

My Mate Chapter 76 - Tips

Zayn

When Stephanie attacked Hope I lost all control as my protective instincts took over and a roaring growl ripped through my chest, I ran towards the clearing with my eyes dead set on the bitch. Hope slammed and pinned her to the ground within seconds with her foot at her neck. Stephanie laid motionless. Hunter howled out in pride and hunger as I ran with everything in me just to get closer to her.

Hearing my growl warriors from both sides attacked. In a matter of seconds the warriors had shifted and the forest had turned into a bloody rumble. I still hadn't shifted fearing I wouldn't be able to communicate with Hope anymore.

I saw Edward cross his arms across his chest and look at Hope the fuck wasn't even trying to help his daughter who was at Hope's mercy. I ran through rogue filth until I reached her side grabbing Edward by the neck "What the fuck are you looking at?" I sneered at him

"You took me away from my family from my pack and from my mate you bitch" Hope growled at Stephanie pushing her leg down on her neck slowly forcing the life out of her "But my mate found me and beat the shit out of Alex then my father killed him, he ripped him into pieces" She spoke calmly causing the bitch to cry out in fear.

Edward fought trying to get out of my grip as he witnessed Hope lift Stephanie and throw her hard across against a tree the bitch got up and ran off whimpering in fear. I grabbed Hope with my free hand before she could follow her "Baby you did well now go get out of here" I yelled out to her as a group of our warriors including Kyle took her away.

"Kyle make sure she gets on that chopper and send her home!" I yelled out to him. I was just about to shift when I heard an eerie voice

"Alpha Zayn" I turned around and come face to face with a man that I had never seen before. He looks a lot like the asshole I have in my clutches. Suspicion clouds my mind. This is Edward's other son.

"All this is unnecessary I assure you" He says "where is your mate?"

The fvck? He looks around ...is he looking for her

I tightened my grip on Edward's neck before slamming him on the ground.

"What the fvck do you want with my mate?" I growl out standing in the fvckers face ready for battle. Matt and Axel are by my side in their wolf forms. Axel growls out and jumps at Edward taking a hold of him by the neck.

"Axel keep him alive to k!!l him here would be an easy death for him" Matt said as Axel squeezed on his neck even more s.ucking the life out of him.

"Oh I have been eager to meet her since she turned eighteen but unfortunately I haven't had the privilege yet. You see her wolf is a Starrk wolf and I have been promised a Starrk wolf by the Moon Goddess so I am here to take what belongs to me. I even k!!led my own mate for her so she can be my second chance mate and my dear sister made sure she aborted your pup that she was carrying when Alex kidnapped her. No hard feelings though she can only carry my heir."

Hunter growls out brutally in anger and fury. Hope was pregnant when Alex took her. Sadness then rage take over me "You will never touch her I'll make sure of that" I bawl out with all my might before letting Hunter take control, we both shift at the same time and I go for the k!!l crouching into attack position bearing my teeth his words running through my mind before we both jump out attacking each other.

Hope

I want to stay and k!!l that bh for what she's put me through but I needed Zayn to focus on the battle and with me there he would be too concerned for me. My whole body was shaking in anger and rage something didn't feel right. I stopped walking when I heard a brutally piercing growl. Zayn. My heart tightened.

"Kyle let me go" I pulled away from him he held on to me

"What's wrong?"

"Kyle please I have to get to him, I have to go back!"

“He can take care of himself Hope we need to keep you safe” We were both yelling just so we could hear each other from all the growling happening on the battle field.

I pushed Kyle away from me “Listen to me I have to go back!” I yelled “Hope” He grabbed me again “He will k!ll me if something happens to you please let’s just go he will be fine” I could tell how worried Kyle was but this was my call.

“Nothing will happen to me Kyle but I’ll k!ll you if you don’t let me go back and something happens to him!” I screamed at him. He looked at me shaking his head

I felt my heart start to race I felt myself get hot all over was this anger I was feeling? I thought to myself. I had to go back for him and for my pack. I cannot leave them like this.

Kyle finally let me go and I ran back towards the clearing. The smell of bl00d made me sick and scared for my friends. I ran by Eric and Jason who were fiercely taking down one rogue after the other.

I kept running looking around for him the ground was getting slippery from all the bl00d. All of a sudden the bh jumps on me out of nowhere knocking me down she hit me again and again but I blocked her every move. “He was mine before you and just so you know you were pregnant and the pup I k!lled should have been mine too!” She screamed as my bl00d went cold. I was pregnant.

I grabbed both her hands cracking the bones on her wrists

“You know you should have stopped being the pack slut for a while and trained more it would have done you some good” I laughed at her weak fighting tactics making her scream with rage. What a crazy bh.

“You did everything to try and get him to leave me for you but you couldn’t and you will never have him. You even stooped as low as putting your disgusting b.ra under his pillow you even tried erasing my memory but nothing will ever break us apart” Finally I grabbed her by the neck as she tries to shift and slam her on the floor right next to me then I pounce on her “You can’t he’s mine” I growled at her, Jenna growled possessively.

