and escorted two severely injured warriors to the hospital and stayed with them for a little while to make sure they were well.

My mind was going crazy I needed to see him so without telling anyone where I was going I ran. I ran as fast as I could my heart beating fast and my breathing erratic to the main gates. The security saw me coming

“Luna are you okay?”

“Yes I’m fine” Is all I said.

Zayn

Finally I could see our territory! I don’t know how fast I was going. When we neared the main gates my breath hitched when I saw her. She was waiting for my arrival. As soon as she saw me she ran towards me. I opened the door and jumped out taking her in my arms. Heaven.

My Mate Chapter 52 - Tips

Zayn

I held on to her as tight as I could without hurting her. I had everything I needed right here in my arms. She melted into me like every other time I held her but her heart was beating fast. Very fast. I tried to pull back to look at her face but she gripped and held onto me tighter.

“I couldn’t reach you” She said I felt her worry and fear of losing me. Her muffled voice broke my heart into pieces.

“I know I’m sorry baby the bastard used witchcraft to block us all from mind linking each other but I tried calling you didn’t pick up.” I was actually almost going to lose my sh!t when she didn’t answer my calls but Alex told me she was fine. I ran my hand through her hair to calm her down and to calm myself down.

“I left my phone in my room” She said softly.

“You know how I hate when I can’t reach you but I’m here now” I told her as I felt myself relax. After a few seconds I pulled back a little and cupped her face k!ssing her on the forehead.

Jason and the warriors that rode back with me all got out of the car. She pulled away from me but her hands were still gripping my arm as if to make sure I wouldn't go anywhere. I kept my arms around her waist.

"Luna" They bowed

"Alpha we're going to run the rest of the way" They had been sitting down the whole way back home and needed to stretch out but they were giving us space to ride up to the pack house alone.

"OK make sure to get that arm looked at I told one of them" He just nodded

"Jason I'm so happy you're okay.. all of you" she looked at the warriors. They bowed before running off towards the pack house Jason went with them.

"Are you hurt?" She asked looking me over for injuries.

"No this is mostly rogue blood not mine" I said softly pinning my eyes on her. I could feel her eternal love for me as I stared into those beautiful green eyes.

"Come on your family is waiting for you" She said blushing under my stare her hand still gripping on to my arm.

"They can wait a little longer" I said softly wrapping one hand around the nape of her neck and brought my mouth to hers. Finally! she tasted so fucking*g sweet! I felt like I was home. She wrapped her arms around my shoulders and hummed into my kiss. I kept it short not wanting to give the security guards a show.

"Let's go home" I picked her up and she quickly wrapped her legs around my waist snuggling into the crook of my neck. I walked over to the passenger side sat her down and kissed her before going around to my side.

Baby I love you I tried mind linking her and smiled when her sweetest arousing voice filled my head

I love you too. I don't think I've ever been so scared in my life I kissed her hand before making my way along the long paved road through our territory until we finally reached the pack house. The pack was waiting outside they howled when they saw us approach.

"Your pack is welcoming you back" She said smiling

"Our pack" I kissed her hand and stepped out of the car. I raised my hand before speaking to them and everyone was quiet. "Thank you, our warriors fought like champions today against an exceeding number of rogues and we did not lose a single werewolf." Everyone howled out in victory as I made my way inside the pack house with Hope by my side.

Hope

Both Zayn's parents and mine met us as soon as we entered the pack house. Luna hugged him and his father patted him on the back.

My mother took my hand "Are you okay now darling?" Yeah I am I put my head on her shoulder Zayn kept looking back at me.

"Your son is a champion fighter" My father spoke "I've never seen anyone withstand so many rogues at once" Alpha looked so proud "Both him and Matt actually."

"The Red Blood Moon Pack fought by our side" Zayn told his father at the same time he held his hand out for me. I took his hand and he put his arm around my waist

"I've called upon our allies for another meeting tomorrow at noon." His dad said

Zayn nods his head "good.. If it's war the bastard wants then that's what he'll get"

"This attack on us today means war and his collaboration with rogues and witches brings forth the end of the Blue Moon Pack." My father spoke

"I wouldn't have it any other way" Zayn said as I leaned into his hard rock chest.

