

My Rebirth 201

Chapter 201

Cassandra said, "I'm having a cake with Amelia."

She had to admit that the cake brought by Amelia was so delicious that she even wanted

"Then you go to dinner after eating cakes with her. If it's difficult to solve the problem, I can do it for you." Kenneth was worried about Cassandra.

None of the comments on the Internet were favorable to Cassandra. There were all abusive comments about her.

Kenneth was already in a state of extreme anger. He wanted to solve it directly, but he felt that it was necessary to let Cassandra know about this matter. He thought, 'If I interfere too much in her affairs, will she disgust me?'

That's why he made the call. Unexpectedly, he was turned down like this.

However, Cassandra was not a coward. If She had said that she could handle something well, she would definitely handle it.

"Don't worry, I will deal with it after dinner. Then Cassandra hung up the phone.

Cassandra felt weird. As long as she ignored such a trivial matter, it would be fine after a while.

However, she said she would deal with it directly because she didn't want Kenneth to misunderstand her.

Cassandra thought, 'It would be bad if Kenneth misunderstood me. I'd better solve the rumors as soon as possible. Those paparazzi are really crazy to spread an affair between Thomas and me!

Looking at Cassandra's calm face, Amelia knew that she didn't care about the nonsense on the Internet at all. But just after a phone call, Cassandra changed her mind and said she would deal with it after dinner.

Amelia thought, 'Who has such magic to change Cassandra?'

However, as soon as they were ready to go out for dinner, Amelia checked Twitter again and found a clarification.

Amelia saw hashtags like, "Thomas's Clarification", "Thomas's relationship with Cassandra" and "Thomas's sister is also an idol".

Amelia felt that these netizens had gone crazy. She thought, "How could everything become a trending topic?'

It was not Thomas' fault. He had never had any rumors before, so the rumor this time attracted tons of attention.

Thomas posted his clarification: [About the rumors about me and Cassandra on the Internet, I sincerely apologize to Ms. Cassandra Yates for causing you trouble. Today, I found Ms. Cassandra Yates for something, but she had to go out because of something, so I volunteered to be her driver. We talked about the matter in the car, and I sent her to the destination. Unexpectedly, this scene was filmed by someone who intended to make up rumors, which caused the situation now. I have asked my team to trace the originator of the rumor and file a lawsuit against both the spreaders and the originator. Finally, firstly, I like Samantha very much. I am a fan of her. Anyone who likes me should know that. Secondly, Samantha (Cassandra) is still young and my sister. I hope you can stop spreading rumors.]

Thomas was sitting in the coffee shop thinking about Amelia's words, but he found that he was wrong.

He thought, 'Cassandra knows the Benjamins well. They are all scum. How could she accept the Yates family so easily? Besides, Amelia is right. No matter what happened at the beginning, it couldn't change the fact that Cassandra had been abandoned by her family. Well, there is nothing wrong with what Amelia said. Grandpa couldn't stand the strong effect of the medicine and fainted. But Cassandra also made up for it. And the traditional medicine practitioner said that that prescription was the most effective way to treat grandfather's disease. After taking the medicine for a period of time, there will be obvious changes in the patient's body. In this way, Grandpa got a blessing in disguise. If it is someone else, it is enough to make Grandpa wake up without going through the operations. However, Cassandra forgave us and gave us a prescription to treat Grandpa's body. As for me, though I said that it didn't matter whether she would forgive me or not. I am also forcing her, isn't it? That is no difference between me and the regretful Yates family, but my attitude is not so bad.'

Just as Thomas was thinking about it, he received a call from his agent. He hurriedly asked someone to investigate and clarify in person.

He thought, 'I can't let this kind of thing destroy my impression in the hearts of Cassandra anymore. That's really not worth it'

In the hospital, Yulissa sat beside her and checked her phone. Anyway, Benjamin wouldn't let her get close to him, and she didn't want to.

However, she still needed to pretend to be a filial daughter.

Two hours ago, Yulissa put on a show of father-daughter affection in front of the nurses and doctors. But Benjamin didn't appreciate it, which made the doctors and nurses disgruntled and they asked her to rest directly.

Yulissa sobbed faintly and said in embarrassment, "Well then. Since Dad doesn't want to see me, I will stay aside and call me whenever you need help."

Doctors and nurses were distressed to see such a "sensible and cute girl..

After they left, Yulissa stopped pretending and played with her phone. She saw the posts on Twitter.

Yulissa didn't expect Cassandra to hook

Cassandra to hook up with Thomas.

If she remembered correctly. Thomas was the young master of the Yates family. When she was a child, her family would visit the Yates family to show filial piety to the elders.

However, at some point they weren't allowed to go.

The Yates family was out of Benjamin's family's reach even when it had been a brilliant family. A hundred Benjamin's families were no match for one Yates family.

Yulissa thought, 'Cassandra knew how to find a backer for herself. She actually got help from Thomas.'

She was very jealous, especially after seeing Thomas' clarification.

She thought, "Younger sister? Dirty bitch!"

After Miranda came in, Yulissa complained to Miranda with her mobile phone, "Mom, look at Cassandra. She went too far! How could she seduce a man? She plotted against our family before. Can we let it go?"

The more she thought about it, the angrier she became. "You treat her well. She can do anything to me, but why does she drive our family to the wall? Now we cannot even go home. My brothers are missing, and we still can't get in touch with them. Isn't all this caused by her?"

Yulissa was stirring up trouble. She thought, 'Cassandra is so glamorous, but I went to jail to suffer hardships and couldn't even go to college. No school will accept a high school student with a criminal record. All the tragedy is caused by Cassandra!'

Matthew said, "Yulissa, I didn't expect that you are still so vicious. Who caused this situation? It was you, not Cassandra. You have been targeting her from the beginning, plotting against her, and making us all help you. If it weren't for the irreversible pain, how could Cassandra hate us so much? And you, the culprit, are still stirring up trouble here. You still want to encourage Mom to deal with Cassandra? Do you think our family is not unlucky enough? If you have such an idea again, go back to your prison!"

He just went out to ask a doctor about something, but Yulissa was making trouble here again.

Yulissa was stunned.

She thought, 'Damn it! Why is he back so soon?'

"Matt, I just... I didn't mean anything else. You misunderstood me." Yulissa tried to make up for what she had said.

However, it didn't work. Yulissa wouldn't listen to him at all.

Matthew said, "You know whether I have misunderstood you well."

Chapter 202

Yulissa gritted her teeth secretly.

She thought, 'What's wrong with these brothers? They are all partial to an outsider. What do they think? They were so nice to me before, but now they all dislike me. Ask for Cassandra's forgiveness? Impossible!'

Yulissa asked, "Matt, am I wrong? If it weren't for her, how could our family become like this? She also cheated us out of so much money. The billions and the shares of Yohannes and Ray were all cheated by her!"

She thought, 'And the money Mom spent to save me, which is more than 6 billion dollars, was wasted. I just got out of jail but went back after only two days! All this is caused by Cassandra! But Matthew is still defending her. Why? Why could she be so lucky? Mom told me that she lived in Springmount Townhouse, which is the nearest villa to downtown. The house price is so high, but Cassandra actually owns one. I couldn't accept it! She is just an abandoned village girl. How could she live so comfortably? She might use our money to buy the house now. BITCH!