“How dare you... you bh I’m an al...” I cut the bh off

“I get it you’re an alpha’s daughter so fvcking*g what I’m a Luna” I say sounding a lot like Zayn as I snapped her neck and bit down into her tearing her head off.

Damn she’s so annoying I’m glad she’s gone Jenna howled out in victory.

I stood up in a bit of a daze and took a look around me everything seemed to be in slow motion then I sp0tted him he was in his wolf form and he was outnumbered by seven or eight rogues and enemy fighters I couldn’t stand the sight of him being attacked like that I ran towards him. Jenna growling like I’d never heard her before. This was a more primal, animalistic growl she was out for murder.

When I reached the center of the clearing Zayn immediately sp0tted me he howled out for me to leave but I ignored him and kept walking towards him. One of the rogues notices me and comes running and sneering towards me I run towards him too, head on and just before I reach him I feel myself get hotter and my heart is racing so fast I feel like I might faint but not today. Today we get revenge!

I keep running fast a new power of kinetic energy that I’ve never felt before takes over me and when I’m in arms reach of the rogue I crouch down on the dirt slamming both my hands on the ground with all my might causing a powerful force of energy to thunder through the ground and rip through the rogues and all our enemy warriors. I fell to the ground exhausted but tried to keep my eyes open as I witnessed rogue bodies get blasted far away as if someone had tossed each and every one of them far far away.

Zayn

I was shocked to say the least at what Hope did. She slammed her hands on the ground and each and every rogue went flying back, some hit tress and collapsed others just ...disappeared all I could hear was their screaming for mercy. When I finally got my senses back I ran over to her so did our warriors. She looked up at me and smiled before she ran her hand through my fur. I was in awe at how beautiful and strong my baby is. I shifted into my human form and Kyle handed me a pair of shorts.

“Damn Hope” Kyle says impressed

“Zayn” Her voice comes out soft. Axel still held Edward captive and Matt had his son by the neck.

“Yes baby” I picked her up and put her on my lap we were still sitting on the ground. She was drained her body melted into mine.

“I want them dead” She said pointing to Edward and the fvck.

That’s all she had to say and both Axel and Matt did what she asked. The whole pack howled out in victory. Not only had their Luna fought with them but she had also saved them without having to shift. She saved us all.

We stuck around intentionally waiting to see if rogues would come back but they didn’t.

“Let’s get going” I called out. I helped her up she had a little bl00d coming out of her nose. She looked wiped out so I carried her back to the car. I noticed Stephanie’s lifeless body on the ground making me think of what her brother told me. Hope was pregnant when Alex took her and they k!lled the baby that must be why Jenna was devastated and went into hiding for so long.

They got what they deserved for hurting her. We can always have pups in the future she’s still young I tried to ease my pain. My poor baby had gone through so much so early on in her life.

“What are you thinking about” She asked noticing the scowl on my face. We were in her car driving back home.

“I’m thinking that I’m so grateful to have you.” I glanced at her. She was smiling “I will live the rest of my life making sure you know how much I love you” I k!ssed her hand front and back.

My Mate Chapter 77 - Tips

Hope

The whole way back to our territory I couldn’t help but think of the poor little soul that had been so cruelly taken away from me. My pup. I wondered if it would have been a girl or boy and who it would look like. Zayn must have felt my sad demeanor because he gripped my hand a bit tighter and rubbed his thumb over my hand. I had seen better days for sure but I wasn’t going to let this tear me down. I got my revenge on all who hurt me. I still needed to talk to Gavin about this. Did he know? I thought to myself

I'm sorry I wasn't strong enough. I'm a Starrk Wolf, I should have come out and killed them all before they terminated your pregnancy. Jenna sounded so hurt

Jenna they used a lot of wolfsbane on us. I was afraid I'd lost you for good I'm grateful I have you. What is a Starrk Wolf? I asked her

A descendant of the Moon Goddess. She said as if it's not a big deal at all

My wolf is the descendant of the Moon Goddess? I repeated to myself.

Yes, we are very special Jenna purrs using her seductive voice

Is that how I killed the rogues without even realizing what I was doing? I asked my charming wolf who was purring inside my head. She loved having her mate beside her.

Yes, that was me taking over your body. It will get easier with time. Now look at this hunk of a mate beside us. She purred

Feeling her through our mate bond Zayn chuckled and ran his hand through my hair. Jenna melted.

Down girl! I'm beat today I just want to take a bath and sleep.

Aww you're no fun. My wolf whined.

"Are you okay baby?" Zayn asked reaching over to get his watch from the glove compartment.

"Yes I'm fine but Jenna wants to jump your bones" I said quietly smiling at him. He laughs at my choice of words.

"Well I'd be happy to oblige any time you want" He winked at me. I love when he's playful and flirty

When there was a battle of any sort the pack members would almost always wait for the safe return of their loved ones. Today wasn't any different. Our pack was waiting for our victorious return. As soon Zayn parked my car I saw my mother rushing towards me, with dad close behind her. My heart warmed as mates ran into each other's arms and parents and friends were reunited. I saw Gavin and Amy walk over to Jason and his mate. He looked so happy among us. Our battle was over and I was happy we were all back home safely.

Some warriors needed medical attention that the healers couldn't deliver I wanted to go with them to the hospital but Zayn wouldn't have it.