Just then Emily walks over and hugs Zayn "I'm glad you're okay" He hugs her back and messes up her hair. "Zayyyyn" she screeched as she swatted his hand away.

"I asked Alpha Axel to stay for dinner tomorrow" Zayn said looking at his mother and her eyes lit up so did Emily's. Luna loves planning events like this even if it's a simple dinner and Emily has had a crush on Alpha Axel since she was ten.

"You haven't seen him in ages what if he has found his mate" I whispered to her so nobody can hear me

"What if he hasn't?" She whispered back while winking at me. I can't help but giggle "I can't wait come help me choose what to wear" she tried to pull me away but Zayn's his possessive nature wouldn't allow it he pulled me against him.

"Where do you think you're taking my mate" Zayn growled

"We have all day tomorrow to choose and we can talk tonight at dinner" I told Emily

"Fine I'm going to check on Jason" She said annoyed and walked away.

"Where is Matt is he okay?" I asked Luna

"He went up to his room he's fine. He'll be down for dinner" Luna answered me and continued "Our Luna is so perfect Zayn the Goddess has truly blessed us. She made sure everyone was okay even though she was worried sick about you. She even went with the injured warriors to the hospital and remained by their side." She said looking at me with so much love.

"I know" Zayn tilted his head down and planted a kiss on my head. My parents were smiling from ear to ear.

"Honey are you having dinner here or at the house?" Mom asked me but Luna answered before I could

"Here! We will all have dinner here. We need to discuss the Luna ceremony and Hope needs to pick what furniture she wants for their wing already."

"OK we're going home now Brian needs to rest I'll come up help you in a little bit"

"It's okay Katherine take care of him dinner has been picked and is already almost done anyway." I hugged and kissed both my parents before they walked out the pack house and went home.

I could tell Zayn was beat "You need to rest before dinner" I told him he lifted my hand up and k!ssed it.

"Let's go we'll see you at dinner" Zayn said and k!ssed his moms cheek before they walked away into the living room we walked up to his room.

As soon as he stepped in his room he took off his shirt and I gasped when I saw his cuts and bruises. "I'll be fine baby" He walked in the bathroom and continued to und.ress.

"Do you want me to start you a shower or bath?" I asked him, he looks so good even when cut up and covered in dried up rogue bl00d. I really wanted him to just relax tonight.

"What do you want?"

"Let's take a bath it will help you relax" I said

"No baby we'll take a quick shower then I'll fvck you that will help me relax" I smacked his shoulder but but my insides quivered.

"okay" I said and he started helping me take my clothes off. When I was completely n.aked his eyes turned a few shades darker. We stepped in his over sized shower I felt myself relax.

I washed his back but winced at the cuts. "Did Stephanie admit to what she did?"

"No, she didn't but what Jason told us is absolutely true." He turned around towards me and I started washing his shoulders.

"He has rogues living on his lands and maybe witches too" he said with a dark concerned glint in his eyes

"Everything will be okay let's take this one day at a time" I told him his gaze changed when he heard me say that.

"What?" I asked

"You're so perfect in every way" He said and my heart did all kinds of fl!ps.

"hmmm in every way?" I got down on my knees in front of him and took his manh00d in my hand moving up and down his hard thick shaft. "It's so big"

“fvck” He grunted out when he heard me say that as I slid what I could fit of him into my mouth.

Zayn

“fvck” I grunted out as I gripped her hair in hand and heaved my d!ck deep into her sweet mouth. She looks so fvcking*g great s.ucking me off. She took me by surprise when she went down on her knees in front of me but I’m not complaining. If this is her way of making me relax I’ll battle rogues every day.

I thrust my h!ps forward as I fvckingd her mouth in and out, in and out over and over again...I wanted to shove myself down her throat I but didn’t want to hurt her, she wasn’t used to this or my full size. She m0aned around me. fvck. Her sounds alone had me going crazy. She looked so fvcking*g hot s.ucking my d!ck I growled out as I felt her warm tongue l!ck the tip. If she kept this up I would c.um down her throat I pulled my d!ck out of her mouth she made the sweetest noise of disappointment and grabbed me again shoving my c0ck int her mouth.

