

My Twins 341

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 341 BRIAN'S BLIND DATE

Brian supported Winnie to the bed and let her sit down. Then he spoke in a low voice. "I won't be with Wendy. Grandpa can't accept her, so he asked me to go to a blind date, so you don't need to blame yourself, she isn't in line of the requirement of Grandpa even if there is no you." Brian said so, so that Winnie would not think it was because of her. He could not give her marriage, as least he could not make her have a depressing life. "Your grandpa's requirement is strict, it seems that it is uneasy to meet his requirement." Hearing that Brian would go to a blind date, Winnie was sad, but there was nothing she could do, she could only see the man she loved to be with other women. Wendy had status, but she did not meet the requirement of Felix, so Winnie dare not expect anything. "Winwin, I will go to the blind date tonight, I agree that because of you." Brian did not hide it from Winnie, or she would be sad. "Because of me?" Winnie was confused. She sat on the bedside and Brian stood in front of her. Brian squatted down to hold her hands and then said gently. "Grandpa agrees to have you to spend new year together if I go to the blind date, that is why I agree to have a blind date. Winwin, I am sincere, please come home with me." Hearing that, Winnie was silent for a moment. "No, what is the point? Chairman doesn't really want me to be there, it will affect his mood." "He is old, just let him be happy." Winnie had promised Felix that she would not go there, so she had to keep her words. Or she would be embarrassed. "But I have agreed him to have a blind date, I can do that for nothing. Winwin, don't overthink and give the children a chance. Winnie thought of others' feeling, but Brian thought of the feeling of himself and the children. It was selfish, but he did it as he thought. "I appreciate that, so you don't do that for nothing. Megan is a child and if she slips tongue, we will be in troubles." "I know you want to give them a chance, but there will be many chances in the future, don't worry." "You agreed to have a blind date, go then. And I agree with the cooptation, I will make a detail plan tomorrow." "Brian, if you love me, do as I said. Do go against Grandpa's will." With that, she pulled Brian up. She then took a deep breath and told herself to back to the original point. She was still the insignificant Winnie while Brian was the noble rich man. "I should go now, I will take you elevator, because I don't dare to face so many eyes." With that, she was to walk away, but Brian took her hand. "If you insist to leave, I have a requirement." "Ok." "I send you to the airport and then pick you up as your man." Brian found that he could not persuade Winnie, so he could only say that. "Ok, I will let you know when I leave." Winnie took back her hand and then left. Brian was sad in his break room. It was time for a blind date, so he got up and left. He came to a romantic restaurant. He felt it only appropriate to come with Winnie. He was early, so he flipped through his phone while waiting for the woman. "Brian?" When his attention was on the phone, he heard a familiar female voice. He looked up and was surprised to see the woman in front of him. "Emily?" "Are you here for a blind date?" Emily was surprised too. B City was big, but the met. "Yes." Brian answered. "God, I have a blind date with you, what is going on?" She sat down, feeling incredible. "I didn't expect to be you. I have no information about you. If I have known it, I would have refused. Brian had no idea that Emily would have a blind date since she had Leo. "What do you mean? Am I bad?" Emily said jokingly. "No, but it is not appropriate." Brian was calm, it was not bad, at least it was better to see a stranger. "Yes, if Winnie knows it, we will be doomed." Emily still made a joke, but she felt sorry for Winnie. Emily had doubts, as she was to ask, Brian interrupted her. "Order first. Chat while we eat." "Ok." So they order the food first. After the waiter left, Emily said. "Mr. Bennet, you have a fiancée, and you like Winnie, why you come for a blind date?" Emily felt that Brian must have a different situation as hers. He did not break up with Wendy and was still in connection with Winnie, why he came for a blind date? "I like Winwin, but I may break up with Wendy, otherwise I will not come for a blind date." Brian felt it was ok to tell Emily. "Oh, Wendy will be over, it is shocking, does Winwin know it?" Emily was surprised. "Yes, I told her." "Don't go to a blind date then. Just be with Winwin, she is a good woman and not only you like her. Don't regret it if she was with other man." Emily wanted to make Winnie to be with Brian. Hearing that, Brian frowned. He seemed to have known who Emily referred to and why Emily came for a blind date. "You mean Leo?" "You are indeed a smart person. Leo like Winwin, I can't accept that so I broke up with him, and that is why I came for a blind date, but I did not expect to see you. Emily did not conceal it, Brian knew that she was Leo's girlfriend. "You broke up so soon?" Brian had doubts. "It has been days. I act that I was still with Leo on the day we drank, for fear that Winwin feel burden. So Leo still had feeling for Winnie. He loved her, but he did not let her know but just protect her secretly. "When will you stop acting?" Brian felt he was selfish compared with Leo. "I want to announce it now, but I am afraid that Winnie will be upset. After new year, Daenerys will tell her, and then everything will be over." Emily was sad. She said it calmly but she felt depressed. "Do you want to give up on Leo? He is good." Brian could see from her eyes that she liked Leo. Leo hurt her for Winnie. And he, for other woman, hurt Winnie. "I have to, I can't guard an impossible love like Winwin, I believe that I can meet someone better." Emily said to Brian, hoping that he could cherish Winnie, or he would regret it. "Luckily, Winwin is not you." Brian thanked fate that he met Winnie, because she was willing to guard him. "You are selfish, do you know how suffering Winwin is. I would rather you make Leo and Winwin together, at least Leo was good to Winwin." Emily said with disdain. She did not understand why Winnie loved Brian, he was arrogant and selfish. "No way, I am selfish, but I will not let her suffer anymore." Brian was sure that, but he did not know whether he could succeed. Only when his family accept Winwin, she would be less suffering. "Never mind, let's talk about our blind date, how to mention it to our family?" Emily felt he was selfish, but at least he loved Winnie. "Are you force to have a blind date or are you will to have one?" Brian asked. "I am forced to." Emily wanted to get over Leo as soon as possible, if she could not, a blind date would not help. But her parents forced her to have a blind date and were determined to find a better son-in-law. However, the man she loved was the best, no one could replace him. "I am forced too. I know my grandpa well and he will do what he said. "I will have blind dates till I meet someone better than Leo." She was helpless, because Leo did not cherish her.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 342 OTHER PEOPLE'S OPINION

