Lydia cleared her throat and said in a slightly excited tone, "You barely pass."

"Kenneth, I'm not giving you a hard time," Lydia said seriously and handed Nelson to Eddie. "Ms. Yates had two babies in her belly. She must have been too busy to take care of them alone. I only had one son,

Nelson. Even with my parents—in-law's help, it also takes me a lot of energy to take care of him. When Ms. Yates gives birth to two babies in the future, it is your common task to take care of them. You must learn how to take care of babies. You can't experience the pain of pregnancy and childbirth, but you have to take care of her and the two babies."

That was what she wanted.

Nowadays, many men would say that taking care of children was just a matter of ease and happiness..

Only after they experienced it in person could they know whether it was an easy task or not. She was going to let Kenneth experience the hardship of taking care of a child today, and this feeling could only be remembered at the most important moment.

Kenneth's face softened a little and he said in a low voice, "I promise you that I will always take good care of Cassie. Don't worry. I know it and I won't let it happen."

Lydia raised her eyebrows. "Okay. Everyone has heard that. We're all witnesses!"

Then she got out of the way and let Kenneth in, but this time, Kenneth didn't move.

"Are there any barriers inside?"

After experiencing all these, he was scared.

"Not anymore. Hurry up and go in!"

Kenneth seemed to be reassured and pushed the door open.

The moment he opened the door, he was stunned!

He had seen this wedding dress. It was designed by Cassandra, and he asked someone to make it.

Therefore, he had seen the finished product, but he hadn't seen Cassandra in it. It was truly stunning.

It was a kind of pure and cold, more like romance in the dawn light. He was shocked by such beauty.

Suddenly someone said, "The groom was shocked by the beauty of the bride!"

The crowd burst into laughter, and even Kenneth couldn't help laughing.

"Yeah, Cassie is really beautiful."

Hearing this, Cassandra just smiled. It really took a long time for Kenneth to get here.

"Cassie, I'm here." Kenneth walked slowly to Cassandra, squatted beside her, and held her hand as if holding a treasure he had worked so hard to get.

“Don’t waste your time. Hurry up and find the bridal shoes. Without shoes, the bride can’t leave this room.” Someone yelled, which reminded Kenneth of the most important thing.

He had to look for the bridal shoes!

All the groomsmen started searching the room but found nothing.

“Are they under the bride’s wedding dress?” It seemed that Ethan was shouting. There were too many people and Kenneth could not hear it clearly.

Kenneth touched Cassandra’s wedding dress again and felt it. But it seemed that there was nothing...

“Cassie, can you tell me where the shoes are hidden?”

Kenneth found that he couldn’t defeat any of Cassandra’s family, especially women!

Kenneth had no choice but to ask Cassandra for help.

“You gave me a bag two days ago...”

Kenneth immediately reacted and began to look for the bag. Yes, one of the shoes was in the bag, but where was the other?

“Nelson...”

Kenneth shouted at Eddie, “Where is Nelson’s bag?”

Parents had to take a lot of things with them wherever they went with children, and Nelson had to have a bag too.

“I don’t know. Maybe it is with Lydia.” Eddie thought, ‘I can’t make it too obvious.’”

However, Lydia didn’t have a backpack...

“Where are the other ones? Give it to me!” Kenneth walked to Lydia and said in a deep voice.

“You should go to Nelson. He took it, and now it’s gone. I don’t know.” Lydia played dumb.

Kenneth was speechless.

Why did Eddie get married so early?

He couldn’t even take revenge now!

Kenneth looked around for a while and finally locked the bag on the bedside table. At first, he rummaged through it. There was nothing special, but now he felt that there must be something fishy.

Sure enough, the other shoe was in the bag.

Kenneth immediately walked out of the room with Cassandra in his arms. Lucas and Sylvia sat on the sofa, standing in front of them.

Lucas spoke first, “Kenneth, although Cassandra is not my biological daughter, she is more important than my own son. I will do anything for her. You have to take good care of her from today on, and you’ve seen how powerful her family and friends are.

“I hope you guys will live a good life. Cassandra lived a hard life in the first part of her life, and you have to take good care of her for the rest of her life, okay? Otherwise, I will be sorry for the deceased Blossom.”

“Lucas, don’t worry. I won’t fail Cassie.” Kenneth thought, ‘She was the treasure of my life. How can I fail her?’

“Cassie, you will be a wife and mother in the future. You should take care of yourself and be considerate to Kenneth. There will inevitably be stumbles between couples. If you can understand each other, everything w

be alright. When there is dissension between you two, you should meet each other halfway,” Sylvia also said.

“Yes, Sylvia. I know.” Cassandra nodded.

“Well, go ahead. I’ll see you in the hall.”

From this moment on, the wedding officially began to be broadcast live.

If the previous scenes were released, these people’s reputations would be ruined.

Kenneth carried Cassandra into the elevator and got in the wedding car...

[Here it comes. I’ve been waiting for them for a long time.]

[Me too. I’ve waited for a long time and finally saw them get married!]

[It’s so luxurious! This is my dream wedding!]

[Although it is morning, you can wake up. Haven't you woken up yet? You are dreaming early in the morning.]

[They are all luxury cars. I'm dazzled. It makes me so envious.]

[I'm tired of saying envy. This lineup is absolutely unique!]

[They are both radiant with a sweet smile.]

[Am I the only one who noticed that their best men and bridesmaids are powerful? They're all big [Wow, there are so many cute guys and pretty girls. I don't know which one to pick!]

[Cassandra smiles so sweetly. I can see that she is really happy.]

[Of course! This wedding cost at least 400 million dollars. If you were her, you would wake up laughing.]