I lifted her chin up so her eyes met mine “Baby I want to fvck you” I pulled out of her mouth again and lifted her up against me she wrapped her legs around me. I claimed her l!ps as I walked out of the shower towards the sink and put her down on the bathroom counter. I grabbed her by the fvcking*g h!ps pushed her forward towards me. She m0aned into my mouth as I took her ts in my hands and started rubbing her n!pples.

“Zayn I love you so much” For a second I paused when she said that. I have heard her say she loves many times but it was the way she said it. fvck. She is a fvcking*g se.x goddess without even trying, her voice alone sent me into a frenzy. I stroked my hard rock e.rection and pushed inside her with one hard and deep thrust. “I love you too” I said as I started fvcking*g her. I reached one arm out and put it up against the mirror and held on to her with the other hand as I slammed into her tight little p.ussy again and again.

“fvck! you’re so tight” I k!ssed her again as she tensed up and screamed literally fvcking*g screamed as she came all over my c0ck. I kept thrusting into her prolonging her pleasure until I couldn’t hold it any longer I slammed into her one more time before I grunted out a string of curses and exploded filling her with my c.um. I emptied deep into her exquisite body while she held on to me tight making the sweetest fvcking*g sounds. fvck. What is this girl doing to me? I had never come this hard or this much. She looked up at me and smiled.

When I could walk again, I carried her back into the shower and told her to behave this time.

My Mate Chapter 53 - Tips

Hope

Our family dinner was great Emily and I chatted with the twins. Zayn sat with his brothers while my parents and his parents were talking about tomorrow's dinner. Alpha Axel called Zayn and said he was bringing a guest with him to dinner tomorrow which of course put Emily in a depressed mood

"Do you think this guest he's bringing is his mate?" she asked me in a low voice

"It could be" I answered honestly I noticed how Zayn kept glancing over every few minutes.

"Who are you guys talking about?" Mandy asked

"Alpha Axel" I answered

"ohhh what about him?" Carrie said as she came closer so nobody hears what we're talking about

"Nothing he's just absolutely gorgeous and he's coming for dinner tomorrow" Emily said sounding like a love sick teenager.

"Hope" Luna walked over and handed me a furniture catalog "Take a look and see if there's anything you like"

"OK" I started looking through the pages. Our personal wing is made up of seven rooms a master bedroom with a huge fire place, two walk in closets, a huge elegant bathroom which is more like a spa than a bathroom, Zayn is working on the décor of the living room, two other bedrooms very similar to the master bedroom the only difference is there's one big walk in closet rather than two and the bathrooms are a little bit smaller than the master bathroom, there's a kitchen and dining area, there's a media / game room and a very cozy library with sitting area.

"Oh I love picking out furniture" Carrie said

"I like this bed it reminds me of the one in Hawaii" I said mostly to myself

"Doesn't Zayn have a say in this?" Kyle laughed trying to piss off his oldest brother yet again.

"She can choose whatever she wants it's fine with me" Zayn winks at me then taps his lap.

I get up walk over to him "What do you think?" I showed him the picture still standing in front of him. I just don't think it's very appropriate to sit on his lap when both our parents are in the same room. He scowled at me before wrapping his hands around my waist and pulling me down on to his lap.

"Next time do what I tell you right away" My dominant Alpha mate whispers. I roll my eyes at him. "Please keep giving me reasons to punish you later" I kissed his cheek giggling before snuggling into him I love this overbearing mate of mine to death. Mandy and Carrie walked over and sat on their mates lap.

"No fair I want my mate" Emily whines

"Maybe we can have a ball or something for all the unmated werewolves" Carrie says it would give them chance to find each other

"That's a good idea!" Emily says way too excited. I don't blame her though a werewolf is never complete or can live up to its full potential unless they find their destined mate. Having a mate also makes us stronger.

"We'll have a ball as soon as this whole thing with The Blue Moon Pack is dealt with." Emily looks happy now.

"What was Edward like as an Alpha?" My father asked looking at the twins.

"He was nice I guess. The Alpha family kept to themselves they don't really mingle with the rest of the pack they eat alone, train alone, travel alone, they hardly ever meet with pack members" Mandy answered

"But you're friends with Stephanie isn't she a part of the alpha family" I say a little bit annoyed just at the mere mention of her name. Zayn's grip tightens around me.

