

My Mate Chapter 71 - Tips

Hope

After Jenna had come out of her shelter everything seemed to fall in place. Well not everything but for Gavin things were looking up. As soon as the news spread that he had sacrificed himself for my sake he became just as popular in our pack as he was in school.

Jason, Derek and Eric along with their mates and Emily all came down to the hospital to check on Gavin. He was still on heavy medication because of the damage done to his head which kept him asleep but I could tell he was happy to have so many people come visit him. We were still in need of a willing unmated she-wolf to mark him. I had given up on Amy knowing deep down that they would have made one hell of a couple. So you can imagine my astonishment when she found out that I had called for all the unmated she wolves between the ages of eighteen and twenty three to meet me as soon as possible and Amy acted like a jealous mate. I guess once she heard how different Gavin's behavior was she changed her mind and wanted to be the one to mark him. Thirty minutes later Amy's parents, Luna, mom and all our friends watched as Amy marked her unconscious mate.

"You go girl show him who's boss " Eric joked. Amy laughed then gently leaned into Gavin's neck and bit down.

"Amy don't retract your fangs until he opens his eyes" Luna told her "I will tell you when"

Watching Amy mark Gavin made me think of when I marked Zayn it was a totally different scene for sure. Where is he? I thought to myself.

That's what I'd like to know Jenna whined her tail down she missed her mate.

My job was done. All we had to do now was wait for Gavin to wake up then the change would be a gradual process.

I walked out of the hospital and straight for the woods Jenna was itching to get out and run. I wanted to go find Zayn but Emily told me that he was busy with Axel so I went deep into the woods but made sure to stay on our territory or my over protective Alpha would freak out.

I sat down on the grass in a clearing and leaned back enjoying the peacefulness of my surroundings. After a little while I took my clothes off and shifted. My paws dug into the soil as I ran as fast as I could the wind blowing through my fur. I ran up and down hills I felt like I was on top of the world, like I owned the world. I ran freely and to be honest it was liberating to be out here on my own. I stopped suddenly when I came to an incredibly beautiful and wild creek. I was sure I was still on our territory but how come I'd never seen this body of water before? I sat down enjoying the view of my new found paradise. I watched the trickling water as it traveled along its bed bubbling over rocks and branches. This was my kind of place to come and read I would definitely be coming here very often after today.

I was lost in my own world when Jenna spoke I'm so proud of you

I smiled but didn't ask why because I knew why

You handled being taken away from mate better than I did. You were strong enough for the both of us.

I'm just happy you're back Jenna I was lost without you. As I sat alone enjoying the view in front of me I felt a pleasant chill run down my spine. Someone else was here, I could feel another presence near me but I wasn't scared I knew who it was that would always find me no matter where I was. I looked back to see Zayn in wolf form. His eyes locked on mine.

"Were you looking for me?"

"I'm always looking for you. I wanted to get in on the excitement"

We are linked so he could feel all the enjoyment I was feeling and by the way Hunter was staring at Jenna I could tell he dragged him out of the office and over here to me. Hunter approached slowly and confidently like always I felt like I was trapped in his web but this time when he was standing right in front of me he lowered his head.

I'm sorry you deserve better

My breath hitched this was Zayn apologizing I remained quiet

If I had known I was destined to such a smart, strong and beautiful mate I would have waited for you an eternity. The truth is from the first day I saw you I have been under your spell. What I feel for you is more than any mate bond. Remember my father said the same thing on our way here from Maine and I believe it too. I've seen others with their mates no matter how powerfully strong they are connected and committed.... we, you and I together, are unique. Please forgive me if I have wronged you in any way. It was never my intention. I will live the rest of my life loving you the way I do now just don't reject me.

I was shocked! Zayn was totally out of his comfort zone. What he said made my heart swell with even more love for him. I can see why he would think I was going to reject him but that's never going to happen. He's My Mate.

I came closer to him and and I licked his jaw Mine I whispered lovingly. Hunter lifted his head up and howled out with all his might. I could feel the joy rolling off him in waves of electricity. Jenna started her little show she jumped around him wagging her tail and prancing like a show girl. I heard Zayn laugh at me.

Come on lets go for a run follow me I said

I'll follow you to the ends of the earth Baby He said and we were off. At that moment I felt so loved yet free. We ran for hours the soil felt wonderful and the air crisp. We raced through the wild and jumped over fallen trees until we found ourselves back at the creek. I sat down looking at the sparkling water in awe

"This is incredible" I said through our mind link "I love this place"

Zayn shifted and stood before me in all his n.aked glory.

Jenna panted Oh my Goddess I can't wait to lick him all over

"Shift" He ordered

I did what he asked and stood n.aked in front of him. He looked down at me then carried me into the water....

When Zayn and I finally left our little haven it was almost dark He went back to the pack house and I went to the hospital to check on Amy and Gavin. I found her family was still there and Gavin was sitting up in bed looking so much better than before. He was healing slowly.