"Want to help each other?" Brian had an idea. "What do you mean? "Conceal for each other and say we can get along and try for a period of time, so that we won't have out next blind date soon." In fact, Brian's idea came out of the blue and he didn't consider it carefully. He felt that Emily would help to conceal it. "But what if Winwin knew? You really want me to break my friendship with her." Brian's idea was good, but Emily had her own ideas. I helped Leo to conceal it from Winwin, because I don't want her to have burden, and now you asked me to help you. If Winwin knows it, how should I explain it?" "It is complicated, the help me conceal it, I will explain to her after new year." It was good, at least everyone could have a peaceful new year. Emily did not refuse it. So it was put off. But Brian was worried about Wendy. He gave her a day and hoped that she could think about her future. Since she left the Bennet Group, Wendy could not calm down. She had been thinking about what Brian had said and what he and Winnie would do in the break room. She was upset, annoyed and mad. She was not in a mood to eat or sleep. It was eleven at night, but she could not calm down. Wendy: Have you two fallen asleep? She sent a message in the group and wanted to hear Laura and Klara's idea. Soon after. Laura: No, I just took a bath. Klara: Me neither. Wendy: Help me think what I should do. Then she told them what happened that day. But she did not tell them Brian's proposal and that she was to slap Winnie. Hearing that, Klara and Laura were angry. But, Wendy had her problem. Laura: Wendy, why did you give it a second thought? I told you when Winnie left the company that she was to talk about cooperation. Mr. Bennet must be unhappy if you went there. Laura said. After many ups and downs, she did not think Wendy was a smart person. Her ability was not as good as Winnie. No wonder Brian would like Winnie. Wendy: I knew it was about work, but I am upset that when the secretary told me that I am not allowed to come in. I imagined what they would do in side, why can't they be bother. Wendy: especially when the secretary tried to stop me, I was eager to go in. I thought they must do something dirty, so I could not control myself and broke in. Klara: I have a say of that, because I was once his secretary. You were impulsive, Wendy. Mr. Bennet doesn't not allow anyone to disturb him when he was talking about important work, even Chairman would have to wait. Wendy: that was Brian said, but it was late. What should I do? Klara: don't give up. Even if there is feeling, you can get married. For the sake of status and money, you can't give up. Laura: And, you must fight with Winnie, you can't lose to her. As long as you get married with Mr. Bennet, you win. Laura agreed that Wendy should fight for it. If she gave up, her efforts would be in vain. Klara: Yes, since Mr. Bennet has not broken up with you, you have the chance. Winnie gets nothing. Even if she is a mistress, the chairman will not accept her. As long as you get married, you are the winner. Laura: don't be impulsive again, or you will lose. Klara and I will always support you. It did make Wendy feel better, but they were wrong that Winnie got nothing, but her children. She had no courage to be good again with Brain. What Klara and Laura said seemed to be simple and direct, but she knew it was difficult, the children were hard to dealt with. Wendy stopped sending message. She put her hope on Winnie and made a call to her. Winnie heard the phone rang as she walked out of the bathroom. She thought it was Brian, so she was disappointed. "What do you want?" She asked coldly. "Nothing, I can't fall asleep, so I don't want you to sleep. You must be glad that Brian protected you in face of me. Wendy felt she respected Winnie enough by saying that. "Wendy, I have nothing to explain, it is your business how you think. But don't lose Brian, or you will regret it." Winnie was really speechless about what happened today. Brian said they talked about work and the outsiders thought they talked about work, but they did not talk about it at all. And Brian hugged her for several times. It was the fact, and Winnie could not defend herself. Brian said that Wendy was not planning to go back, but he chose Wendy at that moment, so she lost and had no confidence to fight with Wendy. "Sure you have nothing to explain because you did shameless thing. Everyone said you were talking about work, but only you know what you have done." Wendy was angry and suspicious since Wendy did not explain. "Wendy, don't you know that you have no difference with a beggar with your status, do you think the Bennet family would accept you as their daughter-in-law?" "You have two children, but if they are useful, you would not have been single." "I give you a chance, ask Brian if he could marry you, and ask Rufus if he could accept you, as well as Felix. If he says yes, I will leave you alone." Wendy used the Bennet family to suppress Winnie. Winnie had been listening to her carefully, she did not refute but felt guilty to Wendy. She felt guilty because of Brian, because it was him made her embarrassed. The Bennet family was a noble family, and she was not match to it. She knew that. "I know, Wendy, so I don't fight with you. I told you Brian and I would not be together even if we loved each other, even if we got children." "You just want to scold me and vent your anger, but it will not fix the problem. I am not a threat to you. If the Bennet family can accept me and if Brian loved me that much, he would not give you two choices. Winnie knew she lost. Even if Wendy made a scene today, Brian gave her chance, it should be Wendy who was pleased. "I can't make things clear, but I can't control it. You should know Brian better than I do, I can't only control myself not him." Winnie said calmly. She could understand Wendy, but her behaviors would make Brian further and further away from her. Winnie could do nothing about it. She could not control her heart, but she could control herself and stay away from Brian, but she could not control Brian. If Brian could listen to her, they would have been so many troubles. "Come on, if you know that, get out of B City. If you do that, I will believe you." Wendy did not believe Winnie and thought it was her fault. Winnie was angry to hear that. "Do you think I don't want to leave? do you think I want to see the man I loved get married with others. I can leave, but what should my children do? Do you know how painful I would be?" Winnie said angrily, she stayed because of her children. She loved Brian, but she had to face the reality. There were many separations in life. It was surprised that Wendy did not speak, but Winnie could hear her breath, or Winnie would think she had hung up. "What I said is serious. As long as you can make Brian agree that I take my children away, I will go immediately." Winnie continued.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 343 BRIAN CAME LATE

Winnie only wanted to leave with two children, if they did not leave, she would not insist. "Luke has depression and can't have any stimulation. No one can take care of him but me. You have contacted Megan, she is stubborn and you cannot control her at all. They will only cause you trouble if they stay. Let me take them away, so that you can live your life in peace." Winnie repeatedly stressed her requirements. Only she could be steadfast when her children are around her. "Even if it was true, it can't be reached. Even if Brian agreed, Felix would not agree. He will find the children back, do you think it work?" "It is impossible." "If you really want me to be with Brian, persuade you kids and let Brian marry me. If he marries me, you don't have to leave B City. Wendy felt she had done enough, if Winnie stayed in B City, she would always be connected with Brian. But she could only say that now and she would deal with it after Brian married her. "You don't have to worry about the children. You can marry Brian at anytime, I can assure you that the children will be good and I will talk to them." No matter what, Winnie would make the children accept Wendy, and Wendy had only to try to persuade Felix. The phone came to an end, but there was no result. Wendy still hated her. Winnie adjusted her mood and put away the phone. As she was to sleep, the doorbell rang. Who would come at this hour? Was it Brian? She walked out with doubts and indeed she saw Brian in the video screen, so she pressed the answer key. "Why you came at this late hour?" "Open the door and I will tell you." "Go back, you always..." "I can't fall asleep. Open the door, or I will stand here for night." Brian said. He could not fall asleep anyway, he would rather stay there. Winnie could only open the door. Brian came in with a bag. "What is it?" She asked. "My pajama." As he answered, he changed his shoes. "What do you mean?" As Winnie's voice fell, Brian took her hand and walked to the bedroom. "You have no pajamas for a man. I feel uncomfortable with my clothes, and I can't control myself if I am naked, so I brought my pajama." "We have all women here, how can I have a man pajama. Who allow you to sleep here?" Winnie wanted to take back her hand, but her strength was not as big as Brian, so she was kind of dragged to the bedroom. Brian closed the door and pressed Winnie against the door, threw the bag away and kissed her. It was a wild kiss. But Winnie was stunned. After being kissed, she could not even resist. Brian gave her chance to pant but later kissed her again. His hand got into her sick pajama, running through every part of her body. As they lied on the bed, Winnie said. "Are you crazy?" Winnie's voice was soft and charming. Hearing that, even she was shy, let alone Brian who could not control himself. "Yes, I am crazy. I miss you and I can't fall asleep, or I will not come at this late hour." "Winwin, I can't control myself as I touch you." Brian's voice was hoarse. He was in his thirties, but he could not still control himself, because the woman beneath his body was Winnie. She seemed to have magic and he loved her so deeply. He had no interest in other women expect Winnie. "Winnie, you are not my first woman, but I can guarantee that you are the last one. I have no passion to any women expect you. I am selfish, even if we can get married, don't leave me, or I will become a monk." Brian knew that he was selfish, but he could not resist Winnie. He had never loved a woman like that, and he even lost his mind. Only Winnie could make him lost control of himself. Winnie knew that he was selfish, but she was moved by him. She could not give up on everything, but she could meet his requirement, but... "Wendy..." Winnie said. Hearing that, Brian gave a charming smile. It was the first time Winnie saw that, she was obsessive. "What are you laughing at?" "You can jealous." With that, he kissed Winnie before he continued. "I have told you that I have never touched her since she came back and we had no even lied on a bed." "I avoided her, or she would not be worried about our relationship." Winnie admitted that she was jealous, because she loved Brian. "Are you doing that for me?" Winnie laughed out loud, which was charming in Brian's eyes. "Yes, so you have to make it up for me." As his voice fell, he kissed again Winnie wildly. After sex, Winnie lied in his chest, panting with sweat on her forehead. But she enjoyed such feeling that Brian was with her. "Are you tired?" Brian asked softly. "Yes." Winnie murmured. "I will give you time to take a rest, and then we do it again." She hurried to wrap herself with quilt, looking at Brian with panic. "No, I will be exhausted." Winnie resisted, but Brian gave a wry smile. "You just need to lie down..." "No, you are crazy and you even said that." Winnie blushed and covered Brian's face with quilt. "Are you going to smother me? Well, I won't say it again, let's sleep." Brian said vaguely, but Winnie heard it. She put the quilt down and looked at Brian's flushed face. She covered the quilt on his body and got herself into his arms. At this moment, Brian belonged to her, and she did not want to think about others. "Go to sleep, I can sleep well with you around." Actually Brian was to have a sound sleep here and did want to be disturbed by nightmare, but seeing Winnie, he could not control his desire. "Do you always have nightmare?" Winnie asked with concern, looking at him. "It is been a long time. I have been woken up by nightmare every night and after I woke up, I can't fall asleep again. When I am tired, I want to see you, but you ignored me when you did not drink." Brian felt wrong, as if he had nightmare because of Winnie. "What kind of nightmare it is?" Winnie asked. "It was the same dream every night. I saw the car driving fast to me, and I can't run away. I was blank in brain and thought I would be death." It was the first time that Brian described his dream in such detail. The feeling was far scarier than he had described. Winnie could feel the tension from Brian when he described it. It seemed that he had been tortured for a long time. She reached out and put her arm around him to comfort him. That was all she could offer. "Sleep well tonight. I'm the cure for your nightmares." "But I have seen the scene you said." Winnie suddenly remembered her own experience. "Were you frightened?" "No, I was not. When I saw that man about to be hit by a car, I didn't fear. I just rushed at him and pushed him away. Otherwise, he would have died horribly." "Yes, that's how I got that scar on my stomach." Winnie was still scared when she recalled it. She did not know why she had courage to save that man. "You told me about it once. You got that scar when you tried to save a man." "Did I tell you? When did I tell you?" Winnie did not remember that she had told Brian about her scar. "You said it during your surrogacy." Brian clearly remembered it, because at that time he had suspected the scar. "Do you remember what I said at that time?" Winnie couldn't believe it, but at the same time, she was touched. "Yes, I remember everything you told me." At that time, he had a special feeling for Winnie, so the memory of that year was still clear until now. "Then do you remember you pushed me down by the door?" Winnie remembered the scene at that time showing dissatisfaction to Brian. "Yes, I remember it, but I didn't mean to do it. I just hate the way you hang around me." Brian sighed and then tightly embraced Winnie.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 344 WENDY'S CHOICE

