

My Rebirth 251

Chapter 251

“Yeah, I’ve been listening to the songs she wrote recently. I really like them, but most of my feelings are heartbreaking” Harper didn’t lie.

He had been listening to all the songs written by Samantha recently, and the more he heard them, the more distressed he felt.

It was because he listened too much that he eagerly wanted to come to Cassandra as soon as possible.

“Yeah, that’s right. Cassandra is miserable. Her biological parents and Miranda are the worst. How can they treat Cassandra like this? Fortunately, Cassandra has seen it clearly long ago. She is now an adult, and the time when she needs family affection has passed. Now she doesn’t need family affection for a long time. But with her boyfriend now, Cassandra will definitely have a better future.” Sofia seemed to find a good topic.

As long as she talked about Cassandra, she would go on and on. Harper listened very carefully, but the more he heard, the more heartache he felt.

Especially when Sofia said that her biological parents were the worst.

No matter who she was talking about, Cassie’s biological parents were also his parents. It seemed too much to say that.

He explained in a low voice, “Maybe it’s for some reason.”

Sofia put down her fork and looked a little unhappy. “Are you taking Cassandra’s father’s side? Then you are not Cassandra’s fan!”

After saying that, she whipped around and left.

What Sofia didn't know was that Benjamin was not Cassandra's biological father at all, so they were not talking about the same person.

No one in the circle knew that Cassandra was from the main Yates family, so she still thought that Benjamin was Cassandra's biological father.

Sofia couldn't bear anyone speaking for that trash. How dare Harper say that he was a new fan? How could he speak for them? She would never talk to such people again.

Cassidy had no choice but to get up. After thinking for a while, she said seriously, "If you are really Samantha's fan, you should know her background. If not, just search for Yulissa's letter of apology. Maybe you won't say that her biological parents have difficulties. Then you will understand why. Sofia is so angry."

Harper was a little confused and felt that something bad had happened.

He knew that Cassandra was Samantha by accident and didn't know much about her.

Harper had read Samantha's every Twitter message and listened to every song. He thought...

He took out his phone and searched it according to what Cassidy said.

It was a letter of apology from Yulissa.

The more he read it, the more trembling his body became. Until the end, he didn't know how he got out of the canteen.

But someone said that the newcomer to the traditional medicine major left the canteen in tears.

"How are you going to spend the weekend?" Kenneth handed the water to Cassandra and said gently.

Cassandra said, "Well, I'm going to Whitecrane Hall to develop a new drug."

Hugo said that he had got the herbs she wanted and could make new medicine.

Kenneth was a little disappointed.

He asked, "Then can I go with you?"

Cassandra tilted her head and looked at Kenneth. "Kenneth, don't you have work?"

It was said that the lights of the Zelinski Group were always the last to go out in this city.

Why was the Zelinski Group so leisurely now?

"Of course, I also have weekends like you. Kenneth took it for granted.

Who said the boss didn't have a rest? Now he felt that it was simply wonderful to take a rest.

"Kenneth, do you know that distance produces beauty?" Cassandra couldn't help asking.

It was the first time she had seen Kenneth so clingy, but probably no one in Drieso had ever seen him like this.

It was amazing!

"I don't know. Probably distance doesn't not only produce beauty but also the third person." Kenneth didn't believe in the saying.

It was not easy to have a girlfriend. He would be with her every day.

Cassandra was speechless.

“Are you so unconfident in yourself?” Cassandra asked.

Kenneth said, “It’s not a matter of confidence. I just want to be with you.”

Frankly speaking, he was just a little unconfident. As Jeremiah said, there were many young men at Juset University, including good-looking and rich ones.

If he didn’t keep a strict eye on Cassandra, what if she was seduced by some handsome man?

Therefore, there must be no such situation.

“Okay, whatever. Let’s go tomorrow morning.” Cassandra finally compromised.

Anyway, what she could do?

She thought, ‘I chose him, so I have to spoil him. How could I quit?’

Kenneth smiled contentedly.

Early Saturday morning. Kenneth knocked on Cassandra’s door and Hugo opened it.

Hugo had plenty of time today, so he came to cook for Cassandra. Unexpectedly, someone would come so early, and it was Kenneth.

Hugo asked, “Good morning, Kenneth. What can I do for you?”

Kenneth had already stepped into the house and said in a normal tone, "Hugo, good morning.

"I'm here to pick up Cassandra. Is she awake?"

"I'm awake." As soon as Cassandra went downstairs, she heard Kenneth's voice. She thought, 'He is too early.

Kenneth smiled and walked to the stairwell. "Just in time, I prepared breakfast for you. You can eat first."

Hugo was rendered speechless.

He wondered, "Why did you prepare breakfast for Cassandra? What about the breakfast I prepared?"

Cassandra looked at him and then at Hugo. "Hugo made breakfast. You can eat it."

That meant that they exchanged their breakfast.

"Okay." Kenneth looked at Hugo and said, "Thank you so much.

Kenneth walked to the restaurant familiarly. Hugo looked at Cassandra with a confused expression on his face. "Ms. Yates, what's going on?"

Cassandra said, "Let me introduce him to you. That's my boyfriend, Kenneth."

Hugo was dumbfounded.

He thought, 'So, it was Kenneth who bothered her the other day?

"What did I do? I talked to her?

I should not have talked to her!

But Kenneth is acceptable. There is nothing wrong with him except that he is a little old.

"After all, although he is violent, Cassandra doesn't give in. Even if she couldn't beat him, she could subdue him with a single needle. In the end, no one would know who the winner is."

When Kenneth heard this in the dining room, his smile became more obvious.

Hugo asked. "Ms. Yates, when did you get together?"

"It's the night you talked to me." Cassandra thought for a moment and replied.

Hugo didn't know what to say.

Hugo felt uncomfortable now and wondered if he could return to that day and take back what he said.

He expected someone to confess his love for Cassandra, but he didn't expect Cassandra to agree so soon!

It was unexpected.

Kenneth said, "Hugo, you are Cassandra's family. You're welcome to supervise me in the future. As long as I treat her badly, you can kick me out at any time."

This sentence stunned Hugo, but he accepted it with pleasure.

Hugo thought, "That's more like it!"

Chapter 252

Harper had been upset for a whole day. He didn't cheer up until Saturday night.

Harper called Theodore and said, "Do you have any men in Clusia? Can you arrange for some men to help me?"

Theodore asked, "What are you going to do?"

Harper didn't say anything. After a long time, he said. "Theodore, I don't have the courage to let Cassie admit that she is our family member anymore. I'm not worthy of it. None of us is worthy of it."

In the crucial 18 years of Cassandra's life, no one cared about her. When she returned to Benjamin's family at the age of 18, she was bullied and kidnapped.

Cassandra had achieved success now. They had no right to show up in front of her.

Theodore said in a deep voice. "Do you know what you're talking about? Do you know how important Cassie is to Dad and Mom?"

"I know it, but do you think that I'm unwilling to let Cassie be our family member? Have we ever learned about Cassie! We have never tried to learn about her. We come here just because she looks like mom. Have we investigated her? Do we know what she has suffered these years? What were we doing when she needed us most?!"

Harper's mind was full of Yulissa's confession. Every word was hideous.

Harper thought, 'Cassie is an adult. Sofia said that Cassie wasn't at the age anymore when she needed kinship. There is no need for us to show up in front of her. We will just make her feel disturbed.

Harper even had the impulse to give up on letting Cassandra admit that she was their family member. He just wanted to stay beside her quietly.

"Harper, have you gotten to know anything? Tell me."

"I'll send it to you. You'd better investigate it carefully before talking about this." Harper hung up the phone and shared all the things he saw in their chat group.

It turned out that the reason why the comments on Twitter about Samantha were so peaceful was that her fans wanted to give her a piece of pure land. Thus, all the comments about Benjamin's family had been wiped out by her fans together.