The wedding hall was decorated luxuriously. It was said that every flower and accessory was chosen by Kenneth himself.

When the audience saw the hall, they were even more crazy!

[Holy shit, this is so luxurious. When can I go in? I can also attend my bestie's wedding!]

[It's so beautiful, but does Cassandra deserve such a beautiful wedding hall?]

Chapter 492

[The wedding is so exaggerated!]

[I'm speechless. What an extravagant wedding! Can't they donate their money to those poor and in need in Clusia?]

[Are you insane? They can spend their own money as they want. It has nothing to do with you, doesn't it? Don't poke your nose into their business.]

[So funny! They probably earn black money. I suggest relevant departments inspect it.]

[Don't slander them due to your jealousy. Do you know how many charities Mr . Zelinski and Cassandra have for a year?]

[Go find out how much money Kenneth and Cassandra donate a year by yourselves. They set up their fund and helped a lot of those in need. Think twice before you speak, or I'll make a tip-off!]

People on the Internet quarreled because of the luxurious auditorium. Nevertheless, it didn't affect Kenneth and Cassandra. They didn't even bother to pay attention to it.

The wedding was going on.

The men who led Cassandra to Kenneth were Denzel and Devin, which should be thanks to Kayden.

It could also be said that this was the result of Denzel and Devin begging Cassandra a lot.

Everyone was dumbfounded, wondering why Cassandra was led by two people.

When putting Cassandra's hand into Kenneth's, Denzel picked up the microphone and said, "Kenneth, I'll address you once in this way today. We have a complicated relationship with Cassie, but we thank you and Cassie for giving us the opportunity to let me and Devin take her on this path on behalf of her father.

"Cassie is a child we've felt guilty about. We caused her tragedy and want to make up for her as much as possible, not only because of what happened but also because she's the only daughter in our Yates

"If there's anything wrong with her, just tell us. She's from our Yates family... and you must love her and cherish her."

Denzel's sincere words moved Cassandra.

Actually, Denzel and others were not wrong-

"I will. I'll love and cherish Cassie," Kenneth promised.

However, Omar couldn't sit still. "Humph, you two stole my position. I have something to say!"

Omar turned to look at Kenneth. "Cassie is like my granddaughter. I watched her grow up, and entrusted by Blossom, took care of her. I'm her teacher for life. Therefore, I have the right to speak. Kenneth, you can't bully Cassie in any case. If she's wrong, I'll teach her a lesson, but I hope you can be tolerant of each other..."

Kenneth nodded and accepted it humbly.

The wedding finally began.

"Please take an oath!" announced the host.

Kenneth and Cassandra prepared different oaths.

Kenneth stated, "I, Kenneth Zelinski, take you, Cassandra Yates, to be my wife and my partner in life. I will be your believer forever. I will stay with you no matter how far you go. I will always be there through health or sickness, through the difficult or the easy. But what may come I hope you can think for yourself and find your happiness.

"I was 18 when I first met you and 27 when I saw you again. Each day during the nine years witnessed my deeper love for you, and so will those in the future. I can't guarantee how long my love for you will last, but at least I will love you till my heart stops beating..."

Kenneth's words were touching. He would love Cassandra for a lifetime, but he didn't want her to be alone to take care of him when he was sick. How selfish he was!

“So, Ms. Cassandra Yates, do you want to marry me?” Kenneth wanted to ask this question in person.

“Yes, I do,” Cassandra answered without hesitation.

She said, “Mr. Kenneth Zelinski, the father of my future children, are you ready to take care of us? I’m neither afraid of hardships nor pain in giving birth to them, but I hope you will at least stay with me spending the hard time looking after them. I don’t need your greatness. I just want you to grow up with our children. I hope they will never experience what I did.

“I wish they could ever feel our love and support for them as their parents after they are born. As for” what you said, I have something I disagree with. I won’t leave you when you have difficulties because you are mine. I will never let you go until your death.

“I’m domineering and will be emotionally unstable sometimes. So, Mr. Zelinski, please be more tolerant of me in our future life. I will change the problems that you point out...”

Cassandra became very loquacious perhaps because she had been a mother .

“So, Mr. Zelinski, do you want to marry me?” She then finished with this question.

“Yes, I do.”

In the comments of the live streaming, people all started to freak out again.

[Oh my Gosh! So touching!]

[I like Cassandra’s possessiveness. “I will never let you go until your death.” I’m crying!]

[So envious of them. I admire their love.]

[Who says there's no true love between the rich? They're so happy. I envy them!]

[Are they making a show? They seem like reciting lines! No one's really touched, is he?]

Kenneth thought, 'How dare he make fun of my wife? Does he wanna die?

"Which wedding company does he belong to? It's on my blacklist!"

However, everyone present began to laugh and even joked about it!

People on the Internet also laughed out loud. They thought, 'What a funny host!'

[What the hell? That's so funny! Mr. Zelinski did kiss Cassandra for a long time, but does the host want to be fired for saying it?]

[LOL! Kiss her after the wedding!]

[What? Aren't they afraid? Cassandra has two babies in her belly!]

[I wanna say it, too. How can they do that with two babies? Aren't they afraid of the babies' protest?]

[Am I weird or are you guys? The babies' protest? What the hell?]

As the ceremony was over, the host announced with excitement, "It's time for the bride to throw at bouquet. All gentlemen and ladies who want to get blessings can come!"

Everyone rushed up, including Kayden!

Jeremiah was ready, and Yannick joined in the fun. If he could get the bouquet, Yannick would take Jeremiah to register their marriage in Deris immediately.

Anyway, only their passports or driver's licenses were needed to get the certificate in Deris. It was very easy!