“Gavin” I ran over to his side and hugged him

“Hope thank you so much I’ll never forget what you did for me Amy told me everything” Gavin said

“It’s nothing compared to what you did for me. I’m so happy you’re going to be okay”

“And I’m going to be one of you not to mention my mate is stunning” Finally the Gavin war had come to an end and he was at peace. Very soon the change would be complete.

“Gavin what are you going to tell your parents?” Gavin is human with human parents they won’t exactly grasp the idea of their son changing into a werewolf.

“I’m going to tell them that while I was away I met someone wonderful that I want to spend the rest of my life with” Amy wore a beautiful smile hearing him say that

“Look at you talking like a mated werewolf already.” I laughed

I walked out of the hospital feeling so relieved and happy. I was hungry and I missed Zayn already so I walked up to the pack house and straight to his office to see if he wanted to have dinner with me in our private part of the house or with the family. I knocked twice then opened the door. He was sitting behind his desk and Axel was in his office

“Hey Baby” he leaned back in his seat and tapped his lap I walked over and sat down where he wanted me to. He moves my hair over to one side and sinks his head into my neck.

“My heaven” He says making me melt

“So when are we getting revenge?” I asked

“Very soon but I don’t want you there”

“What? No I’m going with you this is my fight as much as it is yours” I said Zayn stayed quiet which is rare so I continued taking advantage of his relaxed state “I’m the one that wants revenge I’m the one who wore the bracelet, I’m the one whose memory was erased and wolf traumatized” Surprisingly he stayed quiet rubbing his hand up and down my arm

Just then my parents walked in with Luna who looked overly excited about something the Alpha was right behind her.

“Hope tomorrow is your Luna ceremony I’m not putting it off any longer” Luna said in determination leaving no room for discussion.

” And tomorrow I will be stepping down as Alpha of this pack” Zayn’s father said

“which means you need to choose a Beta because I want to retire also I’ll stay as long as you need to choose someone but then I’ll be stepping down” My dad spoke while his arms were wrapped around my mother.

Zayn

The next day the whole pack was thriving and my mom was on full fvcking*g swing organizing the Luna ceremony. She lives for events like this! the whole pack house had turned into a massive flower shop with Hope’s favorite flowers Tulips and red roses. The ball room and courtyard were decorated to perfection. I had left Hope asleep in her parents room where we spent last night and came over to our place got changed then went out to buy her a wedding ring. She deserves the best and I’m going to make sure that’s what she gets. I am going to surprise everyone at her Luna ceremony by breaking traditions and asking Hope to marry me again in front of everyone. I wanted to make her mine in every way.

On the way back I stopped by the hospital to check on Gavin who I was told is doing much better he still looked fvckingd up but he was recovering because of his mates mark. I’m sure he will be able to attend tonight’s ceremony Hope would love to see him there. fvcking*g Hell. Okay so I’m trying to compromise and sh!t to make her happy but her being friends with any other man still makes my skin crawl. I left the hospital feeling good and I missed Hope.

Everything felt calm..... too calm.

My Mate Chapter 72 - Tips

Hope

I woke up to find my bedroom had been invaded by what seemed like a rainbow of tul!ps with radiant colors. The scent of tul!ps is food for my soul I jumped out of bed and picked up the nearest bouquet.

Mmm that smells subtly sweet Jenna purrs Where is that se.xy mate of mine? his scent is all over the sheets.

Morning Jenna I giggled at the sound of her purring whenever she mentions Hunter

I don't know where he is but I can find out I assured my wolf

Good morning I mind linked Zayn

Good morning Baby did you just wake up?

He sounded preoccupied Yeah I did and my room is full of the most beautiful tul!ps.

Well a beautiful woman deserves her favorite beautiful flowers

I smiled at how sweet and perfect he is. I still can't believe this is Zayn Black the ruthless player that was hardly ever around the pack and when he was he was always scowling.

Where are you? I asked him with longing

I had some work to finish before tonight

What are you going to do? He asked

After I shower I'm going to make you lunch then head out to get a few things

Head out where? I'll take you when I get back

No, I'm going with my mom and your mom I'll see you tonight before the ceremony. I said as I stepped in the shower

What? I have to wait till tonight to see you?

I think you'll manage I have to go I'm already in the shower

fvck. I regret not waking you up before I left I giggled at his voice

There's always tomorrow. Bye I love you was last I said before tuning him out so I could shower and start my day.

Today is my official Luna ceremony; I already had my dress picked out a white Patchwork one shoulder mini dress that my mother got as a gift for me when I first found my mate. I'm going to pair it with beige leather pumps. I'm hoping Zayn won't give me too much trouble about the length of the dress.

Other than an invite that was sent out to each of our Alpha and Luna allies it would only be our pack. Still mom told me both the courtyard and Ball room would be decorated. I'm guessing the Ball room is where the Alpha will step down and announce Zayn as the new Alpha

Mom and dad were both down stairs "Honey are you getting ready here or at your place? Mom asked me while placing a kiss on my head

"I'm getting ready up at my place" I had breakfast with my parents every few minutes an omega would deliver a bouquet of flowers sent from friends or pack members congratulating me. Finally I told them to send the flowers to my private wing.