Matthew said, "Yulissa, is it useful to sow discord now? We can see clearly what kind of person you are. How dare you call Cassandra an illegitimate daughter? Our family's current situation is due to you. If it weren't for saving you, how could Mom take out the money for our family's rebirth, and now you blame all this on Cassandra? How dare you?"

Matthew had already spoken directly. However, Yulissa didn't reflect on herself at all and still blamed Cassandra.

Yulissa's face turned pale with hatred.

She thought, "What's going on? How can he be so stubborn?"

"Matthew, how could you talk to your sister like this? Did she say something wrong? Cassandra is not a child of our family. How dare she cheat us for so much money! She's just a bitch!"

Miranda felt that Yulissa was right. The tragedy of Benjamin's family was caused by Cassandra.

Matthew found that he couldn't communicate with the two at all.

He thought, "They are really mother and daughter."

Benjamin woke up and heard them arguing. He was furious. "Get out, get out! Bastard! Bitch!"

He spoke more and more fluently, so when he saw Miranda and Yulissa, he just wanted them to get out.

If he could move, he would even beat them!

Miranda's face darkened. She thought, 'At least we have been married for almost 30 years. How could he be so ruthless!'

However, before Miranda could say anything, two policemen came into the ward. Miranda and Yulissa were so frightened that they quickly stepped back.

Yulissa thought the two men were here to take her away, so she hid behind Miranda in fear.

However, Miranda was also guilty.

She pretended to faint in court that day...

She thought, 'No, they won't find out. They must not be looking for me. They can't take Yulissa away!

Miranda asked cautiously, "Sir, what can I do for you?"

"Mrs. Miranda Yates, you are suspected of obstructing justice and evading responsibility under the pretext of illness in court. Now we have orders to formally arrest you and wait for the judgment"

The police were here to arrest Miranda.

Miranda was so frightened that her legs went weak. She wondered, 'What happened? How could they find out about it?'

Miranda asked, "Sir, is there any misunderstanding? I was really sick and fainted at that time. I woke up in the hospital."

The police said, "We've investigated it. Since you are fine now, go back with us."

The policeman was expressionless and seemed unwilling to communicate with her more.

Miranda said, "Sir, look at my husband now. My family needs me. Could you please..."

She didn't want to go in there. It must be dark and damp.

She had to follow orders and couldn't do anything at will.

The police refused, "No."

Matthew didn't say anything. Even Yulissa was not so scared anymore.

She secretly breathed a sigh of relief. She thought, Fortunately, they are not here for me. Then it doesn't matter.'

"Mat, help me. I don't want to go to jail!" Miranda was really scared. She thought, "They are serious! That bitch!"

"Mom, go with them first

I'll think of a way." Matthew didn't care at all.

It was all Miranda's own fault, and he couldn't do anything about it.

"Matthew, you've gone too far. I am your mother and you just let the police take me away!" Miranda couldn't believe her ears. How could a son say such things to his mother?

Yulissa said, "Mom, if you do something wrong, you should accept the punishment. Under the law, no one is an exception."

Miranda was surprised. She thought, 'Is this my daughter? Didn't she admit her mistake to me two days ago? Why is it like this now?'

"Lisa, you..."

Yulissa's words really hurt Miranda.

She was devoted to Yulissa, but what did she get after repeated efforts?

The first time Yulissa came out, she tricked Miranda into signing and mortgaging the Houston residence. The second time Yulissa came out, she saw that there was no money in the bank card, and pushed Miranda away. For the third time today, she wanted to send her mother to the jail.

What a good daughter she was!

Under the urging of the police, Miranda had no choice but to be taken away. She was completely desperate.

At the same time, Cassandra and Amelia were having dinner and Cassandra received a message.

[Yulissa. I've called the police as you ordered. Now they have taken her away.]

It was Benjamin's first love who sent the message.

It was Cassandra who made the investigation. She checked the ward surveillance, and the conversation between Miranda and her son was recorded clearly.

This was the solid evidence that Miranda couldn't deny.

Cassandra replied: [Well, revenge is your business. What I can do for you is to provide evidence, and the rest is up to you.]

Amelia looked at her idol's serious face and asked curiously, "What are you doing?"

She thought, 'Why does she look so serious after checking her phone?'

"Nothing." Only then did Cassandra realize that it was not appropriate to reply to messages during dinner, so she hurriedly put away her phone.

Amelia didn't ask more. She just said, "This dish is good. Have a try."

She thought, 'Cassandra is so thin. She should eat a little more and grow fat!'

Cassandra said. "Thank you."

Although there was a response from Thomas on the Internet, Cassandra felt it necessary to clarify in person.

She logged into Samantha's Twitter account.

She sent a post: [No relationship.]

Under the words, she also attached a figure, which was a lawyer's letter with the official seal of Perennial Law Group and Jonathan's warning.

Amelia received a special reminder, and she opened it.

She was speechless.

She thought, 'Nice and concise explanation! My idol is so cool!'

Cassandra hadn't sent a Twitter by Samantha's account for a long time.

Although Amelia was a little stunned, her comment must be included in the popular reviews of her idol's post.

She commented: [Support all the decisions of Samantha, believe in Samantha!]

Cassandra's post quickly became a trending topic.

Chapter 203

[Less than ten words. I have to say that it's the briefest announcement I've ever seen.]

[It's too short. She says that there's nothing between them, so it means that they're just acquaintances.]

[I knew it. I knew she was set up.]

[That's great! I got your back, Samantha!]

we'll always believe what you say. Keep going, Samantha!]

[Wait. Didn't you notice that Amelia's comment is pinned to the top?]

[Wow, Amelia is here.]

[I'm not surprised at all. She and Samantha are so close to each other.]

[Come on, it's bullshit. Yes, she's indeed talented, but there's no way she hasn't had feelings for Thomas who's from such a wealthy family.]

[I agree. No girl wouldn't want to marry into such a powerful family. She's probably lying.]

[Shut up. Y'all made me sick.]

Fans were having a debate on the internet, but it didn't bother Cassandra anymore.

She left with Amelia, and just as she was about to ask her where they were going, she heard someone say, "See you, Mr. Zelinski. Please think carefully about our cooperation."

"I'm sorry. Mr. Barnes. Your proposal is not what I expected. We can work together next time."

Kenneth refused him directly without hesitation.

He looked up and saw Cassandra at the door. He was a little surprised because he didn't expect to see her there..

Therefore, he came to her, ignoring Amelia next to her. "Did you just have lunch here, Cass?"

He took it as some kind of connection between him and her, but he seemed to forget that he was invited there. It was just a coincidence.

As for Cassandra, she came to this place just because it was highly recommended by Amelia.

"Yeah. Amelia took me here."

Amelia kept glancing at them/She could see from the show that Kenneth treated Cassandra differently and was very kind to her.

Right now, there was something sweeter in his eyes when he looked at Cassandra.

“Hi, Mr. Zelinski, Amelia greeted him warmly. However, Kenneth glanced at her and nodded slightly, saying nothing.

“Are you leaving?”

“Yeah.”

“What are you going to do this afternoon?” Kenneth asked.

It’s only noon now.

Amelia seemed to have realized thing, so she said immediately, “I have have something to do later. I’ll call you next time!”

Then she ran away.

to go, Cassandra. I

While leaving, she thought, ‘Good thing I left. Otherwise, he’ll pick on me for bothering them. What did he just call her? Cass? Sounds cheesy Cassandra was speechless. She remembered that Kenneth told her that he didn’t have much to do recently.

