

My Mates 464

Chapter 464-Collecting His Luna Queen.

I couldn't even break the kiss. My hand was now tightly wrapped around Theo's shaft as the two stood behind us.

It was as if I didn't want to move a muscle or turn around to look at them. I was not embarrassed, just a little shy.

"What is going on here?" Lazlo, after a minute's pause and the realization that I was frozen to my spot, complained. Theo pulled away from me but smiled when I shyly hid my face in his chest.

"I was teaching her how to use the tool used for drilling," Theo responded sarcastically to Lazlo, who let out a grunt.

I finally got my sh*t together and turned around to watch both Lazlo and Maynard looking away from us. The sight might be traumatizing to them.

"I will go dress up quickly," Theo whispered from behind me and planted a kiss on my shoulder before putting the towel on his shoulder and striding away to the bathroom, naked.

Once he had escaped their sights, Lazlo and Maynard turned to face me.

"What was all that?" Lazlo asked, his eyes reeking of anger and jealousy.

"I was having a good time with my mate." I rolled my eyes, not looking guilty.

"Don't you feel like you did something wrong?" Maynard inquired, making me smile sarcastically when I found him jealous.