“We WERE friends not anymore though. Not after what she tried to do to you” Carrie said. I smiled at her.

I lean into Zayn yawning “Let’s go to bed we have to get up early tomorrow for your first shift” He said

Zayn

When I woke up the next day Hope was already up. Her scent was strong which meant she was still in my room. I hate it when she wakes up early and not only leaves the bed but leaves the room.

She is so excited to finally shift I have been putting it off purposely because of the pain that a werewolf has to endure during the first shift. The thought of her being in any kind of pain is antagonizing. On the plus side where there is pain there is always pleasure, the first shift comes with raging hormones and s*l desires. The first shift also awakens the five senses enhancing our sight, smell, hearing, taste and feelings. She will be able to feel everything I feel on a whole new level. The mate bond strengthens to the maximum after a first shift she will be able to feel my anger, my love, my lust, everything I feel she will feel.

I was still lying in bed when she walked out of the bathroom in black leggings and a black sports bra. fvck. It’s too early for this kind of torture. She really is a sexy as hell temptress without even trying. I pretended to be asleep watching her roam around my room getting ready. Damn she had already showered I was hoping to join her and have my head in between her legs this morning. She sat down on the bed to put on her running shoes I quickly grabbed her around her tight stomach and pushed her back. Within seconds I had her pinned under me giggling and squirming as I sucked on her neck and let my hands roam all over her sinful body.

“Zayynnn” she whined “I’m not letting you have your way with me again I want to shift already!” Feisty sexy as hell temptress little thing.

“I can have my way with you when ever I want baby” I reminded her who’s in charge.

“No you can’t I have a say in this too you know” she giggled squirming under me trying to get out of my grip but only making me hard as fvck. Her long blond hair all over her face now I moved it out of the way and smiled

“Give me my morning k!ss” I demanded looking at her seriously, I had both her arms pinned down she wasn’t going anywhere. She lifted her head up to k!ss me but I moved back. She furrowed her eye brows at me like an angry little kitten about to scratch my eyes out. I came down closer and just when she was about to k!ss me I moved back again.

“That’s what you get for being a se.xy little tease this morning” I let her get up off the bed she smacked me “ok I’m not k!ssing you at all again today”

I took a step towards her and she took one back “Are you sure about that ?”

“Y..yes I am” I’m the hunter and she’s my prey, I had her cornered up against the wall with one hand on each side of her. I cupped both her b.reasts and squeezed lightly

“What were you saying baby?” I lifted her sports b.ra up and s.ucked on her hard n!pples. I s.ucked and l!cked until she was gripping my hair so tight I used my th!gh to open her legs apart “Tell me what you want” I demanded but she remained quiet only m0aning and rubbing her herself on my th!gh. fvck. I pushed my hand down the front of her leggings and roughly moved her we.t panties to the side. I slid one finger down her middle “Tell me baby”

She m0aned until she finally gave in to her urges “I want you to”

“You want me to what?”

“I want you inside me” She growled at me.

“As you wish baby” I said and dropped my boxers my raging boner ready to fvck her hard. I yanked down her pants and panties, lifted one of her legs up around me and pounded into her....

My Mate Chapter 54 - Tips

Zayn

Hope’s shift blew my mind she shifted faster than any other wolf I’d ever seen or heard of. Her transformation was swift and effortless even though she hadn’t had any prior training. We usually train our young pack members on how to make and handle their first shift but Hope hadn’t had any training in shifting at all and very little combat training but she shifted almost as soon as I told her to focus all her energy on her inner wolf, Jenna.

I stood shocked as she transformed into the most beautiful white- silver werewolf I have ever laid eyes on. Her fur is thick and glossy, short over her muscular body and a little longer at the neck. I watched adoringly as she stood before me in the sunshine her eyes brilliant emerald green and her stance confident.

There was something so right about her being here beside me it was more than the mate bond. It was as if nature craved her presence. I stay still mesmerized by her beauty she looked at me with serenity in her gaze then ever so slightly she bowed her head down acknowledging me as her alpha and mate. I took a step towards her and reached out my hand for her to sniff I ran my hand through her smooth warm fur; she tilted her head and looked at me blissfully I saw Hope's intelligence and shyness in her eyes.