Therefore, Harper, who only had watched Samantha's Twitter, didn't get to know anything at all.

The first one who called Harper was Vincent. "Harper, give me the address. I'll go there after I get off the plane."

"Are you at the airport?" Harper asked.

"Yeah. The plane will take off in half an hour."

Originally, Vincent was going to Spaulnia to see Modern Beacon Synergy for cooperation. However, when he saw the comments on Twitter, he immediately changed his flight. He was lucky today. The last first-class cabin was still on sale. He paid for it before the ticket was not available.

His luggage could be transferred to him later. He needed to go to Clusia first.

Harper sent the address to Vincent and ignored him.

Kenneth and Cassandra walked out of Whitecrane Hall. They didn't know where to go when they got in the car.

Kenneth asked, "Where are we going?"

It was 8 p.m. It was still early. Cassandra didn't need to go home so early.

"I don't know. You're the boss." Cassandra was reluctant to go back so early.

"Let's go to the movie and have a midnight snack before going home."

Kenneth had browsed many posts. The necessary itineraries for going out with girlfriends were watching movies, going to the amusement parks, eating midnight snacks, or taking girlfriends to have fun.

It was not that hot in fall. They could go camping in the mountains.

"Okay, it's up to you. Cassandra rubbed her eyebrows.

Kenneth noticed that something was wrong with Cassandra. He immediately asked, "What's the matter? Are you feeling unwell?"

"It's not that serious. My eyes are a little sore. Maybe I was too concentrated today. She had been adjusting the potion and mixing it up, so she had overused her eyes.

"Let's skip the movie and go back to rest. You have focused on your experiment today, which hurts your eyes." Kenneth was worried.

Kenneth thought, 'How could I forget that Cass had been busy all day and should have a rest?'

"It's okay. It'll be a while from here to the cinema. I'll close my eyes and have a rest. Wake me up when we arrive."

"Really?"

"It doesn't matter. Don't be so exaggerated. Then Cassandra closed her eyes and rested.

When Cassandra opened her eyes again, she found that they didn't go to the cinema. They were in front of her house, but the car hadn't been parked in the garage yet.

She asked in confusion, "Why were we back? Didn't we go to the movies?"

"Go home and have a good rest today. I'll take you out to have fun tomorrow."

Anyway, they didn't need to go to Whitecrane Hall tomorrow. They could go to the movies anytime. There was no need for them to go to the movies today.

"All right." Now that they had arrived home, Cassandra could say nothing else.

"Get door

t of the car. I'll take you home." Kenneth got out of the car and opened the p for Cassandra.

After Kenneth entered the house, he went straight to the kitchen and prepared some food for Cassandra.

Cassandra came up to him and asked, "What are you doing?"

“I’ll prepare something for you. You can eat it when you are hungry. I will also make drinks for you. Take a good rest.”

“Don’t bother. I won’t get up in the middle of the night.” Cassandra tried to stop him but failed.

“You didn’t eat much tonight and focused on the experiment. I can’t help you with the experiment, but I can take care of you

At dinner, Cassandra was busy calculating the experimental data. He couldn’t help or make trouble for her.

Cassandra withdrew her hand and felt warm in her heart. She was hungry indeed. Originally, she planned to have midnight snacks after watching the movie. However, now that she had come back, she was reluctant to cook.

However, Kenneth was so considerate. He noticed that she didn’t eat much and predicted that she might get up in the middle of the night.

Kenneth cooked in the kitchen for more than an hour and finally prepared two dishes, soup, a fruit platter, and drinks.

But by the time he came out, Cassandra was asleep.

He shook his head affectionately, put the food in the kitchen, took off his apron, walked forward, and picked up andra.

Cassandra was born to be sensitive. She woke up as soon as Kenneth picked her up. When she saw that it was him, she relaxed her vigilance and asked, “What are you doing?”

“You fell asleep on the sofa. I’m going to carry you up to the bed.”

Cassandra blushed and said awkwardly, "Put me down. I'll go upstairs by myself. You can go home now."

Kenneth thought, 'It's rare for me to hold Cass in my arms. How can I let go so easily?'

Kenneth didn't listen to Cassandra at all. He went upstairs and joked, "Don't worry, I won't do anything to you. You are too tired today. Let me carry you up to rest."

Cassandra felt shy. She unconsciously put her arms around Kenneth's neck.

Cassandra thought, 'Never mind. Just let him go.'

Kenneth couldn't help but say, "The food is in the refrigerator. If you're hungry, go downstairs and eat it. Call me if you need anything. I'll be next door."

In his eyes, Cassandra was like a fragile doll that needed careful care.

"I see. You can go back now." Cassandra's eyes were shining. She felt warm in her heart.

However, Cassandra didn't know that someone had taken a group of people to Matthew's apartment and beat Benjamin's family.

Three people were beaten that night.

Chapter 253

The next day, Kenneth went to Cassandra's home.

To take care of Cassandra, Kenneth persuaded Cassandra to give him a key. He promised not to disturb her when she was resting.

He didn't go to Cassandra's room to wake her up but went straight into the kitchen.

He felt satisfied when he saw the empty dishes in the sink.

Cassandra got up in the middle of the night and ate the food he cooked. Kenneth put down the breakfast, tied an apron, put on gloves, and washed the dishes.

When he was about to take off the apron, Cassandra went downstairs.

"Kenneth, why did you get up so early?" When Cassandra went downstairs, she thought she was the first one to get up. Unexpectedly, Kenneth had gotten up already and was doing housework in the kitchen.

Kenneth cleaned up the kitchen and handed Cassandra the breakfast. "Let's go out to have fun after breakfast."

Cassandra took the breakfast and looked at him. "Kenneth, is it true that Zelinski Group hasn't gone bankrupt? You can tell me if you have any difficulties."

Kenneth was so idle that she felt that he was playing the victim in front of her.

"Cass, are you going to keep me as a toy boy?" Kenneth smiled. It could be seen that he was very happy.

Cassandra was stuck for words.

How did he come to such a conclusion?

"Don't worry, Cass. Even without Zelinski Group, I can let you live a carefree life. Thus, there is no need for you to worry about me being penniless and unable to support you."

Kenneth's gaze was softer than spring breezes and more romantic than summer flowers.

Cassandra was involuntarily stunned. She suddenly withdrew her gaze and said in embarrassment, "I'm not worried about you. I don't lack money."

Kenneth teased, "You're right. You're the famous miracle doctor Faye, the famous hacker Emery, the famous entrepreneur Elaine, and the famous lyricist Samantha. How can you be short of money? Even the consultation fee for Faye is 2 billion dollars once."

Cassandra felt embarrassed and avoided his gaze. She said, "Before I took your order, I had back to Benjamin's family. I wanted to cut off my past, go home, and start a new life. Unexpectedly, gone

it was not as simple as I thought..

"When I left Benjamin's family and returned here, Hugo said that there was an order from the Zelinski family. I asked Hugo and Jeremiah to investigate it. When I found out that it was your order, I accepted it. At that time, I needed to go to school. Anyway, your patient had been sick for a long time. I thought that you wouldn't mind if I delayed it for one or two days. To my surprise, you raised the consultation fee. Although I was not short of money, I wouldn't miss the chance to earn money."

Originally, Cassandra wanted to treat the patient for free. However, if a stranger suddenly showed kindness to Kenneth and saved his man not for money or repayment, it would be unjustifiable and even make Kenneth suspect that she had ulterior motives.

Thus, Cassandra charged for it.

As for the auction of the telegraph plant, it was because Cassandra had cut off her past, so the invitations to Whitecrane Hall and Faye all had been rejected. It was inappropriate for Cassandra to ask for the invitations again, so she asked Kenneth to attend it.

However, it was Kayden who paid for the telegraph plant. Kenneth just ran errands for it.

