

My Twins 291

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 291 CONSIGLIERE KLARA

Winnie sent a message, but after that, she regretted it. It was like a temptation. However, the message sent could not be recalled. "It's the only way, and because I love you, I want all the best for you. Marriage is something you have been waiting for so many years. When you are married, you will be happy and I will feel at ease." To cover up the previous mistake, Winnie sent another message. "Don't worry about the children, they're much better now, and they'll get over it in a few days after you get married. You can't wait forever. You don't have a lot of time to waste." Brian received two messages one after another, the first made him feel warm in heart, and the second one was unacceptable. "Marrying Wendy is something I've been looking forward to for years, but...now that I've waited for years, I can keep waiting for my children. I will keep my promise to my children and never hurt them on this matter." "I'm sorry, it's all because of me. If I didn't show up, you wouldn't be in dilemma." Winnie had remorse. Although she had saved Luke, she felt sorry for Brian. It was her return that broke Brian's happiness. It was her return that turned his life into a complete mess. Now he could not even have a delicious home-cooked meal. "Don't say that." Brian thought it was he who should say sorry. He felt sorry to Winnie and the children. "How about..." As Winnie sent only two words, Brian had known what she wanted to say. "Do you want to go away with the children? How can I live with peace of mind when the children are gone? What do I do when I miss them? Never say or even think of it again." Winnie could not leave. If he could not see her, he would become a walking dead. "Well, never mind. I'm going to sleep. Good night." Winnie did not continue, because she found her heart pain and missed Brian. Wendy had been brokenhearted about the necklace. When she drank with Klara and Laura, she did not mention it but just said some unimportant things. "Klara, Laura, do you think that Brian no longer loves me and that we are going to break up?" Wendy was drunk. "No, Wendy, you think too much. Mr. Bennet loves you. Otherwise, why does he prepare a wedding room?" Klara comforted her, but she knew that Brian loved Winnie. Wendy had become the past, but Brian did not abandon Wendy because of Felix. But Wendy could hold on to her position for a while. "I don't think much about it. I think he doesn't love me anymore. In the long time since I have been back, he has never voluntarily held my hand, never kissed me. I have visited the wedding house many times, but he has never been there." "He divorced Penny and gave the house to. Where do you think he lives?" Wendy asked Klara and Laura, but she gave her own answer before they gave a response. "He's been living in the break room of the company. Is this still a normal man?" "He... Even if he doesn't have a place to stay, he can find a hotel. Maybe I can stay there too...I'm not allowed to go into his break room." "It is abominable, damn Brian, if he dares to abandon me, I will let him regret, and I will vent my anger to Winnie to make him painful." Wendy's speech was disorganized and broken. But these were the stones that pressed on her heart, making her breathless and was to go mad. She felt that she had been very hard to restore their feelings, but a person's efforts were useless, Brian had to restore it too. "It must be Winnie's fault. If she had stayed away from Mr. Bennet, it would not have happened." Laura also drank a lot and began to speak freely. "Yes, Laura, you are right. If it hadn't been for her, I would have been Mrs. Bennet by now. If it hadn't been for her, Brian wouldn't have betrayed me." Wendy agreed with what Laura said. She thought Laura was good friend standing on her side.. "Winnie's fault is for sure, so you have to find a breakthrough in Winnie. You can't go too far to Mr. Bennet, or it will have the opposite effect." Klara, the consigliere, began to make plans. From what Wendy said, she heard important news. It turned out that Brian had been living in the company for so long. "If I make things too complicated, Brian will feel very sorry for Winnie and will have some complaints against me. I'm wondering if I can find a way not to be found by Brian." Wendy hoped that Winnie could disappear as soon as possible and take the two children away. But Luke was the most precious treasure for the Bennet family, they would allow Luke to leave. If Luke would not leave, Winnie would not leave. Winnie would take the child as an excuse to haunt Brian for a lifetime. Even if she married Brian, she would not be happy, because there would always be a Winnie between them. "Then take the time." Klara said darkly. "What do you mean?" Wendy asked doubtfully. "Just keep quiet and don't hurt her. You can hurt her mentally and then Mr. Bennet won't do anything to you even if he knows you did that." "Wendy, you don't have to worry. Your position can protect you, the chairman will not accept Winnie. And even Penny was a mistress of Mr. Bennet." "So you have time, take it slowly. You can mentally torture her and make her get out of it." Klara said insidiously, anyhow, she must not let Winnie stay with Brian. "But... But it won't hurt. If she doesn't leave.." Wendy had no confidence. She had different thought with Klara, because she knew that Felix did not like her. And her family was hardly her ace in the hole. "That's the other extreme." Klara continued to give advice. "The other extreme?" "Do you know Penny? She suppressed...No, she eradicated, to get rid of the root without leaving future trouble." Klara began to tell the story between Penny and Winnie. "If it hadn't been for Winnie's luck and Penny's failure, Winnie would have become ashes. Penny's every move was fatal. She wanted Winnie to die." "Of course we don't have to go that far, that would be self-destructive, but Winnie really can't stay with Mr. Bennet. You can try to get rid of Winnie by using other people's hands." Klara began to encourage Wendy. Although she said they did not have to go that far, it was her thought. If Wendy ended up like Penny, she would win in the end. "Using other people's hand?" Wendy was puzzled. She did not know whom she could rely on, nor did she have the courage to do that. She would not fight like Penny, or she would end up as Penny. She would try her best to fight for Brian, but she would not kill Winnie. One reason was that she did not have that courage. Another reason was that Brian loved Winnie. It was very difficult for others to do anything to Winnie. Although she did not hear the specific things of Penny, she knew it was Brian in the protection of Winnie since Penny failed to kill Winnie. "I think that if should visit Penny some time, she may be able to help you." Klara could only think of Penny. Others had no much hatred to Winnie and they would not help Wendy. "She's in prison. What can she do? I don't want to go there." Wendy felt it was not feasible. It was ok with ask for help, but Penny was not the right person. "Klara....." As Wendy was about to speak, her mobile phone rang. She took out her phone and suddenly her face changed when she saw the caller ID. She looked up in confusion. "I'm going to answer the phone, you talk." Wendy got up, but she almost feel because of dizziness due to the effect of alcohol. "I'll help you." Klara got up and offered to help, but Wendy refused. "No, I'm fine. You go on thinking of a way." Wendy managed to pull herself together, and though her legs were weak, she walked out. Klara looked at Wendy who was nervous. She felt something wrong. She looked across the table and saw that Laura had fallen asleep. Then she got up and quietly followed Wendy. Wendy found a safe passage and picked up phone. "Didn't I tell you not to call me?" "....." "I have nothing to do with you now, and you are still harassing me. Are you out of your mind?" "....." "Well, you were the one who wanted to break up. I'm warning you, if you bother me again, I'll call the police." ...After Klara returned home, she thought about that all the time. So Wendy was not single in the past few years, and it sounded like she had just broken up for a short time. If Brian knew that, would he keep her around? It seemed that it was impossible for Wendy to be with Brian. Even if she had a family background to support her, she could not finally achieve what she wanted.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 292 THE WARMTH OF A CHILD

