

My Twins 351

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 351 WARM JACK

When it came to Megan, Luke inevitably thought of Winnie, and he was in a bad mood. He turned to look at Felix and said sadly. "Great Grandpa, why Winnie and Megan can't come to our home for New Year? Daddy has invited them, if only Winnie and Megan could come." "I don't know. What did she tell you?" Felix looked at the child's eyes and could not give him an answer. If he had not called her or if he had invited her over instead of saying those words, perhaps she would have come. "She said that New Year is a time for family reunion, and that her presence would make us uncomfortable and affect the mood of our family. That's why she's not coming." "But I have long considered her as a family." Luke said that because he wanted his great grandpa like his mother and accept her rather than Wendy. "Is Winnie kind to you?" Felix asked Luke. "Of course, if she is not good to me, I won't live with her. Great Grandpa, do you know that before I met her, I felt that my world was gray, just like the haze weather, and I always felt that I could not breathe. But after meeting Winnie and Megan, the haze disappeared bit by bit. Now I feel like my world is all blue skies and warm eyes, and I can breathe easily." Luke said with a smile. He was happy when thought of his mother and sister. Yet all of these were typical symptoms of depression in adults. It seemed that Luke had healed from depression, and it seemed that he cannot leave Winnie. "Good, then live wither. As long as you are happy, I am happy." However, Felix was tangled. Luke needed Winnie, Brian also needed Winnie. But the Bennet family needed more than talented people like Winnie. After chatting with his great grandfather, Luke seemed to be in a better mood and called Jack to the living room to play with him. "Uncle, help me fix this toy, it is broken." Luke took a toy and handed it to Jack. Jack seemed to have no patience, took a perfunctory look at it and then returned it to Luke. "I will buy you a new one." "But I am bored, I want to play now. Megan is not here, only this toy can accompany me." Luke protested. He had just found the fun, but his uncle made him upset. However, when Jack heard the name of Megan, he suddenly became interested. "Ok, I will help you fix it." Jack fixed it inadvertently, and then asked some questions about Megan and Winnie. "Megan are good to you, right? How about Winwin, are you good with her?" "Yes, if she is not good to me, how could I live with her?" Luke just said that with his great grandfather. He did not know the purpose of Jack and he answered proudly. "Since she is good to you, should I thank her?" Jack asked slyly. "Daddy should thank her, and you..." Luke did not know Jack's intention, but he felt it was enough that Daddy thanked Mommy, but Jack interrupted him. "Yes, your Daddy should thank her, but I am a Bennet too, and I should thank her too. Luke, how about this? You take Winnie out some day, and I invite you to a meal and take you to the amusement part and buy you a lot of toys. In this way, I thank Winnie, Megan and you will have fun." Jack lured Luke, trying to ask Winnie out. "Well..." Luke thought for a while. "You better ask Winnie, I can't make decision for you. If you want to thank her, you should ask her out, I can't help." Luke refused and did not want to get involved. Jack was helpless, but he was anger to make it happen. "I have asked her out, but she refused. So I can't thank her. If you ask her out, she would not say no." Hearing that, Luke did not want to help. "Since then, I can't help. You can go to Daddy, and ask him to help me." Luke said. "Your Daddy is busy, I can't bother him with this trifle things..." "Daddy is not busy and he is just behind you, you tell him." Luke looked at Jack who was surprised with a wry smile. Hearing that, Jack looked back and only to find that Brian was standing behind him with a gloomy face.

And he felt cold in his eyes. "You eavesdropped on me, it is rude." Jack took back his timid sight of light and looked at Luke. "It was you did not hear me. I had loud steps, but you did not pay attention me, so you can't hear me even if I have a loudspeaker." Brian said coldly. If it were not new year, he would give Jack a lesson. "Brother, you are joking." Jack gave a bitter smile. "Luke, go to Great Grandpa, I want to talk with Uncle." Brian had nothing to do now and he could chat with Jack. Luke left and Jack want to walk away too. "Brother, I still have work to do, I will talk to you some day when I am available." Jack got up, but Brian walked to him and pressed his shoulders. "What do you need to do today? I want to talk to you." Jack felt Brian was pressing his shoulder with force and he said. "Ok, ok, put your hand away, I talk to you." Brian took back his hand and sat next to Jack. "I know you like beauty, but forget about Winnie." Brian went to the point. He wanted to tell Jack to stay away from Winnie. "Brother, you don't have to be so straightforward. I like beauty, and Winnie is a beauty, I don't feel anything wrong." Jack said cheering himself up, looking elsewhere. And he dared not looked into Brian's gloomy eyes. "I said no. She is my woman, you can't like her." Brian said in a domineering way. Jack had better given up his idea, or he would be in troubles. "Your woman? Haven't you broken up? Brother, since you have broken up, leave her alone." Jack did not know the relationship between Brian and Winnie, but he did not deny that he had feelings for Winnie and he wanted to be her boyfriend. "We don't, we are still together, so give up." Brian said, gritting teeth. If no one was home and it was new year, he would have beaten Jack. Jack was surprised to hear that. He looked up to Brian but was frighten by his eyes and then took back his eyes. "I..." "You have no chance to think of it, give it up, or I will transfer you to the branch office and you can't never come back." Brian said coldly and walked away, leaving Jack alone. "You are threatening me, you tyrant..." Jack whispered, for fear that Brian would hear him. Had they had broken up? Didn't Brain have Wendy? What was going on? Jack was confused, but he had no one to ask, so he planned to ask his colleague when he was back to office. After lunch, Brian took Luke upstairs to have a nap. Luke and Brian lied in the bed, but they could not fall asleep. Both of them missed Winnie and Megan. "Daddy, I miss Mommy and Megan." Luke said in a low voice. "Me too." Brian answered. "Daddy, Mommy will be happy if she knows that we miss her. She must have lunch at this hour, let's call her." Luke got up excitedly, got the phone and lied down again and made a call to Winnie. Soon it was got through, but it was Megan answered the phone. "Daddy, Brother, I miss you." Megan said excitedly. "I miss you too, come back." Luke was glad. "Megan, are you happy? Have you had lunch?" Brian said with a smile. He missed Megan so much, especially on this special day. "Yes, I am happy to see Daddy and Brother. We had lunch just now and Mommy is washing dishes." Megan answered, looking at the phone. "Ask Mommy to come, I miss her." Luke said. Megan then turned her head. "Mommy, come over, Brother wants to see you." A moment later Winnie showed up in the video. Winnie came with a smile, but her smile froze when she saw Brian. Megan had forgotten the sadness, but she had not. Because she cared about it, she could not forget it.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 352 VIDEO CALLING