Kenneth smiled and thought, 'I see.

"Cass received my order after she left Benjamin's family at Yulissa's 18th birthday celebration.

"It must be fate between Cass and me!

"By the way, I put the money you transferred to me on a separate card. I haven't used it. I'll give it back to you.

After Cassandra finished speaking, she was about to go upstairs to get the bank card, but Kenneth stopped her.

"Don't give it to me. Dr. Quirke deserves it. Keep it. I will be angry if you give it to me."

Kenneth just hired Dr. Quirke to treat Kayden. It was Kenneth's idea to raise the consultation fee because Kayden's condition was serious at that time. Kenneth had no choice but to raise the consultation fee to let Faye come earlier.

However, after Kenneth knew that Faye Quirke was Cassandra, he thought that the consultation fee was not enough. He could have doubled it.

Kenneth decided to transfer more money to Cassandra and give her more pocket money.

"Well, come to me when you need it."

Kenneth was stuck for words and thought, "Then I won't need it.

'Cass is so adorable. She collected the consultation fee and saved it separately. Did she want to give. it to me one day?'

Kenneth's heart suddenly sank. He thought, 'Did Cass recognize me at that time?

"Otherwise, she wouldn't have saved the consultation fee separately.

"People who have been treated by Dr. Quirke saw that Dr. Quirke is cold and taciturn. When I contacted Dr. Quirke, Dr. Quirke's attitude was cold but her tone was gentle.

"What is it then?"

Cassandra took a bite of the breakfast and squinted with relish. "Kenneth, where did you buy this.

same store. The storekeeper is breakfast? It is different every day, but it tastes like that from the good at cooking."

Most importantly, it was quite palatable for Cassandra.

She liked it very much.

"Is it delicious?"

"It's delicious. It tastes like that you made it." Cassandra looked at Kenneth.

Kenneth looked at her with a smile. His eyes were filled with tenderness.

"Kenneth, did you make this?"

Kenneth showed up early every day, including at school. It took him at least 50 minutes to drive from Springmount Townhouse to the school in the morning. If he made breakfast every day, how early would he get up?

“It’s good that you like it. I’m afraid that you don’t like it or get breakfasts every day.”

Cassandra thought, ‘Kenneth made breakfast for me!

“Why is he so nice to me?”

tired of it, so I cook different

Seeing that Cassandra was moved again, Kenneth immediately interrupted her. “Have you finished breakfast? Let’s go out and have fun.”

He thought, ‘Why is Cass getting more sensitive recently? She’s easy to be moved.

“OK, I’ll go upstairs to get my bag. Then we can set off.”

Cassandra didn’t expect that the first place Kenneth took her to have fun was an amusement park.

He even bought a fluorescent hair band for her at the door, which was even dazzling under the sunshine.

Cassandra rejected, “No! It looks stupid!” She felt that Kenneth was playing tricks on her.

“Cass, put it on. Many people wear it.”

Kenneth waved his hand casually to show Cassandra how many people were wearing hair bands like that. However, they were all children.

Kenneth was stuck for words.

Cassandra didn’t know what she could say.

She thought. "Am I a child?"

They were all children. No one as old as Cassandra wore bands like that. Thus, Kenneth didn't insist anymore

"Just hold it in your hand. Other children have it, and so does my girl."

Before Cassandra reacted. Kenneth held her hand and walked into the amusement park.

If his ears didn't turn red. Cassandra would have thought that what she had heard was her illusion.

Kenneth and Cassandra were wandering in the amusement park. Suddenly, two people showed up in front of them.

Harper was also very surprised that he met Cassandra so smoothly.

"Cassandra, what a coincidence. Are you also here to have fun?"

Chapter 254

Cassandra frowned and felt annoyed.

Cassandra didn't know why. In the past, even if someone chatted up with her, she just ignored them at most. Anyway, she didn't know them.

But now, every time she saw Harper, she would feel that he had ulterior motives. He looked at her as if he wanted something.

She felt very uncomfortable.

“Let’s go.” Cassandra ignored Harper and wanted to leave with Kenneth.

“Cassandra, I think there is a misunderstanding between us.” Harper looked at Kenneth hostilely, but Harper quickly turned to Cassandra and said, “I’m your fan. I was very excited when I knew that I was in the same class as you, so I might act a little drastically, but it was just because I saw my idol,”

Harper knew that Cassandra was very defensive against him. He didn’t know what to do. If he continued to approach her as usual, he might be regarded as a madman or even be beaten. It didn’t matter if he was beaten. The most fearful thing was that she would regard him as an enemy. If so, he might go crazy.

Therefore, Harper had to explain his behavior in a different way. If he were her fan, it might make sense.

Vincent, who was next to Harper, seemed a little nervous, but Vincent said in a pleasant voice, ‘Hello, Cassandra. I’m Harper’s brother.’”

Kenneth narrowed his eyes and looked at Vincent and Harper up and down.

“Harper, even if you are Samantha’s fan, I am Cassandra in daily life. I hope you can distinguish my identities.” What Harper had done wasn’t a big deal. He was just too enthusiastic, which made her a little disgusted.

Now that Harper was Samantha’s fan, it could make sense.

But it just made sense barely.

“Cass, who are they?”

Kenneth took Cassandra's hand and looked at her.

Cassandra said tonelessly, "He is Harper Yates, a freshman who just transferred to my class. The other one, he just said that he was Harper's brother."

Vincent was a little disappointed. He had expected such a result, but it was still hard to accept when it happened.

Vincent read the contents on Twitter, and Theodore investigated what had happened after she returned to Benjamin's family. The more Vincent read it, the more frightened and distressed he became.

They didn't know that Cassandra had suffered so much.

However, their father clearly said that he had informed the Yates family to pick up Cassandra. Why did she appear in Benjamin's family and grow up in the countryside?

Kenneth greeted Vincent. "Nice to meet you, Mr. Yates."

Vincent couldn't pretend not to know Kenneth. Vincent reached out his hand and said, "Mr. Zelinski, long time no see."

Kenneth shook hands with Vincent symbolically.

Cassandra was curious and asked, "Do you know him?"

"Yes, I cooperated with Mr. Yates before. Mr. Yates is the adopted son of Zosteylor's royal family. He and his big brother have made great achievements in business. 20% of Zosteylor's GDP is almost provided by their company."

Kenneth had cooperated with Vincent, but just once. The reason why Kenneth remembered it was because he found that Harper looked like Zosteylor's royal family very much, so Kenneth guessed

Vincent said politely, "Thank you for your praise, Mr. Zelinski. You're a bigwig in the business. My. big brother and I will need your help in the future."

Cassandra. couldn't help rolling her eyes. They were so hypocritical.

*Kenneth, I want to play Turbo Drop. Cassandra suddenly looked up at Turbo Drop not far away. She was interested in it.

Kenneth was stuck for words.

Kenneth thought, 'Why did Cass choose such an exciting activity from the very beginning?'

Harper and Vincent also looked at Turbo Drop.

They didn't know what they could say.

"Harper, your brother and you must have other schedules. We will get out of your hair first. Cassandra dragged Kenneth to Turbo Drop and completely ignored Harper and Vincent.

Harper and Vincent, who were left behind, looked at each other helplessly. Harper said frustrated, "Vincent, what should we do? I don't know what is going wrong. Cassie dislikes me."

Vincent also noticed that Cassandra was indifferent to others but treated Kenneth gently.

Maybe Cassandra gave all her gentleness to someone she knew well.

Cassandra didn't know that they would think so much. Now she only cared about Turbo Drop.

"Cass, are you sure you want to play this?"

Although the height was not very high, it was thrilling.

“Yes, I want to play. It looks exciting. Do you want to join me?”

“Of course. My girlfriend invites me. How can I refuse?” They waited in line for the staff to dress them and attach safety ropes.