Wendy returned home. Although she drank a lot of wine, she was depressed. She could not fall asleep and had a severe headache. Lying on her bed, she kept thinking of Brian and Winnie, and even suspected that Brian and Winnie now were together. Wendy was very painful. She thought of Klara's words, compared with the second extreme approach, she thought the first was feasible. She could find a variety of ways to make Winnie get mental blow. Winnie had promised Leo that she would cooperate with male stars, and specific plans had begun to draft. Winnie also began to receive simple acting training. So she was busy again and now she could not get home regularly. The two children were playing in the living room after dinner. The phone rang. Megan noticed that it was Daddy calling and wanted to answer the phone. Luke did not fight it with her and gave the phone to Megan. "Daddy..." Megan said happily. They hadn't seen Daddy since Mommy's birthday, and though they called him almost every day, it didn't make up for the fact that they missed him. "Megan, do you behave well?" Brian said in a gentle tone. Hearing the sound of Megan, he felt pleased. "Yes, I am away a good girl. Daddy, my brother and me miss you. When can we see you?" Megan's words made Brian feel sweet. "I will pick you up and play when I am available. Hold on for a few days." Brian wanted to spend more time with his children, but his time was limited by the amount of work. "All right, then, we'll wait for two days. Daddy, have you eaten well and slept well these two days?" Megan was disappointed, but she was still worried about her father. "Yes, I eat and sleep well every day. You and brother must be obedient to Mommy." Brian's heart was warm and sweet for her daughter's concern. "Daddy, don't worry, my sister and I will be obedient and I can take care of my sister and Mommy." Luke put his ears on the other side of the phone, and he could hear what Daddy said. He felt it was time for him to take a stand. That was the only way to make Daddy rest assured. "Good boy, Luke, I believe that you can take care of sister and mommy." The two children were sensible, which was the most gratifying thing for Brian, but he felt guilty to the children. "Daddy, don't work too hard. My sister and I don't need much money. You don't have to fight for us. When we grow up, we will work on what we want." Luke felt distressed that Daddy worked day and night. Mommy told him that no matter what he wanted, he had to earn it by himself and not rely on others. "Ok, I won't, and I believe Luke and Megan have this ability." Brian was touched but his heart was sore. The children were sensible, but it was manifestation of precocity. The children had experienced too much and got repressed. And he had caused all that, it was his fault. "Daddy, you have to listen to brother and not work too hard. When we are old enough to make money and support ourselves, you can stop working. When the time comes, we will give you money. You can take Mommy to travel. You can enjoy yourselves and we will be responsible for making money." Megan added, because Daddy and Mommy were not easy. She hoped Daddy and Mommy could be happy. "....." Hearing that, Brian could not speak for a long time. The children had never changed. Even when they grew up, they hoped Daddy and Mommy could be together. Isobel heard what the children said and her mood was complex. The children wished to have a home, but the fault between Rufus and her had to be borne by the next generation. "Daddy, are you listening?" Megan asked uncertainly. "Yes, I am listening. I am waiting for you to grow up and make money for Daddy and Mommy." "By the way, isn't Mommy off work yet? This topic made Brian feel bitter and guilty. He did not dare to continue and transferred the topic to Winnie. "No, Mommy has been very busy these days. She has acting class after work and come back home late every day." When it came to Mommy, Megan was excited, because she thought Mommy was going to be a big star. "Acting class? Why does Mommy want to take acting class?" Asked Brian curiously. Recently he had not contact with Winnie, so he did not know anything about her. "She is to co-shoot a promotional video for a game with a male star, and Mommy is the feminine lead." That was all Megan knew. "Mommy shoots a promotional video for the game? Is that the one she cooperated with Uncle Leo?" Brian continued to ask and did not expect Winnie would personally complete the promotional video. "Yes, it is." ... Megan hung up the phone after chatting for a while. "Megan, do you have a good talk with Daddy?" Isobel kindly asked Megan. "Of course, but the happiest thing is when the four of us are together." "Let me tell you a secret. My brother and I tricked Mommy out on her birthday. We can't be happier when the four of us dined together." Megan was pleased to think of it. "Yes, it is happy to be with Daddy and Mommy." Isobel felt bitter in heart and she did neglect the children's feeling. But even if she did not stop Winnie and Brian, the Bennet family could not accept Winnie, and if they knew Winnie was her niece, it was impossible for them to be together. When Winnie got home, her two children and her aunt were already asleep. Vanessa was reading books. Winnie went back to the room. When she was to sleep after taking a bath. Lying on the bed, she took her phone and saw an unread message. It was from Brian. "Megan said you were going to shoot a promotional video for the game, but quit if you could. You're tired from work, but you need to take your break to study acting. Do you want to burn yourself out?" Winnie looked at this message in a daze, without knowing what kind of feeling she had at the moment. If Brian said this, Winnie could imagine that he must be frowning, and the voice was extremely cold. Such Brian made Winnie feel cold. However, Winnie wanted to understand this message in accordance with her mind, that was, he was concerned about her and did not want her to be too tired. Thinking like this, her mood was much better, so Winnie replied. "I just read your message. I have promised Leo and it has been executed, it can't be push off. I'm fine. I come back late every day, but I don't have much work." Winnie looked at the time and thought Brian had been asleep and would not reply, so she put her phone away. As she covered the quilt, another message came. Winnie took the phone again. "Is there a kiss in the promotional video? If so, get a substitute, or refuse it." Brian sent this message with worry. From the first message to Winnie's reply, he waited for half an hour with his phone in his hand. He wanted Winnie quit the job and did not want her to be tired. However, Winnie said she could not refuse it and he could do nothing. But he was worried about whether there was too much intimacy in the promotional video, which he didn't think was acceptable. Winnie froze and did not understand why he said so. "How can a video for a game have a kissing scene? You think too much." After Winnie sent the message, she still thought Brian's question was funny. How could he think of kissing? "Good." Brian thought it was right. It was not a TV play, nor a movie, how could there be a kiss scene? He was overthinking and sensitive. Then Brian sent another message. "Don't work so hard. I'll take care of the children. You don't have to spend your money on them, just take care of them." Brian did not want Winnie to be too tired. One reason was that he felt distressed, the other was that if Winnie got sick, the children would be worried. Winnie gave a bitter smile. As a mother, how could she not spend a penny on the children? And she did not use Brian's money. Actually she got pressure. Vanessa needed money to go to school, the mortgage cost a lot every month and she had two children to support. All the family member needed money to spend including herself. There was a lot of money to be spent, and she was the only one earning money. How could she relax? "When Vanessa makes money, I don't have to work so hard. Don't worry about the children. I can take good care of them even if I'm busy. My aunt will help me in life and Vanessa can coach them in study."After all, it was not her he was worried about, but the two children. If anything happened to her, there would not be anyone to take care of the children. Winnie knew that was what she should do."I am tired, I gotta sleep."Winnie once again took the initiative to end the chat."If you need help, let me know. Good night."Brian sent a heartwarming text message and put his phone away.He knew Winnie was not easy but she never asked for help, especially she would not ask him for help.In her words, she loved him and wanted to live with dignity in front of him, but this dignity made Brian heartache.Winnie was tired. She put down the phone and fell asleep soon.She slept soundly probably because she was tired and Brian said good night to her.Winnie did not expect to see omnipresent gossips on the Internet.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 293 THE WEB CELEBRITY

Winnie scrolled through some of the pictures of her on various websites. They were mostly pictures of her hugging men, with captions saying she was a promiscuous woman. Winnie had suddenly become a "web celebrity" She was the only woman in the picture, and there were several men, all of whose faces were obscured. Despite their faces being obscured, the Internet users were able to tell from the body shapes that it was more than a man. So all began to scold her and say she was a promiscuous woman. They didn't know who the men in these pictures were, but Winnie did. One picture showed her and Brian embracing in an underground parking lot, the other showed her and Oscar embracing in their office. She could bear that, after all, she had done that. But there were two pictures of Leo. She and Leo did not have that close contact, it was clear that the pictures was photomontages. Winnie was angry, but her mood was calm. It didn't matter what other people said. But it could not be known by the children, or they would be sad. Winnie made a call to her aunt. "Winwin, what happened? Who did it?" As Isobel was to call Winnie, Winnie called over. "Auntie, I don't know. Don't worry, I will let you know when I have the answer. Auntie, you put away the children's cell phones and don't let them see that." Winnie was unable to give an explanation because she did not know what was going on. "All right, I'll put it away. Winwin, this is online violence, a violation of your privacy, so you can call the police." Although Isobel did not know what was going on, she felt it would cause great harm to Winnie. The abuse was acceptable to Isobel, let alone Winnie. Winnie hung up the phone and began to analyze the angles from which the pictures were taken and who was behind. The pictures of embracing with Brian were easy to be found because they were all in monitored places. The picture of Oscar was interesting. It was taken in her company, and along the position, it should be Laura took it. If she took it, did she post it on the Internet? However, since she came to the company, she had been getting along well with her colleagues and Laura, and there was no contradiction between them. Why did she do that? Laura saw the news about Winnie, and when she saw the picture of Winnie in the office embracing with Oscar, she panicked. She hurried to asked if the other two knew by the chat group. Laura: Winnie is on the hot search, you see that? Klara replied. Klara: Yes, it's all gone crazy in our company. Klara: I think the man in the parking lot must be Mr. Bennet. Klara applauded the netizens' comments, even she said some nasty things below, and the number of people giving her thumb up kept growing. Klara was glad. Laura: Oh my God, who posted this? I'm going to be in trouble. Laura sent a crying emoji. Klara:?. Laura: Think about it. Once that office picture was sent out, I was exposed. It was obviously taken from my location. If Winnie finds out, I'll lose my job. Klara: It's not a big deal if your job is gone. Wendy can help you to get a job in the Bennet Group. It might be a good thing for you. Klara did not care about Laura, as long as she was comfortable. Laura was afraid Wendy would be uncomfortable to see some words, so she sent message to Klara. Laura: Now Brian likes Winnie. Will he hire me if Winnie tells him this? Klara: Laura, it makes sense. With Winnie around, Wendy can't change Mr. Bennet's thought. Laura: what should I do? It is ok to lose my job, but I can't provide information in the future. Laura could only put her hopes on Klara now. For Laura, even if she could work for the Bennet Group, she could not be hired in this way. Once she was found out, no one would contact her anymore. Klara: Send it to the chat group. Klara felt that what Laura said was very reasonable. After all, this was the beginning, and this kind of mental torture would often occur in the future. Laura was an indispensable and important person. In the group of three. Klara: It would be better for you to stay in your current company, Laura, so that you can help Wendy. Laura: Yeah, I think so. Klara: Wendy, what do you say? Klara intended to ask Wendy to study it together. Wendy drank too much last night and went to bed late. She was still sleeping when others were surprised about things related to Winnie. She woke up when she heard a message coming from her mobile phone. She picked up her phone and saw a bunch of unread messages in the group. So she clicked on it. She was shocked and searched Winnie's information on the Internet. She was panicky. She remembered what she did last night. She just wanted to teach Winnie a lesson, but she did not expect things would be this big. Brian must have seen it. Wendy was afraid and turned to the group. Wendy: Oh my God, it was so scary. How could this be? Klara: You did that? Klara knew that, but she deliberately. Because there were only three people in the group, and they were the only three who had seen the pictures. Laura did not do it, she did not do it, it could only be Wendy. Laura: You did that? Laura also asked. She thought it was Wendy too, because only Wendy hated Winnie deeply. Wendy: It's me. After drinking too much last night, I posted everywhere. I didn't expect it would have such a big impact. Wendy: What should I do? Brian must have known it. What should I do? Help me out. Wendy sent the message with hands shaking. At this time, she was most afraid that Brian would call her. If he called, he would be furious because of Winnie. Laura: Wendy, don't worry about Mr. Bennet at this time. Even if he knew, he would quarrel with you at most. If Winnie found out it was you, the consequences will be serious. She could sue you. Wendy was at a loss seeing Laura's words. She was drunk and did not consider so much, so she posted the pictures on the impulse. Wendy: How could she know it was me who posted it? Laura: She's a computer whizz. She can track down the IP address of your post and find you. Even if she's not a computer whizz, if she reports it to the police, the police can find you. Klara: Besides, Winnie is a top student of the law department. She doesn't even need to hire a lawyer for such a thing. Wendy was completely panicked. She did not expect that. Wendy: What should I do? Help me out. What should I do now? Laura: Before Winnie reports to the police and tracks you down, delete the post. Laura was also engaged in computer software, and she knew Winnie could find it out even if the post was deleted, but if the impact was not so big, Winnie might not pursue it. Before Wendy replied, she deleted the post. Then she felt more relieved. She returned to the group and replied. Wendy: I've deleted it. Klara: Then think about what Laura should do, or she will be exposed. Wendy: Yes, do something about it. Don't let Laura be exposed. Klara: Laura, turn off your cell phone and hide it. Just say you lost it yesterday. Wendy: Yes, I'll buy the new phone for you. I'll send it to you later. Wendy said. Now she did not know what to do, and could only rely on Klara and Laura. Laura: It works, but how can I explain the pictures? After Laura raised this question, the group remained silent for a while. Finally, Klara came up with a solution. Klara: Now Laura, you can only do this. Go to Winnie and say that you took the pictures. Apologize to her and say that you were not intentional. Only in this way will Winnie not suspect you. Wendy: Laura, I am sorry. Wendy: But you can rest assured that you won't do it in vain. Wendy felt sorry, but there was nothing better to do now. Laura: OK, I'll go to her and apologize. I'm going to turn off my cell phone now, so please don't contact me. Wendy: I'll go out and buy a mobile phone for you. I'll see you at the coffee shop where we met at noon. Laura: OK. After chatting, Laura turned off her phone and went to Winnie. She came to Winnie's office, lowered her head with guilt and did not dare to look up at Winnie, for fear of making a mistake. "What's the matter, Laura?" Winnie sat in front of the computer. Laura came in with her head down but did not say a word. "Winnie, I come to apologize to you." Laura whispered, and her voice was filled with guilt. "Apologize?" Winnie asked doubtfully. "Winnie, I have seen all the pictures posted online... I took the one in the office." Laura was hesitant and timid, for she did not know what Winnie would do. "You took it?" Hearing that, Winnie furrowed her eyebrows. "I'm sorry, Winnie, but it was never my intention. I just wondered if he was your boyfriend and took a picture to see if anyone else knew it." "Winnie, I was just curious, not malicious. And I definitely didn't post it." Laura assured sincerely showing she was self-blaming. "Did you send these pictures to others?" Winnie quietly asked. Although she was not sure what Laura said, this matter was influential and she was angry. "No, I didn't send it to anyone. I promise you I didn't send it to anyone." Speaking of this, Laura's eyes turned red, looking guilty. "After I took the picture that day, I had been busy and then I forgot about it, so I didn't tell anyone or send it to anyone. Winnie, you must believe me." Speaking of this, Laura could not help but sob and kept apologizing. "I'm sorry, Winnie. I'm really sorry to have caused you so much trouble. I can assure you that I have absolutely nothing to do with this and I have no idea what the rest of the pictures are about." "Winnie, I am sorry for that."

