

How Death Became My Rebirth by Evelyn Florence

Chapter 501

Chapter 501

Under the “patient” guidance of Kenneth, Harper finally learned to hold the baby by himself. Sure enough, he had to rely on himself instead of Kenneth, which was even more hopeless.

Kenneth looked at Harper with disgust and didn’t know what he was doing.

Kenneth thought, ‘You don’t even know how to bring a baby!’

Abril felt herself being held up and wanted to open her eyes to protest, but the moment she opened her eyes, she blinked.

She thought, ‘Um... I’m so sleepy. I want to sleep.’

It was not clear whether it was because Harper was a handsome man, so Abril didn’t resist; or because Harper had the same traits as Cassandra, so Abril didn’t protest and cry.

Kenneth looked at them and couldn’t help feeling a little uncomfortable.

He thought, ‘Why would Abril be so relieved, facing a stranger?’

‘You’re just a week-old boy. Shouldn’t you be on your guard?’

Harper ignored Kenneth’s gloomy face, and went straight to the living room with Abril in his arms.

‘Cassie, she is so cute!’ Harper couldn’t resist running up to Cassandra and showing off.

Abril was so cute, and she wasn’t afraid of strangers. Harper could just hug her!

‘Do you like them?’ Cassandra asked slyly.

Harper didn’t hesitate and said, ‘I like them!’ How could he not like them?

They were all his nephews, and they were so cute. If he didn't like them, it was really out of his mind!

"Well, you can take care of them for two more days if you like." Cassandra took it for granted and said,

1/5

Chapter 501

"It's not easy for you to come here. You have to let them know you well."

Harper was stunned and didn't expect Cassandra to say it directly. He just wanted to take a good look at the twins and tell them that he was their uncle.

But he was afraid that Cassandra would be unhappy, so he didn't dare to say it. Unexpectedly, she said

1. it.

Harper thought, 'Did she forgive me?'

'But what my father and mother did went too far...'

Cassandra said, "Harper, I know what you're thinking. But I can tell you very clearly that I have no intention of recognizing Darren and Leanna in my life. Even if I have children now, I don't think I can understand what they did back then.

"However, you and I are innocent. I shouldn't have imposed what they did on you. Moreover, you didn't do anything from beginning to end.

"I understand, so it's not your fault. That day, Kayden said that he should be the children's uncle and take care of the children. I thought of you. You are the biological uncle of them, so it's natural for you to treat them well. I hinted at you on Twitter, but you didn't even call me to ask. Well, are you going to forget about the two kids directly?"

Cassandra said comfortingly that she had a clear distinction between love and hatred.

There was nothing wrong with Harper. The reason why Cassandra treated him badly at the beginning was that they held different positions. Harper didn't know how to change, because he had never experienced grievances and hardships.

He couldn't tell what was good or bad.

Harper had always wanted a family reunion, but how much courage did it take for Cassandra to decide on a family reunion under that circumstance and the truth?

At least she couldn't do it, never.

Chapter 501

Harper suddenly burst into tears.

"Thank you, Cassie..." No one knew how he survived these two years.

All on Cassandra's word, to support him.

However, he couldn't hold on any longer.

He was going crazy, but he hadn't heard from Cassandra yet.

+5

Now, he seemed to have been reborn. He felt relieved. The pressure on his heart seemed to disappear at once. He was very relaxed now!

"There's nothing to thank. You can take care of the two kids." Cassandra waved her hand indifferently.

"No problem, just leave it to me. I will take good care of Cherry and Clement!" Harper hastened to promise that he would be too glad to do such a thing!

It would be better if no one was with him, then he would be happier!

Harper said, not ignoring the kid in his arms. Abril was so cute.

He was going to call Zostaylor, and he wouldn't be back for a while.

For the next few days, Harper would be able to hold one child and then another with great energy.

Probably he turned off his phone, so no one was able to find him.

He was here, having a great time.

Even Kayden couldn't help but be jealous and said, "Give Cherry to me. I haven't hugged her for days. Give it to me!"

Harper turned to the other side and protested, "No, Cherry likes me. You can hold Clement for a while!"

3/5

Chapter 501

"Don't you see that my parents have taken away Clement?" Kayden suddenly said to Harper with a cold face.

Kayden seriously doubted that Harper did it on purpose. Harper saw Weston being taken away and asked Kayden to hold Weston. What was wrong with him?

Kayden also wanted to hold Weston or Abril.

But now, he couldn't hold any of them.

If he went up and robbed Weston from his parents, it was probably him who would suffer!

Harper was speechless.

It seemed good. Cassandra didn't worry about caring for children at all, and everyone could hold them.

Harper thought for a while and still didn't give Abril to Kayden. Instead, he said, "Wait a minute. After a while, your parents will give Clement to you."

Kayden was confused.

He thought, 'Are you sure?'

'Don't you know that when they hold the baby, they won't let go!

'What's more, Jessica and Devin were waiting for them!

'Will it be my turn?"

"Hurry up and let me hold Abril. I haven't hugged them for a long time. Tomorrow I'm going to closed training, so no one will compete with you!" Kayden could only use this to get Harper to let go!

Harper thought, 'It's okay!

'How about I let him hold Abril for ten minutes?'

"Okay, I'll give you five minutes. When the time comes, you give her back to me!" Abril and Weston

4/5

Chapter 501

smelled sweet and soft, so it was very comfortable to hold them. Harper didn't want to let go of them at all.

Cassandra was speechless and thought, 'Do these people take her child as a tool?

'Hold them in turns, but it's okay. If the children are held like this, they will not be afraid of strangers from an early age. Everyone can hug him, and it's easy to take care of them when they grow up!'

Kayden suddenly asked, "When will you come back to Zosteylor?"

Harper felt that he shouldn't have sympathized with Kayden just now, but now Kayden urged him to leave.

"I won't leave now! It's none of your business!" Harper was furious.

“You can’t be so capricious. Anyway, Zosteylor is your responsibility now. You have to go back and take care of the overall situation...” Kayden said.

Harper was speechless.

5/5

色

Chapter 502

Harper finally listened to Kayden’s advice, but he didn’t seem to listen.

Then he asked Cassandra to clean up a study for him and started to deal with things in it.

He dealt with Zosteylor’s affairs in the morning, took care of the children in the afternoon, and dealt with some things before going to bed at night.

This was already his concession!

The limits of what he could do.

The rest could only be dealt with when he got back.

In an instant, the two children were one month old.

Kenneth was very happy. He decided to hold a banquet!

The two kids were getting more and more beautiful and cute. Everyone loved them so much that they didn’t want to let go of them when they held them.

This made Cassandra a little helpless!

Finally, she stipulated that if many people were coming, they would hold each child for ten minutes first and then let the two children sleep well.

For some reason, every time these people hugged the children, the two babies dozed off more than usual and even snored when sleeping.

It was like they were exhausted!

They wanted to have a good rest!

Cassandra didn't know what to say as a motherli

1/6

Chapter 502

They all liked Abril and Weston, so they naturally wanted to play with them when they were awake.

But the kids probably didn't think so.

Abril and Weston thought, 'They're all so weird, what are they talking about? Let me fall asleep!'

"The two babies are one month old. Are they a little heavier than when they were born?" Thomas was so happy to see the two kids!