After the staff fixed the safety rope for Cassandra, Kenneth checked it again and again. He was relieved after confirming that there was no problem.

“Let’s go.

It could be seen that Cassandra was very happy and even couldn’t wait to feel the motion of free fall.

Turbo Drop swung back and forth twice and even stopped in the middle. The moment of waiting to fall was very thrilling.

“Wow!” Cassandra couldn’t help shouting.

When Cassandra came down from Turbo Drop, her eyebrows were filled with joy. She felt so great.

It was the first time that Kenneth saw her so happy. He couldn’t help but ask, “Are you happy?”

“Yeah, a little.”

Maybe it was because her mood had changed. When she was with Kenneth, it was easy for her to relax and let go of her guard. There was no need for her to be afraid that he would plot against her.

Therefore, she would naturally be gentle.

Kenneth patted Cassandra's head and said softly, "It's great that you're happy. My purpose is to make you happy."

"Let's

go. What else do you want to play?"

Cassandra nodded with a little excitement. Harper and Vincent saw the scene.

Harper became more depressed,

"Vincent, look how happy Cassie is."

Vincent was also jealous and said, "We've been late for so long to show up in Cassie's life. Even when she has a boyfriend, she still doesn't know the existence of us. We don't have the right to expect her to smile at us."

"Then when will we be able to let Cassie know that she is our sister?"

"Let's wait for Dad and Mom to clear all obstacles. We have missed Cassie for 18 years. It doesn't matter for us to wait for a few more months."

Cassandra and Harper were twins. They planned to let Harper get along well with Cassandra and get a good impression so that they could recognize each other in the future. However, Harper might act like a playboy, which made Cassandra dislike him.

"You're right, but Cassie has been bewitched by Kenneth. If anything happens between them, I will regret it. Vincent, please find a solution quickly. Look at Kenneth. He is not a good person. When he's with Cassie, he may take advantage of her."

Vincent was stuck for words.

Of course, Vincent knew that Harper was right, but there was no chance for Vincent to intervene!

Chapter 255

Kenneth and Cassandra didn't leave the amusement park until 3 p.m.

After a simple meal in the park, they went to watch a movie. It was lunchtime when the movie, ended.

Cassandra's stomach was rumbling. She was hungry.

Kenneth said as he opened the car door for Cassandra, "Let's go to have lunch. I know a restaurant that offers delicious steak. Let's try it together, and I've booked a table."

"Okay, I haven't eaten steak for a long time."

Cassandra wasn't fussy about her food. If it tasted good, she would eat more. If it tasted bad, she would eat less.

Instead of being fussy about her food, it was better to discard the unpalatable and eat more delicacies.

Now that Kenneth said it was delicious, it should be delicious. She could go to have a try.

After arriving at the restaurant, Cassandra got off and found that it was a steak restaurant, which was like an oil painting. It was a pure white wooden house and faced the bustling city scenery. It was surrounded by fresh green plants outside. The restaurant was also in a classic style. There were old-fashioned copper table lamps, ceiling fans, and delicate flowers. One might feel like they went back to the old days in there.

"The architecture here is in a very classic style." Kenneth liked it very much. It was rare. "Let's go in."

“Welcome.” The waiter at the door saluted them and opened the door for them.

The manager of the restaurant greeted them and said, “Mr. Zelinski, welcome!”

The manager greeted warmly, “The private room you booked is ready. May I serve the dishes now?”

“Okay, please serve for us.”

After sitting in the private room, Kenneth began to explain, “I ordered some dishes according to your taste and added a few signature dishes. Try them first. If you don’t like them, I will change them for you.”

“Okay.” Cassandra didn’t take it seriously.

Soon the appetizers were served, including caviar, cocktail cups, creamed chicken pastries, and soup.

After the appetizer, the manager served the main course and dessert.

Cassandra couldn’t help but feel that Kenneth knew her very well. Every dish seemed to be chosen for her, which was very suitable for her taste.

Cassandra ate happily and contentedly.

Suddenly, the door of the private room was opened. The voice sounded like Kayden. “I told you that Kenneth was here.”

When Kayden saw the people in the room, the smile disappeared on Kayden’s face immediately.

Kayden didn't expect Cassandra to be here.

"Cassie..."

Yannick said that Kenneth had been with Cassie. It seemed that it was true.

Behind Kayden were Maximilian, Denzel, Yasmine, Devin, and Jessica.

"The manager said that you were having lunch here. We just finished eating, so we came here to say hello to you."

But Kayden didn't expect it to be so awkward.

Kenneth greeted them tonelessly. "Hello, everyone. Although Kenneth's tone was aloof, they didn't take it seriously.

With Kenneth's identity, even if Kenneth ignored them, it made sense. Kayden was Kenneth's friend, so Kenneth respected them very much.

Cassandra's face clouded over slightly. She didn't say anything.

Maximilian's voice sounded like he had recovered. He walked towards Cassandra and said awkwardly, 'Cassie, you're here too. Do you like the dishes here? How about-

Cassandra interrupted him and said in a cold voice, "I like the dishes here. Kenneth and I have finished our meals. We have other things to deal with and would like to leave first."

Maximilian's gaze was more sincere than Benjamin's, but Cassandra would not be moved by kinship again.

“Cassie, why are you so reluctant to see me? I’m your grandpa. I want to explain many things to you. Can you give me a chance?” Maximilian had been intimidating in the business for half a century, but now he humbly wanted Cassandra to listen to him.

Maximilian knew that his daughter-in-law and grandchildren all failed to persuade Cassandra. Kenneth was having lunch here, so Maximilian wanted Kenneth to mediate between them. Unexpectedly, they met Cassandra directly.

Hearing Cassandra’s indifferent tone, Maximilian couldn’t stand it.

“I’m sorry for making you pass out with anger before. I’ve sincerely apologized to Kayden and Thomas. To avoid you becoming emotional again, I didn’t apologize to you in person. If you want to pursue this matter, tell me whatever you want.”

Cassandra didn’t want an explanation.

“I don’t care about this. It’s not your fault. It was because I didn’t follow the doctor’s advice. Thus, it has nothing to do with you. What I want to say is why we got you lost.” Maximilian knew that his daughter-in-law didn’t explain this matter clearly, so Cassandra misunderstood them.

“I don’t want to hear it. I’m living a good life now. I have gone to college and have a lot of savings. Kenneth paid me 2 billion dollars as the consultation fee to save Kayden. Thus, I don’t need money. I don’t need your compensation or a family either.”

In her world, family members were the most likely to betray her, especially the ones related by blood.

“No, that’s not what I meant.” Maximilian became emotional again.

Denzel hurriedly held Maximilian and comforted him softly. “Dad, calm down.”

Denzel looked at Cassandra with a complicated gaze. “Cassie, what had happened was complicated. We came to you as soon as we solved it. However, you had disappeared. We have never given up looking for you for so many years.”

Cassandra said sarcastically, "If you tried your best to find me, you wouldn't have failed to find me for so many years. Miranda knew that I was fake, but she still took the DNA test of Benjamin and me to find me and brought me home with Leonardo. They were so ungrateful, but they found me. You said that you had never given up. However, as soon as you got my news, you chose your important thing. After finding me, you want me to forget what happened and go back to the Yates family. Don't you think it's difficult for me?"

Denzel was speechless and didn't know what to say.

"No, it's not like that. Thomas would have an operation and had been pushed into the operating room. We..."

Thomas was sick and would have an operation. Its risk was extremely high. However, at the same time, they received a message from Cassandra's father.

Thus, as soon as Thomas' operation was successful, they set off.

Only Devin was left in the hospital. Even Jessica went to pick Cassandra up.

Cassandra was even more disappointed. She laughed at herself and said, "So, after being abandoned by my biological parents, I was abandoned again by the so-called family members. I see."