"You need to rest I'll send someone else with them" He was right I was tired and desperately need to sleep so I didn't argue with him. Jason, Derek, Eric and Gavin all walked over with their mates.

"You are one bada.ss Luna" Jason was impressed

"Yeah remind me not to piss you off" Derek laughed. We stood together for a few minutes like old times only Emily was at her new pack and Gavin was now one of us.

"Gavin, I'd like to talk to you very soon" I told him

"Sure whenever you wish Luna" He said putting his arm around Amy. He hadn't changed yet but I was beginning to see a slight difference. For one his eyes looked more radiant. I need to ask him if he knew that I was pregnant.

"Tomorrow for sure I'll come find you" I said.

I looked and felt like a truck ran over me but Zayn wrapped his arm around my waist and held his hand up so he could talk to them with no distractions...

"Once again our warriors fought with honor but today was different, today we were all saved by our Luna who fought beside us leading us to victory" Zayn yelled out proudly, then he entwined our fingers and lifted my hand and his up together as our pack cheered, he bent down and kissed my lips ever so softly then my cheek before we head inside ready to call it a night.

"Your nose honey are you okay?" Mom asked

"I'm fine mom it's just a little blood" I hugged both my parents before everybody went their separate ways turning in for the night. Zayn and I were in our elevator I couldn't wait to soak my body in my favorite bubble bath then fall into heavenly sleep.

"Are you hungry?" I ask him He looks at me with a grin

"Always" He says in a soft voice bringing his hand around my waist and sinking his head into the crook of my neck.

"Not that kind of hungry" I giggle

"Ah damn then no I'm not hungry" He says being awfully playful today.

"I'll get the bath ready he says as we walk into our private sanctuary. He heads straight for our bedroom.

"I think I need a shower first to wash my hair"

"Okay baby jump in the shower first then come soak yourself in your favorite bubbles." He said as he started filling our tub with water. Steam started clouding the bathroom giving it a very sexy feel.

I took off my clothes put them in the hamper and stepped in the shower. I felt myself relax as the hot water ran over me. Zayn was emptying bubble bath into the water

"It feels so good now that they're all gone I don't have to worry anymore and neither do you" I said

He starts taking off his clothes while I watch him "Yeah it does finally" he sinks in the bath as I get out of the shower and slide in the hot fragrant water in front of him.

"This feels so good" I lay my head back against his shoulder and close my eyes. He rubs my shoulders helping me relax. We were both quiet lost in our own thoughts and I could feel him start to relax he was tense the whole way back home.

"When Alex kidnapped me I was pregnant" I said my voice low "Stephanie told me before I killed her"

He brings his hand to my shoulders and kisses the top of my head "I know I'm sorry baby" His voice sweet and soft. He moves my wet hair over and kisses my shoulder.

“You’re only eighteen we have all the time in the world don’t worry about it baby but I’m sorry you had to go through that” His voice full of concern for me. He was right I am still young I just hope they didn’t hurt me long term. I would be devastated if I could not carry a child for Zayn.

“And ...we can practice as much as we want” He turns my head to the side towards him and kisses me breaking me free of my thoughts and filling me with thoughts of him.

Zayn

Hope’s wolf is a Starrk wolf. It’s no wonder she’s so strong. Starrk wolves are descendants of the Moon Goddess. Every Starrk wolf is an alpha and thought to be the most powerful werewolves in the world. I need to know how Edward fvck knew this and why his delusional son wanted her as a mate. He said he killed his destined mate for her. Sick son of a bh! The thing that worries me is the idea of some other mother fvcker that would try and take her away from me in hopes of gaining strength. A Starrk wolf is known to bring ultimate power to it’s mate and pack. I cleared my mind of the nasty thoughts after what I saw her do today I know I don’t have to worry about her too much.

After a few long and torturing minutes on my part I felt her relax, her nakedness has been driving me mad. She was so calm and distressed that she almost fall asleep in the water. My poor baby was exhausted. I got out wrapping a towel around my waist then I held out my hands for her. She took them and stood up all wet and gorgeous. I let my eyes scan her body making my cock hard as fvck. But this wasn’t the time. She’s tired and I can feel how hurt she is about losing our first baby.

I watch her slip on her robe then dry her hair. The way she moves around is so elegant no wonder she’s a fvcking*g Moon Goddess descendant. I should have seen it before.

“Baby when can we have our wedding?”

“Whenever you want” She said smiling at me through our mirror.

“I want now” I said looking back at her in all seriousness

“Well a prom is like a wedding” She said

“Oh fvck no! I’m not going to a high school senior prom and neither are you”
She puts her hands on her hips and glares at me

“Oh yes we are if you think I’m missing prom your nuts” She says as she gets in bed. I wanted to tell her to watch it but she looked too cute and feisty and all mine.

“I am nuts” I said pulling her closer to me “I’m nuts about you” I leaned down and kissed her wanting a little taste of her warm mouth before I let her sleep.

