My Son Mother Will Be My Wife Chapter 41—Hanging up the phone without further laps, Tessa interrupted the training and apologized to Trevor:

“Trevor, I have an urgent matter, so I have to leave first!”

Instead of blaming her, he advised her worriedly:

-Tessa, take care!

Tessa left the room and went downstairs to call a taxi to go to the hospital. After getting into the car, her right eyelid jumped in fury that left her suddenly with a bad feeling.

Nicholas' gaze was thoughtful. When he heard the anxious tone on the other side, he didn't feel that she was pretending, but he didn't immediately believe him either. After all, the matter was related to Gregory's personal safety, so he had to wait to hear from her before he could understand the whole thing.

At this moment, two tall figures came over from the corner of the hall. When Kieran and Tobias learned that Gregory was in the hospital, they went immediately. The first was as nervous as a cat on hot bricks, while Tobias had a serious expression and stepped forward to ask:

What happened to Greg? How is it now?

Seeing her husband, a worried Stefania came forward almost immediately and replied:

“Tobias, Greg has been intoxicated! Although it's already good, I've been scared to death!

Knowing that Gregory was okay, Kieran and Tobias breathed a sigh of relief almost at the same time, but their faces immediately cooled down.

Who poisoned Gregory? How dare they?

Kieran was also furious:

“This person does have guts, huh?” How dare they treat Gregory like this? They want to die!

Gregory was the apple of the whole family's eye, and those who dared to attack him were very bold.

Ten minutes later, the taxi stopped at the entrance of the hospital. Tessa ran in a hurry, and when she got outside the emergency room, she found that everyone in the Sawyer family had arrived.

He instantly realized the seriousness of the matter. After entering, he didn't worry about anything else, but hurriedly asked about the situation:

President Sawyer, how is Greg? ¿What happened?

No one answered. The air seemed to stagnate for a few minutes, and everyone around looked at Tessa disdainfully. Stefania's face was very cold, while Tobias was stern. Even Kieran, who used to be quite lively, looked very unfriendly.

As for Nicholas, he looked gloomy and said nothing, while Roselle's look had some hints of gloating. Yana couldn't wait to see Tessa being torn apart, so she sneered:

– What do you mean? I think we should ask you, Ms. Reinhart.

Surprised for a moment, Tessa frowned before asking:

–¿Qué quieres decir?

Una sarcástica Yana respondió:

-¡Como te atreves a preguntarnos! El médico encontró algún tipo de droga en el jugo que Gregory bebió por la tarde, lo que provocó que se intoxicara y fuera trasladado aquí para un lavado gástrico.

-¿Qué? -las cejas de Tessa se movieron con incredulidad. «Cómo pudo haber... >>

Resoplando, Yana fue poniendo cara de burla:

-Señorita Reinhart, no tiene que hacerse la inocente. Aparte de Andrew y mi hija, usted es la única que ha tocado ese vaso. Primero intentó obtener el afecto de Greg, y luego lo drogó con siniestras intenciones... ¡Es tan despreciable! Dime, ¿cuál es el propósito al hacer esto? O, ¿alguien más te envió?

La cara de Tessa se hundió de repente. «¿Cómo pueden sospechar de mí? ¡No tiene sentido!». Con una expresión firme, respondió:

"Mrs. Gingham, what evidence do you have to slander me with such words?" Greg and I don't have any grievances or enmity between us, so why would I hurt him?

Immediately, he looked anxiously at Nicholas and the Sawyer family members. He spoke decisively:

"President Sawyer, Mrs. Sawyer, old Mr. Sawyer, I promise that today I have only lectured Greg, and I knew nothing else! As for that glass of juice..."

Going to Roselle, Tessa said dryly:

"If I remember correctly, Miss Gingham, you're the one who gave Greg the glass of juice. So, Miss Gingham, you will admit it, right?"

My Son Mother Will Be My Wife Chapter 42—Roselle was stunned for a moment, but immediately nodded:

If true, but what do you mean by that, Reinhart senorite? Do you think I'm going to drug Gregory? Our families have a very close relationship, so it is impossible for him to do so and I have no reason to do so. His face relaxed when he added – Instead, I think it's you, Miss Reinhart. Unfortunately I thought Greg liked him very well and that's why you were so good to him. To improve my relationship with the child, I even asked him for advice on how to get along with him, but I didn't expect.

At that moment, Yana suddenly sneered.

-Oh, yes. After all, it is the first time you have come into contact with such a rich family. If you think about it, it is understandable that you develop bad intentions.