Winnie felt upset, but she did not show it and gave a smile instead. In Winnie's View, she would rather not mention it since it was useless to speak it out. "Luke, I miss you." Winnie said with a smile "I miss you too, Mommy, when will you come back?" Luke hoped that Mommy and Megan could come back right now. "We will be back in two days, don't worry, Luke, listen to Daddy." Winnie wanted to go back too, but if she went back, she and Megan would be lonely. "I am good, you can ask Daddy." Luke felt Mommy was angry at Daddy because what happened yesterday. "Luke is good, you don't have to worry about him? How are you and Megan?" Brian said. He felt that Winnie did not pay attention to him but only Luke. "We are good." Winnie said in a plain tone. "Good." "Winwin, when will you come back? Have you booked the flight?" Brian asked, he wanted to see them too. "I will go back as soon as possible. Daenerys was to give birth, and will go back to her. I will try to book a flight these days." Winnie said indifferently. If not Daenerys was to give birth, she would go back after the vacation, because no was to pick her up. "Mommy, come back tomorrow, I miss you. I will follow you to anywhere when you come back, you can't leave me alone again." Luke felt afraid that Mommy would leave him again. "You have Daddy with you, you are not alone." Braid said. How could his son neglect him? Though he wanted to follow Winnie too. "But I miss Mommy. Daddy has Wendy, and you will not be lonely, but Mommy only has me and sister." Luke said. He knew he was not alone, but felt that Daddy belongs to Daddy. "All right, Luke, I promise you I will be back soon." Winnie chimed in, or someone would be unhappy if it continued. It was new year, she did not want anyone have a bad mood. Hearing that, Brain felt uncomfortable and sorry for kids. He did not give them sense of security, otherwise Luke would have not said that. The conversation was over, and Brian would reflect himself and try to be a good father. "Winwin, is your relative's house big? Is it big enough for so many to live?" Brian asked. "We do have many people. Venessa has a classmate lives here. Megan and I live in the hotel and Aunt lives here, it is lively." There were many people and it was indeed inconvenient. And Venessa and she found a place to stay, so as not to cause troubles for her relatives. Her relative was good to them, but Winnie felt she was an outsider. She could stay in A City for new year, but she wanted to stay with Venessa and her aunt, because they were family. She did not know why her aunt insisted to go back to A City. She might miss relative or avoid something. "Good. You don't have to book a ticket, I will book one when you come back." Brian said, but he felt bitter. New year is for gathering, but Winnie had to live in hotel. "Ok, thank you." Winnie was polit. Though it sounded strange, but she felt she should say that. Brian was silent for a moment hearing that. They had just parted for less than 24 hours, but they were further away. He could not let her leave him again. "Winwin, your game will be launched tonight, right? I wish you can have a good performance." "Mommy will sell a lot." Luke said excitedly. "Thank you, I will do my best." "You chat, I need to help with the food." With that, she walked away. She was in her relative's home, and they were busy, she could not only chat. Though her relative was ok with that, but she did not feel right. After Winnie left, Megan took the phone and walked to grandaunt's room. Inside, she could say anything she wanted, because no one was around. "Daddy, why didn't you ask Mommy stay for the new year. Mommy is busy here than she was at work." Seeing that Mommy helped to housework, Megan felt distressed. Hearing that, Brian was speechless. "I am sorry, I did not do it well." Briand said, he dare not promise his children, if he could not keep his promise, it would hurt the children. "Daddy, why you always said you are sorry. Since you know you are sorry, don't make mistake." Megan was disappointed, Daddy always did things wrong, and she could not have hope now. Brain was speechless again. He felt sorry for the children and Winnie. It was the dinner for the new year, every one behaved well at the table and dare not say something wrong. Expect for Thomas' wife was woman, they were all men at the table, but Felix did not say anything about it. After dinner, they watched TV in the living room, waiting for the clock for a brand new year. After a while, Felix asked Brian to come to his study. They sat in the study and chatted. "How do you get along with you Dad recently?" "The same, nothing changed." Brian said, because he had been thinking of Winnie and Megan. "Take you time, it will be fine. You are father and son after all." "Brian, look at our family, Jack is younger than you, but the three generations of our family are single, it is not good." Felix said, he wanted Brian to get married as soon as possible and Rufus could have a girlfriend. Brian was silent, and Felix continued. "It has been twenty years since your mother died and your father has been single. I felt it was enough. You have grown up now and you should understand your father.” “What do you want to say, Grandpa.” Brian asked. He could not control his own feeling, but understanding and acceptance were different. “Your father is in his sixties, do you want him to be single forever. He is old and lonely, at least he can have someone to talk to.” Felix said, he wanted Brian to accept that, but Brian frowned. “I have moved back to the suburbs, he is not alone.” Brian refused. He thought that his mother died because of his father and his father should be single forever for his mother. “You are his son and what you communicate is different. You have Luke, but you love other women. It is the same.” Felix referred to Winnie. Brian was silent hearing that. He could understand that both the young man and old man needed a relationship, but how could he accept an outsider if he could not accept his father? “If you want that, just go ahead. I can’t accept it and I will move out from the suburbs.” No one could stop his grandfather from doing anything, so he could solve it in other ways. Hearing that, Felix felt it a threat, but it worked. “Ok, we can put it behind. Let’s talk about you. How is your blind date? If it is ok, get married as soon as possible. I can be relieved if you have a family.” “We stayed for a while, the woman left first because she had something to deal with. I don’t have any impression on her. We agreed to meet again after New Year and see if we can have a relationship.” Brian said, or he would have another blind date. He continued, “Grandpa, marriage is not a trifle, we have to know each other before we get married. I have many things to deal with and the kid has to accept that, and I need to explain to Wendy, so give me some time, don’t worry.” “Ok, but you have to get rid of Wendy, I am disappointed at her.” Felix reminded Brian again. He disliked Wendy. At the very beginning, he thought she did not have a good family background, now she had a good family background, but her character was not good and she was not smart.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 353 LAUNCH OF THE GAME

Brian felt sorry that he would break up with Wendy, since they had been waiting for each other for four years. Although he was disappointed at Wendy now, but she was the woman that he had loved, it was not so easy to break up with her. As Brian was silent, Luke suddenly burst in with excitement, holding a tablet in his hand. “Daddy, Winnie’s game is on sale. Let’s see if we can support her and buy an account.” “Let me see.” Brian was excited too and took the tablet. The game had been launched and it sold fast. Seeing the increasing data, Brian was nervous. Since he took over the Bennet Group, he had many cooperations, but he had never been so nervous. “Daddy, it is amazing, if we don’t buy it now, we can’t have a good account, Daddy, buy it now.” Luke was professional and he knew what the data meant. According to the speed, it would be sold out. Hearing that, Brian hurried to buy an account. “We got it...” Luke was excited about it and took the tablet. “Daddy, I will continue to observe it, you continue to chat.” With that, he sat next to Brian. From the moment Luke came in, Felix was confused and did not know what they were talking about. He was old now. “What are you talking about?” He asked with curiosity. “Winnie had designed and developed an online game again and it was launched today.” Brian answered, looking at the rising data. “Does it earn money?” Felix only cared about money. “Yes, it earns a lot. If the plays are a lot, it will continue to earn money. If it lasts for three days, it could earn billions.” Brian only mentioned the interest rather than the risk, because he knew his grandfather only had interest in money. “Is that good? I believe Winnie’s ability, but she doesn’t seem to have cost.” Felix showed interest in it. “It was the Johnson Group that invested. They cooperated to develop this game, if it continues, the Johnson Group will earn a lot." Brian overstated the benefit deliberately, actually, billions of yuan was not that much to Johnson Group, but it was a lot for Winnie. "Why didn't she cooperate with you?" Felix asked and felt the Bennet Group had missed an opportunity to earn money. Hearing that, Brian raised his head and looked at Grandpa. "You asked me to stay away from her, so I didn't that know she had a good project." Brian said, and wanted Felix to pay attention to Winnie. She had not a rich family, but with her ability, it was not hard for her to make difference in business. "Winnie did the promotion herself, if it sells well, her will earn her reputation, and there will be tons of companies come to her. She will make a good fortune." Hearing that, Felix was jealous. It was equal to that the Bennet Group have given up the chance to the Johnson Group and the Johnson Group would beyond the Bennet Group one day. Was Winnie that great? If Winnie made a good fortune in the further, would he regret that he refused Brian to marry her? "Business and personal affairs are different. If Winnie has a good project in the future, you should seize it in time and don't give the chance to others." Felix was rational, because there were many unknown things. "If I kept contacting with Winnie, we will have an affair." Brian wanted to earn more chance. His grandfather did not know what was going on with him and Winnie, so it would be hope. And it was possible that Grandpa would accept Winnie. "If you didn't have an affair, it would not be so complicated." Felix had known something and could guessed some. For now, he could not get over Winnie and Winnie had told him that she liked Brian. Brian did not continue that topic but changed the subject. "Since you have that thought, I have something to tell you." "What?" Felix became serious. "Winnie had developed an anti-fraud software that can be transplanted in the phone, and our company has been developing it, but Winnie has succeeded, so we decided to cooperate with her." "Ok, good." Felix agreed. "But I asked Winnie and her assistant to work in our company till the software is launched." Brian wanted to have his grandpa's consent, so that Winnie could work at ease. Felix frowned first and then gave a reply after a while. "Ok, but don't affect others." Felix sure would support a good project, but he had to remind her, lest he made a mistake. As Brian was happy secretly, Luke said to Brian. "Daddy, it is sold out." Brian looked at the tablet and was shocked. It was so fast to be sold out and many people complained that they could not buy one and they asked when they could buy. So he did not need to help. Winnie was excited too, she was happy and moved seeing that her game was so popular. Everyone was talking happily at the table, and Winnie's success made them happier. They congratulated on Winnie excitedly. "Sister, you are great, you are our pride." Venessa said and kissed on the face of Winnie. "Mommy, you are so awesome." Megan was happy. She did not understand how much the game would earn, but as long as Mommy was happy, she was happy. Isobel had a smile on face, though she said nothing. She knew Winnie's ability and she had paid much for the game. The fruit today was expected. Winnie was wearing a smile too. "Thank you, I am really happy about that. It is my first time to develop games, and it is my first time to do business, so it is special for me. I had expectation about this game, and it doesn't let me down." Winnie said. Her phone rang and it was Leo. She gave a bright smile. "You eat first, I need to pick up the phone." Winnie got up and walked to aunt's room. Winnie asked Leo in disbelief. "Has it really been sold out? Am I wrong or is there any problem with the data?" "It is real." Leo said with a smile. It was normal that Winnie did not believe it because he did not expect that either. "I can't believe it, it was sold out so soon. I feel like dreaming, and it is so unreal." Winnie was touched and even wanted to cry. She had got her primary success. "I have the same feeling too, but I am ok. It is out of my expectation, Winwin, we can make a lot." "Winwin, let's sell the second batch of accounts, or the buyers will lost interest if they wait too long. Leo suggested. "Ok, do what you said, I am in charge of the game." Winnie believed Leo's promotion, and it was right that he insisted that she made the promotion. "Ok, I will give the order to sell the second batch." "By the way, happy new year." Leo paused before he continued. "Happy new year, I hope that we make it better next year." "Happy new year." Winnie said with a smile. With Leo's trust, she felt the joy of success. "Isn't Emily with you?" Winnie asked. "No. she is with her parents and I am with my parents." Leo gave a bitter smile. "Why you spend new year separately?"