Remembering Brian's indifference at that time, Winnie felt cold and angry at the thought that she had been pushed. "Well, I hate you, because you pushed me, I have a tiny scar on my arm. My skin is easily scarred, and you bullied me. I can't love you for that." Winnie complained Brian, but at this time she felt sweet and happy. "I'm sorry. I really didn't know it would hurt you. Forgive me, it won't happen again." "If I had known I was going to love you, I would never have done that to you. I would have you stayed and help you with all difficulties, so that we wouldn't have wasted so many years." Brian wished that the time could go back to the period of the surrogacy. Two people were silent for a while, and Brian's hand inadvertently touched Winnie's belly scar. "You pushed the man out of the way. He did not get hit, but you did?" Brian asked "I was too worried to think about it. I didn't know I was hurt. When I got back to the dormitory, I saw my clothes were torn, and then I knew I was injured. The care must have scratched me. I don't know if that man was hurt or not." Winnie had a clear memory of what happened at that time until now, but she didn't remember that person. The man was wearing a hat and mask. He was in back covering himself tightly, and Winnie could not see his face. "Never do anything so dangerous again. It sounds scary." In fear, Brian hugged Winnie again, as if at that moment he saw with his own eyes that he would lose her. But if Winnie's experience was connected to his dream, his dream would not have to be afraid, after all, he had avoided the speeding car. "With my busybody nature, I would run to save someone again." Winnie felt it not a big deal. At that moment anyone would go to help. "Don't be so impulsive. You have kids now. Think of the kids before you do it." Brian was worried about Winnie. She was not a busybody, she was kind and brave. Only such a person could do a righteous deed. "By the way, you haven't taken birth control pills for a long time, Winwin." Brian suddenly thought of it and obviously felt Winnie shivered in his arms after he asked that. "No. Are you afraid that I get pregnant and cause you trouble?" Winnie became upset almost immediately. Brian asked this question suddenly, Winnie could only think of this possibility. After all, when they first started it, Brian asked her to have contraception. "You are overthinking, if you overthink again, I will punish you." Brian appeased Winnie. "Then why did you ask that?" Winnie looked up at Brian with inquiring eyes. "I am wondering why you haven't got pregnant yet. If you are pregnant, Grandpa could do nothing about it." Brian was not afraid that Winnie got pregnant, but hoped that Winnie got pregnant. With two children, Grandpa might still insist on his principle of equal status, but with four children, Grandpa could not see four children without a mother. Speaking of this, Winnie's mood was once again low. "My chances of getting pregnant are slim." "Why?" Brian looked at Winnie. "I had a problem when I gave birth to Megan and Luke. The doctor said my chance of pregnancy would be small. If my physical conditioning is not good, I may not be able to be pregnant, and that is the reason I only gave you Luke." Winnie said sadly. She even did not know how she had gone through it. "It's all right. It's all right if you can't be pregnant. We have Luke have Megan, and it is enough." Brian knew that Winnie's memories were full of pain, and that it was not easy for her to give birth to two children. But absolutely he did not know that Winnie was not likely to be pregnant, if he had known that, he would not have asked her to take birth control pills. "Never mind. It's time for us to go to bed, or it'll be dawn." Brian ended this sad topic, or Winnie would have bad mood. "Well, sleep. I hope you don't have nightmares tonight." Winnie changed a comfortable position to lie in Brian's arms and then fell asleep. The next day, Winnie and her team worked on the cooperation plan, because the Bennet Group wanted to get the cooperation plan as soon as possible, so they could only work overtime, and even had no time to eat lunch. They were busy from morning. Although they were hungry, the cooperation plan had been preliminarily formed, and they could have the first negotiation with the Bennet Group. "Laura, go with me. You are more familiar with some schemes than I am. You can explain them when necessary." Winnie had always been optimistic about the ability of Laura and trusted her in the big cooperation case, but she could not expect that Laura would frame her. "Okay, I'll get ready." Laura said that and went out from the conference room. When she got back to her desk, the first thing she did was to send a message to the group. Laura: Klara, Winnie and I will go to your company later. If we meet, please don't communicate with me. After sending the message, Laura put away her mobile phone and prepared materials. It was an unprecedented major cooperation for the company. Laura did not expect Winnie would assign her as an assistant and to be responsible for the explanation. This was a good opportunity for her, she had to do her best. While everyone else went home from work, Winnie and Laura drove straight to the Bennet Group. At the same time, Brian was waiting for Winnie in the president's office, but did not expect Wendy knocked at the door. Seeing her, Brian frowned. Wendy was embarrassed. "I'm here to give you an answer." She said in a low voice and dared not look into his eyes. "You have the answer?" Brian asked in a cold voice. "Yes. Brian, what I did yesterday was wrong, I should not have..." "You don't have to apologize. You've said that many times already. Just tell me your choice." Brian coldly interrupted Wendy. He did not hold much hope on Wendy. Even if she chose to continue their relationship, Brian felt that she would cause trouble again. "I won't go to Winnie again, and I will just be your girlfriend." Wendy was not sincere, but there she had to say that, otherwise she would lose Brian. Wendy paused before she continued. "Brian, I have a request too. Let us get married. Once married, as long as you and Winnie don't go too far, I won't ask about your affair." "I've been on the road for so many years, and I just want a stable home and a peaceful life. For the sake of our long relationship, don't keep me waiting any longer." Wendy said sadly and she wanted a marriage, so that she could keep her position. And she would deal with the problem after getting married. Brian could not agree to Wendy's request, because now the problem was not the children nor Winnie, but his grandpa. If there was no miracle, he and Winnie could not be together. The children were in a better mood and they could understand the adults' helplessness. However his grandpa disliked Wendy and could not accept her now. It was not strange, because Wendy did not behave well and frequently made grandpa angry. After being silent for a while, Brian finally spoke. "Don't worry about anything else. Try to please Grandpa. Don't do anything to upset him. Be frank with him. He hates schemers." "Grandpa is so smart that anyone in front of him is transparent. If you cheat him, you will be doomed." Brian did not mention what Wendy had done. He believed Wendy understood him. "I know, I will please grandpa. As long as Grandpa accepts me, we can get married, right?" Wendy asked. She did not believe that Brian agreed easily because he loved Winnie. "Yes, I will marry you as long as Grandpa agrees." Brian felt sad when he said that. He should say that to Winnie, but he could not. "Brian, with your words, I feel at ease. I will please Grandpa and I will try to make him accept me." Wendy was excited. The only obstacle left was Grandpa. As long as she put all her energy on Grandpa, she believed she would succeed. Seeing that Wendy was happy, Brian only thought of Winnie's crying. He wondered if Winnie could bear him holding another woman's hand and walking into marriage. The secretary knocked at the door and came in. "Mr. Bennet, Winnie has arrived." "Let her in. Let Calvin in too." Brian commanded coldly and then looked at Wendy. "I'm going to work. You go home." "Ok, I go back first." Wendy bent down to pick up her bag and turned to walk outside. When Winnie and Laura walked inside, they met. "Laura....." Wendy called her. Laura timely made a wink and Wendy swallowed her words. However, this scene was still noticed by Winnie. But Winnie focused on her work, and did not want to have too much communication with Wendy, so she did not pay much attention to it. After Wendy went out, Laura took a sigh of relief. Wendy was so careless. She had reminded her in the group, even if she did not see it, she should know what to do. Didn't she know that one careless move would expose them all?