The mother and the huja talked one after the other and threw all the shit on Tessa, whose expression was very dark, because she knew that these two were talking nonsense. At the same time, he realized in his heart that he could not compete. So he raised his head and looked at Nicholas decisively. His tone was firm when he gave him

President Sawyer, I swear I never did anything to hurt Greg. If you have to accuse me, please present the evidence

Her attitude was so unwavering that everyone around her doubted the accusation for a second. Tessa was honest and reliable, so she wouldn't recognize anything she didn't do. For some reason, Nicholas felt his heart shake a little, but before he had time to speak, Stefania interrupted.

-Senorita Reinhart, we haven't found any evidence yet, but you the most suspicious!

Tessa laughed, with a tone full of irony:

So, do people from large families like yours like to jump to conclusions? Just because I'm a stranger, am I the most suspicious?

“Um... – Stefania was speechless. Seeing that the situation was on the wrong track, Roselle took the initiative to stand up and suggest:

Well, since Miss Reinhart refuses to admit it, let's do it like this: the only people who have been in contact with the juice are you, me and Andrew, so the three of us should be investigated together.

When Yana heard this, she nodded:

Yes, since you don't admit it, let's accept the investigation together and see who the evidence points to, which will reveal the truth.

Tessa was in a very bad mood when she found out. At first she was worried about Greg, so she hurried over, but not only did she not see him, but she also suffered a strange accusation. However, he didn't want to shoulder the blame, so he nodded and gladly agreed:

Okay, I agree to cooperate with the investigation.

Yana snorted:

“Then, call the police!

The people around them no longer had any objections. Soon the police arrived. Since the matter affected the little prince of the Sawyer Family, the police did not dare to slacken. As soon as they arrived at the scene, they bowed their heads and said:

-Viejo señor Sawyer, no se preocupe, Investigaremos este asunto en profundidad.

Luego, la policia inició una serie de operaciones. Investigaron dos partes diferentes: la primera fue el registro de la villa, mientras que la segunda fue la investigación de las pertenencias personales de las tres personas Sin importar quien llevara la droga, pudieron detectar incluso un pequeño residuo de polvo. En cuanto a la villa, se enviaron varios policías a investigar, Mientras, Kieran buscó al director del hospital, que libero una sala para investigar a los tres sospechosos.

Tessa, Roselle y Andrew. Sacaron sus objetos personales y los enviaron a la policia para que los inspeccionara. Además, la policía los interrogó y se enteró de sus respectivos itinerarios del día,

Tessa no queria que se la agraviara, así que explicó con sinceridad:

-Vine a los Jardines de la Dinastía por la mañana y almorcé con el presidente Sawyer y el joven señor Gregory al mediodía. A continuación, le di al joven señor una lección de violín por la tarde. Después de eso, volví a la orquesta...

"I mean, haven't you been to other places during that time?" The policeman's shrewd eyes met his own.

She nodded

-That's right!

The policemen took notes, nodded, and then began questioning Roselle and Andrew. Andrew's itinerary was simple: he had been at the residence all day, so, of course, there was nothing strange about it. As for Roselle, he said that he had only returned to the country the day before and that he had gone to the villa the next day. Stefania had accompanied her throughout the trip, so she did not have the opportunity to buy any drugs. Therefore, both Andrew and Roselle were ruled out by the police immediately.

At that moment, Tessa's heart sank. The bad premonition he had in his heart was getting stronger and stronger!

My Son Mother Will Be My Wife Chapter 43—At the time, the two brothers, Nicholas and Kieran, were together at the office door. His slender figures were imposing, one being taller than the other. Kieran's expression was enigmatic and he asked his brother in doubt:

"Nicholas, do you really think Tessa did this?" Tsk, why do I feel it wasn't her?

Nicholas lowered his head and thought for a while, but his face was still dark:

"I just look at the evidence. Everyone can say their own, but the evidence doesn't fool me. Anyone, or no one, could have done it.

Hearing the indirect answer, Kieran felt that his brother seemed to be hinting at something. However, considering his intellectual level, he could not understand the message.

The interrogation ended soon. After some investigations, there was nothing wrong with Roselle and Andrew was also ruled out. After all, he was the experienced butler of the Sawyer family for many years. He was loyal to the family and was even fond of Gregory. It was to be hoped that there would be no problem with him.

The only person left was Tessa. Police said that from the moment he left the residence the day before, he would have had enough time to buy drugs. Moreover, he also left that afternoon, so it was hard to rule out that he would not get rid of the drug afterwards. In short, the possibilities continued to point to her as suspicious.