Hunter was growling dying to come out and claim what's his. He had tried to come out so many times before when I had Hope under me but there was no way I would ever risk him hurting her like that. He wouldn't hurt her intentionally but he craves his mate just as much as I do but if I let him out I wouldn't be able to control him I can barely control myself when I'm fvcking*g her. Some werewolves will allow their wolf to come out while having se.x but not me, Hope is mine and mine alone in her human form at least.

I have been holding him back but I was done fighting him. I took off my shirt and she wagged her tail in anticipation, Hunter was thrilled. Before I could finish taking off my clothes her paws k!ssed the earth with lightness as she took a few steps forward and turned to looked back at me batting her lashes then ran into the trees so I guess Jenna is just as much of a tease as her human self. I shifted and ran after her. Holy fvck she is fast. Very fast. She moved without apparent effort while most wolves huff and puff when running for the first time. She climbed up and down a rocky hill effortlessly I am convinced her legs were the finest machines ever built.

We ran through the trees and up and down hills drinking in pine aroma I let her run free as long as she was inside our territory and I was with her she could go as far as she liked. When we finally reached flat land I ran as fast as I could and jumped on her pinning her under me. She tried to spring up, pushing my weight off her so she could go free. I smiled imagining how many times Hope was under me doing the same thing. She had super strength but nowhere near my mine. She finally gave in to Hunter's alpha strength and rolled onto her back, tail wagging.

Hope

I was so happy I finally shifted Zayn told me I have an exquisite wolf. We stayed outdoors until it was just about noon time. The alpha and Zayn have a meeting with the other allies today and Alpha Axel would be staying for dinner with a guest since the Red Blood Moon Pack is located a good three or hours away so Luna told the omega's to prepare one of the guests master suit for him and his guest in case they didn't want to make the drive back to their pack late at night.

Right now I'm in Emily's room along with all the girls. She is flipping out over what dress to wear for dinner and if she should curl her hair or wear it straight. I was going through her closet one dress at a time she was acting like a bridezilla. April was sitting on the bed looking through a magazine waiting to do her hair; Amy and Cara were sitting on the floor in her walk in closet helping me decide on a dress and shoes for her.

"Emily for Goddess sake it's just a dinner!" I exclaimed

"Hope it's easy for you, you fvcking*g look good in anything" She said sounding a little like her brother

"So do you calm down you're going to look great"

"Emily you realize he's already downstairs with your father and brothers right?" Cara laughed at her

"Oh my goddess he is? ...where is his guest is she his mate?" Emily started to freak out.

"Hope please it's ok for you to walk in the meeting go down and see who his guest is and if she's pretty pleeease" she begged "I can't focus"

"I doubt she's attending the meeting with him Emily but fine ok I'm going down to see what she looks like or who she is and I'll be back" I exclaimed

I left Emily's room before I strangled her and took the stairs to the foyer then straight to the kitchen. I check on lunch preparations and told the omega's to set the table in the private dining room for the Alpha and his guests. Then I followed Zayn's scent to the board room where Alpha usually holds long meetings like these. I knocked on the door

“Come in” I heard the Alpha’s voice beam. I opened the door slowly and walked in Zayn of course had picked up my scent and was already walking towards me.

“Hey Baby everything ok?” He put his arm around my waist and kissed me on the forehead.

“Yeah everything is fine I miss you” I whispered he smiled.

“Hope come in” Alpha gestured for me to come over Zayn walked with me with his arm possessively around my waist.

“Gentlemen this is Luna Hope Ward Brian’s daughter and my son’s mate” I smiled at Dad and he winked at me. Zayn’s dad introduced me to each alpha at a time. Finally, I was introduced to the infamous Alpha Axel. He shook my hand briefly.

“Luna it’s great to finally meet you” He said with a smile and he is gorgeous and buff! Not nearly as my man though. There was no other woman in the room but myself.

“Are you here to attend the meeting baby?” Zayn asked

No no I came to let you all know that lunch will be served in the private dining room in thirty minutes. He smiled at me so lovingly

“It was nice meeting you all excuse me” I said and Zayn walked me out. I kissed him briefly and headed towards the private living room. As soon as I opened the door I heard my name

“Hope!” Luna called. She was sitting with my mother and a very beautiful young lady about my age.

