

My Mate Chapter 56 - Tips

A month later

Zayn

This past month has been eventful and distressing. The day after the Alpha summit Alex received news that the Blue Moon Pack had moved their entire pack away to an unknown territory. I went over there to make sure the news was accurate and to see if I could find any clues as to where the mother fvcker slithered off to. As soon as all our allies cut ties with his pack Edward knew we were coming to take him down. Their move was secrete and sudden.

Axel and I have spent most our time and energy this month trying to locate the mother fvcker but in vain. My father is convinced that they fled the country and have taken shelter on foreign lands but I highly doubt that. I have men at our international airport and ports there was no sign of the pathetic fvck anywhere.

Axel is still here at our pack. He is a good man and I couldn't be happier for Emily. He has been staying with Emily in her room waiting for when she is ready to leave us and join his pack as their Luna. I can't blame her for taking her time Hope had a hard time moving from her house into the pack house. But finally Hope and I have been living in our private wing for two weeks now. She finally ordered all the furniture she wanted as a gift from my parents. She left the two extra bedrooms unfurnished until we decided to have pups.

Hope has been spending most her time in her private lib.rary studying for her upcoming final exams and it's been driving me crazy. She is already on the honor roll for being a consistent straight A student. She doesn't need to exhaust herself but she won't listen to me and insists on staying up late or skipping meals to study or to help a friend study.

She's been training with me for a while now and I learned a few new things about my baby, she's fast, strong and isn't as vulnerable to pain as other she wolves are. Honestly I wasn't too surprised she looks a lot like her mother but definitely gets her strength from her father. This sweet se.xy temptress of mine would be a fvcking*g bad a.ss in a fight but for the sake of my sanity I hope I never have to witness it.

Axel's sister has been staying with her mate. The mother fvcker finally stopped sulking around and got his sh!t together. I've offered him the opportunity to try out for either a warrior position or head of security position.

Ever since Hope got attacked in her own house by rogues my trust in Ethan's security skills has faltered. Jason was more interested in becoming a warrior he's still a mother fvcker but I have to admit he's strong and now that his mind and eyes aren't on Hope then we don't have a problem anymore. I offered the same opportunity to his friends who are almost as strong as Jason and with the right training would make good warriors.

Right now all I could do was focus on finding Edward and his pack and take him down once and for all. Not knowing where the pathetic fvck is hiding has me on edge. Especially since yesterday Hope found a disturbing note in her locker and she told me it wasn't the first one. I lost my sh!t when she showed me the first note she found how could she not tell me about something like this? We ended up fighting.

"Hope wait here until I come back do not leave this house" I ordered

"No, I'm not a child...." I grabbed her by the jaw

"All I want to hear from your mouth is the word yes" I cut her off before she could finish her rant.

I stormed out of our living room and went right to her school. I demanded all the footage from the surveillance cameras we had installed in the hallways. Turns out that fvcker Gavin watches her more than she notices. The creep watches her from a far I felt my blood boil. I've already asked Alex to get me all his back ground information. But if she ever so much as answers his call again there will be hell to pay.

The person who put the letter in Hope's locker was caught on camera after school hours wearing all black loose clothing and a ski mask the cunning fvcker is totally unrecognizable but one thing is for sure her school is not safe anymore. When I came back she was in the library. I told her she had no choice but to be home schooled of course she put up a fight again.

"Zayn I'm not staying home all day to be home schooled you're making a big deal out of this"

"I didn't say you had a choice baby" I said as I clenched my jaw

“What yes of course I have a choice you can’t take me out of school!” I tried counting to ten to calm down but she was fvcking*g pushing my every b.utton.

“Goddamit Hope would you just listen for once” I yelled as I slammed my hand on the wall “I want to keep you safe you will be home schooled” I didn’t give her a chance to say anything else I stormed out. I needed to get some fresh air but every step I took further away from her literally fvcking*g hurt me and Hunter growled until he finally gave up and block me out completely. I had to leave before I did something I would regret. I wanted to be alone so I got in my car and drove farther and farther away. I could feel all the hurt and pain she felt until she finally said

“Good night” through our mind link. I couldn’t bear the sad tone in her voice so I turned around and headed home. When I got back she was already asleep. I took off my clothes and got in bed with her. She’s heaven.

“Hope baby” I pulled her closer

“Don’t” she said and moved away from me. fvck I pulled her in to me even closer than before

“Don’t please just don’t” I said.

She remained still and finally fell asleep. Tomorrow is Saturday we have dinner plans with my brothers and their mates and Axel and Emily. I asked Alex to come but he has to go out of town with Brian tonight and will return the next day. Also tomorrow Axel has decided it’s time to return to his pack. Emily will be leaving with him since her school will be in another district she has agreed to be home schooled until she graduates. Hope has no choice she either accepts the idea of home schooling or I lock her up in our private part of the house.