My Mate Chapter 78 - Tips

Hope

I woke up early my heart beating fast I felt like I was crying in my sleep. I had a haunting dream of a baby boy sitting at the edge of a well calling out to me. It felt so real. I tried to reach him before he fell down but I couldn’t save him. I wish that bh Stephanie had never told me about the baby. Then again she told me so that I would feel the pain I’m feeling now.

Zayn must have felt my miserable mood this morning because he tightens his grip on me in his sleep and frowns. I slid closer to him snuggling up to his warm torso. We have been through a lot together and we’ve come a long way. As for me I don’t let him intimidate me anymore. I’ve gotten used to his possessive nature and wouldn’t change a thing about him well maybe I’d like him to lighten up just a bit but he’s everything I want; he’s powerful and strong with a touch of silk.

When I first started to get to know him he was a lot more controlling even though he’s still over bearing I know it’s his way of protecting me. I smile to myself and lean into him a little more.

Wake him up Jenna sighs

No he looks too peaceful..... My Alpha I say in my head

He’s so handsome I reached up carefully not to wake him up and ran my hand through his hair then down his muscled arm. He’s sinfully delicious I trail my eyes and fingers slowly down his chest to his abs. Watching him sleep wakes up all my senses and my arousal. Suddenly he opens his eyes I move my hand away feeling shy for some reason, like he caught me getting turned on just by watching him.

"I'm sorry I woke you go back to sleep" I say biting my bottom lip I wrapped my arm around his waist enjoying the warm electrical skin on skin feeling, his eyes burning with fire for me.

"Not a chance" He says bringing his hand to the nape of my neck and my mouth to his. He kisses me slowly and lovingly at first devouring my mouth with his warm tongue gently and teasingly. I was completely naked, ready and wet for him. I took his hand and almost shoved it between my legs desperate for him to end my torture the way he only knew how.

He growls then uses his fingers to rub ever so lightly down the middle of my core. His kiss turns feverish as both of us hungrily explore each other's mouth. He moved down to my neck I tilted my head to the side giving him more access as his lips attack my mark forcing me to moan out his name over and over again. His fingers are rubbing slow soft circles at my clit I lift my bottom up wanting more friction but he pushes me down.

He removes his hand from between my thighs and brings his fingers to his mouth tasting my juices. Our eyes meet and even though watching him lick my juices off his fingers was the most erotic thing I'd ever seen, I only saw love in his eyes. He positioned himself between my legs then leaned down to the valley of my breasts.

Zayn

Her body is my temple, she's my heaven and I'd be damned if I can't have her in every way possible. I'm so thankful to have such a unique enchanting mate and she's sexy as hell without even trying. Living with such an innocent goddess was constant torture for my dick.

My hands roam all over her body then up to her tits I cup and softly squeeze them elevating my sex drive. Her curves, the sun kissed color of her skin and those fucking green eyes that drove me insane when I fucked her turned me into a crazed animal. I pinned her under me she tried bringing her arms around my shoulders but I needed to be in full control right now so I lift both her hands over her head and hold them down tight with one hand. She tries to break loose but she's not stronger than me. I don't give in to her so she lets out the sexiest growl.

I drag my eyes slowly and shamelessly down her body. Her eyes are heated and she's panting. I use my free hand to trace around her n!pples then watch them go hard and pinkish as I rub over them lightly. I growled before I attacked her n!pples, s.ucking and k!ssing her ts was the sweetest way to begin our love making. She always made the sweetest sounds for me when I s.ucked at her ts making me rock hard. I can feel how much she wants me right now she's breathing hard and her eyes are telling me she's ready, But like always I wanted to hear her say it. And I, well I always want her.

"What do you want Hope?" I ask her in between s.ucking one t!t and moving to the other

"You"

"That's my wolf" I say s.ucking harder

Her mouth watering scent emitting from her warm body sent me into a frenzy! I have her right where I want her squirming under me. She throws her head back into the pillow and arches her back as I pinch and roll her n!pples between my fingers she lets out the se.xiest cry of pleasure.

I need to taste her now. I go down lower kneeling between her legs. She's n.aked and we.t for me. I start k!ssing and l!cking her inner th!gh all the way up to her p.ussy. She shivers and lets out a m0an when my tongue reaches in between her folds and I s.uck her cl!t.

"Zayn" She whimpers

"Relax baby let me take care of you I want to worship you and your body" I say in between wide hard l!cks to her tight little p.ussy her hands are gripping our sheets then she sits up on her elbows and watches me eat her out like she's my last meal.

"You like watching me eat your p.ussy don't you?"

"Yes I do" She answered shyly

I use my thumb to rub her cl!t and start to speed up my l!cking and s.ucking. I grab her t!t with my other hand and gently squeeze. I keep going until her body tenses then I stop and move back on top of her. She wraps her arms around me and smiles at me with a dazed look on her face she brings my mouth down to hers and runs her fingers through my hair. With that I stroked my c0ck a couple times before sliding my c0ck all the way into her at once. She let out a breathless cry as I pulled out and slammed into her again and again I kept going. The feeling of our bodies hitting against each other is fvcking*g driving me crazy.