"It's not like that. We went there as soon as possible. Denzel still wanted to explain.

"Did all of you need to transfuse blood for Thomas? You waited for Thomas outside the operating.

room. When you got my news, you still chose to stay by Thomas' side. You never considered that one or two of you could go to find me to avoid the tragedy. You chose Thomas between the two of us. How can you say that you went to find me as soon as possible?"

It turned out that this was the truth.

As expected, the truth made her heartbroken the most.

Chapter 256

Cassandra sneered. If possible, she would rather not hear their explanation.

She previously thought she was unlucky. Her family went to look for her in the first place but they failed to find her.

However, the truth was that Thomas needed an operation back then. They were all worried about the results and didn't go look for them immediately. Several hours passed after they learned where she was, but they didn't care.

They didn't think of her until they learned that Thomas' operation was successful.

In the end, she was the one who was abandoned by them.

Denzel suddenly became silent. He realized that he shouldn't have talked like that.

Jessica suddenly stood up and said in a choked voice, "Cassie, I don't know how to explain so you can forgive us. But we never gave up looking for you. It's all my fault. Please don't hate your grandpa and others."

If someone needed to assume responsibility for Cassandra's disappearance, she was willing to do so as Thomas' mother.

If she had asked Maximilian and Denzel to pick up Cassandra immediately, Cassandra would not have suffered for the last 18 years.

Cassandra sighed, her eyes full of coldness. "Mrs. Yates, I don't need anyone to take the blame for that. It happened already. There was no coming back I just hope that my future life will be better."

Perhaps because she had a narrow escape, she was very sensitive to family affection. She didn't need any family bond at this time.

She was satisfied with her current life.

She didn't want to make the same mistakes in this life.

"Mrs. Yates, we have other things to do today. Please excuse us. It is inappropriate to talk about something in public," Kenneth said. He took Cassandra's hand, got up, and left.

Maximilian didn't react for a moment. Even Kayden didn't know what to do for a moment.

Yasmine watched them leave and suddenly asked, "Kayden, Cassie and Mr. Zelinski..."

"They're together," Kayden replied.

He felt that he did the wrong thing while staring after them.

Yasmine's eyes widened in disbelief. "What? Are they together?"

There was such a big gap between them. How could they be together?

Moreover, the Zelinski family was complicated. Even if Kenneth was in charge of Zelinski Group now, his father, stepmother, and half-brother were all evil.

If Cassandra was with Kenneth, she would be in a wolf's den.

They all looked at Kayden and waited for the exact answer. Kayden sighed and replied, "Yes, they've been together since the end of Cassie's summer camp in college. Mr. Zelinski has loved her for eight years. He won't hurt her."

Yasmine was a little annoyed and said bitterly, "It has nothing to do with it. Mr. Zelinski is nine years older than Cassie. Their age gap is too big. And the other members of the Zelinski family are bad. Cassie will be having a hard time. They are not suited to each other!"

Kayden curled his lip. "Mom, you can't disapprove of their relationship just because you think they are not suited to each other. Will Cassie listen to you? We have no right to interfere in their relationship. If you don't want Cassie to hate us more, you'd better stay out of it."

He shook his head and lost in thought. "I have things to do. I'm going back to the base."

Kenneth took Cassandra back to his villa, not Springmount Townhouse.

Cassandra followed him in, absent-minded. She looked up and suddenly found that this was not Hier house.

"Why did you bring me here?" she asked, looking at Kenneth blankly.

"I saw that you were a little distracted. I didn't feel comfortable leaving you alone at home. So I brought you to my home. You can have a good rest here today," Kenneth said, gently stroking her head.

He didn't know how to comfort her and make her happy, but he would always be there for her. Whenever she needed him, he would be there..

The truth that Denzel told was even more hurtful.

It must break Cassandra's heart.

Cassandra smiled bitterly and said, "Kenneth, I'll be fine."

“Alright. I am so worried about you, Cass. To reassure me, why don’t you stay at my house and let me keep your company today?” Kenneth suggested.

Cassandra suddenly closed her eyes, exhaled heavily, and then opened her eyes. “Kenneth, I think you are so good in love. I don’t feel like this is your first time in love.”

She changed the subject and stopped thinking about those unhappy things.

Kenneth was a little embarrassed. “I naturally know it while being with you.”

Actually, he googled a lot of love skills and even watched shot videos to learn how to pursue a woman and be nice to their girlfriends. He even signed up for some paid courses.

When the live streamer suggested in class that men should ask a woman to give birth to their children so that she could stay with them.

He was so angry that he blocked the streamer’s account decisively. In order not to let the man. continue to mislead others, Kenneth asked someone from his company’s technology department to delete the man’s account.

After that, he bought a lot of books and romance novels that young people liked.

Otherwise, how could he advance in love and keep Cassandra interested without learning?

Cassandra rocked with laughter. Kenneth looked very happy and finally grinned.

“Thank you, Kenneth!” Cassandra said.

She had no idea what Kenneth had said or which of his expressions made her laugh aloud. She was in a better mood now.

“Cass, let’s discuss it. Can you call me by my nickname?” Kenneth suddenly said.

He was her boyfriend now. Shouldn’t she address him more intimately? So others would know they were a couple.

‘Doesn’t Kenneth sound good to you?’ Cassandra asked, a little confused.

Kenneth was quite concerned with how Cassandra addressed him. It was too formal for her to address him Mr. Zelinski, so she called him Kenneth directly. But now he was not pleased with it.

“Okay, but it sounds too impolite. Aren’t we together now? Shouldn’t you address me by my nickname?” Kenneth argued.

“Well, you’re right. Cassandra nodded in agreement.

“How about I call you Cassie or baby?” Kenneth asked.

Cassandra thought, ‘Baby? Ew, gross!’

She couldn’t bear to refuse Kenneth when she saw his sincere eyes. “Well, I prefer Cassie,” she hesitated.

Kenneth looked a little disappointed, but he was indeed overjoyed.

He wanted to call Cassandra Cassie for many years.

Now, he could call her Cassie openly. How could he not be unhappy?

“Cassie, what are you going to call me?” Kenneth asked, looking at Cassandra expectantly.

“Kenny?” Cassandra asked tentatively.

Chapter 257

Sure enough, Kenneth was not satisfied with it.

Although he was happy no matter what Cassandra called him, he just wanted it to be special.

“Neither of them are good. Think it over,” Kenneth said.

Cassandra was rendered speechless.

It wouldn’t be that difficult to think of a plan worth hundreds of billions of dollars.

“What do you think? What would you like me to call you?” Cassandra asked. She thought “Ken” would be too cheesy, so she didn’t bring it up.

“Dear boyfriend, Ken...” Actually, Kenneth wanted Cassandra to call him Honey most.

However, Cassandra was too young to realize it.

She was speechless for a moment.

“I’ll call you Ken then,” she suddenly said. It turned out that was Kenneth’s type.

“Okay,” Kenneth replied, looking at Cassandra with expectation.

Cassandra was a little confused, wondering what he wanted.

“Cassie!” Kenneth called.

“Yes?” Cassandra was stunned.

“Cassie!” he called again.

“I’m here,” she replied.

Kenneth held her in his arms gently as if he was holding an invaluable treasure.

“Ken, I want to drink some water,” Cassandra said, spoiling the mood.

Kenneth suddenly recalled that he first met Cassandra eight years ago. She was very sensible and kind. Although she lived a poor life, there was hope in her eyes.

She saved his life at the time but later wanted to kick him out. It was not because she disliked him. She simply didn’t have enough money to support another person.

Jeremiah refused to leave. She compromised and took him in. However, she would break down crying if she took another person in.

At that time, he had only 400 dollars in cash. He bought Cassandra a lot of shrimp and gave her the rest of the money. Therefore, he was able to stay with her for a period.