Zayn

Hope and I were both getting ready in our room. She's in her dressing room getting ready and I'm in the bedroom sitting on the couch waiting for her. I have the ring put away safely in my pocket.

"Baby I don't want to rush you but we should be heading down soon"

She emerges in a one sleeve short white dress making my jaw drop. She's wearing the necklace with matching earrings and bracelet I got her. Holy fuck. The dress accented her tits and sun kissed skin making Hunter howl like a horny dog.

"What do you think?" She asked. Her hair flowing straight down her back just how I like it. I stood up and walked over to her slowly my eyes taking her all in. She blushed under my stare. She's a shy sexy as hell little temptress. I wrapped my hand around her waist and leaned down towards her

"I think you look absolutely stunning" I k!ssed her softly. She hummed in my mouth making my c0ck throb for her. "Fvck." I adjusted my e.rection "Let's go my d!ck wants to jump out at you" I growled lowly and led her out towards our elevator while she giggled.

We headed straight for the Ball room hand in hand and when we walked in everyone clapped and cheered. Hope was glowing as she smiled and greeted her pack and guests. I'm so proud to have her. My mother came over

"Hope come I want to introduce you to a few friends" I watched her walk away with mom while I greeted our allies and pack members. Soon after my father announced his stepping down as Alpha of the Golden Moon Pack.

My father made a speech then My mother and finally Brian made a speech. Then everyone headed outside where the Luna ceremonial would take place. I was the last one to walk out when I sp0tted an omega carrying another bouquet of flowers walking over to Hope. The flowers were a very deep dark shade of black giving them a foul appearance. I walked quickly and called her over

"Alpha these were just delivered for the Luna"

"Who delivered them?" I asked her

"One of the security men said that a woman drove up to the gates and dropped them off" The flowers came with a card I pulled it out and stuffed it in my pocket when I saw Hope walk over

"That's a weird color I've never seen black roses who are they from?" She asked

"I don't know there's no card" I lied my bl00d stirring

"Are you okay?" She asked

"Yes baby" I k!ssed her head "let's go"

"Put them by the elevator I'll take them with me later" Hope said before we walked outside to the courtyard.

Gavin and his mate walked over and they both bowed then hugged Hope
“Congratulations” Gavin said. I have a lot of respect for him for what he did for Hope but the fucker better not hug her again.

“How are you feeling” Hope asked I slipped my hand around her waist.

“Better thanks to you” He answered

I kissed the top of my baby’s head “Ready baby?”

“Yeah I am” I led her away to the middle of the courtyard. Everyone was quiet

“Welcome everyone to a night of celebration. Tonight we celebrate a selfless woman who was born and raised in this wonderful pack. A woman who has changed me for life. She helped me see the good in others, she helped me become a better man and the more time I spend with her the more I fall in love with her.” Hope was smiling at me “My pack tonight we celebrate our Luna Hope” The pack cheered and howled in pride and respect for their new Luna. I turned and looked her in the eyes then took the ring out of my pocket and got down on one knee. Her beautiful eyes went wide

“Baby thank you for accepting me and loving me. I still cannot believe that you are mine and I thank the Moon Goddess for giving me such a confident, capable, driven, beautiful mate like you. I want to make you mine in every way....Will you do me the honor of becoming my wife?”

She smiled at me with watery eyes and nodded yes. I raised an eyebrow at her “Yes I will marry you” I slipped the ring on her finger then stood up and cupped her face before kissing her softly. I wanted to taste her right here but I kept it short and gentle for the sake of our families. The whole pack erupted into cheers and howls. Our parents were first to congratulate us before mom pulled her away from me.

“You are one lucky man” Kyle said watching her I smacked him on the head

“Thank you” I wanted to read the card in my pocket but I had to make sure I was alone first. Hope walked over again and hugged me tight “I love you” she said

“I love you too” I told her as I handed her a drink “Drink then let’s dance” I whispered in her ear then bit down on her bottom lightly and quickly. She quivered and I heard an ever so soft moan making my cock hard as fuck.

Hope

As soon as I became the Luna of this wonderful pack I felt a deep connection to each and every pack member. Like I suddenly knew all their names and their concerns became mine. I could feel the connection so strong it almost brought me to tears. They had so much love and respect for me. I expected they felt this way for the alpha family of course but when I experienced first hand how much they cared for me, I fell in love with this pack even more. They were my responsibility now I would make sure to connect with them all and help them out one by one just to see them smile.

I asked Zayn why is it I felt this way all of a sudden and he explained that this is a special connection unique and exclusively for Alphas and Lunas.

“Something is wrong what is it?” I asked him out of the blue.

“No baby nothing is wrong everything is right” He kissed me and now that our parents weren’t right next to us he kissed me hard.