Cassandra glanced at the audience. It seemed that only Jeremiah and Yannick were a couple, so...

Cassandra threw the bouquet at Yannick with her back to everyone.

Yannick caught it quickly!

Then he exclaimed, "Thank you, Mrs. Zelinski! Thank you for your blessing!"

Yannick raised the bouquet in his hand and ran away with Jeremiah.

The audience was left stunned.

Sofia felt it was weird. She wondered why she couldn't tell who was top or bottom of this couple of gays. Was it because they were both inconspicuous?

"Cassie, who's the top or bottom between them?" Sofia had been bothered by this question for a long time. After all, they were the first couple of gays around her.

She was so enjoyable of shipping a couple!

Cassandra felt a little speechless. "I have no idea. You can ask them."

However, Jeremiah would never admit it. He even felt that he was at the top of them!

After the ceremony, everyone began to enjoy the meal. Kenneth received a message from Yannick asking for leave.

[Mr. Zelinski, I wish you a happy wedding. I wanna take a week off to pursue my happiness! I'm gonna Deris with Jeremiah to get our marriage certificate. Thank you!]

Kenneth was speechless.

He thought, 'This guy is even more resolute than me!

"Who am I in his heart?"

Even so, Kenneth approved it.

A week's vacation? It would only take them two days to fly to and back from getting marriage registration. However, Yannick asked for a week's leave. Maybe he was going on his honeymoon.

However, Kenneth didn't even have a honeymoon. How could he agree?

Thus, Kenneth regretted it and only gave Yannick three days off.

Yannick, who had been cheering at first, didn't know what to say for a moment. He had to admit that Kenneth was mean.

Kenneth showed the text message to Cassandra. She raised her eyebrows and thought, 'They're so unrestrained!'

"What else can I do except for blessing them? As Yannick's boss, you should give him a wedding gift, shouldn't you?" Cassandra laughed, feeling happy for Jeremiah.

It didn't matter who Jeremiah loved, as long as he could be happy.

None of them were born gay. They just loved someone who had the same sex as themselves.

"Aren't you going to give them one?" Kenneth joked.

"Well, no. I just received his gift. I can't return it to him." Cassandra frowned and thought, 'The gift hasn't been opened yet. I can't give it back!!'

Thinking of this, she thought Yannick was going too far.

Kenneth was amused by the expression on his wife's face and even felt that she was cute..

"You little girl..."

"What's wrong with me? Am I bad?" Cassandra asked softly.

Kenneth said, "No. I think you made the right decision."

i

Harper in Zosteylor had been watching the live streaming of Cassandra's wedding. He envied Kayden and even Thomas who could be by Cassandra's side while he could only hide in Zosteylor and watch it.

He couldn't stand by Cassandra. What a failure brother of Cassandra!

"Cassie, happy wedding!" Harper could only mutter to himself.

After he returned to Zosteylor, though he didn't want to die anymore, he had been unhappy. He was no longer qualified to be happy, was he?

As soon as Theodore walked to him, he heard Harper's murmuring. Theodore couldn't even say greetings to him and just left silently.

Harper glanced coldly at the door.

Then he turned to watch the live streaming. Seeing Cassandra in a wedding dress, Harper thought she was the prettiest girl in the world, but she would never call him brother.

Darren was also watching the live streaming. His daughter....

Looking at this scene, Vincent felt confused and asked, "Dad, if you're reluctant to leave Cassie, why did you cut ties with her?"

Chapter 494

Vincent questioned Darren.

It was hard for anyone to accept such a situation. Darren and Leanna had made each choice just for the sake of each of them or Harper, thus ignoring Cassandra.

Cassandra's identity was inexplicably announced on the Internet and she was cut off from the relationship with Darren. If Vincent had been her, he might have done crueller than she did.

"You don't know how hard it is for me to be with your mother. If Kamila hadn't forced her too hard, Cassandra wouldn't have left us. To say the least, Leanna is her mother. Should she ask for payback after curing her mother?"

"We just didn't do as she asked, but she made Leanna lie in bed unconsciously for more than a year. How can I forgive her?" The more Darren thought about it, the angrier he felt. He could do nothing even though he didn't understand it, and even though he wanted to get even with Cassandra.

Cassandra was too powerful for him to reach. Darren had no choice. If she was put on the edge, she might take action against Zosteylor and Theodore's company. Zosteylor could not endure the suffering

ΠΟΥ.

It was Leanna's country. Darren had to help her protect it..

"Dad... you've been wrong from the very beginning. If you really love Mom, you shouldn't have given birth to Cassie and Harper. Now Cassie doesn't recognize you, and Harper is living like a walking corpse. Is this what you and Mom want?" Vincent retorted Darren, which he hardly did.

The reason was that Vincent couldn't stand it anymore. Harper was like a walking corpse, with nothing but work. Vincent had seen Harper unable to sleep in the middle of the night several times. How long would it last?

Even if Harper quit his idea of suicide, his tension would drive him o

Vincent realized that his father couldn't be persuaded, so he gave up. He left some words to Darren before leaving. "I won't be surprised if Harper dies in Queen's Palace one day. Dad, prepare for it."

The dissidence of opinions made it useless to talk. Thus, Vincent chose to shut up.

It was Darren and Leanna who gave Vincent and Harper's lives, so Vincent should fully support them.

Darren was shocked and sat in the wheelchair with his hands trembling.

Kenneth and Cassandra were escorted to Pinehart Mansion by a large number of guests.

“Let’s tease the bride and the groom!” Someone shouted at the top of his voice.

Everyone began to cheer!