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 354 A SURPRISE

Winnie did not understand that why Emily was not with Leo. "Her relatives are back and my relatives are back, so we decided to stay at home separately." Leo did not want to lie to Winnie, but since he had lied to her, he did not want it to be exposed so soon. "Ok, when you get married, you have the chance to be together, and she should company with her parents too. But you should visit her family." Winnie was thoughtful and remind Leo, for fear that he would forget that. "I know, my mother had told me that for many times, and you are more nagging than my mother." Leo said jokingly, but it was hard for him. He had not told his parents that he had broken up with Emily, so he had to visit Emily's family, but Emily's parents had known that they had broken up, if he still went to her home, he would be driven out, he thought. "I just said one sentence, well, I have to have dinner with my family now, bye." Winnie hung up and phone happily and took a long sigh. After dinner, Winnie took Megan back to the hotel. Megan had played for a day and she was tired, so she fell asleep soon. After taking a bath, Winnie lied in back and found it was three in the morning. Seeing that, she gave a smile and was to turn off her phone before she went to bed. As she was to touch the key, she got a message from Brian. "Have you fallen asleep? Congratulate on your good achievement in the new year." Seeing that, Winnie felt warm in heart. Since the game was launched, she wished Brian would call or text. She was satisfied, though it was late. And that was why she gave a bitter smile just now. As she was to reply, Brian sent another message. "Happy new year, Winnie. You are the first person I said happy new year." Seeing that, Winnie felt touched. She got tears in eyes, everyone could say that, but the person was important. "Happy new year!" Winnie replied. She hoped he could be happy forever. Brian did not expect that Winnie would reply, he thought she had fallen asleep or was busy. He could say happy new year to her in the next day, but he kept thinking about it, so he sent the message. Seeing that she replied, he was excited and replied. "You are up. Where are you?" "In the hotel, Megan has fallen asleep and I just lied down on bed." Winnie replied. There were fireworks outside, but Winnie was quiet. "Are you going to sleep now? Are you sleepy and tired?" Hearing that she had lied down on bed, he thought Winnie must be tired and did not want to bother her. "Yes, I am tired." Winnie was indeed tired after a busy day. She had many relatives and she had not place to rest. She felt that she had interrupted the peace of her relatives, she was tired mentally and physically. Looking at the message, she was disappointed, she wanted to chat with Brain even if she was tired. "Goodbye." Winnie said and then tuned off the phone before she went to bed. Seeing that, Brian was relived and soon feel asleep. But he was waken up a nightmare. At 10 in the morning, he woke up by a nightmare. He sat on the bed in disbelief. It was the same dream. The car did not run over him, and he was pushed away. So there was another person in the dream. Who was she? Brian tried to remember the woman he saw in the dream, yes, he was sure it was a woman. He saw her back, which looked familiar, but he could not figure out where he had met her. As he was trying to recall that, Luke opened the door and walked in. "Why don't you sleep more?" Brian asked with concern. "Daddy, I miss Mommy." Luke said and walked to the bed. Brian felt sorry to hear that. He picked Luke up and let him sit on his legs. "I miss Mommy too. What should we do?" Brian asked. "Book a ticket to Mommy and ask her to come back now." Luke said. He could not have a sound sleep without Mommy around. "But Mommy is on vacation, she should take rest. Who about this?" They made a plan. Megan and Winnie was in sleep, and did not wake up till noon probably they were tired and no one was there to interrupt them. Then Winnie took Megan to have lunch in relative's home. There were more people to have lunch, her relative's daughter and daughter-in-law were back. So the house became crowded. Winnie was busy as yesterday, though her relative asked her to take a rest, she felt she should help. After lunch, Megan said she was sleepy. To make her have a better sleep, Winnie took her back to the hotel. As Megan was sleeping, Winnie began to reply the messages. Then she heard the door bell rang. She thought it was Venessa and was afraid that Megan would wake up, so she hurried to open the door. But it was two men. Looking at Luke and Brian, Winnie was surprised, feeling like a daydream. It was the new year and they should be with Chairman, why were they there? "Mommy, what are you looking at? I am your son." Luke said excitedly and hugged Winnie. "You..." "Why are we here, right?" Brian said with a smile. He knew Winnie did not expect that. "Yes, why don't you stay at home?" Winnie was confused. "Daddy and I miss you and Megan, so we are here." Luke answered. "How about your family?" Winnie asked with concern. "Can you let me go in first? I want to see Megan." Brian said. Winnie let them in and reminded them that Megan was sleeping. Brian walked to the bedside lightly, looking at Megan who was sleeping, he kissed on her face. But it woke Megan up. As Megan opened her eyes, she saw Daddy, and hugged him immediately. "Daddy, it is Daddy." Megan was happy to see him. "And me, I am here to see you too." Luke said with jealousy. He got to the bed and said. Megan let go of Brian and hugged Luke. She felt she was the happiest at this moment, because Daddy and brother were around. They were excited. "Daddy, are you here to spend new year with us?" Megan sat in the arms of Brian. "Yes, I could not stay with you yesterday, so I came today." Brian kissed on Megan's hair with love in his eyes. "How did you get here, it is hard to buy tickets. Does your family know you are here?" Winnie asked. She promised Chairman that she would spend new year in the Bennet family, but if Brian was here, it had no difference. If the Chairman knew that, she would be blamed. "Yes, we got out after dinner with Grandpa. I lied to him that I took Luke to suburbs to sleep and told him that we would not have dinner with him, and we came here." Brian explained, but Winnie was surprised. "And you arrived so soon?" Winnie felt incredible. It took two hours to be here by plane and it was hard to get a ticket. "Daddy drove a plane, sure it is fast." Luke said proudly.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 355 TWO CHILDREN COMPROMISE