“This is our Luna Katherine’s daughter and Alpha Zayn’s mate” Luna gushed

“Hope this is Skylar Alpha Axel’s sister” I felt myself smile as I imagined Emily’s reaction to the blessed news.

She shook my hand “It’s nice to meet you she said” She looked tense and kind of distracted but I didn’t say anything.

“Luna I told the Alpha and his guests that lunch would be served in the private dining room in thirty minutes.”

“Ok dear whatever you want I’ll have the omega’s set the table”

“I already told them and I checked on lunch everything is all set and smelling delicious”

Zayn

When Hope walked into the boardroom she turned every fvcking*g head. She was dressed casual in jeans and white T.shirt but looked amazing.

We had just finished lunch and were sitting by the chimney in the living room before we went back to the board room. Hope was sitting on the rocker watching the fire she does that a lot and I love watching her. She looked so calm and beautiful.

“Zayn” Axel called me I peeled my eyes off my mate looked over at him

“I think my mate is here my wolf is going crazy” He took me by surprise

” OK” I looked back at Hope

“Baby” She looked at me

“Come with me I want to show Axel around” I put out my hand for her. There was no way I was leaving her in here without me. She got up and took my hand as we walked out.

Thirty minutes later we had walked almost all around the Pack House and seen every she wolf but he didn’t bond with any.

“Zayn I’m going to go upstairs for a while I’ll be back down later” I hadn’t told her that Alex felt his mate was here.

“Alpha Axel..”

“Please just Axel” he said to her

“Axel your territory is far so we have two rooms ready for you and your sister.”

“Thank you Luna”

“Just Hope” She smiled then k!ssed me quickly on the cheek “I’ll see you later” I said and she nodded before walking away

“You’re a very lucky man” Axel said.

“Yes I am” I replied watching her walk away. “Today was her first shift”

“How did it go hopefully not too painful?” I smiled to myself

“She didn’t feel a thing she shifted faster than any other wolf I’ve seen”

He looked at me in silence “That definitely means she’s special how is she in combat?”

“She hasn’t ever been in combat and never will be if I can help it” I paused “But she’s strong very strong”

I’m going to start training Hope alone with me for a while and test her abilities. As I was lost in my own thoughts my father mind linked me that the meeting was about to start again so we went back inside and joined the rest.

The meeting was mostly about all of us collaborating to annihilate The Blue Moon Pack as soon as possible. I looked forward to it. Once we took down Edward we would take over his pack as well. The Dark Moon Pack needed to expand so Edwards land would be his once Edward was killed. We also discussed pack borders and rogues. fvcking*g Kain would go down as soon as The Blue Moon Pack fell to it’s doom. At last our day had come to an end with a plan to attack the coward in 3 days giving everyone time to prepare. The one thing I was worried about was Edwards son. We know the fvck has a son who’s already mated. The Alpha of the Dark Moon Pack said he has another younger son who has not yet found his mate. When I looked through Edward’s files there was no mention of him having two sons.

Alex has a spy who’s been keeping watch on who enters and leaves his territory and other than rogue filth nobody visits him or his pack other than friends of his daughters. We also know that after the last battle the number of rogues in this area has decreased which in turn has decreased the number of attacks on smaller packs. I introduced new techniques of training and also offered all our allies the opportunity to bring their warriors here to train with Matt and Kyle. We have enough homes and rooms to accommodate them while in training.

After our meeting I went up to my room to find Hope reading on my bed and because of her newly intensified hormones and s*I desires we ended up fvcking*g twice before it was time to get ready for dinner. I wasn’t complaining at all I enjoyed this new side of her. Every time I turned around she would jump my bones and I fvcking*g loved it. Her se.x drive was insatiable almost as big as mine!

My Mate Chapter 55 - Tips

Hope

After I told Emily that Axel's guest was his sister she freaked out even more. I wanted to go home to get ready for dinner but I couldn't leave her alone like this. Zayn was already dressed and looking hot as ever in a fitted black T-shirt that defined his muscles and dark jeans. He looked absolutely seducible but I couldn't jump on him again right now I had to go see one of my best friends. Maybe later.