“Don’t go too far. Cassie is pregnant!” Selena stood in front of them and protected Cassandra behind her!

“Mrs. Frey, even if we can’t tease Mrs. Zelinski, we won’t let Mr. Zelinski go. We must live up to such a good day,” shouted a young man from a wealthy family.

He thought, ‘Ask me to miss such a good chance to tease Kenneth? No way!’

Stunned for a moment, Selena smiled happily. It seemed as if the man who got married was her son.

She said, “All right. As long as you don’t trouble Cassie!”

In this way, Kenneth was forced to suffer by Selena.

Even Sylvia echoed, “Have fun today but be considerate to Cassie. Go to Kenneth for anything!”

Kenneth was speechless.

Kenneth didn't expect that he would be "abandoned" by Selena and Sylvia one day.

"Come on, Mr. Zelinski. Let's drink. You can't sleep with your wife for the time being anyway."

These words undoubtedly made Kenneth heartbroken. He gave a cold look at people, but it didn't work at this time.

Anyway, Yannick was not there now, so no one could deal with them.

Kayden had drunk too much, and so had Ethan. Most of the people around Kenneth were drunken.

Therefore, people would be fine as long as they left before Kenneth sobered up once they made him drunk.

"Mr. Zelinski, don't keep a straight face on such a good day. Come on! Let's continue to drink and have fun!" Another rich man came and held Kenneth's hand.

Looking at them, even Cassandra felt that there might be some personal grudges between them.

Kenneth was alone and helpless. Surrounded by a group of people, he could only drink with them.

"Come on! No one is allowed to leave unless I'm drunk!" Kenneth decided to risk everything. Anyway, those people couldn't let him go easily. For those who couldn't defeat him in drinking, he would get even with them the next day!

"Sure!"

Cassandra sat on the side and watched them make a scene. This good feeling was just what she had expected...

Lydia came over with Nelson in her arms, and Cassandra wanted to hug him.

Perhaps out of her pregnancy, Cassandra showed a kind of natural maternal love when she saw Nelson.

"Nelson, gimme a hug!" Cassandra reached out.

Nelson allowed her to hug him with a smile.

"Nelson, so cute are you!" Cassandra chuckled.

"When are you going on your honeymoon?" Lydia asked.

"We won't go for the time being. I may ignore my babies when I have fun. It's better to stay in Drieso and go on a trip with my babies when they grow older." Cassandra thought, 'Anyway, it's convenient.'"

Kenneth had a private plane, which could allow them to fly anywhere. Besides, if they have a trip inside the country, they could drive their car.

There were no restrictions on going out.

Cassandra just didn't want to go right now.

She didn't want to be like Leanna, who ran around in pregnancy without knowing that she had been drugged by Kamila. It would be more painful for Cassandra to choose one between her children than killing her.

Therefore, she would rather be less free.

“Well, that’s not bad. Anyway, I can guard the studio and Jeremiah is also here, so you just take an easy maternity leave!” Lydia thought it was a good arrangement.

Chapter 495

Three days later, Jeremiah and Yannick returned.

Yannick's happy face was noticeable.

He and Jeremiah finally got their marriage certificate!

"Mr. and Mrs. Zelinski, we're back!" Yannick was on cloud nine.

Kenneth just glanced at them and thought, 'Well, Jeremiah must be the bottom!'

With his enthusiastic look, Yannick almost showed that he was the top.

"Nice. You can work overtime," Kenneth said coldly.

Yannick ran away at the most important moment for Kenneth. He was forced to drink that day, though none of the others defeated him, he was drunk.

However, Yannick took Jeremiah to Deris to get a marriage certificate!

Kenneth was angry.

He thought, "You must work overtime now."

Yannick was speechless.

Sure enough, it was hard to hear Kenneth's blessing.

"Mr. Zelinski, it's Christmas Eve today. There must be no work, right?" It was because of the importance of that day that Yannick and Jeremiah came back. They wanted to gather with others, instead of working overtime.

Kenneth felt speechless.

"Then work after dinner," Kenneth snorted coldly.

Silent as he was, Yannick said in his heart, ‘Thank you, Mr. Zelinski.’

He was so moved that he almost cried!

It was a different Christmas Eve dinner. Since Cassandra was pregnant, people decided to eat out.

They came to the fourth floor of The Urban, for the fifth floor couldn’t accommodate so many people.

This time, Kenneth and Cassandra called everyone there, including Sofia, Cassidy, Maximilian, and other members of the Yates family.

Yasmine walked to Cassandra, held her hand, and said gently, “Cassie, congratulations! I wanted to chat with you on your wedding day with Aunt Jessica, but there were so many people around you.”

“Thank you, and sorry for ignoring you.”

Yasmine said, “Never mind. We’re a family. It’s nothing more important than your happiness.”

Moreover, Cassandra asked Denzel and Devin to send her to Kenneth on the wedding day. Even if Cassandra didn’t intimately address them, it was not important anymore.

Cassandra chuckled.

Maximilian stepped forward. “Cassie...”

“Grandpa Maximilian...” Cassandra no longer addressed Maximilian as “Mr. Yates” in an aloof way.

Maximilian was so excited!

This was the best ending for him.

“Yeah, yes...” Maximilian answered and nodded repeatedly.

Cassandra didn’t want to deliberately say it before probably because she thought it was unnecessary.

However, it turned out that she was wrong.

Thomas still couldn’t get over it.

“Really?” asked him.

“For sure. I haven’t blamed you. I just couldn’t let it go. I feel better now. So, forget it. We’re in a good relationship, aren’t we?” Cassandra chuckled; her eyes were full of tenderness.

Thomas found that Cassandra was indeed different now.