‘I’m going home for a nap,” Cassandra said, shrugging.

“Do you want to come with me to have a look at the Zelinski Group?” Kenneth said. After all, Cassandra had never been to where he worked.

Cassandra thought for a while. She didn’t have much to do this afternoon, so she agreed.

“Sure. Let’s go.”

Cassandra had been on her phone since she got into Kenneth’s car, so it was quiet between them.

“I heard that Yulissa was released. What are you gonna do about her?”

Cassandra put down her phone and said seriously, “There’s no turning back for her.”

She thought, Yulissa could stay safe in prison, but she insisted on coming out. Fine, she won’t be given a second chance.

“What do you mean?”

“Miranda was arrested earlier, which means that Yulissa has no one to help her anymore. What do you think she will do? A desperate person clings to her last hope.”

Cassandra sounded extremely indifferent, which reminded Kenneth of his most desperate

“Her mother is in prison now, but she still has a father.”

Kenneth understood what Cassandra was talking about immediately.

Cassandra smiled and said, “Why hasn’t Miranda taken Yulissa to her biological father? That’s because her father doesn’t accept her. He got her out of prison probably because Miranda threatened him. What do you think will happen if Yulissa suddenly asks him to take her in?”

Cassandra had already told Yulissa who her father was, and she was curious whether Yulissa would do something crazy as she expected.

When they arrived at the gate of the Zelinski Group, Kenneth got out of the car and opened the door for Cassandra gently.

He handed his car keys to the security guard and asked him to park.

“Is it the richest man’s company? It’s quite big.”

The lobby was tens of feet high, as high as a four-story shopping mall, and it was elegantly [decorated in French style.

Cassandra was impressed.

Modern Beacon Synergy was no worse. She loved shiny stuff, so she decorated the hall with crystals, which looked amazing in the light..

“Let’s go to my office.”

Kenneth took her to the private elevator. The receptionist had been lowering her head in panic, not daring to look at them.

In fact, she told other employees what she saw immediately.

[Oh my goodness. Guess what I saw just now!]

[What happened?]

Is Mr. Zelinski back?

The receptionist: [Yep. He brought a girl with him. She seems to be a teenager.]

[Maybe she's Mr. Zelinski's niece.]

[No way. I've never heard that Mr. Zelinski has siblings.]

[She's an adult. The most important thing was the way Mr. Zelinski looked at her. It was so tender!]

[You may have misread it. Mr. Zelinski never treats anyone tenderly.]

[Whatever. Mr. Zelinski is going up now and anyone in the CEO's Office pays attention to them.]

[They're here!]

The elevator door was Florence Blunt, Kenneth's secretary, and Yannick were already there.

"Good afternoon, Mr. Zelinski, Ms. Yates."

Yannick was quite happy that Cassandra was here because that meant Kenneth wouldn't pick on him.

Yannick behaved respectfully in front of Kenneth, just like the other employees of Zelinski Group.

"Get Cass a glass of juice."

"OK."

Florence stared at Yannick in surprise, wondering. What's wrong with him? Why is he suddenly so respectful? I've never seen him like that in front of Mr. Zelinski!

Anyway, she followed Yannick to the lounge. Yannick planned to make some watermelon juice with the watermelons that were sent there earlier.

He thought that a glass of ice watermelon juice in summer would make Cassandra happy.

Once she became happy, Kenneth would be pleased, and he wouldn't pick on Yannick too often.

"Who's that girl, Yannick?" Florence was so confused to see Kenneth's happy face.

She had to figure it out so she knew how she should treat Cassandra, and if she could get close to Cassandra, things might be much easier for her in this company.

Chapter 204

Yannick glanced at the door of the CEO's Office and said with a meaningful look, "Don't mess with Ms. Yates. She can save your life someday."

Florence was a little shocked.

She thought, 'Who is she? How can she save me? Is she... Oh my goodness, could she be...? How could Mr. Zelinski do this?'

"You mean..."

Yannick just winked at her and said nothing. Then he took the watermelon juice and the coffee

Florence made to the office.

“Here’s the fresh watermelon juice, Ms. Yates. Have a taste. I’ll make another one for you if you don’t like it.”

He knew that he could only live peacefully if he could please Cassandra.

Cassandra took a sip and said, “It tastes so good.”

Kenneth turned to look at Yannick, suggesting that he could get out.

Yannick got it and went out quickly.

At the same time, there was a heated discussion in the group chat because Florence told others. what she saw.

[I saw her. She looks so young, but I guess she came of age. The way Mr. Zelinski looked at her is really different]

[I wished I could see that.]

[I didn’t expect that Mr. Zelinski would be so nice to someone.]

[Yannick told me that things would be easier for us if we could please Ms. Yates.]

[Ms. Yates? Is she on the same show Mr. Zelinski is on?]

Florence hardly watched TV shows, so all she knew was that Kenneth was on a show, but she didn’t know the details. She would rather spend more time with her family instead of watching TV.

[What does she look like? I haven’t seen her.]

Florence shared a picture of Cassandra.

[That's her. She's on the same show Mr. Zelinski is on. By the way, we should keep what Yannick said in mind and try to get close to Ms. Yates.]

[If we want to stay longer in the Zelinski Group, we have to please Mr. Zelinski and the only way to do that is to please Ms. Yates, isn't it?]

[That makes sense to me.]

Holy crap! She's my favorite celebrity! Is she here? Can I see her?]

[Ms. Yates is Samantha, the woman I love the most! She's here! It's a pity I can't go to the CEO's Office to see her.]

[You're being overexcited.]

[Overexcited? Do you know that Samantha wrote all the most popular songs these years?]

[Really?]

[Just google it if you don't believe me.]

Kenneth opened the fridge next to him and took some snacks from it. He remembered that Cassandra had had those snacks once so he bought some for her.

Seeing so many snacks, Cassandra was a little surprised. She wondered why Kenneth had so many snacks in his office.

Her curious gaze made Kenneth a little embarrassed. He cleared his throat and said, 'I thought that you might come to my office someday, so I prepared them for you. They're all what you usually cat."

Cassandra's curious gaze suddenly froze, not knowing what to say.

She thought, 'He helped me unconditionally, and now he has my favorite snacks in his office. Why?'

"Why are you so kind to me, Kenneth? Are we only acquainted with each other?" Cassandra couldn't help asking. She always felt that there was something else between them.

"I'll tell you everything after I'm done with the Zelinski family, OK? You're right. We're closer than you think. You saved my life."

Kenneth didn't say much for fear that she would be involved in his family affairs if she knew the truth. The Zelinski family would hurt her if they were pushed to the edge, and he wouldn't let that happen.

Cassandra said nothing, wondering, 'When did I save him? I remembered everything. I know who I've ever saved and they're all with me, such as Jeremiah. I wouldn't forget it if I saved Kenneth before.

"You're worried that I will be in danger if I know too many things, aren't you? Cassandra understood it.

She had heard recently that Kenneth began to deal with the Zelinski family. He planned to take the elders down first. Although Tyler approved of what Kenneth did, Tyler knew that Kenneth would deal with him in the end.

Therefore, Tyler was prepared for this, and so was Harriet, who hired a killer again.

The most important thing was that the killer was coming at Cassandra.

Kenneth smiled and went straight back to his seat. "Would you like to have a tour around the office?"

"Can I? I want to visit the technology department of the Zelinski Group."