She felt very distressed, but still insisted:

“Sir, after leaving the Dynasty Gardens, I went to the orchestra. I can’t miss work, can I help?

The policeman nodded and said calmly:

“I get it, but, Miss Reinhart, you are still the biggest suspect. As for the other aspects, we still have to gather evidence, so please give us the license plate numbers of the cars in which you have traveled today, as well as their routes.

Tessa almost collapsed. She felt like a prisoner who was being interrogated, so she felt distressed.

On the side, Roselle had a triumphant smile in her eyes, and she was very proud of herself. Sure, I knew who had done it, but I also knew that it was impossible for the police to locate any evidence, so I wasn’t afraid. What satisfied her most was that after this incident, the Sawyer family would take precautions against her and even make her leave the house, away from Nicholas and Gregory!

That was also Roselle’s ultimate goal, since this woman had long disliked him. “Tessa Reinhart, hurry up and get out!” he rejoiced.

However, just as he was calculating his next moves in his head, Nicholas’ phone suddenly rang across the door. The caller was his assistant, Edward, who reported on the other end of the line:

“President Sawyer, I just received the tapes from the hidden surveillance cameras in Mr. Gregory’s kitchen, hallway, and bedroom. I have verified that Miss Reinhart was in the gentleman’s room all afternoon and did nothing strange. Nor did it alter the glass in which the culprit did it must have been during the time when the glass was taken from the kitchen to the upstairs room.

To keep an eye on Gregory, Nicholas had once installed a hidden camera in his room, which he could monitor.

All the movements of the boy. And since the device monitored Tessa’s movements, there was nothing abnormal about her actions. In other words, the culprit of having put the drug in the juice was not her, but Roselle or Andrew.

Nicholas’ obsidian eyes were deep and unfathomable as he pondered. After a moment, he ordered in an icy voice:

-Continue the investigation for me. In an hour, I want to know the results.

"Very well," Edward agreed.

After hanging up the phone, Nicholas turned around and pushed the office door with a gloomy expression. At his sudden entrance, Tessa suddenly turned. It was obvious that his eyes were red with tears and full of grievance.

Looking at her, he felt as if his heart was being stabbed. However, he held back. Then, he stepped forward and told the police:

"There is no need to interrogate her further.

The police officer was shocked and looked at Nicholas in confusion.

President SaWyer, why is that?

My Son Mother Will Be My Wife Chapter 44—Nicholas replied disdainfully:

"This was not done by Miss Reinhart, so she stops asking.

Hearing that, everyone in the office was shocked, and their eyes widened. Even Tessa was stunned when she heard what he said. When she entered, she thought she would be exasperated and ask the police to take her away. However, he actually went to save her.

At the same time, Tobias and Stefania were shocked after witnessing what had happened before she approached to reprimand Nicholas.

"What are you trying to do, Nicholas?" You're spoiling things,

However, he ignored his mother and dragged Tessa to her bossy feet and declared:

-Let's go!

When Tessa was dragged away, she was so shocked that her mind went blank. On the other hand, Stefania was so angry that she stepped forward to prevent him from passing.

"Nicholas, what's wrong with you?" I have told you that I need an explanation of what has happened, and this is the explanation you give me?

However, Nicholas looked back at him with determination:

"Mama, Miss Reinhart is not the murderer. You've made a mistake in blaming her.

A very agitated Yana hurriedly reprimanded his actions:

-iNicholas, you must know how to distinguish between good and evil! If it's not her, are you implying that Roselle and the butler did it? Nicholas, iz how can you believe a stranger?!

However, he replied disdainfully:

"I only believe in the tests. Surveillance camera footage of the house has shown that Ms. Reinhart did not alter the juice Gregory drank, and that's the truth. Would you like to come back with me to investigate the case, Mrs Gingham?

In a state of agitation, the woman interrupted:

-Oh, no. Although Ms. Reinhart wasn't caught doing anything on the recording, what if she fed Gregory something else afterward?

However, Nicholas looked at her disdainfully after hearing what she said:

"Ms. Gingham, why do you sound like you know what happened?" Could it be that you have done something like this before?

Immediately, a terrified look appeared on Yana's rostro before waving her hands with a pale look:

-No! I'm just saying!

At this moment, Roselle hurriedly got up and said:

"Nicholas, please don't get mad at my mother, as she is only concerned about Gregory's condition and wants to help you investigate the real person responsible for this. Since Miss Reinhart is innocent, it is our fault for suspecting her. Please don't get angry.