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 294 LET ME KNOW YOU'RE OKAY

Laura kept apologizing and her tears kept flowing down, which made Winnie soft-hearted, but she had doubts. "Laura, you said you did not send the pictures, how did the picture posted online?" "I don't know. I lost my cell phone yesterday and I haven't found it yet. Just now I made a phone call and it was still off. I don't know if it had anything to do with it." "Winnie, believe me, I really did not do it. If you don't believe me, I can swear. I can swear it with my family. If I lie..." "Well, Laura, I believe you." Winnie could only believe that. She and Laura did not have a problem with each other, so Laura would not do that. It seemed that Laura had lost her mobile phone and it might be stolen. Winnie had been busy all morning and had no time to pay attention to things on the Internet. This morning, her phone kept ringing and she had to turn it off. In her opinion, no matter how many people scolded her, no matter how many people knew her through this matter, it was not as important as her present job. Brian had been in meetings since he went to work in the morning, and it lasted all morning. No sooner had he walked into the president's office than Albert came in. "Mr. Bennet, I have something to report to you." "What is it?" "It's about Winnie." Albert opened the websites and found posts about Winnie. "What's the matter with her?" Speaking of Winnie, Brian looked back at Albert, and Albert handed the phone to him. Brian was angry to see that. He frowned and asked Albert with a dark face. "Have you contacted Winnie?" "Yes, I did. She did not answer and then turned it off. This post has been reposted millions of times, and the abuse is even unpleasant. The influence is great, and I am afraid Winnie..." "Go and see her at once. She should be in the office at this hour." Brian immediately picked up his coat and took the elevator to leave with Albert. In the car. "Did you find out who did that?" Brian sat in the back seat. While looking at the abuse on the internet to Winnie, he asked Albert. "Not yet. The main post has been deleted. Maybe the person who posted it didn't think it would have such a big impact. Now some netizens have begun to search for the basic information of Winnie. But don't worry, Mr. Bennet, I've got someone to deal with it. It won't go any further." Albert had been busy in the morning, called Winnie and gave his command, he had no time to check who sent the post. "There are on a total of three men on the pictures. I see me and Leo. Who is the third one?" Brian didn't know Oscar, so he didn't recognize it was Oscar and thought it was someone from Winnie's Company. "Sorry, Mr. Bennet, I have sent people to check on it, but there is no result yet. I will call them to hurry." Albert put on the earphone and was to make a call. At this moment, Brian spoke. "No, I'll ask her myself." Brian minded that man, after all, they hugged each other, and Winnie was so happy. He felt sore in heart. As Brian said that, Albert's mobile phone rang then was connected. "What is it?" "....." After listening to the report, Albert hung up the phone then told Brian. "Mr. Bennet, they found out that the pictures of Winnie and Leo are fake, it seems that someone was to slander Winnie." Brian felt into silence and frowned. He did not mind Leo. Even if these pictures were real, it did not happen recently. Because he had found that Leo had a girlfriend now and he would not pester Winnie anymore. As for the man in the office was different. Although he believed that Winnie was not a promiscuous woman, the picture was so real, which made Brian inevitably feel bitter. In Winnie's company, Brian rushed in Winnie's office with great momentum. At the moment he pushed open the door of Winnie's office, he found Winnie was at work, and finally he felt relieved. "What are you doing here?" Winnie asked in surprise. Looking at Brian suddenly appeared in her office, she was shock. "I couldn't get through your phone, so I come here to find you." Because the phone did not get through, Brian was worried, so he had to come to confirm whether Winnie was OK. "You know that?" Winnie probably understood what was going on. "Yes. There seems to be no one who doesn't know." "I said you should call me when you need help. If I'd known earlier, it wouldn't have spread so quickly." Though his tone was sombre, Brian was really annoyed at that Winnie did not ask him for help. "The post was sent last night..." As she spoke, Winnie suddenly glanced outside the office. She saw all the employees looking at them, full of speculation and doubt in their eyes. Brian looked along Winnie's line of sight and saw the strange eyes of those people. But his first instinct was to go to the glass wall and put the window-blinds down. In this way, people from the outside would not be able to see inside the office and they would not have to face those annoying people. They could do whatever they want. Brian walked to the desk and pulled Winnie to her feet. Before Winnie had any reaction, he directly put Winnie in his arms. "No matter what happens, don't turn your phone off. Let me know you're okay." It was not until this moment, when he held Winnie in his arms, that Brian realized that he was more worried than he had thought. "I...I'm fine." Brian's behavior surprised Winnie, but she felt warm about his words. Whatever the motive for Brian's remarks, at least at this point he cared about her. Brian let go of Winnie, looking at her sad face. No one would be calm from experiencing such a thing. "I have sent people to put this matter to rest. Do not worry, I will find out who posted the post." "Is there anyone you doubt, Winwin? After all, some pictures were taken in your office." Brian still minded that man, but he asked politely. "I don't believe it is from the people in company. I have never had any conflict with them. The picture was taken by Laura when Oscar came to see me. She was just curious who Oscar was. Her phone lost and the pictures leaked out." Winnie told Brian what she knew. Although she didn't know the deep meaning in Brian's words, she wanted to clarify for herself that the face that had been blurred in the office was Oscar. She and Oscar were clear and she did not want to be misunderstood, especially by Brian. "She accidentally lost her mobile phone and the things got this big?" Brian had doubts. The man was Oscar and he was relieved, after all, they were old friends for many years. However men and women should not have such behavior. "I think it was stolen on purpose, and I can't say who did that without proof." Winnie had been busy all morning and had not had time to check this matter. If she traced the person who posted the message, she would have found it out. "Never mind, I'll find it out. Just do your job." Brian said softly. He wanted to help Winnie and did not want her to be hurt by that. Winnie knew that Brian's intention, but she had no confidence since after Penny. "I will check it myself." Winnie said. "Why?" Brian did not understand. "To be honest, I think it is Wendy did it, and if you check..." Winnie was afraid that Brian would protect Wendy, and she would be hurtful. "Are you afraid that I will protect Wendy?" Brian had guessed the unfinished words of Winnie. "... "Winnie did not answer. "No, she would not do that, she was different from Penny." Brian said firmly. And the confidence in his eyes hurt Winnie. Winnie had guessed that. "So you don't believe my judgement and don't believe that Wendy would do that?" Winnie felt sad. She was not sure if it was Wendy did that, but what Wendy said was evidence she would do that. "Winwin, I..." "Thank you for your help. I know it is a trouble. I think chairman and your father have learnt that. And chairman will find you and you just let me take the responsibility. Winnie interrupted Brian and did not want to listen to his explanation, because she felt hurtful. He trusted Wendy but suspected her. Winnie added, "I will check it myself. When the time comes, I will make her apologize to me. If I fail, I am unlucky and I will let the netizens say what they want to say." Winnie's attitude was firm too. If it was not Wendy did that, she would apologize to Wendy. "Winwin, come on. I will explain to Grandpa and you don't need to be worried. You are busy now, if you check on it, you will be busier. I can guarantee you..." Brian knew Winnie was sad and knew that he could trust Wendy like that. Before he could finish his words, Winnie once again interrupted him. "Mr. Bennet, it is ok that I am busy, but I can't accept that I am insulted. It is the fact that I embraced you and Oscar, but the picture of me and Leo is face. Even if it is true, even if I am a promiscuous woman, it is my piracy, no one has the right to make it public." "Mr. Bennet, I will find out who did that, and I want an explanation." Winnie did not want Brian's guarantee, it made no sense. After all, he stood on the side of Wendy.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 295 PEOPLE GOT INVOLVED