She was tender now, and the gloom between her eyebrows had disappeared.

Thomas said, “I’ll learn to reconcile.”

Cassandra said, “If you can’t do it, just compensate my babies after they’re born.” Thomas was not wrong in the first place. It was unfair to blame him for all of this.

Cassandra was still unwilling to go back to the Yates residence because it was always Darren’s home.

She couldn’t accept it.

“Okay!” Thomas’ eyes lit up. He would treat the two babies well and give them all the good things!

All the most luxurious food in The Urban was served as their Christmas Eve dinner. Kenneth paid for all this. Jeremiah laughed out loud!

He felt he made a fortune!

After getting home, Cassandra saw many more gifts on the bedside she received than usual.

When she opened them, she found that they were all for her babies.

[Hello, sweeties, I’m Lydia. I’ve given you gifts since the first year of your existence. You should grow up well and be good, okay? Love you forever!]

[Elaine, I won’t give you any gifts this year. These are for your two babies! I’m their uncle, the only uncle! They must love me the most!]

[My sweethearts, I’m Timothy. I don’t know what you’ll look like. Anyway, your mother has been pretty. You should be pretty too. Then I’ll love you more!]

[Merry Christmas, sweeties!]

There were many other gifts with a note on each one.

Cassandra had a feeling that she was out of favor in just one year and people didn’t love her anymore!

“Ken, who do you love more, me or our babies?” Cassandra asked.

For someone else, this was a tough question to answer. However, for Kenneth, the answer was undoubted.

“Of course you. My love for our babies comes from that for you. I don’t ask you to be careful because I’m worried about children but about you. You’re the most important to me.”

Chapter 496

A few months later, when Cassandra was due in childbirth, Kenneth was more nervous than her.

Kenneth had put all his work off a month ago to stay at home with Cassandra wholeheartedly.

With Kayden and John at the base and Yannick and Ethan at the company, Kenneth could stay at home securely.

Cassandra needed him most right now.

Cassandra was lying on the hospital bed in Whitecrane Hall, stroking her belly from time to time. Looking at Kenneth who was pacing back and forth, Cassandra felt it a little funny.

"Ken, stop. I became anxious because of you." Cassandra was a little nervous at first, but she kept pretending to be calm for the sake of her babies. Nevertheless, Kenneth was at a loss due to his nervousness.

"I don't want to, but I just can't calm down." Kenneth felt ants in his pants at the thought that it was expected date of her childbirth today.

Once Cassandra felt hurt, Kenneth would be nervous. However, when she didn't feel pain, he had that feeling, too, because it meant that the babies couldn't get out, indicating that Cassandra would continue to suffer.

"It's okay. I'll give birth to our babies when I feel pain, and everything will be fine," Cassandra comforted him softly. Kenneth seemed to be really worried, which made Cassandra feel warm in her heart.

"I know. Cassie, you don't have to worry about me. I'll be fine in a moment." Kenneth breathed a long sigh of relief and forced himself to calm down.

"Ouch!" Cassandra felt a twinge of discomfort, sensing that she was truly about to give birth this time.

"What's wrong? Is it starting to hurt? I'll call the doctor!" Kenneth was so nervous that he didn't know what to do. Cassandra felt as though her body was torn apart.

The babies were much more likely to be born, so Cassandra didn't reply to Kenneth who went to call a doctor.

With her last consciousness, Cassandra rang the notice bell at the bedside....

“Doctor! Doctor!”

After examination, the doctor found that Cassandra’s amniotic water had broken. She was directly pushed into the operating room to wait for delivery...

Kenneth was the only one left outside. Soon, it was crowded with people!

The whole Yates family came, including Maximilian.

The nervousness among Jeremiah, Yannick, Timothy, Cyrus, Selena, Sylvia, and Lucas was palpable.

Hugo, who had been dealing with work in the office, was also on pins and needles.

He chose to come downstairs and have a look.

As a result, more and more people were waiting outside the operating room.

“Kenneth, how long will it take? When will Cassie come out?” Jeremiah asked frankly. Since he knew Kenneth’s identity, he had never addressed him as “Mr. Zelinski” again.

Kenneth was silent.

Jeremiah wondered if Kenneth was too nervous. In fact, Jeremiah was tense too, so he wanted to talk to someone. However, he got no answer to his question.

“No one is sure. Some are born within an hour or two, while others may not be able to be born in a day or two. Just wait patiently.” It was Sylvia who spoke in a relaxed tone. Nonetheless, only she herself knew how nervous and worried she felt. Her hands hiding in her pockets were sweating.

“What?” Jeremiah was shocked.

Even Kenneth had butterflies in his stomach. He looked at Sylvia in disbelief. “Really?”

“Didn’t you read so many children’s encyclopedias? Can’t you remember it?” Selena couldn’t help. joking, wanting to ease the tension.

Kenenth said, “I...” It did read in the book, but was it really true?

How could one bear the pain of giving birth to a child in one or two days?

“I’m going in. I wanna be with Cassie!” Kenneth then decided that he couldn’t just wait outside. It was. too hard. He wanted to stay with Cassandra.

“The doctor hasn’t come out yet. Just wait,” Jeremiah snorted coldly.

Kenneth looked at Hugo next to him with his eyes were full of grievance and worry. “Hugo, can you ask someone to take me in?”

“Not now. Ms. Yates hasn’t given birth. She’s just feeling hurt and needs to be monitored inside at any time. Four pregnant mothers are being monitored together now. It’s not suitable for a father-to-be to enter...” Hugo was in an embarrassing position. He wanted to go in, too.

He watched Cassandra grow up; thus, he naturally didn’t want to see her suffer any pain.

