

My Rebirth 161

Chapter 161

In the hospital, the Yates family was in an uproar.

Benjamin fainted again.

The doctor said that he couldn't risk fainting again. Even if he woke up. again, he would have hemiplegia.

His children were worried sick and waiting outside the emergency room anxiously.

Miranda also came at this time. She hid in the hotel these days and didn't dare to go home until Leonardo called her over.

She felt kind of lucky that Benjamin wouldn't divorce her in that condition!

"Leo, what's going on?" Her worried look made Leonardo unable to refuse her.

"Dad fainted again. The doctor is racing to save his life. I'm afraid he will not wake up in a short time!" Leonardo replied, closing his eyes helplessly.

Benjamin was in grave danger. The Yates family didn't know what to do now.

Miranda could barely stand when she heard the news.

She thought, 'Benjamin couldn't wake up in a short time. What does that mean? Could it be that he could never come out of a coma? What the hell am I gonna do now? What about Lisa?'

While they were waiting anxiously, Yohannes came in a hurry!

“Leo, something happened to Ray. Come on over here!”

“What?” Leonardo was shocked.

Ray hadn’t shown up for several days!

Jasper asked before everyone else could react, “What happened to him?”

“H—He broke his hands again!” Yohannes replied, feeling a little desperate. Ray was supposed to be fully recovered and in high spirits!

Why did he end up like this?

Why did he break his hands again?

“I’ll go and check him out with you!” Leonardo said.

“I want to go, too!” Jasper echoed.

At last, Leonardo and Jasper went to see Raymond.

However, Benjamin still needed someone to take care of him.

Therefore, Frederick, Matthew, and Miranda were left to wait there!

Raymond had just been moved to the ward from the emergency room.

“What the hell is going on?”

Why did Raymond’s face also get hurt in addition to his hands?

What the hell was he doing these days?

“Ray hasn’t been home in a long time since he fell out with Mom in the hospital. Four hours earlier, someone from his boxing club called me!” Yohannes replied, glancing at his watch and estimating the time.

“What did the person say?” Leonardo asked, looking sullen. Yohannes didn’t know what he was thinking.

“He told me that Ray had been requesting to fight in matches every day lately. He also had a match this morning, but he suddenly fell to the ground when he was on the field two minutes later,” Yohannes replied. He became very anxious. It was not easy for Raymond’s hands to recover.

They had nothing to offer Faye to cure Raymond’s hands again.

“Let’s talk about it when he wakes up!” Leonardo said vaguely.

Jasper examined Raymond quickly!

Two hours later, Raymond woke up from his coma.

He felt a sharp pain in his hands and his face!

He was hospitalized again!

Were his hands disabled?

“Ray, you’re awake. I’ll call the doctor over!” Yohannes said excitedly!

Leonardo also came over and asked with concern, “How are you feeling now? Are you feeling better?”

Raymond smiled bitterly. “Leo, do I still have a chance to recover my hands?”

Faye used to tell him not to box again, especially those violent sports.

even

However, he didn’t listen to her. He boxed in a match for a week!

Now, his chickens had come home to roost!

“Ray, don’t worry. You will get well!”

Leonardo helped to elevate the head of Raymond’s bed.

“Seriously? Will I get well? Will Dad and Mom want me to get well?” Raymond sneered.

Leonardo was stunned for a moment. It seemed that Raymond had been deeply hurt by what happened previously!

“What nonsense are you talking about? Of course, Mom and Dad want you to get well,” he replied.

“If they want me to get well, why don’t they pay for my medicine and have

Dr. Quirke treat my hands? However, they are willing to pay 7 billion dollars for Yulissa. Is this how they wish me well? Raymond said sarcastically.

He thought, I'm their biological son, but Yulissa is just their adopted daughter. Why do they treat her much better than me?

"Ray, the Yates family doesn't have too much money now!" Leonardo explained.

It was the truth. Even if they combined everyone's money in the Yates family, they couldn't scrape together 400 million dollars.

Not to mention that their father fainted again!

It was a very tough situation!

"Leo, you don't have to explain. Of course, I understand!" Raymond said, turning his head away from Leo.

Yohannes brought a doctor to check on Raymond!

"Don't think about anything, just rest, the doctor said.

It meant that they could do nothing to help treat Raymond's hands.

Raymond closed his eyes in despair!

"Yohan, can you take me to Cassandra?" he asked.

He thought, 'Maybe only Cassandra can help him now!'

"But the doctor asked you to rest!" Yohannes replied.

Raymond threw a tantrum. He didn't want to rest, let alone lie on the bed!

As long as he calmed down, he could remember that his hands were disabled!

The only way was to find Cassandra and ask for her help!

Yohannes couldn't win with Raymond, so he had no choice but to take him to Whitecrane Hall.

Because Leonardo told them that Cassandra was about to leave when they arrived.

At Whitecrane Hall, Cassandra refused them mercilessly. "It's useless for you to come to me. You didn't follow the doctor's advice and broke your hands again. And now you wanna seek treatment again? In your dreams!"

As expected, Raymond wouldn't do what the doctor told him and give up on boxing.

Especially after what his parents did to him.

But Cassandra didn't expect him to be able to endure the pain for so many days!

"Cassandra, please help me if you have a way to let Dr. Quirke treat my hands!" Raymond begged desperately.

He would rather beg Cassandra than his parents, so he would get an answer directly!

"There's nothing I can do!" Cassandra replied.

"That's impossible. Don't you know Dr. Quirke? Please ask her to treat me again!"

Raymond was a little anxious. He didn't want to be disabled forever.

It would be a fatal blow to him!

"Right. I'm Dr. Quirke, but don't you understand my rules? There are so many people who come for treatment that I would do nothing else if I agreed with them all! Since you want to see Dr. Quirke, how much consultation fee are you willing to pay?" Cassandra asked.

How could she treat a useless person?

Not to mention that she did not entirely heal Raymond's hands back then.

Since she did it on purpose, how could he treat him again?

It was his wishful thinking!

Raymond's face became even paler now!

He didn't have much money. Even if he had, it was only 40 million dollars. How would he pay Dr. Quirke?

"Can I...

"No way!" Cassandra interrupted him quickly.

She would never agree.

"Cassandra, are you going to let me disable? Don't you have a guilty conscience?" Raymond asked angrily. He didn't get why nobody wanted to help him.

Now you want to talk with me about conscience? Do you people of the Yates family even have a conscience?" Cassandra snorted. "Do you want to know why your hands broke again so quickly?"

Chapter 162

Raymond was dumbfounded. He wondered if there was a story there.

Looking at his expression, Cassandra felt overjoyed. "With one treatment, your hands could be cured. It did not have to take a month. I asked the doctor to extend your therapy. I know you would continue to box or race cars. Although your hands are cured after a month of treatment, they will break again if you continue to box. Nobody could save your hands by then."

Such a cruel fact was a fatal blow to Raymond!

He didn't expect that Cassandra would not want to help him sincerely but trick him into believing that his hands were healed and that he could continue to be a boxer.

It turned out to be her revenge!

"Why did you do this to me? Why are you so vicious?" Raymond roared, bursting into tears. He couldn't accept that she was so cruel to him!

Cassandra snorted and looked at Raymond gloatingly. "Why? Raymond, what did you do to me when I was living under the same roof with you? Didn't you want to stand up for Yulissa? What? You don't allow me to vent my anger when you want something from me? If I didn't need the shares. you and Yohannes own, do you think I want to talk to you?"