I was drained I held her close allowing her touch and scent to calm me down until all the frustration, stress and lack of sleep finally caught up with me and I fell asleep.

I woke up the next morning Hope was still asleep. She hasn’t let me touch her in days it’s been one thing after the other the final straw was the fvcking*g note. Maybe I overreacted she just makes me crazy sometimes. And it doesn’t help to have her push me away like this. She puts up a strong act but I know she misses me and wants me I can feel it even in her sleep just like I want her. I trail my fingers down her shoulder to her neck. fvck.

She opens her eyes and tries to move away from me. Not this time. I grabbed her by the waist and pinned her under me.

"I've had enough of this you're not going anywhere this time." I barked out at her. She tried to push me off her but she's pinned down under me and she knows it's futile to keep trying to get out of my grip.

"Baby please listen to me. I didn't get to where I am today without being hated and we didn't become this powerful without making enemies and I personally have a lot of enemies. The only way they can hurt me is if they hurt you. This is my way of making sure you're safe. fucking up maybe but I have no other choice I can't lose you"

She relaxes and the frustration between us instantly melts away and all we want is to fuck each other's brains out. I bring my mouth down on hers and shove my tongue between her lips into her warm mouth.

Hope

Our kiss is raw and intense I'm breathing fast. I ran my hands up his torso and wrapped my arms around his shoulders running my fingers through his hair.

"Tell me you love me" He demanded his voice raspy.

"I love you" I said before he brought his lips back to mine. His skin felt warm and his tongue like silk. I quivered as his hand reached my thighs and moved my panties to the side. My body was aching and screaming for release. He rubbed his fingers over me in circles a bit hard and rough but I wasn't complaining. I moaned into his mouth as he tortured my aroused sex. His tongue slid over mine and our kiss was erotic and rushed. It had been a while and we both needed this. His fingers were making me squirm under him but he never stopped. I bit his lower lip

"fuck" He groaned his fingers were now inside of me moving in and out but I didn't want his fingers. He was intentionally denying me intercourse for Goddess knows what reason.

"Please" I begged he smirked

"Please what baby?"

"I want you inside me"

“Ok are you ever going to deny me again?” his eyes dark his fingers thrusting slower at a torturing pace

“No”

“Good girl” he breathed into my ear. He lifted my leg up and lunged into me with one hard push. He sank deeper and deeper into me breaking all my walls down letting me let loose and I screamed out

“Yes fvck me”

“Mine” He growled as he moved down to my c.hest s.ucking and kneading my swollen hard n!pple. He pounded rough into me harder and deeper each time. He got up on both knees gripped me by the h!ps and continued pounding into me relentlessly I threw my head back and cried out his name and the same time he emptied inside me with hard and merciless thrusts.

He dropped down next to me and pulled me into his c.hest. I lifted my head up to look at him and he k!ssed me. Slow and passionately this time.

Zayn

I kept her wrapped in my arms tight. I really needed that I needed her. The last few days have been frustrating trying to locate where Edward has been hiding, keeping an eye out for Kain or any other rogue filth, the threats she’s been getting at school. Her pushing me away every time I tried to get close to her or touch her wasn’t helping me at all. She is everything to me and she has to understand where I’m coming from. Even though we just had se.x I can feel how tense she is. I know she is heartbroken because Emily is leaving the pack. They’ve been inseparable ever since they both learned to walk. And me telling her she had to stay home for the rest of her senior year didn’t help the situation either. But she has to know how important it is for me and for the whole pack that she is kept safe.

We are both n.aked I have her head on my right forearm and my other arm is around her wa!st at the small of her back. I kept brushing my fingers on her back.

“Baby?” She opens her eyes and looks up at me. I stay silent for a moment taking in just how beautiful my baby really is.

“Do you remember me telling you that as long as you’re okay I’d be okay too?”
She nodded her head

“Yes of course” I brought my hand to her face and rubbed her cheek then brushed my thumb across her full lips.

“I meant it” I looked right into her eyes. “So I’m trying to keep you safe. I can’t live without you I love you more than anything or anyone”

She cracked a small smile but didn’t say anything “I love you but I hate it when you treat me like a child. I’m strong and I can take care of myself” She said softly but confidently “Baby I don’t want you in any situation where you’re forced to take care of yourself. I want to take care of you. I can’t bear the thought of someone hurting you or threatening to take you away from me” I switched my position so now I’m lying on my back. I ran my hand through my hair in Frustration at the mere thought of that fucker wanting her for his son or maybe for himself since his son seems to be a figment of his imagination. I can’t live without this girl.

“But you can’t keep me here forever and expect me never to go anywhere else. I can’t live like that.”

My eyes go dark “You couldn’t live like that?”

