It is tragic that these brothers are born into a family like this!

Unable to bear to see the brothers being bullied anymore, he wanted to defend them. However, it sounded

A loud bang before the office door slammed open from the outside.

After that, a stylish figure entered the office from outside, effectively attracting attention. everybody's.

When Julius saw who was coming, he was stunned, while Tessa and Timothy were left puzzled because the person who came in was Nicholas, and Edward and Henry were following him.

Half an hour earlier, when Timothy was called to the principal's office, he had gotten Henry to meet with Nicholas because he didn't want their combined effort to be wasted on his own.

private affairs.

After Henry went to meet Nicholas, Nicholas asked him about Timothy when he noticed that Timothy wasn't there, while Henry explained what happened in an annoying way.

When Nicholas heard what happened, he couldn't help frowning.

It wouldn't be surprising if Tessa showed up when something so serious happened to Timothy. Still, Greg Thinking about it, he decided to come to see what really happened. However, I had already heard the Amber's outrageous comments when she arrived at the entrance of the office.

I can't believe that there are people as shameless as this in this world!

Then, Nicholas opened the door and walked into the office. At this time, his presence surprised everyone, as everyone was puzzled until his cold voice resounded. "Sir. Chance, a la University was still doing well before you took over, so how do you plan to explain this chaos?

At that moment, Julius came back to his senses before his face turned pale. There was never expected Nicholas to be informed about this and come on his own.

Southend University was established sixty years ago by Nicholas' maternal great-grandfather, Mason Buchanan, and he was the first principal of the university. His grandfather, on the other hand, was once the Hearing that, Julius was completely horrified before quickly explaining: "It's not like that, President Sawyer. Things are a bit complicated right now.”

However, Nicholas didn’t want to waste any more time with Julius and cut him. “What’s so complicated about it?

My Son Mother Will Be My Wife Chapter 103–File a police report?

Amber felt something break inside her the moment she heard that Julius wanted it.

File a police report. “Who are you? How dare an outsider like you interfere in our business!”

Just then, Sophia quickly pulled Amber’s shirt before whispering, “Grandma, this it’s the strong Tessa backing I told you about. Don’t lose your cool and face it.”

Amber was stunned. For someone who had lived more than half his life, he knew very well whom

I could or could not cross. If they really crossed over to the Sawyers, the Reinharts would definitely find themselves in

Therefore, Amber quickly recomposed herself before saying, “President Sawyer, although she is a

"Is that so?"

There was a hint of arrogance in Nicholas' voice as his gaze turned cold. "How dare he Hearing that, Amber was exasperated when her face turned red. If it were Tessa, there would already have been Reprimanded. However, he didn't have the guts to answer to someone in the Sawyer family, so

He could only shut up and sigh.

Aún así, Nicholas aún no había terminado. Estaba emitiendo un aura de presión antes de mirar a Amber con dureza y continuó: "Además, fui yo quien capturó a Silas. Incluso si dañas a Tessa y Timothy hoy, la policía no lo liberará sin mi permiso, así que no tienes que desperdiciar tu esfuerzo".

Los rostros de Sophia y Amber se encendieron cuando lo escucharon.

Aunque sabían que Nicholas era la persona detrás de lo sucedido, acudieron a Tessa y Timothy porque

no tenían otra opción, pero parecía que Nicholas estaba empeñado en proteger a esos dos, lo que significaba que no tenían otra opción que suplicarle. .

Silas es el único hijo que he tenido en toda mi vida, ¡y de ninguna manera dejaré que se pudra en prisión por el resto de su vida!

Amber se entristeció al pensar en eso antes de que la expresión arrogante de su rostro desapareciera y preguntó de manera humilde: “¿Qué... qué quieres que hagamos para dejar ir a mi hijo?”

However, Nicholas just stared at her and said nothing before turning to Tessa and declaring with coldness: “That’s up to Tessa. She is my wife and has the say to decide how she wants to deal with you!

Hearing that, Tessa felt a mixture of feelings that she couldn’t pin down.

Throughout these years, she and Timothy had been bullied a lot, and all they could do was Carry all the pain and suffering in silence without anyone standing up to protect them.

However, Nicholas had been protecting her all along and backing her up. Even though she

She tried her best to keep her distance from him, he would never stop reaching out to help her.

I guess I really need a lot of time to be able to repay him for everything he’s done for me.

Tessa snorted and tried to suppress the urge to cry before turning to look at Amber and Sophia with coldness.

Then, he declared, “I’ve already said it once. If you want me to let Silas go, give me back the apartment that my mother left Timothy and me, and changed ownership of the house to my name.

brother. On top of that, give me back my mother’s dowry as well. That’s it.”

Although he didn't want anything from the Sawyers, he had to get back what belonged to his mother. When Sophia heard Tessa's demands, her face darkened before she felt a powerful urge to kill Tessa.