Raymond kept stepping back, realizing that Cassandra was using him.

"Actually, I'm not that cruel. As long as you give up boxing or racing the car, your hands are fine. However, you insist on boxing. Hugo must have told you the consequences. so don't blame us for what happened to you!"

Cassandra called Scarlett over and asked her to drive him out!

Raymond looked like a walking corpse! Scarlett called the security guards over and dragged him out.

His hands were once again disabled and unable to recover.

He became disabled.

Yohannes couldn't accept the fact. He also didn't expect Cassandra to be so cruel. There was nothing they could do now.

"Ray, let's go back. Cassandra is not the only one in this world who can find Dr. Quirke!" Yohannes comforted him, but he wasn't confident at all.

He didn't know who else could find Dr. Quirke so easily and convince him to treat Ray's hands.

As far as he was concerned, he didn't know who was capable of doing so.

So Raymond's hands were disabled?

Raymond shook off Yohannes' hands and slumped to the ground!

"Yohan, if I had been nicer to Cassandra in the past, would she not hate me so much and help me?" Raymond asked, looking at Yohannes earnestly and expectantly. He wished Yohannes could say something to comfort him.

However, Yohannes was speechless. He didn't know how to comfort Raymond!

Because he was in no place to say such words. He had regretted it for a long time, but it couldn't make Cassandra forgive him.

Just as Raymond said just now, if they had been nicer to her before, she might not have refused to help Raymond.

But there was no ifs in the world!

Who knew?

If he had known it earlier, he would have cherished Cassandra. However, there was no going back or Time Machine.

“Ray, don’t think too much. Let’s go back to the hospital. You still have some tests to run,” he said.

“What tests? There’s no cure for my hands. It won’t make any difference even if I run more tests, Raymond sneered.

If it worked, he would be willing to do as many tests as necessary to help his hands recover.

But it was futile!

Kenneth walked up to Cassandra. She looked so aloof now. His heart ached for her.

“Raymond has already left. If you don’t feel assured, I will have someone to send him abroad or kill him. In that case, he will never show up in front of you,” he said.

He was willing to do anything to make Cassandra happier.

“Please don’t. The Yates family hasn’t gone bankrupt yet. How can Raymond miss that? Miranda is still pulling strings to get Yulissa out of prison. Guess if Raymond, Yohannes, and Benjamin would allow her to live in peace once she is released from prison?” Cassandra replied.

Yulissa’s sentence was imperative!

However, she wouldn't stop Yulissa from being released on parole!

The prison was too good for Yulissa! That was not her intent.

Yulissa was in jail, so she had no idea what had happened to the Yates family so far.

Therefore, she would go back to the Yates residence after coming out of jail. In that case, Benjamin wouldn't let her off when he woke up.

It was her fault that Raymond's hands were disabled.

Given her understanding of Raymond, he would also blame Yulissa for that!

There would be a good show then!

Kenneth immediately understood what Cassandra was thinking. "Do you want them to fight each other?"

If she remembered correctly, Yulissa would be sentenced tomorrow. Although her biological father was pulling strings for her, she couldn't get away with it given the evidence and the pressure from the authority,

Yulissa couldn't get away with her crime!

But it didn't mean that she would rot in jail.

After she came out of jail, it would be the beginning of her nightmare!

The other Yates family members wouldn't let her go easily.

It hurt their feelings when they learned that Yulissa was Miranda's illegitimate daughter.

How could they still treat her like before?

"I don't need to do anything. Isn't it good to sit by and watch the fun?"

Cassandra raised her eyebrows slightly.

Kenneth couldn't help laughing. Cassandra was still a little wicked, but she was super cute!

Indeed, watching the fun without doing anything was the happiest.

The beloved siblings began to turn against each other.

Instead of sticking to the topic with Kenneth, Cassandra switched gears and brought up the experimental drugs out of the blue.

"It worked well. Thank you, Dr. Quirke."

After doubting Dr. Quirke's identity in his mind, he deliberately said that to Cassandra..

Although he still had doubts, he felt that it should be pretty close.

Cassandra smiled. "Not at all. Dr. Quirke is also paid to do things."

Kenneth was stunned.

"What? Is Dr. Quirke also short of money?"

If so, he had nothing but money.

He was happy to let Faye spend them.

“Will anyone blame themselves for having more mor

The herbs Dr.

Quirke uses are all the best, so the cost is naturally expensive,” Cassandra explained.

Therefore, it was natural for her to charge a high consultation fee.

Kenneth nodded in agreement.

The two telegraph plants he auctioned for Kayden cost 600 million dollars, let alone the other herbs.

In that case, the consultation fee of Dr. Quirke was not expensive at all!

****

“That’s true. The cost of medicine is high. No matter how expensive the consultation fee is, someone will be willing to pay for it,” Kenneth said.

Cassandra was speechless.

She couldn’t understand what Kenneth was thinking.

If the consultation fee was too high, Faye Quirke's reputation would be ruined.

Chapter 163

Kenneth's drugs completed clinical trials and were put into production. They were only provided for the Falcon Special Operations Force.

Kenneth chose Whitecrane Hall as his supplier.

He guessed that Cassandra was Faye Quirke, so Whitecrane Hall was hers. In that case, he needed to let Cass earn his money.

There was one more thing. Yulissa was sentenced to eight years in prison and compensated Cassandra with 900 thousand dollars. Gavin was sentenced to eight months in prison as a result of Cassandra's forgiveness. After being released from prison, he was required to volunteer in an orphanage and a nursing home for a year.

Yulissa was not happy with the decision and planned to appeal.

But her appeal was denied.

Besides, she still needed to pay compensation. However, nobody appeared in court except for her mother Miranda.

She wondered if all her brothers didn't want to see her again.

Were they mad at her?

She didn't understand for a moment.

Yulissa was put in prison. She needed to put on a uniform and wait to be allocated to a cell!

However, Miranda went to see her as soon as she got in.

In the meeting room, Yulissa became excited when she saw Miranda. “Mom, why didn’t you help me? Why did I still get sentenced to prison? Are you going to give up on me?”

She thought, ‘Didn’t she go to see Cassandra to settle out of court? Didn’t she pull some strings for me? But why was I still sentenced to prison for eight years?’”

She would be 26 years old when she was released from prison. She would be no longer young at that time. Then my life would be meaningless. It’s all Miranda’s fault! Why didn’t she bring her daughter under control? Why didn’t she seek justice for me? I don’t wanna go to jail!’ Yulissa roared in her mind.

“Lisa, it’s my fault. I will find a way to get you out of prison. Don’t worry. I have already figured it out,” Miranda whispered. Although no one was watching them, cameras were everywhere, and someone was listening in on their talk.

Therefore, she had to whisper in a low voice.

Yulissa’s eyes lit up!

Seriously?

“Really, Mom? How long do I have to wait? I can’t stand being in jail for a day!”

She was on the verge of breaking down. Since the SAT was over, she had been locked up for a long time!

She wanted to attend Juset University. What should she do?

“Be patient and wait for a while. It’ll be soon!” Miranda tried to comfort

Yulissa.

She would make it up to her daughter in the future!

“Mom, where are my brothers? Why don’t they come to see me? Are they still angry with me?”

Yulissa finally asked the question in her mind. She had been in jail for so long, and none of her brothers came to see her. What on earth happened?

“Of course not. Your father has been in poor health recently, and they are busy taking care of him. Don’t think too much. They are waiting for you to go home!” Miranda replied.