“No I can’t”

“What are you saying?” I growl

She sits up completely naked and straddles me around the waist. Holy fuck. Her mud blond long hair down her shoulders hiding her perfect tits from my hungry eyes.

“I’m saying I love you but if you haven’t noticed I’m not a little girl anymore so stop telling me what I can and cannot do all the time” The whining of her soft voice has my cock so fucking hard it hurts. I move her hair off her shoulders then let my fingers trail slowly up her arm all the way to her shoulder then slowly down her tits roaming around her hardened nipple for a few seconds then down to her tight stomach. My eyes locked on hers “Baby I know you’re not a little girl” I let my eyes wander down to her tits my voice thick “But I’m always going to tell you what to do I don't give a fuck if you like it or not you're mine and I will do what it takes to take care of you"

She shivers but her eyes are glaring into mine. Hunter growls he wants to turn her over on her stomach and fuck her into submission. It's fucking*g hard taming a beast and my baby already looks like she wants to chop my balls off so I won't do that.

"Baby, anything you want name it it's yours I will never deny you anything you want. But when it comes to your safety and well being you have to listen to me...got it?"

Her eyes soften a little "okay" I leaned up cupping her beautiful face and kissed her hard. My body is on fire from her fucking*g electric tingles. I reach down and take her ts in my hands palming and rubbing her hard nipples. I pulled back

"Baby turn around" She looked at me shy

"Ah come on you were screaming for me to fuck you earlier" I chuckle. She whines and smacks my leg

"Baby turn so your back to me"

She does what she's told and fuck the sight her long hair down to her little waist sends me into a frenzy. I sit up move her hair to one side over her shoulder and pepper wet kisses over her shoulders reaching around under her arms and taking his ts in my hands.

She takes my raging cock in her hand and starts pumping me slowly as she turns and looks at me over her shoulder. fucking*g Hell. I slid my hand down her stomach to her little pussy and ran a finger down the middle. My cock twitched at the feeling of her wet core between my fingers as she kept pumping me up and down slowly. I circled slowly and softly over her clit. She whimpered and leaned her head back onto my chest. I turned her face sideways to me and sucked on her plump bottom lip before shoving my tongue in her mouth. Our kiss is filthy and fucking*g erotic. Her whimpering and whiny sounds have Hunter raging wanting to come out and take over, I fight to keep what little control I have left.

I lay down again grabbing her by the hips and roughly bring her pussy to my face. fuck. I licked up her wet middle then sucked on her folds I shoved my tongue between her pussy lips licking and sucking on her clit. She leans down and starts sucking my dick. She's fucking*g amazing. I rubbed a finger over her asshole and she squeals and tries to move away I grab her by the hips keeping her in place.

"I can't wait to fuck you here" I slurred before going back to sucking her clit. A growl rips through me as she takes my dick in deeper in her warm mouth. I flicked my tongue over her clit again and again until she was a screaming mess my cock in her mouth muffled her screams

"Baby nobody can hear you here, let me hear you scream my fucking*g name" I attacked her clit sucking and biting on it she emptied her mouth of my cock and screamed my name as she came all over my mouth. I flicked my tongue over her clit again and shoved a finger inside her pushing in and out fast making sure to prolong her orgasm.

She leaned down again and took my now painfully raging erection into her mouth while I licked her pussy clean.

"I want to fuck you" I growled out at the teasing pace she was sucking me off

She turned to face me I looked into her "fuck me" eyes and could feel the precum ooze out of my dick. She slid her wet pussy over my dick looking like a fucking*g sex Goddess. I watched her enjoying how she's exploring her body she takes my cock and rubs the top on her clit. Mother fucker.

"Ride me baby" I cooed I love this woman. She's mine and I'm hers. She finally adjusted herself on me and sank down then up and back down. I love watching her use me to get off again and again. She threw her head back

"Look at me I want to watch you orgasm" Her eyes poured into mine as she rocked up and down on top of my dick. She cried out, our eyes still locked as she came all over my dick. I grabbed her hips and thrust up into her hard and deep over and over again .

"You're so fucking*g tight" I growled "fuck. Hope condom" but it was too late I fucked up into her harder and deeper until I spilled into her with a loud growl. I came hard emptying all of me into her tight little pussy. I brought her down to my chest and ran my fingers through her hair.

"I love you Zayn" I moved her hair out of her face and kissed the top of her head

"I love you Hope...Will you marry me?" I heard her gasp and look up at me. "I know it's not very traditional for wolves but I want to make you mine in every way possible baby."

"I am already yours whether we get married or not we are mates but since you asked..Yes I will marry you" I grinned as I planted kisses all over her face. She giggled. My favorite sound.

We stayed in bed a while longer until she stirred and got up

"Where are you going baby?"