Kenneth was a little unhappy. He thought, ‘Why is it so difficult to get in?’

About a few hours later, the elders couldn’t wait anymore. There were not many seats outside the operating room, and Cassandra hadn’t given birth. People outside were sitting there like doormen.

Kenneth couldn’t sit still. He grabbed Hugo’s arm and asked, “Why hasn’t any one come out to explain the situation? My Cassie is still inside!”

Kenneth thought, 'What's wrong with them? Shouldn't they come out to report it at any time? Is it hard to tell what's going on?'

"I'll go have a look." After Hugo finished speaking, he immediately went to his office to put on his doctor's clothes. He walked into the operating room and put on gloves and a mask. He just simply disinfected himself because he didn't enter the room for surgery.

Cassandra said helplessly, "Well, tell him to wait outside or just go home. It will take long."

She didn't know how long it would last. She had been there for several hours, but there was no sign of giving birth at all.

She seemed to be unlucky as the babies didn't want to be born.

After hearing the news, Kenneth said fiercely, "You two bastards! Come out quickly. Don't mess with your mother. I'll teach you a lesson after you are born!"

"But if you come out now, I won't beat you and will love you. Come on!"

Just like there was telepathy between father and sons, the babies in Cassandra's belly began to toss around, and Cassandra started to feel pain.

Her uterine orifice was opened to 3 cm quickly....

Cassandra was sent into the delivery room.

He was a little nervous!

"Hugo, can I go in now?" Kenneth was kind of anxious.

“But

Miss doesn't want you to go in...” Hugo was in a dilemma. He also wanted to let Kenneth go in. It was good to have Kenneth by Cassandra's side so that Kenneth could experience it himself.

“It's okay. As long as I can get in now, you let me in. If anything happens, I will take the blame!” Kenneth ” just wanted to go in. I can't stand waiting here aimlessly!

Hugo made up his mind and took Kenneth to the staff passage, where Kenneth was dressed in overalls and disinfected.

In the delivery room, Cassandra groaned with pain. This was the limit of her endurance.

However, it was not the most painful moment yet. How could she bear it?

Cassandra was a little surprised to see Kenneth coming in. “Why did you... come in?”

“I was worried about you. So, I came in.”

Kenneth felt sorry for Cassandra because she was sweating all over, her hair was a little messy, and the corners of her mouth turned white. It seemed that Cassandra had endured the pain for a long time.

“Get out... Get out. If you're here... I can't hold on.” Cassandra was trying to drive Kenneth out!

If Kenneth was here, she feared that she would be weak and depend on him. Then it would be more difficult for her to deliver the babies.

Kenneth looked at Cassandra nervously. He was so nervous, flustered, and even regretful!

He regretted why he let Cassandra get pregnant so early, and why he put Cassandra through so much pain.

"Ah!" Cassandra shouted!

The doctor told her that shouting out could not only cheer her but also exert her strength in one go!

"No, no more. No more babies. I'm sorry, Cassie!" Kenneth kept apologizing!

"What's wrong with this dad? We are cheering up here. Don't cause trouble, or we will get you out!" The doctor was frightened by Kenneth.

They were cheering Cassandra up. Why did Kenneth say no more babies?!

Kenneth was lost for words.

About two hours later, the doctor suddenly said excitedly, "Come on. Push hard again. I see the baby's head!"

Hearing this, Cassandra couldn't help but shout again. Only in this way could she cheer for herself!

"Bwaaah..."

A baby's cry broke the tranquility!

“There is another one. Hang in there. If you give birth to the first baby, the second one will come out soon,” the doctor comforted Cassandra softly.

Kenneth got up and went to the ward next door.

Seeing that Cassandra was sleeping, Kenneth got nervous. He hurriedly asked Sylvia, “What’s wrong?”

“Nothing. She is tired and asleep,” Sylvia said gently.

Kenneth breathed a sigh of relief.

The next morning, Cassandra woke up early and even played with the baby in her arms.

Chapter 498

A week later, at Cassandra's urging, Kenneth allowed her to go home.

Kenneth wanted Cassandra to stay in the hospital for one month because there were doctors around. But Cassandra refused to do so. She could only stay in the hospital for a week, which was her limit. If she continued to stay here, she might go crazy.

Back home, Cassandra felt a sense of security. The two babies had grown a bit this week, even more adorable than when they were just born.

Kenneth hugged his daughter and kissed her again and again, finally realizing his dream of having a girl.

He was satisfied to have a son and a daughter. Two babies were enough for him. He didn't want Cassandra to suffer anymore, so he had been sterilized directly without telling Cassandra. He would tell her when the baby was one month old.

"I feel much better at home," Cassandra sighed. Although Whitecrane Hall belonged to her, it was uncomfortable to live there.

It wasn't uncomfortable, but it was not as comfortable as at home. So, she just wanted to come back early.

Cassandra had an easy delivery, so she recovered quickly. Now she felt that there was nothing wrong with her.

But Sylvia didn't let her go out, saying that if she didn't recover well after confinement, there would be big problems in the future.

Cassandra didn't know if there was any big problem, but she just knew that she couldn't go out now. Anyway, it was almost winter now, so it was very comfortable to stay at home.

"Slow down. Sylvia said you had to have a good rest." Although Kenneth held his daughter in his arms, he still cared about Cassandra.

Cassandra stuck out her tongue and thought, "This man is so nosy."

“What are the babies’ names?” Cassandra decided to change the topic and stop what she said just now. She was afraid that Kenneth would keep nagging.

“I’m waiting for you to decide.” Kenneth handed his daughter to Susan and asked her to put the baby into the room and sleep next to his son.