“You’re so beautiful like this” I told her honestly I thrust harder making her body arch up with each m0an she let out. I knelt between her legs again and pulled her towards me placing her legs over my shoulders and fvckingd into her deeper and faster than before hitting her gsp0t with each thrust. Her eyes are looking down at where our bodies are connected and my eyes are on her. I feel her org*asm inching closer when she arches her back and throws her head back again with a loud sob of my name. I keep fvcking*g her tight we.t p.ussy wanting to prolong her pleasure until I feel fire travel down my spine and straight to my d!ck as I grunt out her name and unload inside her. I keep moving for a little while longer then pull out and lay down next to her taking her into my arms. I held her close running my hand through her hair until she fell asleep.

Hope

I stayed silent panting and holding on to him feeling so relaxed and sleepy as he ran his long fingers trough my hair. I start to feel like I’m going to drift off to sleep when Zayn spoke

“Sleep baby it’s still early let’s get some more sleep” His voice was tired

When I woke up again a little later, Zayn was still asleep. We were both still completely n.aked with only a thin sheet covering us. Images of him thrusting into me relentlessly over and over gave me goose bumps and I felt like waking him up again. But I needed to get this day started. I managed to slip out of bed without waking him. And took a shower, got dressed then went downstairs to check on the injured warriors. I ran into my father on his way to the hospital too so went together. The warriors had already been discharged which meant they had healed.

“Dad, what do you know about Starrk werewolves?” I asked him as we walked back from the hospital.

“Starrk wolves are originated from of the Moon Goddess herself they are considered Alphas” He paused as we reached our the pack house “They are strong and have unique abilities. A Starrk wolf increases a packs strength and power so they are generally considered a sacred form of werewolf but are rarely ever recognizable other than unusual speed and strength until their wolf confirms it.” He explained

I was already an alpha Luna but actually learning that my wolf was an alpha made me proud. It’s not everyday someone finds out they are descendants of the Moon Goddess. Hopefully it is not a scary issue that might trigger major problems with other packs.

My Mate Chapter 79 - Tips

Zayn

I woke up to an empty bed and empty shower but her scent was strong so she must have left only a few minutes ago. She gets up early and leaves everyday no matter how long I keep her up the night before. Maybe I can try tying her down in her sleep that way she won’t be able to leave my side. Then again I’d like to tie her down for other purposes. Images of Hope tied down and sprawled on our bed invade my mind and shower I turn the hot water off leaving the water cold just to calm down my raging boner. fvck.

Baby where are you? I ask through our mind link

Good morning to you too She replies with a giggle

Good morning come up here and shower with me

I already showered I’m actually thinking of calling Emily to see if she’d like to meet up for lunch.

Well then come up here and take care of my boner it’s your fault he’s up then call Emily

She giggles only making it worse, damn temptress.

And how is it my fault? She’s laughing I love hearing her laugh

I’m glad you find this amusing it’s your fault because I can’t stop thinking about you! now get up here.

You can’t talk to me like that I’m an Alpha too She’s laughing so hard and I love it

Okay get your alpha a.ss up here I growl at her

I believe you have a Beta to choose Alpha I'll see you later my love

fvcking*g hell Hope

The last thing I hear is her laughter before she ends our link oh she will pay.

I get out of the cold and lonely shower get dressed and head down to my office. I mind link Both Matt and Kyle to meet me after training then turned on my laptop and started going through the files I had to go over before setting up a meeting with our shareholders. I also needed to find out how Edward's son knew that Hope's wolf was a Starrk wolf when nobody else did. Suddenly the sweetest feminine scent of lavender and sweet citrus hits me and starts to calm me down.

I heard the door open and my baby walked in with an omega carrying a tray of food while she carried in my coffee. She's all I need in this world.

"Good morning Alpha" The omega said and put the tray down on the table by the couch.

"Good morning thank you" I replied my eyes on the temptress with my coffee. The omega bows her head and walks out

"Hey" Hope walks over to me "How was your shower?" She asks smirking at me. Oh the things I'm going to do to you I think to myself as I lean back in my seat. She wearing grey yoga pants with matching shirt and sneakers.

"It was cold" I say taking the cup of coffee from her hand and placing it down in front of me then pulling her on my lap. She wraps her arms around my shoulders and tilts her head to the side

"You know baby I might have to punish you later for not listening to me" She laughs at me I cup her face and k!ss her

"How much longer are you going to t0rture me with this?" I asked her

"I have no idea what you're talking about" She smiles like the enchantress she is. She has me under her spell.

"I hate waking up and not finding you next to me" I run my hand up her leg

"I'm sorry but I have things to do" She looks at me with her puppy eyes

"Plus I promised Matt and Kyle I'd help them in training today"

"No I don't want you doing that" I'm dead serious Hope in yoga pants training with the warriors hell no

"You don't want me doing that??" She questioned me raising her brows at me.

"Yes I don't want you doing that" I repeated just before Matt and Kyle knock and walk in

"Are we interrupting something?" Kyle smiled. I barked out yes while Hope said no and got off my lap. She probably was going to go stand by Kyle so I pulled her down

"You need to eat" She told me and gets up

"Good morning guys he has to eat. Have you guys had breakfast?" She says and filling my plate

"Yeah but I'll eat anything you put in my plate" Kyle flirts with her trying to piss me off and doing a good job

"Kyle one of these day I swear.."