As Winnie's voice fell, the door of the office was suddenly pushed open. Kevin and Daenerys came in. "Winwin, what is going on? You did not answer your phone, I am so worried about you." Daenerys did not notice Brian and asked Winnie. She made phone calls all morning, but no one answered it. She was so worried and asked Kevin to send her here. "I'm sorry to have worried you. I had to do a rush file this morning, and many people called me, so I turned my phone off." Winnie focused on work and did not notice everyone was worried about her. "You still have mind to work, are you not worried?" Daenerys was speechless. Although Winnie did not look good on face, her mental condition was ok, which proved that she fine. "No matter what happens, I have to work. Don't worry, it's not a hardship for me anymore." "It's not me that matters now, Daenerys. It's the people got involved. Please help me contact Emily and Leo to come to your house this evening. I need to explain to them so that Emily will not misunderstand Leo. Call Oscar too. I want to apologize to them personally. They must have been affected by this." This was the only thing Winnie wanted to do. It might be ok for Oscar, but Leo had a girlfriend. She did not want Emily to feel uncomfortable because of her. "Don't worry about others now. Leo will explain. What do you want to do? If the netizens find out your information, it will be miserable." Daenerys most worried about Winnie. She just had a peaceful life, and now it became messy. Daenerys did not know it Winnie can be as strong as she was before. "I have ordered someone to take care of it. It will not happen." Brian answered Daenerys, but he always felt bad in his heart, especially after Daenerys said those, he felt Winnie more poor. At the moment she should be helpless, but she looked strong. For women, they wanted a shoulder to rely on and to be cared, but for Winnie, she only had tears and grievances. Soaked in tears and grievances, she had to be strong. In the process of having to be strong, Winnie learned to be silent and calm. It made Brian distressed, because he loved her but he could not protect her, and could not give a shoulder for her to rely on. "Good, I am so worried. But Winwin, you should call the police on this matter. This is a disservice to you. We must find out who did that." Said Daenerys angrily. "I can find it out myself. Have you forgotten my work?" Winnie tone became soft. Only when she was calm, other felt at ease. "But I just saw the main post has been deleted, it is not easy to trace it." "Believe me, even if she deleted it a hundred times, I could find her out, and Oscar can help. Daenerys, I am fine. Please call Leo and Emily immediately. Don't let them quarrel because of me." Winnie was not worried about herself. She believed that she had the ability to find it out. She was not afraid of gossip but hurting those who were innocent. "Well, don't worry, I'll contact them right away." Daenerys did what Winnie said and she believed that Winnie had the ability to find out who was behind scene. They were discussing in Winnie's office. Laura had been worried. Seeing that Brian broke into Winnie's office with a face of worry, watching Brian pulled up the blinds to block the line of sight of all the people, Laura knew Brian came for it. And at that moment Brian blocked the vision of outside, it was, the scene inside was inconceivable. Laura could not see what she wanted to see, and it was the agreed time to meet Wendy, so she went out. When she arrived at the café, Wendy and Klara had been waiting there, so Laura walked to them and sat down. "I came late. Mr. Bennet came to the company to see Winnie. I wanted to see what they were up to, so I came late." "Mr. Bennet went to your company?" Klara asked in surprise. Wendy did not speak but got angry. "Yes, he was still there when I left." Laura answered mysteriously. "And what did you see?" Klara continued to ask. The netizens commented on Winnie and guessed the identity of these several men. Someone must be able to recognize all three men. At this time, Brian should avoid it, why did he still go to Winnie. Did he really care about Winnie and could not let her hurt? "Nothing. After a couple of words, Mr. Bennet pulled the blinds up and I couldn't see anything from outside." Laura said. "It's for nothing." Klara was disappointed, thinking that it could provoke Wendy once more. "I think the two of them did something shady, otherwise how could they block the view. If they are righteous, they will not be afraid of being seen." Laura said. Klara took a look at Wendy and found Wendy's face changed. It seemed that Wendy's hate was constantly rising. This effect was very good. "When you apologized to Winnie, what did she say? Did she suspect you?" Wendy finally spoke, but did not mention Brian. "No, she didn't. She believed me." Laura was tsundere and thought her acting was good. "Did she say she will pursue it?" Wendy was still worried, for fear that Winnie find her, for fear that Brian knew the truth. "She didn't tell me, but Mr. Bennet will investigate it, I think." "I heard his assistant calling to arrange this. It seems to be under control and it's not going to grow." When Albert made a call outside, Laura heard it. "Why did he have to do that? But since it is under control, will he stop finding it out?" Wendy felt uneasy. "You don't have to worry, Wendy. You call Mr. Bennet and you will know. If Mr. Bennet wants to help with the investigation, you have to keep him out of it." Klara felt that Wendy had the ability and things did not cause bad results. If Wendy asked for it, Mr. Bennet would let it go. "But Wendy, you made a mistake on this. You should think about it twice before you started it. Winnie is a master in this field. If you want to make an issue in this field, you will fail." Klara said Wendy was hasty and wanted to make herself clear. "Last night, I heard you talk about torturing her mentally. When I got home, I couldn't sleep. The more I thought about it, the angrier I became. So I posted it on the internet.” Wendy said in low spirits, now it seemed that she was really hasty. “Wendy, I didn't ask you to torture her like that. What do you think is most important to Winnie? The children.” Klara asked Wendy and she had come up with another idea. “I think so.” Wendy answered carefully, because she did not know whether Klara knew Luke's mother was Winnie. “Do you know why Winnie has been raising Luke? Because she could use that as an excuse to get close to Mr. Bennet. Winnie must be sad if you get Luke back. Besides, there is no excuse for her to be close to Mr. Bennet in the future. You can kill two birds with one stone.” Klara tried to find a way for Wendy, and Wendy thought she was good. “But I don't like children. I don't feel confident to take care of him.” Thinking of the children, Wendy had headache. The two children were clever and she could do nothing. “Wendy, lack of confidence and dislike can be overcome. You must know that the child is the best trump card. Hold the child's heart and the whole Bennet family will think highly of you, and the chairman will keep your position.” “Penny made such a mistake. If she took Luke as her child, you don't even have chance to come back. But she abused Luke. If you are his parents, can you tolerate it? She was lucky that the chairman did not kill her. Klara analyzed the interests. With the heart of Luke, Wendy would win. On the contrary, if Winnie took advantage of the child's heart, the winner was Winnie. “You've got a point.” Wendy said thoughtfully. And she felt that the effect was good, because if Winnie lost the custody of her own son, she must be very painful. “Wendy, since it has happened and has caused harm to Winnie, let it be. There are always ways to deal with it.” “From another point of view, it is good. You can mention the child to the chairman, and say that Winnie is relying on the child to seduce Mr. Bennet, and the chairman will help you.” Klara explained clearly, for fear that Wendy made troubles. “I will think about it. I'll be more cautious.” Wendy felt that Klara was reliable, a bad thing might become a good thing. “Laura, Lahere is the new mobile phone. Let Winnie see it and show her that you really lost your phone.” With that, Wendy handed the phone to Laura. The phone was of a big brand and the latest model with the price for more than 10,000. Laura felt embarrassed. “This phone is too expensive, I...” “Take it, it's not expensive.” It was not a big deal for Wendy. Laura had helped her and she deserved that. “Ok, how much is it, I will transfer to you.” Laura still felt not good to take it, Klara was there after all. If she took it, Klara might look down on her.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 296 APOLOGIZE