Winnie felt that Luke was joking, and could not believe that this was the truth. "Drive a plane?" "Yes, Daddy's plane. Dad flew here. Daddy has a pilot's license. Mommy, I want to fly planes, too, when I grow up." Luke was excited. He did not expect that Daddy could fly a plane and it was the first time he saw that. "Daddy is awesome. I want to learn to fly a plane when I grow up." Megan did not doubt her brother's words, but directly believe that Daddy had such an ability. "Really?" Winnie asked, looking at Brian. "Of course. Didn't I tell you I could fly a plane? Just because I know how to fly, I told you that there is no need to book the ticket. When you are in a hurry, I will fly over to pick you up. How can I pick you up without a pilot's license?" Brian answered Winnie's doubts with confidence and certainty. Without this skill, how could he get to A City so soon? "Where is the plane parked? How did you know I lived here? Venessa told you?" Winnie was confused and had no idea why Brian was there. "The plane is sitting on the roof of the hotel, and as to how I knew you are here... Did you forget I have a tracking app on my phone? It shouldn't be a problem finding you. And this is my hotel. I don't have to ask Venessa which room you are in." Brian said proudly. He felt lucky that he had not deleted the tracking software in the phone, otherwise it would not be so easy to lock the target. Winnie finally understood why Brian appeared so soon. "So, it seems that wherever I go, you can find me." Winnie was depressed. She should find an opportunity to delete the tracking software in Brian's mobile phone, or remove the relationship between tracking and being tracked. Otherwise he would find her out one day if she did sneak away with the children. "Don't worry about it, Mommy. I am so happy to have Daddy and brother here. We can spend the new year together." "Daddy, we will have dinner tonight, right?" Megan was very happy and did not want Mommy's problem affect her excitement at this moment. "Yes, we will have a meal together. I have booked a table of delicious food for us. They will send to the room and we will have reunion dinner tonight." This was a promise, because he was confident that he could make it. "I agree, but this room is too small for four of us." Luke came up with a very important question. Looking at the bed and the room, Brian felt it small too. But just as he was about to solve the problem, Winnie spoke first. "Aren't you going back tonight? Luke, Great Grandpa will be unhappy if he knows." "No, don't worry about it. It is enough to have companied them all day yesterday and another morning today. I can't have some privacy during the New Year?" Brian's tone was very firm, in his view, he had way to deal with grandpa. "Well, your mommy has too many questions. Let's not think about it. Luke said the room is small, I will change a big one." Brian picked up the phone and was to make a call, but Winnie grabbed his mobile phone. Then she looked at them with a very serious expression. "Luke, go to dad, I want to talk to you." "If you agree with me, we change big room, or Luke goes back to B City with Daddy." "Mommy, can't we put it off tomorrow?" "Mommy, you are so serious, you make me feel nervous." The children protested mischievously, but it was of no use to Winnie. "Do what I say. I must say it today." Winnie knew that the whole family was supposed to relax at New Year without worrying about anything. However, this was an opportunity to make Megan and Luke compromise, and she could not miss it. Brian called Luke to his side seeing that Winnie insisted. "Now, we three will listen and do our best." As the atmosphere finally quieted down, Winnie walked to them and said in a low voice. "Luke, Megan, I know it is cruel to you, but sooner or later I will tell you and you must accept it. In this case, we should be generous and help others. We should not embarrass others because of us." Winnie tentatively said, she was afraid that it would cause the opposite effect if she said directly. "What do you want to tell us? We're young but we've been through a lot of things." Megan wanted Mommy to end the topic as soon as possible. "Actually I want to talk about Daddy and Wendy. Because of your opposition, the date of their marriage..." "Winwin, do you have to talk about this now?" Brian interrupted Winnie with a dark voice. "Yes, and I will have to say it sooner or later." Winnie insisted and continued to say. "Daddy and Auntie's wedding date has been put off for a long time because of you, it is time for you to give your own attitude. And you've always been unkind to Wendy, which makes it harder for mommy and daddy to be in between." "You have to see the truth, you have to understand the helplessness of Daddy and Mommy. Luke, Megan, let Daddy get married with Wendy." Winnie was said and only she knew how difficult it was to say that. There were few people in this world who could push their lover to others with their own hands. She knew that the children would be sad, that the children could not accept it, that the children could have a complete family, but it was the destiny. Both children were upset to hear that and said nothing. They had been making scene for so long and preventing it for so long, but it seemed to have no effect at all. They still could not prevent Daddy and Wendy from getting married. The atmosphere in the room froze for a moment. The children did not speak, but they did not cry. They were tough. The two children had their own ideas, thinking of Mommy was embarrassed in the middle. Daddy never promised to them and let them down again and again, so they lost confidence. "OK, Daddy, you marry Wendy, we won't stop you." Megan said first. She gave up sadly. Her compromise meant that they gave up the right to have a complete family. "I agree with Megan, but I have one request. Since Daddy chose Wendy, you should not love Mommy any more, and let Mommy get married and have a family too." Luke said. Now it didn't matter what he thought or what Megan thought. Daddy and Mommy should at least be equal. Daddy would have his own family, while Mommy was single, so Mommy must have the right to make free choices. "I have one request." Megan said and looked up at Brian. "Daddy, I want to be with my brother and my mommy forever. I'll stay with them even if Mommy marries." Megan's attitude was clear that she could not part with her brother, because they were dependent on each other. Two children felt relieved, although they gave Daddy to others, although they could not have a complete family, although they were sad, at least their parents would not be embarrassed. "Well, thank you. Rest assured that I will be with you all your lives." Winnie knew the feeling of no parents, knew that the two children were said, so she would not leave them. In the future, no matter how hard it would be, she would stay with her two children. "I also want to accompany them all my life, Winwin, I..." "I became a man who abandoned his children and only cared about his own happiness", but he didn't say these words. "I know what you're trying to say, and I understand. Go back and tell Wendy the children accept that you will get married." Winnie forced out a faint smile. She had already done her work and it was their own business whether to get married or not. "Don't you want a larger room? I'm going to see if there are any." Since the children gave her consent, she had to accede to the children's request. Winnie was about to go out, but Brian stopped her. "Winwin, I'll just make a phone call. Don't go out. Pack your and Megan's luggage." Brian twirled his eyebrows as if he hadn't come out of his low mood yet. He had already told Winnie that the problem was not with the children, but with his grandfather. Why did Winnie insist on telling the children? Within half an hour, the family of four had moved into the hotel's superior suite, several times larger than the previous room and larger than Winnie's home. "It's better here. We can eat and play together." The two children had a better mood now, seeing such a spacious and luxurious room. "Well, it's quite big." Winnie wondered how much the luxurious room would cost for a night. The environment was really good, but it was really super expensive for an office worker like her. Her consumption concept was different from Brian's, which might be the real gap between them. They were not at the same level, not in contact with a circle of friends, and they would never be able to be together.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 356 MY EX-BOYFRIEND