"Here you go" Hope puts my breakfast in front of me then leans down giving me a quick kiss

"You know if he decides to beat the sh!t out of you one of these days I won't stop him" Matt tells Kyle making my baby giggle. I know they both like her a lot I saw how sad they were when she was taken. But still I want all her attention. She gets more food for my brothers and leaves us alone to commence our meeting.

"I'll send someone later to take the tray back" She said before walking out of the office. I want her to stay by my side.

"Where are you going?" I asked her like the sap I am for this girl

"I have a few things I need to do at home" I loved hearing her call her place with me home.

I talked to both my brothers about the Beta position and I told them that they are both equally qualified. I have no problem in hiring them both as Betas this one of the biggest packs and we had a lot going on every day so it was common for some of the larger packs to have two Betas. But Matt declined the position which didn't surprise me. He's happy being Zeta and lead warrior. He has his warriors and pack members to train he also had war plans to devise when needed and sometimes on the spot.

When Matt went back to work Kyle stayed behind. I explained a few things to him like the fact that we hadn't become the most powerful, feared and rich pack from rolling over and taking crap from anyone. I have fought hard for where we are today. Father was Alpha but I was doing all his work since I turned eighteen. In fact, I insisted on it. It took him a few years to trust me and I had to prove time and time again that I could handle the stress and responsibilities, by twenty two I was taking care of our businesses in the city and abroad as well. Kyle would have a lot on his plate from now on but I knew he could handle it.

Right after I made the announcement to the whole pack that the new Beta was Kyle Brain came in and congratulated him. Brian Ward is a very well know man around the country and within the werewolf world. Dad trusts him with his life. Kyle had big shoes to fill. Brian offered any kind of assistance Kyle might need until he got the hang of things. I put Kyle to work right away setting up an alpha meeting and I wanted to get started searching for answers about Edward's son and the Starrk Wolf abilities.

"I'd like to talk to you and Hope if you have the time" Brian said

"Yes of course" I mind linked Hope to come to my office. and she came right away. She kissed her father and sat across from him on the couch I got up from around the desk and sat down next to her.

"Is everything okay" My baby asked

"Yes princess I wanted to talk to you both about an old prophecy." He takes a deep breath "We all know that Selene the Moon Goddess is found to be associated with the origin of werewolves. She is the daughter of the Titans Hyperion and Theia. Her sister is the sun god Helios and Eos, goddess of the dawn. There's an old prophecy that says that every one hundred years a Starrk wolf is born with amazing powers." He looks at Hope and I pull her into me. "And that the Starrk Wolf would be a descendant of the Moon Goddess"

“What kind of powers?” She asks her father

“Strength and the tolerance to pain are two, speed also and the rest are abilities unique only to the Starrk wolf that are unnoticeable until the wolf decides to put them to use.” He smiles at his beautiful daughter I can tell how proud he is. And I’m whipped. I’ve been under her spell since the first day I picked up her scent.

“Dad do I have any effect on my pack because it’s weird how protective I’ve been feeling lately” I looked at her in awe and pulled her close to me.

“A Starrk wolf increases a packs power thus making us even stronger than we already are. It’s like she builds an invisible wall around her pack where ever they are keeping them safe. About you feeling protective well that is because you are Luna now” Hope looks at me then back at he father

“So how was Alex able to erase my memory”

“He must have used Wolves bane in very high concentrated doses” Brian says and I run my hand through my hair. If Alex was here I’d tear him apart again and again.

“I guess that’s how I lost the baby” She said mostly to herself putting her head down. Brian looks shocked and heartbroken he came over and sat next to her on the other side. I wanted to wrap my arms around her, put her on my lap and cradle her and tell her everything would be okay but I saw pain in her father’s eyes at this revelation so I let him comfort his princess. Hope was quiet as her father hugged her she reached out for my hand for comfort. I am the luckiest son of a bh alive.

“Dad does this put me in any kind of danger?”

“Well that’s what I wanted to talk to you about” He says

“Because a Starrk Wolf is sacred being born every one hundred years some packs seeking power may try to sabotage the wolf” Hunter comes out of the dark “wolves bane is accessible to anyone unfortunately”

“Baby we are the strongest pack and we have very close ties with our allies...” She cut me off

"But he was able to kidnap me and keep me hidden for a long time." She says her voice low

"Alex" I had to take a deep breath after saying his name "Was one of us. He knew my weaknesses he knew how and where I would look for you." I turned her face to me I don't care if her father was here "I won't let anything happen to you" I tried my best to reassure her.

"I'm not scared" She said "Especially when I'm with you" I kept my arms tight around her. Brian smiled down at his daughter then left the office.

"Well that's good because I'm not going anywhere" I looked her right in the eyes. She smiled at me and put her head on my chest melting into me. My heart felt an explosion of emotions she was My Mate and she welcomed and accepted me way before she turned eighteen. I will live forever just to see her smile.

"Hope?"

"Yeah?"

"Let's set a date for our wedding right now"

"okay" She agrees making me smile like a love sick idiot

"How about this weekend?"