He held Abril in his arms and didn't let go!!

"It must be heavier. Otherwise, it will be a waste of food." Kayden retorted immediately!

"I've only seen videos and photos of them when they were just born. How do I know?" Thomas felt a little guilty.

Now he wanted to beat the director up!

Kayden asked, "How long can you stay this time?"

+5

Thomas said, "A week. I caught up with the schedule and filmed for half a month. I still have half of my movies to shoot, so I can rest for half a month. But I'm afraid that if I leave the crew for too long, I will forget the plot and the feeling of acting.”

The most important thing was that plays still depended on the expression of the opposite's emotions. If he really rested for half a month, it would be too late.

Kayden nodded and didn't say anything.

Kayden said, “Jessica has arranged two blind dates for you. You can arrange them in the next few days.”

He was not interested in romantic relationships.

Thomas was shocked.

He thought, ‘Can I leave now?’

2/6

Chapter 502

“Damn it!

‘When did they arrange such a thing?’”

“I have something else to do. I'll leave now!” Thomas returned the child to Cassandra. The gift had already been left in the room, and he must leave now.

But he took two cards from his pocket and gave them to Cassandra!

“This is the fund I saved for the two babies. You keep it, and I'll go first!”

Thomas walked freely without even looking back.

Kayden took the baby contentedly from Cassandra's arms.

He thought, ‘Humph, young boy, can't you compete with me?’

‘How dare you want to keep the baby in your arms?’

‘Don't blame me!’

Seeing Kayden's expression, Cassandra asked curiously, "Do they really arrange a blind date for Thomas?"

Kayden said, "They are still looking for..."

Cassandra thought, 'Sure enough, they are brothers. How could he cheat on his brother like this?'

Cassandra was speechless.

For the children who were a month old, the waking time has increased. Abril and Weston widened their eyes, looking curiously at the person in front of them..

They didn't know them.

Abril kicked her legs and didn't know what to do, but this action caused everyone to laugh.

3/6

Chapter 502

Kenneth held Abril in his arms from Kayden's hands and said seriously, "Abril. Let Dad hold you."

He didn't care about the others holding Weston, but he had to hold his daughter.

Kayden was speechless.

"Can the baby see the sun now?" Cassandra asked.

Although she knew the knowledge about caring for children, raising a child required learning from the elders.

She didn't have any experience in raising children, but these people here had all of them.

“They can go sunbathing, but it shouldn’t be too long. It only takes a few minutes to get used to it,”

Selena said.

Sylvia echoed and agreed.

Fortunately, it was early winter now. The weather was not very hot and the sun would not be dazzling, so they could bring children out for a walk.

“Selena, let’s take the baby out for a walk,” Sylvia said immediately.

She thought, ‘It’s okay to go out with the babies in my arms. Then these people won’t take it away me!’

from

Among them, only Selena and Sylvia were the elder. Omar was also not here, so no one could compete with them.

Cassandra was speechless.

In the evening, almost all the nobles of Drieso came to the banquet for their two children.

This was the banquet hosted by Kenneth. How could they not come?

4/6

Chapter 502

Everyone wanted to take this opportunity to talk to Kenneth and get some projects from him!

[This is the Pinehart Mansion. It’s so big. Oh, my God! My villa here is like a doghouse.]

[This is my first time visiting Pinehart Mansion. It's so luxurious that I feel ashamed of myself.]

[In front of Mr. Zelinski, everyone is poor. There's no need to feel inferior.]

[This place is so luxurious. I envy Cassandra so much that she can marry Mr. Zelinski!]

[It's no use to be envious, Mr. Zelinski is the only one in the world, and Cassandra is the only one who deserves Mr. Zelinski!]

[What a lucky girl!]

[A banquet for children. I wonder what the children look like!]

[You don't have Mr. Zelinski's WhatsApp account, do you? Mr. Zelinski is sharing his babies every day. My god... I don't even want to see it anymore.]

[Are you bragging? With Mr. Zelinski's WhatsApp account, you should be honored.]

Everyone was talking about the banquet, Kenneth, or the children.

Kenneth and Cassandra appeared in front of everyone with the babies in their arms. At this time, no one took the baby away from them.”

Kenneth made the opening remarks. “Thank you for coming. Today is a banquet for my children Cherry

Child and Clement. Cassie has given birth to two children at once. I am very happy!

“Enjoy the meal today.”

Kenneth didn't show off the baby, but his hand really betrayed him. He held the baby and shook them. again and again.

[Why do I feel like Mr. Zelinski is showing off?]

5/6

Chapter 502

[You are not alone.]

[They are a perfect match. A family of four!]

[I'm tired of saying envy!]

[Mr. Zelinski cares so much about his two children. If anyone can supply their children's clothes, it will be a huge profit.]

[I work in children's wear. I am afraid that Mr. Zelinski will not like it.]

[Of course not. Have you forgotten what Cassandra does?]

[She is the designer. Do they need to find a clothing supplier?!]

Chapter 503

Kenneth took the kids to walk around in front of everyone. Abril stared at them, looking very cute.

However, Weston was so sleepy that he didn't even respond to Cassandra.

Maybe Cassandra's embrace was too warm.

Kenneth was a little helpless. If Weston kept sleeping, it would be tiring for Cassandra to always hold him like this. Therefore, Kenneth put down his daughter and carried Weston over.

When hugging Abril, he could change hands or give her to others.

Everyone who had seen Kenneth's children all flattered them..

[The two kids are so cute! They look different from the rest at such a young age!]

[Yeah, it is because they have excellent parents.]

[I like Mr. Zelinski's daughter so much. I even want to steal the baby and be her mother!]

[How dare you! Look at Mr. Zelinski's face. How dare you have such a bad idea? You don't want to live?]

[I am just kidding. I don't plan to do it!]

[Mr. Zelinski's children are so excellent. I don't know how many achievements they will make in the future.]

[It must be extraordinary. Look at their father and mother. The child may do better in the future.]

It was never too late to flatter.

This was an eternal truth.

1/5

Obviously, Kenneth was pleasant to hear these words, especially when they mentioned his daughter.

Although he was also proud of Weston, he loved his daughter more.

It was not until Abril began to yawn that Kenneth turned his attention to her and whispered, "Abril, do you want to sleep? I'll take you to bed, okay?"

Then he looked at Cassandra, and the two of them took the child upstairs. Abril just glanced at and then closed her eyes to sleep with peace of mind.

She thought, "Weston already slept. It's time for me to sleep, too."

Kenneth

Those who were good at flattering and figured out Kenneth's preferences got a lot of projects at this party. As long as Kenneth gave one to a person, the money he made from the project could be enough for a second-class rich family to live for a year.

This was the jagged world.

Those who got the project flattered Kenneth again and again. Others were a little frustrated, but they also understood that what Kenneth cared about most was his children and wife.

After the banquet, Theodore and Vincent in Zosteylor couldn't stand anymore.

Harper had been out there for so long that Theodore and Vincent were worried that he was trying to take the whole country into their hands.

They couldn't even withstand the pressure from their father!

Harper came back because of the endless calls from Theodore and Vincent.

When Harper left, he was reluctant and even thought about running away. But Cassandra said, "You don't want to go back to earn more money for your niece?"

Harper thought it made sense.