Megan said, "Mommy, tonight we are not going to have dinner with relatives, have you told grandaunt?" Megan reminded Winnie, and she said to Megan, "Megan, Don't tell grandaunt and aunt that Daddy and brother are here." "Why?" Megan thought that the reunion of the family was worth showing off, and wanted to tell the family how Daddy flied a plane, but Mommy refused her to say anything about it. "Because they do not like me to be with Daddy. If she knows, she will scold me." Winnie knew that she could not deceive Megan, so she could only tell her the truth. Her aunt did not agree her to contact with Brain, she did not know why, but she felt it was necessary to conceal it, so as to avoid unnecessary troubles. "Am I that bad? They all hate me." At this moment, Brian walked in and heard Winnie's words to the children. "They don't hate you, they just don't want me to have connection with you." Winnie explained, but this explanation seemed to be meaningless, because even if there was no opposition between them, they could not be together. Sooner or later, they would have to go their separate ways, because they had to take different roads. "Do you think it's possible for us to separate? We have two children now. Does your aunt think we can make it?" Brian asked in a low voice. He was in a bad mood about the last topic and Winnie's word made him sad. "One day we'll do it and we can be like this forever. We'll be sensible in the long run." Winnie answered indifferently. Luke had told him not to like her, so they would become strangers sooner or later. Children were not an excuse, not a cause nor a result. There were many people in the world who lived together for ten or twenty years still became strangers in the end, let alone that they had no experience at all. Now Winnie believed that time was the best curer and it could cure all heart disease. As long as her heart did not reach the point of terminal disease, one day it would be healed. Listening to Winnie's words, Brian felt sad inexplicably. He didn't want to be sensible and did not want Winnie's love to be diluted by time. Seeing that Brian no longer spoke, Winnie made a call her to aunt and found an excuse that he would go to relative's today. Then she went to bed on the pretext of rest, leaving her two children to Brian B City Leo had been thinking if he should go to Emily. He still thought about Emily all the time. He didn't know how to face her parents, and he didn't know whether Emily would meet him. He lied quietly in his bed, thinking of Emily. Looking at the pendant that Emily gave him in hand, he felt he liked it. But then he suddenly thought of a reason to see Emily. He then made a call to Emily. He made the first call, but for a long time no one answered. Leo was worried that Emily deliberately refused to answer his phone. But Leo still insisted and made a second call. He waited for a long time again, but fortunately Emily picked up the phone. "Why do you call you? Do you want me to help you on New Year's Day...No, Winwin is not in B City. Why should I help you?" Emily spoke very loudly and she seemed to be in a noisy place. "You're not at home?" Leo frowned and asked. It sounded like she was in a bar. "Why will stay at home during New Year? I gotta go if you have nothing to say." Emily was to hang up the phone and Leo was anxious. "I have, I want to give you back the pendant." Leo could only use it as an excuse to see Emily, and she seemed to be drunk, he wanted to see her. "Pendant? Oh, you should have given it back. Either you go to my house and drop it in front of my house, or you come over. I'm at the bar." Emily hung up the phone immediately after saying that. It seemed that he did not like the pendant after all, just like her, no matter what she did, she could not get into his heart. "Come on... Get drunk before you go home..." Emily needed alcohol very much at the moment to paralyze her emotional nerve, so that she could get over Leo earlier. It was New Year, the traffic on the street was less than usual. Leo sped up the car, wishing to find Emily as soon as possible and stop her from drinking and get her away from the noisy bar. Emily was in a private room. Leo pushed the door open and went in. He saw many people inside and the air was filthy, the music was loud. Seeing such a turbid scene, Leo frowned, especially when he saw Emily taking a big gulp of wine. Without saying hello to anyone, Leo went directly to Emily and bent down to take her hand and try to pull her away. Only then did Emily discover Leo's existence. "Here you are, let me introduce you." "Attention everyone, I'd like you to meet someone. This man standing next to me is my...boyfriend..." Emily was sober, but it was too noisy for others to hear her clearly. But her words got their interest. "Oh... your boyfriend is so handsome. Why didn't you tell us? Emily, are you afraid of him being robbed by others?" At this time everyone's attention was on Leo. The men were jealous and the women were staring at him. "Stop, I'm not done. What are you doing? Listen to me. He is my ex-boyfriend." Emily said with a smile, deliberately emphasizing the word "ex". But she knew that the smile on her face was disguised, and in fact she felt very bitter. "Ex-boyfriend, are you sure? Don't blame we flirt with him then." One of the women laughed more loudly than the music, which drowned out Emily's next sentence. "Yes, I am sure, but you haven't got a chance, he has --" Before Emily finished her words, she was dragged out by Leo. Outside, Emily shook off Leo's hand. "Don't touch me, we are not boyfriend and girlfriend, other people will misunderstand." Emily kept her head down when she spoke, probably she did not want to look to Leo, or she was drunk. "I send you home. Why don't you stay at home to accompany you parents?" Leo again took Emily's hand and wanted to take her away. But Emily refused. "My parents don't stop me. Why do you care? Have I disgraced you? No, we have nothing to do with each other, I can't disgrace you." "What are you doing here? Come on, say it and leave. I have asked many friends out, it is rude to leave them there." Emily was really drunk and even forgot what Leo was doing. But before Leo said anything, she remembered. "Oh, right, you come to return my pendant. You should have given it back to me. How can my cheap stuff be worthy of your noble status as president? It is not as good as the handmade one." "Give it back to me." Emily reached out her hand and finally looked up at Leo. However at the moment Leo twisted eyebrow and his handsome face was cold. "Give it to me, don't you want to give it back to me?" See Leo standing there motionlessly, Emily urged. "It is in the car. Come with me to get it." Leo finally spoke, but his voice was full of anger. "You are annoying, it is just a pendant that you don't want it. I don't want it back, just throw it away." Emily felt that Leo was fooling her, but now she did not want to be fooled by him. Emily said and turned to the room, but was stopped by Leo. Before she had figured out what was going on, she had been picked up. "You, put me down, I had a blind date, I have a boyfriend. If he sees it, he'll misunderstand it." She was not as strong as Leo, and she could only say so. Leo was upset hearing that. He did not it was joking or serious. How could she have a boyfriend so soon? Although he felt uncomfortable, he took her away. When he passed the bar, he paid the bill. When he put Emily into the car, he felt relieved. But looking at her red face, Leo felt distressed. As he gave her alcohol deterrent, she thought it was wine and drank it up. "This is your car, isn't it? I know that pendant. Give mine back to me, I will give it to my boyfriend. If he immediately hangs it on the car, it proves that he is not using me, if he put me off like you, I will immediately break up with him. I will never be cheated again." Emily was lying in the back seat. When she drank alcohol deterrent, she got up and saw that dazzling pendant. Emily's words made him feel distressed. She stretched out her hand to him. To her surprise, Leo did not speak or hand it over. Instead, he got off the car. Before Emily realized what was happening, the door of the back seat was opened and Leo got in. Emily was in a daze but Leo pulled her and she directly lied on the legs of Leo. "Did you really have a blind date?" "Of course, we agreed to start dating after the New Year, so you have to keep your distance from me now."

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 357 AN INVOLUNTARY KISS

Emily tried to sit up, but Leo pushed her down several times. "I told you to keep your distance. Why are you doing that? Leo, what is wrong with you? We seem to have nothing to do with each other. What are you doing?" Emily got up angrily despite the opposition of Leo and then accused Leo. She felt upset and had heartache. "I don't want the pendant back. It is disgusted, even if I take it back, it loses its value." Emily was heartbroken seeing that Leo was silent. She did not understand his behavior at the moment. If he did not explain, she would not have random guess, after all, she was cheated once. Leo still did not speak, Emily became speechless, directly pushed open the door to get off. She would not like this man any more. Emily wanted to return to the bar and play with friends, but as she got off, she was pulled by Leo. As she turned around, Leo kissed on her lips. Emily was stunned. She didn't know what was going on. She didn't know how to refuse. Leo did not expect he would do that that. Seeing that Emily was to leave, he was anxious and did not know how as make her stay. At The moment he reached out to pull her back, he couldn't help kissing her. By kissing, he found that Emily's lips were so sweet, and the feeling of kissing Emily was amazing. Leo's heartbeat accelerated, the blood flow accelerated, the beating of every cell in his body accelerated. He could not believe the reaction of his body. It was the feeling of love. Emily was kissed to be paralysed. As she was to suffocate, she suddenly became sensible. How could they kiss? Emily suddenly pushed Leo away and got tears in eyes. She was free and breathing fresh air again, but her first reaction was to raise her hand to slap on Leo's face. "Have you gone too far? We broke up. Do you know what you did? When we were together, you even deliberately avoided holding hands, and now you regret it? Do you regret not hugging me, not kissing me, not sleeping with me?" Emily was stubborn and tough. She got tears in eyes, but she held it back. "Emily, I didn't mean that. I couldn't help it..." Leo realized that he was impulsive and hurried to explain. He did not blame her for slapping her, because he was sorry for Emily. However, Emily did not give him a chance to explain. "You couldn't help it? You're so funny. If I choose a random man to sleep with, can I say I can't help it?" "Leo, you just think I'm stupid and used me from the beginning, you don't respect me. If you do not respect me, I will keep away from you, and please do not appear in front of me again." Emily turned and left angrily, but Leo stopped her. Emily had drunk too much, and was now angry. Leo was worried about her if she drunk with her friends again. "I was wrong. You can beat me or scold me. Now you must go home." Leo insisted and looked serious. "Leo, stop that now, what right do you have to order me to go home? I am free and unfettered, and nobody's accessory. Why should I listen to you?" Emily said sarcastically, in her view, at this moment Leo's behavior was a kind of sarcasm to her. He did not like, why he uses her, kissed her, interfered in her private life? "No why, go home first. Let's talk about it tomorrow." Leo's face became dark. He knew he had no right to interfere with Emily's affairs, but at the moment he just couldn't let her go back to drink. He couldn't see her so sad and to punish herself. "Tomorrow? I just said I never want to see you again. How can we see tomorrow? I have nothing to say to you. Please let go of my hand and leave." Emily was stubborn, but it was catalyst for love. "It seems that you don't know my determination. You don't go home? All right, I can only use force." As Leo's voice fell, Emily had been picked up by Leo. "Leo, you..." "I said you can beat me and scold me tomorrow. You must go home now." Leo decisively interrupted Emily's words, he knew what she wanted to say, knew what she was thinking, but at the moment he wanted her to go home safely. "I'm not going home." "Then go to the hotel." "Are you mad?" "Yes." Neither of them had the intention of giving up. But it seemed that Emily was the weak one and had no ability to resist at all. Because Leo had put her on the passenger seat, locked the door and got into the car from the other side. "You must be crazy. Listen, even if you send me home, I will run out. I don't believe you can always keep an eye on me." Emily was in defiance and protest, but she did not know Leo's endurance. Leo knew Emily's temper, and she was also a man of her word. To prevent her from running away again, Leo sent Emily to his own home instead of her home. Fortunately, Emily fell asleep soon in the car. Leo took her home smoothly and sent her to the previous bedroom. A City. While Winnie went to bed, Brian stayed with his two energetic children, and his mood gradually improved. "If not Daenerys was to give birth, I will take you to go skiing in the north." Brian suddenly got that idea, he wanted more opportunities to take Winnie and children to play. "There is indoor skiing. We can go there." Megan answered Daddy. "It's different. Artificial snow and natural snow are different. When it snows in winter, I will take Mommy with you to feel it." Brian had been fond of snow since he was a child. He had been to the north for many times to see snow. He though snow was romantic and beautiful, which was more suitable to experience with his beloved person. "Good, then our family of four can be together again." Megan cheered, walked to Brian and kissed his face to show her happiness. When Winnie woke up, she came over. "There's still a year to go before winter. Why are you so glad now?" "A year is very fast. You said people need hope, and skiing is my hope. I will learn it this year.” Megan didn’t quite understand Mommy’s words, but she was looking forward to skiing from now. “You are so smart and know many things.” Winnie said with a smile. “Did you sleep well?” Sitting on the ground, Brian raised his head and asked Winnie in a low, gentle voice. “Yes, if you are sleepy, I will take care of the children and you can sleep for a while.” In order to stay up last night, they did not sleep well, Brian was no exception. So Winnie wanted Brian to sleep, too. “I won’t sleep. Supper will be brought up in a moment. I’ll sleep after supper.” Brian patted the position next to him and motioned Winnie to sit down. “You are not going back tonight?” Winnie asked. She felt sorry for the Bennet family that Brian spent New Year outside with her. “Of course, don’t worry. I can take care of it.” Brian said firmly, if he could not take care of it, he could not stay here at ease. “How about your Dad? You can’t let him be in the suburbs alone during New Year.” Winnie had many people to worry about, she felt that Brian should not stay. “Don’t worry, he knows I come here with Luke. And he is with my Grandpa.” “Why is it difficult to sleep with you for a night? I don’t want to have a nightmare in New Year.” Brian knew that Winnie was looking for all kinds of reasons to drive him away, but he would not change his decision. “Do you have nightmares again?” Winnie sat down and asked anxiously. “Yes, I woke up by it, but I was not particularly afraid, because I was pushed away by a woman in the dream.” Brian said in a low voice, remembering the figure in the dream. “A woman? Who?” Winnie continued to ask, maybe it was not a dream, but his memory. Kevin had said Brian lost a part of his memory. “I didn’t see her clearly, I just saw her back.” “But I felt particularly familiar about it. I felt I have seen it before.” As he said that, Brian thought about it. The more he thought about it, the more he felt deja vu. But he couldn’t remember it. “Back of a woman?” Winnie repeated and suddenly thought of the picture of Brian’s mobile phone. “Didn’t you say there was a picture of a woman’s back in your phone? Could it be that?” Winnie was not sure. Although she hadn’t seen the picture, she felt that Brian’s dream and the picture seemed to match. Brian was stunned and it reminded him of the picture. They looked similar. He had not seen the picture for a long time. He did not remember what color the woman was in and whether it matched the woman in his dream. Brian had been silent. Megan came and interrupted his train of thought. “Daddy, where is the villa Mommy said?” Megan was curious. “Oh, it’s... “That’s great Grandpa’s house, and that’s the villa.” As Brian was about to speak, Winnie stopped him.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 358 A CONVERSATION BETWEEN A FATHER AND HIS SON