"Sure. Come with me."

Kenneth was in no mood for work since Cassandra was with him, so he called the secretary's office.

"What's wrong, Mr. Zelinski?"

"Come here."

Yannick came in immediately. Kenneth said, "Take out the documents on the desk and get them down."

Yannick was dumbfounded to hear that.

"Take them out now. You can get off work only if you finish it."

Yannick was so upset, thinking, What's wrong with him? It takes him about six hours to deal with those documents, and it will only take me longer to do that. I may not be able to finish all this work tomorrow morning.

After saying that, Kenneth went out with Cassandra. The technology department was on the floor below the CEO's Office. Because they hold core technology and company secrets, they were closest to Kenneth.

"What should we do? We've been stuck here for three days, and the system will be dead if the problems can't be solved."

“We’d better report this to Mr. Zelinski. It’s beyond the power of our department.”

“We can’t. I’ll be fired if Mr. Zelinski knows this.

Both Cassandra and Kenneth heard this, and the latter cleared his throat on purpose.

“Who is coughing? You’re distracting me... Dylan turned around and stood up in fear immediately. “Mr. Zelinski...”

“What are you talking about?” Kenneth said with a stern face.

He usually let him go when he heard such a conversation, but since Cassandra was with him, he felt a little embarrassed.

Dylan told him what happened timidly and apologized. The manager also explained everything to him to prove that they were facing a very difficult problem.

Kenneth’s face darkened. He paid millions of dollars to hire this manager, who was one of the top five hackers. Problems he found difficult must not be easily solved.

“Let me have a try.” Cassandra suddenly said. She had a look at it just now and thought that there should be more to this system than just getting a virus and being attacked.

It was possible they accidentally clicked on something else while activating the defense system. Anyway, things were not going well.

“Okay, please.

Kenneth almost forgot that Cassandra was Emery, who was the best hack in the world.

However, People in the technology department were all skeptical.

“Can you? It’s quite difficult.”

Although they didn’t believe her, they still treated her with respect since Kenneth agreed.

“You’ll see,” said Cassandra.

Dylan made way for Cassandra, who sat down and began to type quickly with her beautiful fingers.

Chapter 205

Soon, the blue screen turned black, and piles of code kept appearing on the screen.

Cassandra was typing so fast that they couldn’t see her fingers.

Five minutes later, Cassandra pressed the enter button and said with a bright smile. “It’s done.”

While everyone was amazed, she stood beside Kenneth and said, “You can check it.”

Dylan, who was anxious just now, sat down in disbelief and began to check what she had just done.

The more he looked at it, the more amazed he was.

“She did it. Not only did she fend off the hack, but she also upgraded our defenses. The system will no longer be attacked by viruses!”

Dylan became more excited and his admiration for Cassandra grew.

The manager couldn’t believe it so he checked it himself.

The next second, he was impressed. It only took her five minutes to solve what they hadn't solved in three days.

I'm so impressed!" Dylan was so excited that he wanted to kneel to Cassandra.

"It's nothing. You did the right thing, but you accidentally activated the system's timed self-destruct so it wouldn't allow you to proceed."

Dylan was a very talented programmer and he had just hit a wall.

That explains it..." No wonder nothing he did worked. It turned out that he had accidentally activated the system's timed self-destruct which caused many programs to have problems running. He had been so anxious these days that he didn't have time to think about what the problem was.

"What's your name, Miss?"

As soon as Dylan said this, he saw Kenneth glare at him. However, he just couldn't restrain his excitement

To change the subject, he turned around and looked at Kenneth. "When will this talented hacker join us, Mr. Zelinski?"

The manager echoed excitedly. "If she's willing to join us, I can step out and let her be the manager of our department."

Other people in the technology department were also impressed by what Cassandra did and urged her to join them.

Cassandra didn't know what to say.

Kenneth smiled, feeling proud of Cassandra.

He said, "Enough."

People in the technology department stopped smiling immediately, thinking, "Doesn't Mr. Zelinski want her to join our company? No. Why would he refuse such a talented person?"

"Cass is still a student and her priority is study. We'll talk about this after she graduates."

After Cassandra graduated, she might become Kenneth's wife and joined the Zelinski Group.

Everyone was surprised to hear that she was just a student.

"Is she a college student or..."

Cassandra's words made them feel ashamed of themselves. "I just graduated from high school."

Although it sounded a little surprising, she was telling the truth. She was indeed an 18-year-old girl who just graduated from high school.

Hearing this, they thought, "Were we just saved by a high school student with great talent? Are all high school students as good as her these days?"

"Alright, just keep working. Don't mind us."

Kenneth didn't like it when so many men surrounded Cassandra.

In fact, Cassandra was surprised that Kenneth, with such a bad reputation, had such a loyal group of employees. Whether it was his assistants or regular staff, they were all very friendly.

If there was a talented person in another company, his superiors would try everything to make things difficult for him rather than make way for him.

Apparently, Kenneth's employees were all kind.

What Cassandra didn't know, however, was that employees in the technology department work a lot every day, so they wouldn't refuse a big helper. They just felt so relieved.

When Kenneth left the technology department with Cassandra, she said, "Everyone in your company is so nice, Kenneth."

They were as nice as the Modern Beacon Synergy staff, who were simple and hardworking.

"There's no conflict between them because I pay everyone enough. They don't have to compete with each other. All they have to do is finish the work on time. I'll give them a bonus if they perform well, but I won't dock their wages if they don't meet my expectations."

Everyone had to move towards a goal for the company to run well. When Kenneth took over the Zelinski Group, he immediately fired Harriet and Hector's people, and the remaining employees were selected one by one by Yannick, so there wouldn't be any problem.

Cassandra nodded in agreement. Anything about profit complicated things.

"You're doing so great, Kenneth."

This was the first time that Cassandra admired someone so much. Kenneth had been praised by many people, but Cassandra was the first person to make him so happy.

He couldn't help smiling.

"You're good too, Cass. Emery has a new group of fans."

Yulissa was a little panicked after Miranda was arrested.

Since Miranda wasn't there, Matthew wouldn't care about Yulissa anymore.

denly. Yulissa received several messages. Those were pictures of Miranda standing in front of a villa with a line on it. "Do you want to know how you got out? Find the answer at Fallvale Mansion."

Yulissa was not stupid. She knew someone did it on purpose.

However, she was also curious about who Miranda went to. She thought that it was her biological father who saved her.

"Is this Dad's house? What is Miranda doing? Why didn't she tell me that my dad is so rich? Did she want me to suffer? Yulissa thought.

She had been frugal these days so she was mad at what Miranda did.

She kept thinking, 'Mom said that my dad never got remarried, so it means that I'm his only daughter and the only heir to his fortune. I never expected the one who lived in Fallvale Mansion to be my dad. Thank god. No one is gonna hurt me as long as I reunite with him. You're done, Cassandra!!

Therefore, Yulissa took a taxi to Fallvale Mansion, but she was stopped outside.

"Who are you? What are you doing here?" an old maid said in a kind tone.

"I want to see your master. I'm his daughter and my mother is Miranda. Just tell him. He'll see." Yulissa acted a little arrogant, but she still spoke politely. After all, she couldn't get in without the maid's help.

“He doesn’t have a daughter. You must be mistaken.”

“That’s impossible. He and Miranda had me 18 years ago, He’ll know when you tell him my name.

Besides, he asked someone to save me earlier.”

