

My Mate Bonus Chapter - Tips

Zayn

I got in the back seat next to her finally glad to have her all to myself. She was looking back at her parents, I felt her excitement and love for me but there was also sadness there. I took her hand in both of mine.

“Baby they’re not going anywhere and I don’t want you think that things have to change. Nothing’s going to change you can still see your parents every day and we can sleep at their house as often as you want” She looked at me with those emerald green eyes

“I love you” She said

“I love you too” I kissed her hand.

“Ready Alpha?” Our driver asked. I was more than ready.

“Yes straight to the airport” I answered and he drove us away slowly, the young pack members ran after our car waving goodbye to us. Hope smiled and waved to them.

“We’re going straight to the airport?” She asked me sounding a little confused

“Yeah or did you want to stay the night here and fly tomorrow morning?”

“I don’t want to walk through the airport in a wedding gown, I should have changed”

“We’ll go through the private hangar that leads straight to our jet; it’s separate from the commercial terminal

There was no way I was letting her take off that dress I will be taking it off her later.

She lays her head on my shoulder. Hunter has been acting like a horny dog since I laid eyes on her tonight. It’s hard controlling him when he misses her and I could hear Jenna’s purring and almost panting a mile away. Sometimes I think Jenna is just a se.x crazed as Hunter is. And I love it!

I ran my hand up her arm leaving goose bumps in my wake she looks down then up at me her eyes hungry

“Don’t look at me like that right now” I whisper

“Like what?” She asks with an innocent smile. Oh two can play that game

“Like you want me to eat your p.ussy out right here”

“Oh my Goddess” She whispered and hit me.

Doesn’t she already know I have no manners when it comes to her body? I asked myself. Goddamn I should have taken the limo, there’s a barrier between the driver and the back seat so I could have laid her on the seat and had my way with her. I reached down to her ankle and sn.aked my hand slowly up her dress all the way up to her th!gh until I reached her lacy garter. fvck.

“You’re k!lling me” I said my voice thick. I l!cked my bottom l!p and ran my fingers along and under the lacy piece.

“It’s tradition for a bride to wear a garter at her wedding” She says k!ssing my cheek like she doesn’t know what she’s doing to me right now.

“Is it?” I asked as I move my hand further up her th!gh and ran a single finger along her panties then moved my hand before things got too heated. She nodded looking at me seductively biting down on her bottom l!p.

When we finally reach the airport the s****l tension between us was maddening. I had to make sweet love to my wife and soon. I lead her out the car, through an underground hangar, exclusively for private jet owners, and onto the jet.

As soon as she gets on she plane she slips off her heels and carries them to the bedroom. I carried our bags in behind her. She stood in front of the mirror and started undoing her veil. I wrapped my arms around her from the back and k!ssed her shoulder “Here let me help you with that” I managed to take out a few pins trying not to hurt her and soon it came off.

“I’m going to talk to the pilot before takeoff, I’ll be right back”

“Hurry back” She said when I got to the door. I turned around and took one look at her then stomped back in and cupped her face stealing a quick passionate k!ss.

“I hope you’re not tired baby”

“No I’m not”

“Good because I’m going to make love to you again and again.” I winked at her and left the room.

Hope

It had been a long day and the bed looked inviting but there was no way I could fall sleep on my wedding night. Zayn had a promise to keep and waiting till we reach our destination just wouldn’t do. While waiting for Zayn I took out my phone and messaged Emily. She always makes me laugh.

“Where’s Zayn” She asked

“He went to talk to the pilot...I don’t even know where he’s taking me”

“Bora Bora” Emily told me “You guys never used the gift I got Zayn for his birthday”

“Emily those reservations are old” I told her “But it’s going to be great just the two of us for a while.”

I was still talking to Emily when Zayn wrapped his arms wrap around me from the back. I shivered when he moved my hair over to the side and started k!ssing my neck. He slid his hands ever so slowly down by sides then up my front cupping my b.reasts. I tilted my head back against his c.hest trying to focus on what Emily was saying but his hands were too mesmerizing to focus on anything but the way he’s making me feel right now. He dipped his long fingers inside the top of my dress making me squirm under his touch.

“Emily I’ll call you when we get there okay?” I said trying to sound normal. I was way too turned on to wait for an answer. I tossed the phone on the couch and turned to face him. He let out a low chuckle before claiming me in a way only he can.

Our k!ss was slow and passionate, he snakes his hand around me as his fingers find the zipper of my dress. Everywhere his hands touch I feel my body light up with pleasant tingles.

“Do you know how beautiful you look in this dress? So innocent and pure” he said as he k!ssed along my jaw and down to my neck. He unzipped my dress taking his sweet time then brought his hands to my shoulders and took a step back his eyes trailing over my body. He hooked his fingers in the lacy material and slid my wedding gown down to my feet.

Zayn

She stood there before me in a white lingerie set with her hand on her h!p.

“Do you like it?” She asked knowing that she’s pulling at the last bit of control I had left.

“Yes I like it. Is this all for me baby?” I growled trying to prolong the gorgeous scene in front of me.

She took a step closer and started undoing my shirt then she paused

“Undress” She ordered. I had already taken off my jacket so I unb.uttoned my shirt she then slid her hands up my c.hest to my shoulders and slid the material off me, her eyes dark, her stance fvcking*g hot! I reached out for her wa!st but she moved my hand away and shook her head no. The fvck?

“I said und.ress” her eyes move down to my raging e.rection. Okay so she wants control why not I’ll let her be my vixen for now. I took off the rest of my clothes leaving me in my underwear. She closed the distance between us wrapping her hands around my neck and brings me down for a heated k!ss. Her hands were all over my upper body as our tongues fought for dominance. I pulled back a little “Baby what’s gotten into you?” I love this side of her. Electric shocks run through my body driving me insane with l.ust.