2/5

Although he didn't like Zosteylor, his estate was all here. Thus, he decided to go back home and earn more money for his niece.

Thinking of this, Harper thought it was also good to go back.

So, on the third day, Harper went back to Zosteylor. He became different when he got there. He was not longer the sunny and innocent Harper in Clusia.

He had changed into apathy and alienation.

When Theodore saw Harper, he couldn't help but ask, "How are Cassie and the babies? Did Kenneth treat them well?"

Harper was stunned. He thought, 'Didn't they know? It makes sense. How could they know if Cassie didn't want them to find out? I'm the same!'

Harper said, "Very good. Mr. Zelinski is also very nice."

Harper didn't want other brothers to reject Kenneth and dislike him.

He thought Kenneth was good to Cassandra.

Kenneth spoiled Cassandra too much. She was an independent person before.

But now, Kenneth would pick out the fish bones for her. As if he was too experienced, the fish could remain intact.

If Cassandra ate shrimp, Kenneth would peel shrimp for her. She didn't have to do it herself at all anymore. It could be said that her hands were deteriorating.

This was also the first time he had seen someone spoiled a girl like that!

He didn't know what the future would be like, but as far as he could see now, Kenneth was good.

Cassandra loved him, too.

"That's good. Do you have any photos of the babies? Send me a copy?" Theodore held Harper. He just wanted to see the photos of the kids.

3/5

Chapter 303

Theodore and Vincent were strangers to Cassandra from now on and couldn't show up in front of her again, but...

"Yes, you can check it on my Twitter." It meant that Harper didn't want to share the photos in his phone with them.

Theodore was speechless.

He protested, "You can't be so unkind. You said you were away for a week, but in fact, you stayed here for 20 days. You should at least compensate us with some photos. Don't be so cruel!" He thought, "How can he do this to me? I am not a bad guy..."

Harper suddenly felt Theodore was right and shared some photos with him.

He said, "These are not available on Twitter. Don't share these with others. Consider it as the payment."

"Where is mine?" Vincent walked over from the other side and looked at Harper accusingly.

He was the one who backed Harper up.

Harper glanced at Vincent and said, "I sent these to you, too."

Theodore and Harper felt that Harper had changed a lot after the trip. He had gotten softer and sunnier, though it was not obvious.

They just hoped he could keep it up. Even if he couldn't be the Harper before, at least stay positive.

Later, Harper went back to his room. But it seemed that someone didn't want to let him go.

The door was knocked.

Harper said, "Come in."

It was Darren.

4/5

Chapter 503

When Harper saw him, his face turned cold. He didn't expect that Darren would come over.

"You're back?" Darren asked coldly.

Harper said, "Yes, I am back."

Darren asked, "How is your sister and her baby?"

Harper replied, "They're good."

"Then why don't you go to see your mother after you come back?" Darren looked up coldly.

+5

Harper felt annoyed. He shouldn't have such emotions, but now he was more and more repulsive to his father and mother.

Especially after they did those things to Cassandra, he felt pathetic and unqualified to be Cassandra's brother.

Chapter 504

"I'm just a little tired and I want to rest for a while. My mother already has you around, does she still need me?" Harper retorted in a low voice.

He thought, 'As long as Father is with her, isn't that enough for Mother? What else couldn't Father do? He could even abandon his child for his wife. Other fathers would never make such a choice to prove their love to their wives!'

Darren's face turned cold. He looked at Harper sharply and said, "You have forgotten who you are after 20 days out, right? You will always be the son of your mother and me. She is in a coma now. Shouldn't you go to see her? You have been out for so long, but you never contact us!"

Darren scolded Harper, not because he was jealous of the fact that Harper could see Cassandra's children, but because Harper ignored him and his wife.

Harper sneered, "Well, do you know that your daughter experienced a near-death experience when she gave birth to the children? Do you know you have grandsons and granddaughters? Do you know what they look like? You only care about your wife all the time. Have you forgotten that Cassie is also your child? Because of Mother, you abandoned her again and again. What do you want to do now? Do you want to hurt her again? I'm telling you; she finally accepted me as her brother. So, I hope you can keep your distance from me. I'm not interested in the people you introduced to me. You don't have to do anything for me. I won't accept it!"

Harper looked down on his father.

As a man, he was a good husband but not a good father and son.

Maximilian worked hard to raise Darren, but in the end, Darren did nothing and even abandoned the only daughter of the Yates family.

Maximilian could not bear such a fact at all.

For Cassandra's matter, it was all Darren's fault. However, Darren kept telling Harper that it was Maximilian who made himself so miserable.

1/4

Chapter 504

O

Darren shouted, "How can you talk to me like that? Listen, without my agreement, you can't do anything! From now on, if you leave Queen's Palace again, I will lock you up and keep everyone away from you!"

He was furious.

Harper snorted, "Whatever. Do you think I'll still be afraid of you? If you lock me up, I won't go out at the worst. Similarly, don't ask me to do anything else. It's that simple. I really want to see who will lose more!" In the past, Harper might have argued for it. But now, he didn't care about it anymore. Since there was no way to resist, he could just give up and accept all these.

"You..." Darren snorted coldly, "Aren't you afraid that I will stop you from seeing Cassandra?"

Harper smiled bitterly, "Well, Cassie doesn't need me so much. Even Cassie is afraid that I will be depressed if I go on like this. But you only care about things related to you and Mother. As for my life, you don't care. Cassie hinted at me because she was afraid that I would commit suicide and wanted to find something for me. Unfortunately, my father is such an indifferent person as if he has been!

possessed."

"You don't have the right to judge me. You'd better behave yourself and don't do anything that dissatisfies me."

Darren sat in his wheelchair, looking at Harper.

Perhaps he had forgotten what gentleness was after being unable to stand and walk.

"Whatever. I'm going to rest. You can leave now." Harper didn't say anything more to Darren. He might lose his temper if he continued.

Darren snorted and left without warning, "You'd better go to see your mother early."

In the blink of an eye, it had been 100 days since Weston and Abril were born.

The kids got to try something with a different flavor.

This was new to Kenneth because he could feed the babies anything other than milk powder.

2/4

Chapter 504

Selena and Sylvia prepared some sour, sweet, bitter, spicy, and salty water for the little ones.

“Will it be OK? Will their stomach be unbearable if it is too spicy, bitter, or salty?” Although Kenneth was happy and curious, he still cared about the two kids.

After all, they were his treasures. They were given to him by Cassandra.

Selena smiled, “No, I just dip a little bit on their tongues so they can feel the different flavors. It’ll be fun

Cassandra chuckled, “I think you’re right, but I need your help.”

Originally, she wanted both kids to take a small sip instead of just dipping a little on their tongues.

However, she was worried that the smell would be too strong to make the kids cry.

Now she was not in the first position in the family.

In their hearts, the two babies came first. If she made them cry, she would have to comfort themselves....

That was not worth the candle.

They experimented with Weston first. Weston could accept sour and sweet flavors. When he tasted sour, he frowned and couldn’t help trembling. But when he tasted sweet, he couldn’t help but smack his mouth.

He thought, “Wow, it’s so delicious!”

“Weston, what’s next is spicy.” Selena was like a grandmother incarnated as a witch, trying to scare him.

After Weston tasted it, he blinked his eyes as if to say, “Something is wrong and I want to try again.”