However, Nicholas' cold gaze fell on her a second later, causing drops of cold sweat to begin to form on her forehead. Then, he ignored everyone's protest and turned around before go with Tessa.

When the two arrived at the entrance of the hospital, Nicholas released his grip on Tessa before apologizing:

“Miss Reinhart, I hope you don’t take my family’s behavior to heart, as they only suspected you because of your concern for Gregory.

Tessa laughed disdainfully when she came to her senses. “Do you really think I’m going to pretend nothing happened just because I used the carrot and stick method with me?” His tone turned cold as he replied:

President Sawyer, you don’t have to explain. You had also suspected me from the beginning, right?

Nicholas was silent. In fact, he wouldn’t believe anyone until he saw the evidence.

Meanwhile, she laughed before her gaze darkened and she wailed;

“Even so, I will have to thank you for clearing my name and believing in me. Despite that, I have to say that... I don’t think I’m fit for work at home, so I think this will be the end of being Gregory’s teacher. I think his family has the ability to hire a better teacher than I do.

My Son Mother Will Be My Wife Chapter 45–Nicholas frowned as Tessa sighed slowly, as if trying to pluck up the courage before speaking again.

President Sawyer, I’m just an ordinary person and different from you in the sense that I just want a normal life. We shouldn’t have been related from the beginning, but I don’t regret meeting you and Gregory. Please say goodbye to him when he wakes up and apologize to him on my behalf. Also, thank him for his good treatment.

Then, he turned around and left without looking back.

Tessa’s back now seemed fragile and inflexible. It resembled a wounded deer that went deep into the forest on its own.

He stuck in place with a frown. It was at that moment that Kieran also left the hospital:

-Nicholas! “When he saw what had happened, he frowned before asking,” Nicholas, what’s going on? Are you sure Tessa isn’t the one who wanted to hurt Gregory? If not her, who else could it be?

Before Nicholas could respond, Kieran murmured:

“Ah, we’re finished. Now that Tessa has resigned, Gregory is sure to throw tantrums as soon as he regains consciousness.

When he heard that, Nicholas could feel a headache. Since the boy liked Tessa very much, he would surely be angry now that she had resigned. However, he only had to face the situation.

Massaging his temples, Nicholas replied:

-It is ok. I'll fix it.

So, the two headed back to the hospital.

On the other hand, Tobias and Stefania were still upset after seeing Nicholas dragging Tessa along. This was even more fitting for Stefania, who was full of rage. When the brothers returned, she ran to them almost before reprimanding them:

"Nicholas, what's wrong with you?" How could you let that woman go free? Don't you know that she is to blame for harming Gregory?!

However, Nicholas frowned before answering with annoyance:

"Mom, haven't I told you that I have the evidence to prove that...?"

However, Stefania did not believe it as she said:

"Isn't that her?" ¿Who else can it be? Tell me. Do you really think it's possible for Roselle or Andrew to do something like that?

Hearing that, Andrew was surprised before defending himself in fear:

"Miss Nicholas, I have watched you and your brother grow up since you were little. You have also treated me well over the years. I have been nothing but loyal, and I would never do something like that!

Para alguien que había dedicado toda su vida a la familia Sawyer, Andrew ya habría hecho su movimiento antes si tuviera alguna mala intención, así que ¿por qué debería haber esperado hasta ahora?

Entonces, la expresión facial de Yana fue muy oscura mientras intentaba argumentar:

– Nicholas, no hay razón para que Andrew haga esto, por no hablar de Roselle! ¿Cómo podría alguien como ella, que había sido amable y gentil desde que era una niña, intentar dañar a otra persona? Además, ¡no hay razón para que Roselle le haga daño a Gregory! Nicholas, debes creer...

Ya basta! Nicholas soltó un chasquido cuando se le acabó la paciencia. Todos saltaron de miedo y se callaron. En ese momento, la mirada de Nicholas también era oscura mientras declaraba con voz fría:- Haré que alguien investigue este asunto. Por ahora, esperaremos hasta que Gregory se despierte

Al mencionar a Gregory, Tobias y Stefania se callaron, ya que estaban más preocupados por él que por encontrar al verdadero autor, Tessa was upset when she left; She felt as if she was weighed down by a heavy rock pulling her down. Although Nicholas had already rid her of suspicion, she was still very sad that she would not be able to see Gregory again.

Although she had interacted with other children in the past, she had never experienced so much pain when they separated, which reminded her of what she felt when she separated from the child she carried in her womb.

Her heart suffered so much that it suffocated her.

As he exhaled, he tried to calm down and thought, "I guess I react like that because Gregory is too lovable and nice."