Winnie knew the character of Megan, she would ask a lot of questions, but there were so many stories about the hilltop villa, it’d better not to let her know. “Oh, it’s my great grandpa. Daddy, I haven’t said happy new year to him yet, can I call him now?” Megan said. “But...” Before Brian could finish his words, she was interrupted again. “Megan, use mom’s mobile phone to send a message to Great Grandpa. If you call him, he will know Daddy and brother are here.” Winnie handed the phone to Megan. She was afraid that it would cause unnecessary troubles if Megan said too much. Megan took over the phone and texted Great Grandpa. Brian looked to Winnie. “Winwin, why are you so cautious?” “I am not, I just don’t want to cause unnecessary trouble to others. Since my parents died, I have been living in trouble every day. I always caused all kinds of trouble, so I don’t want that happen again.” Indeed, as Winnie said, she was always afraid of giving trouble to others, so she had to be careful in everything. “Winwin, we’ve known each other for a long time. All I know is that your parents died in a car accident. I don’t understand why you owe a lot of money after a car accident. Can you talk to me?” Brian wanted Winnie to tell him everything, so that she could get over her grief. Winnie thought for a moment and felt it was not a shady thing, so it was ok to say that. "The debt is due to... Just as Winnie was about to speak, the doorbell rang. "Let's talk another day. Maybe it's dinner." Winnie got up to open the door and did not talk about it. The old house of the Bennet family in B City. After dinner, Rufus and Thomas sat in the living room with their father watching TV. Then Thomas was bored and went out to play cards with his wife, leaving only Rufus and Felix in the living room. At this time, Felix got a text. He inadvertently took a look at it and found it was from Winnie. "Hello, Great Grandpa, I am Megan. It is the beginning of the New Year, I wish you health and happiness in the new year. Mommy wishes you a happy New Year too and she said that she thanked you for your help and care over the past year. Great Grandpa, I love you." Seeing this message, Felix was very warm in heart and felt moved. "Megan is adorable, she wishes me a happy new year." Felix said. "It was her mommy who taught her." Rufus was secretly happy in the moment of hearing his father praised Megan. He was proud of her. "Yes, she is sensible and clever, brave and tough, just like her mother." "Winnie is a good girl, committed and responsible, but she was born to the wrong family." Felix said with pity. She was the perfect candidate for the Bennet family, but she did not have a rich family "Yes, she is good, especially in the job and the education of the children. She taught Megan and Luke well." Rufus said. Actually, Felix thought Winnie was good, but he was stereotype and no one could change that. When it came to Winnie's excellence, Felix agreed. What he always paid attention to was her ability and wanted to find a special outstanding point to make up for her deficiency. "Yes, she is very good at work. She has High EQ and high IQ. Alas.....Don't talk about her, or I will feel it hard." Felix changed the topic, because Winnie was not suitable for the mistress of the Bennet family, but he felt it was a pity to give up on her. "Rufus, you are more than sixty years old. And you are one year older now, and your days ahead are getting harder and harder. Stella can't watch over you every day since she is abroad. Even if Brian moves back to live with you, most of his energy is on his work and he has no time to take care of you." "You can marry a woman, so that you can look after each other, and the children can rest assured." Felix had been thinking about this matter, but he did not know if Rufus would agree. "I can take care of myself and I'm used to being alone for so many years. I don't want others to bother me." Rufus refused directly. For all these years, he had been atoning with a sorry heart. If he could think it through, if he could let it go, he wouldn't have been single for so many years. "Can't you get over Isobel?" Felix became suddenly serious. The only reason for Rufus to refuse was Isobel. "Dad, I'm over sixty years old, and I can manage my own affairs. My relationship with Brian has just improved, and I don't want to ruin it." Rufus did not want to mention Isobel to his father and did not want to speak of those past events. "Can't you face reality? After all these years the atonement must have ended. Besides, it was not all your fault. If Isobel has not pestered you, it would not have ended like that." Felix was inexplicably angry. His son tortured himself for so many years but he did not intend to stop that, he was worried about that. He was in his nineties, and he might die one day, but how could he rest in peace if his son went on like that? "Don't talk about that, Dad. I have my own ideas. As I explained to you, Isobel was not at fault. She was also a victim. You'd better not say anything about her." Rufus's tone was low, because his father was old, no matter how father vilified Isobel, he could not contradict his father. "You always avoid it. If you feel you owe Isobel, why don't you find Isobel and apologize to her? If she is really as good a woman as you say she is, I am sure she will forgive you." "But if she appeared, Brian and Stella would not accept her. Take care of it." Felix agreed Rufus to meet Isobel, after all, his son had been lonely for years, and whoever Rufus was with, it had no impact on the Bennet Group. But Brian might not agree. "Dad, it's too late. I can't find her." If he heard these words 20 years ago, he might have been so excited that he could not sleep. But now it didn't make any sense. The pain that everyone involved should bear had already been borne. The apology was insignificant, which could not make up for the hurt that everyone had suffered. Felix fell into silence, in those days he participated in this matter. If he had not, would it be different? But in that situation, it was the best thing he could do for the bigger picture. But to his surprise, Brian's mother would commit suicide by jumping off a building, and Rufus unexpectedly gave up everything, allowed the children to hate him, and he only chose a quiet life. "I can send someone to find her, as long as she is alive, she will be found." Felix felt said that his son was alone at his old age. "No need. Brian and Stella can't accept it. Dad, don't worry about me. I am happy that Brian can return to the suburbs. I'll be content if he live with me till I am dead." Rufus did not reveal Isobel. Although his father was compromised, but he might be cruel to her when he saw Isobel. To make Isobel could have a peaceful life, he chose to conceal it. Once Isobel was exposed, all things could not be concealed. And the relationship between Brian and Winnie would change. Although they had children, but if he concealed it, the Chamber family could have a quiet life. "Alas....." Felix sighed. He was worried about it. "Dad, are you really going to let Wendy marry Brian?" After a short silence, Rufus asked. He felt that Wendy was not worthy of Brian, and did not have the temperament to be the hostess of the Bennet family. If he married Wendy, the two children would suffer. "I basically gave up Wendy and I have asked Brian to go on a new blind date." Felix had not told anyone about that for fear of spreading to the ears of Wendy, and Wendy would make mischief. "Blind date? Brian agrees?" Rufus felt indescribable. Who would Brian accept the blind date? Could he give up on Wendy? If he could, why did not choose Winnie? "He accepted the blind date and I agreed Winnie and Megan to come to our home for the New year." Hearing that, Rufus understood what it meant, it was an exchange of interests. "But Winnie won't come." In other words, Brian was willing to jump into his grandfather's trap. "Yes, she is sensible and she did not come." Felix knew that even if he did not call Winnie, she would not come. Winnie was more reserved in this respect than Wendy. "What does Brian think? If he agreed to have a blind date, it means that he will separate with Wendy. Can he give up Wendy now?" Rufus was confused. "He has to. What is Wendy? She doesn't have anything, even the morals. She thinks her father's company can support her, but it doesn't seem so to me." Speaking of Wendy, Felix's was angry. Thinking of what Wendy had done, he hated her even more.