Yulissa couldn’t believe that her father didn’t care about her.

It must be hard to get someone who had been sentenced out of jail, so she was sure he must care about her.

The maid had no choice but to tell it to Zack.

Hearing this, Zack frowned and thought, ‘How did she know my address? What did Miranda do?’”

“Tell her I’m sleeping. I’ll see her after I wake up

He thought, “They just won’t leave. It’s time to deal with them.”

“OK.” said the maid.

Chapter 206

Yulissa smirked when the old maid came back to her.

She thought, ‘See? You have to let me in. I’ll fire you as soon as I reunite with my dad.

“I’m sorry, Miss, but Mr. James is sleeping, so I’m afraid that you won’t see him now.”

The old maid became cold, not at all as kind as she had just been.

Yulissa was unhappy. "How can he sleep when his daughter is here?"

The old maid looked a little angry, thinking. 'How dare she yell and blame Mr. James? Who knows if she is his daughter? She's so annoying!

"Mr. James is used to doing that. You can wait for him here if you don't mind."

The old maid entered the house without looking back, leaving Yulissa alone and angry.

She thought, 'How dare she meddle in her master's business? Just as I reunite with my dad.

you wait; I'll kick you out as soon

Yulissa wasn't sure how long she had been waiting. Anyway, her makeup was separated in the burning sun.

No one came to open the door for her until evening.

She decided to go back to the hotel. After all, Miranda booked her a hotel room for a month. She would come back tomorrow morning and then he wouldn't have any excuse.

Right now, she just felt hungry, thirsty, and exhausted.

get back at those who hurt her after she reunited with her father.

She would get

What she didn't know, however, was that someone had been watching her.

"She's gone, Mr. James, Zack's butler said. He had been watching Yulissa too.

"OK. Take her here the day after tomorrow."

Zack had given her a chance to leave, but since she wouldn't, he decided to do something.

"Yes,"

Jasper had spent the past few days being tortured on the ground floor of The Urban.

Cassandra's medicine made his pain worse and nearly killed him.

However, every time he felt that he was dying, someone would show up and apply medicine to him. It was a depressant that provided him with pain relief for a few hours.

He would feel more pain when it wore off.

He didn't know why Cassandra did this to him. He used to treat her badly but he never wanted to kill her.

He didn't understand why she wanted to kill him.

Although he wasn't as regretful as Leonardo, he realized that he was wrong, but Cassandra wouldn't forgive him.

It seemed that she would only be satisfied if he was dead.

Jeremiah suddenly walked in. He was a little happy to see Jasper in such a terrible state.

He thought, Jasper hurt Elaine so much. So did Raymond, but he got what he deserved. It's Jasper's turn.

"Who

are you? What are you doing here?" Jasper said in a weak voice. He lay on the ground, waiting for the medicine to wear off.

Soon, he saw it was Jeremiah. "It's you..."

"What? Are you surprised to see me?" Jeremiah said scornfully.

"No, I... I should have known that the one behind Cassandra is you. You're always very nice to her. I just didn't expect that it was you."

He didn't expect that Jeremiah would help Cassandra unconditionally. After all, she wasn't powerful enough to go against others even though she was Samantha.

Jeremiah laughed out loud as if he had heard a big joke. "It seems that you're as stupid as Yulissa, Jasper.

"Do you think I'm the one behind Cassie? Don't be ridiculous. She's the one behind me! And you know what? Cassie is not just Elaine and Samantha. She can kill you whenever she wants. I'm the one who needs her help. Understand?:"

If Cassandra hadn't saved him, he'd be dead.

She was the one who had helped him many times.

Jasper couldn't believe that the deputy director of Whitecrane Hall would need Cassandra's help.

"Do you what you did to her?"

remember ho

you treated Cassie in the Yates residence, Jasper? Have you dreamed about Jeremiah didn't come to Cassandra these days because he had been having strange dreams recently.

He dreamed that his hands were broken, but Elaine didn't show up. She said that she was out.

He also dreamed that these people killed Elaine, who was too desperate to fight back.

People in despair just wanted to wait for death.

Jeremiah didn't know when these things happened, maybe in a previous life or the future.

If it were to happen in the future, then he would kill those people in advance to prevent Elaine from ending up like that.

Jasper was stunned because he had been having strange dreams too.

He dreamed that he gave Cassandra an injection, and the drugs he gave her were similar to the one she gave him.

It was said that what happened in the dream was the opposite of what happened in real life, so he was the one who suffered now.

Cassandra was killed by Yulissa in Jasper's dream.

"Guess you have. What is it about? If it's something that will happen in the future, then you should. all go to hell. What do you think?" said Jeremiah.

He wouldn't let anything in his dreams come true.

"What does it have to do with me? Dreams are not true. Didn't you see how miserable Benjamin's family is in real life?" Jasper thought that Jeremiah had gone mad because of Cassandra.

"I don't care. I won't let any of you hurt Cassie!"

He took Cassandra as his younger sister he wanted to stay with for the rest of his life. He had not family or friends and she was his only family.

Therefore, anyone who hurt her should go to hell!

"Calm down, Jeremiah. I'm the one who's suffering. Cassandra is doing well. You'll see if you call her."

He felt that Jeremiah was a little crazy.

The problem was that Jeremiah had a knife in his hand, and there was a good chance he would kill Jasper.

Hearing this, Jeremiah was stunned. He really didn't know what Elaine had been doing recently.

He called Cassandra. When it got through, Jasper noticed that Jeremiah had become a little different

“What are you doing, Elaine?”

Jeremiah put on an unruly look again and left without looking at Jasper.

However, after he left, someone came in and gave Jasper another injection.

They were not going to spare Jasper or those who had hurt Cassandra.

“Ah!”

dewas

‘He’s a monster! Jasper thought. He was so painful that he couldn’t even speak.

Sweat ran down his forehead, and it made him hurt more when it dripped onto his wound.

Jasper was tortured until he finally passed out.

Before he lost consciousness, he heard someone say, “Wake him up with water. Don’t try to escape punishment by pretending to be unconscious.”

Chapter 207

Cassandra hung up on Jeremiah outside Springmount Townhouse.

She was confused as to why he disappeared for days. She only saw him once in The Urban and she couldn’t find him in Whitecrane Hall or Springmount Townhouse

How could he blame me for not calling him? she thought.

“What’s wrong?” Kenneth became curious when he saw Cassandra’s hesitant look.

“Nothing. It seems that something is wrong with Jeremiah.

She didn’t know what was going on.

Kenneth raised his eyebrows but didn’t ask further. He didn’t care about Jeremiah at all.

When they entered the villa, Cassandra saw some people in front of them, so she said, “Did you see those people at the door, Kenneth?”

Kenneth followed Cassandra’s gesture and suddenly became serious. “Yes, I did. It’s okay, You can go home first”

Kenneth didn’t take the people at the door seriously because he knew why they were there.

“Don’t you need my help? Cassandra raised her eyebrows and felt that things were not as simple as she thought. She didn’t leave him alone.

want to

“I can handle it on my own. They’re no match for me?”

He didn’t take them seriously at all even though they came to his house.

Standing in the doorway were the Zelinski family.

Cassandra didn’t come forward or leave. She just stood 16 feet from the door and watched it quietly.

Kenneth came forward leisurely and asked, “What do you want?”

The indifference and distance in his tone made Hector a little stunned.

“I want a talk with.

you.