"I'm going to go see the girls then go home" I told Zayn

"Go home?...this is your home" He put his arms around me

"The home I grew up in" I smiled at him

"Well you grew up in this house too" I k!ssed his cheek and rubbed my hands up and down his arms. I better stop before things get too heated especially with the way he's looking at me right now

"I want you to move your things here"

"Most of my things are here" I wrapped my arms around his broad shoulders he put his arms around my wa!st and pulled me in to him.

"Baby in two days our wing will be ready I want us to start our lives together"

"I know but that doesn't mean we can't sleep at my house sometimes and we have started our lives together." He tilts his head to the side and looks at me for a few seconds then he cups my face and k!sses me softly

"As long as I sleep with you every night I don't care if we sleep here or there but eventually we are going to have to settle in one place and start a family" My heart melted when he said that. I know he wants me to move my things to our private part of the pack house but I don't want to leave mom and dad so soon. I know that sounds childish but I know they like having me around the house. This won't be easy for them.

“You want that don’t you” His eyes turned a shade darker as he pulled me even closer and picked me up a little I jumped and wrapped my legs around his waist

“You want me to c.um inside you again and again don’t you?” oh Goddess I was grateful he was carrying me because my legs turned to jelly and my brain all mushy as tingles shot through my body. He brought his head to the crook of my neck and placed one single wet kiss

“You want to carry my baby don’t you?”

“When I’m older of course I do” My answer came out like a whisper

“mmm I’m going to love watching your stomach grow with my pups” His voice sounded husky as he slid his hand under my shirt. A sudden knock at the door woke me up from my trance.

“Oh my Goddess that’s Emily” I shrieked pushing his hands off me. I heard him chuckle as I rushed to open the door.

“Hope come on we’re all in my room” Emily dragged me out

“Go ahead baby I have to go see Matt and Kyle anyway” He said I watched him adjusted his jeans from the front as I was being dragged out of his room.

“Oh wait Zayn” He looked back at me “I forgot to tell you I invited my friends to have dinner with us tonight.”

“OK baby whatever you want” he said and walked away

An hour later Emily was all set she wore a white floral Jacquard sleeveless mini dress with strappy white shoes that accented her long legs. She left her hair down April just helped her curl the bottom ends a little. She looked stunning! My job was done here. Emily had calmed down a little and I could go home and get ready.

On the way to my house I saw the love of my life with his brothers and Alpha Axel standing outside

“Hope!” Kyle called out

“Hey” I smiled at him

“Come give me a h.ug” Go h.ug your own mate Zayn growled and hit him in the head I shook my head at them and laughed to myself as I continued walking home.

“I’ll see you at eight sharp gentlemen”

Mom and dad were both home and already dressed for dinner “Hey princess come have some of your favorite ice cream”

“Yummm” I ran over a little too excited as he handed me a big bowl of ice cream. I sat on the couch next to mom she ran her hand through my hair

“My beautiful Hope” She said mostly to herself, I put my head on her shoulder. I love being around my parents. I feel safe and comfortable.

“Princess your mom and I want to go out for a run tomorrow morning. We would love it if you could you come out with us we haven’t seen your wolf”

“Yeah of course tell me what time and I’ll be there”

“Great hows seven am?”

“ok a bit too early for a Sunday but ok” I got up and k!ssed them each before going up to my room

After I took a hot shower and put lotion all over my body I walked out to my closet and went through my casual dresses. I put on my black Bodycon mini dress and th!gh high boots, dried my hair straight and wore very little make up. Cat-eyeliner, mascara and some red l!pstick. Just as I was about to leave my room my cell phone rang I was shocked to see the caller name

“Hi Gavin” My voice came out emotionless

“Hey Hope how have you been?”

“Good” I sat down on the edge of my bed

“Where are you?” Just then Zayn opened the door and walked in, he never bothers to knock. He took my hand and pulled me up to take a look at what I was wearing

"I'm at home but I'm kind of busy" My voice was a bit off I don't know if it was the way Zayn was looking at me or if it was that Gavin was being creepy

"Are you too busy to go out for a drink....as friends?"

"Yeah I am actually" I looked up at Zayn he had his hands folded across his chest eyes piercing into mine. He could hear the phone call.

"Oh come on I've been wanting to give you a birthday gift but I hardly see you at school anymore." Zayn still had his eyes glued on mine

"Thank you but I can't accept it I'm sorry. Thank you though..."