“Get a room” Matt joked I laughed hiding my face in Zayn’s neck.

Our friends and family members were glowing with happiness for us and I had never felt this content and relaxed but what worried me was the fact that I was getting a weird vibe from Zayn he was bothered and anxious, he just asked me to marry him but there was something on his mind. Jenna sensed this too which confirmed my accusations that he was hiding something.

I will find out what it is but for now I wanted to enjoy our night.

My Mate Chapter 73 - Tips

Zayn

I watched Hope from across the courtyard she was sitting with both her grandparents and a few pack members. I noticed how every few minutes she would look over her shoulder at me. I am the luckiest bastard alive. I pulled out the card that I had been keeping in my pocket and read it..

You killed Alex, I will kill you then take your mate and claim my rightful place. Hundreds are waiting to attack your pack, many innocent lives will end because of you. The only way to stop this war to stop all the blood shed, whether you win or not, is to sacrifice yourself and put an end to all this. You have until midnight tomorrow if you care at all for your pack you will meet me at the clearing in the Enchanted Forest or your pack and many innocent lives will suffer the consequences.

I put the note back in my pocket calmly and looked up at Hope she was staring right at me. I kept my gaze on her and mind linked Axel, Matt and Kyle to meet me in my office in five minutes.

“The only way to stop our attack would be to sacrifice yourself” I repeated the words to myself then started walking towards her. She stood up and met me half way. I wrapped my arms around her waist and pulled her into me tight.

“Baby I have to meet with Axel before he leaves just to finalize a few matters. I won’t be long”

“They’re leaving tonight? Emily said they’re staying till tomorrow” She looked at me questioningly.

“They’re leaving tomorrow baby but I have to meet with him tonight” I kissed her forehead “I won’t be long” I walked her back to where her friends were all gathered and kissed her softly before walking away to my office. Matt, Kyle and Axel were already there. I hated leaving her side but I didn’t want her finding out about the note or any of this. She has already been through enough and I’ll be a damned mother fvcker if I let her get hurt again in any way.

“We received a threat tonight” I said as soon as I sat at my desk.

“From who?” Matt asked already tense. I wasn’t surprised he was first to react. Matt and Kyle both have been our Zetas for a while now. They have been the highest ranking warriors since they each turned twenty. They’re both truly remarkable fighters, ruthless on the battle field and precise at planning and leading attacks. Even though they rank fourth in our pack, they don’t answer to anyone but me, the alpha. They are in charge of the warriors and war plans. I have been thinking about making one of them Beta but I need to find a strong enough Zeta replacement. One of them if not both will be my Beta for sure.

I showed them the note “Can’t this girl get a break hasn’t she had enough?” Kyle said mostly to himself He was getting angry fast. He loves Hope and I have to calm myself down, he’s my brother and he has a mate.

“That’s why I don’t want her to find out about this” I looked at him seriously

“That’s a threat to your Luna and your pack” Axel says “War is inevitable now”

“War with this bh and her pathetic father has been inevitable for a long time” I sit down and run my hand through my hair then get up and pour myself a stiff drink. “The coward picked up and left out of the blue one day without any trace with help from Alex for sure.”

“Matt, I’m going to call the rest of our allies in here we have to be ready for war at any given minute the card said midnight tomorrow but that could also be a diversion to attack us when we least expect it. Get everyone ready now prepare for war as of this minute. By ten tomorrow if they haven’t attacked we go to the forest.”

The Enchanted Forest is where we annihilated the rogues. The bh thinks she has the upper hand there because of the witch who dwell amongst the heavy trees. “We attack tomorrow.” I said looking at Kyle “The bh isn’t planning to face Hope alone. Rogues and the mother fvckers from her pack will be there but so will we. Tomorrow we end this sh!t on the battlefield.” I said slowly “I want hunters, trackers and healers with us”

An hour later after my office had been occupied by seven alpha’s the plan was set. Our allies were all willing ready to aid if necessary. Matt and Kyle had already alerted the warriors. And everyone knew what the orders were.

“Kyle” I called for his attention he was the last one to leave the office, he turned back and looked at me “Make sure to inform the warriors that I want Edward and Stephanie alive” My voice dark and chilling

“Done” he said before he turned around and left. I leaned back in my seat finishing off my drink when I picked up Hope’s scent very close. I walked over to the door just as she was about to knock.

Hope

“Are you going to tell me what’s going on or are you going to be sleeping in your old room alone from now on?” I furrowed my eyes at Zayn and folded my arms against my chest, he better tell me what’s going on.

"You think you can keep me out of our bedroom?" He growled with a grin on his face as he looked at me slyly.

"Tell me" I demanded his grin making my heart beat fast but this jerk better do some talking

"Maybe I have something else in mind" He said in a low sexy voice. He pulled me gently into his office and locked the door. I felt my cheeks heat up as I watched him slowly slide his hands down my shoulders and lick his lips.