But if Weston could talk, they would all be scolded.

Suddenly, Weston stuck out his tongue, then retracted it.

He thought, 'What's this smell? It's weird!'

3/4

Chapter 504

Weston's funny behaviors made everyone laugh out loud. Sylvia thoughtfully fed him a little water.

Sylvia said, "Next, it's going to be bitter. Weston, keep up the good work."

The bitter water seemed to be balsam pear juice. When Weston tasted it, he frowned and almost cried.

Cassandra curled her lips and scolded, "Don't cry. If you cry, I will let you sleep alone and I will sleep with Abril."

Weston was speechless.

Kenneth was also speechless.

He didn't know who Cassandra was threatening.

It seemed that it was also threatening Kenneth.

Weston kept frowning. A bitter taste had spread in the mouth. He was like a puppy who would be ravaged by others, waiting for the master's help.

His pitiful appearance made people distressed, but no one helped him out.

Chapter 505

Weston didn't know the difference between different flavors. He only knew that he felt something weird in his mouth. It was not as good as plain water.

His face instantly twisted and he wanted to cry but he remembered that Mom told him he couldn't cry.

He thought, 'What should I do now? Something inside my mouth is annoying!'

Just when he was at a loss, he saw the strange old lady walking to him again with a spoon!

He cried in his mind, 'I can't eat anymore!'

'She is a liar!'

Selena said, "Good boy, here's the last bit of it. It's so sweet and it's Grandma's skills." She sounded like the wolf who was tempting Little Red Riding Hood to open the door.

She wanted to deceive Weston but Weston was smart enough.

He didn't want to be fooled by this weird old lady anymore.

He thought she was scary.

He closed his mouth and turned away from the old lady.

However, the old lady was persistent.

Sylvia laughed out loud. She knew Weston was scared. He found everything tasting strange so he didn't want to try again.

So, Sylvia took the spoon from Selena, dipped it in the bowl of salt water, and coaxed Weston softly, "Honey, Grandma is here. It is not bitter or spicy. It's delicious."

Weston turned to Sylvia and was confused. He thought, 'Really?'

1/5

Chapter 505

'Is it true?'

He looked suspicious.

Sylvia was amused by his expression but she couldn't laugh out too loud.

She said, "Grandma never lied to you. Trust me. You'll know it after you give it a try."

Weston doubtfully reached out to hug Sylvia. He thought she was very gentle.

Sylvia held Weston in her arms and handed him a spoon covered with salty water. Weston licked it.

Weston couldn't help crying his eyes out.

Since he was born, Weston had seldom cried. After he pooped, he would only pout but he never cried. Today was the first time Cassandra heard him crying so loudly.

She thought it was amazing.

Cassandra looked at her son waiting for an interesting show and tutted, "Why are you so sad?"

She thought, 'It is rare. We often failed to make him cry. He just refused to cry but today he cried!

'Tut-tut'

Kenneth felt speechless.

He thought a mother shouldn't have behaved like this at this moment.

She looked somewhat gloating.

Kenneth had a headache because Weston didn't cry, unlike his sister. His sister would occasionally whine and pout. When she pooped or became hungry, she would cry. But Weston never cried but just curled his lips.

He wondered if males all cared so much about their images even though Weston was just a little boy!

2/5

Sylvia hurriedly coaxed Weston. "Okay, all right. Don't cry. Grandma was wrong."

After all, Weston hadn't cried for more than three months and he seldom whined and pouted. Suddenly, she didn't know how to Sylvia him.

Selena hurriedly teased him but he didn't seem to feel anything at all.

Lydia looked at the two elders and felt speechless. She didn't expect that they would gang up to make Weston cry.

Lydia squatted down and whispered something to Nelson. Nelson walked toward Selena. "Grandma, can you let me help you coax him?"

Sylvia was stunned and squatted down. Nelson walked to Weston and kissed him. He patted his little hand on Weston's chest as if he was coaxing a little baby. "Weston, stop crying. Mom said a Matcha man never cried!"

Everyone else thought, 'Wait!

'What did he say?

'Matcha?'

Suddenly, everyone else in the living room burst into laughter.

Lydia felt amused. "Son, I've taught you. It's macho, not Matcha!"

But she didn't know why it was so funny.

Cassandra couldn't help laughing, "Lydia, your son is so adorable!"

Weston was puzzled by their laughter and even stopped crying. Soon, he realized what was happening.

He thought if he couldn't continue to cry.

Weston finally stopped crying. Selena and Sylvia, looked straight at Abril in Kenneth's arms, which meant that it was now Abril's turn.

3/5

Chapter 505

Kenneth was speechless.

He thought there was no need to do it.

Kenneth thought his daughter might not be able to stand any hardship.

Kenneth said, "Let's forget about it."

However, he was rejected directly. He couldn't refuse the two elders in front of him.

So, he could only watch his daughter taste the sour, sweet, bitter, and salty water.

However, Abril didn't do anything that Weston just did. As she tasted it, Abril's eyes shone more and more brightly. She even smacked her mouth.

She thought it was delicious and every one of them tasted different.

She wanted to have more.

Just after tasting the salt water, Abril even danced and jumped up, asking for more.

Nothing that Kenneth was worried about happened.

Selena said without hesitation, "Cherry, good girl, better than Weston! I can't believe nothing happened after you tasted so many of them!"

She thought Abril was awesome.

After all, Abril ate a lot but was not picky. Cassandra said, "Selena, won't she be a foodie in the future?"

Obviously, Abril was more like her mother and Weston was more like his father.

Selena said carelessly, "Leave it for the future. Don't worry about it now."

Besides, it was good for a girl to be a foodie. At least she wouldn't be fooled by others using some delicious food.

4/5

However, Cassandra thought that a foodie was more gullible.

Kenneth felt a little bit tired. His guess was wrong. He thought it would be okay to taste these based on Weston's habits so he didn't expect that it was Abril who tasted the water calmly.

Selena said, "You can start to feed them baby food. What kind of recipes do you need? Lydia has all kinds of them. You can ask her for them to keep the two babies fat and cute."

Cassandra nodded and said, "I think so too. Fortunately, there is not a huge age gap between Nelson and the others. We can use them as references."

Lydia cared more about her godson and goddaughter than her own son. She said, "I've already prepared them. I will send them to you later."

Because she wanted Abril to be her daughter-in-law.

Nelson looked at Lydia with his innocent eyes. "Mummy, can we... can bring Weston home?"

Lydia was stunned and she asked, "Why did you say that?"

Nelson replied, "Because I like Weston."

Lydia asked, "Don't you like Abril?"

Nelson said, "Yeah, but I like Weston more."

Chapter 506

On the first day when they had baby food, Kenneth turned into a super daddy and made some comfort food for them.

Each of them was carrying a small bowl. One of them was in Cassandra's arms and the other was carried by Kenneth. They kept watching each other eating the food.

They looked just like a happy family but for some reason, Kenneth felt that something bad was going to happen.

Weston had been traumatized before. This time, he was scared so he didn't dare to eat anything. He was disturbed by some strange smell that could make him cry.

So, Weston stubbornly refused to eat anything. She didn't even look at his mother.

Cassandra said, "Clement, this is just a bowl of soup. Look, your sister is eating it now."