“You don't need to transfer the money to me. You helped me and you threw away your phone because of me. If you transfer money to me, you don't see me as a friend.” Wendy still needed to use Laura, how could she accept Laura's money? “Laura, you deserve it.” Klara said so. Laura then took the phone. The three had their plain and did not treat each other with hearts. When Laura was back to the company, Brian had left and she did not learn too much information from her colleagues. She took out her new phone and got her card into it. Winnie saw that. “Is it a new one?” She asked. “Yes, I just got it.” Laura was embarrassed. “It must be expensive.” Winnie did not think too much and gave a smile, for fear that Laura would have a burden. “Not expensive, my friend helped me buy it.” Laura explained. “Be careful and don't get it lost again.” Winnie said patting Laura's shoulder and then left. Laura got cold sweat because of Winnie's words. She thought Winnie looked down on her that she could not afford such an expensive phone and laughed at her. At the same time, she had more dissatisfaction about Winnie, because Winnie looked down upon her and laughed at her. After work, Winnie got home and told the thing to Vanessa and aunt. After appeasing them, she got to Daenerys' house. All the people she had invited were at Daenerys' house. Winnie saw these people and said sorry to them. "I'm sorry, everyone, for getting you involved." Winnie was about to bow to show her sincerest apology. But then Emily rushed to her and stopped her. "Winwin, what are you doing? We did not blame you." Emily's generosity made Winnie touched, but she still wanted to explain. "Emily, I am really sorry, please do not misunderstand. The picture of me and Leo is fake, we did not hug like that. I'm sorry. I'm so sorry." "Don't say sorry again. Will I come and see you if I misunderstand you? I know you have nothing to do with Leo, and I know the picture is fake." "Winwin, don't blame yourself, or we will feel uncomfortable. We're friends, and at this time we are worried about you." Emily embraced Winnie and comforted her in a warm voice. "Winwin, you must be strong and don't let the wicked succeed." "I will. Thank you for your understanding." Feeling Emily's arms, Winnie felt warm in heart. The anxious and angry mood got eased at this moment. Emily was a good girl and worthy of being treated well by Leo. Winnie left Emily's arms and came to Oscar. Before she could speak, Oscar said jokingly. "Don't apologize to me, my hug with you is real, we are not afraid of being judged or seen. And since we're divorced, it won't hurt me if people dig up our history." Oscar's relaxed joke was to make Winnie feel relieved. He could feel Winnie's mood today and knew it was hard day for her. It was not easy for a single woman. Winnie was strong and would not be knocked down. But she was pathetic. Winnie gave a smile and she knew the person knew her best was always Oscar. "Ok, thank you for your understanding, my ex-husband." "Sit down, you are tired today." Daenerys let Winnie sit down next to her, looking at Winnie with distressed eyes. Leo felt distressed too. He said nothing, but his attention was on Winnie since she came in house. He knew she was pretending to be fine. Even a man could not bear the pressure of public opinion, let alone a woman. However, with Emily around, Leo could only hide his heart. And Emily was generous, what else could he say? "By the way, you don't know each other, I didn't introduce you yet." Winnie heaved a sigh of relief and turned the sad topic away. "Yes, they know each other. I have introduced them." Said Daenerys. "Well then, I'll treat you to dinner tonight. Let's go out. What would you like to eat?" Winnie continued, always looking for a topic to cover up the previous one. Everything was clear, except for Brian. They didn't know it and she did not want to talk about it. She still loved him, if she explained, they would think she lied, so she skipped it. "Winwin, don't go out tonight. Kevin has called takeaway, and it would soon be delivered." Daenerys knew what Winnie was avoiding and felt distressed for her. Winnie felt into silence. At the moment she was embarrassed and speechless. All people were looking at her with caring eyes, all people were in pity her, which made her touched but bitter. "Thank you. It's good to have you in my life." Winnie bowed her head and said, which made everyone more worried. At that moment, the doorbell rang. It was the delivery man came to deliver food. Winnie's embarrassment ended by that. When she got home, the children had fallen asleep. Isobel and Vanessa were worried and had been waiting for Winnie in the living room and wanted to know the result. Winnie was like having a million ants gnawing at her body. She felt pain in her bones and flesh, so she lay down on her aunt's lap. "I am tired, it was like a war. My nerve has been tight, and I will die in the battlefield if I was careless." Winnie whispered with her eyes closed. "If you are tired, take a good rest and ask for a few days' leave from the company. Your health is important." Isobel saw Winnie was so tired and she did not mention anything about the day. "Sister, if you feel tired, let's leave. I know now this is not the place for us. I wish I had gone abroad as you said." Vanessa felt distressed about her sister. Looking at her sister's tired face, Vanessa felt sorry. "Don't think so much. We must adapt ourselves to the environment no matter where we are. It's not always good to be abroad." Winnie pulled herself together and sat up. "When our parents died, it was so hard, but we have gone through it. And this is not a big deal." Winnie must be strong in face of her family, because she was the spiritual support of the family. If she was not strong, the family would not be lively. "I feel distressed about you. What are these people doing? Why do they always bully you?" Vanessa could not help but cry. Winnie held Vanessa in arms and comforted her. "Sister, people live with ups and downs, you just don't see others in hard times. Don't think too much about it. Only difficulties can make us stronger. I can solve this." "Auntie, don't worry about me. I will find that person out." Winnie knew that her aunt and sister were waiting for her words. Give them confidence and they could feel at ease. "Ok, I believe you." "Winwin, does the Bennet family know about it? Will they bother you?" Isobel was afraid that Felix would bother Winnie. "It's all right, you don't have to worry. Brian will take care of it." "Auntie, I have to go upstairs. Tonight I will find out the person who did that. I will not let the matter spread and affect Luke and Megan." Winnie let go of Vanessa and got up. It was like a war, her battle still went on. "Go to bed, all of you, and don't worry about me." Winnie said and then went back to her room. Winnie was tired, so she first took a bath and then began the network tracking. It was not a problem for Winnie, and she locked the position in just 40 minutes. The IP address was a villa and she got the information of the house number and the user name - Alfred Yup. Winnie's preliminary conclusion was it was Wendy's home, but there was not enough evidence, so she could not jump to conclusions. Winnie put the computer away and lied on the bed. She planned to ask a friend to check it and she would have the conclusion. After she turned off the light and closed her eyes, she got a text message. It was from Brian. "How is it going, did Leo say anything?" Brian had not fallen asleep till now. she paced back and forth in the office alone, waiting anxiously. He feared that Winnie would have sudden accident. Winnie saw Brian's message, she felt cold in heart, but at the same time she understood Brian. After all, Wendy was the woman he loved and he definitely believed Wendy. "Yes. They all understand me and trust me." Only Brian did not believe Winnie, because she was of no importance in his heart. "That's good." Brian sent another message. "Winwin, I didn't mean to disbelieve you. I really want to take care of that for you. I also want to tell you that if it is really Wendy who did that, you can do whatever you want to do. I will not interfere or cover for her." "I see. I understand you. I'm tired. I want to go to bed. You go to bed early, too." For Winnie, it is enough that Brian explained that to her, but she did not want to say anymore. She thought there should be a curse between her and Brian. They could not communicate too much, once beyond the scope, it would make her sad. Perhaps she thought too much and was always too cautious, but in any case, she could not stand the attitude of Brian and that fact that he did not believe her.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 297 DIVORCE ON THE REGISTER

Brian found that Winnie did not want to talk anymore and knew that his words made Winnie overthink. But he still replied "Good night". Holding the mobile phone in his hand, he walked to the window and looked at the darkness outside. Brian's heart was as cold and lonely as the night. He wondered if he had denied too fast when Winnie's suspicions on Wendy. Winnie must have her reason and Wendy had come to Winnie without telling him. Although Albert didn't hear what they said, she wouldn't hide it from him. Brian thought of Grandpa. If Grandpa knew it, would he come to Winnie? Would he take the initiative to explain or wait for grandpa to ask about it? But in any case, he would do it when Grandpa knew the truth. The next morning, the Bennet family had a discussion because of Winnie. Thomas and his wife had been saying that Winnie was wanton. Felix did not know what was going on, so he asked