She decided not to tell Yulissa about what had happened to their family for fear of making her sad.

She decided to find a chance to tell her who her biological father was when she was released from jail.

Her biological father was now extremely powerful and capable of providing her with a comfortable life.

Obviously, Yulissa didn’t believe it. Even if her father was unwell and needed to be cared for, he wouldn’t require so many people to look after him that they all had no time to see her.

It seemed that they didn’t treat her as their sister.

“Really? Mom, why do I always feel that my brothers are angry with me? When you come to see me next time, can you bring them with you?” Yulissa said.

She could only feel relieved when she saw them.

She didn't allow her brothers to love anyone else.

Her daughter was so sensible. Miranda's heart ached for her. "Okay, I will come to see you with your brothers next time, Lisa. Don't think too much about it, okay?"

"Okay, thank you, Mom!" Yulissa smiled happily.

Cassandra ate watermelon at home and had nothing to do for the entire afternoon.

It was rare for her to enjoy such a relaxing day.

However, it did not last long. The tranquillity of the afternoon was interrupted by the ringtone.

"Hello, Ms. Jenkins!"

It was Liam Hawke, her agent.

"What's up?" Cassandra asked.

"Hello, Life decided to re-select candidates and began filming the day after tomorrow. Do you have time to join in the show?" Liam asked in a humble tone.

A big shot was usually moody. What if she refused to participate in the show? That would be a huge loss for him.

It was not easy for him to get in touch with Samantha. She couldn't quit just because she was unhappy, right?

"The day after tomorrow?" Cassandra asked, frowning. Why couldn't he let her take a day off?

The Yates family attempted to invite world-renowned doctors to treat Benjamin and Raymond. They probably were running out of money!

Miranda even spent her pocket money to pay for Yulissa's compensation!

The moment she received the money, she donated it.

She had planned to watch the Yates family squander all of their money. She also wanted to sit and watch them fight once Yulissa was released from prison.

And now she was asked to participate in a show?

"Yes. Are you not available at that time?" Liam asked, disappointed.

"Of course not. Send me the address. I'll go by myself," Cassandra replied.

"Okay," Liam responded quickly. He felt like their two-minute talk lasted much longer than two hours!!

She didn't know what kind of person Cassandra was. Was she also as cold and aloof as in front of the camera?

Cassandra continued spooning watermelon after the phone call ended

She felt a little unhappy for a moment.

She mashed all the watermelons into juice. She frowned slightly and felt even more annoyed!

She threw the watermelon on the table and went outside the wor

She didn't go far. She wanted to meet Kenneth next door. However, she changed her mind when she walked to his door.

Today was a weekday. Kenneth was not supposed to be at home. He must have gone to the company.

So what should she do now?

Cassandra went home dejectedly, thinking that it was not bad to record a show. At least she didn't have to be idle at home.

However, it didn't take long before Kenneth and Kayden came to her.

Kayden sized at Cassandra up and down this time.

Cassandra was irritated by his scrutinizing gaze. "Mr. Yates, if you don't withdraw your gaze, I won't mind cutting out your eyes."

Kayden was speechless.

It was indeed disrespectful to gaze at her like that.

Kayden sat down, ignoring Kenneth's murderous gaze.

"Well, I asked around and found out my uncle had been missing for almost 19 years. But it is said that his wife was pregnant before he disappeared. If the child is still alive, it seems to be about your age.

However, there were no twins or illegitimate twins in the Yates family tree, thus I am unable to explain it. However, my grandpa showed me a photo of my uncle and his wife. I think they look quite similar to you," he added.

However, he didn't take the photo with him, not to mention to take a

"Do you have any photos of them?" Cassandra asked curiously. She wondered what they looked like, and Kayden felt she was similar to them.

Kayden was silent.

Kenneth rolled his eyes. "Forget it. He didn't take the photo with him."

He had never seen such a stupid person before.

Chapter 164

Cassandra was rendered speechless.

She thought, "Isn't Kayden the deputy leader of the Falcon Special Operations Force? How unreliable he is! Shouldn't he reflexively take a photo of it?"

"Forget it. So many people look alike in the world. Maybe it's just a coincidence," Cassandra said.

She didn't feel the urge to find her birth parents. It wasn't important to her anymore.

"Alright. You can look at them when I show the photo to you next time," Kayden said.

He came here today to tell Cassandra that there were no twins in the Yates family.

Cassandra was a little irritated. There were no twins or genetic mutations. in the Yates family. But why was she related to Benjamin by blood?

Wasn't his illegitimate daughter dead?

Benjamin had loved money as much as he loved life. He always felt that women approached him for his money. Therefore, he didn't dare to fool around. Logically speaking, he might only have an illegitimate daughter who was dead.

So, which part of their paternity test went wrong?

"Okay, let's talk about it later."

Cassandra kept frowning. Seeing this, Kenneth felt sorry for her.

"Don't think about this for now. Let's talk about it later," Kenneth said.

His heart ached for Cassandra. If it was so complicated to identify her birth parents, he would rather she didn't know about it so she could feel more at ease.

He could tell she was annoyed.

It was unnecessary at all.

But that wouldn't matter. He could play with Cassandra in a few days.

Two days later, Cassandra pulled her suitcase to the shooting site again.

This time, the production team chose Holon City to film the show. It was a fairyland with beautiful scenery.

It was said that they found new investors this time. With more money, the production team naturally chose a good place to film the show.

Amelia and Thomas were already there when Cassandra arrived, believing that the team would be established on a first-come, first-served basis this time.

They wanted to team up with Samantha, so they came early. Given Samantha's personality, she would be the next to arrive.

All they needed to do was to wait.

As expected, Samantha was the third to arrive.

As soon as Cassandra appeared in front of everyone, Amelia threw herself into her arms excitedly!

"Long time no see, Samantha! I miss you so much!"

She refused to let Cassandra go and even rubbed her face against hers.

This made Cassandra want to throw her away. Amelia's enthusiasm was more than she could stand.

Unlike Amelia, Thomas was very stable. He walked slowly to Cassandra and greeted her with a smile.
"Samantha, long time no see!"

Cassandra freed herself from Amelia's embrace.

She could finally breathe.

However, they were on the air.

[Why do I think Ms. Jenkins is scared by Amelia's enthusiasm? lol.]

[Me, too! Ms. Jenkins is scared!]

[Samantha: Mom, there's someone strange here!]

[Don't you know Samantha? Even if she dies, she won't joke with her mother because the Yates family doesn't deserve it!]

[Yes, the Yates family doesn't deserve to be her family. We're her family!]

[Samantha is always cold. She isn't used to being so close to others.]

[What the hell? Amelia greeted her so warmly, but she still disliked her. Who the hell does she think she is?]

[I think Thomi is cute. He says hi like a kid. But he's older than Samantha.]

However, Amelia didn't care. She and her idol were women anyway. She could say hi to her in any way.

At that time, Riley stepped forward and greeted her. "Long time no see, Samantha. I heard that you did very well on SAT."

"You know what? She's the SAT topper. I admire her so much," Amelia said, showing off her idol as the host mentioned this topic.

Riley was a little surprised. Although he knew that Samantha was a straight-A student, he didn't expect her to get such a good score.

"Really? You're the SAT topper, Samantha?" he asked.

He remembered the SAT topper's family name was Yates.

He suddenly remembered that the production team had gotten used to calling her Samantha. He had forgotten that Samantha's real name was Cassandra Yates.

Of course, she was the SAT topper this year.