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 359 DON'T WANT TO HELP

Rufus knew that his father's opinion was unshakable, but he still had a glimmer of hope. "Dad, do you have to find someone match to Brian? Since Wendy is not suitable, didn't you consider Winnie?" Felix was silent for a moment. He had been considering Winnie, but she had two fatal weaknesses. "There's nothing to consider about her. She has not a rich family but a child. It will be disgrace for the Bennet family. For the sake of Luke, I talked with her and asked her to be Brian's mistress, but she refused. That is my bottom line. It's not my fault if she doesn't accept it." "Kids aren't the problem, kids are..." Rufus almost told the identity of Megan, but he stopped in time. He did not know what Brian's plan was. If he said it out, it might destroy Brian's plan. "What?" Felix looked at Rufus, puzzled. "Nothing. I wanted to say they are sensible and obedient." Rufus was perfunctory. "Brian's blind date is good in every regard and her family background is much better than Wendy's. Brian said the time is too short, and he will get to know her more after the new year." Felix was very satisfied with Brian's blind date, in his opinion, any woman was more educated than Wendy. "What about Wendy? They seem to be still together. Wendy said she would come over to see you tomorrow." Rufus was worried. The present situation was more and more chaotic, more and more complex. Brian did not give a commitment to Winnie and still have affairs with Wendy, now came a blind date. Could Brian really cope with it? "No, I don't want to see her. She just talks nonsense and I don't like to hear it. Tomorrow I'm going to visit an old friend in the nursing home and drop in for a few days. Let her come if she likes to come." Felix hated Wendy to a certain extent and would rather go out than see Wendy. Every time he saw Wendy, his blood pressure would get higher. Rufus was silent. It seemed that he needed to have a talk with Brian about this matter. He should not let so many women feel sad for him, and should not mess up with so many women. It was not wrong and he would be blamed. And this kind of disorderly situation was more unfavorable to the two children. He should stop that. The next morning, Leo and Emily woke up in the same bed in the same room. Leo didn't think much of the situation because they hadn't done anything. Emily opened her eyes and saw a hazy scene before her eyes. Even Leo's face was hazy. Unsure, she reached out and touched Leo's face. She sat up after making sure it was real. She lowered her head and found she was dressed, and then she gave a bitter smile. It seemed that she was not attractive enough and yesterday's kiss was really in vain. "I should go home. Thank you for the bed." Emily said. "Wait..." Leo stopped Emily and then sat up. "Can you do me a favor?" "What is it? Who are you going to cheat when Winwin is not here?" Emily's first reaction was that Leo asked her to help cheat, and she was right. "Lie to my parents. They don't know I have broken up with you yet and asked me to take you home. I don't want to upset them during New Year, so I ask you for help." Leo was glad he didn't tell his parents, otherwise he wouldn't have had an excuse to ask for help. "I can't help you with that. My parents know we have broken up and they're disappointed in you. I've been told I can't have anything to do with you. They'll know if I go to your home. And your parents may call them, and it will be awkward." "I am sorry, Leo, you'd better tell the truth to your parents." Emily knew that she was only used to help cheat people. But she didn't want to help anyone except Winnie. Emily lifted the quilt and got out of bed. Leo was worried and got out of bed too. "Emily, I will tell my parents as soon as possible, but I can't say it now. Help me please. I'll go to your home and explain to your parents. I won't let them embarrassed." Leo assured. Actually his parents did not urge him to take Emily back, and he just wanted to find more opportunities to be with her. He did not know what was wrong with him, and he always felt he did not want to lose Emily. "Well, talk to my parents, and I'll help you if they agree. Leo, I can't help you anymore after new year, or I can't explain to my blind date." With these words, Emily bypassed Leo and went to the bathroom. She finally agreed to Leo's request, and did not want to upset him. Leo stood in the bedroom, thinking of Emily's last words, which made him panic. She was serious, did she really care about her blind date? A City. Because he slept in the same bed with Winnie, Brian slept soundly that night. Most importantly, he did not have nightmares. But he did not wake up naturally, but was woken up by Winnie. "What time is it?" It was already very light in the room, and Brian thought it must be late. "It's almost eleven o'clock. You should get up." Winnie stood by the bed looking at Brian with bleary eyes. In fact, it was a low-key happiness for her. There were not many opportunities for her to wake up her lover in person. "Have I slept so long? Where are the children? Are they awake?" Brian didn't realize it was already noon. It might be the longest sleep he had in a year. "No." Only Winnie had woken up early, and she had worked for a while. The other three slept on. "Then I'll sleep for another while." Brian did not close his eyes, did not cover up the quilt, but reached out and took Winnie. He pulled Winnie down on the bed and hugged her in his arms. "You sleep with me." "It's noon and you're still sleeping. Besides, you should take Luke back." Winnie blushed shyly, and her heart beat was faster. Like a little girl who first tasted love, she was shy. "Not today." Brian buried his head in Winnie's neck, breathing her fragrance greedily, and even his voice was very hazy. "Why, Chairman will look for you." Winnie was puzzled. She was afraid that Brian would annoy the chairman, so she was worried. "My grandfather went to a nursing home to see a friend today and won't be back for another two days, so I don't have to go back. Luke and I can stay for two more days." Brian received the news before he went to bed last night. It was his father who sent him a message. He just didn't tell Winnie. "Why didn't you tell me? I've been worried." "But won't you go to Wendy's home?" Winnie was still so worried. "I'll take care of it. Don't worry. Stay with me for two days, don't think anything. Sleep now." Brian put both of them in the quilt. Just when he was about to kiss Winnie, the voices of two children appeared and poured his passion out. "Daddy, Mommy, we're hungry." The children walked to the bed, wondering what Daddy and Mommy were doing. As they lifted the quilt, Daddy and Mommy appeared in front of them in embarrassment. "Are Daddy and Mommy kissing? Have we bothered you?" Megan deliberately asked with a wry smile. "Nonsense. We are getting up." Winnie pushed Brian away and got up. "Get up. My children are hungry. I will ask someone to send breakfast." Brian gave a smile. Although Winnie stood with her back to him, he could still feel her shyness. B City. Wendy got up early, dressed up and prepared gifts. And then she drove to the Bennet's. She had planned to ask Brian to come and pick her up, but she couldn't get through his phone. She had to go alone and curry favor with Felix, so that he would allow them to get married as soon as possible. But Felix was not there and Rufus had returned to the suburbs. Only Thomas and his wife were there. And his wife was to play cards, so Wendy was extremely embarrassed. "Since you are here, have lunch with me, I am bored alone." Thomas said, so Wendy could only stay, but she had nothing to talk to him. Wendy was embarrassed. Rufus had ordered the kitchen to prepare lunch, and Wendy could not refuse. So she sat down and was to leave after lunch. "Wendy, when do you plan to get married with Brian? Get married as soon as possible." Thomas seemed to be concerned about Wendy, but he had his plan. This topic really caught the attention of Wendy, which was her worry right now. "I don't know, Luke doesn't agree and I can't do anything about it." Wendy knew the problem was on the children and Felix, but she could not say bad words about Felix in face of Thomas. She could only say it was Luke's problem. "Luke is a child, he had accepted Wendy, so he will accept you too. He is not a problem." What Thomas wanted to hear was not the child, but Winnie. "Uncle Thomas, actually I don't think the main reason is the child. I think Winnie must have played a big role behind it." She thought Thomas must have known the relationship between Winnie and Brian, otherwise he would not have said that. She felt nothing wrong to be honest with Thomas, maybe he could give advice to her. "Then bring Luke back and keep him out of touch with Winnie. If Winnie has no purpose, how could she have been raising Brian's child?"