Cassandra felt a little bit helpless. Abril would eat anything Cassandra gave to her but Weston would study everything carefully before he ate it.

Abril seemed to have understood why Cassandra felt helpless so when Cassandra held the spoon near Weston's mouth, she immediately kicked at Weston.

Weston was frightened, and the soup in Cassandra's spoon fell down somewhere near his mouth.

Weston felt helpless. He wanted to cry but thought there was no need to cry here so he held his tears back and licked his lips.

His eyes suddenly widened as if he had found something wrong.

It tasted good!

He stuck out his tongue and licked his lips again in disbelief!

It was really delicious!

1/6

Chapter 506

Weston opened her mouth and wanted to have more. "Ah, ah!"

Cassandra smiled softly, turned to Abril, and couldn't help but praise Weston. "I know Cherry must have a way to deal with it but I can't believe you came up with such a smart trick."

Kenneth said proudly, "Of course. She is our daughter. She must be the best."

Cassandra was speechless.

However, the situation was out of control.

Abril would kick Weston every few minutes on average which means: why didn't you share your food with me and why you ate so much?

Weston kept being kicked. He just looked at his sister, feeling aggrieved. It was not like he didn't want to complain about her in front of his parents.

But his father ignored him. Though his mother hugged him she ignored him too.

He was sitting on Cassandra's lap now.

Cassandra threatened Abril. "Don't ever kick him again. I will beat you up!"

Kenneth was a little upset and immediately said, "She's just a kid. She knows nothing. This is just intimate behavior between them!"

He was afraid that his little princess would be scared by her mom.

Cassandra looked bewildered.

She couldn't believe Kenneth just retorted her words.

She thought, 'What does he mean?

'For his baby daughter, he doesn't care about me at all!'

Kenneth immediately changed his mind and said, "Clement didn't protest it. Don't be angry with Cherry."

Weston felt speechless.

He thought, 'I protested!'"

Cassandra whispered, "But, in this way, Clement can't eat well."

Kenneth was very tolerant of children, especially Abril. He said, "It's okay. Clement has almost finished his food. It doesn't matter. So has Cherry. They won't be hungry."

He thought there was only one little princess in his heart and it would always be so.

Of course, he would spoil her.

Cassandra was speechless.

Although what he said made sense, she still thought Kenneth was biased.

After having the meal, the two kids fell asleep. When they got up, Kenneth decided to teach them how to turn over.

He watched the tutorial. The parents would do it first and the kids would follow them.

He didn't want Cassandra to feel too tired so he followed the video twice and then put one kid on each side.

The room was large so it had plenty of space, with a thick carpet on the floor which was very soft.

So, he just started teaching his kids on the carpet.

Kenneth said, "Clement, Cherry, watch Daddy and learn from me.

"Daddy will do it again. You have to watch me carefully.

3/6

"I'll do it again.

"If you have mastered it, show me!

“Lie down.

“Stretch out your leg!

“Ball your hands into fists.

“Keep it.

“Turn over.”

He had demonstrated it so many times but only Weston learned it and he did it very well.

Kenneth was overjoyed. He didn't expect that Weston could master it so quickly.

Kenneth tilted his head to the side and looked at Abril, only to see her wide-open eyes. “Cherry, have you learned how to do it?”

Abril didn't really want to learn it.

She didn't think Daddy's movement was pretty!

Kenneth felt a little helpless. He didn't expect to fail so soon.

He never thought his dear daughter would embarrass him so directly.

So, he got up helplessly and said to Abril seriously, “Cherry, look at your brother. He has learned it already. You can also learn it quickly. You know it, right?”

Abril turned to his brother and she thought something seemed wrong.

She thought, ‘How does he learn how to do it?’

‘No way!

4/6

Chapter 506

‘I will learn it too!!

So, after trying many times, Abril finally learned to turn over.

Then the three of them started to keep turning over together.

Everyone else who had seen this would have been shocked.

On a whim, Cassandra wanted to go to the monitoring room to see what her kids and her husband were doing.

Soon, she was bewildered.

She immediately copied the surveillance video.

She sent them to Kenneth's chat group with his friends. Unfortunately, she clicked on the wrong one.

Cassandra and Lydia were also in Kenneth's chat group with his friends. She wanted to share another side of Kenneth with them but she accidentally sent it to a group chat where a lot of rich men in Drieso chatted with each other. The refore, everyone in this group watched the video of Kenneth teaching his kids to turn over.

It was quite a bomb.

[Is this Kenneth? What's he doing?]

[Are you teaching his kids to turn over? My wife taught my kids to do it. I didn't expect Mr. Zelinski to do it himself.]

[I don't think he's Mr. Zelinski. Mr. Zelinski will never do this!]

[Why can't he be Mr. Zelinski? Check the layout of the babies' room. Will you arrange your kids to such a huge room?]

[Obviously not, at least not me!]

[However, I think Mr. Zelinski is really a good man: He goes for it both at work and at home and he knows how to take care of his children. There is no scandal around him either. I want to marry such a man!]

Chapter 506

[Dear, it's afternoon now. Stop daydreaming!]

[I advise you to wash away all the impurities in your brain with some cleaning staff.“]

[Am I the only one who focuses on the two kids? When will these two kids come to my house? There is so much delicious food for them in my house!]

[Shh! Am I the only one wondering who sent the video here?]

Cassandra didn't realize how serious the situation was.

Chapter 507

Kayden was scrolling on his phone when he saw a lot of messages in this group chat. He clicked it open curiously and found something strange.

It seemed that someone had posted a video about Kenneth.

Kayden scrolled up the screen out of curiosity.

Then he found people sent over 200 messages in this group chat in just five minutes.

Soon, he saw the video sent by Cassandra.

He wondered why she sent this video on this group chat of wealthy people.

Kenneth's reputation would definitely be ruined.

However, he saved the video smiling gloatingly.

He thought it was a rare chance.

He sent the video to a chat group of only a few people and sent a message: [Oh my god! Amazing! Kenneth takes care of the kids at home! This will be history!]

Cassandra heard her phone ringing and opened it. She guessed it must be messages in the group chat.

She was soon confused,

She thought, 'What on earth is going on?

'Where's the video that I just sent?

'Why is the only video sent by Kayden?'

Cassandra was speechless. She sent a message: [Why is this video from you? Where is the one that I just sent to you?]

1/6

She remembered she had sent it to this group chat.

Kayden: [Cassie, did Kenneth make you angry? But you didn't have to send his video to the group chat of wealthy families. (LOL)]

Cassandra was shocked.

She didn't realize she had made a mistake until now.

She got out of this group chat and clicked another group chat, only to find that people were discussing something.

She had made a big mistake.

She wanted to hack this group chat and she didn't know what else could solve this problem.

Kayden: [Cassie, it's already done. You can't hack the group chat or delete the video. After all, everyone has watched it.]

Cassandra: [Stop.]

Lydia: [Wow, Kenneth is a model of a good father he learns how to make his kids turn over. John stayed in the army when my kids were little. He missed totally it!]

Eddie: [Are you complaining about me?]

Lydia: [Yes! Did you realize it until now!]

Eddie: [...]

Kayden: [You two should go out if you want to perform public displays of affection.]

Cassandra put down her phone, feeling a little embarrassed. She really didn't mean it.

Could it be that she was pregnant?