"Yeah, Samantha's real name is Cassandra Yates. You can find it out easily," Amelia replied.

The more she was excited, the more she thought about it. If she were eight years younger, she would apply for an SAT with her idol together.

Perhaps she could be a schoolmate with Cassandra.

[What? Samantha's the freak who got an almost perfect SAT score?]

[What a surprise! Many new fans don't know Samantha and Cassandra are the same person.]

[I really don't know. I'm going to cry my heart out!]

[There's no need to cry. Your idol is a straight-A student. Shouldn't you be happy?]

[I want to cry because my mother has been comparing me to Samantha and blaming me for my low score for about half a month!]

[I understand. When I saw her score, I called her a freak in front of my parents. She just beat me up for that.]

[I have replaced the academic tycoons on the wall at home with beautiful photos of Samantha. I even screenshotted her SAT score, printed it, and pasted it on my desk. My mother rewarded me with a big meal.]

[Good for you!]

[To be honest, Ms. Jenkins is the most educated in the entertainment industry.]

[You can't compare them. Samantha is a songwriter, so she must have good literary talent. There's nothing strange about it!]

Cassandra was a little helpless. Amelia was so enthusiastic that she had no idea how to deal with her.

Later, the fourth and fifth participants also arrived,

They were an actor and actress. Alan ran a thorough background check on them. He confirmed their identities and ensured that they had no criminal history before signing them.

However, the last participant was running late,

Riley smiled awkwardly and explained, "Ladies and gentlemen, the last participant was late in setting out because he had something urgent business at work. He is stuck in a traffic jam now."

Hearing this, Luna and Jayce were a little unhappy.

They wondered who the hell he was to make everyone else wait.

Cassandra didn't mind it. It was understandable since he had something urgent business to deal with at work.

Everything was fine except for the hot weather.

A customized Maybach stopped in front of them soon. The driver hurriedly got out of the car, took out the suitcase from the trunk, and put it aside.

He respectfully opened the back seat door. A man dressed in a suit and nearly six feet and 3 inches tall got out of the car.

Cassandra was stunned.

It was Kenneth?

What was going on?

Why did Kenneth join in the show?

Chapter 165

Everyone present was dumbfounded. When Kenneth's handsome face appeared in front of the camera, a lot of comments popped up on the screen!

[Damn it! Is he a prince?]

[I want to read a poem to appreciate his handsome face, but I don't know how to create one!]

[Wow! He's dashing! I love him!]

[The production team knows the audience very well. Did they invite such a handsome guy to join in the show? I will keep watching the show!]

[Honey, I'm your long-lost wife.]

[Do you have a death wish? How dare you to covet Kenneth!]

[What the hell? Does anyone know anything about him?]

[No. That's what I would like to know.]

[He is Kenneth Zelinski, the successor of Zelinski Group in Drieso. He's also the richest man in the world.].

[Wow! He's awesome!]

[You must be bragging. Mr. Zelinski is so busy with his work. How could he participate in the show?]

[Check the Twitter of Zelinski Group and you will know! ]

Although Amelia and Thomas knew Kenneth, they didn't expect him to join in the show.

Especially Thomas. He even felt that he was hallucinating.

The new participants were an actor and actress, who had lately gained. popularity.

The actor was Jayce while the actress was Luna.

Luna suddenly became shy.

She thought, "This man is so handsome. I wish he could be my boyfriend."

Kenneth walked up to Cassandra naturally.

"What? You don't know me?"

Kenneth took the initiative to say hi to her. He curled up his lips and looked more charming under the sunlight.

"I'm just surprised. What brings you here?" Cassandra asked.

Kenneth usually had a million things to do. Why did he suddenly have time to participate in the show?

"I just want to relax," he explained.

Cassandra was stunned.

Whatever Kenneth said was the law.

Luna felt resentful. She thought, 'Why doesn't this handsome guy say hello to me? Don't I look more beautiful than Samantha?'

When everyone was present, Riley began to divide them into groups.

This was Amelia's favorite part!

"Riley, are we still divided into two teams according to the arrival time?" she asked.

In that case, she would be on the same team as her idol.

Luna didn't see that coming. She was overjoyed that she would have a chance to team with Kenneth later.

She was confident he would be smitten with her.

The mysterious look on Riley's face made Amelia a little scared. Why did she feel that things were not that simple?

"No. We'll draw lots this time," Riley replied.

Hearing this, some people were happy while others were sad.

However, Thomas resigned to that. With Kenneth around, how could he be on the same team as his idol?

His cousin told him repeatedly to keep a distance from Samantha, otherwise, there would be serious consequences.

The production team simply scrawled the numbers 1 to 6 on paper, rolled them into small balls, and asked the participants to draw lots.

Numbers 1-3 were in one team, while numbers 4-6 belonged to another.

What a coincidence! Cassandra, Kenneth, and Amelia were on the same team.

Thomas, Jayce, and Luna belonged to the other team.

Amelia felt a little regretful that she was not on the same team as Thomas.

But it didn't matter. She would have a chance to be together later.

After that, it was time to choose a room. Two teams were arranged in two separate rooms.

Cassandra and Amelia went to choose their room. Luna was also responsible for selecting a room for her team.

After walking into the room, Luna thought there was no camera and said to Cassandra, "Ms. Jenkins, I want to switch teams with you. Is that okay?"

Cassandra was stunned. Why did she discuss it with her here? Weren't her teammates good? Both Thomas and Jayce were popular enough to attract attention.

Cassandra refused her without hesitation, "Ms. Garcia, if you want to switch teams, you should voice your opinion just now rather than talking to me in private."

"It's not a big deal. Nothing important. Please fulfill my wish," Luna said.

She felt a little unhappy. She didn't expect Samantha to refuse her directly, but Luna still smiled at her.

“You can go talk with the production team. I won’t switch teams with you in private,” Cassandra replied.

Cassandra looked at the camera beside her, indicating that there were cameras everywhere and that Luna should pay attention to what she said.

After choosing a room, Luna played coy with the production team and tried to switch teams.

Kenneth had no problem with that and even suggested, “How about regrouping? So we don’t need to draw lots.”

Riley patiently asked what to do.

“It’s very simple. I team up with Ms. Jenkins and Thomas. Luna can team up with Jayce and Amelia. Doesn’t Luna always want to be on the same team as Amelia? I can switch teams with her,” Kenneth replied.

Cassandra was stunned.

Luna was also rendered speechless.

“I don’t agree. Haven’t we already decided? Why do we switch teams again? I want to be on the same team as my idol,” Amelia said unhappily, holding Cassandra tight.

No one could try to separate her from her idol. They had got to be kidding her. They were put in the same team by drawing lots, so she was destined to team up with Cassandra!

Luna felt annoyed. That was not what she wanted.

Both the host and Alan were put in the middle. It seemed that all the viewers must have known what Luna was up to.

[Fuck! Does she have to make it so obvious? Didn't she see Kenneth disagree?]

[I'm speechless. Luna, can you stop hitting on handsome guys?]

[Luna may simply want to switch teams. Don't assume everyone is so dirty!]

[Then why didn't she discuss it with Kenneth and Amelia instead of Samantha? Can't she tell that Kenneth and Samantha know each other?]

[I think she did it on purpose. Look at the way she looks at Kenneth! I don't believe she just wanted to switch teams!]

Amelia's attitude was very clear. Alan didn't dare to offend Kenneth, so he decided to follow the rules. Nobody was allowed to switch teams.

It was rare for Kayden to rest at home today. He was sitting in the living room watching Hello, Life with a projector.