"Zayn I'm not going to let you try to distract me and I'm not letting you have your way with me in your office" I warned him but oh my Goddess the way he's looking at me right now makes my insides quiver with anticipation. But of course I had to be strong to find out what he's up to "How am I distracting you baby?" He asked as he started kissing my neck "I didn't know I was a distraction"

"Zayn this can't happen in here" I say but contradict my words by running my fingers through his hair.

"Why baby? the door is locked and this can happen in here or anywhere I want" He said so seductively

"But if you don't want this you can tell me to stop" urghhh I wish I could punch him but he's too irresistible. His needs become my own.

"I've been wanting to get my fiance alone all night" He pushed me against his desk and his hands find the side zipper of my dress and our lips crash together. He pulls my dress all the way down exposing the goosebumps that are flushed all over my skin. He moves back for a split second and eyes my body "fuck"

He forces my strapless bra roughly down and surprises me by coming down and sucking on my mark driving absolutely crazy. I tug at his shirt and start unbuttoning it as he lifts me up and sits me down on his desk.

"You still want me to sleep in my room baby?" His voice raspy "wouldn't you miss me?"

"Tell me what you're hiding" My voice came out like moaning he chuckles.

“Nothing baby just let me fvck you” Oh Goddess his dirty mouth did sinful things to my private parts. I pulled him closer and locked my mouth with his otherwise we would both make too much noise. Me with my m0ans and him with his talking dirty.

His tongue roamed in my mouth and slid across my tongue I reached down for his belt as he sn.aked his hand behind me and unclasped my b.ra taking it off completely. He broke our k!ss making me whine then he leaned down and took one of my b.reasts into his mouth s.ucking my n!pple then he grabbed my other b.reast rubbing and kneading my n!pple softly. I arched my back and closed my eyes as his tongue moved from one of my b.reasts to the other sending tingles and waves of pleasure throughout my body and making me squirm against him. Wanting more I reached for his thick and hard manh00d he hissed and dropped his pants to the floor then moved my panties to the side. He kept his dark eyes on mine as he pulled me closer to him and pushed into me with one hard thrust. I fell back on his desk unable to think straight “Did you come here to threatening me baby? was my little wolf threatening me?” He continued to thrust into me hard and fast. “Answer me were. you. threatening. me?” He stressed each word. He is so intense. And I love it!

“No” I cried out then I regained some composure “Actually yes”

he paused for a second then pounded harder his face tense “You can’t threaten me and if you do I know how to change your mind”

What an a.ssh0le but right now I don’t care I miss him too much. I pulled him closer and k!ssed him to muffle my sounds. He k!ssed me slowly and passionately my nails dug into his back as he took every inch of me.

He broke our k!ss and I growled at him he chuckled then covered my mouth with his hand at the same time he bit down on to my mark making me scream into the palm of his hand. I saw stars as he went in me deep, hard and fast as I shook and came harder than I can ever remember. I melted onto him completely my heart racing with the electric tingles shooting through my body. I heard Jenna and Hunter howl as Zayn kept on pounding until finally filling me in more ways than one.

After we both could breath again he picked me up off his desk only to bend me over it again.

Zayn

fvck! I cannot control myself around her she turns me into a fvcking*g animal. We were still in my office but now she was straddling me on my couch. I fvckngd her on the desk and bent over my desk. I couldn't help myself I've wanted to bend her over this desk since the first time I saw her. I held on to her tight rubbing my hands down her bare back. Her head was nestled on my shoulder.

"Zayn tell me!" My little baby demanded

"I love you so much please let me handle everything" I pulled her closer to my chest then growled when she tried getting off me but I held her down.

"Tell me what you've been hiding all night or I'm leaving right now" She threatened

"Watch it" I slapped her a.ss lightly. Being the stubborn little wolf she is she got up and started putting on her clothes. "Hope" I called in warning. She didn't budge. fvck I'm losing my touch...and what very little patience I have.

"Baby you know I'm not letting you leave this room like this" I stood up and pulled her against me she struggled in my arms like a cute little kitten.

"Our guests and pack are still outside I want to go have dinner with them" She growled. I decided to have mercy on her and let her go. I got dressed watching her comb her fingers through her hair. She is so cute.

"How do I look?" She huffed

"Like a se.xy b.rat but I love you and I will always protect you even when you hate me" She stopped in her tracks her eyes wide then jumped into my arms melting into me.

"I don't hate you I love you" She said softly. Finally fvck.

My Mate Chapter 74 - Tips

Hope

The next morning I woke up with my arms wrapped around Zayn. He was already up and deep in thought. So I inched even closer and klsed his shoulder

“What’s bothering you? Is it our revenge battle?” I asked

“Good morning” His raspy voice warmed my heart. “Nothing is bothering me” He rubbed my cheek softly.

“You know when you hide things from me, even if it’s your way of trying to keep me safe it still makes me feel like you don’t have faith in me” My voice came out almost soft like a whisper. He stayed quiet but turned my way and pulled me closer.