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 345 REQUEST COOPERATION

After Wendy left, Calvin came in. They began to discuss cooperation. Winnie's cooperation plan was completed by Laura, and she was only in charge of supplement. Winnie's cooperation case was in line with the requirements of Brian. After Brian put forward several points, the cooperation was basically finalized. "We have a verbal agreement now, and the contract will be signed after the New Year." Brian gave the final decision. Calvin was responsible for the explanation. "Since the contract needs to be drawn up by lawyers and there are so many clauses involved, it can't be done before the New Year. Let's sign the contract after the New Year and then get to work." "Winnie, we still have requirements. We hope that you and Laura can work in our company during the cooperation, so that it will be more convenient for us." As Calvin said that, Winnie cast her eyes on Brian. And she knew it must be Brian's idea. "It's just as convenient for us to work in our office. We will bother you if we work in the Bennet Group. We will try our best to cooperate and not let you down." Winnie politely refused. She could not avoid meeting Klara and Wendy if she came to work, and there would be too much troubles. She did not want to get into troubles. "Since you said you would try your best to cooperate, then coming to work is the most basic cooperation. Please consider it." Calvin gave a begging look. If Winnie did not agree, he could not explain to Brian. Calvin felt embarrassed in the middle that they got their private affairs into the work. Winnie understood that. Every time she stood in the position of others and forgot her own difficulties. "What do you think, Laura?" Winnie asked Laura's opinion. "I think we can work here. As long as the work goes well, it doesn't matter where we work." Laura made no objection to it. It was a great honor for her to have this opportunity to work in the Bennet Group. How could she miss such an opportunity? She could meet more people here and it would be of great help to her future work. If her performance was good, it is possible that she could work for the Bennet Group. "All right, we'll work here then." Winnie thought Laura would refuse and she did not need to be worried, but Laura agreed. Since Winnie agreed, Calvin smiled, because he had finished his task and would not be punished. "Winnie, your office is on the 30th floor, next to the secretarial office. Laura, your office is next to the conference room and you share an office with our assistants." "After we sign the contract, you can come to work. We also request your company to focus on this cooperation as much as possible, so that both of us can see the benefits as soon as possible." Calvin arranged everything. At that moment he received the order from Brian, he told himself he could only succeed. The office next to the secretary's office on the 30th floor he said was Winnie's former office. "Calvin, show Laura around the office. I will take

Winnie to see her office. Ask Albert to book a restaurant, we will eat together after work." Brian once again commanded in a cold voice. His imperious tone made Laura's heart tremble. It was the first time that she came into contact with Brian, and also the first time that she met a man with such an aura. He was mature, charming, elegant and dignified, and there was something about him like a king, as if everything was a foil to him. He was gentle, calm and perfect. Wendy did not even match him. Laura looked at Winnie and felt they did match. Laura then was taken away by Calvin. Winnie and Brian came to her former office. "Is it your selfishness again?" Winnie closed the door and directly asked Brian. "It's normal to be selfish." Brian answered. His purpose was so obvious and Winnie was so smart. It was pointless to deny it. "Why don't you think of me? It's hard for me. The whole company knows how I left. Do you want them to laugh at me?" Winnie was not in the mood to joke. Although it was the first time she saw Brian's charming smile, she wanted to beat him. Since that day he said he loved her, Brian became different and did whatever he wanted. This was a burden for Winnie. She was afraid she would be laughed at by the company again. Brian did not answer her question. Instead, he walked towards her step by step. Winnie realized the danger from Brian and retreated. She warned him. "Are you going mad again? Don't mess around. It's a company. They'll be here any minute." Winnie said, but Brian still wore his smile. It seemed that her warning was useless. Winnie had no way to retreat anymore, stood against the desk. It was too late to escape, in the next second, she was held into Brian's chest. "I will not allow anyone to laugh at you or bully you. I want to see if Klara would do something bad to you." Brian's voice was gentle like spring breeze. He was indeed selfish, but he was deliberate. "What about Chairman? What will he think of me?" Winnie must consider that. Felix had a problem with her. If she annoyed Felix, she would lose the children. "Grandpa will not care where you work if he knows how much money this project was going to make. Interest matters the best to him." "Winnie, you must work harder for me and for the children. Only in this way can grandpa recognize you and give you the children." Brian said. If she was not capable, no matter how much Brian protected her, his grandfather would not give Winnie the children. "I will." "Please consult with me before you decide anything about me. Your company is big and everyone wants to work for it, but I don't want to come. I will say no if it happens again." Since the matter had been settled, Winnie could only grumble. "I'll talk to you in advance next time." Brian readily agreed and he picked Winnie up, gently put her on the desk, and pressed on her. "You.....Can you be normal? You always do this, what should I do? How can I get my heart back." Winnie protested, pushing Brian's chest with her hands. She loved him but could only put him in her heart for a lifetime. Or she would have many enemies, and her love would become a burden. "Don't take it back, just leave it with me. I will cherish it as long as I live." As Brian's voice fell, he directly kissed Winnie's sweet lips. He knew how shameless his words were. He wanted her heart for a lifetime, but he could not give her what she wanted. Brian did not want to miss Winnie did not want to lose control of himself like now. He knew it would bring unnecessary trouble to Winnie, but he had completely lost the ability of self-control. Winnie enjoyed the imperious kiss of Brian, but her heart was bitter. She wanted to put her heart in Brian, but her heart had been broken. If Brian hurt her, she could not make it. She hoped that all of his words can come true and that her heart would not be hurt. Time passed quickly and it was the New Year. All the people put all the unfinished things after the New Year. On the 28th December, Oscar returned to his hometown by plane, on 29th, the promotion video of the game developed by Winnie and Leo was on. The immediate response had exceeded their expectations. At the same time, the first batch of benefits for players would be released at the moment the New Year bell stroke. Winnie was in Leo's office, looking at the viewing data on the major network platforms with a fluctuating heart. "What are you worried about? The video is popular." Leo said in a light voice seeing that Winnie was nervous. "But it does not mean the sale is good. This is the most anxious time."After all, Winnie WAS a woman. She developed her own software for the first time, and her mood was not as steady as Leo's."At least the promo represents a general picture of sales. If only one person had seen the promo, we'd be done now. With so many people watching, if only one percent of them came to play, we'd be successful.""Don't worry, I'm sure it'll be all right."Leo enlightened Winnie.He was an old hand in business, and he had been used to seeing things like that. It may be the smallest investment in his career, but by his current reckoning, it could be the biggest gain he had ever made."I know that too, and I hope it will turn out that way. But I can't help being nervous."Winnie got cold sweat on hands. At this time, what she wanted most was that Brian would be by her side. He did not need to do anything but hold her hand, which would give her infinite strength.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 346 RELAXED