"Okay" She tries to get up

"Where are you going?" I ask her wanting to keep her locked away in my heart

"I have to go shopping for a dress" I take out my wallet and hand her my card

"I want to get everything for this wedding" She takes my card kisses me and walks out.

Did she just listen to me?

My Mate Chapter 80 - Tips

Hope

As soon as word spread around the pack that we were getting married in a week the whole pack house turned love sick. Love was in the air and everyone was so cheerful. The pack house had turned into one big house party. Zayn's parents and my parents have been on full hyper mode they've been planning one party or event after the other. Last night we had a BBQ for the whole pack it was great! The weather was beautiful, the music had everyone dancing and the food was scrumptious. I was happy to see Zayn all smiles. He still has that need to know where I am at all times so as I mingled with friends and pack members I felt his eyes constantly following me around.

I got to know some of our pack members on a personal level last night. I loved listening to their struggles and accomplishments. They showed interest in knowing what I had planned and I gave them some insight on a few projects I had in mind. One of which is that as soon as I got back from my honey moon I wanted to plan trips for the omegas. I felt like even though they had scheduled days off they really didn't do much at all. I also want to plan pack trips.

I enjoyed spending time with Gavin and Amy and finally asked him about my pregnancy he said he heard Stephanie and Alex talking about it. Turns out a witch had sensed my pregnancy and told Alex. I didn't want this news put a damper on my night. What happened has happened I can only move forward now. Gavin's change is slow yet evident in the past few days he's gotten stronger. Amy swears she heard him growl at her a few times which I didn't want the details for. He goes home every few days to check on his parents who think he's rented out his own place with his girlfriend. Sometimes they spend the night there then come back. Gavin has asked me about telling his parents about us but I told him it is forbidden unless Zayn allows it.

After the BBQ last night Zayn and I came back home and spent the night in the library. He was so relaxed and his scent made my body warm and fuzzy. I nestled on top of him on our couch as he read my favorite book to me. I purposely chose a big comfy couch for nights like this.

I woke up early again to the sound of a little boy calling out for his mother. When will this stop? I asked myself

Jenna sighed I'm sorry they will go away soon I promise.

Zayn was fast asleep with his arms tight around me. I slipped out of his grip and got ready for my day I put off showering until after I finished making breakfast. I know Zayn loves it when I cook for him even though he tells me not to. Honestly I love doing little things like this for him. I'm lost in my thoughts when a pair of strong hands wrap around my waist

"Good morning love"

"mmm I love when you call me that" He says kissing my neck. His raspy voice with his lips on my neck and the feeling of his hard manhood against me sends shivers throughout my body. He squeezes my ass making me jump and pull my shirt down. I'm only in a T-shirt and panties

"Zayn stop.. no more fooling around until our wedding night" I say with very little confidence. "Our wedding is the day after tomorrow I'm sure you can wait" I'm still turned around and he's running his hands all over my body. The s* tension between us is intense this morning.

He stops his distractions "Is that what we've been doing ..fooling around?" He asks with a smirk on his gorgeous face bedhead and all. I shake my head lightly at him

"Because it seemed to me like we've been fvcking*g" He says in all seriousness

"Oh my Goddess you're unbelievable!" I feel my face heat up he chuckles

"Baby I have done everything I want with your body and you're still shy?" I smack his arm

"Go sit down at the table Alpha so you can eat" Goddess he's so intense.

"Okay" He says and lifts me up making me squeal he walks over towards the kitchen table

"Zayn put me down you're ruining my surprise breakfast" I say

"You said sit down at the table so I can eat and that's what I'm doing" He says trying to sound innocent. He sits me down on the table and slips my panties off expertly then cups my face his eyes are full of desire and heat. I lose myself in his kiss as our tongues hungrily explore each other's mouths he slides his hands down to the hem of my shirt and lifts it up and above my head breaking our heated kiss.

“Zayn” I say panting

“I want you” He says kissing my neck while groping my breasts and softly rubbing my nipples driving me crazy with need

“I want you too” I say breathless my body begging for release.

“I know you do you can’t stay away from me till our wedding night either” He lays me back gently and goes down kneeling in between my legs. Without warning he growls and roughly licks my opening making me scream out in pleasure. I need more. He licks and sucks and every time I would lift up for more pressure he would push me down. Goosebumps flush all over my body and I feel myself shiver. In between licks he says the filthiest things to me driving me mad

“I can’t wait to fuck this tight little pussy of yours”

“You want that don’t you?” Oh Goddess “You want my cock to fill you?” I can’t find the words to answer him and I know he wants me to answer him.

“Yes” it comes out more like a moan I lift myself up on my elbows and watch him.

“I need you to cum first” He brings his finger to my clit and starts rubbing gently then speeds up his tongue and finger while he reaches up his free hand and grips my breast rubbing at my nipple. The feeling is too much he keeps eating me out until I scream out his name and orgasm hard but he doesn’t stop until I drop back on the table my breathing heavy. He stands up between my legs

“I’m going to give you the fucking of your life baby” He says and slides into me with one hard thrust. He keeps pounding in and out in and out then he grips my hips and pushes me closer to the edge of the table he’s pounding hard and punishing and just delicious! Everywhere our skin touches lights up with tingles.