"To shower" She said shyly. Sexy fucking*g temptress I've fuckingd her a thousand times now and she is still shy. I followed her into the shower and stole a few kisses while I shampooed her hair and she washed my body.

Hope

"What time are we leaving tonight?" I asked him while I washed his back

"Our reservations are at eight."

"I'm hungry" I said We have been locked up in our little world all morning.

"Well lets finish up and go have lunch"

After Lunch I spent some time with my parents at home then went to see Emily. She was all packed and ready for her leave tomorrow as Luna of the Red Blood Moon Pack. I couldn't be happier for her but I was going to miss her so much.

For dinner I wore Zayn's favorite red dress. My mother was in my room this time.

"Are you okay mom?" I asked her.

"Yes darling" She smiled.

"What time will dad be back?"

“What do you me darling your dad is with the Alpha”

“Oh I thought Zayn mentioned something about him and Alex going away on business for a day”

“Your father hasn’t told me anything yet honey” I finished getting ready and went down stairs. I saw Matt carrying Mandy

“I’m pregnant not crippled” She laughed out loud. Ever since he found out about the baby he has been carrying her around most of the time. I think that is so cute. I’m talking to the both of them when a familiar strong hand snakes around my waist.

“You look ravishing baby”

Soon we all gathered outside and headed out for dinner. Zayn held my hand the entire time Axel and Emily were in the back.

“I can’t believe I’m going to be an uncle” Zayn said

“And I’m going to be an aunt” Emily sounded excited

When we got to the restaurant I recognized the area

“Isn’t your penthouse down that way?” I pointed

“OUR penthouse is down that way yes right around the corner”

“If you want we can stay here tonight” He said

“No I want to spend as much time as I can with Emily”

The restaurant is fancy and the food delicious. It is also owned by Zayn so it’s safe. Nobody from the Blue Moon Pack can get in without being caught.

It was so much fun to be out with the family. Zayn held my hand the entire time. I’m so happy he calmed down a little. He will eventually find Edward and Stephanie for now it was just us together having a pleasant dinner with his family.

Zayn gets a call and excuses himself from the table. When he comes back he says he has to drive up to the penthouse

"Is everything okay?" Matt asked him

"Hey baby someone's tried to break into the penthouse I'm going to go check it out I won't be long"

"Oh my Goddess who told you?"

"Alex just called me"

"I hope they didn't destroy anything"

"I don't know baby but don't worry about it, I'm going over there to check things out real quick"

"I want to go with you" I said

"Baby I'll only be gone ten minutes stay here I love you" he kissed me softly

"I love you too"

"I'll go with you" Axel got up kissed Emily and walked away with Zayn. I watched him walk away and out the restaurant.

I was in the ladies room when Alex called me and asked me to meet him in the lobby

Zayn must have asked him to come get me. I walk down to the lobby and find him waiting for me. I sent Emily a quick message so they don't worry about me

"Hi, Is everything okay?"

"Yeah Alpha asked me to come take you over to the penthouse he has something to show you"

"When did you get here?" He looks at me and smiles, he's looking at me different but I shake it off this is Zayn's best friend.

"I was behind you guys" We got to his car and he opened the door for me like he always did before only tonight he didn't bow to me like he had always done before.

As soon as I got in the car darkness took over me and I collapsed to the side.

Zayn

As soon as I entered the building I knew something was wrong. The penthouse was fine and there was no sign of an attempted break in. I asked the front desk who had reported to Alex about the break in but they seemed confused.

“Mr. Black we didn’t call anyone about a break in I assure you”

“Who else was here besides you two?”

“We are the only two on duty at the front desk Mr. Black” My chest tightened

“What is it” Axel asked

“Alex called in a false break in”

“Why would he do that?” For a split second I was lost in my own thoughts

“He wanted me to come here.” As I took out my phone to call Alex, I felt a chill run down my spine and Hunter cried out MATE.

His cry broke my soul images of Hope flashed through my mind as Hunter fought for control. I mind linked Alex but couldn’t reach him. I called him but he didn’t answer. I ran to my car like a madman Axel caught on to what I was happening. I tried Hope’s phone but it was off this has to be some sick joke I thought to myself. I tried mind linking her again and again but I couldn’t reach her. I ran into the restaurant and almost fell to my knees when I saw her seat was empty.

“Where is she?” I bellowed out

“She went to the ladies room” Mandy says

“No” Emily said as she took out her phone and handed me it “She sent me a message that she’s with you”

I grabbed her phone and read Hope’s message Hey Emily Zayn sent Alex for me I’ll be right back

I checked what time Hope had sent the message it was less than fifteen minutes ago

I slammed my hands down on the table and ran out.

"Matt call for our trackers bring them here." I said as I rushed out of the restaurant I felt a sharp pain go through my chest.