Leo saw that Winnie's tension was getting stronger and stronger, so he had to joke to make Winnie relax. "Don't be nervous. Look at the promo, you are good. Winwin, whether the game is successful or not, you may have unexpected harvest." "What harvest?" Winnie asked Leo with doubts. "You may become a star. Your acting skill is so good and natural. If the director picks you, you will become a star." Leo could not help but smile and wonder what she would be like if she was a star. "How can I become a star so easily? I don't want to be a star in the entertainment industry. I want to be a world-class software star." It had always been Winnie's wish, and she had been working on it, but she had never told anyone, because it would not easy to realize it. "It's good to have aspirations, and you're already great. I feel like your talent getting buried in a small company. Why don't you come to my company? Our company can create a better way for you." If Winnie really came to his company, he would try his best to cultivate her and give her opportunity to success. "Come on, I am doing well in this company. There is a lot of room for development. At the end of the year, I can make a lot of money. The profit of half a year is equal to the annual salary when I was in the Bennet Group. I am already satisfied with that." Winnie refused Leo. She liked her current job and it was stable. As long as the shareholders made persistent efforts, they would expand the company and made it better. Compared to the Bennet Group, it did have less development opportunities, but at least she did not need to be worried if she would get fired. With the security of work, Winnie could guarantee the stable life of her family and give her children a stable living environment. "It has been half a year, so you earn a lot. Have you got the money?" Leo was gratified to see that Winnie had a good attitude. "Yes, I'll go to the bank to return the rest of the house money. After that, I will be relaxed." Speaking of that, Winnie suddenly remembered one thing. She came here not just for the game. She took out a bank card from her bag and handed it to Leo. "Here's a million you lent me, and not I give it back to you." "It helped me a lot, thank you." Winnie came to pay back the money and to thank Leo for his help. "It is not a lot of money and you still pay it back, you are underestimating my ability. Take it and buy a better car." Leo did not attend to take the money back, and he did not expect that Winnie would earn that in just a short time, though it was just a few. But for ordinary people like Winnie, it was not easy to earn that amount of money. "I won't change my car, I don't want to waste my money. It is just a car, I don't need an expensive one." "I borrowed the money from you, sure I should pay it back. If you don't take it, I will be embarrassed to borrow from you again when I need money one day, so take it back." Winnie said with a smile. Leo had to say, "Ok, I will take it." Seeing that, Winnie felt at ease finally. Then she took her bag and got up. "I don't want to think too much about the game, just let it be. I am going to be back. You go back to Emily." Speaking of Emily, Leo was in a low mood, but Winnie did not notice it. "When is your flight, let me and Emily see you off." Leo said behind Winnie. "Eight at night, I have someone to see me off, you can spend more time with Emily." Winnie said with a smile and then looked back. "Happy new year, my friend, I will see you next year." After leaving the company, Winnie paid the money back to the bank. When she got out of the bank, she felt relieved. She just needed to pay to the car owner in her father's car accident, but she had money, and she just needed to find him. Winnie was so relaxed that she felt the air was light, from now on, she could live a relaxing life. She just needed to create a better life for her family. She still had time, so she got home and took some clothes for Luke and her luggage, and then she went to the suburbs. Before leaving, she wanted to have a meal with her children and Rufus, and then Brian sent them to the airport. When she arrived at the suburbs, Brian was still at work, but Rufus had begun to get the dinner ready. Winnie asked Luke to come to her side and talked to him before she came to the kitchen to help. "What are you doing here, you will take the flight later, go rest or you can lie down in bed." Rufus was in the kitchen too. He could not offer help, but he urged the servant, so that they could have dinner early. "I am not tired. I come to see if I could help." Winnie said, how could she rest since Rufus was in the kitchen. "Rufus, how can she rest if you are here? You go back, don't worry, we can have dinner when Brian is back. Winnie won't miss the flight." Paul was in the kitchen, seeing that more and more people gathered in the kitchen, he has to ask them out, or it would affect the speed. "Ok, ok, I take Winwin out, you be fast." After that, they returned to the living room. "Why hasn't Brian come back yet." "Don't worry, Sir, he is busy, it is fine to come back late. Let's chat." Winnie came to him and took him to the sofa. "He said he would send you to the airport, I am afraid that he can't make it." Rufus was still worried, but he sat down. "He can..." Before Winnie could finish her words, Megan interrupted. "If we miss the flight, Mommy and I will have to stay, can we spend the new year with you?" Megan leaned on Rufus' leg, looking at him. There was expectation in her eyes. "Ok, I will call Daddy and tell him not come back so soon." Rufus hoped Winnie and Megan could stay, but Isobel would be worried if they stayed. When would this situation end? "Megan, don't do that, go and play with brother, let me chat with Grandpa." Actually hearing that, Winnie felt sad about it, but she could do nothing. "Fine." Megan was disappointed and left, pouting. "Sir, how are you going with Brian recently?" Winnie asked, but she had the answer when Rufus gave a faint smile. "Not bad, he has been trying to get along with me, he did not call me, but he talked to me." Rufus was satisfied about it because Brian had been working on it. He did not expect too much, since it had a good beginning, there would be good ending, just take the time. "Good, I am happy to hear that. I have no need to worry since he is with you, or I will feel sorry for Stella's trust." Winnie felt relieved and there were more good things happened. "Winwin, thank you for that, if it were not you..." Rufus said thank to Winnie, but she did not want to accept thanks from anyone, so she interrupted him. "Don't thank you, I did nothing, it was him trying hard." "I am glad that you can get along well." Seeing that Winnie was sincere and kind, Rufus felt pity that she could not become his daughter-in-law. "Ok, let's talk about others." "How is your aunt and Vanessa in your relative's home?" He mentioned Isobel. "They are good. When we moved to A City, we have a relative helped us, and we get along well." This relative helped them to find house in A City and a doctor and school for Vanessa. Winnie had remembered that, even she moved back to B City, they still got in touched. "Good, then I can rest assured." Winnie felt weird that Rufus was worried. They did not know each other, but why was he sad? "Have you met with my aunt? She is nice." Winnie asked with curiosity. "No...Yes, yes, we met when I picked up kids a few days ago." Rufus was panic. Seeing that,

Winnie had doubts. Why he said they did not meet at the beginning? Why he knew her name? She had not mentioned that before, did Venessa tell him?

