

My Twins 20

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 20 NOT TOGETHER

Brian was in even worse shape than Winnie. His clothes and hair were messy. In short, they gave the impression that they had just played a crazy adult game. Klara was angry and it was her first time to see Brian being slovenly. President Bennet who claimed not to touch women actually could not refuse to a woman. Winnie turned back along Klara's vision, and bumped into Brian's bosom again. Winnie was speechless. Not it was difficult to defend for herself and she became a woman to seduce the president. At the same time, Winnie felt lucky that it was not his wife to come in, or she must tear her apart. When she was back home in the evening, Winnie was tired and motionless lying on the sofa. "Mommy, Luke did not come to school today." Megan came to sofa with a low mood. "Why?" Winnie asked with concern. "The teacher said he seems to be sick. Can you call him? I'm worried about him." Megan said with worry. Winnie was also worried. "Megan, I will call him later, now Uncle hasn't come home and we can't contact him." As Winnie's words fell, the doorbell rang. Winnie had to get up and open the door. "You're back from a business trip?" It was none other than Daenerys. "I came back at noon. How is the man I introduced to you to have a blind date?" Daenerys asked eagerly as she walked in. "Hello, Daenerys Auntie! Hello, little cutie! Absent-minded, Daenerys said, waiting for Winnie's answer. "The person who came on the blind date was not the guy at all." Speaking of the blind date, Winnie was angry. "Who's that?" Daenerys looked puzzled. Winnie took a look at the child and then at Daenerys, gesturing her to the kitchen, so as not to be heard by the child. They came to the kitchen. While telling Daenerys about the blind date yesterday, Winnie got to cook dinner. "Leo came to the blind date?" Daenerys looked surprised. "Yes, and he humiliated me." Winnie felt annoyed, thinking of Leo's humiliation. The man she gave her heart to treat her badly. "What a shame, isn't that bullying? No, I must call and find out the truth." "Forget it..." Daenerys absolutely was intolerable about this matter. Regardless of Winnie's stopping, she directly made a call to that man. "What do you mean? If you don't want to go to the blind date, at least you told me. Why did you ask the other man to go to it?" From the day Winnie met Daenerys, she knew she was an articulate person. She kept scolding, and the other party might have no chance to interrupt and could only wait to be scolded. Daenerys hung up the phone after scolding enough. "Winwin, I'm sorry. He said that he had something to do yesterday, but he didn't get through when he called me, so he asked his friend to go to the blind date for fear that you were waiting for him. I didn't know his friend was Leo." Daenerys was guilty. This blind date was terrible and it was partly because of her. "Forget it. I won't see him again." Winnie said indifferently, and she could not pursue anyone's responsibility. "Ok, Winwin, I'm really sorry." Daenerys hugged Winnie from behind and said in a baby voice. Winnie did not pursue her responsibility, but she felt upset. "My friend said it was his fault and he would apologize to you face to face some day. You can start dating again." "Forget it, in case I see Leo again, I will suffer again." Winnie never wanted to see Leo again. When she saw him, she would think of the past. She would think of four years ago Leo humiliated her over the phone and thought of her had a surrogate pregnancy for money. "If Leo dared to make trouble to you again, I will go to his company and find him. I will scold him in front of his employees. Daenerys could not stand that Winnie got bullied. She had already had a tired life and been hurt. As Winnie's best friend, she absolutely did not allow Winnie to be bullied. "Don't make it any worse for me. If you I meet Penny in his company, it would be a trouble." Winnie thought it would be better to be peaceful and she would like to have a quiet and flat life. She wanted no one to provoke her and she would not bother anyone. "No, they were not together, how can I meet her?" Daenerys said affirmatively. "Not together?" Winnie was stunned. Penny took so much effort to get Leo, how could they not be together?" "I only heard about it some time ago." Daenerys said. "In less than two months, we would finish our study abroad, but you went back home for your family's accident. I was back two months later and I have not seen Penny since then." "Penny came back soon after I came back. I heard she was the illegitimate daughter of a rich man, and when she came back she was taken back by her rich father. At that time, Leo's enterprise had not developed to such a degree, she was arrogant and broke up with Leo." "I don't know whose illegitimate daughter she is, but I'm sure they are not together, and Leo is still single." Daenerys told Winnie everything she knew, which surprised Winnie. At the same time she thought of Penny's arrogance. Was she Brian's sister? "They are both scum, and they were both to torment me." She painstakingly betrayed her and was not together with Leo. Should Winnie be happy or sad? "Don't think of it. It had been gone for long, and don't let them get you down." "By the way, I have saved more than 300,000 yuan this year. You have not paid off your debt. Take it." Seeing Winnie's sadness, Daenerys quickly transferred the topic. "No, the house of Vanessa can be sold now, and after selling the house, the debt would be almost paid." Winnie turned to cast a thank-you look. "Daenerys, I owe you so much already. All the money you have saved over the years had given to me. Now I am getting better and better. Keep your money and give it to yourself as your dowry." "My parents have prepared my dowry for me. I don't need the money. You can take it." Daenerys had a good family. Her parents were both doctors and she was engaged in medical equipment, so she had a comfortable life. "I have enough money now. I don't owe anyone except two million of Sidney and one million of yours." Winnie said and felt relaxed. Her father left her a debt most people could not imagine it. It took her four years to pay it off. "Winwin, have you prepared the money for the victims of the accident?" Daenerys was still worried about Winnie, and over the years only she knew Winnie had a bad life. "It is four million, and I have got it ready, but I failed to reach the injured. The phone number did not exist. We had met before, and they always had lawyers dealt with things." Winnie had got the four million ready. She wanted to give it to the injured and move the pressure in heart, but she failed to find her. And it was infuriating that she failed to access to his lawyer.