“Nothing I want you” with that she pushed me on the bed, I mean literally pushed me and climbed onto me straddling my wa!st. Holy fvck if she continued this little power trip of hers, I might finish before we start. I reached up to cup her t**s but she took both my hands in hers and pinned them down to my side and started s.ucking, k!ssing and l!cking my neck while grinding down on my now dripping c0ck.

Now this little temptress is strong but she's not as strong as me but I still remain at her mercy and let her have her way with me. She sits up again I watch her closely hands to myself while she slides my boxer briefs off. She smiles looking down like she's just won a prize. She adjusts herself on top on my c0ck without riding me. She moves her panties to the side and slides herself up and down on my d!ck. She slithers and slides her we.t p.ussy on me making me growl out at her. She can sense my frustration with her teasing so she stands up on the bed looking down at me and she starts taking off her panties.

I sit up and grab her hand "No, those are mine to take off" I growled out at her hungrily. I have her under me in a split second. My little c0ck tease is giggling trying to get out from under me.

"Enough I'm the one in control baby"

"I want control for once please" She responds in a whiny se.xy as fvck voice. Hunter's growling for control, he is dying to come out and mount her. I let go of her arms grinning down at her. She fl!ps us over straddling me again. My little baby wants control I can give her some for a little longer. She slides down between my legs and grips my d!ck

"Tell me what you want baby" She says mimicking me but turning me on so fvcking*g bad.

"Suck my d!ck" I stress on each word while looking her right in the eyes.

"Hmmm" She hums e.rotically while stroking my c0ck up and down slowly "That's not nice". fvcking*g temptress.

"Ask nicer and I might give you what you want"

I glare at her "Baby please fvcking*g s.uck my d!ck" I sound sarcastic but emphasize each word again. She doesn't push her luck any further instead she giggles

"That's better" she says and takes me into her mouth. Her warm tongue sliding up and down my c0ck while she s.ucks the soul right out of me. I lift up on my elbows to watch her, she looks like an angel gone bad in that white lingerie set with my big c0ck in her mouth. Her eyes pinned on me. I feel the burning sensation tingling down my spine as she s.ucks me moving up and down at a slow teasing pace.

I grabbed her chin trying to gain some of my shot to hell control back “Done teasing baby?” I asked

“No baby” She responded. fvck.

“Too bad” I fl!p her over and pin her under me tearing her panties off her. I spread her legs wide open and dive in.

She was screaming in no time. I l!cked her hard focusing on her cl!t then used my hands to spread her p.ussy l!ps apart and eat her out like there’s no tomorrow. I t0rtured her until she screamed out my name and came all over my tongue. Delicious. I rubbed over her cl!t to prolong her org*asm until she was spent.

“What’s wrong baby?” I asked coming up to her. Her beautiful face held a dazed look. She’s too relaxed to answer me

“I thought you wanted control baby” I said as I griped my c0ck at her opening and slipped into her with one hard thrust.

Hope

I couldn’t focus on anything he was saying. He entered me all at once then pulled out again only to slam back in. He was really giving it to me this time! I should frustrate him more often in the future.

He kept pounding into me over and over again with his eyes glued on mine. I let my hands roam all over his arms shoulders and back then ran my fingers through his hair. He came down

“I love you” He said before taking my l!ps into his hot mouth. He thrust faster and his k!ss almost sloppy, I knew he was close. Our tongues slid against each other as his e.rection stretched my walls.

He got up on his knees “I want you from behind” So I got up on my hands and knees and moved my hair over to one side. He went in deep this way I almost collapsed at the feeling as he took me like this. Every time he pounded in our skin touched and electric tingles shot right through me. He reached up my back and unclasped my b.ra. Leaving me completely n.aked. When we were both close, he stopped. Oh this was far from over...

He laid down, I quickly straddled him and slid down his hard aching boner. I supported my hands on his legs arching back as I went up and down his shaft. "You look so beautiful like this" He said and sat up cupping my b.reasts. He s.ucked on one of my n!pples and rubbed the other. Then switching. The feeling was excruciating I m0aned and m0aned and rode him faster until I climaxed all over him. When I reached my org*asm he started pounding up into me to prolong my pleasure never letting go of my sensitive b.reasts, only to lay me down again as he nestled in between my legs on his knees. He gripped me by the h!ps and pulled me up to him and took me all over again. He entered me hard and fast over and over again until he gr0aned out "fvck" I felt him twitch inside me as he emptied his s.emen deep inside my walls. He kept thrusting until he finally dropped down next to me pulling me onto his c.hest.

"I'm sorry if I hurt you, you're just so irresistible"

"No, I liked it" I said honestly with my head on his c.hest. He lifted my head up and k!ssed me

"You were great baby"

We stayed in each other's arms a while longer talking about everything and anything. Then we took a shower together and needless to say I had my fun again and again.

I wished we could always be in this little world of ours away from everything else because for some unexplainable reason I had a feeling that things wouldn't be this blissful for too long. I pray to the Moon Goddess that I am wrong.

"What's wrong?" Zayn asked me. He had just gone into the kitchen and brought us some snacks. I was drying my hair.

"Nothing" I smiled at him "just hungry"

"Baby tell me I can feel you're hiding something"

I put down the hair dryer and walked over to him. He sat on the edge of the bed with me in between his legs

“Tell me” He demanded softly

“I have a bad feeling I just don’t know what or about who” I admitted. He hugged me around the waist and rubbed my back

“Shhhh” he said “we are fine baby and we always will be”

“You are My Mate and my wife.” He said softly making my heart melt I started to relax and smiled at him.

“You have given me hope baby, I am nothing without you!”

“You are, My Mate My Hope.”