Thomas. "What are you talking about? What happened to Winnie?" Thomas took the phone and walked to Felix. He said disdainfully. "Dad, don't you know that? See what kind of woman Winnie is and you still let Luke stay with her. It was a shame." With a frown, Felix took the phone and began to read everything about Winnie. While reading it, he frowned more deeply. How could Winnie do that? Who did this? As a family member, he could see that it was Brian, why they were together again? Felix had many doubts. He liked showing off that his judgement on people was accurate. Winnie should not be so unscrupulous, what was going on? Was he wrong, or did someone else do it on purpose? Felix returned the mobile phone to Thomas. "Don't mind other people's business. Tell Jack to go downstairs for dinner." Felix, in a cold voice, gave the order and went to the table. Jack saw it yesterday. He didn't believe it, but the picture was real, which made him upset. When he called Winnie, her phone was off; when he waited downstairs, he did not see her. Because he had not heard Winnie's explanation, Jack did not sleep well all night. He got up early and was thinking about what to do in his bedroom. Should he trust Winnie or stay away from her? "Mr. Jack, please go downstairs to dinner." Jack was interrupted by his servant. When he sat down at the table, Jack heard that his parents were still slandering Winnie. He immediately lost his temper. "Mom, Dad, you don't know what happened, don't talk nonsense. Winnie is not such a person." Jack retorted, but he was not sure what kind of person Winnie was. After all, he did not know enough about her and spent very little time together. "Is it written on the murderer's face that 'I am a murderer'? You have to understand that where there's smoke there's fire, and if it weren't for these things, how would someone else get these pictures and take advantage of them? How come I'm not on Hot Search and no one's scolding me?" Thomas believed that Winnie was such a person, and Richard did not speak well of Winnie, so in his eyes it was the real side of Winnie. "Someone intentionally slandered Winnie and it is obvious. Dad, you should stop talking nonsense. Or you'll be held accountable for it." Jack was unconvinced and he did not want to believe that Winnie was such a person. "Stay away from Winnie." Thomas warned and he was unconvinced too. Because he told his father what happened to Winnie, but his father had not reaction. "I..." "Eat, be quiet." Felix spoke. He would not jump to conclusions before he investigate it and he did not want to heard judgement from others. Winnie had breakfast and went to work as usual, as if nothing had happened. Winnie came to the company, everyone looked at her with strange eyes, as if she was a rare animal. But she was still calm. When she got to the office and closed the door, the first thing she did was to take her cell phone out of her bag and make a call. "Officer Lee, may I ask for your favor?" Winnie politely said. Officer Lee was the police responsible for the case of Penny. "If I can help." Officer Lee had always respected Winnie because she had helped him a lot in the case between Penny and Richard. "You should have heard about me these days» I have found the IP address of the post myself. Please help me check the family members and some basic information of Alfred Yup." Winnie wanted to determine the relationship between Alfred Yup and Wendy. "No problem, I call a friend of the household registration, and he can help you check of detail. Miss Chambers, this is network violence. If you need help, you can call me." Officer Lee was enthusiastic. Since Winnie wanted to find out the truth, the online news was a rumor. "Thank you, Officer Lee. If I ever need to call the police, I'll ask for your help." Winnie had no plan to report to the police for the time being. She wanted to see if it was Wendy, how Brian would deal with it and whether he would protect Wendy. Winnie hung up and began to work, but it didn't take long for Officer Lee to call back. "Miss Chambers, based on our internal regulations, I cannot give you written information, just listen to me." "I see." Winnie calmly said. "Alfred Yup's household registration shows that there are three people, one is his wife and one is his daughter. The daughter is called Wendy Yup, her registered permanent residence is signed back from abroad, showing divorce." It was confirmed to be Wendy, but it shocked Winnie. How could she be divorced? Wasn't it the same Wendy? "Officer Lee, are you sure that Wendy is divorced?" Winnie asked uncertainly. "Yes, but she is not necessarily married, there are a lot of false marriage because of foreign green card." Officer Lee gave an explanation, but Winnie was still confused. "Officer Lee, can you send me the picture of Wendy. I want to confirm whether I know her or not." "Okay, I'll send it to you." Soon after putting down the phone, Winnie received the picture, and it was indeed Wendy. Winnie did not understand why Wendy was married, maybe she was for the green card as Officer Lee. But why did a family like hers need a fake marriage? Or like her, Wendy wanted to get household registration for her child? Thinking that Wendy's situation was like hers, Winnie did not feel strange. There were many reasons for information on the household registration. Since she could do that, others also could do so. After breakfast, Felix took a short rest and then came to the company with Butler Lowe. He took the president's elevator directly to Brian's office, but Brian wasn't there. After a while, Brian came back from a meeting and saw his grandfather sitting on the sofa as he opened the door. He was surprised, but it was reasonable. Winnie was related to him, and his grandpa would come to him for sure. "When did you come and why didn't you ask the secretary to call me?" Said Brian, who had come to sit beside Felix. "The secretary said you were in a meeting, so I didn't ask her to call you. It is ok to wait for a while." Felix's voice was low and cold, but there was no anger. But Brian decided to admit his mistake first. "Grandpa, are you here for Winnie?" "Yes, I heard it from Thomas. Is it true?" Felix asked seriously. "Uncle Thomas? He really cares about me." Brian knew Thomas would not miss this opportunity. Brian continued. "Some of the pictures are true but some are fake. Winnie is investigating on it." "So you the picture of you and her is true?" Felix went to point. What he wanted to hear was whether the picture of Brian and Winnie was true or not. As for the others, he had no interest. "Yes, but Grandpa, it has nothing to do with Winnie. I went to give my children present that day and couldn't help but hug her. It was my mistake that hurt Winnie and made you worry." "Grandpa, Winnie is not a promiscuous woman and she is not so shameless as it is said on the Internet. You've known Winnie for a long time. You should know her." Brian tried his best to explain, taking all the responsibility on his own, for fear that Felix would make trouble for Winnie. "You still like her?" Unexpectedly, Felix did not get angry without questioning, but asked Brian. Brian lowered his head and held his hands together. "She's a good woman, Grandpa. It will not be easy to forget her." Brian paused for a moment and continued. "But grandpa, don't worry, it will not happen again. My love for her will not affect my marriage with Wendy." Brian guaranteed so that he could protect Winnie. "You can't be together." Felix got up and left. He was going to find Winnie to talk about it after confirming it and make her leave. But after hearing Brian's words and seeing his worried face, Felix suddenly softened his heart. He also did not believe that Winnie was such a woman and he did not believe his misjudge on a person. In the car, when Felix hesitated if he would find Winnie, Winnie called. In Teahouse. It was the same teahouse where Winnie and Felix always came. It was the same room. "Chairman, I want to tell you frankly." Winnie was clear that, even if she did not take the initiative to tell him, even if Brian could solve the problem, Felix would come to her. "What do you want to tell me?" Felix was serious and her eyes were sharp, but there was no anger.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 298 ADMIT MISTAKES