I tried to mind link Alex again but he had shut his mind link off. Everything flashed before my eyes from the moment he found out that Hope was my mate, to him taking her to school and back, driving us to the airport, picking us up, the battle... Alex was the one handling the surveillance on Edward's pack. He took care of getting me information on Edward's background.

Alex had been my most trusted friend since we were kids. This better be some sick joke he's playing but deep down I knew this wasn't a joke I just didn't want to give in to the fact that Hope was taken away. I had tried so hard to keep her safe while the real threat was right under my nose. Fear ran through my veins I kept calling him but he didn't answer finally he turned his phone off. My heart was beating uncontrollably in my chest as reality set in. Alex abducted Hope.

Axel was beside me "There's a lot of traffic he couldn't have gone far" Axel said "We'll get her back and kill the mother fucker"

"Form a perimeter around the area" I shouted as I ran down the street, it started pouring rain. Even the heavens cried for Hope. I ran like my life depended on it and my life does depend on her. I had to find her and when I do I'm going to skin Alex alive. I ran down the street through the cars. Hunter roared out for the loss of his mate

"I will find her" I yelled. I bent down and checked every car that looked like his car. I kept running faster and faster in between cars and checked each one of them. I saw Images of Hope flashing before me her voice calling for me. Hunter thrashed like a beast locked up. I didn't care that I was in the middle of a busy road I growled out in pain at the feeling of anger and betrayal. I heard cries of fear around me from the women and children inside their vehicles but I didn't care.

I saw Kyle coming down the road. He stopped and ran out after me

“Zayn brother” He screamed his voice full of pain. “Calm down the trackers have arrived they will pick up his scent or hers.” He took her away. Mother fvcking*g Alex my so called best friend was a mother fvcking*g traitor. I stopped as realization hit me like a bh. I fell to my knees as I felt the bile rise in my throat and roared out her name with all my might.

Hope

It was dark and cold I felt numb. Where am I? Why can't I get up? I tried hard to get up but something is weighing me down. I feel dizzy and scared. Zayn where are you? Jenna? I call my wolf but she's not here anymore. Zayn please help me. I try to think and recall what happened...Alex.

“Stop fighting it Hope” I heard Alex Whisper in my ear just then. His voice gave me shivers. “Soon all the pain will go away and you will be mine”

I tried to speak again but instead I screamed out for the love of my life “Zayn” I screamed out his name and felt tears run down my face.

“The more you fight the longer the process will take. It is inevitable now just relax. My friend Kain here and I are going to make sure you forget about everything”

“She is his Luna are you sure you want to do this?” There was someone else here but where is here why is it dark? “He won't stop until he finds her” I heard the same voice say. The voices were like magnetic waves coming closer and then fading away

“Yes, I'm sure she won't be his Luna for long even if he does find her she won't remember him”

“I know he won't stop looking for her I know what he's capable of that's why I want to do this” Alex said with venom laced in his voice. Alex how could you? You were Zayn's best friend. I want to ask him these questions but I cannot find my voice. I called Jenna again and again but she wasn't there. She had left me

“Okay but if we administer any more of the memory potion into her bl00d the wolfs bane might k!ll her.”

“It won't k!ll her she's very tolerant to pain” I heard Alex say

"Pain is one thing and this is another. She won't remember her own name" I know I've heard the second person's voice but can't recall who it is.

"She's very strong I don't want to take any chances I don't care if she doesn't remember her own name that's okay with me as long as we get rid of her wolf and she forgets about him completely" Oh my Goddess Alex betrayed us he betrayed Zayn his best friend. Zayn where are you please hurry? Jenna I need you come back we can shift and try to leave.

"I don't want her to remember anything about wolves or mates. It's too risky" Alex said standing by my side.

I felt myself drift away into oblivion

Three weeks later...

Hope

Grat!tude. That's something that people take for granted. We have so much to be grateful for. I was in a fatal car accident about a month ago but I was saved by the angels. Even though I lost my memory I'm still grateful to be alive. I live in a beautiful estate surrounded by water and trees but I cannot leave the mansion at all because some dangerous cult leader is out to get me for some reason.

I have to take medication three times a day if I don't I get seizures which is also another side effect of the accident and blow to my head. I once stopped taking them purposely but I started hearing voices in my head so went back on them. I do not need Kain making fun of me calling me crazy for hearing voices in my head.

I spend most my time at our gym training and other times reading. I also spend time with Kain. He's my age and really fun to hang out with. Sometimes without telling anyone I sneak out to the gardens it's so peaceful out there. I even went as far as the ocean that borders the estate one time. I don't ever tell Alex when I leave the house he would get worried and I don't tell Kain because he is Alex's brother and he would tell him.

Alex is my friend. He used to know me before my accident and he's the one who saved me. He takes good care of me and Kain, he gets us anything we want. He's very rich but I don't like him spending money on me. I tried telling him to use my money but he says he likes spoiling me.