Kenneth.”

Harriet, Tyler, and an elder came with Hector.

“We have nothing to talk about Kenneth refused,

“No. We have a lot to talk about. Why have you been going against me, Harriet, and the elder?”

Kenneth was always the son Hector was proud of but he never respected him.

“Don’t you know why I do this?”

He wouldn’t spare anyone who had hurt his mother and him.

Hector’s face turned pale. It seemed that Kenneth knew everything.

“It was just an accident. Why can’t you get over it?”

Before Fiona Zelinski died, she planned to give Kenneth everything she earned.

Hector cheated on Fiona, and that was why Kenneth never believed him.

“Looks like you know what happened. Then why didn’t you tell me?” Kenneth made Hector speechless.

Hector sighed and said, “Can you let it go if the Zelinski family quit the Zelinski Group?”

Kenneth snorted, “What makes you think I’d agree to that?”

“Then what do you want exactly?”

Hector looked at Kenneth with helplessness and even a bit of hatred.

He felt that Kenneth had worn out his guilt for him.

“I already said that you can live in peace only if you tell me who planned the accident”

It was quite simple, but the Zelinski family just wouldn’t agree.

Harriet couldn’t stand it anymore, so she came forward and said, “It’s been so many years, Kenneth, and now you have the entire Zelinski family under your control. Aren’t you satisfied?”

pare us?

She thought, ‘Why does he have to rake up the past? His mother is dead. Can’t he just spare Does he think what he has isn’t enough?’

“You’re the last person in a position to convince me of anything, Harriet. They haven’t turned you. in just because they think that I don’t have evidence. You know what? I’ve got it and I’m just giving the Zelinski family one last chance.

“Unfortunately, they don’t want it, so I have to do it my way.”

Kenneth's words made Hector and Harriet frightened.

They couldn't believe that he had the evidence.

Even the elder next to them felt surprised. Although he wasn't directly involved in the accident, he was part of the plan.

Hector looked terrible. It was true that Harriet caused the accident, and the reason they kept this a secret was because the Zelinski Group couldn't take another hit.

After Fiona died, the Zelinski Group entered a downturn. It was Harriet who took over the company and saved it. That was when Hector found out that Harriet was involved in Fiona's death.

He wanted to call the police, but he was in charge of the Zelinski Group at that time. Besides, he had to think about Conrad. Kenneth already lost his mother, so he couldn't let Conrad lose his mother too.

That was why Hector and Tyler kept this a secret. They just didn't expect that Kenneth didn't get Over it after so many years.

Fiona didn't die of illness but died painfully from a chronic poison administered by Harriet.

Harriet was a little scared of Kenneth's bringing up the past after so many years, but she convinced herself that he couldn't find the evidence.

She believed that Kenneth was just bluffing.

“Yes, I did it, but so what? Do you have any evidence? What can you do about me? I'm the lady of the Zelinski family no matter what happens, and you'll only make the Zelinski family worse if you do anything to me. Do you think they'll allow you?”

Harriet thought that Kenneth couldn't do anything about her because he had elders at home to keep him in check and the company's shareholders to pressure him.

Cassandra gradually understood what was going on.

Kenneth had been picking on the Zelinski family to avenge his mother, and he was probably gonna do more.

Otherwise, Hector wouldn't be there.

“Ask the man who's been with you all the years. His biggest mistake was hiding the evidence instead of destroying it.”

That was the key to their failure.

Harriet never expected that Hector had collected the evidence of her crime.

Hector was shocked. “How could you know where I hid it?”

“You think you hid it well, don't you, Hector? You overestimated yourself.”

No one would have a safety box at Sovis Bank to store letters other than treasures.

His purpose was obvious.

Kenneth thought, “What a stupid man. Would anyone put letters in the safety box in Sovis Bank? Even a kid won't believe it.”

Cassandra came closer, feeling speechless at Hector's foolish behavior.

She guessed that that was why Hector was never the master of the Zelinski family.

Fiona took care of the whole family when she was alive, and after she died, Tyler took her place and became the head of the Zelinski Group.

It wasn't until Kenneth returned that he got everything back.

“Are you gonna take Conrad's mother away from him, Kenneth?”

Hearing this, Harriet thought that she finally mattered to Hector after so many years. However, what he said next disappointed her. “Conrad lost his legs and no one can take care of him if Harriet is arrested.”

“That's very thoughtful of you. How about you go to the prison with her?”

“Yannick!”

“Yes, Mr. Zelinski!”

Cassandra was surprised when she saw Yannick come out of nowhere.

“Take them away.”

“Got it!”

“I'm your elder, Kenneth. How dare you do this to me?”

Only then did the elder's attitude change a little. He couldn't believe that Kenneth was so fearless that he even dared to deal with him.

Besides Yannick, several other people appeared out of thin air.

They were Ethan, Lamont, and Oliver. They saw Kenneth come back with Cassandra, so they hid to leave them alone.

Unexpectedly, the Zelinski family was at the door, so they had to go through the back door.

They wouldn't stay far away from Kenneth, so they just waited near the villa..

As expected, Kenneth called Yannick, and they thought that Yannick couldn't take them away on his own, so they came out together.

Cassandra raised her eyebrows, thinking, "They're even creepier than Jeremiah."

"I'm

your stepmother and the lady of the Zelinski family, Kenneth. You can't do this to me!" Harriet said in fear. She had been lying for so many years and she couldn't end up like that.

Conrad had to rely on her since he lost his legs, and she hadn't got everything from the Zelinski family.

Harriet wasn't satisfied. If Fiona hadn't married Hector, she wouldn't have tried to kill her. Harriet didn't think it was her fault.

She thought that Fiona had taken everything from her and all she was doing was taking it back.

"You killed my mother, Harriet, and you hired killers to kill me several times these years. Your sin is enough to send you to hell. The elder, Tyler, and Hector covered for you and kept you safe all these years. Do you think you're gonna get away with this forever?"

The person Kenneth hated most was not Harriet, but Tyler and Hector. Fiona was Tyler's daughter-in-law and Hector's wife, but they covered for the murderer and said nothing when she tried to kill him.

Since they didn't take him as their family, he'd rather kill all of them to make it up to Fiona.

Harriet suddenly burst into laughter. "You're as pathetic as your mother, Kenneth. Your father and grandpa knew it was me, but they just warned me and covered for me every time. As for never cared about you.

you, they

"Your grandpa wouldn't have let you back if you hadn't become powerful enough to help the Zelinski family. I just didn't realize you were so ambitious. Not only did you try to take the Zelinski Croup, you tried to take me down."

To her, a person without a home should keep his head down instead of acting arrogantly.

"You mean I should thank Tyler. But don't forget that half of the Zelinski Group is my mother's inheritance. Do you think it could exist without my mom?"

Hearing Harriet's words, Hector wanted to explain something, but every time he tried to speak, Ethan would push him to shut him up.

He wanted to say that what Harriet said was not true.

They were not covering for Harriet. They were protecting Kenneth, but the men who protected him needed to lay low.

She was slandering them.

Kenneth thought that he had already spent too much time on them, and it was time to finish them.

Kenneth waved his hand, and Yannick understood it immediately. He came forward and took them away with Ethan.

It wasn't until now that Cassandra came forward. "Don't take Harriet's words seriously."

She didn't know how to comfort him. She just wished that she could kill Harriet when she heard those words.