Since Kenneth met Cassandra, his eyes were filled with more emotions.

Therefore, he needed to keep an eye on Cassandra in case she was stolen. by another man.

At that time, his grandpa Maximilian went downstairs. He was about to discipline his grandson for being lazy at home all day long.

He had no idea that Kenneth had just gotten home.

When he looked up at Kayden, he also saw the projector in front of him and the people on the screen.

He caught sight of a familiar figure. 'Leanna? How is that possible? She went missing, didn't she? Why is she on the show?' he wondered.

"Kayden, who is that girl?" Maximilian asked, looking a little excited and pointing at the screen. Because it was live streaming, the images could not be paused.

Finally, the camera aimed at Cassandra again. At that time, Kayden heard Maximilian shouting, "Look, that girl! Who is she?"

Chapter 166

Kayden was startled by the sudden sound.

He thought, 'What's wrong with him? His sudden appearance scared the hell out of me and he is even shouting!'

Maximilian Yates walked to Kayden and was a little excited. He could even feel Maximilian's fingers trembling slightly!

Maximilian shouted, "Answer my question! Who is that girl just now? Do you know her?"

Kayden had never seen his grandfather so emotional.

Kayden asked uncertainly, "Just... Last time she asked me if there were twins in our family. What's the matter? Grandpa, do you know her?"

Kayden thought, 'Could Cassandra really have something to do with the Yates family?'

Maximilian was a little emotional.

He thought, 'They look so much alike... Cassandra is so similar to Leanna! But the ages don't match. Leanna should be 45 years old, and Leonardo is 52 years old. They have been missing for 19 years! Kayden and Thomas have both grown up. However, Darren, Leanna, and their children are still missing. This girl really looks like a young Leanna. Maybe she is really a child of the Yates family!'

Maximilian said, "Kayden, find a way to bring the girl to meet me."

Maximilian's attitude made Kayden a little confused.

Kayden asked, "Grandpa, don't you think she is the child of Uncle Leonardo? It's impossible. The DNA test results show that she and Benjamin are biological father and daughter. Although this result is a little suspicious, she should have nothing to do with our family."

It was not that Kayden disliked Cassandra, but Kenneth was too scary.

Kayden thought, 'If I ask Cassandra out at will. Kenneth will send me to Ouflanca on a permanent mission. If Cassandra was really the daughter of the Yates family. Who dares to compete with Kenneth? He'd kill his rival! Cassandra is destined to be Kenneth's wife. Kenneth loved her for eight years, and they must get married in the end.'

Maximilian said, "No, she has nothing to do with Benjamin. Just say that I want to see her."

Maximilian thought, 'If she was related to someone else by blood, she might not be a child of the Yates family. But if she was related to Benjamin, she would very well be a child of the Yates family! Back then...'

Kayden thought for a while and said, "Okay, I'll arrange it. But she's shooting the variety show for the next two weeks. We can only make an appointment during the break."

Maximilian waved his hand indifferently and sat down on the sofa. "You decide the time. As long as I can meet that girl!"

While he was talking, his eyes were fixed on the screen.

Maximilian thought, 'She looks so much like Leanna. How are Leonardo and Lina doing these years? Leanna's identity is very mysterious and hard to guess. Leonardo followed her all over the world and suddenly disappeared. Their baby disappeared too...

In the shooting place, the host said, "You're all on your own from now on. This time, there are no supplies at the beginning. Good luck."

After saying that, the host left.

The director said in a voice-over, "Hello, everyone. Let's welcome new members to join us. This time, as always, we have to rely on our hands to work. Now in July, we can help farmers pick crops and fruits. In the next half month, what you can eat depends on your efforts. Come on!"

Amelia and Thomas were speechless.

They thought at the same time, 'We have to work to get food. But if there is no food after hard work, what should we do?

Thomas was a little panicked at this time. At least for now, he felt that Luna and Jayce didn't seem to be good at cooking

Thomas shouted in his heart, 'What's the fun of this show?

Cassandra was calm because it wasn't a problem for her.

Cassandra looked at Thomas and said nothing to him. "Amelia, Kenneth, let's go."

On her way here, she saw someone picking tomatoes. It was such a big field that she thought they could go and have a look there.

Mostly, Cassandra wanted to eat tomatoes.

Amelia was lively and beautiful. She strode and took Cassandra's hand. "Samantha, where are we going?"

Kenneth's brows twitched, and he wanted to set Amelia and Cassandra apart.

He thought, 'Amelia is holding Cass' hand! I haven't had such a chance!'

Soon they went to the field of tomatoes and watched the three people. picking tomatoes in the field. Though tiring, they looked happy.

Amelia asked, "Do you need any help? Let's help you..."

Amelia was the diplomat of their team. She was responsible for greeting and making contact with strangers. Cassandra and Kenneth were just doing the hard work.

A man looked at the three of them. He knew that someone was here to shoot a show. However, he thought the three didn't seem to be able to do farm work.

The man thought, 'Don't ruin my crops, please! It's all for sale!'

Cassandra also saw the worry in the man's heart. "Don't worry, sir. I can do all these jobs. I grew up in the countryside and won't spoil the vegetables."

The farmer glanced at the three and said, "Okay, you can pick them with me. But be careful. Just pick the red ones and put the bad ones on the roots."

Then he gave them each a basket.

They had to gather lots of tomatoes and sell them, so there were many baskets prepared.

Kenneth remembered that he used to stay at Cassandra's house and go to the field with her during the day to pick up cucumbers and tomatoes to eat.

No matter how delicious the food Kenneth tasted later, it was not as sweet as the vegetables and fruits planted on that land.

Cassandra and Kenneth picked up the tomatoes quickly. Soon, they filled one basket and another, which made the farmers happy.

The man thought, "They really helped us!"

Until lunchtime, Amelia asked the old man if he could give them some vegetables and bread because they had to make lunch by themselves.

However, the old man invited them home for dinner.

"Girls and boys, let's go to my home for dinner. My wife is cooking at home. She happened to have cooked fish today. If you don't mind, you can come and eat with us!"

Cassandra glanced at Kenneth, wondering if he wanted to eat there. She walked to him and asked in a low voice, "Can you? I remember there are a lot of things you can't eat. Will there be something you can't eat..."

Kenneth felt warm in his heart. He didn't expect Cassandra to keep it in mind all the time. “It’s okay. I brought anti–allergy medicine. Maybe it won’t be necessary.”

[Wow! What’s the relationship between Samantha and this handsome guy? They are so intimate!]

[I admit that I am a little bit jealous, but to be honest, they’re a good match!]

[I have the same feeling! I think they’re like a couple.]

[Come on, don’t be foolish! It’s impossible for them to cross paths in real life. Samantha doesn’t know everybody.]

Chapter 167

[Is it me or they are really good at doing the work? They don’t seem to be acting.]

[I have the same feeling. Isn’t the show itself what we watch? Is it really necessary to bundle them?]

Cassandra and the other two people went home with the farmer. An old lady prepared steak, salad, mashed potatoes, and some dishes whose names they didn’t know.

There were four members in the farmer’s family. Plus those three, there were seven people, so the old lady cooked eight dishes, each a big portion.

They were all ordinary ingredients but retained their flavor. Amelia hadn’t eaten such simple delicacies for a long time.

Everyone, including Kenneth, was satisfied with the food. The lady warmly offered Kenneth more food.

Kayden, who was watching the TV show, was shocked.