“Have you thought about them?” Cassandra raised her eyebrows.

Anyway, she didn’t have a choice these days. According to her temperament, she wanted to call them chubby babies directly.

Their little faces were getting rounder these days!

They were chubby and cute!

“Well, I’ve come up with a few of them. Nono and Jojo, Lulu and Ruru, Kaka and Lala. What do you think?” He thought, ‘Forgive me. The nicknames are merely code names. If it weren’t for differentiating them from Cassie, I would have called my daughter little Cassie!

‘But no, I can’t do that!’

Cassandra was lost for words.

These names didn’t seem to be better than hers.

“Name them after food. It seems to be a good idea.” It was not that embarrassing and it was easy to remember.

“What are the names?” Kenneth didn’t hesitate. As long as Cassandra was happy, she could call the babies by any name.

“One is called Clement and the other is called Cherry. What do you think?” Cassandra looked at Kenneth seriously, wanting to be recognized.

However, Kenneth was shocked to the core!

She thought, ‘If I do everything, then what else can Kenneth do?’

Kenneth was speechless.

“I plan to have one child surnamed after you, and the other with mine. What do you think?” Kenneth asked.

He had been thinking about this question for a long time. Since he knew that Cassandra was pregnant with two babies, he thought it would be better if one of them had the same surname as Cassandra.

Chapter 499

Cassandra had accepted Kayden and Thomas. As for Harper...

Even though they were far away, she could tell him that she had given birth to two babies, right?

Cassandra didn't acknowledge her parents. Yet, Harper was not that bad. In the past two years, he had managed Zosteylor in good order and even returned to its heyday. It was not easy for him.

“As their uncle, take good care of the babies.” Then she could be an irresponsible mother!

It felt so good.

But when Cassandra was sitting on the sofa, she suddenly sent a tweet.

[From now on, we have a daughter and a son, and the family of four will be together ever after.] Then she even attached a picture of two big hands holding small hands.

[Holy crap! I wondered why there was no news about Cassandra and Mr. Zelniski recently. It turned out that Cassandra gave birth to babies!]

[Are you out of your mind? How can you scold her? You must have a hard time, right? She gave birth to two babies, which is worth showing off. You have no babies, so you are jealous of her, right?]

[The babies are born for several days. Why did it take so long for her to post it?]

[Is it possible that the newborn is not good-looking?]

[How dare you! How can you say that Mr. Zelinski's babies are not cute?]

Unexpectedly, a comment from Cassandra suddenly appeared in the comments section. [Someone hasn't shown any signs yet. He didn't even ask about it. Is he not going to be the uncle of Clement and Cherry?]

Although the netizens felt that this comment was a little strange, what made them even more confused was Clement and Cherry.

[Well, I think these names are a little casual?]

[You can say that again!]

[This is so perfunctory. It's like my parents don't bother to name me and call me Angus. (This is really a lifetime pain)!]

[I think you have a point because that's what I thought.]

[This is a little bit like double standards. Didn't she want him to die before and didn't want to acknowledge him? What does she mean now?]

[Well, you really don't know Cassandra. If she really didn't want to save him, she wouldn't show up. She wouldn't even look at him. Why did she let him make a scene on the top floor? Didn't that slap mean anything? At least he didn't cry or go mad when he got back to Zosteylor!]

[Are you kidding? Under those circumstances, if Cassandra didn't save him, there would be an international crisis.]

[She didn't even show respect to the queen. Do you think she would be worried about an international crisis? You are the one who is kidding!]

In Zosteylor, Harper was looking at what happened on the Internet, wondering who the so-called Uncle Cassandra referred to.

Would it be him?

Could he still say blessings to Cassandra?

Harper had prepared a meeting gift for the babies, but he felt that he didn't deserve it at all.

What she meant was pretty clear, right?

In fact, in the past, Cassandra would have called directly and even made a request without hesitation.

But she didn't want to give hope to Darren or anyone else.

She and Harper were both innocent. Harper shouldn't have been excluded by her for so long. After giving birth to the babies, she seemed to understand this truth!

Then she would make Harper happy, but she didn't know if he could understand her meaning or not!

Harper also witnessed what Cassandra had done. He froze on the spot!

He dialed Cassandra's number.

"Cassie, I'm..." Harper didn't know what to say at this point.

"I know who you are."

"I saw you say on Twitter that the babies were born. How are they doing?" Harper didn't dare to say

He immediately jumped up.

After hanging up the phone, he booked your tickets at once!

No first class?

Then he would make do with economy class!

Fortunately, there was still an economy-class ticket. He couldn't wait to depart as early as possible!

Harper took the gifts directly and didn't even prepare his own stuff. He dragged the luggage and was Seeing this, Theodore was a little surprised. This was the most exaggerated time for Harper in these two years.

"Harper, what's wrong with you? What are you going to do?"

"Back to Clusia. I'll be back in a week." Harper left without looking back.

Theodore was stunned. 'Why did Harper go back to Clusia?

'I can't even stop him!

'Forget it. Let him go. It's good for him to have a rest. If he stays here like this again, he will probably be depressed!'

Kenneth also saw Cassandra's tweet. He knew what Cassandra meant and the recent changes in her.

However, if it was Harper, Kenneth could accept him and even feel good.

"I've chosen the names for the babies. Do you want to give me some advice?" Kenneth asked softly.

He looked through several dictionaries before choosing these two names.

Cassandra raised her eyebrows. "What are the names?"

She was a little curious and thought, 'Kenneth is so efficient. He is a good father!'

"Clement is called Weston Zelinski, and Cherry is called Abril Yates. What do you think?" He thought these two names were not bad and not hard to remember.