“I have a lot of faith in you. You know that baby” He kissed my cheek before getting out of bed. I got the feeling he was rushing out of bed.

I needed to get up and start my first day as Luna. I also had to catch up on a lot of studying. But first things first, this was Zayn’s first morning as Alpha and I wanted to do something special for him. I heard him start the shower so I went into our kitchen and started preparing breakfast.

I made him everything he likes Bacon, eggs, sausages, hash browns, sautéed mushrooms, bell peppers and tomatoes. I even prepared the table. Our whole house was adorned with tulips and roses so I filled my favorite crystal vase that Zayn got me from France with red roses and placed it in the center of the table. Which reminded me of the black roses someone sent me I want to know who sent them.

“What is that delicious smell” I heard Zayn ask as he wrapped his arms around my waist. I was lost in my own thoughts and didn’t notice him come in the kitchen.

“I made you breakfast Alpha” I said turning around to face him with a smile on my face. I always smile when I see him he’s just so handsome. He’s hiding something and I will find out what it is.

“Wow baby I didn’t know you could cook why didn’t you just order breakfast from the kitchen?”

“I wanted to make you breakfast myself today is the first day of you being officially Alpha”

“Is that so? He leaned in with a playful grin on his face and kissed the top of my head then sat down at the table.

"I don't want you tiring yourself order whatever you want and the cooks will make it"

"You don't let me do anything around here" I rolled my eyes at him and sat down at the table next to him.

"I want to take care of you baby" He reached over took my hand placing a k!ss on it.

"What do you have planned for the day?" He asked me while eating

"I want to start my Luna duties other than that nothing much"

We ate together and talked about who he has in mind for a Beta. He wants dad to remain in the position but that won't happen it's someone else's turn now

"Thank you baby everything was delicious. I wish I had time for dessert" He winks at me but have go now I'll see you later" He pulls me up and k!sses me then squeezes my a.ss before leaving.

"Always a pervert" I said to him and he chuckles as he walks out to the elevator. Almost as soon as he walked out I heard my phone ringing.

"Hello?"

"Did you get my flowers" a woman's voice rang through my body giving me the chills. What flowers? I thought to myself

"Yes I did." My voice came out cold

"Did you read the note?" What note??

"Yes I did" I lied

Have you decided what you're going to do?" I know that voice but can't remember the name.

"Alex was my brother and you k!lled him. And...I should be his Luna not you. I'm an alpha's daughter. You're just a spoiled girl. So you see why I'm doing this." Oh my Goddess I remember the crazy bh. Stephanie.

“But if you have a noble decent bone in your body meet me and we can settle this. Otherwise like I wrote in my note a lot of innocent people are going to die.” My blood was boiling I’m going to kill her.

“Tell me where”

“Like the note said at the Enchanted Forest.”

“And if I don’t come?”

“Then there’s going to be a war and many innocent lives will end because of your cowardice.”

Jenna was throwing a fit in my head. I can’t wait to get my hands on this bh.

“Baby” Zayn called out for me with worry in his voice he rushes into the bedroom and sees me on the phone.

“What time?” I asked no emotion in my voice.

“Midnight come alone” She said and I hung up the phone

“So this is what you’ve been hiding from me?” I asked him “I had to find out from Stephanie...”

“Baby” He tries to take my hand

“Don’t!” I push his hand away. “What was the plan you go meet her then what?” I’m glaring at him. I cannot believe he kept this from me. He knows how much I want revenge for what she did to me. And now I have another reason bh wants to be Luna.

“Then I’m going to fvcking*g kill her”

“Whatever you’re going to do I want to be a part of it” I said with my hands on my hips

“Over my dead body Hope you’re staying here”

“Why is everything a big issue with you?” I yelled “I’m not sitting back while you fight my battles Zayn”

"I said no end of discussion" He says sternly running his hand through his hair. I really wish I could punch his lights out right now.

"No this is not the end of discussion I'm not a child I'm your equal."

"Hope stop and lower your fvcking*g voice I can't do this..."

I cut him off "Why can't you do this?"

"Because I can't lose you again" he yelled out and slammed his hand on the wall. I stood still. He remained quiet for a few minutes with his head down then he spoke again. His voice laced with so much hurt.

"Ever since you were taken away I don't sleep at night" I stared at him and saw raw fear in his eyes. This is a man who fears nothing. My heart broke for him when I felt all his pain. Jenna whimpered in my head. I stepped forward towards him and wrapped my hands around his waist. He pulled me into him.

"Please let me take care of this without having to worry about you. I'll bring the bh here and let you take care of her if you want but I don't want you to leave here until we're back." He said bringing his head to my neck.

Zayn

"If you go I'm going to be worried about you" She said softly

"You don't have to worry about me as long as you're okay I'm okay...remember?" She put her head against my chest melting into me.