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 347 VENESSA'S BIRTHDAY

Winnie was curious, but she did not ask Rufus, or it would be rude. Then she continued. "My aunt and Venessa are nice. My parents are composed, but Venessa and I are lively, we are more alike aunt." "I thank my aunt for taking care of my kids, or I could not make it." Winnie recalled that her aunt helped her when she was suffering. "Yes, your aunt is good." Rufus knew that better than anyone. If Isobel was not good, he would not love her. "Venessa is good too, she is sensible." Rufus liked Venessa. "Yes, she is, she was mature because of the family accident. In the past, my parents spoiled her, I was afraid that she could not stand the family accident, but she was tough." Winnie sad emotionally, when she recalled the past. "Yes, I like her, she is tough and will be a talent." "But she doesn't look like you. Does she look like your Dad or Mom?" Rufus said. "She doesn't like anyone in my family. We made a joke when we were kids that she was adopted." Winnie said with a smile, she missed that, it was beautiful. "Every said she looked like Stella, they should be sisters." Winnie made a joke, but Rufus felt bitter. They were sisters? He frowned and had questions to ask, but it would be weird. "They do look alike, probably she was adopted." He said jokingly too. "You have that thought too, but I have my reason. I am eight years older than her, and one day I was home from school, she showed up suddenly. I asked my parents about it, and they told me that she is my sister who was born secretly by my Mom. I stayed with my Mom everyday, but I did not find her pregnant, so I joked with her that she was adopted." Winnie still said with a smile. "She was angry in the begging, but she has got used to it, sometime she said she was not." "Since my parents died, I did not make that joke again, for fear that she would miss Mom and Dad..." Winnie had doubts about what her parents said, but she felt Venessa was her only sister. She continued to say, but it caused Rufus' attention. A child at her eight knew many things, she must know that her Mom was not pregnant, so it was suspectable that there was a sister suddenly. "Winwin, when is Venessa's birthday?" Rufus pretended to be calm. "19th March, she is turning 21. That day she showed up was her birthday." Winnie answered. She had doubts about her mother's words, but she felt she had wrong memory since she was too small. Rufus found that nine months ahead Venessa's birthday was June. He was shocked about that. As the dinner was ready, Brian came back with Wendy. Seeing Wendy, Winnie was disappointed, jealous and sad. Brian should know that she was to leave today and he said he would send them to the airport, but why did he bring Wendy back? Forgot it, they did not have too much time to have dinner together, if she could, she would she could leave with an excuse. But now she could only head to the airport. Megan and Luke were disappointed too. But they had to be polite since their mother was around, and they could only say hello to Wendy. After greeting with Wendy, Winnie went to the kitchen, followed by two children. Brian thought he still had time to send Winnie, but he did not expect Winnie would be there. Wendy had spent the afternoon with him and insisted to come with him, so he brought her here. When he saw Winnie, he felt his heart pulled together. She was to leave in a minute, but he brought Wendy here, she must be sad and have no mood for the dinner. Brian went upstairs to change clothes, and the kitchen became crowded. Winnie reminded two kids. "Everyone is happy today, you can't be naughty and should be polite, ok?" "She is here, how can we be happy?" Megan complained, and Luke was silent, lowering his head. "Megan, don't say that, just be good."

Megan had to say that, or everyone would be awkward. "Go and play with Grandpa, don't stay in the kitchen." Winnie began to help after that. Now she could only stay in the kitchen, she felt embarrassed in anywhere else. Two kids did not go and find Grandpa, but to Brian's room. Seeing Brian, Luke was silent, and Megan looked at Brian sadly. "Why Wendy is here? Mommy and I will leave after dinner, and you still asked her to be here." Megan complained. Brian was self-remorse. He squatted down and held Megan's hand. "I am sorry, I did not know Mommy is here." "You did not know that? Do you want her to have instant noodle at home? If you love Mommy, you should have invited her, but you brought Wendy here. Daddy, I am disappointed at you. You don't love Mommy but Wendy." Megan said angrily, turned around with her back to Brian. "I am sorry, it is my fault." "But Wendy is here, we can have dinner together. If I ask here to leave, it would be embarrassing." Brian felt sorry about that and did not know how to face the children. "Daddy, Megan is right, you love Wendy, you only care about her feeling. With Wendy here, Mommy is the most embarrassed one." Luke said, which stunned Brian. "I am sorry, I will not make that mistake again, please forgive me." Brian kept saying sorry, so that the children would not be so sad. "Never mind, since then, Mommy could only be sad." Megan said and left, followed by Luke. Brian felt bad for he had destroyed the happy moment. At the dinner table. Rufus sat in the middle, Brian and Wendy sat one side, Winnie and two kids sat one side, which was awkward. No one spoke, including the kids. "Winwin, when is your flight?" Rufus asked, trying to break the silence, or Winnie could not swallow the food. "Eight, I will head to the airport after dinner." Winnie answered softly. She had a car, she could drive there and part the car in the airport, so that she did not need Brian to pick her up. "Brian sends you there." Rufus said in a commanding tone. "Let Paul do it, Brian is tired." Wendy said. She did not want Brian to send Winnie and did not want them to stay together, or she would be crazy. Rufus glanced at her coldly. Seeing that, Winnie was afraid that everyone's mood got affected, so she said. "Sir, I can drive there, I need no one to send me. I don't like the feeling of parting." Winnie refused, because she did not want everyone got unhappy. She only looked to Rufus when she said that. Winnie could endure the embarrassment. But Megan was unhappy. "Mommy, Daddy said he would send us." She said, she could accept that she could not spend new year with the Bennet family and that Wendy came and destroyed the atmosphere, but she was really sad that if Daddy could not send them.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 348 IF YOU MARRY HER

Seeing that Megan could not control her mood, Winnie was afraid that she would break the calmness, so she hurried to appease Megan. "Daddy did say that, but he is tired and my luggage in my car, it will be inconvenient to move it. I will take you to the airport." Megan was silent and looked at Wendy unkindly. With Mommy around, she dares not say anything, or she would make it hard for Wendy, but now she had to endure it. "Mommy, I am leaving with you, I don't want to spend new year here." Luke said, he was unhappy and required to go with Mommy. With Wendy there, he did not feel that was his home and it was pointless to stay and he was in a bad mood. "I can't book a flight now. Besides, you need to go to Great Grandpa's. If he did not see you, he will be sad. Luke, be good, I will come back soon." Winnie conformed Luke, but she felt bad too, leaving him alone. Hearing that, she felt sad. The meal became pointless since Wendy showed up. "I will send you to the airport." Brian said, because he had promised them. He really could not see that Winnie and the children were disappointed. Winnie had made up her mind that she did not need anyone to send her, even if the children made a scene. She wanted to refuse, but at this time, Winnie said. "Aren't you tired, I can send them and you stay at home." Wendy would rather she went to the airport than Brian sent them. Hearing that, Brian glanced coldly at Wendy, which frightened Wendy. "Thank you, Wendy, you are tired too, so just stay at home. It is near the airport, I will drive myself." "That is the deal, let's eat." Winnie insisted. During the conversation, she was gentle, even if she was sad, she hid her mood. After the dinner, Winnie still had time before the flight, but she did not want to stay there, so she decided to leave with Megan. "Sir, it is getting late, I am going to the airport. I have left Luke's clothes in his room. You don't need to ask him to sturdy these days, he needs to relax." Winnie told Felix, but she planned to say that to Brian. Wendy was there, if she talked to Brian, Wendy would mind. After that, she gave a hug to Luke and was to leave with Megan. "Goodbye Grandpa, goodbye Daddy, goodbye Brother, please miss me." She did not say goodbye to Wendy, who destroyed her last hope. It was good enough that she did not make a hard time for Wendy. Even if Mommy lectured her, she would not say goodbye to Wendy. "Goodbye Megan, goodbye Mommy." Luke was in a bad mood, he did not want his sister to leave or part with Mommy. And he hated Daddy for breaking his promise. After saying goodbye to Mommy, he walked upstairs. Seeing that, everyone was in a bad mood. Brian bent down to hug Megan. "I see you off." But Megan took Winnie's hand and took two steps back. She said, "Daddy, I can walk by myself, you can't hold me into car for a lifetime." Megan was disappointed to Daddy, but she did not want to leave him, and what she could do now was to be tough. Megan walked outside holding Winnie's hand, which hurt Brian. "Megan..." He called Megan, but Megan did not look back. And he was ashamed to followed out. Before they reached the car, Paul had opened the door car. "Winwin, I send you to the airport." "No need, Paul, it is inconvenient." Winnie still refused. "I have moved your luggage to this car, it will be really inconvenient if I move back. Get in or you will miss the flight." Paul said kindly. He felt embarrassed about today's situation too, everyone felt awkward in-between. But Winnie was gentle, or they could not leave quietly. Paul had moved the luggage to the car, which was an order of Brian. Brian was worried about them, so he told Paul to do that. "Get in the car, I will relieve if Paul send you. Let me know when you come back, I will ask Paul to pick you up." Rufus said seriously. He was angry that Wendy messed up with everything. "Ok then, thank you, Paul." Winnie agreed, so that everyone would be relieved. "Megan, say goodbye to Grandpa." "Goodbye Grandpa." Megan shed tears and got into the car. "Go back, Sir, don't worry about Megan and help me take care of Luke." "Get in, you don't have to worry about Luke, I can take care of him." Rufus said, so that Winnie would be relieved. He felt sad about Megan's tear and got angrier about Wendy. "I am leaving, goodbye, Sir." With that, Winnie got into the car. As the car started, Rufus could see clearly that Megan was wiping her tears. It made Rufus sad and angry. He used to be composed, but now he was furious and returned to the house. He walked straight to Wendy who was sitting on the sofa and spoke loudly. "Wendy, you are not tolerant, you are not qualified to marry into our family. It is near the new year, but you made two kids sad. Megan left in tears, you know that?" "Rufus.." "Are you happy now? Brian stays, but do you know how many people are disappointed? Why can't Brian send them? Why can't Megan stay with him before she left? Why you oppose that? You even fight that with the children, how can I give the children to you?" Rufus scolded her angrily, regardless that Brian was here, because he was disappointed at Brian too. "Rufus, Brian is really tired today..." "Don't make excuse for yourself." Rufus interrupted Wendy. "A father should meet the requirement of the children even if he is tired. You are not quailed to stop him." Rufus was angry at Brain too, how could he let Winnie and Megan leave so sadly. He was not a qualified father. "Rufus, I ..." Wendy was nervous, she had never seen Rufus being so angry. She wanted to explain so that Rufus would stop being angry, but Rufus did not give her a chance. "You don't have to explain, I know what you are thinking. Listen up, Wendy, we are not fools, don't play tricks." "I have told you what you should do, but you seemed to have heard any of it. You played tricks and you don't deserve to marry to the Bennet family." Rufus repeated that and then looked to Brian. "Brian, I won't accept such a daughter-in-law. If you get married with you, I won't not go to your wedding, if you marry her, she is not allowed to go to my house. If you marry her, we can't live in peace." "If you still want to live here, don't bright her here, or you can move out." With that, he returned to his room. He was determined to stay and only he knew that he was hurtful when he said that. It had been twenty years and his son finally came back, but now he asked him to move out. He hurt but he had to say that. He knew he went too far, but he was angry about what Wendy did, and he would say that sooner or later. Since then, he would rather say it earlier. The living room fell into silence. Wendy looked at Brian in daze and did not know what to do. "Brian, Rufus is angry with me, what should I do? I didn't mean it and I just did it for your good." Wendy said to Brian and placed her hope on Brian. However, Brian roared, which made Wendy panicked. "Didn't you hear what he said? Don't play tricks here, everyone could see that." "Wendy, you let me down again and again, you assured me again and again, but you failed to keep your words. You don't like the kids. Did you see that Megan left in tears? It is near new year, everyone wants to have a good mood, but you hurt her heart." "Luke cried too when he went upstairs. If you do that, how can they accept you?" "With what you stopped me from sending Megan? Even if Winnie was here, you can go with me, and it would not end like this, and he would not be disappointed at you." Brian was angry. At the thought that Megan and Luke were sad and disappointed at him, he felt upset. "Brian..." "Stop, don't come here again." Brian could not give up his children and his father, so he could only ask Wendy to leave.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 349 HELPLESS OF THE CHILDREN