Winnie took a deep breath and then calmed down. "I think you have heard something about me, I won't explain anything, but I have to talk to you since it is related to Mr. Bennet." "The pictures of Mr. Bennet and me are real. Mr. Bennet was waiting for me in the parking lot. He bought gifts for the kids and told me to take them home. I lost control of myself and got Mr. Bennet in trouble.” “Chairman, I am very sorry for bringing discredit to Mr. Bennet and bringing negative influence to the Bennet Group.” Winnie stood up and bowed respectfully to Felix. She had no other way to express her regret, nor was she able to make up for the negative impact she had brought to Brian. All she could do was to apologize sincerely. Felix was silent for a moment, then he spoke. “Sit down. I have a question for you.” Felix felt gratified for Winnie's apology. And it was clear that Winnie wanted to protect Brian. Brian admitted his mistakes for Winnie and Winnie took all responsibility for Brian. Winnie sat down, but she was worried about Felix's question, afraid that she would make trouble to Brian if she did not answer the question well. “What do you want to ask?” Winnie could only face it. “You promised me that nothing would happen between you and Brian, but you failed to do so.” “I asked to you be together with Brian for the sake of Luke, but you refused and said you had no selfish motives. Since you had refused, and since you have no selfish motives, you must keep your promise to me.” Felix's tone was colder. He had to stick to his principles about their relationship. He could let it go this time, because the consequence was not serious. Neither Brian nor the Bennet Group was affected. “Don't worry, Chairman, there won't be anything between Mr. Bennet and me. But I can't promise it.” Winnie spoke frankly, because sometimes she could not control herself. Even if she and Brian had been separated, they sometimes slept together. Winnie knew that her promise was important to Felix and a constraint to herself. But she could not deceive the chairman and let him down again and again. “What do you mean by that?” Felix frowned again. Was that provocation? “Chairman, you were young too, and sometimes I really can't control myself. I know it's shameless to say that, but that is all. Don't worry, I have no motives for Mr. Bennet and I won't affect his family.” Winnie saw Felix's cold face, and thought her explanation was not enough, so she continued. “I know my status, and I know I'm not good enough for Mr. Bennet. I am a divorced woman with kids. How can I be with Mr. Bennet? Chairman, you don't have to worry, although sometimes I can't control myself, I will not pester him and will not affect his normal life.” Winnie said what she should said. Believe it or not, it was Felix's business. Although she could not get over Brian, although she could not refuse his occasional hug and close contact, Winnie definitely would not live with Brian, not disturb his life and pester him. Felix did not understand and looked at Winnie with a dark face. Winnie saw that Felix did not speak and knew that he was not satisfied with her answer. “Chairman, if I stay here, you feel I am an eyesore, I can leave.” Although Winnie had been yearning for that, she was not sure if Felix would allow her to take Luke away. “If Luke can leave you, I really want you to leave.” Felix said in a cold and angry voice. Now if Winnie left, Luke and Brian could not accept it. Maybe Felix was old, maybe he faced Winnie, he was not as cruel as he was before. “If you trust me, I can take Luke away with me. I am confident that I can take good care of Luke.” Winnie looked at Felix with worry. If he said it was OK, she would immediately leave with two children. Because leaving for her was relief and she could get over Brian. “No, Luke is a child of the Bennet family, even if I trust you, I can't let you leave with him.” “Winnie, I can turn a blind eye on things between you and Brian, but don't make troubles, or you should leave B City.” Felix had to warn Winnie. It was his limit that he turned a blind eye on that and it was for the sake that Winnie took care of Luke, or Winnie would have left B City now. Winnie could not believe what she had heard and that Felix showed mercy to her. “Chairman, aren't you afraid that I have motive and that I don't keep my words?” “You dare not, even if you break your words, I have solutions.” Felix said in a domineering way, but that was not her real thought. He believed that Winnie had no motives and she would keep her words. The reason why he trusted her was because she was sincere. “I still have questions, who are the other two men in the pictures?” Felix wanted to confirm that if Winnie was an promiscuous woman. “One was Leo, the president of the Johnson Group, we are just partners in work and that picture is fake.” Winnie was not sure if Felix would believe her, but she had to tell him. “The other was my classmate in college and he is my ex-husband.” Felix’s eyes turned cold. “You still contact with your ex-husband, but you can’t get over Brian, do you think it is right?” Winnie looked up and saw Felix’s cold eyes. she knew it was hard to explain. “it is complicated, but we get married because I needed his help. It is related to my friend’s privacy, I better not say it. I am sorry.” “We are good friends since college. We had not seen each other for years and we were excited to see each other, so we hugged. Besides me, my best friend Daenerys, as well as Penny, have never seen him as a man.” “What I said was confusing, maybe you don’t understand, but I have a clear conscience. This was a deliberate attempt. Even if there were no pictures of me and my friend hugging, there would be other pictures.” Winnie was calm, because she and Oscar had nothing between them. He was her best friend. Felix did not understand the friendship of the young people, but he felt that Winnie could be believed. It was just that he could not express his trust. “You said it was deliberate attempt. Did you find it out?” Felix continued. “Yes. If Alfred Yup is Wendy's father, then the person who slandered me is Wendy.” Winnie did not conceal it and she did not need to bear it alone. Since Wendy put her privacy to the public, she will not let Wendy quietly succeed. “Alfred Yup is indeed Wendy's father, but why did Wendy do this?”Felix was not surprised to hear that, because no one could bear that their boyfriend to be with another woman.Felix knew the reason why Wendy did that, but he was afraid that Winnie did not know her fault. This was what happened since she had an affair.“I know, but she went too far. I can't stand it.”Winnie knew that Wendy did so because of her, but there must be a bottom line. She could not casually trample on other people's self-esteem.“Does Brian know it?”Felix asked coldly. He had doubts, but he wanted to believe Winnie and wanted to know if he had misjudged on Winnie.“Not yet. I mentioned the possibility to him, but he didn't believe Wendy would do such a thing.”Remembering Brian's attitude, Winnie felt cold in heart. Perhaps he would only believe it only when Wendy told him in person.“You want to call the police?”If she did not let Brian know, the solution was to call the police.“No. If I call the police, Mr. Bennet will get into unnecessary trouble. I just want Wendy to admit it and apologize to me.”The reason why Winnie did not report to the police was because of Brian.Wendy was the most important person to Brian. If she embarrassed Wendy, Brian would be sad. She didn't want to see Brian upset about it.When Winnie finished speaking, Felix stood up and then softened his tone.“Just don't make it big.”Then he stepped away.Since Winnie had thought of Brian, he did not have to tell her thatWinnie was thoughtful, and did it for the overall situation. From this point, it seemed that he had not misjudged on Winnie.However, Wendy was wretched, which made Felix disappointed.After leaving the teahouse, Winnie went to find Leo. Although Emily did not mind it, she was not sure it there was any impact on her cooperation with Leo.She wanted to solve all the effects before she looked for Wendy.Winnie came to Leo's office, and Leo was busy. Seeing Winnie came over, he got up and came to Winnie.He looked at Winnie very carefully. Seeing that she look good, he felt relieved.“Sit down.”Leo whispered, and then both of them sat down on the sofa.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 299 GO AS PLANNED

Leo had been worrying about it. He thought Brian would help Winnie when she needed help, but it was Winnie who solved the problem by herself, which made him feel sorry for Winnie. “How is it going, have you check out who did that?” “Yes, it is Wendy, but I did not find her. I will solve all things that got affected before I came to her.” Winnie as clam, as if she was telling the story of others. “It is because of Brain. Winwin, be careful, I think she would do what Penny did.” It was Wendy posted the pictures, which made Leo worried. With Penny as an example, he was afraid that Winnie would be hurt. "I will be careful, don't worry." Winnie had that thought as Leo too, but Winnie was temporally not sinister as Penny. "Winwin, is Wendy related to the break failure? If she is jealous of you, I think it is possible." Leo connected the two things. If Wendy did that, she was horrible. "I don't know." It was Brian investigating on the break failure and she had not asked about it. "You better be careful, don't get into troubles." "Winwin, if you keep in touch with Brian, Wendy will be more and more jealous and such things would happen one after another. You have children and families, you should take care of yourself." Leo was anxious, for fear that Winnie got into troubles, so he reminded Winnie. Then he continued. "Winwin, you have to ways, one is to cut off your relationship with Brain, the other is to fight for him, or you will be in danger since Wendy is jealous of you." Hearing that, Winnie took a long sigh. She knew that, but both of ways were tough. "I know, I will cut off my relationship with Brian." "Leo, let's talk about the promotion of the game. It must have been affected. You better find someone to replace me, I am sorry." Winnie knew she had caused troubles to Leo, and what she could do was to apologize. Leo looked up at Winnie. "Have I said that you will be replaced? It didn't affect me, why you said sorry to me?" Leo had his thought. If he replaced Winnie, it was hurtful to Winnie. "But if the promotion video is on, I will be recognized, and our game will be doomed." Winnie felt it had cause impact on the promotion of the game and Leo would have lost a lot of money. "Winwin, don't think that way, maybe we will have different result." "Come on, do as planned. Deal with Wendy as soon as possible and returned to your normal life." Leo got up. "I still have work, you can go to deal with your things." Leo asked Winnie to leave. if he kept saying about it, Winnie would continue to refused. "Thank you, Leo." Winwin knew Leo was good to her, and since he trusted her, she would do her best. Wendy felt uneasy about that. At noon, she was still in bed and wondered if it would be found out, Then she thought of Klara's words. She could not sit idle but ask Brian. If the situation was bad, she could figure out the solution. Wendy got up and went to Brian's office. "Let's go out for lunch. You are tired and you can relax from it." Wendy said unnaturally. "I have asked Albert to have the lunch ready. So why don't we eat here?" Brian had been worrying about Winnie and he was not in a mood to eat outside. "Ok then." Wendy said with a smile, but she was nervous. She put down the bag and sat down. "Brian, have you heard about Winnie. I don't think she was that kind of women. Did someone slander her?" Wendy asked carefully. Brian looked up at her and made her nervous. "You don't know that?" Wendy pretended to be calm, though she did not know if she had concealed it well. "Yes, I know." Brian said coldly and took back his eyes. Because Brian did nothing, Wendy continued to ask. "Brian, is the man in the parking lot you? You..." She did not finish her sentence, but she believe Brian know what she wanted to say. "Yes, it is me. I am sorry." Brian admitted it and did not explain anything. He said he was sorry, but his tone was stiff. "Brian, since it had been spoken of, I would like to express my thought. I have heard a lot of gossip about you and Winnie. I don't care what relationship you had before, but I am back, and you have decided to be with you, please show me respect. Stay away from Winnie and you are just parents of the children. It was her right to say so. Since her fiancé did that, she had the right to blame him, but she was nervous, for fear that Brian would find something wrong from her words. "Or what?" Brian said, which stunned Wendy. "Brian..." "Or you will slander her by posting pictures?" Wendy wanted to explain, but Brian interrupted her. Brian had no evidence that Wendy did that, but he wanted to see her reaction. "I... You mean I did that to Winnie?" Wendy tried to hide her panic and felt her heart was jumping out of her throat. "Brian, I promise, it has nothing to do with me." "I mean you can't do that again. Since it has happened, as your fiancée, I have the right to get to know the truth." Wendy was nervous and sad. Brian's attitude was tough. "I hope what you said is true, I will investigate it and it will be good if you did not do that." Brian kept warning. Even if it was not Wendy did that, he would like to take this opportunity to make Wendy understand that Winnie could not be bullied. "You will investigate it?" If Brian investigated it, she would be found out. "Brian, you have got involved. If you help to investigate it, you will be judged. Will you give up your reputation because of Winnie?" Wendy was worried and raised her voice, showing her dissatisfaction. "I am now single and have not got married. Why would people judge me?" Brian asked. Wendy could not accept that, but it was the truth. "Brian, how can you say that? I am not your wife, but I came back to marry you. Now all people know that I am your fiancée, have you ever considered my feelings?" Wendy was still anxious, but now she was angry. Brian's words made her feel hurt. Because he was desperate for Winnie, and it was unacceptable for Wendy. "Wendy, I have to correct one thing." Brian said coldly with a serious face. "I did ask you to come back, but you refused me. Since you refused, I gave up. But you suddenly showed up, have you ever considered my feelings?" It made Wendy stunned. Seeing Brian's sharp eyes, Wendy was again nervous. "I was to surprise you..." Wendy tried to explain, but Brian did not give her chance. "Wendy, I don't want to know why you did that. Since you have come back, I accepted you, and I hope you give me time to get used to it." "Someone deliberately slandered Winnie and some pictures were fake. For the sake of the children, I have to help her." Brian's attitude was firm. As long as Winnie asked for help, he would help her. His words made Wendy speechless. She spoke again after a moment of silence. "I don't care if you offer help or not, but the relationship between the three of us could not be like this. Do you want such a relationship all the time?" "Wendy, I said give me time to get used to it. I need to get used to your return and her leaving. She is the mother of my children and my children need her to take care of." Brian was emotional. He wanted to get over Winnie, but he could not do that. "Wendy, my children can't accept you right now. If you have choice, you can leave and don't have to wait." Brian had no confidence to maintain his relationship with Wendy. He felt tired and felt it a burden. And he did not expect that after four years of waiting. "Do you want to break up with me? You want to abandon me for another woman?" Wendy cried out. She was afraid that Brian would say that and that Brian would leave her. "Wendy, calm down. I have broken up with Winnie to be with you, but it is not only me changed. Since you came back, I can't feel the previous Wendy, I can't feel your heart. I don't know if it is my extreme thought, or your heart is still abroad."