"Why will your boyfriend not like it?" I didn't like the way he asked me that but I didn't answer him.

"I have to go bye" I hung up the phone

"Hi" I came closer to him

"Who was that?" He asked

"It was Gavin and before you get upset this is the first time he's called me in a long time." He stayed quiet

"Why are you looking at me like that?" I asked him. He stayed quiet then took a deep breath

"How many times have I asked you to stop talking to him why did you answer his call?" His voice was calm his stare was hard.

"I don't talk to him" I said plainly "I don't know what would possess him to call me after I keep ignoring him"

"I wrapped my hands around his neck but he didn't move or put his arms around me like he always did, his eyes were still dark"

"Zayn please let's not let him ruin our evening because that would be silly. He's nothing to me or to us. let's go to dinner"

"Next time don't answer his call got it?" I wanted to punch his lights out but this wasn't the time to argue with him. I stayed quiet.

“Got it?” He asked louder raising an eyebrow at me

I glared at him “I heard you the first time. I won’t answer his call ” I huffed and walked out of my room with him on my trail. My parents were down stairs waiting for me.

“Princess you look beautiful” Dad said as he kissed my forehead I put my arm around him as we walked out of the house for the night.

The Alpha’s family and everyone who was invited were already in the private living room which was connected to the dining area. Everyone was seated around the fire and chatting comfortably. I noticed that Kyle, his mate, Jason and Emily weren’t there.

Zayn and Axel sat down near Zayn’s dad. I walked over and sat by Skylar who was sitting with Cara, Derek, April, Amy and Eric but she seemed to be off in her own world.

“Are you ok Skylar?” I asked her

“Yes ..I’m fine.. I love what your wearing” Skylar said but she kept looking around the room.

“Where are Emily and Jason?” I asked

“Jason should be here any minute” Eric answered ” But I haven’t seen Emily today”

“Last I saw Emily was when we were all in her room.” Amy said

Just then Kyle entered the room “Good evening” Kyle said as he and Carrie walked in “Fashionably late as always” I said to Kyle and he winked at me playfully. Matt and Kyle are both like brothers to me but Kyle has this playful side that I love.

Mandy came over to me “Can we talk?” she asked me in a low voice

“Yeah of course what’s wrong?” She took my hand and we walked out to the foyer where we were alone.

“Are you ok?” She was pale

"I'm pregnant" She said

"Oh wow that's great! Did you tell Matt?"

"No not yet he doesn't want pups yet" I saw fear in her eyes so I hugged her tight

"Mandy he is going to be so happy I promise you this is good news"

"What if he gets mad? a week ago he said he didn't want any yet"

"So what if he gets mad he'll get over it. You have to tell him. Find the right time and tell him. You'll see how happy he'll be"

"Hey guys" Emily finally showed up

"Hey what took you so long?" I asked her

"I'm trying to be fashionably late and make a grand entrance" She said being dramatic I laughed at her and winked at Mandy.

"Well lets go back inside" Mandy said I knew she didn't want Emily to find out anything right now. Emily can't keep her mouth shut she would get too excited over the baby news and run in there and screaming it to everyone.

As soon as we entered the room Axel stood up and walked over like he was in a trace.

Oh my Goddess could it be I thought to myself, he grabbed Emily by the waist and picked her up they both acknowledged each other at the same time "Mine" and kissed. The room erupted into cheers and whistles. Her family and his sister crowded around them congratulating them on finding each other.

"What's he doing here?" I heard Kyle ask he was looking at Jason who had just arrived.

"I invited him" I said Just then Skylar left her brother's side in a rush and jumped in Jason's arms as he attacked her lips. I couldn't help the big smile across my face I was happy for Emily but way more for Jason for obvious reasons.

"What are the chances of you and you sister finding mates from the same pack?" Matt said everyone was so happy even my grumpy alpha. Jason and Axel shook hands Emily's parents were so happy all their children had found their destined mates.

"Congratulations Skylar Jason is a great guy" I said looking at him. All our friends crowded around Jason and his mate. "Finally" Derek said "Now maybe he'll stop being such an a.ss" We all laughed at him Jason couldn't care less he k!ssed his mate again. he was finally happy and that made me happy.