He's told me everything about my life but due to the accident I can't remember any of it. My parents both died when I was little they were both killed but they left me a large inheritance. My dad was someone important but he made enemies with a gang or cult of some sort so now they are after me.

Kain and I have been training for the last three hours.

"Kain I can't go on I'm done for today" I said out of breath

"Okay I'm tired of you kicking my a.ss anyway" He laughed I sat down cross legged on the floor.

Kain and I went to school together so he knows a lot about me. He tells me about the school I went to and the friends I had. Sometimes I wish I could go there and see what it's like.

"Kain what's the leader's name?" He looked at me confused

"What leader?"

"The leader of the cult who killed my parents" I said

"His name is Zayn"

"Zayn" I repeated my enemy's name

I can't remember my parents but I made a promise to myself that I would avenge them one day.

My Mate Chapter 59 - Tips

Hope

I woke up in the middle of the night in a cold sweat and my heart racing uncontrollably. Another nightmare! when will this end? I silently asked myself. I got out of bed slowly and walked over to the window I felt goose bumps all over my arms when I saw a figure looking up at me but even though it felt real it wasn't. It was more like a vision or maybe a memory from my past. I closed my eyes tight for a few seconds but when opened my eyes again I saw myself in a beautiful bedroom with only a towel wrapped around my body and in the same room with me is a gorgeous tall guy with dark hair.

“When you’re in here shut your curtains” the gorgeous man said with a deep sexy voice. I almost jumped at the vision I just had even though it wasn’t the first one. All of a sudden pain shoots through me and I hear a deep voice calling my name. Oh my God what’s happening to me? It’s the same voice I hear screaming at me in my nightmares.

Alex knocked on my door. I always locked my bedroom door even though he has asked me several times not to “Hope are you okay?” I walked over and opened the door.

“Hi, I’m sorry I woke you it was just a bad dream” I said apologetically. He walked into my room uninvited and looked around.

“Are you okay?” I asked him. The look on his face was stern not like his usual sweet self. It looked like he was looking for somebody

“Yeah I heard you shout” He walks over and palms my face but I involuntarily move back. He takes a deep breath

“Hope if you would sleep in my room I know your nightmares would go away. You’re the most important person in my life I would never hurt you or force you into anything” He says so sincerely

“I know you wouldn’t hurt me you’ve already helped me so much but I’m just not ready Alex” He sighs then leans down and kisses my cheek.

“I don’t mind waiting, I’m sure you will be worth the wait” The way he said that sent a chill down my spine and that’s why I can’t allow myself to get close to Alex. Whenever I’m with him I get these weird vibes it’s as if my body rejects him. Another thing is that he won’t let me leave the house which makes me feel like a prisoner. I am bored most of the time. I feel bad though Alex saved me and he’s given me a home. I don’t know where I’d be if he hadn’t saved me.

“Please have breakfast with me tomorrow in the garden” He says in a low voice “I have to go away for a few days and would like to spend some time with you before I leave” His voice is soft and sweet

“Yes I’d like that” I smiled at him as he walked out.

I locked my door and climbed back to bed. Thoughts of the man in my visions invade my sleep. I try to focus and remember something anything but I can't. I'm about to lay down when I hear it again "Hope Baby tell me if you can hear me" it's that deep voice again why do I keep hearing it in my head. Tomorrow I'll ask Kain and see what he thinks

The next morning after I got ready for my breakfast with Alex I heard whispers coming from Kain's room. I kept hearing my name so I inched closer quietly

"I want her to forget about him" It was Alex

"She has already forgotten about him" Kain whispered back. Who are they talking about?

"Then why won't she accept me?" oh my god they're talking about me

"She's a tease you should just go for it"

"No I want her to fall in love with me the way she loved him."

"Well as long as she keeps taking her pills you might have a shot but he is her mate man no matter how much she might love you it won't be close to what she had with him" Alex hits Kain so hard he goes flying across the the room.

"Don't ever say that again unless you have a death wish" Oh my god fear takes over me and I hurry back into my room and lock the door. I try to calm down my heart is beating fast too fast. A knock at my door snaps me out of my minor break down and I feel a cold chill run down my spine.

"Hope?" Alex called from behind the door

"Yes, I'm coming" I called out pretending to be preoccupied when I open the door

"Good morning" I say trying to compose myself best I can

"Good morning beautiful are you ready for breakfast?" Alex asked me

"Yes almost I'll meet you in the foyer in ten minutes." I said "Is Kain coming too?" I asked looking over at him innocently

“Oh no I was just with him this morning he already ate but you two will see each other for your training”

“You mean me kicking his b.utt” I laughed trying to remain calm. Today Alex is leaving for a few days that will give me time to talk to Kain alone and to snoop around and see what I can find out because these two are definitely keeping something from me.