Cassandra thought for a long time. She felt that both names were fine.

“Then let’s pick these two names. If they don’t like the names in the future, you are the one to be blamed!” It was so fast for Cassandra to shift the blame!

Kenneth was rendered speechless.

“Cassie, you really make things difficult for me.” Kenneth was a little helpless. Cassandra knew how to shed responsibility now.

Vanessa taught her all this!

But the point was that he couldn’t do anything to Vanessa because Cassandra would protect her.

“Don’t worry. This is what you should do, okay?” Cassandra was all smiles. She was really satisfied with these two names, and she didn’t think the kids would hate the names. She just wanted to make fun of Kenneth.

“Yes, I am their father. Of course, these things are my responsibility.” Kenneth really enjoyed doing it!

He was doing all these things pretty well now!

He had a good handle on making milk, changing clothes, and diapers for the two babies!

He should thank Lydia for lending him Nelson to practice!

Lydia was so nice!

Fortunately, Eddie had no idea about that. Otherwise, he would have to protest.

“Well Kenneth, Cherry pooped. You should deal with it quickly.” Cassandra smelled it, but she didn’t want to deal with it!

Kenneth shook his head helplessly and picked up his daughter. “Oh, my little princess. Your mother dislikes you again. But it doesn’t matter. She still loves you.”

Abril didn’t know what her father was talking about and just wanted to fall into slumber!

Kenneth, who didn’t get a response, was also tireless. He took off the diaper from Abril. After cleaning her buttocks, he changed new clothes and a diaper for her!

“You did a good job. Let me give you a reward!” Cassandra praised without hesitation!

“Only compliments?”

“Then what else?” Cassandra raised her eyebrows and thought, ‘It’s good to have compliments. What else does he want?’

“When the babies are one month old, remember to make it up to me.” Kenneth deliberately looked at Cassandra fiercely, as if a wolf had seen its prey.

Cassandra was lost for words.

She wondered if she could run away before the babies were one month old.

Chapter 500

The next day, an “uninvited guest” came to Pinehart Mansion.

It was Harper!

He sat on the sofa nervously, waiting for Cassandra to come down. However, the butler said that Cassandra should go back to sleep at this time, so Harper calmed down a little bit.

But Kenneth came down.

O

When he saw Harper, he was not surprised. He just raised his eyebrows. “You came quickly.”

Harper was kind of speechless.

“Where’s Cassie?”

“She’s still sleeping. There will be about an hour left.”

During this period of postpartum care, Cassandra had better sleep, which was different from other mothers. This was something Kenneth was very gratified about, so he basically let Cassandra sleep to her heart’s content.

Harper nodded. “Alright.”

Then he had nothing to say. It was just an hour. He could wait!

“Cassie posted the tweet because she wanted to forgive you. As a mother, she became soft-hearted and reconciled with the world, but not everyone. You have never hurt her, so she is willing to reconcile with you. She will cherish your brotherhood, but may not express it. As for me, I hope you can take your sibling r relationship seriously and never do anything to hurt Cassie. Otherwise, even if she will forgive you, I won't agree."

It was because Harper had never hurt Cassandra. Even if he said the wrong thing, he would quickly apologize and make compensation. He even ran away from home and committed suicide for Cassandra. For this reason, Kenneth could accept Harper.

"I know. I won't hurt Cassie. Our parents are nothing to me, and I can't understand what they did." Harper couldn't stand the shackles they gave him either.

Not long after, Cassandra came down. Seeing Harper, she didn't say much and just said, "Where are the gifts for the babies?"

Harper immediately reacted.

"In the luggage!" Harper hurriedly opened the luggage.

Cassandra was stunned.

“Didn’t you bring your own clothes?”

Cassandra thought, ‘How careless he is! How can he come without bringing his own clothes?’

Harper didn’t know what to say.

He thought, ‘I was so excited that I totally forgot!

‘How embarrassing!

‘Forget it. I can go out and buy some clothes anyway!’

“I’ll go out and buy some clothes later.” Harper scratched his head awkwardly.

He only felt that Cassandra had forgiven him at that time, so he wanted to appear in front of Cassandra as soon as possible!

He didn’t have time to think about anything else!

“Don’t bother.” Cassandra turned to Kenneth and said, “Just ask Yannick to send a few sets.””

Harper was a little touched. He thought Cassandra wanted to drive him away, but he didn’t expect that she not only kept him but also asked someone to send him clothes.

“Thank you...”

“Have you seen Clement and Cherry?” Cassandra asked.

“Not yet. It seems that the twins are still sleeping.” Harper answered truthfully. Susan seemed to have said so just now.

“Yes, but they should be awake. You can go and have a look.”

“Okay.”

“Kenneth, why don’t you go and teach him how to hold the babies?” It was better to leave this task to Kenneth.

In the babies’ room.

In a room with warm colors, the two babies in blue and pink were licking their lips as if they were hungry!

Their eyes also opened a little, as if they were curious about the world.

“Can I hug her?” Harper thought that babies should be distinguished by the color of their clothes. The baby in pink should be Abril. She was so cute.

“Do you know how to hug her?” Kenneth asked defiantly.

Harper said, “No.”

Then he thought of something. “Cassie asked you to teach me.”

“Well, you can’t even hug a baby. What’s the use of having you here?” Kenneth complained ruthlessly.

“Cassie asked you to teach me how to hold the baby,” Harper emphasized that this sentence was almost like a royal edict.

Kenneth narrowed his eyes and looked at Harper dangerously, but Harper didn’t give a damn about it. He stared at Kenneth directly!

Anyway, it was Cassandra who said this, Kenneth had to obey!