On the way to the airport, Winnie had been appeasing Megan. She felt upset too. She was disappointed. She thought the four of them could have a chance to be in the airport, but it was destroyed. She took a breath, knowing that such situation would happen again if she did not leave. She and children had to accept it, so they had to be strong. "Megan, Daddy has his reason, and you should understand that." Winnie conformed Megan. "Why? We understand him, but why he can't understand us?" Megan seemed to be sadder, sobbing. "I can understand that he could not offer us a complete home and that we can't spend new year together, but why didn't he send us to the airport?" "Even if you have nothing to do with him, brother and I are his children, why Wendy occupies him?" Megan had been sharp-tongued, even if she was sad, she could express her thought. She was sad, but what she said was reasonable. "Megan, there are many things I can do nothing about you, you are still young and you don't understand. Daddy love you, but he has his reason..." Winnie tried to appease Megan, but it seemed that she could not convince herself, how could she convince Megan? "Mommy, I am small, but I can understand helplessness. My brother and I want a complete family, but we can't, this is our helplessness." "We always yield to Daddy, I don't know why. Mommy, even if Daddy doesn't love you, why don't you rob him? If you did so, it would not happen like this. And Brother and I will have a family and we don't need to leave for new year." Megan was wrong because they had to leave because of new year. She knew she was small and had something she did not understand, but she felt she and brother was tough and tolerable compared the kids at her age. "I am sorry, it is my fault, don't blame Daddy.

Don't put it heart after you said that, because life is long, don't pester on the trifle things." "I will do my best to give you and brother a good life. I will take you away next year and you can stay with Daddy." Winnie held Mega, who was crying sadly, into her arms. She comforted Megan with guilty. Megan was sensible. What she said was reasonable, and it stunned Winnie. If she was to comfort Megan, she must be speechless now. Megan nested in Winnie's arm. No matter what she said, Daddy could not come to send her and she could not stay for the new year. "Megan, don't cry, Daddy loves you. He could not send you to the airport, but he asked me to send you. He was worried about Mommy and you are not safe and you may cry, he asked me to take care of you." Paul who was driving the car said at this moment. What Megan said was reasonable, and he was sad to hear that. He did not expect that a kid would have that thought. Paul's words worked and it comforted Megan. "Did Daddy really ask you to send us?" Megan left Mommy's arm and asked Paul. "Yes, I did not lie to you. I still have his message and you can check it when you are in the airport." Paul said with certainty, and Megan felt better now. "Mommy, can I check Paul's phone when we get off the car?" "Yes, sure, it is your Daddy's concern." Winnie said softly, if she said no, Megan would be disappointed. Hearing that, Megan felt better, but she did not speak again, because Daddy's message only comforted her a bit. "Winwin, think over what Megan said. They had endured many things, they could not be hurt again." Paul said, because he felt sorry for Megan. Now matter what, the children did nothing wrong. The adults should pay for the growth of the children not ask the children to understand them and undertake things that they could not undertake. "Paul, I can't control that, what I can do is to love them." Winnie knew that, she took a sign before she continued. "I give a second thought before I do anything and wonder if I would cause troubles to others, but even if I think of everyone, it comes to a bad end. Regarding to kids, I could do nothing about it." Winnie did her best for the kids, but nothing had changed. "You have a tired life. It is the destiny and no one could change that. Why not relax? Don't take too much, and deal with the problem when it occurs. Even if you can't deal with it, time moves on." "Don't think too much, don't care what others think. Think over what the children said, and make them avoid the pain from adults. Paul could see the tearful face of Megan from the rear mirror. He felt sorry for Winnie's words, but he could only give his advice, and everything was up to Winnie. Winnie could understand Paul's words, but she could only decide on anything. She loved Brian and wanted to give the children a complete family, but she could not due to too many obstacles. In the suburbs villa. Brian went to Luke's room and was to comfort him. As he walked in, Luke was wiping tears sitting on the bedside, which hurt him. He sat down, held Luke's shoulder and said sorry. "Son, it is my fault, I apologize to you. I know you and Megan are sad and you don't want Mommy and Megan to leave, but now I can't do nothing about it." "Don't be sad, I will let you stay with Mommy in the next new year." Hearing that, Luke was sad and cried more sadly. "Daddy, Mommy left with Megan, I feel like I am an orphan. I feel she would never come back. Daddy, I can live without Mommy." With that, he got into Brian's arms. Brian was sad to hear that and sighed holding Luke. He did not know how to face Luke and how to reduce his pain. "Don't cry, Luke, Mommy will be back soon. She loves you, she will not let you become a orphan." Luke cried sadly and could not speak, because he was not sure if that was true or not. "If you miss Mommy, we go to the airport now." With that, he checked the time, it had one hour to go, and they could make it. Hearing that, Luke stopped crying. He looked at Brian with blurred eyes. "Can we see Mommy off now? Can we make it?" "Yes, we can if we go now." Brian got up, but Luke was depressed again. "Never mind, I don't want to be there. Megan is sad, if we go there, she will be sad again when it is time to part. Daddy, don't go." Luke was sweet, but actually he was at lost. Brian sighed again. "Good boy, you do that for sister." Brian was ashamed and felt he was not as good as Luke in this regard. The children were sensible, but he made them suffer. Finally, Luke was quiet, but Brian did not leave. Staying with him silently was a kind of comfort to Luke. Brian lied in the bed, thinking of Megan and Winnie. He wanted to make a call, but he was afraid that Megan would cry, so he texted Winnie. Brian: Have you arrived at the airport? Winnie soon replied. Winnie: Yes, we are in that departure lounge. Paul has been back. Brian: Megan left in tears, is she crying now? Winnie: No, she is playing with a kid. Don't worry, I can take care of her. While replying, she looked at Megan. Megan was quiet now, but she still felt upset. Brian: I broke my words and made you and Megan sad. He wanted to say sorry, but he deleted it, because it could not express his sense of apology. Winnie: It is ok, I should have known that. Winnie: How about Luke? What is he doing? Brian: He is doing homework. Don't worry, I can take care of him. Brian: Winwin, it is my fault that I brought Wendy here and made everyone awkward. Brian blamed himself and felt uncomfortable, but he could only endure it, because it was indeed his fault.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 350 SUSPECT VENESSA