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 300 WAIT FOR YOUR APOLOGY

Brian wanted to say these words several times, but he did not say that for fear hurting Wendy's feeling. But today, Wendy classified him as a heartbreaker, so Brian had to say so. Brian admitted that he was responsible, but only for Wendy's good. If he didn't care about anyone else, he would be with Winnie by now. Because Wendy decided not to come back, he was determined to be with Winnie. But when she returned, he could not take back his heart. "Wendy, after all, we have been apart for more than four years. If we want to get back together, we need time. I..." "You don't have to say that. I love you." Wendy was at a loss because of Brian's words. In order not to say something wrong, Wendy turned to leave after dropping this sentence. Brian felt sorry in the heart, but he did not chase out. Wendy also needed to calm down to think about why she came back. Was it because of love or money or status, or she had no other choice? Winnie went back to work and come to Wendy after work. Wendy had been home this afternoon, thinking about Brian's words and worrying about things related to Winnie. When she was worried, the phone rang suddenly. Wendy picked up the phone and got panic when she took a look at it. Winnie's phone, why did Winnie call her at this hour? Had she been found out? The phone kept ringing, and the ring was her favorite song, but it sounded so scary now. Wendy looked at the phone, but she did not answer it and turned into mute. After a while, Wendy could not help taking out her mobile phone. It had been hang up, but she received a text message from Winnie. "I'll wait for you at the XX cafe. I will give you half an hour. If you don't come, I'll call the police." Winnie's meaning was clear. Wendy did not dare to hesitate, casually took a coat and ran out. When she came to the café and got into the door, she saw Winnie calmly sitting there, but she was not calm. "What do you want with me?" Wendy stood opposite Winnie and asked in a cold voice. "Why do you ask that since you are here? You wouldn't have come if you don't know the reason. Sit down. Things between us cannot be explained in a few words." Winnie's tone was calm, but she had anger in eyes. She got slander and now the culprit was in front of her, she sure was angry. Wendy sat down with worry. "What do you want to say?" "Can you tell me why you slandered me? Can you tell me how you got those pictures?" Winnie asked directly. "Winnie, with that you said it was me did that? You....." "Wendy, you don't seem to know me. I never say anything without proof, and it's no use if you want to deny it." Winnie interrupted the words of Wendy with confidence. She did not want Wendy to be unreasonable as Penny. "....." Wendy did not speak but only stared at Winnie with angry eyes. "It's you did the wrong thing. You don't have the right to look at me like that." "Wendy, I admit that Mr. Bennet and I hugged. To speak immorally, it is not against principle since neither of us get married." "Oscar is my best friend and my ex-husband. In order to get household registration for Megan, I had to register my marriage with Oscar, just like some people marry a local in order to get a green card abroad." At this point, Winnie deliberately stopped. She was not sure whether Wendy had that reason, but her household registration did say that she got a divorce. "My household registration says I am divorced, and my ex-husband is Oscar. You came back from abroad, you should be more used to that kind of greeting than anyone else." Winnie's eyes did not leave Wendy from beginning to end when she spoke, and indeed she saw Wendy was panic. Winnie continued. "Leo has a girlfriend and is now my business partner and good friend. We are clear, but you made fake picture of us, you did make efforts." "Don't let me find you if you do it again made make the picture real." Winnie said sarcastically, but her tone was always lukewarm, which made Wendy could not guess her mind. "Winnie, if it weren't for your seduction of Brian, how could I do that? Brian and I are going to get married soon. And you got involved. Don't say you have no motives." Wendy said, since she had been found out, she had nothing to worried about. "I managed to get those pictures, because I wanted the whole country to see what kind of woman you are." "You can say anything about me and Brian, but not Oscar and Leo. I didn't do that, you can't slander me." Winnie raised her voice and continued. "You are making this up out of nothing, you are hurting me, you are slandering me. Wendy, don't be so nasty. If you hate me, come to me, you can scold me and beat me, but don't get the innocent people involved." "And I want to emphasize again that Brian is still single. Every woman in the country, not to mention me, has the right to like him." Wendy said coldly. She knew she was wrong, knew that she should not be so close to Brian, but she hated the way Wendy did that. "You are shameless, stop saying disgusting word." Wendy said with disgust staring at Winnie angrily. "You said I am shameless, but at least I don't make up things out of nothing. Wendy, although I have no family background, no money and no status, you must know that I have two children and the father is Brian. Do you think you have a chance to come back from MG if I really want to be with Brain?" "Now that you've come back, there's no need to treat me as an enemy. Brian belongs to you. I won't fight with you." Winnie wanted to make Wendy see the facts and not do nasty things again. It would only make

Brian stay further away from her. "It is good to hear that. You said you don't fight with me, but you have been pestering Brain." Wendy said and did not want to lose to Winnie on the momentum. "I don't think we can go on talking. Since you think I'm pestering Brian, let's fight for him then." "Come on, what do you think I should solve the matter of slandering me?" Winnie did not expect that Wendy was so stubborn. Given Wendy's attitude, she had nothing to apologize for. "This is the retribution that you robbed my boyfriend. You deserve it." Wendy got up angrily, but Winnie said firmly. "I'll be expecting a public apology from you tomorrow. If I don't get that by night, I'll talk to Brain and get the police involved in this matter." Winnie looked at Wendy's stiff back with anger in eyes. She did something wrong, but she did not admit it and still did not apologize. If Winnie did not do that, Wendy would become worse. The next day, Winnie went to work as usual. If Wendy did not apologize to her publicly before the end of the shift, she would find Brian to explain the matter clearly. Winnie calmed down to work, but Wendy was upset and did not know what to do. When she was helpless, all she could think of was the group chat of the three. Wendy: Help me, help me. Are you there? Help me out. Wendy waited in agony for ten minutes before someone answered. Klara: What's the matter, Wendy? What's the trouble? Laura: Sorry, I've been busy. I just saw the message. Three people began to study the countermeasure. Wendy told then what happened, then... Laura: So she found it? She is so good? Laura said, but it was in her expectations. Klara: What did Winnie say? Wendy: She told me to apologize to her, or she would tell Brian. Klara: Didn't she say to call the police? Wendy: Yes. It seems that if Brain did not give her a solution, she will call the police. Wendy understood it in this way. Laura: I think she was to give you a chance. Klara: I think what Laura said makes sense. Wendy, find Mr. Bennet and admit it. Only he can help you. If Winnie calls the police, even if there is no serious consequence, you will be detained for a few days at least. The most important thing is that it if gets out and the police come out to clarify it, and you will be humiliated. Wendy sent an embarrassed emoji. She quarreled with Brian yesterday. Would Brian help her in this situation? But she didn't tell them. Wendy: What can Brian do for me? Winnie wants a public apology. I will be also embarrassed. Laura: No one knows who you are even if you post your apology. Even if they know who you are, no one cares. After all, it has nothing to do with them. And you don't have that much personal influence, but if the police clarify it, there are many people will pay attention to you. Klara: I agree with Laura, and do you want to be prison? Wendy was speechless, she understood, but she did not know if Brian would help her. Klara: Wendy, don't think about it anymore. Winnie looks mild on the surface, but actually she is a vicious woman. She'll do it since she has said that. If she does call the police, we'll be put on the defensive. Klara persuaded Wendy by slandering Winnie. If it got big, she would be found out too. After all, she was the one with the worst names and the one with the most thumb ups. Laura: Yeah. Now that Winnie has given you a chance, you should make it small. We are unlucky this time, but there will be plenty of opportunities in the future. Laura persuaded Wendy for her own sake. Like Klara, she was also afraid of being found out. There was never any real friendship in this group of three people, who had always had their own agendas. Wendy was not talking. She needed to think hard about what was best for her.