'Is this Mr. Zelinski, the neat freak who's allergic to most food?' he wondered.

Kenneth was allergic to a lot of food. His diet had to be responsible by someone, not only in daily life but also when they were on a mission. Otherwise, it would be a deal breaker if the task could not be carried out on time because of his allergy!

But now, Kenneth was eating the farmer's food, and nothing happened.

It was just unbelievable.

When Cassandra and the others finished eating, the old lady carried three large bags over.

She enthusiastically handed the bags to Cassandra and said with a smile, "My dear, these vegetables and several kinds of meat are all from our farm. I hope you like them.

The old lady put in some beef jerky, fish, pork, and several kinds of vegetables and fruits, as well as a lot of flour.

Cassandra was a little overwhelmed. Originally, they only wanted the ingredients for one meal, but it turned out that the old lady directly gave them the ingredients for several days.

"Madam, there are too many of these. We can't finish them all."

The old lady patted her hand and said in a very kind tone, "Kid, it's not much at all. We grew them in our field, and we also raised pigs and fish. We didn't spend much money on them. But we just asked you to help us with the work for a few hours. I feel so sorry. So, take it."

Cassandra couldn't find a reason to refuse the kindness. She glanced at Kenneth in embarrassment, trying to make him stand up and say something.

She could argue with the Yates family. But facing such a simple and loving lady, it was difficult for her to refuse.

However, Kenneth stepped forward and accepted everything. "Thank you, madam."

Kenneth paused and said in a distant tone, "It's still early. Could we go pick some more?"

Although Cassandra thought it was reasonable, she rejected Kenneth's suggestion. "The best time to pick vegetables for sale is in the morning. The sun is too strong in the afternoon, and the vegetables will not stay fresh for long..."

Kenneth's face stiffened. He had never thought about such a question.

He said with some embarrassment, "Sorry, I don't know much about it."

The old lady smiled lovingly, "It's okay. It's not a big deal. Thank you for your kindness."

Amelia also scratched her head awkwardly. She didn't think about it either.

Cassandra and her friends returned home with a full load. When they got home, they saw Thomas eating simple food....

Amelia immediately showed a distressed expression, "Thomas, why are you eating such simple food?"

Thomas was rendered speechless.

"Is she gloating?" he said to himself.

He ignored Amelia and looked at Cassandra as if he was eager for food. "Samantha, what are you going to eat for lunch?"

He had asked the director just now. It was also okay to mooch food off others.

Therefore, he was looking forward to eating whatever they would cook, even if it was plain. Every dish made by his idol would be delicious.

Cassandra said playfully, “Thomas, we have already eaten. These are the ingredients for the next few days.”

After saying that, she shook the bag in her hand and pointed to something in Kenneth’s hand.

Thomas was speechless and forgot what he was supposed to do.

Thomas was shocked and felt hurt.

The comments on the screen were all about how hilarious Thomas was.

[Sorry, I can’t help it! LOL!]

[So funny. Thomas might think that he was betrayed!]

[I don’t know why, but the expression on Thomas’ face is too dumb. I like it so much!]

[Thomas might feel that he was hurting badly.]

[I bet he was hurting really bad!]

A handsome guy suddenly came out and pushed him out of Samantha’s team. Thomas was so unlucky.]

I couldn't stop laughing. Thomas is so cute.]

Amelia laughed. She felt that her idol was the same as herself.

They were all so amusing.

Cassandra also felt that it was a little too much. For some reason, she thought Thomas was quite kind. Looking at his aggrieved expression, she couldn't bear to say, "All right. Come and have dinner with us tonight. That lady sent us a lot of meat that we can eat tonight."

Thomas' eyes lit up at once!

In front of the camera, Kayden felt that her cousin was so humiliating.

He thought, 'What? Thomas was bought off with just one meal?'

Maximilian was also very disgusted and said, "Thomas is such a shameless man."

He sounded like he wished Thomas wouldn't be his grandson.

But he suddenly thought of something and patted Kayden, "Call Albert and tell him to bring Vanessa here after the shooting."

Kayden said nothing, wondering, 'Are we really not going to ask Mr. Zelinski's opinion?'

He thought that Kenneth's opinion was very important.

"Did you hear that?" This time, Maximilian patted his palm a little harder.

He thought, 'What a useless boy! I have to find a way for you.'

"Grandpa, it's not that simple. We have to ask Mr. Zelinski about this..."

Kayden told Maximilian about Kenneth and Cassandra, and his eyes were full of anger. If he had a goatee, it would be curled up.

"Cassandra is the most important person in Mr. Zelinski's heart. If you want her to come, at least let Mr. Zelinski know."

"He didn't need to know that, but it was better for him to know things. about Cassandra. It'd be good for him to try and win her over!" Kayden remarked inwardly.

However, Kayden never expected that one day he would want to go back in time and slap himself!

He thought, 'Why would I help and tell him?

The children of the Yates family don't need love!"

Maximilian snapped, "No need. If she is a child of the Yates family, do you think I will let my little princess be with him?"

He complained to himself, 'Not to mention the mess in the Zelinski family, with his secret identity, he's just like Kayden. Neither of them is cut. out to provide a peaceful life!"

Chapter 168

It was nighttime.

Thomas excitedly took his bowl and ran to Cassandra's kitchen.

It wasn't his fault. He was too hungry and no one in their group could cook.

He made soup for lunch. Many of those dishes were diet foods that his agent often gave him, so he had no choice but to eat them.

He came to such a show because he didn't want to eat diet meals anymore. Instead, he wanted to eat big chunks of meat and other fine food with his idol!

As a result, he was disillusioned.

He didn't even have the chance to reach fine food.

Fortunately, his idol felt sorry for him and asked him to have dinner with them. He mused, 'As to the rest of my team members, wish you all good. luck.'

When he came over, Cassandra was about to cook the last meal.

Four dishes and one soup, perfect.

The meat the old lady gave them was very fresh, which was the best choice for roasting.

So they had lamb chops, steaks, salad, fish, and vegetable soup.

Thomas had never felt this hungry and craving for food before.

At the same time, Luna and Jayce smelt the food.

Jayce swallowed unconsciously and thought, 'It smells good.'

'But I don't know them well. It seems inappropriate for me to have dinner with them like this.'

While he was hesitating, Luna smiled and said. "It smells so good. What did you cook, diva?*

She subconsciously thought that Amelia or one of the guys who cooked it. Anyway, it must have not been Samantha.

"What's so great about a lyricist? she thought.

Amelia rolled her eyes and looked up at Luna with an insincere smile.

"These dishes were made by my idol, not me. As for what she cooked, it's all clear on the table!"

Luna was speechless.

It was Samantha who did it. How could it be? She looked like she knew nothing about cooking!

"Then we will..."

Thomas said in a timely manner, "Samantha, can we have dinner now? I'm so hungry. These dishes are not enough for us."

He wanted to break Luna and Jayce's dream of dining with them.

Thomas thought, 'Luna is a little scheming. She has been looking at Mr. Zelinski all the time, and she must be up to no good.

'No. I have to stop her.

The food was not enough to eat indeed.

Jayce didn't bother himself and left directly. Luna fixed her eyes on Kenneth and found that he totally ignored her, so she turned around and left angrily.

[What's going on? Are they going to isolate others?]

[No way, no way. Over some food?]

[Samantha doesn't like Jayce and Luna, right? But they are the most popular idols, don't they deserve some respect?]

[They are here to join the program, not to compete with others. Shouldn't newcomers be more respectful to seniors?]