Seeing that she looked like in a dilemma, Kenneth put the two kids on the ground and walked toward her. He asked with concern, "What's wrong? Why are you struggling?"

2/6

Cassandra hesitated.

(+5)

Cassandra said, "Well, I just shot a video of you teaching our kids to turn over. I was going to send it in our group chat, but I sent it to a group chat full of rich girls.” If all the hundreds of people in this group chat saw Kenneth’s video, his reputation would be ruined.

Kenneth was stunned. He couldn’t figure out what Cassandra was talking about rich girls and the video of him turning over with his kids.

He thought for a while and asked tentatively, “Did you send my video to the group chat full of rich and useless kids?”

He thought his guess was right.

As expected, Cassandra nodded with great effort.

Kenneth was speechless.

He took out his phone and opened the group chat.

Someone must have said something, so every message that popped up was peaceful.

[Don’t you think Mr. Zelinski is handsome in this video? It shows that he is responsible and treats his babies well!]

[Yes! I think so too. Mr. Zelinski looks so powerful! He earns a lot of money and takes care of his kids. Isn’t he what everyone envies?]

[To be honest, I’m jealous. My husband doesn’t even know how to carry a baby now. He is no match for

Mr. Zelinski.]

[Some people have the guts to laugh at Mr. Zelinski even though they are nobody. But look, Mr. Zelinski is the model of a good man!]

[That’s right. Some people don’t have enough self-knowledge!]

3/6

Chapter 507

[Cassandra must have done a great thing in her last life so she met a man like Mr. Zelinski in this life. I was just unlucky to meet my husband.]

[Aren't you afraid that your husband will read this?]

[I don't mind it. Anyway, I said this kind of thing quite often.]

The more Kenneth looked up, the darker his face became.

It wasn't because they laughed at him. It was a memorable thing that he taught his children to roll over. He just saw some rude comments about Cassandra.

He thought, 'What does this person mean by "what is Cassandra doing as a mother?"

"What does this person mean by "a woman should be divorced if she can't even teach a child"?'

These words were insulting to Cassandra.

Cassandra felt that Kenneth was angry. When she looked at him, she was a little dumbfounded.

Kenneth whispered, "Honey, I'm not angry. You should send me a copy of that video."

He thought he should take credit for it.

Cassandra was stunned so she took out her phone and sent the original video to Kenneth:

After watching the video, Kenneth thought he looked okay in the video and it didn't ruin his image. After all, a twin of a boy and a girl was not often seen, which could make a lot of people envy him.

Cassandra couldn't believe it. "Are you really not angry?"

Although Kenneth didn't pay much attention to his appearance, he was not the kind of person who would do such a thing. It was good if he was not angry.

A golden light suddenly glittered in Kenneth's eyes. He said, "If I'm angry, what will you do, Cassie?"

Cassandra said generously, "Of course, I will make you happy so that you won't get angry again."

4/6

Kenneth deliberately pulled a long face. "Well, I'm angry now." He even walked toward the two kids.

Cassandra was speechless.

She didn't expect this and didn't know what to do.

Cassandra said, "Didn't you just say you were not angry?" She frowned and recalled what he said just now and thought he was unreasonable.

Kenneth said seriously, "I did say that. But now I'm angry."

He was looking forward to watching Cassandra coax him.

Cassandra said, "Then what do you want?" She looked serious and felt that he was deliberately doing it to force her to coax him.

But, just now, she was just kidding. She really didn't know how to coax anyone.

Kenneth said, "Cassie, didn't you tell me that you would make me happy if I ever got angry?" He sat down among the children as if saying, "Come on, I'm ready for you to make me happy!"

Cassandra felt speechless.

She thought he had gone too far.

Cassandra's pretty little face almost twisted and she didn't know how to comfort him.

Kenneth realized it.

So, he decided to help Cassandra. He pointed at his own lips and said, “Cassie, do you know what to do now?”

Cassandra thought, ‘Sure enough, he has evil intentions.’

She snorted.

However, Cassandra had no other choice. She walked to Kenneth and stiffly kissed his lips. Then

Chapter 508

The kiss lasted for about five minutes...

Just as Kenneth was about to make further moves, Cassandra suddenly came to her senses. “Something was wrong.”

She immediately pushed him away.

“You should be careful.” “The kids are still here, and it may have a bad influence on them.”

Kenneth chuck/

and held her in his arms domineeringly. He glanced at the shocked Weston and inquisitive Abril, and said softly, "They have witnessed their parents love each other since they were a child, so they won't disturb our intimate life in the future, right?"

Cassandra was speechless. She thought, 'It's the first time I've heard someone refer to something shameless as transcendent.

'Can you take care of the children's feelings?'

"Our kids are still young. Don't set a bad example for them." Cassandra retorted, trying to break free from Kenneth's arms. She felt a little uncomfortable to be held by him like this.

When the two children were curious about their parents' moves, Kenneth sat there and directly picked up Cassandra.

Without any aid of external force.

Cassandra was speechless.

After giving birth to the babies, Cassandra had completely become sluggish and just wanted to lie flat like a child.

However, the fact that Kenneth could pick her up so effortlessly just now stimulated her.

"I'm going to do some exercise tomorrow," Cassandra said.

1/6

Chapter 508

Kenneth raised his eyebrows and gave Cassandra a tender look, "Do you need me to accompany you?"

"No, you'd better go to work." Cassandra directly refused him.

“I’d better not, it’s embarrassing to think of you accompanying me for exercise.”
‘Cassandra pondered.

“Okay, I’ll cheer for you.” Kenneth nodded.

Cassandra put her arms around Kenneth’s neck. After a few steps, she suddenly asked, “What are you carrying me for?”

“Cassie, don’t you think that a kiss is enough to make me feel better?” Kenneth gave Cassandra a playful glance before noticing how her expression changed to one of astonishment. He thought she was adorable.

Cassandra was shocked. ‘Are you out of your mind?’

“What... What do you want?” Cassandra had the impression that she was a lamb in a tiger’s den—a tiger that had been starving for a long time.

Kenneth had not had any intimate relations with Cassandra since learning that she was pregnant with twins. He would strive to control his desires even if they slept together and he had physiological needs.

Although she had told him she would satisfy him after giving birth, he never touched her since he believed it would be best to wait longer until her body recovered completely.

‘What’s going on now?’

‘Has he turned on again?’ Cassandra thought.

“What do you think?” Kenneth whispered in Cassandra’s ear, “Honey, I have been celibate for almost a year. Is there any one who is as miserable as I am?”

He had only been married for a few days when he was scheduled to participate in tasks and a closed training session. He departed at the start of the year but returned at the end of it.

After staying with his wife for a day or two, he found out that she was pregnant

Chapter S08

He had waited till now, being celibate ever since. It would be intolerable for him to have to wait any longer.

Cassandra guessed it. 'I'm gonna give up struggling.

'After all, he was my man. And it had been a long time since the last time we ...'

She wrapped her other hand around Kenneth as though she implicitly agreed with him.

Kenneth smiled. 'Cassie still cared about me.'

Susan and William assisted them in tending to the two children that had been left in the nursery by them.

Both of them had professional training, which included training in child care. As a result, they only used the nanny for the initial few days following Cassandra's delivery; for the remainder of that time, Susan and William assisted with the work.