Hope finally calmed down. I hate arguing with her she pushes my every fvcking*g button, she drives me mad and she turns me into a fvcking*g animal but I can't live without her. We came down stairs she went into the private living room to see her parents while I went straight to the office to meet with Matt and Kyle in regards to their attack plan.

This morning our allies had sent over their elite warriors who were given accommodations for as long as they stayed here. Which would not be long I have every fvcking*g intention of ending this shit once and for all.

Kyle had already sent scouts and hunters to guard the enchanted forest from afar not to risk being seen.

I was in my office looking over maps when they came in “Did you make sure the patrols inside and outside our territory are increased today?” I asked them both

“Yes patrols have been tripled until further notice.” Kyle answered

I hated the idea of making a trip to the Enchanted Forest without Hope but Brian will be here is capable of taking care of her in case anything should happen. Something did not sit right with me.

“Are you okay?” Matt asked me “I keep thinking that this might be a play to take Hope”

A Luna strengthens her pack and we were already the strongest pack known with our Luna we were unbeatable. So this could be an attempt to take her away again then Edward would use his warriors and rogues to attack us and try to kill me to avenge his son. I leaned back in my seat and took a deep breath. I was determined to keep her safe.

“We have to be ready for anything this is a situation where I refuse to leave anything up to chance. I don’t want to take any chances.”

My brothers and I spent most of the day looking at our territory map to make sure all our borders were heavily guarded . I didn’t want to leave here later without making sure all our borders were covered. We mapped out all possible places and attack routes where the rogues could be hiding. He used rogues to attack once I’m sure he will do it again.

“Okay guys tell me your strategy plan” I ordered

“Okay” Matt looked at Kyle then back at me “They want Hope alone and that’s what they’ll get”

“Matt I don’t like where you’re going with this think of a new strategy” I warned

“Wait just listen you said you want to end this once and for all” Matt continued

“What’s your point?”

“We let them think that Hope took the bait and went alone ” I stood up my blood boiling

“I know you’re not telling me to send my mate and fiancé into the Enchanted Forest alone!” I was beyond frustrated.

“No I’m telling you that you will be there along with all the fighter warriors but we will be unseen. If we show up tonight Stephanie could play it cool and Edward won’t attack or we let them think that Hope actually went there alone and expose their plan. Hope will not be harmed in any way she doesn’t even have to shift. When they see she’s alone they will execute their next move and we will be there to take them down.”

“I don’t like this come up with another strategy”

“Zayn she’s our best option there’s no other way. Any other way will give them the advantage”

“We’re not doing it end of discussion” I stared at both of them

“I want to do it Zayn” I heard Hope say she was standing at the door. fvck.

My Mate Chapter 75 - Tips

Hope

I walked into Zayn’s office “Hey guys” I greeted Matt and Kyle smiling at them.

“Hey Hope I’m glad you’re here maybe you can help us convince your mate” Matt says

“Matt I said form another plan because there’s no way I’m going to let her walk into that forest alone” Zayn growled at both his brothers. I felt bad for him he was just worried about me.

I walked over to Zayn’s desk and stroked his arm to try and calm him down. I could feel his anger and pain together but he has to trust me and his brothers “I can do this you’re going to have to trust me”

“I do trust you but this isn’t happening absolutely fvcking*g not we have already talked about this” He says

“Zayn listen to me they have a point you know” I paused “If you go there with the warriors they could retreat quietly and then what? when will this end?”

How long will this go on for? I'm going back to school next week. How long do I have to live in fear?"

"Hope, first of all as Luna you're going to have enough on your plate so you won't be able to attend school, you can be home schooled and Edward fvck has a witch on his side, the last time we were in that forest we couldn't mind link each other. Not to mention that the forest was practically on the fs territory which means they probably have escape routes planned perhaps through tunnels. They could have decoys in place, or traps ready and waiting.."

"We will all be right there hiding up in the trees. Not too close so we can remain undetected but close enough if they try anything." Kyle said

"I like that idea" I smiled at Kyle

"You like anything he says" Zayn growls pointing to Kyle. I couldn't help giggle. He's right Matt, Kyle and I have a special bond. I love them to death and even though their plan may have sounded rash it was the only way to finally end this.

"But if this is going to work we have to go early much earlier than they would expect. We hide and wait, when it's time Hope will come driving her car two warriors will be in the car also hiding. She'll park and walk down into the forest.

Zayn puts his head down I can tell he's in deep thought. Then looks up at me "As soon as our warriors attack you leave. You don't fight. That's my condition if you're going to do this"

"Okay" I said

"Okay we're going to get the warriors ready and situated" Kyle and Matt stood up ready to leave the office.

"Wait I had lunch prepared for everyone. The tables are set up outside and the omega's are ready to serve them. Make sure they all eat before they go that includes you two."

"Yes Luna" Kyle said before saluting me

"Now isn't the time to fvck around with him" Matt told him as they walked out.