[Go to hell, Samantha. Why did you treat Luna like that? How much can a person eat? Why don't you invite her to dinner?]

[Hey, watch your mouth! This is a show and there are groups. Thomas can bum dinner off because they have become close since last time. Don't curse people to death. Didn't your family teach you how to behave?]

[Yeah, it's not their duty to invite them two to eat. Why should you force something that you can't do on my idol?]

After a meal. Thomas was finally satisfied.

At the end of the day, he finally had a full meal.

Thomas sighed inwardly. Today's work has been completed, and I didn't expect Samantha to make some bread!'

The old lady gave them some flour. Cassandra used it to make some bread.

She made 60 loaves of bread and gave Thomas 25 loaves.

“Take some and put them in your kitchen. Those would cover you for a few days.”

This dinner tonight was a little offensive to Luna and Jayce. Although she didn't care about it at all, Amelia and Thomas still needed the attention of this circle.

Therefore, it was better not to happen in the future because it was hard to explain.

Thomas was about to cry with gratitude.

[Wow! This is so touching. There's so much bread, and I saw that

Samantha gave Thomas some meat.]

[I saw it too. It's so nice of Samantha. I'm touched.]

[Obviously, Thomas didn't expect that at all. You can tell it from his reaction. Samantha is so nice.]

[At this time, I have to scold the Yates family. What a good girl! How dare you reject her? Asshole!]

[You're being too polite. If it were me, I would say that your family is trash. You don't deserve my idol!
Get out of here!]

[There are so many breads. Is Samantha going to let Thomas take the buns for the two boys?]

“Samantha, you’ve given me too much...”

‘Who am I to deserve so much?’ he exclaimed in his heart.

“Have you forgotten that you have two team members? I guess they didn’t eat much at night. Put some in the kitchen and share some for new members.”

The phones were returned to them at night. As soon as Thomas put down the bread, he heard the phone ring.

“Kayden, what’s wrong?”

At this time, the camera had been turned off.

After answering the phone, Thomas couldn’t accept such a fact.

What he heard was that Cassandra might be the child of the Yates family. He thought, “Then she would be our cousin!

‘It’s impossible. Can the Yates family have such an excellent child?

‘Isn’t she Benjamin’s...

‘Is there something wrong with the test?’

When he came up to Cassandra again, Kenneth was also there and they were discussing where to work the next day.

Kenneth frowned when he saw Thomas coming over, out of his mind. “What are you doing here?”

“Samantha, my grandfather wants to see you. Would you like to go?”

Cassandra paused and didn't quite understand what Thomas meant.

Thomas seemed to realize that he was a little abrupt. “Here's the thing. My cousin said my grandfather was very excited after seeing you on TV today and mistaken you for someone else.

“But Grandpa said that you look like my aunt. He is a little inconvenient, so I want you to go over and see him. If he has mistaken you for someone else, let him meet you at least. My cousin and I will apologize to you then.”

Cassandra was even more confused.

“Well, who is your cousin?”

Kenneth said in a deep voice, “Kayden.”

Cassandra said, “What a small world.”

“Did he say that?” Kenneth couldn't believe it, wondering, ‘He seldom watches variety shows, so how could he see someone today?’

Thomas said, “.....Kayden is at home and watching our show.”

Kenneth rolled his eyes.

Cassandra thought for a while and nodded. “Well, I'll go with you after the recording of this program.”

Kenneth offered, “I'll go with you.”

Chapter 169

The next morning, Cassandra, Kenneth, and Amelia went to the tomato field they had been in yesterday.

They saw the old lady's family they had met yesterday picking tomatoes.

Amelia walked towards the family happily. "Hi, Grandpa, here we come again!"

She

walked towards the old man along the trail between the tomato fields. "We felt sorry for the vegetables and meat we from you yesterday, so we hurried over to help. you this morning."

The old man smiled brightly when he saw the three of them. "Okay, thank you."

The old lady on the side couldn't stand it anymore and complained to him, "That's not true. These three children helped us so much yesterday, but the vegetables and meat were only worth a few dollars. How can you let these three kids work more? That's just shameless."

Kenneth looked at the interaction between the old couple, having mixed feelings.

He thought, 'Perhaps this is the true meaning of life, plain and peaceful.

Suddenly, he was a little envious. He said to himself, 'When the right time comes, I will confess my love to Cass and be with her forever.

'As to men around her, They could be considered to be friends as long as they don't. have unreasonable desires for her.

"But...

'It could not be blamed on me. Cass probably doesn't even like me now. If she falls in love with someone else before I confess, I would be so embarrassed.

"Madam, we don't have anything else to do anyway, so let us help you. Maybe you can give us a few tomatoes then. We made some Ketchup out of the tomatoes you gave us yesterday, and it was so good."

Amelia had a sweet face that everybody liked, and she was good at socializing, which always made everyone laugh. "Okay, I'll pick more tomatoes for you later."

Kenneth silently picked tomatoes, side by side with Cassandra. Both of them almost filled a basket at the same time, and then he put it away and changed the basket.

[Wow, that's too careful, Isn't he the greatest man in the world?]

[I admit that I'm envious. Samantha, you are my enemy now whether he is yours or not!]

[It's so warm. He stayed side by side with Samantha and took the initiative to change the basket when hers was full. I have to say that I am jealous.]

[They look good together. They match each other!]

[What? My granddaughter doesn't need a man!]

[Hey, can you not call someone you don't even know your family?]

[Don't bother talking to this kind of person. He is too much. Although Samantha is liked by all ages, that is just too ridiculous!]

After a busy morning, the old lady brought several bags from somewhere and handed them enthusiastically. "This is for you. They are all from our own fields, safe and clean. Take them back. You must be exhausted."

On the other hand, "You two, leave here!"

The old man angrily kicked a boy and a girl out of the field, while Thomas tried to hide himself.

Thomas thought, 'I miss my idol a little bit, and I don't know if we can regroup a band. next time.'

It was Luna and Jayce who were driven away. Because Jayce didn't know how to pick cucumbers, he accidentally destroyed several cucumber seedlings, but Luna was purely wilted.

"This one looks fresh. Is it delicious?"

"This one is also good..."

Like this, the whole morning, she had eaten several cucumbers from the old couple's field, If there were worms on seedlings, she would stamp on them, until the seedlings were destroyed.

The old man couldn't stand it anymore, so he drove them away.

By the time of noon, he gave Thomas some ingredients because he did a good job.

The first two-week recording was finally over.

As agreed, Thomas was going to take Cassandra back to the Yates family.

Kenneth was going with them too.

Kenneth knew the whole thing from beginning to end, so it seemed reasonable for him to be there, too.

Thomas thought. It is just that... If it is confirmed that Cassandra is the child of the Yates family, Grandpa would probably faint with anger when he recalls this scene.

Cassandra followed them to the Yates family.

The moment she entered the door, Maximilian was waiting for them in the middle of the living room.

The moment he saw Cassandra, that strong feeling came back.

He exclaimed inwardly, "This must be the child of the Yates family. She is exactly the same as Leanna, even with the same expression on her face!

'She even resembles Darren between her eyes and eyebrows!"

Maximilian stood up excitedly and walked towards Cassandra step by step with a cane, "Cassandra...

Cassandra was a little confused, thinking. This doesn't mean we can be sure about it right away, right?'

She unconsciously looked at Kenneth, hoping that he could help her out. Kenneth understood and said, "Grandpa, she is Cassandra. Let's sit down first."