They were, after all, Pinehart Mansion's seniors with a wealth of experience. So, they would want to keep the money they used to pay for the nanny to themselves.

When they went to bed together, it was daytime, but by the time Cassandra woke up again, it was already the next morning.

'Ahh... Another night had passed.

Kenneth went to the company early in the morning and told the maids at home not to disturb Cassandra. She would come downstairs by herself when she woke up.

When he appeared in the company, everyone felt that he seemed to have a strange aura.

He seemed to be different than before. He used to be cold, and even after he had children, he had just become a little gentler. But he never stopped grinning today.

Even Yannick felt something weird with his boss. He asked, “Mr. Zelinski, why are you so happy?”

3/6

Chapter 508

He showed up early in the morning as if he had found millions of dollars on the road.

(+5)

“No, Kenneth wouldn’t behave that way for merely a few million dollars. That would just prevent him from making tens of millions of dollars.

‘Is that because of Mrs. Zelinski?’ Yannick wondered.

“Really? Do I look different?” Kenneth asked.

Yannick felt a hint of joy in his tone.

‘It appears that he had waited for so long to get satisfied. No, he just finally got what he desired.

‘His children have been over three months old. If he remains celibate, it doesn’t make sense.

‘If he stays celibate for too long, Mrs. Zelinski may suffer,’ Yannick thought.

Jeremiah knew this feeling better than others.

“You exude a different energy now. I feel like your body is encircled by pink bubbles,” stated Yannick.

As for the meaning of pink bubbles, Kenneth knew it.

He chuckled and asked secretly, “Is it so obvious?”

“Good job today, double bonus this month,” Kenneth said happily. “Go and get me a cup of coffee.”

Yannick walked out happily and hurriedly made a cup of coffee for Kenneth. It was so easy for him to make money today. He could earn a month's bonus with just a few flatteries.

That's over 20,000 dollars.

And it was not part of the paycheck.

After delivering the coffee, he hurriedly sent a message in the group chat: [While Mr. Zelinski is in a good mood, hurry up and take your troublesome project to him. Let Mr. Zelinski give you some suggestions. It's now or never. You have to move fast. Remember, do not go there at 4 p.m. Otherwise, you will suffer.]

Everyone in the group chat was gossiping.

Fortunately, Kenneth wasn't in the group chat, so they could talk freely without much concern.

[Really? Is Mr. Zelinski in a good mood today?]

[Mr. Zelinski was in a good mood every day. It's just that today he is extraordinarily happy.]

[Exactly. Mr. Zelinski has become gentler and less aggressive since Mrs. Zelinski gave birth to the babies. Go ahead.]

[Lol, you're not the one who is on the front line. What makes you heckle?]

[Yannick had said it. You have to believe him, okay? This is a rare opportunity for us. Mr. Zelinski came to work early today, which means he is here to handle his work.]

[It looks as if you know Yannick very well.]

[He's right. Kenneth came to handle his work today, Remember to flatter him, and the God of Wealth and the God of Luck will both favor you.]

[Yannick.]

Chapter 509

With Yannick's encouragement, they all stormed into Kenneth's office. Luckily, Kenneth was in a good mood, so when he saw them, he was only stunned for a brief period before handling their work.

Kenneth carefully provided instruction to several people who were remarkably slow to respond during their consultation. He seldom took more than twenty minutes on a case. It only took a few minutes if it was quick.

For those who could pass their case straight through, Kenneth would inform Yannick to tell the finance department that they would receive a twofold bonus.

It was a hectic day for Kenneth. Those who flattered him all got their bonus.

They were amazed that Kenneth would take the initiative to reward them.

What a God-given opportunity.

Kenneth started to realize that time passes slowly after four in the afternoon and that he had been gone for a while. It was time to go home. He wondered what Cassandra was doing at home.

Therefore, he began to lose patience when handling his work.

Yannick checked the time. It was four o'clock already. 'But why so many people are still here?'

So, he coughed to attract their attention. When everyone turned to look at him, he pointed to his watch.

"Mr. Zelinski, I'm sorry. I told the people in my department that there would be a meeting at 4 o'clock. I have some ideas about this project, so I got to go," Yannick said.

Then he ran away quickly.

Other colleagues behind them also ran away.

Kenneth was left dumbfounded.

It was almost time, and Kenneth was about to get off work.

A few months later, Weston and Abril had already turned one year old.

Selena, Sylvia, and Omar decided to let the two kids draw lots to see what they would like to become or do in the future.

They had more expectations for Abril, so she would do it first.

It turned out she was not interested in anything but reached out for Kenneth's Military Merit Medal. It was the first second-class merit that Kenneth got, and he almost lost a leg for it.

Abril held it in her hand and couldn't help admiring it.

This didn't seem to be a surprise.

But everyone was talking about Abril

[She is going to do what Mr. Zelinski did. It seems that there will be a female officer in the Zelinski family.]

[At such a young age, she likes military medals. She will probably be a soldier defending her home and country in the future.]

2/6

υ

[Abril is ambitious. It seems that she has been deeply influenced by Mr. and Mrs. Zelinski.]

Even John was overjoyed and said, "This girl will stand out in the future."

He happily held Abril in his arms. "In the future, Cherry will become a female officer."

Although Abril couldn't understand what John was saying, she liked the medal hanging on the chest of

John's military uniform.

She was busy playing with the two medals.

It seemed to be a lot of fun to her.

Kenneth appeared pleased as well. He was surprised that his daughter had selected his medal. Even though this was only a wish, he was nevertheless very proud.

L

He would support her to pursue the military if she truly wanted to, even though it was an extremely dangerous career.

After Abril chose her favorite object, it was Weston's turn and everyone had a high expectation for him as well.

All of a sudden, everyone looked at Weston.

Lucas smiled and said, "Since Cherry chose the military merit badge. Clement has to choose one related to politics. So, I can hand over my position to him."

Kenneth looked at his son curiously, and Cassandra was also very concerned.

However, Weston didn't want to move at all.

So, Selena teased Weston and said, "Clement, come over here. I have something good for you."

Weston didn't pay any attention at all.

Lydia's teasing didn't work.

3/6

Nelson was a little curious about why so many people gathered around Weston. He felt that Weston was unhappy.

Nelson was almost three years old, and he could talk fluently. Now he could even recite a lot of old poems.

He could also say long sentences.

"Clement, come over." Nelson stretched out his arms and coaxed Weston.

Weston suddenly turned over, looked at Nelson, and then crawled towards him.

He held Nelson's leg.

Um...

Suddenly Weston was up, using Nelson's weight to support himself.

Then he slapped Nelson in the face.

What a loud sound.

The room appeared to be extremely quiet since everyone stopped talking and held their breath. This was a rather loud slap.

Kenneth and Eddie were stunned. 'What's going on?'

Even Lydia was shocked.

But when Weston beat Nelson with composure, he took a seat on the ground. He then crawled back to his previous location and absentmindedly picked up a green money.

It was as though the scene had never occurred.

Nelson was confused. He looked at his mother in confusion and felt aggrieved, "Mommy, why did-

Clement hit me?"

4/6

Chapter 509

'Did I do anything wrong?

'But I like him so much, Nelson wondered.

Lydia didn't know how to explain it. To be honest, she was a little embarrassed.