When we were alone Zayn's eyes bore into mine "Are you hungry" I asked him

He ignored my question moved his chair back and pulled me onto his lap "Hope I mean it as soon as we attack I want you out of there. I'll have a couple of warriors bring you back home" He spoke sternly

"Agreed" I said and playfully held out my hand so we could shake on it but he cupped my face and kissed me. He took over my lips and opened my mouth with his tongue. He tasted so good and his kiss was so passionate Jenna howled out of pleasure.

I pulled back and ran my hands through his hair then put my head on his shoulder he played with my hair. This man is everything to me. I can't wait for all this to be over and we can relax.

"Zayn when Alex had me chained up, Stephanie and Edward were both there. They heard me yell out for you continuously but they never flinched. Gavin tried to get him to stop but he only got punished for it. I never felt any pain I was yelling out for you but I wasn't in any pain and that made them mad. So don't worry about me lets end this together. We were born and destined to fight together." He studied my face but kept quiet.

"They are evil and heartless and with the rogues they are powerful. Yes, she will try to kill me but she won't succeed. I am stronger than her and as a pack we are a lot stronger than them"

Zayn

I held her tight she's so strong and confident no wonder she was destined to be Luna.

"Luna" I whispered and put my forehead against hers. "Thank you for always believing in me" I kissed her again. She's fucking*g turning me on and I wish I could bend her over and fuck her right here on my desk that would definitely help me relax a bit but we have to get this plan going I wanted to meet with the warriors again and go over the details of the plan.

We were in my office again this time Brian was with us. He was worried for his daughter but didn't discourage her not once. He only motivated her. I watched my baby as Matt and Kyle went over the Enchanted Forest map with her explaining where she needed to drop me off because I would be in the car with her of course and where she needed to park her car. They also pointed where our warriors would be situated watching her closely. She didn't show any sign of fear while we explained what she needed to do. I called ahead for two of our helicopters to be on standby in a clearing nearby the forest as soon as we attacked Hope would be taken home in one of them.

By early evening our warriors and our ally warriors were spread out all over the outside of the Enchanted Forest. Some hid in the trees others in small camouflaged ditches. I had healers masking everyone's scent and trackers situated deep in the trees waiting to send us a signal when they saw the bh or anyone else in the damned forest.

I had the utmost faith in our warriors. These men were trained to fight tooth and nail they are well known among other packs as ruthless fighters that fight with everything they've got and never show mercy. They can endure pain and torture with patience. Hope is the life of our pack she went out of her way to make sure all the warriors, trackers and healers had eaten before they left. She also kept calm and assured both our mothers that there was nothing to be concerned about.

I knew our warriors they would fight for their Luna till death. It was nearly midnight I was in the car with Hope. I drove most of the way holding and kissing her hand back and front. I stopped to get out by one of our healers where Matt and Kyle had planned but before I got out She leaned into me and kissed me

"I love you" She said. I took off my watch that Hope gotten me for my birthday and put it in her glove compartment.

"I love you too remember get out of there as soon you notice any sign of attack." I hesitated before climbing out of her car and shutting the door closed. I felt my heart race as she drove off. Hunter was already in killing mode.

Hope

I parked my car where Matt and Kyle had pointed out to me over and over again on the map and walked deep into the forest. I knew I was safe. I felt safe. I thought of Jason, Derek, Eric, Matt, Kyle, Axel and Zayn. They were all here making sure I wouldn't get hurt. I had never felt so safe. After walking for about fifteen minutes I saw her. Jenna growled remembering Stephanie as one of my t0rturers. I stood in front of her for a second in silence and she flinched like I intimidated her.

“Were you followed?” She asked me looking me up and down. Whore

“No...are you here alone or is daddy dearest nearby because I can smell someone else here” I said sarcastically looking behind her. She pretended to laugh.

“I’m so glad you came... I’m going to k!!l you then make sure Alpha Zayn claims me as his Luna.”

“Ohhh and I thought you wanted to k!!l me to avenge your sick brother who by the way died a painful death by my own father’s hands” I said smiling at her.

“You bh first you took Zayn from me, then my friends then my brother” She yelled.

“I didn’t take Zayn from you because he was never yours to begin with, your friends found out what a lying bh you really are and as for your brother he wiped my memory I’ll never forget what he put me through and he got what he deserved my father tore him to pieces just so you know.” I spoke calmly.

All of a sudden a man appears from behind the trees but I can’t see him clearly. I’m reminded of the time Zayn and I were in the car and I saw a figure looking at us making out. This is the same figure.

“Stephanie dear don’t threaten to k!!l our guest. We need her” The stranger said as he approached us “I already explained this to you my dear”

“Hello again Hope” His chilling voice made Jenna growl in fury and call out for Hunter. Oh my Goddess Edward.

“Hi I’m so glad you came with her that way you both die together” I said standing up straight.

“By the way bh you will never be his Luna!” I said looking straight at her in the eye.

“Ahhhhhh I’m going to tear your heart out” She screamed and attacked me I darted her strike and kicked her down to the ground. That’s when all hell broke loose.