Looking at the message, Winnie felt sour in heart. They continued to communicate. Winnie: It is not your fault but mine, I should tell you before I was there. I will not do it again. She thought the children were in the suburbs and Brian was to send her, so she went to the suburbs to have dinner with her children and Rufus. But she could not do it again. She would regard herself as an outsider, so that everyone would not be awkward. Brian: Winwin, don't stay that. I didn't expect that you would come to suburbs, it is my fault. Looking at Winnie's message, Brian felt bitter. Winnie: It is embarrassing, but it proves that Wendy is more important than me in your heart. Winnie: You agreed to send me. I was alone, you should have thought that we shall have dinner before I leave, but you only thought of Wendy, so it happened and it was a lesson to me. Winnie: I might be selfish, but for Wendy, it was her last meal with you. Winnie: Don't put it in heart, I don't blame you. It is your freedom to choose, and I just need to take care of the children. Winnie sent a few of messages, but Brian did not reply, she felt that she was neglected or it was not inconvenient for him to reply because he was with Wendy. So she sent the last message so that it would not be embarrassing. Winnie: Megan needs to go the toilet, I will take her there. After that, she put away her phone and did not want to read the message Brian sent. Brian was silent because he did not know what to say. In the bedroom of Rufus. Rufus was still in a bad mood after scolding Wendy. He stood by the window, thinking of the tearful face of Megan and the back of Luke when he walked away. He felt sad about that. He thought it was because of him. If he was not with Isobel, the Chamber family would not go bankrupt. And Winnie would not know Brian, and the children would not in pain now. It was all his fault, what should he do now, so that everyone would not be so miserable. Suddenly he thought of Venessa. He had doubts about her. Winnie did not know her mother was pregnant but got a sister suddenly, and Venessa's birthday was suspicious. Ninth months before that, he was with Isobel. Two months later, he knew that Isobel was pregnant, but Isobel told him that she had the abortion and then disappeared. If the kid had not been aborted, it would be born in March, was that coincidental? As he was thinking about that, Paul knocked at the door and came in. "I have sent Winnie and Megan to the airport and I came back after they got into the departure lounge." Paul said to Rufus, so that he would not be worried. "Did Megan cry?" Rufus asked with concern. "Yes, she cried sadly and did not stop till she got the airport." "What she said was sad." ... Paul told him what happened. Hearing that, Rufus was more dissatisfied about Wendy. "It was because Wendy, she is not sensible, or the kids would not be so sad." What Wendy did was not wise. No matter if Winnie has anything to do with Brian, she could not stop him or change anything. She would only make herself further and further away from brain by doing that." "She did not see the fact. I wonder if her brain has a problem." Rufus complained, he disliked or even hated Wendy. "Rufus, I might be gossip but I want to say it. Expect for family background, Wendy has nothing better Winnie, and she is not a match. Even if they get married, they will quarrel a lot." "If they get married, it would be tragedy, or may be worse than you in those years. Winwin has two children. For the money, Wendy would have her own child." "When you were with Isobel, you had not kids. But Wendy's kids could not get along with two children, they will be contradiction." It might recalled Rufus of the past and he as an outsider should not have comments on that, but Winnie and the kids were so poor, and Brian could do nothing about it, Paul could not control himself. "Alsa, I know. Wendy said she would not have her own child, but she would go back to her words after she gets married." Rufus knew the problem, but he had no way to figure it out. He tried to help Brian to be with Winnie, but Isobel did not allow that and he could not make decision alone. "Yes, it depends on them, but two kids were so poor." Paul said, feeling sad at the thought of Megan's words and tearful face. "It is my fault. If I did not do that in those years, it would not have happened." Rufus said with self-remorse, and his tone was low. He had never expected that his descendants would suffer. "Do you regret that you were with Isobel?" Paul asked. "No, I regretted that I chose a wrong marriage, or it would not have happened." That time with Isobel was the best time for him, he would not regret it. Hearing that, Paul was relieved, or Isobel would pay in vain. "Rufus, don't take it seriously. I think it is destiny, many people never met in B City, but Winwin and Brian met four years ago and now." "It is their destiny, since they meant to meet, it doesn't matter whose fault it is. The most importance was how the move on? Do you want them to deal with it or help them?" Paul thought the past was not important, but moving forward was important. Because the past is in the past, it had no need to have comment on it. And the future was unknown, it had no need to worry, even if you had a plan, it might not come true. "I want to help them, but Isobel did not agree, I have to have her consent, or it will be complicated." Rufus was helpless and then he thought of Venessa. "Paul, put it behind, investigate Venessa." "Venessa, what is wrong with her?" Paul was confused, it seemed have nothing to do with the affair with Brian. Seeing that Paul was confused, Rufus told him what Winnie said. "So, Venessa's identity is suspicious." Paul noticed that too. "Yes, that is why I asked you to investigate her. Are you sure that Isobel had the kid aborted?" Rufus asked with a frown. "I checked the medical record, and it said she had abortion, but she is a doctor, I think it is easy to make a false one." Paul did not believe what he had investigated years ago. The birthday of Venessa was in line with that kid, so he was suspicious. Paul continued, "I will have a check." "Ok, the faster, the better." Rufus was eager to know the result. But it was late today and tomorrow was the new year. The investigation could only be carried out after that. After breakfast in the next day, the Bennet family was picked up by Paul to the suburbs. After that, Paul and his wife went back to his hometown. The Bennet family was lively today and happy, especially Felix, he was glad to see his descendants were around. But he did not know that he was happy, because he was composed and could not be told from his surface. Rufus was glad that. In the past, he was gloomy, but not he was better with his son and grandson around. Brian was not in a good mood, but in order not to affect others' mood, he endured it. Luke was not happy thinking of Mommy and Megan. He knew it would affect everyone, but he had tried his best to cover his bad mood, but he sat there silently. "Luke, are you watching TV?" Felix walked to Luke, asked and sat down. "Yes, I am watching cartoon." Luke was mind absent, watching TV was to cover that he was in a bad mood. "Don't watch for so long, it is bad for your eyes." Felix said while stroking Luke's head, with love in eyes. "But if I don't watch TV, on one plays with me, I will be bored." Luke answered. Only he was a kid and he could only watch TV. "Ok, you got used to play with Megan, so you are bored now, right?" Felix saw through Luke's mind and noticed his gloomy mood. "Yes, I used to play with Megan. I don't feel happy if Megan is not around."