Hell. That’s all I can say about my life right now. I hardly sleep and when I do I have nightmares of Alex forcing himself on her. Sometimes I dream of holding her in my arms and those are the nights I actually get some sleep. There’s one dream that fvcking*g breaks my heart where she keeps calling for help before finally jumping off a cliff. It’s fvcking*g t0rture. I’ve turned into an even bigger a.ssh0le than I used to be before ...Hope. It fvcking*g hurts to say her name.

But I haven’t given up I won’t ever give up. It’s been over a month now. Hunter keeps trying to reach Jenna but she’s out of reach which means she’s either drugged and not in touch with her wolf anymore or some fvcking up witch craft. One thing is for sure when I find her and I will find her, Alex he’s going to beg me to end his life. He’s already a dead man. See mother fvckers like Alex that think they have the upper hand always screw up one way or another and when he does I’ll be there.

Everyone is doing their part in the search for Hope but her friends are depressed, her parents Brain and Katherine are heartbroken it’s like there’s a fvcking*g downcast over the whole pack. Hope was...IS the life of this pack.

Every time I see Katherine I see Hope in her. She looks so much like her mother. But her mother seemed to age this past month and Brian lost his mind and left that same night. He took the best trackers and went after her but two weeks later they returned when there search came to a dead end. I was like she had disappeared and taken everything good with her.

I have my people looking for her everywhere bus stations, train stations, airports.

It’s late but I’m at her school right now looking through each student’s file when I notice something very odd. The same day that Hope was abducted one of the students transferred to the east. Mother fvcking*g Gavin. This isn't a coincidence at all.

"Take me to her locker" I told the principal who I had called to meet me. She bowed her head, got Hope's locker combination then lead me over to my baby's locker. She had a jacket neatly folded in there I picked it up slowly and smelled it her scent was faint but still lingered. She also had a picture of us taped on her locker door. This was a picture she took of us at my birthday dinner. She was in her emerald green dress wearing the jewelry I got her. I hungrily took in her face

Hope Baby tell me if you can hear me I tried to mind link her and I went through I could hear her breath but only for a few seconds. I tried again but couldn't reach her. I couldn't help slamming my hand against the lockers Hunter fighting for control again I let out a pained growl

"Alpha" The principal came running back "Please calm down .." before she could finish I cut her off

"You will talk to all his friends and find out where Gavin mother fvcker went to" I demanded.

"I have already done that Alpha" I stared at her "I'll do it again" She said

"Good! start as soon as possible and start by asking the girls he knows..girlfriends, ex girlfriends call them to your office as soon as they come in tomorrow and start asking questions"

"Yes of course Alpha" I wanted to empty her locker and take the picture but I couldn't when she comes back she will do it herself. I went back to my penthouse in the city that night so I could see her . The next morning as I was waking up I got a call from Jason

"What" I answered

"Alpha where are you I have something to show you" His voice was panicked and rushed

"What is it" I growled

"It's a picture of Hope ...with Alex ...an unknown number sent it to me"

My heart ached “Send me it now and send me the number of the fvck who sent you the picture”

I waited a few seconds until Jason sent me the picture. Hunter whimpered as I set eyes on a picture of my beautiful Hope sitting on a blanket with Alex. I let out an angry growl...See mother fvckers like Alex always screw up one way or another and he just did.

My Mate Chapter 60 - Tips

Zayn

The more I looked at the picture of Hope with that cunning mother fvcker the angrier I got. Why the fvck is she sitting with him? Why isn't she trying to get away? She's actually smiling and sitting down with him. It looked like they were having a picnic or something. What the fvck...Thoughts of him with her cloud my judgment and anger takes over me. I let out a loud pained growl and grab a lamp off the table and smash it against the wall. I smash everything I can get a hold of as I can't erase the images of his mouth on hers, Hope k!ssing the filthy snake, him fvcking*g her... the rage that has been simmering underneath my skin works its way and takes over me.

I tore the fvcking*g place down Hunter took over and I welcomed his wrath until I grabbed one of Hope's many pictures that I have hanging on my walls and instantly stopped. My heart was beating like a maniac I looked into her eyes. Those emerald green eyes that have haunted me from the first day I followed her mouthwatering scent and saw her outside by the pool, I feel a sharp stinging pain cut through my body.

I cannot go on like this... I can't live without her but what does this picture mean. Is she out there somewhere living a new life with Alex? Has she forgotten about me? There's no way I would I have felt her rejection had she forgotten about me about us. I am convinced that Alex has drugged Hope and that's why Hunter could not reach Jenna. How is it possible that she is having a picnic with him, what am I missing?