Every time he heard her call him Ken, he felt warm in his heart and he was rejuvenated by new hope.

Therefore, he really wanted to hear her call him Ken again.

He didn’t expect her to agree so quickly. Given Cassandra’s current temper, she might refuse him. He was ready to beg her to agree, but he didn’t have to.

Kenneth chuckled and touched the tip of her nose gently with his forefinger.

“Wait, I’ll make a glass of juice for you,” she said.

Before Cassandra had any dessert, the Yates family suddenly showed up and spoiled her mood. She couldn’t eat them at this time, but she could drink a glass of juice.

“Okay. Thanks,” she said.

While making juice, Kenneth chose a photo of Cassandra’s back from his phone and shared it on Instagram with the caption, “My love, forever!”

Then he handed the glass of juice to Cassandra with satisfaction.

“Would you like to go upstairs and have a rest? I’ll drive you to school tomorrow morning,” Kenneth said, looking at the time. It was time for Cassandra to rest.

“Yes, please,” Cassandra replied.

Kenneth took Cassandra to her room and opened the door for her. The wall featured a blue gradient, which made people feel at ease. The room was spacious and tidy, with a big Winnie-the-Pooh on the bed.

Cassandra was stunned. She walked into the room and held the Winnie-the-Pooh in her arms. “Why is there a Winnie-the-Pooh in the room?” she asked.

“I noticed you really liked the bear on your apron, so I asked Yannick to get a Winnie-the-Pooh and put it on the bed. It will keep you if you spend the night here,” Kenneth replied.

Of course, he couldn’t tell her more about what was going through his head.

“Thank you,” Cassandra said. She was fond of the bear. It was huge.

“We’re lovers. You don’t need to thank me.” Kenneth walked in front of her and patted the Winnie-the-Pooh on the head, as if he were saying, “She’s the most important person to me. Please keep her company.”

After Kenneth returned to his room, he began to check his phone slowly.

He found that a lot of people left their comments. He smirked and clicked on them.

Yannick: [Nobody can compete with you when you begin to show your affection!]

Ethan: [Congratulations, Mr. Zelinski! You finally have the woman you always wanted. By the way, Yannick, are you courting death?]

Kayden: [Kenneth, be nice to Cassie.]

Thomas: [Kenneth, is this woman Cassie? Are you really with her?]

A realty CEO: [Is this Mr. Zelinski’s Instagram account? Could it be his account is stolen?]

President of a bank: [Mr. Zelinski, have you got a wife?]

A real estate developer: [Congratulations, Mr. Zelinski! You finally found the love of your life. When will you introduce your new girlfriend to us?]

When Kenneth came back to the country and wanted to have further contact with Cassandra, he applied for an Instagram account. Yannick also invited many business partners to follow him on Instagram.

Usually, Kenneth never posted anything on Instagram. Even when they decided to be together, he didn't post it. This was the first time he posted a photo on it.

It caused an uproar among his followers. They all thought it was unbelievable.

Kenneth, the world's richest man, was cruel and indit. How could he post a photo announcing he had a girlfriend?

Most importantly, he replied to them one by one.

Except for Yannick and the real estate developer, everyone's comments were simple.

Kenneth: [Yannick, you seem to be idle. Double your training from tomorrow on. Quadruple it if you dare to retort.]

Kenneth replied to the real estate developer: [I'll introduce her to you when we meet another day.]

Cassandra had no idea about it. She fell asleep with peace of mind.

When Jeremiah saw Kenneth's Instagram, he scolded Kenneth for being shameless in the base!

The others didn't know about it. How could he not know?

It took Kenneth great effort to make Elaine call him Ken. In Jeremiah's opinion, he had bad intentions towards Elaine back then.

Jeremiah thought, 'He knew that Elaine lost her memory, but he still tricked her into calling him Ken!

'Shame on him!

'He's so brazen!'

Yannick couldn't help but ask curiously, "What did my boss do to make you so angry?"

His boss did nothing but show off his love. But why did Jeremiah scold him for a long time?

"Kenneth always bullies Elaine because she was young. Elaine is so kind. How dare he deceive her?" Jeremiah replied.

Yannick's eyes shone with excitement. He realized there was a story behind it.

He kept asking Jeremiah and gossiping with him all night. It was already dawn when they ended their conversation.

At the thought of double training today, he suddenly wanted to retire early.

Kenneth got up at 6 o'clock and made breakfast for Cassandra. When he was in the middle of it, Cassandra came downstairs.

"Ken, you didn't have to get up so early to make breakfast. We can go out for breakfast," she said.

She slept early and soundly the night before. She slept early and soundly the night before. Except for dreaming of a strange person, she had the best sleep of the year.

“The breakfast in the restaurant is not as good as the one I made. Didn’t you say that the food I made was to your taste?” Kenneth replied.

Kenneth wished he could cook three meals for her a day, but he didn’t have enough time to cook for her. Anyway, he didn’t want to be deprived of the right to make her breakfast

Chapter 258

“Moreover, I like cooking for you. Please satisfy my wish,” Kenneth said. The passion in his eyes made Cassandra not bear to refuse him.

It seems that what happened yesterday was just an illusion when he was around.

Especially when she saw Jeremiah’s message this morning, her heart seemed to be healed by him.

[Elaine, Kenneth is such a jerk. Why don’t you consider dating someone else? He’s not a good match for you.]

[I know many outstanding young men who are only two or three years older than you. I’ll introduce them to you. You can choose better. Kenneth is nine years older than you, and he will age faster than you!]

[There is a generation gap when your ages are three years apart. Look, there will be three generation gaps between Kenneth and you. How can you get along well with each other in the future?]

[What’s more, he showed off his affection on Instagram! Shame on him!]

When she saw the post, she gave him a thumbs–up anonymously.

Jeremiah sensed it and immediately reply her with an ellipses.

However, Cassandra ignored him. It seemed that the training was not intense enough for Jeremiah, so he still had free time to swipe his phone. He needed more training.

When she went downstairs, she saw Kenneth cooking breakfast for her. At that moment, she didn't feel her family members were that important.

She would be happy to have him only.

When they finished breakfast and were about to walk out of the door, their phones rang at the same time.

"Hello?"

"There's an urgent task, Go back to the base immediately and get Falcon Special Operation Force ready to go," Kenneth's supervisor commanded.

"Got it!" Kenneth replied seriously.

Cassandra also received an urgent task. The operation required technical support from the information security department, so she was called to assemble immediately.

Others outside Drieso also needed to rush to the designated place as soon as possible.

They looked at each other and said in unison, "It's an urgent task."

"I'll drive to the National Security Bureau by myself. You can go back to the base now," Cassandra said in a deep voice.

“All right. There’s no time to lose,” Kenneth replied, looking very serious.

“Okay,” Cassandra echoed.

After they said goodbye to each other, Cassandra drove straight to the National Security Bureau.

When she arrived at the Director’s Office, she found she was a little late. Her team members from Drieso had already arrived.

When Spark saw Cassandra coming in, he hurriedly stepped forward and greeted her. “Emery, long time no see.”

“Long time no see,” Cassandra replied.

“Well, stop saying hi to each other. There is a very urgent task that needs you to work with the Falcon Special Operations Force,” Daniel interrupted. It was so urgent that they needed to leave right away.

“Yes, sir!” they answered in unison decisively.

2/6

assau

same urgent task as Kenneth this morning.

“You need to hand in your mobile phones when you perform the task, and we will hand out cell phones for your use,” Daniel said. He wanted to collect their phones right away, but he decided to do so at the destination because he still needed to collect the phones of other members at that time.

Daniel didn’t explain what the task was, ready to leave with them.

“Director Walker, I didn’t bring a change of clothes,” Cassandra suddenly said.

No one told her that she needed to leave Drieso to perform a task. She previously thought it could be solved in Drieso, so she drove here without any luggage.