Therefore, before Yannick took her away, she stuck a needle in her. Harriet felt a slight sting, but she didn't care much and removed it from her.

"I didn't. She just..."

Kenneth snorted and replaced the coldness on his face with a smile.

"Were you scared?"

"No. I was just curious where Yannick came from."

"I have no idea. All I know is that he will always be within 16 feet of me."

That was why Yannick could show up immediately every time he called him.

Cassandra nodded and thought, 'No wonder he's in the special operations force. He's so good at hiding his tracks.'

It was quiet and neither of them knew what to say.

Kenneth suddenly thought that Cassandra might be interested in the video and photos Yannick gave him this morning.

“Do you want to know how Leonardo is doing?”

Cassandra raised her eyebrows and asked curiously. “Is it good or bad?”

She wouldn't be interested in it if he was doing well. Instead, she would try everything to find him.

She was only curious about how miserable he was.

“He lives just as you have expected.”

Then it means he's not fine, she thought..

“OK. Show me.”

Therefore, Cassandra followed Kenneth back to his villa, where he poured her a glass of juice and went upstairs to get the computer.

The video showed Leonardo hiding from fierce animals on Desert Island. It also showed him being attacked by snakes and birds.

He tried to survive by climbing up the tree to pick fruits. It was quite bloody.

He was going through what Cassandra went through in her previous life.

Cassandra watched Leonardo struggling in despair and keep getting hurt trying to survive.

He asked for this.

“How many days he’s been there?” Cassandra asked indifferently.

“Maybe ten days. I’m not sure.”

Kenneth just gave her a random number because he couldn’t remember it. It didn’t matter. Anyway, Leonardo would die there sooner or later.

“It must be half a month since he left home.” Cassandra counted.

Leonardo seemed to have run away when they were shooting the show, and it had been almost half a month.

Cassandra didn’t expect him to last half a month. It seemed that had a strong desire to live.

“If he is still alive in half a month, send someone to take him back.”

Leonardo went to check if she was dead a month later in her previous life, so she decided to respond in kind.

She would send the dying Leonard back to Benjamin’s family.

That would be very interesting.

Then she would give them Jasper, who wouldn’t be able to live like a normal person. They would live together for the rest of their life.

“It’s up to you.” Kenneth nodded and said, “I’ll ask someone to bring him back half a month later.

He didn't know what was going on, but he always felt that there was something Cassandra didn't tell him.

She just wouldn't tell him for now.

Kenneth."

"Thank you, Ken

Cassandra meant it. She was so focused on the people at the hospital that she forgot about Leonardo. Her people knew he had gone but they didn't know where.

If Kenneth hadn't caught Leonardo, he would have been at large.

"You don't have to thank me. Just do whatever you want. I just did you a little favor."

In fact, he knew that Cassandra asked someone to watch and take Jasper and Frederick away. She did it after she came back from the show. However, Leonardo escaped earlier, so she didn't notice it.

Their fate was now in Cassandra's hands, and all Kenneth wanted was for Cassandra not to blame him for meddling in her personal affairs.

Chapter 209

Yulissa, who went to Fallvale Mansion every day, finally saw her biological father two days later.

A man about 50 years old in a black haute couture suit sat elegantly in the living room. He had prayer beads in his hand which were made of the best quality eaglewood.

Yulissa looked at the furniture in the living room and couldn't help but cheer in her heart.

She thought, Wow, he's so rich. Everything here is custom-made. The Yates residence is nothing compared to this. I'm about to start a new chapter in my life!"

She tried to suppress her joy and said in a sweet voice, "H-Hello, my mother is Miranda and she said that you're my biological father."

Then she secretly glanced at the man sitting on the couch.

However, he was not as happy as she expected him to be. Instead, he looked displeased.

Yulissa thought she must have misread it.

"I'm..."

"I know you're my daughter, so I managed to get you out of prison," Zack said coldly.

In fact, it was not difficult for him to get Yulissa out. He just needed to talk to someone.

The problem was that he didn't want anything to do with Miranda who dared to threaten him.

If it weren't for someone who moved ahead, Miranda would have been dead, and Yulissa wouldn't have been able to see Zack.

"Then why didn't you take me in? I went there every day but they kept me out. Didn't they know I'm your daughter?"

Yulissa breathed a sigh of relief when Zack called her his daughter, so she really took herself as his daughter.

Both the butler and the maid were speechless. They thought, 'How dare she blame Mr. James?'

"I've been busy these days and no one was allowed to interrupt me. You won't see me even if they let you in."

Yulissa didn't buy it. She thought 'Even if I can't see you, you can still let me stay here and have someone serve me. You just watched me suffer out there, didn't you?'

"But..."

"Enough. Since you came back, just make yourself at home," Zack interrupted her.

He didn't let her in to catch

"Fine, but my luggage..."

up.

"Don't take that trash into Fallvale Mansion. I'll ask someone to buy you new ones."

Then he went upstairs without looking back.

Whatever he was going to buy for her must be new for the season. After all, the furnishings in his house were all very expensive.

However, she was a little uncomfortable to hear him call her luggage trash because she thought that he was saying that the clothes she wore were trash.

The butler did as Zack asked. Anyway, she wouldn't be there long, so he just had to get her random ones.

Later, Yulissa learned that her biological father was named Zack James, who was in the oil business and had tens of billions of dollars.

He was single now and had no children.

Yulissa felt overjoyed because that meant she would inherit all his wealth.

Tens of billions of dollars was enough for her to live in luxury for the rest of her life.

She tried to sit next to Zack while eating but was stopped by the butler.

“Your seat is over there, Ms. Yates.”

Yulissa followed Robert’s gesture and saw her seat at the end of the table.

She sat across from Zack, which was farthest from him.

“I want to sit next to you, Dad. We haven’t seen each other for so many years, and I have a lot...”

Unexpectedly, Zack refused her indifferently. “Don’t talk while eating. Just take your seat.”

Being refused, Yulissa felt a little embarrassed. She glared at the butler and sat back in her chair in anger.

Jeremiah came to Springmount Townhouse with an apologetic face two days after he called Cassandra.

“What have you been doing these days?” Cassandra asked unhappily.

He disappeared for days and never answered her calls.

“I’m taking care of Jasper at The Urban,” Jeremiah smiled fawningly. He knew that he would piss Elaine off, but he didn’t mean it..

“What else did you do? Did anything happen to you?”

Cassandra didn’t believe him because he couldn’t be too busy with Jasper to come to Whitecrane Hall or Springmount Townhouse.

The fact that The Urban was so close made his explanation more implausible.

“What could possibly happen to me? I just wanted to relax a little. I dealt with Jasper during the day and had fun on the fifth floor at night. I’m sorry for making you worried about me. Please don’t be mad at me, Elaine, Jeremiah said apologetically.

He couldn’t tell Elaine that he had been haunted by those nightmares. He had the same dreams every day and they were all about Elaine’s experiences with Benjamin’s family.

They were so real that he almost thought Elaine was gone.

He went to a therapist for two days and didn’t come back until his nightmares were gone.

He didn’t expect that Elaine would be so mad at him after he was back.

“Then what was wrong with you the other day?”

Jeremiah thought, “What? Nothing was wrong with me. I just said that I’ll always love you. Is there anything wrong with that?”

“Will you forgive me if I take you to dinner?”

Jeremiah didn’t want to continue the topic because he felt a little sad when Cassandra said that something was wrong with him.