“I’m going to make you mine in every way” He grunts out I can tell he’s close He takes my hand in his and laces our fingers together his other hand is gripping my hip. Then he drags my hand in his down to my core and pushes it down lightly on my clit. His eyes are watching mine drowning me in his love. With his fingers on top of mine he uses my hand to bring me over the edge again and I throw my head back and arch my back up he keeps pounding into me mercilessly a few more times then pulls out and empties on my lower stomach.

Without saying anything he lifts me up again I wrap my legs around his waist and he walks to the shower. When he puts me down to stand on my two wobbly feet I look up at him

“Okay tomorrow no more fooling around and this time I’m serious” He laughs

“Sure baby”

After our shower and our breakfast we finally head down I’m immediately raided by Carrie, a pregnant Mandy and the girls

“Sorry Alpha we need her for a while” April says. He smiles at me

“Where are you guys going?” He asks her

“To my house”

“Have fun baby” He kisses my head and walks away to his office

“Hope how lucky are you that your mate loves you so much?” Cara says

“What don’t be silly all mates love that way” I say. We are in April and Eric’s room and the girls are going a bit nuts with the gifts they surprised me with.

“I miss Emily” I say I wish she was with us

“You’ll see her tonight at your bachelorette party” Amy jumps up and down. I had a feeling they were planning something.

“No clubs!” I warn Amy she rolls her eyes at me

“Axel is also taking Alpha Zayn out for his bachelor party” Skylar says.

“Well that’s good it would make me feel better knowing he’s out too I wish we could have both bachelor and bachelorette party together”

“Oh no way this is our night” Carrie says

I spend most of the day with the girls hanging out like we used to we even put on our suits and go out by the pool. Mom and Zayn's mom are sitting outside they look busy. I walk over to them when my mom calls me over and we go over the menu for the wedding again.

"Hello ladies" I hear Zayn's deep voice say I didn't even notice he walked over. I'm reminded of the first time I saw him out here. I was in a bikini and he was in a suit. Our mothers were sitting at the same table too.

"Hey" I say smiling at him and walking into his open arms as if we hadn't seen one another in forever when we were together just this morning. But that's just Zayn and I.

"Excuse us ladies I need to see my fiance for a bit" he says to our moms then walks me away with his hand behind my back.

"Hold on I have to get my things" I walk over to the girls put on my shorts and T-shirt and agreed to meet at nine, they still haven't told me where we are going.

"I heard you have a bachelor party tonight" He rolls his eyes

"Yeah that's why I came to find you" He looks lost like he doesn't want to go out without me. The ruthless Alpha Zayn Back lost without his mate by his side. Who would have guessed.

"You'll have fun we are going out too"

"We?" He asks

"Yes the girls also have a bachelorette party planned for me" He looks at me intently but remains quiet instead he kisses my forehead and we walk home.

When It's time to get ready I hear a knock at the door so I go to open it because Zayn is taking phone calls in the library. As soon as I open I'm attacked by an excited Emily.

"Oh my Goddess Emily I missed you so much"

"You didn't think I'd let you get ready for your bachelorette party alone did you?" I still have her in a bear hug

"Is Axel with you?"

“Yeah he’s with dad down stairs” she says “He’s here for Zayn’s party” Just then Zayn walks over he greets his sister then leaves us to go see Axel. Emily and I get ready in my room I called the girls up too. Soon I had a bedroom filled with all my friends, It felt just like old times.

“Mandy you look so cute in that maternity dress” I say to her she is glowing.

“Yeah let’s hope Matt doesn’t think it’s too short” She says rolling her eyes

I wore a deep purple strapless dress not too short so Zayn wouldn’t freak with black heels. My hair was down and I wore a little bit of make up. I was finished and ready to go but I didn’t want to go out without Zayn. Memories of the night I was taken still haunt me.

The girls took their things to their rooms and I made my way down to find Zayn first before we left.

“There you are” Zayn was in the living room with Axel, Matt and Kyle having a drink. Kyle whistles when I come in and Zayn smacks his head and walks over to me

“Hi guys” Zayn puts his arm around my waist the guys get up to find their mates before we all left.

“Baby why did you wear a dress?” Zayn asks when we’re alone

“Why not?” I ask “don’t you like it?” I ask

“I love it that’s the problem..it’s too tight and short” He says

“No it’s not it’s one of the longer dresses I have”

“You’re taking bodyguards”

“As many as you want I don’t want you to worry” I say and kiss his cheek. He keeps my hand tight in his.

“Please don’t worry we have warriors and bodyguards with us” I hate seeing him troubled like this

The guys finally let us go but not before Axel forces Emily to tell them where they were taking me. Those two are so cute together.

“A club?” I hear Jason growl out at Skylar. It takes another ten minutes to calm down Jason before we leave.

“Baby please be careful and don’t be late” This is my first time out since I was kidnapped it’s only normal Zayn would feel a bit anxious.

“Don’t worry have fun tonight” I tell him “but not too much fun” I warn him. He cups my face and kisses me softly before we each head out and go separate ways.

I have two warriors in the Hummer I’m in with Emily and Skylar and we head out for the night .