Daniel was stunned and then realized that Emery didn’t bring anything.

“So what do you do now? The plane will take off in an hour. We’re going to fly in Falcon Special Operations Force’s plane,” he said.

“Are we setting off from the airport or Falcon Special Operations’ base?” Cassandra asked.

“Falcon Special Operations Force’s base,” Daniel replied.

“I see,” Cassandra replied.

She called Hugo and asked him to put her laptop and two changes of clothes into her suitcase.

Then she called Kenneth. Fortunately, he was far away from the base and hadn’t arrived yet. “What’s up, Cassie?” he asked.

“Please ask Ethan to go to my villa and take my suitcase to your base. We will work with you to complete the task and fly to the destination together with you guys,” Cassandra said.

“Okay, I’ll have Ethan go fetch it for you,” Kenneth answered.

Cassandra hung up the phone. Daniel looked at her as if he had seen a ghost.

He thought, ‘Emery is indeed a Dig shot.

Judging from her tone, the man on the other end of the line should be the head of Falcon Special Operations Force. She asked him to serve her. That was unbelievable!

“Shall we go now?” Cassandra asked.

Daniel couldn't help but ask, “Are you sure there's time for that?”

“Yes, I am sure,” Cassandra replied.

At Falcon Special Operations Force Base, everyone was ready to go. After Kenneth changed his uniform, Yannick and Kayden began to assemble their men.

“According to the superior's order, a riot broke out in Zosteylor, endangering people's safety. It is estimated that more than 20 Clusians were in severe physical danger in Zosteylor. What we need to do this time is evacuate them from Zosteylor safely. The National Security Bureau has sent some staff from the information security department to cooperate with us. We must succeed in this mission! Understand?”

They must not only succeed but also accomplish the task without getting hurt.

“Yes, sir! We promise we'll complete the mission!” the soldiers said in unison.

By the time Cassandra and the others arrived, Kenneth had come up with a rescue plan, ready to go.

When Daniel met Kenneth, Daniel said to him seriously, “Commander Zelinski, I have notified everyone in the information security department, but some of them live outside Drieso. So I will ask them to fly straight to Zosteylor. I'll trouble you to pick them up at that time.”

His ability was limited. All his men were technical masters, but they were not good fighters, so he needed someone to protect them.

“Don’t worry, Director Walker. I will arrange for someone to pick them up,” Kenneth replied.

He glanced at Cassandra out of the corner of his eye. He knitted his brows and kind of worried about her.

Zosteylor was currently at war. He didn’t want Cassandra to risk her life.

However, she was in charge of the information security department.

“Then I’m rest assured,” Daniel said.

Everybody got on the plane, heading to Zosteylor.

On the plane, those soldiers who were familiar with Cassandra began to greet her. “Ms. Yates, we are working together again. What an honor!”

“I’m honored, too,” Cassandra answered.

However, Jeremiah was a little unhappy. He sat next to Cassandra and asked in a reproachful tone, “Why the hell are you here? What a dangerous place Zosteylor is! Do you have a death wish?”

Cassandra glanced at Jeremiah and asked, “You guys can go. Why can’t I?”

“We are soldiers. It’s our duty to protect civilians. What are you doing there?” Jeremiah said, taking it for granted.

“It seems that the training you’ve done these days is not in vain,” Cassandra chuckled.

“I’m not kidding with you,” Jeremiah said.

“Jeremiah, do you think you can defeat me? Can they defeat me with the weapons they have?”
Cassandra said seriously. “I’m not that weak. I can protect myself. Just do your job.”

Moreover, the two most important people in her life participated in this mission, so she was very fortunate to fight alongside Kenneth again and protect Jeremiah.

Chapter 259

After getting off the plane, Cassandra turned on her mobile phone.

She received a lot of messages from Cassidy, Sofia, her instructor, and Howard.

Sofia: [My idol, why didn’t you attend class today? I noticed no one answered when the teacher called your name.]

Sofia: [The school is over. Why haven’t you come yet? Are you fine?]

Cassidy: [Cassandra, did anything happen to you?]

Cassidy: [How strange! You didn’t come to school. Neither did Harper.]

They were all concerned about her and kept texting or calling her. Cassandra felt a little embarrassed for a moment.

She walked up to Daniel and said awkwardly, “Director Walker, please notify my school that I’ll get a couple of days off school. I forgot to ask for leave.”

This task would take a long time, so she needed to justify herself. She decided to let Daniel ask for leave on her behalf. Anyway, he was the one who gave her this task.

Daniel raised his eyebrows and asked in surprise, "Ask for leave?"

"I'm still a student. Don't I need to ask for leave when I'm absent from class?" Cassandra asked back.

Daniel was speechless.

He forgot Cassandra was still a freshman in college.

"Leave it to me. Don't worry about it," Daniel replied.

She only replied to Sofia's WhatsApp message. [I have something urgent to do. I will ask for leave later. Please let Cassidy know.]

However, she didn't have time to reply to all of them. Daniel began to collect their cell phones. She switched it off and handed it over to him.

After arriving at the battle camp, the rest of the staff from the information security department also arrived.

They started assigning work..

After hours of meetings and situation analysis, they finally had an idea of Zosteylor's situation. The war was caused by power competition. Zosteylor's new queen had taken power a year ago, but she never made public appearances on television. Her husband presided over everything on her behalf.

They subdued the infighting and drove the queen's sister from Zosteylor. This time, the queen's sister returned with her troops to seize power.

They didn't expect their war to injure Clusia nationals by mistake.

Kamila, the queen's sister, was determined to obtain the position she deserved. When Clusia's troops negotiated with her, they didn't get a satisfactory answer.

Kamila intended to occupy the Queen's palace earlier, with the support of Clusia's troops. She had threatened Clusia with its people, but Clusia had its own rules and would never intervene in the internal affairs of other countries.

Their task was to evacuate Clusia nationals from Zosteylor safely. The internal affairs in Zosteylor had nothing to do with Clusia.

Unfortunately, the two sides couldn't reach a consensus. Clusia gave the task to the Falcon Special Operations Force and requested that they complete the mission with the support of the information security department.

After the meeting, Kenneth asked them to go back to their rooms for a rest and decided to assign them the assignment the next morning.

At that time, only Kenneth and Cassandra were left in the huge office.

He had suppressed his emotions for a long time along the way. He was torn between his beloved woman and Clusia nationals. As a commander, he couldn't fail his duties.

Cassandra had the best hacking skills in the information security department. In other words, Emery was admired by hackers all over the world. Without her, Falcon Special Operations Force might spend more effort while achieving fewer results. They might also face more dangers.

But Cassandra was his girlfriend. He would be distracted and worried about her safety if she stayed on the battlefield.

After hesitating for a long time, Kenneth said, "Cassie, you... You shouldn't have come."

He didn't doubt her abilities but worried about her safety.

Cassandra frowned and said with dissatisfaction, "Are you afraid of me dragging you down?" She added after thinking for a while, "How about we have a competition? Please don't say that again if I win or we're even."

Kenneth's tone was exactly like Jeremiah's, but Jeremiah sounded a little angrier.

She could protect herself. What made them worry so sick?

Kenneth was stunned.

"Cassie, I'm not questioning your ability and fighting skills. As long as you are in this dangerous place, I can't stop worrying about you," he explained.

He worried sick as long as he thought of the risk she might face.

Cassandra's frown eased. She patted Kenneth on the shoulder and said in a very gentle tone, "I know what you mean. I understand your concern. But now we have more important things to do. We shouldn't put personal safety first."

Although she was not a soldier, she served the country. She was still prompted by patriotism.

However, Kenneth deepened his frown upon hearing what she said. "Cassie..."

"Stop trying to persuade me. You should understand me," Cassandra said.