I called Jason and told him to come meet me at the Red Blood Moon Pack. Axel and all our other allies have been helping us look for Alex. I drove over to Axel's pack as fast as I could and mind linked Matt on the way

Be ready I think we might have a location

Emily greeted me as soon as I got there. Seeing her always reminded me of Hope not that I could ever forget about Hope or let her go. I will get back what's mine.

"How are you?" She asked me hugging me tight I don't answer her question

"Have you found any new leads?" She asked again Axel was standing beside her.

"Yes, someone sent Jason a picture of her. I'm going to get a technician to figure out where the picture was taken."

"Oh my Goddess that's great news " Emily hugs me again

"I'm sure it wasn't Alex who sent the picture" I said "Someone else is there that knows Jason. Mother fvcker Gavin transferred to the East the same day Hope was abducted" I said looking at Emily

"Well he has been trying to ask her out for a while..."

"Well then why would he help Alex?" Axel asks. Just then Jason and his mate arrive and are escorted to where we are in the private den. Right away Axel calls for his best technician. After all the digging to find a clue any clue or lead after all the dead ends I finally have hope.

"You need to figure out where this picture was sent from" I hand him Jason's phone

"Yes Alpha I can use EXIF data and GPS coordinates to find out where the picture was taken..it won't take too long" Hunter perked his ears up. He's always ready for a good fight.

The technician sits down and starts doing his thing while I wait impatiently

"Jason have you tried calling the number that sent you the picture? I asked him

"Yes Alpha they won't answer"

Then all of a sudden I hear it. Hello...

I stood almost unable to speak or move as the sweetest voice fills my mind and soul and shoots right through to my heart. I didn't want to say anything so her voice wouldn't fade away like it had so many times before.

Umm I keep hearing voices ...are you there?

Hunter howls out in agony and longing when he hears her voice but he still can't reach Jenna. So I take my chances

"Hope" My fvcking*g voice cracks through our mind link "Please don't shut me out tell me where you are"

She's there I can feel her and hear her breathing I lean back against the wall and slide down to sit on the floor trying to calm myself down. She doesn't say anything at first but then finally speaks

"I don't know where I am" Her voice was gentle but sad through our mind link. Nobody in the room seems to notice but they can't hear us either.

"Baby where is Jenna?" I couldn't believe I was reaching out to her but she didn't seem like herself. I'm going to murder the mother fvcker.

"Jenna... who's Jenna?" fvck. It's my baby's sweet voice but it holds no emotion and she is not herself.

"Hope?" I say sounding panicked she doesn't answer but I can feel her there. I lean my head back against the wall "I love you Hope remember that " After a few short seconds our link was blocked but those few seconds made Hunter thrive even more for Alex's bl00d.

I was getting impatient I kept hovering over the man as he clicked away on Jason's phone. Fifteen minutes later I had a location. The picture was sent from the northeast and precisely from the state of Maine. I quickly called Brian and my father. Matt put together our best warriors and trackers while I called my best pilot.

All I had to do was make a six hour flight and then I could k!!! the mother fvcker.

"What if this is a trap?" Axel asked "Why would he risk sending you a picture? That you can easily track?"

“He didn’t send it” I said

Hope

After breakfast with Alex he left but not without trying to get me to give him a promise that I would take my so called medication. After Alex left I looked for Kain but couldn’t find him anywhere. So I went to my room and got ready to train. It was time for my pill. I didn’t take it instead I sat down on my bed and concentrated on the voice in my head. I heard that voice again this time he called me by my name. He asked me where I was and he asked for another person called Jenna. I was totally freaked out so took my crazy pills and headed down to the gym. I stopped when I saw Kain in the hallway. He tried to hide his face from me

“Kain what happened? ” I hoped he would tell me the truth but he didn’t

“I had an accident” He said I looked at him knowingly

“I saw him attack you” I folded my arms against my chest

“Hope you can’t tell him you saw that he might...”

“He might what?” I demanded but he doesn’t answer.

“Why did you let him do that to you why put up with it Kain?” He smiles at me.

“I have a feeling he will get what he deserves soon. Plus I’ll be leaving in a few days I have a prom to go to” He says in all seriousness

“I wish I could go” I say. He looks at me so intently before he says in a very low voice

“You don’t deserve this Hope” He sounds so different he’s usually lively and funny right now he seems to hold a heavy burden. My heart aches for Jason...Jason?? Just then I see myself on a beach sitting next to a guy who hands me a drink “I meant it Hope I’ll always take care of you” the guy says to me. Who is he? Why do I keep having these memories? I need to ask Kain about these visions I keep having but right now was not the right time.

I suppose he could have meant my memory loss but for some reason I had a feeling he meant something else.

I spent the rest of the afternoon training with Kain before going up to my room to take a shower. I stop in my tracks when I see Alex sitting in my room.

"I thought you were leaving for a few days?" I asked

"I was but I couldn't leave you here alone" He smiles at me