Only then did Maximilian come back to his senses and find himself a little rude just now.

He immediately looked away with tears in his eyes. "Yes, sit down first."

Kayden didn't understand why Grandpa was so excited. Although Cassandra was similar to the person in the photo, it couldn't prove anything.

"Maximilian, can I have a look at the photo you mentioned?"

Cassandra was mainly interested in the photo that looked like her, so she wanted to see it for herself.

Maximilian asked Kayden to take out his album and opened the last page of the photos. There was a sandwich layer, from which he took out an old photo.

Cassandra and the woman were indeed very alike.

Kenneth was also stunned. If they stood together now, he wouldn't know the difference between them.

"Who is she? And who is the man next to her?" Cassandra pointed to the woman, and after looking at the photo, she became more interested in the person.

"Her name is Leanna, my eldest daughter-in-law. The man next to her is her husband and also my elder son, Darren." Maximilian patiently introduced.

Cassandra looked solemn. She stared at the photo for a long time and suddenly raised her head. "I want to do a blood test with you."

She had a strong feeling that she was probably their child.

So, it indirectly indicated that she might be the child of the Yates family.

Maximilian was very excited. "Good kid, I've been waiting for you to say this. Somehow, I think even if without the test, I can be sure that you are the child of the Yates family."

Cassandra pulled out a few of her own hair, and Maximilian also pulled out a few of his.

He told Kayden and Kenneth to use the military medical system for identification.

Only in this way could they not be disturbed.

Kenneth said, "Don't worry. I will supervise it myself."

He didn't want there to be any more problems in this appraisal. He thought, This time. it was Cass herself who proposed to do the appraisal, which showed that she still has a little expectation for family affection.

"In that case, I hope this test could help her find her relatives."

Chapter 170

The result came out quickly, and the final answer was delivered to Kenneth within one day!

He didn't look at it but asked, "How did it go?"

"Sir, it is what you expected."

With these words, Kenneth felt a little relieved and took Cassandra to the Yates family.

Maximilian gathered all the members of the Yates family together, including Thomas, as if he had already known the result.

He called back his two sons and daughter-in-law.

Cassandra didn't expect such a big scene. She whispered to Kenneth, "Why are there so many people?"

“Maybe they are all here for the result.” Kenneth smiled.

He thought, ‘It’s good that Cass is a child of the Yates family.

“The Yates family is the most harmonious one among so many celebrity families I have known.

‘Being a child of the Yates family might make up for the loss in her heart.”

“What’s the result, Kenneth?” Maximilian couldn’t wait to ask.

“Mr. Yates, here is the result. You can check it yourself. He handed the documents in his hands to Maximilian.

It meant that he hadn’t looked at it, waiting for Maximilian to open it.

Maximilian’s hands trembled with excitement. When he took out the test report, he turned to the last page, 85, with his eyes wide open.

He flipped it open!

“The probability of blood relatives is 85%! She is my granddaughter. She really belongs to the Yates family!”

She was the child of the Yates family!

Even Kayden and Thomas’ parents were very excited.

She was Darren’s child.

It was incredible.

Maximilian was a little emotional, and he couldn't control himself.

"Cassie, you are my granddaughter, my granddaughter!"

"Pills! Give me the antihypertensive pills."

It should have been Kayden's mother shouting. Maximilian was a little emotional and his blood pressure soared.

He felt better with blood pressure pills.

"Grandpa, don't get too excited. Ms. Yates won't run away."

"Pah-

"Bastard, what did you call her? Ms. Yates? She is your cousin!" It was Kayden's mother, an elegant woman.

Kayden was speechless.

He wasn't successful at changing the title for Cassandra.

The world was a drama.

"Cassie, I'm sorry. Grandpa found you so late and made you suffer so much." Maximilian took Cassandra's hand and kept apologizing.

It was the first time Cassandra had seen such emotions and feelings. She didn't know how to describe what she felt.

She only knew that she was fine with his behavior.

"Grandpa... Don't get excited. I still have questions, and I hope you can answer them for me.

Cassandra was not immersed in the joy of finding her relatives.

She had more important things to figure out, which was very important for her.

will

"If you ask, Grandpa tell you everything." Maximilian calmed down and looked at Cassandra seriously.

"The first question is, since you and I are related by blood, why do Benjamin and I also have a biological relationship? I did the test twice in person, and so did Benjamin. The results were the same."

Maximilian knew that she would ask this question. "This is easy to explain. In the beginning, your father, Darren, saved Benjamin in a car accident. They were both very young at the time you were born.

"Your mother's identity is somewhat special. She may disappear after giving birth to you, and your father will go with her. Therefore, your father found Benjamin, hoping that he could repay the gratitude for saving his life. He wanted to accompany Leanna and run away with her, but the child must be taken care of, so your father found Benjamin.

“Your father didn’t want anything, just hoping them to swap their gene sequences in the database. Benjamin’s DNA sequence was your father’s, which was my son’s, and my son’s DNA sequence was Benjamin’s.

“That was to say, except for the identity, everything else had changed. So, the DNA tests you had done would be automatically replaced with my son’s gene when it was collected by the system. Therefore, every time you tested, you were in a father–son relationship.”

Cassandra was silent. She didn’t expect the truth to be like this.

She imagined a lot of possibilities. The DNA sequence changed, and the gene mutated. Who knew that her biological father was tampering with their genetic data?

She didn’t know whether to cry or laugh. “Then why was Benjamin so sure that I am his child?”

“Because it was all your father’s work behind this incident. No matter what it shows, the genetic conclusion is correct. But I don’t know how to explain this question and the specific details until they come back.”

Cassandra was speechless.

Maximilian didn’t know how it worked.

Cassandra pondered, ‘So, that idiot Benjamin probably didn’t know anything about it either.

‘Otherwise, he wouldn’t be so excited to see the DNA test result.’

Cassandra nodded, and Maximilian was pushed aside. Kayden’s mother, Yasmine, took Cassandra’s hand and said enthusiastically, “Cassie, I am Kayden’s mother and your aunt. From now on, I’ll see you as my daughter. Tell me what you want, and I will buy them for you.”

Another elegant woman reached the other side of Cassandra and took her other hand. "Cassie, I'm your aunt Jessica. I'm Thomas' mother. I'll treat you like my daughter from now on. I have prepared a gift for you, and I'll ask Thomas to bring it to you later."

Cassandra was caught between the two, overwhelmed for a moment.

Looking at the obedient niece, her uncles were also about to say something. After all, they had wanted a daughter for so many years but ended up with sons.

And now they had a girl, so they naturally wanted to catch up.

"Cassie, what else do you want to ask?"

"The second question. You tell me my biological parents are missing. Why did they disappear for so long? What caused a couple to abandon their daughter and disappear for 19 years?"

According to the time, she might have disappeared from the Yates family when she was pregnant. Maximilian knew all these materials sent by his biological father.

"When your mom was pregnant, your parents had already left Drieso. We don't know where exactly. After you were born, your father wanted us to pick you up and raise you. but he took your mother away before we could arrive.

"He exchanged genetic data with Benjamin just to protect himself and your mother. from being found, but he didn't expect that because of these, you have suffered for so many years."

Cassandra snorted coldly and thought, 'Such a statement is too far-fetched.

"There must be some secrets that Maximilian didn't know.

'Since they're missing, not dead, there's a chance they might still be alive.

“My mother... What kind of person is she?”

“She is very elegant and noble, more honorable than a royal princess or queen. The Yates family got lucky that they had her.”