“I’m busy. I need to start working on a drug that the International Medical Union needs as soon as possible.”

She almost thought that Maximilian had another accident when she got his call.

It was always bad news every time he called her.

“What? Did he call you?”

It seemed that something had gone wrong.

“Yes. If you have time, go to Spania to see how Modern Beacon Synergy is going. Cyrus must have gone back suddenly because something happened.”

Cyrus left without saying goodbye to her.

Besides, Timothy didn’t call her, which meant that things were still under his control, so she didn’t ask much.

Considering that Jeremiah hadn’t been well recently, she decided to get him busy..

Jeremiah was surprised. "Now?"

"You can leave tonight."

Jeremiah was hurt by Cassandra's indifference.

"Fine, I'll go."

He was going to ask Cyrus what tricky thing made him leave without saying goodbye.

Now he had to work because of this.

"One more thing," Cassandra remembered what Kenneth said yesterday. "Kenneth wants you to join the Falcon Special Operations Force. Are y interested in it?"

Jeremiah almost jumped up in protest.

just

"Why? He leave me alone after so many years, will he? I won't work for him!" Jeremiah said loudly to show his determination.

Cassandra caught the key point. "What do you mean? Do you know each other?"

"It's just a slip of the tongue."

"Do you think I'm stupid?"

Jeremiah said, "I can't tell you. Anyway, you know him too, but you lost your memory. He'll tell you everything later."

Since he promised Kenneth that he wouldn't tell her, he had to keep his word.

Chapter 210

"Kenneth knows you're good at hacking so he wants you to guide the Falcon Special Operations Force."

Cassandra didn't insist on questioning Jeremiah because she knew that she would know everything sooner or later,

Her intuition told her that Kenneth wouldn't hurt her, so there was no need to figure it out now.

Jeremiah nodded perfunctorily. The next second, he was surprised. "Falcon Special Operations Force? Is Kenneth one of them?"

He thought. What? I didn't know it. Isn't he CEO of the Zelinski Group as well as the head of the Underground League? How could he be a soldier?'

"Yes. He's the commander of Falcon Special Operations Force."

Cassandra thought that since he invited Jeremiah to Falcon Special Operations Force, he wouldn't hide who he was on purpose anymore.

Jeremiah was shocked to know this.

"I'll talk to him. Wait for me at home!"

Jeremiah hurried to the next room.

He couldn't tell why he was so sure that Kenneth was home at this time.

He was about to go back when he stood at the door, but Kenneth opened it for him.

After making sure that there were only two of them, Jeremiah said directly, "I heard that you want me to join you."

Kenneth realized that Cassandra had told him.

Kenneth did say so, but he couldn't find Jeremiah earlier, so he had to tell Cassandra first. After all, Jeremiah always listened to her..

"That's right. You're very good at hacking and I want you to join Falcon Special Operations Force."

Jeremiah was confused. "Why me?"

"Falcon Special Operations Force needs talents like you. That's all." Kenneth's words touched Jeremiah.

"No way. I know I'm talented, but I only work for Elaine." Jeremiah almost wavered when he heard Kenneth's words.

He thought to himself, 'Be firm, Jeremiah! You're almost twenty years old. How could you believe him? He's lying! He did the same thing before. He said that he would be back but he didn't. He's a big liar!!

"You're not working for anyone. You're working for our country, just like Cass."

"Do you know who she is?"

Jeremiah thought, 'Does he know that Cassandra is Emery? But how?'

Yeah, and everyone in Falcon Special Operations Force knows it"

Jeremiah said, "You're a liar, Kenneth. You told us that you would come back, but you disappeared after you went out with Elaine, who came back in a coma.

"Now you're trying to get me and Cassandra to work for you. Can't you just leave us alone? You're so shameless!"

Jeremiah was getting a little jumpy again.

Kenneth frowned and thought, 'What did he mean by asking me to leave them alone?'

"Cass is still the girl she used to be. I'm just her partner at work, Kenneth frowned.

If it weren't for the intensive training of Falcon Special Operations Force, he would have invited Cassandra to come here so that they could meet more often.

He didn't like the need to find a good excuse every time he wanted to see her.

However, he was really worried that Cassandra would be tired.

"Although you're not as good as Cass, you're good enough to beat all the technical staff in Falcon Special Operations Force, so..." |

As soon as Jeremiah heard this, he burst into laughter. "You're so lame, Kenneth, and so is your Falcon Special Operations Force. They can't even defeat me."

He had to admit that Kenneth was right. No one could beat him but Elaine.

After all, he learned from the famous Emery.

Yannick frowned and thought, Why is Jeremiah more annoying than Oliver? I want to punch him in the face.”

“You can think about it. If you come to Falcon Special Operations Force, you will still have the freedom you want. We will keep your personal information confidential and will not let it affect you. More importantly, you can fight alongside Cass.”

Honestly, Kenneth wanted to fight alongside Cassandra just like Jeremiah did.

“Well, let me think about it. I’ll talk to you after I come back from Spaunia.” Jeremiah sounded a little proud.

Kenneth raised his eyebrows and asked, “What are you doing in Spaunia?”

“Elaine asked me to... Jeremiah paused, “It’s none of your business.”

He left after saying that.

Yulissa lived in Fallvale Mansion as she wanted. However, her bedroom didn’t look like it was carefully prepared. It was like a guest room but was much bigger than that. It looked like it belonged to the owner, but sadly, no one in the house respected her.

She couldn’t see Zack after he came back to his bedroom, and she wasn’t allowed to speak loudly in the house, which almost killed her.

Now she couldn’t find Zack again.

She wandered around the room, walked out of the villa, and found a small house behind it.

The villa was the only building in the mountain area, so this 13-foot-tall house out of nowhere. seemed strange.

She came closer and found that the door was open. Curious, she pushed the door open.

The interior layout was simple and it looked like a laboratory.

She wondered, "Isn't Dad in the oil business? Why are there so many chemistry experiment devices here? And why is there a picture of a woman on the wall?"

She walked to the wall out of curiosity and stared at the picture, but just while she was examining it, someone appeared behind her.

Zack said in a terrifying voice, "How did you come in? Who let you in?"

"Ah!" Yulissa screamed in fear.

The next second, her mouth was covered.

"Shut up!"

She was so scared that she didn't dare to say anything. She had to turn around slowly in horror.

When she found that it was Zack, she finally breathed a sigh of relief.

"You scared me, Dad. I walked out for fresh air and found that the door was unlocked, so I came in. Yulissa, who had just been scared, became curious again. "Is it your laboratory, Dad? Why are you doing these experiments?"

Zack's expression was cold and even intimidating, completely different from what he looked like during the day.

"Do you want to know what it is, Lisa? I'll show you if you do."

Zack's tone was a little bit creepy, but it was ignored by Yulissa. She thought that he finally recognized her.

Therefore, she said with excitement, "Sure. Show me around, Dad."

Zack took Yulissa to another room as cold and frightening as an ice cellar.

The weirdest thing was a crystal coffin in the middle of the house.

The person lying inside looked alive, but there was frost on her jaw.

"Where is this place, Dad? I'm scared. Shall we go out?"

"Didn't you tell the butler that you would do everything for me, Lisa?" Zack grabbed her hand. "Now it's time.

"Look, it's my wife. She was killed because of your mother. Don't you think you should make it to me by saving my wife?"

"No!"

Yulissa screamed in fear.