Kenneth was surprised. He thought, 'How am I to understand you? You were abandoned by your family and had a miserable childhood, but you are still optimistic about life. You don't believe in love, but you still choose to risk your life for strangers? Cassie, you're so conflicted. What kind of a person are you?’

“I give up. When you’re in danger, try your best to protect yourself and wait for me to save you,” Kenneth said.

“No problem. Don’t worry. It’s not easy for me to revive. I don’t wanna die,” Cassandra blurted out. It was the first time for her to say something without thinking.

“Revive?”

Kenneth was a little confused. What did that mean?

“For me, I revived after leaving the Yates family,” Cassandra said, trying to whitewash it.

Kenneth understood what she said with any suspicions.

“Yeah. You’re right,” Kenneth agreed.

“The two sides in Zosteylor agreed to a truce for the time being. We can take the chance to deploy our rescue work during this period,” Cassandra said. All could think now was work.

There were more than 30,000 Clusians in Zosteylor. Evacuation of all of them was an arduous task, and they also needed to keep them safe in the war.

It was quite a challenge.

“We can discuss it tomorrow. Have a good night’s sleep,” Kenneth said.

Because it was a truce, Cassandra packed her backpack and went out with Kenneth. They wouldn't succeed in their task if they didn't do fieldwork.

They needed to know the situation of Clusians and civilian casualties.

Many people were left homeless after their homes were damaged by the blast. Refugees rushed into the supermarket to snatch food. Bombs wounded children's hands, but they were unable to get to the hospital for treatment.

Cassandra felt sad when she saw the scene. She suddenly felt proud of being a Clusian.

She walked in front of the injured child, examined him, and stopped the bleeding. Then she took out a pill from her bag and fed the kid.

She couldn't speak much of the local language, so she could only communicate with the child's mother in broken sentences. She advised the mother to feed him with more water and pay attention to the child at night in case he had a fever.

Chapter 260

Cassandra kept treating patients on the streets in Zosteylor, whether they came from Clusia or Zosteylor. She didn't stop until she used up all the drugs in her backpack.

Acupuncture might help people heal and halt bleeding, but they still needed drugs to sterilize their wounds.

When she got up, she felt dizzy and almost fell on her back. Fortunately, Kenneth supported her in time.

"Cassie, let's call it a day. There are many injured people, and you can't save them all. You barely eat all day," Kenneth said, his heart aching for her.

They met injured kids, women, and elders every few steps. She didn't even have time to take a rest.

He fed her two chocolate bars and to be removed.

O pieces of hardtack while she waited for the needles

"I'm afraid I have to call it a day. I used up all the drugs I had with me. We'll see when we come out tomorrow," Cassandra said helplessly, rubbing her forehead.

"Let's go back. There are so many injured people. We can't save all of them. You have already tried your best," Kenneth comforted her.

"Mhm," Cassandra replied.

After returning to the camp, Cassandra ate a quick meal and was ready to go to bed.

But when she double-checked her drugs, she found that there was not much left.

Especially the ones used for stopping bleeding and relieving pain. Today, she stuffed most of them into her backpack and used up all of them.

Even the anesthetic Hugo prepared for her was not much left.

She wondered how to deliver the drugs she needed.

Seeing her frown, Kenneth asked with concern, "What's bothering you?"

“Hugo has prepared a lot of drugs for me, but they almost ran out today. The majority of the remaining ones are cold medicine and fever reducers with special effects. There are no drugs for traumatic injuries left,” Cassandra replied, a little annoyed.

‘Why did I run out of them at once? I should have sorted them out. Even if I used half of them, I could have saved and treated more people,’ she said to herself.

But now, she couldn’t save people with cold medicines.

“Cassie, you’ve tried your best. You have already saved so many people today. You did an amazing job. Keep the rest of the drugs for yourself, okay?” Kenneth said in a comforting voice.

He didn’t want her to take any more risks. Although it was a truce, there were still outlaws out there trying to provoke the war again.

He couldn’t go out with her anytime. He had a lot of work to do, so he didn’t have time to go out with her tomorrow.

“I did my best. Have you sent those Clusians that I saved today to the consulate?” Cassandra asked. She didn’t care if she had run out of drugs. All she could think was when she could go out tomorrow.

“Yes, I have,” Kenneth replied softly. “I need to deploy tasks tomorrow. I might be busy all day. You stay in the camp and do your work on information security.”

“I made an arrangement long ago. When the mission begins, it will activate the software I configured, which can monitor everywhere in Zosteylor except for the queen’s palace. It can help with your operations. Spark and Sylph can collaborate with you to monitor any location you want,” Cassandra replied.

Kenneth felt something was wrong as he listened to her. They almost received the task at the same time. When did she complete this software?

He wondered if she completed it the night before.

Didn't it mean she hadn't slept all night?

"You studied this software all night without sleeping?" he asked.

Cassandra nodded obediently. It was a little complicated to build a platform, configure monitoring services, and connect all the surveillance cameras to this software. There were too many things that needed to be done, so it took her a lot of time.

"You..." Kenneth didn't know what to say for a moment. Hearing what Cassandra had done, he knew it may do them a big favor. It was a great sort of feather in their cap.

He would be too sentimental if he was talking too much.

"Have a good rest today. Let's talk about it tomorrow," he said.

"Wait. I have a favor to ask," Cassandra said, suddenly thinking of a way. "I'll send someone to pick up drugs from Hugo. Can you give him the green light to transport them into the camp?"

She was now in the camp, and she had to follow the regulations to get in and out. Kenneth would not approve of her leaving the camp so easily for a good reason.

But she could ask her men to bring the drugs over if he could give her the green light.

Why didn't she think of it just now?

It was Daniel's fault for not telling her about the task in the first place. She was caught unprepared because the drugs were running out.

Kenneth was stunned.

“How about this? You ask Hugo to prepare the drugs you need, and I’ll have Ethan and Lamont bring them over. Don’t worry about it anymore, okay?” he answered, knowing Cassandra would come up with such an idea.

She would save the patient she wanted to save anyway. Regarding Faye’s rule, she refused to treat someone just because they were bad.

She was willing to treat and save ordinary people, even for free.

“Okay, I’ll leave it to you. There’s no time to lose. I’ll ask Hugo to prepare the drugs now,”

Cassandra said. Ignoring Kenneth, she called Hugo and asked him to prepare as many drugs as he could.

She also ordered Whitecrane Hall to produce drugs as soon as possible.

The next day, Kenneth didn’t allow her to go out alone. In the end, he compromised and arranged for two soldiers to go with her.

“Emery, what are we doing here?” one of the soldiers asked. It would be nice to stay with Emery, but they also wanted to participate in the mission.

“Why don’t you go back first? Don’t worry about me. When I use up these drugs, I will go back,” Cassandra said. They were desperately in need of people to complete the task. She was a little embarrassed to have two of them protect her.

When Cassandra came across anyone who had been injured, she began treating them with acupuncture and feeding them drugs again.

Soon, a group of people appeared all of a sudden. They surrounded them from the front and back.

The man who stood in front of her asked in broken Clusian, "A—Are you the doctor they mentioned yesterday?"

He thought, 'She looks so young. How could she be a doctor? Could she be a swindler?'

The man behind her spoke fluent Clusian. "I heard that a goddess appeared in this area yesterday and treated the injured. I bet you're the doctor, right?"

His voice was pleasant. Cassandra assumed he was young, no older than Kenneth.

She withdrew the needles and looked ahead. She motioned her two companions to contact Kenneth immediately.

Unfortunately, their cell phones had no signal.

Cassandra was startled.

She took out her phone and the black screen lit up for a while. She removed their signal block in one minute. Her two companions were able to call Kenneth right away.

She turned to look at the man behind her. He didn't look like a soldier but a nobleman with a handsome face.

The man was also stunned at the sight of her. He even looked a little frightened.