Hey, My Twins Babies

CHAPTER 360 BACK TO B CITY

While speaking, Thomas had been staring at Wendy, hoping that she could give him a surprising answer. Since he met Penny, he had doubts, but Richard did not tell him the answer and only told him that he had not finished the investigation. Thomas always felt that Winnie was a mysterious figure and an important person, but he could not find her mystery. "I think so, but I can't bring the child back, because grandpa agreed Luke to live with Winnie. I could do nothing about it. Can you help me? I can only get married with Brian if Winnie leaves the children and Brian." Wendy was anxious, but she could not tell him the relationship between Luke and Winnie, otherwise there was no room for turning. No matter who could help her to get rid of Winnie, it was her most grateful person. "Nobody can change what Grandpa has decided, and you've screwed it up from the very beginning. You won't have so much trouble if you had accepted the child." "There's nothing I can do about it. After all, I don't know what's going on between you.” Getting no useful information, Thomas would not give advice. “There is nothing between us, but Winnie has been seducing Brian. She uses children to get Brian’s heart. That’s why I can’t get married. I don’t know how to deal with her.” Wendy still did not tell the real reason that Winnie refused to leave. “It is because of money. You don’t care about money. Just give her some money and let her go.” Thomas gave a perfunctory advice. Thomas felt that he had not gain substantive information, and doubted how much Wendy knew. She looked silly, perhaps she could not find the mystery of Winnie. “I’ve already offered that, but she refused, and it didn’t work I threatened her. I’m at my wit’s end.” Wendy was helpless. She had tired many ways, but none of it worked. “Why is Winnie so persistent? What does she want if she doesn’t want money?” Thomas said thoughtfully, and he did not understand what Winnie was insisting on. Thomas continued to analyze. “Winnie is a divorced woman with a child. Even if she is capable, the Bennet family would not accept her and she knows that. Wendy, you must find out why Winnie stayed with Brian so that you can solve the problem.” Thomas induced Wendy, and the reason he asked Wendy to stay for dinner was not so simple. “Alas.....For what? For the children. If it hadn’t been for those two...” Wendy suddenly realized that it was wrong and stopped quickly. And she was frightened by herself. “For the children? Luke?” Thomas saw the tension of Wendy, which was the same as Penny. It seemed that Wendy knew the true but she refuse to say it. “No...I mean, she is using the child for money and status. When she catches the heart of the child, she catches the heart of Brian. Even if Brian can’t give her a marriage, she can look down on others by being a mistress.” “The problem is that she is dominating before I get married.” Wendy hastened to explain, which made Thomas suspect. “Who did you refer to?” Thomas was not clam now. He had been suspecting for a long time and seeking for the truth, but the truth was so close. “I mean Winnie is using two children, her daughter and Luke.” After that, Wendy looked at Thomas with panic, wondering whether Thomas believed her words. But the moment she looked at Thomas, she moved away her sight in a panic. Thomas’s eyes were too sharp and she was afraid of being seen through. Thomas fell into silence. Looking at Wendy who was panic, he knew that his intuition was right. But Wendy swallowed what she had said. No matter how he asked, she would not say it again. Was the problem really on the two children? When Thomas was silent, Wendy’s mobile phone suddenly rang, which saved Wendy. She used the phone call as an excuse to leave. If she went on talking, the truth would come out. Out of the old house, Wendy still got cold sweat. She had not finished what she wanted to do, but almost blew the cat out of the bag. It seemed that she should be more careful in words and deeds, otherwise one day it would ruin everything. Brian and his family enjoyed another day of fun, but the fun soon ended. After dinner, Daenerys called and said she had pain in belly and asked Winnie to go back as soon as possible. After receiving the phone call, Winnie contacted matron. After telling her aunt, she went back to B city with Brian. At this time, Winnie thanked Brian for being able to fly the plane independently, so as to reduce the return trip time to a minimum. The plane landed in the hospital top floor, Albert and several people had been waiting there. After landing, Winnie gave the children to Albert and went straight to obstetrics and gynecology with Brian. Daenerys was in the VIP room and ready for delivery. She walked back and forth in pain. “You’re back.” Seeing Winnie, Daenerys was excited, but because of the pain, her face had become twisted. “Does it hurt? Hold on, everyone will experience it.” Winnie came to Daenerys, at this time, she could understand Daenerys’ pain. “It hurts, I don’t want to have a child if I have known it is so hurtful.” Daenerys felt so painful that she grasped Winnie’s hand, with her eyes tightly closed. Kevin felt distressed seeing that his wife was tortured by the pain. “No one expects it would hurt so much, but I’m sure you can handle it.” Winnie continued to comfort her and Kevin said this time. “Honey, if it is too painful, have caesarean section.” Kevin could not bear to see his wife suffering from pain, so he put forward this idea. "No, I want to give birth to it." Daenerys endured the pain and refused. "It's not up to you. What did the doctor say?" Winnie asked Kevin. "The doctor said her indicators are normal and she can have a normal birth according to the test results, but it is so painful. You can see how much pain she is in." Kevin was worried. Seeing that, Winnie gave a smile and envied that Daenerys had a good husband. "You are a doctor. Every woman is in pain when she gives birth. Since the doctor said everything is all right, she can have a normal birth. Although it's hard now, she'll be fine after the delivery." "The doctor said so, and my Mom said so, but he wants caesarean section." "Honey, you don't have to worry, I can make it." Daenerys comforted Kevin, she knew Kevin loved her. But since she was eligible for a normal birth, she must have a normal birth. No sooner had Daenerys finished speaking than the pain came back to her. The doctor, who had been standing by, saw the situation and came over. "Go to the examination room and check again. The frequency of her pains showed that she will give birth soon." After the doctor finished speaking, the nurse came and helped Daenerys to the examination room. The group followed and waited outside the examination room. Kevin outside was worried, looking inside at the door. He saw nothing, but he was so worried. "It'll be all right, don't worry." Brian went to Kevin and lightly patted his shoulder. It was the first time for Brian to see Kevin so unsettled in all the years since they had known each other, and there were tears in his eyes. It showed Kevin was really worried about his wife. "I know she is going to be fine, I've got the best doctor, but I'm worried." With that, he could not help but shed tears. At the thought that a woman of no blood to him who was suffering inhumanly for his sake, he could not control his emotions. At this time, Brian did not know how to comfort him, because it was his first time to experience that. He could not understand Kevin's worry, so he could only comfort him by patting his shoulder. It was not long before Daenerys was pushed out and headed straight for the delivery room. "It will be delivered very soon. Doctor Burns came in with sterile clothes to accompany her to deliver the baby." After being informed, Kevin hurried to keep up with the nurse's footsteps. At this time, Winnie came out of the examination room. "Let's wait outside the delivery room." Kevin's parents, Daenerys' parents, Winnie and Brian went to the door of the delivery room. A few people in addition to Brian could not calm down and were worried about Daenerys. At this time, Brian put his attention on Winnie, imagining what happened when she gave birth. "Sit down and rest. You must be tired from your long flight." Winnie walked to Brian and whispered. "I'm fine, you sit down and rest." Brian took Winnie's hand and sat her down. "Was it like this when you gave birth to Luke and Megan?" Brian sat down and wanted to know what Winnie was going through back then. Hearing that, Winnie was surprised. She looked at Brian for a moment and gave a bitter smile. "I'm worse off than Daenerys. It was two children I gave birth. I had been suffering for a long time and I wasn't in such good health that I was exhausted by the time I got to the delivery room." Winnie recalled her experience, which could not be expressed in words. The physical pain was bearable, but it was the helplessness and fear of the future that frightened her most.