"Good boy. Weston was just playing with you. He likes you very much." Lydia could only comfort him.

“But I didn’t even hit him,” Nelson retorted.

Lydia was at a loss how to reply.

Cassandra saw that her godson looked very aggrieved, so she walked to Nelson with Weston in her arms and comforted him softly, “You are upset because Clement slapped you just now. How about you beat him as well? That’s fair.”

Nelson was a little hesitant. Looking at the cute face of Weston, he thought Nelson was so adorable.

“If I hit Clement... Will he hurt?” Nelson asked.

“Yes, but he had hit you. Even if he hurts, he has to bear it.” She would never spoil her son and let Nelson feel aggrieved.

Moreover, it was his son’s fault. He slapped Nelson inexplicably. If he dared to come up and slap her, she would teach him a good lesson.

“Forget it. I don’t want him to hurt, so I won’t hit him.” Nelson said.

But as soon as he finished his words, Weston seemed to have found a chance.

Nelson was slapped on his forehead again.

Everyone was speechless.

They thought, ‘Is he doing this on purpose?’

Nelson was about to cry. ‘But if I cried, Weston would be punished.

Nelson was so aggrieved and wanted to cry, which made Cassandra feel sorry for him. Even Kenneth felt that her son had gone too far.

‘Nelson was so obedient, but her son slapped him twice. Although he didn’t use too much force, it still hurt considering they were both children, Kenneth thought.

Cassandra threw Weston to Kenneth, then held Nelson in her hands, and said softly, “Nelson, don’t cry. Weston didn’t mean it. He did this because he likes you, but his way of expression was wrong. Godmother will avenge you, okay?”

Nelson stared at him with her big and innocent eyes. He asked in a tender voice, “Will Weston cry?”

“I don’t know, but he bullied you. He will be punished if he makes a mistake.” Cassandra didn’t care how old her son was. It was wrong to hit others.

“That’s not necessary. I don’t feel pain. Don’t hit Clement. He is still young.” Although Nelson’s voice was childish, he sounded determined.

He didn’t want Cassandra to teach Weston a lesson. ‘What if Weston cried?

‘Dad said, I am already a man, I should to be brave.

‘So, I couldn’t cry.

‘I don’t feel any pain. It didn’t hurt at all when Weston hit me.’ Nelson said in his heart.

Weston was dancing beside him. This was his biggest movement, and he finally behaved like a child.

“Bro... ther...” Weston mumbled.

Everyone was shocked. ‘Is that Weston?’

Cassandra was surprised and felt incredible.

1/5

Chapter 510

Not long ago, Weston just learned how to call Mom and Dad. She didn’t expect that he would be able to call him “brother”.

Kenneth frowned, and nobody knew what he was thinking.

Lydia also felt a little unbelievable. ‘Clement can call brother?’

Cassandra walked to Weston with Nelson in her arms and coaxed him, “Clement, good boy. Call Nelson ‘brother’ again, okay?”

Weston blinked, glanced at Nelson, but stretched out his little hands again.

However, Cassandra reacted quickly this time and didn’t allow Weston to make it.

“Call Nelson brother,” Cassandra asked his son.

“Bro... ther.” Weston called him “brother”, which made Nelson dance with joy.

“Weston called me brother.” Nelson clapped his hands, overjoyed.

Lydia stepped forward and said, “Strangely enough, my mother and Mrs. Hathaway had taught him several times, but he can’t call ‘grandma’. However, he can call brother clearly.”

She felt extremely surprised, which meant that her son was destined to have a relationship with the child of her boss.

'Look, Clement is calling Nelson now.

'Then he could one day call him brother-in-law.' Lydia thought..

Only Kenneth and Eddie didn't appear to be happy.

They seemed be a little weird.

Eddie stepped forward, held her son in his arms, and directly separated them ten feet away. Kenneth couldn't help but take two steps back as well. At this point, he didn't care about his daughter anymore.

Chapter 510

Before everyone understood what it meant, they heard Eddie muttering, "Nelson, don't play with Weston. Play with Abril, okay?"

Kenneth also suddenly said, "Weston, don't play with Nelson. You have a sister. Nelson is not good-looking. Can you only play with Abril from now on?"

Everyone was speechless.

Lydia was silent and thought, 'Why did Mr. Zelinski attack my son?'

Her son was obviously more good-looking than any other child. Lydia thought, 'Does Mr. Zelinski know how to judge people's appearance?'

'I'm so pissed off.' Lydia was annoyed.

"You... Nelson is very cute." Cassandra protested.

As soon as she finished her words, Nelson said, "Why? Weston and Abril are both very cute. But I...

prefer Weston. Shouldn't boys play with boys?"

Nelson's innocent questioning made Eddie a little ashamed. 'I am too narrow-minded, but... There must be something wrong with those two kids.'

In the past, there were also such brothers growing together. They ended up becoming couples.

He had to stop his son.

It was not because he didn't want his son to be homosexual, he had no objection to it. Anyway, there were many gays in his army, so it wasn't something strange to him.

But he was worried that his son would be at the bottom.

Weston was only one year old, but he already started to beat his son.

The point was that Nelson didn't want to fight back, instead, he tried to defend Weston.

As parents, they felt tired for this kind of thing.

Chapter 510

O

On the other side, Weston couldn't understand what his father was talking about. He only heard him say "brother".

So, he started to copy him and said, "Bro... ther."

Kenneth was speechless.

Eddie was also dumbfounded.

"What the hell are you doing?" Cassandra and Lydia asked in unison.

These two men seemed to be losing their minds.

"Nothing." Eddie and Kenneth also answered in unison.

Selena stepped forward and slapped Eddie. She couldn't help scolding, "What the hell are you doing?"

The two kids like each other. Why did you separate them?"

"I..." Eddie didn't know how to explain.

"Give me the baby." Selena held the child in her arms with a cold face.

On the other side, Sylvia held Weston in her arms from Kenneth's hand. They walked to each other and put the children together.

Kenneth made up his mind that he must educate his son to develop a normal sexual orientation in the future.

In the past year, when Weston learned to crawl, walk, and call people, he didn't get close to his sister very much. On the contrary, he started dancing happily as soon as Nelson arrived.

The one-year-old birthday party ended with the interaction between the two children.

Back to their bedroom at night, Cassandra asked curiously, "What happened between you and Eddie today?"

Chapter 510

She had never seen Kenneth so nervous about his son.

"I..." Kenneth told her his concerns.

Cassandra was speechless.

"I think you're overthinking it. They are children, how can they develop in that direction? The two kids are just close to each other." Cassandra didn't believe in that. She thought, 'How is anyone born gay?'

“Weston just thinks Nelson is adorable!

“Cassie, what if this happens in the future?” Kenneth asked.

“Our family does not possess a throne that can be inherited. Let him do whatever he wants. We can’t make Abril work too hard, so we could only let him bring a boy home and inherit the Zelinski Group.” If that truly happened, there’s no thing they could do.

She was not an old fuddy– duddy. If her son indeed liked men, he was still her son.

She only needed to get an extra son.

Kenneth was stunned and suddenly felt that his wife was so cute.

He wasn’t gay, and he was accustomed to the fact that there were a lot of gays in the army. Even still, he found it hard to accept it if this happened to his son in the future.