How dare she make such outrageous demands just because Nicholas is Helping?

What made Sophia even more jealous was the fact that Nicholas would make so much effort just to Help.

How dare he? If we are talking about appearance, I should be the favorite!

She was so jealous that she was about to go crazy.

My son's mother will be my wife

However, Nicholas suddenly asked, "That's it? Don't you want other things like stocks?

However, Tessa sneered disdainfully: "I don't need it!"

The office quickly fell silent after that, and Nicholas turned around to look at Sin embargo, rápidamente volvió en sí antes de decir: "Gracias por ayudarme esta vez.

Timothy le dio a Nicholas una mirada de agradecimiento también. "Gracias por ayudar, presidente

Nicolás asintió un poco. Es sólo un asunto pequeño. Es imposible hacer entrar en razón a personas como Luego, se volvió hacia Julius y dijo con severidad: "Espero que cosas como esto no volverá a suceder."

Julius respondió respetuosamente. “Sí. Nunca volverá a suceder, aclararé el nombre de Timothy lo antes possible and will not affect your student life.”

“Good. Nicholas nodded in satisfaction before leaving with Tessa and Timothy.

Then, Timothy gave a brief introduction about the idea behind his software and features.

Finally, he ended his presentation with a strong conclusion. “Since no one has developed a

After that, Timothy gave Nicholas an anxious look. “What do you think, President Sawyer?”

Although Nicholas didn’t say anything, he was really satisfied with the artificial intelligence program.

that Timothy had developed.

This project was much better than he imagined, as everything was well designed instead of empty conversations.

As Timothy said, this software was an all-rounder.

Nicholas didn’t expect that a sophomore like Timothy could present an excellent

Project without first-hand experience.

Although Timothy's project had exceeded Nicholas' expectations, Nicholas remained.

At that moment, Timothy hesitated before his hands, once confident, slowly came down underneath.

"Can I send someone else to go? Henry is one of the creators of the software and also knows

Although Timothy generally looked good and could speak fluently, he tended to feel uncomfortable.

Although Timothy improved now, he was still suspicious of other people's gazes, as well as his eyes.

However, Tessa had been waiting for Timothy to step forward all along, so

He grabbed his hands that were under the table. "Since President Sawyer really values you, Why don't you try doing it? You can do it like you did just now."

After the reason behind Timothy's hesitation, Henry also tried to persuade him. "Timothy,

Since everyone tried to persuade him, Timothy had no choice but to nod his head. "I... me

I'll go, then. I will do my best."

After everything was arranged, Nicholas reached out for a handshake. "I hope that we can have nice cooperation."

Slightly stunned, Timothy quickly came to his senses to shake hands with Nicholas. "Same it happens.”

He looked lively, and the annoyed look he had before when he was in trouble had desaparecido. En ese momento, Timothy parecía aún más confiado que antes.

Después de que terminaron su reunión, Nicholas asintió hacia Timothy y Henry. Estaba planeando irse, por lo que los dos jóvenes universitarios lo enviaron a la entrada. “Tenga un viaje seguro, presidente Sawyer”.

However, Nicholas turned around and looked at Tessa after taking a few steps forward.

“Do you do you stay with your brother or come back with me?”

At this time, Tessa was a little surprised before asking curiously: “Aren’t you going back to your company?”

However, Nicholas tapped on his expensive wristwatch before saying, “I don’t have to go back as my Hour of work is almost over.”

Since he would still have to return, he would have to take a taxi if he didn’t plan to leave with Nicholas. Like that it would be more complicated, it would be better if he took the free ride with Nicholas, so he nodded. “Let’s go back.

However, Timothy was surprised when he saw Tessa leave with Nicholas voluntarily.

“T-Tessa,

Why are you leaving with President Sawyer? How well do you know each other?”

I had wanted to ask this question since Nicholas appeared to help them earlier, and not

He was able to contain his curiosity when he saw him again today.

At this time, Tessa finally thought of explaining. "Didn't I tell you I got a job? independent to teach violin to a child? That boy is President Sawyer's son, so now he's my superior."

"I see!" Timothy seemed enlightened before turning to Nicholas and exclaiming, "Please take care of my sister, President Sawyer! Have a safe trip!"

Tessa nodded and reminded him of the things he needed to take note of before leaving. On the way back,

He sat in the back of the car along with Nicholas.

Since the space in the back of the car was narrow, the two sat very close to each other,

However, Nicholas did not notice his action as he was lying in his seat lazily and already

It had lost its strong, quiet façade during the meeting just now.

He also lost the intimidating aura he had when facing Amber and Sophia.

At this moment, Nicholas looked casual and free.

After hesitating for a moment, Tessa spoke. "Nicholas, thank you for helping us today. Also, thank you for guiding Timothy."
